Auto Light Dimming Regulation To Go

STEWART PLANS ANNULMENT OF PRESENT LAW

N.B. Public Works Minister Favors Standard Candlepower

SEES DELEGATION

Driving Licenses Discussed With Members of Automobile Association

FREDERICTON, March 18.—The regulation calling for the dimming of automobile lights in this province will be annulled at the present session of the legislature and a system calling for a standard candlepower light with proper focus introduced if the present intentions of Hon. D. A. Stewart, Minister of Public Works, are put into effect.

In an interview here this morning following a conference with representatives of the New Brunswick Automobile Association last night, Hon. Mr. Stewart said that the question of dimming was being brought forward "with a view to say," Hon. Mr. Stewart said, "that I am in hearty agreement with such a move, as it will tend to eliminate considerable danger on our roads. The glare produced by most of the lights as autos now is unsafe, and unless something unforeseen arises, the practice of dimming will be done away with. Just what standard of light will be introduced, of course, had not been decided yet. That remains to be worked out."

DRIVING LICENSES

Appointment of an examiner to handle the issuing of driving licenses is favored by Hon. Mr. Stewart. He declares that if such a regulation is introduced it probably would not apply to people now operating cars but that it would affect only new applicants. The Public Works Minister expressed himself as in favor of the principle underlying such a regulation. Possibly, a small fee could be charged to cover the expense of such an examiner who in addition to these duties would inspect all lighting on cars as well. Hon. Mr. Stewart says, "The interests are only in a tentative stage yet, but he declares the department is desirous of taking a forward step in this regard."

GASOLINE TAX

The question of a gasoline tax was discussed briefly. No announcement is made regarding the proposed increase. It is learned, however, that this tax will be introduced at the coming session. There have been rumors that the amendment tax would be increased but Hon. J. A. Leger, provincial secretary, treasurer, says the government has not discussed with the Government. A delegation from Madawaska county waited on Hon. Mr. Stewart yesterday, protesting against changing the western terminus of a road now being built from Campbellton by the Government. The delegation said it had heard that the terminus had been switched from St. Leonard to E. L. Johnston. Mr. Stewart informed the delegation that their fears were unfounded. The auto association delegation consisted of P. Regan, K. G. president, J. A. Tilton, Hon. R. W. Wigmore, and C. T. Green. They returned to Saint John this morning.

URGES GOVT. LIVE WITHIN ITS MEANS

Public Accounts Committee Explores Over-Expenditures Last Year

Times-Star Staff Correspondent FREDERICTON, N. B., March 18.—Deploping the over-expenditures in public accounts last year over the amounts authorized by the legislature, the public accounts committee adopted a resolution at its meeting this morning urging the government to live within its means. B. Frank Smith was in the chair. Consideration of the accounts took up the time of the meeting. W. A. Loudoun, Comptroller General, and Mr. G. G. Melvin, Chief Medical Health Officer, were before the committee, in regard to various items. There was a full attendance of the committee. The standing rules committee met and organized this morning. Hon. E. A. Reilly, Moncton, was elected chairman.

Divorce Fee In Russia Is Fifty Cents

MOSCOW, Russia, March 18.—Beginning today the fee for the marriage ceremony in Soviet Russia has been decreased by official ruling from 15 minutes to nine minutes. Divorces now are to require 12 minutes, instead of 32, as formerly.

This is made possible by the substitution of a card index system for the old cumbersome books in which the names of persons married or divorced were entered. No charge is made for either ceremony, but if either party to a wedding or divorce desires an attested certificate, a fee of 50 cents is charged.

LABOR HAS MANY RECOMMENDATIONS

N. B. Federation Takes up Several Matters With Premier

By Staff Correspondent FREDERICTON, N. B., March 18.—A recommendation that in the matter of the proposed mothers' allowance the administration board consist of five members, two of whom shall be women, was laid before the government meeting here this morning by a large delegation from the N. B. Federation of Labor. Other recommendations include appointment of a provincial inspector and examining board for theatre operators, need for the establishment of old age pensions, public ownership of public utilities, a special sales tax on motor order houses, that scribbles be added to the list of free school books, opposition to any increase in the amusement tax, endorsement of a bill respecting industrial disputes, complete re-drafting of the Factories Act, and representation of labor on all public bodies.

AMUSEMENT TAX

Respecting the reported increase in the amusement tax, the delegates pointed out when this tax was first placed on amusements it was the general opinion it was done as a war measure and that the people were looking for abolition of this rather than any increase. The committee consisted of J. E. Tighe, G. R. Melvin, Fred Henderson, P. S. A. McMullin, C. E. Stevens, John McKinnon and Joseph Monteth, all of Saint John; J. S. Martin, Chatham; J. O'Neill, Moncton; G. L. Lister, Madam; Geo. Crawford, Fredericton; L. J. Coughlin, Ottawa; and W. L. Best, Ottawa; Geo. Anderson, Moncton; Edward McDonald, Fredericton.

PREMIER REPLIES

Replying to the delegation, Premier Baxter said the government was moving with respect to better fire protection for theatre operating booths, but that he personally did not see much point in creating a licensed class. The Premier declared the Government had no amendments under consideration, but if any were proposed labor would be given ample time to consider them. Regarding free scribbles, he said he would take this up with the chief superintendent of education. He said there would be revision of the Factory Act and asked for detailed suggestions.

NO HOPE OF REDUCTION

Respecting the amusement tax, the Premier informed the delegates that the government could not hold out any hope of reduction in this or in any other department of the public service. The province, he said, had a heavy bonded debt and every addition to it lessened the revenue available for public service. The government was earnestly considering every step in the way of raising revenue.

CHAMBERLAIN LIKELY TO QUIT AS RESULT OF GENEVA FIASCO

British United Press. LONDON, March 18.—Foreign Secretary Chamberlain, who got the ribbon of the Garter, the highest honor a British subject can get, after the Locarno treaties, is likely to resign as a result of the Geneva fiasco. That is the opinion in best informed circles here. It was expected that he will face parliamentary criticism next Wednesday and remain in office a few weeks in order to save his own face and that of the government. Already the controlling influences in the foreign office are working for the appointment of Viscount Cecil to take Chamberlain's place. Other candidates are the Earl of Birkenhead, Secretary of State for India, who violently attacked Chamberlain in a cabinet meeting a fortnight ago for his desire to enlarge the League Council and Colonial Secretary L. S. Amery.

URGUE 9-HOUR DAY FOR LUMBERMEN

N. B. Labor Federation Passes Resolution For Presentation to Govt.

By Staff Correspondent FREDERICTON, March 18.—That the government enact legislation at this session or by order-in-council that the maximum number of hours to be worked in the lumbering industry in the province shall not be more than nine hours a day formed the subject of a resolution passed at a meeting of the Labor Federation this morning. The preamble declares that men in this industry are forced to work 10 and more hours a day and that it was against the principles of humanity and decency to take advantage and force them to work such hours. The resolution asks the Minister of Health and Labor to hold a thorough investigation into the source and wages in this industry. Whereas, the Birkhead Council of the One Big Union with respect to the Minto trouble, was passed as follows: "Whereas, the Birkhead Council of the government has appointed a commission of inquiry into the industrial conditions involving the employees of the Minto Coal Company; and Whereas, the attitude of the government in this regard is, in the opinion of this Federation, deserving of commendation; and Whereas, the One Big Union advocates have apparently been active in the situation and have apparently been recognized by the inquiry commission in the presentation of the case for the men; therefore be it Resolved, that this Federation of Labor urge on the executive council of the government that the fullest possible support and encouragement be given its commission, affording all possible opportunity to a proper and complete presentation of the case for the men by properly accredited representatives of the men to the exclusion of the One Big Union; and be it Further Resolved, that this Federation lend its full moral support to the employers involved, to the end that proper industrial conditions may be established.

NEGOTIATING TERMS TO END RIFFIAN WAR

PARIS, March 18.—For the first time since France and Spain went to war with the Rifis, actual peace negotiations are now in progress, it is learned from highest sources here.

Abd-el-Krim is reported to have sent an emissary to Rabat early in March and the proposals he carried were considered interesting enough by the French Representative Steeg, to warrant an eight-day meeting. The Krim representative has reported to his chief, and is expected to return to Rabat within the next few days. He will give Krim's answer to Steeg, who will come to Paris the first of next week and acquaint the French Government with the Moroccan situation.

In view of the Government's earlier statement that it would not negotiate a separate peace with Krim, it is taken for granted here that the French envoy spoke in the name of the Allies in his recent discussion.

POLICE INVESTIGATE 'BOMBING' AT DINNERS ATTENDED BY THE PRINCE OF WALES AND PREMIER

LONDON, March 18.—There was mystery today as to what underlies the "bombing" of two different St. Patrick Day dinners last night, one attended by the Prince of Wales, and the other by Premier Baldwin. The police are investigating whether they were merely mischievous pranks or the manifestation of anger by persons with grievances or constituted a political protest of acquiescence against their countrymen hobnobbing with British royalty and British ministers.

CHINA AGREES TO PEIHO ULTIMATUM

Will Maintain Free Communication Between Peking and Sea

British United Press. PEKING, March 18.—China has agreed to comply with the foreign powers' ultimatum, demanding opening of the Peiho river to navigation, the American Legation announced today. Nationalist commanders of the Taku Ports agreed to the terms and the Foreign Office sent a note to the powers acquiescing to the principle that free communication between Peking and the sea must be maintained. The crisis it was announced that the Legation is past and therefore it is not likely that there will be a display of foreign naval force.

GERMAN SCIENTIST HAS DEVICE TO DETECT SCOURGE IN EARLY STAGES

LONDON, March 18.—What is claimed to be a distinct scientific advance in cancer research was announced at the meeting of the Liverpool cancer hospital yesterday by Dr. Mitchell. Dr. Mitchell says that a German scientist, whose name he won't disclose, has made the discovery by means of cleverly devised apparatus which enables him, through the examination of a drop of blood, to detect cancer in the early stages of any organ of the body. Further, by similar blood tests six months after an operation, he is able to determine whether or not the operation has been successful in removing all traces of cancer from the affected organs.

VLADIMIR, Russia, March 18.—Massed pugilistic combats, in which whole villages are arrayed against each other, have been taken up as a sport in many Russian districts. One village challenges another. Quebec Private Bills Committee Kills Municipal Franchise Privilege

Canadian Press. QUEBEC, Que., March 18.—Married women owning property in Montreal, who were given the municipal vote by the legislative assembly, lost it last night by the decision of the legislative council private bills committee, when the Montreal bill again came up for study last evening. The project of having a photographic identification system was killed by the committee and the same fate befell the project of sending cards to electors which cards would serve to identify them at the polls. The clause to provide that the city clerk of Montreal would sell property for taxes was killed. The sheriff will continue to sell such properties.

MILLION MEN INVOLVED IN UNION CRISIS

Order Effective Tonight Unless Settlement Is Made

WAGES IN DISPUTE

Closing of Factories Would Tie Up Major Industries of Country

By C. T. HALLINAN United Press Staff Correspondent LONDON, March 18.—A nationwide lockout in the engineering trades, involving 1,000,000, will become effective tonight unless the leaders of the unions concerned are successful today in their efforts to persuade the employers to postpone their lockout order.

If the lockout becomes effective it may tie up the major industries of Great Britain, with incalculably disastrous results. The lockout involves seven strong unions which for two years have been trying to obtain an increase in wages amounting to approximately 85 a week. The unions are: Amalgamated Engineering Union, 192,000 members; United Pattern Makers Union, 10,000 members; Electrical Trades Union 15,000 members; Workers' Union 64,000 members; National Union of General and Municipal Workers, 201,000 members; Transport Workers Union 160,000 members; Brass and Metal Mechanics 14,000 members. The union has almost 500,000 members and there are another 500,000 including foundry workers, boiler makers and steel workers, who, while not locked out would be made idle by closure of the various factories and plants.

Stevens, during the progress of the customs investigation this afternoon drew protest from Oscar Gagnon, counsel for the witness. Mr. Bisailon had testified that he had abandoned the liquor business on the 30th of April, 1921. As an official of the customs department his salary had not been higher than $2,500 a year in any of the years following that date up to the time of his dismissal. Mr. Stevens produced a record of deposits made by Mr. Bisailon in the four years 1921 to 1924 inclusive. He asked the witness to explain how it was that, while earning this moderate salary he had been able to deposit $4,951 in 1921, $4,099 in 1922, $7,389 in 1923 and $14,812 in 1924.

It was at this point that Mr. Gagnon intervened. He claimed that the witness should not be required to answer such a question unless he was given access to his own books and records. Mr. Bisailon said the records referred to could be explained quite easily by his books. He said he had no time to examine his books.

OBJECTION REGISTERED.

"I object to this question," Mr. Gagnon said when Mr. Stevens asked for an explanation of the deposits. "You are examining my client on a document which he has not seen and without giving him an opportunity to examine it. You are treating him as an accused person when he is here as a witness."

ONLY WITNESS ON STAND.

Mr. Bisailon was again the only witness on the stand during the afternoon sitting. A letter from him to the Hon. Jacques Dugas, minister of justice, was read by Mr. C. W. Bell, a member of the committee. The letter suggested that "in the interests of the party it would be preferable to discontinue to watch the frontier."

This letter, which was written in April, 1925, was read according to the witness. He admitted that the party to which he referred was the party of which Mr. Bureau was a member. He testified that there had been no interference with the watch along the border because of the letter. The committee adjourned until tomorrow.

MORE POLITICS.

For five hours yesterday the Nova Scotia Legislature discussed the relations of that province with the Dominion and plans whereby a greater measure of justice is to be secured for Nova Scotia as a partner in Confederation.

Premier Rhodes opened yesterday's debate by moving the adoption of the resolution of which he gave notice last week, asking the Legislature to endorse the course of his Government in preparing a memorandum setting forth Nova Scotia's claims and affirming the belief of the people of the province that adequate redress can and must be applied by the Dominion authorities.

The Opposition members—three in number—voted for the Chisholm amendment, and the Conservatives—some forty odd—voted for the Rhodes resolution.

The Opposition members at Fredericton and Charlottetown are more numerous than they are in Halifax, and therefore the temptation may be all the greater to deal with this issue along partisan lines.

This is an issue so vital as to demand treatment far above the plane of narrow partisanship. It should easily be possible to frame a memorandum and to outline a course of action which would meet with the approval of all three Legislatures.

If the governments of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island are well guided in this matter they can improve upon the Nova Scotia procedure and still give the movement the additional driving power resulting from substantial unanimity.

"After all," says the St. Catharines Standard in discussing the civic tax rate, "it is worth thirty-nine mills on the dollar to live in a city like St. Catharines."

Daylight saving is to start on May 2 in both Toronto and Montreal, but in the latter city it will continue two weeks longer in September. Three years ago the Montreal Council refused to extend the practice for an extra fortnight, but business and other organizations persuaded most of the people to keep on with sun time for another two weeks, and so much confusion resulted that the Council this year has agreed to the extension.

Poems That Live

THE BEST. What's the best thing in the world? June-rose, by May-dew impregnated; Sweet south wind, that means no rain; Truth, not cruel to a friend; Pleasure, not in haste to end; Beauty, not self-deck'd and cur'd; Till his pride is over-plain; Light, that never makes you wink; Memory, that gives no pain; Love, when, so, you're loved again. Knowing this, what's the world? Something out of it, I think. —Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

TILLEY DECLARES VENIOT GRAND FALLS TERMS WOULD ACT AS FINANCIAL HALTER

President of Executive Council Tells Legislature Returning of Opposition to Power Averted Putting Public at Mercy of Corporations

MICHAUD OPPOSES PROHIBITION ACT

By JOHN J. DUNLOP, Staff Correspondent of The Times-Star.

FREDERICTON, March 17.—Saint Patrick's Day in the house passed with two speeches on the debate, the first by Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, K. C., president of the executive council, and the other by Hon. J. E. Michaud, former minister without portfolio in the Veniot administration.

The house was addressed when Premier Baxter announced the death of Mrs. Akeley Holmes, wife of the member for Northumberland, and his motion that the house formally express its sympathy was passed in respectful silence. B. Frank Smith, Carleton, will continue the debate tomorrow afternoon.

In his speech Hon. Mr. Tilley attacked the several agreements between the Veniot administration and the International Paper Company, Ltd., the Bangor and Aroostook Railway Company and the Saint John Lumber Co., Portland, Maine, leading up to a proposed development of the Grand Falls by the province of New Brunswick, and declared that had the electorate not turned to Premier Baxter and his associates on Aug. 10 last and this development had been proceeded with, that a financial halter would have been placed around the necks of the people of the province and they would have been left at the mercy of millionaire corporations.

Hon. Mr. Tilley went into the various contracts thoroughly and said that the Bangor and Aroostook and Saint John Lumber Company agreements were two unascertained and unknown claims for damages to be adjusted after the dams and plant had been built at Grand Falls.

Another proposition. "In other words, another Musquash land proposition," said Hon. Mr. Tilley, who went fully into the financial problems before the government, stating in his opinion that this was the most important question facing the people of this province. He strongly condemned the over-expenditure in the department of public works under Hon. Mr. J. Veniot's supervision last year amounting to $458,708 in this department alone, and said it was time to call a halt to such reckless increases in the indebtedness of the province.

Challenges Veniot. During the course of his remarks on prohibition, Hon. Mr. Tilley challenged Hon. Dr. Veniot to say whether he was in favor of prohibition or government control. He declared the opposition leader would not answer that because he was trying to make of prohibition a political football. He said he had always been consistent in his stand for government control. He had been invited by Hon. Dr. Veniot for making a speech before the Rotary Club along these lines recently, accusing him of almost breaking in uttering such statements. He said he would like to ask the opposition leader what kind of discipline he used when in office. Sentiments were expressed by Dr. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Health in the Veniot government; Fred C. Magee, president of the council in the Veniot administration, and W. E. Scully, former Liberal member of the House.

Official Report. FREDERICTON, N. B., March 17.—The House met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Gupill submitted the report of the Contingencies Committee. Mr. McKernan presented a bill to amend an act relating to the town of St. Stephen. Hon. Mr. Leger presented a bill to amend the company's act. Hon. Mr. Reilly presented a bill to authorize the Board of School Trustees of Moncton to issue debentures. Hon. Mr. Richards presented a bill to amend the Marysville incorporation act, also a bill to incorporate St. Anne's Presbyterian church, Fredericton.

Motion of Sympathy. Hon. Mr. Baxter, with the unanimous consent of the House, moved, seconded by Mr. Veniot "this House expresses its sympathy with Mr. Akeley Holmes, member for the county of Northumberland in the distressing loss he has sustained by the death of his wife." Hon. Mr. Stewart asked for leave of absence for Mr. Drott until Tuesday next.

Tilley Speaks. Hon. Mr. Tilley, in continuing the debate on the address, first congratulated the speaker on his elevation to the highest position in the gift of the legislature, who must have felt in his election as a member of the legislature he was following in the footsteps of his respected father, who so well served in this house from 1890 to 1895.

Annual Debt Increase. In 1911 the capital debt of the province was $6,719,978. In 1921 it had grown to over $23,000,000. The increase in population during that period was only 12 per cent, while the increase of debt was 351 per cent. This showed a very serious situation.

Veniot Blamed. If the honorable leader of the opposition wanted to know what turned him out of office this financial question was one of the principal reasons, but not the only one. The honorable gentleman (Veniot) was largely personally responsible for this increase in debt, as would be shown in the accounts of the past year, when in his own department of public works he over-expanded above his own estimates $458,708.20. No wonder the present government found a deficit at the end of the fiscal year upon current account of nearly half a million dollars. To show the seriousness of the province's financial position the increase in interest payments was very striking. In 1917 the interest paid was less than half a million dollars; in 1922 it had grown to $1,412,248. This was a nice request to leave to an incoming government. Was it any wonder that every thinking man said that it was time to call a halt? The present government certainly had grave problems before them, largely due to the wasteful administration of their predecessors.

Grand Falls Situation. In his speech last evening the leader of the Opposition had devoted over an hour of his time to the Grand Falls situation in an endeavor to vindicate the action of his Government in regard to contracts made with the International Paper Company. He trusted he would not weary the House if he discussed in some detail the arrangements.

Water Power Tied Up. In other words this contract which had been referred to by the leader of the opposition, as designed to protect the rights and privileges of the people of New Brunswick, tied the water power of Grand Falls up to the International Paper Company, which company had the right at its option, if certain amount reserved for the Bathurst company, where would the people

Under this contract the Grand Falls Company agreed to sell to the New Brunswick Power Commission all their right, title and interest, water power privileges and franchise at or near Grand Falls for the price of $1,200,000 with interest at 5 1/2 per cent from Nov. 1, 1923, payment to be made when power was first generated at Grand Falls. All taxes and levies payable by the purchaser. The selling company was to deliver the deeds to the National Trust Company to be held in trust pending the fulfilment of agreement and the province to deliver its bonds to the same trust company.

Another Clause. There was another clause in the contract through which holes could be bored from every side. It read as follows: "The terms of such contract, the provisions for its renewal, the price of the power, and the other provisions of such contract, shall be such as are determined to the satisfaction of the parties hereto."

Power to Get Property. The International Paper Company was to co-operate with the Power Commission, but at the latter's expense, in acquiring property, franchise and flowage rights in the State of Maine and New Brunswick. The Power Commission were given power under this agreement to generate power at or near Grand Falls. Hon. Mr. Tilley, this clause was proof of the incorrectness of the statement made by his honorable friend yesterday when he said that no flowage or other rights in the State of Maine were involved in the contract.

Important Paragraph. He wanted to draw the attention of members to that important paragraph. Here was an undertaking on behalf of the International Paper Company to take from ten to fourteen thousand horsepower, but the International Paper Company did not take more than this because the contract provided only for the purchase of the same. What security did the province have that the company would take the power. No wonder the premier and members of the government sought this contract should be annulled. There was also Overworked? Avoid Constipation. Long hours at the desk, shortened hours of sleep, hasty and irregular meals, lack of exercise—these sap the vitality of the strongest body. At such times the danger of constipation is more common and more serious. Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach, and is not absorbed by the body. Medical authorities approve Nujol because it is so safe, so gentle and so natural in its action. Nujol makes up for a deficiency of natural lubricant in its intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular bowel movements without gripping. Nujol can be taken for any length of time without ill effects. Unlike laxatives, it does not form a habit, and can be discontinued at any time. Ask your druggist for Nujol.

damages to mill and appurtenances, piling grounds, holding grounds, piers, etc., etc. REASON FOR REJECTION. Was it any wonder, he would repeat, that this government, as soon as it came into power, refused to carry out the terms of a contract of such a nature, entered into by a government who were trying to use such contract under the camouflage of cheap power for the people, when at the same time it had tied itself up under the contract with the International Paper Company, who would have practically exclusive control of all the power in Grand Falls should the said company decide to use the same? PREMIER TO TELL TERMS. The terms and conditions of the new contract would be presented to the House by the honorable Premier when he was prepared to do so, and he felt that when the people of New Brunswick understood and appreciated the terms they would acclaim the Premier as a real statesman. By cancelling the old contract and making a new and business-like arrangement a calamity had been avoided and the people of New Brunswick would long remember the action taken by the Premier and this government in safeguarding their rights.

Government Control. The leader of the opposition had devoted some attention to his (Tilley's) stand in regard to government control.

Scully Mentioned. Mr. Scully, of Saint John, was another prominent opposition supporter who expressed his desire for a liquor

In this regard he had at least been consistent. When previously in this House he had voted against the prohibition law as he did not believe it was in the best interests of the province. Then for a time he had kept quiet on the matter to see how the law would work out. He held himself to be as much interested in the cause of temperance as the most ardent prohibitionist.

ASKS VENIOT QUESTION. Unlike some members of the late government he did not try to straddle on both sides of the fence. He would like to ask the leader of the opposition whether he was in favor or not of political capital against the government by encouraging the Temperance Alliance to make additional demands. He (Tilley) had never been afraid to state where he stood, and at the nomination proceedings in Saint John he had made the statement that he believed government control was better for the moral uplift of this country than the present prohibitory act. Some of the members of the previous government had also stated their position clearly, as witness Mr. Magee in the session of 1924, whose remarks might be found at page 128 of the synoptic report.

Advice to All Young Couples Whose Outgo Exactly Equals Their Income—Is There a Business Career for the Widow of 43?—“Miss Seventeen,” Who Must Marry Immediately or Lose Her Sweetheart.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married three years and my wife and I are as happy as any two persons can be. We are both of a gay, pleasure-loving nature and, although we both work and earn good salaries, we have not saved a cent. We live well, we dress well, we go to theatres and restaurants and cabarets. But I am beginning to wonder whether it is wise for us to spend all we make having a good time while we are young or if we should lay up something for the future. ROBERT.

ANSWER: I think, Robert, that any young couple who are earning money and who do not put aside something for a rainy day are not only fools, but dishonest.

They are fools because they deliberately delude themselves into believing that they will always be young, always strong and healthy, always prosperous. Yet they know that the sun does not always shine for anybody. Misfortunes come to all. Sickness comes to all. Age comes to all. To all comes the day when they can no longer earn money and when, unless they have saved up enough to tide them over the evil hour, they must come to want and know the humiliation of dependence.

It is dishonest for men and women who could lay up enough money to support themselves not to do so, because they rob other persons by just that much. They eat their cake and then force the rest of us to divide our bread and butter with them because we cannot let them starve. The prodigals who spend their substance in riotous living always come back in the end to graze their living off the thrifty and industrious, which is a pretty mean, low, hold-up game to play on your family and friends.

A banker once told me that at the end of the first year of marriage of any young couple he could predict with almost absolute accuracy what their future would be. If they had saved up even so much as a hundred dollars then, by the time they were 40 years old they would be prosperous, substantial people, respected by those who knew them and, with good credit. But if they were in debt, or even if they had spent every cent they made, then when they were middle-aged they would have lost out—they would be the sort of persons who live from hand to mouth, who are always moving, who are hounded by bill collectors and they would end up by living on their children.

It seems to me that the rewards of thrift are so great and the penalties of extravagance are so terrible that no sane person could fail to see how important it is for a young couple to save every cent they possibly can.

And this goes not only for the future, but for the present. It is true that opportunity knocks at some time at every man's door, but it is only the man who has ready cash in his hand who can take advantage of what she offers him. It is only the man who has saved up a little nest egg who can give up the bad job and look for a better one; who can set up for themselves in business; who can snap up the cheap bit of real estate; who can get in on the ground floor of some scheme that makes riches for all who go into it.

The only free men are men with money in the bank. All others are slaves.

There is one misfortune that you cannot starve off, my friend, and that is old age. And whether your old age is happy and peaceful or filled with humiliation and bitterness depends altogether on whether you are financially dependent or independent.

Surely, if you have ever seen an old man or an old woman, shabby, poor, neglected, whom nobody wanted, you could not ask whether it is worth while putting by money when you are young just in order to save yourself from that forlorn fate.

Take these things over with your wife. Ask her if, for the sake of jazz parties and going around every night to movies and theatres and cabarets and buying everything that catches her eye in a shop window, she is willing for you to be a wretched slave all your life and for you to be poor and dependent when you are old.

And then go down tomorrow and open a savings bank account. Believe me, one of the most thrilling experiences of life is watching a bank account grow. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a widow 43 years of age, unusually young looking and in excellent health. I have no incumbrances, as both of my children have married. I have no income whatever and would like to be self-supporting, but I don't know what to do. I saw well, but believe I would prefer odd work. What do you advise? WIDOW.

ANSWER: Let me begin by congratulating you upon having enough independence of spirit to want to go to work and support yourself, instead of settling down on your children. Believe me, you will be a million times happier earning your own bread and butter than you would be eating cake at your in-laws' table.

In reality, a woman of 43 is just coming to the best of her life, and she isn't a bit too old to start out for herself on any sort of a career that appeals to her fancy and for which she feels that she has an aptitude.

So my advice to you is to sit down and have a heart-to-heart session with yourself and find out what you really want to do, then go to some vocational school that teaches that particular thing and learn the very latest kinks in it.

You see, the trouble with most domestic women who married early and who have spent their years in rearing a family is that they are a jack-of-all-trades who know how to do dozens of things moderately well, but they are expert at nothing. They can sew a little, but they are not first-class dressmakers. They are hit-or-miss cooks. They have kept house for thirty years, but they have never kept a budget. So when they start out to make a living they have no expert service to sell.

Now, it doesn't make a bit of difference what you undertake to do if you can turn out a first-class job at it. The world is anxious and eager to pay for expert service. Fit yourself to give this and people will clamor for you.

The only occupation I warn you against is becoming an unpaid nurse to your grandchildren and a servant in your children's houses. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a girl of 17 and am to be married in June. I feel that I am too young to marry, especially as my health is very poor. I have had to have an operation and am still under the doctor's care, but my fiancé refuses to wait any longer. He says that I have put him off too many times already, and I realize that if I don't marry him now I will lose him. What shall I do? I shall let your advice guide me. BOBBY.

ANSWER: Well, Bobby, if you take my advice you will simply refuse to be hurried into a marriage for which you are utterly unfit in every way, and if you lose your selfish and inconsiderate sweetheart thereby it is small loss and one that you will thank your lucky stars for having made later on.

No girl of 17 is old enough to get married. She is unformed in mind and character and doesn't know what sort of a husband she is going to want when she is grown up. She hasn't had her playtime and isn't ready to settle down to wifehood and motherhood, and she nearly always falls in love with another man when she becomes a mature woman.

All of this goes double when the girl is as delicate as you are. So don't ruin your life to please a silly youth who doesn't himself know the catastrophe to you both he is trying to bring down on your heads. DOROTHY DIX.

RED ROSE "is good COFFEE"

By HENRI BENDEL. THE silhouette of the moment that is receiving a great deal of attention here and in Paris is called the "page boy," and places the flare just below the hips. The inspiration came from page boy costumes worn in the French courts of long ago. Another popular model for spring is the cape-coat, and I feel quite sure it will maintain its present vogue throughout the season, and be adapted for afternoon and evening wraps as well. When the cape forms an irregular outline, the slim silhouette is very pleasingly accented as in the model photographed, which is of blocked wood material in wood brown with a narrow collar and front panel of ermine. Speaking of coats and wraps, I want to call your attention to the fact that color, though it has been in high favor all winter in France, will be less elegant than black. Many of the smartest new models are of black-satin or black-silk or a bright color of the fabric of the coat. Fur is not lavishly used, however, and the collars almost invariably are narrow. Regarding evening gowns it is more difficult to be specific and say just what is what. There is less novelty, and less opportunity for it. At long as the sleeveless gown is in demand, one must depend on exquisite materials and chiffons treated in original fashion. A stunning motif of embroidery or jewels may be introduced in bizarre fashion, or the gown may be beaded or fringed in crystals. I am inclined to believe crystals and pearls on evening gowns offer the most satisfactory sort of decoration. In the model photographed the beaded and crystal tulle is worn over a silver slip with two skirt flounces slightly full, which help to give the desired slim contour so much sought by fashionable women. This is a highly satisfactory type of evening gown since it has dignity and beauty and gives an effect of elaboration which does not compromise with good line and distinction.

MARCH 18—Restlessness and anxiety are your worst enemies. You have ability, and need only a greater degree of confidence in yourself. You love your home and home ties, although you are inclined to be irritable if things do not run smoothly as you think they should. Try to be more enthusiastic, and be contented with what you have. Your birth-stone is a bloodstone, which means presence of mind. Your flower is violet. Your lucky color is white.

Cheese Croquet—One cup pimiento cheese, two cups boiled rice, one egg, one cup milk, one-quarter cup butter substitute, one-third cup flour, salt, pepper and paprika. Melt the butter substitute and add the flour. When the mixture is bubbling add the milk. When the sauce has thickened add the cheese, cut in small pieces. After it has melted add the cooked, cold rice. Season to taste and shape in cylinders or cones. Roll in egg and crumbs. Fry in deep fat. Mock Venison—Get a four or five pound leg of lamb. First trim off all the fat and tissue. Then place it in an earthen dish. Boil two cups of vinegar and one cup of water with one teaspoon of whole mixed spices for about five minutes. Pour this over the meat and add one large onion and one carrot head. Let stand about three or four days, turning in the liquid occasionally. Pour off half of the liquor and add water. Put in roaster and roast three hours. Strain the gravy and add one tablespoon of flour. Stir this in the gravy with one-half pint of sour cream. Set on fire to thicken. Hermita—One and one-half cups brown sugar, one-half cup butter or substitute, two eggs, three tablespoons sour milk, three cups flour, one teaspoon soda, one cup currants, one cup raisins, three-fourths cup nut meats, one tablespoon cinnamon and a little nutmeg. Drop in pans. British medical authorities are worried by the persistent increase of sleeping sickness among school children, and by its serious after effects, particularly on conduct and character.

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY

RANDOM notes from an afternoon's ramble in Manhattan: UP FIFTH avenue, and once more I sigh at the crumbling ruins of the magnificent Vanderbilt mansion. Europe would have preserved such a place. There will never be another such in this land. But such is the gesture of New York; destroy and build. And lucky was I to get there just as the workmen were making away with the statue of Richard Morris Hunt. There are interesting anecdotes. Hunt was probably the greatest architect of his time. When the Vanderbilt mansion was being built workers secretly arranged for a statue of the master. They also arranged to have the statue perched on the pinnacle of the mansion roof. It was some time before the nature of the tribute was discovered. Now it passes with the million other tributes to masters of their line. Over to Broadway in time to see a flock of jobless chorus girls flocking into a lunch club. It seems their show was stranded in Pennsylvania and chorus girls of the club cabaret invited them to a square meal. Tomorrow it may be visa versa. Chorus girls are superstitious. An ungovernable mob gathered to glimpse "Mary and Doug" as they make their way to the "Black Pirate" premiere. Mary gives it up. Protected by police she makes her way to the stage entrance. Why doesn't the brawny Doug, who can quell twelve pirates with a glance, try some heroics and accrobatics on the mob? Mary wears an ermine coat. She seems slimmer. Maybe it's the way her coat is wrapped. Oh, yes, "everyone is there." Gloria Swanson. Yes, Hank is along. They all seem to have their own husbands and wives so much for your scandal-mongers. Marion Davies, rushing up with a greeting—the Laaksy's, the Zukors, the Cottwyns. Hollywood must be deserted. Mario Chamlee hurrying away from the "Met." An astounding person this grand opera star. He was once in a minstrel show, then to vaudeville, concert and soldiering. Finally he crashed the Metropolitan gates, but he wants Europe to bow. He will sail soon to sing in Baden-Baden. Some far has been expressed that Morris Geat bought a new hat before leaving for Hollywood—or was it Leo Angler? That is quite incorrect. The beanie of the producer is the same crushed and windblown masterpiece as of yore. GILBERT SWAN.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

THE MARCH HARE IN SCRUB-UP LAND "What can we do to help you, Mister Rubadub?" asked Nick when the fairy-man of Scrub-Up Land had finished telling the twins all about everything. "Oh, lots of things," said Mister Rubadub brightly. "I certainly have my hands full. You have no idea how scrub-born some of the woodfolk get when I go to give them a good scrubbing to make them presentable." "Oh, do you scrub them?" asked Nancy. "Do I scrub them?" asked Rubadub shaking with laughter. "Oh, no! Not I! I just put them into my washing tub and lather them all over with my soap called 'Fairyland Special' and then I take my big brush here and finish the job right. Their ears! Oh, their ears, my dears! And their paws! Oh, their paws, my dears! And their tails and everything! All caked with mud after a whole winter in their hiding-holes. I mean, in Dreamland." "Just then who should come around the corner but a large rabbit with spectacles and a big book, saying over and over to himself, 'This one next and that one after that, then that one next and the other one to follow.' This one next and that one after that, then that one next and the other one to follow." "It's the March Hare!" cried Nick, recognizing the rabbit at once. "Hello, Mister Hare, don't you remember us?" The March Hare looked at them over his glasses for an instant, and then snapping his book shut, he hurried over, arming from ear to ear. "Well, if it isn't Nancy and Nick!" he almost shouted with joy. "Do I remember you? I should say I do. How could I ever forget the way you helped me one time to waken up all the spring people?" "The spring people? Who were they?" asked Mister Rubadub curiously. Fairy-men are like other people, you know. They hate to be left out of things and he wanted to know all about it. "Don't you know?" said the March Hare in an astonished voice. "The Bag Man and the Hurdy Gurdy Man and the Scissors Grinder and the Circus people and the Easter Bunny and—"

FOR Stomach Acid PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly. BETTER THAN SODA For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda. PREDICTS GOOD YEAR IN 1926

Great Lakes Official Says Railway Interested In Maritime Growth

Advices Farmers Here to go in For Dairying and Cattle For Export

"Business was very good this year and prospects very bright for continued prosperity," said R. McM. Duff, manager of the C. P. R. Great Lakes steamers, when asked yesterday for his views regarding the business outlook in Canada.

Speaking of the Maritime Provinces, Mr. Duff said the C. P. R. was much interested in them and was looking to do what it could to build up this part of the country.

He considered this section of the country the most important part of Canada insofar as European trade was concerned.

SEERS BIG MOVEMENT.

At this time of the year, Mr. Duff said, his company looked for a big movement of import freight that could not wait for the opening of navigation on the St. Lawrence, and it was the object of the company to ship this class of freight through Saint John and have it ready to rush to the West on the opening of navigation on the Great Lakes early in April.

They were moving all they could of this kind of freight before the local winter port season was over. The C. P. R., said Mr. Duff, was anxious to use Maritime Province ports all it could.

Mr. Duff had recently returned from a trip to the West and said that there was a very warm feeling of sympathy, especially in British Columbia, for the aims and aspirations of the Maritime Provinces.

Speaking of conditions in the Maritime Provinces, Mr. Duff incidentally remarked that there ought to be a good opportunity here for the manufacture of dairy products, especially butter. He said that in Montreal, New Zealand butter was selling in that market in open competition with the home product and in spite of a five per cent duty.

CAN COMPETE, HE THINKS.

He thought the farmers of this locality should be able to compete in this market. He also thought there was a good opportunity here for the raising of cattle, especially for the export trade.

In concluding Mr. Duff said that he looked for a very good season on the Great Lakes.

WESTERN RAILWAY OFFICIAL IN CITY

Former Resident Holds Responsible Position With C. N. R. at Edmonton

W. A. Brown, general superintendent of the Canadian National Railway at Edmonton, a former Saint John man, is in the city. Mr. Brown arrived last evening by private car which was attached to the Halifax train at Moncton. Accompanying him were Messrs. Kyle and White, superintendent of motor equipment and chief engineer of his division. They will spend several days in Saint John. Mr. Brown is on a business trip to the east, but is taking the opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Mr. Brown has spent all his life in the railway service. He left Saint John for the West 45 years ago. For 20 years after leaving here he was in the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railway, later accepting a position with the C. N. R. He won steady promotion until he reached the position which he now holds.

Mr. Brown came from a railroading family. His father, David Brown, was connected with the C. P. R. for many years, entering the service in the early days of railroading in the east. His brother, Walter B. Brown, 54 Watson street, West Side, is trackmaster with the C. P. R.

SCENE IS WILD AS ANIMAL SHOP BURNS

Tales of Heroism and Mother Love Come Out of Chaos

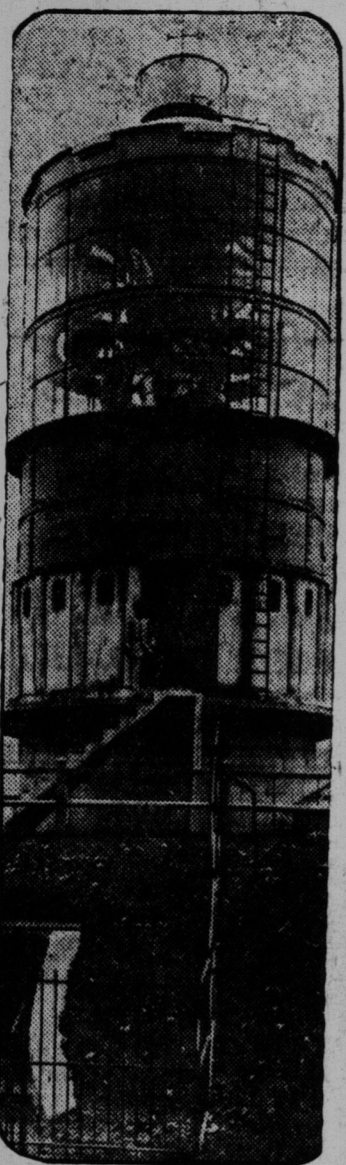

NEW YORK, March 18.—Tales of animal heroism were brought from a smouldering building in Cortlandt street by firemen who fought flames that caused the deaths of 5,000 canaries, 150 parrots, 40 monkeys and several cats and dogs.

Several boa constrictors lashed about terror-stricken, in their cages, monkeys chattered and parrots shrieked, creating a bedlam of noises such as a jungle explorer might hear in a nightmare. The jungle law of the survival of the fittest prevailed, and the weaker of the imprisoned creatures perished. So frightened were the boa constrictors and two wildcats that they were rescued without attempting to attack the firemen.

The outstanding hero of the fire, as reported by firemen, was a baboon, which took his inseparable companion, a kitten, in his arms, broke open the door of his cage and escaped to safety with his charge. In another cage firemen said they found a monkey crouched in her cage, choked by the smoke and her hair singed by the flames. When they removed her they found she was lying on four of her young, protecting them with her own body. The mother later was revived.

A loss of more than $25,000 was caused by the fire. Most of this was caused by the deaths of the animals and birds. The animal store, known as Bartle's pet store, is patronized by circus men. Three ant eaters, a South American vulture and many chicks and rabbits, intended for the Easter season, were among the casualties. Representatives of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals rushed first aid to the animals which it was thought would recover. Those more seriously injured were killed.

ALLENBY MEETS WAR COMRADE

Greeted by Sergeant-Major of His Staff in South Africa

James McKenna Was in Many Battles—Zionist Address Hero of Palestine

WINNIPEG, Man., March 18.—The days when he wore the pill box cap and the tightly-fitting scarlet shell tunic were recalled by James McKenna, of Winnipeg, who, 46 years ago, wore the chevrons as sergeant-major of the 6th Inniskilling Dragoons yesterday when he met Field Marshal Viscount Allenby during the visit of the famous British soldier to the clubrooms of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association.

Mr. McKenna, who is 80 years old, was a member of Lord Allenby's staff in South Africa, and is a veteran of many battles, including the Bechuanaland and Zululand campaigns. Surrounded by veterans of many wars, Mr. McKenna was greeted by Lord Allenby, and they exchanged stories of the past campaigns and hardships they had experienced.

LEAVES FOR EAST. It was a busy day for the Hero of Palestine. After greeting many ex-soldiers and members of the local veterans' clubs Lord Allenby attended a Rotarian luncheon and received a Zionist delegation. In the afternoon he and Lady Allenby left for Toronto and the Eastern provinces.

An address was presented to Lord Allenby by the delegation representing the Zionist Council of Winnipeg, declaring: "The Hebrew community in Winnipeg wish to express to you their heartfelt thanks, not only for helping to bring victory to the cause of the allies, but also for opening a new door of hope to the Hebrew people. We, the overworked widows have broken down, the bowels are sluggish—consequently you are suffering."

READING ROOM FOR LOCAL ARCHIVES

Definite Announcement of Time of Opening on Return of Dr. J. D. Logan

The local office of the Dominion Archives is being put in order, preparatory to the opening of a students' reading room. Definite plans in this regard await the return of Dr. J. D. Logan, associate archivist, who is expected in the city shortly. There is a large room in the office suite, facing Canterbury street, which is admirably suited for use as a reading room and it will require only some new furniture and fixtures to make it ready for use.

There have been many callers at the office recently and the information which they sought has been given. Some of the inquirers have been descendants of the famous Jans family, members of which are said to be heirs to vast property rights in New York City. They have been much interested in studying the genealogy tables at the archives office and tracing their lineage.

WELCOME GIFTS. Welcome gifts have been received from time to time and recently the local office was pleased to receive a further gift from Henry Wilmo, of Orancton, an article on the "Life and Times of Sir Howard Douglas," who was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick in 1824. The article was written by Mr. Wilmo.

HOLLYWOOD IS LOSING FAME AS STUDIO CENTRE

Firms Feel Pressure of Rise in Real Estate Values

EXODUS TO OTHER LOCALITIES BEGUN

Magic City of Filmdom Soon To Be Deserted By Companies

HOLLYWOOD, March 18.—(United Press.)—Hollywood is doomed as the world's motion-picture capital.

The "magic city" of filmdom, heretofore centre of the great bulk of film production will soon be deserted by the movie companies to make way for real estate development.

The exodus is already well under way. Leading producers are dismantling their plants and moving to surrounding towns and suburbs. By June the transformation will be complete.

REAL ESTATE VALUES

The rising value of real estate in Hollywood is compelling the change. Land values have become so high in the cinema centre that producers cannot afford to continue making films here.

The little town of Burbank, three miles from Hollywood, will probably be the next world centre of movie-making.

BURBANK NEXT

First National Studios are vacating their present quarters on the fringe of Hollywood for a location at Burbank, where they will erect the world's biggest picture plant, at an expenditure of $2,500,000.

The United Studios, being evacuated by First National, were purchased by Famous Players-Lasky, at a cost of more than $1,000,000. Eight years ago the chevrons as sergeant-major of the 6th Inniskilling Dragoons yesterday when he met Field Marshal Viscount Allenby during the visit of the famous British soldier to the clubrooms of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association.

The Paramount firm is dismantling its present plant, in the heart of Hollywood, to move into the less expensive location.

The Paramount property, purchased eight years ago at less than half a million dollars, is appraised today at $2,500,000. Located in the very business centre of the vanishing cinema capital, it will become the site of a 13-story office building.

The William Fox Productions will leave their central location near the Lasky studio and move eight miles out to Fox Hills, half-way between Los Angeles and Santa Monica.

Less than 10 years ago Fox and Paramount established their present studios in the "suburbs" of Hollywood. Today traffic swirls past these studios at a pace as fast as the busiest downtown thoroughfare in Los Angeles.

AT OTHER LOCATIONS

Some of the larger studios, foreseeing the congestion, evacuated their Hollywood premises several years ago, and located at Culver City, Cecil B. DeMille, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Hal Roach have erected permanent studios at Culver City, seven miles from Hollywood.

Universal pictures are made at Universal city, two miles from Hollywood. Mack Sennett's studio is at Edendale, three miles from Hollywood.

The grandeur of Hollywood—its everlasting lure to tourists—vanish overnight. Tourists will no longer be able to step from a street-car and in half a minute reach any one of the leading film plants. The producing lots will be scattered about the suburban communities of Los Angeles and Hollywood.

The transition will be felt keenly by the stars and other players. Many of them accustomed to rising at 8:30 a.m., in time to breakfast and reach the lots by 9, will be required to turn out at least half an hour earlier and commute from their homes to the studios.

Hollywood, without, will retain its film flavor. It will remain the business and social centre of movieland. But the glamor of the studios will be gone. Instead of standing sets and unending files of pictureque stars and extras, will stretch many-windowed office buildings, and just ordinary lines of colorless humans—business men.

GLOUCESTER COURT JURY DISAGREES

Unable to Come to Decision in King vs. William Grey Case

BATHURST, March 17.—The case of the King vs. William Grey, Sr., which occupied the attention of the Gloucester county court this morning resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The jury returned to their room at 11:40 for deliberation and returned to court two hours after and reported that they could not agree on a verdict. They again returned to their jury room and at 2 p.m. returned to court and through their foreman, F. O. Landry, again reported that they could not agree on a verdict. They were then dismissed.

The jury case on the civil docket, that of William Hachey and the Continental Casualty Company was settled out of court and the record withdrawn. The case of the Canadian National Railways vs. Theo Hachey, being a disputed freight account, was set down for trial in chambers at a time to be fixed by the judge. With the conclusion of this business the court was adjourned and His Honor Judge McCleary left on the afternoon train for his home in Campbellton.

At the term of the Supreme Court with Mr. Justice Byrne presiding will commence here on Tuesday next. This will be Mr. Justice Byrne's first court in Gloucester county since his elevation to the bench on October 4, 1924.

NOVA SCOTIA CASE TO EMBRACE ISSUES OF CONFEDERATION

Would Deal With Treatment Accorded by Dominion Parliament

BELIEF IN ADEQUATE REMEDIES AVOWED

Chisholm's Amendment to Premier's Motion Beaten in House at Halifax

HALIFAX, N. S., March 17.—That the Government was about to prepare a case covering all aspects of the grievances of Nova Scotia in connection with the treatment accorded the province by the Dominion parliament, analyzing every phase of the circumstances under which the province may not have benefited to the extent the Confederation pact provided, was the declaration of Premier Rhodes in the legislative assembly this afternoon when he moved the adoption of the resolution of which he gave notice in the house last Friday, outlining the action proposed and declaring that "the people of this province believe that adequate remedies exist and must be applied."

Hon. William Chisholm, leader of the Opposition, moved an amendment by which the entire resolution presented by the Premier would be wiped out and a new resolution written in, to the effect that "the Dominion Government shall not tax and modify its arrangements respecting taxation and respecting the regulation of trade and fisheries which prejudice the interests of Nova Scotia and that the government-in-council proceed at once to hold a public inquiry and prepare a statement showing by what way Nova Scotia interests have been prejudiced by the economic system of the Dominion of Canada. This precipitated a debate which lasted about five hours, ending shortly before midnight when the amendment was lost on a straight party division, the three Liberal members voting for the amendment and the Conservatives all

HOW OUTDOOR MEN TREAT MUSCLE-STRAIN

Sprains, bruises, rheumatism also yield to this treatment

Outdoor men who do hard muscular work, who undergo exposure and risk of accident every day, know how necessary it is to give prompt attention to muscle-strain, bruises, sprains and other injuries. A member of a survey party, sent out by the government of British Columbia to do sub-division work three hundred miles from civilization writes: "The chief of our party with rare foresight brought along as a part of our first aid supply a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. And through weeks of exposure and hardship we found it our best help for sprains, bruises, stiff muscles and rheumatism. Sloan's gives real relief because it doesn't just deaden the pain. It helps your body to throw off the cause. Just a little Sloan's patting on lightly—and a healing tide of fresh new blood is sent right to the place that hurts. The aching and stiffness are helped right away. Get a bottle from your druggist today—35 cents supporting the Government. The resolution carried by the same vote.

ATTACKS CHISHOLM

In moving his resolution, Premier Rhodes said the leader of the Opposition had been afflicted with a disease which he would call "oppositonitis," which had been apparent throughout the session, but, the Premier said, he would be advancing the cause of his party and his country if he would join with the Government on this occasion and enable the country to speak with one united voice in an effort to solve the economic ills with which the resolution dealt.

TO DEAL WITH ALL PHASES.

The government intended dealing with every phase of the question rather than to choose one or two particular instances in which the province had suffered, he said, and he emphasized that there would be no effort to complain of the concessions granted other provinces in the matter of subsidies, in rail rates and subventions, but simply demand for equal treatment. The Premier deprecated any hint or suggestion of secession and declared he was always of the opinion that Nova Scotia was wise in entering Confederation.

"If we have not reaped the full benefits of Confederation we have ourselves to blame," declared Mr. Rhodes. The remedies for provincial ills, he believed, rested within the Confederation pact and it was the intention to seek them out and apply them.

PREMIER'S RESOLUTION.

Premier Rhodes' resolution was as follows: "Whereas, Nova Scotia in entering Confederation made possible the unification and consolidation of a British dominion on this continent; and whereas at that time certain pledges were given that such measures would be undertaken and such policies pursued as would ensure for the future a satisfactory economic position for this province; and whereas the pledges given had been disregarded as a result of which Nova Scotia has not shared in equal measure the prosperity enjoyed by the Dominion, as a whole;

PREPARING MEMO.

"And whereas the government is now engaged in preparing a memorandum setting forth in detail the claims of the province with the object in view of seeking such adequate redress as will ensure a return of contentment and prosperity to our people. Therefore be it resolved, that this House approves the action now being taken by the government.

FINANCE MINISTER HOPES TO WORK OUT RELIEF FOR PUBLIC

Robb Says Per Capita Levy in Canada Proves Less Than Elsewhere

U. S. IMPOSTS MORE THAN THOSE HERE

Discussion Starts With Motion of Church Over Income Charges

OTTAWA, March 17.—Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, gave a hint in the House today of lower taxes. He hoped, he said, to work out something that would give a little relief to the people. But in what direction he did not indicate. Mr. Robb cited some comparisons which gave total per capita taxes in Canada at $66.11; Australia, $69.68; Great Britain, $71.12 and the United States, $77.29. "In other words," said Mr. Robb, "the per capita tax in the United States, the country where they have had much reduction of taxation, is $67.29 as compared with $66.11 in Canada."

Discussion arose over the motion by T. L. Church, Conservative, of North-west Toronto. Mr. Church's motion took up duplication of federal and municipal income tax and said there was "an urgent demand for reduction of taxation and to restore to municipalities their former exclusive rights and prerogatives" in income tax. The discussion held the House all the afternoon, the motion being finally withdrawn.

MOTION DISCUSSED

Each year since the Government had come into office, the Finance Minister said, there had been a reduction in expenditure and also in the estimates. On certain food commodities, there had been a reduction in the sales tax, while on others the tax had been removed. On both and shows the sales tax had been cut. He hoped to confer with his officers and "work out something that will give a little relief to the people."

DETROITERS TO AID OLD COLONY ORPHAN

Charitable Folk Offer to Pay Child's Fare to Newfoundland

DETROIT, Mich., March 17.—If Madeline Foster's grandparents want her at Marystown, Nfld., there are charitable folk in Detroit who will give the homeless orphan train fare.

Sadie Baker Foster, her mother, was killed last week when run down by an automobile. The eight-year-old child wants to go back to Marystown, where her grandparents and a one-year-old sister lives and where the Fosters came from some years ago. Mrs. Foster had been working as a waitress; her husband confessed he was "busted" and unable to do anything for the child.

After Charles East, deputy coroner, had taken the body to the morgue yesterday, Madeline whispered in his ear: "I want to go to gradna and take mama." He procured a coffin and shroud. All that remained was to get a railroad ticket. The Community Fund Committee heard of the case and announced today that it would see that Madeline got back to Marystown if word was received that there was a place for her there.

SEES INCOME TAX STAY.

John Millar, Progressive, Qu'Appelle, believed the income tax had come to stay. It was levied upon those who were able to pay. It was the fairest form of taxation.

Hon. J. W. Edwards, Conservative, Frontenac-Addington, approved of the principle of the income tax. One reason why the people were not paying more income taxes was because they did not have the income and the reason they did not have the income could be found in the existence of the present government. If prosperity was increasing as the government claimed, then the income tax, too, would be increasing in revenue. The minister of finance's figures had shown that the income tax revenue was falling off. Therefore, there must either be gross inefficiency in the collection of the tax or a corresponding reduction in incomes.

OUTLAY DECRIED.

W. F. MacLean, Conservative, York West, decried the vast amount of money expended in maintaining two railway systems in Canada. He advocated the amalgamation of the two railways.

W. D. Euler, Liberal, Waterloo North, advocated the abolition of the "nuisance tax" such as the stamp tax. The income tax could be simplified in its application. Speculative profits or profits made on stock market transactions should be taxed. Taxes should also be levied over a three year period rather than for one year.

AGREES WITH 3-YEAR PLAN.

T. L. Brown (Progressive, Lisgar) agreed with Mr. Euler's suggestion that taxes should be levied over a three-year period. This was the practice in England.

The income tax of a farmer and his wife under the present law was regarded as one. In other walks of life, the incomes of husbands and wives were separate and two exemptions could be claimed. Mr. Brown was in favor of one income and one exemption for husband and wife.

J. L. Chubbitt, (Conservative, Ottawa), interjected with the observation that the King government had collected much more revenue from taxes than the previous government without a corresponding reduction in expenditure.

SOCIALIST LEADER WILL DEFEND CAROL

Paris Politician Retained by Former Heir of Rumania in Ex-Wife's Suit

PARIS, March 17.—M. Paul Boncour, Socialist leader in the Chamber of Deputies, has been retained by former Prince Carol of Rumania as his attorney to defend the suit for 10,000,000 francs brought against him by his former morganatic wife, Madame Jeanne Lambrino.

The suit is not expected to come up in court for at least two months, and possibly not until November. It is indicated that the Prince's defence will be that the Paris courts are not competent to try the case.

Paris legal circles are amused by the prospect of a leading French Socialist defending a Prince in a case which the attorneys of the opposition have announced their intention of basing their case on an appeal to democracy and the liberty of the individual against the aggression of royalty.

The Granada Model

A medium-sized, medium-priced instrument embodying the new Orthophonic Victor principle which is astonishing the entire world.

WITH THE BIRTH of the Orthophonic Victor, began a new era in home music. Music that is "such stuff as dreams are made of"—dreams now come intensely true. The realization of such dreams, we felt, should not come only to those who could afford the Credenza Model, the first and finest of the Orthophonic Victors. So we made the Granada, a less expensive Orthophonic Victor containing the remarkable acoustic principle without which no music lover should now be content.

The Granada is in the popular console design, of Spanish derivation,—the rich wood finished either in two-tone mahogany or in walnut blended. It is large enough to be impressive, yet conservative in its space requirements. Like the Credenza it is astonishing all who go to hear it, giving a foretaste of the new delights in music which are now possible at home. The price is $200.

Ask to hear the Granada at any "His Master's Voice" Dealer. Production is still behind demand. If your dealer can not supply you now, there is only one way to be sure of getting an Orthophonic Victor soon. Reserve it.

Tilley Attacks Ex-Premier's Grand Falls Arrangements

not rest with the leader of the opposition to criticize the government for the non-enforcement of prohibition. A glance at the public accounts for 1924 would show the stocks which were carried by the Liquor Commission, such as Frontenac ale, Ready's beverages and immense quantities of gin and even cocktails, none of which would likely be used to any large extent for purposes legally prescribed under the act.

LEASING TRANSACTION.
In concluding he would refer briefly to a matter that came under his notice evidencing the lack of ordinary business principles in the conduct of public business by the late government. When the new bridge was built across the falls at Saint John some years ago, the Government had to move some houses and retained the ownership of them. On May 15, 1923, a lease was executed to Charles A. Donald, signed by P. J. Veniot, letting those several houses for a rental of $100 per year for ten years, with option of renewal for another ten years. The rental Mr. Donald received

FINANCIAL CONDITION
The President of the Council had given his understanding of the financial condition of the province today. He had said that the debt had been increased by $16,000,000 or $17,000,000 by the former Government, and he had given a comparison of the increase of the population of the province. He did not think that was a fair basis of comparison. Out of the $16,000,000 increase charged against the old Government he (Michaud) had picked out about $14,000,000 that had to be spent to meet public demands. For instance, there was a great increase in the traffic in this province during the last ten years, and the old Government had to provide highways to take care of that.

REILLY PRAISED.
In securing Mr. Reilly for Chairman of the Hydro Commission we had secured a man of outstanding integrity and great business ability, as evidenced by his presence on some of the largest business institutions. He was especially qualified for the position he held. The Minister of Health was a leader in his profession, beloved by all who knew him and honored and respected by everyone. The electors of Charlotte would give him their seat in this House as long as he wanted it. The Minister of Agriculture was a particularly outstanding man in his community and intelligent and up to date farmer of long legislative experience, admirably qualified for his position.

VALLEY RAILWAY DEBT
The old Government was not responsible for the debt increase incurred in connection with the construction of the sinking fund that had to be provided for that liability. Then there was the item of $4,000,000 which the province borrowed to meet the requirements of the highways in order to take advantage of the Federal grant. There was Valley Railway and the interest and also an item of $400,000 for permanent bridges. That was a policy of the former Government and a practice they had to follow. The old Government had to meet the situation as it existed then and the present Government would have to meet the same today. There was no other way of providing permanent bridges and roads except by bonding the province.

HYDRO POLICY
In the matter of hydro they had to do the Musquash. A sinking fund had to

Mr. Kelley does not believe in banks and keeps the family valuables with her in her handbag. Young Brooks, when questioned by police inspectors, said that Gallagher planned the hold-up and after they made a getaway they divided. Gallagher was arrested but refuses to talk.

OPPOSES PROHIBITION.
His honorable friend had referred to prohibition. He (Tilley) had been in the House in 1917 and would remember that he (Michaud) had expressed his views on prohibition at that time. People were at liberty to differ on the question as to whether prohibition was the best means of promoting temperance. He would say that the one-third of the people of this province could not subscribe to this law of prohibition, were simply hiding the time until the law was changed.

Board of Trade Dinner Party
Gives John Scott
Ovation

Spontaneous Tribute in Native
City to Managing Editor of Montreal Gazette

A very pleasing incident of the Board of Trade dinner of last Tuesday evening at the Admiral Beatty Hotel was a spontaneous greeting accorded to John Scott, managing editor of the Montreal Gazette, a Saint John man who, from the position of junior reporter on one of the dailies here a quarter of a century ago, has steadily risen to high place in the journalistic field in Canada. Mr. Scott and his wife came here to enjoy renewal of acquaintances with friends of former days in Saint John.

HAPPY RECEPTION.
J. F. B. Livesay of Toronto, general manager of the Canadian Press, and Mr. Scott were guests at the dinner Tuesday night and were heard in impromptu speeches. It was a singularly happy reception that Mr. Scott received when he arose at the unexpected request of the chair. Being a Saint John boy, a locally-trained newspaper man and having reached one of the topmost places in newspaper executive work in Canada, the business men took occasion to compliment their guest in no uncertain manner. Applause and shouted greetings caught the quiet-mannered visitor somewhat off his guard and he not ungraciously began his remarks with hesitancy.

The newspaper life gripped John Scott early and as a lad he managed many a call at the news room of the old Saint John Gazette with clippings bearing on sport, in which he was thickly and keenly interested. He occasionally volunteered an article on local baseball, and it was always accepted, for he had the facts and even then knew how to present them. He was soon attached to the staff and after some years there went to the Daily Telegraph of the period. He went to the Montreal Gazette on an opening presenting itself there, and his success came soon, for he had the material in him and the opportunity was at hand for development. He rose from one position to another until the managing editor's desk was his on one of the greatest of newspapers of the continent.

Besides his executive duties within the magnificent modern plant, recently opened, he travels considerably between the Montreal and the Canadian and American centres on matters pertaining to news services etc. and a short while ago visited England concerning cable news. It is the privilege of Mr. Scott to see Canada at close range, to live with it in all its essential developments and to mingle with the men who are moulding its destiny.

Therefore when a home-city Board of Trade gathering singled him out for an especially warm greeting Tuesday it was but seizing an opportunity of doing him an honor of which he was quite worthy but which it had never before been possible to express in a public way in his home city. The incident was fraught with considerable sentimental fervor. Mr. Scott expressed his thanks for the reception and the rank of citizenship and the appearance of things generally. He left for home yesterday afternoon, as also did Mr. Livesay.

SAD NEWS BY CABLE
Mother of Mrs. George E. Carter Passes Away in England

The many friends of Mrs. George E. Carter, who since her husband was appointed to the chief clerkship of the C. P. R. passenger office in New York, has resided in that city, will regret to learn that a cable was received stating that her mother, Mrs. Frank Doggett, had died on last Sunday in Cambridge, England. Upon receipt of the news of her mother's illness a few days earlier, Mrs. Carter sailed on last Friday for her former home with her little boy, but would not arrive in Cambridge until today. Mr. Carter's mother, Mrs. E. S. Carter, of Fair Vale, who has been visiting him for some weeks, will not return home until the first of April.

Well Pleased With
Quarantine Here

An inspection of the immigration quarters at West Saint John and the quarantine station at Partridge Island was made yesterday by Dr. D. A. Clark of the Federal Department of Health. He had high praise for the condition in which he found the properties and paid a tribute to the work of Dr. W. L. Ellis and Dr. Margaret Parks.

"Jerry" Murphy
Is Burned Out

Fire, which was said to have originated because of a defective chimney, gave the department a half hour's chopping and hose work in a dwelling at the northeast corner of North and George street at 12.30 this afternoon. The building was occupied on its various floors by James Moore, John Cleo, Miss Peterson, Miss Oliver, a Chinese citizen, and Jeremiah Murphy. The apartment affected most by the blaze was that of the last-mentioned tenant. Some furnishings were destroyed.

SUCCESSFUL AND ENJOYABLE.
The weekly card party and dance of the "Prentice Boys," held last night in their hall, Guilford street, West Saint John, was attended by a large number. The prize winners at cards were Mrs. A. Wilson and W. Fillmore; special prizes, Mrs. John Hervey and Clifford G. Price.

A St. Patrick's Day masquerade dance was held last evening at the Little River Community Hall by the club, about 40 couples being present. As Hiram Sees It
"Well," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times-Star reporter, "I'm glad to see the old dances comin' back. Me an' Hanner kin go to a party now or not be wall-flowers. Do you mind the old joke in Ayer's Almanack when we was boys? It ast why dancin' was like noo milk, an' the answer was that it was good fer the calves. But I mind when wint we call old dances was noo. Me an' another young feller went to a frolic in Digby-De-Donche one time an' they hed a dance at night. We got one plain quadrille formed up an' they crowded us off at the end 'o' the third figger to put on a reel. They wanted somethin' with action in it—an' reels an' figs was the thing. One big gal took me up in a reel an' squeezed the wind out of me 'n' swung me off my feet every two minutes. As the feller says, she was beer to the heels, like a Mullingar. If I s'pose an old fool like me hed to be thinkin' about makin' a will but I can't forget the old times. An' I'm glad the old dances is comin' back—yes, sir."
