PORT FACILITIES FOR HALIFAX ORDERED

Important Announcement Expected From Premier at R.M.A. Banquet

NEW CONVEYORS AND MORE SHEDS PROVIDED FOR

Sir Henry Thornton Discusses Matter At Ottawa

WORK IS NEEDED

Improvements Were Urged By Two Vice-Presidents of C. N. Railway

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 7.—Improved facilities to take care of prospective winter business will be provided to the port of Halifax. They will involve the enclosing of the present unfinished sheds, Nos. 21 and 22, and the construction of wooden galleries and conveyors to berths Nos. 23, 24 and 26.

Both the traffic and operating vice-presidents of the National Railways strongly recommended that terminals, work on which has been in abeyance, be completed with the least possible delay.

WEST INDIES PACT SEEN TO BENEFIT PORTS

National Reasons Justify Maritime Port Assistance

BY A. M. BELDING. Staff representative of The Telegraph-Journal and Evening Times-Star, who is now on an active canvass of Canadian importers and exporters in behalf of the more general use of Canadian ports.

IN REPLY I could only quote the remark of Sir Henry Thornton that the people of the Maritimes must believe in the good faith and patriotism of the C. N. R. management, and the declaration by Vice-President Dalrymple that with enlarged facilities at our ports the C. N. R. will do more business there.

I had a brief chat on Saturday with E. F. L. Sturdee, who has come from Hong Kong to become assistant general passenger agent of the C. P. R. at Montreal.

J. Murray Gibson has a new story to illustrate the economic value of hunting and fishing privileges. He was told by a Nova Scotia employer of guides that an analysis of the exodus showed very little movement of people out of a region where there was good hunting and fishing, compared with districts where sport was not to be had.

MR. GIBSON adds a story about Kelt Hardie, who said when in Canada that the reason a man gave for not going back to England, although he had not been very successful in this country, was that if he went home he would lose the opportunities for sport.

While in Ottawa last week I heard a most interesting discussion on the subject of help for the workless in winter. Mr. Macpherson, of the Relief Bureau, said the city has to pay out $100,000 for relief in winter, and the tendency is always upward, because certain seasonal occupations are available in winter and many people are idle.

LOST AFRICAN GOLD REEF REDISCOVERED

New Immense Yield in Transvaal Region Hailed as Possibility.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Possibility of a new immense yield of gold in the Transvaal region of South Africa seems foreshadowed in a report received here saying that the "long lost main reef" on the Randfontein estate has just been discovered by an English company.

Kingston Merchant Visions Increasing Opportunity For Maritime Products

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 7.—"This new trade treaty between the British West Indies and Canada is a vast improvement upon the old, and goes a long way toward developing greater trade between the two countries. It should be the utmost benefit to the Maritime Provinces, and I look to see Halifax deluged with fresh cargoes within a year and a half," declared P. R. Cumming, prominent business man of Kingston, Jamaica, in an interview here.

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1925

COUNTY COUNCIL AGREES TO LOAN TO POWER CO.

Also Increases Credit to Lancaster Highway Board, as Requested.

C. E. EMERSON GOES TO BOARD OF HEALTH

Premier Sends Word About Financial Support for Lancaster Work.

Practically all the recommendations of the finance and building committees of the Municipal Council, which met for the first time in regular session yesterday afternoon in the new Court House, were adopted without division. Authority to increase the credit of the Lancaster Highway Board by $86,431.48 to carry on construction now under way there, while awaiting credit payments from the Provincial Government, and a recommendation that the municipality lend the New Brunswick Power Company $26,000 to allow the company to finish track reconstruction between the bridge and Fairville corner while the permanent road work is under way, were in turn approved by the council.

MAJOR POTTS ABSENT.

Regret was feebly expressed at the absence of Mayor F. L. Potts from the meeting and a special message of sympathy, coupled with the hope that he will soon be restored to his usual good health, will be forwarded to him from the council body.

Warden R. W. Wigmore presided and in addition to J. King Kelley, K. C., county secretary, the following were present: Councillors William Golding, John P. O'Brien and Murray Campbell, Fairville; Edgar Smith, George Simpson and John C. Dalsell, Simonds; George E. Mosher, Robert Bowland and H. McLeod, St. Martins; James O'Donnell and Councillor Corscadden, Musquash; James H. Frink and W. L. Harding from the city. Councillor Bullock was absent as was Mayor Potts.

Warden Wigmore prefaced the meeting with a few remarks in which he expressed gratification at the restoration of the Court House, stating that the municipality should be proud of the new structure. He referred to the splendid work accomplished by the architect, Garnet W. Wilson, and expressed regret at the passing of the late James Spryell, general contractor, who had died before the work had been completed. The warden also added a word of regret at the absence of Mayor F. L. Potts, and the council, he felt certain, would miss him in their deliberations.

LOANS ARE APPROVED.

A recommendation from the finance committee that the municipality be authorized to lend the New Brunswick Power Company $26,000 to carry out reconstruction from Fairville corner to the bridge at the same time as the permanent road is being built was adopted by the council. The agreement will provide that the New Brunswick Power Company enter into contract with the municipality for the loan of the $26,000 providing that the municipality should hold back money due by the parish of Lancaster to the power company for lighting in Lancaster up to $7,000 in each year, for a period of three years, and the difference between the amount loaned and the amount due under the contract for lighting in Lancaster, be paid proportionally annually on the first day of January.

The lighting company is to pay the cost of carrying the accounts.

The finance committee further recommended that $86,431.48 be borrowed from the Bank of Nova Scotia to increase the credit of the Lancaster Highway Board, while awaiting credit payments due from the Provincial Government, for work now under way in the parish. The council approved the recommendation.

COURT HOUSE COSTS.

A statement was submitted to the council by the architect which showed that the complete cost of the restoration of the Court House was $90,282.97, made up as follows:

General work	$72,012.91
Bridges	1,495.00
Furnishings	2,981.00
Furniture	4,866.57
Tender for accountancy	1,460.00
Estimate, furniture for committee room	850.00
Architect's fee, 5 per cent.	4,158.27
Interest	887,928.75
Total	$90,282.97

Recommendations from the building committee for repair to the roof of the county jail, for the furnishing of a special room for a waiting and committee room; that John Coughlan be paid $150 for covering pipes in the tunnel, and that the acoustic preparations to prevent the echo in the court room be provided, were all adopted.

ASSESSMENT APPEAL.

A communication was received from the assessors of the parish of Lancaster stating that Joseph A. Likely had appealed to the board in 1925 against the assessment made in 1924 as well as against the assessment made in 1926. The assessors reported that they had reduced the valuation in 1925 from $28,000 to $18,000, but expressed doubt as to their power for 1925 to reduce an assessment made by the board for 1924. The report was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION BY COUNCILLOR MURPHY.

A recommendation by Councillor Murray Campbell for the appropriation of the Lancaster Sewerage Board be increased from $12,000 to $18,000 to complete the installation of catch basins and manholes was approved. Authority was also granted for the extension of the sewer in Collins street.

RESIGNATION OF DISTRICT FIRE WARDEN.

The resignation of District Fire Warden Kirkpatrick of the district No. 1 was placed before the meeting by Councillor George Simpson and accepted. Alexander Magee was appointed in his place.

On the recommendation of Warden

Wigmore, Charles E. Emerson, of West Saint John, was appointed to the District Board of Health to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late George Blake. Councillor Campbell seconded the nomination and the choice was unanimously approved.

PREMIER BAXTER WRITES

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier of the province, wrote the council that he would continue Government support to the work now underway in Lancaster and assured the council that he would continue to extend all necessary financial aid, inaugurated by the late Veniot Government.

Councillor Dalsell tendered his resignation as a member of the district fire board in East Saint John, stating that it was impossible for him to attend the meetings regularly.

SEEK MORE AUTHORITY.

The Eastern Trust Company wrote the council asking for more authority in collecting rentals, money due on mortgages, etc., in connection with the late county housing scheme, a trust which the council reposed with the company some time ago. The company complained that their hands were tied as they could not go ahead on their own initiative and collect the amounts outstanding as the consent of the warden and county secretary was needed before they could take any legal action.

COUNCILLOR FRINK SAID THAT HE WAS FOR GIVING THE TRUST COMPANY ENTER INTO CONTRACT WITH THE MUNICIPALITY FOR THE LOAN OF THE $26,000 PROVIDING THAT THE MUNICIPALITY SHOULD HOLD BACK MONEY DUE BY THE PARISH OF LANCASTER TO THE POWER COMPANY FOR LIGHTING IN LANCASTER UP TO $7,000 IN EACH YEAR, FOR A PERIOD OF THREE YEARS, AND THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE AMOUNT LOANED AND THE AMOUNT DUE UNDER THE CONTRACT FOR LIGHTING IN LANCASTER, BE PAID PROPORTIONALLY ANNUALLY ON THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY.

THE LIGHTING COMPANY IS TO PAY THE COST OF CARRYING THE ACCOUNTS.

The finance committee further recommended that $86,431.48 be borrowed from the Bank of Nova Scotia to increase the credit of the Lancaster Highway Board, while awaiting credit payments due from the Provincial Government, for work now under way in the parish. The council approved the recommendation.

REV. HUGH MILLER, MODERATOR OF THE SAINT JOHN PRESBYTERY AT THE UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA, LEAVES TODAY FOR FREDERICTON WHERE HE WILL GIVE TWO ADDRESSES BEFORE THE PROVINCIAL SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION TODAY AND WILL ALSO SPEAK AT TOMORROW'S SESSIONS. HE WILL RETURN TO SAINT JOHN ON THURSDAY EVENING.

GOUIN DENIES CANDIDATURE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—Sir Lomer Gouin, formerly Minister of Justice in the cabinet of Premier King, issued a denial through La Presse, French language newspaper that he would be a Conservative candidate in Montreal in the coming elections.

ALLIANCE ASKS NEW CHIEF INSPECTOR

Wants Government to Make Change in Prohibition Staff—Immigration Appeal.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 6.—The Provincial Government this afternoon gave a hearing to a delegation representing the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance. The delegation was composed of Donald Fraser, of Plaster Rock; W. G. Clark, James M. Lemont and Rev. Thomas Marshall, of Fredericton.

Premier Baxter stated after the session of the Government that the delegation requested the appointment of a new chief inspector and the improvement of present conditions in regard to enforcement of the Prohibition Act, which they characterized as deplorable. No nominee for the office of chief inspector was named by the delegation, said the Premier.

The reply given to the delegation was that as the Government had been sworn into office on Sept. 14 and the present date was only Oct. 6, and as there had been a press of affairs of great importance to the province, the Government might be excused if it had not been able to deal with the matters mentioned.

Premier Baxter further informed the delegation that the Government was in search of a suitable man for appointment to the chief inspectorship. In the meantime the present inspector would carry on and he believed that he could be depended upon to deal with conditions as they exist.

The Government also this afternoon received a delegation representing the Salvation Army's immigration department. The delegation consisted of Commissioner David C. Lamb and Col. Judge. Commissioner Lamb was spokesman and outlined to the Government the plan which already had been presented to the public in his addresses. Consideration was promised.

ARCHBISHOP URGES BETTER SERMONS

EASTBORNE, Sussex, Eng., Oct. 6.—A severe address to the clergy for the inadequacy of present-day sermons which fail to draw people from golf, motoring and other Sunday diversions, was the feature of an address by the Archbishop of Canterbury at the opening of the Anglican Church congress here today.

MONTREALER FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—Charles William Wise was this afternoon acquitted by a jury in the court of King's Bench of the charge of murdering his brother-in-law, Richard Schroder on June 6 last.

The fatal shooting occurred in Wise's home while he and his brother-in-law who was boarding there, were struggling for possession of a revolver following a quarrel concerning Mrs. Wise. Evidence showed that Schroder was intoxicated at the time of his death.

Safeguard Little Teeth

Children are powerless to defend their heritage of loveliness. Neglect can rob them of their beauty. You wish to prevent the loss of all their charm and the happiness that it will one day bring them. You realize that it is the care bestowed upon them during their childhood that enables them to grow up into attractive men and women. You know the havoc that can be wrought upon their health and beauty in later life by the existence of decayed teeth.

Then safeguard their pearly white teeth now. Teach them to use Colgate's Ribbon Cream after each meal. For Colgate's is the ideal dental cream for children. It is delicious in flavor, gentle in action, and of course contains no grit, which would ruin little teeth. It is the safe dental cream for a lifetime.

Made in Canada

Your sun-parched roughened skin

Let this much-praised care bring it back to smooth, youthful suppleness

HOW you adored them—those long delicious weeks of outdoor freedom! Motoring a hundred miles a day. Leaping the breakers in a turquoise surf. Canoeing up intriguing streams. Playing eighteen holes at a stretch. Camping, mountain-climbing. Your favorite vacation sports!

How proud you were of your sunburn, then, your weathered tan. But now that you're back in town again, your tan is faded and sallow, your skin rough, peeling, dry, coarsened and years older.

Take heart, however! You can bring back that youthful suppleness—with just Two Creams which are magic in the promptness with which they rejuvenate your skin!

Pond's Cold Cream cleanses and softens the parched, roughened surfaces of your skin. Its pure oils quench the thirst of dry pores. Every night before retiring and every time during the day that you need to cleanse your skin, pat this Cream lavishly over it. Wipe it off and repeat. Finish with a dash of cold water or a rub with loe.

After the nightly cleansing, put on more of Pond's Cold Cream and leave it on until morning. Be sure to give your skin a particularly thorough Pond's cleansing on returning from an outing in wind, sun or frosty air.

Pond's Vanishing Cream gives the skin a lovely finish and protects it. Soothing and grateful to the touch, it levels off all the little rough places that come with sunburn and leaves a smooth surface over which powder goes evenly and clings beautifully.

Just now, especially, you'll be glad of the protection Pond's Vanishing Cream gives your skin from further roughening. After every cleansing with Pond's Cold Cream, smooth a light film of Pond's Vanishing Cream over your skin. And do this with particular care when you're expecting to go outdoors.

When you buy Pond's Creams ask for the new, generous-sized jar of the Cold Cream of which, naturally, you'll need to use more. Both creams come in two sizes of smaller jars and tubes. The Pond's Extract Company, 146 Brock Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

UNIVERSITY LAUDED

Graduates Fitted for Parts in Leadership, Baron Dawson Says.

Canadian Press Despatch.

MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—"The future will look to university men for successful leadership, whether in law, in medicine, in industry or in agriculture," said Sir Bertrand Dawson, Baron Dawson, of Penn., physician to King George when addressing those assembled at the annual autumn convocation of McGill University here this afternoon.

The distinguished guest who plans to visit many Canadian hospitals, received the honorary degree of doctor of laws. He stressed the importance of university training in fitting men to play their parts in the national, industrial and professional life of the country.

Thirty-eight degrees and seven diplomas were conferred on the students.

London Carnation Approaches Blue

LONDON, Oct. 7.—What is said to be the nearest approach to a blue carnation ever grown has been on exhibition at the autumn show of the Royal Horticultural Society. When viewed from certain angles the flower has a distinctly bluish tinge, but on close inspection it is found to possess a ray of purple. Among the other carnations attracting attention was the "White Pearl," which King George has chosen as his favorite for button-hole wear.

Hold Bazaars in Aid of Orphans

Madeline Cox, Dorothy and Florence Donner, three little girls, held a bazaar on Saturday afternoon, October 3, at 21 Clifton street, West Saint John and raised $4, which they gave to H. Usher Miller, secretary for the N. B. Protestant Orphans' Home board, for the destitute little one's under care in the institution.

Two other little girls, Helen Dick and Agnes Diggle who have been on a bazaar recently at 40 Carman street, realized $5.01, which they have given to Mr. Miller for the same purpose.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 7, 1925.

THE CANDIDATES.

Nominating conventions are to be held to-morrow night by both Liberals and Conservatives to select candidates in this constituency, and it is important that the public should know what to expect from those who are accepted as standard-bearers by either party.

The people here have had cause for complaint against both parties in the past because of broken pledges and neglect of the important interests and requirements of the port and the province. On a famous occasion many years ago an example was set by two members representing Saint John, who threatened to resign because of a proposed injustice to this city in the matter of steamers going to Portland, and their stout protest, backed by an overwhelming public sentiment, had effect.

Candidates should be heard on the matter of the Valley Railway. They know that this province is to-day adding more than a quarter of a million dollars yearly to its debt because of this railway.

What will the next government do with this issue? Where will the men elected in this constituency stand in this matter? Will they fight for New Brunswick, or will they be merely tame party followers?

They should be heard with respect to justice to the Maritimes in the matter of immigration. The public should know whether they are fully awake to the volume and significance of the Maritime feeling of injustice in connection with these matters, and the freight rates. The leaders of both parties here should realize that it is a time for plain speaking and that the public in the past has suffered disappointment and disillusion because too many New Brunswick members, after reaching Ottawa, have thought too much of party discipline and too little of the interests of this province.

What this election will mean for the Maritime Provinces must depend very largely upon the independent and resolute character of the twenty-nine men who will make up our delegation in the House of Commons. Any man who is asking to be elected here should let the public know where he stands to-day on these questions of grave Maritime interest—and where he will stand should his party leaders hereafter hesitate to do justice to the Atlantic Provinces of Canada.

While the controversy over the Western freight rates decision goes on—and that is likely to continue for some time—Saint John would do well to keep in mind the example of Vancouver. Indeed, the Maritimes should give considerable thought to the example of British Columbia, which has the habit of making its wants and requirements known at Ottawa with no uncertain sound. The point for the Maritimes to remember continually is that what is worth while often demands hard fighting to acquire, and that a good case often falls down because there is not sufficient energy and resolution put into the fight. It is not so much a matter of politics as of convincing all and sundry that the Maritimes will never stop fighting until they have secured a square deal.

Professor J. C. McLennan of Toronto University, who recently returned from Great Britain, says the English are in the midst of great social and economic changes, "but are bearing uncertainties with a stoicism that is strengthened by a consciousness that they are suffering in a just cause. They feel that in the war they acted rightly and that they are now suffering unjustly in being asked to incur an enormous burden of debt incurred for aliens." He was struck by the courage and calmness with which Englishmen faced their difficulties.

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends."—From "Notes by a Wayfarer."

The Prodigal Scots

Jokes about the citizens of Aberdeen, Scotland, are so numerous and are so much of one cloth as to arouse curiosity as to their source. Have the jokes about the closeness of the Aberdeen, or has Aberdeen been discovered simply because of a convenient tag for stories about close-fistedness? Alen Junor, in his "Canny Tales From Aberdeen," advances the explanation that an Aberdeen organized a club to manufacture stories against the residents of the Scotch city in order to "pull the leg" of the credulous English.

The stories in Mr. Junor's book, whether true or untrue, are altogether gorgeous. Here are a few of them: An Aberdeen in London wrote home: "In enjoying my holiday, especially the restaurants, whar I often find tuppence under the plate! P. S.—If there is no stamp on the envelope it fell off in the post."

"Two Aberdonians and a Jew were attending what they understood as a Free Lecture in London. During the course of the meetings a collection was announced. The Jew fainted and the two Aberdonians carried him out." "Can ye tell me," asked an Aberdeen of an English visitor, "can ye tell me why we Aberdonians have a gift of humor? 'I suppose," replied the visitor, "it's because it is a gift." "Two Aberdonians were brought before the police court for being drunk and disorderly. During the hearing the Bailie asked the prosecutor: "But where's the other man? 'What other man, sir? 'The man who paid for the drinks!"

"It was an Aberdeen who, hearing that a certain doctor charged 63. 6d. for a first consultation, and 2s. 6d. for a second, went to him and said, 'Here we are, doctor.' The doctor ventured to reply, 'I don't remember seeing you before.' 'Oh, yes, I was here last week.' 'Oh, indeed, I had forgotten. How are you keeping?' 'Not well at all, doctor, not well at all.' 'Let me see,' replied the doctor. 'Just continue your last prescription for another week. That will be 2s. 6d., please!'"

At 105. (Toronto Mail and Empire). NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Grandma Françoise Levaspreto, 105, and pretty spry, thank you, had a birthday today over in Grant City, Staten Island, where she has lived these 80 years and more in a one-story frame house.

It took a pretty big cake to stick all those 105 candles in, but grandma could have cut it if it had taken a crosscut saw, she's that hearty. Grandma Levaspreto isn't much for height, being only four feet two, but she's lived a quarter century for every foot, and let some of the six-foot Junos try to laugh that off.

All Grant City turned out for her birthday today. When the train went through, the engineer blew the whistle and waved, and grandma took a squint about a block down the street and said: "Land sakes, there's Jennie! and Amelia, too."

And the rest of the young folks in the house were still uncertain whether the far figures through the rain were men or women. "Health!" she said in a sprightly way. "Don't worry. I never wore rubbers in my life and I can't mind the time when I've ever been took with rheumatics. I like to ride in these new autos. And I like for Jennie or Amelia to take me for a musical comedy in New York now and then. But this here prohibition I don't like. Up to the time it came in I took a glass of wine with every meal. Now I've got to use water."

Besides opposing prohibition, Grandma went on record against bobbed hair, short skirts, low-necked dresses and powder puffs.

A Bit Skeptical (Manitoba Free Press). The Hudson Bay Railway was there (at the Meighen meeting) too. It has been adorning election walls and halls in Winnipeg since 1882. It's been a great piece of railway for the sign painters. Last night the sign read, "The Conservatives began, the Conservatives will finish the Hudson Bay Railway." Well, we hope somebody will finish it. Mr. Kennedy, the Conservative candidate for South Centre, said the Liberals started it and that if he is sent to Ottawa he is going to work like a Trojan to have it finished. Well, he will need to work like a Trojan. We have been in Ottawa and know what Mr. Kennedy is going to be up against when he starts talking with the Bay Railway to Ontario Tories and Quebec Grits. They just smile at you—the Quebec Grits pleasantly, because they are of French stock, and the Quebec Tories sourly because most of them are serious persons who have been brought up on serious things like oatmeal and an air of superiority. Mr. Kennedy made one of the best speeches of the night. He looks young, has a modest manner, talked to the point in a moderate fashion, and made such a good impression that it was a mistake to have introduced him by having a bigger blow the reveille. Mr. Kennedy was given a great hand when he had finished.

A Trail of Blood

(Boston Transcript). One after the other occur highway robberies, holdups and murders in Massachusetts. A few days ago the public was horrified by the killing of young Ross at Cambridge. Early Sunday morning was done to death a faithful watchman at the Waltham car barns under cruel and deliberate circumstances. It was one of the most cowardly homicides that could be imagined, and our citizens can hardly be criticized if they are asking themselves where in Massachusetts their lives are safe.

We have no desire to criticize the police in Waltham, Boston or anywhere else, but the only fact that the public can see and the outstanding sinister fact is that these crimes are simply accumulating. They are committed with greater and greater effrontery and what is perfectly plain, with a complete contempt for the forces of the law. There is not only a marked breakdown in apprehending the authors of these outrages, but in preventing them in the first place. Isn't it about time that the forces of law and order were mobilized to combat this extreme lawlessness? If more police are needed, let us have them. If different methods should be adopted, let us adopt them. Above all, when and if the perpetrators of these atrocious crimes are captured, let there be stern and swift punishment. May we not hope, for one thing, that those misguided persons who profess to belong to some good criminal, will be constrained to keep their opinions to themselves? If any man has sympathy to give, let him extend it not to the criminal society, but to the families and friends of the dead and to a community which is at the moment the victim of a war of organized outrage.

A Crusher. He—"I know that you love me." She—"Then I can never marry you." He—"Why not?"

"Because I have sworn never to marry a man who knows more than I do."

Excusable Slowness. Secretary of Golf Club—"Colonel Cayenne complains that you've been very slow this morning, Briggs." Caddie—"I couldn't 'elp it, sir. 'Is language fair made me creep!"

In A Hurry. Mrs. F. S. writes, "Robert, aged six, ardently desired a little sister and was told that he prayed a baby might come. He did so every night, but results not coming as soon as he wished he added one night, 'Dear Lord, if you haven't the baby quite finished, don't wait to put in her adenoids, 'cause they have to be cut out, anyway.'—Boston Transcript.

Disturbing Thought. "Every room with a bath," says the prospectus of a new and huge hotel just started here.

Which reminds us of the story of a countryman, unfamiliar with such luxuries, who passed the night at a modern hotel.

"Well, did you have a good night's rest?" the clerk asked him next morning.

"No, I didn't," was the reply. "The room was all right and the bed was pretty good, but I couldn't sleep much for I was afraid someone would want to take a bath, and the only door to it was through my room."

Dr. J. P. Molloy Is Named To Senate

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—Dr. J. P. Molloy, of Morris, Man., former Liberal member in the House of Commons for Provencher, Man., has been appointed to the Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator George Bradbury, of Selkirk, Man. Official announcement to this effect was made tonight.

Mr. Molloy, who was born on March 18, 1878, at Arthur, Ont., was educated at Emerson, Man., and Toronto, Ont., and holds the degree of M. D., V. V. S. The new appointee to the Senate was Liberal candidate in the provincial elections in Manitoba in 1907. He was first elected to the House of Commons in 1908 and re-elected in 1911 and 1917, but was defeated in 1921.

The way of the transgressor is hard; we wish that his getaway could be made more difficult.

SICK ALONE IN WOODS 25 DAYS; SUCCEUMBS HERE

William Seeley of Welsford Dies in Hospital After Fearful Experience.

WAS FOUND LYING IN BUNK AT CAMP

Worn to Shadow When Discovered and Unable Even to Lift Head.

WILLIAM SEELEY, aged 47, of Welsford, died of the effects of hunger and exposure for 25 days in the woods and in a deserted lumber camp, at the General Public Hospital, Saint John, early today.

Seeley, who had disappeared Sept. 8, was found in the camp, which is about one mile from Welsford, last Saturday, but was not taken to the hospital until late last night. He was extremely weak and emaciated from his terrible ordeal, and all the physicians and nurses could do to save his life was unavailing.

FOUND LYING IN BUNK. When found Seeley was lying in a bunk. He was placed in a vacant office adjoining the camp and Dr. F. A. McGrand, of Welsford, was notified. The doctor treated the unfortunate man until yesterday when he was conveyed to the city on the E. P. R. express, being accompanied by Harry Scott, of Welsford. On the arrival of the train last night at 10 o'clock he was met at the Union Station by the ambulance and taken to the hospital.

TOLD EXPERIENCE. Seeley was conscious when he arrived at the hospital and before dying told his experience, which was described as terrible. He had been in the lumber camp for many days feeding on berries. Having become violently ill he found shelter in the lumber camp and for many days remained in one of the bunks. He was unable to leave the bunk or take care of himself, and how he existed without food or water for such a long period was a mystery to physicians. When discovered, Seeley was in a pitiable condition. He had no strength enough to raise his head and was in filthy surroundings.

STARVATION PICTURE. On his arrival in the city Seeley was the picture of starvation. His bony face was thin and drawn, while his body showed hardly more than a frame covered with skin and very little flesh. Seeley was unmarried, and as far as could be learned at Welsford last night, he was without relatives in this part of the country, and it is not known where he really belonged to. He had been about Welsford district for some time and was looked on as sort of a tramp. He would not be employed on a farm for many days and would then leave and wander about the country receiving food from the hospitable country folk and would sleep at any convenient place he could find for the night.

SING SING LAFER ELUDES PURSUIT

1,400 Convicts Locked up While Prison Search for John Ryan, Slayer.

OSSINGTON, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Sing Sing's 1,400 prisoners were kept locked up indoors all day while every employe of the penitentiary engaged in a hunt for John Ryan, escaped murderer, who had been serving a life term. Ryan got away last night for midnight by squeezing through the bars of a chapel window.

One report had it that the escaped convict, known as "Red," had held up an automobile shortly after his flight. The hold-up was reported to have taken place on the Albany Post road, north of Yonkers. Warden Lewis E. Laves insisted, however, that Ryan probably never got out of the prison walls, and must be hiding somewhere within the prison walls. Every inch of territory is being gone over closely in that belief.

The fugitive is of medium height and thin. He has been in prison nine years, and, even if he had continued on his best behavior, could not have won a parole for six more years. Since entering Sing Sing, in 1916, he has tasted freedom only once, when he attended the funeral of his father last April in the custody of a keeper.

OPENING EIGHT INCHES WIDE

Warden Laves bases his belief on Ryan still being inside the prison walls on the fact that his disappearance was discovered within 15 minutes after he squeezed through the chapel bars. The normal space between the bars is five inches. The slayer pushed one bar an inch out of its way and the adjacent bar two inches in the other direction. Eight inches afforded him adequate space through which to pass. He slid 20 feet down a water pipe after that, but then found himself in the prison yard. There were only two ways in which he could have left the yard. One would have been to scale the 22-foot wall. The other would have been to climb the 10-foot fence on the river front and dive into the Hudson. There were no ladders or ropes to indicate that he had climbed the wall or fence, and no discarded clothing or tracks to show that he had jumped into the river.

KEEPER SUSPENDED

Keeper Coughlin, who had Ryan and 10 other convicts in charge, cleaning the chapel floor, when the break for liberty was made, has been suspended by Warden Laves pending an investigation. Discovery of a piece of iron which Ryan used to pry the bars apart was announced by the warden after several hours of search.

CHARLES T. HAYTER DIES OF INJURIES

Aged Man Succumbs at Pamdenec—Was Struck by Auto Last Friday Night.

Charles Thomas Hayter, of Pamdenec, died yesterday afternoon at 9 o'clock on his 81st birthday without having once regained consciousness following the accident on Friday night last when he was struck by an automobile near his home. He suffered internal injuries that were said to have been the cause of his death. Mr. Hayter, despite his advanced years, had remained active in community work until the accident. He was always interested in anything that was for the good of the district. Mr. Hayter and his father between them completed, nearly a century on the board of vestrymen of St. Peter's Anglican church, Westfield, and Mr. Hayter was a magistrate of the parish for 40 years.

OF LOYALIST DESCENT

He was of Loyalist descent, the last member of a large family. His wife, who was formerly Miss Lavinia Parlee, passed away two years ago. He is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Hartley Henderson, of Saint John; Mrs. D. M. Ham, of C. and Bay; Mrs. John Kinley, of Pamdenec, and Mrs. M. C. Arthur and Miss Lillian Hayter, at home. Mr. Hayter had been a great temperance worker, was well known for his hospitality and was always looking to the good of the people as a whole. His death will be a sad blow to the many who knew and respected him. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence with burial in the family lot at Pamdenec.

Weddings

Thomas-Rowley

Exmouth street United Church will be the scene of the solemnization of the marriage of Miss May Isabelle Rowley, daughter of Mr. Minnie D. Rowley of King Square, and John Walter Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Thomas, of Paddock street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Rev. Ernest E. Styles, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony in the presence of more than 50 invited guests, who will comprise immediate relatives and intimate friends. The church has been beautifully decorated by girl friends of the bride, and autumnal flowers and greenery. The wedding music will be played by Miss Mabel Sandall, organist, and Miss Estelle Fox will sing "Because," during the signing of the register.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her uncle, Gilbert Madill, will wear an informal wedding costume with hat and will be unattended except by a little flower girl, Miss Eleanor McCartney. The registrar will be signed by Miss Edith Madill, cousin of the bride, and Russell Lawton, cousin of the groom, as witnesses. The reception which will follow the ceremony will be held at the home of the bride's mother, and the bride's attendants and several girl friends will assist in serving the guests. The bride will wear an ensemble traveling suit for the honeymoon trip to Boston and other cities. On their return they will reside at 23 Paddock street.

Many beautiful gifts were given the bride and groom by their friends and relatives at the church. The choir of the Exmouth street United Church, of which both are members, made a special presentation of a silver service to the bride and groom. The organist, Miss Mabel Sandall, including in their shower Mrs. Charles Sinclair Kee, of Grand Mere, Que., formerly Miss Maud Bustin, of Saint John, who was married 10 days ago.

Second-Barnes

Centenary United Church will be the scene of a fashionable wedding this afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Rev. Robert G. Fulton will solemnize the marriage of Miss Sybil Mary-Hart Barnes, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. William Barnes, and Charles Markham Second, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Second, and grandson of Colonel Alfred Markham, of Vancouver, B. C., formerly of Saint John. The church has been tastefully decorated by girl friends of the bride. Miss Alice G. Hwa, organist, will play the wedding music and Mrs. L. M. Curran will sing a solo while the register is being signed. The choir will sing the wedding hymns.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a lovely wedding gown, with veil, train and orange blossoms. She will be attended by Miss Edith Paterson as maid of honor, and Miss Marion Brown of Saint John and Miss Elsie Forrest, of Amherst, N. S., as bridesmaids, and Little Misses Helen and Lorraine Sinton as flower girls. The ushers will be J. Douglas Humphrey, cousin of the bride, and Norman B. Knowles, of Toronto, a friend of the groom, who will be attended by Robert H. Paterson. More than 50 were invited as guests for the wedding.

A wedding reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony. The honeymoon trip will be to New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

The out-of-town guests attending the wedding are: Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Watson, of Mount Allison University; Mr. and Mrs. William Langstroth, and Mrs. George Brown, grandmother of the bride, all of Hampton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Creed, the latter an aunt of the bride, from Sussex; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Huettis, of St. Stephen; Miss Hattie Barnes of Rothesay; Miss Elsie Forrest of Amherst; and Norman B. Knowles of Toronto. Owing to their long distance from home, the sister of the bride, Miss Harriet Barnes, of Camrose, and her brother, Major G. Roland Barnes, of Slave Lake, Alberta, will be unable to attend the wedding. They sent substantial checks to their sister and her fiancé.

The groom was severely wounded overseas in the world war while fighting in the 7th Siege Battery. He is a member of the E. G. Nelson & Company firm, of which his father is proprietor, and has many friends in the city. The bride is very popular with young and old alike. Her gifts were exceptionally numerous and beautiful, although invitations were limited to relatives and a few close friends. The young people have received many felicitations and several functions were given for each and both together by

BEATY FOUND IMPROVEMENT

C. P. R. President, After Tour of West, Says Conditions Better

More Optimistic Spirit Noted—Sees Tourist Business as Big Thing for Canada.

After an extended tour of inspection over the company's western lines, E. J. Beaty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, on return to Montreal, said a very marked improvement was evident as compared with that which had existed when he last went across the country. The spirit of the people was much more optimistic and, he thought, with very good reason. The wheat crop was turning out better than had been forecast and he thought it safe to say that 850,000,000 bushels was not too high an estimate for the total yield.

SNOW IS DRAWBACK

It was a pity, he said, that an almost unprecedented early fall of snow throughout Alberta and Saskatchewan was delaying threshing. In some districts this might have the effect of slightly lowering wheat grades, but later advice seemed to indicate an early improvement in weather conditions and a general resumption of harvesting operations, while the grain movement would again assume full swing. So far, said Mr. Beaty, the movement had gone forward extremely well. The railways were never in better shape to handle the crop, and Canadian Pacific shipments from Winnipeg to the head of the lakes had already constituted a record.

SOUNDTEST REMEDY

There was noticeable throughout the country a sustained interest in the portland matter of immigration and a more general realization of the fact that therein lay the soundest remedy for most of Canada's difficulties. The announcement at Edmonton by President Beaty of a fuller measure of co-operation between the Government and the railways looking to an acceleration of the movement of settlers to Canada had apparently been well received as an indication of real progress in this direction, and Mr. Beaty would be much better than for some years past.

The tourist business, said Mr. Beaty, was rapidly assuming tremendous importance in Canadian business and the Rocky Mountains were fast growing in popularity with American and European travelers. Further improvements will be made at Banff and Lake Louise during the coming winter. At the coast Mr. Beaty found business generally good and an air of decided optimism regarding the future. Tourist traffic up and down the coast had been heavy.

Wilson-Campbell. The marriage of Miss Audrey Louise Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan C. Campbell, of West Saint John, and Hedley Cooper Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeBaron Wilson of Saint John, has been arranged to take place this evening at 8 o'clock with Rev. W. A. Robbins, pastor, performing the ceremony in Ludlow street Baptist church, West Saint John.

The church has been decorated in autumn tints and the wedding music will be played by Miss Lorna Cochrane, organist of the church, while the register is being signed. Mrs. W. Stanley Harrison will sing "O Perfect Love." The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a traveling ensemble suit. She will have no attendants but a flower girl, Little Miss Betty Griffin, who will embody the spirit of autumn in her dainty gown. The bride and groom will leave immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon trip to New York and on their return will reside at 26 Pitt street. Their popularity was attested by the large number of gifts received individually and in showers arranged by their young friends.

Brewer-Connell

Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of the Portland United church, officiated at the marriage of Miss Mabel Marie Connell and William Jonathan Brewer, both of Saint John, who were solemnized at the parsonage, 15 Main street, on Monday, Oct. 5. The groom, who was formerly from Newfoundland, has resided in Saint John for several years. The bride is a native of Saint John. They will reside in the city.

Raymond-Ross

The marriage of Andrew Raymond and Inis Regina Ross, both of Saint John, was solemnized by Rev. H. A. Goodwin at the Portland United church parsonage on Monday, Oct. 6. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond will reside in Brook street.

Accident Victim Is Laid To Rest

NEWCASTLE, Oct. 6.—The body of LeRoy Wry, youthful victim of the shooting accident which took place here on Saturday evening, was laid to rest today. Large numbers followed his body to the Presbyterian cemetery, School children, comrades and friends from far and near made up the large cortege and paid their respects to the dead youth, whose young life was so sorrowfully snuffed out. He had felt sympathy of the whole community goes out to his mother and family and to his foster father, Mr. Addington Vye, in their sad bereavement.

RESIGNATION OF BISHOP ACCEPTED

Rt. Rev. E. J. Bidwell Granted Honorarium of Six Months' Stipend.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 6.—Meeting here today the executive committee of the Synod of the Anglican Diocese of Ontario decided to accept the resignation of Rt. Rev. E. J. Bidwell, Bishop of the Diocese, when his lordship again insisted that his decision was final. The executive voted the bishop an honorarium equivalent to six months' stipend. Bishop Bidwell, who has been the Church of England head in the diocese, which comprises a large district in Eastern Ontario, for 12 years, offered his resignation following the announcement that his wife had been converted to the Roman Catholic faith. When the meeting opened today the bishop handed a statement to the members in which he again insisted that his resignation be accepted.

Deaths

James E. McMurray. Expressions of regret from many quarters were heard today at the announcement of the death of James E. McMurray, which occurred at his home, 101 Lancaster Heights, last night. His death, following a lingering illness, causes widespread sorrow as he was well known not only in the immediate community in which he lived but also throughout the city and province. He was closely interested in church and community work, to which he gave much of his time and energy, also he was keenly interested in all sports, particularly baseball. He was a prominent member of Fairville branch, No. 184, C. M. B. A.

Mr. McMurray was a son of the late Patrick and Mary McMurray, of Saint John, and was a member of the long-established firm of McMurray Brothers, bakers, of Fairville. His business activities extended well over the province and in all his dealings his worth as a man was recognized. He is survived by his brother, P. J. McMurray, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mullaney, of this city, and Mrs. D. J. Jennings, of Sydney, N. S., besides his wife, who was Miss Flora McDonald, and five children. The children are Donald and the Misses Doris, Flora, Ellen and Olive, all at home.

George A. Emery. George Andrew Emery, aged 83, passed away at his residence, 20 Cliff street, late on Monday night, having been in failing health for the last two years. He was born at Petersville, Queens county, a son of the late George and Anne Emery, of Petersville, and came to Saint John as a young man. He entered the employ of the Christie Woodworking Company, Limited, and remained in the employ of the firm 47 years until his retirement about two years ago. He was the last surviving member of a large family. Throughout his long life and up to the day of his death he took a keen interest in civic activities. In his younger days he was an ardent lover of horses. He was a lifelong member of St. John's (Stone) church. Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Maria Wilson, of Petersville, he is survived by three sons, Frederick E. of this city; George E., of Minneapolis, and W. Roy, of Duluth, and one daughter, Mrs. A. W. Smith.

Miss Gladys Foran. NEWCASTLE, Oct. 7.—(Special)—Miss Gladys Foran, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Foran, of Halifax, died suddenly at the home of her parents Wednesday. The cause

PLANS OUTLINED

Congregational Social Held in Germain Street Church Rally Week.

The congregation social which was held last night as part of the rally week of the Germain street Baptist church was an outstanding success. Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, pastor, was in the chair and there was a large attendance. Representatives of the various organizations of the church outlined their plans for the coming year and a spirit of optimism prevailed. During the evening solos were delightfully rendered by Dr. P. L. Bonnell and Miss Estelle Fox. The Willing Workers of the church had decorated the rooms very tastefully and they also had charge of the serving of the refreshments.

HOPE TO PREDICT QUAKES VERY DEFINITELY SOON

By DAVID DIETZ. Pioneers on the frontier of science expect that eventually it will be possible to predict the time and place of an earthquake. Within a reasonable number of years they hope to be able to do that for the California earthquake region. The Carnegie Institution of Washington is carrying on the study with the aid of the U. S. Coast Survey, the U. S. Geological Survey, the Bureau of Standards, the University of California, the Land Stanford University and the U. S. Navy. The first task, as Dr. Arthur L. Day of the Carnegie Institution points out, is to find out exactly what is happening inside the earth in the California region. For students of the earth now agree that an earthquake is merely the releasing of strains and stresses which have been accumulated through the shifting and movement of the layers of rock. Many geologists believe that there is an actual movement or "creep" of the whole San Francisco bay region and that the land here, covered as it is with busy cities, villages and farms, is slowly moving northward at the rate of about one foot a year.

Keettle-Drum Piano Austrian Invention

VIENNA, Oct. 7.—A "kettle-drum piano" may make its appearance in orchestras in the near future of the experiments of Professor Scheller, noted kettle-drum player of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra, prove successful. He is working assiduously to perfect such an instrument, having been inspired by Richard Strauss, who is writing special music for it. Preliminary descriptions show the completed "piano" will have eight drums of varying pitch, to be played by the same musician. Thus far even the most modern orchestras have only three or four kettle drums.

SAY TINIEST BABY Little New Yorker Being Fed by Use of Medicine Dropper. NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A daughter, who weighed but two pound and 14 ounces, was born in Mary Immaculate Hospital at Jamaica last Wednesday to Mrs. Mildred Sakin of Jamaica. Since its birth the child has lost nine ounces, but apparently is in good health and normal in every way except size. Members of the medical staff of the hospital say the baby is the smallest in their experience. Her mouth is too small to take nourishment from a spoon, and she is being fed a special milk preparation every three hours with a medicine dropper. She is swathed in blankets in a room kept at high temperature.

REVIEW CHURCH WORK AT SOCIAL

Fairville United Congregation is Given Reports on Various Activities.

Words of Appreciation of Pastor, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, are Spoken.

A greatly enjoyed congregational social was held in the Fairville United church rooms last night as part of the rally week programme of the church.

SOCIETIES REPORT.

Reports were presented by the various church organizations. William McCavour, leader of the class meeting, which has about 25 boys and girls attending each Sunday morning, spoke of the benefits which this department had brought to the young people.

HELEN TAFT NOW MADAM PRESIDENT

Square church, gave an address on "What is the Church Worth?" Two anthems were sung by the choir. Solos were contributed by Purdy Cogle, and a duet by Miss Lottie Kelly and Miss Vivian McColegan.

The rooms were very tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, rowan berries and colorful flowers. Mrs. S. H. Shaw and Mrs. Edward Kirkpatrick received the guests. Those who presided over the nicely-arranged serving table at refreshment time were Mrs. William McCavour, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Arthur Long.

Mrs. W. J. Linton reported the W. M. S. had sent $176.75 to the branch treasurer during the year. Mrs. Dane Crosby gave a report of the Ladies' Aid.

URGES PUBLIC HEALTH CARE

Dr. W. F. Roberts Says Federal Minister is Necessary.

Also Advocates Dominion Executive—Address Given in Portland Church.

Declaring that Canada needed a portfolio of Public Health with a minister untrammelled by the duties of any other department until he has solved the great problem of saving the 100,000 good and worthy Canadian lives that today are being sacrificed because of conditions that can be righted, and advocating an executive of Public Health for the Dominion, Dr. W. F. Roberts, former provincial secretary of public health, addressed a large meeting in the Portland United church last evening.

He said that the governments had built railways and canals until the map of Canada looked like a cross-word puzzle. In the political campaign now being carried on the leaders were discussing the tariff, transportation and immigration, but there was no word from any of them concerning the conservation of the health of the people and saving lives that are needlessly sacrificed today.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

In opening his address Dr. Roberts asked three questions: What is Public Health? Who needs it? Who is responsible for it? Then he proceeded to give the answers, declaring that the federal administration should be the leader in Canada in this work.

A great statesman had said that the duty of a statesman was to conserve the health and lives of the people. After eight years of concentration on public health work Dr. Roberts said his definition of public health was: "That department of medicine that created an atmosphere that not only prevents disease but that made it impossible for it to occur."

Education was necessary regarding the conditions pertaining to the little child, which lead up to the choice of parents to do away with anything and everything that constituted a menace to the health, happiness and lives of the human family.

45 MINISTERS TO BE IN MARITIME SYNOD

Rev. Robert Johnston Again Named Moderator at New Glasgow.

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Oct. 6.—The Maritime synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada will have a membership of 45 ministers in good standing in the Maritimes. I will be greatly disappointed if we have not at least 120 congregations."

These were statements of Rev. Frank Baird, of Pictou, N. S., tonight in addressing the synod at the opening meeting held this evening in Westminster church, New Glasgow, formerly known as United church.

There was a large gathering of townspeople at the opening meeting with representative ministers and laymen from various parts of the Maritimes. Rev. Robert Johnston, of New Glasgow, N. S., provincial moderator, appointed a year ago, following the decision of the then synod to enter church union, was reappointed moderator and was tendered an ovation.

Social Notes of Interest

ENGAGEMENT NOTICES ENGAGEMENT Announcements will in future be subject to a charge of 50 cents per insertion.

Owing to the widespread regret felt at the death of Mr. William S. Allison, social functions, except in connection with weddings, have been postponed or set aside altogether because of relationship or because of the sorrow his passing occasioned. The Duke of Rothesay Chapter, I. O. D. E., of which Mrs. Allison is an active member, will not meet today and will not be assembled until further announcement.

The Misses Elizabeth and Grace O. Robertson, of King street east, have arrived home after visiting in Fredericton, following their attendance at the Harrison-Smiths wedding last week.

Miss Elsie Forrest, of Amherst, N. S., arrived last evening and is the guest of Mrs. T. William Barnes, 59 Hazen street. Miss Forrest will be one of the bridesmaids at the Second-Barnes wedding today. She was a classmate of the bride-elect at Mount Allison Ladies' College, of which the latter is a graduate.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Watson, of Mount Allison University, Sackville, arrived in the city last evening and were registered at the Clifton House, coming for the Second-Barnes wedding. Mrs. Watson will visit Mrs. Barnes, the mother of the bride-elect, after the wedding, while Dr. Watson will return to his duties at the university.

Mrs. Thomas Guy, who was here for some time last summer, visiting her relatives, has returned to Halifax, where she now resides and is again taking her place in the choir of the Presbyterian church as soprano soloist. Mrs. Guy was heard with great pleasure last Sunday in her solos at the services, the Halifax papers report.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar D. Bissett, of Saint John, have been the guests of Mrs. Bissett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Lint, at South Devon. Mrs. Bissett is remaining with her parents while her husband is enjoying a hunting trip on the Burpee stream with friends.

Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, B. A., who preached in the Christchurch Cathedral, Fredericton, on Sunday, and who has returned to the city, was the guest of Very Rev. Dean and Mrs. Scovill Neales for the week-end.

Miss Helen Cudlip, who was the guest of Miss Doris deVeber, while visiting in the city, has returned to her home in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Malcolm McGowan have arrived from their wedding trip and are residing with relatives until they take their apartment on Exmouth street.

Many here will be interested in the post-nuptial reception in Montreal this week of Mrs. E. Blythe Maxwell, formerly Miss Ruth Ballantyne, of Montreal, and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Edward Maxwell, who has relatives here, and who is a regular visitor in St. Andrews, having come there for many years. The Misses Jess and Elizabeth Maxwell, sisters-in-law of the bride, assisted in serving the guests, while in conjunction with the bride's mother, Mrs. James Ballantyne, Mrs. Maxwell, Sr., assisted the bride in receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Collins, who have been residing in their bungalow at Petticoat, have sold it to Mr. Guy Parkin of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Collins have made their home in Saint John in the winter for some years.

Miss Nellie Stevens has returned home from a two weeks' vacation, enjoyed in Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Bryce Climo, of Halifax, N. S., who have been on their wedding tour, have returned and taken up residence in that city.

Mrs. James W. Dow, of Regina, accompanied by her little son, arrived yesterday to spend a few weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. George N. Breen, at Brookville.

2 DIE AS PLANE CRASHES. LONG BEACH, Calif., Oct. 6.—Watson Keerie and Harold Clark were killed almost instantly today at Daugherty Field, near here when their airplane crashed. Both men were said to be experienced pilots.

PREPARING FOR RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Larger Membership and Fund of $6,300 Hoped for in Coming Drive.

The Red Cross depot is a busy place just now as the work goes forward for the launching of the provincial campaign on Oct. 13. The provincial division is seeking to roll up a large membership and to raise $6,300, essential for the carrying on the work. The funds are required to finance the special care of the soldiers in hospital, a work held to be the chief purpose of the Red Cross Society, to maintain emergency relief work and to meet the expenses of the provincial office. In the times of flood, fire or disaster, the Red Cross Society has always been called upon to provide immediate assistance and in order to be prepared for this call it has to keep in store as large a stock of emergency supplies as can be procured.

In preparation for the campaign posters and membership cards are being sent to all of the branches of the society in the province as well as the Red Cross committees in various organizations. In addition, letters telling of the Red Cross work are being sent out to the various patriotic organizations in the province. Mrs. Margaret Lawrence, organizing and publicity convenor, Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, provincial secretary, and R. G. McInerney, treasurer, have been directing and carrying out the work already undertaken for the campaign and Mrs. Lawrence hopes to visit a few of the branches.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Natural History Society at its executive meeting yesterday afternoon arranged for its annual meeting to take place on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and also completed plans for the visit of Mrs. Francis Ayscough, who will open the Auxiliary's afternoon lecture course of this season with an address on "Memorial Temples in China," to be given on Oct. 13.

Women's Peace-of-Mind

under trying hygienic conditions is assured this NEW way

A DANCE, a sheer gown to be worn; a difficult hygienic situation. You need no longer give this complication a second thought.

The hazards of the old-time sanitary pad have been supplanted with a protection both absolute and exquisite.

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time. Thus ending ALL fear of offending. You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it for a few cents at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." Women ask for it without hesitancy. Try Kotex. Comes 12 in a package. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

KOTEX No laundry—discard like tissue

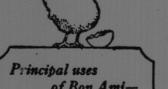

Do you know that Bon Ami comes in two forms—cake and powder? Both are made from the same ingredients—both have the same wonderful gift of cleaning and polishing without scratching.

For some purposes you'll want the Bon Ami powder in its handy, sifter-top tin—it's so easy to shake out on a damp cloth. For other uses you'll prefer the solid Bon Ami cake that you can rub on the cloth like soap.

Most housewives keep both the cake and powder always on hand. These two "partners in cleanliness" are unequalled for cleaning and polishing all the things listed at the right.

LIBERAL WOMEN
OF CITY MEET

Mrs. W. E. Foster Succeeds
Mrs. M. B. Edwards as President

Secretary of State Addresses
Ladies On Matters in Election Campaign.

Speaking at a meeting of Liberal women of the city held under the auspices of the Liberal Women's Club last evening in the Natural History Society rooms, Hon. Dr. W. E.
Foster, Secretary of State in the King Government, declared that the Government would not return and if the revenue of the country remained at its present buoyant level reduce the income tax. He reviewed the issues of the present campaign, paying especial attention to the tariff, the state of prosperity of the country, the Courtney Bay development, the West Indies agreement and the railway situation.

The meeting was well attended, the hall being nearly filled, and the speaker was well received.

MRS. FOSTER, PRESIDENT.
At the meeting Mrs. M. B. Edwards withdrew from the active duties of president and was elected honorary president. Mrs. W. E. Foster was elected president and Mrs. William Pugsley, first vice-president. Steps were taken for complete organization of wards, plans for which will be matured at a meeting to be held at the latter end of the week.

The meeting voiced its appreciation of the interest and splendid work of Mrs. Edwards during her tenure of the office of president.

In opening his address, Hon. Dr.
Foster spoke of the women's viewpoint. Men and women were equal in voting and had an equal interest in the affairs of the day such as the cost of living, the railway question and the tariff, he said. "Pass over all you have got and do it quick,"
he said to Poulin, who gave them about $10 of his own money, the cash faxes which were in the steel box container and the bandits overlooked the container containing several dollars in silver. They ordered Poulin to stay where he was until they got out of sight and they ran in the direction of the cemetery. Poulin did not wait but speeded into town. He had a meagre description of the bandits who were young men, he says:
"This is the first hold-up ever known on a city car line here."

last night in the Saint John County Hospital by the Douglas Avenue Minstrel Troop. The patients and staff thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the evening and were most grateful to the entertainers. The minstrel troupe gave harmonious and accordian selections and also presented the following numbers: Reading, Miss

Mahon promised to come again and show some pictures of the places he had visited, and the choir of the church promised to give a sacred service on Sunday morning for the patients.

Session.

A stormy meeting of the electors of the parish of Simonds was held last night in Peck's Hall in East Saint John with former Councillor J. M. Donovan as chairman. At one stage a revolver was so fierce and furious that the Constable Shortliffe was called in to quell the disturbance. The meeting lasted for three and a half hours.

Many Subjects Discussed.

Every subject of community concern was under discussion from sewerage to the appointment of parish officers and the making of the assessment. Magistrate H. G. S. Adams as plans to run the affairs of the board, was also called upon to uphold the work of the board.

She hated to acknowledge the Corn

So goes the old saying. And few indeed, like to confess a corn. It seems such an un-dainty thing—an admission of physical untidiness. One may conceal the presence of a corn, but not its ill-effect. It shows itself in the face—and the humor. That twinge in the toe means a frown on the forehead—and a thorn in the disposition. But how foolish to carry a secret sorrow in

DUNCAN GAMMON
IS FREED FROM JAIL

Had Been Held Since January
Charged With Murder at Wife.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 6.—After being in jail since January, charged with the murder of his wife, Sarah, Duncan Gammon was released from the county jail today on instructions of Attorney-General John Douglas under nolle prosequi proceedings.

The mysterious disappearance of his English wife caused suspicion to be directed to Gammon last year when a letter from a relative of the accused in Pictou county disclosed the fact that Gammon's people there believed the young war bride to have departed for England, whereas communications established the fact that she had never arrived at the home of her parents. This was last September and Chief of Police Palmer had Gammon watched and later arrested on the charge of murder.

51 NOMINATED IN MARITIMES

More Expected to Enter Contests for Twenty-nine Seats

26 Conservatives, 23 Liberals, One Labor, One Independent Named

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 6.—With nomination day little more than a fortnight away 51 candidates have been nominated to contest the 29 seats at issue in the Dominion general election, Oct. 29, in the Maritime Provinces. Of these 51 candidates, 26 carry the Conservative banner, 23 the Liberal, one the Laborite, and one the Independent Liberal-Progressive.

In Prince Edward Island four Liberals and four Conservatives were contesting the four seats. In Nova Scotia the line-up was 19 Liberals, 13 Conservatives and 1 Laborite. In New Brunswick 6 Liberals, 9 Conservatives and 1 Independent Liberal-Progressive had been nominated.

MORE TO BE SELECTED.

Tomorrow the Conservatives will boost their ranks in Nova Scotia by nominating a candidate for Cape Breton South, and later the Liberals will repeat by nominating a candidate in Colchester.

All indications pointed to but one three-cornered contest in Nova Scotia, that in Cape Breton South, where J. B. McLachlan has entered the lists as Labor candidate.

In New Brunswick both Liberals and Conservatives have yet to nominate candidates for two seats representing Saint John-Albert. In addition the Liberals have yet to nominate candidates in the constituency of Charlotte and York-Sunbury, in both of which Conservative candidates are already in the field.

17 IN LAST PARLIAMENT.

Of the 51 candidates already formally chosen, 17 were members of the last parliament. In Nova Scotia 9 Liberals and 1 Conservative are seeking re-election; in New Brunswick 4 Liberals, 3 Conservatives and 1 Independent; in Prince Edward Island, 1 Liberal.

With the exception of A. Dewitt Foster, Conservative candidate in Kings-Hants, N.S., who was elected over the late Sir Frederick Borlden in the 1911 election, all the remaining candidates are new to the federal arena.

IN SASKATCHEWAN.

REGINA, Oct. 6.—Today there are 17 Liberals, 19 Conservatives and 21 Progressives nominated to contest the 21 Saskatchewan constituencies in the Dominion election, a total of 57 candidates. Of the Progressive nominees, 18 were members of the old House of Commons, one Liberal, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, was a member, and none of the Conservatives. Of the Liberal nominees other than Mr. Motherwell, four have been members of the Saskatchewan Legislature. None of the Conservative nominees has had previous parliamentary experience.

FAIR FOR ORPHANS AGAIN DRAWS MANY

About 1,200 People Present Last Night—Prize Winners of Evening.

The attendance at the Protestant Orphanage Fair numbered about 1,200 people last night and the committee reported that the different games and booths were well patronized. The musical programme was furnished by the Carleton Cornet Band. The door prize, a load of wood, was won by ticket 4848, but like a few other door prizes has not been claimed. Other prize winners were as follows: Ladies' bean board, Mrs. Green, manicule set; ten pins, M. Clark, clock; bagatelle, Charlie McConnell, silver trap; devil among the tailors, H. Kenney, clock; air gun, Mr. Stone, electric iron; gent's bean toss, W. R. Stearns, pepper and salt shaker.

A large number of ballots were voted in the contest for the most popular postman, but the total number was not counted last night.

LECTURE ENJOYED

Rev. E. E. Styles Gives Address on Missionary Work in West Indies.

As part of the observance of the eighty-second anniversary of the Ludlow street Baptist church the congregation attended a splendid lantern lecture given by Rev. E. E. Styles, who described his experiences as missionary for 12 years in the West Indies. He spoke of the island products, the people and their customs and his missionary experiences. He illustrated his address with a fine series of about 50 lantern slides, many of them made from his own photographs. Rev. W. A. Robbins, pastor, was chairman of the gathering and during the evening there were some much appreciated musical selections, including a trio by Miss Carrie Durkes and the Misses Saulte and Ruth Carvell, and a duet by the Misses Saulte and Louise Burke. Mrs. W. A. Robbins was the accompanist. The lantern was operated by R. H. Parsons, Delbert Black and George Wood. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Styles and all who took part in the programme.

GIVEN CHARTER.

YARMOUTH, N. S., Oct. 6.—The Kiwanis Club this evening, was presented its charter by Kiwanian George E. May, secretary-treasurer of the Ontario-Quebec district, who was delegated by Governor H. Stanley Higman, of that district to perform the honors.

Howard Good, James S. Dumas; Caraquet, T. LeBouthillier, A. P. Albert; Paquetville, D. Pinet, John Hachey; Shippegan, Albert Robichaud, S. G. Robichaud; Inkerman, Max Arsenau, Val Robichaud; St. Isidore, D. D. Hachey, E. Bourgeois; Saumarez, J. Withell, F. Comeau.

CHURCH REDEDICATED

The opening and re-dedication of the Baptist Church at Upper Gagetown took place on Sunday. The building formerly stood about a mile below its present site. The church which stood on the present foundation was burned about four years ago, and it was decided to consolidate the Baptist work by moving the lower structure and placing it on the foundation of the burned church. This having been successfully accomplished, the church was re-dedicated with special services. It had been planned to have Rev. Henry R. Boyer, general secretary, speak at the morning dedication service, and Rev. E. S. Mason, superintendent of Home Missions, at the evening service, while one of the clergymen of Fredericton, had planned to be present for the afternoon service. Owing to the illness of Mr. Mason and the inability of the afternoon speaker to be present, Mr. Boyer spoke at all three services. The Devon Male Quartette rendered a number of selections during the morning and afternoon services, and Mrs. Ashley Estabrook sang a number of solos very beautifully at all three services.

$2,000 has been expended to date upon the moving and improvements. The offerings for the day were $245. This amount, $200 was contributed by a former resident of the community. It is planned to paint the church both inside and out.

JUDGE BYRNE IS GIVEN ADDRESS

Lawyers of Miramichi Bar Honor Resident of That District

True Bills Found by the Grand Jury in Two Criminal Cases.

NEWCASTLE, Oct. 6.—Mr. Justice Byrne making his first circuit here as judge of the Supreme Court, was presented an address by members of the Miramichi Bar which was read by A. A. Davidson, K.C. To Hon. James P. Byrne, Judge of Supreme Court, may it please your Honor, on this your Honor's first circuit for the county of Northumberland, the members of the Bar practising in the county beg leave to offer their congratulations on your appointment to the Supreme Court Bench of New Brunswick. May we be permitted to say that the appointment made from our own section of the province has been particularly gratifying to your former brethren of the Bar here and that our knowledge and experience of your Honor in practice and at the Bar gives us full assurance of the eminent fitness which has brought to you this high honor and acknowledgement of merit.

Clear Your Skin With Cuticura Soap to Cleanse Disinfect to Heal Absolutely Nothing Better

A TRIBUTE.

We know, too, and recognize the high regard for public duty and that assiduous care and inspiring labor which marked your Honor's career as a barrister and particularly the discharge of your duties as Attorney-General of New Brunswick. We already know that these qualities as well as your Honor's professional attainments have been brought to the discharge of your judicial duties and we again beg to offer hearty congratulations and best wishes for your Honor's continued career and personal well being.

On behalf of the Miramichi Bar, A. A. Davidson, K.C.

TRUE BILLS RETURNED.

The grand jury found true bills in both cases which were on the docket, namely the King vs. William Great and Joseph McCarthy charged with assaulting Joseph Dickson, a police officer, then and there engaged in doing his duty. They all reside in Chatham.

The King vs. L. Julmont, of Rogersville, charged with wounding a cow, the property of Daniel Dolron and George Dolron.

Three In Field In Northumberland

NEWCASTLE, Oct. 6.—The entry of James Robinson, of Millerton, into the political contest has stirred the straight party politicians. Mr. Robinson is coming as a people's candidate irrespective of party lines and is bound to change the political aspect in Northumberland county. It is said that Mr. Robinson shall have the support of some of the leaders of both parties in the county. In and about Newcastle some of the prominent Liberals are said to be openly favoring him, while it is said that some prominent Conservatives in other parts of the county are doing likewise.

FAR away, in a spacious hall, a great orchestra unrolls the rich melody of a master symphony. Far away, in a vast cathedral, an organ pours forth the theme of an age-old hymn. Far away, in a world-famed opera house, a drama is revealed in song.

Far away—but with a turn of the dials—near—vivid and real. With a Radiola, you are part of the audience—a silent listener to magic sounds. The "distance fan" is now a listener. The thrill of radio is no longer in getting fifty stations in a night, for Radiolas by C.G.E. have conquered distance and now turn to music.

C.G.E. engineers have kept pace with broadcasting—have improved reception to meet an ever-widening world of fun. With the simplicity and tone quality of radiolas by C.G.E., the home becomes a fascinating corner in a world of new interest and new pleasure for everybody.

There is a Radiola manufactured by C.G.E. for every purse,—models which bring the full miracle of radio into your home selling for as low a price as $35.00, and the reputation and skill of C.G.E. are behind them.

Buy your radio set now. Provided it is a Radiola on which the name of the Canadian General Electric Company appears, you run no risk of disappointment.

WALL STREET IS IRREGULAR ON READJUSTMENT

Motor and Mercantile Issues Chiefly Affected by Movement
MONTREAL MARKET IS QUIET AND FIRM
Breweries Has Fairly Large Turnover With the Price Slightly Higher.

Canadian Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The stock market continued in the process of readjustment at today's opening, with realising sales causing considerable irregularity in the motors, mercantile and other industrial groups. Sears Roebuck and Hudson motors lost ground, but gains of one to 2 1/2 points were recorded by United States Realty, International Harvester and Ward Baking "B."
QUIET IN MONTREAL.
MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—With the exception of National Breweries, trading at the opening of the local stock exchange this morning was quiet and firm. Breweries came out with an overnight gain of seven-eighths at 62 5/8 on a turnover of 1,095 shares. Asbestos firms up one-half at 90 1/2. Dominion Bridge eased one-eighth at 82 3/8. Spanish River common was off one-half at 90 1/2, and Besco first preferred was up one-quarter, and the Common was unchanged at two.

SAVING A THIRD OF COAL BILLS

No Trick if You Follow a Few Simple Instructions
To get rid of all stone and clinker and almost all the ash is quite a big order, but at the same time to get more and better heat at a saving of about a third of the coal bill seems too good to be true. Yet this, it is claimed, is exactly what is being accomplished by most users of Consolidation MILLERS CREEK Coal.
Consolidation MILLERS CREEK has an odd mixture of qualities. It is neither hard coal, soft coal nor wood, but has some of the characteristics of all three. Burned according to instructions it makes a long lasting, crack, smokeless fire. These instructions are quite simple and easy to follow. No change in furnace or stove is necessary. The coal is simply placed on the fire somewhat differently than hard coal and the dampers are adjusted differently, all of which is explained in the little folder which the Billard Coal Co. will gladly mail to any one on request, or if one wishes will send someone thoroughly familiar with the coal to build the first fire and instruct the household in stoking and draft adjustment to get the best results. This service is gladly furnished to both present and prospective customers. Once instructed it is easy to carry on and show others.
The saving is arrived at in two ways, first there is none of the waste in stone and clinker and the large amount of ash like in hard coal, then the cost per ton is about 85 cents. This double saving amounts to fully one-third of the coal bill for most users.
Billard Coal Co., Limited, the Maritime Agents for Consolidation coals, wish to advise that the summer price on this coal will apply to all orders for delivery from the next shipload, due to arrive in a few days.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Tobey and Kirk—"National Clink and But is much higher the rest of stocks in that group. U. S. Rubber continues in large demand, with talk in some quarters of still higher prices."
Clark Childs—"Steel conditions are improving. Liquidation by a sick man of U. S. Steel is over, and reports such as Crucible and other independents make it seem probable that liquidation will come in that market."
Frybush—"Continue to suggest profits be accepted on strength and any new commitments made be on a conservative basis."
Houseman & Co.—"Would not take profits yet in Armour 'A.' Like to suggest the price of the stock is high. The stock may be trying on the patience, but we think it will prove worth while. Still think Department Store stocks are going higher."
Schroeder and Weeks—"The action of the oil group has not been of a speculative nature lately. We would like to see however, that they are tuning up for more activity. Would suggest that advantage be taken on weakness in these issues to accumulate. The same applies to the copper."

Funerals

The funeral of Christopher W. Kierstead was held this afternoon from the residence of his son, Arthur, Mansfield road. Services were conducted by Rev. C. T. Clark. Interment was made in Cedar Hill.
Mrs. C. E. Clowes.
The funeral of Mrs. Charles E. Clowes, whose death took place suddenly in Fredericton on Friday afternoon, was held from her late residence on Sunday afternoon. Very Rev. Dean Scovill Neales, of Christ Church Cathedral, conducted the prayers at the house, after which the funeral proceeded to St. John's church, Ormoco, where the burial service was read by Rev. H. B. Best, rector of the parish, assisted by Dean Neales. There was a large congregation present and the hymns sung were "There is No Night in Heaven," "Saviour Breathe an Evening Blessing" and "Thy Will Be Done." The pall-bearers were H. G. Clowes, J. Allan Clowes and Arthur H. Clowes, of Mauderville; C. Robert Hawkins, Charles T. Harrison and John McAdgen, of Fredericton. Interment was made in the family lot. A great many beautiful floral tributes were received from relatives and friends in Fredericton, Calais and elsewhere, and among the floral offerings were those of the Ladies' Aid in Calais and the Calais church and from the New Brunswick pulp dealers in Fredericton. Besides her husband she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Collings, of Calais, Me., one brother, Kenneth Collings, of Calais, and two sisters, Miss Vestina Collings, of Calais, and Mrs. H. J. Dodson, of Woodland, Me.

GET READY FOR WINNIPEG MEET

Boards of Trade Advance Case of Maritimes for Presentation
Delegates Plan to Meet and Travel Together—Agenda is in Preparation
The Dominion-wide economic conference, to be held in Winnipeg on November 16, 17 and 18, promises to be of outstanding importance to the Maritime Provinces. All the Eastern Boards of Trade have been working in conjunction in the preparation of the case of the Maritimes, so it is expected that the existing condition of affairs in the Maritimes will be well placed before the Winnipeg conference.
It is the expectation to send a united and strong eastern representation. Reports of the various committees now at work will be discussed at the coming meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade in Charlottetown the first of next month and the Maritimes case will then receive its finishing touches for the bigger conference at Winnipeg.
Every Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce in the Dominion will join in this conference in Winnipeg, at which national economic problems will be discussed with a view of cooperating in their solution and promoting a closer relationship between the provinces.

PREPARING AGENDA.
An agenda covering important national questions is now in the process of preparation by six presidents of boards of trade representing Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal, Saint John and Halifax. The topics to be discussed, it is announced, will be national in character, timely in importance and general in application to business and industry.
A board of trade or commerce may be represented by as many delegates as possible. No limit will be placed upon the number. Each board or chamber, however, will be entitled to only one vote.
An endeavor is now being made to have all the Eastern and travel meet at a central point and travel together to Winnipeg. It is hoped in this way to afford the delegates an opportunity for an interchange of views prior to the conference.

PRESENTATION MADE
NEWCASTLE, Oct. 7.—(Special)—On Monday evening a genuine surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bald, of Douglasfield, when about 40 friends motored from Newcastle and spent a very enjoyable evening. The time was spent in cards, games and an inter-church dinner. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were presented with a beautiful Limoges dinner and tea set. The recipients thanked the donors in a few well-chosen words.

W. C. T. U. Arranges For Convention Here

The Saint John branch of the W. C. T. U. held an informal meeting yesterday afternoon to complete preparations for the visit of the provincial convention which is to be in session in the Central Baptist church in Saint John on Oct. 13, 14 and 15. Mrs. Effie Bruce, of Campbellton, is the president and is expected to take the chair at the convention. About 25 or 30 delegates from outside points are expected to be in attendance and the local members are extending hospitality. The billing committee is composed of Mrs. I. Hoare, Mrs. C. W. Dickinson and Mrs. J. D. Seely. Previous to the convention an executive meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Hutchings, 188 Carmarthen street.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.
Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things:—
Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarck Magnesia at their meals.
There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antidote than Bismarck Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a detergent. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevents its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and heartily without need of peppin pills or digestives.
Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the Bismarck form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

FAIR IS POSTPONED.
The annual fair of the Loch Lomond Agricultural Society, arranged for today at the Agricultural Hall, Loch Lomond, was postponed on account of the heavy rain. A message to The Times-Star announced that the fair would be held tomorrow, rain or shine.

Steel Engraving Gift to Rev. W. E. Fuller—Prizes Are Presented.
The A. Y. P. A. of St. Luke's church at its first meeting of the season last night enjoyed a social gathering and welcomed the honorary president, Rev. W. E. Fuller, curate of the church, and his bride, who have just returned after their honeymoon. A fine steel engraving of the "Burl of the Unknown Warrior," was presented to Mr. Fuller by R. J. Adams, the president, and Mr. Fuller replied suitably.
PRIZES PRESENTED.
The prizes won in the St. Luke's Athletic Club tennis tournament recently held were also presented last night. The presentations were made by Mr. Fuller. Miss Alice Buchanan and Robert Morrell received tennis racket cases as winners of the ladies' and men's singles. Clifford Seely and Miss Edith Nason received racket presses as winners of the mixed doubles. They also received the beautiful silver cup which had been donated by W. L. Seely as a prize for that event of the tournament.
Miss Robert Craft, convener of the programme committee, had charge of the evening after the brief opening address by the chairman, Mr. Adams. Refreshments were served.

EXPECT GROWTH OF 45,000 AT TODAY'S GAME

50-Year-Old Man Waits In Line All Night For Seat

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 7.—The Pittsburgh club disclosed today that the unprecedented demand for world's series reserved seat tickets had so far exceeded the supply that $500,000 had been returned on orders which it was impossible to fill for the first and sixth games scheduled here. More than 200,000 ticket applications altogether were received, five times the seating capacity of Forbes Field.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 7.—Baseball's day of action, long awaited, has dawned. Two mighty teams, Washington's Senators and the Pirates of Pittsburgh have come up to the decisive day with injury lurking in each camp with a spirit that is calculated to ward off human ailments in the fulfillment of the greatest ambition a baseball team can know—winning the world's championship.

Ty Cobb Finishes Twentieth Successive Year Above .300 Mark

Along The Sport Trail

DR. FAN'S writing in the Halifax Chronicle recently has considerable to say in defence of Mr. Millie's action in naming Halifax as the place for the annual meeting of the M. P. B. and severely scores all the Saint John clubs for trying to "knif" Mr. Millie in the back.

Twelve clubs in this city, Y. M. C. A., Y. M. C. I., Saint John Rowing Club, Trojans A. C., Saint John A. A., St. Peter's, South End Improvement League, Royals A. C., Padenac A. C., Water Department, C. Saint John, the Baptists, and East End I. L., not to mention all the P. E. L. clubs in addition to the Moncton A. A., Amherst A. A. and Springhill A. A. have told Mr. Millie in the King's plain English that they want to save some time and money and hold their annual meeting at a central point. Is there anything unreasonable about this?

We are not millionaires in this sport game down here and every dollar counts. Here is a chance to help the clubs.

Mr. Millie prefers to help Cape Breton and the South Shore of Nova Scotia, the former which was represented for the FIRST time in many years at an annual last year and the latter has never sent a delegate to a meeting, save once!

But the best part of it is that Amherst is better for Cape Breton than Halifax itself! Can Dr. Fan, who professes great admiration for the president, explain this?

He says that Halifax has not had an annual for years. The last one was held in Halifax in 1919 at which A. W. Covey was elected president. Since the reorganization of the M. P. B., Saint John has NEVER had an annual.

SAINT JOHN HAS NEVER HAD AN ANNUAL MEETING SINCE 1881!

What does "Dr. Fan" think of that? We have a better right than Halifax. But we don't want the meeting and are willing to spend money to send our delegates to a central point for the common good and, therefore, Dr. Fan's contention that Halifax has a right to the meeting does not hold water. Ours takes precedence over that, even habeas admit.

The Halifax writer in blood-curdling language declares there is a deep-seated plot to oust Mr. Millie on the part of the local clubs and place Mr. Covey back in the presidential chair. We could do worse at that than even Mr. Covey and Mr. Stirling recognize a better claim to the presidency than their own and that belongs to one "Sammy" Doyle of P. E. I. Both have said so.

Insofar as this newspaper is concerned, we are not interested in the personalities indulged in by the Halifax writer but we are interested when he attacks the good faith of practically all the amateur organizations in this city. Their chief "crime" has been to protest in a legitimate manner the high-handed action of Mr. Millie in naming Halifax, his home city, as the meeting place. It means considerable additional expense to them at a period when money is tight. Halifax delegates walk a few steps and don't spend a cent but Saint John, not merely must foot the bill expected to be paid at a meeting at a central point but must lose an extra day's time and extra railway fare for what—for the sake of two sections who never have supported amateurism consistently and, also, Mr. Millie!

Suppose, for the sake of argument, Dr. Fan, that "Caz" Covey was president and he named his home town as the place for the annual meeting in the face of united opposition from Halifax, Moncton, P. E. I., Amherst, Springhill, and probably Cape Breton and the South Shore? Would you protest?

Would you not feel you had justice on your side in protesting against needless expenditure? Would you not suspect Mr. Covey's motives in naming his home town? It's a case of jellyfish or backbone.

field when the enemy of today had departed. The skies opened and canvas clouds. Every eligible man was in uniform and at work throughout a pep-py drill ordered by Manager Harris. Covetkie, one of the American League's best right handers, appeared to be suffering no ill effects from his recent injury and said that he felt able to take his turn on the mound. The youthful manager, suffering from a badly swollen middle finger on his throwing hand as the result of a spike wound, fielded in his usual steady style and appeared to be under no handicap. Peck, whose right ankle has again troubled him, capered in youthful fashion about the diamond.

Members of the Nationals' baseball, football and hockey teams, who have been prominently connected with sport in the city during the last three or four years, have decided to form a general athletic club to support sport generally in the northern portion of the city.

With the object of forming such an association a meeting of all those interested, whether they have been connected with the Nationals or not, has been called for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the hall of the Victoria street church.

The Nationals' football squad has been called out for practice on the North End Improvement League grounds this evening at 8 o'clock when it is expected that all candidates will be given a workout in preparation for the game scheduled for Saturday with the Martellos on the Allison grounds. It is expected that the game will follow the High School-Rothsay match.

SETS NEW RECORD

British Entrant in Schneider Cup Races Goes Over 226 Miles and Hour.

ONLY 17 PINS OFF CANADIAN STRING RECORD

Garfield Lemmon Sets Up a Mark of 159 Recently

COMING within 17 pins of the late Vincent Kelly's Canadian record of 176 for a string, Garfield Lemmon, of the James Pender & Co., Ltd. bowling quintette, rolled up 159 recently on Black's alley's and setting the season's record so far. Judging from the way in which averages go, it is seldom that this mark is approached, there is every likelihood of Lemmon's mark standing for the entire year. He scored consistently high on every box. He had 141 on the ninth box and wound up the set the string with a strike of 8 on it.

Kelly's mark was made in 1916. At that time he was in the 104th Battalion, C. E. F., and was a member of the regiment's team. He made his record on the second string and it has successfully defied efforts for nearly ten years to topple it.

DETAILS OF SCORE.

Lemmon made his mark as follows: In his first box, he made a spare, followed with a strike with 9 on it and 9 in the third box, giving him 48 in the third. He got a 9 in the fourth and a spare in the fifth with 7 on it, giving him 74. He got another spare with 8 on it, giving him a total of 92 for six boxes. He got another spare with a strike on it, giving him a total of 112 for seven boxes. He got 19 on the eighth box, followed by 10 in the 9th box, giving him 141. He finished with a strike with 8 on it, giving him a total for the string of 159.

A great deal of interest has been aroused in local bowling circles over Lemmon's feat and he is receiving hearty congratulations on all sides for starting out so well on what promises to be a successful season.

HOLDS SPOON SHOOT

Hurst, W. H. Ricketts and H. Ricketts are winners yesterday.

The weekly spoon shoot of Military District No. 7 Permanent Force Rifle Association took place on the local ranges yesterday afternoon.

"Old Sol" graced the ranges with his presence during the entire shoot and helped to take some of the chill from the damp ground.

Chief Petty Officer Instructor A. E. Hurst, R. C. N. R., won the "A" class, Ricketts, Sergeant W. H. Ricketts, R. C. O. C., the "B" class, and Quartermaster-Sergeant H. Ricketts, ex R. C. O. C., the "C" class.

Instructor Hurst improved his shooting greatly over last season and his chance of being in top place at the close of this season appears excellent. The scores made are as follows:

TOOK REINS IN 1922

Seven years ago—which was six years after the Pirates let him go—he returned to the fold and has been there ever since, first as an infielder, later as coach, and finally, when George Gibson was deposited in the middle of the 1922 season, "Sweet William" the sand lot kid, twice turned back by the Pirates, became their manager.

He brought the Pirates right up close to the National League pennant two years in succession, closer than they had been since Fred Clarke took them to the top in 1909. This year, with Clarke to help him, he coached the Pirates to success for the first time in sixteen years.

There is an impression abroad that Clarke is the real boss of the team, not McKechnie, that Clarke is responsible for the way the team has played this year. People point to the spurt the Pirates took immediately after Clarke associated himself with the team and say, "See!"

That is not fair. Manager Bill, after getting his team off to a slow start, had it working smoothly and winning ball games regularly just when Clarke left his farm in Kansas to accept Barney Dreyfuss's invitation to lend a helping hand. It was merely a coincidence that Clarke should arrive just as the Pirates began to forge ahead. Manager Bill would probably have brought them out on top regardless.

Clarke Has an Understanding

Not that Clarke has not been a great help. But this is where he stands: The first day he joined the team and donned a uniform he declared himself in charge. "Just so to avoid any misunderstanding" He told them Mr. Dreyfuss had asked him to come on and help win the pennant, and he had accepted the invitation.

"I think I know a little about baseball," he said, "and if I can help any of you fellows in any way I want to do it. If I can be of any assistance Bill, here, that's what I'm here for. But Bill is the boss."

Manager of Pirates Is Native of "Smoky City"

In the sand lots not much more than a good home run's distance from the present Pirate anchorage, Manager Bill McKechnie made his debut as a baseball player. He was "Sweet William" then—so quiet he was when he broke into the old Allegheny County League and developed into as snappy an infielder as ever knocked the sod from his spikes.

At the age of seventeen he might have been seen in 1905 playing for Butler in the Oil and Gas League. Later he went to Washington in the old P. O. M. League. It was from there he first came to the Pirates in 1907. They farmed him out to Canton, From Canton he went to Wheeling in 1909, and became the fielding star of the Central League. The Pirates recruited him in 1910, and he was with them until 1912, when he was sent to St. Paul in the American Association.

His work with the St. Paul team was such that the Boston Nationals gave him a trial. He played in one game for the Braves and was then shifted to the Yankees. In 1914 he skipped into the Federal League. Later he was lured by the Giants, and in 1916 he, Matty and Eddie Roush were sent to the Reds.

Seven years ago—which was six years after the Pirates let him go—he returned to the fold and has been there ever since, first as an infielder, later as coach, and finally, when George Gibson was deposited in the middle of the 1922 season, "Sweet William" the sand lot kid, twice turned back by the Pirates, became their manager.

He brought the Pirates right up close to the National League pennant two years in succession, closer than they had been since Fred Clarke took them to the top in 1909. This year, with Clarke to help him, he coached the Pirates to success for the first time in sixteen years.

There is an impression abroad that Clarke is the real boss of the team, not McKechnie, that Clarke is responsible for the way the team has played this year. People point to the spurt the Pirates took immediately after Clarke associated himself with the team and say, "See!"

That is not fair. Manager Bill, after getting his team off to a slow start, had it working smoothly and winning ball games regularly just when Clarke left his farm in Kansas to accept Barney Dreyfuss's invitation to lend a helping hand. It was merely a coincidence that Clarke should arrive just as the Pirates began to forge ahead. Manager Bill would probably have brought them out on top regardless.

Clarke Has an Understanding

Not that Clarke has not been a great help. But this is where he stands: The first day he joined the team and donned a uniform he declared himself in charge. "Just so to avoid any misunderstanding" He told them Mr. Dreyfuss had asked him to come on and help win the pennant, and he had accepted the invitation.

"I think I know a little about baseball," he said, "and if I can help any of you fellows in any way I want to do it. If I can be of any assistance Bill, here, that's what I'm here for. But Bill is the boss."

And that's that! Now, when Manager Bill says he thinks the Pirates will win he's hoping they'll win. Neither he nor any of his players is overconfident. They don't talk much about what they'll do or what they won't do. They know they have a tough job ahead of them, and none knows better than McKechnie and his assistant, Fred Clarke, that one of the most important tasks they have is to keep their fine stock of ball players from dwelling too heavily on the importance of something which is all-important.

Even as old a warrior as Walter Johnson is nervous in a world series. A team as youthful as the Pirates, bent on winning its first world series, must be kept as calm as possible. Why, Pie Traynor, for example, is so wrapped up in the game he gets up in his room every night with a couple of players and talks baseball.

So Clarke told them straight that he wasn't the boss; that McKechnie was in charge. "Just so to avoid any misunderstanding." He told them Mr. Dreyfuss had asked him to come on and help win the pennant, and he had accepted the invitation.

"I think I know a little about baseball," he said, "and if I can help any of you fellows in any way I want to do it. If I can be of any assistance Bill, here, that's what I'm here for. But Bill is the boss."

Billy Evans' Comparisons

Some real class is booked for display in left field in the coming world series. Washington gets to present the great "Goose" Goslin. Pittsburg offers the youthful and brilliant Cuyler.

Last season Goslin was the big threat of the Washington club at the bat, the Babe Ruth of the Senators. His home run hitting featured the winning of the 1924 world series.

Goslin bats left and throws right-handed. He takes a terrific cut at the ball and gets great distance to his drives. He may look foolish on a certain ball and on the next pitch crack the same style delivery over the fence. Weakness in the field retarded Goslin in his climb to stardom. One couldn't class him as a Speaker at present but he has made rapid strides forward afield. Lacks grace but he can go and get them. He has a strong arm.

Goslin is a player who looms as a constant menace to the opposition. To combat the efficiency of Goslin, Pittsburg offers Hazen Cuyler, the sensation of last year in the majors, who has proved he wasn't a mere flash by repeating. Cuyler bats and throws right-handed. He's a great hitter. Like Goslin, he is the threat of the Pirates. Cuyler, although built on rather sturdy lines, is very fast. He is a better base-runner than Goslin and in the field has an edge on the Washington star.

Being familiar with Goslin's remarkable ability, I am inclined to place these two stars on a par. A cold analysis of the skill of the two in various departments, however, would give Cuyler a slight edge.

GEORGIA PEACH BEGAN HIS .300 BATTING IN 1906

Local Man Picks 8 of 10 On Ruth's Team

FINISHING the 1925 baseball season with a man's .380, Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, equalled one of the few major league batting records that he had previously held or shared, according to the Associated Press. The Georgian's mark this year made the twentieth season in which he has batted better than .300, the only other player in the major leagues to have accomplished that being the late Adrian C. Anson.

There is a difference in the records of the two sluggers, however, which favors Cobb in comparison. The Detroit manager has made his string of .300 marks, which includes three seasons above .400 in consecutive years, while Anson dropped out of the select circle two seasons. Cobb began his .300 hitting in 1906 with a mark of .320.

For the first time since he emerged as the Sultan of Swat, Babe Ruth's name does not appear in the annual American baseball team published by "Collier's Weekly" in its current issue. This year Grantland Rice makes these selections for the team, which lines up thus:

- Infield. First base, Sisler, St. Louis Americans. Second base, Hornsby, St. Louis Nationals. Shortstop, Bancroft, Boston Nationals. Third base, Frisch, New York Nationals.

- Outfield. Left field, Roush, Cincinnati. Center field, Speaker, Cleveland. Right field, Cobb, Detroit. Dazzy Vance, of Brooklyn, gets first choice as pitcher, with these following in the order named: Johnson, Washington; Covetkie, Washington; Rommel, Philadelphia Americans, and Yast, of Pittsburg.

Cochran, of the Athletics, is first choice for catcher, with Ruel, of Washington, and Hartnett, of the Cubs, next in line.

The utility men for the all-American 1925 squad are: Infield, Kelly, of the Giants; outfield, Cuyler, of Pittsburg, and pitcher, Masberry, of Washington.

Concerning these all-star teams, "Babe" Ruth picked one himself for a Boston paper and a prize was offered for the order named: Johnson, Washington; Covetkie, Washington; Rommel, Philadelphia Americans, and Yast, of Pittsburg.

Ruth's selections were: Pitchers, Vance and Rommel; catcher, Cochran; first, Bottomley; second, Hornsby; third, Bluege; shortstop, Wright; left, Goslin; center, Cuyler; center, Speaker. The local boy slipped up on shortstop, where he placed Babe Bancroft; and left field, where he picked Wings in place of Goslin.

FAMOUS DERBY CHARACTER DEAD

Davy Stephens, Once Newsboy, was Recognized by Many Celebrities.

Son of Engineer, Started Selling Papers at Nine to Support Mother.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Davy Stephens is dead; thousands who have been to the Derby remember him, for the Kingstown newsagent—he sold papers on the quay for many years—always came over to Epsom.

He would wait for hours, wearing a silk hat, at the entrance to the grand stand, hoping to shake hands with the King, Lord Lansdale, Lord Derby—any celebrity. He was more fond of celebrities than any American.

ous people to whom he had sold newspapers when they landed in Ireland. Years ago, people like Sir Henry Irving always received him when he called; more recently Jimmy Wilde and Steven Donoghue always shook his hand.

He prized to the end a half-sovereign the present King gave him for a penny paper when he was Duke of York—a medal, too, that Queen Victoria conferred on him. When he was alive, Lord Marcus Beresford always gave him a ticket for the grand stand at Epsom; in the evening he would go to see Tree act. Sir Herbert usually invited him.

Davy saw fifty-five Derbys, and, in later years, when everybody knew him, he must have shaken hands a thousand times. He always had a Derby tip, and he was right more times than he was wrong.

FAMOUS PATRONS To the end he talked of his former patrons—Palmerston, Parnell, Peel, Cobden, Tennison, the Emperor of Brazil, the Shah of Persia, Bismarck, General Booth and the Prince Imperial. He was the son of a civil engineer, but as his father died when he was four years old, he started selling papers when he was only nine to support his mother and sisters.

NO SECURITY UNTIL GERMANY IN LEAGUE

Italian Correspondent Describes Draft of Proposed Agreement.

Canadian Press. ROME, Oct. 7.—The Locarno correspondent of L'Epoca today describes a draft of the proposed western European security pact to which he claims he has had access.

He said that the pact consists of a preamble and 11 articles. The most important articles are numbers 6 and 11, the correspondent asserts. The latter provides that the pact shall not take effect unless Germany is admitted to the League of Nations. Article six states that the agreement reserves to all parties the rights granted them by the treaty of Versailles and also guarantees the same nations the rights acquired with their Allies and guaranteed by other powers. The correspondent explains that by this article France intends to have Germany acknowledge France as guarantor of the treaty of arbitration which the German Government, according to its note of September 2, is about to conclude with Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Progressive Assoc'n Hears Review and Suggestions for Coming Year.

COMMISSION FOR HARBOR IS TOPIC

Lt. Col. N. P. McLeod Again Chosen Head of Organization.

The annual meeting of the West Saint John Progressive Association was held last evening in their rooms in the public hall, West Saint John, with a fair attendance of members, Lt. Col. N. P. McLeod, president.

SECRETARY'S REVIEW

The secretary reported on the work of the association as follows: "The West Saint John Progressive Association is one year old this month and on looking back and reviewing the work of the association for the year we find we have good reason to congratulate ourselves on the results of our efforts for the benefit of the West side of the harbor. True we have not attained all the results hoped for and expected, but with the coming year we trust to make even better progress to advance the general welfare of this community."

"On brief reading of the minutes we find we have succeeded in getting what has been tried for again and again by the West Side residents, namely: "The construction of the Mill Pond sewer. This is now completed and the pond is ready for filling in, thereby opening up new land for many purposes."

"The restoration of the drinking fountain at the head of Rodney wharf, now called Union Square."

"A new retaining wall at Cedar Hill Cemetery and the roadway graded, which greatly improves the street and property."

"FERRY RATES We have put this association on record as being opposed to any increase in harbor ferry rates, and last summer when increase in rates was proposed at City Hall, we were able to keep the price of tickets to regular passengers at the same rates."

"Street railway tracks have been removed from Queen Square and the western side of the square leveled off and resown with grass seed, and new walks laid out, and the eastern side of the square leveled and resown."

"We have taken over the supervision of the New West Side Civic Playgrounds and our committee in charge there under the direction of Mr. E. L. Kenney, as chairman of parks and playgrounds committee, with the able assistance of P. J. Legge, and Alex. V. Wright, have done a great deal of work there this summer, and deserve the thanks of every member of this association and this community."

"HARBOR COMMISSION The executive have had a very busy summer, have taken up the question of port development, and the intention of the executive of this association to take up and discuss during the winter season the great question of harbor commission."

"We still have the coal dust nuisance at the ferry to combat, the paving of King's Ludlow, and Prince streets, to link up with the county highway, and Duke street to be graded and rock removed; Union Square to be made a real square, further developments to the Lancaster and West Side playgrounds, a boulevard to be built through Queen Square the same width as Queen street, concrete sidewalks to be laid, trees set out, and the eastern side of the square leveled and resown."

"PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS Dr. F. L. Kenney reported for the parks and playgrounds committee as follows: "At the beginning of the association year committees were appointed for the different squares in West Saint John. Considerable work has been done on these squares for which due credit must be given to Commissioner Frink, and his department."

"In King Square, the cannon has been replaced and a new flag pole is to be erected in Tilley Square. The hand stand has been improved. This square has been kept in good condition."

"In Queen Square, considerable work has been done during the year. The street railway tracks have been removed, ground leveled, trees planted, and new walks are being laid out. I have here a blue print of the proposed improvements, showing the walks, trees, flower beds, and hand stand site. We expect when these improvements are carried out that Queen Square will be the beauty spot of West Saint John."

"As you are aware, last spring the City Council was requested to hand over the management of the West Saint John Playgrounds to this association for supervision. The request was granted and a playgrounds committee appointed by this association."

"FORMAL OPENING On June 8 the King's birthday, the grounds were formally opened. The City Council and some of the county councillors being present. The flag was raised on a pole, the gift of Commissioner Harding, by a corps of Boy Scouts, and music furnished by the Carleton Cornet Band. During the morning sports were held for the Juniors and in the afternoon for the seniors, for which suitable prizes and trophies were given. Unfortunately, in the afternoon rain interfered with some of the contests, and a postponement was necessary. However, taking into consideration that it was a first attempt, the committee is to be congratulated on the success of the day. It is

CHILD IS DEAD.

Deep sympathy is being extended to Mr. and Mrs. P. Morgan Butler, 46 Guilford street, West Saint John, in the death of their infant daughter, Gertrude Arlene, which occurred at the General Public Hospital early this morning.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong announced the engagement of their only daughter, Anne Thomson, to Doctor Victor D. Davidson, of Fairville, the marriage to take place October the twentieth.

IS FINED $8

Edward Dow, charged with using threatening and abusive language to Thomas X. Gibbons, a city constable, appeared before the court again this morning and changed his plea to guilty. He was fined $8.

ONCE MORE

One man charged with drunkenness appeared in the police court this morning. Magistrate Henderson, before imposing the usual penalty of $8, remarked that he was rather tired of seeing this man, as he thought he had been before the court for drunkenness forty or fifty times.

HALF-SISTER SURVIVES.

Among the relatives surviving Robert A. Johnston, veteran printer, whose death occurred yesterday, is a half-sister, Mrs. Emma H. Johnston, 73 L-Queen street, whose name was inadvertently omitted in Tuesday's report.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clarke of Manawagonish Road, entertained for their little girl, Betty, on the occasion of her sixth birthday, yesterday. The house was very pretty with sweet peas and golden glow and the supper table was gay with flowers and centred with the birthday cake, alight with six red candles. Gifts were at the place of each of the 25 small guests and each secured a souvenir from the cake. Miss Byrd Corbet and Miss Marion Corbett assisted in leaving the guests and in serving the company.

IS GIVEN SHOWER.

Miss Aida Mary Jacobson, whose marriage to Jo Lieberman of Toronto, now residing in Saint John, will be solemnized on Tuesday, Oct. 27, was honored in a very pretty shower of handkerchiefs last evening at the home of Miss Belle Corbet, 127 Duke street. Supper was served to 20 guests and the table was arranged most artistically. The gifts were presented in the form of tiny parcels in a basket decorated gaily. The whole social event was a complete surprise to the bride-elect, who very much appreciated the thoughtfulness of her friends.

BRIDE IS HONORED

A very enjoyable time was spent last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hoyt, when 30 girl friends of Mrs. James Done, formerly Miss Estelle Fox, gave her a very nice and novel shower in honor of her recent marriage. A large basket was filled to overflowing with many beautiful and useful gifts. During the evening Miss Estelle Fox gave a vocal solo which added to the pleasure of all. Games and music were enjoyed and refreshments served. The evening was brought to a close by showering the bride with good wishes and wishing her all prosperity for the future.

INVESTIGATES FATALITY

That he had investigated the circumstances surrounding the accident at Pandemic which resulted in the death of Charles Hayter, and that he had the case in hand, was announced by Robert Crawford, provincial traffic constable, this morning. The automobile which ran into and fatally injured Mr. Hayter was being driven by Charles Hayter, who was in the car at the time of the accident and rendered all possible assistance.

PROPOSED TO HOLD THESE SPORTS ANNUALLY IN THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

"It is regretted that owing to the lateness of the season when the baseball diamond was in readiness, more senior baseball games could not have been held on the grounds. Soft ball leagues were formed for both ladies and men and proved very successful. A competition was held for the championship of New Brunswick. Entries were quite large and competition keen. A suitable cup and medals were awarded."

VARIOUS SPORTS

"On Oct. 8 an inter-school boy meet was to have been held, but owing to the heavy rain was postponed. This meet is open to the pupils of the West Side, Beauséjour, Fairville, and Millford schools and there is a large number of entries. The DeMunis Street Community Club has presented a handsome shield for senior competition in the meet and another shield will be presented for junior competition."

IMPROVEMENTS

"Following are some of the improvements made to the playgrounds during the year—Considerable leveling of ground, trees planted, a baseball diamond laid out, backstop, grandstand, and barrier erected; a soft ball diamond laid out and back stop erected, quoits pitches built, dressing room erected with water and sewerage connections."

FOR COMING YEAR

Following are some of the improvements suggested for the coming year—Construction of a quarter mile track, lawn tennis courts, swings for children, improved entrance from City Line, filling in east end of grounds, additional trees to be planted. With these improvements carried out, I believe the West Saint John Playgrounds will be the best in the province. The committee has had no light task and has overcome many difficulties and would like for a greater degree of assistance from each of us individually."

"We appreciate very much the generosity of those who have contributed to the efforts of the committee, by the donation of trophies, materials, and labor."

RECEIVE GOLD ON 45TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer of Millidge Avenue Honored by Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer, of Millidge avenue, celebrated the 45th anniversary of their wedding on Monday evening when 50 guests assembled at their home to extend congratulations. Stanley Olive presented to Mr. and Mrs. Spencer a purse of gold as the gift of friends. Many messages of greeting were received from other friends unable to be present. Miss Margaret Lowe of Rammond River who had been bridesmaid at the wedding and William Marley of St. James street, who had been groomsmen, were unable to be present, but sent appropriate greetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer were married in St. Mary's rectory on October 25, 1880, at which time the rectory was in Exmouth street. Rev. Mr. Almon officiated. Mrs. Spencer had come to Canada from England a few years before her marriage. Mr. Spencer is a native of Saint John.

For a time they resided in Amherst where Mr. Spencer was foreman of the Rhodes Curry construction works making railway coaches. He is a member of several organizations in Saint John and is very widely known. Mrs. Spencer is an active worker in St. Luke's congregation, and is held in warm regard for her charitable acts.

On the wedding anniversary the home was very beautifully decorated with flowers. The evening was very pleasantly spent and refreshments were served. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Muriel Purdy and Miss M. Ellis and Miss Elizabeth Calvert was the pianist. Those who assisted in serving refreshments were Mrs. A. VanWart, Miss Irene Moore, Miss Lucy Black, and Miss Evelyn Watkins.

ROUND-WORLD FAIR SET FOR NOVEMBER

City Cornet Band Will Hold it in St. Malachi's Hall This Year.

The biennial Round-the-World Fair under the auspices of the City Cornet Band will be held in St. Malachi's Hall, Sydney street, this year, commencing on November 16th and lasting for 10 days, according to announcement made this morning by James Connolly, veteran of the band. As at former years, one of the big features will be a prize of a trip around the world. It has been many years since a fair has been held in St. Malachi's Hall, formerly the scene of many such events, but decoration and building committees have been appointed and preliminary work in getting the hall in shape already has started. The City Cornet Band goes to the public for support in financing the necessary expenses of instructor, instruments, uniforms, music and rental with the record of fine achievement on its part in aiding at so many public functions, and in conducting the community work of the organization has not been unappreciated.

H. A. Meisner of West End Is Dead

After a brief illness Havelock A. Meisner passed away at his residence, 38 Wash street, West Side, yesterday. He leaves to mourn, beside his wife, five sons—Rev. John W. Meisner of Nictaux Falls, N. S., James of Duke street, Charles, Roy and Harold at home, and two daughters, Mrs. John C. Flood of Rodney street and Gertrude at home. There also are one sister, Mrs. Ellis of Nova Scotia and one brother, Charles of Southboro, Mass. Much sympathy goes out to the bereaved wife and family and especially to the death of their daughter and sister, Helen.

W. M. S. SESSION

Members of the Women's Missionary Society of Coburg street Christian church called at the home of Mrs. J. Prince, 136 Carmarthen street, last evening, Charles, Roy and Harold at home, and after business session an interesting programme was enjoyed. It consisted of a reading by Mrs. E. Sprague; a hymn by Miss G. Dugley and Mrs. E. Hoyt, while Mrs. William Laskey read an interesting chapter on tithing. J. S. Flagg gave a talk which was followed by a general discussion. Devotional prayers were served at the close by Mrs. Prince.

IS IN HOSPITAL

Discovering she had swallowed some food, Mrs. Hazel J. McLean, Broad street, hastily summoned Dr. Mayes Case about 8 o'clock this morning and he had her taken to the General Public Hospital for treatment. A report from that institution this afternoon showed that her condition was not considered dangerous. It was said Mrs. McLean has been in poor health.

As Hiram Sees It

OTTAWAWAY—Well, sir—Fred Dykeman orto be proud of his gal. She was up here to that her Child Welfare meetin'—an' when I seen the names of the folks as was in 'em, I was amongst at the head table one night I was proud Saint John had some body could hold up our end—yes, sir. She told me she felt sort of lonesome—bein' away from home. Noo Bruns'ick—but I says to her, says I—'Hiram's here, an' don't you be scared fer me, I'm here.' I'm beginnin' to like Ottawa. The weather's fine every day—an' if I don't want to pay five dollars fer a dinner I kin get one fer forty cents. Hanner, she went out an' saw the out-doors market today, an' says the way they fix poultry fer sale here, an' make her want to 'no her own killin'. I haint been over to Hull yet—but it seems to be a mighty popular town—It's in Quebec.

Some Things You Can't Wash

Everything else you wear gets cleaned mighty frequently—but Suits, Coats, Dresses and Felt Hats are treated like poor relations. Yet they are the most costly part of your wardrobe.

You may not be able to risk soap and water, but that hardly lets you out of the fact that under Dry Cleaning they change their complexion back to the one they had when bought. Clothes kept clean last 30 p.c. to 50 p.c. longer, and at trifling cost.
