Discount Grey Says European Nations Are Facing New War

LABOR PARTIES SWEEPING CHANGES

NEW WAR IN EUROPE PREDICTED

Viscount Grey Says Europe Going in Direction of Outbreak.

SECURITY NEEDED

Admission of Germany into League of Nations is Urged.

(By Canadian Press.)

London, Jan. 25.—Viscount Grey of Faldoen, in a speech in the financial heart of London yesterday, declared that Europe was going quite certainly in the direction of a future war, and drifting back into the old race for armaments. He appealed for the admission of Germany into the League of Nations as a means of procuring for France the security she so much desires.

"Security is what people want, if peace is to be maintained," he said. "The lesson of the past is that they do not make themselves secure by building great armaments. France is trying now to get security by relying on her armaments and among other nations which she hopes will stand by relying on a policy of separate force, which is an old policy and which has always failed."

No Separate Treaties.

"I will tell you how France can get security under the League of Nations. I don't think that the people of this country will engage themselves in separate treaties. The best I can see is that Germany should be got to sign the covenant of the league, as well as France and ourselves. Then this country might agree that if France and Germany broke the covenant we would do nothing for either of them, but that if one broke the covenant and the other stood by it, we would take action, not for the sake of supporting one country against another, but for the sake of supporting the covenant and the country which stood by the covenant."

To Seek Security.

"In that way you will get security which is equal to every nation signing the covenant. That is the only way you can get real security. So far as I am concerned I would say our navy and our air force and let their first use be to protect ourselves if aggressively attacked. But if used for any other purpose I would like to see them used to uphold the covenant—and for no other purpose."

ANDERSON TELLS ABOUT $25,000 GIFT

Some Giggle in Court as Anti-Saloon Man Testifies.

KING MYSTERY MAN

Accused Official Says Admirer Gave Him Money—Rockefellers Helped

(By Canadian Press.)

New York, Jan. 25.—Wm. H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, yesterday told a strange tale of the manner in which he acquired approximately $25,000 which he claims to have loaned to the organization of which he is an official. The story was reluctantly unfolded at the direction of Supreme Court Justice Tompkins and under the persistent hammering of Assistant District Attorney Pecora, who is prosecuting the league on an indictment charging forgery in the third degree.

The strange recital involving the gift of a comparative stranger, who Anderson said, provided the small fortune because he liked his "kind of a darn fool," was his own defense, after he had made a categorical denial of the state's accusations against him.

The Mystery Man.

John T. King, address unknown, was the identification given by Anderson of his mysterious benefactor. The stranger, he said, introduced himself in the Baltimore offices of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland late in 1912. Anderson said that King had made a categorical denial of the state's accusations against him.

First a giggle was heard here and there and then handclapping started. Phillips became testy and was cut short by the gavel and the vigilant court attendants.

Anderson told of his relations with O. B. Phillips, league fund solicitor, whose accusations from the basis for the forged indictment upon which Anderson now is being tried.

It was before Anderson had engaged Phillips, Phillips professedly testified that the league had told him he must "split" his commissions on collections when they exceeded $10,000 in any one year. Anderson contradicted this flatly, declaring nothing was said of "split" commissions until 1918, the sum which Phillips himself suggested that he give his superior a part of his earnings.

Rockefellers Helped

During cross-examination Pecora literally hurled his questions at the witness' head and Anderson replied in sharp, crisp tones, admitting that John D. Rockefeller and his son had contributed to the league approximately $75,000 a year for fund solicitor. Before that, he said, the elder Rockefeller contributed only $5,000 a year.

Pecora, reminding the witness that he had testified that he turned over the commissions received from Phillips to the league, obtained from him the admission that he deposited the commission checks to his personal account. He was asked by Justice Tompkins to explain this procedure.

"I did so because the league owed me some money and I saw an opportunity to save it by banking my share of the commissions," he replied. This was $24,700, he said. This sum is the amount involved in indictments pending against Anderson in which extortion and grand larceny are charged. He claimed to have advanced it to the league in purchasing publicity for the furtherance of the cause of prohibition.

20,000 Words In This Question

New York, Jan. 25.—A hypothetical question of 20,000 words, which required three hours to read, was propounded to Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe, alienist, at the trial of the George B. Nicholas will contest before Supreme Court Justice and a jury at Riverhead, L. I. In answer to the question Dr. Jelliffe said that in his opinion Mr. Nicholas was incompetent when he made the will disposing of his estate of about $3,000,000, which his son, Governor Nicholas, is contesting in Buffalo, N. Y., April 24-29, to plan means of "getting out the vote" in 1924.

C. HEFFERNAN DEAD, SAYS MESSAGE

Friends Here Claim to Have Proof of His Death.

WILL INVESTIGATE

Brother Denies Received Word of Demise of Missing Man.

According to reports claimed to have been received in St. John within the last two or three weeks the mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of Cornelius Heffernan in March, 1919, have been cleared up. According to the story told to a Times reporter today Mr. Heffernan was taken to a hospital in Montreal last spring in an unconscious condition and died on April 2, without having regained consciousness.

This information was conveyed to friends in St. John by a clergyman in Montreal, who returned to the city a small book found in Mr. Heffernan's clothing, bearing his name and his city market address. Correspondence was immediately commenced with the police authorities, the result that about a week ago a message was received, it is said, from the police chief, saying that Mr. Heffernan had died.

Carried Much Money.

Mr. Heffernan was a butcher well-known about the city and was in the habit of making trips through the province purchasing cattle for beef. At the time of his disappearance it was feared that, as he usually carried a tidy sum of money with him, he had been waylaid and robbed and his body secreted some place to cover the crime. Although a thorough search of the province has been made, no tidings were ever learned of him until the present reports were received.

Mr. Heffernan has two brothers surviving—Thomas, a member of the local customs service, and Patrick, who formerly resided here but who has been residing in Perth for the last ten or fifteen years. Thomas Heffernan, when asked about the murder today, said that he had received no word of the fate of his brother.

PARTY IS FRIENDLY TO KING GEORGE

His Majesty Retains His Firm Position in British State.

LABOR SUPPORTED

Party Has 192 of the 615 Seats in the House of Commons.

By CHARLES M. McCANN (British United Press Staff)

London, Jan. 25.—As the smoke of political battle fades and Premier MacDonald's Labor Ministry begins to function one fact stands out clearly among estimates of results of Labor's rise to control of the British Government. King George retains his firm position in the British state. Labor is in Downing street where it probably dreams of sweeping changes in British policy. But these changes will not involve the throne.

Intellectuals among Labor men, some of them as prominent in party councils as they are in print, occasionally wave the Republican flag, accompanied by cheers from Scottish Laborites, but among the biggest leaders of the Labor party and among the people who vote Labor's ticket there is no sign of hostility to the monarchy.

Republic Talk Wild

Republican talk and other wild talk here, is based entirely on a series of hypotheses which assume that the Conservatives, the Liberals, bankers, manufacturers and even the King himself, constitutional monarch acting always by advice of whatever ministers are in power, will unite to suppress Labor. Some radical Laborites urge that if such an attempt at suppression is made, Labor should move for the proclamation of a republic.

In assaying the value of Republican talk, there are three factors to be considered: 1. The Labor party has 192 of the 615 seats in the House of Commons. At the election it polled 4,000,000 of more than 14,000,000 votes.

2. The great preponderance of voters are satisfied with the present situation. Apart from the undoubted popularity of the royal family, they realize that a British republic would mean the break-up not only of the British Empire, but of the British Isles. The King is the tie that binds.

It is not believed that countries like Canada, New Zealand, South Africa and Australia, not to mention India, would listen to suggestions of a republican British government. A republic would mean the eventual breaking away of Scotland and Ireland, particularly Ulster, which is intensely monarchist.

3. The proportion of the Labor vote that is republican is not large. To say that even half the Labor vote is in favor of a republic would be an exaggeration. But even if it were it would be less than one-sixth of the total vote of the nation.

As regards Labor leaders who advocate a republic it is probable that Labor's rise to power will tend to make them more conservative.

Twenty years ago few would have been surprised to see David Lloyd George's name coupled with most of the republican outbursts which occurred here after the election.

Labor in the years to come may do much to alter political policies of Britain. But Labor's decrees will still be signed by His Majesty the King, 1, Buckinghams Palace.

Society Leader in U. S. Buys Royal Russian Pearls and Pays $400,000

New York, Jan. 25.—(Canadian Press)—The black pearls brought into this country in November by Prince Felix Youssouffoff of Russia, have been strung together in a necklace described as the most perfectly matched string of pearls in the world. The purchase price is reported to be $400,000. Each pearl is almost as large as a marble.

When the pearls were brought into this country, along with other treasures that had belonged to the old Russian regime, the prince had to pay $12,000 duty on the forty-two black pearls. Customs appraisers valued them at more than $90,000.

The pearls were part of a rare consignment of jewels reported to include emeralds from the Czarine's crown and other gems belonging to the Czar's family.

SALARY INCREASES IN FIRE AND WATER DEPARTMENTS SUGGESTED

More Estimates Presented at City Hall—Action on Grants.

The estimates for the police and fire departments and the grants were under discussion by the City Council this morning and some increases and decreases were made in the grants. The increase in the police department is $6,785.65, largely accounted for by increases in wages and salary. The Victorian Order of Nurses were given an increase of $800, making their grant $8,000; the North and South End Playgrounds each received an increase of $500 and the Lancaster and Inlandtown Ferry jumped from $638 to $8,263.54.

who was increased from $1,200 to $1,820; and the clerk of the police court, H. Ervin Williams, whose salary of $17,000 was fixed by statute. The salary increase was $6,610. The entire staff numbered 62 of whom six were traffic men; the amount for salaries $3,800 was for annuities, $2,500 to Hon. H. J. Ritchie and $800 to W. W. Clark. It was suggested that the amount of estimated receipts from the police court might be made larger and that reduce the amount to be assessed. Commissioner Thornton said he was rather in favor of less receipts from the police court as he was not in favor of striking fines against drunka who the burden fell on the families.

Table with columns: Appropriations, Expenditures, Appropriations. Rows include Salaries and wages, Uniforms, Medical attendants, Rent, Fuel, Light, Repairs motor apparatus, Repairs and painting buildings, Water rates, Postage, Telephone, Printing, Stationery, Office rent, Contingencies, Refund of fines, Traffic murder, Less police revenue, Cost assessing and collecting.

The Evening Times-Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 25, 1924

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by New Brunswick Publishing Co., Ltd., J. D. McKenna, President.

TONIGHT'S MEETING

This evening's meeting in the Board of Trade will be a very interesting one for two reasons. One is that two New Brunswick men who have made their mark abroad will be the speakers; and the other is that the subject to be discussed is civic government.

Dr. Horace L. Brittain is a son of Dr. John Brittain, of whom the University Monthly said quite a number of years ago that "his contribution toward the elevation of the educational standard of New Brunswick has been very great."

WESTERN DEMANDS

When Hon. T. A. Crerar was in Ottawa the other day he set before Premier Mackenzie King the viewpoint of the west as he understood it. It remains to be considered, says the Toronto Globe, whether the conference will bear fruit in the form of legislation along the lines indicated by Mr. Crerar, but it is intimated that the Government will meet the West more than half way.

"A more determined effort to re-trench, a budget more nearly balanced than any in the past twelve years, the National Railways more than paying their way in the matter of operation, an increase of at least 100 per cent. in immigration to Canada in the past fiscal year, the decision to name a Canadian representative at Washington, an endeavor to safeguard better the interests of bank depositors, and redistribution with changes in the electoral system. In addition it is probable that some system for providing rural credits to Western farmers will be worked out."

Commenting on this statement of proposed Government measures the Toronto Globe says:—"This includes the whole of Mr. Crerar's programme with the exception of 'fiscal reform.' These words evidently refer to tariff reductions affecting the policy of protection, because re-trenchment is dealt with separately. It may be that on this point a difference of opinion was disclosed, and this, together with the personal difficulty, may account for the fact that no progress was made toward reorganization of the Cabinet."

Mr. R. Fraser Armstrong, who is now also connected with the Citizens' Research Institute, is the son of Mr. R. E. Armstrong Secretary of the Board of Trade, and has earned distinction as the first city manager in his native province, having filled that office in Woodstock with such great success that the experiment excited universal attention and resulted in his being asked to speak on the subject in a number of provincial towns before he was engaged by the Citizens' Research Institute to join its staff, where he has been doing notable work in a wider field.

Every member of the Board of Trade who can do so should attend this evening's meeting, for the matter of successful and economic city government is one of very great importance to the taxpayers.

THE CRIPPLED CHILD

A movement is on foot in Toronto to provide for bringing crippled children, unable to attend the public schools, together daily in a central institution where they would not only be given training but their physical disabilities treated and in many cases a cure effected. Over a year ago a delegation went to Detroit, where crippled children are gathered up daily in motor buses and taken to a central institution. They returned convinced that Toronto should do the same, and it is estimated there are two hundred such children in the latter city. The proposal is that they be assembled daily in a school close to the Hospital for Sick Children and the Toronto General Hospital, so that medical experts could readily be secured to treat them. It is said that in cities where the central idea has been carried out twenty per cent. of the pupils are cured of physical disability, and that in the meantime the public schools, while seventy per cent. are educated to the extent that they become self-sustaining citizens. The training, of course, is part vocational, and on that account a provincial grant of a large portion of the cost of the building would be received.

Such a plan must commend itself to the citizens generally, especially since there are so many of these children in Toronto needing both clinical and educational care. Universal sympathy goes out to them, and in addition to what human sympathy prompts there is the further consideration that by making the great majority of them self-supporting the community relieves itself of a continual burden. It is sometimes heard people question whether the world is growing any better. Such examples as this show at least that the heart of humanity grows more tender toward those who need loving ministrations, and while that is true there need be no misgivings as to the direction in which the race moves.

The new British Government will resume diplomatic relations with Russia. There is already a trade agreement. With a British Ambassador in Russia both British and Canadian trade would doubtless be increased.

The Canadian public is looking with much more favor than formerly upon Government inspection. They perceive that something of the sort is inevitable as a result of recent events in the banking world.

THE LEAGUE MAKING GOOD.

This survey (the winning peace plan for the Bok Prize) shows how most of the scruples and fears with which the League of Nations was regarded by some Americans have been dissipated or disproved by the way in which the League has interpreted its authority and directed its activities. The difficulties of walking have been solved by walking. Nowhere in the course followed by the League has there been any appearance of the dreaded super-State. There has been no reliance upon military force. No nation has been called upon to do anything of which its constituted authorities did not approve. Moreover, in its own version of the scope of the famous Article X, and in its amended form or quiet acquiescence in it, the League has made it plain that it can not and does not intend to resort to any kind of compulsion which all the nations and against everything that is in the name of peace which must depend upon common judgment, full publicity and the power of public opinion.

TOO MANY WORDS.

President Coolidge is in favor of a short national platform which means what it says. His party and the Democrats would do well to make brevity the platform key. Prior to the Civil War party platforms were brief. Since then they have grown to unwieldy proportions. Few persons read them, least of all, it would seem, those responsible for carrying them into effect.

The party platform has become a repository of words. In recent years, except on the one main issue of the year, the convention resolutions have been almost innocuous appeals to group votes. In a nutshell, each platform might read: We stand for everything that is good and will catch votes, and against everything that is wrong and will lose votes.

CRIME WAVES AND AIR WAVES

An experiment which may soon be conducted by the police of Westchester county will be watched with the closest interest not only by the authorities throughout the country but by every student of radio.

It is planned to broadcast from central headquarters descriptions of criminals sought and information of a general character to all the police stations of Westchester county. Further, it is hoped by the perfection of a compact receiving set capable of being carried on a motorcycle or bicycle, that every patrolman and motorcycle policeman will be able to keep in touch with every patrolman and motorcycle policeman.

It is possible of course to see important difficulties in the way of this plan, not all of them mechanical. No patrolman or motorcycle policeman could be expected to give unending reports of instructions and items continually pouring forth; an attempt to do so might at times seriously interfere with his immediate duties. The system is likely to be successful only if it is used sparingly.

New inventions and modern appliances are not always unmixtured as to the police. The use of the automobile as an aid in holing robbers, smuggling and escape has immensely increased the police department's problem. The radio, however, as an instrument of publicity should not only prove a powerful weapon in the hands of the police, but it is difficult to see how it can ever be of any important use to criminals.

The new pocket radio with which it is planned to equip the Westchester policemen will of course be only a receiving set. It may be several years before the day when a policeman on a motorcycle, fighting a losing race with an automobile, will be able to radio ahead, or the day when you will take a wireless set out of your pocket and telephone home that you are held up by a block in the subway.

NINETY-EIGHT OUT OF EVERY HUNDRED WOMEN Who have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ailments peculiar to their sex, have been benefited by it. The radio, however, as an instrument of publicity should not only prove a powerful weapon in the hands of the police, but it is difficult to see how it can ever be of any important use to criminals.

C. G. M. Service to Bermuda Very Popular

Only by visiting Bermuda may one realize and enjoy its incomparably beautiful Old World quaintness—ad its many other charms and attractions. Only three and a half days from Halifax, the Canadian Government Merchant Marine Limited's passenger sailings from that port to Bermuda have proved very popular with the travelling public. The S. S. "Canadian Fisher" due to sail January 31st is fully booked, but accommodation may still be secured on her sister ship the "Canadian Forester," sailing from Halifax February 21st.

Passengers may proceed by the "Canadian Forester" to Bermuda, remain a few days and return by the "Canadian Fisher"—the round trip fare being $70.00. If one wishes to remain longer in that delightful resort, return trip may be made by the "Canadian Forester" sailing from Bermuda March 19th.

The accommodation on these two steamers is first class, and the cuisine excellent. For reservations and further particulars apply to CANADIAN GOVERNMENT MERCHANT MARINE, LIMITED, 65 Prince William St., St. John, N. B.

WANTS LOWER C. N. R. RATES. To the Editor of the Times-Star: Sir,—Sir Henry Thornton's after-dinner speeches at Brockville and sundry other places seem to me to indicate quite a serious misunderstanding between the people, the C. N. Ry. authorities and the Government.

He seems to feel instructed to manage the C. N. Ry. so the annual deficits will disappear, and be replaced at a succeeding nicely, he feels unable to reduce rates and continue that success; but if his employer, the Government, directs him to reduce rates in the face of his advice to the contrary, their wishes should be carried out. The people have the matter in their own hands, and the right to say.

I believe a great majority of the people of Canada want the rates on Alberta and Nova Scotia coal to Ontario reduced, and should make their wishes definitely known to the Government at once, asking that instructions to do so, be passed on to Sir Henry. I differ with Sir Henry as to reduced rates in all cases resulting in a reduced net income. I believe a rate of $4 per ton Alberta coal in train-load lots during slack seasons, would result in such an increased volume of business, that the net receipts would be increased, as demonstrated by the Laurier-Mulock penny postage, and a more nearly parallel comparison in the Glasgow street railway, endeavoring to eat up their surplus by reducing rates from 8c, 4c and 5c. to 2c, which induced such increased traffic that it greatly increased the surplus.

The rate on Nova Scotia coal from Montreal to Hamilton, 372 miles, is $3 per ton, and the rate on U. S. coal from Detroit to Montreal, 988 miles, is only $2.50, or 10c less for 180 miles (50 per cent.) greater distance, which is most illogical. Many other similar cases should be corrected. People! make your wishes in these respects known to the Government at once, and get results.

Yours truly, W. O. SEALEY, 61 Hunter St. West, Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 21, 1924.

EMERSON & FISHER, LTD. of the series dealing with the establishment of the Bank of Montreal at representative points in Canada, and elsewhere.

IN MONTREAL BEFORE any steamship had crossed the ocean, and before either the locomotive or the telegraph had been invented, nine merchants of Montreal signed articles for the formation of the "Montreal Bank," now the Bank of Montreal. That was on June 23, 1817—more than 106 years ago.

Since that time Montreal has grown from a town of less than 20,000 to a city of more than 800,000 population. The Bank, in continuous and successful operation from those early days down to the present time, has steadily pioneered its way across Canada Today, through its Head Office and more than 550 Branches, it offers complete banking service—local, national, and international—in every section of the Dominion.

For The Burns' Anniversary, Jan. 25. (By Hope A. Thomson.) "For the Scots abroad are more clanish than the Scots at home"—Scott. "It is not strange," said the Doctor, "that the Scottish people are so very clanish" and I, answering his question after the Scottish fashion, that is by asking another, said, "Yes, but is it not beautiful?"—Sterne.

When comes our Robb's natal day Our cares and worries vanish; He warms our hearts—what's that ye say? Oh! yes—"The Scots are clanish."

Though far away from Scotland's shore, Burns can our exile banish; We love thee, Scotland, all the more, Because—"The Scots are clanish."

His praises span the ocean wide— By lonely Loch-na-Shanish— By proud St. John, and lordly Clyde, For Oh!—"The Scots are clanish."

In every land, of every tongue, Dutch, German, French or Spanish, You'll find the Scot, and Burns is sung Today—"The Scots are clanish."

Lighter Vein. Would Do His Best. The Pastor—"Won't you come to church today, instead of motoring around the country?" The Reprobate—"Sorry, I can't, Parson. I tell you what I'll do—I'll go with my friends, and park my car outside your church, so I'll look as though you had somebody inside."

A Fast Worker. "I love you," said he. "Booh. You never saw me before this pauper, except on the one main issue of the year, the convention resolutions have been almost innocuous appeals to group votes. In a nutshell, each platform might read: We stand for everything that is good and will catch votes, and against everything that is wrong and will lose votes."

The time has come for a change. Verbosity and spread-eagles are no longer popular. Campaign meetings are passing out. The platform of a great party should tell where the party stands, and let it go at that.

Modern Singing. They stood in the wings of the opera house. In a few moments she was to go on. "One last word," said the conductor. "If you forget your lines do not hesitate. Never falter."

"But what shall I sing?" asked the new diva. "That is the point. Be prepared. Sing the multiplication table with your best runs and trills. Nobody will ever know the difference."

Pleading Paps. Mother was entertaining a few friends and young hopeful was being duly shown off, and resented it, as all young hopefuls do. "Whom do you like best?" asked one friend. "Mother," was the reply. "Who next?" asked another. "Little sister."

"Who next?" asked another. "Father, who was seated at the back, opened his mouth, and said: "And when do I come in?" "At 10 o'clock in the morning," was the reply.

Floating Specks Before The Eyes Means Liver Trouble When specks start to float before the eyes, when everything seems to turn black for a few seconds and you feel as if you were going to faint, you can rest assured that your liver is not working properly.

The essential thing to do is in all cases where the liver is slow, lazy or torpid, is to stir it up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and clear away the accumulated mass of waste and poisonous matter from the system.

Mr. Chas. Aylard, Frankville, Ont., writes: "I used to be awfully bothered with floating specks before my eyes, headaches and sickness to my stomach. I took just half a vial of your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and ever since I have felt as well as I ever did. Now I always keep them on hand."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MENTHOLATUM
"FEEL IT HEAL"
COLDS - BURNS - BRUISES

It is as a part of an effort to interest the Maritime Provinces in this conference and in social service work in general, he said, that he is making this lecture tour. When told of the work which was being done for the children of Moncton by the various societies, which were providing free baby clinics, free milk, inspection of the school children by a competent nurse and doctor and the care for those which have no home of their own in a suitable institution, Mr. Bryce said that it was very far advanced and that it resembled much that was being done in the western and newer sections of the Dominion and in Ontario.

When asked what the city lacked along these lines, he said that there was little more that could be done locally, but that the Provincial Government only was capable of advancing the work from the point which it has reached here. Mothers' allowances is the most advanced step and he said that it is only in the eastern part of the Dominion that we fail to find them. In Ontario and the western provinces the act which provides for them has been in operation for several years and has provided very satisfactory.

THE WAX LADY

Some time ago Mr. George... "What is your favorite amusement?" The novelist replied: "Loafing about a great city between midnight and dawn."

LEANING TOWARD THE POLICEMAN, HE WHISPERED: 'I'M GOING TO MARRY HER.'

Upon the north side of Hyde Park, against the railings, stand a few benches on which, when it is fine, elderly people take the air.

"It's wax," he went on, pulling down the sack so that he might see that under the dazzling neck and shoulders, which shone glistly under the moon, the body was represented by a low wooden frame, over which canvas was tightly stretched.

"What are you going to do with it?" asked the policeman, discomfited by the tone that only the guttered, what cities can lay upon the tongue.

Mrs. Arthur N. Carter was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon at her residence, 29 Mecklenburg street, when she entertained at bridge for her sister, Mrs. R. Y. Eaton, of Toronto. Mrs. Carter was prettily gowned in a beaded brown Canton crepe. Mrs. Eaton looked stunning in a Paris gown of petunia shade, with cape to match, pointed in old gold. Spring flowers were used for decoration and made the rooms attractively bright. The guests were: Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Walter E. Foster, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Mrs. Charles M. POOR DOCUMENT M O 2 3 5

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 1924

HARBOR DEPARTMENT RETURNS A CREDIT OF $26,170 FOR 1923

Expenditures This Year will Not Affect Assessment on People.

The City Council yesterday afternoon received the annual reports of the harbor master and harbor inspector and discussed the harbor estimates for 1924. At the time of adjustment these had not been completed and a request was made for more information than was given in the draft presented to the Council. Commissioner Thornton said he would like to have these estimates prepared the same as the other departments showing the estimate for 1923, the expenditure in 1923 and the estimate or list so the comparisons could be made.

The matter of salaries was also under discussion and it was stated by Commissioners Wigmore and Thornton that they thought the common clerk, comptroller and chamberlain should receive increases.

Before taking up the harbor estimates, T. H. Bullock, Commissioner of Harbors, Ferries and Public Lands, presented the annual reports of the harbor master and inspector. The reports of the latter showed that 258 inspections had been made and seven prosecutions conducted in the police court for violations of the harbor bylaws during the last year. These reports were ordered printed in the city accounts.

Commissioner Bullock said the last year was the best in the history of the harbor, the total revenue being $216,222.17 and the expenditure $190,051.73 leaving a cash balance of $26,170.28. The bonded debt of the harbor at present was $1,494,244.59 and the amount required for interest and sinking fund was $81,707.89. He scarcely expected as large a revenue this year but was hoping that business would boom for the rest of the season.

The estimate as presented had two classes of work, that to be paid for by bond issue and that to be paid for from revenue. There will be no general assessment for the harbor this year, this being the second year that the department has not asked for anything from the general assessment. The proposed bond issues were $11,400 for repairs to the C. P. R. wharf; $21,100 for Wilco's hangars for No. 5 shed; $84,000 for Wellington wharf; $5,000 for the repair of King street, west extension; $29,600 for a new crib work at the head of Union Slip; $6,000 for rebuilding Indian wharf; $5,000 for the new rest room on McLeod and Pettigrew wharves and $25,800 for a new crib work on Charlotte street extension.

Proposed Bond Issue Criticized.

The expenditures from revenue included $64,900 on Union wharf; $78,740 on South Rodney wharf; $26,540 on North Rodney wharf; $400 on Nelson wharf; $1,600 on Wellington wharf; $2,400 on North and South Market wharves; $8,700 on McLeod's wharf; $4,820 on Pettigrew wharf; $4,730 on the New Pier; $12,220 on Reed's Point wharf; $70 on Sydney Market wharf, and $1,180 on Charlotte street extension.

The proposed bond issue for Wellington wharf and that for Charlotte street extension came in for strong opposition. The former was dropped and it was decided to deal with the latter when the Commissioner brought in a formal motion on the matter.

When it came down to the item for salaries the Commissioner recommended an increase of $900 to F. D. Alward, harbor master, making his salary $9,000 per year and $100 increase to W. A. Charlton, harbor inspector, making his salary $1,800. He also recommended an increase of $100 in the proportion of the salary of G. G. Hart, city engineer, which he said would mean an increase of $300 for Mr. Hart. Commissioners Wigmore expressed the opinion that a recommendation for increasing the city engineer should come from the Mayor.

Commissioner Thornton thought the contention of Commissioner Wigmore was well taken and expressed the opinion that $3,000 was a small salary for the city engineer of a city like St. John. Christmas-tree lights that twinkle can now be procured.

This is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It starts with fever and cough. The cough is at first short and sharp, but gradually increases in severity and occurs in sudden spasms, vomiting follows, and sometimes there is nose bleed; the child turns livid in the face, the eyes appear as if they would burst from their sockets, and suffocation seems imminent. Relief is brought on by the "whoopy" Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will clear the bronchial tubes of the collected mucus and phlegm and in this way ease the necking cough and in a short time make it disappear.

Mrs. L. Ambrose, Sarnia, Ont., writes: "My little ones were both sick with whooping cough. I read where Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was good, and I only used two bottles and they were better. I had chronic bronchitis for three years and tried everything until, finally, I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I would not be without this remedy." FOUND NO TRACE OF BLOOD ON PIPE

Dr. Abramson Testifies at Godwin Hearing—Court Room Crowded.

Practically all available space in the police court room was filled yesterday afternoon with the audience to hear the evidence in the resumed preliminary hearing of the case in which Stewart Godwin, the 16-year-old mentally deficient Little River youth, is charged with the murder of Mrs. Clara White-slade, whose body was found in her home at East St. John on Christmas evening. The accused, on entering the court room, did not appear to be in any manner embarrassed. He smiled at his father as he was being placed in the prisoner's dock. He also recognized other acquaintances and smiled at them.

Godwin kept his eyes closely on the witness and appeared to take in every word delivered. When the piece of iron pipe with which it is alleged, the woman was killed, was produced in court for the purpose of having Dr. H. L. Abramson examine it, Godwin glanced at it and then turned his head away. During the hearing the pipe was in the hands of the doctor, the accused could be seen looking at it with a side glance.

Several Testify.

A. P. Bates, an engineer at the dry dock plant, told about seeing Godwin coming from the Whiteside home Christmas morning. He saw the woman last alive on the night of Dec. 19; Frank Dunham saw Stewart Godwin on the Whiteside premises on the afternoon of Dec. 22, and Dr. H. L. Abramson, who made the post mortem examination, said that the skull had been fractured in four places.

The hearing was adjourned until Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Ryan appeared for the Crown and C. R. Mercereau, of Powell & Mercereau, in the interests of Godwin.

Blackheads Go Quick By This Simple Method

Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soot ones or hard ones—on any part of the body go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of peroxide powder from your drugist—sprinkle a little on a hot wet cloth—rub over the blackheads have gone. Pinching and pulling will only irritate the pores of the skin and leave them large and unsightly. The simple method of peroxide powder and the water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition.

Zam-Buk

SAVES DOCTORS' BILLS

EZEMA ENDED
Madame A. Lariviere of Fall River, Mass., suffered with eczema for three years, and had treatment from several doctors, all of whom gave up the case. "Finally," she says, "I went to a specialist, which cost me another $20, but I was no better."

"A friend advised me to try Zam-Buk, which I did, and for which I have ever since been thankful. I very soon felt some relief, and perseverance with Zam-Buk completely rid me of the disease."

SEVERE CUT HEALED
Mr. C. Oakley of Saskatoon, who sustained a terrible cut on his leg, says: "Had I known of Zam-Buk when the accident occurred, I could have saved myself a $40 doctor's bill! A doctor sewed up the cut and attended me for five weeks, but the wound did not heal, and he advised me to go into a hospital."

"I objected, however, and Zam-Buk instead was in two weeks' time and back to work."

SAVED OPERATION
"Father developed a painful sore on his face," writes Miss M. Lewis of Silver Lake, Oregon. "Numerous remedies and treatment from several doctors failed to heal it, and the doctor advised an operation. Someone advised him to first try Zam-Buk. A few applications brought relief, and continued use of Zam-Buk entirely healed the sore, saving father from an operation."

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, ringworm, salt rheum, boils, pimples, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, bruises, burns and scalds. All dealers 50c box. Send this ad, name of user and 1c stamp (for postage) to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for free trial box.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble, Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas and wind in the stomach, and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestives which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any drugist a few ounces of Bismuth Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated feeling out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Bismuth Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or pills) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

His Greatest Find

Noted Prospector Crowns Interesting and Useful Career With Discovery of Drecto.

Mr. Charles Keddy, of Lake Ramsay, New Ross, Nova Scotia, great grandson of the founder of the City of Halifax, and whose parents and grandparents bore almost equally distinguished parts in the early development of the city, is himself famous all over Canada as a successful prospector and mineralogist.

He located the first tin ore in the solid in Canada and discovered radioactive ore in the solid, but it is doubtful if any of his successes brought him greater personal satisfaction than his timely discovery of Drecto as a health-builder.

Mr. Keddy, at 73 years of age, found that years of hardship and exposure had told on even his robust constitution. Today, thanks to Drecto, Mr. Keddy is again active and strong and straight as a flag-staff. He feels fit enough to break again the trails of his vigorous youth. Here is Mr. Keddy's statement:

"For a long time I suffered from rheumatism so bad that I could not work. My back ached terribly and I was almost bent double. I had pains in my knees and feet and every time I moved my joints cracked. Some time ago I had an operation for an ulcer just below my knee and was in the hospital for two months. After that my troubles seemed to start. My stomach and kidneys were in bad shape and my bowels were irregular."

at Social

The management of the Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd. stores was at home last evening to the entire staff and the occasion proved one of rare delight. The happy company consisted of a special movie programme in which local pictures especially interesting to those present were cleverly introduced and afforded a jolly surprise. A short dance programme with members of the Imperial orchestra to supply the music was thoroughly enjoyed. Tables arranged for playing bridge, Mah-jongg and other games were well patronized.

Dainty refreshments were served in the spacious lunch room upstairs, which was appropriately decorated for the event. Upwards of 250 people enjoyed the evening's hospitality. The large and pleasant rooms in the rear of the art department were converted for this occasion into a ball room with drawing room adjoining. These rooms were tastefully furnished with soft toned rugs, dainty curtains, shaded lamps and comfortable armchairs. Happy faces everywhere proved the popularity of the store's social evening.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

OLYMPICS WERE OPENED TODAY;
GORMAN WILL RACE TOMORROW

Freezing Weather Makes Start of Skating Contests Possible.

(By Canadian Press.)
Chamonix, Jan. 25.—The winter sports of the eighth Olympic games were officially opened today with the customary Olympic ceremonies, presided over by Gaston Vidal, under secretary of state for physical education. M. Vidal received the oaths of amateurism from the men entered for the competition. The teams of all the nations represented bearing their national flags and emblems, then paraded from the city hall to the skating rink where the competitions will be begun tomorrow.

Gorman Tomorrow.

New York, Jan. 25.—Canadian participation in the 1924 Olympic team and Allen H. Muir, of the French Olympic committee, over the matter of a U. S. trainer. It threatened to prevent the U. S. team taking part in the speed skating events but was settled today. Clarence Curran, who had requested recognition as an additional trainer, withdrew his request, asserting that he was unwilling to be the cause of a dispute.

Unfamiliar Conditions.

Unfamiliar racing conditions confront the skaters from Canada and the U. S. They are accustomed to assuming the same formation for ice skating as those employed in track athletics. But overseas it will be different. Only two skaters start at each heat, and the race is against time rather than against each other. There is no personal contact between the skaters, no setting of a pace, for the track is divided into two lanes which cross each other at one end. The skater starts in the inside lane and the other on the outside path. Each time they come to the crossing one on the inside and the other on the outside path and they continue alternating on the two lanes until the distance has been covered. Time is taken on each contestant and the winner is declared on a time basis.

Track Is Big.

Another condition which is different, but not expected to be any handicap is that the track at Chamonix is a 400 metre (437 yds) oval, or about twice the size of any ordinary track in Canada or the U. S.

News Notes Gathered From the World of Stage and Screen

INCE DENIES CRUELTY PRACTISED IN BUFFALO ROUNDUP IN ALBERTA

Charges Without Foundation—Reports Refer to Another Incident.

The following statement has been issued by Thomas H. Ince in connection with the filming of a roundup and stampede of 8,000 buffalo at Wainwright, Alberta, Canada.

"My attention has been drawn to numerous ridiculous false statements in the Canadian press and in news dispatches from Canada, to the effect that a roundup of buffalo at Wainwright National Park, Alberta, for the filming of scenes for 'The Last Frontier.'"

"Such charges are absolutely without foundation and I have been informed from an authoritative source that the present controversy in Canadian newspapers had been promoted for political purposes.

"Not the slightest degree of cruelty entered into the stampede. Erroneous reports have been issued that Indians, armed with bows and arrows, were employed to kill a number of buffalo bulls, and that wounded animals were allowed to wander over the prairie in agony. On the contrary, Cree Indians from the Hohenau reservation were used for atmospheric purposes only. The buffalo that were killed, under an agreement with the Canadian Government, were despatched humanely and humanly by expert riflemen. Not one of the hundreds of rangers and Indians engaged in the roundup was permitted a loaded weapon, even for self protection.

Two Events Combined

"It has been charged, also, that officials of the Department of the Interior of the Canadian Government were lax in permitting scenes of buffalo slaughter to be 'converted into a film spectacle.' In this connection, obviously, there has been a confusion of two distinct events. The motion picture stampede had absolutely no connection with the slaughter of 2,000 buffalo by the Government, to conserve forage for the thousands of wild, grazing animals in the Wainwright park.

"No effort was made to film the Government slaughter, which was not scheduled to begin until weeks after 'The Last Frontier' scenes were taken, and which would be neither educational or entertaining. Such scenes were taken, under the direct supervision of park officials and animal experts, were purely for educational purposes, and constitute some of the greatest action pictures ever recorded by the motion picture camera.

Historical Accuracy Needed

"The 'Last Frontier' will be my contribution to the permanent educational screen library. Historical accuracy demanded scenes showing stampeding buffalo. It was necessary to kill some of the buffalo in front of the cameras, to depict the fight of the pioneers to protect themselves and their property from the buffalo stampede conceived by warring Indians.

"Everything was done according to the terms of our agreement with Canadian Government officials, who were pleased to cooperate in a truly comprehensive educational effort. The facts in the case are available. There is no excuse for erroneous charges that are manifestly unfair to all parties concerned in the undertaking of one of the highest historical and dramatic undertakings in the history of the screen.

SAYS ALBEE RULED HIM OFF EXCHANGE

Plaintiff in $5,000,000 Case Says Suspension and Fines Vaudeville Weapons.

New York, Jan. 24.—Max Hart testified in the Federal District Court in his $5,000,000 suit under the Sherman Anti-Trust law against the B. F. Keith Vaudeville Exchange, the Orpheum Circuit and others. The plaintiff narrated numerous differences he had with the defendants, leading, he testified, to the ruin of his business as a vaudeville booking agent.

The foundation of the trouble, Hart testified, was the autocratic powers assumed by the defendants, particularly E. F. Albee, head of the Keith interests. He described himself as a booker of vaudeville acts for thirty-three years, and said he developed Will Rogers, Eddie Cantor, Blossom Seeley, Buster Keaton and others.

Hart testified that he first was in trouble with the alleged combine in 1909, when he refused to sell a half interest in his business to J. J. Murdoch, general manager for Keith. He said he was ruled off the floor of the exchange, but gradually worked up his business by booking through Percy G. Williams and F. F. Proctor.

While in Europe in 1914, Hart said, his employees called the information of a second expulsion from the exchange. He returned and asked Albee the reason, and was told no reason would be given for a few days. Hart said later his privilege was restored, without explanation.

He received $500 for Alteration.

In February of the following year, Hart said, he had an altercation with an acquaintance on the street and was fined $500 by Albee for this. He said he paid the fine by check and was surprised when it was returned endorsed, "Pay to order of Actors' Fund of America, United Booking Office, E. F. Albee, Harry D. Wells, assistant treasurer." Underneath was the endorsement of Daniel Frohman, head of the Actors' Fund. Hart said some weeks later he received notice of a life membership in the Actors' Fund, of the value of about $10.

The next interruption with his profitable business, Hart said, was in 1917 when he had a fight with a man at Broadway and Forty-seventh street. He said Albee asked him to explain. He said the man was trying to interfere in family affairs, and it was a personal matter. Albee told him to return the following day and his decision would be announced. That decision, Hart said, was his suspension for three months.

Was Told to Behave.

During the three months, the plaintiff said, he was forced to conduct his business through an agent named by Murdoch. He said he was not even allowed to telephone to his office, and when he wrote to Albee asking for an interview he received the reply, "I will grant you five minutes at the end of your three months." At the end of this period, Hart said, Albee told him he would have to behave to continue his work.

Hart said the next and final trouble, leading to the suit, was in November, 1920, when, without warning, his two representatives were ruled off the exchange. He said he went to see Murdoch and Albee, and was told of the decision not to allow him to do more business because he was "disloyal." When he pleaded with Albee, Hart said, the Keith head said he had proof of his disloyalty and exhibited a letter he had written to the Shuberts.

Hart said that to explain that he had also written similar letters to Florence Ziegfeld and Charles B. Dillingham,

CAMPBELLTON HAS STUBBORN BLAZE

Campbellton, Jan. 24.—The Bank of Nova Scotia building here was badly damaged by fire, water and smoke last night and the exchange of the New Brunswick Telephone Co. was put out of business for the time being. The fire started in the basement about 10:15 and the flames had a stubborn battle before it was extinguished. It is hoped to have the telephone system in working order today.

CHAPLAIN GETS A COLORED OPTIC

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 24.—Charlie Chaplin says it's all a publicity stunt and that the papers soon will show him made up as a prize fighter. But, nevertheless, the great comedian is wearing a black eye that was never painted.

It was presented to him publicly at a meal in a Hollywood restaurant in which a number of other movie stars were engaged, and it was not unusual as a mark of friendship.

Chaplin was sitting with Mary Miles Minter and a number of other friends. Four men with women companions came in. One of the women was Mildred Harris, former wife of Charlie. They sat near the Chaplin party.

One of the men at this table is said to have made a slighting remark to the comedian and followed the jibe with a jab. Chaplin, who has ducked many a blow, while acting for the camera, failed to duck this one. He struck back. The fight became general.

Other diners rushed in without being invited and separated the combatants. Then Charlie said he had been taken off guard, as it were, and that while he did not believe in brawling, he was willing to go a few rounds with anybody present. Nobody accepting the challenge, the affair fell flat.

Everybody is talking hockey.

DISCUSS DRAMATISTS AT ECLECTIC CLUB

A programme of special interest was greatly enjoyed at the meeting of the Eclectic Club at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Powell, Queen square last night.

The subject of the evening was Modern Dramatists. The programme was in charge of Mrs. Heber Vroom, who, in her paper, told of the rise of the drama. Miss Edith Skinner told of John Galsworthy and his works, and Mrs. R. E. Armstrong gave a paper on John Drinkwater with special reference to his famous play "Abraham Lincoln." Corliss Robinson gave a paper on the works of Bernard Shaw, and Mrs. Fred Foster gave a paper on Sir James Barrie. During the evening Miss Louise Knight sang two charming solos and her accompanist was Mrs. Thomas Guy. There was a large attendance of members. Amongst the visitors in the city, who were guests at the meeting, were Mrs. Cameron of Peterboro, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher; Mrs. Harrison of Windsor, N. S., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson; Miss Wilton, who is Mrs. John McMillan's guest, and Miss Lefroy and Rev. F. J. Lefroy, of St. George.

BONNIE DOON CLUB PRESENTS COMEDY

The delightful comedy "Patty Makes Things Hum" was admirably presented by the "Bonnie Doon" Club of Knox church last night in the church hall. The club has already won an enviable reputation for success in amateur theatricals and last night it exceeded its previous high record.

Miss E. Heffer was the director for the play and it was an "all star cast." Each member was excellent in the part which he or she portrayed. The stage setting had been specially made and it helped in making the presentation convincing and pleasing in every particular. The play was given to raise funds for church purposes and is to be repeated again tonight. A capacity house greeted the performers last night.

The plot of the comedy provides many amusing incidents.

The cast of characters was as follows: Patty, Miss Jean McAfee; Mrs. Robert Green, her sister, Miss Myrtle Crawford; Mr. Robert Green, Mr. Noel Fleming; Mrs. Frank Smith, a friend of Mrs. G. Miss Hilda Carpenter; Mr. Frank Smith, Mr. Frank Thompson; Capt. Fred Little, Patty's brother; Mr. David Legate; Miss Helen Braithwaite, his fiancée; Miss Jean Sewell; Captain Braithwaite, Mr. Harold Wetmore; Miss Hope

DENMAN THOMPSON

For More Than Twenty-Five Years, During Which Time the Wonderful Rural Comedy Became a Household Word Everywhere.

As Everyone in St. John, from 5 to 85, will wish to see the Carroll Players in THE OLD HOMESTEAD, capacity audiences are assured. That unprecedented interest will prompt as many patrons as possible to secure reservations for Monday evening and avoid disappointment later in the week. Remember, thousands could not see Mrs. Wiggs and the Old Homestead is even better, so early application at the Box Office is advised by the Opera House management, as they prefer a crowded theatre Monday and Tuesday rather than disappointed hundreds leaving the entrance later in the week.

This Advt. Refrains from mentioning the cast, as patrons will find it of interest to "wonder" which of these very familiar roles will be assigned to their favorite player. Note—The Old Homestead can be shown six days only, notwithstanding the urgent request of many patrons to continue for nine days, Grandma, Grandpa, Pa, Ma, and all the family will enjoy this greatest of all rural dramas. This Advt. is appearing one day earlier than usual for the purpose of creating a more than usual interest in Monday evening's performance. Ticket office will be open as usual from 10 a.m. to 9.30 p.m. Phone reservations will be gladly taken and held until 7.45.

LIGHT BILL MAY GET INTO COURT

City Hall Feels It is Up to Commission Now to Collect.

From present indications the question of what is due to the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission by the city of St. John under their contract for current from May 1 last, will have to be settled by the courts as the members of the City Council expressed the opinion this morning that they had gone as far in the matter as they should and it was now up to the Commission to collect if they could.

Mayor Fisher said he had notified the New Brunswick Power Co. of the appeal taken by the city to the Board of Public Utilities against the rates charged by the company for street lighting and received an acknowledgment from the company. He had received a letter from the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission stating that the agreement arrived at between the City Council and the commission had not been approved by the Lieutenant Governor in council. He suggested that he write the commission and ask why the Government had not approved, after taking up the matter with the city solicitor.

Commissioner Thornton said he did not agree with this procedure. He was not in favor of going any further in the matter. The commission knew what to do to collect the amount due or if they did not want to collect let them make some counter offer. He did not think the city should break its neck to pay out money.

Commissioner Wigmore said this communication was in tune with others from the commission. He was of the same opinion as Commissioner Thornton that the commission should go ahead and collect if they had a good case.

Commissioner Bullock thought it was up to the commission to collect and he felt the city had done all it could to reach a settlement. This view was also endorsed.

Commissioner Frink and His Worship said he would let the matter stand.

COMING FROM MAINE
A Bath, Carleton County letter says: A very large number of teams passed through town during the last week enroute to the lumber woods, a large number and cried, "Aroostook county, where it is rumored that the wages offered are not as alluring as those being offered by our own lumbermen. Most of the teams were bound for the head-waters of the Miramichi.

PRODUCE PRICES
A great deal of farm produce is on the move, says a letter from Bath, Carleton County. The below mentioned are the average prices which were paid by local merchants during the past week: No. 1 $11; potatoes, $1.65; pulp, $10; green wood, slabs 16 in, $10. Long lumber and lath were more.

The local detectives had not received any reply up to noon today from the Chief of Police in Fannie, B. C. or from Vancouver in connection with their enquiry about George A. MORE REPORTS MADE
Louis Stephen was summoned to the police court this morning to answer a charge of having piles of earth in Wright, Celebration, Stanley, Spring, Johnston, St. Paul, Summer and White streets without lights and also for leaving post holes uncovered. Charles Hamilton appeared for the defendant and after the usual amount of money was paid to the police, the matter was dropped. Magistrate Henderson allowed the charges to stand on condition that Mr. Stephen would have the earth removed. He said he had no desire to be too harsh with the company, but they had accepted with their own eyes the money and the police men corner and Mettelle made the reports.

CALLS WITNESS IN COURT LIAR

Beckwith, in Highwayman Case, Starts Towards J. H. Hamilton.

Excitement was occasioned in the police court this morning when John Beckwith, who was being tried on suspicion of acting with another and assaulting John H. Hamilton with intent violently to steal from him, started threateningly towards the plaintiff and cried, "You're a liar, Mr. Hamilton. Don't say I was one of them." He was stopped by Court Officer Dykeman and put back in the dock.

Mr. Hamilton told about leaving his shop about 12:30 on the night of January 5 and starting for his home in Spring street. He said he proceeded along Winter to Spring, and while passing an alley was accosted by two young men. One said, "Hold up your hands" and when asked what was the joke, said there wasn't any joke. The witness said he reached over and turned down the lapel of one of the men's coats and snatched a revolver from one of his hands. He threw it into the street and then tried to see what the other fellow had and in doing so slipped and fell. One of the two held him down and cried out to his confederate, "Crack him quick!" The other then attacked him with some instrument, which he thought was a revolver, and struck him four blows, two on the head, one on the nose and one on the side of his face. He cried out, and someone in a house nearby switched on electric lights. At this stage one of the highwaymen cried out, "Beat it, quick; there's a light!"

In answer to Magistrate Henderson, the witness said he had about $207 on his person at the time.

When Sergeant Detective Power led the defendant to step forward and put on his cap, Mr. Hamilton said: "That's one of them; the one that held me down." It was then that the defendant started towards the witness in a threatening manner and called him a liar.

The case was set aside until Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

TWO FAMILIES ARE BURNED OUT

Lose Practically All Their Possessions in Fire in Fairville.

Two Fairville families, those of Lee Wright and Charles Raynes, were turned out of their homes early this morning by fire and lost practically all their household effects. The building was owned by George Raynes and it is a total loss. It is estimated the damage will be between $5,000 and $6,000 with only partial insurance. The fire caused a shock to Mr. Wright, who has been ill for some days.

Just how the blaze started is not known. It was said that Mr. Raynes had started the kitchen fire and then gone to the barn to feed his horses and soon after this a neighbor, Albert Taylor, saw the flames and gave the alarm. The neighbors quickly turned out and the Fairville fire department was called. They worked hard and succeeded in keeping the blaze confined to the one building, saving the barn belonging to Mr. Raynes and the houses on either side.

The two families were taken by Mr. Taylor until they could make arrangements for new quarters.

STORM TOO BAD; MEETING IS OFF

On account of the storm the annual meeting of the Local Council of Women, which was scheduled for this afternoon, was postponed until next Friday.

BROTHER IS LOCATED.
Sergeant Detective Power succeeded in locating Bertram McDonald, who is in Moncton last evening. Yesterday the police received a request from the Chief of Police of Moncton, asking them to locate Mr. McDonald and to notify him that his brother, Fred J., had died there.
