British Over The Top This Morning In Drive On Wide Front North of The Ancre River French Also Press Back The Enemy Along a Wide Front

Third Army Under General Byng Forces Back the Germans

Attack, Between Arras and Albert, Completely Successful—No Artillery Preparations But Up and At Them—Several Miles Progress and Several Towns Are Captured

London, Aug. 21—An attack on a wide front north of the Ancre River was launched by the British forces at a quarter to five this morning, says the official statement from Field Marshal Haig today. Satisfactory progress is being made.

On Tuesday afternoon the British threw back strong German attacks against the new British positions south and north of the Scarpe.

The British attack was between Moyenville and Beaumont-Sur-Ancre, a distance of about eight and a half miles. It is reported that the British have advanced from two to three miles along this front.

British forces have captured Courcelles, Achiet le Petit and have reached Moyenville and Beaumont-Sur-Ancre.

The attack this morning was made without artillery preparations. It was completely successful. It was made by the British third army under General Byng. After capturing Achiet le Petit the British troops advanced another mile and a half to the east and reached Achiet le Grand.

TOWNS CAPTURED IN FIRST HOUR. With the British Armies in France, Aug. 21—(By the Associated Press)—Field Marshal Haig this morning launched an offensive on a front of about 10,000 yards. The high contour between Adifor and Moyenville was the northern zone of attack and Puisseux-Au-Mont the southern landmark of the front. The enemy here lately has been withdrawing in order to increase the depth of his defences.

In the first hour of the offensive the British troops captured the towns of Alfainville, Beaumont and Moyenville.

The British attacked on a front of ten miles between Arras and Albert. The attacks extended from the Ancre river at Beaumont to just north of Moyenville.

Some German field guns and 200 prisoners had been taken in the British drive at an early hour.

All the German outposts and positions along the important Dronoutre Ridge between Koudeket and the Loche hospice have been attacked by the British. The result so far is not known. This front is in the Lys salient.

Courcelles and Achiet le Petit also were captured in the British drive. Early this morning British troops carried out a successful local operation in the Loche sector on a front of more than a mile. All the objectives of the attack were taken, and prisoners were captured.

A Tactical Surprise. Although prisoners said the Germans had been expecting the attack for a week it was a tactical surprise. Tanks and infantry advanced through the heavy fire in the gray morning light. After a brief "crash" bombardment the British troops were upon the enemy almost before he knew it.

The heavy night mist increasing to steam-like smoke enabled the British to reach the points of assembly without the chance of detection. A great concourse of tanks manoeuvred into position as quickly as possible.

The first advance of the British was made at 5:05 o'clock this morning after a very brief "crash" bombardment. The retaliation was very light at first, no doubt owing to the difficulty of the Germans in seeing the British troops in the haze, and they got on rapidly.

After the assault, lengthening the front by about another 5,000 yards materialized according to plan. The general impression is that things are going very satisfactorily for the British. The 200 prisoners taken were chiefly from the second guards division and the fourth Bavarian division. Some field guns fell into the hands of the British very early. The German infantry was discovered to be weak in places, some companies not having more than a strength of fifty at all ranks.

While the width of the attacking front is not clearly defined, a "wide front" probably would include a line from the Ancre to the Scarpe, about fifteen miles. There has not been any heavy fighting recently on the line north of the Ancre, although the Germans seem days ago, retired slightly on the front between Beaumont-Hamel and Bucquoy. However, there has been more or less raiding activity.

The battlefront from north of the Ancre to north of Lens has not seen so great a change as other sectors between Ypres and Rheims since the beginning of the German offensive on March 21.

In making an attack here it would appear that Marshal Foch is striving to break the old German line in the Arras area. Any considerable forward movement here would menace the German positions north and south for many miles. Strategically a blow here would seem to be a companion one to the French offensive south of the Oise and a strong attempt to force the Germans to retire all along the line.

GERMAN REGIMENT REFUSES TO FACE BRITISH FORCES. London, Aug. 20—(Canadian Press despatch from Reuter's Ltd.)—Reuter's correspondent at British army headquarters cables under date of this evening: "If the German retirement is proceeding according to the present plan, they are now confronted with a situation which must complicate their calculations. The hasty abandonment of Merville on Sunday was doubtless due to our unexpectedly obtaining possession of the dominating contour east of Merville. "Since the beginning of their withdrawal, prisoners to the number of 6,000 have been captured.

"It is definitely stated that the 418th infantry regiment refused to obey an order to attack at Fuisieux recently. Nineteen officers and 848 men had been captured in Flanders up to last night."

CITY WAGES AT THE WHARVES MAY BE RAISED. The commissioner of harbor and ferries is contemplating raising all fees, dues and rates for the city wharves. The object is to increase the revenue and if possible make the harbor pay for itself.

In order to avoid any serious loss similar to that entailed last year when a section of No. 5 shed collapsed, Commissioner Bullock is sending letters to the railway and steamship officials notifying them that they will be held responsible if they overload any of the sheds.

INSURE CITY EMPLOYEES. Commissioner Hillyard said this morning that he considers that all city employees should be insured as in many large establishments. He pointed out the danger in which many of his men are in while working in trenches and says that if they are injured the city in many cases responsible for their pay and expenses.

FRENCH TODAY KEPT UP ADVANCE ON THEIR FRONT

Progress Along Whole Line Between The Oise and the Aisne—Another Gain Near Lassigny

Paris, Aug. 21—French troops continue their advance along the whole front between the Oise and the Aisne this morning. Carlepont and Cots have been captured by the French, according to the official statement issued at the war office today.

After sharp fighting ground has been taken west of Lassigny by the French. German surprise attacks in Champagne were repulsed."

HUNS RESIST STURDILY BUT FRENCH PRESS ON. On the French front in France, Aug. 20—(Havas Agency)—The battle is proceeding with fierce resistance by the enemy, but with quick and steady progress by the French. The objectives set by the French command appear to have been attained. The enemy is suffering severe losses, although his receding line is fighting with marked determination.

The French attack between Soissons and Ribecourt was against a line which the enemy desired to hold. It is strongly fortified and is defended by picked Bavarian and Alpine units.

Documents on prisoners show that the enemy expected an attack. Orders were given that the positions must be held to the last man. Despite the German stubbornness the French made rapid advances during the day.

Enemy Losses Heavy. Paris, Aug. 20—The manoeuvre of the French forces east of the Oise today was conducted with precision and speed. The attack was launched at 8:10 a. m. after a violent artillery preparation. At 8:45 batteries of 75's on the heels of the infantry advanced four kilometres over the Vassens Ridge. At nine o'clock the French right had advanced to Tartiers Heights and at 9:40 the left was at Lombrey.

The enemy losses are said to have been exceptionally heavy. One French division alone captured 1,500 prisoners. The advance continues over a rolling country where rapid progress ordinarily is difficult.

Germans At Work Off N. S. Coast; Vessels Are Sunk

Canadian Trawler, Seized and Used as Raider, is Wreaking Havoc Among Fishermen; Six U-Boats Off Coast, Says Commander

A Canadian Atlantic Port, Aug. 21—The steam trawler Triumph, fitted with two guns, and wireless and manned by sixteen Germans from the U-boat which captured her yesterday, is raiding the banks of the coast of Nova Scotia and the crews of schooners sunk by the Triumph have arrived here. The vessels known to be sunk are the Una P. Saunders of Lunenburg, the E. Pratt of Gloucester, Mass., and the Francis J. O'Hara of Boston.

Captain Wallace Bruce, master of the Gloucester schooner, told the Canadian Press that his vessel was held up by the Triumph yesterday afternoon and that he and his crew were given ten minutes to leave the ship. The Germans then sunk her with bombs. The Triumph then moved over to the Boston and Lunenburg vessels, sinking them in turn. The devices from the three vessels reached here this morning. The fishermen say that while making for this port they heard shots and they believe that other fishing vessels have been sunk.

Captain Myrhr, master of the Triumph, who landed here with his man, told the Canadian Press that the captain of the submarine said that his was only one of six U-boats operating on this coast. "We intend to destroy the fishing fleets," the German commander said to Captain Myrhr.

AFTER HER. Washington, Aug. 21—Strong forces of swift naval patrol boats and destroyers sped today to the North Atlantic fishing banks, where the trawler Triumph is reported raiding fishing fleets.

SUBMARINE SEIZES CANADIAN GRAND BANKS TRAWLER

Crew Sent Away in Dories—Believe it is Intended to Convert Triumph Into Raider

An Atlantic Port, Aug. 21—(By the Associated Press)—A German submarine late yesterday seized the big fishing trawler Triumph. The crew, who had reached shore safely, said they believed the Germans intend to use the trawler as a raider. They reported that the U-boat is "playing havoc" with the fleet of fishing vessels on the Grand Banks.

The Triumph was halted on the fishing banks by the U-boat and the crew was permitted to take to the dories. The fishermen said that the trawler was still afloat when they last saw her. An armed guard of Germans had been placed aboard, and no preparations were made to sink the ship.

The Triumph is owned by the North Atlantic Fisheries Company, and is one of the crack boats of the fleet.

Boston, Aug. 21—Fishermen here said today that if the submarine made use of the trawler Triumph as a raider they would have to re-coal the craft at least every ten days. The Triumph is manned entirely by a Canadian crew and is owned by a Canadian company. She is 125 feet long, fifteen feet deep, with a twenty-two foot beam, and registers about 250 tons gross.

VIGOROUS BOMBING OF ENEMY WORKS

Much Damage Done and Good Number of Machines Destroyed; Americans at It

London, Aug. 20—On the night of Aug. 19-20 our squadrons again attacked hostile airfields and railways. All our machines returned safely.

Early on Aug. 18 some of our squadrons combined in a very successful attack on the Phalampin airfield, south of Lille. Several airplanes and sheds were hit and big fires started. All our machines returned safely. The Bruges docks and the railway at Roubaix and enemy dumps were heavily bombed.

Thirteen enemy machines were destroyed and six driven down out of control in air fighting. One hostile airplane was shot down and another brought down out of control by fire from the ground. Four German balloons in the Merville sector were set on fire by one of our airmen. Seven of our machines are missing.

London, Aug. 20—The American navy's air campaign against German submarine bases in Flanders began on Aug. 15 with the bombing of Ostend. It is said the operations generally were successful.

SEE "SEX WAR" IN ENGLAND GROWING OUT OF CONDON STRIKE

London, Aug. 21.—(By the Associated Press)—A "sex war," is a possibility seen by some commentators on the strike of women transportation workers for the same pay received by men for equal work. It is pointed out that the ramifications of the strike may extend virtually to all war activities and many other industries. Newspapers advocating equal pay for men and women argue against the contention that many women workers are receiving a separation allowance, because their husbands are fighting. The bonuses given women in many munition plants are lower than those paid to men workers and it is reported that the women are becoming dissatisfied over what they say are "inequalities."

IN WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 21.—Shippings were again to the fore at the opening of today's stock market, gaining one to two and a half points in connection with reports of a consolidation of American marine interests. Industrials also improved from fractions to a point, United States Steel, Crucible Steel and Equipments making most substantial headway. Hails their advances on the preceding session and tobacco led the specialties, averaging one point gains. Noon Report. Further buying of Liberty 3 1/2's at the new high record of 101.60 was the interesting feature of the morning. Denying of the reported merger of shipping companies caused a sharp decline in such specialties as Sumatra Tobacco and General Motors, which rose 2 1/2 and 3 1/2 points respectively.

GALLANT DEEDS THAT ARE CHARACTERISTIC OF NAVY

London, Aug. 21.—A striking feature of the naval side of the war is the number of retired admirals who have returned to the navy, bringing with them full vigor and the quick determination characteristic of the service. On June 10 last, when an explosion took place on a motor launch, Commander Sir James Starin, who held the rank of admiral retired, proceeded to the side and, learning that the engineer was below in the fiercely burning engine room, climbed down the hatchway and, unaided, recovered the engineer's body. For this brave deed King George has approved the award of the Albert medal to Admiral Starin.

Cincinnati man tells how to lift off any corn without hurting one bit

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called fressone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply shrivel the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of fressone will cost very little at any of the drug stores but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

DEMONS GARDEN FETE ELABORATE AFFAIR

Beautiful Burpee Grounds Busting Today at Patriotic Event

The charming hillside lawns and groves of the Burpee home, 101 Burpee avenue, are today resplendent with albed bunting, snowy linen, lavish flowers and various other forms of decorations, the occasion being a lawn fete held under the auspices of the DeMoss Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, of which Mrs. George K. McLeod is regent. The fête commenced at 10 o'clock and is continuing until tonight's full moon has added to the pleasure of the gay patriotic event.

Tables, booths, cozy nooks and little shops, with the indispensable fortune-telling tent, are dotted about the wide greenward and under the porches and verandas of the stately home. The flaunting flags and entwined national colors give the surroundings an especially brilliant appearance.

At three o'clock Lieut-Governor Pugsley, in a pleasing little speech, declared the fête opened. There was at once a merry rush for the choicest good things, novelties and substantial foods offered for sale by the following ladies: Novelty Table—Mrs. J. Bright Cudlip, convener, with Mrs. R. C. Cruickshank, Mrs. James U. Thomas, Mrs. Clarence deForest, Mrs. F. E. Seay, Miss Skinner, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell and Miss Helen Sidney Smith.

A Futurist Tent—a new name for fortune-telling—was an adjunct of this wartime evening soiree.

Will You Send Your Boy to College?

Of course you will—if you live. —But supposing you die, what's to become of the lad? Will he, at fourteen or earlier, be forced out into the world to earn his living?

Or will you give him the chance of his lifetime, anyway? You can do it, whether you live or die, by means of an Imperial Endowment Policy. Let us tell you more about it.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Kenosha and Milwaukee, Wis., operate "community" stores which supply the goods used by persons who receive public aid. Instead of giving such persons orders on regular merchants, the overseers of the poor give them orders on the community stores, which are said to supply them at lower prices than the individually operated stores.

Oshkosh, Wis., conducted ten open playgrounds during the vacation period, only one being completely equipped with steel apparatus. The grounds were open daily from 9.30 to 11.30 and from 4 until dark, and were under the direction of persons recommended by the Playground Institute. The playgrounds are provided with sand bins, baseball diamonds, volley ball and captain ball courts, jumping standards and pits, and the necessary balls, bats, etc.

Under the auspices of the Drama League, Chicago, a series of twice-a-week dancing classes was held at the Municipal Pier, with the object of keeping children off the streets. This is only part of the community service established under the general direction of Frank L. Bennett, commissioner of public works. Red Cross work, Friday evening entertainments, band concerts and dancing are other features. Six Red Cross sewing machines are kept running continuously and a regular daily attendance of seventy-five is reported.

WHAT CHILDREN CAN DO. Boys in the manual training department of the Bryant School, Tacoma, Wash., have been taught to mend their own shoes. The class has been conducted only a single term, but during that time, after tools and material had been paid for, enough material was left for a good start the next term.

Four hundred school children of Tacoma, Wash., copied the names on the poll books to provide names for the solicitors on the recent war savings drive for the city's quota of $2,200,000.

The Casualty Clearing Station

Impressions of a Visit Which Will Bring Proud Feeling of Ease For Soldier Lads to Folks at Home

(By Lacey Amy, Special Correspondent of The Times with the Canadian Forces in France.)

With the Canadian Forces, France, July 28—My impressions of the battle's casualties have altered. I would not be little that I know now that many of the fears of sensitiveness and inexperience have no foundation in the actual treatment of the men who face the enemy and carry away the marks of it. My personal knowledge does not extend to the field ambulances, where the wounded receive first treatment, but the workings of the casualty clearing station, to which they are carried from the field ambulances, I have watched for days. There the wounded soldier enters a little world, devoted to his welfare—so surprisingly devoted, indeed, that the incidents of my experience should make pleasant reading to the friends back home.

Casualty clearing stations are usually grouped, in order to be able to handle every case that arrives. Each group serves a definite sector of the front by a system of alterations which prevents overcrowding in accommodation or work. The group I have interested myself in is half Canadian. The wounded are delivered in lots of 200 to each station in succession, so that surgical cases might receive proper attention. In quiet times any one hospital of the group may receive patients only at intervals of several days; but each is always prepared to work night and day when the casualties are heavy. Indeed, there is no night there. Only recently it happened that the wounded arriving at one hospital were largely surgical cases and six teams of operators worked all night.

Simply put, the needs of the wounded count before everything else.

The cases are taken in at a receiving tent where doctors examine each as it arrives and decide what must be done. The serious ones receive first attention, whether medical or surgical, special doc-er officers to Chinese laborers and irritating mental cases. The walking cases are moved by bus or ambulance. Stretcher cases are rolled from the evacuation tent on rubber-tired trolleys and gently lifted into the ambulances. At the train the same care is taken. Not once have I heard even a groan, though there were the most severe wounds and operations.

An incident connected with the very first case I saw removed to the train opened my eyes. I do not know the nature of the case, but the young lad on the stretcher was suffering physically and mentally; there were tears in his eyes as his stretcher glided quietly into the train. And one of the orderlies cheerfully waved a hand after him. "You'll soon be smiling now, old chap," he called. And the boy smiled there and then.

A bus full of walking East Indians rolled up to the train, and, rather dully from their wounds and from inexperience, they clambered from the upper deck. It happened to be an American hospital train receiving the patients. For a few seconds the Indians lined up inactively, and then they were ordered to get on. A round-faced orderly in the nearest car doorway waved his hand at them. "Come along, boys. We've got some sweet seats in here for you, and though only the Indian sergeant understood a word of it, they all brightened and filed off towards the beckoning hand. They did not look incapacitated by any means, yet an orderly stood on either side of the steps at the bottom, and another pair at the top, and each Indian was assisted as carefully as a son would help his mother.

For a long time I hesitated about inspecting the transfer inside from the stretcher to the cots. (That is one detail of operation which seems to call for further inventive genius.) But my reluctance was unwarranted. Within were such cheery comradeship and co-operation between the orderlies, that the worst cases rested at last on the cots without more than a twinge.

From first to last, after all these years of bloodshed, yet no complaint, that have passed through the hospitals without cease, I have seen no such gentleness and obvious personal sympathy as mechanical draftsmen, designers, toolmakers. SUFFERED TWO YEARS WITH PIMPLES

Child Could Not Sleep Till Cuticura Healed.

"My little brother suffered for about two years from tiny red pimples. They appeared constantly on his body but he had the greatest trouble under his ears. The skin was red and very sore and at the least touch he would give a howl of pain. After a few seconds he would have to scratch, and he was not able to sleep. A friend advised me to send for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I noticed a change, and I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap and four boxes of Ointment when he was healed." ### PROVISIONS OF M.S.A. ARE MISUNDERSTOOD Limitation to 100,000 Men for Reinforcements Does Not Prevent Calling Out of Other Classes.

Ottawa, Aug. 20—In an official statement issued tonight it was stated that a misunderstanding of the terms of the military service act has given rise to the impression in certain quarters that the limit of 100,000 men applies to the number enlisted or recruited under the act. It is difficult to understand upon what ground this interpretation is based. The language and meaning of the act are clear. The restriction does not apply to the number of men enlisted or enrolled but to the number provided as reinforcements to the army overseas. Sub-section 4 of the preamble provides that "unless further authorized by parliament the reinforcements provided under this act shall not exceed 100,000 men."

From this it is quite clear that the ultimate purpose of the enactment was to provide reinforcements for the Canadian expeditionary forces on active service overseas and it is upon the reinforcements to be provided that paragraph 4 section 18 imposes the limitation. The section empowering the government-in-council to call out the different classes covered by the act imposes no restrictions upon the number.

Mrs. Godden Tells How It May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Freemont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-five years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. GODDEN, 926 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptoms as heat flashes, nervousness, backache, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Itself themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. WAR COMMENT.

The brilliant success of the French tenth army under General Mangin yesterday has been quickly followed up by a spirited British offensive north of the Ancre River. Haig's troops attacked at daybreak this morning along a wide front and it is officially announced that satisfactory progress is being made.

The particular region where the British began their drive this morning has not been clearly defined, there is much but those who are in close touch with the battlefield have freely predicted a determined thrust by Haig north of the Ancre so soon as Foch should succeed in consolidating his gains to the south and getting his artillery in position for further heavy attacks on the army of the Crown Prince and that of Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria.

Thus the membership increased 150 per cent in fifteen years, and the assets 208 per cent, and the war did not interfere with the growth of either. It is a notable record.

Premier Massey of New Zealand declares that Germany must eventually be punished for the crimes she has committed in this war. This is a view which is widely shared, but it is difficult to see how it will be possible to inflict upon her any punishment which will cover her atrocities. Indemnities alone will not do it.

Nantucket, Mass., Aug. 21.—A story indicating that an officer of one of the German submarines operating off the American coast may have attended a New York theatre on the night of Aug. 8 was disclosed today by the wife of a New York playwright and prominent member of the summer colony here.

It is declared by military observers that the German calculations have been greatly complicated by Foch's sudden attacks at a time when the enemy no doubt expected a lull in the fighting to enable the Allies to move up their artillery. This seems to be where Foch's strategy shines. He is always doing the unexpected.

One of the fishermen, a member of the crew of the Lena A., told her, she said, that he was questioned by the German petty officer who boarded the schooner. During the conversation they were talked to recognize the growing strength of their armies. For aside from the reports of casualties, the news from the theatre of war these days is most encouraging.

THE HOME BUILDERS.

It is an interesting fact that building and loan associations in the United States have not been adversely affected by the war, but that the work of home building through their agency has steadily progressed. Bradstreet's remarks that "as these associations are not patronized by capitalists but almost wholly by wage earners, the facts as to membership show that the American workman continues to be a worthy nest builder."

The annual report of the United States League of Building and Loan Associations expresses the view that "instead of being hurt by the emissions of the three Liberty loans, the thrift campaign inaugurated by the government has enhanced the saving habit."

"The assets of the associations mentioned during 1917-18 expanded about $170,000,000, and they loaned out a mortgage $182,000,000. There are in the United States 7,289 associations, with aggregate assets of $1,709,142,175 and a total membership of 9,938,212. This means a gain of 197 associations, 270,189 members, and $170,514,939 in assets over the report of the year before. The increase in membership was 7.5 per cent, while that in assets was 10.6 per cent. The average amount due each member was $460.87 as against $447.98, the amount shown in the preceding year.

In Ohio the increase in assets was $51,159,940; in Pennsylvania, $25,488,226; Massachusetts, $13,389,180; New Jersey, $18,088,951; Illinois, $8,050,122; Nebraska, $6,627,788; New York, $6,442,948; Indiana, $5,818,661; Michigan, $4,979,988; while in Missouri, California and Wisconsin the increase was over $3,000,000 in each state.

The following table gives membership and total assets of building and loan associations in the United States for a fifteen-year period:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Assets. Data points for years 1903-08 to 1917-18.

Necessarily the casualty list is lengthening as our successes on the battlefield multiply, and St. John's hero roll is growing in proportion. There is grief anew in city homes today, sorrow for gallant soldier husbands and sons who will return no more to their loved ones.

One of the fishermen, a member of the crew of the Lena A., told her, she said, that he was questioned by the German petty officer who boarded the schooner. During the conversation they were talked to recognize the growing strength of their armies.

It is declared by military observers that the German calculations have been greatly complicated by Foch's sudden attacks at a time when the enemy no doubt expected a lull in the fighting to enable the Allies to move up their artillery.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer here the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Tan, Red or Freckled Skin Is Easily Shred

To free your summer-soiled skin of its mudiness, freckles or tan, the best thing to do is to free yourself of the skin issues that are accomplished by the use of ordinary macerated wax, which of course can be had at any drug store. Use it at night as you use cold cream, washing it off in the morning. Immediately the entire surface begins to come off in fine powder-like particles. Gradually the entire outer scarf skin is absorbed, without the least harm or inconvenience. The new layer of skin now in evidence presents a softness, whiteness and sparkling beauty obtainable in no other way. One ounce of macerated wax will completely renovate a bad complexion.

BRAVO! GARDENRETTET!

Illustration by courtesy of National War Garden Commission, Washington.

And before we say good-bye to the war garden let's say "Well done" to the gardeners and her juvenile satellites. They have nobly done their duty and stuck at it through the hottest summer days. Even yet they give the hoe occasional exercise. Their work has contributed in no small measure to the sum total of Canada's 1918 war garden produce.

The best of the gardeners is that her work does not end with the hoe. She "carries on" in the kitchen, converting the result of her outdoor labor into good fare for the winter months when the war garden will be only a happy memory, save for as much of its yield as has been canned, dried or stored.

And speaking of storing—did you know that 75 per cent of garden produce can be successfully stored? Properly stored vegetables have all the qualities of those freshly gathered from the garden and from a health standpoint are invaluable. If you want to know all about it, write to any of the provincial committees of the Canada Food Board for the booklet on the canning, drying and storing of fruit and vegetables. Enclose five cents for same.

Food Board Flashes For Feminine Folk

Ten chances to one, you have never thought of using glucose in your kitchen, but the time has come when you are specifically asked to give it a trial.

There is no question of the scarcity of sugar and glucose and its counter-part, white corn syrup, are among the best and most inexpensive substitutes at hand. The British Board of Agriculture and Fisheries has been recommending its use by private householders for some time past. It should be used along with cane sugar in the proportion of one part of glucose to two of sugar. Practical experiment has shown that it can be successfully utilized in jam and jelly-making, for canning and also for general cooking purposes. Give it a trial.

THE PYTHIANS

Summerside, Aug. 28—The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias for the maritime provinces opened here today, about sixty delegates being present. Grand Chancellor Robert B. Slipp in his report stated that during the year his greatest efforts have been to interest the lodges in raising funds for the Pythian war relief work. He expects $1,000 to be raised by September 1. The membership on June 30, was 3,577, a decrease of 47. $1,500 of the general fund is to be invested in war bonds. The Pythian Sisters Grand Temple also met here today.

The following officers were elected: Grand chancellor, S. J. Soley, Fort Greenville (N. S.); grand vice-chancellor, R. B. Wallace, Fredericton; grand prelate, D. M. Coreoran, Sydney; grand keeper of records and seal, James Moulson, St. John; grand master at arms, J. S. Lord, St. Stephen; grand master of exchequer, J. R. SECOND BOY FROM A TORRYBURN HOME TO GIVE HIS LIFE IN WAR

Word that their son, Joseph G. Gallagher, has been killed in action on August 8, was received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. George Gallagher, of Torryburn. This is the second son to have given up his life in the great war. John, an older brother, was killed at Concedette on September 15, 1916. Joseph Gallagher was only nineteen years of age when he enlisted, and he had been in France for three years and was with a Howitzer battery. He was a very popular young man and his many friends will mourn his death. The deepest sympathy will be extended to his family. Besides his parents he leaves one brother, George, of Kingshurst, and three sisters, Mary and Nellie at home, and Cecilia, of Boston. Mrs. Armenta Parks, 189 Millingville avenue, has informed that Private Albert Edward Parks has been reported admitted to No. 9 General Hospital, Rouen, Aug. 9, gunshot wound in the elbow and hip. Thomas Allan of the Vulcan Iron Works has received word that his only son, Pte. Thomas R. Allan, was admitted to No. 6 General Hospital, Rouen, on Aug. 11, suffering from gunshot wounds. H. G. Wadman of Moncton received word yesterday that his son, Private P. Lester Wadman, had been killed in action. He was nineteen years old. Major Ashford Wounded. J. Starr Tait received a cable yesterday from his brother-in-law, Major H. G. Ashford, saying that he had been wounded but not seriously. Major Ash-ford left home with the 140th but he is now attached to the 20th as company commander. Reported Wounded. William Johnston, 22 Clarence street, received word yesterday that his son, Private William Johnston, infantry, had been admitted to general hospital, Rouen, August 10, with gunshot wounds in the chest, neck and right leg. FUNDS FOR THE SPHAGNUM MOSS COMMITTEE

The following is a letter which was written to John E. Moore by Mrs. John A. McAvity, president of the local Red Cross Society, in acknowledgement of a contribution to the Red Cross Society sphagnum moss committee: St. John, N. B., Aug. 20, 1918. My dear Mr. Moore—The interest of yourself and visiting friends in the grand and patriotic work of the juniors of the Natural History Society and others, who are taking their holidays now gathering sphagnum moss on bogs near Ladgate Lake and your kind and generous thought to raise and contribute the check of $50, which I have just received from you, will not only lighten their expense, but will also go far towards encouraging and making easy their noble work, as well as that of our provincial committee on sphagnum moss dressings. In behalf of this Red Cross committee accept our most sincere appreciation and convey the same to your friends, who were with you. Yours gratefully, MARY E. McAVITY.

ENGAGEMENT. Mr. and Mrs. David S. Mann, Pettitcodiac, N. B., announce the engagement of their daughter, Maudie Alida, to Howard Douglas Bishop, of North Abington, Mass., marriage to take place at an early date.

Several gangs of workers are ballasting the roadbed and making much needed repair. So far the crews have not passed the vicinity of Haymarket square.

WINS HIS LIEUTENANCY. Word has been received by Miss Eva Cassey of 109 Rothesay avenue, city, of the promotion to lieutenant of S. F. Bennett, who went overseas with the A. F. C. 75th F. A. S. L. American expeditionary forces. Mr. Bennett is well known in St. John. Before enlisting he was employed as assistant manager for the Colonial High C company, Marsh street. His host of friends in this city will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

HAD GOOD TIME IN MONTREAL. Police Inspector Caples returned yesterday after a vacation trip to Montreal. While in the Canadian metropolis the popular official was introduced by old St. John newspaper friends to the police heads there and the result was a thorough inspection of the big city's police system. In fact, the Montreal cops laid themselves out to give the St. John officer a royal good time combined with his investigation of methods and routine.

PLAYING BASEBALL IN PALESTINE. Already some of the Jewish-American boys who were trained for the Holy Land front of the great war in the Nova Scotia training camps have landed in the Far East. As an indication how that historic area is to be modernized after the war is stated that baseball is already the popular amusement there among the Jewish soldiers from the new world. Games are being played on scheduled days if anybody knows how to extract it. Falling to seize upon this bonanza the natives at River John are cutting the blubber up for compost and fertilizer in the garden. Truly this is a nice come-down for the king of fish.

USING WHALES FOR COMPOST. A local citizen who has just returned after an auto trip through Nova Scotia brings some interesting photographs of a school of stranded whales at River John. The beach is literally lined with the dead mammals, each one of which averages the bulk of about three large horses. The people picture as standing near the whales appear mere pygmies by comparison. There were about 200 of these whales in the picture—a veritable fortune in it if anybody knew how to extract it. Falling to seize upon this bonanza the natives at River John are cutting the blubber up for compost and fertilizer in the garden. Truly this is a nice come-down for the king of fish.

CAPTAIN RISING SENDS APPEAL FOR FUNDS.

Major R. T. Hayes has received a letter from Capt. P. M. Rising, quartermaster of the 18th reserve battalion in England, in which he said the officer commanding, Lieut.-Col. W. R. Brown, the officers, N. C. O.'s and men would greatly appreciate financial assistance to aid wounded Canadian soldiers convalescing in England. TO BE READY FOR ST. MALACHI'S BOYS

Concentration of Work in the Fine New Cliff Street School

Its large airy rooms flooded with sunlight and situated high upon a hillside with unobstructed view through its spacious windows, the new St. Vincent's school, Cliff street, will present this familiar old city from an entirely new viewpoint when the public, especially the school children, gain entrance to it soon. St. John possesses some splendid schools, some of which are modern and most healthfully located but in point of ventilation, natural lighting and airiness it will be conceded the new cream-colored structure surpasses them all. The greatest activity marks the work going on there now to get the top floor ready for St. Malachi's Hall pupils when schools open a fortnight from yesterday. The painting has been finished and the carpentry cleaned up, but heating apparatus has yet to be installed and school furniture put in place. Desks, etc., from St. Malachi's building will be utilized during the temporary occupancy of the building by the boys. The new school will be a surprise and a great satisfaction to the citizens of St. John. The floors of its long high ceilinged corridors are prettily tiled in colors, the woodwork is of superior quality and the decorative scheme most attractive. The stairways are of stone in iron frames and the whole building is of reinforced concrete. The class rooms are large and well lighted. Radical introductions in the form of gymnasium with running track, auditorium with stage and other theatrical appliances, swimming tank of large dimensions and other novelties for a school plant will make St. Vincent's a veritable showpiece in local structural circles.

GOLF EXHIBITION AT ST. ANDREWS BROUGHT $400 FOR RED CROSS

An exhibition game of golf at the Algonquin Hotel links, St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, N. B., in aid of the Red Cross, given by the well known professionals, Charlie Murray, of the Royal Montreal; Albert Murray, Kanawaki; A. Woodward, St. Lambert, and John Peacock, the popular Algonquin coach, came off on last Saturday afternoon, before an appreciative gallery of some 800 devotees of the ancient and honorable sport. Charles Murray and John Peacock were pitted against Albert Murray and A. Woodward in a "four ball match," which resulted in the latter winning by five to four. The lowest individual score was made by the Kanawaki crack, who turned in twenty-four against a par of seventy-two for the course. Under the prevailing high wind this was remarkable. C. Murray had played the like in the morning, but the spectators, who were very appreciative of the difficulty of pitching dead on most of the greens, which is a feature of the Algonquin course. The amount realized for the Red Cross was $400, for which, needless to say, the St. Andrews branch is most grateful, giving as it does, the wherewithal to provide its members with materials to work up many comforts in the coming winter for our boys at the front. Expressions of pleasure were heard from the guests of this beautiful resort, for a very entertaining afternoon, and the good work done by the professionals generally in their Red Cross drives.

SUGGESTION RE POLICE PATROL

The police patrol auto clings to its Ford buzzer horn and oil tail-lamp, which some day may get that official conveyance into trouble. Last night, for instance, it sped along King square and King street without the rear lamp lighted—a common complaint with kerosene auto lights and one which has gotten many an innocent civilian driver into hot water. The more serious thing for the patrol, however, is the character of its get-out-of-the-way signal, Ford cars are legion and nine out of ten of them have the same kind of buzzer horn. Therefore when the police patrol—which is entitled to the right of way like a fire engine, but which might easily be mistaken for a commercial delivery auto—races through the streets sending out Ford-horn sounds there is apt to be much misunderstanding and possibly a few accidents. A distinctive signal like a constant bell or a gong would single out this conveyance in the thoroughfares and give it ample and immediate right of way. At present autoists and teamsters say they do not know it is the patrol until they get a slant on its lettering. The argument seems reasonable and possibly the officials will simplify this matter for the sake of all concerned.

HERE FOR INFORMATION OF OUR NATURAL RESOURCES

J. H. Haslam, a well known writer making a tour of Canada and investigating its undeveloped natural resources for the Toronto Star Weekly, is a visitor to St. John today and is securing information concerning our fisheries, mines, lumber, pulpwood and agriculture. He has just returned from Nova Scotia and will next go to the Peace River country. Mr. Haslam lives in Regina when he is not traveling, and has been interested in Canadian development for many years. It was he who conducted some of the earlier parties of American settlers to the Canadian west. Mr. Haslam is much impressed with the need for a greater development of our natural resources in the maritime provinces and while here will interview some of our principal public men on the subject of New Brunswick's possibilities.
