

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"THE WOMAN GOD FORGOT"

Most Magnificent Picture of The Year at Imperial Tonight

Imperial Theatre takes another step forward in its career as a purveyor of the highest form of pictorial entertainment in screening for the people of St. John at nominal prices that marvelous re-enactment of the conquest of Montezuma, early Mexican emperor, by the adventurous Spanish Cortez and his intrepid band.

Taking this picture in the concrete it is an epic in photographic art, if not the masterpiece creation of the camera. There are scenes in "The Woman God Forgot" which stagger belief and one is inclined to impute camera trickery to the producers, but no such trickery exists.

THE WHIP DRAWING CAPACITY AUDIENCES AT LYRIC THEATRE

"The Whip," the stirring race-track story at the Lyric, is certainly proving to be one of the most successful of the Lyric's special attractions. The week-end race, two scenes worth while in themselves. Shown again today and the balance of the week.

ARTHUR HENDERSON SAYS:

At low price alone never made a real bargain. It's what you get for your money that counts. When you have a Henderson suit made to order, you are getting the best that can be had. I have a reputation to live up to as a first-class tailor; therefore, when you buy one of my $30, $32 or $35 suits, you are getting better values than some of those cheaper, so-called bargains. As clothes are getting very scarce and high in price, I would suggest to you to call early and pick out your spring suit before all of the old stock is gone. I'm located at 104 King St.

Conditions on the Shore Line Railway are again normal. The regular train service has resumed between West St. John and St. Stephen. Yesterday afternoon an engine with the steel plough and ice cutter attached arrived in West St. John, having cleared the line, side tracks, etc. en route from St. Stephen. The regular train arrived a few hours later. As it was the first train through in a week the travel was quite heavy. The new steel plough brought here from Montreal to open the Shore Line Railway will be kept day long on use on the New Brunswick division.

Sir John Wolfe Barry, widely known engineer, died in London yesterday, aged eighty-two.

A Real Connoisseur

Two brothers were being entertained by a rich friend. As ill-luck would have it, the talk drifted away from ordinary topics.

"Do you like Omar Khayyam?" thoughtlessly asked the host, trying to make conversation. The elder brother plunged heroically into the breach.

"Pretty well," he said, "but I prefer Chianti!"

Nothing more was said on this subject until the brothers were on their way home.

"Bill," said the younger brother, breaking a painful silence, "why can't you leave things that you don't understand to me? Omar Khayyam said a wine, you chump; it's a cheese."

"Stonewall" Jackson was not a man to speak ill of another man without reason. At a council of generals early in the war, one of them remarked that Major Smith was wounded, and would be unable to perform a certain duty.

"Wounded?" said Jackson. "If that is so it must have been by an accidental discharge of his duty!"

THE MINISTRY OF TRADE

(Financial Post.) The Financial Post has frequently said that Sir George Foster, minister of trade, was one of the most popular men in the national life of the country, and we said we hoped he would live long to represent North Toronto. His majority of 14,000 votes, but it does not prove that he is the right man for minister of trade and commerce. Sir George is a great speaker. No better man as a government mouthpiece is in sight. Such a man is needed at this time and he should be given an honorary portfolio at a generous salary. It is of the very greatest importance that a real business man be put in charge of the trade and commerce department.

MONTANA MAN WED TWO THIRTY HALIFAX MAIDS AND NOW LIES IN JAIL

Joe Wolgat Alias John Simons, Arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Scriven and Mitchell on a Charge of Bigamy

Halifax, Jan. 21.—Because of an over-developed propensity to marry for money, Joseph Wolgat, erstwhile a bold sailor-man in his majesty's Canadian ship Niobe, but of late an absentee from the R. N. C. V. R., lies in the county jail of Halifax on the serious charge of bigamy.

Joe—no relation, by the way, to A. A. the famous lightweight—bails from Montana, U. S. A., and is a fine, big hearty-looking chap of about twenty-seven or twenty-eight years of age.

Last November, while still serving on the Niobe, Wolgat was fined for violation of the N. S. T. A., and subsequently was before Stipendiary Fielding on a charge of having done "grossly bodily harm" to a Russian.

The magistrate committed him for trial before the county court. He had secured a marriage license before leaving the Russian and while lying in the jail, he was married by Venereable Archdeacon Armitage to Miss Edith Norman, a young colored woman who was then officiating as waitress in a Water street restaurant, and possessor of a bank account of about $200, which she had amassed by her own hard work. When the case was called in the county court the accused was acquitted by Judge Wallace.

On Saturday afternoon, the authorities became cognizant of the fact that Wolgat had again taken unto himself a wife, but without the formality of getting rid of the first one by divorce or otherwise. Bride No. 2 was a pretty young woman, Miss Mary Winifred Bishop, who through the medium of Rev. T. H. Perry, became Mrs. John Simons, the groom having changed to a suit of civies and a new name after taking French leave of the navy.

The ceremony took place on Tuesday afternoon, and Deputy Sheriffs Scriven and Mitchell located and arrested the man on Saturday, but the bride's savings of $100 had already been pretty well exhausted by the nautical fortune hunter, who had long since cleaned out the purse of wife number one. Both licenses were obtained in Halifax and were quite regular in every way, and the fact that the accused was not identified at the bureau is due to his change from naval uniform to civies. He is charged with bigamy.

Before the members of the Boys' Friendly Club of West St. John, Rev. A. E. Westwood gave an address on music last evening. An address on "God in the Boy's Life" was given by Duncan McIntosh, a steamer now in port. R. Chipman Golding also spoke to the boys.

McAllister, of Boston, and Mrs. D. J. Woodrow, of West St. John. Mr. McLeod was a ship builder by trade, one of the few who remain from the old days when St. John was a centre in that industry. He was a member of the fire department on the West Side for sixty-four years, and for twenty-two years was a district fire chief. His death will be sincerely regretted by a host of friends.

On last Wednesday night in the J. H. Dunn hospital, Bathurst, Mrs. Sydney DesBrisay of Petit Rocher died. She was a native of Dalhousie, a daughter of the late Sheriff Barberie, and previous to her marriage with Mr. DesBrisay had been married to Mr. Field of New York. Besides her husband, she leaves one son, A. W. Y., at present a student at King's College, Windsor, and two sons by her first marriage, Gerald Field of Seattle and Victor Field of Chicago. INVESTIGATING THEFT OF 60'ZE IN HALIFAX CITY HALL

Officials Were Said to Have Been Staggered About the Building

(Halifax Chronicle.) In the Council Chamber at the City Hall yesterday afternoon Mayor Martin opened his public investigation into the charges recently made by the Evening Mail that liquor had been stolen from the store room of Temperance Spectator Tracey, and that the city officials, during the first days of the Halifax disaster had been seen staggering about the hall in an intoxicated condition.

The chief witness yesterday was Inspector Tracey, who verified and amplified reports published in the press as to the theft of liquor from the room in the City Hall in which he had stored it for safe keeping, pending decision by the magistrate as to its disposition. Mr. Tracey gave a detailed account of the thefts, which, he said, had occurred as far back as July, 1917. He told of the several occasions subsequent to the explosion on which his store room had been broken into and of his unsuccessful attempts to catch the thief or thieves.

No evidence in support of the charge against unnamed city officials was brought out yesterday. Several aldermen, when asked by the mayor to tell what they knew about the affair, were unable to give any information. A good number of citizens were present yesterday and considerable interest was taken in the proceedings, over which Mayor Martin presided. The city solicitor conducted the examination of Mr. Tracey.

THE RED CROSS.

The Red Cross is our messenger of mercy to our sick and wounded soldiers in England, in France, or wherever they are suffering for us. Without its ministrations the list of fatalities among the casualties would be much longer, and many who are called upon to suffer but finally recover would suffer infinitely more. To aid the Red Cross is to aid in a very real sense in winning the war. Whoever has had a relative or friend sick or wounded at the front has a personal interest in the Red Cross. Whoever desires to see the Allies triumph must realize that the Red Cross is one of the agencies at work for victory. The appeal to the people of St. John to aid the Red Cross is an appeal to help our sons overseas, and the response should be as generous as the means of the individual will permit. There are constant calls, but none more worthy than this appeal in behalf of those who suffer wounds and sickness for our sake.

THE REAL OPTIMISM.

The very best advertisement of this city and province that could be sent broadcast to the world would be the announcement that gratifiers were exposed and punished, and that public corporations were conducted on business principles for the public benefit, rather than for the benefit of holders of watered stock. If the news went forth, on the contrary, that this was a fine field for the speculative exploiter, and that money came easy when the right strings were pulled, the result would be disastrous. Optimism is desirable, and it should be well-based. It has been shown that a certain amount of house-cleaning is necessary hereabouts, and however disagreeable the process there should be no hesitation for the future welfare of the city and province is at stake, and is of infinitely greater value than the profitable investment of money by outside speculators in local enterprises for which the people have to pay too dearly. It is sometimes necessary in the public interest to speak very plainly. That is not pessimism, but the very opposite; for it is a declaration of confidence in the people, that when they know they will permit themselves to be exploited by anybody, at home or abroad. And that is the impression the world should get of us if we are to enjoy a healthy development.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

The adoption of medical inspection in the schools of St. John, with a proper system of school nursing, the whole being properly organized under the board of health, would do a very great deal for the health and welfare of the city and morals of the community at large. The Toronto Star pays a very high tribute to the work of the health department of that city, showing as one result of the system established under the health officer, Dr. Hastings, that there has been a remarkable decrease in infant mortality. The Star is not speaking of medical inspection in the schools, but of the work of the district nurses; and under a proper system of medical inspection St. John would have nurse visits to children's homes would have a most beneficial effect. The article in the Toronto Star is full of encouragement. It says: "It really means something to Toronto that, under Dr. Hastings' regime, as announced in the Star on Friday, there have been 7,874 fewer deaths in seven years than there would have been if the previous death rate had continued—7,703 of these being the proportion which would have been due to semi-preventible diseases such as typhoid, diphtheria, scarlet fever, and tuberculosis, or to lack of attention to infant welfare. "It is especially gratifying to note that over 4,000 fewer children under one year old have died than would have been the case if the old death rate had prevailed. For the four thousand who were saved from death, there were doubtless forty thousand cases of illness averted, since only about a tenth of such illnesses prove fatal. This does not only mean smaller doctor's bills, but it inspires the hope that the coming generation is growing to stronger manhood and womanhood because of the better care received in infancy and the fewer attacks of disease in its various forms. "Dr. Hastings has frequently said that his aim is to make the people of Toronto feel that the City Hall is not a place above, but that it belongs to them; that they can take their troubles there and seek a remedy as their due. A surprising number of people in the bumber walks of life are availing themselves of this viewpoint. They go to Dr. Hastings' district nurses with all sorts of problems, and the nurses are helping them to meet this and incidentally getting a foothold in homes where they can work to splendid advantage. The health department is touching civic life at a vital point. It is making better homes, and better homes will result in better—as well as healthier—citizenship."

THE REVIVALISTS.

A movement to reform some of the newspapers of the city appears to have been in process of launching for some time. The unregenerate state of some of the papers appears to have weighed heavily upon the hearts of good men connected with public utility corporations, and other good men whose names appear in the records of royal commissions as regenerators of railroad contractors and politicians in this province. No exception can be taken to the lofty aims and earnest zeal of these reformers. Least of all should any newspaper censure them for their solicitude. And yet, when a revival is on, the sinner should surely be invited to be present. The revival meeting in the board of trade rooms last evening, conducted with much spirit and ability by Evangelists Robinson, Thomson and others, was marked by much power, but the sinners should surely be invited to be present. THE MILL WHISTLES.

Just slipping out of sleep and back to day. You hear the clarion whistle of the mill That woke you, echoing o'er the hills And long before its answering echo dies, A brood of sinners with its weird wailing— A diapason thunderous or shrill Breaking the silent night, as dawn the gray. The night is gone, the hour of labor here, And you must rise and don the overalls. The garb of honor simple and severe; The stirring horses in their stable stalls, The sorting table of the cull and clear. So the long round begins, the daily round Of sloping shoulders and of lifting hands; So the long round begins; the singing sound, Of whirling pulleys and voracious bands. The creaking leather and the shrieking strands Of cables cutting air or scarring ground. But far away another voice replies. Another whistle farther up the vale, And long before its answering echo dies, And other men their daily tasks assail. And other men to other tolls are called. Now by that answer you are made content; You sense the larger thought, the brotherhood of labor, in its intent. The long, elemental brotherhood of man, In brotherhood arisen from the night. To common slumber after labor went, The brotherhood of labor! We are one; The millhands of this vale, the men of toll Who rise each morning with the morning sun In every land, to wrestle with the soil, The cloth to fashion, or the wood to spoil. To do the labor that is never done. In this land peace, in this land joy, reward That labor brings. It is the masonry That links you with the men of toll and sword. In every land and over every sea, The brotherhood of man has come to be. The brotherhood of labor in the Lord. Would there were words to say this club as the real promoters of this one desire to organize, except on the part of certain gentlemen who want an instrument for special and personal use.

"I presume you are able to save more money, now that this town has strict prohibition laws." "Save more money!" snorted Mr. Jaggsy. "The time was when a thirsty individual could get two drinks here for a quarter. Nowadays he frequently has to pay twice that much merely for information that will lead him to a drink."

PYRO ROOFING

UNAFFECTED BY HEAT, COLD, SUN OR RAIN. Not made with a Coal Tar Composition. Nothing but Felt and Trinidad Lake Asphalt.

PYRO is a first-class roofing in every respect, and its advantages over other prepared or "Ready" roofings is due to the fact that there is no coal-tar used in PYRO. This means that it does not dry up and become brittle under exposure to the heat of the sun. For this reason as do roofings made of substitutes for natural asphalt. Put up in rolls containing 108 square feet, with cement and tacks—all ready to put on the roof.

EVEN A SWEETHEART COULD NOT TELL TRIPLETS APART

Remarkable Trio of Port Colborne Soldier Boys Have Lived Parallel Lives; One Brother Ate Two Breakfasts While Third Was Away Without Permission

Niagara Falls, Ont., Jan. 23.—The town of Port Colborne affords an instance of triplets, not only growing to manhood but even wearing khaki and uniforms.

The three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wegerich, James, William and John, were born just a little more than twenty years ago. Jack is in the Royal Flying Corps, and Jim and Will are in the 47th Battery. Jim and Will wanted to follow Jack into the Flying Corps, but the authorities decided otherwise.

The trio, all manly boys, started school together, and wrote their entrance examinations on the same day. One of the three failed, but when Hon. Dr. Pyne, minister of education, heard of the circumstances, he issued a certificate for all three. They started to high school together, and quit on the same day, two of them going into a bank, and the third taking a position as bookkeeper.

They also offered themselves for military service on the same day.

The three boys are so remarkably alike that, only in recent years was their father able to tell them apart. It is related that once when they were lads, Jack wanted to go to Buffalo, but his father refused him permission; Jack therefore got up early and proceeded on his way without his father suspecting it because when Will and Jim had their breakfast together, Jim went outside, walked around the barn, came in again and had another breakfast.

Naturally, and as a result of their close likeness, one to the other, there have been many interesting happenings. Will says he has very often spent a very pleasant evening with Jack's girl, and until Jack called next evening, she was none the wiser.

Old Jewellery Made Into New

If you have any pieces of Jewellery of which you have grown tired, send them to us and we will submit designs and estimates for re-mounting them in platinum or gold, giving an added attractiveness by reason of the newer design, and at the same time preserving the sentimental value.

Diamond Jewellery should be examined periodically as a loose claw or worn-out setting, if neglected, may result in the loss of a stone, which is worth many times more than the trifling cost of repair.

Old-style wedding rings re-mounted, using your original gold. We can also repair and re-plate your silverware.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE IN HALIFAX

(Halifax Herald.)
More than 3,000 orders for repairs to houses have been completed.

More than ten acres of glass have been supplied free to the people who could not afford to buy supplies of this character themselves.

More than 3,000 workmen have been brought into the city, and today about 2,000 of them are on the payroll of the Reconstruction committee, altogether apart from those employed by the Construction Company, Cavichis and Pagana, Eastern Investment Corporation, Falconer and MacDonald, and the other contractors who are handling various parts of the work.

One million dollars worth of temporary houses are already under way and are being completed at the rate of one modern apartment per hour.

By the first of March 822 modern self-contained flats will be ready to house those who are now without permanent shelter.

Such, in brief, is the record of the work of the Halifax relief committee, organized on the night of the great disaster, with R. T. MacLennan, chairman, and which will now hand over its responsibilities and duties to the federal government commission, of which T. S. Rogers is to be chairman.

IT WAS PLUCKY WORK IN FIGHT WITH CRUISERS

How The Breslau and Goeben Were Defeated

British Admiralty Statement on Fight Outside Dardanelles—Aircraft Did Good Work—Breslau Sunk and Goeben Likely Total Loss

London, Jan. 23.—The British destroyer Lisard was about two miles from the northeastern point of the island of Imros on patrol duty at 8:30 o'clock last Sunday morning, when she sighted the warships Breslau and Goeben (Sultan Selim and Midulla), says an official statement of the admiralty giving a detailed report of the engagement which resulted in the loss of the Breslau and the beaching of the damaged Goeben.

The Breslau was steaming in a northerly direction to the south and east of Cape Cephalo, followed soon after by the Goeben, which was about a mile astern. The Lisard at once gave the alarm, opened fire and proceeded to keep in as close touch as possible with the enemy ships. The Goeben and Breslau engaged the Lisard at about 11,000 yards, shooting over her without hitting. The Goeben sighted British monitors in Kiast Bay on the northeast corner of the island, and engaged them, the Breslau continuing to fight the Lisard, which was prevented from closing to torpedo range because of the accuracy of the enemy's fire at the shorter range.

The destroyer Tigress now joined the Lisard and the two destroyers endeavored to cover the monitors by forming a smoke screen, in attempting which they were subjected to an accurate fire from the Goeben. Meanwhile the British monitor Raglan had been hit heavily and sunk. The small monitor M-28, which was on fire amidships, blew up and disappeared about 6 a. m. The enemy then ceased his fire and altered his course to the southward.

Observing travelers coming to the assistance of the monitors, the Tigress and Lisard followed the enemy. At 7 a. m. when the Breslau was about six miles south of Cephalo, a large explosion was observed aboard her after funnel. Two minutes later the ship was seen to be on fire and she sank in ten minutes, blowing up and altering her course to the southward.

On seeing the Breslau sink, the Goeben turned and circled round her once and then continued on a southerly course. Immediately after this four enemy destroyers were sighted coming out of the Dardanelles, supported by an old Turkish cruiser. The Tigress and Lisard at once engaged the enemy destroyers, which were retreating rapidly and set on fire.

Aircraft Do Good Work.
The Goeben continued a southerly course until an attack by British aircraft forced her to alter her course and head for the Dardanelles. In the act of turning the stricken machine which caused her to settle down aft with a list of ten to fifteen degrees, was intercepted by a British biplane. She proceeded slowly up the Dardanelles, escorted by enemy seaplanes and the four Turkish destroyers which had returned to her assistance.

British aircraft attacked the Goeben repeatedly and obtained two direct hits when she was of Chanak.

The Goeben was now in such a condition that she was steered for the shore and beached at the extreme end of the Nagara Point, 100 yards from the light-house. Soon after she was beached two more direct hits were made on her by the stricken, who were engaged heavily by several enemy seaplanes. In the confusion which took place one of the British seaplanes failed to return.

The shore batteries at Cape Helles then opened an accurate fire on the Tigress and Lisard, which had been following the Goeben, and in view of the activity of the British naval aircraft, the two destroyers retired out of range and proceeded to the northeast corner of the island. During these operations the torpedo of a submarine was sighted and the work of rescue was interfered with seriously while the destroyers hunted the submarine.

Our aircraft reported Monday afternoon that the Goeben was still ashore in the same position and that she was still being beached.

The British destroyers Lisard and Tigress are sister ships, having been built in 1910. Their tonnage is 750 and they are 240 feet in length.

Geneva, Jan. 23.—Up to the present no German or Austrian patrol arriving here has mentioned the naval engagement between the British and the Turkish cruisers.

KINGS COUNTY COUNCIL MEETS

The municipal council of Kings county met in two sessions yesterday in the court house at Hampton.

At the morning session outspoken denunciation of the valuation system under which the ratepayers of the county were taxed and a strong expression of opinion that the system be replaced by a better and more satisfactory method by which taxation would be more equitably applied.

The afternoon session was marked by an address to the council by E. A. Schofield, chairman of the provincial committee for greater production, and M. A. McLeod, of the local agricultural department, who laid before the council a resolution of the council to assist the government in this respect was unanimously adopted.

FAIRVILLE METHODIST CHURCH

Matters at Annual Meeting of the Trustees Board

The annual meeting of the Trustees Board of Fairville Methodist church was held last evening. Rev. Thomas Marshall was in the chair. It was reported that considerable work had been done on the church property last fall including the installation of two new furnaces. The parsonage had been repaired, furnace overhauled and other necessary improvements made.

The resignation of S. H. Shaw, church steward, was accepted, and a vote of appreciation for his services and regret that he felt obliged to resign was passed unanimously. D. Hanson was elected church steward for the current year.

FACE NOTHING BUT RUNNING SORES FROM ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or, as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching, torturing day and night, relief is gladly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no other remedy has done, or can do so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture. Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, itching, burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood, and completely and permanently drives it out of the system.

Miss Mary V. Chambers, Anagnone Ridge, N. B., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for eczema. I had it when an infant, but it left me. Two years ago it came back. I used doctors' medicine, but it did good only while I used it. At last my face was nothing but a running sore. I saw in the paper what B. B. B. did for people. I took it, and today I am free from that terrible disease."

LOOKS FOR MUCH MORE TROUBLE IN GERMANY

(Toronto Star.)

The struggle for supremacy between the warlords and the proletariat of Germany is being waged with unexampled determination. Very powerful influences are seeking to persuade the government to end the war on the general lines of the speech of Lloyd George and President Wilson. Hindenburg, Ludendorff, the Crown Prince and Von Tirpitz tear their hair at such a proposal.

The army commanders again threaten to resign. Extreme Pan-Germans suggest that the Crown Prince shall forcibly dismiss his royal father and appoint Wilhelm, torn by conflicting emotions, distracted by advice from all quarters, fearful that he will lose his throne if he longer withholds the clamor for peace, and fearful that he will lose it if he abandons the conquests of the war and submits to the just, but crushing terms the allies will impose still before which way to turn.

The Socialist paper, Vorwaerts, confirms the opinion that for the moment the military party is in the ascendancy, that a military dictatorship is threatening and that Kuehnelt-Leddihn, the moderate peace-desiring foreign minister, is likely to be forced out. But the Socialists are exerting extraordinary counter-pressure. At present they broke up a meeting of the annexationists, threw the audience out of the hall and passed their own resolution in favor of a general peace by understanding.

The second adjournment of the peace conference at Brest-Litovsk appears to have been due to the German military delegates showing to one side the German foreign minister and bluntly saying, as General Hoffmann said, that the supreme emergency command could not countenance the evacuation of Riga, Courland, Lithuania, and the other German-occupied portions of Russia. The foreign minister then asked for an adjournment so that the delegates could confer with one another. No doubt that signifies an appeal by both sides to the royal court to make sacrifices for the sake of peace.

The Munich Post writes the Kaiser declared that Germany's economic future could be safeguarded only by adhering to the policy of conciliation outlined by the Reichstag's majority peace resolution. The Munich Post writes the Kaiser declared that the Slav element in Austria-Hungary is not so much a pluck of trouble as the colored churches of Nova Scotia. He is enjoying a trip to Ontario. We understand that he has received a call to a Toronto church, and it is feared that his judicious leadership may be lost to the colored churches of Nova Scotia. For more than eight years he has been pastor of the Cornwallis street church, and it is feared that his judicious leadership may be lost to the colored churches of Nova Scotia.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ELECT OFFICERS

Twenty-one members were present at the annual meeting of the teachers' and officers of the Queen Square Methodist Sunday school at the residence of B. Duncan Smith, King street, last night. Reports were read by the superintendent, R. D. Smith; secretary, R. S. Stephenson; the treasurer, A. B. Gilmore; and the librarian, A. B. Robertson.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, H. Duncan Smith; assistant superintendent, L. V. Linger and R. S. Stephenson; secretary, W. A. Welford; assistant secretary, Basil Robertson and Harry Dunlop; treasurer, A. B. Gilmore; assistant treasurer, A. T. B. Howard; librarians, A. L. Robertson and C. M. Lingley; superintendent of home department, Miss J. Betts; assistant superintendent, Mrs. E. J. Punter; pianist, Miss G. Fowler; Miss L. Cairns; executive committee, Robert Reid, D. W. H. Magee, Charles Robinson, I. F. Archibald, Miss Milligan, Miss McDougall, Mrs. A. W. Petch, Portland street.

A meeting of the officers and teachers of the Portland Methodist Sunday school was held last evening, with the superintendent, Mayor R. T. Hayes, presiding. Luncheon was served at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Fred Smiler read the report of the delegates to the Provincial Sunday School Convention last fall. Arrangements were made to co-operate in the community teacher training class recently organized in the North End. Plans were also made to organize a teachers' training class in the school.

NOW STAFF CAPTAIN.
Word has been received that Douglas Weldon, M. C. of Moncton, who went overseas as a subaltern in the 15th battalion, late captain in the 26th battalion, has recently been appointed a staff captain on the western front.

News Notes About Prominent Baptists

(Maritime Baptist.)
Rev. F. B. Seeley will receive the heartfelt sympathy of many friends in the serious illness of his wife. According to the latest information but little hope was entertained for her recovery. Mr. Seeley is now pastor of the Second and Third Elgin churches.

Interest in our Foreign Mission work is being stimulated among the Baptist churches in St. John by the presence of Rev. Malcolm L. Orchard, now home on furlough after seven years of service in India.

Rev. R. M. Brown has accepted a call to the Forest Glen-River Glade field. We understand that he plans to begin his work there some time in March. About two years ago he assumed charge of the Baptist interests centering around Metapona. Under his leadership the work developed until it was considered advisable to organize a church. The young pastor was also ordained. The new field affords an excellent opportunity for Kingdom service.

The First Baptist church of Calgary is making continued progress under the leadership of its pastor, Rev. J. Austin Huntley. During the last year 182 members were received—eighty-three by baptism. The net gain in membership was ninety-two. Of six members who died, three were soldiers killed in action. The Sunday school reports a total membership of 1,000.

Rev. Denton J. Neely, Acadia '02, has been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church, Medford, Mass. He has had a long and successful pastorate at the First church, Gloucester, and that church is strongly of the opinion that his work there is still uncompleted. Those who knew him as a boy and young man at his home in Nova Scotia and as a student at Acadia will be pleased to learn of his success.

Rev. W. H. Jenkins of Waterville, Kings County, N. S., has received the welcome tidings that his son, Aaron, is rapidly recovering from the severe shock received November 15. He is a signaler in a Canadian siege battery, and was wounded by the bursting of a shell. Happily he escaped all injury except to the nerves.

It will be with very general regret that the denomination will learn of the resignation of Rev. I. W. Williamson, pastor of our United Baptist Sunday school and young people's church. Since coming among us Mr. Williamson has won the confidence and esteem of the entire constituency, and has given our Sunday school work a standard which will be retained for service within the convention. He has accepted a hearty and unanimous call to the colored churches of Nova Scotia.

Rev. M. B. Puryear, pastor of the Cornwallis street church, Halifax, has been enjoying a trip to Ontario. We understand that he has received a call to a Toronto church, and it is feared that his judicious leadership may be lost to the colored churches of Nova Scotia.

For more than eight years he has been pastor of the Cornwallis street church, and it is feared that his judicious leadership may be lost to the colored churches of Nova Scotia.

LOCAL RED CROSS

Think this thing over—pause a while now, or at your work. It will do you good. Contrast what you are doing with what some soldier in the trenches is doing; or think of it tonight and ask yourself how you would like to change places with that man who has just crawled over the parapet to repair some wire, and whose presence has been revealed to the enemy by a "starlight." Think it over, and then picture what it would be like to be wounded and lack attention because of a shortage of Red Cross supplies. Think of all these things as you never thought of them before. If you will do this, your conscience will tell you how much you should give, and we shall be proud of your subscription.

THE CLUB BOYS' GIVE NICKELS

For the Benefit of the Blind in Halifax—Good Programme Last Evening

Although some of those who were to entertain the Boys' Club last evening did not arrive, there was an excellent programme rendered, and all pronounced the evening most enjoyable. There were ninety boys present, and under the supervision of George Guilford, the order was good and showed the influence that the interest of those who are giving their time to the club is having over them. The singing was in good time and is one of the most helpful features of the work. Sgt. Patterson, who is a great favorite with the boys, gave some very amusing character sketches, and a tale of the early days on the prairie was listened to with rapt interest. Arthur Murphy gave several readings, at the request of the members, calls being given for special favorites. The boys' programme and were heartily applauded. Music interspersed the programme and a song was sweetly sung by John Bean and George Johnson, the boys joining in the chorus.

The sum of one dollar was subscribed by the boys for the blind boys and girls in Halifax, and those who have not paid will be given an opportunity this evening. The boys have saved this money from their movie expenditure, and were thanked by Mrs. Good for giving up their pleasure for one evening to help the boys who are robbed of their money and can never enjoy the pictures again. As the boys marched out in order to music, after singing the national anthem, they were treated to apples, donated by Captain A. J. Mulcahy.

The Man In The Street

When fifty per cent. is added to the gas rates, don't worry about where the extra money is to come from—just smile.

If you find that certain politicians are getting rich quick, don't be jealous of their wealth or begrudge your share of the money—just smile.

If there is a plot to use the legislature for the benefit of certain interests, don't breathe a word about it—just smile.

"Just blew in to town this morning," said the youth who was to do khaki. He'd come on the draft.

The naive request that the newspapers should be instructed to cease criticizing public corporations or questionable politicians did not seem to get very far in a gathering of hard-headed business men who are in the habit of inquiring where their money goes instead of letting it go with a happy smile and no questions asked.

Quebec is going dry, but there seems to be no great rush about it—just smile.

Meanwhile, the imports from Quebec to New Brunswick are likely to show a marked increase during the next fifteen months.

His Treat

Even in a desert there is an occasional oasis and a group of thirsty individuals smacked their lips as one such bright spot appeared in view. The occasion was the visit of a party of St. John men to a neighboring town. In order to make himself solid with the party at the place they were visiting, one of the younger members of the party provided himself with a bottle which he carried on the assurance that it was the finest old Scotch. His arrival with the package was duly heralded and his new friends gathered around. A cork-screw was produced and the bottle opened.

The first man took a drink—a good long one—but he did not appear pleased. "That's pretty rotten stuff they sold you," he remarked, "but one cannot be too particular these days."

The next man took a mouthful with more caution, then promptly expectorated. Raising the bottle again, he sniffed suspiciously and then pronounced the verdict: "Nothing but plain malt vinegar."

The young chap's popularity suddenly waned.

Some Appeal Cases

The applicant for exemption from military service before one of the local appeal courts presented his claims, with a marked French accent, and then offered the judge a letter from his father in support of his statement.

"Where do you come from?" asked the judge.

"From Kent county."

"Any smallpox up your way?"

"Well, she's not on me, but she's pretty near me," was the applicant's way of explaining the situation.

The judge looked thoughtful. "H-m-m; I do not think we will need that letter from your father," he announced as he jerked back the hand which he had extended for the letter.

"How old are you?" the judge asked another applicant.

"Thirty-five past."

"You are not liable for service, then?" remarked the presiding officer.

"Oh, yes, I am," he replied. "I was born on January 1, 1908, in Halifax by just one day. Damn that day, I say."

The applicant was asking for exemption on account of family reasons.

"How old is your father?" he was asked.

"Sixty-eight years."

"How is his health?"

"Evidently there was no thought of bolstering up his case by urging his father's decrepitude as the applicant politely answered: "Quite well, thank you."

The Triangle Club of Fairville Baptist church met last evening with Capt. Black presiding. An invitation was received from George Fowler to have the club meet at his home next month and this was accepted. It was also decided that the Ladies' Aid Society should be invited to be present. An address was given by Harry C. Riker, principal of Tower school, who spoke on "Native Animals and Their Habits." It was most interesting. Discussion followed and all present participated. Refreshments brought the evening to a close.

INDIANTOWN FERRY MAY BE DISCONTINUED

Appeal Made To The City For a Subsidy

COUNCIL WILL INVESTIGATE

Carleton Ferry Estimates Discussed—Want Less Money for Street Lights—Fire Chief's Report Presented This Morning

Prompt action of some kind is needed if the ferry service between Indiantown and Lancaster is to be maintained. This became known at a meeting of the common council committee today at which other interesting matters were discussed.

Heber Vroom, president of the Indiantown and Lancaster Ferry Commission, was present to ask for aid for the ferry service. He explained that the steam ferry, operated by Captain Leonard, was losing money, at the rate of about $20 a week. The commission has authority and proposes to release Captain Leonard from his agreement, which runs until May 1, 1918. They would then call for tenders for the service and would have to arrange subsidies. Councilors O'Brien and Golding had promised that the Parish of Lancaster would contribute and be wanted to know if the city would do so. The provincial government had refused.

It was related that the concession at one time had been so valuable that $1,800 a year was paid for it at another time the profits were divided with the county; at present $1 a year was paid for the contract.

It was pointed out that a service could be maintained with a gasoline motor boat much more economically than with a steamboat.

It was suggested that the commission drop the matter and leave it open to private enterprise, as many persons already were using their own boats.

Before taking any action it was decided to make inquiries regarding the demand for the service, and Mr. Vroom promised a more detailed statement of the ferry deficit.

In reply to a letter from Kane & Ring asking for a hearing, it was decided to hear them at 11:30 on Thursday morning.

Carleton Ferry Matters.

G. H. Waring appeared with further details of the Carleton ferry estimates. The mayor presented an analysis of last year's accounts. The total ferry deficit was $84,824. Of this $8,600 was for 1916 overcraft and $1,400 for 1918 unpaid bills, leaving $83,824 paid for 1917 operating expenses. The receipts were $88,277, leaving a deficit of $5,647, which had been met partly by the 1917 assessment of $9,765.

The $5,000 item on the 1918 estimates for repairing the ferry wharf on the northern side of the eastern Boats was taken up and Commissioner McLellan asked if a bond issue would not be in order. He said that, when the estimate went up to $80,000, it was false economy and a bridge became necessary, but even so, temporary repairs were not a good investment.

The superintendent said that $5,000 would make the wharf solid for twenty years. It would cost $3,000 to make temporary repairs by driving piling.

"I think we should get a city engineer," remarked Commissioner McLellan, in the course of the discussion.

"It is in the hands of a committee," said the mayor.

A. P. MacIntyre, city controller, was summoned to explain an estimated deficit of $18,278 for 1918. His estimate of disbursements was: salaries $24,000; labor, $7,800; coal for steamers, $16,600; coal for tug houses, $800; fire and indemnity insurance, $2,600; total $51,800. If the income was the same as in 1917, $38,522; the deficit, apart from repairs, etc., would be $13,278 on actual operations.

Commissioner Russell promised a further report on the $5,000 item for wharf repairs as to whether it would be proper to bond it.

Action on the estimates was deferred until Thursday.

Street Lights.

Commissioner McLellan then presented the estimates for street lighting for 1918. He explained that according to his estimates he had a surplus of $78 last year, but the non-collection of taxes turned this into a deficit of $290.

The assessment for 1918 totaled $22,307.75 as compared with $22,201.53 and expenditures of $21,638.92 in 1917. Adding the cost of assessing and collecting the total for 1918 as $22,922.88, a decrease of $88.50.

The report of George Blake, chief engineer of the fire department, was submitted by Commissioner McLellan. The chief strongly urged the need of more hose and more motor apparatus and expressed regret that he had not yet been given the aerial truck for which he has asked in previous reports. He also advocated the appointment of an inspector of electrical wiring and an increase in the number of permanent firemen. He made a touching reference to the loss of J. P. McAndrews, district fire chief, whose death occurred during the year. The report was adopted without discussion.

Consideration of the estimates will be resumed tomorrow morning.
