French Political Situation Even More Tangled Up Today

WORLD AND HOME NEWS AND U.S.

FRANCE NOW WITHOUT GOVERNMENT

Leit's Decision Against Millerand Keeps Herriot from Premiership. POINCARE IS OUT. President Must Resign or Overcome the Majority Against Him.

BY WEBB MILLER (United Press Staff Cor.) Paris, June 2.—President Millerand is practically certain to resign at an early date. No other course is left open to him, even his own supporters agree, in view of resolutions passed yesterday by parties of the Left, who pledged themselves to refuse to approve any Premier named by the President.

Government organs like the Echo, Paris and the Figaro, have a constitutional crisis in which the presidential office, originally intended to be above party issues, will become the playing of elections. The Government of Premier Poincare resigned yesterday, as it had promised. The new chamber, with a majority of parties of the Left, met this morning.

CARPENTIER HAS SPRAINED ANKLE

French Boxer is Kept to Bed—Gibbons, Unscathed, Plays Golf.

Michigan City, Ind., June 2.—Georges Carpentier, ring idol of France, defeated Saturday afternoon in his ten-round bout with Tommy Gibbons, remained in bed here today with a badly swollen right ankle, sprained in the ninth round.

Four physicians said the ankle was seriously sprained, their examination revealing torn ligaments. In that announcement to the public the defeated boxer found some solace for the lousy boxes and taunts flung at him when he sank to the mat with his face twisted with pain.

Despite his defeat, Carpentier still is a strong drawing card. A half dozen offers for future ring contests have been received here. The Frenchman hopes to carry out his plans to meet Gene Tunney, U. S. light heavyweight champion.

Gibbons broke camp yesterday, going to St. Paul. He was unmarked, and played a round of golf before taking Mrs. Gibbons and the three youngsters to the train.

Carpentier was paid a flat guarantee of $75,000, while Gibbons worked on a basis of 30 per cent. of the income. A check of figures indicated the "title" would be nearly $240,000 than the $227,000 first announced.

Gives Million For Repairs at Rheims Paris, June 2.—A gift of $1,000,000 by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., for the reconstruction of Rheims Cathedral and the repair of historic monuments at Versailles and Fontainebleau, which were unavoidably neglected during the war, is announced here. Immigration officials said they probably would be forced to return to Italy.

General Mewburn, Home Secretary, Praised Empire Exhibition.

Quebec, Que., June 2.—General, Hon. S. C. Mewburn, K. C., C. M. G., of Hamilton, Ontario, who landed here from the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Scotland, declared that during his four months' trip he had found conditions had a marked tendency towards brightening up in Europe, especially in England and France. There was still a good deal of unemployment in Great Britain, but on the whole business was on the up grade and this would soon make a big improvement in what was probably England's biggest problem at the present time.

(Canadian Press) Chicago, Ill., June 2.—A metal belt buckle worn by Robert Franks, co-heir to a $4,000,000 estate, who was kidnapped and killed, according to his confession, by Nathan E. Leopold, Jr. and Richard A. Loeb, likewise sons of millionaires, was found yesterday as the pair made a second trip of the day over the route taken on the day of Franks' disappearance and death. A pair of shoes worn by the youth were recovered yesterday near Hammond, Ind., where they had been buried.

THE RED FLAG IS UP IN SOUTH AFRICA

Premier Smuts, Howled Down in Durban, Makes Strong Appeal to People.

Durban, South Africa, June 2.—(Canadian Press Cable).—More than 500 persons packed the Town Hall here yesterday night to hear Premier Smuts' election appeal, but disturbances organized by a minority created such pandemonium that the Premier eventually left the hall without speaking. Subsequently he addressed a small open air meeting of his supporters and said: "The Red Flag has come to South Africa, and free speech and the fundamental rights of free citizens are denied us. This right will do more than any speech of mine to arouse public realization to the dangers from past rule."

Most of the old members, including the party leaders Kamenev, Zinoviev, Rykov, Kalinin and Bukharin, were re-elected. Amesbury, June 2.—The Communist party convention ended Saturday night with the election of a new central committee which is increased from 40 to 50 members.

When the car reached Hessville where Franks' shoes were found yesterday, Loeb began a search for the car around with his hands and later with a rake proffered by a farmer, and covered the belt, which had been cut into sections and buried in three spots. Loeb said he separated the belt to make it more difficult to find, just as he had taken the type and ribbons off the typewriter and thrown them into different spots in the lagoon. The prisoners were then returned to the park lagoon and a police captain reported that the typewriter had not been found but that he was arranging for an electro magnet.

Fernhill Forget-Me-Nots

In one section of Fernhill forget-me-nots have been spread over quite a number of the lots. Yesterday they were in blossom, and their delicate beauty charmed the eye. Everywhere the City of Sleep is spangled with dandelions in bloom. Other flowers, in loving remembrance, are to be seen in many places. The trees will soon be in full leaf, and the Maycherry in the wooded fringes is in blossom. The grass is a vivid green. Here and there a mound covered with wreaths and sprays of flowers yet fresh tells the sad story of a home bereft. Peace reigns, but for the occasional sound of a motor car in the main avenues, or the call of a crow or the song of a robin. Every Sunday many people are to be seen beside the resting place of loved ones, or walking slowly along the avenues and paths. Fernhill is very beautiful and the visitor who goes year after year is impressed by the rapid filling up of new spaces. Some of the best kept portions of the area were without a tenant but a few years ago. Supt. Clayton and his staff have much to do and evidence of their labor are none left to care, and that here and there in all the older portions of Fernhill is found an occasional monument in need of repair. This is a matter which should appeal to the living. Of those at rest, H. L. Spencer, who sleeps there, has written:—

THE "DEATH RAYS"

Is there a "Doc" Cook among the inventors of death rays? Possibly, yet no nation appears ready to run the risk of losing a supposedly deadly weapon which might be used against it in war, and so the ray merchants are sought rather than ignored. The Matthews ray, it is now reported, is to be controlled by a British company.

The inventors, or alleged inventors, of such rays appeal strongly to the imagination of a world which still dwells reluctantly upon the horrors of the recent war, but most scientific and military men are still very skeptical about the claims of those who profess to have made discoveries which would revolutionize warfare. Among these "diabolical rays," there are now four Englishmen, a Russian, and a German. It was asserted recently in the Reichstag that the German Government had under control a process that would destroy aeroplanes, stop the engines of tanks or ships, and "spread a curtain of death." Very lately, too, Trotsky boasted about a ray which a Russian had invented, and made some characteristic threats about what would happen if other nations "tempted Russia to violence." Both Matthews and Professor Wall declare that attacking aeroplanes can be put out of business, and that their rays would destroy vital parts of a warship's machinery and cut the crew out of action as well.

Lord Birkenhead is among the skeptics. In speaking of Matthews he says: "That an unknown amateur should stumble upon an epoch-making discovery is about as likely as that a child of five should defeat either the champion chess player or Mlle. Lengien." While that is true, and while skeptics are numerous enough in the war departments of most nations, Matthews appears to have had dealings of a sort with three or four countries, whose representatives are not only ready but anxious to secure control of his device if he can give any demonstration of its power sufficient to warrant belief in its efficacy, and the British company would scarcely have acted in advance of evidence that it was of some value.

Without dismissing the diabolical rays altogether, the New York Times says that "if all comes down to this, that a ray, or stream of electric particles, can be developed and shot out for a short distance with unknown possibilities of destructiveness, but whether with increased power it could be projected as far as to be an effective and deadly agency in warfare the inventors do not know. Nor do they know that it could not be rendered harmless by protective appliances. If paid a substantial fee, the inventors will continue their experiments in the hope of evolving a new terror in war. Meanwhile, there is no occasion for concern about a death-dealing device that may never be anything more than a laboratory experiment."

AT SCAPA FLOW.

When the great German fleet was surrendered and when the Germans scuttled most of their ships at Scapa Flow, with the curious idea of avoiding some portion of their humiliation or of cheating their victors out of the prizes of war, it was supposed that the incident was closed. German naval power had been destroyed in a spectacular and effective fashion without parallel in history; but it now turns out that an immense work of salvage, the most extensive ever undertaken, will be necessary on the part of the British in order to clear the anchorage ground at Scapa Flow of the rusting German hulks.

It is expected that this work may occupy eight or nine years. The first step is the dispatch to the scene of an immense floating workshop which is to carry on the work of salvage and disposing of the sunken ships. There is no thought of attempting to repair or place them in commission again, the purpose being only to sweep the bottom clear of the collection of junk to which the Germans reduced many of their finest vessels by scuttling them.

Curiously enough the floating workshop which is to be used in raising the German wrecks is a great German one which was surrendered to the British at Harwich. This machine shop, which is also a machine shop, has been towed to the Orkneys and there will be cut into two pontoons, each complete in itself and each 200 feet long, so that any sunken ship may be worked on from both sides. It is thought that the first to be tackled will be the great Hindenburg, which, it was found, is resting upright on the bottom, whereas some of the other ships, including the battle cruiser Seydlitz, are lying on their sides. The work will be long and expensive, but a portion of the cost will be paid by disposing of a great deal of junk, and of some of the more valuable fittings of the German ships.

All of which is a grim reminder of Germany's beautiful prediction that she would one day rule the ocean. She is rapidly rebuilding her merchant fleet, but unless events in the future take a most unexpected turn she will never again be formidable in real sea power.

ALIENS AND THE TARIFF.

Among many of the peculiar arguments advanced in the course of the recent tariff discussion, and some of them were strange enough, is one credited to a member of the Ontario Legislature, who asserts that the alien population of Saskatchewan and Alberta was responsible for the Liberal budget. That the West, and particularly the Prairie West, had a large influence upon tariff policy is not to be disputed, but, whatever may be thought of the tariff changes, it is scarcely reasonable to credit them to the foreigners in two of the Prairie provinces.

The people of foreign origin in Alberta and Saskatchewan are said to make up forty-four per cent of the population there, but at least, even of these figures are accurate, the people of British descent are still in the majority, and from their ranks, and not from the ranks of those of non-British origin, come the men who are political leaders and who voice the views of the West both in provincial and federal matters. Of course a great deal of the low tariff sentiment west of the Lakes is expressed by men who came from the British Isles and who brought free trade views with them. They are a strong element, but many native-born Canadians in the West, while they are not free traders, are stout advocates of a tariff which many eastern interests regard as not only too low but destructive.

The foreign-born population is surely not imposing its views upon the majority in the West, at all events. Aside from that, it is not going to do this country any good to have an increasingly sharp tariff cleavage between Eastern and Western Canada. A wise government will attempt, however difficult the course may be, to develop a fiscal policy under which no great interest in any section of the country will suffer. Industry and agriculture both have their rights, and the success of both is absolutely vital to the Dominion. Before another general election comes along this country will have had some experience under the new tariff conditions. As a matter of fact, the importance of the actual changes is exaggerated in some quarters and minimized in others for political purposes.

There is an old saying that the government does not make the sun shine, but that when it does not shine it is a bad thing for the government. That is another way of saying that when general business conditions are good the government of the day is in luck, and when they are bad the reverse is true. Conditions in this country by the time another election comes will likely depend more upon world conditions than upon domestic fiscal changes.

Fortunately there is general expectation among business experts that the European situation is likely to show material improvement in the near future and that such betterment will greatly improve both agricultural and industrial conditions in this country.

COOLIDGE ON ARMAMENTS.

Europe might reasonably expect more direct and effective co-operation from the United States if President Coolidge were not influenced to some extent by strong reactionary tendencies in the United States Senate. In approving American participation in the World Court plan the President has shown a measure of independence in refusing to share the attitude of those Senators who insisted that the court must be severed entirely from the League of Nations before the United States could consider sharing its work and responsibilities. Nevertheless approval of the World Court does not in the mind of the President mean ultimate membership in the League of Nations, but apparently is rather put forward as the limit to which his country will go.

He declares, however, that he is opposed "to every kind of military armament, and to all forms of competitive armament." He agrees also, that his country must do its part in promoting the limitation of armaments through international agreement. He may be credited with sincerity in this, and Washington dispatches represent him as having been opposed to those who would have enlarged the fighting capacity of the American Navy to a point beyond that permitted by the International Arms Conference. More than $100,000,000 is to be spent in improving the navy, but while eight new cruisers to cost $11,000,000 each, and six new gunboats are provided for, and while the existing battleships are to be somewhat modernized, the House decided against making any appropriation for increasing the range of the primary batteries of the principal battleships. This failure displeases the New York Times, which says: "It is futile to talk of parity with Great Britain so long as we have only five ships that could hold their own theoretically in an engagement with the British line of battleships. What is being done, or authorized to be done, is meant to bring the American fleet up to the level of British strength in time, but the President is authorized to suspend any or all construction if another conference to limit armaments is called at any time. This is an important provision for the British Prime Minister and Mr. Coolidge are in agreement that such a conference will be brought about so soon as the improvement in European conditions warrants such a step.

There are about forty candidates for the Democratic nomination for the presidency. Of these the best known are Senator Underwood of Alabama, Governor Al. Smith of New York, and William G. McAdoo, son-in-law of Woodrow Wilson. The prophets are saying that none of the three can be nominated, and that the prize is likely to go to a dark horse. Scarcely ever in the history of the party has there been more uncertainty as to the standard bearer, but many Democrats think the chance of beating Mr. Coolidge is good, chiefly because there is widespread unrest and desire for a change.

Premier Smuts is fighting with his back to the wall in South Africa. Opponents hounded him down at one meeting in Durban, but he turned this violence to good account a little later, appealing strongly to the orderly and right-thinking people who are with him in his struggle to keep the country within the Empire. The result of the elections on June 17 is still regarded as doubtful, but throughout the Empire hope is strong that General Smuts will crown his career by victory.

Two Japanese citizens in Tokio have committed suicide as a protest against the American exclusion law. Tokio thinks this is too many, and Washington that it is not enough.

"BLEACHERIES"

(St. Paul Pioneer-Press.) "Bleacheries" is the name of the disorder from which America is suffering—so Dr. James Edward Rogers told the National Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations convening in this city. As he believes, we have become a nation of onlookers content with such amusements as may be obtained with the least effort. The movies, the radio and the automobile have been the instruments of our degradation, our deterioration from vigor and activeness.

BILIOUSNESS

Sick headache, sour stomach, constipation, easily avoided. An active liver without calomel. CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS Never sicken or gripe—only 25c.

There is a certain familiar ring to this protest. One has lately heard it from other sources with regard to ourselves but even before that it was a cry not unknown to us through the medium of literature. Indeed, from reading, the impression is gained that there never has been a time when the human race was not suffering from bleacheritis and, though the writers protest that it is a disease which has just begun to exercise its ravages, from the very earliest times the symptoms have been remarked by social diagnosticians. For example, one reads in Anthony Trollope's novel "Barchester Towers" (1857) of the sorrow of a stalwart lady, Miss Thorne, in finding that the youth of the time had no love of the vigorous games which their ancestors had enjoyed. She deplored their willingness to look on idly in preference to taking an energetic part in sport. Miss Thorne looked back to the days of "merrie England" under Elizabeth as the halcyon period when men were men. And yet, it is not difficult to imagine that the social diagnosticians of that day deplored the deterioration of the stock as demonstrated by its love of plays and masks. No doubt they viewed with alarm the inertia betrayed by a preference for watching bear-baiting to participation in tournaments and joustings. Thus we may see that each age worries about the physical degeneracy of its youth; and yet the length of life is being appreciably extended rather than shortened. Degeneracy cannot, therefore, be quite the immediate danger that our diagnosticians would persuade us.

HAPPINESS

(London Observer.)

This is the flower which turns the night to day. The hope, the dream, the goal, the long-sought prize; This is the flower of flowers. Ah, come away, Let you should wither it with your fierce eyes. It needs no storm to bruise the tender bell. Nor any tempest for its shattering. Your eager hands will spoil it. Ah, I know well That eager hands will spoil the lovely thing!

Every car owner would like to ride on Balloon Tires but few if any of the present models of cars can be equipped with them without changing the wheels for a smaller size. Other changes in design in many models will be necessary.

For the owners who are buying new cars, Balloon Tire equipped, and for those who intend to make the necessary changes in their wheels, body or chassis in order to adapt their cars for Balloon Tires, the Dominion Royal Cord

THRONGS WITNESS MILITARY FUNERAL

Impressive Ceremony as the Body of Dr. J. A. McCarthy is Buried.

St. Peter's church was filled yesterday afternoon by a sorrowing congregation which had gathered to pay the last tribute or respect to the memory of Dr. J. A. McCarthy and all along the route of the funeral procession were seen thousands who mourned with the family the passing of a good citizen and loved physician.

The body was placed on a gun carriage at the home and the coffin draped with the Union Jack. At the church the firing party presented arms and the body was borne into the church by Doctors Roberts, White, Bridges, Ryan and Nugent. As the body was carried into the church "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by the St. Peter's Male Quartette, composed of Leo McLaughlin, Harold Gillis, William Grannan and Robert Butler. Solemn Libera was celebrated by Rev. James Woods, C. S. S. R. He was assisted by deacon and Rev. George Coffin, C. S. S. R., as sub-deacon.

The body was carried from the church by Doctors Corbet, Pratt, Davidson, Peat, Warwick and Skinner, all of the Army Medical Corps, of which Dr. McCarthy was a member. After the service Miss Kathryn Galloway sang Ave Marie, and as the body was being removed Prof. D'Alaire played the Dead March in Saul. As the body was again placed on the gun carriage the firing party presented arms and the procession reformed. Coaches filled with mourners led the procession and these were followed by two barouches overflowing with flowers. After these, in order, came the firing party, St. John Fusiliers Band, the body, Dr. McCarthy's charger, J. A. McCarthy, father, and Frederic McCarthy, uncle, as chief mourners, relatives, officers of the military organizations, local members of the medical profession, His Worship Mayor Potts and the general public.

The route of procession was through Douglas street, Main street, Paradise Row, City Road, Haymarket Square, Westmorland Road to the cemetery. After the prayers at the grave the firing party fired the usual volleys and the Last Post was sounded by Bugler Horsman.

Among the large number of floral offerings were:

A day of actual seamen's work was participated in by 35 members of the St. John Company R. C. V. N. R. on Saturday when they made a trip to Dipper Harbor and back on the pilot boat "Monarchy." The handling of sails was another item on the programme for the sail down. On arrival at Dipper Harbor launch and the salute was smartly given as Mr. Chesley drew alongside. After landing the detachment were drawn up and gave three hearty cheers for Mr. Chesley and the pilots who had done so much to make the day a success. Mr. Chesley offered to take another detachment some other day.

TABLET UNVEILED TO D. ARNOLD FOX

To the memory of Dennis Arnold Fox, for 19 years organist of St. John's (Stone) church, and an outstanding figure in musical events in the history of St. John, there was unveiled in Stone church yesterday morning a handsome brass tablet which had been erected by his friends and bore the following inscription: To the Glory of God and in loving memory of Dennis Arnold Fox, 1874-1921; youngest son of the Rev. J. M. Fox, B.A., vicar of Wingham, Kent, England; for nineteen years organist of this church. "A broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise." Ps. 51: 17.

The act of unveiling was performed by George A. Kimball who, with C. W. deForest, acted as church warden and the service was conducted by Rev. A. L. Fleming, rector, who offered the dedicatory prayer. As the offertory anthem, Mr. Fox's own composition, "Beyond the Holy City Wall," was sung and the music under the direction of the organist, J. F. Browne, was appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. Fleming quoted Mr. Fox's own words of answer to his doubting written before he left Montreal for England on his way home to die. They were in part as follows: "I feel I have to prepare for the inevitable, and try my best to get time with the Infinite. There is so much wrapped up in that phrase, in fact it sums up everything. I am frank to admit to anybody that I have been somewhat out of tune for a long time due to a somewhat cynical view of life's conveniences brought about by the misfortunes, but I feel I am getting into alignment again. I realize all cynicism must go to get in tune with the Infinite, that tremendous and overpowering orchestra. Willful individual discord is futile and unreasonable, and should carry with it conviction of its own futility."

Mr. Fleming said the special lesson to be found in the confession of Mr. Fox was that willful individual discord was futile and unreasonable in the light of the text, "A broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise."

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers, and the only way you can get back to feeling right is to make your liver right. This you can do by the use of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills as they will stimulate the sluggish liver, clean away all waste and poisonous matter from the system, and prevent, as well as relieve, all complications arising from a liver that has become inactive.

SPORTS NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

ERIC SNOW'S ENTRY FOR THE MARITIME OLYMPIC TRIALS HAS BEEN RECEIVED

Will Arrive Tuesday Night—Winchester Withdraws From the Tourney.

If the draw for the featherweight division is favorable, Eric Snow, 17-year-old A. C. promising young boxer, and Louis Donovan, Maritime champion, will meet here this week in the final Maritime Olympic trials. Everything depends on the draw now, as Snow's entry is definitely assured through the kindness of his employer, the Bartlett Lumber Company, and through the efforts of "Larry" MacLaren, chairman of the Maritime committee. A. W. Covey, and J. McCaffrey of Fredericton. Over the weekend, these gentlemen got in touch with the Maritime committee and secured leave for Snow. The youngster was talking with Mr. Covey over the long distance telephone last night and reports himself as ready to come. He will arrive in town Tuesday night and will work out with "Joe" Wheeler until the night of the bouts.

Winchester Withdraws. Owing to the withdrawal of the entry of Bruce Winchester in the featherweight division, the number of entrants in this division is reduced now to three. Donovan, Snow and Walter Kelly of Halifax. Kelly, who is due here Tuesday night along with others in Tom Foley's string, is no mean slouch with the mitts, having scored his brief knockdown over the redoubtable Donovan in their meeting at Halifax last month at the Maritime championships. Kelly also had the limit and did well. He has been working out faithfully under Foley and promises the local boys a plenty of trouble. Donovan also has been working hard at Rothery under Coach Johnny Dee and is in excellent shape physically for the bouts.

Snow has not had the benefit of training his opponents have had and in this respect is at a disadvantage. It is a boy, however, who more or less is in fairly good shape, due to athletic activities in rugby and soccer football and basketball. He says he is not in the shape he would like to be in for the coming bout, but he is ready to come and do anything to make the trials a big success. He realizes the fans have been wanting him to enter, and it was only the fact that he was obliged to accept the position with the lumber company that forced him to withdraw. Up to that time he had been working out daily.

Lightweight Entries. "Nixey" Kennedy wares at the meet here, after all. For a time it looked as though the Halifax boy had secured all opposition in the Maritime trials for the lightweight class but he has received, they being one from a champion winner from Moncton, Cape Breton. The latter is being sent by "Humpy" Campbell, well-known athletic leader from Cape Breton. Campbell also reports he is sending another welterweight boxer, Carl Walker of Fredericton is entering the 160-pound class. Donovan is trying to secure another entry from Oranotico for this class. Walker also will compete in the wrestling class and that will run in conjunction with the boxing bouts. There is a great deal of interest being manifested in the 160-pound class. The heavy boys have not been seen in action for considerable time around here. P. C. Cruickshank, the "Fighting Cop" from Cape Breton, is one of the entries for this class, and he must have the goods or they would not be sending him on the long journey from Cape Breton. The champion, Dave Nolan, also will be here.

Advance Sale Good. The advance sale of the tickets is reported as going very good. The big arena is expected to be well filled both nights with fans desirous of helping these boys on to Toronto for the final Canadian trials there on June 20 and 21. The committee wishes to point out that because several men have been in training it does not mean they are sure of going to Upper Canada. The Maritime selection committee members, A. W. Covey and G. P. Bolton of Sussex, will be on hand for the bouts. "Nixey" Kennedy was adopted in regard to picking the men who will go to Toronto," says Mr. Covey, "we believe, fair to all. Not every man who wins will be sent. For one reason, we have not got any money to waste in sending men who we feel convinced will not make an excellent showing up here. After the trials, the boys selected will be announced and placed under an instructor for further training."

Chairman MacLaren announced today that a complete statement of receipts and expenditures in regard to the bouts will be published as soon after the meet as is possible. "It is to the fans to whom we look to help us," he explains, "and we shall give them full information of what we have accomplished."

COMMITTEE TO BE AT MONCTON MEET Only 11 Events are Open to Boys Who Have Received Training.

To prevent any misunderstanding arising from entry blanks that have been sent out for the final Maritime Olympic track and field events at Moncton on June 2, A. W. Covey, president of the M. P. B. A. U. of C., explained here today that the 15 local events carded are closed to athletes who have been receiving the benefits of training advantages at the expense of the Maritime Olympic fund but that the 11 Olympic events on the programme are open to all comers from the eastern provinces. The Maritime selection committee, composed of J. P. Bolton of Sussex, S. F. Doyle, Charlottetown and A. C. Millie, of Halifax, would attend the meet, Mr. Covey added, and pick the men who will go to the Montreal camp.

TIMELY TIPS TO AMATEURS

Says Harry Heilmann, Champion Batter, American League.

Never take a good ball except with the count three balls and no strikes. The baseball fan seldom ever fails to make base hits with your bat on your shoulder tells the story. Hit every good ball with the exception noted above, and never fail to take advantage of the pitcher when you get him in the hole. When you know he must come over with the next ball be sure to make use of that knowledge. Don't try to figure what the pitcher is going to throw you. If you do, you are often disadvantaged. Be ready to hit the ball as it comes. Study your pitchers. This enables you to adjust your position at the plate to their style of pitching. A loose position at the plate is best if a batter can perfect such a style. It enables him to move around in the box and doesn't make him an easy victim for set pitching. Yet, when all is said and done about the theory of batting, don't take any good ball except with the count three and nothing, is the big thing.

Games Tonight

With the advent of warmer weather, baseball fans are expected to turn out in greater numbers than heretofore and undoubtedly the brand of ball should improve. In the professional field tonight, the Quebec and Vanions of the War Vets clash with the Shamrocks. Manager Coughlan announced this morning that Ray Hansen, or Parlee will twist for the Shamrocks in a big effort to even the severely drubbing on Saturday. Hansen proved to be the pitching game here. Towle, according to Manager Shea. Toole has all the earmarks of developing into a good ball player. Dever and Vanions will wear the catching bridle. In the South End league, the St. John the Baptist will stack up against the Machine Gunners. League leaders, according to Manager Shea. CRUIQUED KNUCKED OUT

Paris, June 1—Duffy French, American boxer, today knocked out Eugene Criqui, former world's champion featherweight, in the eighth round of what was to have been a 20 round bout.

PILGRIMS TO ROME

Rome, June 2—More than 2,000,000 pilgrims are expected to journey to Rome in 1925, the Holy Year. Thus the Vatican and municipal and Government authorities in Rome find themselves confronted with a serious housing problem. The Vatican will do its best to meet the situation by arranging for hundreds of the poorer pilgrims to sleep in the various convents and monasteries which dot the Eternal City.

But He Must Remember Not to Write Stories

SANDY WEINER Bill Tilden, who stumped him on a folding typewriter and thereby lost his amateur standing in tennis, is grooming Sandy Weiner, 16-year-old Philadelphia boy, as his successor. Weiner has developed a typical Tilden style on the courts and seems to possess much of the champion's great ability. Some day he may be the nation's champion—but he must remember not to write pieces for the papers or magazines, for that would make him a notorious professional, as the lawn tennis officials see the matter.

TIGERS TIE WITH BOSTON RED SOX

Yankees Have Only Half Game Lead—Cobb Has Good Day.

New York, June 2.—The Detroit Tigers, following Cobb, who made three singles and a home run, tied for second position with the Boston Red Sox yesterday by defeating Cleveland 10 to 6, while the Red Sox and Yankees were only a half game in the lead. It was the ninth victory in 11 games for the Tigers, and the ninth defeat in 11 contests for the Indians, who slid into the cellar, tied with the Athletics, whose meeting with Washington was postponed by rain. The Browns, recent terrors of the league, also lost their ninth game in 11 tries, when Chicago battled five pitchers for a 7 to 4 victory. Eddie Collins, Hooper and Jacobson made home runs. After a spurt of good baseball, which netted nine victories in 10 starts, and entrenched them in the National League lead, the Giants anticipated the coming of western teams to the Polo Grounds by a return of their middle-western form. Four pitchers allowed 17 hits, while their mates made seven errors, and Boston won, 11 to 6, as did the Robins, who triumphed over Philadelphia, 8 to 7. The Reds slipped another notch backward, as St. Louis won, 6 to 2, behind Sothorn's wild but effective pitching. Donahue was knocked out of the box.

Matches Held on North End Range on Saturday—Spoon Winners.

GIBBONS WINS FROM CARPENTIER

Awarded Newspaper Decision at the End of Ten Round Bout.

Tommy Gibbons was awarded a newspaper decision over Georges Carpentier at the end of their ten round bout held in Michigan City last Saturday night. Gibbons proved to be the better man and outgassed his opponent in practically every round. Carpentier endeavored to keep away from his clever and aggressive opponent, but was unable to do so and as a result was given considerable punishment. In the eighth round Carpentier slipped to the canvas and injured one of his ankles and from that on depended solely on clinches to save himself. Gibbons received $61,781, including $5,000 for training expenses, while Georges drew $70,000. The total gate receipts amounted to $227,397 according to revised figures made public today.

CHURCH LEAGUE GETS UNDER WAY

The Junior Church League opened on Saturday night with three games and will continue with three games on each week-end until July 5. The boys started off with three good exhibitions. In the West Side Victoria defeated the St. Jude's by a score of 10 to 7 in a seven inning game. Toole and Long pitched for the winners; Allaby was in the box for St. Jude's. St. Jude's defeated a determined comeback in the last stages, but were unable to overcome the lead piled up by the Victorians. The South End diamond saw the Central Baptists defeat St. James' 8 to 2. In the third Marvin displaced the regular pitcher for St. James' and Gorman was on the mound for the Centrals. A feature of the game was each pitcher of Central, Tynes and Scott, of St. James' did some sensational work. The Portland Methodists lost to St. Luke's 6 to 12 on the grounds of the North End Improvement League. Batteries for the winners: Morrissy and Hamilton for the losers, McCourtland, Bourke and Richards, Unipre, Capson.

DUNDEE TO MEET LUIS VICENTINI

Clash Tonight in a Twelve-Round Bout in New York.

New York, N. Y., June 2.—Johnny Dundee, featherweight and junior lightweight champion of the world, will meet Luis Vicentini, lightweight champion of Chile in a 12 round decision fight at Madison Square Garden tonight. Dundee's title will not be at stake. The result of the battle will effect the chances of men for possible bouts with Benny Leonard.

NEW YORK WILL BE ABLAZE WITH LIGHT

Great White Way is to be Outshone for Democratic Convention.

New York, June 2.—The show places of Manhattan will be clothed at night during the Democratic National Convention, in a mantle of incandescence beside which the Great White Way will pale into insignificance. The undertaking has been sponsored by business men's associations in cooperation with the big electric companies, and huge sums are to be spent in carrying it out. Madison Square Garden, the adjoining park and all the immediate section will be festooned with myriads of twinkling balls, and sprayed by batteries of floodlights. The Broadway Association intends to make its thoroughfare, the longest in the world, the Great White Way from end to end. The Fifth Avenue Association will rival Broadway by keeping its gorgeously decorated shop windows uncurtained at night; by flooding them with "color symphonies" of electric light, and by training spot-illumination upon the outlines of the avenue's most imposing structures.

Searchlights will be brought by the Merchants Association to play upon the towering pinnacles of the Metropolitan, Woolworth and other tall buildings whose lofty crests also will be lit against the sky by strings of smaller lamps. The Golden Way which was erected in honor of celebrated allied leaders who visited America during the world war, will be lighted once more. Business men's organizations are busy with other plans for keeping convention visitors interested. The Fifth Avenue and Thirty-fourth Street associations will install in front of each of their member shops a man who will be a walking bureau of information. A national chain store corporation is sending posters throughout the country with an invitation to come here and see the convention sights. The Broadway Association is starting classes where clerks will learn all about the convention, to stimulate their interest in and enable them intelligently to answer customer's queries. An association of movie house operators has arranged for delegates, men and women, to be conducted through the several large filming studios in Manhattan and nearby. There also will be a series of studio receptions for women, where they will have opportunity to meet the shells and the ramps of the screen in person.

PORTUGAL ENTERS TEAM IN OLYMPICS

Will Send Small But Selected Representation to Paris.

Liebon, June 2.—Portugal will send a small but highly selected representation to the Olympic games in Paris. A government appropriation has been supplemented by private donations, and teams are now in training. Fencing is given first place in Portugal's hopes, but swimming, rowing, wrestling, discus throwing and weight lifting entries also will be made, and a rifle team selected from among her many good marksmen.

SHAMROCKS WERE BADLY CRIPPED

Lost Both Games to the Vets on Saturday—Will Strengthen Up.

The Vets had little difficulty winning both games from the Shamrocks in the New Brunswick League fixtures played on the East End diamond last Saturday afternoon and evening. Barney Mooney is being greatly missed at second and as a result of this, also the absence of O'Connor and Finnamore from the line-up, the team was 'shot to pieces.' The afternoon game went to the Vets by a score of 10 to 6 and the evening game 13 to 1. Malcolm was on the mound for the Shamrocks in the afternoon and Stafford and King in the evening. The Vets used Tipsett in the afternoon and Jimmy Frusnell in the evening. Efforts are being made to strengthen the Shamrocks.

SAILORS MAKE GOOD ATHLETES

Members of the U. S. Navy Take Great Interest in Sports.

San Pedro, Cal., June 2.—The value of an athletic personnel, always recognized by military organizations, now is receiving more attention than ever in the Pacific battle fleet. Each battletship of the fleet now has, in the course of a year, more than 800 men on various teams and crews, and it is all part of the official routine. A schedule is carried out to determine the fleet championship in each event. Boat racing is most popular with the bluejackets, and each ship is required to develop 15 boat crews a year. A strenuous training period of several months is necessary for boat crews. Ten years ago boxing and wrestling were by far the most popular navy sports, but in late years other sports have come to the front. Today the fleet is represented in at least ten major sports—boxing, wrestling, football, baseball, track, soccer, rowing, rifle, swimming and water polo. Basketball is not absent. Lacrosse is just entering and making a strong bid for popularity. Many obstacles confront the sailor athletes. They have no gymnasium and lack equipment and their hours are irregular so they manage to make an excellent showing in every sport.

Ball Problems By Billy Evans

QUESTIONS 1. What was the rule adopted to help prevent the intentional pass and was it successful?—H. L. 2. What happens when the umpire is struck by a batted ball after a play has been made on it?—T. M. 3. What happens when a baserunner is struck by a batted ball on which no play has been made?—C. M. ANSWERS 1. The rule adopted relative to the intentional pass was that the leaving of his position by the catcher, before the ball left the pitcher's hand entitled all runners to advance one base. It was of no help. 2. The ball is considered in play if it hits the umpire after some fielder has made a play on the ball. 3. The base-runner is out, the batsman advance unless forced. If a play has been made on the ball before it strikes the runner it is considered in play. HOLD SUPPER MEETING. Poteen Manufacture Becomes Almost Industry; Laws Not Adequate.

Dublin, June 2.—The manufacture of poteen, or illicit whiskey in the Free State has grown from an occasional adventure into an industry. The loss in revenue is much the least part of the consequent damage.

Statesman, a weekly journal founded by Sir Horace Plunkett. A writer explains that the industry has baffled the efforts of the government to suppress it.

The liquor is sold at 75 cents a pint, the licensing laws do not afford the means of dealing adequately with the traffic, and it is suggested that they be strengthened so as to make the mere possession of poteen an offense liable to imprisonment.

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

SAYS MOVIES WANT HONEST CRITICISMS

Jesse L. Lasky Asks for Treatment of Each Film on Its Merits.

(By HAROLD E. SWISHER.) Hollywood, June 2.—(United Press) —"What motion pictures need is more intelligent criticism."

It is Jesse L. Lasky speaking, with emphasis—the Jesse L. Lasky who occupies the office of first vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, claimed by the organization to be the leading producing firm in photoplay-land.

Lasky has no fault to find with the newspaper or magazine critic, for "their comments on current screen offerings for the most part have been not only intelligent and enlightening to the public, but also helpful to producers."

It is the "stereotyped criticism of the so-called intelligentsia, the super-minded folk who profess a scorn for the movies and who, over and over again, parrot the pet phrases of ridicule which were adopted when motion pictures were in their early bogs of crudity."

"It is rather difficult to define this group of people, but generally they are the same folk who think the general public is naturally foolish, illiterate and lacking in taste, with the corollary that whatever the general public likes is wrong."

One of the most annoying and discouraging forms of picture criticism, Lasky continued, "is that all picture entertainment is attacked in a blanket indictment. If a man sees a poor legitimate play, or reads an uninteresting book or a newspaper, he condemns the he rushes into the street, condemning everything connected with motion pictures, from Mr. Hays down to the play, the author of the book and the newspaper publisher, not all dramas, books or newspapers. "But let the unfortunate wight see a poor motion picture—and I'll frankly admit there are plenty of them—and good looking girl in the box office who sold him his ticket.

effort to separate motion pictures into individual entities and then criticize them and try to improve them as individual entities. "If a director makes a poor picture, blame that individual director—not all others; if a player is inadequate in his part, confine your criticism to his playing—do not condemn all other screen players; if a producer's pictures are characterized by tawdriness and vulgarity, blame him—not the whole industry. "In other words, let's use a little common sense."

FERRY MATTERS ARE UNDER SHARP DISCUSSION TODAY AT CITY HALL

Question of Inquiry Into Affairs Comes Up—Taxi By-Laws.

The question as to whether His Worship had information which would warrant the belief that, according to report, there was extravagance in the ferry management was put to Mayor Potts by Commissioner Frink at a council meeting this morning and he was asked whether he believed an inquiry should be held. His Worship replied that he had not the information, and he felt that in view of the fact that the streets each of the commissioners should place himself on record as to whether there should be an inquiry or not.

The proposed by-law governing the operation of taxi cabs in the city was presented by Commissioner Harding, and, after some discussion, was recommended to the council, with the understanding that some changes be made in the phrasing to provide that licenses should be issued by the Mayor instead of the "board" and the approval of the city solicitor was obtained. No action was taken.

K. A. Brown, of the Alemita Sales and Service Co., appeared in support of an application for permission to install a third gasoline tank at their service station, corner of Union and Peel streets. He said when the first application was made it had been decided to handle only two lines of gasoline, but since they had decided to handle a third, no action was taken.

The proposed taxi by-law was presented by Commissioner Harding. This provided for a board, to be composed by the Chief of Police, one person to be named by the Commissioner of Safety, and one person to be named by the taxi cab owners, to have full supervision and issue licenses; the board to make regular inspections of the taxi cabs and to have power to make inspections at any time; that the board to have the power to cancel any driver's license for improper conduct or operating a car while under the influence of liquor, and to see that cars were kept clean and in good order.

Two districts were laid out, No. 1 from the Union depot to the south and east to Marsh Bridge; No. 2 from the depot north to Bentley street and Newman Brook, and the street along Adelaide road to the head of Burpee avenue.

The rates proposed were 50 cents from the depot to any point in either district, and $1 for one or two passengers from any point in one district to any point in the other; $2 for one or two persons from either district to West Side via the ferry, and $3 to West Side via the bridge.

It was suggested that instead of the board issuing the license the Mayor should issue them at present, and the by-law was adopted with the understanding that these changes would be made and the approval of the city solicitor obtained.

Ferry Matters.—The ferry by-laws were then presented by Commissioner Bullock. The first section, relating to fares, was taken up. The commissioner said the only change here was the increase of the transient fare from three cents to five cents, and this had resulted in an increase of more than $100 a month in transient fares received.

It was suggested by Commissioner Wigmore that some change be made in the fare prices and books of tickets issued to regular users and the fare to the transient increased. Mayor Potts suggested that the by-laws lay over until a full enquiry into the operation of the ferry had been made to see if the deficit of $1,200 a week could be reduced.

Tender Suggested.—Commissioner Wigmore suggested that the ferry privilege be put out to tender and Mayor Potts said this would not be a bad idea. Commissioner Bullock said this had been considered and it had been found impossible to get a guarantee that the property would be handed back in good shape and the fares not increased. The Mayor said the operation of the ferry was causing more unfavorable comment than any other department. Commissioner Frink asked His Worship what he proposed to do to remedy the matter.

Mayor Potts said he would act on his own if necessary but he thought the other members of the council, as directors of the city of St. John, should express their opinion and advise the Mayor what action to take. Commissioner Frink asked if His Worship had sufficient information at hand to warrant the reports and said if he had not this information should be obtained and he thought the Mayor had the means at hand to mine himself acquainted with the facts in the case and then ask for action. He suggested a list of questions be prepared for submission to the Commissioner of Ferries and a special meeting of the council held to discuss the question.

Mayor Potts asked if Commissioner Frink was convinced it was the duty of the council to go into the matter of the ferry operation and the Commissioner said he felt it would be wise. Commissioner Harding endorsed the idea of an inquiry.

Commissioner Bullock said that the ferry was being operated as economically today as in 1911, the number of employees was the same and then and the increase in cost was made up in wages, coal and repairs. There was a possibility of cutting down expenses a little by running fewer trips and increasing fares if the council cared to take that action. He said the department was ready for an inquiry at any time.

Commissioner Wigmore said there had been a lot of talk about deficits on the ferry and there had been offers to lease. He spoke of one man who had offered to lease the ferry privilege and guarantee to return the property in good shape and not increase fares. He was not in favor of any increase of fares as he regarded the ferry as a street.

The only change in the by-laws was in the transient fare and the provision that no auto truck could have more than one trailer. The by-laws as consolidated were recommended to the council.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock pasturage privileges in Lancaster were leased to A. J. Taylor for $30 a year and to the Colwell Fuel Co. for Minidie coal for the harbor department at $7.10 a ton was ordered accepted.
