VOLUME XLVI.

Vol. X., No. 29.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY JULY 18, 1894.

Printed by G. W. DAY, North Side King St.

We have curtailed as much as possible the editorial matter of this issue, but regret that it is, nevertheless, necessary to hold over a good deal of contributed matter. We trust that our correspondents will see that we are doing our best to make room for their articles.

The grand annual convention of the Christian Endeavorers met last week in Cleveland. The report of the secretary showed that 7,395 local societies have been formed during the year, the largest number in any year during the history of the Endeavor movement. The gain in England has been especially large. The total membership of Christian Endeavor Societies throughout the world now exceeds 2,000,000.

The International B. Y. P. U. Convention meets on Thursday of this week in Toronto. A great number of delegates from both sides of the International line are expected. We do not know what the size of the delegation from the Maritime Provinces will be, but we presume it will be considerable. No doubt they will all have a grand, enthusiastic time in the green city. We trust that all the delegates may be greatly benefited and return charged with inspiration for those who stay at home.

According to appointment the Baptist Convention of Manitoba and the North-west was to meet in Winnipeg last week. We have not yet seen any report of its proceedings. This Convention has been looked forward to by our brethren in the west as one of much importance. Among matters which were expected to engage the attention of the Convention, the North-west Baptist mentions the mission work as of course most important, the interest of the young people, Sabbath-schools, Indians and education. Incidentally also, such questions as the continuance of the Northwest Baptist and the sphere and operation of the superintendent of missions would claim consideration.

Sir Austin Henry Layard, who was born in Paris in 1817 and died at his home in London on the 5th of this month, was a man widely known, partly on account of his public services but especially through the published results of his excavations in Nineveh and other ancient oriental cities. His excavations at Nimrod began in 1845, and in 1848 Mr. Layard published his "Nineveh and its Remains," and a year later his "Monuments of Nineveh." These works, as well as the British museum, bear abundant testimony to the extent and value of Layard's work in the East. Besides holding other public positions he was successively minister to Spain and ambassador to Turkey. He received the Grand Cross of the Bath in 1878, and was elected a member of the Institute of France in 1890.

Not less than the usual number of drowning accidents, it would seem, are being reported this summer. The sad occurrence last Thursday on the Kennebecas by which a young lady of this city—Miss Beer—lost her life, and some others had a very narrow escape from drowning, has naturally led to remarks upon the danger of river bathing. In many streams, owing to the action of floods, ice, &c., the channel changes much from year to year, so that where a year ago the bank sloped gradually there may now be a sudden falling off into deep water. Those who cannot swim should therefore exercise great caution in bathing in rivers, even when from the experience of previous years they suppose themselves perfectly acquainted with the formation of the rivers bank. Many lives, it would appear, are every year sacrificed through lack of caution in this respect.

The announcement of the death of Rev. B. F. Simpson, of Chicago, of whom an obituary sketch written by his brother, Rev. D. H. Simpson, appears in another column, must, we suppose, have been received by many of his friends, as by us, with painful surprise. His death occurred on June 28th. The little we knew of Mr. Simpson personally, and much that we have heard of him, as well as his published articles, had given a most favorable impression as to his fine qualities of mind and heart. It is a sad mystery when such a life is cut off just when the man seems to have come to the point when he might do his best work; but there is consolation in the thought presented in the sketch referred to that there is a higher service for God's servants in a better world. We desire to extend our sympathies to the large circle of relations who are more especially bereaved in the death of our departed brother.

The Southern Baptist Association of New Brunswick.

St. Stephen is the thrifty border town of this province on the left bank of the St. Croix, just opposite the town of Calais, Me., with which it is now connected by a free bridge—containing, it is said, about four thousand inhabitants. On every hand there are evidences of push, though the present jog of trade is slow.

Among the leading enterprises of this town the St. Croix Soap Manufacturing Co. is to the fore. They are now putting in a kettle of some fifty thousand pounds capacity, this, together with kettles already in use, will raise their plant to about 140,000 lbs. capacity. With all the first class machinery necessary, and some sixteen years experience in the business the company is, notwithstanding moderate times, putting out 300 boxes per day—employing 25 hands. The "Surprise Soap" is one of their prominent brands, which from the Atlantic to the Pacific is a household convenience.

The Baptist church here, under the pastoral care of Rev. W. C. Goucher, is among the leading churches of New Brunswick, and is a growing influence for spiritual life in this border town, where, because of its nearness to the national boundary, grand opportunities are afforded for a high order of Christian work. With this church the Southern Baptist Association of New Brunswick convened in its fifteenth annual session, on Saturday, June 7th, 1894, at 10 a. m. Rev. H. E. S. Maider, the Moderator, presided. After preliminary business was attended to, the officers for the current year were appointed. Rev. J. A. Gordon, Moderator; Rev. A. J. Kempton, Clerk; Bro. Geo. A. Lawson, Sec., Assistant; Des. N. B. Cottle, Treasurer. The remainder of the session was occupied in reading letters from the churches and the transaction of routine business.

A short season of prayer was enjoyed before the business of the session was entered upon. The committee on temperance brought in a very emphatic report through their chairman, Rev. E. J. Grant. This was considered clause by clause. The clause which referred to the increase of the traffic and use of alcoholic drink was carefully discussed. The opinion of the Association was that the temperance sentiment of our country is on the increase. The part of the report which stated that the government which failed to suppress the liquor traffic, was together with the people who supported it, responsible for the sad results of the trade, was, after prolonged consideration, accepted by the meeting.

The Baptist church of Hillsdale, recently, organized requested by letter to be received to membership in this association. After some statements on the history of this church by Bro. Geo. A. Lawson, Sec., and others, the privileges of membership were extended to them.

A committee was appointed to consider a communication from members of the St. George church. The clerk of the association was directed to ascertain by correspondence the state of the St. Andrews church.

The report on the subject of the evening was read by Rev. A. K. deBlois, Ph. D. In this the condition and work of our educational institutions at Wolfville and St. Martins were set forth.

The Rev. W. E. McIntyre presented, with much ability and earnestness, the necessity of academic work in this province and our duty in the present crisis to which we have come in our work at St. Martins. We have debts which we are in honor bound to pay. We are abundantly able to meet these obligations in full. With union in purpose and effort we can lift St. Martin's Seminary out of its present embarrassment and make it a blessing. In answer to a question put by a member of the association it was stated that the debt on the Seminary is about $23,000. Prof. Keirstead, of Acadia University, gave an instructive and inspiring address on the important place the college holds in our church work. The lofty character of our work and the ability of the college to qualify our people for this work was made plain by a most pleasing array of reason and illustration. Dr. deBlois claimed for Christian schools the ability to solve the social problems of our day. He called attention to the sad fact that St. Martin's Seminary, notwithstanding its known ability to do good work, was in danger of being closed, and to the great dishonor that will come to our name if this institution is allowed to close its doors for want of funds.

The Association sermon was preached by the Rev. J. J. Baker on the Lord's day morning at 11. The text chosen John 4:24. In this was found as the theme of the discourse, New Testament Worship. The reason why Baptists exist and the right they have to exist are found in the peculiar doctrines they hold to and have maintained even to martyrdom. This most convincing declaration of Bible doctrines held by the Baptists of all time will do much to "strengthen the weak hands and confirm the feeble knees" of our people.

We expect it will find place in the Messenger and Visitor in due time. Nothing is more reasonable than the ground taken that if Baptists do not hold doctrines distinctive and differing from other Christian bodies they have no right to exist as a separate religious body; and if they do hold such truths they are in duty bound to make a plain declaration of them.

As is usual on such occasions as this, many pulpits of this and neighboring towns were supplied with the preaching of the Word.

In the afternoon services in connection with the Sabbath school of the church was held, in which visitors participated. It was our privilege to spend an hour with the Boys' Brigade in their usual Sabbath service. This institution as here conducted cannot fail to bring forth good fruit. It may be that we have yet much to learn of the broadness of Christianity in its adaptability to all the conditions and periods of human existence. How to capture boyhood and hold it to the service of God is the problem now being solved.

The report on education was taken from the table and read by the clerk as follows: The denominational schools at Wolfville and St. Martins have been doing excellent and effective work. A spirit of harmony has prevailed, and a sincere devotion to the study of the Bible has characterized the efforts of both teachers and students. In the face of the financial depression which has been so widely felt during the past few months, the attendance of students has not perceptibly diminished. For all these things we may thank God and take courage.

Acadia University has enrolled 110 students, of whom 29 graduated at the close of the collegiate year. The religious interest has not been so great as in the preceding years, but an atmosphere of more earnestness has been apparent. There have been a large number of special notices that two branch Alumni societies have recently been formed—one in Halifax and one in Boston. It is to be hoped that the members of these societies may render tangible assistance to their alma mater in the near future. The financial condition of the university is such as to call forth the sympathies and enlist the energies of the members of all our churches. The college is crippled at almost every point on account of its difficulties and burdens in this respect, and unless its friends rally to its aid and contribute of their means to its support in this hour of darkness, it will be impossible for it to retain its place of honor amongst the colleges of the Maritime Provinces.

The Seminary at St. Martins graduated 15 students at the close of the school year, this being the largest class in its history. The institution has more than paid its running expenses. Every room in the building was occupied last year, including the new rooms which were finished during the summer. In the literary department the grade of work has been excellent. The musical department has been in charge of Fr. Meyer, who is a musician of great ability.

At the last meeting of the New Brunswick Convention the needs of the school were considered, a consultation with a committee of the Free Baptist conference was held, and it was decided to make an effort immediately to raise the $7,000 necessary to place the Seminary on a sure foundation. Of this amount the Baptists are to be responsible for two-thirds and the Free Baptists one-third. St. Martins never needed your help so much as at present.

The hand of Providence has been abundantly manifest in the history of our educational institutions in the past. Through the blackness of darkness the Lord has led on to victory and success. So he will ever lead, if His followers are faithful. Section 1 was adopted without remark. Section 2. This section called forth loving and loyal expressions for Acadia University from Rev. E. J. Grant, W. E. McIntyre, Dr. deBlois and G. O. Gates. Section 3 was accepted without remark. On Section 4 being read the Rev. G. O. Gates and others expressed their sympathy and good will to this institution, but as the report stated that it was coming under a new control the question was asked, "does the passage of this clause of the report commit this Association to any additional responsibilities for the support of the St. Martins Seminary or to this new movement. It was answered that it would not. The clause then passed and the report was adopted as a whole.

The committee on obituaries then reported by Rev. J. H. Saunders, chairman. It referred was had to the demise of the Rev. Jas. Trimble and Rev. Wm. Rideout. It also recorded the Divine favor by which all the pastors of this Association had been spared to their labors.

The committee on Home Missions presented the following report: As to the amount of work done in this department of our business your committee cannot report as fully as they would like. A large number of churches, however, exist within the bounds of this association, which have hitherto required assistance from beyond themselves, and we have to report our regret that, through inability or other causes, the demand for help has not been met as it should have been.

A number of small churches, both in Kings and Charlotte Counties, are still pastorless and without any preaching services. Whether these can in any way be more conveniently grouped or directly assisted from the home mission funds is a question that should receive our serious attention. Certain it is that help must come to many of these weaker interests if our denomination is ever fully to occupy the territory of this association.

The gatherings for the year, though not general over the whole association, have been up to the average. It is to be hoped that recent changes in our denominational organizations will enable us to bring the work of home missions more closely to the hearts of our people, and call out a deeper interest than has hitherto been manifested. The New Brunswick convention, which has been organized to aid especially the interests of home missions and academic education in the province, will, if rightly directed, afford much needed help in this direction.

A fostering centre for gathering for the annual report of their affairs among the people most directly concerned has, in the minds of many, become a necessity. Let us hope that such help is at length likely to come, and that all our brethren may cordially co-operate in making the provincial convention a useful auxiliary to the maritime one, thus relieving the excessive burdens and affording more time and attention for the development of local home missionary enterprises. That our churches and members may be divinely led in this important matter is the earnest desire of your committee.

The Rev. W. E. McIntyre addressed the association in favor of the report. The Rev. J. J. Baker took exception to the report as committing the body to their work not yet settled upon by the body, and proposed as an amendment.

That the Association proceed to appoint a Board of members to have a special care of home missions within the bounds of this Association. It will be the duty of this Board, 1. To find out the needs of the various fields where work has been undertaken and to advise with these churches as to their wants. 2. In looking over the field to see where new work could be undertaken with advantage.

3. To advise with other churches about raising funds for this work. 4. To make recommendation as to grants to needy points either to a provincial general board or to the present Maritime Board as the future may reveal and as the churches may elect. 5. That in case no way is open to do the work through a general board in the meantime, that this board be empowered to receive funds and distribute to home mission churches. 6. Expenses of such Board to be met by the churches.

This amendment was seconded by the Rev. E. J. Grant. Objections were made to this motion as untimely. A motion carried by which this report and amendment were laid on the table until the association had decided upon the question of future policy of its home mission work.

THE MONDAY AFTERNOON session was given entirely to the consideration of the question of a separate Convention for New Brunswick in the work of home missions and academic education. The Rev. J. J. Baker opened the discussion by moving the following resolution:

Whereas, The independence of the local church and the doctrine of soul liberty are distinctive principles of our Baptist body which have been maintained and defended against bishop and pope, council and state, not only at the cost of property and position, but even at the sacrifice of life itself, principles which ought not to be less sacredly held by us than by our fathers; and

Whereas, The recommendation of a committee presented to the Convention held in St. Martins in August last, and endorsed by that body, recognized the principle of church independence; and the report of said committee, a comparatively few brethren proceeded to organize themselves into a body assuming to control the churches of this province without the consent of the churches themselves;

Therefore resolved, That this association affirms its belief in the necessity of standing most faithfully in the historic Baptist position as indicated above and in harmony therewith; it is Further resolved, That whatever involves our churches in responsibility should be undertaken only at the expressed wish of the churches involved.

The Rev. E. J. Grant seconded this resolution.

The mover of this resolution supported it with a recital of the principles involved.

The Rev. F. C. Wright moved the following amendment to the above resolution: Whereas, The Maritime Convention at its meeting last year voted to hand over the future management of home missions and academic education to such organization as each province may prefer; and

Whereas, The churches of this province in special meeting called to consider this question have under an act of incorporation organized a New Brunswick Convention to control and promote these interests;

Therefore resolved, That while we do not regard it as the prerogative of the association to authorize or condemn such an organization, yet this association desires to put on record its approval of the formation of said convention as competent to carry on in good faith these interests in harmony with the basis agreed upon at the last convention; and

Further resolved, That we urge the churches in this association to do all in their power to promote the welfare of the subjects still cared for by the maritime Convention.

A long discussion followed, in which Revs. Dr. Carey, W. E. McIntyre, Bro. T. H. Hall, Dr. deBlois, Rev. A. J. Kempton, John H. Hughes, G. O. Gates, E. J. Grant, and others took part. The following was proposed as an amendment to the amendment, by the Rev. A. Judson Kempton, and seconded by Rev. J. H. Saunders:

Whereas, There is a difference of opinion among the members of this Association as to whether a majority of the churches favor the N. B. Convention; and

Whereas, It is proper for a church to express itself by letter through its clerk, Therefore resolved, That the executive committee of the N. B. Convention be requested by this association to, by letter, request all the churches in this province to declare themselves by letter on this question before the close of this month.

As the hour of adjournment had come, an extension of time was allowed. The discussion, which was under the circumstances, unusually frank and friendly, evincing that all alike were aiming at one goal, and only differing as to the ways and means of getting there was brought to a close.

The amendment to the amendment was lost by 24 to 28. The amendment carried 29 to 16. On Monday evening the committee on the "Circular Letter" that they had examined the letter prepared by the Rev. W. C. Goucher, and heartily recommended it for the approval of the association.

A committee to take into consideration the propriety of organizing an Association of the B. Y. P. U. was appointed. The committee of arrangements had provided for a platform missionary meeting for this evening. After introducing services the committee on foreign missions reported.

The Rev. J. W. Manning presented the deep needs of our foreign mission fields, and pleaded most earnestly for enlarged effort on the part of our churches. He also presented as reasons for enlargement the purpose, work and sacrifice of the Christ for the redemption of the lost, and the reflex influence of foreign mission work on our churches, in doing our duty as Christ directs we are certain of success.

Mrs. Baker was introduced and gave a brief and soul-stirring address on Women's relation to the work of the Grande Ligne Mission. Our attention was called to the fact that "give" is written so largely in the book of nature. The darkness of our sisters in Quebec to whom we go with the gospel is dense. We can help them much by giving them what we waste of time spent in unnecessary work or idleness. Domestic service is acceptable service to Christ. Of money—When the reign of peace comes Christians will be known by their expenditure of money. Of love—Without love we are nothing—dormant love is wasted love—love in action cannot be exhausted. The work and service assigned to women is a work none else can do. These addresses were attentively listened to and a vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers.

The hour was now quite advanced and the Rev. J. A. Gordon, who had been appointed to speak for home missions declined to further tax the audience, but on being pressed to do so, gave in brief, but keen, logical utterances, reasons why we should support and prosecute our home mission work. The audience was full.

By the excellent service of the choir the pleasures of the hour were greatly increased. May we not hope for a large increase of the true missionary spirit in our churches represented in this meeting.

An Appeal to the Churches of the Maritime Provinces.

DEAR BROTHERS,—Our Convention year will soon close. It is very desirable that the Foreign Mission Board should be able to complete the year's work with all arrears paid and a balance in the right side. We have received from all sources about $11,200 and we have expended nearly $14,000. As you will remember we closed last year with a deficit of nearly $3,500; and in order that we might make our first quarter's remittance after the Convention, it was necessary to borrow $1,100. A further sum of $532 was borrowed during the year to meet an emergency. These amounts with last year's deficit are being carried by the Board. There remains only about three weeks before the books of the Board are to be closed. In view of the above facts and the pressing needs of this department of our work it becomes necessary to ask our brethren to come to our help just now. If the rally is at all general the result will be all that is required, and the Foreign Mission Board will be able once more to report a balance in the right side.

Yours in the work,
J. W. MANNING,
Sec. Treas. for N. B.

Report of Ladies' Meeting of the N. B. Southern Association.

The Aid societies of the N. B. Southern Association held their annual meeting in the vestry of the St. Stephen church on Saturday afternoon, July 7. The meeting was interesting and helpful although not largely attended. Of the seventeen societies in the association only nine were represented. The reports from these were, in the main, encouraging. The Mission bands have been doing good work and promise great things for the future. There are forty-four churches in this association and only seventeen Aid societies. It is earnestly hoped that the year on which we have entered may be the birth year of twenty-seven other societies. The nine reporting at the St. Stephen's meetings were as follows: Brussels St., St. John, Carleton, Leinster St., St. John, Oak Bay, Rolling Dam, St. Martins, St. Stephen, Sussex and Penfield.

The meeting was opened by the usual devotional exercises, Mrs. J. J. Baker in the chair. The delegates were most warmly welcomed by Mrs. Robinson, president of the St. Stephen Aid Society. To this welcome, Mrs. Grant, of Sussex, responded in very appropriate words. Mrs. Grimmer and Miss Whidden enlivened the meeting by singing a pretty duet. Greetings were brought from the Women's Missionary Societies of other churches. The Methodist sisters were represented by Mrs. Chipman; the Presbyterian by Mrs. Clark; the Congregational, by Mrs. Dr. Todd, who spoke also in behalf of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Black brought greetings from the Baptist Aid Society in Calais, Maine. Mr. Manning spoke in her usual earnest way on the present encouragement and need of our work. The blessing that has attended the labors of our sisters on the foreign field is cause for much encouragement, and the need is seen in the fact that the number of uninterested women at home is still larger than the number of interested ones. We trust that the meeting in St. Stephen may assist not a little in diminishing the number of those who are at ease in Zion.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1894.

LAYING A CORNER-STONE.

On Friday, the 6th inst., at 4:30 p. m., the laying of the corner stone of the new Baptist church in Amherst took place with appropriate ceremonies.

The new church occupies the site of the buildings which preceded it, the first of which was erected in 1814 and the second in 1833, but the new building, of course, will cover much more ground than did either of the others.

A large number of people came together to be present at the laying of the corner stone. The principal parts in the services were taken by Pastors Steele and McDonald, Rev. Mr. Williams (Methodist), Rev. Mr. McGregor (Presbyterian) and the editor of the MESSENGER AND VISITOR.

It is reported that the hay crop in England, which is now mostly gathered, is the biggest for a long time, and that both the grain and general crops are full of abundant promise.

THE GREAT STRIKE IN THE UNITED STATES.

In the great railroad strike which has caused so great a commotion in the United States, and has threatened to plunge that country into civil war, different questions of right and wrong are involved.

We lay this Corner Stone, And build to Thee A house for Jesus' praise: Lord, let us see His power and love made known, As 'round Thy throne, So shall we bring Thine own Gladly to Thee.

Break's this stone we place, Hidden to be, Our names recorded here, Members of Thee: Favor us, O God, On Thine own hands of love, Which naught in Heaven can move, Each name in Thee.

As we this structure build, Beset with care, Help us our house to keep, Ordained to be Temple of Holy Ghost; Thus, with the ransomed host, We'll make our only boast, Jesus, in Thee.

The services closed with the benediction by Rev. Mr. McGregor. At the close of these services it was announced that the young ladies of the congregation were holding a tea and fancy sale in the Y. M. C. A. rooms across the street.

It was, after prolonged discussion of plans, and consideration of ways and means, that the plan now being carried out by our Amherst brethren for meeting the present and prospective needs of the congregation was adopted.

Messrs. Rhodes and Curry's contract is for $27,500, which does not include windows, seating, provision for heating and lighting, carpeting, etc. When all is complete the cost will probably not fall far short of $35,000.

It is reported that the hay crop in England, which is now mostly gathered, is the biggest for a long time, and that both the grain and general crops are full of abundant promise.

The Proposal to Change the System of Electing Officers in the Convention.

Bro. Parsons has taken time by the forelock to discuss the proposal to change the system of electing the officers of the Convention. In answering him I will say that I have attended nearly every Convention for the last thirty-six years, and after careful observation have concluded that one of the reasons for dissatisfaction that now exists in some of the Baptist churches of the Maritime Provinces, has resulted from the present system of doing business in the Convention, and that the system of electing officers has caused jealousies and suspicion disastrous to the denomination.

The election of moderators by ballot has been the system in our association and it has not resulted injuriously, as the election in that way does not take up more time than is taken up by the election of a president by the Convention.

Bro. Parsons says that "we can elect as we see fit." I join issue with him. The retiring president appoints a committee of seven to nominate officers. The committee retire and on its return by its report nominates certain delegates as the officers.

I agree with Bro. Parsons that in electing our Convention officers we put the cart before the horse, and that they should be elected at the close of the sessions; but that is not an argument that can be effectual against electing by ballot without nomination.

I cannot agree with Brother Parsons when he says that "If the proposed amendment is made, the delegates of 1894 will not only rule this year but will fasten on future years what a majority may feel to be irksome."

It is useless to attempt to conceal that widespread dissatisfaction exists among the Baptists of the Maritime Provinces, snapping their strength as a Christian denomination, and may in the end lead to the most serious divisions. This dissatisfaction has, in a measure, Benjamin F. Simpson.

WILL THE Editor and his numerous readers pardon me if I write for a few lines concerning him who has just passed up to the higher service? I am sure that many will want to hear a word from some one who knew him better than they.

Born in 1854, at Cavendish, P. E. I., he was the youngest in a family of twelve children, eleven of whom lived to grow up, and of that eleven he is the first to enter the spirit world. From his earliest days he was thoughtful and studious. His boyhood was singularly pure and upright. Trained in a home in the country where the Christian influences were of the strongest and best type, he early felt a strong drawing towards the life which is in Christ.

It is not my intention here to discuss the threatened division of the regular Baptists of the Maritime Provinces, but it does seem to me that of late there has been too great a desire among our ministers "to serve tables." The constitution seems to have been to place the lay constituents of the Convention at the mercy of the clerical.

Yours truly, CHAS. E. KNAPP.

The N. B. Convention.

I must express my regret that certain brethren have thought best to bring this discussion again into the MESSENGER AND VISITOR. The wisdom of such a course is to be seriously called in question.

The peculiar methods of statement employed too, may also well be called in question, but I do not propose to enter upon that business now. Let these brethren read the resolution passed by the N. B. Western Association, approving of the New Brunswick Convention, and adopted by a vote of 32 to one, and also adopted by the Southern at St. Stephen by a vote of 29 to 16, and form their own conclusions.

As to gifts of churches let us have a fair statement. I know of one church among those named by Mr. Grant that has given in the last three years over $800 to the Seminary, not a dollar of which is reported in the Year Book. Whence also has come the $10,000 recently collected and paid in on the subscription list to that institution?

Now, brethren, be sensible, lay down your weapons of warfare and let us unitedly strive to make every department of our work a success. Let there be room for difference of thought and judgment, but by all means, after having given enough time to discussion, let us go ahead with the Master's work. I trust we shall not be compelled to open up this matter again.

THE HOME.

The Kind Word. It seems like the foolish repetition of words so often spoken to recall the value of the word of encouragement.

Nothing is further from kindness than flattery. The flatterer is seldom a well-wisher of any one, but it is a purely selfish passion...

Words, said an ancient philosopher, are the enemy of folk, but the counters of wise men. It is strange how many foolish people mistake a pleasant word for true kindness.

Requests for directions for making orange preserves and marmalade are cheerfully answered as follows: The orange is seldom thought of as a preserving fruit...

Byaks are of mixed shades, and the male plumage surpasses the female. The value of a feather becomes lesser or greater after cleaning it with white Castile soap...

The diet has such a decided effect upon the complexion that I wonder that more attention is not paid to it. Fat, breads, and highly seasoned dishes, tea and coffee, should not be indulged in to excess.

At this time of year it is pertinent to discuss different methods of hatching and rearing chickens.

The construction of one of a complete and thorough system of country roads for a county or several contiguous counties, has many advantages.

There is no part of the process involved in making an extra quantity of butter that is of equal importance with properly working it.

What is an excellent food for hens, and especially for young chicks. But for chicks it is best to crush the grain, not to grind it, or there will be too much loss in the fine flour.

The new owners of the electric railway are understood to be considering the purchase of the back and other properties on the shore. If the purchases are made, plans for a hotel will be prepared and the erection begun in time to have it ready for next summer's tourist travel. By that time all the improvements in the street railway service will be completed and the line will be running to the shore. —The Block House coal mine at Cape Breton, owned by Robert Belloni, Louis J. Belloni and Henry O. Havenmayer, of New York, was sold by the sheriff on Wednesday last, at the instance of the Bank of Nova Scotia, which holds the first mortgage bonds of $100,000. It was bought in by the bond-holders for $88,000. Robert Belloni offered $85,000. This is the end of a thirty-four years history of a losing ownership of this mine by the New York firm. Robert Belloni told the Herald correspondent that he and his partners had lost half a million dollars on their Cape Breton coal properties. For four years previous to the abrogation of the old prospect treaty they made money on their mine, but the thirty years since have been a constant loss.

Fortunately Dr. Bennett was in the garden at the time, and immediately ran and picked her up and dressed the wound, and she is now doing as well as could be expected. No serious results are anticipated. It is not long since Dr. Bennett's little son fell off his pony's back and was at the time thought to be dead, but recovered all right. Another son fell from the hay loft and fractured his skull, and previous to this Dr. Bennett himself had his arm broken by a cow, and subsequently by a horse running away the same arm was broken.

STEWART.—At Clifton, June 30, Laura Jean, aged 2 years and 3 months, only daughter of Duncan and the late Ella Stewart.

HAMILTON.—At Brookfield, June 29, aged 17 years, Archibald Yuill Hamilton, eldest son of William A. and Mary A. Hamilton. Archie's sickness was short. He was apparently recovering from an attack of puerility, when he was taken with a chill; rapid consumption ensued, and in six weeks completed its work. To the great joy of his parents and friends he professed faith in Jesus during his illness, and not only suffered with patience but looked forward with composure to the change he felt so rapidly approaching.

HIGGINS.—At Clifton, Colchester Co., June 12, aged 76, Martha, widow of Robert Higgins. She had walked and talked with Jesus many years, and in much affliction proved him faithful. Twenty-six years before, her husband, son and brother went down in their vessel in a squall off Tenesque, Cobequid Bay; and were buried in the deep. Of seven children one survives her, Mrs. Mary Turner, of Boston, herself a widow. The last weeks of sister Higgins' life were gladdened by this daughter's presence and attendance, and she by the great privilege of caring for her much loved mother to the end.

KILBURN.—Mrs. Kilburn, the beloved wife of Franklin Kilburn, passed away June 8th, in the 63rd year of her age, leaving a kind husband, one daughter, two sons, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our sister professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church at Macnaquis, in 1869. From that time she has been a faithful follower of Christ and an active member until five years ago, when, for some ill purpose, affliction came. During the last three years of her life she was confined to the house the greater part of the time suffering intense pain, which she bore with patience. Our sister was a kind mother, a good neighbor, and loved by all. She had one desire to live for others good, but she was willing to leave the summons from her Master; and through all her suffering she expressed a bright hope of release from pain and entrance into that rest that remains for the people of God.
