

ONLY UTMOST COOLNESS ON PART OF AUTHORITIES CAN PREVENT FRESH TRAGEDIES IN IRELAND

Plunkett's Speech in Which He Severely Criticized the Irish Home Rule Bill, and MacPherson's Defense of Irish Administration Call Forth Press Comment Strong in Tone—Viscount French Assailed by London Post.

London, March 5.—The speech of Sir Horace Plunkett at Dublin last night, in which he severely criticized the new Irish Home Rule Bill, taken with Ian MacPherson's defense of the Irish administration in the House of Commons, formed the basis of comment in some of the morning newspapers.

The Daily News severely condemned Plunkett for the present "shameful" position. The newspaper tells the Secretary of the House of Commons that after a given date, all grown-up crimes or violence be court-martialed and shot. Otherwise, the Post says, he ought to resign. "Viscount French was appointed to govern Ireland," the Post declared. "He has failed. He must know he has failed and it is inconceivable how he justifies his continuance in office."

Defends Administration. Ian MacPherson, chief secretary for Ireland, rebutting in the House of Commons last night attacks on the Irish administration, said:

"It is obvious we are up against a tremendously dangerous situation in Ireland. He added that the Sinn Fein had at least two hundred thousand men prepared to commit murder at any hour of the day or night. Secretary MacPherson asserted he had received letters from Loyalists in the West and South of Ireland begging the Government to take steps to get them out of the country. The Eastern Rebellion of 1916 had not been stamped out, he said, and had left behind it a spirit more malignant and revolutionary than Ireland had ever known."

Situation More Tense. The Graphic today features a Dublin despatch saying that the Irish situation is changing remarkably. The despatch declares that nothing can avert a fresh tragedy except the utmost coolness on the part of the authorities, and that any increase in the rigor of martial law will inevitably precipitate such a tragedy, causing dangerous complications for England in the United States.

The chief danger, according to the Graphic address, is the widespread conviction that a small Dublin castle clique is bent on getting Ireland's youth into the open, so that the morale of the Sinn Fein may be broken by bloody repression. This, however, the despatch says, is having one good result in causing the Sinn Fein leaders to avoid provocation at all costs.

ANGLO-AMERICAN ALLIANCE QUITE IMPOSSIBLE

Halifax Jurist Tells Moncton Audience of the Obstacles in the Way of Such a Union

Moncton, March 5.—The obstacles in the way of an Anglo-American Entente was the subject of an address delivered by Mr. Justice Russell, of Halifax, before the Moncton Canadian Club tonight. Past wars, the tardiness of the United States in entering the world war, the disgraceful handling of the peace treaty in the United States and the hostility displayed by elements in America towards the British Government's treatment of Ireland, were the principal obstacles Judge Russell saw to an Anglo-American Entente.

INDIANS SUFFER FROM INFLUENZA

No One to Care for the Sick and the Dead Left Unburied.

Port Arthur, March 5.—Indian Agent Brown has received a wire from Magistrate Dewey, of White River, which states that the Indians are dying of influenza and that there is no one to care for the sick or bury the dead. He asks for authority to incur expenses to care for the stricken Indians of that section.

If Amendment Is Defeated King Predicts Liberal Uprising In Dom.

Ottawa, March 5.—(By Canadian Press.)—That if the amendment calling for a general election is defeated by the Government when the vote is taken, probably Tuesday night, the Liberals would cross the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and expect the people to rise up with them and demand that the Government resign, was the statement of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, addressing the annual convention of Eastern Ontario Liberals in St. Patrick's Hall here tonight. The people of Ontario have been grossly deceived, and they are asking today for a chance to express themselves. Any member of the House who votes for a continuance of the present administration is defaming the name of Liberalism, he declared.

IRISH CRIME IS INCREASING IN AUDACITY

Growing in Volume and Will Expand Until Gov't Recognizes Ireland is in Rebellion, According to Dublin Dispatch.

SINN FEIN GETS ANOTHER VICTIM

Hold up Motor and Pour Volley of Shots from Behind Into Body of Man They Were After.

Toronto, March 5.—The Toronto Telegram has the following cable from Belfast, Ireland:

"Irish crime is increasing in volume and audacity, and will until the Government recognizes that Ireland is in a state of rebellion, and takes measures to combat it."

"The Sinn Fein's latest victim is Frank Shaw-Taylor. He was shot dead while motoring to Galway Fair yesterday morning. He was a brother of the late Captain Shaw-Taylor, so prominently identified with the devolution scheme some years ago. Shaw-Taylor was ambushed by a dozen men, who, at 6.30, had a barricade across the road. When the motor pulled up they poured a volley of shots into Shaw-Taylor from behind, killing him instantly and wounding his chauffeur, John Barrett."

"The murderer took place at Coshla, a mile from Moorfield, Athlone, the residence of the victim. Barrett staggered to a house where the news was conveyed to Mrs. Shaw-Taylor. The distraught wife asked some men to bring the body to the house. They refused saying 'what's the use when he is dead now?'"

"Mrs. Shaw-Taylor walked to Coshla and found her husband's corpse still sitting in the seat of the motor. With the assistance of the wounded chauffeur, she brought the car and its grim burden to the house from where an hour previously her husband had set out on his business. "Last night some arrests were effected by the police in connection with the affair. It transpired that Shaw-Taylor's life was attempted on previous occasions, but he had gone about his business unperturbed."

HAMPTON GIRL ASSAULTED WITH PEN KNIFE

Escort Becomes Enraged Because She Refused to Accompany Him to a "Movie" Show and Slashes Her.

Special to The Standard

Boston, Mass. 5.—Because she refused to accompany her escort to a moving picture show and told him he was too intoxicated to escort her, Agnes Logan, of Hampton, Kings County, N. B., a domestic employed in the home of Captain H. G. Armstrong, British Consul General at 269 Beacon street, Boston, was stabbed four times by the man and in a serious condition at the City Hospital. The stabbing was done in an alley, in the rear of the Armstrong home, which runs from Berkeley to Clarendon street.

"According to the police Miss Logan met her male companion at her door, and when she refused to accompany him to the picture show he became enraged. It is alleged that the man drew a pen-knife from his pocket and attacked her. He drove the small blade into her neck, near the jugular vein, and then plunged it into her abdomen. The girl's hands were badly cut when she attempted to defend herself. Bleeding and screaming, she ran from the alley into Berkeley street, thence into Beacon street where her cries attracted the attention of Francis Costello, 188 Bunker Hill street, Charlestown, and Patrick Coughlin, 9 Marion street, Charlestown, who ran to her aid and carried her to the office of Dr. George W. Brewster. She was slashed in the left side of the neck, under the ear.

The Standard correspondent, in an interview with Miss Logan at the City Hospital this evening, learned that the man was known to her years ago in New Brunswick. His name, she asserted, is Andrew McKay Sullivan. A state wide search is being made for Sullivan. Miss Logan is an unusually attractive young woman of 26 years of age.

WANT FREER TRADE WITH CANADIANS

Montreal, March 5.—The Bank of Montreal's hockey team, champion of the Bankers' League, cannot play for the Allan Cup in the elimination series. Secretary Betschen notified W. E. Northrup, the Allan Cup trustee that the constitution of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association would not allow it. This overrules the action of the officials of the province of Quebec section of the A. H. A. C. who put the Bank of Montreal in the draw.

DR. CLARK SPRINGS UP AS PROPHET AND ORATOR FOR THE AGRARIAN MOVEMENT

After Eight Years Crying in the Wilderness He Now Finds a Haven of Refuge in the Bosom of Mr. Crerar.

WILL MARCH BEHIND KING

Reaffirms His Allegiance to Free Trade Policies, and Denounces All Things Union.

Ottawa, March 5.—Dr. Michael Clark, sometime free trade Ishmaelite in Canadian Liberalism, sometime Conservatism Unionist, and now Prophet and Orator for the Agrarian movement, which he has christened the "National Progressive Party," was the principal speaker in the House today. Dr. Clark is a Godemite whose free trade principles have been so deeply inculcated into his political philosophy, that he regards tariffs as a sin against national morality. "Thus, perhaps, it is not surprising if, after eight years crying in the wilderness he should now find a haven of refuge in the bosom of Mr. Crerar, this despite the fact that it is hard to reconcile the spectacle of a man who espouses the creed of 'Laissez Faire' finding a political dwelling place in the home of a party whose policies tend only toward state control and Bureaucratic Socialism, the antithesis of British Liberalism, and one of the products of Autocratic Germany."

Not Happy. That he is not altogether happy in his new surroundings is a reasonable deduction from his speech. Unquestionably, one of the greatest masters of political oratory in Canada, he appeared upon the Canadian stage, there was looking in his address today the passion and structure and beauty which made some of his past utterances models of parliamentary eloquence, and looking down from the gallery, one could not help thinking that some of the things he permitted himself to say were anything but new to the ears of those who have heard him speak. As to the proposed deal with Scotia, the matter, it is believed, is still one of terms there being some sharp divergencies in the views expressed as to the basis on which a consolidation might be effected. The session will be continued in the hope of arriving at a satisfactory settlement of the difficulties. No immediate action will be taken by the board in regard to the English recommendations. President Mark Workman again expressed his desire to retire from the presidency in order to devote himself to more personal affairs, but it is understood that, at the request of his colleagues, Mr. Workman will probably retain the office for some time yet.

"HIGHER UPS" MAY BE IMPLICATED IN C. N. R. THEFTS

Intimated That Some Startling Revelations Will Soon be Made.

Fredricton, March 5.—"Officials higher up in the employ of the Canadian National Railways will soon be placed under arrest in the roundup of railwaymen, which is being made as a result of the extensive thefts of freight that has been taking place on the system in New Brunswick," declared a public official who is close by in touch with the case this morning. The ten prisoners appearing in the police court this afternoon are all stationmen or occupy other subordinate positions, with the exception of one man, who has been a locomotive engineer and was in receipt of about $300 a month salary. Nine of the ten have pleaded guilty, but were not sentenced this forenoon because it has been found advisable to have them as witnesses, whereas if they were sentenced they would not then be available.

LABOR COUNCIL THROWS WEIGHT INTO FTON ELECTIONS

Fredricton, March 5.—While the Fredericton Labor Council, it was stated today, would take no action officially as a body in the civic election, next Monday, when an alderman will be elected from Kings ward, there is marked activity in labor circles now in connection with the contest. Thos. D. Hissard, of Victoria Mills, who was nominated by the residents of the Mills at a protest meeting, is a member of the Labor Council, and his fellow members appear to be rallying to his assistance even if "unofficially." A special meeting of the Labor Council was held last night to complete arrangements for the New Brunswick Federation of Labor Convention here next week.

DUTCH GOV'T WILL NOT CHANGE ITS POSITION

Firmly Refuses Second Request of Allies to Surrender Former Emperor Into Their Hands for Trial.

MUST RESPECT THEIR OWN LAWS

Promise to Take All Necessary Precautions Requisite to Subject Freedom of William to Necessary Limits.

The Hague, March 5.—The Dutch Government, in its reply to the second note of the Entente Allies respecting the extradition or internment of former Emperor William of Germany, says that, while it appreciates the motives actuating the Allies, it is unable to change its previous decision. It says it is not forgetful of the inhuman acts committed during the war but since Holland is not a party to the Versailles Treaty, the Queen's Government finds itself in a different position from other powers with respect to these acts.

"Since the Government's supreme duty is to respect the constitutional laws of the kingdom," the note continues, "it fully appreciates the duties which would be committing an act contrary to law and justice, and incompatible with the national honor, if it consented to violate these laws by abolishing the rights accorded to a fugitive finding himself on Dutch territory."

Respect for Law

"Protesting that this attitude does not put Holland outside the community of nations, the note declares Holland is fully conscious of the duties the presence of the former Emperor lays on the Netherlands' Government with regard to the country's interest as well as international security. The note protests, that, contrary to the impression derived from the Allied note, the Dutch Government from the beginning has observed the obligations entailed by these duties. The Government, the note says, will continue to do so, being able in the exercise of Dutch sovereignty to take on the spot all precautionary measures deemed requisite to subject the freedom of the former Emperor to necessary limitations."

The Netherlands' Government says it is anxious to place these declarations on record in the most formal manner, and in conclusion declares it to be its opinion that these declarations which prove that the Government realizes the danger which the powers demand, will dispel their apprehensions.

SPANISH CREW SUFFERED CRUEL HARDSHIPS

Buffeted About by Stormy Seas With Reduced Rations and Scarcely Clothed, Reach Barrington Passage.

Halifax, N. S., March 5.—Buffeted about by the stormy seas, a small schooner with unexpected cold weather and reduced rations, scantily clad, and in a weakened condition, the crew of the schooner Terra Nova told a story handed on reaching the Barrington Passage, on the southwest coast of Nova Scotia today. The schooner left Seville, Spain, on December 19 last, for St. John's, Nfld., with a cargo of salt. The crew battled against mountainous seas, biting blizzards and ice fields which balked attempts to make the port for which they were destined. The provisions ran short and they were forced to burn everything available about the ship to keep warm.

The schooner was drifting in a helpless condition off the coast today, when picked up by a small steamer and towed into Barrington Passage. The crew are all Spaniards, and only one of them can speak broken English. Most of them were below deck when the schooner reached port and several of them were in such a condition as to require medical attention. They are being well cared for by the shore folk. The schooner registers 123 tons and is owned in Newfoundland.

Robson Correspondence Promised For Next Sitting of The House

Ottawa, Ont., Mar. 5.—(Canadian Press.)—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Hon. Dr. Reid, Minister of Railways, told Hon. Mackenzie King that the matter of appointments to the Board of Management of the Canadian National Railways, has not yet been finally decided. He expected a decision in a few days. Sir George Foster informed Hon. Charles Murphy that such a case can be brought down on the remainder of the correspondence in regard to the resignation of Judge Robson as Chairman of the Board of Commerce may be expected at the next sitting of the House. First reading was given to a bill introduced in the House by J. E. Armstrong of Lunenburg East to bring shipping on inland waterways under the jurisdiction of the Dominion Railway Commission. Mr. Armstrong presented a similar bill last session, but it was not adopted.

BIG SCHEME TO OPEN GREAT LAKES TO OCEAN NAVIGATION

H. A. Powell Talks of the Big Battle Over the St. Lawrence River Project—Railways and Erie Canal Opposing—Shipping Companies, Manufacturers, and Western People in Favor—Scheme Would Develop 2,000,000 Horse Power.

In an interview regarding the international joint waterways commission, H. A. Powell said: "On Monday, the 1st inst., the international joint waterways commission met at Buffalo, N. Y., for a preliminary hearing of the reference made by the governments of the United States and Canada to the commission to enquire into and report upon the feasibility and desirability of the development of the St. Lawrence River, from the city of Montreal to Lake Ontario, for the purposes of power and navigation. The reference calls upon the commission to report upon each feature of the development. The scheme is a gigantic one, and originated with the Western States, whose situation, with respect to transportation, has been an unfortunate one ever since the late war began. Fifteen of these States have leagued together to utilize the series of lakes and rivers which extend from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the city of Duluth, in the United States, and cities of Port Arthur and Fort William, on the western limits of Lake Superior. Competent engineers have investigated the scheme, and they pronounced it feasible. A great waterway can be a series of dams to provide an uninterrupted voyage from the heart of the continent

ERIE CANAL OPPOSITION. "The State of New York during the early part of the last century saw the advantage of water communications and constructed a canal connecting the Hudson with the St. Lawrence, which can be utilized, however, only by barges of six or seven feet. Later this canal has been deepened until it now admits barges and vessels having a draft of 12 feet. This canal has been constructed by the State of New York as a public work, and is free to all vessels or barges needing the use of same. It is contended by opponents of the St. Lawrence scheme that its development must necessarily lead to the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars; that if it proves a success it will divert traffic from the Erie Canal to the St. Lawrence. The promoter of the scheme contends that vested interests of New York should not interfere with such a great undertaking, which would prove, it is believed, of great service in advancing the commercial interests of both the United States and Canada. The question of cost can be entirely ignored, for it is claimed that by combining the two objects, power and navigation development, all the expenses of construction and operation can be born by the power development.

TAKE THE WORD OF YOUR OWN NEIGHBORS

You Cannot Afford to Experiment with Your Health—People in All Parts of Canada Highly Recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a System Builder.

There is not a nook or corner in Canada, in the cities, towns, villages and on farms, where Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have not been used. From one end of the country to the other they have brought back to breadwinners, their wives and families the splendid treasure of new health and new strength. You have only to ask your neighbors and they can tell you of some nerve-shattered man, some suffering woman, some young girl, some unhappy anemic child, who owes their present health and strength to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

For many years Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been a household remedy not only in America but throughout the world. When Canadian soldiers landed in England they found advertised in all sides Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. To the men from Australia, from New Zealand, from South Africa and India, these same advertisements were like home messages. When these men crossed to France one of the first signs that greeted their eyes was "Pillules Pink pour Personnes Palees" or Dr. Williams'. The world wide use of this Canadian remedy can be accounted for only by the merit these wonderful blood-making pills possess. Thousands of statements from grateful people who have been cured of ill due to weak, watery blood and shattered nerves, have been published. Some of these men have been somebody's neighbors, and you can safely take their word for the benefit they have found through the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

If more people knew how many ill and pains are due to thin, watery blood and how easily this condition could be remedied through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a great deal of suffering would be avoided. Men and women often suffer from stomach troubles, headaches and backaches, palpitation of the heart, and nervous complaints such as neuralgia, without suspecting that the whole trouble lies in weak, watery blood. The statement of Mrs. J. J. Murray, Corbeton, Ont., shows the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. She says: "A few years ago my daughter, Lilla, was in a very badly run down condition. She was pale, thin, and scarcely able to go about. The least exertion made her heart palpitate so violently that we were actually afraid one of these spells might carry her off. She slept so badly that often she would be awake until nearly morning. Treatment did not seem to help her and we were almost in despair when a friend advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few weeks' use of this medicine showed a decided improvement, and a further use of the pills fully restored her health, and she has since been a strong, healthy girl. Some time later I was taken ill myself, being run down from household cares. A doctor was called in, but his medicine did not seem to bring back my strength, and remembering what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for my daughter, I decided to drop the doctor's medicine and try them. The results that followed were like those in my daughter's case, and through the use of the pills I was soon a well woman. I am glad to give my experience in the hope that some other sufferer may find the way to health."

NURRING MOTHERS. LIKE A NEW PERSON.

Strenuous work on a farm has much to do with the run down condition of many who follow that occupation. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a few weeks' use of this medicine showed a decided improvement, and a further use of the pills fully restored her health, and she has since been a strong, healthy girl. Some time later I was taken ill myself, being run down from household cares. A doctor was called in, but his medicine did not seem to bring back my strength, and remembering what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for my daughter, I decided to drop the doctor's medicine and try them. The results that followed were like those in my daughter's case, and through the use of the pills I was soon a well woman. I am glad to give my experience in the hope that some other sufferer may find the way to health."

WHAT DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS WILL DO.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blood builder and nerve tonic. The rich, red blood that they make not only carries color to the cheeks and lips but gives vigor to the exhausted nerves and quiets the pains of neuralgia and soletia. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no opiates nor harmful drugs; they restore health and strength, but do not give temporary stimulation. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Nearly Insane From Leg Ulcers

She tells of suffering and brief story of her cure. Read these two letters from Sarah D. Lawrence of Kitchik, Ontario. "I can't sleep at night from leg ulcers. I am in pain most of the time. Now a few words from a later letter. "I have used D. D. D. as directed, and my leg is completely well."

Mountain Grown Orange Pekoes are Best

Orange Pekoe Teas are plucked from every tea bush. So there are poor Orange Pekoes and those of fine quality. Low price and high price.

The best Orange Pekoes are plucked from tea bushes grown from selected seed in the carefully cultivated soil of mountain side gardens, and gathered at a certain time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

Naturally these command the highest price. They are worth it, as you will agree when you taste their exquisite flavor in our Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea—the new and higher priced tea for those who are willing to pay a little extra price for a tea of extra quality.

There are numerous packages of Orange Pekoe teas on the market. See that the one you buy has the name—Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea—on our waxed board carton.

THE EXPORT OF RAW MATERIAL.

Until it has been decided whether a Commission shall be appointed under the terms of the Underwood resolution to visit Canada, and confer with the authorities here regarding the removal of the present restrictions on the export of pulp wood and other forest products, it may perhaps be considered premature to discuss the matter; but there are some facts in connection with it that it will do no harm to consider under any circumstances.

Premier Foster said a few days ago that if such a Commission were appointed, New Brunswick would be properly represented upon it. Of course it would, in view of the fact that this province is one of those most vitally affected in regard to the subject to be dealt with. But the matter of the most consequence is, what would be the attitude of our representatives towards the question the Commission would assemble to discuss?

At the present time Provincial regulations forbid the export of raw pulp wood that has been cut on Crown lands. It is this regulation that is causing all the disturbance across the line, and which Senator Underwood wants removed. Our representatives must be instructed that there can be no such removal; there can be no relaxation whatever of it. On the contrary, it is a question whether the present restrictions should not be enlarged so as to include manufactured pulp as well as pulp wood, leaving only the fully manufactured article, paper, to be exported. Surely everyone will agree that as much New Brunswick wood as possible should be retained here to supply raw material to Canadian industries employing Canadian capital, and not shipped abroad to help to build up industries for other people's benefit. We need all the industries we can get in our own land, and when we have the raw material in such abundance right on the spot, common sense alone dictates that we should use it ourselves, and not go poor while our neighbors grow rich at our expense.

We have not just at present before us the exact figures showing the value of the pulpwood annually shipped out of this Province, but upwards of a million cords is annually shipped from Canada as a whole, to the United States, which returns only about $15,000,000; but if this wood were kept in Canada and made into pulp and paper here, it would bring in more than $50,000,000 a year. On the face of things it seems to be very foolish policy to give $45,000,000 away to outsiders, when we need the money so badly to build up our own industrial life.

We need the largest export trade our country is capable of catering to, but this export trade should not comprise raw materials that we cannot replace within a few months. We can raise agricultural produce every year, and we can increase the amount produced as much or as little as we like; but with our timber resources it is vastly different. These require more than the average man's lifetime to reproduce themselves to merchantable size, a consideration which should make us very chary as to how we dispose of the supply we have. The country is asked to speed up production to the utmost extent. We cannot produce without raw materials; hence these should be kept at home.

LABOR'S PROGRAMME.

The reply of the Government to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress is of such a nature as must surely satisfy that body of the generally sympathetic attitude of the Government towards Labor's reasonable demands. It is recognized that it is unquestionably the right of Labor to organize to support its friends and oppose its enemies. So far as men oppose the just and fair interests of organized Labor, they are no more friends of the public than they are of the unions; for it is in the public interest that Labor, organized or otherwise, should be treated justly in all respects.

It is just as well, also, at this time to say that he is no friend of Labor or of the land in which he dwells who puts the interest of organized Labor above that of the public interest—who puts that or any other interest first. No single interest—the Labor Capital or Farmer—can be permitted to dominate the whole. It is but fair to assume unless evidence to the contrary is forthcoming that in the programme they are mapping out for their activities, the Congress seeks to serve only the just interests of Labor in due relation to the common interests of all. Any representative of Labor, or any politician bidder for the support of Labor, who seeks to put Labor first, will invite, and should incur, the hearty opposition of all fair-minded citizens.

THE RENT QUESTION.

The epidemic of rent-raising that is so prevalent nowadays among the landlord class does not appear to be confined to this province, but is almost continental wide. In Montreal a committee consisting of four well-known business men has been appointed by the City Administrative Commission to enquire into complaints against landlords charging excessive rentals, and to mediate between the parties. In the City of New York, where a similar committee is in existence, settlements have been effected in 25,000 cases affecting 100,000 citizens, with a total saving to them of upwards of $1,000,000. In New Jersey, the City Legal Department is advising tenants not to submit to the increased rentals, and is giving free legal services to those tenants who need them in carrying on the fight with the landlords. In this province tenants seem to be submitting to the increased imposts with as good a grace as they can assume.

There appears to be one bright spot in this dark picture, however, for we notice in a New York contemporary that there is a landlord in that city who believes in the principle of "live and let live." He owns a flat in which seven families are housed. The service was so good, steam heat, hot water and so forth, that the tenants offered to pay more rent, which was $30, but the landlord declined to accept more, and forthwith installed electricity, which up to that time was wanting. He is not, as might perhaps be supposed, an inmate of Matteawan either.

TURKEY'S FUTURE.

The decision of the Supreme Council of the Allies that the Turk be allowed to remain in Europe has evoked a storm of protest within the British dominions, particularly. During the war the Allied statesmen repeatedly affirmed that the power of the Turk must be broken, and the world had come to look upon the days of the Ottoman empire as ended, at least outside Asia. But the Supreme Council has agreed to the principle of maintaining Turkish sovereignty at Constantinople, while establishing an international board to govern the city and keep the peace between the Turks, Greeks, Jews, Armenians and Franks who make up its population. But the simple fact is, as the Ottawa Citizen points out, that the Allies have agreed to keep the Sultan and the Turkish government in the ancient capital. That is the thing that appeals to British popular opinion, led by the Liberals who believed, with Gladstone, that the "unspeaking Turk" should be banished forever from Europe—"bag and baggage," as the old statesman put it. That was for many years the attitude of British Liberals. Only since the war did the Tories take a like view, Lord Robert Cecil in the British Commons in May, 1917, declaring that "it was only we benighted Tories who ever had anything good to say about the Turks. We are all agreed that there is nothing to be said for them now." And Premier Lloyd George, not so long ago, the Turk was a "human cancer." Yet to the Premier is given the credit of evolving the plan to retain the Turk in Europe for "practical" reasons, among them being the fear of irritating the Mohammedan subjects of Great Britain and to fulfil a pledge which he made while discussing war aims before the delegates of the trades unions in January, 1918.

Under the present arrangement the potentialities of the Turk for trouble in the future are not lessened. Indeed there are not lacking students of international politics who affirm that the Allies are sowing dragon's teeth by permitting the Turk to stay where he is. And it cannot be denied that history confirms this view.

If American newspaper concerns find the supply of newspaper running short of their ordinary requirements, they should reduce these requirements. For one thing there is no real need for so many of the large Sunday editions which are being put out in many American cities; both their number and their size could be very considerably reduced without the public being in any way inconvenienced. It has been said that it requires ten acres of spruce to provide the paper for most of these Sunday editions. When one figures up how many of them there are all over the United States, and then multiplies the total by fifty-two, some idea can be gained of the number of acres that must be destroyed to get them out. New Brunswick is expected to provide quite a large quota of these acres.

It is not very material whether those St. John & Quebec bonds fell due by effluxion of time, or were redeemed before maturity. The fact remains that the Government chose to take them up, and make a re-funding issue; and the point is that in doing so they neither invited lenders in the usual open and straightforward manner, nor made any announcement as to the figure the bonds realized when they were sold. But the price obtained, it must be admitted, did not leave much opportunity for shouting.

The Ontario Government has definitely decided against any change in the Ontario Temperance Act that would have the effect of limiting or interfering directly or indirectly with the importation of liquor into the Province. About ten days ago representatives of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance walked upon the Government and presented a number of requests for legislation, chief among which was a request that the Legislature pass a bill embodying the utmost measure of prohibition within its power and giving the Government absolute control of the sale and distribution of liquor in the Province. The reply, as stated, was a refusal to do as asked.

Montreal Gazette: Mr. J. H. Burnham, M. P., may exaggerate when he says from his place in Parliament that prohibition is the cause of most of our ills, not the least of which is Bolshevism, but it cannot be denied that the dry ware has been accompanied by a disturbed peace. There is legal dryness but not contentment.

"We fought most, lost most, spent most and got least out of the war of any nation," is Admiral Lord Fisher's summing up of Britain's war efforts.

WHAT THEY SAY

As to Work. (Kansas City Post.) "The Bolsheviks are forcing every one in Russia to work twelve hours a day, seven days a week. Maybe Bolshevism is what this country needs after all."

Judge Robson on H. C. I. (Montreal Herald.) "The retiring chairman of the Board of Commerce, in announcing his resignation, made the extraordinary statement that Canadian producers should be allowed to make all the money they can. It is hard to believe that he was correctly reported because if he was it means that the interests of the people at large, the right to subsistence, the well being of the community, are all put to one side by him. Why, he is reported to have asked, should we control the price of milk and not that of flowers and perfume? Do flowers and perfume affect the lives of little children, might in turn be asked of him. Such views as those reported to have been expressed by this retiring official are what make for a communistic State, the confiscation of property and capital and all the evils of a people in revolutionary mood. Why, if he really held such views, did he accept the chairmanship of a board designed to limit exorbitant profits, and curtail unlawful exploitation by combines?"

A BIT OF VERSE

OH, WHY SHOULD THE SPIRIT OF MORTAL BE PROUD? Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud, A swift fleeting meteor, a fast flying cloud, A flash of the lightning, a break of the wave, Man passes from life to his rest in the grave, The leaves of the oak, and the willow shall fade, Be scattered around and together be laid, The young and the old, the low and the high Shall moulder to dust and together shall die, The hand of the king that sceptre hath borne, The brow of the priest that mitre hath worn, The wise and the foolish, the guilty and true, Have quietly mingled their bones in the dust, The peasant, whose lot was to sow and to reap, The herdman, who climbed with his goats to the steep, The beggar, who wandered in search of his bread, Have faded away like the grass that we tread, 'Tis the wink of an eye, 'tis the draught of a breath, From the blossom of health to the pale-ness of death, From the gleam of merriment, to the bier and the shroud, Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud? —William Knox.

The Morris Case Concluded Friday
Magistrate Orders Respondent Sent up for Trial—Liquor Fines Pour Into Treasury.

The revenue of the Provincial Government was increased by some $300 as the result of fines imposed in the first case to come before the police court yesterday, when Billy Young, a sleeping car porter, was charged with bringing liquor into New Brunswick from Quebec, and with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling. He pleaded guilty to both charges and paid the fines.

Hearing was resumed in the case in which three young men are charged with the theft of cloth valued at $1100 from Hoffman Bros., Main street. Miss Dorothy Perkins testified to finding the door of the shop unlocked on the morning of January 25th. When she entered the shop she noticed the cloth was gone.
George Cook and George Chatterton both testified to having bought cloth from the accused. W. M. Ryan is prosecuting the case, and the defense is being conducted by J. A. Barrie, E. S. Ritchie and E. J. Henebury. It will be resumed Monday afternoon at two o'clock.
Fines amounting to $96 were struck against William Campbell, who was charged with being drunk, interfering with the police, attempting to take a prisoner from the police, assault, and the use of profane language.
Officer Thomas, who made the arrest, said that the accused met him on Union street and attempted to take a prisoner away from him, striking at him and using profane language. He therefore placed the handcuffs on the accused and took him along with another prisoner he had arrested for drunkenness to the police station.
Hearing in the Morris case was concluded in the police court yesterday. The defendant pleaded not guilty and was sent up for trial. W. M. Ryan for the prosecution, and Scott A. Morrell for the defense.
One-man charged with drunkenness was remanded.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY
Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.
Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.
Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.
At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.
Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

GUARD AGAINST THE 'FLU

Serious Outbreaks of Influenza all over Canada
Good Health Is The Surest Safeguard

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brings Vigor and Vitality and Thus Protects Against Disease

There can be no doubt that the situation regarding the spread of influenza throughout Canada is one of grave concern. It is quite true that the number of cases does not constitute an epidemic such as caused the suffering and sorrow during the terrible days of 1918. Yet there is no disputing the fact that everyone should be on their guard against the disease.
In Montreal alone, from January 20th to February 21st, three thousand, one hundred and twenty-two cases of influenza and 133 deaths from the disease were reported to the Health Department.
If the outbreak had come at the beginning of the winter instead of the end, we might reasonably feel that the very cold weather would check the spread of the disease. But coming as it has, at the end of the winter, there is grave fear that an epidemic may occur. For spring, with its slush and rain under foot, its dampness and chill, its constant changing from cold to warm and back again, is a prolific source of coughs and colds, pleurisy and pneumonia.
The best protection, in fact, the only safeguard against the 'Flu, is GOOD HEALTH.
Those who are not as well and strong as they should be; those who are underweight; those who are "run-down" and whose vitality is lacking; should build up at once. What they need is a Blood-purifier, a body-builder, a strength-giver, like "Fruit-a-tives," the wonderful fruit medicine. "Fruit-a-tives" regulates the kidneys and bowels, causing these organs to eliminate waste regularly and naturally as nature intended. "Fruit-a-tives" brings restful sleep and renews the vitality of the nervous system. "Fruit-a-tives" contains everything that an ideal tonic should have; to purify the blood, to build up strength and vigor and to regulate the eliminating organs, so that the whole system would be in the best possible condition to resist disease.
Now is the time to build up your health and strength, not only as a precaution against the ravages of influenza, but also to protect you against "spring fever" and the inevitable reaction which comes with the appearance of warmer weather. Get a box of "Fruit-a-tives" today and let this fruit medicine keep you well.
"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by dealers at 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial size 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Woodstock To Have A Training School
Vocational Teachers Will be Enabled to Get Training at a Summer Course—Fletcher Peacock Points Out Need of Director for St. John Classes
Fletcher Peacock, director of vocational training for the Province, who was in the city recently, declares that the great need at present is a director or supervisor competent to control the work and carry through from being had been a most successful start. This appointment was the first essential, and a proper building the second, for the vocational training.
This director would find a field here with remarkable possibilities for development. The success encountered in connection with the night schools here was indicative of the interest in the matter, and the fact that so comparatively few boys and girls pursued a high school course showed the necessity of giving them the instruction in industrial, commercial, agricultural or other branches of training. There was now in the province one vocational day school for boys and girls not in high school. This was at Woodstock. Three other counties, Kings, York and Westmorland, had already taken action favorable to the project.
Mr. Peacock said he greatly hoped to see a beginning made towards a day school here next fall, even if only in temporary quarters, under a skilled director. At present, he said, the attendance was keeping up well at the evening classes.
Among the ideas proposed in connection with the work for next year was a night class for teachers to enable those having practical knowledge of their trade to impart that knowledge in the proper way to pupils. During the coming summer at Woodstock, from July 6 to August 5, there was to be a special summer school for vocational teachers.
In connection with the local work, Mr. Peacock spoke of a visit being made at present to the city by A. H. Whitman, a graduate of the Nova Scotia "Tech," and recently principal of the vocational school for returned soldiers in Newfoundland. He had conferred with some of the local teachers in connection with their work and was now starting out through the province to give a course in motor mechanics. It was what might be termed a mobile instructional course, for it meant a visit of a few days to small towns in all parts of the province with practical teaching and demonstration in this branch.

She Tells Just Why They Are So Popular
MRS. OAKES SPEAKS IN PRAISE OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
She had severe backache before using Dodd's Kidney Pills but now she says she is quite well again.
Hastings, Ont., March 5th.—(Special.)—Among the women in this section who are shouting the praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills is Mrs. John Oakes, one of our highly respected residents. Nor does Mrs. Oakes fail to give the reason.
"Before using Dodd's Kidney Pills," she states, "I suffered with severe backaches. Now I am quite well again.
"I am highly pleased with Dodd's Kidney Pills. They have given me the best of satisfaction."
In those last two sentences Mrs. Oakes gives the reason why Dodd's Kidney Pills are so universally popular with the women of Canada. They give satisfaction. Women in all parts of Canada are every day stating that they suffered from kidney pills and found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.
If you haven't used Dodd's Kidney Pills ask your neighbors about them. They have been in use in Canada for more than a quarter of a century and have earned a place in the family medicine chest almost everywhere.

IMPROVEMENT IN STEEL TRADE EXPECTED SOON

There is a feeling that, although deliveries are not improving, an improvement will come before long in the steel situation. It cannot arrive any too soon for a large number of Canadian consumers. Shortage is just as acute in United States, and it is worth noting that a number of American buyers have approached Canadian mills to see if it would be possible to secure any tonnage here.

A survey of the whole situation leads one to believe that the much-talked-of runaway steel market is not going to materialize. That does not mean that prices are not soaring. They are, but the United States Steel Corporation is still adhering to the March 21 schedule of making deliveries at that price. The premium-getters have left that price list. In fact, there is plate business being placed from Toronto at a base price of four cents per pound, against the old market figure of 2.65. The trade will pay the price now if the material can be delivered. But annealed sheets are being brought at a premium that will cause the jobbers to quote nine cents per pound, which is a pretty fair price for this material. Prices have also advanced in high-speed cutters and carbon drills made in Canada.

The fact that a machine tool-makers increased their prices, too, little thought in the machine tool dealers' premises now. It used to be something to talk about, but now it is accepted as one of the commonplace things of the day.

The purchases of the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National roads have put a lot of business on the books of steel and iron firms, as some of the shops were not fully covered. The price to which tin is soaring following the lead of the London market, is the feature of the non-ferrous trade. Jobbers are asking 77 cents at this writing, and some of them are predicting that it will touch one dollar before it stops.

LAURENTIDE TOPS MONTREAL TRADE

Montreal, March 5.—The outstanding strength of the general list in face of an exceedingly tight money situation, was the feature in today's trading on the local stock market. Laurentide took the leadership with sales of about 3,500 shares, the price being up five points at 82 at which it closed. Sugar came next with sales of 3,600 shares and advanced to 97 1/2, the net gain being 1 1/2 points. Brazilian was the object of a bullish demonstration and on sales of 2,250 shares showed a net gain of 3 points at 48. Steamships Common was dealt in to the number of 280 shares, the price being up five points at 84. Brompton added 1 1/2 points at 133 1/2. Brompton added 1 1/2 points at 133 1/2. National Breweries rose a large fraction to 53 1/2 on sales of 2,370 shares. The steel stocks were strong. Dominion sold at 71 to 72, ex-dividend equal to a net gain of a point, as the Canadian added 1 1/2 points. Laurentide Power lost 7 points at 61 and Canadian Cottons Preferred lost two points.

Total sales: Listed, 21,310; bonds, 123,150; unlisted, 250.

MORE CANADIAN GOLD PASSES INTO NEW YORK MARKET

Exchange on England, France and Other European Markets Was Again Strong.

New York, March 5.—Interest in the international credit situation obscured all other events in the securities markets today, although reports of impending heavy gold imports from England and maybe France lacked confirmation.

Additions to the already large exports of gold from this center to South America were announced, but these were offset, in part by the receipt of gold from Canada, with prospects of further shipments from across the northern border. Exchange on England, France and other leading European markets was again very strong, a maximum of $3.70 being quoted for demand bills on London before the close of the stock market. This is an advance of 12 cents from yesterday's highest accepted trading rate and 51 cents over the low record of February.

Dealers in exchange described today's operations as chiefly speculative and based not so much on prospective gold imports as increasing signs that England will readjust her adverse trade balance in due course.

Stocks were generally strong. Popular shares of the motor oil varieties dominated the dealings at important gains of 2 to 3 and a half points. Strength of these issues was coincident with further advances in prices of crude and refined oils, an increased dividend for Chandler Motors and rumors of an early rise in prices of motor tires.

Steel, equipments, shippings and sundry specialties participated in the advance, which lost much of its force in the later declines. Exchange then was strongest and call loans eased from the nine per cent opening rate to six per cent. Sales amounted to $75,000 shares.

Aside from the firmness of foreign issues, the bond market was featureless, most domestic rails and industrials showing moderate irregularity with the Liberty group, Sales (par value) aggregated $1,750,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

MOTOR AND RUBBER STOCKS WERE ACTIVE

(McDougall & Cowans)
New York, March 5.—The Motor and Rubber stocks became active in the early afternoon while the Steel and Equipment issues were quiet. The railroad stocks still took little or no part in the upward movement, a fact which was interpreted in some quarters as indicating that the recovery in industrials was more a matter of short covering than of more substantial outside interest. Call money decreased to four per cent in the late afternoon with 9 per cent at opening, but despite this fact stocks generally sold off in the late trading.

This late movement was probably connected with misgivings as to the bank statement and at further advance in the Federal Reserve Bank's commercial discount rate. Sales 1,062,200.

CITY'S FAILURE TO CONSTRUCT HARBOR BRIDGE BAD BUSINESS

Say Dr. James Manning and W. E. Scully—Present Ferry Deficit Capitalized Would Give Nearly One and a Quarter Million to Build Bridge—Navy Island 2-Deck Bridge Could Have Been Built at Cost of $300,000—Urge Action to Have C. P. R. Assist in Building Bridge Across Harbor Instead of at Falls.

"St. John has already reached a stage of growth where uninterrupted connection with the West Side is needed, and the sooner the harbor bridge is built the better," said Dr. James Manning before the Commercial Club meeting recently. "The city is now running behind on the ferry service about $1,000 a year. Capitalize that and you have a million or a million and a quarter to spend on a bridge," said Dr. Manning in an interview with The Standard. "It is claimed by the Union Act the city undertook to build the Navy Island bridge as soon as possible, and it would have been a good business proposition to have gone ahead with the work before the war when labor and materials were much cheaper than they are now or ever will be again. The bridge must be built, the satisfaction of the city's business and the factory working of the harbor will demand it.

What Harbor Commission Might Do. "If we had a harbor commission I should say that one of the first things it would do would be to try to provide for a harbor bridge. I am not worried because the Minister of Marine is not much interested in the city's concern to reserve the ferry. It is getting too expensive for the service it performs, and will cost more in the future, as neither the boats or the ferries are in their infancy. "A new railway bridge is needed; trains are getting heavier every year. The C. P. R. has plans to build a new bridge at the Reversing Falls. If we had had harbor commission here, or a five commission at City Hall, the new bridge would be built at Navy Island and the C. P. R. would have been asked to pay a share of the cost. "When the bridge project was under consideration, someone said the Dominion Government, the Provincial Government, the City and the Street Railway agreed, I think, to assume various portions of the cost. The city would build the bridge, but City Hall showed little interest in the project.

Needless Heavy Tolls. "A bridge at Navy Island would be a great convenience for the railways, as well as for the ordinary city traffic. Now C. N. R. traffic going to the West Side pays heavy tolls on the short haul around the Reversing Falls, the tolls are always proportionately high. And besides there is a great waste of time which would be cut out by the Navy Island bridge, the St. John end of which would be near the present Union station. The passenger station should not be removed from its present location, though it will soon need a large station. The harbor bridge is an essential feature of any scheme of city development and should be dealt with at once. The trouble is we have not proceeded, I think, on a forward-looking plan. I don't know if the C. P. R. could not be persuaded to abandon its plan to build a new bridge at the Reversing Falls and join with the C. N. R., the city and the province in building a harbor bridge. But if the city commissioners were accustomed to looking ahead they would have seen what might be done about it. Possibly the C. P. R. might fall in with the better project if it was settled that a harbor commission would control all traffic within a certain radius of the docks, as is done in Montreal, and incidentally control all the railway traffic across the bridge."

W. E. Scully's Views. W. E. Scully when interviewed said that if the harbor bridge was built traffic between the East and West Sides could be carried on for nearly one-fifth the present cost. At present he added, it cost sixty cents a ton to move coal from St. John around the bridge at the Falls, and this was an item that caused some annoyances on the West Side.

When Mr. Scully was in the city council plans for a double decker harbor bridge was proposed, and a referendum of the citizens at an election showed a majority of 1,100 in favor of the city guaranteeing one-third of the cost.

"At that time the engineers estimated that the double deck bridge could be built for $750,000," said Mr. Scully. "In addition there would have been land damages in connection with the approaches, which would have brought the total cost up to $900,000. Today I suppose the bridge would cost considerably more than twice that amount, as the price of steel has gone up at a great rate. When we had plans prepared the loss on the ferry service of about $200,000 a year. Now the ferry deficit is sixty or seventy thousand. Had we built the bridge years ago the deficit on the ferry now would have taken care of itself every year.

"It is a capital expenditure. It was bad business that we did not build the bridge. I think we would only have had to pay one-third of the cost. We had a pledge from the Dominion Government to pay one-third, and we had at one time a tentative promise from the Provincial Government to pay one-third. Naturally the Provincial authorities were not keen about the project, but I don't doubt we could have induced them to do so. St. John railway people to put up the other third."

Big Loss in Ferry. "If the city had assumed half the cost of the bridge, it would have been a great matter for at the present rate of deficit on the ferry half the cost of the bridge could be paid for in seven years. It would not be surprising if we have not already gone behind on the ferry service enough to pay for more than one-third of the cost of the bridge, if it had been built when we had the money. We would not have had to pay out a substantial sum for the Governor Carleton."

"At the time we did not contemplate asking the C. P. R. to join in building the bridge, and moreover the old I. C. R. had no such interest in the port of St. John as the C. N. R. has today. We have not already gone behind on the ferry service enough to pay for more than one-third of the cost of the bridge, if it had been built when we had the money. We would not have had to pay out a substantial sum for the Governor Carleton."

"I have been hopeful about building the bridge, because I formerly advocated the bridge project at City Hall, a lot of well-meaning citizens were saying: Oh, Scully wants a bridge for his town."

A well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the New Brunswick Automobile Association was held in the secretary's office of the Board of Trade last night. Plans were discussed for entertaining the members of the Imperial Press Association, who will be in St. John on July 30th. The party will number some one hundred and sixty-five members, and the Association plan on conducting them on a motor tour to points of interest about the city.

Councillor O'Brien appeared before the meeting in regard to a proposed new tax on motor cars in the parish of Lunenburg. He presented a draft of the bill to the meeting which is to be introduced at the coming session of the Provincial Legislature. With some amendments the bill was approved by the Association.

The Local Government have signified their intention of placing signposts on the roads this summer for tourist travel, and a map was submitted showing the various routes done in different colors, which was approved by the meeting.

Following up a most successful meeting held in Moncton it is proposed to hold similar gatherings in different sections of the Province at an early date, with the view of consolidating the membership and promoting good feeling among car owners generally.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS. Miss Thorne, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Miss Thompson and Miss Cooper, members of the Provincial Executive of the King's Daughters, are expected in the city this morning to meet the Local Executive in conference regarding the opening of the Fraser Memorial Home for aged men and women at Fredericton. An open meeting of the Order will be held, also.

CONTRIBUTE $100. The Royal Arms I. O. O. F., at their meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Orange Hall, voted $100 to the War Memorial Fund, and $12.00 to the purchase of a soldier's wife to England. Plans were made for a dance to be held later. A ring donated by Mrs. Richard Hooper for Child Welfare work, was given. Mrs. Frances of Prince Street, West Side, holding the lucky ticket, No. 362. Mrs. T. H. Carter, regent, presided at yesterday's meeting.

Col. J. R. Kirkpatrick, of Dohoc Junction, is a visitor in St. John, returning from Truro, N. S., to his home in Dohoc.

Railway Tariffs Discussed Here

Local Manufacturers Assist in Preparation of Case to Go Before Railway Commission—System of Commodity Rates Favored.

The question of railway rates was discussed at a meeting of members of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon, when the traffic expert of the Association from Montreal was present, and also Mr. Thompson of Amherst, secretary of the Maritime Branch.

Rates were considered in relation to the railway tariffs in other parts of the country, and there was a strong feeling for the retention of the old system of commodity rates, some of which have been abolished in recent years.

The traffic expert and Mr. Thompson will visit Halifax and other points on the same business, and it is expected the result of the various visits will be an agreement as to the best form in which to submit the needs of the business communities to the Railway Commission.

Girls Proved Great Farmers. Instructive Talk Given Last Night on the Part Girls Played on the Farms of Ontario During the War.

An entertaining and instructive talk was given at the Y. W. C. A. Recreational Centre last evening by Miss Strain, the Port Secretary, of the National Y. W. C. A. Three reels of motion pictures were shown giving views of the work done in Ontario by girls on the farms, showing how they helped to save crops in war time, and what a valuable work they accomplished.

Picture of the girls at work harnessing horses, milking cows, picking berries and driving the hay rakes were given, as well as scenes from their play and the way they lived. Miss Strain described the change of viewpoint among the farmers from the first of the season when they were so skeptical regarding the value of the girls as farm hands, and how the employers realized the girls' worth and asked them to return next year. The views were shown on the Y. W. C. A. machine, Basil Robertson acting as operator.

Before the interesting talk, the following programme was enjoyed: Piano solo, Phyllis Harbour, trio, St. George's Girls; reading, Miss Elizabeth Good; piano solo, Miss Roberta Smith; vocal solo, Miss Rita Brittain; piano solo, Dorothy Macdonald; vocal solo, Miss Audrey Hunter; vocal solo, Miss Hestia Tyler. Several choruses were sung, including the songs used in camp by the Marguerites.

Mrs. J. H. Hunter presided and there were nearly two hundred C. G. I. T. girls present who thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment.

JUNIOR W. A. ANNUAL MEETING. Good Work Accomplished by Trinity Branch of Women's Auxiliary—Juniors Raise Money for Pledges.

The annual meeting of the Trinity Branch of the W. A. was held yesterday afternoon in the school room, the Superintendent, Miss Mary L. Harrison, presiding.

Good reports of the year's work were presented and the Mite Boxes, on being opened were found to contain more than a sufficient amount to cover the pledges of the Branch. Very creditable work has been accomplished by the Juniors. The election of officers resulted as follows: Miss Helena Piers—President. Miss Elsie Bell—Mite Box Treasurer.

Miss Doris Trot—Secretary. Miss Blanche Davidson—Treasurer. Miss Nelson and Mrs. J. E. Gorman are assistant superintendents, and Mrs. H. Lovell is in charge of the younger members.

THESE ARE THE DAYS TO GET IN TOUCH WITH THE NEW SILKS. For the new silks this season are worth knowing, and what is more, P. A. Dykeman's SILK Section is making an unusually fine display of them right now. Recent arrivals bring the stock to the most satisfactory state of completeness, so much so that women may choose Dresses and Waists and go forward with the making with a firm sense of security, for Dykeman's Silks are right in style, right in quality, right in price. In the matter of Black Silks especially it is well to remember that not all grades are reliable in wear and dye—it is actual economy to pay a trifle more a yard and get Black Silks that wear well than to save the difference and have disappointment instead of service.

P. A. Dykeman's Silks are chosen so carefully and the manufacturers who supply them must conform to such a high standard that it is almost infallible safe to do your Spring buying there.

LOUISE REVERSES THE CLOCK

It was one of Mr. Robert's cute little ideas, you might know. He's an easy boss in a good many ways and I have still to run across a job that I'd swap mine for, the pay envelopes being fifty-fifty. But say, when it comes to main a private sec. free and careless be sure is an ace of aces.

Maybe you don't remember, but I almost picked out his wife for him, and the long distance record as a patient waiter, and I understand it was only when little Miss Polly got old enough to blast to Momma that Uncle Bruce would suit her first rate as a stepdaddy that the match was finally pulled off.

And now Polly, who's barely finished at boardin' school, has announced that she intends to get married herself. Momma has begged her weepy not to

When she'd set the date he turns over all the rest of the details to me, even to providin' a minister and arrangin' his bridal tour. Honest, I expect when the time comes for him to step up and be measured for a set of wings and a halo he'll look around for me to hold his place in the line until his turn comes. And he won't be quite satisfied with the arrangements unless I'm on hand.

So I ought to be prepared for most any old assignment to be hung on the hook. I must say, though, that in the case of this domestic mix-up of Mrs. Bruce Mackey's I was caught gappin' on and unsuspectin'. In fact, I was amphetin' a mild snicker at the situation, not dreamin' that I'd ever get any nearer to than you would to some fool movie plot, you might be watchin' worked out on the screen.

Well, what was a fond mommer to do in a case like that? Polly admits being a young person, but she insists that she knows what she wants. And one really couldn't find any fault with Billy. She had had Bruce look up his record and, here's a few little 9 a. m. police court dates made for him by grouch traffic cops, it was as clean as a new shirt front. True, he had been born in Brooklyn, but his family had moved to Madison Avenue before he was old enough to feel the effects.

So at last Mrs. Mackey had given in. Things had gone so far as settlin' the date for the weddin'. It was to be some whole of an affair, too, for both the young folks had a lot of friends and on the Curtis side especially there was a big callin' list to get invitations. Nothing but a good-sized church would hold 'em all.

Which was where Bruce Mackey usually a mild sort of party and kind of retirin', had come forward with the belly behavior.

"What do you think?" says Mrs. Bruce. "He says he won't go near the church."

"But what?" insists Mrs. Robert. "Well, she isn't my daughter, says he, and it isn't my place to be there. Dick should do it."

"But don't you see, Bruce," protests Mrs. Mackey, "that if he did I— I should have to— to meet him again!"

"He's right here," says Mr. Robert. "I beg pardon?" says Bruce, starrin'.

"Torchy," says Mr. Robert. "He'll do it with finesse and finish, and if there's any way of getting Dick to hang back by pretendin' to push him ahead our young friend who celebrates in high speed will discover the same."

"Ah, come, Mr. Robert!" says I.

"To bad your's died so young," Bruce raps back at him.

"I don't ask myself to think any such thing," says Bruce. "It wouldn't be right. But if he should decide not to it would be rather a relief, wouldn't it? In that case I suppose I should be obliged to act in his stead. He ought to be asked, though."

"Mr. Robert chuckles. 'I wish I had an acrobatic conscience such as yours, Bruce,' says he. 'I could amuse myself for hours watching it turn flip-flops.'"

"To bad your's died so young," Bruce raps back at him.

building, where they're havin' a rehearsal of a new musical show that he's interested in financially.

"With a sentimental interest, no doubt, in some sweet young thing who dances or sings or thinks she does," comments Mr. Robert. "Anyway, look him up."

And by pushin' through a lot of doors that had "Keep Out" signs on 'em, and givin' the quick back up to a few fresh office boys, I arisls Mr. Dick Harrington into the dark, front of a theatre where he's sittin' with the producer and four of the seven authors of the piece watchin' a stage full of more or less young ladies in street clothes who are listenin' sort of bored while a bald-headed party in his shirt sleeves asks 'em for the love of Mike can't they move a little less like they was all spavined.

"Don't strike me as just the place to ask a man will he stand up in church and help his daughter get married, but I had my orders. I slips into a seat back of him, raps him on the shoulder, and whispers how I have a message for him from his wife as was.

"From Louise?" says he. "The devil you say!"

"I could put it better," I suggests. "If we could find a place where there was quiet so much competition."

"Very well," says he. "Let's go back to the office. And by the way, Maraton, when you get to that song of Mabel's that I'm through with this young man."

And when he's towed me to the manager's sanctum he demands: "Well, what's gone wrong with Louise?"

"Nothing much," says I, "except that Miss Polly is plannin' to be married soon."

"Married!" he gasps. "Polly? Why, she's only a child!"

"Not at half past nineteen," says I. "I should call her considerable young lady."

"Well, I'll be blanked!" says he. "Little Polly grown up and wantin' to be married! She ought to be spanked instead. What are they after; my consent, eh?"

"Oh, no," says I. "It's all settled. Twenty-sixth of next month at St. Luke's. You're cast for the givin' away act."

"What-a-d!" says he, his heavy under jaw seemin' astonished. "That's Father's usually do," says I, "when they're handy."

"And in good standing," he adds. "You—or know the circumstances, I presume."

"N-h-h-h," says I. "Don't seem to make any difference to them, though. They've got you down for the part. Church weddin', you know; big mob, swell affair. I expect that's why they think everything ought to be accordin' to the usual."

"Oh, we shall demand no miracles," says he. "But you understand the situation, Mr. Mackey's conscience is on the rampage and he's making this sacrifice as a peace offering. If the altar fires consume it, that's his look out. You got me, I presume?"

"Oh, sure!" says I. "Sayin' a piece wasn't you?"

Just the same I'm started out at 2:30 Monday afternoon to interview Mr. Dick Harrington on something intimate and personal. Mr. Robert has been 'phonin' his law office and found that Mr. Harrington can probably be located best up in the Empire Theatre

"I should'nt say so," says I. "Course I don't know what she used to be, but I'd call her more or less classy."

"I don't mean she's any ravin' beauty," says I, hedgin'.

"You don't, eh?" says I. "Well, I'd just like to see. You may tell her that I will—No, I'll phone her myself. Where is she?"

And all the stallin' around I could do didn't jar him away from that idea. He seems to have forgotten all about this Mabel person who was going to sing. He wanted to call up Louise right away. And he did it.

WILCOX'S

Cor. Union

The following from the Ottawa Citizen of February 27th is of interest to many in St. John and throughout the province: "When the booming of the guns at three o'clock yesterday afternoon announced the opening of the 18th Parliament, the scene in the Commons Chamber, used temporarily for the occasion, was never surpassed in brilliancy in the years gone by, yet the spectacular or social side of the opening ceremonies was perhaps little considered by the hundreds of representatives of Canadian officials, who with their wives, daughters and sisters, flocked there from all parts of the Dominion in view of the world events, which have transpired since a Canadian parliament was last summoned on this historic site. Viewing the richness of the building and the splendor of every appointment in retrospect, thoughts turned to the old House of Parliament, on the ruins of which the magnificent new pile has been erected. The material reconstruction reminded all of the conditions of war weary years and compelled a new optimism for a building of a Canadian nationhood. Under the direction of Colonel E. J. Chambers, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, arrangements were perfect in every detail and were the subjects of pleasing comment. The scene was brilliant indeed. Almost every seat on the floor of the House was occupied, and the wives and daughters of Parliamentarians were almost as well represented as in previous days. The gowns worn by the ladies were beautiful in design and color, and mingling with the splendid military and naval uniforms, and the more sombre clothes of other gentlemen present, formed a lovely picture. His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, attended by the members of his staff, Lieut. Colonel the Hon. Harold Henderson, O.M.G., Captain the Earl of Haddington, M.C., A.D.C., Captain D. E. Wallace, M.C., A.D.C., and Captain H. G. Balfour, A.D.C., entered the chamber sharply, accompanied by a number of the officers of the Headquarters Staff. The absence of Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire, whose gracious presence ever lends a charm to any state function, was noted, as was also that of Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, and Lady Borden, and the widow of the late lamented leader of the Opposition, Lady Laurier. Included among the ladies were wives and daughters of the officials who were responsible for the erection of the new House of Parliament."

Rothesay

Rothesay, March 4.—The Duke of Rothesay Chapter, I. O. D. E., held their regular monthly meeting in the Assembly Hall of the Consolidated School, this (Thursday) afternoon. The regent, Mrs. W. S. Allison, presided, and many matters of importance were discussed. A pleasing feature of the meeting was the presence of Miss Mary of St. John's, Victorian Order Nurse, who was luncheon guest of Mrs. L. W. Davidson and with her attended the meeting. Afternoon tea was served after the business session.

Over the weekend, Richardson of Fredericton, was guest of Rev. Canon Daniel and Mrs. Daniel at the rectory. The bishop preached in the Rothesay Holy chapel in the morning and in St. Paul's church at 7 p. m.

Miss Emma Cameron of New York, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew Blair.

A wedding of much local interest took place at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon when Rev. Canon Daniel united in marriage, Mrs. Terri Hatfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hatfield of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Frederick Hatfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hatfield of Rothesay. The bride who was given away by her father, was becomingly attired in a tailor made costume of navy blue with pretty hat to match, and wore a white fox fur. Her bouquet was of white roses and ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Kirkpatrick wore a very pretty dress of taupe satin with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Harold Breen, brother of the bride, was best man. Mrs. G. M. Henson presided at the organ and members of the choir present sang as the bride entered the church "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden," and "Perfect Love" was sung as a solo by Mrs. Walter Harrison. To the strains of the wedding march the happy couple left the church and drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty luncheon was served. On their return they will reside in Rothesay.

MARCH WEATHER DANGEROUS TO BABY

Our Canadian March weather—one day bright, but sloppy, the next blustery and cold—is extremely hard on children. Conditions make it necessary for the mothers to keep the little ones indoors. They are often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their whole system. To guard against these colds and to keep the baby well till the better, brighter days come along, a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and administered occasionally to give the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which never fails to regulate the stomach and bowels and thus they relieve colds and simple fevers and keep the baby fit. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

When Twenty-five Millions Buy "Cascarets" They Must be "Just Right" for Liver and Bowels

Twenty-five million boxes of Cascarets were sold last year to folks who wanted relief from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases, Colds and Sick Headache without being shaken up and sickened all the next day. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by stimulating the liver and strengthening the bowel muscles. They never weaken or upset you like Salts, Calomel or violent Pills. Cascarets cost so little too.

Weekly Chat

Dear Kiddies:— Once again when you read last week's chat and looked around for the sketch referred to, you probably had reason to question Uncle Dick's sanity. Never mind the sketch was surely sent, but unfortunately left out. So today, I want you to read it (if it appears) and then you can better appreciate last week's chat about the very valuable inventor—Alexander Graham Bell. Of course you all know that the many and severe storms have interfered a great deal with the mail service everywhere, consequently a great many letters have not reached me from the boys and girls which I fear are a little late to be answered in today's C. C. No doubt they were written in plenty of time too, and thereby many of you may be expecting an answer, but please do not be disappointed and just blame everything on the weather condition. Every letter shall be answered no matter how long they are delayed, but we must have patience. In reading the other day I came across something that which just struck me as the right thing to help everyone of you. It was about a great many thousands of boys and girls joining in a modern health crusade and evidently they believed that cleanliness was a very important aid to health. You remember about two weeks ago I tried to give you some valuable rules to follow—which would avoid taking colds? Well here are some of the rules which these young boys and girls pledged themselves to obey and when I read them over I thought them excellent and worth trying by everyone. The first one was to wash their hands before each meal. The second was to wash their neck and ears as well as their faces each day. The third to drink a glass of water before each meal and before going to bed. Number four was brush the teeth every morning and evening. The fifth, was to sleep ten hours each night and the last was to sit and stand straight. Where could you find any better rules to lead you to health and contentment? One is necessary in order to enjoy the other. So kiddies let us all adopt them too and after a month's trial we can judge for ourselves the value of each and every rule. I know a small chap who just loves play of all kinds and he can get just as dirty as anyone can. Sometimes he hesitates considerably about the necessity of a good clean-up and may just do it in a miserable half-done sort of a style. But when he settles right down to business and actually decides to be clean he always finishes the job with a remark like this. My! but doesn't a fellow feel great when he's clean, I just feel dandy now and fit for anything.

So I would say to that chap, why not feel dandy all the time and especially as soon as the play is over? I wouldn't know which of these six rules was the most important, would you? I believe everyone of them are equal and let me know after a fair trial which one you simply could not exist without following. Write them on a paper or cut them out, better still learn them by heart and then let all obey them. Much love to all.

UNCLE DICK

SNOW. You can dig it, you can mold it, you can pat it into balls; You can pile it for a fortress with a cannon on the walls; You can use it in the freezer, or for sliding down a hill; You can build it into globins, or a fairy's slender shape. And it makes a lovely ermine for a dolly's winter cape; It's a cushion and a mattress when you tumble down de'fop; When you're just a little bigger you can snow-shoe on its top; It's a friend that makes you merry, and a game without a rule; When it's very, very heavy, it can keep you home from school. Though we like the toys that sing and walk and bark and climb and go, There was never such a plaything as a winter fall of snow. —Marion West.

A little girl in Sunday School was telling the story of the creation. "And so," she said, "Eve was made out of Adam's rib and I'm the son of the laziest man in town, that she wouldn't so much mind being a man's rib. It's being a man's backbon that makes her mad." —Youth's Companion.

It is all right to throw snowballs, or even apple cores, but looks are poor substitutes even when you are angry.

Answers To Letters

IRMA M.—We are very pleased to enroll you as one of us and hope you will enjoy the C. C. You will find your loving verse on our page next Saturday and am glad you sent it in. Your verse expresses so well the feeling we all must have when loved ones are taken. "He thought it best." Hope to hear from you often and that you will become much interested in our page and that it will help in even a small way to make up for the loneliness you feel.

FREDA C.—So glad to hear from you again, and of course the mails being so interrupted in the country districts storms has prevented many of the contest answers from being received in time for that reason we will continue the Brain Tests for some time yet, so that as conditions improve all will have a chance to compete. Your description of the young and old coasting on the crust formation was lovely and indeed I should like to have seen there too. That is the best fun there is and only comes occasionally. Often we print new-member lists and you would soon be the birthday list to choose from.

JACK R.—What a dandy letter you write so full of "pep" and good spirits. Indeed you must have had fine fun this winter with hard crusts everywhere to coast on and such a jolly lot of fellows to play with. MAURICE E.—Good to hear from you again after the long wait. Of course I know you are busy with all those duties to perform and lessons besides. So I appreciate your effort and the more. Write again when you can.

JENNIE S.—What a very nice writer you are for such a young member. I was quite interested in hearing about Molly and her many cute little ways. Write to me again soon.

ARTHUR G.—Too bad you are finding the tests hard. Do you think you really use your brain when trying them? By keeping the puzzles under the answers are published I think would be the best help to you and you would soon be able then to solve them yourself.

ETHEL B.—Indeed I was sorry to hear of your illness and glad you are so much better. So you are going to follow what you call Uncle Dick's health laws after this. Well they may prevent many a cold from developing. Glad to know the page helps you during those lonely hours. Write again some day.

ERNEST M.—The page certainly has been old by the time it reached you with such long delays in the mail service. However, cheer up, the Spring must begin soon, and after the thaws are over good times will come again. Indeed, the page was right. It was a jolly party. Nearly all the young folks around Jean's age were present. There were over so many Martha Washingtons and Molly Pitchers and gentlemen in powdered wigs—or were they made of white crepe paper?—and General Washingtons. But nobody wore a mask except one.

ROBERT J.—Sorry the mail has been so late reaching you too, but that is the cry from all sides, so you are no exception. Those living near have been even longer getting our page. You did not show any method by which you got the answer to Test. No. 5. All the work must be shown.

ROBERT J.—It is of course hard to remember back so far, but I am quite sure you were put in our page as a new member and perhaps you did not watch the page closely after all, as this is the only way the little friends get answers. However, to make sure you are not left out of our birthday book, would you kindly send in your birthday address and age again. We give you a welcome of course and hope you will always enjoy our page. Sorry to hear of your illness and trust you keep well now.

MARION B.—Do you not consider these Brain Tests word puzzles? What other kind can you mean? Pleased you are taking such an interest and your work is the neatest and best written of any sent to the C. C.

LAURA F.—Your description of the bees and their customs was very good and will seem more appropriate in the summer. The delay in all mail matter has probably interfered with your scrap-book's journey and no doubt it will be along when travelling in its better order.

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL

THE MAN WHOSE INVENTION MADE LIGHT OF DISTANCE. (Born March 3, 1847.) One windy March day a little boy was born in Edinburgh, Scotland. This boy was destined to bring into close contact people who were far apart, and to make distances seem as nothing. The boy was Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone. When he was twenty-three years old he came to Canada with his father and two years later moved to Boston where he taught in the Boston University. Mr. Bell, senior, devoted his life to teaching the deaf and dumb to talk, and young Bell soon decided to devote himself to helping his father in his good work. While he worked with his father, he was studying out the means of long distance communication, and on February 14, 1876, he applied for a patent of the instrument which was to be

THE UNBIDDEN GUEST

"I'm so sorry you can't get home for my birthday party," wrote Jean to her big brother Quint. "If your school was only nearer so we could have you home often how nice it would be! I am going to give a Colonial party. A fancy dress party. You know that pretty old-fashioned dress mother has in the attic? Well, it fits me and I am going to wear it. Will Jenkins is coming as John Paul Jones and Ruth Jenkins has a Martha Washington fan so she is going to get her mother to make her a Martha Washington dress to go with it. It is going to be such a jolly party and the only trouble will be that you won't be there."

What a faithful dog you have and how well you must have trained him. MARJORIE SCRIBNER—So pleased to enlist you as one of our new friends Marjorie, and hope you will enjoy belonging to the C. C. Hope to receive a letter telling all about yourself and your doings, as that is our only way of getting well acquainted. DOBORTY I.—Sorry the mail has been so late reaching you too, but that is the cry from all sides, so you are no exception. Those living near have been even longer getting our page. CONTEST REPORT

In awarding the points for number six, which you remember was drawing the three paths from the house, you had to have them cross each other, I am forced to believe that not all the members tried very hard to solve it. However, up to time of closing our page only two correct drawings have been received, but if others should reach me before Saturday I shall award the third correct one, five points also in next week's page. The drawing will show you all how easy the paths could be built without crossing each other. Five points are won by Marion Brown, Sallsbury, and Mary Hoyt, Hampton. Just at the last moment another correct answer to No. 6 was received from Marion Hopkins, Bridgetown, N. S. This makes the awards complete for Brain Test No. 6.

The Reason. The Tourist—Five miles to the village? Great Scott! What made them build the silly station all that distance from the place? The Porter—Really, couldn't tell ye, sir, unless they thought it might be made use down here by the rail-roads.

Feeling Father. Baby Harriet is so full of life that she is decidedly averse to taking a nap in the afternoon, despite repeated attempts on the part of her mother to make her form the habit.

After trying in vain for over an hour to put the youngster to sleep, one afternoon recently, the mother decided to give up the effort as a failure. "What's wrong?" the father of the little girl asked.

"I just can't put Harriet to sleep," "Huh, I am sure I can do it." "All right, try it."

The father went into the room, took up the little girl, and began to rock her and to hum homey little nursery tunes. Soon he came out of the room on tiptoe.

"Sh-sh-sh!" he cautioned, "I did it all right!"

A moment later a funny head was cautiously poked out of the door, and Harriet whispered hoarsely to her mother:

"Is he gone?"

Six-year-old Katherine confided to her mother one day that her sister Jean did not close her eyes during prayer. "But how do you know?" asked her mother. Katherine began to reply promptly, "Well, I saw—" but saved herself in time and finished by asserting, "I heard her wink."

I'LL HAVE A HAND-PICKED CABINET—IF ELECTED

To the Editor:—On acct. of recent developments a great many of our admirers have asked me to come out and explain what I will do in regard to a cabinet if I am elected President at the different polls next November.

Well if I am elected I have got some fears in regard to my cabinet and I will explain them so as they won't be no mistake with my optics.

Women have less conceit than men, owing to the fact that they see so much of it at home. It is a mistake for a young husband to brag about how much money he is making, as it sets a bad example before his wife and encourages her to reduce the surplus with a light heart.

Refute Charges Laid Against Defence Com. Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup. Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home.

GETTING A BIG IDEA OF GOD

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS. The International Sunday School Lesson For March 7 is, "Christian Love." — 1 John 4:7-21.

Two apparently conflicting impressions are held by every wide observer, home from the war zone. The first, which startles and chills him, is that the home folks have not awakened to the real meaning of the world cataclysm and that they never, especially in its plodding along in the beaten paths, almost as if nothing had happened.

Even the rigid and intolerant ancient churches of the old world have felt the revolutionary and vitalizing force of the new times. In the presence of the new revelation, dogma and nominalism and provincialism and intolerance seem strangely puny and out of place.

There was a period, during the last two years of active warfare, when from the depths the chastened spirits of mankind saw a glimmering significance in the struggle for the right of idealism, when we cried, with Tenyson, "Ah, when shall all men's good be each man's rule and universal peace."

Spelling the Big Word. Even at the present hour, however, there are discernible deeper lines over the earth. Politicians everywhere are wrangling over borders and "spheres" and rights and treaties; but the spiritual sense of the race perceives that the results and rewards of the war should be greater than these relatively small and contention-breeding things.

What the world really wants and also needs—for wants and needs are not always the same—is just that often-neglected revelation of God which we have in the present Sunday School Lesson, as written in his old age by John, the beloved disciple, who leaned on the Master's breast in the very heart of God.

A Lover's Litany. A man travelled far, from time to time, to visit the woman he loved; and they were separated without reading together this Lover's Litany, which is the day's Lesson. Their human love had been born and blossomed and beautified in this Divine Love, for as the text runs, "We love, because He first loved us."

Justice and good will and fraternity. There is no golden age for the race short of the love of God—God's love for us, rather than our love for Him.

"Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God; for God is love. Herein was the love of God manifested in us that God hath sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him."

Danger of Decreased Crop Acreage in Alta. Edmonton, Alta., March 5.—The impending danger of decreased crop acreage this year owing to an inevitable shortage of feed during the spring work season, is brought forth in a communication from Mayor Pineoott, of Tofteld, to Mayor Clarke. It is the intention to bring the matter to the attention of the executive of the Alberta Industrial Development Association.

Hockey Season Draws To Close

Fredericton Completes Its Schedule at Chatham Next Week.

Fredericton, March 5.—The Sussex Eastern League Hockey team will play here next Monday night when a picked team of Fredericton and Marysville players will oppose them. It is hoped to be able to have the visitors stay over for a game Tuesday night with the Marysville team. Arrangements have been about completed for the Fredericton team's trip to the North Shore next week for the concluding games of the New Brunswick Hockey League.

The local team will play Chatham on Wednesday night and Bathurst on Thursday night, both games being at Chatham.

The possession of the Chestnut cup depends upon the outcome of the games, the champion ship coming to Fredericton if they win both games, whereas, one defeat for the locals will make Chatham the trophy holders, while one drawn game means a play-off between Fredericton and Chatham.

NEW YORK AGAIN VISITED BY SLEET AND SNOW STORM

Was Convolvescing from Demoralizing Effects of Last Storm When the Relapse Came.

New York, March 5.—Shortly before midnight, the blizzard, which has struck its way across the continent, struck Father Knickerbocker still convalescing from the demoralizing effects of his last attack of sleet and snow.

A driving rain, with the mercury well above freezing, served today to free the streets from the foot thick sheath of ice which has covered them for weeks. Tonight, however, this rain, swept by a fifty miles wind, suddenly turned into a curtain of driving sleet. Before many minutes the mid-covered pavements again were mantled with white.

EMBLEM FOR MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION

The new emblem for 1920 of the New Brunswick Automobile Association as presented to members attending last night's meeting is a very handsome one. It represents an automobile tire, and is colored red, white and blue enamel. The tire is in blue with the name of the association in gold, the spokes are gold with a red background, while an enamel center piece designates the year. The inset may be removed at the end of each year, and a new year substituted. The whole affair is designed to be attached to the top of the radiator.

SPAN OF HORSES GO THROUGH ICE AT OROMOCTO

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, March 5.—During the past ten days five horses owned by Archie Alford, of Blackville, and used in his lumber operations, have died and their deaths are attributed to flu.

Many other horses in the same stables are sick with the same epidemic and, despite the fact that a veterinary surgeon is in constant attendance, other deaths are looked for. The animals are stricken one day and suffer untold agony for a day or two and then die.

A returned soldier, who has recently taken up farming at Oromocto under the Farm Settlement Board, met with a heavy loss the other day. He was crossing the Oromocto River, where the ice gave way beneath his horses, and, before he could do anything, they were both drowned. It is presumed the enormous weight of snow on the ice caused it to sag, and the horses, being heavy, quickly went through.

A team of horses and sled, loaded with gravel, went through the St. John River ice at the Mouth of the Nashwaak a few days ago, the team being rescued with much difficulty.

George Denslow, son of M. V. Denslow, of Marysville, met with a painful accident a few days ago. While skating down the steep hill he tripped on a lump of ice when near the bottom of the hill and received a bad fall, breaking an arm and dislocating his shoulder blade.

B. M. Wingar, of Montreal, of the Department of Natural Resources, was in the city yesterday in conference with the Crown Land officials over the matter of fire protection on the C. P. R. lines in New Brunswick.

NEW ANIMAL HAS BEEN CREATED

Secured by Breeding Buffalo and Common Cattle—Produces Fine Fur.

Montreal, March 6.—Maxwell Graham, director of Park animals, who is in charge of an exhibition of buffalo robes and heads, stated this morning, at the office of the Canadian Fur Auction Sales Company, that a new animal had been created, called "cat-talo" by cross breeding buffalo and common cattle. This new breed, retains much of the hardness of the bison and is suited to facing driving storms. It had a coat of shorter but glossier hair, than the buffalo, and in the opinion of many, makes a more beautiful robe.

In size the cattalo is larger than either of its parents. When used for food it furnishes many good cuts. So far great success has attended the government's experiment in the cross breeding of buffalo and cattle, and its efforts will be carried still further. The departments of the interior and agriculture are making the experiments.

PREMIERS' NOTE TO PRESIDENT MADE PUBLIC

Emphasizes Importance Attached to Wilson's Expressed Willingness to Accept Settlement Arrived at by Agreements Between Italy and Jugo-Slav.

Washington, March 5.—The text of the note from the British and French Premiers on the Adriatic situation, to which President Wilson's reply was delivered in London today, was made public tonight by the State Department. It conforms closely to the summary cabled from London February 27, and emphasizes the importance attached by the Premiers to the fact that Mr. Wilson had previously "expressed his willingness to accept a settlement arrived at by direct negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia."

It has been assumed here that the President's reply will be found, on publication, to deal mainly with the invitation of the Premiers that he join them in formally proposing such negotiations to the Italian and Jugo-Slav Governments. No intimation of his answer, however, has been given out, and owing to the fact that it was necessary for the President's most recent note to reach Premier Millerand in France it will not be made public until Monday.

Premiers Conciliatory.

The Premiers' note, after reiterating that they "have never had the intention of making a definite settlement of the questions raised without obtaining the views of the American Government," adds that the further "explanation of the views," contained in the President's memorandum, "is for them a matter of very great interest and importance."

"All the more so," the note continues, "since it shows that the United States Government do not wish to disinterest themselves from the general

St. Francis Xavier Wins Championship

New Glasgow, N. S., March 6.—The best exhibition of hockey seen in New Glasgow this year was given in the Arena tonight when the teams from St. Francis Xavier College, Antigonish, and Acadia College, Wolfville, N. S., crossed sticks for the Inter-Collegiate championship of the Maritime Provinces. St. Francis won by a score of eight to three. The game was clean and fast and the rink was crowded with spectators.

question of peace." In expressing agreement that direct negotiations between those people "would be the ideal way of settling the question," the Premiers said they were ready to withdraw their settlement proposals of December 9 and January 20, as they felt "that, if the two parties principally concerned believe that the various Allied and Associated Powers are committed to supporting them in any particular solution, it will be more difficult to secure a voucher for agreement between them."

In accordance with this feeling, President Wilson was invited to join the Premiers in proposing that the slate be wiped clean of all previous settlement proposals, and that Italy and Jugo-Slav "negotiate by mutual agreement," on that basis. The Premiers reiterated that the Treaty of London with Italy was kept secret for military reasons only.

In conclusion, the note said a speedy settlement of the Adriatic dispute—a dispute which is now "gravely threatening the peace and delaying the construction of Southeastern Europe," was urgently necessary.

Montreal, March 6.—The Rev. A. E. Bardsley, chairman and superintendent of the Methodist Church, in the Bahamas, is in Montreal today and he stated that the West Indian Islands are strongly against the United States purchasing them from Britain. He also said that the people were anxious for a much freer trade with Canada.

BASKETBALL AND ATHLETIC EVENTS

The Y. M. C. A. Senior Basketball team had a good workout last night, and have another practice slated for Monday night as they are determined to be in the best possible condition when they mix up with the U. N. B. team Wednesday night in the big senior event of the season.

Because the Atlantic Sugar Refinery team will be unable to meet the St. Andrew's Seniors, the original preliminary has been cancelled, but the fans will be treated to an interesting match, as Miss Matheson, of the Y. W. C. A., expects to have her team ready to meet the fast Fairville girls' team. The game will start at eight o'clock, and the Seniors at nine.

Two events were run off in the Y. M. C. A. indoor weekly athletics, last night. In the standing high, skip and jump, Morton got the honors, when he jumped 24 ft. 9 in.; Gillan was second, with 24 ft. 3.5 ins., and Swetka third, with 23 ft. 9 ins.

The other event was an unusual one, called the floor push, and listed among the events for competition in the C. S. E. T., being a test of strength. The results were as follows: 1st, Swetka, with 33 dips; 2nd, Morton, 24 dips, and 3rd, Ballie, 16 dips.

ONE ARREST.

One drunk arrested by the police last night will appear before the magistrate this morning. One miss was also taken in for protection.

SICK HEADACHES For Last 10 Years

Headaches affect all ages and both sexes alike, but in all cases the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headaches vanish for all time. What is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all description than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system. Mrs. Flora Hill, Dominion, N. B., writes:—"I have been troubled with sick headaches for the last ten years. All Europe In Grave Danger of Going Bankrupt

Without Speedy Financial Cooperation of All Nations Spring-time May See End of Capitalist System in Europe, Says Review of Review's Writer.

Writing under the heading: "Will Europe go bankrupt?" in the current issue of the "Review of Reviews," Mr. Sisley Huddleston says:—"It does not seem to me that the nations are in any course of recovery, so far as immediate results are concerned, whether you declare that the national debt, or a portion of the national debt, and therefore the enormous interests which are the chief cause of the financial troubles, are obviated; or whether you make large or small loans on capital—capital invested in such loans above all. There was a heroic hint of the second alternative once—it was immediately drowned in a vociferous chorus of abuse. There was even serious discussion of attaching the same seal by having an obligatory consolidating loan which would swallow up all the previous loans but upon which the interest would be half the present interest. Result: Your £1,900 automatically becomes £900 so far as its producing value is concerned. I mention these solutions in passing. Capitalism will be at its death-gasp before it thus commits har-kar."

But there is indeed a variant on these proposals which comes from Mr. Keynes, that is, the cancellation of debts among the Allied countries. The only country which would really lose (and if the alternative is the complete bankruptcy of Europe, who would gain by thus averting such a calamity) would be America. We should nominally lose, but most of our money, which is "out," we shall in any case have to withdraw for a very long time. That however, though certainly a method of simplifying the embarrassed relations of this moment and of easing the situation a little, is totally inadequate. It is an amazing thing that the only financial precaution of the Peace Conference was, how to get gold out of Germany. As I long ago pointed out we shall have to help Germany, not for humanitarian reasons but in our own interests, before we are through with the business.

The reason? Who said "indemnities" when Germany is without foreign securities, when Germany is without shipping, when Germany is without iron and without coal (for in a comparative sense, the loss of Lorraine and the Sarre Valley and Silesia render her coalless and ironless), when Germany is without transports, when Germany is without an ounce of gold? How can it be done when, even if she was in a position to make money by carrying her exports to a much higher figure than her imports (a task she could not accomplish before the war), we should refuse to allow her to toll the trade of the world? No, the less we expect from that quarter the wiser we shall be. We

Like A Tidal Wave Heart Disease and Nerve Troubles Sweep the Country.

Probably at no period in the world's history have heart and nerve troubles been so prevalent as they are today. The heart can't stand the stress and strain of this busy, bustling age, and the care and worry, the anxiety and activity of business life conspire to a serious drain on the nervous system.

The business of this work-a-day world goes with a rush that the stoutest hearts and strongest nerves break down under the strain. On the first approach of any breakdown of the system, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. The reconstructive power of these pills on the heart and nerve system is simply marvelous. Mr. W. A. Wright, Hopewell Ave., Ottawa, Ont., writes:—"After suffering for some time with my heart, I got the name of doctors, but they did me no good. However I read what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills had done for others, who had the same symptoms and thought I would give them a trial. Believe me, six boxes cured me completely. I am feeling fine now, and can attend to my work every day. I can recommend your pills to any one suffering as I did."

NOVA SCOTIA WILL HAVE PROGRESSIVE ROAD PROGRAMME

Halifax, March 5.—The debate on the Speech from the Throne was continued at the second sitting of the Legislature this afternoon. The speakers were W. L. Hall, the leader of the opposition, and Hon. O. T. Daniels. Mr. Hall touched briefly on various points mentioned in the speech from the Throne, asked for abolition of the Legislative Council, and for revision of the statutes. Mr. Daniels emphasized the water power possibilities of Nova Scotia and also the programme for highway improvement which was to be brought down later in the session. Both speakers predicted that with expedition and the co-operation of the public, the House would be able to run through the necessary business within a period of six weeks at the most. The reply to the address from the Throne passed unanimously.

IMMIGRATION TO CANADA SHOWS LARGE INCREASE

British Immigration for Ten Months Increased 89 Per Cent. Over Previous Fiscal Period. Ottawa, March 5.—Figures for the first ten months of the fiscal year, which ends on the 31st of this month, show that immigration to Canada from all countries totalled 101,940, an increase of 140 per cent. in comparison with the corresponding period for the fiscal year 1918-19, the report for which was tabled in Parliament a few days ago. British immigration shows an increase in those ten months of 288 per cent. as compared with the same time in 1918-19, the figures being 53,918, and 5,302. From the United States the increase is thirty-five per cent. up till the end of January of this year. From all other countries the increase is 18 per cent.

CONSUMPTION OF DRIED MILK ON THE INCREASE

Its Use in London and Other Large Centres Promises Solution of Milk Problem.

The increasing consumption of dried milk in London and other large centres of population promises not only a solution of the milk problem, but also a considerable reduction in infantile mortality. Liquid milk contains 12 1/2 per cent. of solids, including fat, and 87 1/2 per cent. of water. Dried milk contains only about 4 per cent. of moisture. By the elimination of 83 to 84 per cent. of water from liquid milk, therefore, the cost of curd, and of their transit in special trains, as well as the cost of pasteurization and distribution in the towns, would be avoided, and the saving thus effected would more than counter-balance the cost of drying the milk at central factories in the dairying districts of the country.

Rheumatism Left Him As If By Magic!

Had Suffered Over 50 Years! Now 83 Years, Yet Able to Surprise to Friends. Regains Strength Goes out Fishing Back to Business, Laughs at "URIC ACID"

How the "Inner Mysteries" Reveals Startling Facts Overlooked By Doctors and Scientists For Centuries. "I am eighty-three years old and I doctored for rheumatism ever since I came out of the army over fifty years ago," writes J. B. Ashelman. "Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called 'cures,' and I have read about 'Uric Acid' and almost lost taste without pain; my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now, as if by magic, I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change."

Mr. Ashelman is only one of thousands who suffered for years, owing to the general belief in the old, false theory that "Uric Acid" causes rheumatism. This erroneous belief induced him and legions of unfortunate men and women to take wrong treatments. You might just as well attempt to put out a fire with oil as to try to get rid of your rheumatism, neuritis and like complaints, by taking treatments supposed to drive Uric Acid out of your blood and body. Many physicians and scientists now know that Uric Acid never did, never can and never will cause rheumatism; that it is a natural and necessary constituent of the blood; that it is found in even newborn babe; and that without it we could not live!

These statements may seem strange to some folks, who have all along been led to believe in the old "Uric Acid" humbug. It took Mr. Ashelman fifty years to find out this truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism, other disorders, and recover his strength from "The Inner Mysteries," a remarkable book now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this particular trouble. NOTE: If any reader of The Standard wishes the book that reveals these facts regarding the true cause and cure of rheumatism, facts that were overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send post card or letter to H. P. Clearwater, No. 304-F Street, Hallowell, Maine, and it will be sent by return mail without any charge whatever. Cut out this notice lest you forget! LET "DANDERINE" SAVE YOUR HAIR

Get rid of every bit of that ugly dandruff and stop falling hair.

With liquid milk at 11d. a quart there is a considerable saving to the consumer, even at the prices at which dried milk is now being produced (says a writer in the "Times"). One pound of dried milk, from which seven pints can be made equal in quality to liquid milk, can be purchased for 2s. 4d. which is equal to 8d. a quart. The standard established for liquid milk in this country is 3 per cent. of fat and 8.5 of other solids. Dried milk contains on the average 27 per cent. of fat, 29 per cent. of protein, 36 per cent. of milk sugar, 6 per cent. of salts, and 4 per cent. of moisture. It is a perfect food, and infants thrive on it. By reducing the amount of water added, a valuable food for invalids is obtained. A point of even greater importance is the value of dried milk as a means of lowering infantile mortality. Dr. J. B. Howell, Medical Officer of Health for Hammersmith, said tuberculosis, scarlet fever, and diphtheria are traceable to London milk, as well as to London milk. It is further contaminated in the towns, would be avoided, and the saving thus effected would more than counter-balance the cost of drying the milk at central factories in the dairying districts of the country.

CRERAR LIKELY TO LEAD THE RETURN TO THE OLD PARTY

Those Who Strayed Away May Receive Complete Absolution from the Liberal Leader According to Indications.

Ottawa, March 3.—Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the third party, will announce his policy and statements tomorrow in his speech on the address. It is very probable that he will align himself with the Liberal Opposition as a step toward the first political merger of this Parliament. He has always been a decided Liberal partisan, and so are all the members of his group.

Much interest is manifested in the attitude of Dr. Michael Clark. If Mr. Crerar succeeds in leading him back into the official Liberal party, Parliament will enjoy the spectacle of militant Michael receiving absolution from peaceful King, and will recall one of the most sarcastic comments of the member for Red Deer on Hon. Frank Oliver during the conscription debate, when he said: "The lion from Alberta will lie down with the lamb from Quebec." It will be a decided victory for Hon. Mackenzie King if Mr. Crerar can deliver his political following to the Liberal party. It will also, however, clear the political situation by a reversion to the two-party system based on a difference in fiscal policy. The new farmer members will follow Mr. Crerar unhesitatingly.

Caucus for Tuesday.
The Government caucus will probably be convened on Tuesday. With the leadership problem shelved for a time at least, interest is centered in the attitude of the Cabinet on the question of policy and organization. Among the Unionist members there is a very decided sentiment that any further delay will mean disaster. Members are threatening to disassociate themselves from the party if the policy formulated last November does not at once receive official confirmation. There is an impression that the Cabinet has shown great indecision. Commentors have always been more outspoken in the lobby than in caucus, and the Cabinet may judge the present insurgency in this light. It is evident that there must be some greater bond of union than the record of the Government. Sir Robert Borden's policy, like President Wilson's peace proposals, has fourteen points, but the real issue and that upon which the electors must decide, is the tariff. The Prime Minister's statement of his tariff policy is too indefinite to suit the majority of the Commons. It could be subscribed to by every member of the Commons and allegiance justified by free traders, protectionists, or D. D. McKenzie, Liberals. The party wants a more definite statement of the Government's economic proposals, one that will leave no doubt that its supporters are moderate protectionists. It will be for this that many Unionists declare they will fight to a decision in the caucus.

Prohibition Reaction.
W. F. Cookshutt's arrangement of prohibition in the Commons today marks a marvelous change in sentiment on this and similar legislation since last session. The reaction against such radical legislation has come. If an amendment to the last session's prohibition law, calling for a three-fifths vote to adopt such legislation, is submitted, it may be adopted if the Government permits a free expression of sentiment in the Commons. Twenty Ontario members will support such an amendment, and British Columbia will also give strong support. With a solid Quebec and a fair support from the other provinces, there will be a possibility of British Columbia and New Brunswick at least joining Quebec in moderate temperance legislation instead of the present arbitrary system that prevails in all the provinces but one.

Estimates will probably be placed before Parliament at an early date. The financial year ends on March 31st. The Senate wishes to adjourn next week until some legislation reaches the Commons from the Second Chamber. There must be an interim supply bill passed, and the estimates must be before Parliament for this purpose. As the Govern-

St. Lawrence Route May Open Early

Ice-Breakers Already Busy on St. Lawrence and Navigation Expected to Open Early in April.

Navigation will, in all probability, open some time during the month of April, according to the estimate of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, yesterday. It all depends upon the moon, and, Easter falling this year on April 4th, the river should be clear by April 15th. As far as ice conditions are concerned, said Mr. Wiallard, they are normal for this time of the year. An apparent difference may exist on account of the fact that the ice breakers have not been engaged in their usual work; the Montcalm was taken down the river and was caught in the ice herself, but she is now at Halifax where her propellers are to be replaced, and she will return to Quebec as soon as possible to resume her regular functions. The Lady Grey started in work yesterday morning near Cap Sante, 135 miles from here. There is, however, nothing abnormal in the present ice conditions, added Mr. Wiallard, although there is, of course, more ice than there would have been if we had had an exceptionally mild winter, and there is no reason to believe that the present conditions indicate, why the opening date for navigation should be later than April 15th.
