The Hudson's Bay Question.—The Daily News says the Hudson's Bay Company are understood to ask two million pounds for the sovereignty and the bulk of their freehold while the linperial Government have long undertaken to guarantee one million pounds.

The French consulates in Peru, Chili and Morocco, are to be raised to the rank of legations. The bullion on the Bauk of England has increased 258,739 pounds.

The Paris money markets was easy but there was a general want of speculative confidence.

The Hudson's Bay Question.—The Daily News says the Hudson's Bay Company and the bulk of their freehold while the linperial Government have long undertaken to guarantee one million pounds.

The Shareholders may therefore look to a bardian dertaken to guarantee one million pounds.
