Completion of the City Water Service an Expensive Job

There Are 400 Non-Users of Water—Bring Revenue of $2000

Last night's meeting of the City Council was a long one, and was not concluded till within about twenty minutes of the eleventh hour. A great deal of business was transacted—mostly of a routine character. Those present at the meeting were Mayor Stone, Aldermen Austin, Westman, Massey, Stephens, Benson, Potter, Bullis, Maynard and City Clerk Merritt.

A request was received from the Secretary of the Separate School Board, asking for an advance of $500 on taxes—Granted.

A. E. Mounter, the baker, was granted a refund of taxes amounting to $21.17, which sum through an error had been collected twice by the city.

A report presented by the City Engineer stated that it would require 34,868, 1,000 and 1,000 feet of various sizes of pipe respectively to complete the waterworks system in this city, at a total cost of about $18,434, with an extra $40 each for hydrants installed. He reported that there are 400 stores and dwellings in this city which are not using city water. These would bring in an annual revenue of about $2,000, which would pay 10.85 per cent on the investment.

The statement that there are only 400 stores and houses in the city which are not using city water, came as quite a surprise to many of the aldermen, who were inclined to think that there are more. The matter was referred by the Mayor to a committee composed of Aldermen Austin, Potter, Stephens and Bullis.

An account for $20 for measurements taken on Johnnie street, by Engineer McDonald was referred and will be charged against the construction of the pavement on that thoroughfare.

John Glasford asked for a refund on half the cost of the sidewalk constructed in front of his property on the market square. He thought that this was only fair as he had paid for the whole work, while other property owners along the same street had only been asked to pay for half of the sidewalk in front of their places. Referred to Board of Works and the City Engineer to report on.

Engineer McDonald reported that he had found that Johnnie street should be 30 feet 10 inches wide, but many of the buildings on the north side jutted over this area several feet—Received.

A request from Mr. Slater, of Thames street, to lay a grandiose walk in front of his property, was referred to the Board of Works with power.

Janitor A. M. Searlet wrote thanking the Council for their kind resolution of regret and sympathy on the occasion of the passing away of his wife.

City Solicitor D. L. Lewis wrote stating that he had notified the C. P. R. with regard to the complaint which the city would place before the Railway Commission on the occasion of their meeting here. The request will be for gates at the Centre and Wellington street crossings, and alarms and watchmen at all the other city crossings. Moved by Ald. Austin, that the City Solicitor be empowered to take up this work before the Commission and to assist the C. W. & L. E. in their representations before the Commission with regard to the Robertson-Inches injunction.—Carried.

A by-law to consolidate certain local improvement by-laws was given its various readings and passed. Another by-law amending the present transient trader by-law was given its various readings and passed.

Ald. Austin, chairman of the Finance committee, reported that one block of 10,000 shares of the city debentures had been disposed of at 95, another block of 20,000 at 94, and it was hoped that a third block of 50,000 would be disposed of at 94. This was the best possible arrangement which could be made. The Council endorsed his action.

THE CANADIAN PIN CO. TO BUILD IN CHATHAM

Company Has a Paidup Capital of $40,000, Manufactures Stamped Goods, Employs 60 Hands and Asks for $20,000 Loan at 5 Per Cent, 7 Water Cent, and the Usual Tax Exemptions

The Canadian Pin Company, manufacturers of safety-pins, buckles, stamped ware, etc., and whose capital is being supplied by Toronto and Detroit men, will be the next live industry landed in Chatham. All now practically depends on how the electors view the matter. Chairman W. H. Westman, of the Industrial Committee of the City Council, reported at the meeting last night that the capitalists of this firm had been interviewed by the Industrial Committee of the Council and the Board of Trade, and the result of this conference was an agreement between the city and the Canadian Pin Company, which he presented for signature. Among the capitalists at the head of this concern are Geo. F. Morton, of Toronto, and a Mr. Miller, of Detroit. The company has been incorporated under the laws of Ontario, and they will employ sixty hands—mostly females—and pay out wages amounting to $16,000 annually. Besides those employed in the factory, they will give work to a great number of outsiders, such as the sewing of the buttons on cards, etc. This work will be given out to families.

What the company ask for is exemption of all taxes with the exception of school and frontage taxes for a period of ten years, water at the rate of 7 cents per M. for ten years, and they ask for a loan of $20,000, to be paid back to the city in 30 annual payments with interest at 5 per cent. They offer a first mortgage. Ald. Westman remarked that the city is well protected in this agreement, and it is one of the best industrial propositions offered the city in some time. The company's staff of employees would number sixty outside their officers, and those whom they employed outside their factory. The company are anxious that the matter should be got under way at once, so that it may be voted on by the people at the January elections, as they want to get their plans drawn up and get started at building operations as soon as possible. Ald. Westman moved, seconded by Ald. Austin, that the Council endorse this proposition.—Carried unanimously.

REQUEST WAS REFUSED. J. R. Miller, of Miller's carriage works, appeared before the Council and asked to be given permission to build a wood and metal building 30 feet by 104 feet on the east side of William street. The building is to be used for storage purposes, for which, Miller says, brick is not suitable. He stated that he owned nearly all of the surrounding property with the exception of that owned by the Chatham Carriage Company, which firm were quite agreeable to his building a frame and metal structure.

Ald. Austin—The request is a reasonable one, but the question is, can the City Council pass a resolution this kind? I believe our by-law prohibits it.

City Clerk Merritt—We cannot over-ride our by-law.

Ald. Potter believed that the Council would have no power to grant such a request unless they rescinded the by-law.

Fire Chief Pritchard, who was present and was called upon for his views, openly opposed such a step. As Fire Chief, he felt it was his duty to do so. The Council had no right to instruct him to issue a permit for such a building. He had ascertained this through advice given to him by the City Solicitor. If the Council were to rescind the by-law, it would mean that there would be dozens of this kind of requests brought before them, and he could not conscientiously endorse any such action. The fire underwriters would be among the first to complain if such a request were granted.

Ald. Bullis stated that he was opposed to rescinding the by-law, and he backed up the Fire Chief in the stand which he took.

A COSTLY DYNAMO. An account for $344.51, for repairing the old dynamo at the civic electric light station, presented by Messrs. Keough & Trotter, provoked considerable discussion. Ald. Potter said he had no idea that this account would be so large. When he had spoken to Superintendent Jones about the damaged dynamo that gentleman had told him that it would cost about $250 to put it in proper working order. Ald. Austin inquired if it was not a job on which the Council could have asked for tenders. City Engineer Jones said that only one tender could be received in the city.

Ald. Austin was of the opinion that in all work where the city is spending a considerable amount of money, tenders should be asked.

Mayor Stone—This is the same old dynamo that we have paid to have repaired two or three times before this year. I think it would be wise at this rate, for the city to purchase a new dynamo instead of spending an immense amount of money each year to repair this old machine which never seems to give satisfaction. It seems to me that we are always tinkering and fixing at something up in that station. It is outlandish that the city should be paying out sums to repair these machines all the time. I was told that one of these machines was only in the station a week when it went up the spout and had to be repaired. Already this year we have paid out half the cost of a new dynamo in repairing this old trap.

A ROMANCE IN IRELAND

The attraction at the Briscoe theatre to-morrow night is the popular young comedian Allen Doone in his new and successful comedy-drama, "A Romance in Ireland." This attraction is described as a strong scenic production in four acts and eight stage settings, and will be presented by a perfectly balanced company of supporting players.

HELD EXAMINATION

Yesterday, in the case of Dennis Lamb vs. the Township of Dover, the plaintiff and also Hiram McLarty were examined for recovery of $600, claimed as a balance on the contract for the construction of the Buller drain in Howard.

J. M. Pike acted for the plaintiff, and A. H. Clark, K. C., for the defendant.

There is a sure reward for faithful silence.

LAUDABLE DONATIONS

Money Gifts Received by Fire Dept. Will Almost Pay Insurance

Firemen Will Endeavor to Pay the Balance Off Themselves

The following letter speaks for itself—

R. Pritchard, Chief Fire Department, City.

Dear Sir,—We take pleasure in enclosing ten dollars ($10.00) for the Department as a slight token of our appreciation of the efficient manner in which you and your men handled the fire at Wonderland and our waterworks.

Yours sincerely,

O. AUSTIN & CO.

The Department also wish to thank W. M. Drader for a donation of thirty dollars ($30.00). This money, along with sums previously donated during the year, has been placed to the credit of the Chatham firemen's insurance fund. The total sum so far received totals up to eighty dollars, and the firemen feel deeply grateful to their donors. The firemen do not intend to put on a benefit concert this year to raise the money to pay off insurance premiums, the total amount of which is $128, the balance of which the firemen are endeavouring to pay off among themselves.

ANOTHER ALDERMAN

"Why, certainly I am," was the emphatic answer in which ex-Ald. George Gordon Martin put his reply to the query this morning regarding the rumor that he will be a candidate for the Aldermanic Board of 1908.

"My old friend, John Edmondson, and I are coming out together, and we'll make things hot, too," Mr. Martin was feeling quite happy this morning. He had just received a box of beather from Avila, Spain. It was sent to him by his cousin, Angus McEdward, of Inverurie, Scotland.

MEN AS DOMESTICS.

For some time, those who do the heavy stunts in the brain-twisting lies have been calling into play every atom of their massive and ingenious intellects in a determined but puzzling effort to solve the servant girl problem. So far, even in the most favored districts, the servant girl is still a comparatively unknown luxury, and the ambitious housewife continues to perform her daily duties, unaided.

The general opinion of the cause for this lamentable absence of feminine help, is that present day women find more remuneration and advancement in commercial pursuits, and as the field is practically open to them, those with the ability are not slow in taking advantage of it. As the result, the business woman has evidently come to stay.

The servant girl problem which has thus been created, is generally looked upon as a hopeless one. Not so, however, in Brooklyn. In that city, it is claimed, the engaging of kitchen help is becoming one of the housewife's least important sources of worry. There, the men are taking to housework as a profession, and the reason, it is stated, is because this is the only line in which they find no female competition. These knights of the dishpan claim that they have tried to get positions in stores, but have found that there were too many women ahead of them. The innovation is said to be a highly satisfactory one all round. The men consider themselves fortunate in securing a means of livelihood, and their employers say that they give better satisfaction than any feminine domestic on record.

Just how far this man-servant movement will spread yet remains to be seen. It is undoubtedly a success in Brooklyn, and the domestic conditions there are not much worse than those in many other cities.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If the practice of engaging men as kitchen servants continues to spread, it will soon become necessary for Police Commissioners to appoint women as Police Officers.

Dr. Louise G. Rabinovitch, of New

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.

At the Brisco Opera House—
Allen Doone, A Romance in Ireland—Oct. 23.

Lycium Course, The Dunbars—Oct. 24.

Shadow Behind the Throne—Oct. 25.

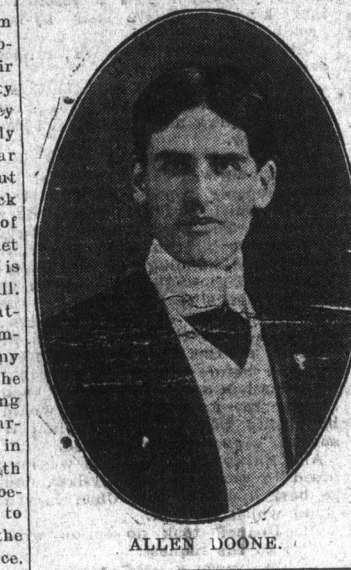

The Passion Play—Oct. 28.

Way Down East—Oct. 29.

Uncle Tom's Cabin, matinee and night—Oct. 31.

The Ginger Bread Man—Nov. 4.

An unusually pretentious offering at the Brisco Opera House will be the new scenic comedy-drama, "A Romance in Ireland," with the favorite singing comedian Allen Doone as its bright particular star, which will be presented to-morrow night under the direction of George W. Kenney. Mr. Doone, who has for two seasons past starred in the Joseph Murphy plays, will now be seen in a part which is said to fit him like the proverbial glove, in a play which is constructed on distinctly new and original lines, with situations of remarkable dramatic intensity and a story of absorbing interest. "A Romance in Ireland" is divided into four acts and eight stage settings. Its atmosphere is that of the seventeenth century, and its characters are costumed in the quaint garb of that romantic time. A pretty love-interest runs through the story, which also abounds with Irish wit and plenty of good, wholesome comedy. Mr. Doone will be heard in a number of new musical specialties, which he has composed especially for this production, and in which his sweet tenor voice will be displayed to excellent advantage. An interesting feature will be the old Irish Folk-Songs and Dances, performed to the inspiring music of the "piper."

"THE PLAY OF CURTAIN CALLS."

The next melo-dramatic attraction at the Brisco Opera House on Friday, Oct. 25, bears two titles, first, "The Shadow Behind the Throne," provided by its authors, and second, "The Play of Curtain Calls," bestowed upon it in Greater New York in recognition of the unusual number of compliments it received in the form popularly indicated. The public seems also to appreciate and liberally reward the nowadays rare compliment paid it in being permitted to enjoy a play that appeals to its intelligence, good taste and appreciation of dramatic possibilities and probabilities, by giving it at once a patriotic, romantic and heroic story laid among strange oriental surroundings, an original and powerful plot, in which almost every human passion plays a conspicuous part, and an abiding lesson of patriotism and heroic devotion to love, duty and country. Vigorous speech, virile action, genuine comedy, beauty, grace, gorgeous costumes, glorious scenes and electrifying climaxes complete the picture.

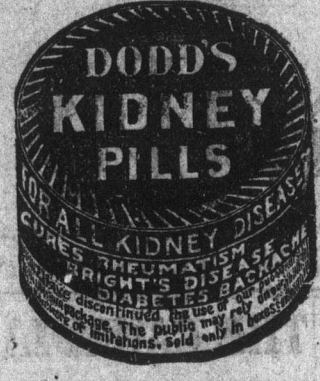

Wm. A. Brady's excellent production of Lottie Blair Parker's delightful play, "Way Down East," which comes to the Brisco Opera House on Tuesday next, is one of the few rural dramas that has the true and indelible stamp of popularity. It attracts the theatre-goer and wins the theatre hundreds upon hundreds of those who are really seldom seen within a place of theatrical amusement. The main theme of "Way Down East" is the oft told tale of a trusting woman, who, being deceived by a mock marriage, endeavors to rely upon her own ability for support and when all her trials seem to drag her down, she is saved by the manliness of a true friend. The story is unfounded in the picturesque surroundings of a New England village, and brings in all the quaint and lovable characters, which give such delightful color to the play. The comedy is of the bright and clean kind that refreshes as well as amuses. The realistic effects, notably the marvellous blizzards, are exceedingly ingenious and effective. The company and production are the same as was seen here last season.

The man who has an end in view naturally has his finish.

Strength of mind rests in sobriety, for this keeps the reason unclouded by passion.

A ripe old age is all right, but the trouble with old age is that it is so often green.

JUROR ATE GUM DROPS.

Candy Made Him Ill and Divorce Case Was Stopped.

New York, Oct. 21.—A juror's fondness for eating candy, which made him ill, brought the Burnett divorce trial to an abrupt adjournment Saturday. The juror was Jacob Regensberg, of 2,300 Seventh avenue.

He complained at the morning session of indigestion, and at the lunch hour indiscreetly ate a lot of gum drops.

When court convened after the noon recess, Regensberg was seized with a chill, and Justice Giegericht adjourned the hearing till this morning.

Arthur Humphreys, broker, who is named as the co-respondent, was the interesting witness Saturday. He testified that he met Mrs. Belle Burnett at the Waldorf-Astoria, being introduced by a stock broker partner. At the request of Mrs. Burnett's mother, he visited the family home, 150 West Eighty-second street. He explained that they called each other by affectionate names and that the elder Mrs. Burnett called him "Dearie," "My child," "Arthur dear" and "Darling."

There was a roar of laughter, and the dignified Mrs. Burnett, who is reputed to be worth more than $1,000,000, smiled broadly.

I consider it a medicine every woman should use regularly if she wants to feel her best." Rebuild with Ferrozone. It is the King of all cures. Price 50c. per box at all dealers.

WILL ESCAPE DEATH PENALTY.

Execution of Golds for Trunk Murder Would Injure Casino.

Monte Carlo, Oct. 21.—The trial of the Golds, husband and wife, for the murder of Mrs. Levin, a Swedish acquaintance, will begin ten days hence. It is well understood here, however, that neither of them will suffer the death penalty.

"An execution could not take place here," said a high official at the Casino, to a correspondent. "Such a thing is not to be thought of. It would seriously affect the Riviera season, and they would not tolerate such an unpleasant thing at Nice for the same reason. If course the demands of justice should always be satisfied—provided they do not damage the Riviera as a resort for pleasure-seekers. Our undeviating aim here is to associate Monte Carlo with everything gay, brilliant and fascinating in life, and it would be most incongruous to have a man come here for execution, if we opened the season by executing a guillotine."

"The Gold affair has been grotesquely magnified. It is an ordinary, sordid murder, such as occurs everywhere. We intend to get the trial over quickly, and the culprit will get a few years' imprisonment at Nice, and have no prison at Monaco. We shall arrange to pay a lump sum for their keep; so, probably, they will be at large in five years if they survive."

The police here say that Madame Gold's eyes have the extraordinary property of gleaming in the dark, like those of a cat. She is declared to be a mysteriously repellant creature, an alcohol-soaked weakling.

ESSEX "KANGAROOS."

The "practical joker" has perpetrated what is called a "very amusing" joke at Burnham, Essex. Strangely enough the "humorist" was assisted by a clergyman connected with the "Home of Rest" there, which provides poor boys with holidays.

While seventy of the boys were being entertained the clergyman, in a moment of exaggeration, said that Mr. D— had a special treat in store for them.

"Boys," said he, "Mr. D— has kindly promised to give you to-morrow an hour with his five young kangaroos."

Entering into the spirit of the thing Mr. D— said nothing, but (says The Evening Standard, which tells the story) when the boys came the next day he had to explain that the kangaroos (of which he had none) had escaped!

The next day the following poster was circulated widely:

LOST.
On Friday, Aug. 16, five young kangaroos, escaped from the Home of Rest. The finder will be rewarded on restoring same alive to the owner. £1 reward will be paid for each animal returned.

Home of Rest, Belvedere road, Burnham.

The result was that the "lost kangaroos" became the talk of the district. People wrote from all parts declaring they had seen one of the animals.

On the fifth day after the appearance of the poster the following letter came into Mr. D—'s hands:

"Sir, I am happy to acquaint you that I have found one of your kangaroos. It is a 'savage' but I do with it—Your obedient servant, A. B."

Mr. D— wrote in reply, expressing his regret for the finger episode, and saying that he hoped soon to call to identify the beast.

To this letter he received the following reply:

"Sir, I hasten to inform you that your kangaroo died this evening. I was 'savage' but I do with it—Your obedient servant, A. B."

Treasure in a Pond.

Bowley Pond, on the estate of Lord Montague of Beaulieu, in Hampshire, is being emptied and netted—an event interesting not only to anglers but to historians and antiquaries.

The pond, which is some 130 acres in extent, is the largest lake in Hampshire, and although only a mile from the sea its water is fresh, being fed by springs from the New Forest.

It was made about six centuries ago by the Cistercian monks of the Abbey of Beaulieu, and for a long time has been abundantly stocked with fish—tench, bream, pike, carp, perch, etc.

Lord Montague for years has wished to get rid of these coarse fish and to stock the preserve with trout instead. To do this it is necessary, of course, to drain the pond, so as to make it certain that none of the predatory fish remained. This is now being done. For about a week a gang of men have been cutting a trench from the pond to the sea to make an outlet for the water.

The work is not so difficult as it is entailed, however, the making of a tunnel beneath the road alongside the lake. Lord Montague also wished to preserve as many of the fish as possible—some for adding to the stock of other angling resorts, and others as presents to friends and for the men engaged on the draining. Consequently, he had a small pool cut in a corner of the pond in which the fish, when netted, might be put. When the work of draining commenced Lord and Lady Montague and many friends came on the scene, and huge hauls of fish were taken.

There is a tradition of a time of trouble cast into the lake a solid gold and nearly life-size figure of the Virgin. Whether this will be found or not, it is quite expected that valuable articles will be brought to light, as the foray in close to the scene of the bed of the pond is dry and will be covered with lime, so as to kill any oyster that may be lurking in the mud and weeds.

It will then be thoroughly cleaned. That done, and the springs having once again restored Bowley Pond to its accustomed appearance, its waters will be stocked with trout from the famous hatcheries of Hertfordshire.

Offering Buttons.
Prebendary Carille, founder of the Church Army, is the first clergyman to publicly welcome trousseau buttons in the offertory bag, although every week these number quite fifty.

The explanation is quite interesting—Mr. Carille is appealing to a class which is too poor to put even a copper in the offertory. "How can we go to church," some of them asked, "when we have nothing except what we stand up in?"

The head of the Church Army replied by sending some of his officers round on Sunday with a number of buttons, for those who declared that the dread of the offertory plate kept them away from church.

The idea has borne splendid fruit. Sunday after Sunday they receive their buttons and drop them into the bag. No one but the chief and some of the workers know who they are.

The buttons are afterwards "redeemed" by an anonymous friend of the Church Army, who hands to Mr. Carille's offertory a certain sum for every button collected.

Porgies.
"Did you ever hear about the fish that was cut in two ever since?" asked the hopeless etymologist, as he passed Fulton-market one morning and saw the fishmonger pouring a barrelful of porgies into a tank of sea.

"Those fish used to be called 'scup' pauges by the Indians, and the natural tendency to shorten things cut the word in two, and now the Jerseyman and the Rhode Islander call them 'scup,' while the New Yorkers and Connecticut folks call them 'pauges,' or porgies."

THE LIBERATED ROPE.

Take a stout rope about twenty feet long and hand it to your audience for inspection. After they have examined it let one of them bind your wrists together with a handkerchief.

This being done, have one end of the rope passed under the handkerchief and let the cords then be held up by one of the company. Now request the person holding the ends to pull one way, while you pull the other, to show that the handkerchief is tightly tied.

There is apparently no way of getting the rope off except when the ends are released or the handkerchief untied. Yet soon after making one or two rapid movements of your hands and arms you throw the rope off and exhibit your wrists still tied.

Wonderful as this all seems, it is very simple and requires but little practice, as shown clearly by the accompanying illustration. The part of the rope marked A is rolled through the handkerchief and forms a loop, through which you pass one hand, and then by giving the rope a smart jerk it comes off easily.

ROCKED THE EARTH.

One would hardly think that the solid earth could be set all a-tremble by a party of boys and girls running up and down a hill, and yet that is the true position of the Greenwich Observatory.

The scientists at work in the observatory find it impossible on several occasions at long intervals apart to make certain experiments in which it was necessary to use a tray of mercury on account of the persistent trembling of the mercury, which kept up till after midnight. They could not account for this at first, but at last they noticed that it always occurred on the days when a crowd of people assembled in the public playgrounds of Greenwich park.

A favorite sport of the young people is to climb to the top of the hill on which the observatory stands, even to the fence surrounding the buildings, and then, joining hands by twos and threes, to run as fast as they can to the bottom of the hill, where they bring up "all in a heap."

This makes a tremor run all through the hill, as the tray of mercury shows, and it lasts for hours.

Oil Birds.
One queer bird of South America is the oil bird, or guacharo. It breeds in rocky caves on the mainland, and one of its favorite haunts is the island of Trinidad. It lays its eggs in a nest made of mud, and the young birds are prodigiously fat. The natives melt the fat down in clay pots and produce from it a kind of butter. The caves inhabited by the birds are usually accessible only from the sea, and the hunting of them is sometimes an exciting sport.

Conundrums.
When is your mother's dress like a chair? When it is sat in.
Who sits before the queen without removing his hat? Her coachman.
Why is a dog biting his own tail like a good financier? Because he makes both ends meet.

One Day's Journey.
In a bathtub boat I set out to sea. (Oh, it was very warm!)
I sailed away to Arctic shores through many an icy storm.
I was cold when I struck the frigid zone (A zone, you know, is a belt)
And this was mother's silver one (Though nurse thought she would melt).

I anchored my boat to an iceberg tall (A bolt jer, if you must know, spread over with grandma's worsted shawl).
And its base was white with snow. I built a house of blocks of ice. Just like an Eskimo.
(Twas really the baby's capotied crib, and I lived there a month or so).

I captured a seal (my furry dog) and a wonderful polar bear (It was really the baby's china cat, with the coldest kind of hair).
I really discovered the great north pole. Now, what do you think of that?
(Twas father's fish pole; I borrowed it, and on it I hung my hat).

Grown folks are stupid, I truly think. I was cool as cool as play. But they said, "How heated Bobby looks!" And then they took away my teething cold and the great north pole. And the glittering frigid zone. And brought me back to the dreary heat.

I wish they had let me alone. —Washington Star.

Postoffice Robbed.
Brussels, Oct. 21.—Some time between 2 and 3 o'clock Sunday morning the postoffice was entered by burglars, access being gained by the back window. The safe was blown open and all the contents, consisting of stamps and cash to the value of over $300, were taken.

Woman Burned to Death.
Montreal, Oct. 21.—A Mrs. Stephens, living at 519 St. Ursula street, was burned to death at her home Saturday night. The woman was alone in the house at the time, her husband being out, and it is supposed the fire was caused by a lighted candle.

PASSED OVER CHATHAM

One of the balloons which ascended in St. Louis, in the great balloon race, passed over Chatham this afternoon at three o'clock. It was making good progress and seemed to be standing the test well. It was noticed by many Chathamites.

The balloon left St. Louis yesterday. It was travelling due north and going at an enormous speed. Twenty minutes after it was first seen, it had disappeared in the distance.

It travelled high in the air and it was impossible to make out anything but an apparent speck in the sky, probably as big as an apple.

CALVIN TEA MEETING

The anniversary services of the Calvin church, Chatham Township, were held on Sunday last and the annual tea meeting was held on the following Monday. Both of these events were most successful in every respect. Rev. Mr. Melness, of Thamesville, preached at the services on Sunday.

On Monday evening fully 500 people sat down to a fine spread as was ever offered at a gathering of this sort. After the supper, a fine program was given. Those who appeared on the program were D. A. Gordon, M. E. Geo. W. Sulman, Rev. Mr. Bristol, Clinton Boulton, Mr. Von Ayer, Rolly Dulong and others.

This proceeds amounted to about $98. The pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. McEachran, presided during the evening. The imperial orchestra, of Wallaceburg, was present and assisted in the program. Mr. Sulman gave an address which was greatly appreciated. His subject was The Colosseum of Rome. He based his remarks on the sights he saw during a recent trip to Rome.

HIGH FEED PRICES

Blenheim, Oct. 19.—The high prices of grain and feed of all kinds is becoming alarming. Many farmers figure that feed at present prices is more profitable to sell than to feed to hogs and cattle and stock is getting cheap.

Some growers are abandoning the growing of hogs or greatly decreasing their herds, while others, confident that the high prices of feed will boost the prices for pork away in before spring, have decided to feed as economically as possible and fatten the porkers.

BETTER THAN MEDICINE

Nature has a remedy for catarrh, a treatment that is far better than dosing the stomach with medicine. It is the healing oils and balsams of Hyomei which mediate the air you breathe, reaching the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, and restoring health to the mucous membrane.

In using Hyomei you are treating your catarrhal troubles with the only natural remedy, for it gives a curative air bath to the air passages that has as powerful healing and antiseptic effect as that found in the mountains where the pine forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams.

Breathe the invigorating and healing Hyomei, and see how quickly you will get relief from your catarrhal troubles. C. H. Gunn & Co. have seen so many cures, even of the worst cases of catarrh, with offensive breath, raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, droppings in the throat and spasmodic coughing, that they feel warranted in selling Hyomei under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. They take all the risk.

A GOOD PROGRAM

The annual tea-meeting, following the anniversary services of the William Street Baptist Church, was held last night. A large crowd attended and a very enjoyable time was spent. Supper was served by the choir and a program was provided by the choir and several speakers.

The chairman of the event was S. B. Arnold, and it is needless to say the position was ably filled. An instrumental by Frank Phelps opened the program, after which a very interesting address was delivered by Judge Houston. Mr. Houston spoke of the first anniversary of the church, and of the success it has met with since then. At intervals hard times were experienced, but on account of the untiring efforts of the members of the congregation, prosperous circumstances have been attained. His address was very interesting.

Solos were sung by Miss Minnie Tyhurst and J. D. McAlpine; a selection by the male quartet was given and received much applause; an anthem by the choir, entitled "O Day of Peace," in which the solo was taken by Mrs. Oldershaw, was ably rendered. (Speeches were delivered by Rev. Mr. Matthews and Mr. Moore. Both speakers made complimentary remarks regarding the work of the congregation and choir. The evening on the whole was very enjoyable.

A DREAM

I had a dream the other night and I saw in my dream two little chubby fellows very poorly clad in rags, and cold wet feet, crying on the street. Now if many of these little ones die and go to heaven this winter, maybe those immigration agents will be calling on those little fellows for a drop of cold water to cool their parched tongues. I for my part have resolved to raise the shoes of such as these little ones for half price, if I have to go with half a loaf instead of one, and as doctors do, I will charge those that are able to pay more for what they have done. The line of demarcation between conservative and commonplace is as strongly drawn as the line between right and wrong.

There are quiet tastes that take no cognizance of the extemperate things and those tastes may be of the younger man, or the older.

It is a mistake, and one that we, at least, have never made, to suppose for a moment that an indication of a desire for a subdued tone, or a moderate cut, is also an indication of indifference to fashion. It has never been so regarded here.

With such unequalled facilities as belong to us, the production of a range of models that covers every possible variation of ideas and tastes is not difficult. There is a style and distinction plainly marked in every 2 T's garment, be it conservative or extreme.

"THE CALL OF THE WILD."

There is not another place on the continent of America to compare with the "Highlands of Ontario" for deer and moose hunting. This part of Canada still forms a portion of that small remnant of the world's pristine wilderness—not yet the abode of man and his mighty civilization. Northern Ontario with its rich resources is regarded as the richest deer and moose country in the world.

Moose season in the Moose country opens October 18th for 31 days. Dear season in the Deer country opens November 1st for 15 days.

Those sections of Ontario are the places to hunt, and valuable information as to how and when to get there and all particulars can be had free by addressing J. D. McDonald, D. P. A., Grand Trunk Railway System, Union Station, Toronto, or W. E. Rispen, C. P. & T. A., or J. C. Pritchard, S. A., Chatham.

Beadle Was Firm.

In a small Clydesdale village they possess a vigorous and strong-minded "beadle," who guards with jealous eye the sacred edifice and performs the duties of his office with a robustness and style peculiarly his own. Recently a "gentleman of the cloth" had an encounter with this autocrat. He was filling up a gap occasioned by the absence of the incumbent, and, as was his custom, dispensed with the gown. Noticing that the usual ministerial habiliments had been discarded, the worthy beadle asked for an explanation. It was soon forthcoming, and was to the effect that ministers of the particular denomination to which the officiating parson belonged did not wear the gown. But the explanation was not sufficiently convincing, and turning upon the clergyman with flashing eye, the beadle exclaimed, "Custom or no custom, no wan step will ye pit on the poopit stair until ye pit on the gown." Persuasion and argument were unavailing, as, with his back to the vestry door, the beadle proved adamant. Finally, the "gentleman of the cloth" capitulated, and the service was proceeded with in the orthodox way.

Lord Young's Wit.

Looking across the table of a public dinner at the overbearing and fishy eyes of his neighbor opposite, Lord Young, who was a famous lawyer, inquired who the owner of the vinous countenance might be and was told he was the president of a water trust. "Aye," said Lord Young. "Well, he looks like a man that could be trusted with any amount of water."

Some one told Lord Young that the house of lords had on appeal affirmed a decision of his. "It may be right, after all," was his lordship's reply.

The Right Idea.

"How do you define the phrase 'as black as your hat'?" a father asked his son as the latter had just used the expression.

"Well," replied the youth, "I should define it as darkness that might be felt."—Cassell's Journal.

The Clock and the Watch.

"What pleased me most," said the man who had been abroad, "was the wonderful clock at Strassburg."

"Oh, how I should like to see it!" replied the ignorant youth. "And did you see the watch on the Rhine too?"

At the Foot End.

"Alas, I am at my wit's end," exclaimed the monarch as he was unexpectedly kicked by the court jester.—Bohemian.

FOUGHT FOR DEAR LIFE

MATE OF STEAM TRAWLER IN TERRIBLE POSITION.

Imprisoned In Cabin of Sinking Ship—Water Kept Door Tightly Closed—Companions Made Ineffectual Effort to Rescue Him—Ebbing Tide Brought Release When All Hope Had Fled.

Harry Willey, the mate of the ill-fated Hull steam trawler Quail, sunk in the Humber after being run into by the Wilson Line's Dynno, has sufficiently recovered from the effects of his exciting fight for life in the cabin of the sunken ship to be discharged from the Hull Royal Infirmary. He said:

"I had turned in about three-quarters of an hour, when I was awakened by a violent commotion, which made the vessel tremble from end to end. Before I had scarcely time to realize what was happening, I saw water rushing into the cabin from all sides.

"My comrades had fled, and I tumbled out of my berth, and made for the cabin door as quickly as my legs would carry me. The weight of the water, however, kept it closed. I pulled at it desperately, but I could not move it, and in a very few moments the water had reached my waist, and I got on the cabin table to see if there was any possibility of escaping from my prison by way of the skylight.

"The water still continued to come in from the sides of the ship, and to save myself from drowning I had to keep standing on the cabin table, but even there I was compelled to stand as erect as possible on my toes. So as to keep the water from getting into my mouth my head was in the skylight top, where I had only a chance of a mouthful of air.

"Perhaps, of my mates, thinking, perhaps, some of us remained inside, tried to break through the iron bars of the skylight, and though I could not signal to them through the thick glass, I could feel the vibration of every blow they struck. Then their hammering ceased. They had given up, and either left the ship to save themselves, or came to the conclusion that, with the cabin full of water, those that remained were already drowned.

"It was a horrible moment when their hammering ceased and I was left there alone. I had nearly given up altogether, and once I slipped from my foothold, but was fortunately borne again to the surface, where I caught hold of the projecting ledge of the frame-work. I held on to it for some time like a grim death, wondering and watching for what was to happen next. I thought I should never see land again. My heart sank within me, and I was beginning to despair when I noticed the water began to ebb. We had apparently run in shallow water. Down and down it went, and with every inch my hopes grew stronger. I was chilled to the bone, but I held on, and presently was able to again reach the cabin door.

"By degrees I pulled it inward—one inch—then two—and then three—until it came open wide, and the water rushing out carried me with it in safety to the upper deck.

"The force of the water was so great that my feet never once touched the steps of the companion-way. The vessel was deserted, but I could see the Wilson Liner near by, and presently they saw me and sent a boat to fetch me, and with my comrades, who had given me up for lost, I was taken back to Hull."

More than an hour elapsed during Willey's exciting adventure.

The cabin is, as usual, with all steam trawlers, in the middle of the ship, with the bunks placed on either side, and it is light from above with an iron skylight. Which proved Willey's salvation. The Dynno crashed into the Quail's cabin on the starboard side, and caused a great inrush of water, which eventually closed the door, and held Willey a prisoner.

PROPOSED CANADIAN OFFICES.

Splendid Pile of Buildings to Be Erected in London.

The arrangements for the construction of the new offices of the Canadian Government, which are to be erected on the site between Aldwych and the Strand, London, have made good progress. A notice-board already appears above the hearing that announces the site on the Strand side.

PROPOSED CANADIAN OFFICES.

The design for the buildings has been so prepared that the scheme harmonizes with the architecture of the Church of St. Mary-le-Strand, which stands on an island site, the frontage to the new building, as well as with the surrounding edifices—Somerset House, the Gaiety Theatre, and the Waldorf Hotel.

The Strand frontage of the building will be 416 feet, and the sides of the Aldwych crescent will each be 176 feet. The eastern end of the Aldwych site will be taken by the Australian Commonwealth Government for their new head offices in London, and thus a magnificent sweep of buildings, extending from St. Clement Danes Church almost to Wellington Street, will be occupied entirely by Colonial Governments. This fact has led to the half-jocular suggestion that this part of the Strand should be renamed "Colonial Crescent."

JARNDYCE AND JARNDYCE.

Canadian Counterpart of Dickens' Famous Story.

Two consent judgments just signed in the Court of Review have put an end to the celebrated will cases of Hill and Hill. In 1887 the late Mrs. Margaret Ewing Galt made her will, leaving about $150,000 in property to her six grandchildren. In 1902 she died, leaving her son-in-law as executor to make the division. Efforts have been made ever since by the heirs to obtain their legacies. Judgment for the partition of the main portion was obtained in 1906, but serious questions affecting several of the heirs were still unsettled at the death of the executor in 1908. Since then the case has gone through several courts, and judgments have been reversed a number of times. The law fees for this half-century of litigation are said to be very large.

New Brigadier-Generals.

A Militia Gazette has been recently issued announcing a number of promotions in the Canadian staff. Col. Vidal, Inspector-General of Militia, becomes Brigadier-General from the first of October. Col. Drury, officer commanding the Maritime Provinces, has also been promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General from the same date. Col. D. A. MacDonald, Quartermaster-General, will be gazetted Brigadier-General from the first of April next. Col. W. H. Cotton, Master-General of Ordnance, also becomes a Brigadier-General from the same date. Militia orders contain the following: 3rd Regiment, Since February 1, 1947, Col. MacDonald is to be lieutenant-colonel and to command the regiment, Major G. W. Bruce, vice Lieut.-Col. J. B. McPhee, transferred to the reserve of officers at his own request; and Dragoons, to be provisional lieutenant (superannuated), Albert Edward Hall.

Used Canadian Machine.

A remarkable record in harvesting has just been performed at Kirtou, Lincolnshire, where wheat was cut, gathered, threshed, and ground and made into bread ready for eating in four hours. An acre of ground was also ploughed, cultivated, drilled, harrowed, and sown with a new crop within seven and a-half hours. This constitutes a world's record. All was done by motor-driven machinery. The harvesting machine came from Canada.

Dragged to Death.

Uxbridge, Oct. 21.—John A. Johnson, who lived on the third concession of Scott, about five miles from here, met with a very peculiar accident on Saturday that caused his death a few hours later. It appears Mr. Johnson was watering the horses at the pump and in some manner got his leg caught in the bucket. The horse becoming frightened, ran away, dragging him for about fifty rods. When found the clothing was all torn from his body, and he was terribly mangled.

POSTAL SERVICE PAYS

Revenue of Over $3,500,000 in Undelivered Letters—Many Contained Cash and Bank Notes—Careless Senders Omit to Put Address—Picture Postcard Craze—Some Savings Bank Statistics.

The Postmaster-General's return of net profit for the year, which runs as high as $2,000,000, also contains a record of $4,000,000 revenue from careless correspondents.

The latter represents mistakes in despatching letters, postcards, half-penny packets, and newspapers undelivered, or insufficiently addressed, or loosely fastened, the letters often containing valuable checks, show no tendency to diminish. In 1900 the number was 21,323,425; last year, 29,708,394, the latter being an increase over 1905-6 of 9.84 per cent. The losses included in this total were 911,120,685. Of these, 980,950 went to the Dead Letter Office. The "undeliverable letters" contained:

$85,000 in cash and bank notes.
In addition, packets posted without any address and articles found loose in the post contained:

$5,500 in cash and bank notes.
These combined losses amount to $4,000,000.

The profit on purely postal business during the year ended March 31, was $28,000,000, but the net deficit on the year's working of the telegraphs, $3,155,000, brought down the department's surplus to $24,845,000. In most branches the annual report just issued shows increased business. Letters are amounting towards 3,000,000,000; parcels have passed 100,000,000; the postal packets which cannot be delivered owing to carelessness or absent-mindedness of the senders are also growing in volume; telegrams, not merely in number, but to the content, and telephone messages are on the increase; the increase of Marconiograms was considerable, the transatlantic telegrams, postal orders, and the Savings Bank are much more numerous, and the staff has had to be enlarged by 2,130.

But changes are at work. The picture-postcard "craze" which reached its climax two years ago, continues to exhibit a set-back; and postal orders, growing strongly in public favor, are gradually ousting money orders. The express delivery of letters declined, most noticeably in London; and the Postmaster-General thinks this is due to preference for telephone and the repression of betting agents by the police.

A fall of 737,000 in the number of press telegrams, equal in money loss to $40,000, has so heavily reduced the increase in all other telegraphic sections that the net increase is represented only by 15,000 in number, and in value $220,000.

Ten years back the average number of postcards to each person was only nine; now it is more than double. The growth of letters has been more gradual. Ten years ago the deliveries represented as many as fifty to each person. London takes more than one-fourth of all the letters for England and Wales—767,000,000 out of 2,397,700,000.

Number of depositors . . . 10,332,794
Net increase in number . . . 389,735
Amount to their credit . . . $780,000
Average amount to each . . . 75

INDIA'S AMAZING FIGURES.

Where Handful of Britishers Rule Millions.

An insight into the amazing complexity of life and conditions in India is provided in the Statistical Abstract relating to British India, the 41st annual number of which has just been issued as a bluebook. Perhaps the most astonishing fact to be gathered from the bluebook is that a British-born population of under 100,000 maintains a peaceful control over more than a million square miles of British territory and rules over 230,000,000 of the native population. The native states and agencies cover an area of another 675,000 square miles and contain just over 55,000,000 persons. No fewer than 185 different languages are spoken, while the chief causes enumerated number 84. The Hindoo religion is enormously predominant, having over 207,000,000 followers, the Mahometan religion coming next with 62,400,000. Plague and wild animals are the two deadliest foes of the native Indian. In the last ten years as many as 4,690,000 persons have died of plague, while 251,000 have been killed by wild animals and snakes in British India alone.

Great Men on Night Work.

Professor Goldwin Smith, Canada's grand old man, who celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday recently, "set out a sickly child with a bad lease of life," to quote his own words. "I was sent," he continues, "when I was rather more than eight years old to a private school chosen for me on account of the healthiness of the situation. Our work was light. I probably owed something to plain living and bodily exercise, as well as to immunity from overwork. I have always taken plenty of exercise, indulged a little in my own country in field sports, and traversed Switzerland and the Tyrol with my knapsack." The veteran author, who has preserved such extraordinary intellectual alertness, says that he does not believe in night work. He once congratulated Sir Richard Bethell at the height of his career on the ease with which he seemed to bear his heavy burden. "Yes," he said, "I owe it, under Providence, to my habit of working early in the morning, not late at night. I set out in life with many dear friends who worked at night. I have buried them all."

COST NEARLY $3,000,000.

Immense Expenditure Involved at The Hague Conference.

The Hague, Oct. 21.—Now that the International Peace Conference has closed it is interesting to study some of the figures that have been prepared on the cost of the four months session. The general expenses of all the delegates are estimated at $2,970,000, of which $523,600 was spent to pay the cost of 317 dinners, including those given by the various foreign ministers accredited to The Hague. Of all the elaborate dinners given the conference, those of Senor Ruy Barbosa of Brazil were the most expensive, flowers alone sometimes representing an item of $3,000. The amounts spent by the various delegations, the press associations and individuals newspapers for telegraph tolls amounted to $225,072. More than a million words of press matter concerning the conference were sent out, of which 30,000 words were sent out on the opening day, June 15. The expenses to the Dutch Government amounted to $112,550.

TROUBLE OVER SEWERS

The One Near the Gas Co's Plant Should be Repaired at Once

Reports of Various Committees Received—
Railway Matters

Alderman W. H. Westman wanted to know at last night's meeting of the City Council what steps are being taken to repair the King St. sewer, which empties into the river near the Chatham Gas Company's Works. He said that he had learned that it is filling in and the sewer is being ruined. He thought that this matter should be attended to at once.

Ald. Bensen said, in reply, that he and the City Engineer had investigated this complaint some six weeks ago, and had found that the trouble had been caused by the Chatham Gas Company. He said that it would cost $300 or $400 for the city to repair the sewer, and the Board of Works have not the money at their disposal to finance this work. He thought that the matter had better be left over till next year.

Ald. Stephens said that he had examined the sewer yesterday, and the blocking of the sewer had been caused, he had found, through the Gas Company filling in the river bank. They had told him that they wanted the Council to extend the sewer so that they can fill in the river bank some more. Ald. Stephens said that, as far as he could make out, there is nothing the matter with the sewer. The matter was referred to the Board of Works.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE.

Ald. Potter presented the report of the Property Committee, which made the following recommendations—That the account of the Chatham Gas Company be paid; that no section be taken with regard to the Royal Merchants' request to have the market open to grocers before the hour of ten o'clock; that the tender of the Chatham Gas Company to equip the Council Chamber with electric lights at a cost of $200 be accepted, as well as the joint tender to put a chandelier in the City Clerk's office, making the total cost $45. This report was adopted.

RAILWAY COMMITTEE.

Ald. Massey reported on behalf of the Railway Committee that he had interviewed the officials of the C. W. & L. E., who had agreed to fill the space in front of Pellet's grocery, on Queen Street. He also stated that the committee had instructed men to time the train at the Wellington and Centre Street crossings, as well as keep track of traffic at these places, in order to secure evidence to be submitted at the meeting of the Railway Commission in this city.

The Mayor instructed the chairman of the Railway Committee to see the officials of the C. W. & L. E., and notify them that the pavements on King, Raleigh and St. Clair Streets must be put in a proper state of repair, and if the company did not attend to this matter at once, city workmen would be put at the work, and the cost charged up to the railway company.

In reply to a query from Ald. Bullis, Ald. Bensen said that it was the intention of the Board of Works to have a bituminous approach constructed at the Adelaide Street Bridge. This will be done while the paving of Jankie Street is in progress.

City Engineer Jones reported that the C. W. & L. E. had instructed him to place switches on the Aberdeen Bridge to carry away the current which is now passing under the river on the city water mains.

Ald. Potter moved, seconded by Ald. Austin, that the city purchase 500 feet of new hose from the Gutter Percha Rubber Company for use at the Fire Department. Carried.

WHAT WAS HE DOING?

When Ald. Wm. Potter returned from the City Council last night, he was rather surprised and startled to find a strange man prowling around in his back yard. The man looked guilty when accosted by Ald. Potter, but said that he had just come in for a drink of water.

Ald. Potter had his suspicions that the man was not prowling around his house for any good purpose. He asked him several questions, but was unable to get anything out of him. He says that he was a fair man with a light moustache, and of slight build. The man may be the witness pepper, about whom there has been so much complaint lately.

PASSED AWAY

The death of Benjamin Graves, aged 89 years, occurred last night at the House of Refuge, after a lingering illness.

Deceased was the second person to be committed to the House of Refuge and has been an inmate ever since—the year after the institution was erected. The institution was built in 1898. Deceased was an old Virginian slave. He came here a number of years ago and worked for many years in Harwich, township. The funeral will be conducted by the Salvation Army this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. Interment will be made in the burying ground of the

CONVICTS BREAK JAIL

Desperate Attempt to Escape From Vancouver Penitentiary

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 22.—A desperate attempt at a jail delivery was made at the penitentiary in New Westminster late on Saturday afternoon. The ring-leaders were George Stone and T. Walker, former close companions of the notorious Bill Miner. Chief Inspector Imhah narrowly escaped being murdered, and his men have to remain in bed many days on account of his injuries.

Shortly after 4 o'clock Stone approached Imhah from behind and dealt him a fearful blow on the head with a hammer. Imhah fell prostrate to the floor, and Walker, who had been standing near, attacked the prostrate man and dealt him several blows with a scantling. Imhah turned over and tried to crawl away, but was practically helpless.

The two convicts, followed by others, then made a break for the fence. A moment later Assistant Warden Stewart appeared and held them up with his drawn revolver. The desperate men were cowed, especially when another convict named Campbell came to the assistance of the officers. Stone and Walker were overpowered and have been placed in solitary confinement.

DEATH AT KIPLING BANQUET.

Rural Dean Emery Seized With Heart Disease at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Stricken with heart disease just prior to the luncheon given to Rudyard Kipling yesterday, Rural Dean Emery, one of the oldest Anglican clergymen in Canada, died shortly afterwards. Dean Emery had preached three times on Sunday at Kempenville. During his ministry he labored in Toronto, Quebec, Ottawa, Smith's Falls and other places.

Over three hundred attended the Canadian Club's luncheon to the soldier's poet, Sir Wilfrid Laurier being one of the guests.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier paid tribute to the individuality of Kipling. He would not reproach him for his "Lady of the Snows." The Canadian winter was the glory of Canada. He hoped that when Mr. Kipling spoke to the world he would say the same words as snow produced the finest grain and fruit that could be found in any place.

Dig, Then, Sail.

Stockholm, Oct. 22.—The secretary of the Swedish Legation at Washington, A. Bengtson, cabled to the Royal Swedish Yacht Club yesterday to the effect that the New York Yacht Club certainly would not accept a challenge for the America Cup with a 70-footer.

Contrary to expectations, not enough money has yet been subscribed to provide for building a 90-footer, so the best of directors of the Swedish Yacht Club, after a three hours' session yesterday, deferred the question of a challenge for the America's Cup to an extraordinary meeting of all the members of the club, which has been called for Oct. 30. In the meantime the subscription list, which is headed by the crown prince, Gustavus Adolphus, is being circulated.

Alleged Plumbers' Combine.

Columbus, O., Oct. 22.—Attorney-General Ellis yesterday filed in the Circuit Court of Franklin County, a quo warranto suit against twenty persons doing business or making up for plumbers. They are charged with being members of an association whose object is to control trade and fix the prices of their goods.

The association covers the States of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Texas. Its headquarters are in Chicago and the secretary is Paul Blatchford.

Will Support Redmond.

Dublin, Oct. 22.—William O'Brien, member of Parliament for Cork, speaking at Tralee Sunday, indicated his desire to return to the Redmond party in order to influence the decision of the House of Commons on the question of land purchase, finance and university settlement.

The Archbishop of Cassel, the Bishop of Dromore and John Dillon, M. P., have also written letters declaring their adherence to Mr. Redmond's policy.

Suicides by Electricity.

London, Oct. 22.—The first case of suicide by electricity has occurred at Kingston. The victim was William Brown, a carpenter.

A little while before his death Brown made enquiries as to dangerous parts of the switchboard. It was supposed he was anxious to avoid risking his life. Subsequently he was seen with his hands on two of the terminals, and instantly fell dead.

Writ For Nicolet.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—It is believed that the issue of the writ for Nicolet, made vacant by the transference of O. E. Devlin to provincial politics, will not be delayed.

The general opinion here is that the Government will also take a hand in this contest and will have Dr. Turcotte of Nicolet nominated. He is a brother of the late Hon. A. Turcotte and a life-long friend of the Premier.
