KENNEDY ADDRESSES CONVOCATION

Five well-known personages from Canada, Great Britain and the United States of America will receive honorary degrees from the University of New Brunswick at its Fall Convocation, October 12.

The recipients of honorary degrees were announced by Dr. Colin B. Mackay, president and vice-chancellor of UNB.

Robert F. Kennedy, Senator from the State of New York and brother of the late American President, John F. Kennedy, will deliver the Convocation address and receive the doctor of laws degree.

Receiving an honorary doctor of letters degree will be Sir Frank C. Francis, principal librarian and director of the British Museum. An honorary doctor of civil law degree will be conferred upon Lieutenant-General E.L.M. Burns, Canadian Representative, Disarmament Committee, Geneva, Switzerland. Honorary doctor of laws degree will be conferred upon Dr. W. Kaye Lamb, Dominion Archivist and National Librarian, Ottawa, and Dr. W. O. L'Heureux, head of the department of physical health and recreation, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario.

Senator Robert F. Kennedy

Senator Robert F. Kennedy was elected to the Senate of the United States in 1964, after distinguishing himself in the post of Attorney-General of the United States from 1961-1964.

Born in Boston, Mass. in November, 1925, he received his early education in that city, attending Milton Academy and later Harvard University. He continued his studies at the University of Virginia School of Law, from which he received a bachelor of laws degree.

He was a member of the U.S. Naval Reserve, 1944-46, and was war correspondent in Palestine for the Boston Post in 1943.

In 1951 he was admitted to the Massachusetts State Bar and in 1951-52, he was an attorney in the Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. He was admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court in 1955.

In 1952 and again in 1960, Senator Kennedy was manager of the political campaigns for his late brother, campaigns which brought prominence to John F. Kennedy first as a Senator and then as President.

During the 1950's Senator Kennedy held several important posts. In 1953 he was assistant counsel to the Senate Permanent Sub-Committee on Investigations and in 1954 assumed the post of Chief Counsel to the Democratic Minority. From 1955-59 he was Chief Counsel and Staff Director.

In 1953-54, he was assistant counsel to the Hoover Commission and from 1957-59, Chief Counsel of the Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities, in the Labor or Management Field.

He is a holder of numerous awards and honorary degrees and has several publications to his credit, including "The Enemy Within", 1960; "Just Friends and Brave Enemies", 1962 and "The Pursuit of Justice", 1964.

Senator Kennedy married the former Ethel Skakel in 1950. They have seven sons and three daughters and presently reside in New York City.

Sir Frank C. Francis

In 1959, the two hundredth anniversary of its opening, Sir Frank C. Francis, K.C.B. became the director and principal librarian of the British Museum. When he took over its highest administrative post, he had been in the service of the museum for more than three decades, most of the time in the department of printed books.

SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Born in Liverpool, England, in October, 1901, Sir Frank received his early education at the Liverpool Institute. He attended the University of Liverpool, where he received a bachelor of arts degree in classics, and later continued his studies at Emmanuel College, Cambridge University, where he received a master of arts degree.

During the academic year 1925-26 he was an assistant master at Holyhead County School, where he taught Latin and Greek. In 1926 he accepted an appointment to the staff of the British Museum, and except for 1946-47, when he served as secretary of the British Museum, he has seen unbroken service with its library.

Throughout his career, Sir Frank has made many contributions to the world of library science. He has frequently contributed articles on bibliographical subjects to periodicals. At various times he has been concerned with the Journal of Documentation, The Library, Library Quarterly and Libri. He has edited several volumes on bibliographical subjects and has translated several books from German, among them William Cohn's Chinese Art.

Sir Frank has been honorary secretary to the Bibliographical Society (1940-64), having been joint honorary secretary with the late Ronald B. McKerrow, the famous bibliographer, from 1938-40; vice-president (1954) and president (1957-58) of the Association of Special Libraries and Information Bureau, and from 1949-59, head of the Council of British National Bibliography.

He was vice-president of the UNESCO Advisory Committee on Bibliography from 1954-60 and served on the International Committee of Library Experts, UN and UNESCO Provincial International Committee on Bibliography. He was vice-president of the Museums Association (1964-65) and president, 1965-66.

Among other posts, he presently is a trustee of the Imperial War Museum, a Governor of Birbeck College, University of London, president of the International Federation of Library Associations and correspondent to the Institut de France.

In 1927 he married Katrina McClennon of Liverpool. They have two sons and a daughter.

Housing Crisis

Worsens

The student housing crisis, which this fall proved a difficult problem for the University of New Brunswick's Accommodation Office, is not completely over.

But, says Mrs. E.M. Comuzzi, Director of the Accommodations Office, though there is still a great need for apartments or housing rentals to accommodate student demands, there is a goodly supply of places providing room and board, with the list continuously growing.

Most of these rooms, however, are not in Fredericton proper, but are located across the river in Nashwaksis, Barker's Point or Marysville. And because of the problem of transportation, many students without their own means of transport are hesitant about accepting such accommodation.

Also, Mrs. Comuzzi says, there is always a constant changeover at this time of year, as students not satisfied with the accommodations they presently have, seek other. Most of these students are those who live quite a distance from the campus and in seeking rooms closer to UNB are willing to sacrifice quality for proximity.

ament since 1960) leading to the Canadian delegation to the 18 Nation Disarmament Conference in Geneva, 1962-63.

Born in Westmount, P.Q. in June, 1897, he received his early education at Lower Canada College, Montreal and later attended the Royal Military College in Kingston, Ontario.

He served with the Royal Canadian Engineers, Signals Staff, in France and Belgium in the First World War.

From 1945-46, he was director-general of rehabilitation for the Department of Veteran Affairs, becoming assistant deputy minister in that department 1946-50 and deputy minister, 1950-54.

He was Chief of Staff of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization, Palestine, 1954-56; commander of the UN Emergency Force, 1956-59. He was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-General in January, 1958.

He was the alternate delegate for Canada at the fourth session of the United Nations General Assembly in New York in 1949 and served as national president of the U.N. Association of Canada, 1952-53. He is also an Officer Legion d'Honneur.

He has several publications to his credit including "Manpower in the Canadian Army, 1939-45" and "Between Arab and Israeli", 1962 and "Megamurder", 1966.

This summer General Burns was among the distinguished Canadians whom Prime Minister Pearson honored with the new Companion of Canada award.

He married Eleanor Pelan in 1927 and they have a daughter.

Dr. W. Kaye Lamb

Born in New Westminster, B.C. in May, 1904, Dr. W. Kaye Lamb received his early education in that city and in Vancouver. He later continued his studies at the University of British Columbia, the University of Paris (Sorbonne) and the University of London, England from where he received his doctor's degree in 1933.

Returning to the Canadian west, he assumed the post of Provincial Librarian and Archivist in Victoria, B.C. in 1934, continuing in that position until he became Librarian at UBC in 1940.

In 1948 Dr. Lamb left the west for Ottawa when Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced his appointment as Dominion Archivist in the Public Archives of Canada, the post he still holds, along with the position of National Librarian of Canada, which he assumed in 1953.

As Dominion Archivist he expanded the existing services of the Archives of Canada and conceived and developed new ones. As Canada's first National Librarian he has planned and organized the services of the National Library and has played an important role in the design of the National Library and Public Archives building opened in Ottawa, June 20, 1967.

He has served as president of the British Columbia Library Association, the Pacific Northwest Library Association, the Canadian Historical Association and the Canadian Library Association. He is currently president of The Champlain Society and of the Society of Archivists of London, England. He is a member of the American Society of Archivists and the Canadian Social Science Research Council. He is a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

Between 1937 and 1946 Dr. Lamb was editor of the British Columbia Historical Quarterly, and contributed historical introductions to the Letters of John McLoughlin. He edited the Journal of Daniel Williams Hammon and The Letters and Journals of Simon Fraser, 1806-1808.

In 1939 he married Wessie M. Tipping and they have one daughter.

Dr. W. J. L'Heureux

Dr. Willard Joseph L'Heureux is one of the outstanding leaders in physical education and athletics in Canada today.

Born in Port Arthur, Ontario in 1920, he attended the University of Western Ontario, the Ontario College of Education and the University of Michigan. He has taught in the secondary schools of Ontario from 1934 until his appointment to the staff of Western in 1950.

Today he is head of the department of physical health and recreation at Western.

Currently Dr. L'Heureux is chairman of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada's standing committee on University Athletics and Physical Education and is serving as liaison officer between the Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation and the Canadian Medical Association. He is chairman of the National Hockey Study Committee and the National Advisory Council on Fitness amateur Sports.

His publications are many and have appeared either as textbooks, federal government manuals, or as instructional films. In June of this year he was honored by the Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, with its Honour Award.

He is married and has three children.

Mrs. Comuzzi emphasizes that no students attending UNB this fall had to return home because of lack of accommodations. Many could not find exactly what they wanted and often found they had to live outside Fredericton proper. However, many found that by going further away they often had better quality in accommodations than that found in the city.

She says in conclusion that many students in seeking other accommodation have failed to contact the Accommodation Office to obtain lists of places available, thereby finding frustration in seeking places to room and gaining the wrong impression that nothing at all is available. All students wishing to find new rooms should contact her office before venturing forth in their search.

Committee Selected By SRC To Meet Senate

Open Rooms Resolutions Passed... But Few Are Optimistic

Formation of a six man committee of three students and three members of the senate was given the go-ahead at the first official meeting of the SRC, on Wednesday, September 26. This committee, formed as a result of a letter written by Dr. Mackay to Wayne Beach (See Brunswickan Vol. 101, No. 2) has been termed the final step in negotiations with the ruling body.

Students on the committee will be Dave Cox, and Doug Matthews, both house presidents, and Bob Edwards, also a resident student and former SRC member. Although not finalized yet, it is expected that the Senate's representatives will be Dr. B. L. Jewett, Mrs. M. McNichol, and Mr. S. B. Cassidy. Dean Ryan will be mediator of the committee session.

It is Ryan's report on the question of Visiting Privileges in the Residence System that has caused considerable controversy around campus. A demand was made by the SRC that this report be made available to the student half of the committee, and eventually the student body. Beach stated that the Ryan Report was handled "unacceptably by the Senate".

Deadlines

Since the first Senate meeting is not until October 12, the qualifications placed on the proposed committee cannot be ratified until then. Assuming they are, the SRC has set a mid-November deadline for a report by the committee, at which time, a decision must be made.

If a mid-year change is not made, the SRC will consider further action it may deem necessary.

Pressman Votes

Allan Pressman, who voted during the first half of the meeting, was found not to be a member of council at this stage. His tendered resignation was filed last spring as Second Vice-President. This left two vacancies on Council, an Arts seat and an Engineering seat. A by-election will be held in the near future to fill the empty seats.

Dances

After passing two expenditures, one a $25

SRC IN "ACTION"

fee for the renting of the "think tank" lodge; the other a $175 conference fund for WUSC, a resolution was passed in which the possibilities of holding dances at UNB as a source of revenue for the SRC were to be investigated. It was pointed out that STU dances grossed $20,000 last year, which was one-third of the actual working budget of the SRC.

"Think Tank"

Again, the SRC was bombarded with shells from Nelson Adams own little tank, and again, the SRC failed to answer his questions well. Adams pursued a line of questioning on who was coming, and who these people represented. He also questioned the procedure of publishing the event and its function.

Discrimination

Lawson Hunter read a letter suggesting that there is a certain slant of discrimination used in the forms of the Accommodation Office of UNB. It will be discussed further at the next Council meeting. Nelson Adams also gave notice of the formation of a Fredericton Committee on the War in Vietnam. Its constitution will be brought to the SRC at its next meeting.

Awards and Financial Aids Office on Campus

Student Aid & Awards Officer

Dr. Colin B. Mackay, president and vice-chancellor of the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton has announced the appointment of Gordon P. Meyers to the new post of Student Aid and Awards Officer, effective Sept. 1.

The awards office will have responsibility for administering university loans, scholarships and bursaries as well as making available information on awards for university students and staff. It is anticipated that such services would include research grant sources, summer study programs, awards given at other universities and most sources of financial aid to students.

The newly appointed Awards Officer, Mr. Gordon Meyers advises that an emphasis will be placed on advising and assisting students who may be having financial difficulties or who desire assistance for planning further education. The Awards Office is presently located in Room 16 of Annex B and may be contacted on local 402.

Mr. Meyers wishes to make it clear that the Awards Office will not be directly involved with the Canada Student Loans Plan or the New Brunswick Bursary Plan. Applications and information are available from this office but the processing is handled by the New Brunswick government.

A native of Kinistino, Saskatchewan, Mr. Meyers received his basic schooling in Calgary, Alberta. In 1963 he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Sir George Williams University in Montreal with a major in psychology. Until 1965 he served as a YMCA secretary working with high school and university students in Montreal.

He accepted an appointment as Awards Officer at the University of Calgary in June, 1965. In September 1966 he registered as a graduate student at Indiana University, where he received the Master of Science in Education degree in August.

FRIDAY CONCERTS

(INFORMAL)

The Resident Musicians announce that their weekly informal concerts will start Friday September 29th at Memorial Hall from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

Faculty and students are invited to attend and will be welcome for all or any part of each concert.

Current Competition for Canadian Rhodes Scholarships

Eleven Rhodes Scholarships will be awarded to Canadians this fall. They will entitle the winners to study at Oxford University in England for two and possibly three years commencing in September, 1968. The value of each Scholarship has recently been increased to 1,100 pounds (approximately $3,300) per annum. Applications for the 1968 awards may be made until October 25, 1967.

Male Canadian students, preferably in their third or final year of university work, who are unmarried and between 18 and 24 years of age, are eligible for the Scholarships. Application forms and particulars may be obtained from University Registrars or from the Secretary of the Selection Committee in each Province. The Secretaries of Selection Committees can also provide applicants with lists of former Rhodes Scholars resident in their respective provinces from whom information about the scholarships and about Oxford can be obtained. (See list of Secretaries of Selection Committees below).

The Rhodes Scholarships, established in 1904 under the Will of Cecil Rhodes, are the best-known of international scholarships. They have been the model for many similar awards in Canada, the United States and elsewhere. Rhodes Scholars proceed to Oxford where unique opportunities exist for general undergraduate studies and for advanced work in both the humanities and the sciences. The present stipend is sufficient to pay all expenses and to enable the Scholar to take advantage of excellent opportunities for travel in Britain and on the Continent of Europe during the three lengthy vacations of the Oxford academic year.

Applicants for the Rhodes Scholarships are not required to write an examination. Selection is made by Provincial committees after personal interview, and on the basis of the candidate's record. Although scholastic ability is of importance, such factors as character, qualities of leadership, and interest in outdoor sports, are carefully considered. Some definite quality of distinction, whether in intellect or combination of these, is the essential requirement.

Over 600 Canadians have now held Rhodes Scholarships. Many of these men have on returning to Canada had distinguished careers in their particular fields of endeavour and have made significant contributions to the public life of this country.

The provincial secretary for New Brunswick is former Brunswickan editor: F. R. Drummie, 5 Forest Acres Court, Fredericton, N.B.

Pacey to Lecture in Alberta

Dr. Desmond Pacey, dean of graduate studies and head of the department of English at the University of New Brunswick, will present a Centennial lecture and seminar at the University of Alberta, Edmonton.

A noted authority on Canadian Literature, Dr. Pacey will deliver a general lecture titled "Hundred Year Harvest: A Century of Canadian Literature" on the afternoon of October 19. On the following morning he will conduct a seminar on "The Phenomenon of Leonard Cohen."

Arrangements for the visit to Edmonton were made by the department of English, University of Alberta.

WUSC TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Delegates from all parts of Canada will arrive in Montreal on Thanksgiving weekend, to participate in the National Assembly, October 6th to 9th. Registrations received to date point to large delegations from most Universities. M. Pierre Jasmin of the Universite de Montreal is in charge of local arrangements.

Delegates from the UNB unit of WUSC will be Heather Dickson, WUSC Chairman, and Dr. Karl Kuepper, professor in the German Department.

Delegates to the assembly will formulate plans for the coming year and discuss such topics as the role of the university in society both in Canada and in countries overseas. An expert in university problems in Asia, Mr. S. Chithamparamanathan, is a guest speaker. He will arrive in Canada having just returned from a tour of universities and WUS projects in India, Ceylon and Korea. Mr. Chithamparamanathan is an associate General Secretary of international WUS in Geneva. After the Assembly he will visit Queen's University, Manitoba, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary and British Columbia.

Principal Encourages Student Activism

Toronto (CUP) - Glendon College freshmen were told last Monday "if Glendon College does not have among its students more than the usual number of student activists, it is failing in its task."

Escott Reid, principal of Glendon College, York University, said "the college has a place for student activists, for student reformers, even for student anarchists."

He said, while the college delights in honoring students of high academic distinction, it also has a place for "nonconformists such as the student of marked intelligence who decides that he will be satisfied to get a safe pass in his official studies", and who devotes his surplus energies to "cultural, creative, or political activities."

At a university, extra-curricular activities complement formal academic studies, he said. "They are no substitute for them."

"There are, moreover, degrees of value in the extracurricular activities of students. The student body cannot escape being concerned with the financing of college dances and with the quality of the food in the dining hall, but this kind of concern with the housekeeping concerns of college life should be of a different order from the kind of passionate concern which is appropriate to such matters as the tragedy of Viet Nam, the position of Quebec in Canada, the growing gap between China and the rest of the world, the absence of real equality of educational opportunity in Canada, the abolition of racial discriminations, a concern so passionate that students who feel it will be prepared to undergo the tough intellectual discipline of studying these problems in depth so that they will be able to comprehend something of their subtlety and complexity."

Reid said he recognized the need for new relations between students, faculty and administration in the management of college affairs.

"But I have accepted a post of authority in this college and this university", he said. "I am prepared to share my responsibility with the student body of the college. I will not abdicate either the responsibility or the authority."

Exhibits Announced

Plans for exhibitions at the Art Centre, Memorial Hall, University of New Brunswick, for 1967-68 have been released.

This week the schedule of exhibitions opens with a display of Student Koon Prints. This will be followed later this term by The Canadian Universities Centennial Exhibition of Drawings, paintings by Takao Tanabe, and a joint exhibition by G. Tiessen and D. Penz.

The second term will see Thirteen Calgary Painters, Snow and Esler, the Atlantic Awards Centennial Exhibition, and a joint show by Brigid Grant, painter and John Shaw, potter.

The events are sponsored by the UNB Creative Arts Committee.

Also planned are three evening art classes. These are all non-credit courses of the Extension Department and will consist of 15 two-hour sessions each. A basic painting course under John Shaw will begin on Wednesday, September 27, and will explore the language of painting including materials, form, line, color, composition and pattern. An advance painting class will be conducted by Molly Bobak, beginning Tuesday September 26. It is for those who have already had some experience in painting. A print-making class, beginning Thursday, September 28, under Marjory Donaldson, will include the techniques of woodcuts, linocuts, etchings, engravings and silk screen.

THE PLEBISCITE

New Brunswick will have an opportunity to do more than choose the lesser of two evils during the upcoming election; they may, on the issue of the voting age, make their views known to their elected representatives. On the ballot, the question will read, "Are you in favour of lowering the voting age from 21 years of age to eighteen years of age?"

What this means, simply, is that the most democratic means possible is being used to determine whether a free people choose to extend democracy to the most rapidly-expanding, and most politically-aware segment of society.

The government has been criticized for this measure, even though the result of the plebiscite will not necessarily determine anything.

"It is not responsible government in the British and Canadian tradition," says the Saint John daily, the Telegraph-Journal. It more closely resembles the American "government by consensus" tradition.

Perhaps New Brunswick is finally ready to destroy the system of responsible government anyway, in a system where plebiscites are never used, where a body of legislators are elected to rule without the opportunity to determine what the electorate really feels, we are living under the absurdity of an elected oligarchy. The British parliamentary system enables the Commons to say, "We have all the rights."

Surely the government should have no more rights than its citizens choose to give it.

In this, one of the most critical elections in the history of the province of New Brunswick, Conservatives are calling for a restoration of democracy. Liberals are maintaining that the election of J. C. VanHorne will usher in New Brunswick's first dictatorship.

Where Democracy is such an issue, surely it is the most terrifying of hypocrisies to advise against the use of the most democratic measure conceivable in the stench of present-day New Brunswick politics.

VIETNAM

The war in Vietnam has spawned a new mythology. Its nature and origin obscured by propaganda, the assessment of the war has become a conflict of bias contesting for popular support. Rhetoric, duplicity, and political expedience have effectively sealed the truth into the maze of the Cold War only to be extricated by the historians of another generation.

The nature of this war does not accommodate the traditional good versus evil perspective of the North American. The innate idealism of the student has not been fused with the patriotism and sense of duty evoked in other earlier wars, and unprecedented dissent has marked the escalation of this conflict as it rumbles towards a global scale fraught with nuclear implications. It is in this context, polluted by the clash of ideologies, that the individual, after careful introspection, must make his moral commitment on the war.

The contagion of war in this century denies us the illusion of isolation. We are obliged by history to decide.

Letters to the Editor

Challenge to Honesty?

Sir: I am rather offended by the challenge to my honesty which occurs at the library each time I exit. Being a hardened criminal, I have figured out fifteen different ways of getting a book out of the library aside from the conventional procedure and have used some of them. I will not elaborate on these fifteen ways since it would be detrimental to the large percentage of hardened criminals in the student population.

However, I will say that to keep students from smuggling books out of the library the administration must bar and wire up all the windows and place their Gestapo on all sides outside the building. Exits must be limited to one for all people, students and workers; and there must be two three-room chambers at this exit, one for males and one for females. In the first room the student takes off his library clothing; in the second room he walks naked past a member of Colin B's Gestapo (here's a chance for the administration to further fortify their police state by adding a female to watch the ladies); and in the third room he puts on his street clothing. Frisking would be simpler but female students might find it offensive.

I suggest that for the administration to take these steps would cost too much both in money and in a loss of good will. I also suggest that, since one commissionaire at the entrance cannot really deter a determined book stealer, this insult to the honesty of the student population be removed.

A Letter From Vietnam

Dear Fellow Students,

We are students and professors from all the universities of South Vietnam (Saigon, Hue, Dalat, Cantho and Van Hanh.) who write to thank you for trying to stop this terrible war in our country. We cannot act officially, as you did, because the universities here are not permitted by the Government to express themselves freely. We have made petitions and appeals, but we cannot let our names be made public, because we would be arrested and imprisoned. That is the kind of society we live in here today.

Nevertheless, we write to thank you for your actions and to plead with you to continue. We ask you to consider these facts:

1. In South Vietnam cities the American power has become so great in support of the Ky government that no one can speak against the war without risking his life or his liberty.

2. If it were not so millions would speak out. The people of South Vietnam desperately want the war to end, but they are losing hope. They are not Communists, but if the war does not soon end, they will join the National Liberation Front because they see no other way out.

3. Americans should not believe that they are protecting the South Vietnamese from Communism. Most of us believe that the Americans only want to control our country in order to prepare for war with China.

4. The present government of South Vietnam is not our government and is not representing our people. It was imposed on us by the United States, and is controlled by military men who fought for the French against the Vietnamese people before 1954. If we were free to vote freely, that government would not last one day. We want a government of our own, not controlled by either side, so that we may be able to settle the problems of Vietnam by ourselves on the basis of national brotherhood; to negotiate peace and to negotiate the withdrawal of American troops with the United States.

5. Do not believe that the danger of a communist takeover justifies the continuation of war. We believe we are strong enough to form an independent government. The decision, however, should be ours, not yours, when it is our lives and our country that are being destroyed.

Finally, we send you the best wishes of ours and of the Vietnamese people.

SRC Exemplifies Apathy

Dear Sir:

As a participant in the "Think Tank" this past weekend I can only say that the S.R.C. exemplifies the apathy they so vocally accuse the student body of possessing. Their failure to be there caused the retreat to be a partial failure. True, there were some members of the SRC there but they were a minority all the way around. As well, the appearance of only one faculty member, out of nearly three hundred and fifty was bad news. Of course, only five were invited. That's bad news too.

My second point concerns the Brunswickan. The fact that last Thursday's issue didn't come out till this past Monday indicates that something is administratively wrong. From my ventures among the papers floating around the office, I notice that only two people appear to be steady workers. Where are all the interested people who want to join the Brunswickan? Where are the girls that volunteered to type, the reporters, the layout people — all willing and all eager to make a stab at it?

They are not in the Brunswickan office because no one has told them to be there, because no one has given them an assignment, because there has been no efficient administration. If the Brunswickan wants to aspire to the heights of glory and radicalism it hopes to, then someone is going to have shape up — and soon.

TUITION PROBLEMS TRANSCENDED BY DAN THE ACID MAN

Reprinted from The Varsity

TORONTO (CUP)— All you poor penniless students, working your way through university, taking boring summer jobs and selling your soul to the government for a student loan — take heed.

One University of Toronto student earned $1,150 in five weeks this summer and his job was most stimulating — he imported LSD and sold it for profit.

With sporadic part-time work wages he will have enough to pay for his tuition, books and living expenses for the entire 1967-68 academic term.

In addition he supplied himself and close friends with enough psychedelic chemicals to blow minds for months. This is one of the bonuses of the acid business.

Here are some of the details how Dan, the acid man, (not his real name) made his fortune: Early August — Dan hitchhikes to the hippies Mecca, San Francisco. Dan "crashed" into hippy homes in the Haight-Ashbury district (crashed means to be invited to live free in hippy homes). He "copped" (bought) 140 tablets of acid for $250 Canadian.

He returned to Canada and sold about $500 worth of acid. He also gave away a lot, traded some for grass (marijuana) and dropped (used) a lot himself.

"Man, I used to drop two and three tabs at a time," Dan said.

Because Dan was "crashing" — his living expenses were nil and the profits of his first excursion were $250.

Dan also made a lot of friends turning people on at cut-rate prices. But more important he collected capital for his second and much bigger business deal with the Haight-Ashbury flower children.

Dan decided to play it cool in late August and send a friend down instead of himself to make the deal.

Dan's friend Pete, the pusher, (not his real name) managed to cop 380 tablets of acid for $650 Canadian. Pete flew back and paid another person $50 to take the acid across the border.

Pete's expenses for the excursion were about $150 but that included an ounce of Acapulco Gold, a very high grade of marijuana, which he brought back with him.

Dan smoked some of the Acapulco Gold and said it was great.

"That Gold is so beautiful, so out of sight . . . and there are no seeds, just leaves and stems," Dan said.

Dan paid Pete a pound of grass for his work arranging the deal.

Dan sold about 340 tabs of the acid for about $1,800 and then add the $250 he made on the first shipment — the final result is approximately $1,150 profit.

Although the money seems quick and easy, Dan has gone out of business.

"You do this sort of thing so you don't have to conform to society and be a businessman. But after all the hassles — the contacts, the appointments, the hours of wit waiting for the deal to come through, — you soon realize that pushing is in the same bag the businessman is in," Dan said.

Secret Military Research Cancelled

by MIKE ANDERSON
Collegiate Press Service

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (CUP-CPS) — The Air Force has cancelled a research project at the University of Minnesota which was so secret that the University's newly selected president didn't even know what it was. When the president, Malcolm Moos, found out about the project, he objected strongly, and said he didn't want the University to be involved in secret government research.

But the Air Force said it cancelled renewal of the two-year $200,000 contract because of "lack of funds", not Moos' objections. The lack of funds was supposedly caused by the Vietnam war. The Minnesota Daily has learned that the contract involved methods of interrogation, humans were used as subjects, and the campus police were involved.

The contract with the university was seventy per cent subcontracted to North Star Research and Development Institute in Minneapolis. The majority of North Star's work has some secrecy attached to it, according to the Daily.

Officials from North Star Institute, the university and the U.S. Government Defence Contract Administrative Service have confirmed the existence of the project but have no comment on specifics.

At a meeting on September 15, the university's board of regents voted unanimously over Moos' objections to renew the classified psychological testing program for two years.

The regents originally approved the secret contract at their January 14, 1966, meeting without any publicity. The contract began in March of 1966. University Business Vice-President Laurence Lunden is the highest university official who knows details of the secret contract, since Moos has not yet been cleared to handle secret information. He became university president September 1.

Lunden said the project "borders on the health area" and was originally approved by Moos' predecessor, O Meredith Wilson. Lunden said the project is "very, very important to a defence effort" and both the government and the personnel working on the project wanted it continued.

THE SEVEN COMMANDMENTS

OR

RULES OF DEMONSTRATION

The cry is open rooms. The Senate has said, "No!" The President has said, "No!" The residence students have said, "Yes! Yes! Yes!" There are approximately 4000 students at U.N.B. There are approximately 1000 residence students. The President said, "No!" The Brunswickan said " . . . massive demonstrations if necessary . . ." The President said, "a committee of three students to meet with three senators . . ." Some said yes and some said no. Some said, "death by committee". Others said, " . . . massive demonstrations if necessary." The senate said "No!" The President said "No!" The students said "We'll revolt. We'll demonstrate, We'll show 'em. We'll come out on top. We'll win. We'll have open rooms." THE PRESIDENT SAID NO.

" . . . and I say unto you — take these tablets and read them. And knock off on the golden cows, eh . . .

(1) THOU SHALT BE ORGANIZED — this is the first and great commandment. On this hangs all the rest. To plan an effective demonstration, a committee must be formed several weeks before, to coordinate, integrate, communicate and to fulfill all the other virtuous "ates".

(2) THOU SHALT HAVE A KEY THEME — whether it be open rooms or rising tuition fees, without some central point of focus, a demonstration is useless. All placards, all publicity, all people will ready, aim and fire intensely on the one theme.

(3) THOU SHALT HAVE A STRATEGIC DATE — the calendar kind. A date which falls the day after a committee report, an announcement of a resignation, or groundhog day; at any rate, a definite date should be set about two weeks in advance. This is long enough to give people a chance to warm up, yet not so long as to tire their patience.

(4) THOU SHALT DETERMINE KIND OF DEMONSTRATION — depending on this is the location. If it is going to be a mass gathering, make it outdoors. Perhaps an original demonstration can be held for open rooms — like every boy in residence taking a girl into his room, with the mass threat that no girl leaves (on her own choice) until a positive ruling has been made. This requires immense cooperation, but such a ruling is apt to be made before the first night gets too long.

(5) THOU SHALT PUBLICIZE — both before, during and after the demonstration. Prior publicity must be immense and must be intense. It must get people questioning, answering, and hot. Hot enough to demonstrate. Publicity of the demonstration is essential, because it shows to the outside world that something is wrong — that we, as students, are not prepared to accept everything that is shoved down our throats.

(6) THOU SHALT EMPHASIZE BENEFITS TO PARTICIPANTS — Unless, via publicity, each person knows what he is going to get out of demonstrating, he won't participate. For example, on the open rooms issue, it will be quite hard to get non-residence kids to take part in it, so there is little sense in pushing a class boycott — only residence kids will stop going to classes — result — demonstration is a flop. In this instance — the appeal and the type of demonstration will have to be oriented toward residence kids (and non-residence) girls for their cooperation).

(7) THOU SHALT NOT DESTROY. — This is important. As soon as you start destroying property, the only person you are harming is yourself. It is immature; it is unreasonable; it is stupid. And it accomplishes nothing; for it gives the ruling body a chance to say — "These are the mature adults who want open rooms?" — So play it cool.

Of course, all this business about demonstration is a result of a more fundamental problem; there is NO dialogue between those that rule and the ruled. The senate appears to be closed to student thinking, and as well, the students appear to be closed to the thinking of the senate. One says "Yes", the other says "No". I used to think that only little children answered "why?" with "because". So now I must ask, "why because?" Before there can be understanding, there must be communication. Without it, forget it.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

OF THE CAMPUS POLICE

TUE. OCT. 10

Room 203

FORESTRY BUILDING

7:30 P.M.

COME TO WASHINGTON SATURDAY OCTOBER 21 FOR THE INTERNATIONAL MOBILIZATION TO STOP THE WAR AGAINST VIETNAM

6 brunswickton - october 5, 1967

THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS OF PEACE MARCHERS will converge on the Pentagon in Washington on Oct. 21. They will come from all parts of America and all parts of the world. They will demand an end to the war against the Vietnamese people, an end to the conscription and death of American boys, and an end to the headlong drift toward thermonuclear war. There will be contingents of students, professors, scientists, clergymen, veterans, pacifists, artists, women's organizations, labor union organizations, Black peoples' organizations, American Indian organizations, etc., etc., etc., etc.

IT IS VITAL THAT LARGE INTERNATIONAL CONTINGENT BE PRESENT IN SUPPORT OF THE AMERICANS AT THE RALLY.

- To show that all mankind supports the American marchers' demand for an end to war;
- To emphasize that all mankind dies together in thermonuclear war;
- To show support for UN Secretary General U Thant, who has stated that the Vietnamese are "fighting a war of national independence" "against all foreigners, and now particularly against Americans";
- To show support for the recent action of Canada in the UN General Assembly, where External Affairs Minister Martin called for an end to the bombing of at least the northern part of Vietnam.

BUSES Leave From The UNB Students Centre At 6.00 P.M. Thursday October 19 and arrive in Washington on Friday afternoon. Auxiliary transportation, leaving on Friday, will be available for those who can't leave on Thursday. We will get back to Fredericton on Sunday night.

The Program in Detail. . .

Friday, Oct. 20 we arrive in Washington about 3 p.m. Friday night there is a big Folk-Rock Concert. Informal meetings and discussions will take place to organize solid grassroots peace programs for the future. This includes grassroots political action to oust LBJ in the November 1968 elections, grassroots political action to encourage Canada and other U.S. allies to speak out more strongly against the war, programs of legal and financial aid for American draft resisters (both in USA and in Canada), programs of aid for American soldiers who have refused to fight against the Vietnamese, programs for organized labor, programs for clergymen, programs for the Black ghettos. Petitions will be circulated, and leaflets and literature will be distributed. By the end of the mobilization you will have met a great many of the best people in the Peace Movement, and you will know what is going on all over North America.

Saturday we will have the march on the Pentagon. There will be two staging areas: the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument. The march assembles at the staging areas at 10 a.m., and departs at 11 a.m. promptly. The march crosses the Potomac River via the George Mason Span and the Arlington Memorial Bridge. The march should arrive at the Pentagon about 3 p.m., where a huge mass rally will be held. At 4 p.m., a large group of volunteers will go to the Pentagon to commit civil disobedience. They will sit-in in doors and hallways, thus blocking activity at the center of the world's mightiest war machine. The remainder of the marchers will continue with the legal rally, and thereby provide support for the civil disobedience people. We will also conduct an "exorcism of the Pentagon" (a pentagon was the symbol of evil in American Indian lore, and it can be exorcised by drawing a circle around it; we will put an immense circle of people around the Pentagon.)

Saturday night we will hold a huge mass meeting to decide, on the basis of Saturday's events, exactly how to proceed with the Mobilization on Sunday.

We will leave early enough on Sunday to get back to UNB in time for classes on Monday.

BRING SANDWICHES, ETC. BRING. GUITARS, HARMONICAS, STEEL DRUMS, ETC. BRING SLEEPING BAGS OR BLANKETS, IF POSSIBLE. (The National Mobilization Committee is arranging for free sleeping quarters in churches and private homes, and camping in various public parks in Washington.)

Dr. MacLaggan Honoured

The late DR. KATHERINE MacLAGGAN

Dr. Colin B. Mackay, president and vice-chancellor of the University of New Brunswick, has announced the formation of a scholarship fund in memory of the late director of UNB's School of Nursing, Dr. Katherine E. MacLaggan.

From this fund a $500 scholarship — to be titled the KATHERINE E. MacLAGGAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP — will be awarded annually to a nursing student entering her final year in the basic baccalaureate degree program offered by UNB and who possesses a high academic standing and has demonstrated excellence in nursing practice.

Dr. Mackay in making this announcement pointed out that the New Brunswick Association of Registered Nurses agreed at its annual meeting this year to give considerable financial support to the formation of the scholarship fund, and it is anticipated that further contributions will be received from the many friends and colleagues of the late Dr. MacLaggan, so that a permanent memorial to this distinguished Canadian nurse can be established.

Dr. MacLaggan's death on February 6 of this year ended a career of outstanding leadership in Canadian nursing. A native of Fredericton, Dr. MacLaggan received her early education in this city. She entered the School of Nursing of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, graduating in 1943. Following this, she enrolled in the McGill School of Graduate Nurses, receiving from this school a diploma in public health nursing in 1945, and later, the degree of bachelor of nursing in 1952.

In 1957, Dr. MacLaggan obtained the master of arts degree from Teachers College, Columbia University, and in 1965, a doctorate degree in education from the same institution.

In September 1958 she was appointed as the first director of the UNB School of Nursing, remaining in that post until her death. In 1966 she was elected president of the Canadian Nurses' Association.

In May of this year the Nursing Education Alumni of Teachers College, Columbia University, in recognition of Dr. MacLaggan's brilliant career, honoured her posthumously with the 1967 Award for Distinguished Achievement in Nursing Education.

In her citation to Dr. MacLaggan, Lucy D. Germain, president of the alumni association, said in part:

"... Katherine E. MacLaggan was a capable, humanistic practitioner of nursing, superb teacher, able administrator, understanding counsellor, and gentlewoman of great integrity, courage and strength of purpose. Her brilliant dissertation, Portrait of Nursing: A Plan for the Education of Nurses in the Province of New Brunswick has already provided a goal for educators in her native Canada."

"Think Tank" Sank

by TOM MURPHY

Aside from the fact that it was a rainy weekend, that the Mt. A. Game was on, and aside from the fact that less than half the SRC was there, the "think tank" was a partial success. It was also a partial failure.

The SRC sponsored retreat, held at the Nashwaak Resources Development Lodges on the Nashwaak river, was designed to bring the SRC in contact with a representative portion of the student and faculty opinion. The SRC fell flat on its obligation to be there, and the representative portion fell flat as well. One faculty member was there in the person of Mr. Peter Kent; Mr. Allen Pacey of the UNB Information Center was an administrative representative. Mayor William T. Walker also participated Saturday afternoon and evening. Student wise, there were about seven from St. Thomas, and another ten or so non-SRC students from UNB. It was planned for 60 students. About 30 were there most of the time.

In the completely informal gathering, topics of discussion generally adhered to university affairs. There were several students "primed" to converse in certain areas, such as co-op housing, and course evaluation. Other topics that were hashed out were St. Thomas-UNB relationships, student housing, the Student Union Building, a teach-in on foreign and domestic service, Process '67, the Brunswickan's present staff problems and Radio UNB's hopes of going F.M. All were discussed somewhat in terms of budget.

At a short evaluation session on the "think tank", most people thought that they had learned a great deal in some areas. However, it was criticized for being too unstructured, and too long. As it was, most people left Saturday evening. It was suggested that another "think tank" be held during the transition from the old to the new SRC next February, so a continuum could be attained. The "think tank" ended on a happy and boisterous sing song, with everyone singing such songs as "Blowin' in the Wind", and "The Sinking of the Ti-Tank-ic."

NDY ADOPT NEW RADICALIST
ACTIVIST POLICY

OTTAWA (CUP) - A new radicalist-activist policy involving such things as increased agitational and educational programming on the issues of free education, student power and the political role of students in Canadian society, has been initiated by the federal New Democratic Youth.

The organization's federal council decided to abandon participation in campus mock parliaments in favor of direct action on student and social issues.

"We've got to get away from ritualistic role-playing as self-important junior politicians," said NDY president Ken Nowakowski.

Former international secretary of the Canadian Union of Students, Rolli Cacchioni, was hired to do the bulk of the field work which will consist of organizing students and young workers.

The NDY council also decided to suspend relations with the International Union of Socialist Youth, which was implicated in last year's CIA scandal. As well they gave their active support to the October 21st International Day of Protest against the war in Vietnam.

Harry Edel, newly-elected permanent secretary of the NDY, when asked about the extent of this new orientation said "I think there is even a possibility that in the near future, the federal NDY may run candidates for various positions in student government on an NDY activist platform." "The move is very important to coordinate the experience of young radicals across the country, and to bring this experience to bear on the student political scene."

"The idea is to co-ordinate, and not impose upon the campus political scene," he said.

Campus Fashions

This year the Co-ed Club (formerly known as the U.N.B. Ladies' Society) is planning something different. For the first time at U.N.B. a Fall Fashion Show specially designed for co-eds will be held right on Campus.

Sportsclothes from Vey's Import Shop and formal wear from Eda's Place will be featured. Lady Dunn Hall will form the new setting as the girls from the Coed Club model the upcoming fashions for campus life this year.

Watch for posters announcing the time and date of "Campus Fashions".

Appointments to Athletic Dept. Announced

Dr. Colin B. Mackay, president and vice-chancellor of the University of New Brunswick, has announced three further appointments to the departments of athletics and physical education.

Appointed as assistant professor in physical education is William Warren MacGillivray. A native of Florence, N.S., Mr. MacGillivray is a graduate of UNB, receiving a Bachelor of Physical Education Degree in 1962, and of the University of Alberta, Edmonton, with a Master of Arts degree in 1965. Until his appointment at UNB he was a member of the physical education faculty at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario. He is a member of both the Canadian and American associations for health, physical education and recreation.

Miss Patricia Anne Martin of Halifax, N.S. has been appointed a lecturer in physical education. Miss Martin graduated from UNB in 1965 with a Bachelor of Physical Education and since that time has been a teacher at St. Patrick's High School in Halifax. She is a member of the Halifax and Dartmouth Health, Physical Education and Recreation Association.

Appointed as instructor in physical education and head coach of the UNB Football Team is Dan David Underwood, a native of Hart, Michigan. Mr. Underwood graduated from Michigan State University in 1964, where he was a leading member of the football team.

He later played as a professional with the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League and the Montreal Beavers of the Continental League. Last year he taught at Loyola College High School in Montreal. He is a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity and the Michigan State Varsity Club.

Malcolm Early of Fredericton was earlier appointed an assistant professor of physical education, and coach of the university's cross-country team.

Red Shirts Win Opener

by EMERSON MILLS

Amid all the mud and rain Saturday, the Red Shirts defeated Dalhousie 3-2 in their first league soccer game. This is the year their eyes and feet are glued to the Maritime Championship and the team has its toe in the door.

The rain let up for the start of the game and Conrad Van Der Valk expressed his joy by giving the Red Shirts a goal in the opening minutes of the match. The players slugged on in the mud until Jackson, for Dal scored close in. The Black and Yellow Spirit was quickly deadened as U.N.B.'s David Couchman booted the ball into their net on a beautiful picture play goal. Dan McGaughey made it 3-1 for U.N.B. just as the rain started again. The final scoring play of the game came when Labi made use of the poor weather condition to spin the ball past the U.N.B. goalie on what seemed to be an easy stop.

The team wished to thank the few fans who braved the rain to come down to college field to support the team. We hope to see more at our next home game later on next month.

GOLF NEWS

Terry Shaw Takes UNB-STU Tourney by One Stroke

Terry Shaw, a native of Perth, N.B. whipped team-mate Robert Chapman, of St. John, N.B. by a mere stroke. Shaw's 75 was superb considering both the obscene weather conditions and the rain-soaked course. Robert Chapman also turned a fine 76, but it wasn't quite enough. A 78 by Charlottetown's Ron Boyles earned him a third place finish.

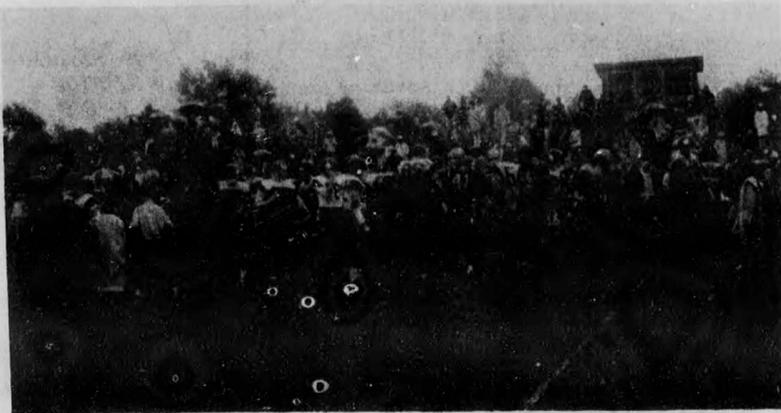

VARSITY GOLF ELIMINATIONS DOWN TO LAST FIVE

The U.N.B. Varsity Golf eliminations have been narrowed down to five players. From these five, the varsity golfers will be chosen. Ahead of this point is Kees Huibers with a 78 average. Closely following him is Robert Chapman supported by a 78.4 average. Third is Ron Boyles with 79, Denis Borvis and Terry Shaw are fourth and fifth respectively with 79.2 and 80 averages.

UNB STUDENTS SWEEP FACULTY

The Co-eds handled the faculty ladies quite easily by a total score of 8½ to 3½ at the Fredericton Golf Club. In the men's division, the faculty proved considerably stronger losing by a much slimmer margin. The students out-stroked the men 26½ to 24½. The tournament was followed by a buffet supper.

BOMBERS DROWN MT. A. WIN 8 - 1

GAME OVER!

Playing in torrential rain the U.N.B. Defence led the Bombers to their first official Blue-nose Conference win of the season.

In the season opener played Saturday at Mount A's Studley Field, John McNeil rushed in from his defensive end position to scoop up a slippery Mount A ball and run 72 yards to score the lone major score of the game.

U.N.B. opened by moving 78 yards upfield to the Mount A five yard line where, plagued by a greasy ball and bad footing the ball popped loose and Mount A recovered. This was the story of the day - U.N.B. moving well but fumbling deep in Mount A territory.

Possession continually see-sawed with Mount A punting and U.N.B. losing possession through bad ball handling.

FIELD HOCKEY

Field Hockey team trials have been going on for the past two and a half weeks under the coaching of Mrs. Lorraine Thurrott and Miss Pat Martin, a former graduate of U.N.B. Although many players graduated last year, we still have several left who are again trying out for this year's team:-

Ann MacNeil	P.E. III	Barbie Roberts	Arts III	Leckie Langley	P.E. III
Moe Langille	P.E. IV	Emoy Joshua	P.E. II	Anni Austin	P.E. III
Sue Miners	Nursing IV	Sandi Billings	P.E. III	Jeannie Eagle	P.E. IV

Last year, the varsity team won the intercollegiate league title. The former J.V. team members are trying out again this year as well as many new girls taking up the demanding sport. The team will no doubt be strong again this year. Mrs. Thurrott cut the team to 20 and played an exhibition game this past Tuesday against Moncton High School at College Field. Their first intercollegiate game is scheduled for Friday, October 6th., at College Field, time 4:30 p.m. against Dalhousie University. Saturday the seventh sees the team against King's College, this time at 10:30 a.m., again at College Field. The girls and their coach would appreciate student support for their first game. Everyone come out and watch the first games of the season. Miss Martin will announce the Junior Varsity team members shortly.

your campus bank miss r.e. (becky) watson, manager

lapinette was hoppy as could be. after all, it is kind of fun to be back on campus after a summer of labour.

besides, there are more boys than in the flax pickling plant.

and, somehow, it is the environmental details like boys which makes life on campus fun for girls. and vice versa.

but the advantage of having put in a summer at the flax pickling plant is like mainly the scratch they pass you for your work.

not to mention the inestimable advantage of knowing how to pickle flax. in case you want to graduate from home economics and you're stuck for a thesis topic, or something.

but there should be little disagreement about the advantages which pertain to the pecuniary awards for pickilian perseverance.

So lapinette can be expected to do the best thing with her cash - the same thing she does every fall.

our new True Chequing Accounts beat hollow logs all hollow.
