MEETING OF DISTRICT DIVISION

Large and Representative Meeting Held at Douglas-town-Friday Evening.

The nineteenth quarterly session of the Kent Northumberland District Division was held at Douglas town on the afternoon of Friday July 15th. The following officers and delegates were present: Rev. R. H. Stavert, D. W. P., Harcourt, H. M. Ferguson, D. R. S., Repton, Mrs. H. Ingram, Miss Helen McLeod and Clarence Jones Newcastle; Mrs. Wm. Anderson and Miss Rae Loggie, Burnt Church; R. H. Jessamin, Sterling Wood; Richard Atchinson, Geo. Cassie, Miss Jennie Bransfield, Douglas town.

Besides the officers and delegates there were a number of visitors present. These were as follows: Miss Jennie Goodwin, Shag Harbor N. S.; Miss Nettie E. Stavert, Wilmot Valley P. E. I.; Rev. F. C. Simpson, Miss R. Hutchinson, Miss Janie Jessamin, Miss Alice Hutchinson, Miss Annie Bransfield, Mr. Chas. Johnson, Douglas town. A number of the officers being absent: Rev. R. H. Stavert appointed the following officers pro tem.

Sterling Wood D. W. P.
Geo. Cassie D. Cond.
H. M. Ferguson D. Scribe.
Mrs. Wm. Anderson D. chap.
Chas. Johnson D. O. S.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The following committees were then appointed.

Credentia Committee, Mrs. H. Ingram, Mrs. Wm. Anderson and Sterling Wood.

Committee on the good of the order R. H. Jessamin, Miss Helen McLeod and Richard Atkinson.

Programme Committee Clarence Jones, Mrs. H. Ingram and Mrs. Wm. Anderson.

The several reports were then given. The D. W. P. spoke at some length of the onward march of the temperance cause in general and of the good work that is being done by the various divisions within the counties of Kent and Northumberland in particular.

In the absence of the D. Scribe H. H. Stuart, the report on the standing of the divisions within the district was given by the committee appointed on the good of the order. The report was quite encouraging.

The Treasurer's report which was given by the D. W. P. in the absence of the treasurer, showed a snug balance on hand.

After the various reports had been given problems of various kinds arising out of the working of the order were taken upon and discussed. Reports of the work being done were then given from a number of the delegates from the several divisions represented.

A motion was then carried to the effect that this District Division come upon the grand Division the necessity of putting an organizer in the field at the earliest possible date and in order to help secure such an organizer that the grand Division be asked to advertise at once through the press calling for a suitable man. It was then moved by the D. W. P. and seconded by R. H. Jessamin that this District Division now in session tender to the Division in Campbellton an expression of their sympathy with their brethren in the heavy loss sustained in the recent fire and that all the divisions within the district be asked to contribute as large an amount as possible to the order in Campbellton for the purpose of helping them to build their hall.

Lieut. Chas. Anslow Killed in Auto Accident

Received Fatal Injuries Tuesday Afternoon While Engaged in Relief Work at Stricken Town.

MILITARY FUNERAL THURSDAY

Deep gloom and sorrow was again cast over the stricken town of Campbellton when Chas. W. Anslow junior, member of the firm of Anslow Bros., publishers of the Graphic was fatally injured in an automobile accident near the relief station at the school grounds.

Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock Mr. Anslow who has been working night and day in caring for the sufferers desired to go to the tented town for some articles required. Mr. Shives with his auto in which were Willie Mott, Ollie Mowatt and Ross Malcolm was standing in Andrew street. On Mr. Shive's invitation Mr. Anslow jumped in and was run up the hill to the tent. Jumping out he did his errand and returned to the car.

Andrew street at this point is narrow, the roadway being crowned and Mr. Shives had been accustomed to run his car backwards to the first cross street. He started back and his car shot down the decline at a rapid rate. When just at the relief station at the school grounds where the deceased had been so active in the work of attending to the afflicted, and before the eyes of his companions who were at their work, the auto skidded, running into the ditch and overturned. Mr. Anslow was thrown against the stub of an electric light pole and received terrible injuries on the forehead and head. When picked up he was unconscious and remained so to the end, which was at 1.40 Wednesday morning.

The injured man was rushed to the emergency hospital under charge of the Sisters of Hotel Dieu, and there Drs. Murray, Martin and Pinault, with the Sisters did everything possible for him, but without avail. The others in the auto escaped with slight injuries only. Mr. Shives is beside himself with grief.

H. B. Anslow of the Graphic was at Teymouth York Co., at the time of the accident, and although every effort was made to get a message through to him it was not until his arrival at Chatham Junction that he received the first news of the accident, and at Newcastle was informed of the seriousness of the injuries. At Newcastle he was joined by his father-in-law, Mr. Wm. Corbett sr., and proceeded to Campbellton, but all was over before their arrival.

Wednesday morning at nine o'clock funeral service was held at the hospital. Here had congregated Campbellton citizens of all ranks with whom the deceased was a general favorite. Rev. Mr. Drummond and Rev. Mr. Schurman conducted the short and impressive service, and there was not a dry eye among the large concourse of men there assembled. The clergyman spoke of the upright and honorable life of the departed, of his good work in caring for the stricken people of Campbellton, forgetting his own loss in the nobler work of ministering to his fellow men. The body was carried to the depot in the hose wagon of the Campbellton Fire Department, of which deceased was a member, followed by many citizens on foot and in carriages. Upon arrival of the Limited the body was sent to Newcastle being accompanied by Messrs. H.

B. Anslow and Wm. Corbett, sr., and J. R. MacKenzie as a representative of the Masons. The Masons had full charge of all the funeral arrangements.

Corbett, Major T. W. Lawlor was in command, with Capt. T. H. Whalen and Lieutenant Randolph Crocker, Captain W. H. Belyka and Lieutenants C. Mersereau and A. McKenzie formed the representation.

The First Contingent of which C. W. Anslow was a member. C. W. Anslow is on the extreme right.

NEWCASTLE LEADER

It is safe to say that not at any time in the history of this town has the community been so much affected and so stirred up over the death of a former fellow citizen as has been over the death of Charlie Anslow, under the somewhat tragic circumstances through which he came to his untimely end. All classes of citizens paid their respects to the deceased both here and in Campbellton. The funeral from the hospital in Campbellton to the train was a lengthy one and men wept over the sad death.

A fitting tribute of respect to the late Lieut. Mr. C. W. Anslow was paid Thursday afternoon when the remains were interred with full Masonic and military honors. The funeral itself was one of the largest seen in Newcastle in many years and was distinctly impressive. The great length of the cortege testified to the worth of the late Mr. Anslow. Besides the militia, firemen and societies on march, hundreds of citizens paid the last and most fitting tribute of respect to Mr. Anslow.

from the 73rd, regt, at Chatham. Col Maltby was conductor of the funeral and the procession was soon formed. The order of March was as follows: 12th Field Battery, Newcastle Concert Band, Newcastle Firemen, A. F. & A. M. Lodges, Pall bearers—Major Lawlor, Capt. T. H. Whalen, Lieut. Randolph Crocker, of the 12th C. F. A.; Capt. W. H. Belyka, Lieut. C. Mersereau and Lieut. McKenzie of the 74th Battalion.

Gun with remains covered with the flag, helmet and sword. Horse Mourners—H. B. Anslow, Arthur Anslow, Wm. Corbett, sr., and Wm. Corbett, jr. The coffin was placed on the heavy six horse rig which was hauled by the firemen. The horse of the late lieutenant followed the carriage. The whole service and funeral were deeply impressive. In addition to those in the cortege, hundreds lined the route of march. The cortege proceeded along King's Highway to Thomas Street, down Thomas to Pleasant to Henry Street, thence to St. James' cemetery, where interment was made. The Masonic burial ceremony was carried out at the grave. The members of the order assembled and after the casket had been lowered to the grave, Robert Murray, Esq., W. F. P., of Chatham opened the service. Rev. F. C. Simpson of Douglas town followed and recited the prayer, the members of the order Mr. Murray placed the Masonic emblem in the grave and the other portions of the service were executed. On the conclusion of the Masonic service the firing party under command of Major T. W. Lawlor fired the salute near the grave. The participating salutes consisted of three

TRAGIC DEATH OF HOWARD DELANO

Struck with terrible force on the brain, by a peavey, which rebounded from the machinery, Howard Delano sustained such injuries in Sinclair's mill on Wednesday morning that death resulted a few hours later. The accident which was the worst in the county for many years has cast a gloom over the community. The man was terribly bruised, the forehead being badly fractured. An Indian named Noel Barnaby also received injuries in the accident, but his condition is not serious. Mr. Delano was a valued employee of the Edward Sinclair Lumber Company and was well and favorably known.

The unfortunate man had been working as usual on Wednesday morning at the slasher. The machinery in some way became entangled and in his endeavors to straighten out matters, he used the peavey. Hardly had the hook entered the slasher when it flew back with great force. It struck Delano across the forehead, knocking him to the ground unconscious. The peavey also struck the Indian a heavy blow, but his injuries were not serious. Delano was picked up and carried to his home nearby. Medical aid was summoned from Newcastle and Drs. Pedolin and Desmond responded with great haste. They found the injured man in a very low condition but worked vigorously to revive him.

The accident took place about 7.45 o'clock and when the physicians left on their return home, they entertained but little hope that he would survive. Dr. Pedolin went to the Bridge a second time and found Delano in a much worse condition. The injured man lingered until 1 o'clock when he breathed his last.

Delano's injuries were a fracture of the frontal bone with depression. The deceased was married and kept the cookhouse at Sinclair's mill. The accident marks the first fatality at Sinclair's mill and the sad affair is greatly to be regretted.

The sincere sympathy of the community will be extended to the bereaved family in the tragic death of Mr. Delano. The deceased is survived by his wife (formerly of Fredericton) two daughters, Nettie and Dorothy and one son Earl and his parents and seven brothers.

Funeral services were held at the cemetery on Friday. The interment being made in the cemetery. Over 1000 persons followed the remains to the grave. The pallbearers were: Russell, Ernest Russell, John Curtis, John Creamer, Geo. Henderson, and Dennis McLean.

Some very pretty floral tributes were sent by Mrs. Grenley, Mrs. W. Morral, Miss Jardine, Miss McIntosh, Mrs. Hubert Sinclair, Mrs. James Shultz.

guns at about one minute intervals. The Newcastle Concert Band which headed the procession rendered appropriate music upring march and at the grave. The dead march was well played by the band.

After the service at the grave, the procession was reformed. The band played the soldiers and Masons to the hall, the firemen leaving the march at the post office corner.

The remains of the late Mr. Anslow were conveyed to Newcastle from Campbellton on the Ocean Limited on Wednesday afternoon, arriving here early in the afternoon. Mr. H. B. Anslow, proprietor of The Graphic, a brother of the deceased, and Mr. William Corbett, sr., accompanied the remains which were taken to the latter's home. Many friends of the family tendered their heartfelt sympathy to Mr. H. B. Anslow in his terrible bereavement. The news of the death was received with very general regret here.

Large numbers of floral tributes were received. A large square and compass from the Masons with the Masonic emblem was one of the particularly handsome pieces. Several other tributes were received, including a wreath from Mrs. McMurray and children and cut flowers from Mrs. Henry Ingram, also a large wreath from the Campbellton Fire Department and a wreath of roses from Miss E. I. McLean.

The deceased was born in Newcastle and is the youngest son of Mr. W. C. Anslow, who perished in the woods while on a hunting trip some years ago, and who was accompanied by his son Charles. After the death of his father, H. B. Anslow and C. W. Anslow conducted the "Union Advocate" which was founded over forty years ago by their father. He was 32 years and eleven months old and is survived by three brothers and two sisters, and a step-mother. The brothers are Baxter, Station Master at Stoney Creek, B. C., Parker in the newspaper business in Boston and H. B. Anslow, editor of the Graphic, Campbellton. The sisters are Mrs. George Deblois, Chicago, Ill., and Miss Mary Anslow, an invalid sister who resides in Chicago. J. J. A. low of the Hants Journal, Wind N. S., is an uncle.

Mr. Anslow was very prominent in military and musical circles, and was a member of the first South African contingent. He was also Mason and Oddfellow.

Telegrams and letters from far and wide have been received all expressing sincere sorrow for the loss of their friend.

CONDITIONS ARE PITIABLE

Rain-Drenched Campbellton People Must Sleep With Ground Water Soaked—Two Reported to Have Become Mentally Unbalanced.

Campbellton, N. B., July 22.—Thunder storms and heavy rain falls during the last two days have made the condition of the homeless population of Campbellton more miserable than ever. Only today, in fact, are they beginning to realize their helplessness. The thunderstorms which swept over the ruins today forced the majority of the homeless people to sleep in their wet clothing, with the ground water soaked. There were no mattresses or bedding of any kind to relieve the hardships of the majority of women and children.

In the absence of regular sewerage or water supply, the physicians of the town are preparing for a serious outbreak of sickness, and a temporary hospital is being rapidly completed. The members of the relief committee are doing their best to distribute provisions justly, but it is a difficult task under the circumstances, and the cash subscriptions are coming too slowly to supply the immediate needs. Subscriptions should be addressed to Judge McLatchy, chairman of the finance committee, Campbellton. The cash received is deposited in banks in Campbellton and the funds are not paid out except upon checks drawn out and signed by the three members of the finance committee. So far only $33,000 has been received in cash. How far this will go toward relieving the situation is shown by the explanation of the

The Money Germ.

The Baltimore Sun comes out with a warning that probably few will heed. It says, "Don't let the money germ bite you," and adds that a man who has taken the trouble to count 'em says that 124,000 bacteria count comfortably on each one dollar bill after the currency has been circulating freely for a year or so. So if you have $50 in your pocket you are probably carrying around about 6,200,000 germs. "Yet," says the Sun, "there are men brave enough to face this terrible risk just for the sake of having a roll of greenbacks. It simply shows what dangers man will undergo for money. Most of us, however, are not in serious danger."

Garibaldi's Simplicity of Character.

An instance of Garibaldi's modesty and simplicity of character is afforded by the following letter, written to his wife at Caprea the day after the battle of Dignon:

Dear Francessca—Yesterday the Italian volunteers fought the whole day against the Prussians, the best soldiers in the world, and won. The weather here is very cold, and it is snowing. I dare say it will be the same in the Mediterranean. Take care of the cows and see that the calves do not suffer from the cold. Tell Pietro to sow the beans at the Tolo and tell the children, Cloetta and Manlio, that when I passed Marsaglia I saw some beautiful toys, which on my return I shall get for them.

Ingenious Ponies.

A rather curious habit has been developed by Mexican ponies in connection with the cactus thorns. When these creatures are thirsty it is said that before attempting to put their mouths to the prickly plant they will first of all stand and kick at the cactus with their heels. By this means the thorns are broken and the leathery skin bruised, and so the ponies can drink their fill of the cool juice without injury.—Strand Magazine.

They Were Not Encouraged.

"I don't see why that young man doesn't propose."

"I think, pa, that the chances of his doing it would be fully as good if you wouldn't leave your boxing gloves around where he can see them."—Bohemian Magazine.

Of course everybody likes and respects self made men. It is a great thing to be made at all.—O. W. Holmes.

A Poetic Breakfast.

George Meredith and his wife were to take up home together, but were hurried to the register by an accident when the house was fire. Meredith was not at home, but his wife was there. She had a very good breakfast, but she was not at all poetic.

And the Man Who Likes to Test it on Himself.

The man who wants to test the power of the human eye on savage beasts is legion, and he affords no end of amusement for the attendants at the circus, who are always on the lookout for him. Ordinarily he may be detected standing before the cage of a lion, gazing intently straight into the eyes of the dignified old beast, who gazes back with indifference and finally shifts his eyes, not because he feels any hostile influence, but because something else has attracted his attention.

A story is told of a man who tried the hypnotic trick on an ostrich. At first the bird, crouched down and dived his wings nervously, but made no other manifestation for some time. A few hours later the body of the man was found with the huge bird alternately stamping and sitting on it. Another is told of a man who tried to entrap a leopard, with the result that the animal made a heroic charge against the bars of his cage and at the same time the attendant was hurled and thrown into the air. The man was taken to the hospital and died.

YARN

The demand for our Yarns has grown to such proportions that we have decided to cut out all other lines we were manufacturing and make nothing but Yarns. So we take the opportunity to let you know that we will not manufacture or carry a stock of anything but Pure Wool Yarn.

We also decided that we would not be satisfied to make Yarn that we could say was just as good as any other. But we are making a pure Wool Yarn that we know to be the BEST ON THE MARKET.

All our Yarns are manufactured from Pure New Brunswick Wool, and it is admitted by all who profess to know that for making a good strong all-purpose Knitting Yarn, New Brunswick Wool is really the Best in the world. All the Dyes, Soaps, Oils, etc., that we use are the very best we can buy and are something that we know will not injure the wool in any way. We are also very careful to see that all the machinery is kept in perfect working order to make sure that the Wool Fibre will not be broken or cut in going through the different processes of manufacturing. In fact we are doing the very best we can to put up an article that will satisfy our customers in every way.

We have a large stock of our Yarns on hand in all the different sizes and colors we manufacture, which we will be pleased to let you have in exchange for your Wool.

FARMERS TRUST

A movement has been set on foot in the United States to organize a national Farmers' Union to embrace the producers of all sil products and thereby control the prices of their produce.

This has been brewing for years and as the farmer grows wealthier and has more time to study and think he realizes that there is something wrong in a system which makes such a tremendous difference between what he gets for his product and what the consumer has to pay; and at the same time compels him to pay from two to four times the cost of production for everything he must have in the shape of farm implements, household furniture and clothing.

The promoters of this gigantic proposition expect when their great organization is on a proper working basis, to co-operate with other organizations which consumes their product and produces their present. The proposition is somewhat entopian and we shall watch its progress with interest.
There certainly is no doubt that the cost of all products whether factory or farm while on the wing from its source to its place of usefulness, multiplies abnormally.

Campbellton early Wednesday morning has occasioned widespread regret.
An evidence of his general esteem in which Charlie was held was shown in the general expressions of sorrow which was to be noted ever since the first news of the untimely accident was heard in Newcastle. Beloved and respected by all, his death is a universal loss. To his family and in particular to H. B. Anslow, who has lost a brother and co-partner,
THE LEADER extends its heartfelt sympathy.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE for August is an unusually strong number. Perhaps the feature of most importance is a fine article by Professor W. L. Grant entitled "Gold-win Smith at Oxford." Professor Grant has been for some time lecturer on Colonial History at Oxford, and the researches for this article were made on the spot. There is also a splendid appreciation by Dr.
A. H. U. Colquhoun, Deput Minister of Education for Ontario, of the work and place of Goldwin Smith in Canada. These two articles are well illustrated. Professor Archibald MacMechan contributes an entertaining account of some early associations in Halifax. Mr.
Arthur O. Wheeler, President of the Canadian Alpine Club, has a beautiful illustrated article on "Canada's Wonderland." The second act of Arthur Stringer's play "The Blot" is in this number, as well as some fine short stories.

"A GIRL OF THE MOUNTAINS"

A new society play in four acts by Lem. B. Parker, entitled "A Girl of the Mountains" is announced for production at the Chatham Opera House on Monday Aug. 1st. The story opens at the home of Stephen Bonn, the hermit, where the heroine, Nellie, is being brought up. She believes Stephen to be her father, while in reality she was kidnapped when a baby for revenge. Into this secluded valley comes Roy Veanon and Richard Thurston, two New Yorkers, the latter for his health. Nellie nurses Richard back to life, only to be seduced and betrayed by him later. The scene shifts to New York, showing Nellie's struggles and her acceptance into society, working out a thoroughly satisfactory ending. It is a delightful love story as has been written for many a day.

But Gilbert Fairbairn, smoking a "good cigar" as he leaned along against the railing of the observation car's platform, felt the far—and then felt nothing more.

The bed on which he rested was a wooden affair with a cotton mattress and coarse cotton sheets, but the sheets were immaculately clean, and there was an air of hominess about the place that Fairbairn had not known in years.

"That's the way to talk to those sharks," he declared. "I have a headache, and Sugden gives me something to make it worse. Then he doctors me for 'my new disease' and sends in a bill a yard long. This is the time I fooled him."

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Appendicitis Cured By "Fruit-a-tives"

NEWBURGH, Ont., Feb. 12th, 1910.

Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella, (fourteen years), was taken with terrible pains in the right side. The pain was so severe that we had to carry her to bed. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation.

We took her to a hospital in Kingston where she was again examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once if we wanted to save her life. As we had taken her to Kingston to have this done, we were ready but our daughter was afraid and cried and begged so pitifully, that we postponed it for that day. Luckily for us and for her, an uncle came in with some "Fruit-a-tives" and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent, almost from the first dose, and the continuous treatment cured her.

"Fruit-a-tives" saved our daughter from the surgeon's knife and to-day she is enjoying the best of health."

KIT CARSON

Part of Which the Hardy Frontiersman Had No Recollection.

One of the most noted of the hardy western frontiersmen was Kit Carson, a whom, with Daniel Boone, belongs the credit of having always dealt fairly with the various Indian tribes, as they themselves acknowledged. The withdrawal of Carson by the government was the cause of a great war.

My own conception of Kit Carson as a child was that he was ten feet high, that it would have required the strength of two men to lift his rifle, that he usually drank a river dry and skinned the carcass of a whole buffalo as easily as a lady does the wings of a quail. Years after, when I made the acquaintance of the foremost frontiersman, I found him a delicate, reticent, undersized, wiry man, the very opposite type of what my childish brain had created.

One day while Kit was at the fort I came across a periodical that had a full page illustration of a scene in a forest. In the foreground stood a gigantic figure dressed in the traditional buckskin.

On one arm rested an immense rifle. His other arm was around the waist of the conventional female of such sensational journals, while in front half a dozen Indians lay prone, evidently slain by the hero in the impossible attire in defense of the preposterous female. The legend stated how all this had been effected by Kit Carson.

I handed it to Kit. He wiped his spectacles, studied the picture intently for a few seconds and then said: "Gentlemen, that that may be true, but I hadn't got no recollection of it."

A JOURNALISTIC HOAX.

Trick the Harvard Lampoon Played on the Crimson.

Speaking of the Crimson, Harvard's daily newspaper, reminds every Harvard man of the Lampoon's master stroke—or joke—played on that dignified and unsuspecting sheet on Memorial Day, 1901. The Crimson had announced that it would not appear on that holiday, but inconspicuously, so few were surprised to find their Crimson at their door that morning as usual. Their surprise began, however, when they scanned its contents. This always serious sheet seemed to have become most frivolous and irresponsible during the night, for in its columns all sorts of weird and fantastic statements appeared.

The news, though clothed in the usual heavy, dignified Crimson style, was wildly revolutionary in character. Among the items that appeared were: "A Plot to Blow Up Memorial Hall," "Strong Men to Get the Varsity H," "Walden Crew to Be Guests of the University" and most important of all a notice, "Lampoon Celebration at 7 Tonight." Then the joke came out: The Lampoon had published the famous "fake Crimson," the joke was known throughout the vicinity and that night Lampy's (Lampoon) was the scene of hilarious revelry. When the following year the Crimson editors set up their night with injunctions against a repetition of the fake the joke was again on them for Lampy differs from history in that he never repeats himself—K. B. Townsend in Bohemian.

Mississippi Oratory

Jasper county has been noted for the high grade of eloquence produced by the public men of that part of Mississippi. An appeal to the "mighty men of Jasper" made by one of that county's great men when a candidate to the voters who elected him is as follows: "My name is Jasper. It can be instrumental in the hands of my people in adding a few jewels to those that now shine in imperishable lustre on the queenly brow of our proud commonwealth, whose associated radiance, like the lambent beauty of the star, is to guide the footsteps of the children along the paths of peace and prosperity, security and happiness. I shall then have accomplished the ambition of my life."

Suppletive Beauty

A Swedish newspaper, recently, invited its readers to state in a few words what they considered the most beautiful thing in the world. The first prize was carried off by an anonymous answer. The eyes of my mother. More imaginative was the reader who won the next prize by suggesting "The dream of that which we know to be impossible." The most amusing answer was that which read: "The most beautiful thing in the world is to see a man carrying his mother-in-law across a dangerous river without making any attempt to stop her."

BEAVER FLOUR

is equal to the occasion

SOLVE THE BAKING PROBLEM

by using the flour that you can always depend upon. You've noticed how your bread or pies or cakes turn out with varying degrees of success, and you have blamed the heat of the stove, the quantities of your ingredients and anything but the right thing. The difference between constant success and uncertainty is the difference between Beaver Flour and flours that cannot be depended upon in all baking operations. Unfailing results demand the use of "BEAVER" FLOUR.

The reason is simple. Here is a flour that is blended from the rich, nutritious Manitoba Spring wheat and the more delicate Ontario Fall wheat. One has an abundance of gluten, that goes to build up the human frame with nourishing food, while the other ensures lightness and whiteness.

The blended wheat properties in Beaver Flour provide a perfect combination for making wholesome bread, biscuits, cakes and pastry that are as pleasing to the eye as they are sweet to the palate.

Put it to the severest tests you can devise, and we are willing to abide by your judgment.

Rural Phones

Solve These

Every-Day Problems

- Problem I. Bad Roads—The old way was to curse and curse till you were hoarse. The new way is to telephone for what you want, and smile because you got the information in a thousand parts of the time.
- Problem II. Weather Forecasts—The old way was to work on belated information, and to blame the losses with "That's what the farmer has to put up with." The new way is to telephone every morning to the weather man and overcome much of the needless haste and bustle of the old way.
- Problem III. Prices Current—The old way was to ask a neighbor or trust to the newspapers. The new way is to get information in the nick of time over the phone, thus knowing when to sell and when to hold.
- Problem IV. Emergencies—The old way of proceeding when someone took sick, was to harness up the "doctor" and make all haste for the doctor. Effort in this direction often occurred as it only result the information: "doctor is out." The new way is to call up the doctor on the phone, and know instantly what can be done pending the medical man's arrival.
- Problem V. Help—The old way was to allow men to go on boys' errands or waste half a morning walking to Smith's only to find that his barrow was already loaned. The new way is to make the phone your errand boy—buy, borrow, beg, by means of the "slight partner."

We have prepared a Booklet describing this a rural phone system. If you better instruct us to send you this interesting bit of information, select it costs you nothing. Ask for Booklet 3110.

10-YEAR-OLD BOY MADE A THRILLING RESCUE IN WATER

Fredericton, July 23.—Maurice Boyd, a lad of ten years, was the hero in a thrilling rescue from drowning at Nashwaaksis on Thursday. A young son of Mr. Peter McFarlane, aged about 7 years, was in wading in the Nashwaaksis stream when he suddenly got into deep water and was drowning when his cries attracted young Boyd, who with some other lads was swimming nearby. Without a moment's hesitation young Boyd hurried to the little fellow's aid, but in his efforts to effect a rescue was clutched about the neck by the almost drowning boy. After a struggle he freed himself and got back to the shore. There other boys were congregated, but it was young Boyd who rushed to the rescue again as soon as he got his breath and strength back again. Finally the McFarlane boy was rescued.

WORK OF THE SALVATION ARMY

In all towns and cities, there are numbers of children who are growing up to manhood and womanhood, and their training is one of vast importance. A growing child is very easily impressed either for good or bad, and alas there are so many things to influence a child for bad, either through the eye or ear. Many children, through ignorance, they do not realize the wickedness of bad language and other sins, when they see older people who should be an example indulging in sin. The churches of today are awakening to the fact that a great work can be done among the children, and are making efforts to help them. Among the great work being done, the Salvation Army has for some time been doing a great work. In some of the large cities, great numbers of children, who have been in the habit of wandering on the streets and mixing in with questionable company, are gathered in, and taught, not only to be Christians, which is ever the aim of the Army, but are taught many useful things. Classes are held for sewing, fancy work, cooking, singing music, carpenter work, etc. The results have been very gratifying, the children have been interested and learned many useful things. This work has not been merely confined to salvationist children alone, but children of all denominations attend these meetings held by the Army. Men and women of high social standing have shown their appreciation by supporting the work and sending their children. Many zealous church workers and ministers can look back with pleasure on the happy hours they spent in the Army Junior meetings. It will be a pleasure to parents in Newcastle to know that the Army officers who have lately come here, intend to make special efforts in this direction. Sunday School will be started in the S. A. Hall on Pleasant street on August 7th at 4 p.m. Very special meetings of great interest will be held every Wednesday night at 7 p.m. The first one will be held Wednesday August 7th. All children in Newcastle are invited. Be sure and watch for future announcements.—Com.
