THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES. The Cholera. The Wimbledon Matches. Canadians carry off Five Prizes. The College Regatta. Rich Gold Mine. London, July 18. - An Irish team have won the Elocho shield at Wimbledon. This is the first time that the Irish Rifle-men have succeeded in carrying off a prize from the English marksmen. London, July 18. - The friends of Edward Miall, founder and editor of the Non-conformist, gave him a reception at the Crystal Palace this evening and presented him with a testimonial purse of £25,000. Henri Rochfort will be sent to New Caledonia on the 31st inst. A despatch announces that a large fire is raging in Trebizond, in Turkey in Asia. London, July 18. - The Canadians have succeeded in carrying off five more prizes; but they have lost the Kolapore Cup. The London Gazette announces that the Queen has given her consent to the marriage of Prince Arthur with the Grand Duchess Maria Alexandra Christiana. New York, July 19. - A Vienna special states that Hivani Garrelsson, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been appointed Chief American Commissioner, in place of Jackson Schütz, resigned. It is rumored that the late Mrs. Booker was poisoned, and her parents desired official investigation, but her sisters, Woodhull and Claflin, declined to take any action in the matter. It is discovered that the personal accounts of E. S. Mills, late President of the Brooklyn Trust Company, who was drowned at Coney Island last Tuesday are overdrawn $100,000, and that he allowed the loaning of over $800,000 of the funds of that institution upon doubtful securities. John C. Babcock, the umpire in the College Regatta, publishes a card, wherein he says: - "It is proper that the public should be informed of certain facts concerning the late regatta at Springfield, which will explain the confusion that resulted in determining the actual winners. The score, or finishing line, instead of being located at right angles with the river banks, as it should have been, was by carelessness or stupidity on the part of those who located it, placed diagonally, the eastern end of the line being some one hundred and fifty yards lower down the river than the western end, where the judges were requested by the umpire to station themselves. By this arrangement all boats arriving at the easterly end of the line, which was some 2,000 feet longer, rowed a proportionately longer course than those coming in on the westerly shore. Had the line been located properly the result of the race would have been entirely different, and the race decided on the merits of the crews instead of chance in the position of crossing a line, no two points of which were equal distant from the start. New York, July 19. - The Buenos Ayres correspondent gives an account of a discovery in the Province of the Argentine Republic of a gold mine said to be the richest in the world. Half of the site of the mine is said to have been sold for a hundred million dollars. Evansville, Ind., July 18. - A special despatch from Mr. Vernon, Indiana, states that a panic prevails there on account of the cholera. Forty deaths have occurred within a week, and eight or ten yesterday. The people are fleeing from the city. POLICE COURT. Deport T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. M. Saturday, July 18. Archibald Thompson was charged by Mr. Kelly with unlawfully and maliciously breaking a window sash and eight panes of glass, in a house belonging to Mr. John Hogg, late last evening. Defendant rents the house in question, and the smash occurred during a quarrel between him and his wife. Fined $5 and costs, with $2.50 for the damage to the window. James Murphy was charged by Augustus Fritz with making use of insulting language towards plaintiff's wife, on Wednesday last. The parties are neighbors, and live in Norfolk street. Defendant came home drunk, and desired to indulge in his usual amusement of thrashing his wife; but not finding his victim, he suspected Mrs. Fritz of concealing her, and poured out much abuse upon her in consequence. Fined $2 and costs. East Ward Election. The polling closed at five o'clock on Friday when the returns were as follows: Davidson 113 McCrae 88 Majority for Davidson 25 This is the largest vote - 201 - ever known to have been polled in the East Ward. At the close of the day's proceedings brief speeches were made by the two candidates, and a vote of thanks was given to the Returning-officer. Much demonstrative joy was, of course, manifested by the supporters of the winners. Three cheers for Her Majesty would up things in correct style. Mr. Davidson's victory is undoubtedly due to his having been in the field a week before his opponent, and having secured promises from many electors who were not aware that Mr. McCrae would run. The latter's friends, however, felt sanguine of success.

Sudden Death near Guelph.

On Friday afternoon, between five and six o'clock, a man named Stephen Cox, aged about sixty, who lives near Carling's saw mills, Nassagaweya, was found dead in his wagon, on the York Road, near the Rifle Range Tavern. It appears that on Friday morning he started to drive into town, came here, and transacted some business. He had been drinking before his arrival, and it is believed that he had more liquor afterwards. He started on his home-ward journey on the York road between four and five o'clock, having another man in the wagon with him whose name is Bennett. When they reached the Rifle Range Inn, they alighted and had some more liquor. Cox taking two horns of brandy. He then drove on, and when on the other side of the creek, they were seen by some of the children of Mr. Smart, butcher, who lives on the roadside, to be acting strangely. Some wrangling must have occurred, for Cox was seen to slap the other man in the face and throw his bundle or bag out of the wagon. The man thereupon got out of the wagon, and for some unexplained reason Cox turned round and drove in the direction of Guelph. He passed the Rifle Range Inn, and proceeded until he arrived near the Rev'd Mr. Torrance's house. Here he was noticed by Mrs. Darby, a resident of the neighbourhood, to be in a strange posture and to look ill. The wagon was stopped, and another neighbour, Mrs. Cochrane came along. Cox was then insensible. It was supposed he had been smothered; cold-water cloths were applied to his head, and other remedies applied, without effect; Dr. Keating was then sent for. Meanwhile Cox's son, who lives in the neighbourhood and had been to town the same morning, came up, on his way home. When Dr. Keating arrived he found Cox lying with his face on the dashboard, quite dead. The body was removed to McLaren's tavern, where an inquest was to have been held this (Saturday) forenoon, but through some mismanagement the son of the deceased was permitted to take the body home, and thus the matter stands at present.

Sir Francis and the Scandal.

The Mail this morning publishes a letter which has been addressed by Sir Francis Hincks to the Gazette, and will appear in that paper to-morrow morning. He says that although reluctant to anticipate the formal enquiry into Mr. Huntington's charges, he cannot allow the statement made in the Herald of yesterday by Mr. Geo. W. McMullen to go unnoticed. He states his opinion that the Government should feel indebted to any proper persons who would undertake the construction of the Pacific Railway, and then states his intention to confine his remarks on Mr. McMullen's letter to what affects him more personally. He next gives his version of the manner in which his first communication to Sir Hugh Allan of the names of the American capitalist was made. After seeing Mr. McMullen and his friends in July, 1871, Sir Francis received a letter on the 24th of July, acquainting him that the writer intended going to Montreal, along with a gentleman who has been active in promoting railway enterprises, with a view to bring this scheme under the notice of Sir Hugh Allan and other capitalists in Montreal. Sir Francis replied, deprecating the intention of seeing Sir Hugh. He then proceeds to say: - "I readily admit that from the time when the proposals made through Mr. McMullen were first submitted, I was most anxious, but solely on public grounds, that the negotiations should fall into other hands. After having prevented, as I believed I had done, the communication to Sir Hugh Allan, I determined to let him know what was going on. Accordingly gave him the names of the American gentlemen who had made the informal communication, but I certainly could not have requested Sir Hugh to communicate with them. I did not then even know that Sir Hugh Allan was prepared to embark in the scheme, but I readily admit that I was of opinion that several of the American names were wholly unobjectionable, and that Sir Hugh Allan was as likely as any other Canadian capitalist to secure co-operation both in England and Canada." Sir Francis then states that he had interviews with the two prominent railway bankers mentioned by Mr. McMullen, and that he believed he did suggest that the American capitalists inclined to promote the undertaking would find Sir Hugh Allan a better medium of communication with the Canadian Government than Mr. McMullen and his Chicago friends. When the conversation in New York took place he certainly never gave any address to Sir Hugh Allan; on his return he gave Sir Hugh a list of names, who remarked that he knew all or most of them by reputation. Sir Francis says that till after the session of Parliament of 1872, the objects of the promoters of the Pacific scheme and of the Government were wholly at variance. He goes on: - "The next reference to me in Mr. McMullen's letter is to the meeting of Council on the 6th of October, 1871, when Mr. McMullen says: - 'It was at that meeting that they were not fully in accord with themselves.' How this was apparent it would be difficult for Mr. McMullen to show, inasmuch as to the best of my recollection no member of the Government said a word except Sir John. Sir John asked Sir Hugh Allan whether he had any proposition to submit, to which Sir Hugh replied by enquiring whether, if he made a proposition, the Government would be prepared to consider it, or enter into negotiations; to which Sir John replied that they were not prepared to do so, and Sir Hugh rejoined that in that case he did not think it advisable to make any suggestion. I have no recollection whatever of holding any private conversation with Mr. McMullen, and I cannot believe it possible that I could have discussed with him the views of Sir George Carter." He refers to the expression about advertising for tenders so as to avoid blame, and says in effect that he does not recollect it, but that if he said anything of the kind it was only his own private opinion and not authorized by the Government. Then comes the pit of the letter, which concludes by a flat denial of the charges against Sir Francis, as follows: - "I solemnly declare that I never asked and never obtained, either by loan or gift, any sum of money from Sir Hugh Allan, or from any person on his behalf, or from any other person in connection with the Pacific Railway; that I never was soundly by Sir Hugh Allan as to my personal expectations, and never, directly or indirectly, asked or obtained any money in connection with the scheme. Mr. McMullen asserts that I required not a single sum of money for myself, but a situation for my son at a salary of not less than $2,000 per annum. I never made any such demand, but I did on one occasion casually say to Sir Hugh Allan, as I had done to other friends, that if he happened to know of any employment for my youngest son I would be glad if he would bear him in mind. I desire to state, in conclusion, that the Canadian Government was never in any way a party to any arrangement between Sir Hugh Allan and his American associates. From the very first there was the strongest opposition to the introduction of several members of the Cabinet, and to Americans being introduced. I always felt that Mr. McMullen was a source of weakness. I further state most positively, that the Government never entered into any agreement to give the Pacific Railway charter for monetary considerations of any kind. The various conditions and the charter were discussed on their merits, and Sir Hugh Allan and his immediate friends were repeatedly obliged to yield points which they desired to press. The Government honestly tried to obtain an amalgamation between the two Canadian Companies to the exclusion of Americans, and failing that they incorporated a Canadian Company, in which Sir Hugh Allan's influence most certainly does not preponderate."

THE

LETTERS CONTRACTS - The Commissioners met on Tuesday and Monday last, the contract for laying the gravel on the Elora Saugeen Road as follows: - B. Boyle from Elora to Bosworth, J. Dempsey from Elora to Salem, Wm. Mooley from Salem to Elora, Thomas Purvis from Elora to Hurst's, Wm. Everett from Hurst's to the junction. OPENING A BONUS - At a meeting recently held at the village of Luther, a proposition to grant a bonus of $20,000 to the credit Valley Railway Company, on condition that the company would construct a branch road to that place, was approved by the ratepayers. The Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway does not appear to give the people of Luther all the railway facilities they require; hence the desire for another road. SHEEP STEALING - There is a rumour afloat, respecting the stealing of sheep from the Elora and Maryborough and selling them to Mr. Peter Robb. Whether the rumour be true it is not in our power to say at present. However, Mr. Robb has purchased some sheep from a young man living on the 8th con. Maryboro, which have since been claimed by other parties who have taken possession of them. The person concerned is one K. Donnelly near Moorefield, who it is reported, is now in Guelph jail. Forty or fifty sheep are said to be disposed of in this way. - Drayton Enterprise. LAYING A CORNER STONE - On Tuesday evening, the 15th inst., the Rev. Thomas Wardrop, of Guelph, assisted by the Rev. G. Brown, of Worcester, and D. Davidson, of Langside, laid the cornerstone of a brick church, 42 by 65 feet in size, to cost $5,000, being erected by one of the congregations of the Canada Presbyterian Church, in the village of Teeswater. There were nearly four hundred persons present. After the ceremony Mr. Wardrop delivered a lecture on "Canada our Country," in the Town Hall, which was well attended, a nice addition being made to the fund of the building committee. TEMPERANCE MEETING - A meeting was held last (Friday) evening in the Good Templars' Hall, under the auspices of the Sons of Temperance. There was a good attendance. Mr. Wilkie occupied the chair. Rev. Messrs. Howie, Wardrop and Wood each addressed the meeting, strongly advocating the cause of temperance and urging those engaged in the noble work of endeavoring to stem the tide of intemperance to renewed activity, and ultimately to success without doubt crown their labors. There was an excellent choir present, who gave some choice pieces in an admirable style. The proceedings throughout were of a most interesting character. MORE PIC-NICS - Yesterday the annual picnic of the teachers of the Congregational Sabbath School came off in pleasant semi-aquatic fashion. The party assembled at the Dundas bridge, and embarked in several boats, among which was Mr. Arms' steamer. A pleasant time was had up at the rocks, with abundance of good things, and the party returned the same way that they went. The annual picnic in connection with Knox Church also came off yesterday in Mr. Mitchell's grove. The ladies of the congregation had provided a great store of delicacies, which were duly dispensed and appreciated. The usual picknickers' programme was gone through, and everything passed off happily. Mrs. Reynar, daughter of Rev. Dr. Punshon, and wife of Rev. A. H. Reynar, of Cobourg, died on Friday in her 22nd year. The Right Hon. Sir Sydney Waterlot, Lord Mayor of London, has been created a Baronet.

THE PIC-NIC OF THE ELORA AND FERGUS HIGHLAND SCHOOLS - The school of the Elora and Fergus schools came off on Tuesday afternoon, and proved a very pleasant affair. The day was not too warm, the grove was all that could be desired, and the refreshments were bountifully supplied. NEW CAB - As will be seen by advertisement in another column Mr. John Ewing has purchased a splendid cab, and is prepared to convey persons to and from any place in town at the usual rates. Give Ewing a trial. MR. HENRY HAMILTON, while engaged drawing up the rafters at a raising at the Elora, was struck by a large log, which fell from the top of the building to the ground, a distance of 34 feet. Four of his ribs were broken. With care he will soon recover. Local and Other Items.

ORILLIA is agitating to be incorporated as a town. A SINGULAR FACT - The best time to repent of a blunder is just before the blunder is made. A MAN named Wm Burley was instantly killed by lightning on Friday afternoon, at Newcastle. THE largest society picnic, and one of the most successful which has yet left London, took place on July 15, under the auspices of the St. George's Society. ON Wednesday evening last, Mr. John Scott, of the 29th Waterloo Battalion Band, was presented by the other members of the band with a very handsome silver cornet. THE result of the mowing machine contest at Ottawa was that the "Sprague" and "Warrior" mowers were equally good, each having scored 117 points; that the "Bueyke" comes next with 114, and the "Cayuga Chief" last with 112. INCENDIARISM - On Thursday night, the 10th inst., or rather at an early hour on Friday morning, an attempt was made to burn the new brick building on Dundas street, Woodstock, now approaching completion, the property of Mr. W. Edwards. HAPPY HE! - Mr. Abery, proprietor of the Central Hotel, and butcher, Woodstock, formerly of Princeton, last week received information from England that a relative has left him heir to $1,700 in cash, besides a small landed property in the North of England. FOUR loads of hay were offered for sale on the Kingston market yesterday, but because the sellers could not get the hay home, and allege they will wait until the price rises to $30. Long may they wait! MURDEROUS AFFRAY - We hear from a gentleman lately returned from the neighbourhood of Newry that a fight, participated in by several persons, took place late on Thursday night, in which one man was killed and another seriously injured; but no particulars are yet to hand. NEWSPAPER DEAD-BEAT - Our correspondent at Tara, refers to a dead-beat in the newspaper business, a person named J. T. White, from Hamilton, who is travelling through the County of Bruce, representing himself as an agent for an imaginary paper called "Our Cheerful Friend." He induces persons to subscribe, collects their money in advance but invariably forgets to forward the paper. - Spectator. THE body of the girl found in the river at Youngstown, at the mouth of the Niagara river, who was carried over the Falls last week, was exhumed last week, and fully identified by her parents as the girl who went over the Falls a short time since. It turns out that the young man in company with the girl and her brother took some $600 from his father in Ohio, and ran away to marry the girl. The result was a sad one to all. FATAL ACCIDENT - On Thursday of last week Mr. John McCormack, a middle-aged respectable farmer, residing on the 7th con., Bright, west of Horner's Creek, Long Bridge, was hitching up a mare, (with a foal at her foot) to his wagon, when another horse happening to pass, the mare kicked out, and struck her master a terrible blow with both hind feet in the bowels. All efforts to stop inflammation were futile, and the unfortunate man expired on Friday afternoon, after enduring much suffering. DROWNED WHILE BATHING - Robert Reid Smiley, fourteen years of age, son of the late Hugh C. Smiley, was drowned in Burlington Bay on Friday evening. He and a number of other boys, went for a bath; on the boys coming out their attention was attracted to a heap of clothing on the sands, which was recognized as Smiley's, who had not been missed up to that time. He must have been seized with cramps, and, unable to call for help, sank to the bottom immediately. A little girl, 5 years of age, daughter of Wm. Moore, township of Dunn, was left alone in the house while its parents were out in the field to work. During their absence, it commenced playing with the fire, and its clothes became ignited. Before assistance could be rendered, the child was beyond all human aid, and in a few short hours died, after enduring the most excruciating pain.

The Missing Link.

The attempts of Sir John A. Macdonald to suppress the truth about the corrupt sale of the Pacific Railway Charter have been ingenious but futile.

An opinion has been expressed at Ottawa, by an eminent legal gentleman, to the effect that the Proclamation published on Dominion Day last, by the Governor-General, disallowing the Oaths to Witnesses Act, was illegal from beginning to end.

Confirmatory Evidence. We now give the letters which passed between Mr. McMullen and Senator Foster. It will be seen that the Senator's letters explicitly confirm the main points of Mr. McMullen's statement.

McMULLEN TO SENATOR FOSTER. Montreal, July 15th, 1873. Hon. A. B. Foster, My Dear Sir, I submit for your personal statement I propose publishing to the people of Canada as to my connection with the Pacific Railroad.

A SWINDLE.—A man who calls himself an agent for the Scott's Marble Works, Kincairdine, having by some means learned that Mrs. Hughes, 18th con. Peel, was away from home, he proceeded to the house and perpetrated a swindle on her son, William Henry.

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

WHEN SAUL JIM PORTER

Jim, whose mind had now his upon the tree, solemnly of the changed treatment of the Indians towards him, kept his faculty of observation wide awake,

Of course Jim was not enamoured of the prospect of being turned into an Indian, but it was better than being killed,

Before that day was over, however, he was made to see that his Indian adoption was to be a more tangible and disagreeable thing than he deemed, as well as more permanent in its effects, should he even succeed in escaping.

"Oh, murder," thought Jim, "this is a pretty mess to be in. But I don't refuse, and I only hope as how I'll get it washed off afore it hardens into wot the calico printers call a fact colour."

To his further horror he was made to understand that in a few days, when the red colour had sunk sufficiently into his skin, he was to be tattooed and painted after the fashion of a mighty brave.

The St Catharines Times says.—A rather peculiar work is being built on Lake street by Mr. J. McKelvey.
It may be termed a large refrigerator,
