3 SUSPECT BURGLARS CAPTURED AT AURORA AFTER ALL-DAY CHASE

Won't Give Names But Are Thought to Be Trio Who Have Long List of Recent Crimes Placed to Credit.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT MADE ON BANK AT THORNHILL

Three men, apparently of the tramp or "yegg" variety, who refused to give names, were arrested late last night by Chief of Police Petch of Aurora.

They are believed to be the perpetrators of the attempt which was made to rob the Sterling Bank at Thornhill Tuesday night, in which shots were exchanged by the burglars and Roy Henry, manager of the bank, who was severely beaten and who came close to being shot, but succeeded in frightening off the intruders.

The men arrested were first observed hanging about the Don flats near Thornhill a few days before the attempt. One of them went to the house of Allan Elson, who lives near the flats, and asked for some hot water to make tea. On Tuesday evening one of them entered the general store of Lindsay & Francis at Thornhill and purchased a pound of cheese.

When County Constable Robert Burns, who was sent to investigate the case by County Crown Attorney Drayton, and County Constable Tomlinson, dispatched by High Constable Ramsden, arrived in Thornhill yesterday morning they took up the trail of these men. Being informed that the man had been seen in a box car at Maple, ten miles north of Thornhill, the constables went to Aurora, with a view of heading off their quarry.

Seen With Revolver. At about 3.30 p.m. they heard by wire from King station that the trio had got off a train at that place. They had a little black dog with them. Two of them were later seen talking to two citizens at King City, about two miles from the station. One of them spoke to Mr. Fleury, manager of the Bank of Montreal at King, while another accosted Mr. McIntyre, whose home is near the bank. He was told where he could buy some tobacco. While he was talking, Mrs. McIntyre, who had been standing in her doorway, saw him take from his pocket a mitt in which was a revolver. When he saw that Mrs. McIntyre had observed him he took the weapon from his pocket, examined it and put it back in his pocket.

Constables Burns and Tomlinson set out for Curtis' Corners, where they heard that the engineer of a freight had seen them cross the second concession line heading in that direction. This would be at 7. The constables, at the "Corners," some four miles from Aurora, no trace could be had of them and the Toronto police were asked to search the Metropolitan Railway Co.'s station, and having notified every hamlet in the vicinity to be on the lookout, the constables came back to the city.

Description of Trio. Later they were notified of the arrests by the Aurora police.

The descriptions of the men in the hands of the constables set them down as of a rough appearance.

One is said to be a man of 28 years, about five feet seven inches in height, of dark complexion, wearing a dark overcoat and greenish peaked cap. The second is red haired. He is about 22 years of age, five feet five inches tall, of ruddy complexion and stocky build. He wears overalls and in addition a dark overcoat and a peaked cap.

The third one is older, being about 30 years of age. He is dark, with similar overcoat and cap to the others. He is taller than his fellows, being about five feet nine inches tall.

Constable Burns consulted with Inspector of Detectives and they returned to the city, and from the description given Inspector Duncan believes the men to be members of a notorious gang, and that they are now in the penitentiary. He gave the constable photographs of two of these "probabilities," whose descriptions tally.

When arrested no firearms were found upon the men. One of them had a pair of pinchers. They are locked up at Aurora, charged as vagrants.

Manager's Plucky Work. The story of the Thornhill attempt is a thrilling one and over it is written large the bravery of Roy W. Henry, manager of that branch of the Sterling Bank. He was severely beaten by the burglars and one of the shots in answer to his own, passed between his legs about the knee, piercing his night-robe.

Henry sleeps over the bank with his assistant, Hector C. Wright, who was not in when the Aurora police came. The manager was awakened by a noise below stairs. Thinking it was Wright returning he went downstairs, but without making his revolver. He found the back doors broken open and returned to his revolver. He then returned down the stairs. He saw a form outlined against the front door glass and fired. The fire was returned and a bullet passed between Mr. Henry's legs. Henry turned to go into the room to call for help. This room is used as an undertaker's storeroom, and as Henry passed thru the doorway a man who had been standing in a coffin box stepped out and struck him on the head with some weapon. He dropped to the floor, but recovering, called for help.

At that moment Wright appeared, but the robbers had fled.

Will Be Recognized. Henry was yesterday very shaky after his experience, but was able to be interviewed.

YOUNG 'M' MASTER GRAD RECEIVES CALL TO BLOOR ST. CHURCH

W. A. Cameron, B.A., Just Finishing Course, Invited to Take a Famous Pulpit.

W. A. Cameron, B.A., was last night, by the unanimous voice of the board, called to the pulpit of Bloor-street Baptist Church, at a stipend of $2000. He is but 26 years of age and is now finishing his theological course in McMaster University. As he will complete his course next month, it is expected that his reply to the congregation will be forwarded within a week.

The call is considered one of the most flattering offers so young a man could have received in Canada, as Bloor-street Baptist Church is perhaps one of the most important churches in Canada, being, as it is, closely allied to the university and largely attended by the faculty.

It has the record of having produced more big men in the ministerial world than any other single pulpit on the continent.

Rev. Dr. O. C. S. Wallace stepped from his pulpit to the chairmanship of McMaster, and he now occupies a very important pulpit in Leicester, England.

It was from the Bloor-street Church that Rev. Dr. C. A. Eaton was called to the Rockefeller church in Cleveland, O., and the last pastor, Rev. J. D. Freeman, M.A., now occupies a very important pulpit in Leicester, England.

Since the resignation of Mr. Freeman, over a year ago, the congregation have been carefully deliberating as to whom should be their successor. Rev. Dr. Jenkins, who holds an English pulpit, recently declined a call.

Mr. Cameron is a native of Palmyra, in Kent County, and a graduate of Woodstock College. In 1906 he graduated in arts at McMaster and specialized in political economy. As a debater, he ranks high. During his years in attendance, McMaster has won the inter-collegiate debating championship five times, and twice captured the title of champion of the year.

GILLIES' LIT ON A MATTER OF BUSINESS

C. N. Smith, M.L.A., Fails to "Pump" Government for Political or Other Purposes.

To C. N. Smith of Sault Ste. Marie was due the one lively debate of the evening session of the legislature.

The house was occurring in some of the estimates passed in the afternoon when he made some enquiries in regard to the Gillies limit.

Those interested in Cobalt, he said, were watching the government operations with considerable expectancy. It had been understood that the government's work would be of an informative character and the people of the province were entitled to a full and frank explanation of how the province stood.

Hon. Frank Cochrane replied that the estimates showed that the government expected a revenue from the operations there this year of $100,000. The deepest shaft was down 140 feet and others varied from 10 to 55 feet. They had made a drift along the first level of 40 feet and a cross-cut of 70 feet. They had shipped out one car of silver and two cars of cobalt.

Still Mr. Smith was not satisfied. What he asked, had been the result? "I will tell you as soon as I get the returns from these cars," replied the minister.

Inquisitive Mr. Smith. After two years' work, declared Mr. Smith, the government should have been able to give definite information. What was the value of the ore on the surface? At 20 feet? Was it richer or poorer? Millions had been invested and many investors were waiting to know the result of the government's work. "It was up to the government to tell whether the veins petered out, or if they went down 20 or 1000 feet."

Hon. Mr. Whitney said he differed from the member from the Sault. "You generally do," said the member referred to.

"If thru some perversity of intellect the honorable member is generally on the off-side, who is to blame?" asked the speaker. The duty of the government was to conduct the work as a business enterprise, to give out what information a business man would give out and retain what information a business man would retain.

Not for Speculators. "We do not propose," he declared, "to add people who, thru a constitutional objection, are buying stocks." The members of the house were as much the owners of the limits as were the members of the industry, said D. Reed, and it was time the government took the people into its confidence.

It would be glad to answer any questions, said Hon. Frank Cochrane. He had nothing to hide, but he did not think that it would be in the interest of the mining industry to give out reports of order after some conflict of authority on parliamentary practice, and postponed until properly moved in committee of the whole.

The people of the province were shareholders in the property, persisted Mr. McDougall of Ottawa, and they were entitled to full and complete information.

"What value did the veins carry on the surface and at 140 feet?" asked Mr. Smith of the minister.

As soon as I get a return from those cars I will be able to give you facts," replied Mr. Cochrane. "I will not give out guesses."

"Does it take two years to make a guess?" asked the member from the Sault. "A good many have been up there three years and are not shipping yet," replied the minister.

PREMIER MEETS CRITICS ON REDISTRIBUTION BILL DEBATE IS CUT SHORT

Hon. Mr. Whitney Explains the Fairness of Government Proposals—Mr. Mackay Reserves Fire Until the Third Reading.

NORTH TORONTO GOES INTO EAST YORK AFTER ALL

By a majority of 59 to 23 the amendment of the opposition to the motion to go into committee on the redistribution bill was defeated yesterday afternoon. The opposition voted to postpone redistribution altogether, except in adding the four new seats to Northern Ontario.

T. H. Preston (Brant) at once moved another amendment that Toronto should only have six members representing six separate constituencies. This, being a matter of detail, was ruled out of order after some conflict of authority on parliamentary practice, and postponed until properly moved in committee of the whole.

The people of the province were shareholders in the property, persisted Mr. McDougall of Ottawa, and they were entitled to full and complete information.

"What value did the veins carry on the surface and at 140 feet?" asked Mr. Smith of the minister.

"Does it take two years to make a guess?" asked the member from the Sault. "A good many have been up there three years and are not shipping yet," replied the minister.

CHANGE IN PARKS ACT.

Proposed Amendment Gives People Right to Appoint Commission.

An amendment to the Public Parks Act now before the legislature provides that if 300 ratepayers petition the city council to submit a bylaw for the establishing of a park commission, such a bylaw shall be submitted, and if carried, a commission shall be appointed. This would have the effect of taking authority away from the city council, as, under the act as it stands, council is not bound to follow the people's verdict.

WHAT A GERRYMANDER DOES.

The popular vote in the Ontario election in 1885 was: Liberal, 127,804; Conservative, 130,844; giving a Conservative majority of 3,040. This vote resulted in the election of 46 Liberals, 38 Conservatives, or a Liberal majority of 10. Then Sir Oliver Mowat redistributed the province, changing the boundaries of about 40 constituencies, and in the election of 1888 the popular vote was: Liberal, 133,121; Conservative, 132,280; or a Conservative majority of 909; but the standing in the legislature in 1888 was 59 Liberals, 29 Conservatives, giving a Liberal majority of 30. Thus, in spite of the fact that the popular vote of the Conservatives was more than trebled, the result of the redistribution was that the Liberal majority in the legislature was trebled.

—Premier Whitney.

ures enabled him without difficulty to show that the opposition arguments were delicately modeled out of partial truths and supported by skillful silences.

The government had adopted the Liberal principle of the past; they could imagine the havoc and desolation the government could spread among the Liberal ranks if they did not take a reasonable and proper redistribution. They would have to undo two-thirds at least of the monstrous inequality brought about by their predecessors of the present opposition.

With respect to Alton and Peel, Clarke (Northumberland) had told just what suited him. Alton had

SERIES OF AMENDMENTS TO IMPORTANT STATUTES

Northern Ontario Elections to Be Held at Later Date—Insurance Act Amendment.

Provision has been made in the Statute Law Amendment Act by which the elections in the new ridings in Northern Ontario may be held at a later date than the general elections throughout the province. The Ontario Election Act is so amended that, if in any electoral district constituted in unorganized territory the voters' lists are not finally revised at the rate fixed for general elections, this date, however, is to be as near the time appointed by the Lieutenant-governor as is practicable and convenient.

An amendment to the act respecting investments by trustees enables trustees, unless especially forbidden by the act, to invest in any corporation registered under the Loan Corporation Act and satisfying certain requirements. These are that the company be authorized to lend money upon mortgages of real estate, to issue debentures, to receive deposits, have a fixed, paid-up and permanent share capital of at least $100,000, not liable to be withdrawn, and have a reserve fund of not less than 25 per cent. of the paid-up capital. The condition is that the shares of the company be selling at a premium of 7 per cent.

The Ontario Insurance Act is amended so that if a company's contingent liability or the amount of insurance in force should exceed $2,000,000, then for certain requirements, or fraction thereof, it shall place with the government a sum equal to one-tenth of the initial deposit. Where the additional security for each $1,000,000 of insurance will be one-twenty-fifth of the initial deposit.

Provision is made for the payment of $130,000 to the La Rose Mining Company in full settlement of the claims in connection with the action brought against J. B. O'Brien and of all claims in connection with the O'Brien mine. Of this $130,000 will be paid to the company up to Dec. 31, 1907. An amount not exceeding $100,000, to be made up of 40 per cent. of the amount received by the government from royalties from the mine since the end of 1907 will be paid to the La Rose Company.

An amendment to the act respecting coroners will permit shorthand reports of the evidence to be taken. An amendment to the Public Schools Act provides that a school is not to be placed within 100 yards of any garden, orchard, pleasure-ground or residence without the consent of the owner, unless the school inspector is of opinion that no other suitable site can be obtained.

The T. & N. O. commission is authorized to pay to municipalities in which townsite mines are situated for any special purpose designated by the commission such sums as the commission may think proper. This money is to be taken from moneys received for royalties on any mine within the townsite, but is not to exceed 20 per cent. of the royalty, or $1200 in any one year.

OLIVER'S BILL IS BLOCKED BY HUGHES

Lively Debate in House on Immigration Question—Western Provinces Want New Law.

OTTAWA, April 8.—(Special.)—A lively debate took place this afternoon on Mr. Oliver's bill to exclude immigrants who do not come direct from the country of their origin. An order-in-council was passed some weeks ago to temporarily meet the difficulties of department officers who found they had no power to exclude or deport Hindus, for instance, who may have purchased their tickets in Hongkong. The undesirable could not be returned to Hongkong for the authorities there would not be compelled to receive them, and steamship companies could not be compelled to return them to India.

The new provision is directed against Asiatics, and from explanations of the ministers it seems immigration officers will be allowed to use their own discretion. Although Sir Wilfrid Laurier at six o'clock asked that the bill be put thru so that the authorities could not be compelled to receive them, and steamship companies could not be compelled to return them to India.

Mr. Borden failed to see the necessity for such legislation. We had power now to refuse a landing of undesirable. Sir Wilfrid Laurier pointed out that if a Hindu, tainted with disease, arrived from Hongkong, there was no way to get rid of him, because authorities of Hongkong might refuse to receive him. (The new act simply created a new cause for exclusion. If a man whom the authorities in Vancouver desired to deport did not come on a thru ticket from his own country the steamship company would bring him at their own risk.)

Mr. Oliver further explained, in reply to Mr. Borden, that the present law was effective to exclude undesirable no matter from what country, but it might be discovered that some time. Under the proposed provision it would be possible to compel the steamship company to carry back undesirable who might have been in Canada some time. It further developed that the new law was not to be enforced against desirable immigrants and that the immigration officers must be left to exercise their own discretion. A German from New Zealand, who had served in the army, was deported because he did not come from the country of origin. Col. Sam Hughes said he would prefer a Hindu, who had served the empire, to a gangling Yankee, who had been an anarchist in his own country.

He moved to amend the bill by excluding such immigrants who have served in the auxiliary forces of the empire under the British flag.

Mr. Macpherson renewed his objection to exclusion of British subjects. He did not think this parliament had the power.

"What about Australia?" asked Mr. Macpherson. "Well, suppose we have power," retorted Mr. Haggart, "the High Court, judicious that we should exclude them?"

Sir Wilfrid Laurier quoted statistics which he claimed did give the required power to exclude. By section 28 of the revised statutes it was provided that any person who may become a public charge, or who in two years may become a public charge, may be deported. Mr. Gallinger declared that the bill was not suited to the Hindu immigrant.

"Won't they find that out?" queried Col. Sam Hughes. "We're replying, 'don't want thousands of them parading over streets trying to find it out.'"

"And do you depend on 'hooligans'?" questioned Col. Hughes. "My hon. friend must have had some severe treatment at the hands of some 'Yankee,' was Mr. Gallinger in tort. Although Mr. Macpherson had assured the house that the Japanese question had been settled satisfactorily, Mr. S. McCarthy quoted a telegram from Edmonton that 50 Japanese families were expected shortly.

Mr. Lemieux declared that the Japanese arrangement had been carried out conscientiously by both sides and he did not anticipate any further trouble.

"We must keep this country white," asserted Mr. Macpherson, returning to the combat, but Col. Hughes would rather have a black gentleman than a white anarchist.

"War," continued Mr. Macpherson. "Do I think that every soldier is a gentleman? Some of these Hindu soldiers would rather swell around in brass buttons than work."

Of Interest to Women

The Leap Year Mugs.
Among the sheaf of acknowledgments received are the following:
"I feel that I ought to write to acknowledge the receipt of the silver cup presented to our baby, born on Feb. 23, and to thank you for it on his behalf. The cup is a beauty, far beyond any cheese or expectorator, and I am sure, will be appreciated by the lucky baby when he is old enough to realize that, thanks to The Toronto World Feb. 23, is no longer an unlucky, but a lucky, day on which to be born."
"Just a few lines to let you know we received your beautiful birthday cup for baby. We are very pleased indeed with it, and thank you very much. This is our first baby, born in Canada, as we only came from England last year, so we shall prize the cup very much as a keepsake for her. Thanking you for your kindness."

UNROMANTIC CHEESE.

That is the kind Mr. Fisher's Bill Provides For.
OTTAWA, April 8.—In Hon. Mr. Fisher's bill to amend the Inspection and Sale Act, provision is made for the sale of cheese. It has been pointed out that the cheese-brokers, who have been attracted to the bill, find that glass bottles occasionally slipped into the centre of cheese by the manufacturer, and that the cheese is not as pure as the bill provides for. The bill which Mr. Fisher has introduced will declare it an offence to put any foreign substance whatever into cheese, or to incorporate any inferior curd or cheese therein. The penalties provided under the act will apply against anyone who is found guilty of such a offence. The bill also provides for the sale of cheese in bulk, and for the sale of cheese in packages.

CHOIR UNABLE TO GO BUT HONOR APPRECIATED

Too Many Difficulties in Way for the Mendelssohn Singers' Trip to Quebec.
The proposed artistic co-operation of the Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto in the Quebec Chapeau tercentenary festival of July next has been carefully considered by the Battlefields commission and the executive of the choir during the past few days. The commission feel that owing to the complex nature of the proposition, principally because of the problem of appropriate transportation and hotel accommodation for the members of the choir, the proposed trip seems to be prohibitive.

MISS MARLOWE FIGURES IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE
BOSTON, April 8.—Miss Julia Marlowe, the actress, and Mrs. Maude Thornton Backus are named in an action for divorce brought by Mrs. Clara Louise von Herrmann against her husband, Karl Stephen von Herrmann.
Von Herrmann is a former newspaper man and magazine writer. The wife says that while they were in the west Miss Marlowe was attracted to him by an article he wrote in regard to her performance. An offer from the actress for von Herrmann to enter her employ followed, and it is said by the wife that he practically abandoned her to become an assistant manager for Miss Marlowe.
There is no mistaking the superiority of a tea that in 16 years has built up a market in almost every part of the North American continent, that has had the most enormous increase in sales, year after year, until over 15,000,000 packages was the immense output for 1907. This continental endorsement of "Salada" Tea proves conclusively their right in offering it to the public as the most delicious and healthful tea in the world.

THE REDISTRIBUTION

been ravished away from Peel, and they might note that Cardwell, with Albion restored to Peel, had a larger population than both the Wentworths, which the government had not touched and which returned Liberals. East Simcoe was next to Cardwell, and if they had drawn from that they could have made a seat, there certain for the government. South Monaghan was part and parcel of Northumberland for longer than the member (Stan Clarke) himself. Mr. Clarke was quite willing to collect rates and taxes from South Monaghan for the County of Northumberland, but he did not want to give votes to the electors.

The Case of Ottawa.
Turning to Ottawa, Premier Whitney explained the opposition of the Ottawa members to the changes made by reading a letter stating that the kick was because McDougall might not get the convention because the French would not stand for him, and May might not be elected anyway. Mr. McDougall expected if he might ask the name of the writer.
"Yes, you may ask, but I will not undertake to answer," replied the premier, turning on the victim who has often been caught before.
Mr. Whitney fumbled among his papers and found the letter.
"Yes, I will," he replied, as he turned it up. "It is William Wright, and I'll venture to say he isn't wrong, either" (Laughter).
In no case had anything been done for the Grits, had been the opposition complaint.
"There wasn't anything that could be done. Everything that could be done was done years ago," declared Mr. Whitney. "Did you ever see a map of East Wellington?" he asked as he proceeded to describe some of the results of Liberal gerrymandering. The government did not at present intend to rectify all these wrongs. But he gave assurance that the great centres and aggregations of population in the country would be dealt with in the next census in a way that would be fair and equal.

University Wins.
College-Street Residents Must Pay for Strip of Land.
Judge Winchester yesterday decided that the Conservators of Music must pay to the University of Toronto the sum of $1286.37 for rights over a strip of land which the university owns along both sides of College-street from Yonge-street to near McCaul-street. This is at the rate of $16 a foot frontage.
This judgment follows a test arbitration and some 50 property owners will be affected in future proceedings.

Affairs of the Stage.
At Shee's next week the bill will be headed by Katie Barry, the dainty little comedy favorite. The special attractions for the week are: Jean Cleary, the world's greatest variety artist. Others on the bill are Foy and Clark, Gaston and Green, The Four Stewart Slates, Hill and Whitaker and the kinestrophes.
Golden-voiced singer Al. H. (Metz) Wilson, the ambassador of German dialect, will be the attraction at the Grand next week. It is a event that can well be looked forward to with much anticipation by those who love the best that there is in pleasing and modern theatrical music.
Metz, possessed of a voice such as few men have ever been endowed with. When he sings it is to a plaintive, tender and sweet notes of Lovelike melody seem to vibrate even thru his speaking organs.
The result was a vote of 53 to 23, with four pairs—Nixon and Smith (Peel), Godfrey and Anderson, Pratt and Thompson (Wentworth), McKenna and B. W. Rathbun voted with the opposition.
Allen Studholme absented himself from the division intentionally. As soon as he found that he could record his vote against the Toronto balloting system he determined not to take any part in what he regarded as a party fight between the government and the opposition on the redistribution question.

Mr. McGarry's Criticism.
T. W. McGarry had resumed the redistribution debate at the afternoon sitting, and defended the Toronto plan of apportioning members to electorates. The Liberals inconsistently demanded two votes for the Ottawa electors, while objecting to the Toronto method.

Premier Whitney had announced that the redistribution would only be partial, and that the regular redistribution would be taken up in 1911 after the next census. The habit of the Liberal government had been to make redistribution a matter of necessity when the party could not be kept in power without it, and when it was used for party advantage. The government, when in power, would not be so ready to redistribute. The Liberals inconsistently demanded two votes for the Ottawa electors, while objecting to the Toronto method.

Referring to Ottawa. Mr. McGarry described the division of the population by nationality and religion in the upper and lower towns. Under the existing system, if money had been spent good value had been obtained for every cent of it. Mr. May had complained that not enough had been spent in Northern Ontario and the government had spent ten times more than any other government.

Amateur Minstrels.
The Queen City Minstrels entertained a large audience Tuesday evening at Broadway Hall, Spadina-avenue, which proved a success, and some of the principal features of the evening were the famous Oriole Quartet, comprised Messrs W. A. Geisel, W. A. Patchett, E. J. Hayball and A. S. Cowling. Among some of the other talent was the famous Sam E. Poole, a man or man with the laugh. A sketch was given entitled "College Days," introducing Miss Walsh. The minstrels are making a round trip and hope to entertain on Good Friday at Cooksville, and from there to King and other places.

Honorably Acquitted.
WINNIPEG, April 8.—J. H. R. Finnigan, superintendent of the Winnipeg Boys' Club, was this morning honorably acquitted by Judge Dawson of the charge of indecency against Ralph Johnson, a Swedish boy, whom he had befriended in the club. The evidence went to show that the charges were trumped up because Finnigan prosecuted Johnson for stealing.

In connection with the home-coming of Commissioner and Mrs. Coombs on Monday, April 27, a great street pageant of Salvation Army officers, soldiers and children will take place in conjunction with which will be a spectacular procession of delegates clad in costumes indicative of the classes, places and peoples, amongst whom the army operates. ARREST CUSTOMS OFFICER.
Revolvers Used in Affair at Noyes, Minn.
EMERSON, Minn., April 8.—(Special.)—The American customs officers at Noyes, Minn., immediately across the boundary, arrested Herbert Wright, Canadian customs officer, this morning, by holding a revolver to his head and threatening to shoot when he refused to submit.
The case, which is the climax of numerous clashes between the officials of the two countries at this point, arose out of alleged smuggling across the boundary at Orleans Station by Wright of a woman of easy virtue named Marguerite Pike of Winnipeg. This is said to have occurred on March 8, and Washington authorities were communicated with, which led to the issue of a warrant for Wright's arrest at Noyes yesterday. He has been taken to Thief River Falls, Minn., where his trial will take place to-morrow before a United States government commission.

HIGH FINANCE AND THE BRITISH INVESTOR.

This matter of the British Empire Trust Company's attack on the credit of the Canadian municipalities ought to be followed up vigorously. The company is one of the subsidiary concerns organized by Mr. William Mackenzie and his allies for the double purpose of assisting their predatory raids on public franchises in Ontario and elsewhere and inducing British investors to purchase the securities of the various railway, land, light, power and street railway companies they have been promoting in the Dominion, South America and elsewhere. These foreign enterprises have been mainly financed with Canadian money, thus withdrawing from the country funds which should properly have been devoted to the upbuilding and extension of home industries and services and which, had they been left in the country, would have been of incalculable advantage during the recent financial crisis.

The concern of the directors of the British Empire Trust Company for the welfare of the British investor is really touching and would be highly commendable were it unbiased and sincere. But when it is seen that the "ill-edged securities" they recommend to the unsophisticated Briton are those of companies in which they are personally concerned, the advice tendered becomes anything but disinterested and correspondingly tainted. And these worthy gentlemen, who have a fine Ciceronian flow of language at their command, when they descend on the waste-fulness of Canadian municipal authorities, are particularly careful to avoid explanation regarding the over-capitalization and stock manipulation that characterize their Canadian and foreign enterprises and thru which they hope to make real their anticipated millions.

Toronto has had a good deal to do with Mr. William Mackenzie and the ring of financiers whose well-laid schemes to tie up its public utilities and services are just now in various straits. Evidently completely at sea, they have been at the polls thru the determination of the citizens to free themselves from the exactions of an overbearing oligopoly, they have not lost hope that what they have failed to do directly they can accomplish indirectly by destroying the credit of Toronto and the other Canadian municipalities in Britain. When the British Empire Trust Company says in its pamphlet that their powers are extended much too easily, it really means that they can obtain from the legislature the same authority that the British Parliament has for years granted to British cities. And the "ill-considered enterprises" the company talks about are the public utilities and services which the same ring of financiers declare when it comes to be the most productive and profitable of investments. The people of Toronto should keep all this in mind. It is a striking proof of the length to which the apostles of high finance will go to gain or retain their hold on public franchises. And it should make the citizens all the more insistent and determined to reclaim all their public services and utilities at the earliest possible moment.

BRITISH CABINET MAKING.

Now that the Right Hon. Herbert Henry Asquith has been confirmed in the premiership, interest will centre in the nature and extent of the cabinet readjustment that must necessarily follow. These will be closely scanned not alone on their merits, but because they afford an indication of the influence the change in the leadership will exert on the policy of the party and the relationship of its various sections to each other. At this stage and with a session of parliament well on its way, it is unlikely that any very extensive reconstitution of the cabinet will be attempted. The work of the session has already been outlined and the principal measures are now before parliament with the exception of the old age pension scheme, which was under the new premier's special charge and of which he will probably undertake the exposition and defence. Whatever variation of policy may be made will therefore be by way of modification, and whether there is to be this or not will to some extent be gathered from the aspect of the new cabinet.

Altho the resignation of a prime minister does not necessarily involve that of his colleagues, it is customary for ministers to place themselves unreservedly at the disposal of his successor. It is recognized that the new premier is entitled to a free hand in the selection of his lieutenants and should be allowed an opportunity to strengthen his cabinet wherever he may deem it necessary. If the forecast of The London Daily Chronicle is to be accepted, the only minister to be dropped is Lord Elgin, secretary of state for the colonies, who, it is said, will be replaced by the Earl of Creve, Lord Rosebery's son-in-law, but who latterly has been somewhat out of touch with the plowman of the lonely furrow. Lord Elgin's tenure as imperial minister has not been wholly sympathetic, possibly because of his doctrinaire tendencies. Lord Creve, on the other hand, is conspicuous for his tact, and he has been actually, though nominally, the government leader in the house of lords. If Mr. Winston Churchill goes to the board of trade, the colonial department will have entirely new chiefs in both houses.

Mr. Lloyd-George has been steadily gaining ground both as president of the board of trade and in the country, and his leadership of the radical section of the party would receive official acknowledgment by his following Mr. Asquith as chancellor of the exchequer, a post almost involving the reversion of the premiership. This rapid promotion has been won by not only able but brilliant administrative quality, endorsed as it is by the confidence of the leading financial interests of London. This last is not the least of Mr. Lloyd-George's claims to promotion, which, if it comes to pass will especially welcome to the Principality of Wales, where he first plumed his political wings. Another of The Chronicle's forecasts is the transfer of Mr. McKenna, the present education minister, to the admiralty, vice Lord Tweedmouth, given the honorary post of lord president of the council. Mr. Runciman is said to be slated for the board of education, and if so, it will be taken as an indication that an attempt will be made to establish a modus vivendi with the Church of England. A very few days will, however, show whether The Chronicle's forecast was given with authority or was only a speculation.

HINDOO IMMIGRATION.

According to the cable despatches the imperial government has agreed to take the steps necessary to deter the emigration of natives from British India to Canada. This outcome of Mr. Mackenzie King's mission is undoubtedly the best solution of the difficulty, at once meeting the reasonable desire of British Columbia, to remain a distinctively white community and obviating unpleasant reflections on Canada's lack of imperial sentiment. It never was particularly clear why Canada should have been singled out for special animadversion when other British states have been much more peremptory and much less considerate in enforcing a policy of exclusion. But the British press appears regularly to regard the Dominion as bound to exhibit a positive superabundance of self-sacrificing patriotism, an attitude due, perhaps, to the constant too quite imaginative dread of the political influence of the United States.

This nervous tension concerning a possible gravitation of the Dominion towards union with the republic is not very complimentary to Canadians, the in another sense it may be taken as an acknowledgment of the important place Canada holds in the imperial policy. A little consideration, however, would enable British journalists to realize that the surest way of stimulating anti-imperial feeling is to question the right of the Dominion to refuse admission to any immigrants whose presence might tend to impair the national ideal. That right being conceded, the only possible solution is that which looks to the Indian Government to regulate native emigration by directing it into channels where it does not conflict with other and more important interests.

STEAMSHIP SUBSIDYBILL PASSES THE HOUSE

Mr. Borden Criticizes Some One-Sided Features of the New French Treaty.

OTTAWA, April 8.—(Special).—Further criticism of the proposed direct steamship line to France and of the new French treaty was heard to-day, when the house went into committee on the bill to amend the Ocean Steamship Subsidies Act. This bill, authorizing $5555 per trip for a maximum of 35 trips yearly between Canada and France, makes a total subsidy of $200,000.

Mr. Borden, replying to Dr. Sproule, said that the contract provided that the steamships shall be provided with coal stores, and that freight rates shall not be higher than between U. S. and French ports. An endeavor would be made to induce the company to consent to have freight rates controlled by the government. Cold storage, said the minister, would be needed to carry butter and cheese.

It was pointed out by Mr. Monk that there was little likelihood of sending Canadian butter or cheese to France. The minister replied that the steamships would also call at London. Mr. Henderson raised the question whether French goods could be sent to Canada via Great Britain would be admitted at the minimum tariff the same as if imported direct from a French port.

The finance minister replied that it had been thought wise to have it so arranged. Mr. Borden said that this was an unfair concession. Under the treaty France would impose a tax on indirect imports from Canada, while Canada would have to grant the full benefits of the minimum tariff to indirect as well as direct shipments.

Mr. Fielding replied that under the treaty Canada retained the right to impose a tax on indirect imports from France, but it was not the policy of the government to impose such a tax. This, Mr. Borden observed, sarcastically, would be a great consolation to Canadian shipping interests.

Mr. Fielding explained that indirect shipments would only be admitted thru England.

Mr. Henderson pointed out that we could not assure the steamship company that may receive the subsidy a return cargo from France, and it might therefore be impossible to get good terms.

Mr. Monk spoke of the need of more commercial agents in France if results were to be had from the treaty. Mr. Fielding said Canada had an agent in Paris and it might be advisable to appoint more.

The bill was passed.

A Noise Like Spring

The poet Wordsworth said: "Stern winter loves a dirge-like sound." If you want to make a noise like Spring it's time now to shake your shabby apparel and blossom.

Begin at the top, start with your "sky-piece" and brush up to the very boot-heels. A new hat first.

Make a wise investment in this regard, and you'll give finish to the costume.

Nothing but exclusive makes sold here. Derby Hats $2 to $5, Alpine Hats $2 to $5, Silk Hats $2 to $8. We are sole Canadian Agents for Henry Heath of London and Dunlap of New York.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Manager of Oshawa Canning Company Explains.

M. F. Smith, manager of the Oshawa Canning Co., explains that the canned apples seized and condemned at Winnipeg, were sold about a year ago and placed in cold storage and afterwards sent to Winnipeg and again stored. They were all inspected and labeled and to all appearances were in good condition. After some time it was found some of these cans were swollen.

"This was reported to us and while we are only held liable for six months for swells and defects, we did not take that position, but paid the wholesaler in full for all the cans and had the apples placed in a storehouse for our inspection, which we expected to make in a few days," says Mr. Smith. "A party then made us an offer on the whole lot as they stood, which we accepted."

"While some of the cans may be swollen, there is nothing that will harm anyone."

OBITUARY.

John Martin Shaw.

ELORA, April 8.—John Martin Shaw, one of the pioneer newspaper men of this section of the province, passed away at his home here on Tuesday afternoon. The deceased, who was 71 years of age, was born in Guelph, but came to Elora first in 1851.

He has lived here for most of the intervening years, conducting the old Observer and later The Express. He retired from active work over four years ago.

H. G. Lamotte.

OTTAWA, April 8.—(Special).—H. G. Lamotte, clerk of the crown in chancery, died suddenly to-night. He was born in 1850, entered the civil service in 1878 and after filling positions in the inland revenue and state departments was appointed clerk of the crown in chancery in 1900, in succession to St. Onge Chabreau, when the latter became clerk of the senate.

Inquest Adjourned.

PETERBORO, April 8.—(Special).—The inquest in connection with the death of Elgin Weaver, the Chandos farmer, was resumed here to-night, but as no report had been received from Toronto regarding the stomach, which had been sent there for analysis, an adjournment was made until Wednesday, April 15. It is alleged that Weaver's death was the result of poisoning.

Blood Cleansing Recommended In The Spring Time

In This Way The System Is Strengthened and Better Health Assured.

From the earliest time it has been universally acknowledged that the transitory period between winter and spring is the seed time of disease. Consequently it is necessary for us all to take suitable medicine.

A delay gives the germs and weakness a better chance to take hold. Don't wait, think of your small resisting powers, and begin building up to-day. For weakness, overwork and debility the doctors prescribe Ferrozone; let it help you now.

Vitality and power are instilled into the blood; this means new strength for all weak organs.

The fire of youth will dance in your veins, and new found energy will increase your desire to work.

Ferrozone supplies the nourishing and tissue-building material your system lacks. Isn't this a reason why?

From Combines, Ont., Mrs. Jno. Oram writes as follows: "For a number of years I was sickly in the springtime. I felt tired, nervous and had headaches. My blood was weak and damp days brought on rheumatism. My nervous system was unstrung and I felt utterly worn out. Ferrozone revived me in a short time. In two days my appetite increased and I could feel a building-up process going on. This great tonic and blood purifier has made me a new person of me and I don't think a more strengthening medicine for the spring can be found."

Wouldn't it be just fine for you to get back your old-time spirits and vigor? Easily done with "Ferrozone"; commence to-day. Sold by all druggists, 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50.

BRACONDALE CONS. HOLD BIG MEETING

North Toronto Council Are After Metropolitan—Odds and Ends in the County.

WEST TORONTO, April 8.—Without lowering their dignity to any noticeable extent, the West Toronto aldermen would confer a favor on the citizens in general if steps were taken to improve the condition of South Keele-street. Its present appearance has more semblance to being a plowed field than one of the main thoroughfares of a progressive municipality. How Dundas-street will be kept in proper condition this summer if this and other cross streets are not attended to is a matter for serious conjecture.

When Mrs. George Wilson of 64 Campbell-avenue awoke this morning, she found her seven-months-old child lying dead beside her. Dr. Gilmore was sent for and found that death had resulted from bronchitis, with which the child had been suffering.

Rev. John Bushell, M.A., rector of St. Clement's Church, Toronto, was the preacher at the Lenten service in St. John's Church to-night. It was a simple Gospel sermon, one that appealed to all that is best in human nature.

On Sunday next, which is Palm Sunday, about thirty candidates will present themselves for confirmation. The service will be conducted by Bishop Reeve.

Mrs. Sarah Anne Sproule, wife of George Sproule of 57 Cooper-avenue died this afternoon, aged 45 years. She had been in poor health for some time, but the end came suddenly. The funeral will take place on Saturday at 10.30 a.m. to Prospect Cemetery.

William, the eight-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull, 19 Ward-street, died to-day. The funeral will take place at 1.30 to-morrow from the undertaking parlors to Prospect Cemetery.

W. Bro. W. H. Shaw, district deputy grand master of eleventh Masonic district, paid an official visit to Stanley Lodge, A. F. & A. M., last night.

The condition of James Hardy, electric light superintendent, remains unchanged. He is being attended by Dr. Hopkins.

H. M. Wodson of 18 Ontario-street is confined to his home through illness. The board of health meets to-morrow evening.

MARKHAM.

MARKHAM, April 8.—In passing the executor's accounts in the estate of the late Anson F. Sturtevant, his Honor Judge Winchester sustained the claim in the will which provided for the setting aside of $2000 as a bequest to be used for repairs to the Methodist Church at Victoria Square, Markham Township.

It was represented that the bequest was a case of personal property and not of land. "The law providing that a bequest be made six months before death is not in the issue," is his edict.

MIMICO.

Etobicoke Township Council Will Examine Lake Shore Road.

MIMICO, April 8.—The members of the Etobicoke Council, at the committee of inspection, are announced to meet on the Lake Shore-road at the Mimico Creek bridge to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, to personally examine, with a view to immediate repair, the damaged roadway at that place.

The council decided at a recent meeting to appoint a man to attend to the Lake Shore-road, especially that part of it which was built last year, a mile of which won the first prize given by the Motor League. Applications for this position may be decided upon and an appointment made to-morrow.

Rev. Canon Tremayne and family are in Sutton to-day, attending the funeral of his grandson, Francis Tremayne, of that place. Deceased was 15 years old and had lived in Mimico since the reversion canon for several years, returning home to live only last Christmas. The new year he had attended the high school at Newmarket and on Monday left home by trolley car for school. About 10 o'clock that forenoon he was seized with a fainting spell and suddenly expired.

The usual Wednesday evening meeting in Christ Church was not held to-night, owing to the absence of both the Rev. Canon and H. O. Tremayne.

WESTON.

Leeds Lodge, S. O. E., Weston, will hold their regular meeting on Friday evening, April 10. Business of importance will be brought before the lodge. The district deputy will be pleased to meet as many members as possible from the district.

BALMY BEACH.

The church party which was to have been held in the Masonic Hall last night, under the auspices of the Balmy Beach Junior baseball team, was postponed until a later date. Holders of invitations kindly take note.

BALMY BEACH.

Residents Along Water Front Say No Loss Was Sustained.

BALMY BEACH, April 8.—The Ladies' Aid Society of Kew Beach Presbyterian Church will hold a social in the hall to-morrow evening.
