PARTY PASSION HIGH IN BUDGET STRUGGLE

Lords and Tories Seem Determined to Force Commons into a General Election.

CHICAGO, June 27.—T. P. O'Connor writes The Tribune from London as follows:
Never for a quarter of a century has party passion run so high as today in England, and the next few months may see the biggest crisis since 1832, perhaps even since the last English revolution.
The land taxes continue to excite wild fury among all the capitalists and the aristocracy and Rosebery's admission lends some strength to them. The fight in the house of commons on the budget grows hourly more bitter. The Tories are trying to wear down Lloyd-George by sitings prolonged till the small hours of the morning. When all the other means fail, Lloyd-George forces a closure rules in the debate amid wild howls.
Last Monday night the scene nearly ended in a riot. The objection of a portion of the budget by the house of lords seems possible, and even the Spectator strongly recommends that the lords make a course.
The Liberals declare at the same time that they will resist such action to the end, and if the king's temper with the budget the commons will send it back a second and perhaps a third time, and the king will be asked to create or threaten to create a new peer as are necessary to pass the bill over the Tory majority.
Tories seek general election. The Tories, on the other hand, will try to force a dissolution, and the fight thus would be brought to the constituencies, with the whole future of England in the balance.
Both sides realize the gigantic issue and are lining up their forces for the contest. The members of the ministry are closing up all differences, personal and political, and Asquith, Edward Grey, and Haldane, all old followers of Rosebery, come out in support of Lloyd-George.
Winston Churchill, the biggest light on the Liberal side, was made commander in chief of the Liberal forces. He will summon a big meeting in the constituencies in defence of the budget, and the Liberal party will give bigger popular demonstrations than ever before, popular passion than at any time in memory of living man.
All may end in a compromise, but this final issue is doubtful, largely because the Liberals are splitting for a only means of ever getting liberal legislation and Liberal predominance, and the lords reject or mutilate the budget and exit in the hope of the opportunity to be in a choosing so perilous a field of battle.
In the meantime the Irish party looks on silent and watchful, now throwing its eighty votes on one side, now on another, thus raising the liberal majority to 200, or reducing it to 190. It gives general support to all parts of the budget not affecting Ireland unfairly.
This policy already shows excellent results, and it would not be surprised if, when the fight on the budget is finished, Ireland will have money sufficient to settle some of the most crying internal reforms, such as the drainage of two big rivers, the Barrow and Bann, which yearly devastate a large tract of country, destroying crops, property and health.
Possibly, also, money will come for the settlement of the crying evil of the houses in the most crying internal reforms, and a large number of the principal causes of Ireland's terrible annual mortality.
These results will be more gratifying as demonstrating the folly and dishonesty of the Healyites and other reactionists' campaign.
At the beginning of the budget fight the capitalists would have prevented all concessions from Lloyd-George, defeated Birrell's bill and wrecked the Irish party, but now the reactionists are reduced to silence.
The Irish Independence, William Murphy, and Tim Healey's organ, has ceased its attacks on the budget, and finally Mr. Brown, the able Scotch priest holding a high position, speaking to a great gathering of bishops and priests at Maynooth college, entered the debate on the politicians by declaring that the Irish party and it alone have saved the Catholic schools in England from destruction.

WINSTON CHURCHILL

The British Government's Most Vigorous Campaigner, who is to Organize Demonstrations in Favor of the Budget.

Winston Churchill, the biggest light on the Liberal side, was made commander in chief of the Liberal forces. He will summon a big meeting in the constituencies in defence of the budget, and the Liberal party will give bigger popular demonstrations than ever before, popular passion than at any time in memory of living man.

RURAL PHONE THE MEANS OF CAPTURING SCOUNDREL

Tramp Who Endeavored to Assault Three Women; Quickly Rounded Up by Farmers' posse.

GANANOQUE, June 27.—Charged with having attempted assault on three women, John Fitzgerald, aged 35, of Montreal, a tramp, is under arrest. His capture was effected largely thru the use of the rural telephone system. After Miss Isabel Spafford, aged 18, a farmer's daughter, had reported at home that she had been attacked, a posse of 25 farmers was organized and a thoro search was instituted, resulting in Fitzgerald's arrest at Flindly Station, six miles from here. Miss Spafford was picking berries along the railway, when accosted, and it was only her desperate struggles which saved her. In escaping she ran across the railway tracks just a few feet in front of a freight train. It is charged, too, that Fitzgerald also failed in later assaults on a farmer's wife and a young girl, the latter striking him across the face and setting a dog on him. It was at this meeting that the posse came along. Fitzgerald started to run, but was soon overhauled. Fitzgerald is five feet in height, sandy complexion. He was committed for trial at Brockville.

MORE SCARED THAN HURT

Armstrong Committee Evidence, Not Ruinings, Hurt Companies.

ALBANY, N.Y., June 27.—Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss has transmitted to Governor Hughes a report prepared by the department's auditor on the effect on the business of life insurance of the so-called Armstrong committee, which has been making strong amendments to the New York insurance law.
The report shows that while there was a notable falling off during the past three years in the business of the New York companies, such a falling off was due primarily to the disclosures of the investigation, and not to the amendments themselves, and such companies are now rapidly recovering.

CLOTHING PRICES GO UP

U. S. Dealers Getting Ready For Tariff Increases.

NEW YORK, June 27.—In anticipation of the effect of the present provisions of the Aldrich tariff bill the prices of men's clothing have been sent sky high within a week. Clothing dealers report that suits that could be bought a week ago for $20 are now being marked to $35.
Simple worsteds and woolsens have all taken a 50 per cent. rise in the last few days. Coupled with the expected tariff effect is the increased cost of scoured wool, which a year ago cost 16 cents a pound and which now is quoted at 75 cents.
Clothing sellers look upon the situation with much satisfaction, their position being much stronger than it has been in many years.

An Age of Money-Making

This is an age of money-making, of keen business enterprises, and of brilliant financial men. Every man who makes money must have a little capital to start on and usually he has to work hard to get it.
Have you thought what a boost your success $4000 or $2500 or $1000 or even $800 would give you? How often have you wished you could get a hold of a thousand dollars? Excellent chances are before you! Quite true, indeed, but you cannot say there is no opportunity. The World will in September give away $10,000. It is astounding, but true, and all you have to do to win a little capital is to get enough subscriptions to The Daily and Sunday World to make you a leader in the great contest that is being carried on all over Ontario.
Don't you think now is the time of your life to get enough money to make a good start towards business success?

PASS FOR PAINT AS WELL AS POWER

A Real Big Feature of Hydro-Electric Prices Which the People of Hamilton Should Not Forget.

Mayor McLaren of Hamilton has offered to be $600 that Hydro-Electric power will cost Hamilton $20, and $500 more than it will cost $24 a horsepower. Yet Mayor McLaren was very, very angry with The World when we said that he was engaged in fighting the Cataract Power Company's battle.
Mayor McLaren has a letter in his pocket from Solicitor Lobb quoting power at $17.92 for 1000 horsepower, and at descending prices on a scale down to $15.65 for 4000 horsepower. Why does he try to give the people a wrong impression if he is not fighting the Cataract Company's battle? Does he pretend that this is supporting the people's wish?
The Spectator is also in the betting ring. It is willing to bet The Herald $5000 that hydro-electric power will cost $20 more than Cataract power at $18; $2000 that it will cost $4 more; $2500 that it will cost $5 more; and $1000 that it will cost $3 more. As the proprietor of The Spectator is also proprietor of a big block of stock in the Cataract Company, he will be seen why The Spectator-Cataract combine is willing to risk its money.
The paying mentioned, as at risk amount to $10,000, or with Mayor McLaren's two $500, $11,000 in all. If the people take hydro-electric power, the competition of hydro-electric power or the Cataract Company could make that $11,000 out of the consumers over the next thirty years. At the end of that time Cataract power would cost as much as ever and perhaps more.
If the people take hydro-electric power they are not only paying for their power, but for their plant and all other things necessary to generate the power they use they get a cheaper price. When their plant is paid for it is their own property and they can sell it for a substantial profit. It is assured by reason of that ownership.
The Hamilton Times thinks that rather a significant admission was made the other evening by Solicitor Lobb when he said that if Hamilton's use of power in winter dropped as low as $90 he would lower the price now set as high as $28.
The Times should also have noted the significant fact that should the use of power drop in winter, the power price would be away up in the thousands.
Or the significant fact that if the Hamilton Council does not know how much power it wants before it orders it, the people will see that they get a council of fools.
The really significant thing about Mr. Lobb's remark was that he told the truth, according to custom, and stated facts, and that he commended to The Times and the Cataract crowd generally.
What the Mayor Didn't Do.
If Mayor McLaren had carried out the pledges he made, he would have made up an order for 2500 horsepower for Hamilton at the rate of $16.15, deducting the sinking fund rate of $1.19, of $14.92, which is very much better than anything the Cataract company will ever do for the city.
The present rate for 1000 horsepower, an amount which the city could easily dispose of, is $17.50, or less $1.58 for sinking fund, $15.92, a rate which surpasses the Cataract when the conditions are considered in every respect.
It is also stated in the Cataract report that the company is prepared at Hamilton getting special terms. Hamilton gets no special terms except the right to pay higher prices in the future if he chooses to do so.
If Mayor McLaren has any public spirit left The World would appeal to him to try the effect of a square deal in handling the people's cause when they elected him to get hydro-electric power for Hamilton.
The Cataract company is said to be contemplating an injunction against the city. This is one of the few means left to them to become more obnoxious to the citizens, and they can hardly expect not to do it.
Council to Support Application.
A Hamilton special to The World last night says:
"It is the intention of a majority of the aldermen to vote Monday evening in favor of making application to the hydro-electric commission for a supply of power. It has been rumored that this Cataract company will issue a writ or apply for an injunction to block this action, but members of the council have decided this evening to discuss their intentions."
The company has notified the city that it will apply to the hydro-electric commission for a supply of power. The council last night, but has not intimated what action it will take. George S. Kerr, K.C., attended the meeting of the council on Saturday afternoon, but refused to say whom he represented or what his mission was.
Mayor McLaren stated this evening that he did not know what the company contemplated doing, but he hoped whatever he intended to do, it would do at one. J. Kelly, a representative of the company, attended the meeting Saturday afternoon and secured a copy of the resolution passed by the committee in favor of taking hydro power.
The International Foot and Shoe Workers' Union met in session at Syracuse, N.Y., here re-elected officers.

His Majesty to Take Long Rest At Marienbad

Was Diffident at First, Lest He Should Disturb Convenience of Favorite Physician.

LONDON, June 27.—(N. Y. Herald Cable).—Considerable uneasiness was expected regarding King Edward's health when it became known that Dr. Ott, who acts as his majesty's medical adviser at Marienbad, had been hastily summoned to the King's bedside. The King reported reluctance to go to Marienbad this summer was greatly to his majesty's chagrin. The King's reported reluctance to go to Marienbad this summer was greatly to his majesty's chagrin. The King's reported reluctance to go to Marienbad this summer was greatly to his majesty's chagrin.
Dr. Ott, however, came especially to London to assure the King that his condition was such that he would not be disturbed by his journey to Marienbad. His majesty's holiday will be longer than usual. He will leave England almost immediately after the Woodstock race meeting and will not be back until commencement, in October.
The grievances of the men include charges of discriminating against union men; a demand for proper hearings for the discharged men; longer lunch hours and the installation of bulletin boards in the car barns announcing the lay-offs. The union men also claim that an agreement made in April has been repeatedly broken.
Today on one street car, carrying U.S. mail, was moved.
Convoys were early placed at a premium by enterprising wagon and cab owners. The taxicabs of the city did a stupendous business and were allowed to break speed limits.
At many of the churches to-day, morning and afternoon services were dispensed with. Dr. A. Fisher of the Wylie-avenue Baptist Church, an aristocratic congregation in the Harbony Humane Society, and his son, John L., at once applied approved methods of resuscitation, and after working some time, the restored breathing. They say Bell's conduct was most praiseworthy and he should be rewarded with a medal.
While Albert House of the West Wellington-street and a companion were paddling up the Humber on Sunday afternoon, and when about 200 feet north of the bridge, the canoe upset, precipitating the two into the water. Rouse could not swim, and his companion, tho he made a big effort, was unable to rescue him. Another man, who refused to give his name, succeeded in bringing Rouse to the surface, but it was only after a long time that he showed any signs of life. He was later taken to Armstrong's Hotel, and last night was thought to be out of danger.

BACK TO ST. PETERSBURG CZAR GETS UP COURAGE

Orders Winter Palace Prepared For Imperial Family—Sultan of Turkey a Visitor

ST. PETERSBURG, June 27.—(San Cable).—The czar has at last taken a decisive step and ordered the Winter Palace to be prepared for the imperial family's residence after his foreign tour and sojourn at Yalta, in the Crimea. It is five years since the Winter Palace was handed over to the exclusive use of court officials, and a considerable section of the population of the capital has suffered heavily in their pockets thru the abandonment of festivities at the various Romanoff palaces and among the aristocracy. The social program is modelled upon that of the imperial court. It is probable that the new sultan of Turkey will be the first sovereign to visit the czar at the Winter Palace after its reconsecration. By Nicholas intends to pay an official visit to Constantinople to greet the new regime.
All news from the court party at Peterhof now points to the czar attempting to adopt the active role of a patriot and peacemaker, in which he will make his grandiose debut at the Poltava celebrations two weeks hence.
Italian Socialists Hostile.
ROME, June 27.—At a sitting of the chamber of deputies the Socialist President presiding, Deputy Morgan said the Socialists were determined to oppose the czar's visit even if he came to the city. The czar's hands were dirty with the blood of his own parents and children, and the Socialists could not welcome an Italian Socialism.
Signor Tittoni replied that the government was not afraid of threats and was determined to repress energetically all hostile demonstrations.

ASSASSINATION AT STOCKHOLM

Chief of Coast Artillery Slain by a Workman.

STOCKHOLM, June 27.—The visit of the Russian emperor to Stockholm has been marred by the assassination Saturday night of Major General Beckman, chief of the Swedish Coast Artillery.
General Beckman was a workman shot by the Russian imperial yacht Standard, with the imperial family and the foreign minister Iwowsky aboard, arrived here Saturday afternoon under the escort of five warships.
Chief of Gendarmes Ambushed by Russian Bandits.
WARSAW, June 27.—General Sytin, chief of the gendarmes, while returning to Kielce, was ambushed by bandits, who fired several volleys at him. The general was fatally shot thru the breast. His daughter, who was accompanying him, was also killed. A patrol sent in pursuit of the bandits lost one killed and one mortally wounded.

WINNIPEG'S TREAT

First Shipment of Niagara Strawberries to the West.

ST. CATHARINES, June 27.—(Special).—On Saturday about 30 crates of strawberries were shipped by cold storage company to Winnipeg. These are the first strawberries ever shipped west, and are only an experiment. If the experiment proves successful large consignments of berries will be shipped westward.
HANGS TO-DAY.
STRATFORD, June 27.—(Special).—With his impending doom scarcely noticed, Frank Roughmond, colored, has spent his last day on earth. He hangs to-morrow morning for the death of Mrs. Peake, a farmer's wife, who died from shock following an attack and assault in her own home. Roughmond was found dead drunk beside the body of the victim. He has no money to pay for counsel, and no one else has taken any interest in his fate.

PITTSBURG SUFFERS CAR STRIKE

3500 Men Quit Work and Only One Car Moved Sunday—Some Church Services Were Called Off.

PITTSBURG, June 27.—3500 employees of the Pittsburg Electric Railway have been called out on strike after the failure of a two days' conference with the company.
The grievances of the men include charges of discriminating against union men; a demand for proper hearings for the discharged men; longer lunch hours and the installation of bulletin boards in the car barns announcing the lay-offs. The union men also claim that an agreement made in April has been repeatedly broken.

WOMEN IN COMBINATION CAN GIVE WORLD PEACE

War May Be Necessary to Prevent Overcrowding, But Why Not Kill by More Humane Way?—Great Gathering in Massey Hall.

"The best gift that every woman can bring to her own home is the gift of peace, the gift of gentleness, the gift of kindness," said Mrs. Ogilvie Gordon last night at the Peace meeting in Massey Hall. She thought that in combination they might succeed in giving the same blessing to the whole world.
The meeting was under the auspices of the International Council of Women, and was set for 8 o'clock, but in order not to interfere with church work, there was no hurry in beginning. Dr. Norman Anderson rhapodized in his brilliant way at the organ and the St. Andrew's quartet, Mrs. H. W. Parker, Mrs. W. M. Douglas, Geo. Dixon and Fred Gearing sang sweetly. Frau Stritt missed a train and the audience missed her presence.
Sir William Millock took the chair and forgot the collection and part of the musical program, but got the audience out by his own wit.
The speakers were Mrs. May Wright Sewall, honorary president of the council, who spoke both in English and French; Frau Hainich, of Austria, for Belgium; Miss Rose Barrett, of Ireland.
"Before proceeding to Ireland we will sing 'Angels of Peace,'" said Sir William, referring to the hymn sheet.
Hague Conference Grows.
He mentioned the progress made by the Hague Conference, that of 1899 attended by 34 sovereign states, that of 1907 by 44. Now was it adjourned indefinitely. The meeting will meet again in 1915. He hoped it would grow into what they all desired and prayed for—the parliament of man.
Governments of constitutional countries cannot get along without men and money and these could not be got without the people. If the people supplied the money, the fault laid with them. (Applause.)
"It is for you Canadians to think out the means and see what you can do to extirpate the infectious disease of war." So Sir William.
All Nations Equal.
Mrs. Sewall had two things she wanted to make an impression with. First was that all the nations in the women's council sat as equals with the same number of delegates.
Next she was that the parliament of nations was as inevitable as the automobile. She pointed out that she trusted no vote would be given by a majority of nations.
She spoke of the application of the golden rule to society, as to custom and law. The competition of nations should be conducted as unworthy as bad manners in the drawing room. Then she passed to the four international treaties adopted by the International Council. The national councils were urged everywhere to have school history books so revised that their view would not get a prejudiced view of other nations.
"We have feared this might maculate historical literature and that important truths might be obscured. No fact should be expunged, however. Facts should be communicated without national prejudice being injected at the same time."
"In the United States two of the most popular of the histories in order to States have been rewritten in order to erase some pages that might lift the children with biased or prejudiced views of America's own grandmothers."
"They were proud of that blood, but they welcomed not that alone, and wished to judge of all nations as they wished to be judged."
"We can have no self-respect based on contempt of our neighbors. It is out of our nature we speak," she added.
"It might be thought difficult to love national prejudice. It often covered in the same degree of arrogance and vanity in an individual would cause him to be driven out of the world."
"Frau Hainich spoke very briefly. 'I came here to manifest that my people in Austria love peace as I do, want peace for society, and the world will tell you our women love peace and do their best to promote it.'"
Some of the politicians did not think the time ripe for striving for peace, but she was sure that their ideas were going on and growing and she thought they would grow further and so hoped for the peace movement.
Madie La Fontaine spoke in French and after complimenting Canada, pleaded for the spread of ideals of love of humanity. Children should be trained against love for war, and she hoped for the time when the nations would unite against it.
"War may be necessary to prevent overcrowding, but why not kill them in some more humane manner," was an extract from a school boy's essay quoted by Miss Barrett of Dublin. People asked what good the peace agitation did when war and soldiers still existed. As well ask the use of churches and sermons, she argued. If it were not for these constant efforts to prevent war, it would be a hell on earth every day thoughts we would be back in savagery.
The selfishness of the individual was developed into love for family, tribe, nation.
"Now we want to aim not at the selfishness of the individual, but the welfare and well-being of the whole world, she said.
She and other foreign delegates were struck by the entire absence of soldiers from the streets in Canada. This military burden was very heavy in Europe. The old age pensions in England against which some people objected on account of the expense, could be all met by the cost of a single breadbasket. War should be stopped as duelling was stopped, by public opinion.
"It will yet be considered as brutal as we now think a street fight."

TWO NEAR DROWNINGS IN WATERS OF TORONTO

Gallant Rescues of Edward Moriarty and Albert Rouse When Close to Death

Two near drownings occurred in Toronto waters on Sunday. Ashbridge's Bay almost claimed Edward Moriarty, aged 20, of Dupont-street, and a victim. His rescue was due to the heroism of Roland Bell, aged 19, of 31 Woodward-avenue, who in his efforts to save Moriarty was all but dragged beneath the water himself.
Moriarty was bathing when his cries for help attracted Bell, who was swimming from a boat 50 yards away. Bell swam the 50 yards. Moriarty seized him round the neck and the two men went down. On coming up the first time Bell threw the man off, but he was seized again and would have sunk a second time, but several persons who were nearby to the rescue. An oar was extended and Bell grabbed it.
Moriarty was unconscious. He had taken a great deal of water and there was no sign of life when the body was landed on the shore.
Joseph L. Rawborn, who has a life-saving medal, and another from the Joseph Humane Society, and his son, John L., at once applied approved methods of resuscitation, and after working some time, the restored breathing. They say Bell's conduct was most praiseworthy and he should be rewarded with a medal.
While Albert House of the West Wellington-street and a companion were paddling up the Humber on Sunday afternoon, and when about 200 feet north of the bridge, the canoe upset, precipitating the two into the water. Rouse could not swim, and his companion, tho he made a big effort, was unable to rescue him. Another man, who refused to give his name, succeeded in bringing Rouse to the surface, but it was only after a long time that he showed any signs of life. He was later taken to Armstrong's Hotel, and last night was thought to be out of danger.

On Saturday the bride of J. Loughlin, aged 30, and her brother, William, aged 25, were drowned in the Kaministiquia River. Rouse could not swim, and his companion, tho he made a big effort, was unable to rescue him. Another man, who refused to give his name, succeeded in bringing Rouse to the surface, but it was only after a long time that he showed any signs of life. He was later taken to Armstrong's Hotel, and last night was thought to be out of danger.

SHOT AT DESERTING HUBBY

Alleged Canadian Millionaire was Borrowing All Her Money.

DETROIT, June 27.—(Special).—A special from Los Angeles, Calif., tonight says:
A woman temporarily insane by the fear that she had forever lost the man to whom she had wedded but a few days, the wife of a Detroit millionnaire, Russell Grundy, yesterday attempted to kill her husband with a revolver, which she carried concealed in her hand bag. Mrs. Grundy, after her husband had disarmed her and turned her over to the Detroit millionnaire, J. Russell Grundy, after they had been married but four days.
Despite his wealth, Grundy's wife says, seems to have been always out of cash, and she joined him a good deal immediately after their marriage. When she had done this several times, she decided to draw in the purse strings. Grundy objected, and when she persisted in what he called her "brandy" she was "was thru with her for keeps" and went back to his parental home at Orling Beach, where she followed him yesterday. He was not touched.

SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC SERVICES.

Public services and utilities can be owned and operated successfully whether by the state or by municipalities only thru the adoption and continued exercise of strict business rules.

Candid and well informed opponents of public ownership in Canada attend the success attending the municipal enterprises of the United Kingdom, but they insist that business methods cannot be expected from Canadian governments or city councils.

A NEW ZEALANDER ON ENGLAND. Sir Robert Stout, ex-premier and present chief justice of New Zealand, has very definite ideas of the consequences of England's failure as a world-power.

In an interview with the navy builder of 1885, Wm. T. Stead, he declares that England suffers chiefly from sloth and illigal views. The non-conformists, for example, wish to disestablish the church, and at the same time establish religion in the parish school.

Laborers are very slack in their methods, and three men are needed to do the work of one. The young Englishmen are not equal to the New Zealanders and the farms are not well cultivated.

Prevention Better Than Cure. When Mrs. Edwin Gray of York, England, gave her message to the women of Canada to take things in time and not wait until the poverty and misery prevalent in older countries are reproduced here, she voted a warning of wider range than was covered by her immediate subject.

Dolly Dimples is in Toronto. She will spend to-day riding about the city in a big McLaughlin-Bullock car and inspecting the grounds and buildings at Hurlan's Point.

To-night at 8 o'clock she will go to the Island and "disappear" in the crowd in front of the pavilion. Try and identify her.

Take a good look at Dolly in her automobile to-day. Try to catch her to-night. Dolly Dimples, whose defiant challenge to citizens of Toronto to discover her identity and her whereabouts has already whetted the ambitions of all the amateur sleuths in town, arrived in the city early Saturday morning and immediately called at The World office to announce that she is ready for the merry chase she expects to lead her pursuers during the next few days.

Natural Decline Is Fought By the Various Syndicates

Wall Street Acts Stubborn in Retiring to a Safer Position—Toronto Market Inactive and Easier.

World Office, Saturday Evening, June 26. Union Pacific still acts as the pivot of the Wall-street market, and movements up and down in these specialties followed by the other specialties. The attempt to distribute stock last week was a flat failure, traders taking advantage of the movement in the market from underneath the syndicates. On the decline early this week considerable short selling was engaged and this was made the basis of another rally. The market was foremost in the upward swing and the usual grist of rumors of segregation plans, retirement of the syndicates and other unlikely events were immediately checked by the news agencies, which serve to feed the market with a doctored following.

The market's action for two weeks or more repeats the effects that are being made to get out stock on the public. Those who are in close touch with the exchange recognize that a decline and a recovery follows this process. The supporting interests are fully aware of what they are up against and by rapid railway recently occurred in Reading and Union Pacific try to ward off the competition of shorts and at the same time effect a few sales by the attraction of the upward movement.

Values of many dividend-paying stocks are on an interest-bearing level, the absurdity of which is admitted by those who know the characteristics of Wall-street as the natural result. Possibilities of advances from present price ranges are slim, too slim to justify the risks of being long of stocks. The only argument available to those predicting higher prices is that the public will come in with a buying rush and expand the market. This is a pretty flimsy argument, and one which cannot possibly be deduced from present action of the outside trader.

Conditions outside the market have undergone no change of late. The tremendous reduction in loans last Saturday could only have been accomplished by outside borrowing in London or some other European financial center. There are no fresh signs of hardening of money rates, but further gold exports are being prepared. The only argument available to those predicting higher prices is that the public will come in with a buying rush and expand the market. This is a pretty flimsy argument, and one which cannot possibly be deduced from present action of the outside trader.

A steady decline has been witnessed at the Canadian exchanges during the past week. This was due partly to the reactionary character of the New York market and also to the fact that prices offered opportunities for realizing profits. The purchasing power of this market has shown a recent period of buoyancy on other exchanges, and no other explanation is needed to account for the decline as it has occurred when offerings have been placed in the market. The most reactionary issues of late have been the South American securities and steel and coal shares. Sao Paulo has undergone a decline of some thirteen points inside of a month, and after this decline the company has apprised its shareholders that the tariff has been modified and that decreased earnings are due on that account. Withholding this information until the price of the shares has declined to such an extent may be satisfactory to those who had inside information, but certainly will not be satisfactory to those who get the statement after the break has occurred.

The steel and coal shares, both of which were evidently worked by Montreal speculators, have been subjected to pressure from holders and short sellers during the week. The insiders are not receiving much assistance from the public as buyers in these shares just at the present, and the whole energy of big holders is to maintain the stock against professional short trading to force speculatively held shares back into the market. These stocks showing weakness, the whole market has been more or less influenced and small losses have occurred in almost all the other speculative issues.

Investment securities have been especially dull, but there has been no loss in the underdone to the detriment of the market on that account. The matters governing stock values are as good as ever. There is a plentiful supply of money available for market purposes, as is shown by the large amount of call loans which the banks have out at an extremely low figure on outside points. The government crop report of June 15 promises a record year for farmers of the Dominion, and current commercial conditions are quiet, are regarded as likely to make rapid improvement after the harvesting of this year's crop. Despite these favorable facts, however, the market is in an apathetic state, and from appearances it will be a month or two before any fresh upward trend will develop in speculative stocks.

Wall Street Points. Dun's Review says reports from the principal industrial and mercantile centres are of an encouraging nature. Bradstreet's says improvement is more manifest this week, main spring

PARIS, June 26.—J. Pierpont Morgan returned to London yesterday after having been only twelve hours in Paris. The negotiations to effect the listing of the common shares of the United States Steel Corporation on the Paris Bourse are continuing, but there is no definite indication to-day when a final decision will be reached.

On Wall Street. Beatty & Glasco had the following to say this morning: The stock market was nothing but a trading affair this morning. The feature was a break of 3 1/2 points in Union Pacific preferred, but it made up the loss. Closing prices were without much change. Some of the selling of U. S. Steel was due to the report that the common stock in Paris had been definitely abandoned. We have under stood for some days that the plan was off. We think it is of small consequence whether it is listed or not. It will not act as a straw to check the flow of prosperity in this country. And in this prospectus the U. S. Steel Corporation will share to a very great extent. The bank statement of the company shows an increase of $13,770,000 in surplus under the average method of accounting and increase of $7,740,000 in reserve, according to the method of accounting, were much more favorable than expected, if one regards increased reserve as a good feature. Loans have contracted largely. The surplus now stands at $32,946,000, a strong position for this time of the year.

R. B. Lyman & Co. wired R. B. Hodgson to look for better prices during the early part of the week, and advise buying at prevailing prices. Chas. Head & Co. to R. B. Hodgson: The market to-day has backed and filled without definite trend, the heat apparently checking effective operations either way. London came lower and cables found early reflection, trading being strictly professional, with the public indifferent. The improvement may go further, but we would advise profit-taking outside, waiting for reactions to purchase, being better weather and crop reports.

Producers expect another decrease in stocks of copper for June. U. S. Steel officials report reserves increased in good volume. Increase in Canadian wheat acreage much smaller than had been expected. Western coal trade is slackening.

Joseph says: Tractions will go higher. Buy People's Gas. Bull Pacific Mail.

Henry Clews says: Toward the close of the week the market was largely dominated by movements of the Harman stocks, and uncertainty as to the meaning of these fluctuations tended to lessen general activity. Apart from this factor there was little change in the general outlook. The technical situation of the market still shows doubt as to stability, it being well understood that large holders of securities have been taking the handsome profits accrued to date. The Question of Wilton Rugs vs. all other Rugs

Come and Let Us Show You the Points of Excellence About Rugs, and Wilton Rugs in Particular. WILTONS wear. The short, close pile seems to resist the effects of long usage better than almost any other kind of Carpet.

We Start the Third Week of DOLLAR Shirts To-morrow

Table showing sales figures for Dollar Shirts: First week 1500, Second week 2000, Third week 3000, Fourth week 3500, Total 10,000.

AT THE time of writing our returns for the second week of our schedule are not complete. We sold over 1500 shirts the first week all right, with a comfortable margin to spare, and we think we are pretty safe in promising not to be very far behind our second week's figures when they are all in to-night.

We start off to-morrow on our third week with 6500 shirts to offer, 3000 of which we have promised ourselves to sell before Tuesday next. The holiday reduces the number of selling days from six to five. At the same time it increases the demand for Summer Shirts. So we think that the increased warmth of the weather, added to the increased fame of our DOLLAR Shirts, and these other circumstances as detailed, will ensure our schedule of 3000 for the week.

All styles, 100 patterns, three colorings to each design, sizes and half sizes, 14 to 18.

ONE DOLLAR PER SHIRT

Model Blouses from Paris and New York to be Sacrificed on Tuesday

Values Range from $25 to $100, Tuesday Clearing Price for the Entire Collection, $19.75. WE expect to be the cause of considerable exclamation when we announce that the time to clear out the remainder of our stock of imported waists has arrived, and that $19.75 is the figure set for the exodus.

All the social occasions of the glorious summer season, when beauty is wont to glow from a background of green shade and sun-lit leaves. These are not plain waists. There is nothing "shirtheisty" about them. They are not tailored waists. They are elaborate waists—some of them might deserve the term "fussy" if they were not so beautifully feminine. Parisiennes certainly know how to be luxuriant in the matter of lace blouses.

We have just as complete a stock of Wilton's as we have of Axminsters, or any other kind of rug, and saying that is making a strong statement. Particularly we might mention a line of 9 x 12 feet Wilton's at $30.00. Others at prices in proportion to sizes. See them.

Dinner Waists Summer Dances, Bridge Parties Afternoon Occasions, Garden Parties. 2 are marked $100 to-day, 3 are marked $75 to-day, 2 are marked $65 to-day, 2 are marked $50 to-day, 4 are marked $40 to-day, 10 are marked $35 to-day, 4 are marked $32 to-day, 11 are marked $30 to-day, 60 are marked $25 to-day.

Tuesday, All One Price, $19.75

100 Imported Hand-made Waists, from the leading houses of Paris and New York; real Brussels lace, Ninon de Sole, Crepe de Chine, Chiffons and Irish Crochets; also of finest Irish linen, trimmings of Maltese lace and hand embroidery, long or short sleeves; suitable for evening wear. Tuesday, $19.75. $8.00 SILK GOWNS, $8.95. 60 only Silk Gowns and Kimonos, New York samples and oddments from stock, made in a variety of styles, some with loose backs, others shirred and tucked, trimmings of self colors and Persian banding, floral designs and plain colors, sky, cardinal, navy, pink and mauve. Regular $5.00 to $8.00. Tuesday $3.95.

LADIES' SUMMER DRESSES. Two-piece Dress of Mercerized Mull, waist is tucked and trimmed with lace insertion and embroidery, comes in pink, sky and helio. Tuesday, $7.50. Smart Summer Dress of Linene, in sky, grey, mauve, natural and navy, dainty lace yoke back and front. Tuesday, $2.95.

Shades of Wisteria, pink, sky, tau, brown, navy, amethyst, fawn etc. Reg. 25c-12-1-2c. A tremendous range of printed organdies, white, navy, tan and other colored grounds, figures, spots, sprays, geometrical and other designs in various colors, regular 19c-7-1-2c.
