G.T.R. BILL PASSES COMMITTEE STAGE IN FEDERAL HOUSE

Dr. Reid Announces No Amendments Can Be Accepted to the Agreement.

THIRD READING TODAY

Ottawa, April 21.—(By Canadian Press).—After another protracted session on the proposed ratification of the Grand Trunk agreement, the house of commons tonight put the bill through the committee stage, but agreed to allow the third reading to stand over. Hon. C. J. Doherty stated that third reading would come up in the ordinary course tomorrow.

Replying to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Dr. Reid stated no amendments could be accepted to the agreement as already decided upon between the company and the government. "Then it is useless for this discussion to proceed any further," said the leader of the opposition, and the bill was reported out of committee at 11.20.

Tomorrow the house will discuss the franchise bill.
Cannon Criticizes Rowell.
In the evening the Grand Trunk bill was again before committee of the whole house. Opposition criticism showed no sign of abatement, and Lucien Cannon, of Dorchester, professed to see in the bill more than appeared at first reading. He aroused amusement by comparing government acquisition of the Grand Trunk system with the methods employed by the Bolsheviks in Russia.

Referring to Hon. N. W. Rowell, Mr. Cannon said "it is time has come for the representatives of the people of Canada to put a stop to this radical policy of the government, especially when Bolshevism is introduced into this country by a minister who carries a Bible in one hand and a temperance tract in the other."

Mr. Cannon also took a fling at Hon. C. J. Doherty, who he said, was a good Irishman in Canada. (Continued on Page 16, Col. 6.)

SOLDIERS TO INVAD COUNCIL CHAMBER

Will Demand Review of Civic Posts Filled Since 1914—Will Parade to Hall.

AN ALL-VETERAN DECISION

The feeling which has so long existed among veterans organizations that their greatest need has been for unity and concerted action, culminated last night in a round table conference supper at the G.W.V.A. club rooms, Isabella street. The meeting took place on the invitation of the G.W.V.A. and representatives were present from the Originals' Club, His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans, Grand Army of Canada, United Veterans' League and the Naval Veterans. Comrade Hunter of the G.W.V.A. presided.

Speeches were made by members of each association and the burden of them all was that personal differences which had impeded the progress of ex-service men's interests, must be set aside. It was agreed that there must continue to be differences of opinion and of principle, and where disagreement existed, the point of disagreement should be openly and candidly stated and discussed by a round table conference.

The outcome of the discussion was a decision to hold a monster mass meeting in Queen's Park next Wednesday when a procession will be formed and an advance made on the city hall. The arrival of the parade, in mass formation, at the city hall will be timed so as to find a council meeting in progress, and a deputation will demand that all civic positions filled since August 1914, be reviewed in order that returned men's applications, with the necessary qualifications, can be considered.

It was also decided that round table conference meetings should be held at least once a month to allow members of the various organizations with a view to fostering cordial personal relations and greater unity among the ranks of the branches of ex-service men's associations.

OTTAWA TO FORM "OLD CLOES LEAGUE"

Ottawa, April 21.—The first organized effort to push the clothes economy movement took shape tonight when a committee of veterans, civil servants and others met in the G.W.V.A. head office and decided to call a meeting in the Y.M.C.A. on Friday night to form an "Old Cloes League," or similar body to the stock exchange idea, and to take concerted action to reduce the high cost of clothes.

JAPANESE EXCHANGES CLOSE

Tokio, April 21.—The silk, cotton and rice exchanges closed Friday as a result of a ten day slump in prices. With the close of the stock exchange the losses to speculators were estimated at 2,000,000,000 yen.

MAY EMPLOY MILITARY FORCE TO EXECUTE TURKISH TREATY, SO SUPREME COUNCIL DECIDES

Two Hundred Thousand Allied Troops in Turkish Territory, and Can Be Increased if Resistance Develops—Tension Between Delegates Over New Demands by Germany.

San Remo, April 21.—The supreme council of the allies is fully prepared to execute the Turkish treaty by military force if necessary. The council accepted today a plan drawn for the employment of the allied armies by Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, British chief of staff, and General Badoglio, Italian chief of staff, who were present at the morning session.

Two hundred thousand allied troops now are within the borders of the Turkish empire, strategically disposed, and these forces can be increased, if Turkish resistance develops formidably, to any essential number. Greece will probably supply the largest number of troops.

Supplementary naval plans were also approved by the council, to which Baron Beatty, commander of the British grand fleet, and Admiral Levasseur, assistant to the chief of the general staff of the French navy, explained the plans in person.

The treaty does not include the final arrangements for mandatory states. They will simply be cut apart from the general staff of the French navy, explained the plans in person. The council has determined to leave Kurdistan part of Turkish territory for the period of two years and then decide whether to leave it with Turkey or make it a separate province under a mandate.

Serious Situation in Ho Nan Follows Murder of Missionary

Vancouver, B.C., April 21.—A serious situation has been created in Ho Nan, China, as a result of the murder by bandits of Dr. James Menzies, M.D., C.M., and Chao Tih, the military governor, has been severely censured by the Peking authorities for his inability to protect foreigners' lives and property. This information has just been received by The World.

Dr. Menzies came from Toronto, where he was now residing, and for more than 20 years was a missionary in China. He expired shortly after being wounded after defending some women missionaries against robbers.

HON. A. G. MACKAY ILL.

Edmonton, April 21.—Hon. A. G. Mackay, minister of municipal affairs and health in the Alberta government, was taken to the hospital tonight suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis. Pneumonia is feared.

FREE-FOR-ALL DEBATE OPENS ON MCCREARY RESOLUTION TO CALL FOR REFERENDUM

Government Condemned for Not Fathering Measure, Instead of Leaving It to Private Member—Proposal Made That Supreme Court Define Province's Legal Position Before Anything is Done.

The free-for-all on the McCreary resolution that Ottawa be asked for a referendum on the question of the importation of liquor into Ontario was pulled off in the legislature yesterday afternoon and evening. No decision was arrived at, and the debate will be resumed today. The government came in for some pretty hard knocks for not fathering the resolution itself, instead of allowing a private member to bring it in. It would seem from the trend of the discussion that the house will approve the submission of a referendum. The counter proposals submitted—one by a Liberal member, and one by a Conservative, called for the presentation of a stated case to the supreme court, to ascertain its exact legal position, and the other called on the government to itself assume full responsibility for any action that may be taken.

The galleries were crowded during the session, and prominent temperance leaders crowded the floor of the house. The debate made it quite apparent that the various groups are not a unit among themselves.

What Labor Wants.
Mr. Harkow (Hamilton) started the ball rolling. The Labor party did not believe a referendum should be submitted. There had been one last October, and on that occasion it was shown that there was a big minority who were not in favor of total prohibition. The proposed referendum was simply passing the buck. Worse evils would result in a bonny dry province. The temperance people them-

Brotherhood Chiefs Fail to Secure Concession for Returning Strikers.

DISORDERLY MEETING

New York, April 21.—Railroad employees who took part in the unauthorized strike will not be reinstated with their seniority rights, it was announced tonight by J. J. Mantell, spokesman for the General Managers' Association, after a conference with the representatives of the four brotherhoods of railroad employees. The returning strikers will be registered as new employees. Mr. Mantell said.

This announcement was issued after representatives of the railroad brotherhoods had spent several hours in an unsuccessful attempt to secure an extension of the railroad's ultimatum, which expired at noon last Sunday. The brotherhood chiefs sought to gain an extension until noon tomorrow, in which they report for duty, he added.

E. A. McHugh, chairman of the strikers' executive committee, of the railway workers of America, when informed tonight of the railroad managers' action, declared he would not advise the men whom he represents to return to work.

UPROAR AT CHICAGO

Strikers Refuse to Listen to Leaders Urging End of Walk-Out.

Chicago, April 21.—John Grunau, leader of the outlaws Chicago Yardmen's Association, who was released from jail at Joliet, Ill., today, after friends had deposited $10,000 bond, was expected to call a new meeting of striking switchmen to end the walkout, following the tumultuous termination of a mass meeting today, called by a committee of strike leaders to vote on returning to work.

Declaring they had been "sold out" and hooting down attempts of strike leaders to appeal to them to end the walkout, several thousand strikers today held a mass meeting when it was announced Grunau, who was to have presided, was still in jail.

The strike men up in an uproar. Tumult reigned inside and outside the hall for a half hour, but there was no violence and no arrests were made. Shannon Jones, R. S. Murphy and J. Kenney, who called the meeting, urged the strikers to return to work and await action of the railroad labor board in their demands for increased pay.

"The strikers are fighting for the railroads of the United States, and you are foolish to try. The only thing we can do is to fight the government," the strikers began to speak. He was greeted with cries of "Where's Grunau?" "We want Grunau!"

WANT RACING TAX DEFERRED THIS YEAR

Prominent Horsemen Ask Government to Delay Its Imposition.

A deputation interested in Ontario race tracks waited on Provincial Treasurer South, Attorney-General Raney and Minister of Agriculture, Doherty, to ask that the province defer the $5000 to $10,000 per day tax on race receipts until the Dominion government's decision as to taxing pari-mutuels.

Mr. Harkow also took a rap at some temperance people who would ask friends to secure them liquor in their names. He deplored this sneaking method of getting "booze."

A Farmers' Day.

The rainfall of Tuesday night and yesterday was pretty general over the province, and did a lot of good to the fall wheat and pasture fields. It also warmed up the earth for seeding. Tuesday was a busy day for seeding on many farms in Ontario. It may seem today or tomorrow after the rainfall is over, and then be general for some time, but the farmer is busy now. The fields of fall wheat look fairly good and will soon grow greener and stronger. On with the seeding.

WALL STREET PANICKY; GRAIN PRICES TUMBLE

Japanese Financial Crisis Factor in Heavy Liquidation in New York.

CURTAILING CREDITS HOLDERS UNNERVED

Losses in Stocks Run From Five to More Than Forty Points.

New York, April 21.—Wall street today furnished the news sensation of the century, heavy liquidation in the stock market sending prices to a spectacular plunge. Leading issues, especially those of a speculative nature, dropped five to 15 points. General Motors fell 42 1/2 points to 275.

Foreign exchange fell with the rest of the market. Demand selling dropped nearly four cents, European issues declining accordingly. Selling by Japanese interests to strengthen their reserves at home was given as one of the causes for the drop in exchange.

The big crash came in the final hour, when nearly one-third of the day's extensive turnover of more than two million shares took place. So great was the rush to sell that the ticker was 15 to 20 minutes behind in reporting transactions.

There was a break of more than $5 a bale in the cotton market. Banking interests expressed the belief that the decline in the local market was precipitated by the weakened bull position of professional traders. A large proportion of the day's selling originated at interior points, where banks were reported to be once more reducing "un-essential loans." It was intimated that locally further curtailment of credits is in progress.

Listed States fell below par for the first time since the third week in March, falling 2 1/2 points to 98 1/2. Latin American bonds lost nearly 15 points. Motors, oil and other favored issues dropped five to ten points. Liberty bonds found the lowest levels yet, some of them dropping to prices where they represented an interest return of nearly 7 per cent.

Troubled Markets Indicate Break In the Cost of Living

Inflated Prices Balloon Seems to Be Swollen Almost to Bursting Point—Scurcity of Money All Over the World Being Emphasized.

The overall wearers and the women who refuse to buy potatoes at current prices are not the only ones engaged in letting some of the wind out of the inflated prices balloon. Wall Street has started in its own way to drop stocks down to a level more in keeping with the quantity of actual money available. Prices dropped down in a rather rapid way yesterday, but the market has not yet quite reached the panicky stage when all the collectable margins have been scooped in, which is usually the signal for an upturn for the production of another crop of buyers. In one office in the city yesterday clients who were carrying curb stocks were notified that they would have to sell. The only thing gathered from this was that the New York markets were refusing loans on this kind of stuff. The scarcity of money all over the world is being emphasized. Tokio had a bank panic a few days ago and rates of interest are now being asked on the best kind of securities that are almost prohibitive of business expansion.

Some Toronto financiers believe that the squeeze will be acute, but short, and that it will serve to bring about a more normal condition of prices. Liquidation also started yesterday in the Chicago grain markets and some are hopeful that the day of famine prices has been left behind and that the high cost of living will be a waning topic from now on. Events that are taking place may give the profiteers a twinge (not of their conscience, for that is an impossibility, but if the masses of the people are to come into their own the wish will be, let the good work go on.)

Below are a few of the drops in the Wall Street market on Wednesday, and the decline in corn and oats options.

Table with 2 columns: Security Name and Price Change. Includes General Motors, U.S. Steel, Am. Wool, Crs. Steel, Rubber, Republic Iron, Corn, Oats.

BRING FEDERAL BUDGET DOWN WITHIN TEN DAYS

Ottawa, April 21.—(By Canadian Press).—Replying to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in the house this afternoon, Sir George Foster announced that the budget would be brought down within the next week or ten days.

A motion from him to eliminate private members' days on and after Monday next was allowed to stand after Sir George had stated that it was put out as an advertisement that the government was anxious to get into the real business of the session, believing that plenty of opportunity had been given for discussion of private resolutions and that the members themselves were anxious to get away to their homes as quickly as possible.

FRENCH TROOPS STILL OCCUPY EASTERN THRACE

Adrianople, European Turkey, April 21.—All the territory east of Xanthi, in Thrace, is still occupied by French troops. The country is quiet except for bandit raids and resulting skirmishes between Greeks on the one side and Turks and Bulgarians on the other. Order is being maintained here by the Turkish colonel, Daffter Tagan, who on March 16 declared himself the representative of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish nationalist leader. There have been no disturbances, although the British mission has been withdrawn.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Today will be commemorated the fifth anniversary of the battle of St. Julien, with which the name of Canada will be gloriously associated for all time. On April 22, 1915, when the enemy for the first time brought into use the infernal poison gas, the Canadians barred the way to the channel ports and as Lord French said in his despatch, "The Canadians saved the day."

The Canadians lay in the Ypres salient trenches before St. Julien on the night of April 21, when the enemy made his experimental gas attack against the French-Algerian troops, who were holding the line directly to the left of the Canadian army. The Algerians retired, leaving a gap of three miles in the line. The Canadians fought for three days and three nights, extending the line and closing the gap. Had our troops given way as did the French-Algerian regiments, nothing would have stood in the way of the enemy to Calais and they, with practically the whole British army, would have been cut off.

Withstanding the deadly fumes of gas and the destructive rain of lead, the heroic sons of Canada not only saved the day at St. Julien, but changed the probable outcome of the war. For, had the Germans gained their objective, the world today might be under the heel of Prussianism.

NO HUMAN HAND FOUND MISSING AT UNIVERSITY

Coroner, Nevertheless, Decides on Burial—Miss Small Denied Access.

DESCRIPTIONS VARY

The mystery surrounding the human hand found in Claremont place on Friday last and deposited wrapped in a piece of newspaper in an ice box at the morgue is still a mystery—and so far as The World could learn yesterday few if any efforts are being made to clear up what might in the long run prove to be a crime, in fact. Coroner Johnson said yesterday he proposed to hand the member over to an undertaker for burial.

The story of the discovery and the description of the hand as told exclusively in last Tuesday's World was set up an intense local interest and especially in circles where there are relatives who have been missing from their homes without apparent cause for some time past.

For some reason best known to themselves the authorities are denying permission to all applicants who are anxious to see the hand for identification purposes on the ground that it is only an anatomical specimen removed away by some medical student at the university.

Small's Sisters Denied.
Amongst those who yesterday phoned Coroner Johnson, asking for an order to view the hand were the Mesdames Small, sisters of Ambrose J. Small. The permission was denied them on the anatomical specimen excuse and the further information was given that the hand was badly burned by acids used on such specimens and that the morgue was not a morbid museum. With this denial of what the sisters considered a right they had to content.

The official excuse for not permitting a possible identification of the hand is hardly borne out by the facts as ascertained by The World. Outside of a few officials, The World representative is apparently the only person who has seen the severed member since it was deposited at the morgue and his description of it does not quite tally with the official one.

Accounts at Variance.
Altho The World representative is not a member of the medical profession, the description he gave of the hand was the result of careful observation. So far as could be seen— (Continued on Page 9, Col. 4.)

HANNA DEFENDS STATE RAILWAYS

System is Absolutely Free of Political Influences, He Declares.

Quebec, April 21.—(By Canadian Press).—D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways was the guest of the Quebec Board of Trade at a dinner given in his honor at the Chateau Frontenac tonight.

Defending the Canadian National railways, Mr. Hanna said that the Canadian National Railways were absolutely free from political influence, while many of the government-owned railways, Mr. Hanna said, were not. He affirmed that the government railways must be run for the general good of the Dominion and consequently the policy with respect to the city of Quebec would be the same as for any other city in Canada.

FURTHER DEBATING OF BILL TO CREATE PURCHASING BOARD

Commons Has Somewhat Stormy Discussion, But Reports Progress.

OPPONENTS FEAR GRAFT

Ottawa, April 21.—(By Canadian Press).—After a somewhat stormy discussion in the commons this afternoon, progress was reported on the government resolution to provide for the establishment of a purchasing commission for government supplies.

Opposition criticism of the resolution was based on the contention that the government was seeking to curtail the country with another commission, which was unnecessary.

The government is considering who to send to the international financial conference on May 25 next, in Brussels, and announcement of its choice of Canadian representatives would be made in due course.

Moves for Purchasing Board. Sir George Foster moved the resolution to appoint a purchasing board for the purchase of departmental and other government supplies.

Replying to Mr. Mackenzie King, Sir George said that the new board would not purchase supplies needed for the operation of the Canadian government.

Opposition Members Critical. A discussion then arose, in which many opposition members took part, as to whether the activities of the purchasing commission were reviewable by the public accounts committee.

There was no intention, said the acting prime minister, to form a new commission to give the purchasing commission the right to give the government the right to purchase goods for the government.

Mr. King and Rowell in Tilt. Mr. King suggested that the desire of the government in presenting the bill, was to create more commissions.

Mr. Rowell retorted that the proposed bill did not preclude the appointment of any of the present staff of purchasing agents.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS DANFORTH DOES NOT WANT ANNEXATION

Ratepayers Decide Against Junction With City—Discuss Sewage System.

A well attended meeting of the Danforth Park and Eastdale Joint Ratepayers' Executive Committee was held at the business premises of President Sept. Rowe, Barrington avenue, when the annexation, sewer and water installation and other live questions were discussed.

Regarding the question of annexation which was reviewed from several angles, the meeting, after a lengthy discussion, decided to leave the matter of annexing to the city entirely out of their calculations and expressed their opinion as being entirely opposed to the movement.

The question of an intake pipe at Scarborough Bluffs was also discussed. The chairman believed that if this scheme was adopted by York township it would serve the eastern section with water and could still serve even if taken over by the city in five or ten years time.

The Don River scheme, while satisfactory as a temporary service, would if adopted by York township council be scrapped when annexation was accomplished, he further pointed out.

JEWISH WORKERS NEED $60,000 TO ATTAIN OBJECTIVE

Inclimency of Weather Hinders Efforts of Relief Campaign Canvassers. FINAL EFFORT TODAY

The inclimency of the weather was responsible for the absence of some of the Jewish War Relief campaigners from the noon luncheon, yesterday. Nevertheless, the results are still satisfactory, altho a greater effort will be necessary today if the objective of $200,000 is to be reached before night. About $138,600 had been collected up to midnight, leaving about $60,000 to be raised on this, the final day of the campaign.

The workers yesterday were addressed by Rabbi Jacobs and K. J. Dunstan. Leo Frankel, the rabbi, earnest and eloquent as usual, told of his experiences when working on behalf of other such movements in America and called upon the workers to redouble their energy and self-sacrificing labor in order that the campaign will not fall short of its objective. He quoted the testimony of the prophet Jeremiah, who, referring to the destruction of Jerusalem, had said: "It was far better that those who died perished by the sword than from the lack of bread." Rabbi Jacobs applied this saying to the present state of affairs and urged his audience to spare no effort to save those helpless children from perishing from lack of bread.

Beyond Imagination. K. J. Dunstan spoke of the conditions in Eastern and Central Europe, stating that "they are as bad as anybody can paint them. They are beyond imagination. He referred to the great battle of Verdun, where the French defenders of the territory had sworn that "they shall not pass" and went on to say that the campaigners must reverse the determination and say that "they shall pass" the objective.

In the evening the following letter was received from the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company: "I am greatly in sympathy with the campaign which you have instituted in the way of the Jewish people. The Jewish population is in a great minority, and I fear that many will have this in mind and fail to support what I consider a very worthy cause."

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 22.

The First of May.

The fluctuating tide of communism in several of the European allied countries causes some people on this continent nervously to apprehend the coming of the first of May. They dread Bolshevik demonstrations, and want some special insurance against them. There is quite a Red surge in the United States, and some Red splashing in Canada. But there seems no reason to fear that the extremists in our midst will try to do more than let off steam.

The most remarkable thing about the extremists, whose echoing voices sometimes reach the great public, is their delusion that a tiny minority in this country can overturn anything, without the support of the great body of Canadian wage earners. The Independent Labor party stands unequivocally for constitutional agitation. The vote it polled in the Toronto municipal elections, less than four months ago, showed that it has a long way to go before marshaling hosts can be marshaled to support its policies.

There is more radicalism in western than in eastern Canada, and more expression of sympathy with the soviet idea of government. But western Canada is no more Russia than eastern Canada. In Russia, during a period of war, with huge armies in being, there was a revolution against czarism, led by the intelligentsia. Its leaders were driven out by the present dictators. Czarism was overthrown against. Nothing in Canada is revolting against. Nothing in Canada is.

Perhaps the most menacing thing that could happen to us would be refusal to let people talk. In this, as in so many other affairs of statesmanship, Britain is worth following. Over there, the handful of communists say what they please, in by-elections, and wherever their spirit moves. The noteworthy effect of their extremists is to strengthen the constitutionalism of the great mass of Labor party supporters. The old ship is in a rolling sea, but her skippers pay more attention to the sea and the weather ahead than they do to passengers, who protest that the vessel would run far better if she were turned upside down.

May day will be all right, even if labor should adopt to itself the couplet of children in the old land who, with drawing the cover from a pony, invite you to regard a pretty sight. The first of May is Labor's Day. And please remember the toiler.

On With the Murphies War.

David slew the giant who made life intolerable for Saul's army with a smooth stone. The women of Toronto are going after the giant who puts prices out of sight with a potato, slung by intensive organization. More power to their slinging, and to the new gospel of total abstinence.

Doing without potatoes will accomplish other things besides taking down the price. It is a blessed reducer of waist lines. Starch is one of the menaces of too comfortable mid-life. If holding off murphies for a month makes them cheaper, it will help to keep them cheaper after the self-denial month is gone. Once keep off starch foods, and see embopoint disappear, and it becomes easy to discourse experimentally on the futility of eating things you should not touch.

But, seriously, unless something is done, along the lines directed by the organized women, it will soon be impossible to eat at all. Eating out of your pocket, in these days, is coming to mean that you must eat pocket and all. What meals we used to get for twenty-five cents! And now, as you glance at a lunch card—outside what used to be a home of economical repasting, you read that no check will be accepted for less than fifty cents. So here's to the light infantry in the H. C. O. L. war, and their incomparable weapon, the potato.

Courtesies From Afar.

Doesn't it beat everything the kind of news and views about ourselves that come to us from other countries? Doesn't it beat almost everything that we some patriotic clubs provide forums for discussion, which, if they were made by Canadians, would almost certainly cause them to be ostracized by the fine fellows who listen graciously to what the strangers say.

The other day a great Canadian Club listened philosophically to a gentleman, who has lived many years in Germany, and who solemnly told that a famous American has been approached by several Canadians for support of a movement to annex Canada to the United States. An American humbly, while waiting for his turn at another patriotic club has given the freedom of an evening paper in which to pour the vitals of his scorn upon the league of nations, of which Canada is a member and in which the United States refuses to bear the rightful part of a father to the world's own child.

The gentleman who has resided long in Berlin may possibly be giving us real news about an annexation movement, incredible as it may seem. But shouldn't he have said something more, or less? Is there any reason why American visitors should sneer at the manifestation of Canada's enlarged national status, which the acting minister of external affairs points to with abounding pride?

Deprecation of this sort of imported courtesy has been made before, but the merry game goes on. It reminds one of the time when Col. Roosevelt was shooting big game in British East Africa, was protected by British authority, and marched thru the country behind the stars and stripes.

Let Mackenzie King Alone.

It is worth nobody's while to carry on a guerilla against Mr. Mackenzie King because of his war record. His defence in the house of commons should be accepted without recrimination. The charge that he went to the United States during the war to help increase the Rockefeller millions was the philanthropic Rockefeller Foundation, which it is for cities and towns to accept Carnegie libraries, for universities to receive Carnegie pensions for their professors or for Canadian medical research to be endowed with five million Rockefeller dollars.

Mr. King drew aside the curtain from his private affairs with candor and restraint. He was the support of a blind father, an aged mother, and a brother suffering from tuberculosis, which prevented him from providing for his own family. Mr. King could not have met these obligations out of any pay that he could have received from the Canadian army. Without a shadow of a doubt, he could justifiably be proud to fulfill a filial and fraternal duty. Besides, he was at war on affairs that helped the war, even the writing of a book with the enormous title of "Industry and Humanity" may not have been as belittling an undertaking as it probably appeared to the author.

Mr. King's statement won applause that was not all from his own side of the house—which shows that there is sympathy for a statesman whose position is difficult enough politically, without his countenancing efforts to make it impossible personally.

It is not necessary to agree with Mr. King's support of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the general election of 1917 in order to refrain from taunting him because, in his fortieth year, with heavy family responsibilities which no available army position could have sustained, he did not enlist.

Canada is concerned with bigger things than whether Mackenzie King should have shouldered a musket. After all, the test for national service today is the readiness and capacity to render it. A very great warrior may be a very poor statesman. Mr. King challenges public support, and must be prepared for the criticism of his party leadership. He may or may not be equal to his present job. But his place in parliament and the country depends on larger considerations than those which have impelled some critics to limn him as a money-making slacker. You can always afford to conduct political fighting on high ground.

This Harvest of Horrors.

Towards the end of the last century an imaginative writer scandalized many people by suggesting that in some future war such atrocities as poisoning wells and spreading epidemic germs would be perpetrated by a barbarous host invading Europe from eastern Asia. Apparently war atrocities are matters of degree. Until the race grows away from the insanity of bloodshed, as it has, in the main grown away from the burning of witches, it would appear that we must be prepared for all sorts of crimes (the ultimate flower of German militarism) for the next war, on sure and certain hope of which sundry military intellects seem to nourish themselves.

Prof. Harold Maxwell Lefroy, described as a prominent British scientist, announces that the next international conflict will be a germ war. He says:

"The country mobilizing the greatest number of the most pernicious microbes will be the victor. The war offices of the world will shortly establish entomological departments and draft strategic plans for the distribution of insecticidal pests in the enemy countries by airplanes in case of war."

I predict that in the next war the mosquito spreading yellow fever, the house-fly infected with cholera and dysentery, and the typhus-laden cockle will cause more deaths than shells, bullets or bombs.

What should be done to gentlemen in war offices who coldly devise such diabolical measures as these by day and probably write passionate tirades against Bolshevism at night? The calculated menace of the germ-bomb, if Prof. Lefroy's forecast should become fact, would put the dictator-ship of the Russian proletariat to shame, as a practitioner of barbarism. Prof. Lefroy, let us hope, is choosing a very backward spring for the sowing of such a crop of horrors.

The Foot of the Throne.

It is promised for the Grand Army of United Veterans that they will go to the governor-general with the demand for more gratuities, and so exercise the immemorial right of the subject to be heard at the foot of the throne. The governor-general would receive their representations graciously, and would hand them to his ministers. That was what happened when the farmers went to Ottawa two years ago to protest against the cancellation of exemptions of their sons, after the great German smash threatened to reach the Channel ports.

Within limits, it may be worth while to use some of the constitutional privileges that have fallen into abeyance. The farmers, did not ask the Duke of Devonshire to do anything. They merely informed him that the house of commons refused to hear their representatives, whom they had instructed to remonstrate against government by orders-in-council, which was curtailing the freedom of parliament as well as restricting the liberties of the citizen, by press censorship, the creation of new, unusual punishments for new offences, and other inconveniences of a war period.

The farmers' move, by the way, was rather cleverly designed and executed, though it did not become widely known. The government had refused to allow them to remonstrate to parliament. "Very well," they said, "we will reach you by a messenger, whom you will respectfully receive—and you selected his excellency, who assured them that he would convey their remonstrance to his ministers."

The farmers did not know that when they marched in thousands to the Victoria Museum they were breaking one of the fundamental laws that were framed to protect the parliamentary fabric—laws which they have not been specifically passed in Canada, just as the succession of one king by another operates in Canada without Canadian statutory enactment. It is unlawful for an assemblage of the populace to discuss what is being done, or not done, in parliament, within a mile of the houses. The prohibition was against tumultuous efforts to intimidate parliament, such as were put forth by London train bands and apprentices in former periods of our history.

The City of London, thru its lord mayor and common council, has special right of access to the monarch. It was more or less frequently exercised during the strife that attended the elections of John Wilkes for Middlesex, before the American war of independence broke. It was also exercised during that war, for in those days there was more sympathy in London for struggling democracy than there has been during more recent times. George III did not receive the London chiefs graciously as a rule, but he couldn't dispense with the visitations.

In Canada it was formerly customary for the citizenry to address the governor-general when the posture of public affairs afforded opportunity. The embattled farmers reminded the Duke of Devonshire of his two years ago, by reproducing in their letter to him part of the reply which Lord Elgin gave the men of Glenaryg to Montreal with a supporting address at the time of the agitation against his mildness towards the former rebels in Quebec. Lord Elgin commended them, especially for their "love of well-ordered freedom"—a reference which the farmers regarded as eminently useful when they were fighting against what they regarded as very ill-ordered-in-council freedom.

If the Grand Army of United Veterans go thru with the Flynn proposal, it will be very interesting to observe the effect of their action on the democratic temper which has not of late found any too great favor with some who occupy the seats of the mighty. The governor-general is in London for his daughter's wedding. When he returns, perhaps we shall see how the revival of the appeal to the throne works.

At the request of a deputation the board of control yesterday decided to recommend to council a grant of $10,000 for the Jewish war relief fund. The deputation included Leo Brankel, chairman of the campaign committee, and Edmund Walker, Noel Marshall and Kenneth J. Dunsmuir. It was said that most of the money would be spent in Canada, for provisions.

A conference will be held at the city hall today between members of the board of control, the Exchange and the Housing Guild on plans for meeting the house shortage, and a report will be ready for the council on Monday.

The board of control this morning met on the committee on works that the Toronto street extension be carried out this year.

Mayor Church yesterday recommended that the city solicitor be instructed to oppose bill 112 before the legislature, which aims to make municipalities liable for damages arising from riots. He thought the legislation would be better occupied in trying to find out the cause of riots.

On motion of Controller Maguire, the board of control decided to send to the council a recommendation that city insurance be paid to widows of soldiers who served overseas and were transferred to the D.S.C.R. before their death. There are about 25 such cases held up for consideration.

"We represent the potatoes committee," said Mrs. Courtice, school trustee, who with a committee advanced to interview the board of control yesterday. The Local Council of the High Cost of Potatoes and were anxious to have the use of the council chamber for a public conference on the potato question on Friday morning. The request was granted.

FLYERS TO CONFER ON NEW AIR RULES

To discuss and give an expression of opinion on the new air rules issued by the air board at Ottawa a general meeting of the members of the Aero Club of Canada has been called for 8 o'clock Thursday night. There are many sections in the regulations and resolutions will be introduced covering what the airman deem to be defects. One question under discussion is the compulsory joining up of every pilot who wishes to fly either as a sport or commercially.

The club members also have a scheme under discussion for an up-to-date club house with full facilities downtown. Every member of the club and all interests in the future of aviation in Canada are invited to be present and express their views.

TORONTO: Now, dear, forget that nasty secession and mamma will give you a nice new Mount Pleasant car line very soon.

CITY HALL NOTES

Mayor Church has received notice from all public bodies and many corporations that the proclamation calling for observance of St. Julian anniversary today by ceasing work for two minutes at 11 o'clock, would be complied with. The street cars will all stop at that hour by the switching off of the power.

The Pape Avenue car line issue brought another big deputation to the board of control yesterday, and after a friendly conference it was decided that the board should press for the construction of this line.

Ald. Honeyford pointed out that the Ontario railway board had ordered the city and the Toronto Street Railway to compensate the Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission for removing their poles on Pape Avenue, and this rule was seized upon by the street car company as an excuse for fighting the order to build the line. He suggested that the city bear the entire cost and thereby remove this bone of contention.

Ald. Hillz felt that the company was determined not to build the line and was merely looking for excuses. He thought the board should insist that the company should not be allowed to make fools of the city and the people.

Vice-Chairman Controller Maguire announced that the matter would be discussed with the commission's works as soon as he returns to the city and an effort would be made to reach an understanding with the Toronto Street Railway so that the line could be built. It might be necessary, he said, for the city to pay the increased cost of the rails, which he understood was one reason the company advanced against carrying out the scheme now.

Residents of Marmaduke Avenue appeared with a petition signed by thirty-six property owners, against the erection of a garage at 44 Marmaduke Avenue under a residence by the owner, E. McMartin. The owner of the house has been issued a permit by the city architect. The protesters were asked to bring their case before council on Monday next.

A deputation representing the Big Brothers and Big Sisters movement appeared before a grant of $1500 towards the cost of the expenses in connection with the international convention, which will be held in Toronto on June 7, 8, 9. They were asked to make a report to be considered and a recommendation made. Consideration will also be given a petition from the Orange Young Britons for a grant of $200 to enter their delegates to their convention here on May 24 and 25th.

PAPE AVE. CAR LINE AGAIN LIVE ISSUE

Board of Control Will Try to Reach Understanding With T.S.R.

The Pape Avenue car line issue brought another big deputation to the board of control yesterday, and after a friendly conference it was decided that the board should press for the construction of this line.

Ald. Honeyford pointed out that the Ontario railway board had ordered the city and the Toronto Street Railway to compensate the Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission for removing their poles on Pape Avenue, and this rule was seized upon by the street car company as an excuse for fighting the order to build the line. He suggested that the city bear the entire cost and thereby remove this bone of contention.

Ald. Hillz felt that the company was determined not to build the line and was merely looking for excuses. He thought the board should insist that the company should not be allowed to make fools of the city and the people.

Vice-Chairman Controller Maguire announced that the matter would be discussed with the commission's works as soon as he returns to the city and an effort would be made to reach an understanding with the Toronto Street Railway so that the line could be built. It might be necessary, he said, for the city to pay the increased cost of the rails, which he understood was one reason the company advanced against carrying out the scheme now.

WORLD'S DAILY BRAIN TEST

By SAM LLOYD.
 No. 168
 20 Minutes to Answer This.
 According to ancient lore, the royal game, or what is now known as chess, was invented by a Hindoo named Sessa, and the king of that country, Sheva, was asked to reward the inventor. Sessa astonished the king by his demand: viz., one grain of wheat for the first square, four for the third, eight for the fourth, and so on, always doubling for each square up to the sixteenth square of the board.

The king accepted the proposition, and later learned that he had presented Sessa with the first world's corner in wheat. "Can you tell just how much of the grain the chess inventor was entitled to?"

Answer to No. 167.
 The rule for finding the number of squares in a square diagram made up of smaller squares is to add together the squares of the horizontal rows, numbered in arithmetical progression. In the 4x4 square this would be—1 plus 4 plus 9 plus 16—a total of 30. To find the number of rectangles, "ows," numbered in arithmetical progression, viz.—1 plus 2 plus 3 plus 4 equals 10, which squared, gives 100 as the total.

The diagram shows the answer to the Magic Square.

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU
By MARION RUBINCAM

PLANS.
 Chapter 64.
 So it was decided that the wedding, after all, would not take place for a year. Mrs. Fairbanks approved of the idea because Alice was so enthusiastic about it. Mrs. Marlowe approved because, as she expressed it to Lawrence—
 "Alice has many things to learn. She has improved wonderfully, since she has been thrown with nice people, but there are many rough spots yet. She needs the broadening effects of city life for a time. A winter in town will be fine for her. She will meet all kinds of girls and men and get acquainted with all sorts of points of view."
 "Maybe she'll get too well acquainted with some of the men and fall in love with one of them," Lawrence answered morosely.
 "That sort of thing is beyond your powers of mind to avoid, my son," Mrs. Marlowe answered. "If she really loved you, she won't fall in love with anyone else; and if she doesn't love you, it's better to know it before than after. It's a safe sum."

"Yes," Lawrence answered, looking gloomily out of the window. His mother saw the subject, depressed him, so she dropped it. But she was glad for a reason she did not express out loud. She liked Alice immensely, but the delay pleased her because— Alice would each find someone else. There were other girls she wanted her son to be in love with rather than this one.
 In the little house on Dexter street, there was great excitement.
 "Lawrence wanted to pay my way, but I wouldn't let him," Alice told her mother. "It was sweet of him to offer and I love him dearly for his generosity, but I can't let him do that. Now, Mr. Marlowe has fixed things so we are getting 5 per cent. on our money instead of only 3 and, of course, that makes a big difference. It more than covers the rise in price."
 "It won't be enough to send you to college," Mrs. Fairbanks said.
 "No, but will simply draw out enough principal to pay for that," Alice answered. "For, after I'm in, I'll be able to do some work on the Model Farm and earn enough myself to pay back what I'm taking. So you will always have a safe sum to live on, no matter what happens to me."
 "You'll be a rich woman when you marry Lawrence and you won't have to work. I don't want you to work," Mrs. Fairbanks protested.
 "What do you see, Mother, that I'll do with myself all day? I'd die if there was nothing to do but play."
 "Now listen, dear," she went on, snuggling up on her hassock close to her mother. "I've all this planned out. I can enter in September and finish in a year and a half—that is, the mile of the winter, the winter after next. I've worked hard on these studies for two years now—it's been that long since David left—she broke off a moment, then went on again. "And I've done a little more than the first two years in work. I've written them, telling them what I've done and by taking special courses. I can enter the Junior next year." Mrs. Fairbanks set down the first two years in work. "I know, but I'll let me go back and finish, in fact, he'll come to the city for part of the time," Alice said. "Lawrence is a dear, he will let me do anything I want."
 "Now the thing is, what will happen to you while I'm gone? Of course, you'll have to keep Berenice, but she's getting old enough to look after herself in some ways." She glanced affectionately thru the door. She thought the little figure of the baby could be seen playing in the yard.
 It was Clara who solved that problem.
 "Mother and father are going for a trip south this winter," she said one afternoon.
 "How lovely! And are you going?" Alice cried.
 "And you? I'm not invited, if you please. And Clara laughed as she dropped into a porch chair to tell about it. "Father says that now he and mother have been married 30 years, he thinks it's time they took a honeymoon. They went to Niagara Falls when they were married, every one went there then, and they haven't taken a honeymoon since. So he's going the whole winter in the South and in California."
 "The thought that would have Aunt Freda come live with me. But I don't like Aunt Freda and she doesn't like me and we never get along. I don't like her. So I thought I'd hesitated, "well, I thought I'd have them rent our house, or close it, and come over here with your mother. I'll gladly give you my room, if you'd let me, and I'll pay my board of course."
 "Oh, how wonderful! It will solve my problem perfectly," Alice said. "A little sign of relief. Mother wouldn't be alone, and whatever she paid would be bound to cut her expenses and I'd feel so comfortable knowing she was with someone she liked."
 So another obstacle was overcome and Alice worked hard to get ready for the college and the city.

PURCHASED GOODS WITHOUT TENDER MORE LIGHT SHED ON WAAC'S ACTION

Public Accounts Committee Inquire Into Heavy Expenditure.
 Before the public accounts committee of the legislature yesterday the question came up for discussion as to how $144,000 worth of dry goods material happened to be purchased from one King street jobber without tenders being called for. It was contained in the provincial treasurer's public accounts, and charged under the Mercer Reformatory.

Inspector Dunlop, who has supervision of the prisons, asylums, etc., of the province, replied that $123,187.49 worth of material had been shipped out of the Mercer to other provincial institutions. In 1915 an industry bureau started at the Mercer Reformatory, in which the girls incarcerated there made bed sheets, pillow cases, night gowns and many other articles for the patients and staffs of other institutions out of material purchased by his department. A large saving was effected.

Government Lower Prices.
 By purchasing from the jobber, Inspector Dunlop said, better prices were obtained. He bought large quantities of goods, including blankets, Sutton, Quebec, before a sufficient number could be obtained. During the war he obtained prices quickly and bought at the best price he could get. On occasions when it became known that the department was in the market for woollens and cottons the prices soared beyond reason.

Deserted Rank.
 "Here is one case which helps to prove my first point. An English girl, whose relatives in Toronto, applied to the government to bring her out here. She agreed to engage in domestic work, and was brought out with full understanding. When she arrived in Toronto, she deserted and ranks of her comrades and went to stay with her relatives. When the girl calmly told them that she was visiting her relatives, and did not intend to go to work. She said that probably after a short vacation she might look about for employment, but that she wasn't sure about it. There are always two sides to a story and it like to hear both," concluded the official.

Teraulay and Mount Pleasant Lines Will Be the Solution

Problem of Yonge Street Can Be Satisfactorily Disposed of This Year, and a Great New North and South Street Car Service and Roadway Provided.

This map shows how the extension of Teraulay street by the city council and the authorization of the Mount Pleasant muni-

The board of control will have before it today a report of the works committee recommending the extension of Teraulay street.

The two propositions, Teraulay street and Mount Pleasant car line, would give a street car service and thoroughfare parallel to Yonge street from the new union station to the north limit of the city.

The greatest improvement, north and south, Toronto ever had. The city is bound to urge both of these improvements—in order to show its good faith to the relief of the people of North Toronto.

Let me explain and show more fully the great advantages of bringing in the street car line, and how it will personally not, for full and free information, to J. C. Clarke, Principal, Clarke's Shorthand College, 565 College St., Toronto; Phone College 133.

wrought an awful havoc in the province, and the chief justice of Ontario, they had fought for protection, and came home to find their liberties curtailed in such a manner as not to be able to secure a glass of beer.

Conservative Amendment. H. P. Hill (Con., Ottawa East) warmly criticized the government for not assuming the responsibility of bringing in legislation on such an important question.

The attorney-general, in answer to a question, said he estimated the cost of the referendum would not exceed three-quarters of a million dollars, and that amount would not be paid by the province, but by the federal authorities.

Mr. McBride (Brant) moved the adjournment of the debate.

In the course of a debate on proportional representation, the premier said the adoption of proportional representation would inevitably lead to group legislation.

Hon. Howard Ferguson agreed that the question should be thoroughly discussed before taking any definite action in the matter.

The lieutenant-governor was present and gave assent to three bills—the amendment to the Liquor Act, the act respecting the erection of dwelling houses, and the amendment to the Liquor Act.

His honor was accompanied by Premier Drury and Dr. Alexander Fraser, A.D.C. After he had taken his seat on the throne, the titles of the three bills were read, and his honor gave formal assent to their passing.

An amendment to the industrial education act, introduced by Dr. Stevenson of London, gives the trades and labor council and the Manufacturers' Association, each power to nominate a member to the industrial education board.

Mr. Hall (Liberal, London) gave an old-time campfire address on the evils of the liquor traffic.

The World has been carrying my announcements, telling me that I can save them money and time in acquiring competent masters of modern shorthand and typewriting.

All of my pupils realize this fact and are glad and accurate. One large financial establishment employs 12 Clarke Shorthand College graduates and is anxious to place many more in the best positions, when openings occur.

HUMAN HAND IS MYSTERY STILL

for the hand was covered by dirt—the member did not bear the appearance of an anatomical specimen as the flesh was more like that of a duck which had been hanging for some time and the burning of the flesh by acid might be observable by an expert, but The World's representative did not notice it.

It was not the hand of a workman or one used to manual labor. It was a long lean hand with tapering fingers and the formation of the nails and the general appearance of the fingers gave the impression that the member belonged to a man in fairly good circumstances.

With a view of ascertaining if it were possible for a specimen to be stolen from the hospitals by any of the students for the purpose of playing a joke or creating a scare, the Westchester interviewee, one of the leading university officials who has to do with such matters, he said that in his opinion, the hand could not possibly have come from the anatomical laboratories in connection with the university, due to the fact that a close check is kept on all the material supplied to the students who are dissecting, and each student is responsible for the portion allotted to him or her, as the case might be.

If a hand was stolen, the theft would soon be reported to the higher officials, which, up to the present, had not been done. With regard to it being stolen from the pathological department of one of the hospitals, the general appearance of the member contradicts this theory, for, where is a pathological specimen. It would be somewhat of a snowy-white in color and quite flexible, due to its prolonged immersion in the preservation fluid.

A Mysterious Parcel. In view of these facts, it is interesting to remember that a neighbor of Mrs. Jacobs, the lady who found the hand in her back alley and handed it over to the police, states that on Friday morning last (the day the member was found) she saw a man at five o'clock that morning deposit a parcel in the alley.

The man, she states, was middle-aged, dressed in dark clothes, and was wearing a coat and hat. She can give no further description as the incident did not impress her of any import, until after Mrs. Jacobs recovered the hand from the dog's mouth.

Before the member is consigned to the undertakers, it would be interesting to many a public to learn what official inquiries have been made into the matter, and the result thereof.

Persons who have missing relatives are generally urged up to such a pitch of excitement that they clutch at any rumor, and know nothing of the Messdames Small, the ladies further complain in their letter that, as the missing man's name is Small, they have been made into them, instead of facts.

MAY EMPLOY FORCE TO EXPAND TRADE WITH "RED" RUSSIA

Negotiations Between Britain and U. S. Progressing Well, Says Geddes.

Washington, April 21.—Negotiations between the state department and the British foreign office concerning the proposed reopening of trade relations with soviet Russia are progressing cordially, Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British ambassador, said today.

The question of recognition of the present government of Russia is entirely apart from these conferences, it was said.

It is the purpose of England and America to arrive at an agreement as to means of expanding the trade already being carried on with Russia thru Scandinavian countries and by way of Finland and Latvia.

While the plan to be adopted has not assumed shape, it is regarded as probable that the old license system will be abandoned entirely, or so liberalized as to leave but little restraint on the channels of trade.

It is fully understood in London and Washington that, in furtherance of its determination to force political recognition at the hands of western Europe and America, the soviet government will do everything possible to hamper such trade development along independent lines.

The negotiators are believed to feel, however, that Lenin will scarcely be prepared to refuse the essentials of life, which are held out to them in this way.

TORONTO TO HAVE SEMAPHORE SYSTEM OF TRAFFIC CONTROL

Deputy-Chief Dickson Explains American Method in Detail.

BETTER THAN "COP"

"Stop." No traffic cop has waved his hand, but a long line of traffic at a downtown intersection has been brought to an abrupt halt. "Go." Again no movement on the part of the motorist of the taxi, but the long line of vehicles continue on their way. The constable also, is not standing in the devil's strip, in the centre of the intersection, but off to one side.

This is a scene which will in all probability be enacted at most busy intersections in Toronto next year. To relieve the readers' suspense it must be explained that the above is a reference to the semaphore traffic signals, which it is proposed to install in the Queen City in the near future. Chief of Police Grasset informed the board of control yesterday that his department was drawing up plans for them. He said there had been some trouble in getting them, as they are not manufactured in Canada.

For the benefit of Torontonians who have not seen this system at work in some of the larger American cities, the operation of these semaphores must be explained. It is a very simple arrangement, but one that increases efficiency in handling traffic more than 50 per cent.

The system explained. A small concrete pedestal rests on the street pavement, situated somewhere in the busy intersection, and rising perpendicular from it is a hollow iron bar, about as high as the average constable's waist. Another bar is fixed into the lower bar in telescope fashion, so that the height of the two bars combined is well over a man's head. On top of the upper bar, a square, box-like arrangement is fixed, with the word "stop" on two sides, and "go" on the other two. Where the two bars telescope, a handle is placed, so that the constable operating the semaphore, can with a movement of the arm either hold up traffic, or allow it to proceed. On top of the box is an electric lamp with four bulb-eye sides. On the two sides corresponding to the "stop" signal, are red bulb-eyes, and on the "go" side are green lights.

Deputy Chief Dickson, who first conceived the idea that Toronto should have adopted this system, and he has been working on it for some time. Last year, during his vacation he took an extensive motor tour thru most of the big American cities and studied the modern methods in vogue there, of handling traffic. He finally came to the conclusion that this type of semaphore was the cheapest and most efficient method. He secured the consent of Chief of Police Grasset to proceed with his plans, and an order has been placed for one of these semaphores to be used on trial. The matter will finally have to receive the sanction of the board of police commissioners, and the board of control will have to vote the necessary amount of money for installing the system.

"How will these things work?" The World asked the deputy chief. "There isn't room enough for them to be placed in the middle of the intersection where there are car lines." "We have realized that," was the reply, "and have made plans accordingly. We will take the case of Queen and Yonge streets as an example. The semaphore could be placed in one of the four triangular corners made by the intersecting car tracks, in such a position that the street cars would have plenty of room to pass, and yet not be in the way of other vehicular traffic."

More Decisive. "But what advantage will that be over having just a traffic cop on duty in the devil's-strip?" inquired the reporter. "It's much more decisive for one thing," was the reply. "No matter how much training we give constables in traffic handling, they can never be brought to as high a state of efficiency as an operated semaphore. There is always a tendency to waver in their judgment, which is at best, confusing. There can not possibly be any confusion when by simply giving one turn, traffic is wanted to stop."

Another big advantage will be the handling of traffic at night. It is hard for driver to see the constable's arm after dark, although we have unsuccessfully tried to get over this by furnishing white gloves. With these red and green bull's-eye lamps on top of this post, there can be no question as to its being seen. If the stop signal has been given to westbound traffic, the red light can be seen by motorists for a block or more. It will also help by letting him know, that in all probability, the "go" signal will be given by the time he reaches the intersection, thus saving him the trouble of stopping his car. If he is a block away and sees the green light, he will know that he cannot cross in time, and slow up accordingly."

"Will the semaphores control pedestrian traffic at crossings?" asked the newspaperman who bravely faces death daily, in an effort to cross Yonge street.

"Cannot Control Pedestrians." "That is almost an impossibility," said the chief. "The traffic cops have never been able to do it, and I don't suppose the semaphores will either. You will always find people foolish enough to take a chance, and attempt to dive hither and thither thru traffic, in order to reach the other side a minute sooner. The same condition applies to every American city, with the exception of certain streets in New York City, where the traffic is so dense, it is impossible to cross until one-way traffic is halted."

"Will there only be the one man at every intersection?" was the next query.

"That is a matter that will have to be worked out. I am firmly convinced that one man is necessary to operate the semaphore and another should be somewhere in the vicinity to attend to the regular police work. Of course, this would necessitate more men for the force, and that is the thing we are up against. We need 250 more men, and all we are getting is 88. Many of these have left, too, and we are badly undermanned."

So far no Canadian city has adopted this scheme, and as a consequence, none of the semaphores are manufactured in the Dominion. Deputy Chief Dickson has entered into negotiations with the Canada Ingot Company at Guelph, Ont., who have agreed to make one up for him. It is thought that the cost of each will be in the neighborhood of $40. "I am pretty certain that the police commissioners will approve of them when they see this one in operation," he said.

OAKOAL COMPANY AND BOARD AGREE

Undertaking Will Go Before Council on Monday for Ratification.

The final agreement between the city and the Oakoal Company which is under contract to take 50 tons of garbage a day for the manufacture of fuel, was approved by the board of control yesterday and will come before council on Monday for ratification.

The only point in dispute yesterday was Commissioner Wilson's proposal that the company should pay any additional cost per load that he might incur in future in consequence of an increase in wages for handling the garbage. A. C. McMaster, representing the company, would not agree to this. He was perfectly willing to accept the commissioner's certificate regarding wage increases, but insisted that the proportion of the increase to be charged against the company should be a matter for arbitration. This suggestion was accepted by the board. Mr. McMaster said his company had already expended over $40,000 on plant, and would shortly be producing in quantities.

It is 1,000 feet above the sea level, is immune from hay fever, has good boating and fishing, golf, and is supplied with some of the best summer hotels in Canada, among which is "Bigwin Inn," accommodating 500 guests. For descriptive literature with list of hotels, rates, maps, etc., apply to any agent of Grand Trunk, or write to C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

ANTI-VACCINATIONISTS WANT INVESTIGATION

The opponents of vaccination sent a deputation to the board of control yesterday to demand an investigation into several matters pertaining to the public health administration in the city. Dr. H. Becker, one of the deputation, said a fuss had been unnecessarily raised about the recent smallpox outbreak, greatly to the detriment of the city, while, as a matter of fact, only 2700 people out of half a million had the disease. Dr. John B. Fraser also intimated that some of the vaccine used was unsafe. They wanted the question of compulsory vaccination left to the public to decide.

The deputation was advised to put its charges and suggestions in writing and it would be considered by the board.

Mr. E. Newsome of the deputation wanted the privilege of having some anti-vaccination views published in the public health bulletin, but he was advised that he would have to take this matter up with the medical health officer.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED.

Permits were issued by the city architect's department yesterday as follows: Mrs. J. M. Washington, apartment at 28 Hillsboro avenue, $20,000. C. W. Richards, residence, 944 Logan avenue, $4,500. A. J. Reid, residence, Oriole Parkway, $4,500. J. M. Walkey, six houses, 38 to 48 Armadale avenue, $24,300. Nigatscales & Smith, 3 pairs houses north side of Milverton boulevard, $24,000. W. P. Levack, 99 Northcliffe boulevard, east-storey public garage, at 400 Clinton street, near College, $40,000.

Dunlop Tires are thoroughly "thought out" in the Scientific Research Department, then they are thoroughly "tried out" on the road. You, as a tire buyer, get the Final Result.

The new ideas we have evolved from world-wide collaboration with Dunlop Master Tire Builders have worked wonders in tire construction.

Every other make of tire has suffered in comparison with Dunlop in a test of endurance; and that means foreign-made tires as well as Canadian-made.

A tough tread, sturdy walls, largest air-chamber, unsurpassable anti-skid features, are some of the reasons why Dunlop Cord Tires are so much in evidence these days.

And just as Dunlop Cord Tires, wherever you go, are being awarded the palm as "1920's best," so, right across Canada, our 1920 sales figures are registering the definite approval of motorists in decidedly unusual increases.

When you buy Dunlop Tires you buy from the world's greatest rubber organization, whether the comparison is in technical knowledge, area of plants, financial resources, etc.

Our new million-and-a-half-dollar factory is now nearing completion. It will be exclusively devoted to the manufacture of Dunlop Cord Tires — "Traction," "Ribbed."

Dunlop the Universe Over— The World's Greatest Rubber Organization.

CONTRACT-SEEKING FRIENDS FARE ILL
General Sir Alex. Bertram Gives Evidence in Carr-Harris Munition Case.
Brig-General Sir Alexander Bertram, former head of the shell committee, giving evidence in the action by Carr-Harris against the Canadian General Electric Company for $63,250 alleged due for commission on munition orders, before Mr. Justice Kelly in the non-jury assizes, paid a commission alleged he was not getting a commission to the Canadian manufacturer whom "we found very honest and straightforward in all our dealings with them." He told of a contract for shells and primers which had been negotiated by Senator Nicholas, general manager of the defendant company.

He only knew of two cases where contracts had been let on which commissions were being paid. One, a Toronto case, had been canceled, and the other was the Allison one, where Allison alleged he was not getting a commission. Answering Mr. Tilley, K.C., for the defendants, witness said they would not let contracts to be farmed out. He said his friends fared badly when they came asking for contracts. "I turned them down oftener than anyone else."

BOERNA DELID SAFE IN CELLS

Detective Brings Back Suspect in Hassan Murder Case.

Detective Bart Cronin arrived in Toronto at 9 o'clock last night from Windsor with Boerna Delid, alias Thomas Bell, arrested Monday.

Delid was handcuffed to a heavy leather strap which Cronin carried. Cronin found that Delid's model one and at no time during the trip here from Toledo did he have any trouble. Cronin's leather strap case in his left hand, which had not beenuffed, Delid walked into the detective office and said "Hello" to every person.

Assistant Inspector of Detectives Wallace interviewed the prisoner for a few moments, then Delid, who did not seem bit concerned at the serious charge against him, asked for a drink of water and after being given it, was taken to West Dundas street station, where he spent the night.

Cronin arrested Delid Monday afternoon while the latter was playing cards with a number of foreigners in a coffee room at 512 Summit street, Toledo. When Cronin walked into the room, he stated, Delid looked up at him, then hurriedly dropped the cards he held in his hand and bent his head down on the table. Accused will be arraigned this morning in the police court.

ST. JULIEN HEROES ARE REMEMBERED

Demonstration in Front of City Hall Last Night Has Thrilling Feature.

Celebrations of the 4th anniversary of the battle of St. Julien began yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, when a parade started in front of City Hall, accompanied by three military bands, to the city hall, where a large crowd soon collected.

A thrilling spectacle of the evening was the scaling of the Manning Chambers building by Harry Thompson, who delivered a snappy speech in instalments from each storey of the building. Those who witnessed the daring feat were the first to congratulate a sickly feeling in the stomach as they watched the intrepid climber mount higher and higher.

The parade to St. James' Cathedral, where the first of the day was held, was a most impressive one. The marchers were dressed in uniform and were accompanied by a band of music.

PENSION COMMITTEE LISTS SUGGESTIONS

Makes Report on Recommendations—Also Hears Requests of Tubercular Patients.

The chairman, Hume Cronyn (London), issued the following statement: "The committee must be prepared to present a report to the house before the session closes."

"There have already been brought to our attention thru the G.W.V.A. and other soldier and civilian organizations a number of problems connected with the subjects of this inquiry. On the pension side, among others, are the following:

"1. Increases in pensions to disabled men and their families; to widows and their children; to mothers and their dependents.

"2. Special treatment and allowances in the case of those suffering from tuberculosis from amputation, or from blindness.

"3. Changes in the provisions of the present law which withhold pensions from the families of those who marry subsequent to the disablement.

"4. As to re-establishment, while evidence has not been heard, many suggestions have been received, and the committee would appreciate receiving the earliest possible moment, any further general or specific constructive suggestions of either side of the inquiry. These should be addressed to the chairman, Committee on pensions and re-establishment, house of commons."

Tubercular Patients Testify. Today the committee heard the evidence of tubercular patients and their request for special treatment. J. J. Pyper of St. Agathe des Monts, and G. Symonds, Qu'Appelle Sanitarium, spoke for the tubercular patients. During the morning he referred to sanatoria, but later explained that he was not curing in a remark of a member of the committee, and expressing the thought that the men felt they should not be held under restrictions while under treatment.

Hear Major Burgess. In the afternoon Major W. A. Burgess of the pensions board, medical staff, cited the case of a Montreal man, Donald C. McKay, who had been without pension since his discharge in November last. This, however, was because of an enforced re-examination. The man had been recently granted a 100 per cent. disability pension which was retroactive to the date of his discharge. Major Burgess submitted a memorandum against granting the 100 per cent. disability pension to tubercular patients for a full year. If an extension was required at the end of six months, the board was willing to grant it on a medical man's certificate. The patients had asked to be boarded before the doctor had attended them. Major Burgess said, as far as was humanely possible, this was already being done.

Need More Specialists. He said the board was faced with a shortage of tubercular specialists. The witness further stated that tubercular veterans were handicapped in securing work because of an unreasonable prejudice against them and their disease. There was little or no danger of them spreading tuberculosis.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH. A verdict of accidental death was returned by the jury at the morgue last night investigating the cause of death of Cecil Robinson, aged 70, of 187 West King street, who was killed by a street car on April 15. Mrs. Harris was crossing the street when she walked from the street car and was killed. Coroner J. W. Russell, conducted the inquest.

WOMAN TO PAY DEATH PENALTY Marie Houde Found Guilty of Murdering Her Step-Daughter.

Quebec, April 21.—(By Canadian Press)—After deliberating for eighteen minutes this afternoon the jury brought to an end one of the most sensational murder trials ever heard in Quebec, when they returned a verdict of "guilty" against Marie Anne Houde for murdering her step-daughter, Aurore Gagnon, of St. Philippe.

His Lordship Justice Pelletier broke down while delivering sentence on the woman and the prisoner wept bitterly for the first time during the course of the trial, on hearing that she was to be hanged on October 1.

The plea to the jury by the defence and crown were made this morning. Before the court adjourned for lunch, His Lordship Justice Pelletier started his charge and continued it this afternoon.

His lordship told the jury that they could bring in a verdict of murder or manslaughter. He concluded by saying that he would like to have the power to tell them to bring in a verdict of manslaughter instead of murder, but that it was impossible for him to take any action in the matter, and that he was sure they would render a verdict that was just and dignified.

The jury withdrew at 4:16 to deliberate, and returned at 4:34.

AMBASSADORS RECEIVE REPORT ON AIR CONDITIONS IN GERMANY

Paris, April 21.—The conference of ambassadors today heard the report of Gen. Mastbaum, head of the allied commission of air control in Germany, on Germany's observance of the air clauses of the Versailles treaty.

The conference approved the proposal of the economic council for a conference in Paris, with the view of restoring the postal, telegraph and telephone services to their pre-war condition.

GUILITY OF RECEIVING. On a charge of receiving a fur coat, the property of Nellie Muckleston, a fine of $50 was imposed on Josephine Lamontina by Judge Coatsworth yesterday.

SENTENCE AUTO THIEVES. Kingston, April 21.—(Special)—For stealing an automobile, Elmer Robson was sentenced to three months, Cecil Robinson, two weeks, and Leroy Citchello one week, in jail by Magistrate Farrell. The youths were rounded up at Napanee.

BRITISH LABORITES TO VISIT RUSSIA

London, April 21.—The delegation of British laborites, which is going to Russia to investigate the general situation, will be comprised of three representatives of the British labor congress and four representatives of the labor party. The delegation will leave London next Saturday.

The foreign office, after receiving San Remo advices yesterday that the allied council approved of the mission, informed the laborites that they would be granted passports for Bresthona, word having been previously conveyed from Moscow that the party would be persona grata to the Soviet Russian government.

The labor party executive will name its representatives at an early date and decide whether correspondents will be permitted to accompany the party.

NO MANDATE FOR LEAGUE Supreme Council Will Ask Scandinavia To Help Armenians.

Paris, April 21.—The supreme council has abandoned the idea of giving a mandate for Armenia to the league of nations as a result of objections raised by the council of the league of nations, and will ask neutral Norway and Sweden to help the Armenian people establish a free state, an international loan being floated to finance it, says a Havas dispatch from Bern.

The dispatch adds that the supreme council further decided to leave a settlement of the Cilicia and Syria question to negotiations between Great Britain and France, and at the afternoon sitting considered a plan to give Smyrna political status, taking into account the Muslim element, without neglecting the legitimate Greek interests in the city.

MRS. R. T. BUTTS SAYS HER LIFE WAS MISERABLE FOR TWO LONG YEARS BEFORE SHE BEGAN TAKING TANLAC—NOW ENJOYING FINE HEALTH.

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick woman, as I feel like I ought to tell everyone what this wonderful medicine has done for me," was the sincere statement made recently by Mrs. R. T. Butts, 1924 Troost avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

"By the help of Tanlac I have gotten rid of a severe case of nervous indigestion that had made my life miserable for the past two years. I could not eat anything without suffering afterward. The gas on my stomach would rise up into my chest and press on my heart and at times would almost cut off my breath. My nerves were so upset that the least unexpected noise would almost distract me. I seldom slept well and was so nervous I would often roll and toss until after midnight and what little sleep I did get seemed to do me no good. I was also a great sufferer from headaches and would often get so dizzy I would have to hold on to something to keep from falling and I was unable to do my work."

"One day I happened to see a testimonial for Tanlac, describing a case like mine, so I bought a bottle and before I had finished it I began to feel just like a different person. Those terrible headaches disappeared and my appetite returned. When my first bottle was gone I got another and I kept on improving until now I can eat just anything I want and I never suffer any more from indigestion. I am not the least bit nervous and rest well at night and never know what it is to have a headache or a dizzy spell.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my suffering, but I have actually gained 20 pounds in weight and have no more nervousness or dizziness. I no longer suffer such good health for years. Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine and I will always feel grateful for what it has done for me. I want to recommend this medicine to all my friends because I believe it will benefit anyone who is suffering as I did."

"Tanlac is sold in Toronto by 16 family drug stores. A special Tanlac representative is at the Tamblin store, 117 Yonge street, where he is meeting the public daily.

FEELING IS PANICKY IN CHICAGO MARKET

Prices of Grain and Provisions Collapse Under Heavy Selling.

DISTURBING FACTORS

Chicago, April 21.—Grain and provisions collapsed suddenly in value today under an avalanche of selling. The grain market was particularly affected by the Japanese banking panic and by a general feeling of uncertainty.

Weakness was apparent in the corn market as well as trading heavy. At first, however, financial difficulties, all the given market, did not obtain chief rank in importance as affecting prices or activity of dealings here.

Notwithstanding higher quotations on dolls, provisions were depressed by the loss of grain.

MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Montreal, April 21.—In sympathy with the break in prices for oats in Winnipeg, a weaker feeling prevailed in the local market today and prices fell 2c to 2 1/2c a bushel.

Winnipeg, April 21.—After two weeks of extremely bullish markets, in which May oats scored an advance of 10 cents, prices today under heavy liquidation.

Oats closed 4 1/2c lower for May and 4 1/2c down for July; barley, 3/4c lower for May and unchanged for July; flax, 1/2c lower for May and 3/4c down for July; rye, 1c lower for May. Quotations: Oats: May, open 31.05c, close 31.05c.

Some Big Declines. Conspicuously weak stocks included General Motors at an extreme loss of 4 1/2c, to 27 1/2c; Baldwin Locomotive, which was extremely erratic toward the end, at a decline of 1 1/2c, and various other motor equipment, steel and oil issues, which finished at net losses of three to ten points. Sales amounted to 2,000,000 shares, over one-third of the total business occurring in the final hour, the ticker being some twenty minutes behind in recording the day's business.

Bonds, including standard rails and Industrials, followed the course of government issues, losing one to two per cent. Total sales (par value), aggregated $30,232,000. Old United States 5 1/2c lost half a point, and Panama 5 1/2c five points, on call, others being unchanged.

SIR OLIVER LODGE IN VANCOUVER, B.C. Delivers Famous Lecture, "Evidence of Survival," Before Large Audience.

Vancouver, B.C., April 21.—A great audience greeted Sir Oliver Lodge, the noted British scientist here last night, when he delivered his famous lecture, "Evidence of Survival." Sir Oliver spoke with convincing simplicity, and dealt in a plain matter of fact way with his subject.

He says that it had taken him 20 years to arrive at the decision that the spirit of the departed can communicate with the living, and that the result was so momentous that he had hesitated a long time before coming out in the open with a declaration.

His statement today, said Sir Oliver, "is that under certain circumstances, the departed can and do communicate with the living. You cannot have communication without existence, but they must prove their identity, and must show their personalities."
