Lightened Immigrant Started Fire On Volturmo

PPED BURNING CIGARETTE

ed Imposition of Fine of $5, Captain and Threw it Into Cold—Graphic Story of Disaster Told By the Man Who First Saw the Fire

(Canadian Press) St. John, Oct. 15.—The fire on the Volturmo was caused by an immigrant's that he would be caught smoking a cigarette, and when a sailor approached him, he threw a burning cigarette down a grating among baggage or among cases and chemicals. There was an explosion followed by a rush of flames which raged for some time before being extinguished.

After the fire was extinguished, the captain reported that the fire was caused by an immigrant's that he would be caught smoking a cigarette, and when a sailor approached him, he threw a burning cigarette down a grating among baggage or among cases and chemicals. FIRE HORSES BRING GOOD PRICES TODAY AT AUCTION BY CITY

Dick Sells For Top Price of $255—No. 1 Engine Gray is Sold For $240

There was quite a gathering this morning in King street east at the sale of seven horses from the fire stations, conducted for the city by Auctioneer F. L. Potts. The animals all brought good prices and bidding was very brisk, particularly in the case of some of the younger horses. Some there were among the lot which for many a long year in summer or winter had dashed nobly through the streets to the scene of fire. There was Kate, of No. 3 engine, for instance, a mare which for fully fifteen years, has been in fire harness, and Fred of No. 3 hose, which is also one of the older contingents amongst the fire horse steeds.

All are in splendid condition, as was evidenced from the fact that shrewd buyers this morning were willing to give standard prices for their possession. "Rowdy," of No. 3 ladder truck, brought $125, from a man from St. Stephen. A chestnut horse from Carleton was sold at $165; "Kate," brought $200, while the gray of No. 1 engine was bid for $240. "Dick," the pride of No. 4 engine, brought the top price of $255, while his mate, another able and knowing beast, brought $235. "Fred," of No. 3 hose, brought $145.

Old "Prince," a handsome big horse, which has been in harness in No. 1 engine for many years, and "Fred," the steady gray of No. 2 hose, are to be given to people in the country where there will be every assurance that both will be well taken care of in recognition of their long and faithful service in the department.

(Canadian Press) Panama, Oct. 15.—The first lockage at the Pacific end of the canal opened yesterday, when the tug Miraflores, three barges and two other craft, were raised together, through the west flight of the Miraflores locks from the Pacific to the Miraflores Lakes, 36.82 feet above the sea level. The lockage was made without a hitch, all the machinery working with the same precision as obtained in a similar operation at Gatun locks recently.

The passage of the vessels was begun a little after eleven o'clock in the morning and consumed an hour and a half. Because of insufficient water in the section of the canal between the Pedro Miguel locks and the Cucaracha slide the vessel could not be passed through the single flight of locks at Pedro Miguel, as originally planned.

The engineers have succeeded in obtaining mastery over the Cucaracha slide to the extent of getting a fair sized stream of water through the lower section of the cut. The water is rising rapidly, and it is expected that the slide will be locked through Pedro Miguel today or tomorrow, which will complete the first actual working test of all the canal locks. A dredge will be passed through the Pacific locks and set to work on the slide within a few days.

(Canadian Press) Cambridge, Eng., Oct. 15.—Miriam Pratt, a militant suffragette school teacher, of Norwich, was sentenced today to a term of eighteen months of penal servitude on a charge of feloniously setting fire to a furnished residence in this city, on May 17, and causing great damage to the house and to one of the university laboratories.

Principals in Today's Royal Wedding

Prince Arthur of Connaught and his bride, the Duchess of Fife, married today in the Chapel Royal, St. James', London.

Three Quarters of Million Value of Presents Received

Notable Gathering of Royal and Other Distinguished Ones at Nuptials of the Son of Canada's Governor-General—Wealth of Diamonds Worn at the Ceremony

(Canadian Press) London, Oct. 15.—Prince Arthur of Connaught, son of the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, and Princess Alexandra, Duchess of Fife, eldest daughter of Louis, the widowed Princess Royal, were today married in the Chapel Royal, St. James' Palace, in London. The ceremony was one of the most brilliant ever witnessed in this country. There was room for fewer than 300 in the simple, though daintily decorated chapel, but not since the coronation of King George, had there been such a gathering of royals and notable persons, as on this occasion.

Besides King George, Queen Mary, Queen Mother Alexandra, the King and Queen of Norway and other royal relatives to the number of a score or more, the congregation consisted of members of the diplomatic corps, the British cabinet, and of the royal households, and a few distinguished persons who had been especially honored.

The chapel in fact glittered with diamonds and pearls, almost every woman present wearing a tiara and necklace each of great value. Lord and Lady Strathcona, and Mount Royal and Lady Mount Stephen, were among the very few to whom invitations had been issued.

The bride, who entered the chapel between King George and her mother, looked charming in a dainty dress of white champagne tulle, with pearls and diamonds, and adorned with exquisite Brussels applique lace, of which the bride veil also was made.

IN TOUCH WITH SOME OF EMTOMBED MINERS; MORE MAY BE RESCUED

Twenty-Nine Living in One Gallery and They Tell of Another Group of Fifteen

(Canadian Press) Cardiff, Wales, Oct. 15.—Rescuing parties searching for the 400 miners, still entombed in the Universal Colliery, got into touch, a little after noon today, with a party of twenty-nine men shut in by a fall of coal in one of the galleries. They signalled that another group of fifteen of their comrades was closed in farther along the gallery, but that they feared they were lost.

Altogether about 600 of the 881 men were rescued yesterday, and today discovery of other parties of living men gave rise to hopes that the fatalities would not be so numerous as was at first supposed. Nearly 400 men, however, have still to be accounted for.

IN CIVILIZATION AFTER 28 YEARS ON ARCTIC FRINGE

Knott Finds Bustle of Life Where He Knew Buffalo Trail

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 15.—John C. Knott, an employe of the Hudson's Bay Trading Company, who has been stationed in the north country, on the fringe of the Arctic circle, for the last twenty-eight years, has come to Edmonton to visit friends of his boyhood days and get into touch, as he puts it, with modern commercial and industrial methods.

Edmonton, now a city of 70,000 population, had fewer than fifty when Knott came through here from the east in 1878. Where large herds of buffalo broke the trails in those days he found paved streets and boulevards, lined with substantial business houses and pretty homes. The Red River ox cart and dog teams have given way to high power touring cars, spanking teams and electrically propelled street cars of the latest models, and the Saskatchewan river, formerly ford or crossed by rope ferries, is now spanned by structures of steel, concrete and stone. The pioneer from the silent north reports that the fur catch this year will reach the $2,000,000 mark.

NEWSIES BARRED FROM SELLING PAPERS IN THE STREETS AFTER 9 O'CLOCK

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 15.—Newsboys will in future, not be permitted to sell newspapers in the streets before seven o'clock in the morning, or after nine o'clock at night, except on Saturdays, by the police commissioners at their meeting yesterday. The question has been for some time under consideration.

NOW WORD OF SCOWMEN

Rumors Afloat But Little Hope in Them

LIGHTHOUSE MAN'S VIEW

Robert Belding of Point Lepreau Thinks They Might Have Reached Grand Manan as Storm Was Not Severe Down Bay

Little hope is cherished that the four men reported missing yesterday from their homes in Carleton—George D. Crippen, Charles M. Newcombe, and Leo and Edward J. McLaughlin, will ever be seen alive. It is feared that they met death in the waters of the Bay of Fundy during the storm of Monday night and Tuesday morning. No tidings were received of them today, and the last trace was seen yesterday about twenty miles from Partridge Island and ten miles from Lepreau, when the steamer Manchester Master sighted their scow.

There was no sign of life on board the lighter and only a small pile of ballast on the deck. There was no motor boat in sight. Various reports were circulated today that the men had been picked up, in one case it being said that they had been carried to Yarmouth and another that they had drifted ashore at Lepreau. A telephone message to Point Lepreau, brought word from Robert Belding, light-keeper there, that the surrounding waters had furnished no news of the missing men. He gave it as his belief that the direction of the wind they might have been carried to Grand Manan. The storm had not been so severely felt at Lepreau, the greatest relief being about twenty-eight miles. He thought a motor boat could live all right under such conditions.

An effort was then made to communicate with Grand Manan, but word was received from St. Andrews that the cable service with the island was interrupted and no information was obtainable. It is believed that the men being found at Yarmouth arose through a schooner named the Anne B. McLaughlin, having put in there, and the similarity of names may have led to the reports.

Four homes in West St. John contain sad and lonely hearts today, for as the weary hours pass each bringing no encouraging word, gradually all spark hope is being abandoned, and anxious loved ones are led to believe that they have seen the last of husbands, father, or brother. The close of every day sees no further sign of which to base encouragement, and the ominous silence of the deep makes the expectant hearts sorely pained.

The owners of the scow, Messrs. McEde brothers, who have held out cheerily to the last, are gradually becoming impregnated that there is little to hope for. Mr. Flood of the marine and fisheries sent a message to the lightkeeper at Westport to keep a keen lookout for any trace of the men, but received word that no sign had been seen in the vicinity.

Storm Wild One Moncton, N. B., Oct. 15.—The gale is reported to have raged with great fury yesterday at Point Du Chene and along the Northumberland coast. It is said everything not nailed or tied down was blown from the government wharf at the point. The crew of the eastbound passenger train yesterday afternoon reported the bridge at Little Falls, between Athol and Springhill Junction in a condition necessitating careful running. The stream was swollen by violent rains and had washed earth away from one of the abutments. The bridge is being watched.

NEW BRUNSWICK MUNICIPALITIES

Annual Meeting of Union Opened in Moncton—A Good Attendance at First Session

(Special To Times) Moncton, N. B., Oct. 15.—The annual session of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities opened in the city hall this morning with a large attendance of delegates from all over the province and with more expected to arrive during the afternoon. The first man on the ground was J. W. McCready, city clerk of Fredericton, and honorary secretary-treasurer of the union, Mayor Gross and Ald. Robinson of the local committee were also on hand to greet the visitors and assist with registration.

The convention formally opened at 2 o'clock. The executive met at 2:30. After roll call there was a short address of welcome by Mayor William K. Gross and several replies by delegates. By noon the following delegates had registered—E. L. DeWolfe, F. Parker (Gummet, St. Stephen); William R. Fawcett, Warden, Victoria county; George A. Perley, M.L.A., Sunbury; A. J. Grossen, warden, Victoria county; and W. J. Osborne, Fredericton; Charles A. Alexander, John T. Reid, Harry W. Ferguson, Campbellton; M. LeBlanc, Dorchester; Francis P. Hunter, Dufferin; D. T. McNeill, Deer Island; J. W. McCready.

Ald. W. E. Farrell, Fredericton, president of the union, read his address, and Treasurer McCready submitted an encouraging financial report. Notices of motion resulted in several projected resolutions being laid upon the table.

The Provincial Unions of Municipalities and what they have done for Canada, by W. D. Lighthall, K.C. of Montreal, honorary secretary of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, was the first paper read and was much appreciated. (President Farrell's address will be found elsewhere in the Times).

HARRY LEWIS MAY DIE

Doctors Do Not Regard Pupil's Condition as Very Favorable

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 15.—Harry Lewis, middle weight pugilist, is still in a serious condition in the hospital, where he was taken on Monday night after his fight with "Joe" Borrell of this city. He spent a restless night, and attending physicians said today that prospects for his recovery are not very favorable.

WINNIPEG SCHOOL MATTER

Action of Board Upon Petition Presented By Catholics

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 15.—The important question of the legal aspects involved in a petition presented by Catholics in connection with the proposed action of the board, was taken up and operated by the Winnipeg board, was considered at the monthly meeting of the board. A special committee appointed to consider a communication received from Dr. James McKenty and dated July 10, presented its report which was brought in by R. W. Craig, K. C. It recommended that if the petitioners wished the schools to be leased and administered in all respects under the terms of the public schools act and would make a statement to that effect, it would remove any existing difficulty and pave the way for further action by the board. In the meantime the board declared that it was, and had always been ready and willing to make necessary provision for all children of school age in the city, irrespective of religious denomination. The board passed the report of the special committee and the next move rests with the Catholic petitioners.

JEALOUS OF HUSBAND'S LOVE FOR HIS CHILDREN; STEPMOTHER KILLS FOUR

Waco, Texas, Oct. 15.—Miss Ellen Ethridge, second wife of J. D. Ethridge, a farmer of Bosque county, confessed yesterday that she murdered two of her step-children in last June, and on October 2, by administering poison, according to a statement given out today by H. S. Dillard, prosecuting attorney of Bosque. Jealousy, because her husband showered all his affections upon his eight children, was assigned by the woman as the reason for the act.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, H. F. Stuart, director of meteorological service. The storm near the Canadian coast has remained almost stationary and heavy rains with north winds continue in the Gulf of St. Lawrence and along the coast of Nova Scotia and the western coast of the weather is fine with the above average in the former and below in the latter. Showery time—Strong northeast and north cool and showery today and night.

Dig Where the Gold Is, Mr. Manufacturer!

The miner carefully investigates surface conditions before he wastes money sinking a shaft. Then he concentrates his whole effort on the spot where the rock seems the richest. If gold is there, he gets it. Mr. Manufacturer, there is no better way of finding surface indications for marketing your wares than through newspaper channels. Newspapers are only too glad to tell you what conditions are in their communities. And if they are right there is no quicker way to reach the actual buying public than through advertising in the newspapers. Your words go right to the spot—You are "digging where gold is." The Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York, will be glad to cooperate with any manufacturer seeking to learn special business conditions in any particular part of the country.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick

The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

ECZEMA FROM HEAD TO ANKLES

Tortured With Terrible Itching and Burning, Scratched Until Tore Flesh, Lay Awake for Nights at a Time. Used Cuticura Remedies and Found a Cure.

St. Oia, Ontario.—"When I was ten years old I began to be tortured with a terrible itching and burning of the skin, and was told it was eczema. I have had it right along for seven years steady, it getting worse every year. I was affected from head to ankles. It seemed to appear like lives at first, then I would begin to scratch until I tore my flesh. It would always be at its worst at night. I have waked myself up at nights scratching and my fingers would be just stiff and cramped from scratching, so that I would be hardly able to straighten them out. My, how I have suffered! My face and whole body would be just a mass of blotches red as fire and after having soap and water on my face then I would begin to burn. I have lain awake for nights at a time when my eczema was at its worst."

A Wonderful Discovery

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or sore, the skin is insured against blood poisoning! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then, again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children use such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

ONE OF TWINS BORN IN MEXICO; OTHER IN UNITED STATES

Eagle Pass, Texas, Oct. 15.—In the great crowd of refugees that fled on foot into the United States from the advancing Mexican hordes was Senora Alaria Hernandez, who had given birth to a child on the night previous. At the detention camp in Eagle Pass, Texas, the following day another child was born to her. Thus twins were born three days apart, one in the United States and the other in Mexico.

Daily Hints For the Cook

Tomato Catsup. One bushel of tomatoes boiled until soft, not peeled; sift them through a sieve, then add two ounces of ground clove, quarter pound ground allspice, one ounce cayenne pepper, three tablespoons of black pepper, three ounces of mustard, one pint of salt and two quarts of vinegar, boil three hours, bottle it up hot.

Craberry Molasses Pie

Line a deep pie plate with paste, fill with uncooked cranberries, pour in 3/4 cup of molasses, and 4 tablespoons of brown sugar, dot with a large tablespoon of butter cut into bits, cover with paste, put in the centre a small chimney made of the paste and bake in a moderate oven.

Scotch Current Buns

Two pounds bread dough, half pound lard, two pounds currants, two pounds raisins, half pound orange peel, half pound almonds, one pound sugar, tablespoon caraway seeds, one ounce ground ginger, one ounce cinnamon. Put lard on top of dough and set on end of stove to slowly melt, then take all the fruit, sugar, and spice, which has to be thoroughly minced and mixed, and add to dough on baking board. Put it into cake pan and press into shape. Make a very tough pie crust, roll out thin, turn out bun in crust and cover all over. Put back into pan again and prick top with fork. Rub over with yolk of egg. Bake in slow oven for about three hours. One of these buns will be found in almost every house in Scotland on New Year's day.

Manhood Wins in all Walks of Life. Manhood which only an abundant vigor and rugged manly health can radiate. I believe any man can hope to completely develop or restore this same vigor or manly strength, no matter what his past follies may have been, provided he is willing to REALLY MAKE THE EFFORT; and provided, of course, he is not weighed down by extreme old age or is not incurably diseased. To my mind, the road of the one who wants more vigor is perfectly plain, but it is a road that any man MUST travel if he attains the highest ideals in respect to his own manhood. See information in my free book.

As to the SANDEN Vitalizer, previously mentioned, will say it is a little mechanical appliance, weighing but a few ounces, which you wear at night. This Vitalizer generates and sends forth a certain soft, penetrating force which I call Vitality. It drives this Vitality into your nerves, blood, muscles and organs as you sleep. It is quieting to the nervous system—on at least, so users say. Men write that it takes pain out of the back often at once and restores vitality in 90 days. Remember, the general information of the free book is independent of this Vitalizer, and you are not expected to get one of these appliances unless you decide for yourself that you want one. The book is complete, and there is absolutely nothing you are required to buy or pay, either now or in the future. Therefore, please send your names and address today.

SANDEN, Author. MANHOOD! The quality which makes the world today. My friend, there never was a time in the history of the human race when real, sturdy manhood, manly vigor and manly courage counted for as much as they do now, this very minute. No matter what your years, whether you are 20 or 60, you must be either entirely in the race or entirely out of it. It is invariably the fellow who proves up strongest in this human strength that forges to the front, while weaklings stand aside; it is he also who is in most demand and most sought after by women and men of his community, simply because he radiates that marvelous magnetic influence which only an abundant vigor and rugged manly health can radiate.

HAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity, therefore, dyspeptics should, whenever possible, eat food that is acid in its nature or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, a rule eliminates most foods which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve properties. This is the real reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers usually so thin emaciated and nervous in their vitality which can come from a well fed body. For benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their dietarchy, sweet or fatty food, and are kept up a miserable existence on starchy, starchy, starchy products, I would suggest you should try a meal of my food which you may like in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards spoonful of bisulphated magnesia in hot or cold water. This will also any acid which may be formed instead of the usual feeling of "indigestion" and fullness, you will find your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisulphated magnesia is doubtless the food corrective and antidote known, not a medicine but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and removing the source of the acid which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could be done by any drug or medicine.

GIRL'S NERVES FULLY RESTORED

Was Never Able to Obtain Lasting Benefit Until Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Was Used.

Too many girls grow up with weak, anemic bodies and exhausted nervous systems. Indoor life and too much recreation in school are sometimes the cause.

The blood needs enriching and the nerves need strengthening by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This food cure is doing wonders for many thousands of girls whose parents had almost despaired of their ever developing into strong, healthy women.

Mrs. J. Bagnall, 385 Woodville avenue, Toronto, writes: "My daughter suffered from nervousness since childhood, and any medicines she tried did not do any lasting good. We read in the papers about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and my daughter used it with wonderful results. This treatment has built up her system and so strengthened the nerves that she feels like another girl."

ELECTION CARDS

Electors of the Parish of Lan- AND GENTLEMEN— request of a large number of voters of the parish (irrespective of my judgment) openly and above that explanations will not be given and that the people will be into the confidence of the council and matters that effect their interests.

It will be impossible for me to see of you personally before the 21st I take this method of asking for support.

not flatter myself that, if elected, I be able to please the "Parish" or that I escape criticism, but I do flatter myself that whatever is done will be in the interests of the parish (to the best of my judgment) openly and above that explanations will not be given and that the people will be into the confidence of the council and matters that effect their interests.

neerly hope that no party or particular interest in this election will be inmanly and cowardly tactics of flattery and misleading statements. The "eleventh hour" thereby using those statements being fairly full list of candidates will be in hands of Mr. Galt, the Parish clerk, on Monday, 18th inst., which is ample time before the day of a in which to dispose of all side issues of the main issue, which is cord of the present council, to be by the votes of the people. sin asking for your support I have honor to be.

Your obedient servant, JOHN SIME. 2615-10-21

THE GOVERNMENT, NOT GUTELIUS, IS RESPONSIBLE

(Moncton Transcript) It is fundamentally opposed to the principles of responsible government to free a government from responsibility under the shelter of an official's action.

When the I. C. R. minimum freight rate was increased sixty per cent, the government was responsible and the government, by rescinding the order, in obedience to the Liberal agitation against it, admitted that the increase was unjustifiable, and having made this admission, it is in honor bound to refund to the patrons of the Intercolonial Railway the money which was unjustly paid upon the articles coming under the minimum rate.

The same is true, if the government has given any rates, which discriminate against any community in the maritime provinces, the government is responsible for that discrimination.

Mr. Gutelius may, as general manager, be naturally sympathetic with the Canadian Pacific Railway, but that natural sympathy, when the government appointed him to the office, did not seem to militate against his appointment in the government's opinion. Mr. Gutelius probably is doing that which the government wishes him to do, and he could not hold his position one hour if he were not doing so.

It is ridiculous for the Tory press to offer a defence for conditions existing on the Intercolonial Railway by pretending in effect that Mr. Gutelius is greater than the government, and alone responsible for these actions, but if the government disavows the responsibility, the best thing the government of Canada can do today is to resign and let parliament appoint Mr. Gutelius as a commission to run public affairs as a disinterested autocrat, but of course it is not true.

It is the government which is running Mr. Gutelius and not Mr. Gutelius the government.

Board of Health At the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon, the monthly report of the secretary was submitted showing eighty-four deaths during the month, six cases of diphtheria, three of scarlet fever, thirteen of typhoid fever and one case of small pox. A communication was received from the Master Plumbers' Association asking the board to see that sanitary arrangements were enforced in saloons and at soda fountains for the washing of drinking glasses. The matter will be looked into. One application for permission to keep a cow in the city was refused.

General Change of Time OCTOBER 19th

W. B. HOWARD, D.P.A., C.P.R.E., St. John N.B.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 15, 1913. The St. John Evening Times is printed at 427 and 429 Canterbury street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

ST. JOHN'S POSITION

There are three propositions to which every citizen of St. John will heartily assent. They are:—

- (1) There must be no discrimination by the Intercolonial Railway, in the matter of rates, against the city of St. John. (2) No government has a right to use a government railway to encourage the hauling of freight past its natural port, for the special benefit of another railway and another port. (3) The port of St. John must be given an opportunity on even terms with Halifax to prove its claim, and the claim of Canadian Pacific officials, that the fastest Canadian winter mail and passenger route is the route through the port of St. John direct.

LET MR. ROGERS COME

This would be a very good time for the Hon. Robt. Rogers to make that long promised visit to the city of St. John. If we are to have more rapid construction of wharves at West St. John, which the St. John supporters of Mr. Rogers now so earnestly desire, he must become personally interested in the work, and should therefore come down and look over the ground.

Moreover, Mr. J. Norton Griffiths informs us that if the government would pay the money fast enough he could complete his five years' contract easily in three years. His contract includes certain wharves on the west side of Courtenay Bay, which will be needed as the terminals of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Why not urge Mr. Rogers and the government to do in connection with the East St. John contract what Mr. Hasen is said to be determined to do in connection with the west side contracts? The mass meeting of citizens was held on Monday evening at Mr. Hasen was determined that, if the work of wharf construction, the government would take it over, and hurry it to completion. Mr. J. Norton Griffiths would be delighted to get an opportunity to hurry the work at Courtenay Bay to completion, and in doing so would be aiding very materially to solve the transportation problem, not merely for St. John, but for the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Canadian Northern and the country at large.

By all means let us have Mr. Rogers in St. John and endeavor to make him as enthusiastic concerning transportation in this part of Canada as the Toronto World says he is in connection with the region of the Great Lakes. The World says that Mr. Rogers and Mr. Cochrane propose to make Port Arthur and Fort William ocean ports, by deepening the Sault canal, the Welland canal and the St. Lawrence canal to a depth of thirty-one feet. The World says that both ministers are convinced that whatever is done should be done quickly, as part of one comprehensive plan. When Mr. Rogers was told that it would take ten years to complete the Toronto harbor improvements, he at once asked why it could not be done in five years, so that Toronto harbor could be completed with the completion of the new Welland canal. The World says that "the work should be done in a big way, giving big contracts to big contractors," and it has no doubt that this course will be pursued by Mr. Rogers and Mr. Cochrane.

If it is necessary to do in Toronto in five years what it had been proposed to do in ten, and to carry on big contracts in a big way for the benefit of the summer transportation route of Canada, it is no less important to pursue an exactly similar course for the proper handling of the winter traffic. Before Port Arthur and Fort William are made "ocean ports" we should have at St. John all that is necessary for the complete equipment of this ocean port, at which three transcontinental railways will soon be delivering traffic. Let us therefore have a visit from Mr. Rogers and Mr. Cochrane at the earliest possible date.

HON. W. S. FIELDING

All Canadians, regardless of party, will welcome the return of Hon. W. S. Fielding to journalism, as the editor of the Montreal Daily Telegraph. His former long experience in newspaper work, and his intimate knowledge of public affairs gained while finance minister of Canada, will enable him to make the Montreal Telegraph one of the most influential and most widely quoted journals in the Dominion. Members of the Liberal party especially will rejoice that the leading Liberal newspaper in Montreal will be under the personal direction of so able a man, so thoroughly competent to criticize the acts and the policy of the Borden government. Mr. Fielding will not enter upon his duties until December, and in the meantime will pay a visit to the old country. He is a man of far more than national reputation, and it goes without saying that the Montreal Telegraph under his guidance will be an even more interesting and popular newspaper than it is at the present time.

WESTERN LIBERALISM

The spirit of western Liberalism was very well indicated at a recent banquet of the Liberal Association of Calgary. Two important questions were discussed. One was trade, and the other the navy. Discussing the trade question, Mr. J. G. Turfitt, M.P., of Saskatchewan, declared he would want no better issue on which to appeal to the country now than reciprocity. Mr. Turfitt said there should be reductions in the tariff all round, and especially an increase in the British preference. Mr. James Douglas, M.P., Mr. George Smith, M.P.P., and other speakers also declared themselves very strongly in favor of freer trade. Mr. Smith predicted that, as a result of the action of the United States congress, Canada would be compelled to lower her tariff. Dr. Michael Clark not only made a strong declaration on the trade question, but declared that Canada would not sacrifice her autonomy for the kind of Imperialism represented by the Borden naval policy. Mr. Turfitt discussing the navy, said:—"We stand for a navy, if we need a navy, which will be made by Canadians in Canada, kept up by Canadians, paid for by Canadians, and, if need be, fought for by Canadians."

It will thus be seen that western Liberals are in complete harmony with the Liberals of Eastern Canada on the two great questions, trade and the navy. A public meeting has been held and resolutions adopted. What follows? Must we now wait until the first steamer sails from Liverpool for Halifax and then as the terminals of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway? It is too late to do anything this year? The Standard says:—"A search for a safe Liberal seat in New Brunswick is a task which is calculated to test even the admitted resourcefulness of the gentlemen of the interview." Would the Standard be willing to open the constituency of the city of St. John, let us say?

The results of the municipal elections in various parts of the province appear to show that there is more vitality in the Liberal party than for some years past. Liberal successes in the elections are reported from all parts of the province, wherever the candidates have divided on party lines. The Standard says that the Times has overlooked the by-election in Chateaugay, and has been silent on that subject. The Standard, to use its own courteous and gentle phraseology, is a liar. The Times not only noted the result in Chateaugay, but expressed the hope that the manner in which that result was obtained by the Hon. Bob Rogers would presently be exposed.

It was stated at Monday night's meeting that a C. P. R. official told a St. John delegation last April that the St. John delegation would not come to St. John this winter. Did this delegation tell Mr. Hasen about it, or take any steps to learn whether there was any truth in the report? If not, why not? Did Mr. Hasen know that it was the intention of the company to take the Empress away from this port? If that was the company's intention last April, why did they choose St. John as the mail port many months later, and publish the list of sailings of all the mail steamers from St. John? The death of Rev. L. G. Macneill is sincerely regretted. He has been a patient sufferer for years, and withdrawn from the activities of life, but in the years when he was engaged in active ministerial work he was a powerful influence for good, not merely among the fluence to whom he ministered, but in the community at large. A man of brilliant mind, he was also an eloquent speaker, who was not afraid to give full and clear expression to his thoughts. There have always been strong men in the Presbyterian pulpit in St. John, and Mr. Macneill in his prime and during his eighteen years of service in St. Andrew's Church was one of them.

MUNICIPAL SECURITIES

Important Matter at Union Meeting in Moncton

CONVENTION IS OPENED

President Farrell's Address Deals With This and Other Subjects of General Interest—Watching Legislation at Fredericton

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 15.—The Union of New Brunswick Municipalities met here this afternoon with a good attendance. In his address to the members, Ald. W. E. Farrell of Fredericton, the president, said:—

At this eighth annual convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities, it gives me my pleasure indeed to welcome the delegates from the different cities, towns and counties of our province. The only regret I have is that every town and county was not represented. Let me solicit the careful and earnest attention of those present to the subjects brought forward and discussed at this meeting. We shall then have the satisfaction of an honest endeavor to better and improve our own conditions and, in as much as we may do so or try to do so for ourselves, we shall also be assisting those who are absent. Those who followed the subjects discussed at former conventions, the decisions arrived at and the results following cannot help being impressed with the importance of these meetings. Since the organization of the Union of Canadian Municipalities in 1902, and the formation of provincial unions in the different provinces, civic affairs, municipal government and public rights have received an emphasis and a place in the public mind formerly disregarded, because no person or body, or any few at the most, had given these questions personal thought and individual study.

Since then the public at large has had its attention called to these important subjects, chiefly through the means of public conventions such as the one we are now holding and have learned to think about and to appreciate the importance of protecting public assets and public rights and have learned the strong reason for the support and encouragement of this union by every civic and municipal body in this province.

Watching Legislation

During the past year your executive has steadily pursued the policy of former years and has carefully watched and protected civic and municipal rights. While the legislature was in session, at one time it was thought a meeting of the executive would be necessary, but the proposed legislation was not presented, so the need for a general meeting disappeared. I wish to assure you, however, that every bill, with the exception possibly of some government measures, was carefully read and studied by your honorary secretary as soon as presented and before same had passed the committee stage of the house. And I think I may assure you that a review of the legislation passed this year will show nothing prejudicial to the public rights or encroachments thereupon.

Appetite Ho! Ho! 'TIS A GREAT JOY

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are the Best Appetite Makers Dyspeptics and Stomach Sufferers Can Use

Appetite is very largely a series of signals from the stomach. When one has a rousing appetite at the sight or smell of food the stomach through its connection with the mind of man is asked whether the food seen or smelled would be welcome.

The stomach if healthy says yes and at once pours mouth water and we are hungry from desire—keenly, ravenously hungry. If the stomach be sick then we have no appetite and are actually nauseated.

Municipal Securities

The guarantee of municipal securities by the respective provinces is being freely and for the most part favorably discussed by financial and economic writers and journals in Canada, brought about chiefly by the issue of bonds by many western localities, some of them said to be speculative of future growth and now emphasized by the "right-money" cry so generally prevalent during the past months. The criticism and discussion of this subject, both at home and abroad, has materially affected the price of municipal securities all over Canada. The strong suffering with the weak, and no part of the country has so unjustly suffered as the staid and solid municipal corporations of Eastern Canada.

How many our municipalities be protected against this contingency? Shall we ask the province to supervise and guarantee our bond issues? That appears to be the leading thought of writers on this subject. One authority argues:—"The municipalities could get such an arrangement if they combined their resources. They would thereby establish a sort of check on each other and prevent the well-intentioned municipalities from being misled by the spirit of a very few."

"Moreover it would constitute a great safeguard for the investor, Canadian as well as British Island. The investor would have the endorsement of the province upon his bond. This would be final and absolute. No buyer of municipalities would ever have to stop and ask himself whether or not he might wind up in his old age to find his bonds repudiated. He would not even have to enquire very closely into the circumstances of the municipality in question—something he must now do with a very considerable chance of being misled. The provincial guarantee would obviate all that."

I think this question demands consideration, and I know of no more competent body to consider it than the present assembly.

Before concluding I wish to express the appreciation this convention feels at the attendance of the members of

GEORGE TINWORTH'S GENIUS

Romantic Story of a Wheelwright Sculptor in England

(London Tit-Bits.)

Grit as well as genius played a great part in the success of George Tinworth, the other day. Born in obscurity and poverty seventy years ago, Mr. Tinworth once related how, as a boy, he used jealously to watch the piece of "make-weight" bread given with a loaf, to prevent its being taken by other boys at street corners as hungry as himself. He had practically no schooling, and was soon sent out to work his first situation being one in the city, where he toiled from seven in the morning until nine at night for 4s. a week. Tinworth's father, who was a wheelwright, had no sympathy with his son's ideals and aspirations. It was his mother who secretly supplied him with materials for carving, though the graven images which he produced were frequently smashed by the father, who told him he was wasting his time.

His first efforts at modelling were made in secret in his father's shed in Walworth, with his little brother acting as sculptor, to warn him of his father's return from the public house, and one of Tinworth's most notable panels shows the wheelwright's shop and the lad standing at a vice carving a figure out of a block of wood with hammer and chisel, while a small boy keeps watch for the return of Mr. Tinworth, senior.

Pawned His Coat

Tinworth's mother was a very devout woman, and often read the Bible to her son, and it was a little figure of Samuel, which he carved and showed to a neighbor, which led to young Tinworth being advised to go to an art school. He had heard of one at Lambeth, under the direction of J. Sparks, one of the ablest art instructors, probably, who ever lived. Sparks was quick to detect the stuff of which the lad was made, and for some years Tinworth was his pupil, winning many honors. And it was due to Mr. Sparks that Tinworth was introduced to the head of the famous Doulton pottery firm, who first paid him 30s a week.

But even then his poverty continued to be so acute that on one occasion he had to pawn his coat to pay his art fees, and when his father died the funeral had to be undertaken by the parish. But Tinworth triumphed over his poverty and difficulties, and soon became famous for those wonderful panels, pits, fountains, and memorials he has executed in terra-cotta, which are to be found in all parts of the world.

Tinworth's Modesty

Some of Tinworth's most notable works are the twenty-eight panels in the Guards' Chapel, the panels in York Minster, Wells Cathedral and other churches. Most of them are of a religious character, his best panels, in his opinion, being those of "Paul Entering into Rome" and "Preparing for the Crucifixion." The fine Spurgeon memorial at Stockwell is also his work.

Tinworth, however, cared little for fame. A quiet, unassuming man, he had a great dislike for compliments, and on one occasion when visiting South Kensington with his wife, where some examples of his own work were on exhibition, Tinworth, seeing a group of visitors inspecting them, walked in another direction, not thinking it desirable to hear their comments. Mrs. Tinworth, not having such scruples, mingled with the crowd, and afterwards told her husband what she had overheard.

"You see that wonderful panel?" said one man to another. "Well, the man who made it, if you were to see him, you would think couldn't say boo to a goose."

ANNNOYING DANDRUFF

Will Make Canada a Baldheaded Nation if Not Checked

M. Pasteur, the great French Physician of Paris, once said—"I believe we shall one day rid the world of all diseases caused by germs."

Dandruff is caused by germs, a fact accepted by all physicians.

Dandruff is the root of all hair evils. If it were not for the little destructive germs working with a persistency which is almost insupportable, there would be no baldness.

Parisian Sage will kill the dandruff germs and remove dandruff in two weeks or money back.

It will stop itching scalp, falling hair and make the hair grow thick and abundant.

It puts life and lustre into the hair and prevents it from turning gray.

It is the hair dressing par excellence, daintily perfumed and free from grease and stickiness. It is the favorite with women of taste and culture who know the social value of fascinating hair.

Comes in large 30-cent bottle at all druggists and leading druggists and toilet goods counters everywhere. "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" is an every day necessity.

BACK WAS LAME FOR TWO YEARS

Stomach Troubles and Weakness of Kidneys Cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

There is an enormous amount of suffering from liver and kidney derangements and stomach troubles that could easily be avoided by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. If you could only realize the scores of everyday ills that arise from a sluggish condition of the kidneys, liver and bowels you would not be long in giving this medicine a trial.

Mrs. Edward Stewart, New Richmond West, Que., writes: "I want to tell you how thankful I am for using your Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for stomach troubles and backache caused by weak kidneys. I was unable to wash any clothes for over two years on account of my back being lame. I read the Almanac and began using these pills. Two boxes made a complete cure. I can do my own washing and other work now, and want to say to lady friends that they do not know how much I appreciate Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills." 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

SOOR, UPSET STOMACHS FIXED IN FIVE MINUTES--PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Best For Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia—It's Great!

When your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal gripping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach, no poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

SMOKER TO BLAME

(Continued from page 1) on fire. I ran as fast as I could to the deck in front of the bridge. The captain himself was there, and I yelled to him in German that the ship was on fire. He did not understand me. I called out again in Polish and then shouted in Yiddish, but still I was unable to make him understand, and he sent down a sailor to inquire what was the matter.

"I led the sailor down to the storage deck. When he saw the smoke he opened one of the hatches and was met with a rush of smoke and heat. The sailor then returned to the bridge, and warned the captain.

"All the passengers in the forward stateroom had by this time become aroused, and everyone seemed panic-stricken. I believe some jumped overboard as the result of sheer fright. When the smoke and choking flames became visible there was an excited rush aft and the passages and stairways for a while were crowded with struggling, fighting people.

"In the meantime the captain had given the alarm. The fire crew was manning the fire apparatus, under the eye of the captain, and a number of men were present to keep order on deck, where the panic-stricken passengers had gathered around the lifeboats in the stern. In the absence of the captain and the other officers who were below fighting the fire, there was much disorder.

Trouble at the Boats

"Everyone rushed to the boats to try to launch them, despite the high seas. There was a great clamor as to who should get into the boats first. The first-class passengers insisted upon their right, and a number of men were dumped every body into the sea. Some say the tackle at one end stuck, so that the boat hung vertically by one rope; other others say that the boat was over-weighted on one side and capsized.

Blames Careless Passenger

"The origin of the fire seems to have been due to the carelessness of a steerage passenger. He was smoking a cigar, and the ash fell into a box of matches, which were lying about him. The matches were lit, and the fire spread to the other passengers' cigars, and then to the stateroom.

STREET CARS TO CROUCHVILLE

Meeting Yesterday and Another One Being Held This Afternoon

A delegation of residents and rate-payers of East St. John met the county councilors representing Simonds yesterday.

The councilors present were Warden Carson and Messrs. Shillington and Stephenson, and the rate payers were represented by A. H. Likely, W. S. Allison, H. B. Peck, D. F. Pidgeon, James Lee, and Joseph Lee of St. John and George St. John and George W. Badgley of Montreal.

The situation was discussed and it was believed that some progress was made. The lines now run to Kane's Corner and the extra distance to be covered is not great.

The question was raised as to whether the superior of roads, who is now a provincial government official, would have anything to say in the matter but it was believed that if the people of the district and their representatives were satisfied there would be no difficulty about this.

A gentleman connected with the company inquired of them that they were more anxious to make extension than some of the councilors were to give them permission. They wanted to make an extension on the Manawagonish Road but permission was withheld as the Lancaster councilors wished them to make the first extension in this direction of the Gypsy Settlement road in spite of the fact that the greater development is occurring on the other road.

PETERS STREET HOUSE COLLAPSES

Several Men Carried Down Mid Timbers and Debris—Three Rushed to Hospital in Ambulance

Several men were quite severely hurt this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock when an old house in Peters street on which they and some others were at work, collapsed and they were crushed between timbers and debris.

Amongst those injured were Philip B. Luce, Luce and another collapsed man named George, also James McInerney, Jack Lane, Arthur LeBlanc, and another, a Syrian, who was taken to the hospital, probably the most seriously injured. Some of his ribs are broken.

The men were engaged at work upon an old house owned by O. B. Akery, which was being repaired. Some were on the roof and others inside, when suddenly a section of it gave way, carrying them to the ground amid a heap of debris, timbers, plaster and the walls of the building to the ground. McInerney was painfully injured about the head and face; Lane had one of his legs crushed slightly, and LeBlanc was bruised somewhat.

It was learned from the hospital that the name of the Syrian was George Haty. Luce and LeBlanc were also taken to the hospital, while McInerney was taken home. John Bennett was also slightly injured. It is believed that Luce had his leg broken.

THE ISSUE IN LANCASTER

Fairville, N. B., October 15, 1913. To the Editor of The Evening Times:

Sir—Having placed my name in nomination for municipal councillor for the parish of Lancaster, I wish to explain that I do this as a protest against the heavy expenditures made by the present Highway Board, as contained in the present report for 1912. And I think that it is only fair that the people of Lancaster should have an opportunity of expressing at the polls whether they are in favor of increased expenditures, and for this reason I join with Mr. Sims and Mr. O'Brien in bringing this issue before the electors of Lancaster.

In 1904 when I had the honor of being a councillor for the parish of Lancaster, the assessment for highway purposes was $8,500, and the total expenditure for the year amounted to $4,750.81, of this amount $4,711.18 was spent in laying asphalt sidewalks in Main street, Fairville, and at the end of the year a surplus of $192.14, was left to the credit of the highway board.

The auditor's report for 1912, shows an assessment of $6,556.40, on the parish for highway purposes and an expenditure of $11,222.18. The result of this year was $6,963.18, thus showing that the parish was in debt to the amount of $4,269.29, at the end of 1912. For these reasons I have placed myself for nomination with my colleagues, Messrs. Sims and O'Brien, and if elected, we pledge ourselves to reform the present conditions, and to prevent further increase of heavy expenditures.

Accompanying this is a copy of the auditor's report for 1904, also one for 1912.

Trusting that the citizens of Lancaster will give this matter their careful consideration, and thanking you, Editor, for your valuable space, I am, Yours respectfully, ANDREW G. GREGORY.

TROUBLE OVER THE KIRMESS PRICES

Advance Buyers Wrath Today When They Went to Exchange

A storm of unusually serious proportions broke this morning in this city. It was not caused by the instruments at the Meteorological Observatory, but that was about the only place in the city where its effects were not felt.

The storm center was Landry's music store in King street, where the opening sale of seats for the Kirmess took place and was forecast by a sudden rise in the price of seats.

Since the first announcement of the big show the highest price mentioned for seats was $1, and a great number of tickets were sold on this understanding.

When the advance tickets were presented this morning, however, attention was drawn to the advertisement in this morning's paper showing $1.50 as the top price, while 50 cent seats were 75 cents.

So on. The announcement was not received with any indications of pleasure; on the contrary the expressions of the would-be purchasers showed a very strong sentiment against the advance tickets. There were some expressions of feeling on the subject which were far from complimentary and at times it almost looked as if physical violence might follow the outbreak of indignation. Voices were raised, fists were shaken and threats were made, but without apparent effect.

The objection seemed to be, not to the fact that a high price was being charged, but that the price was higher than had been advertised in advance when the tickets were sold by the young people taking part, and there was a feeling that the patrons were being forced to part with an extra half dollar against their will.

When an explanation was asked for, a prominent member of the local committee made the following statement: "The price of $1 was fixed when we expected to hold the Kirmess in St. Andrew's rink, and it was placed at that figure as the lowest possible on the basis of the probable number of patrons. When it was found necessary to change the arrangements and hold it in the Keith theatre we knew that we could not accommodate so many people, and that we would not make so much money, but decided to retain the same scale of prices. This was on the understanding that the theatre would seat 1,000 people; but yesterday, when we came to count up the seats, we found there were only 700 seats. This meant a much smaller income, and the result would be a profitable loss for some of the promoters, who have been under a very heavy expense, or to ourselves.

"In consequence of this it was decided to charge a higher price for some of the seats, and ten rows at the front of the building were reserved at $1.50. This still left sixteen rows on the ground floor at $1 and, in my own estimation, most of them are better than the $1.50 seats. In addition to this there are a great many seats upstairs at 75 and 50 cents, which are among the best in the house.

"The people who paid $1 for advance tickets can get seats at that price, and good seats, and they are not forced to take those for which $1.50 are charged. If anyone is dissatisfied we are quite ready to return the money and they will lose nothing by it.

"There is no need for anyone to think that the outside promoters are taking an unfair advantage of anyone, as we have a share in the increased profits as well as they. In addition to this they are lending every effort to enable us to make money on other features of the scheme, such as the programme, the ball, etc., on which they do not make a cent. We hope and expect to make at least twice as much for the playground as the promoters will make out of it.

"It is unfortunate that we were not able to make the announcement earlier, but we did not know that it was necessary until yesterday, and we did the best we could under the circumstances."

with the matter, other than having given free use of their store for the ticket exchange.

CHIEF CLARK ON THE STAND

First Witness at Police Investigation

HIS EVIDENCE

Tells of His Administration of Department - Charges Against Policemen and His Investigations - Their Work For Him

Commissioner McLellan opened his second investigation into the affairs of the police court last evening at 7:30 o'clock in the court house.

Chief Clark was the only witness and was still on the stand when adjournment was made at 10:30 o'clock.

Chief Clark was sworn and gave his name, his age, 71 years, his office and his duties. In reply to the commissioner's questions he said that he was appointed in 1880 and that he spent three weeks in Boston securing information to fit himself for the work.

The witness described the ordinary duties and qualifications of a policeman and told of instructing his men in these matters. He said that he was hampered by the fact that he had no printed manuals and the common council had never acceded to his request for a manual printed, although he had prepared one with corrections and additions to the matter contained in the old Marshall manual.

In selecting his officers he required them to be ratapayers, of a certain height, of fair education and intelligence and physically sound.

The chief paid a tribute to his men saying that they would compare with any force in Canada. They were generally obedient, although O'Leary had recently taken two days off without leave and his case had not yet been dealt with.

The witness thought that there was little loafing or gossiping among the men, although a certain amount could not be avoided. He thought things were worse in this respect lately on account of the strain of the extra work required to cover the beats with a short-handled force.

He had always been on good terms with the chairman of the Safety Board except on one occasion when he had some trouble with Alonzo Chesley.

Questioned about the Perry brothers, the chief said that Simas had been dismissed from the force as a result of an investigation he had held. He did not remember whether Ira had been dismissed or had resigned.

He had investigated a report that Ira Perry had taken some pipes from the Brayley Drug Company's store on Mill street.

He had also investigated a charge that Ira had stolen some thread from Martin's tailor shop in Dock street, but Martin had treated it lightly and Perry explained that they were playing tricks on one another and that Martin had hidden his bison.

He remembered a case in which a policeman had reported finding some canned goods in a lock-up and charging Lewy with having stolen them from John Jackson's store on South Wharf.

He knew that Mr. deForest had charged that goods had been taken from his store but he did not know that it was reported that a policeman carried a key to that store, that he lived off it and that he used it for other purposes.

He did not know of a policeman stealing from McRobbie's shoe store. The chief remembered the charge made by Mr. Payne, manager of Cronin's saloon, that two policemen, Ira Perry and Sullivan, had entered the store. He investigated and it did not seem to amount to much.

The witness told of having members of the police force do odd jobs for him, but said that it was before or after their hours, and that they were paid in one way or another, sometimes by getting something at Christmas. Sergeant Campbell had looked after his horse, but was recompensed by having the use of the horse. He did not know of Campbell having been reported to him, but he was suspended twice. He thought Campbell an honest fellow, an upright and hard-working man.

The hearing adjourned until this evening at eight o'clock.

Steamer Abandoned Afloat

Boston, Oct. 15.—The steamer Templemore, abandoned on fire off the Virginia Capes on September 29, was picked up by the revenue cutter Anson on Monday night, 100 miles east southeast of Sankaty Head light, Nantucket. The Templemore, which was still burning, drifted 480 miles in thirteen days.

Captain Billard, of the Androscoggin, reported that owing to the sudden appearance of a northeast storm, he was unable to plan either the destruction or the salvage of the Templemore.

Maine Whaler Wrecked

Fayal, Oct. 15.—The American whaling brig Sullivan, of Fall River, Mass., was going aground and is a total loss. The Sullivan was 844 gross tonnage and was built at Gouldsboro, Maine, in 1866.

LORD CURZON AND HIS DAUGHTERS

His Two Girls Are His Constant Companions

LONDON SOCIETY NEWS

Wardrobe Gifts to Friends By Queens of England and Spain - Hon. H. F. McLeod With Colonel Hughes at Army Council Dinner

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, Oct. 4.—How Lord Curzon cares for his girls! They are practically never out of his sight. The younger did manage to have a trip in an aeroplane a few weeks ago. She is very pretty and all fun and frolic. I met Lord Curzon and the two girls recently at a famous gallery where antique pictures and furniture are sold. He is a great authority on works of art, and he was laying down the law in that well known way of his to the girls, and had much to say on the characteristics of Rubens and Murillo.

"Rubens," said the Hon. Mary, "I cannot stick at any price. These awful fat women of his make me positively ill!" "Father," said "sh," but the willful lassie did nothing of the kind and went on to have her say about that "horrible" Rubens.

"Do you think, father, because he's an old master that I am going to say I admire his work, when I don't?" and so on. It was very funny, and it made one feel the girl had individuality and a mind of her own.

The girls are beginning to have a grown-up look about them. Their eyes are lovely, as were their mother's, and they wear their hair parted down the middle just as she did. I don't think Lord Curzon has the least idea of re-marrying, not at present, at any rate. Several women have been throwing their caps at him, but it is in vain. First and foremost he knows his sisters-in-law and his own wife, and he is tremendously under their influence, especially under Lady Suffolk's. They would consider it an awful affront to the memory of

"Mary" for him to do so—and there you are. The Queen's Dresses

People are often very curious to know what becomes of Queen Mary's discarded dresses. Her Majesty has a few regulations on her father's side who are decidedly hard-up, and with her own hands she will pack up certain gowns that may be useful to them and have them despatched by a trusted lady-in-waiting, like Lady Eva Dugdale, Lord Warwick's sister, who undertakes all confidential matters for the queen.

Elaborate court gowns that are of no use to poor relations are sent to a noted dress agency and sold.

The Queen of Spain, who has really gorgeous gowns—being King Alfonso's fad to see her magnificently arrayed—passes on quantities of things from her wardrobe to gentlemen here, like the wives of officers who have to keep wherewithal to do. Some time ago people were wondering where a certain society woman, known to be distinctly hard-up, got her dress. It was a very elaborate court gown that was of no use to poor relations are sent to a noted dress agency and sold.

The Blood Was Red

The Vernon family is as old as the hills and rightfully proud of the fact. Ever since he was a "bubber" at school the present peer has been in the habit of letting everybody know who the Vernons are. He, as a youngster, was wont to say his blood was indigo blue and caused a youth of his own age, the son of a millionaire soap manufacturer, to punch his nose to find out if it was true. "I don't think," said the future hope of the soap trade after he had done the deed, "his blood is not blue at all. It's the very color of mine!"

Lady Vernon is far fonder of continental people than British and spends a great deal of time abroad. She married Raoul-Duval, a very aristocratic Frenchman. The Vernons are related to the Marquise de Bretail, who, with her husband, the Prince of Wales under her wing when he was studying French in Paris.

Lady Dorothy Walpole really means it when she says she wants to be an old maid. "I am in love with my writing and I want to give up my life to it," she said recently. "I would not marry if I should have to devote myself to a man and my heart would be all the time in my work!"

Of late Lady Dorothy tries to make herself look young and years older than she is, by wearing sombre clothes and doing up her hair in an elderly manner. As a matter of fact she is in the early twenties. Her object in doing this, she says, is to keep the young men off. They pursued her and do still, but now that they know she is not a marrying girl she lives in hope that they will eventually leave her alone. Her father is greatly wrapped up in her and he may often be seen on the veranda of an hotel in Switzerland reading the proofs of one of her stories, with infinite zest. He gives the impression of being prouder of the fact that his daughter can write than that he is a relative of the great Walpole and of Lady Dorothy Nevill.

Hon. H. F. McLeod There

Colonel Sam Hughes was entertained at the Hotel Cecil by the Canadian officers. Among the guests were Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, S. J. Hichens, chairman of Messrs. Cannell, Laird & Co., and W. L. Griffith of Lord Strathcona's office. Mrs. Hughes and the ladies accompanying the officers have had a very pleasant time in London and on the continent, although they arrived when "everybody" was out of town. By reason of this the scene of the hospitality extended to them has been in the country homes of their hostesses; and they will return to Canada with charming recollections of their short stay here.

Colonel Cruikshank of Calgary will return to the continent, finding ample material to satisfy his interest as a historian in the battles of the Franco-Prussian war. Among British officers great interest and satisfaction have been felt at the increase in the numbers of the Canadian officers attending the manoeuvres. King George, whose appreciation of the value of this movement has more than once been publicly expressed, summoned Colonel Hughes to his presence and informed him of his pleasure at the association of the Canadian officers with the home forces. At the dinner given by the Army Council, Colonel Hughes and Lieut-Col. Hon. H. F. McLeod of New Brunswick, were guests.

Lady Melvin Jones and Rev. Crawford Brown and wife, of Toronto, returned to London from the continent yesterday and will sail for Canada by this week's "Empress."

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gooderham of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Seagram of Waterloo, have left for a motor-tour northward to Scotland along the east coast, returning south by the west coast. Nearly two thousand miles will be covered.

Charles J. Doran and A. J. Stuart of Niagara Falls, who have been visiting Scotland and Ireland, have arrived in London to spend several weeks. They are going to the continent.

Mrs. J. Haydon Horsey, wife of Mr. Horsey, the London manager of the Dominion Bank, has arrived in London and they have taken a suite at the Stafford Hotel, St. James, for the winter.

Lieutenant A. C. D. Graham, of the 9th Lancers, has been appointed A. D. C. to the Duke of Connaught.

Lady Falconbridge of Toronto, is in London accompanied by her grand-daughter, Miss Dorothy Angell, who will attend one of the London schools.

Among the Canadians returning home this week are: Miss M. Quincey, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wright, Mrs. Wallace Watson, H. Miles, Miss J. McFarlan, Miss Brenda Holson, Mr. and Mrs. Huntley Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dalley of Montreal, Professor G. M. Wrona, J. M. Macdonnell, G. A. Watson, L. Curtis of Toronto, Mrs. Leslie Unger, H. J. Thorne of Vancouver, and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. G. Bamber and Miss M. K. Bamber of Victoria.

PEARL FISHERIES

How the Gems are Secured By The Wealth Seekers in Ceylon

The pearl fisheries of Ceylon are located in the Gulf of Manar, near the extreme northwest corner of the island, and the banks most famous in times past lie close to the shore near a place called Marichchukkadai. Since 1907 the banks have not been productive, though at the beginning of March, 1910, the Ceylon government sent experts to examine the banks in the belief that they had again become the rendezvous for pearl oysters in commercial quantities.

The Ceylon pearl oyster is not an oyster at all, but a mussel. It is of the same variety as the so-called pearl oyster found in the Persian Gulf, and in Japanese waters, but quite unlike the pearl oyster of Australia and Burma. These are very large and have beautiful nares, or mother of pearl, which is valuable, and for which they are extensively fished, quite apart from the search for pearls, but the Ceylon variety has little nares, and no commercial value aside from its pearl bearing propensities.

Tradition says that King Solomon's pearls were from Ceylon, and the Phoenicians came to these coasts for them. The potential pairs or oyster beds are formed by an amalgam of coarse granite sand and old oyster shells cemented together with coral lime. On these pairs there is little, if any, movement of sand, and were it not for the fish that prey on them the oysters would thrive. Immediately off the pairs the sand moves in gigantic loose waves, and oysters falling into these are immediately covered up and destroyed. Among the predatory fish the stingray, or skate, seems to be the most voracious enemy of the pearl oyster.

The life of the pearl oyster is not more than eight years, and from about its third year it seems to be more productive both in number and size of pearls, but if a bed could be fished just as the oysters were dying from old age, the pearls obtained would be many and large. The oyster obtains its largest circumference at its fourth year, but thickens afterward and increases in weight.

True pearls, which are the results of a disease and not due to the admission of foreign matter into the shell, are formed in the intestines of the oyster, and when they reach a size to cause it great discomfort the bivalve either dies or forces the pearl toward the opening between the valves, where it usually halted and retained to increase in growth, by a transparent membrane. Very large pearls are rarely found on the Ceylon banks. A dead pearl loses its weight and becomes dullish brown in color.

When a fishery is established and the divers have arrived they are divided into two parties and fish on alternate days. They are allowed one-third of their catch in payment, while the government auctions the remainder on the beach the evening they are caught. The oysters are

BREATHE FREELY! OPEN NOSTRILS AND STUFFED HEAD--END CATARRH

Instant Relief When Nose and Head Are Clogged From a Cold. Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headache Vanishes

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, throat and chest; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of clogging, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Cough or a cold, with its running nose, mucous drooping into the throat, a raw dryness is distressing but it needless.

then placed in private kottus, or enclosures, by their purchasers and allowed to rot for eight or ten days in a receptacle, generally a wood cask, which is covered over to shade the oysters from the sun, but enables the flies to obtain free access and assist in the rotting. After this the mass is washed with clean water, the shells, stones and byssus picked out, and the residue spread on lengths of black calico to dry. During the drying process it is picked over again and again and carefully scrutinized for the smallest pearl.

The apparatus used for classifying the pearls is a series of brass colanders about the size of tobacco ash trays, which are called baskets. There are ten or twelve of these baskets or sieves, with holes in them varying from somewhat larger than a pea to the size of a pinhead, and through these the pearls are sifted. The larger pearls are all found in the sifting, but multitudes of the tiniest seed pearls are left in the

SECOND EDITION SCOWMEN SAFE

Reach Grand Manan, Says Message to Marine Department

The four Carleton men, who were believed to have been blown to sea and drowned, are safe.

The good news was received at four o'clock this afternoon by the local office of the Marine Department from Grand Manan. The message was very brief merely stating that the men had arrived safely at North Head, Grand Manan, but this is enough to turn the sorrowing of four families into rejoicing and to gladden the hearts of hundreds of their friends.

The men who were carried out of Courtenay Bay on Monday evening while crossing from Red Head to Ballast Wharf in a motor boat towing a scow of gravel, are George D. Cripps, Charles M. Newcombe, Leo and Edward J. McLaughlin.

WEDDINGS OF MUCH INTEREST TODAY

Cameron-Fisher

An interesting social event took place in Trinity church at 8.30 this afternoon, when Miss Grace Fisher, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Shives Fisher, 78 Orange street, became the bride of George Stewart Cameron, D.D., of Peterborough, Ont.

The church was beautifully decorated with white roses and carnations and other cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, in the presence of a large number of guests and interested friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by her cousins, Miss Lillian Fisher and Miss Marion Magee. Gerald Ruckham, of Toronto, was the groomsmen, and Donald and Morris Fisher, brothers of the bride, and Kenneth Inches and Clifford McAvity acted as ushers.

The bride was charmingly dressed in a gown of ivory duchess satin trimmed with lace, with brocade court train. She also wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaids were gowned in dresses blue with lace collars and black picture hats and carried bouquets of pink Killarney roses.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. George Fisher, of Chatham, N. B.; Mrs. John Benson, of Lindsay, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Connell, of Quebec; Miss Ella Smith, of Woodstock, N. B., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, of Sackville.

As the bride entered the church, the choir sang the wedding hymn "How Welcome Was The Call," the music for which was composed by J. S. Ford, Trinity's organist. "God Bless The Mercies Unto Us And Bless Us" was also sung by the choir during the ceremony and at the close "O Perfect Love" was very sweetly sung as a solo by Miss Louise Knight.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, which Dr. and Mrs. Cameron left for a short honeymoon trip to other cities in the United States. They will then proceed to Peterborough, Ont., where they will reside.

The bride, who is very popular in the city, and has always taken a great interest in church work, was the recipient of many beautiful presents from numerous friends.

Morris-McPeake

An interesting and popular nuptial event was solemnized this afternoon at four o'clock in the Church of the Assumption, West St. John, when Miss Edith Blanche McPeake, daughter of the late F. J. McPeake, became the bride of Walter E. Morris, of the railway mail service. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of friends and guests. As the wedding party entered the church Mendelssohn's nuptial march was played by the organist, Miss Josephine Wetmore.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Alexander McMullin, was becomingly gowned in a pretty tailor-made traveling costume of Bedford cord, taupe color. She wore a hat to correspond with velvet trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss M. Hilda McPeake, as bridesmaid, attired in a neat suit of white embroidered mull with trimmings of Cluney lace, and wearing a velvet poke bonnet. She carried a shower bouquet of white and lavender chrysanthemums. Edward L. Morris, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride at which only immediate relatives and close friends were present. On the Montreal express this evening Mr. and Mrs. Morris will leave on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York, and will be away about three weeks. After their return they will reside at 208 St. John street, West.

Many handsome and costly wedding remembrances were received, of a useful and valuable nature, fitting testimonials to the esteem in which the bride and groom are held by a host of friends about the city and elsewhere, all of whom will wish them every happiness in their married life.

McDonald-Hatheway

In St. Luke's church at eight o'clock this morning, in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives, Miss Madeline, daughter of the late John C. Hatheway, was married to Frank A. McDonald of the office staff of the St. John Iron Works, and son of Arthur McDonald. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Hatheway, uncle of the bride. The bride was attended by Miss Grace McKim, and Mrs. L. B. Hatheway, the bridesmaid. She was becomingly dressed in a gray traveling suit with hat to match, and the bridesmaid wore a navy blue suit of the same shade.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left by automobile for a trip to Woodman's Point and other places along the coast. On their return to the city they will reside at 25 Elliott row.

The bride received very many beautiful presents of cut glass, silver and linen.

Handred-Moody

At the residence of Roy F. Handren, 225 Waterloo street, this morning, at six o'clock the wedding of George A. Handren to Mrs. Sadie A. Moody was solemnized by Rev. W. H. Barreclough, pastor of Centenary Methodist church. The bride was attired in brown corduroy with hat to correspond. A breakfast was afterwards served, following which Mr. and Mrs. Handren left on a trip through the New England states. On their return they will reside at 225 Waterloo street. They were the recipients of many valuable wedding gifts, amongst them a check from the bride's employer, J. P. Wilcox.

DEATH OF MRS. JACOB MAYER

Charitable and Beloved, Many Mourn Her Passing Away

The death of Mrs. Jacob Mayer, aged sixty-two years, occurred at the General Public Hospital on the 14th inst. Mrs. Mayer had not been in the best of health for some time and Dr. W. W. Ferrin, of Boston, a prominent Boston physician, and a personal friend of the Mayer family, was sent for. After a consultation with Doctor Emery, who was locally in charge of the case, an operation was decided upon. Doctor Gareau of Montreal, who a few months ago operated successfully on the Duchess of Connaught, was called here. On Saturday afternoon last at five o'clock Doctor Gareau, assisted by Doctors Ferrin and Emery, performed an operation. The operation was considered a success, and Mrs. Mayer was considerably improved for a while. However, complications set in and she succumbed to her trouble early yesterday morning.

Mrs. Mayer, who was of Jewish persuasion, was an extremely charitable and beloved lady, and performed very many acts of charity among her own people, and will be greatly missed, not only by the members of the Jewish faith, but by a large number of personal friends and friends of the family. A large number of telegrams of sympathy were received from out of town friends, and a great many floral tributes were sent to the former home of the deceased, testifying to the esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Mayer is survived by her sorrowing husband, also by three sons and two daughters. The sons are Louis B. Mayer of Boston, who is extensively engaged in the theatrical business in Havre-d'Elle, Boston, Lawrence and Philadelphia; R. W. Mayer, of Quebec and St. John; and Jerry G. Mayer of Quebec.

The daughters are Mrs. L. S. Kominsky of this city, and Mrs. Reider of Montreal. All the members of the family were at the bedside of their mother at the time of her death. The funeral, which was of a strictly private nature, was held last evening and interment took place in the Jewish cemetery.

MRS. HOLLY'S WILL

In the probate court today the will of Mrs. Aramantia Holly, widow of Hon. James Holly, was proved. She gives to St. Luke's church, North End, $50; to the St. John Protestant Orphan Asylum, $50; to the St. John Home For Incurables, $50; to Mabel, wife of Arthur Hoyt of McAdam Junction, $100; to Holly Leighton, their son, $50; to the testatrix's daughter, Jeanette Alice, wife of Charles Swinerton of Cambridge, Mass., $2,000; to her sons Alexander B. and Murray McL. Holly, and to her daughter S. Caroline, wife of John E. Moore, $2,000, to be divided amongst them equally; to her granddaughter, Abbie Henrietta, daughter of her daughter Mrs. Swinerton, $200; to her granddaughter Louise, daughter of her son Alexander B., $100; to her grandchildren, children of her daughter Mrs. Moore, namely John H. and Marion Moore, $100 each; to her grandchildren, children of her daughter Henrietta Mary Fleming, $100; to her grandchildren, children of her daughter Agnes, namely Carrie Agnes, $100; Margaret, $100; James, $500; and Doris, $100; to her grandchildren, children of her daughter Henrietta Mary Fleming, $100; to her grandchildren, children of her daughter Agnes, namely Rhoda May, Gertrude Agnes, James and Eleanor, $100 each; to Jennie Wright, if still in her employ, $50; the rest of her estate she gives, one-fifth to the children of her deceased Mrs. Swinerton and Mrs. Moore; one-fifth to her two sons Alexander B. and Murray McL. Holly, and the remaining one-fifth to the children of her deceased daughter Henrietta Mary Fleming, and she nominates her two sons Alexander B. and Murray McL. Holly executors. They were accordingly sworn in as such. Real estate is $6,500; personally about $18,500; Barnhill, Ewing and Sanford are executors.
