Turkish Soldiers Savagely Maltreating

London, May 26.—The Times has a dispatch from Athens which says: "The long expected disaster in the Island of Crete seems suddenly to have been pre cipitated. Since Sunday anarchy has reigned at Canea. The Turkish soldiery, breaking all restraints, poured through pillaging Christians. The consuls have all telegraphed for warships. The British fleet at Malta sailed to-day for Crete. Her Majesty's ship Hood, anchored at Phaleroum, starts hitherto to-morrow. The great ironclads will probably follow to-morrow. The cavasses of the Greek and Russian consulates at Canea have been recalled. Turkham Pasha is utterly powerless to restrain the soldiers. He is on bad terms with the military governor, Izzedin, who is suspected of being at the bottom of the whole trouble. The immediate cause of the outbreak, however, is inexplicable, as the Christians there have never given provocation. The situation at Retimo is equally serious. His lordship says: "The debate which has taken place in parliament on the school question has elicited opinions and doctrines absolutely contrary to the doctrines of the church. The state has not the mission to educate the child. In the 18th century the revolting proposition was laid down that the child belonged to the state before it belonged to the family. That is the principle which has caused so much evil. In Manitoba liberty of religious instruction has been frampled under foot. "During the recent debate on the

Sir Hector Langevi sout of the cabinet and his associat Phos. McGreevy, was expelled from p. ament and cast into prison. The pril ag bureau scan-day was exposed. The superintendent, who was a personal friend of Mr. Chapleau, was dismissed and prosecuted. Mr. Haggart's incompe ency to administer his department was exposed in connection with the Curran bridge, a job which cost over a quarter of a million dollars. Mr. Foster pleads gunty to having permitted his political friends to default interest which he should have collected from them for seven years. Mr. Costigan's connection with the Tobique Valley railway subsidy was ven-tilated, and last, but not least, there was the outrageous attempt of John Haggart to secure over two hundred thousand dollars out of the treasury for Geo. Goodwin in connection with the Soulanges canal contract, which the auditor-general refused to pay. Is it possible that the country at this critical moment does not realize the enormity of their government's corruption and dishonesty? From a monetary standpoint look at the result of dishonest government as it has been revealed since these men were elected in 1891. Estimated cost of Little Rapids locks, $45,000; expended on works, $255,000. Galops Rapids, estimated cost $312,000; actually paid, $629,630. St. Charles Branch railway, estimated cost, including damages, $566,000; actual expenditure, $1,732,288. Langevin block, estimated cost, $440,000; expended, $772,-000, with an outstanding claim of $295,= $253,000; actually paid, $405,000; still claimed $79,000. In the same category must be mentioned the Quebec harbor works fraud, the is docks steal and the Esquimalt dry dock job.

To those of you who desire to see the overthrow of the government let me remind you that it all rests in your hands. MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S VIEW.

Sir Charles Tupper still harps on his preferential trade scheme, but as the compaign goes on it becomes more and more apparent to the multitude that there is no sincerity in his professions. He does not want to establish preferential trade on the only lines that the mother country can accept. Mr.

And, although in such a case the principles of free trade would lose something of tween ourselves and foreign countries, advocates of free trade must remember how much they would gain by its extension to all the states which form the British empire, states which are after all, whatever may be said, more fikely to develop and increase in prosperity and population and wealth and power than any of the foreign states with which we have relations." It is quite evident that neither Sir Charles Tupper nor any of his coadjutors could agree to a lessening of the protection that the pampered friends of the government sociation-otherwise the Red Parlor-

THE DIABOLICAL TARIFF.

Conservative orators and Conservative journalists tell the people that unthe national policy the duties are lighter on the poor man's goods than on the rich man's goods. Instead of answering this ourselves we let a leading Conservative in the Halifax chamber of commerce answer it. Mr. Adam Burns, of the firm of Burns and Murray, dry goods merchants, made the following statements concerning the national policy. Remeber these are not the words of any Liberal, but the 1891, according to the census of that words of a very prominent Conservative. Mr. Burns said:

was the specific duties, which were so excessive and very unjust to the poor unjust to the wearer of the cheaper material. The speaker instanced cotton, batting, wadding, cottan warp, knitting, many other articles as commending themselves to the favorable consideration of a considerate finance minister as under the specific duty system, enhanced in price, greatly to the injury of the creased burdens. The specific duties he looked upon as the most obnoxious feature in the tariff. Our worthy doctor representative, he said, in discussing the the same extent of the rich man's broadcloth. What would that gentleman's feelings be when the poor man's clothing taxed at the rate of 45 per cent. while the rich man only paid 30 per cent. under this iniquitous, he might almost say, diabolical specific system? It might be said that the inequality was only apparent, and as manufacturers extended things would differ. As a rule, however, our prices would be ruled by those in other countries, and manufacturers would pocket large bonuses. No doubt in time so many would become manufacturers they would kill each other, and prices would go down tives to the Liberal ranks continue to so low that the whole basis of the busi-Chamberlain in the following remarks government upon loan since 1888, $66,- a life-long Conservative announced that impoverish the revenue, to stop healthy did not know that what he had stated were facts. One principle upon which a tariff generally was constructed was to bear more heavily on what were known as luxuries, and lightly on staples, but by the tariff under discussion the articles used by those who make the bulk of the working people in the n were most heavily taxed. In fact, the tariff did not seem to have been prepared upon any fixed principle, but looked as if it had been got together helter-skelter, just as one manufacturer after an other had presented his views as to what would hest suit his interests. Nova Scotia, of all other countries in the world, was the one most in need of low duties. The whole Dominion had been injured to benefit understand how the miners and fishermen and farmers who went to make up the large majority of our population, ever submitted to such a tariff, which was clearly unjust to them and ruinonsly high. It seemed as if the government had wished to force a farming, fishing and mining country to become

"Mr. Burns continued his argument against the tariff as at present. He did not think a manufacturer who wanted as much protection as this tariff afforded, should go into business. The skate factory in Dartmouth wanted no procalker at de general business. Yer tection; it was forcing its manufactures into all the manufactures of the world, in spite of protective triffs. He instanced also a button factory in Berlin, Ont., which made so superior an article got to be did, and de popularity string at so reasonable a price, that it was competing in the United States with manufactured articles. He thought it was ridiculous to nurse and coddle manufactures to the absurd extent this tariff did."

Now is the people's chance to secure a reform of this "diabolical" tariff Jy driving the parliamentary agents of the combines out of public life, and placing in power men who will take care to legislate and govern for the greatest good of the greatest number. The Liberals are pledged to a substantial measure of tariff reform .- Halifax Chronicle

THE N. P. IN NEW BRUNSWICK.

In 1875, the Manufacturers and Mechanics' Association of St. John cellected statistics showing the number of persons employed in the various induscatch a few Orange suckers." Well, and county. The statistics were col-Blinker," sez he, "If I must, I must, lected with great care and we have but you see de Bard of Avon and get never heard their accuracy questioned. "Anytink to At that time the manufacturing of boots and shoes was a great St. John industry, and there were 1071 persons employed in it. Their annual wages on Sunday mornin, dere was de Kernel | were $262,600 and the value of articles produced was $717,632. In 1884, when Mr. Willis made his official report to the government in regard to the manufacturing industries of St. John, there were still 398 persons employed in this business. But in 1891, after twel 6 ness artillery competition. British C years of the N. P., the number of perhouse from the Premier of Manitoba six votes by dat arf hour's walk be- sons employed in the boot and shoe by two members, one from the Victor business in St. John had shrunk to 170, companies and one from the Mainla their wages had fallen to $62,205 and their annual product to $169,291. The have served three years in his corps insane policy of the government has possess a certificate of qualificate virtually destroyed this business, which was so flourishing twenty years age. Such are the fruits of a high protective tariff. In 1875 the manufacturers of clothing employed 800 persons in St. John, and they produced $700,000 worth of clothing annually. The census of 189! showed that only 580 persons were .: inployed in the same business in the city and county of St. John, and the value of the product had fallen to $421,000. It is well known that the number now employed in the tailoring business here is now considerably smaller than the year the census was taken. Dressmaking and millinery employed 750 persons in St. John in 1875, and their annual wages reached the handsome total of $145,520. In 1891, when the census was taken the number of persons employed in this business and fallen to 345, and their wages had declined to $63,796. In the county of Carleton, according to the figures obtained by Mr. Willis, there were 988 persons employed in the manufacturing industries in 1884, who received $361,020 in wages annually. In year, the industrial establishments of Carleton county employed 943 persons, whose annual wages amounted to only "One objection he had to the tariff $258,750. Thus seven years of that industrial blight, the national policy, not only reduced the number of persons emman. The cheapest kind of cloth, used ployed in Carleton county, but reduced by him, and the fine broadcloth of the their wages by about 40 per cent., the rich man were alike taxed two cents 2 average sum received falling from $364 pound, which all could at once see was a year in 1884 to $273 in 1891. So much for seven years of the national policy in Carleton county.

The figures for the city and county of grey and white cottons, colored cotton St. John, which we published yesterday, for shirtings, flannels and blankets, clo- show that between 1884, when Mr. Wil thing, tweeds, coatings, etc., carpets, lis collected his statistics, and 1891, (two ply), such as a majority of the when the census was taken, there was a majority of the working class use, and decrease of 947 in the number of hands employed in manufacturing industries, and a decrease of $860,817 in wages. Not only did the rumber of persons emneeding very little protection and being, ployed decrease, but the rate of wages fell from $376 a year in 1884, to $312 in 1891. Thus the national policy has doubly injured St. John, by reducing the amount of employment and by lowering the wages of the persons employed.

In the county of York, according to the figures obtained by Mr. Willis, there were 2,696 persons employed in industrial establishments in 1884. These people received in wages, $1,092,520 annually, or at a rate of $406 for each person employed. In 1891, according to then census figures of that year. number of persons employed in the industrial establishments in the county of York had fallen to 2,069, and their yearly wages to $632,672, or $305 for each person. Thus York had lost in seven years of the national policy 627 of its industrious. workers, and those who were left had had their wages reduced by the amount of $100 each a year.-St. John Telegraph.

THE POTLACH.

To the Editor: As an Indian who loves justice and fair play, I feel it my duty to place before the public, through the columns of your widely circulated paper, a few words regarding the potlach, and who is better able to understand its features, good or bad, than one who looks at it from within. Some argue that the government has no power to interfere with the ancestral rights of our forefathers, and this may be true so far as our rights and habits are innocent and harmless, but not farther. I am prepared to prove that the potlach in neither innocent nor harmless but ,on the contrary, is, in principle, unjust to many of our race, and at that, the very portion which is Belmont's Hastings in the Belmont trying to adopt the customs of the white man. What would the support- Dwyer also announced that he was willers of the potlach think of a practice which deprived city aldermen of their seat of office, power of influence, because they did not belong to a certain religious sect, or a custom that would fairly asked to go. unseat and forever bar out an influential member of government because he does not believe in a certain creed, and yet, this outrage, we who try to benefit by the civilization of the white man, are forced to bear so long as the potlach exists. I might be the highest and most respected chief on this river or this coast, and yet all my influence and Messrs. Denny & Co., in 1886, and then honor, as dear to me as the birthright of any nobleman, be snatched from me trouble with native shippers in Tient- by bribes of a potlach or series of potlaches. In the same way might go my Peiho, extensive alterations were made, including the addition of a mizzen-mast, all of which I am pardonably proud, and her name was changed to Taku, a and all because I choose to live in civil piece of harmless deception which was ization and advancement. Why, I ask, never discovered by the Chinese in in the name of justice and British fair Tientsin. She was known by this name play, should such a practice be toler-until April of last year, when she was shall we suffer such injustice?

It will be seen then, that we complain not of what seems an act of charity, but of the motive of that act. I say "seems." for it is charitable only in appearance: in reality it is a bribe. The Indian is paid so many blankets or guns to shut his mouth against the injustice of the usurper of some one's seat and name. If I give money to a poor woman in the street as an act ofchari ty, I am justly praised, but if I give the same amount to the same woman for immoral purposes, I am condemned, being, in principle, an adulterer. If the many hundreds of dollars were really expended for charitable purposes, who would not applaud such an act, but who dare applaud a system of bribery? Many people suppose the potlacher is rich, and by his generosity kees from starving many old and indigent Indians. Although it has thus been represented by Indians from the river, both of these suppositions are false. The potlacher borrows all the money, goods and blankets possible, contracts debts in every store he can, and is often so extravabut what of that if he can by so doing capture a prize so much esteemed? The Indian would stake life itself on such scheme, and sometimes even morality of his family com- cordingly he stepped out. proven nothing in

Mr. Forhan said he did not expect to be called upon, as he only came as a listener, but he felt that in this campaign, if a man could only say even half a dozen words to try and change the wretched administration of public affairs, these words should be He had been a Conservative all his life time and had worked hard in past campaigns to maintain the Conservative government, but he now felt that it was in the best interests of the country that there should be a change of government at Ottawa. (Cheers.) After what occurred at Ottawa during the past few months it was surely time for the people to wake up and to let the scales drop from their eyes. (Cheers.) The Conservative government had promised wonderful things to tue people of Halifax for years. This city was to be the great Liverpool of America. (Laughter.) In fact our commerce in the harbor was to be so great that we would not be able to see the town across the water because of the many ships in the way. (Laughter.) gentlemen, Dartmouth can still be seen, notwithstanding the glowing predictions. (Laughter.) To-day he only saw two coal barges and a steamer lying in the harbor and they were lying up, but the Spanish government had come to the rescue, taken pity on us and sent us a war ship to corroborate the ... predic tions. (Roars of laughter.) He sincerely thought for years that some of the benefits promised by the Conservabecause of the immense volumes of smoke from the tall chimneys (cheers and laughter), but the glowing promises were far from realization. Some years ago a number of merchants and others, carried away by these rosy predictions, had invested money in a cotton factory in Hanfax which was to bring wonderful prosperity to the city and to the investors, but the result was that after running a few years, the investors were paid off at the rate tive government would be realized, but it must be frankly confessed that the end was most disappointing. There was not a ship sailing out of the city of Halifax that could get anything to do at the present time. Conservative ora-

Tory government there would be so many factories established that the people would hardly be able to see the sky of 50 cents on the dollar. Since then these factories were placed in a combine and in order to get any article from that combine the purchaser was compelled to pay the combine

Now, fellow electors, let me mention another matter concerning which I have personal knowledge. In going along this Atlantic coast it pains me to see the fishermen toiling laboriously, miles away from home, in open boats attending their trawls, and compelled by a crushing monopoly under Canadian law to use rope on which they had to pay 10 per cent. and 11/4c. per pound. This was a foul wrong for any governe ment to inflict on a most deserving and industrious class of our population. (Cheers.) Moreover, the combine is becoming so powerful and arrogant that if the present government is sustained there is grave danger that the day will come when this grasping and deadly monopoly will double the burden now thrown on the fishermen, the shipowners and other important classes in the community. What constitutes the prosperity of a country? He was inclined to think that the true test was population. It was claimed, indeed, that every good citizen of a country was worth yearly to that country $500. But what did the census returns in Canada show? During the ten years from 1881 to 1891, so far as the Maritime provinces were con-cerned, the result was most disappointing and the census returns when published must have been a shock and a sad surprise to every well wisher of his country. The total increase for the city and county of Halifax during these ten years was only 3441 persons. Did that look like prosperity? Why, he felt inclined to believe that almost that many people came here from Newfoundland during that period.

In the province of New Brunswick the census returns were even more shocking. In the important seaport of St. John there had actually been a falling off in population to the extent of 1940 What did that test of prosperity show? If any elector took a walk through Water street in Halifax he would find within a radius of 200 feet from Pickford & Black's wharf some of the finest properties in the city completely idle. One fine property in that vicinity, which had cost $22,000, was offered for sale, and the highest bid was $7000. In that vicinity there are properties in which years ago a splendid business was conducted, now unused and affording no employment. was curious to observe many of his fellow Conservatives ready to grumble at dull times throughout the year on every occasion except when an election campaign was inaugurated (cheers and laughter), when, of course, everything was bright and prosperous. It is only in such cases as the present that all that is divine in humanity is brought out to the fullest extent; only then that men and women forget their part in the farce of playing at being better than each other; all pretensions are sunk, all class, social and religious distinctions wiped out, and the belle of society kneels in her smart frock side street. by side with the ruggedly and solidly good-natured wife of the workingman, both bent on the one merciful objectthat of endeavoring to restore the spark of life to the prostrate form lying so listlessly and helplessly between them. Another juryman also wanted to be relieved, as he is a guard at the provincial jail, but Dr. Crompton assured the jury that he had no intention of conducting a minute inquiry. He only wished evidence of identification of the bodies, and another jury could be empannelled to investigate the causes that led to the accident. Mr. Cassidy considered such a course

THE BROKEN BRIDGE Could Not Have Been Cut Better With a Cross-cut Saw.

A glance at the wrecked bridge tells story that is eloquent in its silence. How the break occurred is no mystery; everything is plain. The structure simply gave way. The great beams went down and the rest went with them. It seems also that this was the only span where there was an overlapped timber in the stringers, and of course, when this weakness was developed by the vibration, the value of the diminished support it gave at any time, was minimized. There are no jagged timbers, no twisted irons to tell the tale of strong resisting power; the thing could scarcely have been cleaner done if the timbers had been carefully shifted and thrown into the water. No later than three years ago the floor beams were condemned, them having broken through. The trouble, it will be remembered, then occurred with the same car that became for a short time the sarcophagus of so many human beings. Then the bridge was closed, and the floor beams replaced. At the same time the Tramway company put in two long "stringers" under the rails with a view to lessening the vibration, and, as remarked before, and it was under the fatal span tha the only overlapping was done. Nothing was done then to add to the upright support of the bridge, although some of the then aldermen spoke about yesterday's boats. the necessity of taking steps in that direction. There was a discussion about the same time over the too perceptible oscillation of James Bay bridge when a heavy car was going over it, and one ried. of the aldermen remarked that the sinking which could be so plainly seen was a sure sign of the strength of the

He accompanied a reporter under the floor of the bridge and pointed out its defects. In one place he showed where, by removing a couple of three or four inch irons, the whole would collapse under an ordinary waggon. and in any case he said he would never trust a very heavy load on it. There were no means of taking an actual observation of how much the bridge went out of plumb when a heavy car was crossing, but, out of curiosity, this gentleman once put a stick in the water and took an observation. He did the same thing with Rock Bay bridge, where the piles gave him much better opportunity, and he says

A SECOND INQUEST.

Another Jury empanelled to Enquire into Cause of Death of Miss Smith

The following jury was empanelled by Coroner Crompton this afternoon to inquire into the cause which led to the deaths of Sophie Smith and others: Foreman, John Nicholles; S. A. Stoddart, F. T. Sherbourne, Wm., Lorrimer, E. A. Morris, D. Cartmel, W. Ridge way Wilson, S. Carter, W. S. Chambers, H. Hancock and W. Walker. John Grant, who was also called, claimed exemption, saying that as he was mayor of the city when the franchise was granted to the electric railway, he might not be a proper person to serve. He was excused. Joseph Wilson was also excused, as he wished to attend the funeral of a friend.

Mr. C. Dubois Mason represented the city. Messrs. A. G. Smith, deputy attorney-general, and Robt. Cassidy, appeared for the provincial government. Messrs. E. V. Bodwell and A. E. Mc-Phillips were present to watch the interests of the street railway company. The jury after being sworn proceeded to view the bodies, then returning to the city hall the enquiry was begun. The first witness called was James McL. Muirhead, who had been a passenger on the ill-fated car. He identified the body of R. S. Holmes, who had sat with him in the car. The car was packed when it left Campbell's corner. About half the fares had been collected when the accident occurred. himself had escaped through the window and swam to a place of safety. Alderman Marchant, in moving the resolution, stated that no word's of the council could add anything to the sentiment of the council embodied in the resolution. None who witnessed the awful scene after the accident could remain unmoved at seeing strong men bowed down with their great sorrow, mothers and fathers weeping for their lost children and children mourning in some cases for both parents. He would ask that, contrary to the usual custom, a standing vote be taken. Mayor Beaven read the following

The Annual Convention To Be Held at New Westminster in June.

For some time past preparations have been carried on for the third annual convention of the British Columbia Union of Christian Endeavor, to be held in New Westminster on the 19th, 20th, and 21st of June.

The provincial union officers, who constitute the executive committee of 1896, hold frequent meetings in the session rooms of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, in connection with convention work, and are kept busy, after their business hours, in carrying out the plans of each executive meeting.

The union has been fortunate in securing for its president, and chairman of the committee of 1896, such a valuable Christian worker as they have in the person of Mr. J. H. Scott, one of the most sincere and enthusiastic leaders in Christian Endeavor work in the prov ince. His committee consists of the following: Vice-presidents, Mr. G. H. Grant, Westminster; Dr. Mansill, Vancouver; and Rev. W. Clay, Victoria. Directors: W. T. Cooksley, Rev. Dr. Reid, E. J. Robson, J. Jardine, and Miss Howison, Treasurer, Miss B. Mahoney; secretary, D. E. Mackenzie.

The committee are hopeful, and have every confidence of making this coming gathering the convention of all conventions. Conventions are of frequent occurrence in this, the ideal convention city of the province, and will be so as long as organizations of a like character exist. Gatherings which are attended by a large number of delegates Christian Endeavorers, in June, it is exfor the event say it will, in point of size, be notable among the largest conventions held here, and will certainly outrank any religious assemblage ever The headquarters of the committee is Paine's Celery Compound The Prompt Banisher of Rheumatism and Sciat.ca.

The Only Positive Cure in the World.

Thousands of Convincing Testimonials From Cured People.

The agonizing and terrible troubles known as rheumatism and sciatica, are probably the cause of more helplessness and acute suffering than any half dozen others that could be named.

The original cause of rheumatism is a lack of nerve force. By this weakness of the nervous system, an acid is formed which enters the blood. Soon the joints swell-usually the knees, elbows and wrists-and there is inflammation with intense pain; this disease is veritable rheumatism.

The great medicinal virtues of Paine's Celery Compound makes it the only trustworthy specific in the world for the complete cure of all forms of rheumatism. Paine's Celery Compound is curing hundreds of cases every day: Testimonials without number declare that this great remedy of nature has effected cures after all other medicines failed

You cannot afford to experiment with the common and worthless preparations of the day, when you can procure a guaranteed medicine like Paine's Celery Compound, so highly recommended by the best physicians. Bear in mind that those cured by Paine's Celery Compound are cured permanently. There is no more return of the terrible disease; no twisted, stiffened and contracted limbs. Paine's Celery Compourd gives a new existence, and the old sufferers walk with as much elasticity and spryness as any youth. Do not be persuaded by substituting dealers to take any of the medicine they may recommend for their own benefit and profit: insist upon getting Paine's Celery Compound, the medicine that always cures.

In Canessa v. Nicol a motion was made before the Chief Justice this morning for an injunction restraining fendant, trading under the name of the Vancouver Granite Company, entered into an agreement whereby for the sum of $25 defendant obtained the right to prespect on Gabriola Island. The agreement further provided that defendant could quarry sandstone there for $300 per year, and should he so desire he could purchase the land at $10 per acre. The property turned out well and defendant decided to purchase, but plaintiff had repudiated the option to purchase part of the agreement and refused to convey. Canessa, who is an Italian, does not understand the English language well, and alleges that he was not aware of the purchase clause in the agreement when he signed, and he now seeks to eject defendant from the land and quarry. The affidavit filed on behalf of the defendant state that he is supplying stone to Vancouver and also to Smith & Elford for the Victoria postoffice. His Lordship made an order allowing the defendant to continue quarrying on his paying into court $300 be applied in payment of rent, if it is hereafter decided that a lease should be granted—otherwise to be applied to ward purchase money. The meeting at Burgoyne Bay, was e meeting. He confined himself prinipally to the Manitoba remedial bill, a abject which affords the widest scope for rhetoric and fervent appeals to the best of human sympathy, and Mr. Mclanes took advantage of both. He eloquently gave a history of the burning puestion which occupies the minds of anadians to-day, and fervidly appealed all present to support him in his enleavors to avert the calamity which threatened the prairie province. He clearly showed the scandalous inefficiency of the Manitoba schools under the separate system, when religious intolerance was instilled into the minds of the pupils, when French history took the place of British, and where the tendency was to alienate the minds of the youth from the free institutions of liberty-loving Britain. He proved how the minority of Manitoba had no grievance, nor did they ask for any remedial measure; that the cry was wholly got up by ecclesiastics, and that the "great stretcher" took up the issue for the one purpose of securing the Catholic vote of Quebec. He dealt with the bills of right-three in number-where there was not a word said about separate schools, while the fourth bill, in which separate schools were mentioned, was proved to be a fraud and delusion. In which he designated as neither fish, lesh, or yet a red herring. Mr. Mcthat the people of British Columbia have nothing to do with the Manitoba school question. It was a matter which concerned the whole Dominion. It was a matter of forcing upon a province a measure that the government of that province would not accept, of forcing mon a free people a slave bill which vast majority repudiated. He reports that the character of the ore is much changed from that found on the surface. Where formerly it contained 16 per cent. zinc and 4 or 5 per cent. iron, it now contains only 6 per cent. zinc and 15 per cent. iron. The precious metals contained in the ore are about $15 to $17 to the ton. It carries about 30 per cent. lead. The reopening and successful shipping of ore from this mine will be a great help to us in East Kootenay, for with the large quantity of ore there found, the Golden smelter, by obtain ing a silicious ore from the Selkirk range, will be able to be blown in and kept in continnual blast. With the low grade character of this ore, it will be necessary to establish a small de-silverizing plant at Golden to overcome the enormous freight rates which would be encountered in shipping the crude bullion to a refinery.

It was chronicled in the local press a few days ago that one of Toronto's best known physicians was leaving for a leading United States Hospital, there to undergo an operation for a hard formation of the kidneys. Everyone will hope that the experiment will be successful. But is not prevention better than cure, and where the first symptoms of kinney disease assert themselves let that wonderful specific, South American Kidney Cure, be taken, and the trouble is banished. What is just as encouraging is that where the disease has taken hold of the system, even in extreme cases, relief and cure is quickly secured by the use of this medicine. Victoria Defeated Vancouver in the First Home Lacrosse Match of the Season.

Several Thousand People Saw the Gameand Went Wild With Excitement.

Three thousand people yelled themelves hoarse yesterday morning at Caledonia Park, when the Capital la ninth. snap, and affording lots of excitement, score by innings follows: was devoid of rough play. Both teams seemed to realize that good playing and | Seattle not slashing would win the game, and play they did. The game was a little ragged at the start, Vancouver playing a better team game than the Capitals. But the youngsters in the home team and pitched a star game until the eighth his ancient campaign harangues way ran special trains to Lampson British Columbia from his only competsive; hacks and carriages of every street; hacks and carriages of every liter, Irving. The tandem race gave an match safe; W. P. Winsby, 81 whist after they had lost the first game, and When they did this they were too much for the visitors.

In the early part of the game Pat Smith got into a little scuffle with Frank Miller and very foolishly used his fists on him. He was very promptly ruled off by Referee Senkler, who has determined to make the national game in British Columbia as free as possible from roughness. W. Quann, and had to retire.

For Vancouver, Frank Miller, at point, played a star game, and time and time again saved his goal. His brother Walter, the Quann brothers, Dave Smith, Williams and Kenn. Campbell race of the day. The pace was set by also played well. Suckling worked hard, but he is too slow to play with the younger hands. Victoria had a splendidly balanced team. Coldwell played goal as of old and worked hard behind the flags. Belfry was a host in himself and the way he picked a ball out of a scrimmage surprised all. They were well supportsmashing of records, but even in the ed by Clarke and Snider. Stewart or, although at times he picked up and played well. Tite, Finlayson and R. Campbell, were all over the field and played lacrosse from start to finish. In Bland, Schnoter and C. Cullin, Victoria has a good home combination.

Vancouver scored the first game in 38 1-2 minutes after a hard fought, but rather ragged battle. This seemed to do the home team some good, for as soon as time was called they got down to work, and in 51-2 minutes had tied the score. Another minute and they scored again, and five minutes later the score was 3 to 1 in favor of victoria. Then the Capitals fell to pieces agair tie. Time was up and it was therefore decided to play until one side scored one. Both teams set to work and after continual assaults on Vancouver's goal the Capitals finally got the ball through winning the match.

Summary-1, Vancouver, Williams 881/2 minutes: 2. Victoria, Bland, 51/4 Vancouver, K. Campbell, 5 minutes: Victoria, Bland, 8 minutes.

Yesterday a new dress for Sundays, and it only Fanning went in the box and lost the game in the first inning, he being unable to get into his last year's form Darby replaced him, and although he held Seattle down to four runs, was unable to save the game. Count Campau did some great batting, one of his flies striking near the top of the fence at the far end of the grounds. This is the record hit for the Caledonia Park. The score yesterday was Seattle 8, Victoria 5. To-day the home team turned the tables on the visitors and gave them an awful drubbing. Hughes pitched until the middle of the third inning, when hurting his hand, he was replaced by Babbitt. The latter pitched like a vetran, and won thunderous applause when twice in succession, he struck out Campau, the hardest hitter in the league. The first few innings were marked by errors on both sides, due to the wetness of the grass, which made it impossible to play good ball.

Victoria went to the bat first and scored three runs, making glad the hearts of the crowd. Patton got to first on balls, and as usual, did some base stealing to get to third. He came home on Pequigney's hit. Klopf went to first on balls. Both Whaling and downs hit the ball, but couldn't reach first. Babbitt brought in Kloff, Pequigney having previously got in on an error. Gates went out on a fly. Seattle was shut out although Egan got to third and Campau to second.

Eight runs were scored by Victoria in the second. Hughes, who had beer doing some great batting, hit the ball hard and Patton also got to first. Then Pequigney hit the ball. Frary made a fumble and Hughes and Patton came home. Klopf brought in Pequiquey and was safe on first by Campau's error. Downs brought in Klopf, and was in turn brought in by Whaling. The latter came in on Babbitt's sacrifice, and Hughes and Gates after hitting the children. ball, scored on Kossuch's sacrifice. Seattle made four in the second, six in Revelstoke, May 24.-For the first time since he has represented Yale-Cariboo, J. A. Mara faced the electors of Kootenay at Revelstoke Saturday night, and it is safe to say that the result was not gratifying to him. If there is one part of the constituency which has a grievance against Mara it is the Kootenay, and this fact was exemplified at the conclusion, when three hearty cheers were given fo: the Oueen, Laurier and Bostock.
