Foreign Guests.

World's Fair, August 1.-[Special.]-What sort of a showing does America make in this peaceful rivalry of the world's peo-ples? Can we of the United States hold. our heads high and speak with pride while passing through this show-place of notions? These are pertinent questions, now that we have in a series of ten letters carefully examined and impartially given opinions of the principal foreign displays. It DUNLAP COOKE & CO. a genuine pleasure to be able to answer need blush for his countrymen here. At the same time this is the place in which we may learn the important truth that we still have much to learn. In many things GENTLEMEN'S OUTFITTERS. we excel, in many more we are the equal of the best of our rivals, in a few only are we conspicuously weak; and in these this very exposition will be sure to inspire us o greater effort and more rapid advance-

> One of the peculiarities of this exposition, viewed from the international standpoint, is that whoever studies it critically is sure to be overcome by appreciation of ort of labor comes to this country, per aps, busit will not work here at those vages. Hence the production of such excellence wherever he goes among the oreign exhibits. Thus in the French section one thinks no other people can rival the French; in Britain's exhibit the thought is that here perfection has been attained; in Germany, Russia, Austria, Italy, it is the same. While in any or all of these displays the American is likely to be harassed by a feeling that his countrymen are outclassed, that they are so in-ferior as not to be in the race at all. Consequently many people do not visit the American section of the Manufactures underical section of the Manuactures utiliding. They not only have more curisity as to foreign exhibits, which is natral, but they are troubled by a lack of onfidence in the efforts of Americans and y an unwillingness to behold what they are is our national humiliation, which are and of mesh which characterize another piece that was made by hand, then I deny place and their admirers.

Our conspicuous fault, viewed from our own standpoint, is lack of national style.
Our artists, being educated abroad, acquire the habit and the treatment of the school in which they study. Moreover, their subjects are too often foreign. But these are weaknesses which only time can remedy. The day is coming when American remedy. The day is coming when American artists will put on canvas, in martle or Ironze, distinctively American character, scenes and incidents. Our broad country, with its wealth of human and animal life, its glorious scenery, its spirited history, will yet be the scene of operations for an American school of artists that will be the light with the two or three for an American school of artists that will rank side by side with the two or three best schools of Europe. That day will come very soon. Art is long, but Americans move rapidly in art as in everything else. To one who wanders through the American galleries here, notes the magnificent canves and sculptures, it is difficult to realize that about all the art we have has had its growth during the last twenty vers.

It is gratifying to note that in one important field of art, that of illustration of books and magazines, America is already in the lead. This is admitted. Here an the lead. This is admitted. And for once are not the imitators. Our artists struck out in new fields, created a distinctively American school, and gave us a foretaste of what will come in oil and water colors, in what will come in cit and water colors, in marble and bronze, when the workers in these lines escape from their foreign environments and return home to endeavor in the native field. In visiting the Fine Arts palace do not fail to see the black and whites—pen and ink and other dawing—done in this country. Compare the with the works of foreigners, and see Farn not telling the truth.

that the latter is a higher art than the former. In fact, it is not as high art, for the simple reason that the aim of indus-trial art is not alone excellence, but cheapish to make a statement which is bold ad broad, and which will be sure to intecontradiction and even ridicule, but The arts of civilization might be arranged in the form anged in the form of a pyramid, with ag-iculture, mining, fisheries, transporta-ion, metal and wood-working, textiles, froming the great solid sections of the base somewhat in the order named. Nearer the apex will be ceranics, orna-mental fabrics, tapestries, lnces, millinery, jewelry, and the countless articles of cone production of those things which ak a high state of civilization. pport of this declaration I shall not attempt to discuss in detail the whole range of American exhibits in this exposiattempt to discuss in detail the whole range of American exhibits in this exposition, contining myself more particularly in this letter to the exhibits made in the fine arts gallery and in the Manufactural building, which is the department of arguing darts, and leaving to another letter some consideration of the region in which this country admittedly excels—agricially sity.

The such a pyramid as this to represent the world's achievements in the art and industries, and you will find any other nation in the whole lower three sand agriculture, which are the earlight industrial efforts of all peoples, nor eliminetals and wood, which stand next, the structure and wood, which stand next, the structure and wood, which stand next, the structure is reserved with come.

When you come to walk through Manufactures building day after day, noting and comparing, you will see, as I have seen, that the glory of the United States consists of its ability to place within the reach of the masses of its people an infinitely greater variety of articles of comfort, luvury, convenience, education and pleasure than any other nation has ever been able to place within the reach of its constituent nombation. Add to this production on an very particle of labor that could be saved.

which I speak.
This exposition shows us that while we may not paint the finest pictures or chisel the greatest statues, while we may not have American sculptures which take as high place as any, Our average is a trifle lower, so say the crities, but not much lower. Besides, no other people in the world are making such strides as this in the realm of the higher arts. In Paris alone there are 3,000 Americans studying arts. In Germany, Holland, Italy and Austria there must be 2,000 more. In foreign salons our representatives have their place and their admirers.

Our conspicuous fault, viewed from our class superiority; and it is in this kind of gence, which the great body of our popula-tion is able to enjoy. This is civilization, no class superiority; and its in this kind of civilization that America finds its glory and pride,

In another letter I hope to instance more carticularly some of the lines through which we reach this proud condition.

A CLOSE CALL :-- Mrs. Peter Gallagher, Buctouche, had a narrow escape from death by poisoning last Friday evening. She went to a shelf to get a small bottle containing a remedy for cramps, but inadverently took a bottle of same size containing a poisonous liniment for external use only. She discovered her error after swallowing a spoonful, and lost no time in sending for a physician. Dr. King, who lives near by, vas home at the time, and he succeeded, after considerable work, in placing her out

O THO OF THE O O TANDO 040 HEART FAILURE, FAINTNESS, ACUTE DYSPEPSIA,

Complete Nervous Prostration, Cured by Using HAWKER'S NERVE & STOMACH TONIC. A LADY'S EXPERIENCE. W. S. LOGGIE.

Mr. Wm. Thompson of Musquash, N. B., says.

"For 2 years past my wife has suffered with Acute Dyspeysia accompanied with complete nervous prostration and a smothering sensation about the heart which frequently produced an attack of faintness. She became weak and nervous, lost all energy, and had a constant feeling of dread. She suffered with intense pain in the stomach after eating, which was usually followed by the smothering sensation about the heart and fainting spells. She tried a great many remedies and was treated by the doctors for some time, but obtained no relief. She became so discouraged that she gave up all hope of ever getting better, when our packers suggested that she try HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC and LIVER PILLS. which had produced remarkable cures in several cases he knew of. We did so and she obtained immediate relief from the distress after taking the second dose, and has continued to improve ever since until today she is as will as ever, and can enjoy her food without fear of suffering. I cannot speak too highly of these valuable medicines which have restored my wife to health and strength and saved much suffering and expense."

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

Stomach Liver Cure The Most Astonishing Medical Discovery of the Last One Hundred Years.

It is Pleasant to the Taste as the Sweetest Nectar. It is Safe and Harmless as the Purest Milk. This wonderful Nervine Tonic has only recently been introduced into this country by the proprietors and manufacturers of the Great South American Nervine Tonic, and yet its great value as a curative agent has long been known by a few of the most learned physicians, who have not brought its merits and value to the knowledge of the This medicine has completely solved the problem of the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, and diseases of the general nervous system. It is also of the greatest value in the cure of all forms of failing health from whatever cause. It performs this by the great nervine tonic qualities which it possesses, and by its great curative powers upon the digestive organs, the stomach, the liver and the bowels. No remedy compares with this wonderfully valuable Nervine Tonic as a builder and strengthener of the life forces of the human body, and as a great renewer of a broken-down constitution. It is also of more real permanent value in the treatment and cure of diseases of the lungs than any consumption remedy ever used on this continent. It is a proposed on the lungs than any consumption remedy ever used on this continent. It is a marvelous cure for nervousness of females of all ages. Ladies who are approaching the critical period known as change in life, should not fail to use this great Nervine Tonic, almost constantly, for the space of two or three years. It will carry them safely over the danger. This great strengthener and curative is of inestimable value to the aged and infirm, because its great energizing properties will give them a new hold on life. It will add ten or fifteen years to the lives of many of those who will use a half dozen bottles of the remedy each year.

IT IS A GREAT REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF Debility of Old Age Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Female Weakness. Weight and Tenderness in Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Nervous Chills, Paralysis, Frightful Dreams, Nervous Paroxysms and Dizziness and Ringing in the Ears, Nervous Choking, Weakness of Extremities and Hot Flashes, Palpitation of the Heart.

Pains in the Back. Delicate and Scrofulous Children,

All these and many other complaints of Nervine Tonic. a cured by this wonderful VERVOUS DISEASES. As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nervine Tonic, which is very pleasant and harmless in all its effects upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine-tenths of all the ailments to which the human delicate individual. Nine-tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow, and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied; and a thousand weaknesses and ailments, disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition. Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the perves the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the nerves. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This South American Nervine has been found by analysis to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its universal adaptability to the cure of all forms of nervous de-Crawfordsville, Ind., Aug. 20, '86.

To the Great South American Medicine Co.:

Dear Gents:—I desire to say to you that have suffered for many genrs with a very serious disease of the atomach and nerves. I tried every medicine I could hear of, but nothing done me any appreciable good until I was advised to try your Great South American Nervine Tonic and Stomach and Liver Cure, and since using several bottles of it I must say that I am surprised at its wonderful powers to cure the stomach and general nervous system. If everyone knew the value of this remedy as I do you would not be able to supply the demand.
