Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Convoyed by United States battleships Minnesotta and Vermont, the interned German cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm arrived at Philadelphia tonight from Norfolk. A convoy of 12 warships escorted the interned cruiser up the coast, because it was necessary to go outside the three-mile limit.

The 74 officers and men of the cruiser will be kept in close confinement at the navy yards.

GERMAN WORKS HAMMERED BY BELGIAN GUNS

Furious Artillery Duel Raging Around Dixmude — Bad Weather Holding up Italian Drive.

Rome, Sept. 30.—Along the whole front only small actions occurred, and even these were hampered by bad weather," says today's official announcement. "Our batteries continued to keep the summit of Monte Cimone under a curtain of fire, and dispersed columns on the Ala Magna road.

"The enemy's artillery was particularly active in the Gorizia area and on the Carso plateau."

Fierce Artillery Duel Around Dixmude.

Havre, Oct. 1.—The Belgian official weekly review says that the artillery duel has been renewed with the greatest violence during the past week, especially in the region of Dixmude and north of that place, where the Belgian guns of all calibres furiously engaged the German batteries. The Belgian fire, the review says, was particularly destructive in the district of Het Sas, where the German works were wrecked partly. Farther south, in the direction of Boesinghe, there have been constant and violent duels with trench guns and field guns, all of which have been in favor of the Belgians.

EAUCOURT L'ABBAYE TAKEN IN NEW BRITISH THRUST; RUSSIAN STEAM ROLLER ON MOVE AGAIN

"Tanks" Play Big Part in British Advance of 3,000 Yards from East of Eaucourt L'Abbaye to Bapaume-Peronne Road — Prisoners Taken Since July Number Nearly 27,000.

French Push Their Line Forward Near Morval and Clerly in Hand to Hand Fighting.

London, Oct. 2.—British troops in the centre along the Somme line have made an advance on a three thousand yard front from the east of Eaucourt L'Abbaye to the Albert-Bapaume road, according to the official statement from headquarters, issued at midnight. Eaucourt L'Abbaye itself is reported to be in the hands of the British. The operations were aided by the armored "tanks."

The text reads:

"Sunday afternoon south of the Ancre our center attacked and captured the whole of its objective on a front of 3,000 yards from a point east of Eaucourt L'Abbaye to the Albert-Bapaume road, northeast of the Destrument Farm. The village of Eaucourt L'Abbaye is reported to be in our hands.

"Farther east we pushed our outposts well behind the original front line. More than 300 prisoners have already been taken, and our casualties up to the present are small.

"In the action the new armored cars have done valuable work in clearing the enemy trenches behind the infantry advance.

"The village of Transloy (north of Morval) was effectively bombarded by our artillery, and an ammunition dump blown up.

Nearly 27,000 Prisoners Since July.

"On Saturday two aeroplanes were successfully captured by our aeroplanes and at least one machine was destroyed. In the fighting over this front four enemy machines were brought down. One of our machines is missing.

"Enemy troops and transports were repeatedly attacked from the air with machine guns, and in one instance several hundred infantry were dispersed.

"Since Sept. 18 we have taken, between the Ancre and the Somme, twenty-four field guns, three field howitzers and three heavy howitzers.

"From July to Sept. 30, in the same area, we made prisoner 588 officers and 26,147 other ranks."

Success in Macedonia.

London, Oct. 1.—A British official communication issued this evening, dealing with the fighting in Macedonia, says:

"Dobruja front: Our artillery has been active.

"On the Struma front, below the Orjak, our troops took possession of a portion of the Bulgarian lines.

"After stubborn fighting and heavy artillery preparation our gains were extended during the evening. Six counterattacks were successfully broken up during the day. A hundred prisoners already have been passed back.

"The fighting continues."

Pounding German Line.

London, Oct. 1.—The British official statement on the campaign in France issued tonight reads:

"On the battle front south of the Ancre there is no change in the general situation. Heavy shelling continued during the day, especially at the Destrument Farm and around the Thiepval and Zollern redoubts.

"Our lines were slightly advanced south of Eaucourt L'Abbaye. In the Thiepval area we took prisoners three officers and 164 other ranks.

"On Thursday two enemy aeroplanes were brought down, in addition to the one mentioned in last night's report."

French Push Forward Near Morval and Clerly.

Paris, Oct. 1.—In fighting at close quarters on the Somme front last night the French pushed forward

AUSTRALIA'S WAR LOANS TO DATE REACH TOTAL OF $278,562,369

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Australia has raised in war loans $278,562,369 up to August 17, when the report upon the subject was mailed to the government from Melbourne. This is regarded here as a magnificent success for a country like Australia. Canada has raised slightly over $300,000,000, although this includes the subscriptions of the Canadian banks.

Australia has issued three war loans, the bonds being from $50 up to the first loan closed on August 31, 1915, the second on January 31 last, and the third September 1. The first realized over $65,000,000, the second over $108,000,000 and the third over $111,000,000 up to August 17.

Czar's Armies in Galicia Launch New Drive With Lemburg as Objective — Berlin Admits Russian Gains

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—The Russian drive at Lemburg was renewed yesterday, after a period of comparative inactivity the Russians inaugurated strong offensive movements north and south of the Galician capital. According to today's war office report material successes have been won. It is said the Austro-German positions were penetrated, and that more than 4,000 prisoners were taken. The Tenthon forces are offering bitter resistance.

The announcement follows:

"In the region south of Rigva a German aeroplane, hit by our artillery, fell into the enemy lines.

"In the neighborhood of Brody, Krasne railway line (Krasne is thirty miles northwest of Lemburg) and to the south thereof fighting is taking place, our troops forcing their way forward. The enemy is offering stubborn resistance. We captured fifty-nine officers and 1,928 men.

"Fighting is proceeding in our favor south of Brestany (fifty miles south-east of Lemburg). On the River Tventurka, and in the region of the heights on the right bank of the Zlota Lipa. Here we captured part of the enemy position by assault, taking, during this operation, 112 officers and 2,268 men. We also captured several machine guns. Enemy counterattacks during the night were frustrated by our fire."

Berlin Admits Russian Advance.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—The Russians have assumed the offensive at many points and have made an advance in Galicia, southeast of Lemburg, it was announced officially today.

REPORT SAYS THE BREMEN CAUGHT BY BRITISH STEEL NETS

Washington Hears German Submarine Freighter is Captive at Rosyth, British Naval Station—More than 70 Under-seas Boats Trapped by Nets.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Another report of the capture of the German merchant submarine Bremen reached official circles here today from unofficial but usually reliable sources. According to this account, which is given credence by some high military officers, the Bremen was seen three weeks ago at the big British naval station at Rosyth, on the east coast of Scotland, having been captured in one of the steel nets recently used with such success by Great Britain against under-water craft.

More than seventy submarines are said to have been taken or destroyed by the nets.

In spite of persistent reports of the Bremen's capture, her agents in this country apparently still are confident that she is safe on the high seas, and will appear at New London, Conn., in due time.

ROUMANIANS ESCAPE FROM ENEMY TRAP

Attacked on all Sides Fight their Way from Hermannstadt Southward to Position of Safety.

Bucharest, Sept. 30.—The great retreat of the Roumanians from the Hermannstadt district is admitted in the official communication from headquarters. The Roumanians were attacked on all sides at Sibiu, otherwise known as Hermannstadt, the statement says, and retreated southward, after fighting their way through enemy forces attacking from the south.

The text of the statement follows:

"Fighting is general on the north and northwestern front, where we took six hundred prisoners.

"Our troops at Sibiu (Hermannstadt), attacked on all sides by superior enemy forces, after a battle lasting three days, re-established their communication to the south, repelling the enemy who was attacking from that direction. Our troops retired southward.

"On the southern front a weak enemy attempt to land at Covabla was immediately repulsed.

"In Dobruja there were no important artillery duels."

A Complete Victory.

Vienna, Oct. 1.—The victory gained over the Roumanians at the Hermannstadt region of Transylvania by General Von Falkenhayn's army was complete, and the Roumanian army was dispersed, the war office announced today. The Roumanian forces in the Fogaras region attacked, in an attempt to retrieve the situation, but were not able to make great headway, although they compelled the Austrians to retire on one section of the front. The following account of the operations was given out here today:

MAY BE ANOTHER MILK SHORTAGE.

It is just possible that St. John will have to face another milk shortage in a few days as the farmers are not satisfied with the outcome of the recent settlement with the dealers and a meeting of the Kings County producers has been called to meet at Sussex tonight. It is claimed by the farmers that the St. John dealers have not lived up to their promise to pay the 40 cents per can which they intend to have that price to their pound or stop sending it. It is said that some of the dealers paid the forty cents for two weeks and some not that long. It is understood that on Saturday a delegation of the farmers called on the Primecrest Farms to see if their offer of 40 cents for 75 per cent of the output still held good and received the information that it did.

GOES TO SALONIK.

Mrs. A. E. McGinley received word on Saturday that her sister, Miss Ethel F. Bradley, of Montreal, had sailed from Southampton on September 17 in charge of a selected party of 20 nurses for service at Saloniki. Miss Bradley, who was well known here, went across to England in March, 1915, as a nursing sister, and was attached to No. 1 Canadian General Dr. MacLaren's hospital at Etaples, France. She was there for over a year and the last few months of her stay she was in charge of the X-ray department. On the completion of the large special Canadian hospital at Ramsgate she was transferred to that institution and now again her work has been recognized in sending her to Saloniki with this detachment of nurses.

The awful crucible of war. Thousands of them have manifested this splendid spirit of self-sacrifice. They wear no Victoria Cross, but may we not believe that He who died on the Cross of Calvary to save them will give them a share of His death and resurrection and they shall wear a crown that fades not away? We cannot all die to save others, but we can all live to do so if Christ be our inspiration, our strength. Then when death comes perhaps angel hands will inscribe on our tombstone in letters invisible to human eyes the words 'He saved others.'

LOUIS H. CORTRIGHT LEAVES FOR SOUTH

Well Known Advertising Man Accepts Important Position with Alabama Newspaper.

Mr. Louis H. Cortright, for some years advertising manager for Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd., left on Saturday evening for Birmingham, Alabama, where he will assume the management of the service department of the advertising section of the Birmingham Daily News. The town in which Mr. Cortright will make his new home has a population of about one hundred and thirty thousand, and the News has a circulation of some forty thousand, so that the field to which he goes will afford somewhat larger opportunities than in St. John. Mr. Cortright has been in the advertising business for many years. He came to this city from Auburn, New York, where he was engaged in the advertising business on his own account. Previous to that he was with the Syracuse, New York, Herald, and before that was advertising manager on the Newport News at Newport, Virginia. He came to St. John in 1905 as advertising manager of The Telegraph, and remained with that paper for some four years, transferring to The Sun with which company he remained for one year until The Sun was sold. On the amalgamation of The Sun and Telegraph, Mr. Cortright joined M. R. A.'s staff as advertising manager, and has been there ever since. His work has been very favorably regarded by those in touch with advertising, and he has been looked upon as one of the ablest men in his particular line in this part of the country. Mrs. Cortright and family will remain in St. John for about a month, going South as soon as they get their household affairs arranged.

On the King's Business.

To Automobile Owners in St. John, N. B.: Gentlemen.—We need ten cars and drivers to carry the recruiting officers to recruiting meetings to be held in the County of St. John during the next two evenings, one car each evening. Be good enough to telephone to the office of the underlined, Main 520. I am sure it is only necessary to mention this need for a ready response. Yours truly, L. P. D. TILLEY, Major, C. MOLLY RAISED ALMOST $4,000 AT BIG FETE

Military Molly's Fair which Closed Saturday Night was Pronounced Success—The Priz Winners.

Military Molly's big fair was brought to a close Saturday night and despite the bad weather was well attended, although it is estimated that at least another thousand people would have been there if the weather had been fine. The gross receipts for the three days were $3,859.86 and after all the bills are paid there will be a good sum left for the Patriotic Fund.

The members of the Rotary Club presented Miss Belle Tufts, who acted as Tipperary Mary at the Torryburn fair and Military Molly at the fair just closed, with a handsome pearl pendant necklace, as an appreciation of the splendid work she did for the fair, by the sale of fash she added to the fund very nearly $200.

The door prizes on Saturday were won by tickets numbered as follows: Afternoon, 1st, 2,941; 2nd, 2,668; 3rd, 2,786; evening, 1st, 3,963; 2nd, 3,313; 3rd, 3,368. All the unclaimed prizes will be placed in the window of the Mar-Millinery Co., Charlotte street, today, and the holders of the lucky tickets may obtain their prizes by calling there and presenting the ticket. The first prize on the door ticket was claimed for each of the nights but the 2nd and 3rd have not yet been claimed for any of the nights.

New York, Sept. 22.—The record of today's session on the stock exchange promises to form a part of the important history of that institution. It again assumed the huge proportions of 1,525,000 shares, making the fourteenth consecutive five-hour day in which operations have exceeded one million shares.

Trading differs from that of the two days immediately preceding, in that little irregularity was perceptible at any time. The movement was one of almost steady advances, although rails, which helped to buttress the market of the forenoon, sold off quite generally at the close. Prior to that time New York Central, Reading and Canadian Pacific had shown gains of two points each, with a point or more for Union Pacific, St. Paul, Coals and some of the minor roads.

Equipment, shipping shares, Petroleum, with Texas Company up seven points, helped to swell the enormous total. Unclassified shares of the more obscure variety augmented the number of different issues dealt in, these exceeding any session of the past three weeks. Realizing sales and short selling were almost continuous, but their effect, except in

THE 104TH ONE OF THE FINEST AT SHORNCLIFFE

COL. FOWLER'S BATTALION AMONG BEST OF THEM

"Never Saw a Better New Battalion than the 104th in all my Forty Years of Experience" is Gen. Alderson's Tribute to New Brunswick Regiment—Making an En- viable Record.

Shorncliffe, Sept. 20.—The 104th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force, under command of Lieut.-Col. George W. Fowler, M. P., of Sussex, left Canada on the 27th of June for service overseas, which to boys in the service may mean anywhere in the world.

The battalion arrived in a port in England early in July, 1916 all ranks, strong, and one of the finest lots of men who ever landed in England.

After a nine hour run the battalion arrived in Shorncliffe and proceeded to detain, which was speedily completed as the boys were all glad to get their feet on "terra firma" again, and were willing to go anywhere they were led by the C. O., as all the boys have a soft spot in their heart for the "good natured colonel" who has never refused a man of the battalion anything in reason.

After detrainment operations were completed, the boys put on their equipment and "fell in" outside the station to be marched to camp. It is about three-quarters of a mile from Shorncliffe Station to the camp, and as most of the boys were quite exhausted with their trip in the boat and the train, it was quite a proposition, but they threw themselves at the job in earnest and in a very short time the walk was finished, and they arrived at Caesar's Camp.

Among Old Friends. Needless to say the arrival of the 104th Battalion made some excitement in the camp, as there were the 4th Battalion, from Nova Scotia; the 5th from N. B.; the 6th from Nova Scotia; and the R. C. R. and P. P. C. L. I. Depot already in camp, and among them many of the boys who had come from the same districts as the boys of the 104th.

After the handshakes and "Glad-to-see-you-old-man" were passed around by chums and relatives in the different battalions, the boys set to work to make themselves at home in their new surroundings, and make their tents look like a little bit of home, which was no mean job, but in the course of a few days everything was in order and the 104th had the name of having the best lines in the camp, which was a great credit to them, indeed, as the other battalions in camp had been there for a few days getting things straightened out before Colonel Fowler's boys arrived.

A week after arrival the boys settled down and began good hard training, and have been making records everywhere they go, and are still "going strong," and when they get to the firing line they will still continue the good work, which has now become a habit to them, and they are sure to make a name for themselves wherever they go.

For instance, out of some two hundred men who went to the ranges for firing practice for the first time, there were about twenty marksmen, which is indeed a record as, when a man arrives in England from Canada he is considered a recruit, no matter how much hard training he has had in Canada, and during the time that this "crack" battalion was undergoing training in Camp Sussex they did not lose much time in getting down to good hard work.

Inspected by Lieut.-Col. F. B. Black. The battalion had the first inspection since its arrival in England by Lieut. Col. F. B. Black, O. C., 5th Canadian Training Brigade, of Sackville, N.S., shortly after its arrival at Camp Sussex, and made a very fine appearance, with which the Brigadier was very much pleased.

The next inspection was by Colonel Burritt, the second in command of this division, a short while after, and he expressed himself, both to the C. O. and the men, as being particularly pleased with the way that they carried out their manoeuvres, and with their appearance on parade.

GIBSON MAN LOSES HIS FINE HOUSE BY FIRE

Residence of Richard Howard Destroyed Yesterday — Good Work of Firemen Saved Buildings nearby.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Oct. 1.—Fire destroyed the residence of Richard Howard at Gibson this morning. A heavy wind was blowing at the time of the fire and several buildings nearby were narrowly saved from being burned. The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Howard. The building is a total loss, while practically none of the furniture was saved from the building. Only the excellent work of the fire department prevented the blaze from spreading as there was a high wind blowing at the time.

RALLY DAY OBSERVED IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Interesting Proceedings in Some of City Schools Yesterday.

Yesterday was "rally day" in some of the city Sunday schools. In St. David's and St. Stephen's Presbyterian schools the programme approved by the assembly of the board of Sunday schools, Toronto, was followed, the theme of the proceedings being "Doing My Bit." Offerings were taken to assist Sunday schools in the poorer and more remote districts in Canada. In St. David's, Rev. J. H. MacKellan addressed the children, pointing out the need for each one to take his or her part in doing what is possible in righteous causes, especially during the present time of warfare.

The address in St. Stephen's school was given by Corporal A. P. Hodges. He explained the motives that had actuated him in enlisting, notwithstanding his status as a minister of religion, and pointed out the necessity for each one to do his bit in whatever way circumstances might demand. H. O. Bonk sang a solo.

There was a special rally of the Sunday school connected with Queen Square Methodist church when appropriate addresses were given, there being a good attendance of the children and teachers. A general rally was held in German street Baptist church, large gatherings being present both in the church and Sunday school. There was special music during the day. The morning subject was "Launching Out," and the evening subject "The Ministry of Little Things." Rev. S. S. Poole being the speaker.

NEW YORK HEADQUARTERS OF BELGIAN RELIEF COMMISSION Deny That Belgian Relief Supplies Are Stolen or Interfered With By Germans.

Mr. Maurice Goor, Belgian consul general at Ottawa, has received a wire from the American Belgian relief headquarters in New York as follows: "Report that our supplies are not true, our system of distribution being so thoroughly organized and our inspection service so effective as to insure control up to the point of actual issue to the people in the same of small rations. Beyond this point there is of course the chance that an individual may part with rations for a consideration but you will agree that this is so extremely remote in the circumstances as to be a negligible factor or probably of less significance than the inevitable petty leakages in ordinary commercial affairs."

A WORLD'S RECORD. Great Barrington, Sept. 28.—The world's mile pacing record for a horse driven by a woman was broken at the Great Barrington Fair this afternoon when Miss M. C. Flynn of Washington, driving her horse "Rag Time," which won the first heat in the 2.25 class in 2.20 1/2. The previous record was 2.20 1/2.

Miss Flynn is the first woman to ever appear on the local track. She is an experienced horsewoman and acts as her own trainer. Driving the same horse she won the 2.30 pace yesterday in three straight heats.

Health Hints. Liquid vaseline may be employed on the scalp or tonic containing oil and other stimulating ingredients. For this purpose use a drop stopper and apply directly to the scalp, not to the hair. In this way the skin quickly absorbs the moisture leaving the hair free.

Edith Cavell Home. A campaign is being conducted in Toronto to raise funds to build a nurses' home at the Western Hospital, as a permanent memorial to Nurse Edith Cavell. The idea of this nurses' home has been approved by the mother of the heroine.

LIEUT. CATHELS WRITES FROM HEART OF EGYPTIAN DESERT

Lieut. Cathels, who is with the Egyptian expeditionary force, has rejoined his regiment on the desert, after a month in hospital, and his many friends in St. John will be pleased to learn that he reports he is now in the very best of health, and as eager as ever to do his bit for king and country.

In a letter dated August 18th, "somewhere on the deserts," Lieut. Cathels writes to a friend on The Standard as follows: "When, after my sojourn with the flash-pots of Egypt, I turned my face to the desert again, it would have been more truthful to say that I was satisfied to return rather than glad to be going back to what has never at any time been a picnic. That feeling of satisfaction—for want of better words—must be a common enough one in these days of right. It is a satisfaction quite distinct from the feeling that follows the contemplation of work well done. It is the direct result of the knowledge that, as far as in one lies, one is in the line of duty, helping to bear the burden, simply doing one's bit. But now that I am actually here again I am glad indeed, glad and proud to be thankful to be back again with the men I love, and the battalion of which I am so proud. It is good to be back; this is no time for ease or rest, nor is it possible to enjoy such things. If the war has taught anything it should have impressed this upon us: That our own comfort and pleasure is the poorest goal a man can strive for, that progress is more than a bigger house or a fuller purse.

"My great regret is that I missed the battle, that my men have had a hard experience and I was not there to share it with them; that a fine victory has been won, and I had no part in it. But I can gratefully realize that a power of good the change and rest has done me. I am a new creature, renewed in strength, keen and alive again, quite a different person from the weary wretch who was carried away less than a month ago.

"I am grateful, too, for the great experience. I had the chance to see under most favorable conditions places and scenes I had never dreamed of sights in the world that are usually reserved for a favored few. Nor could one fail to be thankful for all the tenderness and kindness I met with, for the wonderful ministry of the Red Cross, whose happy lot it is to take up broken and shattered men and mend and heal and remake them men again. It was good to come back were it only for the hearty welcome I received, and for the comforting knowledge that my men were glad to see me again.

"I had been very anxious about the battalion, for I knew they had been in the thick of the three days' fight, but could get no news as to how they fared. It was a great relief to find that their losses were amazingly light. They played a big part in the battle and were specially congratulated for it by the G. O. C., and needless to say, they were greatly bucked by the king's telegram—Bless him.

A Record of Courage. "If I were allowed to tell you what they did it would be a record of splendid courage in three days' defense against a determined foe, and of extreme hardship endured as though it were the commonest part of the day's work. That dearly remembered company who, having joined the mightier army, sleep where they fell in far Gallipoli, have no reason to be ashamed of those who fill their places and follow their lead.

"It was a very complete and decisive victory, amply justifying the long prepared tactics of the staff. Everything happened just as we had planned and hoped. One can see all around the aftermath of battle; the face of the desert is disfigured with ugly shell holes; the verdant palm groves are mown down; there are the inevitable little crosses that mark the resting places of our dear and glorious dead. These may adorn for a season the calm changeless visage of the desert, but she, herself, remains impassive and unimpressed; the petty squabbles of men, the shout of battle, the groans in death, did she not tire of them ten thousand years ago?

"To you it must seem a small affair this little victory of ours, to be crowded into half a column of newspaper and forgotten in a day. The first shout of battle has swollen now to such a roar of conflict, deafening all the world, a crashing, jarring, maddening agony of sound; but through it breaks, ever clearer and increasingly, the melody of victory that will swell and mount till it drowns the discord and fills the world with glorious music of the songs of peace.

"I had a long and interesting journey back here, one that, except that in a crowded traffic the wheel of my wagon broke, and horse, wagon, and I overturned and bit the dust. The wagon was the only sufferer, but I had some difficulty getting another means of transport.

A Desert Concert. "We had another concert in the moonlight last night, and, as I stood up before the ghostly company to spin some yarns, it came over me just how very dear these comrades had become to me, how strong were the ties that bound us, how much this great adventure has filled, lightened and colored my life.

"Soon your maples will be glorious with the ruddy gold of autumn and the cool frosted breath of winter will breathe upon your land. Here we roast in a perpetual fiery furnace, undisturbed, at least, by meteorological eccentricities.

"LIEUT. CATHELS."

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Kellogg's TOASTED CORN FLAKES

WATCH your alert, keen-eyed, clear-headed business man at breakfast. You never see him eating heavy, soggy foods that clog the body and slow up the mental processes. No, as a rule, he selects some appetizing, easily digested cereal such as Kellogg's, for he knows that these thin, crisp, toasted corn flakes supply all the nourishment that the ordinary body needs without dissipating his energy in digesting and absorbing them.

Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes go well with fresh or cooked fruits in place of the usual milk or cream.

These resolutions will go into effect on Tuesday, October 3.

MR. WM. MCINTOSH ADDRESSES TEACHERS OF NORTHUMBERLAND

His Remarks on Insects as Disease Carriers Heard with Interest by Convention.

Newcastle, Sept. 29.—The total enrollment at the Teachers' Institute was 112. Yesterday afternoon was most profitably taken up by addresses on nature study and school gardens, by Director R. P. Steeves; and on insects by Wm. McIntosh of St. John. Mr. McIntosh showed how fleas carried bubonic plague from rats to men; how the mosquito carries malaria; the louse, typhus; the common house fly, typhoid, etc. These insects had caused the downfall of nations and turned the course of history. People were so slow to learn and so slow to forget.

Habana could not become a winter resort nor the Panama canal built until the mosquito that carries yellow fever was exterminated. In the evening there was a public meeting. Mayor Fish presided and gave the address of welcome. He hoped that the institute would speed school trustees of towns be elected. They might then show more interest in their office.

Mr. MacIntosh gave a superb lecture on The Manners and Customs of the Indians of New Brunswick, profusely illustrated. Very profitable addresses by Inspector MacFarlane and Dr. Carter closed the meeting, the National Anthem being sung before dispersal. This morning two excellent papers were read, School Sanitation by Dr. D. R. Moore, and Household Science in the Home Schools by Miss Vera Wilson, the efficient instructor in that subject in Chatham.

THE "INHUMAN" TANKS.

The Germans have protested the use of the tanks by the British army on the western front. They base their protest on the ground that "the use of these new engines of war is contrary to recognized methods of warfare." Truly, Berlin is unconsciously humorous.

The Germans did not scruple to use their Zeppelins in their attacks on the defenseless cities and towns of Britain. They did not hesitate to make use of their submarines to sink unarmed and non-combatant steamers or to send to watery graves hundreds of innocent men, women and children. They were quite willing to employ poisonous gas against the British and French troops and to strangle and ruin hundreds of soldiers by that inhuman method of warfare. Such practices, of course, were quite legitimate because Germany employed them.

In the present case the Germans have strongly defended trenches with emplacements where a couple of men armed with machine guns can take the lives of hundreds of British infantry, and commit their slaughter in comparative security. The advantage of the German machine gunners, hidden in their dugouts, has been overcome by the "heavy, lumbering tanks" with their impenetrable sides, which can now move up to the machine gun squads and, with no loss of life to the attacking party, place them hors de combat. By their use the machine gun, upon which the Germans have so largely depended for their defense, is rendered ineffective.

When we come to a consideration of the humane side of the matter, the tanks merely place on the other foot the shoe the Germans have worn for months. German soldiers who, without serious opposition, would now take ten large lot of British lives now find they must pay and pay dearly for that privilege. But the fighting is fair, the tanks, unlike the Hun Zeppelins, do not war on women and children, those controlling their movements do not single out orphanages and hospitals as points of attack. Their offensive powers are employed against armed men equipped with the most murderous weapons of slaughter Germany can provide. Germany has done her utmost to lead the world in new and efficient methods of warfare. If it has come about that Britain can go her one better in this regard then Germany alone must suffer. The accounts of the achievements of the tanks indicate that their use will have a material effect on the shortening of the war. If this be so it may be found that, after all, Britain's newest invention represents the most humane method of war waging yet given to the world.

GREECE AND THE WAR.

Last night's despatches contained the information that the King of Greece would today decide on the advisability of entering the war on the side of the Entente Allies and would convey that decision to London, Petrograd, Paris and Rome. The King of Greece has lost a great opportunity. No matter what he may say now he will not succeed in overcoming the impression that his announcement contains nothing more than words and that the policy of the Greek people will be to engage with the Allies whether the wearer of the crown wills it or not. Already the Greek army in Crete is in rebellion and ready to assist the Allies whenever the call comes. Greek warships have steamed out from their anchorages and ranged themselves side by side with the Allied ships. And hundreds of Greek soldiers have made their way to Saloniki and there offered their services to the forces who are helping to defeat Germany. Believing that, no matter what action their ruler might take, their own course was abundantly justified. Thus it can be seen that Greece is already at war on the side of the Allies though her King has not definitely committed himself. Truly that monarch is in unhappy plight. No longer holding the confidence or affection of his people in which he has been supported by the popular and powerful Venizelos, he is faced with grim war on the one hand and destructive revolution on the other. And it is not to be expected that the assistance of Greece will be as warmly welcomed now as if it had been tendered six months ago. Then the result of the conflict was less definitely assured. Today it is but a matter of time. The Allies at present can do very well without the aid of the pro-German ruler of Athens, but can he do without them? In his case the justifiable wrath of his own people is more to be feared than the power of the Germans. Greece has lost her opportunity. Nothing she can do now will totally requite for her former blunders.

RUSSIA IN THE WAR.

That Russia was a giant into whose hands the equipment of war must be placed if he were to prove an effective ally, has been the accepted notion of Russia in this war until quite recently. Even today, says an exchange, we labor under the impression that in some way Japan and the United States are the Russian motive power, in the furnishing of ammunition and guns and in the one case, that of Japan, the supply of brains in the shape of officers. All this is an injustice to Russia. The fact is that Russia is largely providing herself with munitions and guns; her own officers are leading her own men; her generals are the skilled strategists who direct her successful efforts against the German foe; her social organizations and industrial institutions are giving her the necessary war military supplies.

Recent Petrograd and Moscow newspapers received in America afford a satisfactory insight into what has happened in Russia, and in an able article Mr. Isaac Don Levine tells of what has taken place. Two great social organizations, the one known as the Union of Municipalities and the other as the All-Russia Zemstvo Union, have stood behind the Government in a degree that reads like romance. They have organized the whole country until the raw material of the poorer classes has been drilled into intelligent assistance in the production of war materials. Thus one of the unions alone is providing the government for the forthcoming winter campaign 5,000,000 pairs of winter boots, 4,000,000 winter coats, 5,000,000 pairs of gloves and 10,000,000 pairs of socks.

The War Organization Committee is another semi-official organization that is a right-hand help to the government. This committee accomplished the industrial mobilization of Russia for war purposes, and it is said that this work was done in a most complete way. Members of the committee visited France, England and Italy, and applied what they saw there to the munition shops of their own country. In short, the war has inspired Russia with new life and national energy, and this spirit has come to the aid of the empire in its great struggle against German aggression. The Russian imports from the United States and Japan have no doubt been considerable, but the evidence appears complete that Russia has succeeded in doing for herself until she is virtually independent of her war imports and no longer suffers seriously under the disadvantage of the war front being far removed from her ports of entry.

WHERE ABUSE FAILED.

The Montreal Gazette of recent date had this to say concerning the result of the provincial by-election in Carleton:

"Mr. F. B. Carvell, M. P., took a prominent part on the Liberal side in the election of two members of the Legislature in Carleton, N. B. The majorities of the Conservative candidates were 570 and 494. Though the campaign was made on provincial issues, many federal parliamentarians took part in it, including Mr. Turriff, who journeyed all the way from Assiniboia to make his influence felt. Mr. Carvell, however, was recognized as the main dynamo of the opposition fight. Perhaps as he contemplates the outcome he will wonder if what he has been associating himself with lately is in the interest either of himself or his party. Men who are fair before they are partisans are many in Canada, and they do not care for a cause that depends much on the abuse of respected men."

The Gazette's suggestion to Mr. Carvell might well be taken into account by other members of the opposition party. Mr. Carver, for instance, may reasonably consider whether it was profitable to parade as one of the leading champions of the party a man who had been dismissed from public office for corrupt acts and whose word, according to the commissioner who investigated charges against him, was not to be credited under oath. Mr. Carver may also consider carefully and prayerfully whether he obtained paying returns from his affidavit ventures, while the Telegraph and Times and the other equally venomous opposition organs can reflect that they might have done better had they used a smaller quantity of vilification and a larger basis of truth in their newspaper campaign. The Carleton county by-election affords a very fair example of an occasion when abuse failed.

FIGHTING THE LIQUOR TRADE IN HONOLULU

Rev. Dr. John W. Wadman Tells of the Contest for Prohibition in the Hawaiian Islands.

After an absence of twenty-eight years from St. John Rev. John W. Wadman, D. D., of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, and general secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of these islands, arrived in the city on Saturday, and yesterday occupied the pulpits in two Methodist churches.

Before leaving St. John many years ago he was pastor of the Carleton Methodist church on Guilford street, and eloquent sermon to a large congregation in that church. Last evening the Rev. Dr. Wadman preached to a large congregation in Centenary church, and for nearly an hour kept his congregation interested. Reading from Proverbs 25: 25: "As good news from a far country," the preacher stated that he was not taking this verse so much as a text, but as a subject on which he wished to deliver to his hearers the good news from foreign lands. Tracing the history of the Hawaiian Islands, and principally Honolulu, the city in which he now makes his home, he told his hearers of the wonderful development of that country and its great advance in Christianity during the past hundred years. The natives of these islands a hundred years ago, though not cannibals, knew nothing of the Christian manners of living.

In the very early eighties, three young missionaries with their wives sailed from Boston in a 200 ton brig, rounded the Horn, and finally arrived on the shore of the island. After mastering the language of the natives, they set to work to preach the Gospel, and their efforts were crowned with success. As the years rolled by other missionaries arrived from different countries, with the result that thousands upon thousands of natives were baptized, and one of the first was the King of the Islands.

Young natives began to see the light and started out to till the soil and soon found out that abundance of sugar cane could be raised. This industry has grown from year to year, until now the islands have as a chief industry the growing of sugar and the business is an enormous one. Honolulu is now a thriving city, and being a stopping place for the large steamship traffic, a great deal of business is done.

In speaking of the liquor traffic in the islands, and especially in Honolulu, Dr. Wadman traced it from the early ages until the present time. Many years ago a ship was wrecked on the shore and among the articles brought on shore was some liquor. This was the first that the natives had partaken of. Later on men on whaling ships brought liquor. On one of these occasions the native king of the islands was given some of the liquor with the result that he became heavily drunk. So humiliated was he in disgracing himself before his people, that he caused the erection of a building for an important meeting. He called together the chiefs from the different islands, and commanded that they not allow liquor to be landed on

The islands. To show the importance of the council with the chiefs he had the building in which the meeting had been held, destroyed.

For many years this ruling of the native king was well kept. One day a French man-of-war anchored off the shores, her guns were trained up the streets, and the admiral going on shore demanded of the king that the latter allow the importation of liquor so that a business could be done in that trade. A message was sent by the king to the United States asking for assistance, with the result that the French government was appealed to, and they recalled the French admiral and his ship, and once more the islands were free from liquor on their shores.

It was not many years later when a British warship with Admiral Thomas in command arrived at the islands, and in the same manner as the French admiral a similar demand was made by him. The result worked out in the same manner, a message of assistance was sent to the United States, and a message was sent to the House of Commons in England, and immediately Admiral Thomas was instructed to desist in the demand on the native king. So happy were the natives over the ruling of England that now in Honolulu one of the principal parks or squares is named after English admiral, being called Thomas Square.

Since the United States assumed control matters in the liquor trade greatly changed on the islands, especially in Honolulu, and there were liquor parlors or squares in every town on that island well over one hundred years ago. Most of these have as liquor peddlers men from the United States who have as clerks serving the liquor Chinese or Japanese.

On the 13th of last January a conference was held and Dr. Wadman presided that he was delighted to preside to Washington to hear of the United States to pass a federal bill prohibiting the importation of liquor to the islands.

Dr. Wadman told his congregation of his three months' hard work with the United States congressmen and senators at Washington, in trying to get them pass the bill. Owing to such other urgent business the bill was not placed before the session this summer, but as there is a special sesson in December Dr. Wadman has been requested to remain in America until that time and endeavor to have the bill brought up for a reading at that time. At the close of both services yesterday Dr. Wadman renewed very many old acquaintances and met many new friends.

Dr. Wadman will remain in the city for a few days, and on Tuesday evening next will lecture in Carleton Methodist church under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

COMMISSIONER McLELLAN REPLIES TO CRITICISMS

Commissioner of Public Safety Writes Regarding His Recommendation of Frank P. Vaughan to Install Fire Alarm Service for West Side Docks and Sheds.

To the Editor of The Standard. Sir—The public is entitled to know why one out of many who are permitted to install electrical apparatus in this city was given the contract for the fire alarm service for the West Side docks and sheds.

the cabinet work at the central station. I do not know of any other who were concerned in the erection of the St. John fire alarm.

In conclusion I may say that I have no doubt that Mr. Piercy, Mr. Shannon and others who were connected with the department in 1903 are cognizant of many of the above facts.

Yours truly, CHARLES D. JONES, St. John, N. B., Sept. 30, 1916.

H. R. McLellan, Commissioner of Public Safety.

Dear Sir—Those concerned in the construction of the St. John fire alarm in 1903 were Mr. A. B. Wheeler, the New England agent of the Gamewell Company, who I know laid out the system, Mr. C. D. Jones, who acted as the representative of the Gamewell Company, Mr. Rogers, who set up the central station apparatus, who is now superintendent of the Manchester, N. H. fire alarm, and Mr. E. P. Leonard, superintendent at the time, who in the interest of the city directed the outside work of construction on which Mr. Webb was foreman.

C. W. PIERCY, Supt. From the above it would appear that Mr. Webb was foreman of the work that he installed the system.

This may be all the requirements at present called for in this city to be classed as an electrician, and if so, it is about time that the public is afforded some protection from electrical fires, and also the extra expense of new installation, when insurance engineers demand it or suffer the loss of insurance altogether, or the cost of increased rates.

The recent inspection by insurance engineers revealed the fact that one of the most prominent buildings in this city was wired in, to use their expression, "an abominable manner," and must be changed. Mr. Webb wired that building and Mr. Vaughan is now making the necessary changes to prevent an increase of rates or the removal of insurance.

MEN OF FIELD AMBULANCE HEARD ELOQUENT SERMON

Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison Preached on Significance of Word "Dominion", in Carleton Presbyterian Church Yesterday Morning.

The officers and men of the Field Ambulance Training Depot, under command of Major Corbett, paraded to the Frat Presbyterian church yesterday morning when the Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison preached a forceful and instructive sermon.

The members of the Field Ambulance presented a smart appearance, and as they filed into the church many complimentary remarks were passed by the congregation.

Dr. Morison began his text, "He shall have dominion," and said in part: "Our text contains one great word—a word that represents all that we are fighting for today; that word is Dominion."

"Let us think about that word—If I am not mistaken it is a word that has come to us from the greatest fighting race of antiquity. In its English form it very nearly corresponds to that Latin word of authority, of mastery, of power so familiar to the Roman soldiers and to the Roman citizens—I mean, of course, the word 'Dominus.' That Roman word imparting to them their own sense of authority, the Lord, 'the Master,' 'the Mighty Leader.'"

"For the establishment of his power the intrepid legions of ancient Rome hurled themselves against their national enemies. For the maintenance of his authority these Romans were not only trained and equipped soldiers but their best thinkers devised laws, wrought out a peerless constitution and crowned all their other efforts at the task of government by devising and introducing those measures of colonial control which have only been matched by the great Commonwealth of free nations under our flag."

"The word Dominion suggests the centre and substance of the message I bring you today. This word which long ages ago found its place in Holy writ, and which later was accorded a most honorable place among the Romans, has a place in the hearts of our own Canadian nomenclature and vocabulary."

"We call our country 'the Dominion' and rightly or wrongly some of us seem to feel that not only our name but also our dominant spirit—I mean the spirit of our laws and institutions—belongs to a very considerable part of the characteristic marks of our world-wide Empire."

"Britain is great—Britain was never so great as she is today—but wital Britain is not perfect, and Britain needs in her policies not a few of the principles which have proved their worth throughout our Dominion, which have demonstrated to all the world as apt an utility and efficiency in our domestic life as our Canadian soldiers have manifested on the battlefields of Europe."

"The word Dominion—I cannot get myself away from it this morning—I do not want to get away from it—none of us must ever get away from it. Soldiers of the king take it with you to the battlefield—fellow citizens take it with you to your homes and to your daily work. It is a conqueror's word—used by the greatest soldiers, governors and citizens of antiquity, it is a holy word. It is found in a Holy Book. We found it there this morning. It is starting me in the face as I talk to you. It is a great, big, prophetic, victorious word. Listen to it in its Scripture setting. It stands in the verse among the other words like a captain over his men—imparting to them tone and color and force and glory. Let me direct your attention to it. He shall have Dominion also from sea to sea and from the river into the ends of the earth."

"There is only one greater word in all the text than this word Dominion, and that is the word 'God'—and good only when it involves and represents the Spirit and laws and the love of God. I cannot speak the word Dominion without thinking of two things—the first is my country, and the second is my God."

"You have learned the why of the second—our text makes it all so plain. It is God that shall have Dominion over all the earth. What a word of hope to a world that today is torn and lacerated by the poisoned claw of the devil—and in effecting this splendid and earnestly longed-for consummation our country, Canada, must have a large and notable share. I cannot but here recall the manner in which our land got its name—the glorious, stainless name of the 'Dominion.'"

"The fathers of Confederation were assembled and the matter was under consideration as to what name should be given to these united provinces. What name could be worthy of their wide extent, their vast potential wealth, their sturdy citizens and their assured future destiny. It was at this moment that Sir Leonard Tilley stood up and testified that that morning in reading his daily portion of the Word of God he had been impressed with the text, 'He shall have Dominion from sea to sea and from the river into the ends of the earth.' Then he pointed to the noble river of Canada and to the mighty oceans that bounded its shores. The north pole also found its place in the inspired description. Surely such a land was

Canada. Surely the Lord had chosen the name, and these venerable fathers of our country listened to Sir Leonard's plea. His words were those of a prophet statesman to them, and so they were accepted, and the God-given name was conferred upon our land, and now after all these years it has been confirmed to her as she willingly submitted to the baptism of her maturity, wherein plunged deep in the blood of her valiant sons she has received from the Most High the pledge, by this sacramental rite, both of death and life—of death to the old and of life to the new that is to be. The old world is passing—the new world is almost come. In this war two opposite ideals of nationhood have come into conflict. The future of humanity has breathlessly awaited the issue. Over against the ideal of the super-state which is the ideal of the Prussian hegemony, by which every state which she fails to conquer must forever become an armed camp, we with our allies have dared to assert the principles of nationality, of freedom, of democracy, of a Christian commonwealth, of the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God—He shall have Dominion also from sea to sea and from the river into the ends of the earth. A great goal to fight for, a noble end to gain, a glorious victory to win, the liberty of humanity, the Dominion of God. Well may we all join with the inspired Psalmist in declaring, as we have it in the Latin version of the Psalm, 'Et dominabitur mari uno ad alterum, et a fumina quaque sunt fines terrae.'

DO YOU NEED A MATTRESS? If so, don't buy until you have seen the "Dixie No Tuft," the mattress which has revolutionized the bedding business. The absence of tufts does away with the hard spots which tufting inevitably produces, and with the depressions at every tuft which are gathering places for dust, dirt and germs. Our space is too limited to describe in detail why the Dixie has twenty-five per cent. more elasticity than the tufted type; why it presents a better appearance at first, and why it keeps that appearance after other mattresses have spread and sagged out of shape. But if you will write or phone us for a circular which fully describes all these points, or, better still, call and let us show you samples, we feel sure that you will agree with us that it is the BEST ON EARTH. YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs." No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look. Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours the constipated, poisonous, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

BREAK IN PRICES ON WALL ST. SATURDAY

Early Losses Recovered in Large Part, but Steel showed Less Recuperative Power than other Leaders.

New York, Sept. 30.—Traders endeavored, with indifferent success, to arrest the steady advance of prices during today's two-hour session, concentrating their efforts upon United States Steel, allied industrials and some of the copper and rails.

These various issues were forced down two to almost five points in the first hour, Steel receding three and three-quarters to 116 3/4, with a more severe break in Republic Steel, while Union Pacific lost two points, with one to 3 1/2 for leading metals.

There was substantial support at the lower levels, together with an inquiry of broad dimensions for the coal shares, Norfolk and Western making a new record at 137 1/2, Lehigh Valley rising to 85 1/2, its top quotation of recent years, and Illinois Central and Baltimore and Ohio moving forward appreciably. Early losses were recovered in large part, Steel, however, manifesting less recuperative power than other leaders. The tone at the close was slightly irregular. Total sales of 790,000 shares were again on the well established basis of a million or more shares for the full session.

Additional favorable statements of earnings were submitted by important railway systems, Chicago and Northwestern showing an increase of $1,900,000 in net for August, while the prosperity of the shipping trade was attested by the July statement of the Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies Steamship Co., which increased its earnings over the same month of last year by over 75 per cent.

The weekly bank statement throws some light upon recent market activities, the actual cash account disclosing a contraction of about $24,000,000, while reserves decreased by almost $25,000,000.

Trade advices lost none of their recent glowing character, one of the leading mercantile authorities reporting commodity prices at new high levels, with a wider distribution of general merchandise.

Today's bond market was firm on a fair turnover.

EAST-WEST CONTROVERSY.

In regard to the East-West controversy in the way of sporting supremacy, kindly look over these returns: Heavyweight champion — Willard, Kansas. Light Heavyweight — Dillon, Indiana. Featherweight — Kilbane, Ohio. Bantamweight Champion — Ertle, Minnesota. Swimming Champion — Langer, California. Open Golf Champion — Evans, Illinois. Amateur Golf Champion — Evans, Illinois. American League Batting Champion — Speaker, Texas. National League Batting Champion — Chase, California. American League Winning Pitcher — Johnson, Idaho. National League Winning Pitcher — Alexander, Nebraska.

Here in boxing, swimming, golf and baseball the West holds the champions, leaving the East the tennis championship only. Out of a dozen firsts, the West has eleven and the East one. If there is any longer any doubt as to which section provides most of the sporting title holders, the above count should about close the debate.

ANOTHER EXPOSITION AWARDS FOR G. T. R.

This is a tribute not only to the Grand Trunk but to Canadian architects who designed the building. The design was Spanish Renaissance in character, making a handsome and ornate structure which was situated in a prominent position at the northeast corner of the grounds at San Francisco.

The Grand Trunk was awarded a gold medal for its general exhibit which featured the natural riches of the Dominion.

ADVANCE IN STEEL COMMON RESUMED

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)

New York, Sept. 22.—The cessation in the upward movement in the market in the afternoon due to profit-taking sales was followed by a general resumption of the advance in Steel common. U. S. advanced to a new high level on this movement, as did Anaconda, I. K. C. R. U., and many other of the active issues, including Coppers. Strength in the Sugar stocks was also a feature of the day's market. The optimistic feeling in Steel and Copper circles is one of the reasons accounting for the steady advance, which, however, is in the last analysis explained by the awakening of public confidence which surpasses anything that Wall Street has yet experienced. It is this that causes stocks to advance steadily when the normal action according to the Wall Street viewpoint would be for good reactions to occur more or less regularly. The strength at the closing, which carried Steel up to 114 1/2, was a repetition of a more pronounced scale of the closing of the market in several of the recent active days.

Sales — Stocks, 1,525,800. Bonds, $4,875,000.

Customs Receipts Increase.

St. John's customs receipts, including stock market's fees for September were the largest so far this year. They amounted to $249,485.77, compared with $188,860.52 for the corresponding month last year.

NEW EXCHEQUER BONDS BEAR INTEREST AT 5 P. C.

Although Interest Rate Considered High London is Confident the Issue will Prove a Success.

Special to The Standard. London, Sept. 30.—The announcement of the government's plan to issue three-year exchequer bonds bearing interest at 5 per cent, was a complete surprise to the investing public in financial circles it is felt that the interest rate is high, but that the issue will certainly prove a success.

While the announcement of the new interest rate had a depressing effect on the investment market in general, it was recognized that for some time the sales of exchequer bonds bearing interest at 5 per cent, and redeemable in 1919, had been decreasing and it was only a question of time before the treasury would find it necessary to raise money in another way. Plans for a long time loan were discussed, but it was considered best to defer action so long as short time bills continue to meet the needs of the government.

The proposal to transfer gold to New York to meet the interest in the city of Paris loan if necessary, and the proviso that money should not be used for the purchase of shells and other ammunition is particularly interesting to international bankers. The limitation of the use of the funds to the amelioration of human suffering is looked upon as a new idea in banking.

Russia Wants Russian Bonds Buyers

Pay 5 1/2% interest and will Yield Heavy Profit on Principal. Read This About Russia's Development

A Chicago dispatch quotes Henry D. Baker, commercial attaché of the United States Government in Russia, assigned to Petrograd, as follows: "Since beginning of the war, Savings Bank deposits in Russia increased about 800 per cent, as result of abolition of vodka, which was used very largely among the peasant class, and development of greater efficiency from labor. Wages have come up and so has cost of living, but standard of living in Russia is steadily rising."

N. S. STEEL INTERESTS AFTER CONTROL OF IRON?

Presence in Toronto of N. Bruce MacKielve Lends New Color to Recent Rumors.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 30.—As the American interests in Nova Scotia Steel are represented on the Board by N. Bruce MacKielve of Hayden Stone & Company of Boston and New York, the presence of that gentleman in Toronto yesterday conferring with other directors of the company was regarded as fitting in to some extent with the theory that Scotia interests were the mysterious buyers of iron yesterday which sent that stock to the forefront of the trading and resulted in a record day. It was said that Sir Henry Pellatt, one of the directors of iron, and supposed to control a considerable block of the stock was also in conference with the Scotia people which would support the idea prevalent in the street that if Scotia interests wanted to control iron they could not expect to get control in the open market but would have to negotiate with large holdings privately.

LATE NEWS AND VIEWS FROM SPORTING WORLD

RED SOX CLINCH AMERICAN PENNANT BY DEFEATING N. Y.

One of Most Spectacular Races in League's History Ended with Boston at Top—National Race Still Undecided, Brooklyn and Philadelphia Running Neck and Neck.

New York, Oct. 1.—Boston, winner of the world's championship of 1915, is again the pennant winner in the American League. Although Chicago's defeat in their first game today brought a decision in the American, the pennant in the National League is not yet clinched, and it will take the concluding games of the season to decide the winners. Brooklyn, in first place, and Philadelphia, in second, appear to have the best mathematical chances of opposing Boston in the inter-league championship series. The latter team can lose all its remaining games without a chance of Chicago catching up.

Whether Brooklyn, Philadelphia or Boston win in the National, the classic of baseball will be played in the east, as it was last year, with Boston, as in the preceding two years, having one of the contending teams. Not since 1910, when Chicago won first place in the National League, has the west had a contender in the championship series.

Brooklyn, although maintaining its hold on first place, is not playing the brand of ball the team showed during July and early August. After taking three out of four from Chicago the first three days of the last week, Thursday brought the opening games of the concluding series with Philadelphia, with Alexander in the box overwhelmed Brooklyn, 8 to 4. Friday's contest was postponed until Saturday morning.

Philadelphia lost one game during the week. It beat Cincinnati Monday and Tuesday and was idle Wednesday and defeated Brooklyn Thursday and in one game Saturday. Boston during the week took five games from Pittsburgh, but fell before New York Thursday by losing two games at the Polo grounds. On Saturday against New York it broke even. The final games of the season between the four first division teams in the National will be played at Brooklyn and Philadelphia. New York and Brooklyn will meet in a four-game series on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, while Boston and Philadelphia are battling in six games in the same four days. Double-headers are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday in Philadelphia. Upon these games the pennant depends. The Red Sox have three games yet to play against Philadelphia on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Chicago and Detroit completed their schedules today.

MEN OF 165TH TO REACH CITY THIS MORNING

Mayor Hayes and Party will Meet Them at the Depot at Seven O'clock—General Military Notes.

St. John will today welcome Lieut.-Col. D'Almeida and his gallant men of the 165th, the latest arrivals being the effect that they would arrive in the city about seven o'clock.

The citizens are asked to decorate their places of business and residences with flags and bunting for the occasion.

The ladies of the welcome committee are asked to be at the army at 5.30 this afternoon.

Word has been received in the city that Michael Finnigan of the 26th Battalion has been admitted to No. 4 Field Hospital, suffering from shell concussion.

Mrs. W. G. Fisher, 121 Brussels street, has received word that her brother, Private Cecil Hartin, has been admitted to the Third Western General Hospital, Cardiff, with wounds in the right thigh, hand and shoulder.

Mrs. James O'Donnell, 382 Main street, received a trench card from her son, J. O'Donnell, dated September 16th, stating that he was in the best of health.

ELEVEN RETURNED SOLDIERS BACK FROM THE BATTLEFRONT

Men of Canada who Have Done their Bit in Empire War Reached St. John on Sunday Night—Tell Thrilling Stories of Life in the Trenches.

After suffering many hardships, and at times untold agonies, in the Empire fight, eleven loyal sons of New Brunswick set foot once again upon the soil of their native province.

The party arrived on the Misissable at Quebec and reached St. John on Saturday evening, where they were met by the citizens' reception committee and Charles Robinson, secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Commission.

Some of the gallant boys who arrived in the city are named for life, while others, although suffering internal ailments, will, with good care, regain their health and strength.

Probably the saddest case which has come to the notice of the military reporter since the first Canadian soldier arrived back from the front, is that of Jack Roberts, a native of Newfoundland, but who prior to enlisting was employed in Boston.

Those who arrived are: Pte. W. A. Cooper, St. John; Jack Roberts, Boston; Pte. John Leyland, Minto, N. B.; Pte. Roy Thornton, Woodstock, N. B.; Pte. Louis Lockary, St. Stephen; Pte. Alex. Gibbs, New Brunswick; Sergt. A. Hazen Stephens, Moncton; Frank Synnott, Dalhousie; Frank E. Lodge, Ludlow street, Carleton; G. A. Denney, 48 Durham street, St. John; and Abraham Elston, Sussex.

Pte. W. A. Cooper enlisted in the 26th Battalion when that battalion was first being recruited, and was a member of "C" company, captained by F.E. May. When asked to relate what he considered his most thrilling experience, the soldier sacrificing hero replied that it was the famous crater fight on Oct. 13th, which brought to the province of New Brunswick imperishable fame.

"When the thirty-five men were called to take that crater, between our lines and those of the enemy, little did I think that reinforcements would be called, and I happened to be one of the men to volunteer to bring back the wounded. It was a sight I'll never forget. Thirteen bombers were wounded in that scrap and several killed. Some of the boys mutilated and mangled were partly buried while the more fortunate ones were partly covered with earth."

Pte. Cooper spent just five months at the front before he received his wound. On January 31st he was admitted to the Quex Park Hospital, Birchington, where he has been recuperating before sailing for home.

Pte. Cooper, who is a married man, prior to enlisting, was employed by James Robertson as an engineer. He spoke of the kind treatment extended to him as well as the other members of the party by Mr. Robinson, secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Commission, as well of the kindness shown him by the staff of nurses and hospital attendants while in England. He will leave today for Newcastle to meet his wife, and then will return to the city, where they will reside.

John Leyland, of Minto, N. B., another member of the party, enlisted in the tunnelling company of No. 1 Engineering Corps, on Nov. 28th, 1915. The company in command of Major Rogers of Pembroke, Ont., sailed from St. John on New Year's day. Pte. Leyland while engaged in tunnelling and advance work, contracted rheumatic trouble, necessitating his removal from the front. He is leaving today for his home at Minto.

Gunner Lockary, of St. Stephen, also arrived home. He is a brother of the Rev. Father Lockary, who was in charge of the parish at Riverside before enlisting as chaplain in the 1st Brigade. Pte. Lockary enlisted at Fredericton in the 23rd Battery in command of Major McKay. He was afterwards transferred into the 8th Battery in which he received his wounds.

SATURDAY WAS VERY ROUGH IN BAY OF FUNDY

Schr. Hustler now Submerged in Market Slip as Result of the Storm—Sprung a leak Near St. Martins.

Measured by the reports of the seafaring men who made St. John harbor a haven, and the velocity of the wind on land, one of the roughest nights on the Bay of Fundy was experienced by mariners on Saturday. With a high northeaster and heavy seas it was impossible to sail with any canvas spread.

So far as could be learned last night only one vessel sustained a cargo loss, and she is at present at the Market Slip—the one topmast schooner Hustler, owned by Captain Winter, of Kingsport, N. S.

The schooner which is called by Captain Wilmet Irving, on Saturday night near Martin's Head, sprung a leak somewhere aft, presumably in the rudder casing, and began to fill rapidly. The gasoline pumps could not be operated as they were in the hold and it was found impossible to get at them. With the hold filling rapidly, and the heavy gale carrying away the deck load, which consisted of 234 barrels of potatoes, the vessel was headed for St. John.

According to the captain as many as four barrels at one time were carried away by the dashing waves of the Bay. From 8 o'clock Saturday night until 6 o'clock Sunday morning (captain Irving and his two men managed to withstand the cold which accompanied the October storm.

The tug Wasson was signalled off Partridge Island at 6 o'clock Sunday morning. The schooner was then level with the water and listing somewhat. She had on board a total of 534 barrels of potatoes, and of this number about 234 barrels, which made up the deck load, were lost. With potatoes selling at $2.25 per barrel, it means a loss of $526.50. The remaining cargo, 300 barrels, which were stored in the hold, will not suffer any damage.

As for the vessel, Captain Irving said she would have to be re-caulked all over and other repairs made ere she would be again ready for the sea. As far as could be ascertained about $300 will put her in condition again. She was towed up the harbor to Market Slip, but before the lines could be fastened to the wharf she completely submerged, leaving only her masts above the water.

Captain Irving said that repairs could be effected at the slip after the water had been taken from her. The Hustler was built about eighteen years ago at West Dublin, Lunenburg county, on the south shore of Nova Scotia, and is a clean cut looking schooner, carrying fairly heavy canvas. This is the second trip to St. John for the Hustler within two weeks. She arrived here a week ago with 600 barrels of potatoes for the same people and made the run in two hours.

ST. JOHN WILL PAY TEN CENTS FOR ITS BREAD

Bakers Jump Price Today on Account of Recent Increases in Price of Flour.

Beginning this morning the citizens of St. John will have to pay ten cents per loaf for bread as the bakers will increase the wholesale price one cent per loaf.

When interviewed last night by a member of The Standard staff, the bakers were unanimous in saying that the increase in the price of flour would almost warrant a two-cent increase instead of one cent which will be made. It was pointed out that within the last three months the price of bakers' flour had gone up $2.50 per barrel and it was impossible for them to manufacture bread and sell at the old price without losing money.

It was also pointed out that not only had flour gone up but that everything else in the way of supplies used by the bakers had also gone up from twenty-five to fifty per cent.
