A Race for Liberty. What a man will endure for his liberty is strikingly shown in the desperate attempts of Shiette, the Burlington burglar, followed by the sheriffs, and on the morn-of the 4th started from Plattsburg for Colchester Point, pursued by the officers and two farmers named Martin and Crown. He struck out on the lake for tone Island, about a mile distant, with his pursuers hotly after him The farmers sew that he was gaining on them, so off suw that he was gaining on them, so off went their boots, and in their stocking feet they redoubled their efforts to capture him. Coming within twenty rods, they fired their revolvers at him twice, but with no effect, the fellow waving his handkerchief and defying them. On they fied, pursued and pursuers, across to the New York shore, the ice not being over two inches in thickness and badly eracked. They reached the shore at the

No Bill Lading will be signed for a less sum than half a guinea. A Moravian Idyl (very). On this revolving globe once lived a man, With just sufficient sense to imitate the plan A Chemist had, to advertise his store Of S. aps and Oils, in King Street twenty-four. This grim Moravian with the rhymer's art, first stelle his title, not whelly but in part, Then to his lines, impossible to scan, The names of Hood and Cowper at the bottom rank. APPLY TO Then to his lines, impossible to seas.
The names of Hood and Cowper at the bottom ran.
He mocked our sense of tune with ill timed halts;
And grammar-vile commingled with the false and limping lines, unreadable and base,
Just fit to guide. Pame Spearing to his place.'
Once in this lair, the shorman held to view
In runic rhyme mysterious number 2.
The man who 'steels my purse takes trash,''
'tis said,
But stol n brains won't fit a wooden head;
For such a deal-end pate I'd recommend at A dose of Epsom Salts, and to the Chemist send
And buy a box of Peristaltic Pills—
A sure and certain guard 'gainst further ills:
Take these, my friend, and ease that dread
Neuralgic pain,
Forswear the muse and no 'erwrite rhyme again
Remember what to us Will Cowper gave,
And let him rest in peace and not turn in his grave.

ing the directions on the bottle.

Kianey, Bladder and Urinary Derangement invariably cured. One bottle will convince the most skeptkeal.

Worms expelled from the system without the least difficulty. Patients suffering from this prevalent disease will see a marked change for the better in their condition after taking one bottle. Worm difficulties are more prevalent than is generally supposed in the young, and they will find the Quaker Bitters a sure remedy.

*Newward Difficulties. Neuralgia, &c., Nervous Difficulties, Neuralgia, &c., speedily relieved. Rheumatism, Swelled Joints and all Scro-fular Afflictions removed or greatly re-lieved by this invaluable medicine. Bronchitis, Catarrh, Convulsions, and Hysterics cured or much relieved. Difficult Breathing, Pain in the Lung Side and Chest almost invariably cured by taking a few bottles of the Quaker Bitter All Difficult Female Derangements, (almost invariably caused by a violation of the organic laws,) so prevalent to the American ladies yield readily to this invaluable medicine—the Quaker Bitters. All Impurities of the Blood and diseases incident to the same always cured by the Quaker Bitters, if taken according to the directions.

The Aged find in the Quaker Bitters just the article they stand in need of in their declining years. It quickens the blood and cheers the mind, and paves the passage down the plane inclined.
