Manchurian Conventice Not Yet Signed -China Appeals to the States-Number of Christians Killed.

FOR CIVIL SERVICE. dis-London, March 14.-A Pekin patch, dated yesterday, says: The foreign ministers today sent to the Chinese plenipotentiaries a list of the towns and cities in China where examinations for the civil service would not be permitted for the period of five years. They also requested these Chinese authorities to appoint a commission to act with a man appointed by the ministers to assess the value of the private property taken for legation

CHINA WILL NOT SIGN. London, March 13.-The Pekin correspondent of the Times, wiring yesterday, says: "It is believed that the Chinese court has decided not to authorize the signature of the Man-churian convention until it is seen how far the powers will support China in a refusal to sign. So far as the assurances of Count Lansdorf (Russian foreign minister) are concerned, no-thing of this kind will have any decisive weigh until Russia her policy of secret negotiations with China, and discloses the terms of secret engagements she has undoubtedly imposed upon China in recent years."

APPEALED TO THE STATES. Washington, D. C., March 12,-There is reason to believe that China has appealed to the United States in her ex-tremity, but whether the appeal is the result of the work of bloodhounds broader and is to other nations as well it is not possible to learn at pre-sent. Nothing has been heard from Russia since the verbal communica-tion made by Count Cassini last week, setting forth Russia's objects in China generally and in Manchuria in particular. SUCCESSFULLY STORMED THE WALL. London, March 13.—The Pekin correspondent of the Morning Post, wiring on Saturday, and giving details of the storming of a gate of the Great Wall by Col. Ledebur's column, March 8, says: "The Germans captured the Chung Chung Pass, between the provinces of Chi Li and Shan Si, after seven hours fighting. This result was brilliantly achieved by the Bayarian battalion, which marched Bavarian battalion, which marched miles from Pao Ting Fu in four days, 125 miles from Pao Ting Fu in four days, through mountains and over difficult mule tracks. The Chinese held an apmule tracks. The Chinese held an apparently impregnable position on the Great Wall at the highest part of the pass. They had several thousand troops and artillery of all descriptions. The Germans attacked them with 600 infantry and two howitzers. The turning movement, over an almost impassable country occupied seven hours and was compared to the company of the com try, occupied seven hours, and was completely successful. The Chinese fled into the province of Shan Si, leaving at least 100 dead, and four Hotchkiss guns. The victory will have an immense moral effect, as the Chinese believed their fortified mountain belt impregnable. BOXER REVIVAL THREATENED. Pekin, March 12.—Acting on a com-plaint by the American Board of Foreign Missions, Mr. Ragsdale, the United States consul at Tien Tsin, telegraphed to Yuan Shih Kai, governor of Shan Tung, that there was a threatened renewal of Boxer outrages at Un Hsien. Yuan Shih Kai replied that he had sent a force to stop the disorder, which began when the court demourad to the demands of the court demurred to the demands of court demurred to the demands of the powers. The Germans have recently been operating in that direction, having reached Tsang Chou on March 5. The Chinese were alarmed by the appearance of the Germans, fearing that it was the beginning of a plan to carry out German designs in the province of Shan Tung. The trouble has detained the English and American missionaries at Che Foo, who were intending to make a tour of inspection of the Shan Tung missions.

A SAD STORY Uncertainty Regarding Suicide Naylor of

Rogers-His Wife Dead From Poison. Windsor, Ont., March 13.-Grief reigned in the home of E. O. B. Rogers, on Park street, this morning. There was an agonizing uncertainty about the correctness of a dispatch that a brother, Naylor Rogers, had committed suicide in Cleveland. The family received a message last night, saying Naylor had committed suicide, later a telegram came denying this. and saying his wife was dead. A dispatch was received from Cleveland later in the day to the effect that it was Mrs. Grace Rogers, wife of Naylor Rogers, who had committed suicide. Her husband, it is said, had been addicted to the liquor habit, but several months ago pledged himself to stop. He went home intoxicated Monday night, and while he lay on the lounge in a stupor, his wife prayed by the baby's cradle. Rogers was awakened by the prayer, and, as if in a dream, he saw his wife swallow poison. In a second or so he realized the situation, and called for help. His cry came too late, and Mrs. Rogers died from the effects of the deadly drug. Crazed with grief and anguish, Rogers left his home at 454 Prospect street, and has disappeared. He held a good job with the National Bureau of Engraving. While in Windsor Rogers was employed as clerk for the Merascendant? (Hear, hear.) MAGNANIMITY ABROAD. I could go on multiplying these examples. Let me give another argument. If I understood my honorable friend aright, and, I think I did in that respect, he would like the British Government to go back to the policy of Mr. Gladstone in 1881. Mr. Glad-Government to go back to the policy of Mr. Gladstone in 1881. Mr. Gladstone was magnanimous towards the Boers in 1881, magnanimous perhaps to a fault. When he had the Boers in his power he treated them with the greatest generosity. That was a missing ted and generosity of the power of the Dutch. It has either to be the liberal and enlightened civilization of England of today, or the old ignorated and generosity of the power of the Dutch. It has either to be the liberal and enlightened civilization of England of today, or the old ignorated and generosity of the power of the Dutch. greatest generosity. That was a mistake. He measured men with whom he had to deal with the measure of his own great soul. If magnanimity his own great soul. If magnanimity be a fault, and if that was a fault of Mr. Gladstone, everybody must admit that magnanimity has never been a fault of Mr. Kruger. (Hear, hear.) If Mr. Kruger had had the slightest amount of the magnanimity of Mr. There is but one future for the Dutch. Gladstone there would have been no They have been conquered, but I pledge amount of the magnanimity of Mr. Gladstone there would have been no war. If Mr. Kruger had shown to-wards British subjects the elementary principles of justice there would have been no war. If Mr. Kruger had simply kept his pledge towards Mr. Gladstone and his commissioner there would have been no war. (Cheers.) There is but one future for South Africa, and that future for South Africa, and that future is a grand confederation on the pattern of the Canadian confederation. It is a federation in which Cape Colony and Natal, and the Orange Free State In 1881, when the Boers had gone to and Natal, and the Orange Free State war against England, and after their and the Transvaal and Rhodesia shall ephemeral success at Majuba Hill, the be united together under a federal conephemeral success at Majuba Hill, the government of Mr. Gladstone filled the country with British troops. Roberts was ready to take the field, and the issue could not have been in doubt, but Mr. Gladstone, in his great soul, resolved to give the Boers another chance, to give them their independence, retaining only for the British Crown suzerainty. This commission had to settle the terms of peace, and the terms of peace implied enough to entitle them to these rights. But my honorable friend knows that this pledge given by Mr. Kruger was not kept, that the rights of British subjects were abridged, that the period of probation which prevailed at that time was extended from one year to five years, from five years to ten five years, from five years to ten years, and from ten years to fourteen years. Naturally this caused a great deal of comment and of complaint on the part of the men who had gone into the Transvaal afterwards at the instance of Mr. Kruger to develop the country, who were taxed mercilessly, who founded cities over which they had no control whatever, and who, when they asked for the privileges of citizenship, were told that they would not have any. It is no wonder that the not have any. It is no wonder that the best men in the Transvaal and in South Africa protested against that treat-ment. Who is responsible for the war? Is it the government of Great Britain? Sir, the man who is responsible for the war is Mr. Kruger hin self. (Cheers.) He was the president of the South African Republic. A great deal of light has been shed upon the Transvaal question by the corre-spondence at Pretoria after its occupation by Lord Roberts. Amongst the ablest men in South Africa today is Sir Henry de Villiers, chief justice of Cape Colony. Amongst this correspondence letters written by Sir Henry de Villiers proved that in the summer of 1899, when negotiations were going on between Mr. Kruger and Mr. Chamberlain, Sir Henry de Villiers went almost on his knees to induce him to make concessions to the Outlanders.

DE VILLIER'S APPEAL. Sir Wilfrid, in support of this assertion, read a letter written on May 21, 1899, by Sir Henry, addressed to Mr. Steyn, president of the Orange Free State, in which the chief justice "I am quite certain that if in 1881 it had been known to my fellow commissioners that the president would adopt his retrogressive policy, neither President Brand (crange Free State) nor I would ever have induced them to consent to sign the convention. They would have advised the secretary of state to let matters revert to the condition in which they were before peace was concluded; in other words, to recommence the war."

I ask the member for Labelle today, is not the conduct of the British gov-ernment justified, when Chief Justice de Villiers, himself a Boer, told Prestceived when he was acting as peace commissioner in 1881 that Mr. Kruger would so abuse the power vested in him that instead of advising the independence of the Transvaal he would have advised the British government to go to war again? There never was a greater justification of the policy maintained by the British government than this letter of Chief Justice de Vil-

There was the mistake. It was the sending of this fatal ultimatum which brought all these calamities upon the Boers, which Mr. Bourassa deplores now. Let me tell him that the responsi-bility for this does not lie upon any other than on the head of the President of the trian on the head of the President of the Transvaal Republic, who has been the first victim of his own doings. (Cheers.) And notwithstanding all his faults, and notwithstanding that he has brought all this on his own head, considering his great age, I cannot help feeling for Mr. Kruger a great deal of sympathy. (Hear, hear) hear.) RESULTS OF THE WAR Mr. Bourassa deprecates the war. I do not deprecate it as much as he does, but I believe pehaps it is the greatest calamity which has befallen England within the last 40 years or so, because it places on England the burden and the duty of governing South Africa with its duty of governing South Africa with its two races, estranged perhaps for generations by the cruel memories of war. But, sir, even from that view, we must take the situation as it is. The problem of South Africa is this: that you have in that country two races, so mixed and so intermingled that it is not possible to separate them. These two races must bigoted and narrow civilization of the Dutch of 200 years ago. (Cheers.) President, Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Limited, Montreal, Canada. Dear Sir,-I am glad to advise you that No. 1 furnace is in successful operation, and we have been able to measure results by accomplished facts,

Whatever doubt may have existed as to the manufacturing possibilities at Sydney are now removed. Speaking in detail: 1. IRON ORE-The developments at Bell Islands, both by the drilling done and by headings put in, have demonstrated the certainty of the ore supply. The ore under cover is of better quality than we had counted on as standard. It exists in a bed of full depth-low in silica and high in iron. Notwithstanding the fact that we mined last year only about 120,000 tons, and that we unloaded this by hand instead of by machinery, and that we charged off into this small tonnage the expense of a long strike at Bell Island, the cost of the ore delivered at our dock, f.o.b. steamer, was only $1 62 a ton. Our estimate is based upon the figure of $1 25. This result shows our estimate to be a safe one. The ore, as anticipated, works kindly in the furnace, and guarantees to us a

2. LIMESTONE-We have two supplies-Georges River and Marble Mountain. We are operating at present with the Georges River stone at a cost of 60 cents a ton, which is within our estimate. The unusual purity of our flux has enabled us to control both the silica and the sulphur in our pig metal to an unusual degree, and with the use of a minimum amount of flux. We have in our very pure flux an asset of great value.

3. COAL-We are operating our bi-product ovens with unwashed coal, nevertheless the coke manufactured is of excellent physical quality. It is capable of hard driving, and of maintaining the burden in the blast furnace without trouble. While slightly higher in sulphur—as must be the case until we wash it—our pure flux, as stated, renders this no disadvantage to us. We have demonstrated that the question of washing is not a necessity, but purely an economic question. The coke from washed coal will be fully equal to the celebrated Connellsville standard—the sulphur will be no higher, the ash lower,

4. LABOR-The plant is constructed with every modern labor-saving device, and, after that interval of time necessary to get every new plant well organized in its labor department, our cost sheet will challenge comparison with that of any steel plant elsewhere. 5. COST OF PRODUCTION-I am confirmed in my opinion, hitherto expressed, that after crediting the value of the bi-products from the coke ovens, the cost of our pig iron should not exceed $5.50 per ton after everything has been reduced to steady practice. The quality is all that could be desired.

In conclusion, we are safe in counting upon a reasonable profit from the start, and a handsome increase in the same as the product reaches its

Premier Ross--Increasing Majority The first division of the present ses sion of the Ontario Legislature must be eminently satisfactory to Premier Ross. The highest majority attained by the Government during last session was seven. A majority of ten in the Ontario Legislature, in proportion to relative membership, would be about equivalent to a majority of twenty in the Dominion Parliament. The Advertiser has steadily contended that Mr. Ross is increasing his hold on the good will of the Province; and why should he not? An abler, more courageous, eloquent, or high-minded statesman does not today live in Canada. He is a man around whom his followers can rally with pride and confidence. Perhaps the strongest feature of the Ontario Premier's policy is his plans for development, not alone of Ontario's northern and northwestern domains, but for the improvement and advancement also of the older portions of the Province. This is a non-partisan policy which, looking far ahead, promises much not merely for the comfort and prosperity of the people of our premier province, but which, as time grows on, will have much to do with the matter of Ontario's weight in the councils of Dominion. As is well known, the pivotal province in point of Commons members, is Quebec, with its 65 representatives in the Dominion Parliament. The other provinces, including Ontario, will have a proportionate increase or reduction in representation according to the records presented by the census which has to be taken every ten years. It is not necessary, therefore, to point out further the necessity of keeping our great province well to the front as regards population and development.

We attach little importance to the particular hostile amendment by Mr. Hoyle, which Mr. Ross turned into a majority of ten, namely, the censure of the Government in connection with West Elgin. The motion was one or want of confidence, and was so intended. The doughty Premier of Ontario has good reason to be satisfied with his province, for the purpose of encourag- must be governed by the same power increasing majority, which is lut a ing the growth of sugar beets, and of the probable result when Mr. Ross next appeals to the Province at large for a renewal of confidence.

Mr. Birks' View.

Rev. Mr. Birks' view is that Mrs. Nation is to be applauded for smashing windows and mirrors in Kansas the prohibition law of that clandestine violation of the license laws; and also that the liquor question in Canada may have to be settled by bullets if not by ballots. When Mr. Birks, who is one of the younger clergymen, sees how his remarks look in cold type, he may not be quite so sure that he has found the one and only true solution for an evil that has refused to be entirely prohibited for thousands of recorded years, and which, Mrs. Nation and her actions being evidence, even the prohibitory law of Kansas has not prohibited. Stubborn minorities are not easily put down-as witness the Boers, or Ireland, or even a small body of kickers in a church. While many will sympathize with Mr. Birks in his views as to the annoyance of having to look on at laws imperfectly enforced, sober reflection must convince him that talk of "bullets if not ballots" is apt to Impair a clergyman's influence; and that Mrs. Nation, by taking the law the problem is admitted by all can- farmer gets the benefit. did persons-Mrs. Nation's method of combatting one illegality by another fineries of Quebec Province. illegality is clearly not the right way. #### Old Boys' Celebration and Civic Grant.

Our contemporary the Free Press, speaking on the question of making a civic grant towards the entertainment of the visiting London Old Boys next summer, protests in advance against the practice that prevailed last year, of taking up collections at the gates of Victoria Park to obtain the requisite funds. Apparently this is the view also of the committee, which a few days ago considered the coming August celebra-

On behalf of the continuance of the elebration, it is contended that, like he Western Fair, an annual Old Boys' elebration is calculated, apart from its sentimental aspect, to be of considerable direct advantage, and especially of indirect benefit as a good advertisement for the city, keeping its name and fame alive in almost every part of the broad continent. It is on this ground that it was decided by the ommittee to ask the City Council for a substantial grant out of the city funds, rather than that the amount required should be raised by private subscription and the taking up of collections at the gates of our parks. The Advertiser is of opinion that the Old Boys' celebration should be kept up so long as its unforced interest and spontaneity last, "which may be for years and may be forever." But it should be a broad, dignified celebration, worthy of the city. No one would desire that it should degenerate, and it may be assumed that a few amateur games, and the like, while sufficiently amusing once or twice, would not alone fill the bill permanently. There should be new features every year. There might, for example, be something provided, away out of the common, in music, and some speaking of the very highest order. For example, the Ontario Premier is a Middlesex boy, and therefore pretty House of 147. nearly a London Old Boy; or, if it be objected that he is a Liberal, there might be some eloquent Conservative ing forward to our national future, along with him to even up. The point or touching on empire, Sir Wilfrid ment in this direction, and is tired of is this: If the city is to stand the shot, then the City Council, calling in the ly, and without affectation, he seems co-operation of representatives of other | naturally to rise, as an outcome as it round that there are many thousand bodies, such as the Board of Trade, Trades and Labor Council, and representatives of the various benefit or close of his speech on Mr. Bourassa's other societies, should be held responsible for seeing that the London Old Boys' celebration is, as we think it could easily be made, of such a character as would reflect credit on our fair city, and be in reality a good advertisement for the Capital of Western

"Mr. Bourassa deprecates the war. I do not deprecate it as much as he does, but I believe perhaps it is greatest calamity which has befallen England within the last 40 years or so, because it places on England the South Africa with its two races, estranged perhaps for generations by the cruel memories of war. But. sir. even from that view, we must take the situation as it is. The problem of South Africa is this: that you have in that country two races, so mixed and so intermingled that it is not possible and the same authority, and that power has either to be the power of England or the power of the Dutch. It has either to be the liberal and enlightened civilization of England of today or the old bigoted and narrow civilization of the Dutch of 200 years ago. (Cheers) Let Mr. Bourassa forget for a moment that he and I are British subjects, and in the name of civilization, in the name humanity, I ask him which is the power that ought to govern in that distant land? Is it the enlightened power of Eng land or is it the semi-barbarous civilization of the Dutch? (Hear, hear.) There is but one future for the Dutch. They have been conquered, but 1 pledge my reputation and my name as a British subject that if they have lost their independence they have not lost their freedom. (Cheers.) There is but one future for South Africa, and that future is a grand confederation on the pattern of the Canadian Confederation. It is a federation in which Cape Colony and Natal and the and Rhodesia shall be united together under a flederal constitution, under the British flag, and under the sov ereignty of England. (Cheers.) Mr. Bourassa will agree with me that when they have the British flag over South Africa they shall have that which has been found everywhere during the last 60 years under the British flag-liberty for all, equality for all, justice and civil rights for English and for Dutch alike. Speaking on the question of aid to our universities, the Toronto Star makes the following assertions:

"While not convinced ourselves that one dollar of provincial money should diverted from Toronto University until its needs have been met, we still think that Principal Grant is entitled a considerable hearing, in view of the benefits he, personally, and his university have conferred upon Ontario. Far from Principal Grant wishing provincial contribution to be made to Queen's as a denominational university, his primary purpose is to make Queen's legally, as he now says it is actually, undenominational. His ideas are broader than the obtaining of a grant of money for a Presbyter-ian university. He would make Queen's in all respects a provincial university, having the same relation to the Government as now exists with

From the Deer's Standpoint.

[Woodstock Express.] The London papers are having a heated argument over the difference between killing deer in the water and on the land. The Free Press objects to killing in the water, because it burden and the duty of governing wants to give the deer a "sporting chance" for its life. If the object is merely to kill deer, the Free Press suggests an abattoir. Just so. If consideration for the deer had any real weight, the abattoir would be the better plan: but when it is sifted to the bottom, all the talk about giving the deer a "sporting chance" for its life means nothing else than giving hunter a little sport. It would the far more humane to kill the dee in abattoires, as cattle are killed, than to hunt them, half-kill them and mutilate them, as is done in the name of sport; but, then, the abattoir methwouldn't be "sport."

WEALTH IN THE WOODS

Mr. Charlton on Timber Resources of Ontario.

The Province's Pine Trees Worth $100,000,000—The Mowat-Hardy-Ross Policy Favorably Compared With That of Former Governments Who Squandered the Timber.

In the course of the Ontario budget debate on Tuesday, Mr. Charlton (South Norfolk), gave a great deal of information respecting the timber resources of the province. The Doyle system of measurement had been unanimously adopted by the lumbermen of the province in 1879, in preference to the Scribner. The total cut of sawlogs since confederation was 15,896,156,278 feet; of boom timber, 681,-847.463 feet: of square timber, 2.092.-804,152 feet; a total of 18,670,807,893 feet, and an average of 549,141,408 feet More than the average, or per year. More than the average, of 679,000,000 was reached as early as 1872. In 1882 the cut was 623,000,000 and in 1892, 694,000,000. The largest cut of any year was in 1896, 952,00 the next in 1895, 843,000,000; the third in 1889, 818,000,000; and the fourth, 1888,

SMALL EXPORT OF LOGS. Mr. Charlton declared that the whole export of sawlogs to the United States since confederation (none occurred be-fore 1889) was only 1,529,324,917 feet, so that less than 10 per cent of the logs had been exported, and over 90 per cent were sawn in this province. The total revenue from pine timber since confederation had been $26,582,883, an average of $781,846 a year. There were 26,000 square miles of timber land in

ESTIMATES BELOW THE REAL-ITY.

The government report of 1893 embraced an area of 20,000 square miles under license, then estimated to have on it ten billion feet. As a fact, since that estimate, based on 1887 examination, ten billion feet had been taken. Charlton said he had personal knowledge that large quantities remained uncut, estimated at eight bil-lion feet. A United States Government commission in 1880 estimated Minnesota's timber at ten billion feet. Since then twenty billion feet had been cut, and twenty billion more feet were left. (Laughter and cheers.) tion to the three billion feet referred to by the honorable treasurer as existing in Nipissing, there were 30 town-ships south of that portion which were WORTH $100,000,000 TO ONTARIO. He approximated the value of the 26,000,000,000 feet as worth to the government as it stands $91,000,000, and the crown dues to be collected from the $,000,000,000 feet on licensed lands would not be less than $9,000,000, making an asset of $100,000,000 in pine timber alone, leaving all the other timber, land and minerals in the hands of the government. (Cheers.) He estimated, without reference to re-growth or reforestry, that on our record of quantity cut or area sold dur-ing the regime of the Liberal Government the supply would last 150 years. Mr. Charlton said that in the six years from 1867 to 1872 inclusive, 5,666 square miles were sold, and in the 28 years | union conditions are observed.

SQUANDERING THE TIMBER. The former governments sold at the rate of 944 miles per year, and the Mowat-Hardy-Ross Government at 173 miles per year. (Ministerial cheers.) estimates all refer south of the height of land, but considerable pine was still supposed to exist northward, as the Hudson Bay Moose River. Respecting the areas of the north, Mr. Charlton pointed out that Nipissing contained 27,000 square miles, 16,000 explored; Algoma, 65,000, 20,000 explored; Thunder Bay, 31,000, 15,000 explored; Rainy River, 19,000, three-quarters explored. Total area, 140,000 square miles, less than half explored. Col. Matheson had estimated the pulpwood on Mr. Clergue's concession at ten cords to the acre. On this estimate the treasurer's estimate of 288,000,000 cords would be more than doubled. Mr. Charlton said he had been over the height of land at differ-ent points and had personal knowl-edge of the existence of large tracts of valuable farming lands. He concluded with a strong prophecy of the

OTTAWA AND THE C.P.R.

Still Fighting Over the Crossing Question-The Company Threatens to Get Even.

Ottawa, March 13 .- It is stated that the C. P. R. Company will take steps to get even with the city of Ottawa, because of the crossing trouble. It is said the company will divert a large amount of its traffic from Ottawa to Smith's Falls; thence to the Ontario and Quebec line to Montreal. The company, it is stated, has to make better time from the west, and originally intended to do this by using the Montreal and Ottawa short line, a connection with which could be made only by using the disputed crossing. Today the C. P. R. notified the city that it had the right to lay the crossing, and intended to do so. The mayor, upon receiving the letter, immediately notified the C. P. R. that it had no right to lay the crossing, and said he would oppose any attempt to lay it.

don, for the prosecutor, moved for leave to appeal from the decision of the police magistrate for the city of London, acquitting defendant of perjury, and refusing to reserve for the opinion of the court of appeal for Ontario the following questions: 1. Whether there was corroborative evidence of the prosecut-or in any material particular. 2. Whe-ther the magistrate exercised a legal discretion under section 791, of the criminal code, in deciding to adjudicate summarily upon the case, and had jurisdiction to try defendant, who was and is a client of the county crown attorney The prosecution arose out of evidence given by defendant as secretary of the Crescent Mill and Timber Company, in an action in a division court of Ratcliffe against the said company. It was contended that, under section 744 of the code, as amended by 63-64 Vict., ch. 46, the right to move for leave is expressly given to the prosecutor by providing for notice to the accused and that under section 791 of the code the magistrate had no jurisdiction, because defendant was a client of the crown attorney, who should have prosecuted, and this was 'any other circumstance,' within the meaning of the section, and the word "may" in that section must be construed "shall," and also that the ruling of the magistrate that there was no corroborative evidence is matter of law, not fact, because there were letters written by defendant corroborating the evidence of the prosecutor, and proved at the trial, and the magistrate not failing for evidence for the de-fense, his decision was clearly one of law, and, therefore, appealable. #### Proposed Library Expansion

I observe by the press reports that

the free library board have presented requisition to the city council for the sum of $4,000, to be raised by de-benture, for the purpose of making an addition to the present library building. The library board received about $8,500 from the council for the year 1900, and after paying very liberal salaries to the librarian and attendants, they have failed to show to the citizens that out of their appropriation they have a surplus of $1,-995 48 or in other words, they have obtained an appropriation of nearly $2,000 more than was necessary to run the library during the last year. I believe that the intention of the board is to use that $2,000, with the $4,000 debenture issue that the council has been asked for, for the purpose of building a $6,000 addition to the library building. Now, sir, it is time to call a halt. We do not want another hospital jumbo on our hands in the shape of a large and expensive free library. New additions will mean more expenses in light, heat and attendance. For a city with a population of under 40,000, we are putting on too many provincial airs; in fact, more than the citizens of London can afford. There are fully 300 vacant houses in the city Reg. vs. Burns-W. H. Bartram, Lon- at the present time. The population, according to the assessor's returns, has not increased during the last year. London is at a standstill, and 24½ mills rate on the dollar is no great inducement to manufacturers to locate here. I may say that I am one of those who voted for the free library, and it was sion Railway. The arbitrators were stated at that time, on the public platform, by the library advocates, that one-quarter of a mill on the dollar would be quite sufficient to meet the requirements of the library

> In view of the fact that there is a surplus of $2,000 from last year's appropriation, one-quarter of a mill should be sufficient for library purposes. The Free Library board, not being elected by the people, the council, who are responsible to the people, should have the power to make the rate for library purposes. Should the present rate be insisted on by the Free Library board, I am satisfied that if the question of the continuance of the library as a representation of the continuance of the library approach in the score in the surplus of $2,000 from last year's aption of the continuance of the library be submitted to a vote of the people, the whole business would be wiped ou of existence. The city hall property can be sold, and the library building, with slight alterations, will make a new

FROM DAY LABORER TO MILLIONAIRE.

Rapid Rise of "Tom" Kearns, Utah's New remained for some time, and then went

From the depths of a silver mine in which he wielded the pick as a day la-borer, obscure and unknown, to a seat in the United States Senate, the possessor of millions in ready cash and mines -and all that within ten short years-has come Thomas Kearns, a native of tor, with a fortune of from $3,000,000 to into America's highest legislative body as a representative of the State of Utah has had a most extraordinary career. Brain, brawn and "backbone" brought him from the level of the "hired man," the plodding, drudging "Man with the Hoe" of Markham, to the plane of the man of large affairs, the employer of many men and a maker of the nation's laws.

Senator Kearns is a firm believer in the single gold standard-though he be an owner of the richest silver mine in the state-as an ardent supporter of the policy of expansion and a staunch adherent of President McKinley in his policies in general. In an effort to direct attention from

Mr. Kearns' native abilities and success to his somewhat unconventional methods of expression, some of his opponents in the late campaign in which Kearns was elected called him Thomas laborer in the Ontario mine, Mr. Kearns, Alaska" Kearns. Questions Answered in Regard to Binder Twine, Beet Sugar and Other Matters-Business Likely To Be Finished Before Easter

Toronto, March 14.—In the legislature yesterday Mr. Little's motion for the appointment of a committee on agriculture and colonization was carried unanimously. There was no objection from either side, but an unexpectedly NEW YORK, March 13.—Butter—Market unsettled; fresh creamery, 16c to 22c; factory, 10c to 14%c; June creamery, 15c to 20c; imitation creamery, 14c to 18%c; state dairy, 13c to 21c. Cheese—Market strong; fancy large colored and white, 11c to 11%c; fancy small colored, 12%c; fancy small white, 12c to 12%c. long discussion ensued on the question, owing to the introduction of several matters foreign to the resolution. A feature of the debate was the approval of members of the opposition of the proposal to encourage the dead meat and beet root sugar industries. It is not yet known whether the committee will be appointed during the present session

Before adjournment the premier statel that the good roads bill and the act for the encouragement of the beet root sugar industry would be taken up at today's session, and if they were advanced a stage the house would begin work on the estimates. He reiterated nis previously expressed opinion that the session would conclude before the Easter holidays.

The premier, in the course of his remarks, said that Mr. Whitney seemed greatly disappointed because the government acquiesced in the appointment of the committee. leader of the opposition had expected to have a grievance, but the acquiescence of the government took away the grieved by a single gasp for breath as life ance. The minister of agriculture and departed from the body of the great the commissioner of crown lands had, statesman. The relatives, with a few exceptions, and several of his old and tried friends, were at the former president's bedside when he passed the commissioner of crown lands nad, he pointed out, agreed to the appointment of the committee, and he hoped that it would be useful. It had not been shown that any loss had been incurred because that committee had not existed in the past. The government would allow honorable gentlemen oppo-site to take credit for this committee (Applause and laughter.) It was theirs, and if it did any good the government would be grateful.

"The bicycle has been a big factor in the growth of not a few popular outdoor sports and pastimes," said a dealer in photographic supplies yesterday, "but in connection with none has it played a more important part than in amateur photography. Not only has the wheel afforded great opportunity for reproducing, by means of the camera, many beautiful bits of landscape and pictures of country life, but it has been the direct cause of introducing compact cameras of greater capabilities than it was thought practical to produce some years ago. Cycling and amateur photography are essentially twin pastimes. The wheel affords the means of reaching the most charming scenery within a much greater radius than could be covered by foot, and there is certainly no more delightful method of recording the incidents and pleasures of a bicycle tour than by the use of the camera. I venture to say that fully 50 per cent of our best customers are accomplished cyclists, and nine-tenths of the pictures made by them are made while in cycling costume. Photography, of course, owes much of its growth to the attractions of the pastime itself, but I believe it has been taken up by many young men and women whom it would New York, March 13.—Unconscious, Mary Paige, the 16-year-old daughter of C. When baby comes to the home it will bind the wife closer to the husband, or it will gradually tend to cut her off from his companship. A sickly mother loses in physical charm, and often in temper and disposition. A fretful child is a trial, even to loving parents. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription prepares the wife for motherhood. It strengthens the body, and induces a healthy condition of mind, free from anxiety or fear. It makes the baby's advent practically painless. The mother being healthy her child is healthy, and a healthy child is a happy child, a joy to the parents, linking them together with a new bond of affection.

> of the department. The interview arose out of the pub lication by the department of a bulletin compiled by its analysts charg-ing the baking powder manufacturers with using alum in the manufacture of baking powder and recommending that the practice be prohibited, on the ground that it was unwholesome and injurious to health.

Macfarlane and A. McGill, analysists

The manufacturers take direct issue with the analysts, and offered expert chemical testimony in support of their contentions. The effect of this was to show that whenever alum is used in making powders it is mixed with bi-carbonate of soda, and during the process of baking goes off in the form of carbonic acid gas. The residue left is not injurious to health. On the other hand, it was maintained the other hand, it was maintained that baking powders made from cream of tartar leave a residue which in reality is rochelle salts and extremely hurtful to the human system. The hurtful to the human system. The output of cream of tartar is controlled by a powerful trust in the United States, and the produce is three times as expensive as that used by the majority of the Canadian trade. latter is given the trade name of "C. T. S.," or cream tartar substitute. For the baking powder produced from it the consumer pays only 20 to 25 cents a pound, whereas the cream of tartar powders are not only high-priced, but very unhealthful. The action of the department is doubtless the result of an enactment in England of a law prohibiting the use or sale of alum bak-ing powder. The deputation held that such a law might be justified in England, where crude alum is used, but it ought not to be applied in Canada, where the product goes into the man-

Hon. Mr. Bernier received the deputation most courteously, and surances that their views would receive the most careful consideration in view of the importance of the in dustry in which they were engaged, caused much gratification.

Speaking on the prospects of the Rainy River country, he said that everybody there was Things look bright for a big boom in lacrosse in London this summer. Can-ada's national game is coming back into waiting with great interest the comlacrosse in London this summer. Canada's national game is coming back into public favor with a rush, and from all indications the lads with the netted sticks will be the attraction for sport lovers this summer. Last year a small but enthusiastic bunch of lacrosse lovers organized a team that played some really first-class games after they got into the swing of the thing. The team was stacked up against the fast St. Marys outfit, which subsequently won the Ontario championship; but still, it played every game the season through. The club lost money on the season, but brought out a lot of likely material and gave a number of people in London a chance to see the Canadian game played for the first time.
This year the people are looking for lacrosse, and the team will be vastly stronger than before, and will have the benefit of having played together for an entire season. Given a good district, it's dollars to doughnuts that the boys in

Laurie is not a practical mining man, but he says that the belief of all the men who have thoroughly explored the country is that there is gold there in paying quantities widely distrib-uted. The fact seemed quite evident by the success of the Mikado and Sultana. There are many other proper ties just as promising, and with the coming of the railway supplies will be handled cheaply, and capitalists will take renewed interest in the district. Quite a little local money, chiefly be longing to Rat Portage, has been put into mining properties, showing that those on the spot believe in the future old gold and purple will draw the people this summer. An effort will be made to form a district to include London, Strat-ford, Woodstock and St. Marys, and if th

While mining is the hope of the country, it has other resources of great value. It is very rich in spruce for can be done, a red-hot season is promised, is the clubs will be evenly matched, and there is plenty of rivalry between the towns. There is any amount of good lacrosse material in London, and a first-class team will be put on the pulpwood, and just check-full of water-powers. An important one at Fort Frances is now being inquired after by an American company which wants to start a pulp mill on the Canadian side and a paper mill on the American side. Another possibility in con-nection with the lumber situation is the establishment of sawmills and sash and door factories at Fort Frances for the adjoining country.

Mr. Laurie praised very highly the agricultural resources of the country. Along the Rasny River there is a strip of land about 80 miles in length, extending back, he thought, about 20 to 25 miles, which has soil of remarkable richness. Last fall a cabbage was exhibited in Fort Frances weighing 40 pounds. Potatoes grown there are of very good size and excellent quality, and the oat crop is above the old On-tario standard. There is a market in the lumber camps and along the railis one who grows, without inway for everything that can be grown. Settlement hitherto has been chiefly terruption of health, from a from Ontario, with a growing tendency on the part of people from the baby up—except the inevitable Dakotas and Minnesota to drift across the boundary and take up land on the Ontario side. With the completion of the railway Mr. Laurie looks for a decided rush for settlement to the Rainy River region. The settlers are mostly people accustomed to new terliver oil has done more, in the ritory, and when it is cleared up and thoroughly drained Mr. Laurie be-lieves that its climate will be pretty 26 years of its existence, than much that of old Ontario.

Come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way; but in spite of pimples at other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's bad. Hood's Sarsapatilla removes them and cures all the painful and disfiguring troubles they cause. Nothing else cleanses the system and clears the complexion like Hood's. Humers

AFTER EFFECT OF GRIP Are Often More Serious Than the Grip

Physicians and grip sufferers alike are agreed that the after effects of the disease are more to be feared than the acute attack; you can never be sure that the disease has left the system completely.

La Grippe naturally attacks the weakest organ and leaves it still weaker. Not only pneumonia, consumption, bronchitis and throat trouble follow the grip, but kidney, liver and stomach are troubles just as liable to result, provided any of these organs should happen to be in a week condition at the time of attack.

To get rid of the grip germ, to get few remedies are so good and none safer than Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are not a compound of powerful and dangerous drugs, but a pleasant, palatable, convenient remedy in tablet form, composed of the wholesome antisceptic principles of Eucalyptus bark, blood root and similar germicide remedies which are perfectly wholesome and harmless to the system, but death to the germs of grip, catarrh, consumption and diseases of the throat and air passages.

Mrs. Chas. Gormley, of Memphis Last winter an attack of the grip left me with weak back, a persistent cough and loss of flesh and appetite and after using various remedies for several months with little or no improvement I finally bought a 50-cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my drug store, and as they were pleasant and convenient to take, I used them at all times of day or night, and I was astonished to secure such fine results from so pleasant and convenient a medicine. In two weeks my cough disappeared, my appetite returned. I improved in flesh and color, and no one would now think that I had ever had such a thing as

No. 3 committee of the city council met last night at the city hall, their session lasting about an hour. The members of the fire brigade were given a much-desired increase of salary. A motion to tax the auditorium as a place of public amusement was voted down. A quantity of other business of less importance was also

The members present were Ald Stevely (in the chair), Gerry, Jolly and Garret, Engineer Graydon, Fire Chief Roe, Inspector Bell and Secretary

The matter of increasing firemen's salaries again came up for discussion. A motion to reaffirm their former recommendation was lost, and Ald. Garphonograph, one of the largest of its ret's motion was carried. It provides that the chief's salary be increased $100 per annum, and the firemen's salaries be increased $25 per annum, after seven years' service.

Ald. Jolly brought up the matter of the Y. M. C. A. being allowed to run the auditorium as a place of public amusement without paying the license fee of $80 imposed by bylaw. He said it was unfair to make one place pay and let another escape free. He mov-ed that Inspector Bell be instructed to enforce the bylaw and collect the fee of $80. His motion was, however, voted down.

A memo was received from the city clerk, informing the committee that the board of health had established a temporary pest house, and calling attention to the fact that a permanent building would have to be provided, The committee will report progress. Mr. Wm. Smith wrote, notifying the committee that the master plumbers had appointed a committee of two to meet the committee or the board of health in relation to the proposed plumbing bylaw. The communication was laid over.

Contractor Boyd was allowed till May 1 to fulfill his contract for supplying firemen's clothing.

Inspector Bell reported the expiration of the relief wood contract. Ald. Jolly moved that tenders be called for same, also for coal for city buildings for one year and for 100 cords of wood to be delivered at the storage yard. The motion carried. THERE ARE GENERALLY TWO SIDES TO A STORY.

The Charges Laid Against Detective Ward and Constable Sadler-Detective Ward's Statement.

In the Advertiser of Monday there appeared an item referring to the charges which have been laid by Hight Constable McLoud against Detective Robert Ward and Constable Wm. Sadler. Constable Sadler took offence at a portion of the item which offence at a portion of the item which inferred that he was largely to blame for the escape of the prisoner Ensign at Ingersoll, and on Tuesday he wrote to the Advertiser taking exception to the published statement. Below is given Detective Ward's account of the occurrence in question:

"The offence for which Ensign was to be tried when brought to London was one punishable only by a fine of $i to $5. Ensign's wife wrote him at the Central Prison telling him she would meet the train at Ingersoll and give him the money for his fine. "The train on which the prisoners Johnson and Ensign were brought to London was the westbound flyer, which stays only a minute at Ingersoll. When leaving Woodstock Ensign told the officers of his desire to see his wife at Ingersoll. Sadler at once gave his assent to the request, in which Detective Ward join-The men were in the smoking compartment of one of the ordinary day coaches, and the pasage-way being on the same side as the station it was necessary for the prisoners to leave the car to allow Ensign to speak

"The two prisoners were handcuffed When Ingersoll together. Ward took the to the car vestibule. prisoners Sadler remaining in the smoking comit entirely out of the system and blood partment instead of accompanying his prisoners. Detective Ward stood on the station platform by the car vestibule, Ensign and Johnson stand ing on the car steps above him. Ward was looking around for Mrs. Ensign when the prisoner caused turn his head away by pointing and saying, "There she is." As Ward turned, Ensign drew his hand out of the handcufis and ran across the platform.

"Had Sadler been in his place be side Johnson, Ward would have been free to pursue Sadler, but the detective had to take his remaining prisoner back to the car and secure him there, and by that time the train had moved out, leaving Ensign at liberty and unpursued.

High Constable McLoud's statements about the case place Sadler in an equally unfavorable light. The high constable refused Sadler permission to go after the prisoners with Ward, and Sadler went entirely on his own responsibility.

In his charges against the two officers, laid before the junior county judge, and to be heard March 30, Mr. McLoud lays the blame chiefly upon Sadler and exonerates Ward as far as It will be remembered that Sadler is said to have allowed a prisoner, Smith by name, to escape, after the latter had been arrested by Detective

A SUCCESSFUL MEDICINE.-Every one wishes to be successful in any undertaking in which he may engage. It is, therefore, extremely gratifying to the proprietors of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills to know that their efforts to compound a medicine which would prove a blessing to mankind have been successful beyond their expectations. The indorsation of these pills by the public is a guarantee that a pill has been produced which will fulfill everything claimed for it.
