SEVERE DISCIPLINE TEST

Dominion's Men Came Out of
It With Flying Colors.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, April 24.—The Toronto Star's war reviewer, in discussing today the Canadian contingent at Langemarck, says: "The fact is that the Germans suddenly overcame the French force between Langemarck and Dixmude on Thursday night and outflanked the first Canadian division, threatening it with wholesale capture. This compelled the Canadian contingent to retire precipitately, abandoning all its four 60-pounders, or 4.7-inch guns, and probably many of its forty-eight 18-pounders. The Germans claim to have captured 30 cannon besides the 60-pounders, and as the heavier guns known locally as garrison artillery were well in the rear of lighter field guns, it is probable that some of these were taken."
"It was no fault of the Canadians that they yielded ground. They composed the extreme north wing of the entire British line in France and Belgium, and when the French force holding a few miles of line between them and the Belgians on the north retired to the west of the canal three miles away, they left the Canadians' left wing hanging in the air, with the enemy swarming to the rear of our force."
"Annihilation or immediate retreat were the only options given them, and they did well to extricate themselves without more serious losses. A situation of that kind is the severest test of discipline any troops can endure, and it is no ideal boast to say that Canadians came through with flying colors."
"What Germans Forgot."
It will be noticed it was the 47 guns of the Canadians that figure in the British official statement as having been captured by Germans, then retaken by Canadians. This is the Canadian heavy artillery, all in fact, that were with the contingent. British dispatches say nothing about the Canadian field artillery 18-pounders; there were more than thirty of these with the Canadian contingent.
In the official statement from Berlin yesterday, the Germans claimed the capture of four heavy guns and other guns. These are evidently the four heavy guns referred to, but Berlin didn't mention that these guns were recaptured by Canadians.

[Canadian Press.]
Honolulu, April 24.—An ultimatum demanding a satisfactory reply within three days to the demands of Japan on China has been sent by the Japanese cabinet to Eki Hakki, the Japanese minister at Peking, for delivery to the representatives of China at the negotiations, according to a dispatch from Tokyo to the Hawaii Shampo, a Japanese newspaper here.

THE DIARY OF MARS
The new battle in Belgium, which has developed suddenly into one of the most important encounters in the west, since the present battle line was formed, is being carried on by a relentless German attack and a determined resistance on the part of the British. It is now apparent that the Germans have brought up heavy reinforcements for this attack, and it is suggested in London that their immediate objective is the capture of Ypres, preliminary to another attempt to break through to the English Channel.
An official statement from the British war office today says that the British troops are still fighting for the ground which they were compelled to yield. The loss of these positions exposed the Canadian division, which was compelled to fall back. The Canadians lost four pieces of artillery, but later recaptured them in a counter-attack, which, although occasioning heavy losses, is described as most brilliant and successful. The Canadians also took a considerable number of prisoners, including a colonel. The statement concludes: "Their conduct has been magnificent throughout."

Free Light and Water for Camp Is City's Duty

Enormous Expenditure For Troops Calls For Co-Operation and Assistance From Public Utilities Commission.

So far London has received from the military paymaster $1,000 for water used by the soldiers, and $800 for light furnished.

Just what is the public utilities commission doing to help maintain London as a great concentration camp?

When the annual fall camps are held in peace times the commission gives light and water free to the military authorities. But since the soldiers on active service have been in process of training the commission has charged for every drop of water and every watt of light that has been used.
It would be well if the commission could see their way clear to making a free grant of light and water to the camp. It would show that the city is willing to do its share in aiding the Government and the military organization. The Advertiser feels sure that Chairman Pocock, and Commissioners Chapman, Mitchell and McFarland, will be willing to act together and to make the necessary arrangements to make the bills of the authorities non-payable when they are presented.
It is simply because no one has thought of the necessity for some action on behalf of the city authorities that the bills have been paid each month. Every citizen appreciates the presence of the soldiers in the city apart from the pecuniary advantage and would do his share in keeping them here.
It is not likely that the claims of the other places over London will be successful in winning the concentration camp from the city, but it is well for London to realize that the presence of the soldiers is good business as well as good patriotism.
For almost nine months London has been a point for recruiting and organization. It is stated to the Advertiser by one in close touch with the facts that the sum of $200,000 has been spent each month of that time and on some occasions the monthly expense for the whole district was nearly $300,000, of which London secured the large proportion.
There is no private soldier who secures less than $1.10 per day and the commissariat and other expenses probably double this figure, although it is confessed that this is a guess.
In the space of one year it is said that the money paid out in London will run into more than $2,000,000, nearer $3,000,000; in fact, and what would the city not give to secure an industry that would make such a expenditure?

It is said that it is possible to hold the Western Front in London and the soldiers at the same time. At the same time it may be incumbent on citizens to postpone the fair.
Guelph and Goderich are after the concentration camp and the matter just rests in the hands of the military authorities. At the same time a little appreciation of the soldiers in the city and free grants for water and light would not be misplaced.

Special Letter of Thanks For Heroes of British Navy

[Canadian Press.]
London, April 24.—The admiralty has decided to send letters of thanks on vellum to officers and men displaying daring and resource in the handling of the ships of the fleet. The letters will be equivalent to the well known "Mention in the Dispatches" in the army.
Such letters have thus far been sent to six officers concerned in the sinking of the U-8 and U-12. The latter, says the admiralty, was sunk off the Forth. This is the first information issued of the locality of the sinking of the boats.

"MAGNIFICENT," SAYS BRITISH WAR OFFICE OF CANADIAN ACTION

Recapture of Guns and Their Counter Attack Saved Situation at Langemarck—C captured Many Germans, But Suffered Heavy Loss.

[Canadian Press.]
London, April 24.—12:45 p.m.—The war office today gave out the following official statement:
"The fight for the ground into which the Germans penetrated between Steenstraete and Langemarck still continues. The loss of this part of the line laid bare the left of the Canadian division, which was forced to retire in order to keep in touch with the right of the neighboring troops."
GUNS SOON RETAKEN.
"In the rear of the latter had been four Canadian 4.7-inch guns, which thus passed into the hands of the enemy. But some hours later the Canadians made a most brilliant and successful advance, recapturing these guns, and taking a considerable number of German prisoners, including a colonel. The Canadians had many casualties, but their gallantry and determination undoubtedly saved the situation. Their conduct has been magnificent throughout."

GUNS FROM MONTREAL.
[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, April 24.—The 47 guns with the Canadian division are part of the heavy artillery brigade. They are 45 pounders from Montreal.
Officers of the heavy artillery battery of Montreal are: Major F. C. Magge, Portland, N. B.; Captain G. E. Hall, Montreal; Lieut. W. A. Irving, Quebec; Lieut. J. A. Ryan, Montreal; and Lieut. W. H. Robb, Montreal.

"SAM" EXPECTED IT.
Ottawa, April 24.—"They would never leave those guns in the hands of the Germans," said Major-General Sam Hughes, minister of militia, when shown the British war office statement, regarding the Canadian victory.
"They have done what was expected of them, what we all knew they could do, and that was their duty. Yes, this dispatch makes us prouder than ever of them. I am sorry that the dispatch says there were many casualties, but we must be prepared for these."
REGIMENTS UNKNOWN.
Ottawa, April 24.—Militia headquarters authorities state that they have absolutely no means of telling what Canadian regiments were involved in the fighting of Thursday and Friday in France. Information as to the disposition of the troops has not been officially communicated to Canada.

PRAISED BY SIR JOHN FRENCH
[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
London, April 24.—The Independent, writing from Northern France at a late hour last night, says that in the fighting at Hill 60 Canadians specially distinguished themselves, and have been commended by Sir John French for the speed and precision with which they dug themselves in after charging in considerable force and in a very hot corner. Their trench and sandbag work was so good that they suffered only six casualties.

"Send Food" Is Burden of Letters Received by Friends.

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, April 24.—A London cable to the Gazette says:
Mrs. Fitzgerald has received a series of letters from her husband, P. D. Fitzgerald, of the 1st Battalion of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, who is a prisoner at Goettingen. The burden of the letters is the same. One runs: "I should like you to send me something to strengthen me. I should not like any of you to see me now. You can send some cigarettes, but food first."
Mrs. Dunphy, of North Hill Road, Swansea, has also received letters from her husband, who is interned in the same camp as Fitzgerald. He writes: "I am afraid I won't exist if this war lasts much longer. Am I like a rake already. Oh, do send something out to me. If you only knew how I am feeling at the time of writing this letter. Send me out some bread, bacon and cheese. Don't deny this one request."

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS
IN LONDON MUST PAY $15
MORE FOR TELEPHONES

Charitable institutions in London, operated by the city to relieve suffering and distress in its various forms, are the next to suffer the high cost of using the Bell telephone system. The rates for all charitable institutions in the city, hitherto $20 per year, have been increased to $35 per year. The increase goes into effect at the end of this month.
A communication to this effect was received today by the Rev. Canon Cameron, president of the Children's Aid Society. The letter intimated that the increased rate was made at the instigation of the railway commission, and in compliance with its bylaws, and was not the action of the Bell Telephone Company.
"Whatever the reason for the increase it will be most severely felt by the institutions, who will find it a great hardship," declared Sheriff Cameron to The Advertiser.
He pointed out that if the idea of the railway commission is to prevent favoritism and special privilege amongst the users of the telephone, the Bell Telephone Company could have let the rate for charitable institutions remain at $20, which is the annual charge for private house phones. The directors and officers of the city institutions will endeavor to have the increased rate lowered. Sheriff Cameron is of the opinion that some action of the people should be taken, if possible, to prevent the Bell Telephone Company from making the difficulty of operating the city's charitable institutions greater than it already is. The Bell Telephone Company's franchise in the city expires on May 1, when it is understood that the city will make every effort to have many of the so-called extra charges for modern equipment and connections, cut out of the yearly telephone tax.

FRANK H. COLES SUCCUMBS AFTER SEVERE ILLNESS

Had Been Connected With Inland Revenue Department Here For Many Years.

ONE SON AT THE FRONT

Wife, Five Daughters and Three Sons Survive
Him.

Two sons of the late Frank W. Coles have offered their lives in the service of the Empire. Frank J. Coles, of Toronto, formerly of the city hall staff, served all through the South African campaign, and Major William G. Coles is now commanding a section of the Army Service Corps in France.

After a residence of 54 years in this city, during which time he won the respect and esteem of citizens generally, Frank G. Coles, since 1872 in the Government service, and father of Major William G. Coles, now with the First Contingent, died at his home, 219 Central avenue, at 4 o'clock this morning after an illness of four months.
Mr. Coles was born in Exeter, Devonshire, England, in 1844, and came to Canada at the age of 15, settling in London. The early years he spent in the office of the old Prototype newspaper, which was owned by the late John Gibbons, until he was about 28 years of age he entered the inland revenue service, with which he has been connected ever since, his 43 years of continuous service constituting a record in London. He was recognized as a valuable civil servant by both parties, and the sterling qualities by which he was known were recognized in his unbroken tenure.
Oldest of Choir Singers.
Mr. Coles was one of the oldest choir singers in London. Last December, after being connected with St. Peter's Cathedral choir for years, Frank G. Coles, he celebrated their golden anniversary two years ago.
Yesterday a cablegram was sent to Major Coles in France, but it is not known whether it would reach him. He is survived by his widow and five daughters—Mrs. W. J. Anderson, Chicago; Mrs. G. C. Bliss, Detroit; Mrs. C. A. Wilson, Misses Ada and Perie, of this city, and three sons—Major Coles, Frank J. of Toronto, and Fred H. of this city.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, Monday morning at 9 o'clock to St. Peter's Cathedral, where regular high mass will be celebrated.
WILHELMINA AT CARDIFF.
[Canadian Press.]
London, April 24.—The American steamer Wilhelmina, whose cargo of food supplies has been bought by the British Government, has reached Cardiff from Falmouth. She will now discharge her cargo, which was originally consigned to Hamburg, at Cardiff.

Situation Consolidated.
"Counterattacks made yesterday already have enabled us to regain part of the ground lost. Our situation has been completely consolidated and our attacks will endeavor to have good conditions with the support of the British and Belgian troops."
"The enemy made an attack at Les Perches and another at the Ypres Canal the forest of Apremont, both of which were repulsed."
"A German attack to the south of the forest of Parroy and further attacks on Reich Ackerkopf were stopped by our fire. The enemy suffered heavy losses."

GERMAN VERSION.
Berlin, April 24.—(By wireless to Sayville)—The German general headquarters today gave out the following official statement: "Attempts made by the enemy to reconquer lost terrain to the north and northeast of Ypres (Belgium) failed. The French and British attacks broke down under the German fire. The number of prisoners—French, English and Belgian—rose to 2,470. The pieces of cannon captured up to the present under the German fire. The number of machine guns and rifles and much ammunition and other war material were taken by the Germans. West of the Ypres Canal the Germans stormed the town of Lizerne."
"In the Champagne region the Germans broke up an enemy trench. Near Beaussart the French shelled their own trenches with artillery."
"Between the Meuse and the Moselle French attacks failed. The enemy who had entered the German trenches was ejected."
"In the forest of Le Preire the Germans made progress."
"In the Vosges there were no war operations on account of the fog and snow."
"In the eastern war arena there is no change in the situation."

CANADIANS SAVE SITUATION FOR ALLIES; RECOVERING GUNS CAPTURED BY ENEMY AND COVERING THEMSELVES WITH GLORY

Conduct Praised In Warmest Terms By the War Office, Which Admits Their Losses
Were Very Heavy—While Forced To Fall Back, They Took German Colonel and Many Prisoners.

[BY ED. L. KEEN.]
[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]

ONDON, April 24.—The Canadian contingent bore the brunt of the fighting in the latest German drive across the Yser Canal, according to an announcement by the war office today. The "Overseas" contingent, outnumbered and forced to give way, covered themselves with glory, and admittedly saved the day, preventing the onrushing Germans penetrating the main Anglo-French-Belgian line. They lost very heavily, the war office admits, but their conduct is praised in the warmest terms.

THE RETREAT AND EFFECTIVE COUNTER-ATTACK.

When the German charged the forward positions along the line from Steenstraete to Langemarck the Canadians were forced to fall back, in order to avoid complete annihilation. Outnumbered, and subjected to bombardment by enormous German guns, that threw explosive shells and shells filled with the most deadly gases, the Canadians fell back on their main supports, abandoning four of their guns.

Reforming under fire, they dropped into surprisingly strong counter-attacks, capturing the cannon and taking many German prisoners, including one colonel. The Canadians then withdrew, step by step, fighting hard over every inch of the ground. They took with them all of their guns and supplies, finally making their stand at an agreed-on point until supports reached the scene.

SUPREME EFFORT TO REACH THE SEA.

The fighting along the line from Ypres to the junction of the canal and river continues with unabated ferocity. The Germans are bringing up heavy reinforcement, and are plainly endeavoring once again to hack their way through to the sea. The ground over which the fighting is progressing is low, and it is almost impossible for the troops to take cover. In consequence the losses on both sides are admittedly the heaviest since the original fighting of last August. General French has sent reinforcements to the scene, and every effort is being made to check the German offensive.

FIRST LINE PRUSSIAN BROTHERS BROUGHT TO WEST.

The Germans had plainly been preparing for the present assault for several days. Many of their troops who are now engaged are Prussians of the first line, who have been withdrawn from Von Hindenburg's army on the Eastern Russian front. They are well supplied with artillery, including heavy field guns and great Austrian automobile guns.

It is reported that many members of the Kaiser's personal staff are at the front along this new battle line, which is held to indicate the importance the Germans are attaching to the fighting.

The statement of the war office today admits that the Germans were able to take the Steenstraete-Langemarck lines, but does not give any details of the new battle line.

Paris, April 24, via London.—2:57 p.m.—The French war department today gave out the following official statement: "Supplementary reports furnish fuller particulars of the way the Germans succeeded in forcing our lines back during Thursday evening to the north of Ypres, between the Yser Canal and the Escaut river. Thick yellow smoke emitted from the German trenches and driven by northerly winds produced an effect of complete asphyxiation among our troops which was felt even in our second line positions."

"Counterattacks made yesterday already have enabled us to regain part of the ground lost. Our situation has been completely consolidated and our attacks will endeavor to have good conditions with the support of the British and Belgian troops."

CANADA DESERVING OF BRITAIN'S BEST

Archbishop of York Says the Mother Country Should Repay Sacrifice.

INSTIL HIGHEST IDEALS

Declares Britain Cannot Rival
Germany in Contest of Inhumanity.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
London, April 24.—The Archbishop of York, who was once invited to accept the archbishopric of Montreal, made some reference to Canada's participation in the war at Albert Hall last night. Many good Christians are inclined to look a little fearfully upon his grace's war speech, since he spoke some time ago upon the subject of "The Great War." "What shall we think of Canada, which is pouring out its very life blood as an offering to its ancient land?" asked the archbishop.

Give Back Best.
"They have given their best to us and we owe it to them to give our best in return. What is our best? Is it imports and exports? Is it comfort and high wages? We are learning in these times that there are greater and deeper things than these. The great things of the nation are high ideals, and if we believe in the ultimate lifting power of British ideals, the best thing we can give these new nations is power to bring into their own civilization our own ideals and convictions."

Cannot Rival Atrocities.
Speaking of the enemy's atrocities, the archbishop said: "There is no man who feels more than I do the need for and the difficulty of putting restraint upon the feelings and anger of just indignation which these inhumanities arouse, but we dare not enter upon any rivalry in inhumanity. We should only be beaten in that contest and therefore, it is unnecessary even to begin it. If the sword drawn on the side of night has stained itself, there is more reason why the sword on the side of right should be unstained."

WOW, BUT IT'S HOT
Thermometer Went to 83 Degrees of Heat Today.

London received its first real touch of summer today when Old Sol sent the thermometer up to 83, the highest mark the mercury has gone to yet this year.

It was truly only a summer day. Women discarded their coats, and many flimsy shirt waists were in evidence, while a number of men appeared on the streets with their 1915 model straw hats. Soft collars also replaced starched ones, in a great number of instances.

Springbank street cars, which opened their hourly schedule today, carried a large number of passengers to the city's recreation grounds.

Pressure is now highest over the Gulf of St. Lawrence, remaining comparatively low over the western half of the continent.

A few light scattered showers have occurred from Lake Huron to New Brunswick, while heavy local showers have been experienced in Eastern Manitoba and the Lake Superior district.

Today the subject for our chat in the fifth Scout Law, "A Scout is courteous." Courtesy is one of the things that should be cultivated by every boy. To be courteous does not mean to be "silly," but means to have respect and show respect to one's elders and those in authority over one, and to always be polite to women, children, cripples and invalids, etc.

How many of my chums raise their hats to every lady when you pass her on the street? I am sure most of you do. How many raise your hat when you pass your school-principal and a minister? If you ever went to school in England you do. If you have not got this habit down, I was, I am afraid very few of you do. If you have not got this habit down to it and remain hitched to it because it is your duty. Do not overdo it, however, or you will make yourself a bore and a "siss."

One of the things that I notice among the Scouts of London is a lack of courtesy to their officers. This does not apply to all the Scouts, but to a large number of them. In the troop that I have the privilege to lead, I notice that the fellows are too haphazard about the manner of speech and tone that they use to those in authority over them. I do not think they realize how impolite they sound, because if they did, I am positive they would feel cheap. These fellows must remember that in most cases it is a great sacrifice for a man to spend a great deal of his time so that they can have a good time, and find the best way of living. It is galling for him to see that his efforts don't even bring respect from the fellows that he is trying to help. Be a little more considerate for your officers, boys, and watch those wrinkles smooth on his forehead.

When a Scout is in uniform and meets a lady, he should give the full salute. When he meets an officer of any military body or a Scout officer, he should also give the full salute. When he meets a boy of his own rank, he should salute is all that is necessary for him to give.

A Scout upon no account should take a reward for being courteous.

POULTRY.

Poultry is one of the most interesting hobbies of boys, and if it is properly conducted, proves a valuable one. If a boy goes into poultry raising he must do so with all his energy; half-hearted poultry raising is a wretched failure. The average school boy has lots of time to take care of at least ten hens and still have time to carry papers and enjoy sport. He will find it a lot of time for work and play so that too much time is not spent on any one of the three.

The best way to start poultry raising is to buy a clucking hen and set her, then raise the chickens she hatches. A Plymouth Rock hen is the most reliable setter, but if you have a few Orpingtons, Wyandottes and cross-breeds are also good setters. The cracker the hen the better mother she will make, although many quiet hens are excellent mothers.

When you have secured the setter, set her in a cheese box in a shed, or if the shed is not available, put the cheese box in a large packing case and cover the front of it so that the hen will not be disturbed by cats or dogs. Never set a hen in a cellar, for the eggs never do well below the surface of the ground. Before you put the eggs in the nest, put a fresh sod on the bottom of the cheese box, and with straw and then place the eggs in. Put the hen carefully in the nest and cover her over with a sack. Take the sack off the next day.

As for eggs, you have your choice of many good breeds. Leghorns and Minorcas are the best layers, but poor table fowls. Rocks and Rhode Island Reds are good all-around birds, but if you are not particular about thoroughbred, I would advise you to get a cross-bred, as they are generally the healthiest fowl.

The hen should be carefully lifted from her nest once a day. If you are clumsy, you had better leave her to come off herself. In lifting her care should be taken to place the hands under her legs, and to press the wrists against her wings. Slowly lift her off the nest. Take her out and feed her grain and put a dish of water beside her. Go away from her and let her dust herself. After she has been off about fifteen minutes take her and put her beside her nest. She will get on herself.

If she breaks one of her eggs take you do. If you have not got this habit down, I was, I am afraid very few of you do. If you have not got this habit down to it and remain hitched to it because it is your duty. Do not overdo it, however, or you will make yourself a bore and a "siss."

BOY SCOUT NOTES.

Troop 9, under Scoutmaster E. Ray, are re-organizing into a cycle troop. Most of the boys have bicycles, but those that have not will be formed into a junior troop. The cycle troop is certainly a fine idea, and should prove a success.

Troop 7 held a very enjoyable meeting last Wednesday night. They met the night after last from Tuesday to Wednesday night. The relay races and other sports were heartily participated in by all the boys. A number of them reported that they had gone to Springfield the Saturday before and had built a wigwam. Many of them stayed over until Sunday morning but were home in time to attend the morning service.

Troop 11, St. Matthews, have changed their meeting night from Tuesday to Thursday. A full attendance is expected next Thursday night.

The Scoutmasters of London are holding a banquet next Tuesday evening at the Chivas Restaurant, 117 Dundas street. All Scoutmasters, instructors, or senior Scouts who wish to attend, notify Mr. Geo. Metcalfe, Huron & Erie Bank, phone 1052.

Troop 18 completed their series of first-aid lectures last meeting night. Most of the boys are now ready to pass the Junior St. Johns test.

LETTERS FROM MY CHUMS.

Dear Scoutmaster—I saw that you wanted a letter. I like our little chat in the Advertiser very much. My brother and I each try to get the paper on Saturday to see your column. Will you please answer a few questions?

(1) I am ten, and four feet eight inches tall. Am I tall enough to be a Scout?

(2) Will you give me the names of some of the Scouts of eleven or twelve so I could correspond with them?

Wishing you luck in your camp that you are planning, I remain,
R. R. NO. 2, SOUTHWOLD, ONT.
Answers—(1) Yes.

(2) This request is referred to other chums. Surely some of you can find time to correspond with Ken. Let me know how you fare, Ken.

MARVELOUS BALSAMIC ESSENCES CURE CATARRH; NO DRUGS TO TAKE—A DIRECT BREATHING CURE

Statistics Prove Ninety-seven Per Cent of Canada's Population Is Infected With the Germs of Catarrh.

This disease is most dangerous owing to its tendency to extend to the bronchial tubes and lungs, where it causes Consumption. Unfortunately the people have had faith in sprays, ointments and snuffs, which can't possibly cure, and in consequence catarrhal disease has become a national curse. Science is advancing every day, and fortunately a remedy has been discovered that not only cures but prevents catarrh. The new treatment, "Catarrh-cure," has sufficient power to kill the germs of Bronchitis, Catarrh and Asthma. It contains pure pine essences and healing balsams that go to the remotest part of the nose, throat and lungs, carrying health-giving medication to every spot that is tainted or weak. You don't take Catarrh-cure like cough mixture; you inhale its healing vapor at the mouth and it spreads all through the breathing organs, soothing and curing wherever Catarrh exists. This is nature's way of supplying the richest balsams, the purest antiseptics known to science.

A sneezing cold is cured in ten minutes. A harsh cough is eased in an hour, the most offensive catarrh is in consequence drawn from the system. For Asthma and Bronchial Irritation nothing can equal Catarrh-cure—every physician and druggist says so, and we advise our readers to try this treatment if suffering with any winter ill. The complete outfit costs $1.00, medium size 50 cents, at all dealers.

AUSTRIAN PEACE PROPOSED BLOCK RUSSIAN PLANS

Kaiser Said To Have Taken Part In Conferences To Discuss Situation—Francis Joseph Willing to End Warfare, To Hel p Germany.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, April 24.—3:10 a.m.—The Daily Mail's Warsaw correspondent sends to his newspaper a long statement from "a high authoritative source" in which the possibility is discussed of an early conclusion of a separate peace with Austria.

"Although the air is full of such stories, and the indications show that Austria is desirous of an instant and lasting peace," the statement says, "it must be understood that if Austria ceased to be a belligerent her position as neutrals would mean that she would be able to offer as great if not a greater obstacle to the success of the Russian arms as if she remained a belligerent."

Russians Follow Grant.
"The Russian plan of campaign now is definitely based on Grant's despised American civil war theory of a continuous extension of battle line. It is necessary that Russia possess herself, temporarily at least, of the Austro-German frontier line from Cracow westward. Grant falls to back his way through, although he had the preponderance of five men to his opponent's two, which is a greater preponderance than we can hope to attain. But he kept extending his line until one day the foe failed to get him, and was out-flanked."

From the same source the correspondent says he learns that recently there have been two conferences between Emperor William and Emperor Francis Joseph and Archduke Eugene of Austria, at which a possible separate peace for Austria was discussed.

Individuals Must Have Initiative
Commanders In Modern Warfare Have Only Limited Control.

By Throwing Them Where Needed, Generals Show Their Genius.

London, April 24.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—An eye-witness at British headquarters in France, writing in explanation of the recent operations at Neuve Chapelle points out the limitations which beset commanders in modern warfare.

"The only way in which the commander of any unit, be it battalion, brigade, division or army corps, can actively influence a battle," he says, "is by throwing into the fight a body of fresh troops which have not been employed. His power of control is especially limited in modern warfare by the hail of lead and repulse a counter attack, or to give the front line, and in such operations as are now in progress by the inevitable confusion resulting from close quarter fighting in inclosed country."

Individual Resource Counts.
"The troops launched into the fight must be of necessity be left to fend themselves to a great extent, and their fortunes will depend on the individual resource, initiative and determination of the officer and men. It is impossible to alter their dispositions, to change the directions to which they have been committed, or in many cases even to communicate with them. The orderlies get shot and telephone wires are cut. Beyond the fact that they are heavily engaged and under heavy fire, their exact circumstances may be unknown."

"In such circumstances it is only by his reserve that a commander can survive the fight. It may be thrown in to fill a gap, to outflank some position which resists all efforts at frontal attack, to repulse a counter attack, or to give the front line when checked the necessary impetus to carry it forward. It is, in fact, in the power of quick decisions as to where and how to employ reserves that generalship to a great extent lies."

ARMORED AUTOS STORED IN BUFFALO ARMORIES
Trucks Destined for Russia Permitted Floor Space by Colonel's Order.

[Canadian Press.]
Buffalo, N. Y., April 24.—The fact that the basement of the 65th Regiment armory here is being used to store armored automobiles trucks bearing battle indicating they are to be shipped to Russia, was brought to the attention of Brigadier-General Welch last night. He declined to say whether or not he would take official cognizance of the situation.

Col. Babcock said he did not know the trucks were armored machines, but that they were destined for one of the warring nations of Europe. The fact that they are so marked, he said, would not cause him to cancel the permit.

FRENCH PAPER URGES JOINT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE ATROCITIES
Would Accept German Idea to Convince Neutrals of Truth.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, April 24.—Commenting on the use of asphyxiating bombs by the Germans, the press declares that German official communications during the past fortnight have charged the French with employing the same variety of shells, probably with the purpose of representing as reprisals their methods of warfare.

"Humanity" urges the Government to associate itself with the movement undertaken in Germany for the formation of an international commission to verify charges of atrocities made by belligerents. The paper argues that the reports of such a committee, in the eyes of neutrals, would be authentic, while the Germans can deny accusations based solely upon the evidence of the French general staff.

GERMAN FAMILIES FLEE FROM ITALY

Advised By Their Consuls, They Cross Over To Switzerland.

Advice Given Italian People In Crisis By Giornale d'Italia.

[Canadian Press.]

Chiasso, Via Paris, April 24.—The exodus of German families from Italy continues, and they are crossing the frontier in constantly increasing numbers. Most of them are settling temporarily in Swiss towns, with the expectation of returning to their home in Italy when the war is over, or if Italy decides not to intervene. Nearly all of them say they left because they were urged to do so by their respective consuls.

CONSERVING BEEF.

[Canadian Press.]
Rome, April 23.—Via Paris, April 24.—A royal decree has been issued prohibiting the slaughter of calves weighing less than two quintals (40 pounds). The purpose of the order is to assure a larger beef supply for future necessities.

SPECIAL INTERVIEW.

Rome, April 23.—Via Paris, April 24.—Foreign Minister Sonnino today received in audience the Honorable French minister of foreign affairs, and conversed with him for more than an hour. M. Hanotaux has been in Rome for some time, and is believed to be on a special mission for his Government.

He already has had audiences with Pope Benedict and the papal secretary of state, and is believed to be coming here to bring about an understanding between France and the Holy See.

"KEEP YOUR NERVE."

[Canadian Press.]
Rome, April 23.—Via Paris, April 24.—"Keep your nerves in order," is the advice given to the people of Italy by the Giornale d'Italia in an editorial "for what is most needed now is national discipline."

The paper says that while the Government knows all the elements which have entered into a difficult international situation, and has received from parliament full power to act, the country must be allowed to work in peace until the time comes when it is considered possible to reveal what has been done without hurting the superior interests of the nation.

POET WOULD SERVE.

[Canadian Press.]
Rome, April 23.—Via Paris, April 24.—Gabriel D'Annunzio, the poet, will go to Quarto San Elena, near Genoa, May 5, his friends say, to attend the unveiling of a monument memorializing the departure from there of the men who helped Garibaldi free Italy.

If Italy enters the war it is reported to be the navy. He has said that at the battle of the Island of Lissa on July 20, 1866, in which the Austrians defeated the Italians, an Austrian historian was permitted to go aboard the flagship to describe Italy's defeat, and now he wishes to be in the same position to write of Italy's victory.

Patriotic Event.
The unveiling of the monument at Quarto is assuming the proportions of a great patriotic event which is especially significant at the present time. King Victor Emmanuel will preside at the ceremony. Gold medals will be distributed to the survivors of the Garibaldian expedition. All the 22 universities in the kingdom will be represented, as well as patriotic and

CLAIMS "PREPOSTEROUS."
[Canadian Press.]
London, April 24.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at the Hague telegraphs: "Reports received here through diplomatic channels from Berlin state that the German Government has practically abandoned the attempt to arrange a settlement between Austria and Italy."

"In diplomatic circles here the report is generally credited."

ANIMAL HOSPITALS OFFERED.
[Canadian Press.]
Rome, April 24.—The Society for the Protection of Animals has offered to provide four hospitals for sick or wounded army horses in case Italy goes to war. One is to be at the front, the second on the line of communication, and the other two at the bases.

The minister of war has accepted the offer. The Government is arranging to co-operate in supplying land on which to erect the hospital buildings. It will also provide fodder. The society will give ambulances and provide attendants and the necessary equipment. The British Blue Cross, which has done such excellent work for animals in France, has offered to send a report to Italy to give the Italian organization the benefit of his experience.

LONDON, April 24.—3:43 a.m.—The Daily Mail Athens correspondent says: "The new Dardanelles attack by the Allies has begun with the landing of troops at three points—the first at Enos, the second on the Suvla promontory, on the west of the Gallipoli Peninsula, and the third on the Bulair isthmus."

"The object of these troops is the capture of the Turkish forts on the Gallipoli Peninsula and to prevent the sending of Turkish reinforcements across the Bulair isthmus."

a collection among her friends and go away.

An unlooker accuses The Advertiser of creating such an appetite for the trip across Canada, down the picturesque British Columbia coast, to Seattle, Portland and San Francisco, back home, past the most famous beauty spots of the United States, that he is throwing discretion to the winds and taking his hard-earned savings to cover the route outlined for The Advertiser's lucky contest winners.

All Catching Fever.
Not only the candidates themselves, but all their friends, have caught the contest and the Panama-Pacific fever. One young woman who is valiantly supporting a candidate, insists she couldn't be more excited if she were in the contest herself. Indeed, she very much regrets that she didn't enter in the beginning, for the fun of the race, apart from the possibility of making a first place.

Twenty-six more week days to earn the coveted prize!
No wonder time seems to fly with so much to be done and so much to anticipate.

On Monday afternoon still another new interest will be added to the contest. The candidate who is napping on Monday afternoon when The Advertiser is delivered will miss an announcement very much to her advantage.

ASPHYXIATING BOMBS THROWN BY SLINGS

French Could Feel Their Effects at Two Miles Distance.

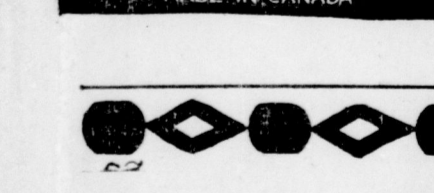

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, April 24.—The asphyxiating bombs used by the Germans in their attack near Ypres on Thursday were thrown at numerous points along a front of three miles, according to information that has been brought to Paris. The contents of these missiles were largely chlorine, mixed with other chemicals.

The Germans threw these bombs when the wind was blowing from them in the direction of the French trenches. The fumes caused uncomfortable breathing and a smarting of the eyes at a distance of nearly two miles behind the trenches, and the effect was so powerful that the Germans themselves had to wait a considerable time before they could occupy the evacuated trenches. During this delay the French troops recovered from the effects of the fumes, delivered a counter-attack and regained most of the ground lost. The German supply of chlorine bombs apparently had been used up in their first advance. They had no more to throw, and they gave way before the resolute bayonet attack of the French. The bombs themselves are thrown by means of a hand sling, such as boys use for throwing stones.

Something every good cook should know about flour

Above is an illustration of a grain of wheat magnified many times and cut in half so you can see how it is formed.

"A" indicates five layers of skin (afterwards bran) that cover it; "B" is the tiny sprout where growing starts; "C" is the little crease that has gathered dirt by the time the wheat is harvested; "D," which is mostly starch and gluten, is the part that makes white flour.

Many millers use as much as 90 per cent of every grain for flour, but for HUNT'S DIAMOND only about forty per cent of the grain is used. That is all that remains after all the skin, "crease" dirt, sprout and fibrous structure that runs through "D" is removed.

DIAMOND is ground more uniformly and finely than any other flour. That is why it makes bread a little better than any other flour you ever used.

For pastry more water and less flour is used.

MERCHANTS ON DUNDAS NEED TO "CLEAN UP"

Rubbish Piled High In Some of Their "Backyards."

A citizen commenting on the article in this paper as to the necessity for cleaning up the city said that some of the chief offenders were the merchants on Dundas street.

"Go into the yards behind the stores and you will find rubbish piled high," he said. "Not only is this unsightly and unsanitary, but it is a possible danger from the fire chief's standpoint."

NOTED ARTISTS FOR WARE RELIEF CONCERT

Splendid Musical Event Under Auspices of Local Hebrews.

The Hebrew war relief committee of the city announces that its grand concert will be held in the Armories, permission for this having been granted by Col. Shannon and Col. McCrimmon. Leo Ornstein, the ultra-modern pianist and composer, will take part as will also Miss Verity, Belgian prima donna, and Harold Meek. Leo Ornstein is a pianist of the futurist school and has created a great furor in New York's musical circles. Miss Verity is one of the most accomplished vocalists on the continent. Mr. Meek is a singer of renown.

The concert will be held on May 2 and proceeds will go to the Hebrew war relief fund.

It is largely through the energy of Aid. Max Lerner that the noted artists have been obtained for the concert. He is giving their efforts free of charge.

PROVES CONCLUSIVELY NEED OF SUBWAYS

The need of a subway or elevated tracks at Richmond street and other points of the city was proven conclusively today when the traffic was held up at this crossing for a period of fifteen minutes due to a heavy, Belgian prima donna, and Harold Meek. Leo Ornstein is a pianist of the futurist school and has created a great furor in New York's musical circles. Miss Verity is one of the most accomplished vocalists on the continent. Mr. Meek is a singer of renown.

The engine had just pulled past Clarence street when a horse bag broke and the train separated.

DRILLING HOT WORK

Soldiers Found "Workout" With Heavy Clothes a Warm Task.

Soldiers who had to drill today while wearing the regulation uniform, puttees and underwear issued for use during the winter, found conditions most unpleasant. Many of the men declared that today was the worst they have experienced during their training. The sun beat down on the drill grounds, and as the men marched and counter-marched they soon discovered that it was really warm. Some of the quarters at the Fair Grounds were rather sultry during the night, and many of the men declare that they will not get under canvas on Carleton Heights a bit too soon to suit them. A large number of men today obtained week-end passes and after their morning drill, they went to the afternoon trains to spend Sunday with relatives in all parts of the district.

TORONTO MEETING PROTESTS AGAINST HOLDING ELECTION

Speakers Blame Both Parties for Threat
—Prof. Wrong Chairman.

TORONTO, April 23.—That there should be no election during 1915 unless the war is over, and that in the meantime the Government should have the support of the entire nation, and give its attention to bringing the struggle to a successful issue, and that the opposition should give friendly co-operation,
was the purpose of a resolution passed at the public meeting held to protest against the holding of an election.

Both parties were blamed for the threatened election, and most of the speakers failed to hide their party sympathies.

Prof. Wrong, who was chairman, declared that the meeting was for neither party. He said that it seemed that Canada to a large extent was under the thrall of professional politicians. The forces that were endeavouring to bring on an election were not the forces that worked for the uplift of Canada. He also criticised the giving to the soldiers at the front of a vote.

"It is departing from good old British tradition," he declared. If Canada did not have an election she would have saved the humiliation of seeing her politics carried into the hands of Liberal newspapers and Liberal politicians and the Senate were criticised
by Rev. E. C. Cayley, who contended that they were responsible for the election.

Other speakers declared that the Government alone was responsible and the meeting was badly divided as to who was really responsible.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Men Accused of Assaulting Bank Manager Go To Higher Court.

BRANTFORD, April 23.—Charged with assaulting and wounding W. W.
Gourlay, manager of the Scotiabank branch of the Crown Bank, W. G.
Gourlay and Frederick Shoen pleaded guilty at the Brantford Police Court today and elected to be sent for trial.

Mr. Gourlay in giving evidence said
the men had approached him asking for a match. He was obliging them when he was set upon and knocked down, being taken while prone. He, however, owing to the darkness of the night, could not positively identify either of the defendants as his assailants. Upon their plea both men were sent up for trial.

WOULD HAVE TAKEN CHILD BACK HOME

Alleged Abductor, Arrested in Toronto,
Blames W. C. T. U. Representative.

DETROIT, April 23.—"If Miss Roberts, the W.C.T.U. worker in Toronto, had not had me arrested, I would have brought the child safely back to her parents in Wyandotte and there would not have been any case in court," said Willard Gagnier today, after he had finished telling Judge Van Zile and a jury his story of his alleged abduction of little Elsie Streicher, the 9-year-old girl whom he is charged with having abducted and taken to Toronto.

His whole testimony during the afternoon tended to bear out the statement that he would have brought the girl safely back, and even the evidence of the little girl herself wasn't denied.
A statement was read by a stenographer
in which Gagnier declared the child had begged to go and that he took her without thinking of the consequences.

Joseph Pilsarski, county investigator,
who brought Gagnier back from Toronto after his arrest, conceded that Gagnier had purchased the return
tickets to Detroit before he was arrested. Dr. A. L. French, who examined the girl two days after her return from Toronto, was positive she had not been seriously mistreated.

The presentation of evidence was closed during the afternoon and the assistant prosecutor, Schiappa, made finished his argument when court adjourned for the day. The concluding arguments will be made Saturday morning and the case will go to the jury before noon.

EMBARGO RAISED ON WOOLEN SHEEPSKINS

WASHINGTON, April 23.—In extension of the concessions to American woolen manufacturers to import raw wools, the British Government today gave notice that it would also raise the embargo on the exportation to the United States of "wooled sheepskins"

—skins with the wool on—provided the exportations are in accordance with the arrangement made with representatives of the American Textile Association which guards against the re-exportation
to other than allied countries.

High Officials Say Italy Will Remain Neutral

Not Likely To Participate in the War for Some Time to Come.

ROME (via London), April 24.—3:32
a.m.—It is stated in high official quarters here that it is becoming increasingly improbable that Italy will participate in the war, at least for some time to come.

CAPTURE OF YPRES GERMANS' OBJECT

Picked Troops Brought Up To Make Another Desperate Effort.

[Canadian Press.]
London, April 24.—Discussing the latest German effort to break through the British line at Ypres, the military correspondent of the Daily Mail says:

"The critical moment has arrived.
The immediate object of the Germans is the capture of Ypres, which they regard as the key to Canada. For this movement picked troops have been transported to the Flanders front as evidenced by repeated reports from Holland, and the elaborate troop movements in Belgium. The British blow at Hill No. 60 was an effort to strike first."

"If the German report of the capture of four heavy guns is true, the enemy must have made an advance of at least two or three miles, as heavy guns never are placed near the front, and often are four or five miles behind the advanced trenches."

"The Germans still are bringing up large reinforcements, throwing every available man into the gap. They have probably half a million men available
without depleting the eastern front,
and many men might be spared from Poland, where the roads render military operations impossible for the present."

"SWOBODA" ADMITS GERMAN NATIONALITY

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, April 24.—Raymond Ruff Schwind, who has gone under the name of Raymond Swoboda, now admits that he is a German subject, according to the Matin. The inquiry conducted by Major Julien, of the Paris
permanent court-martial, has revealed that Schwind was sentenced at Shanghai several years ago by the German consular court to two years imprisonment. He is said to have been transferred from China to Germany, where he served his sentence.

Schwind, who claimed to be an American citizen, was arrested on suspicion
of being responsible for the fire aboard
the steamship La Touraine, but this charge against him has been dropped,
although he is still under suspicion
of espionage by the military authorities.

HORN'S COUNSEL APPEALS TO INTERNATIONAL LAW

BOSTON, April 23.—The application of Werner Horn for a writ of habeas corpus was taken under advisement
by Federal Judge Loring today after a hearing on the Government's de-murrer to the petition.

The Government attorneys contended that to grant the petition would mean that the United States would have no rights which it could enforce as a neutral nation against a member of the German enemy. Horn's counsel argued that international law controlled the case as the German Government and not the individual was responsible for Horn's offense of illegally transporting between states the infamous with which he tried to destroy the international bridge at Vancouver, Maine.

CANADIAN MECHANICS TO BE SENT TO ENGLAND

WINNIPEG, April 23.—The unemployed mechanics here, led by according to being taken in proposal to send British-born artisans from Canada to England, where such labor is sorely needed, according to a statement made today by a prominent labor man.

The proposal is to assemble all of the British and Canadian ironworkers, brass workers, machinists and all sorts of mechanics, and send them to England to work in the ammunition and armament factories. The Minister of the Interior has been asked to arrange with railway and steamship agents for transportation. The Government will be asked to take care of the wives and families of the married men.

NEARLY FOUR THOUSAND ENLIST FROM THE UNIONS

OTTAWA, April 23.—Returns to the largest department show that up to the first of the year 3,498 men belonging to local trade unions throughout Canada had enlisted for war service, and in addition 417 British army reservists making a total of 3,915 Canadian trade unionists. Building trades were first with 1,249 men; railway brotherhoods next, with 48; Toronto headed the list, with 579; Winnipeg, 402; Montreal, 289; Vancouver, 222.

COLLEGE HEADS RESIGN; INSTITUTION IN TROUBLE

REGINA, April 23.—As a result of differences between the board of governors and staff of Regina College, that institution has been practically denuded of its departmental heads. With the exception of one or two directors of departments, all have resigned and it is rumored more will follow. Active financial support has been withdrawn from the college by the Methodist Conference of Saskatchewan.

It is understood differences of opinion
as to the scope of the college led to the trouble.

The resignations began with that of Principal Milliken a month ago. One professor blamed the trouble on alleged paranormal policy of the board, while another said the institution has collapsed and dry rot has set in.

PREMIER SCOTT IS DETERMINED

Will Close Bars Or Go Down To Defeat In the Attempt.

EXPECTED OPPOSITION Looked for Attempt To Defeat or Delay His Drastic Measure.

[Canadian Press.]
VANGUARD, Sask., April 23.—That the Government of Saskatchewan would carry through its new temperance policy, or go down to defeat in the attempt, was the declaration made by Premier Scott at a public meeting here tonight, at which the speakers were Hon. Mr. Scott, S. B. Moore, M.L.A.,
and Rev. Mr. Letch, M.L.A.

Both Mr. Moore and Mr. Letch declared themselves as emphatically in favor of the banish-the-bar principles outlined by Premier Scott, and their declarations met with strong approval
by the meeting.

Premier Scott, in dealing with the opposition to his temperance policy,
which has made itself manifest in certain quarters of late, said the Government had no intention of opposing the policy would be busy on plans which they hoped might either defeat the measure altogether, or in some way delay it, or lead to its modification.

Counted the Risks.
"I have only to say," declared the Premier, "that the Government intend to carry through its policy, and put into operation the measure which I outlined at Oxbow
or go down to defeat in the attempt.
The measure was not agreed upon, and my announcement was not made without the risks having been counted. We had become convinced that a large number of our people desired to put a full stop to the retail traffic, at least during the period of the war. All the information which has come to the Government since the outline of our proposed measure was made public, tends to show us that this feeling, in the minds of the people, is even stronger and more widespread than ever, and that the measure is desired by the people as a whole."

Will Inforce Plan.
The Premier said the plan outlined at Oxbow was going to be enacted and enforced if the Government possessed
the strength to carry it in the assembly.
In the contrary event, of course, the plan would be defeated, and the Government likewise defeated. The Government, in this matter, had put its hands to the plow and there would be no turning back as long as he was at the head of the Government. In this matter the Government were absolutely unanimous.

BRITAIN TAKES HALF OF AMERICAN TRADE
France Displaces Germany as Market
and Canada Ranks High.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Half of all exports from the United States during the eight months ending February 28
went to British territory, as against 45
per cent a year ago in the same period,
in analysis by the department of commerce shows. French territory ranks second as markets for American products, having displaced Germany from that position.

Exports to other nations, including their dependencies, rank as follows:
Italy, Holland, Denmark, Cuba,
Sweden, Germany, Japan, Norway,
Spain, Mexico, Russia, Brazil, Argentina, Belgium, Panama, China, Chile, Switzerland and Turkey. Of the $11-299,000 worth of merchandise exported to British territory, $37,000,000 went to Great Britain, $197,000,000 to Canada, $32,500,000 to Australia,
East India, $7,500,000 to British West Indies, and $5,750,000 to Hong Kong. Exports to British territory increased $35-283,000 during the period.

Exports to German territory were $28,750,000, a decrease of $235,951,000.

GERMAN MERCHANT BOAT

LIMA, PERU, April 23.—A dispatch to La Presse tonight states that the British steamer Oromba has sunk a German merchant steamer near Bay-ovar. It is also stated that the British cruiser Kent and Oromba have received coal from the British steamer
Eggesford, for the port of Bayovar.

The last report received from the Oromba was to the effect that she had arrived in Liverpool, February 16, from Valparaiso. It is possible that since then she has been armed and sent back to South American waters.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE
PART OF TRENCHES

Report Progress in Direction of Lutovsk
—Enemy Is Repulsed.

PETROGRAD, via London, April 23.— (Midnight).—The following Russian official statement was given out here tonight:

"In the direction of Lutovsk we made successful progress, capturing a portion of the enemy's trenches on Hill No. 1001, to the northeast of Lublin. We took prisoners seven officers and over 200 men,
and captured two machine-guns."

"During the night of April 21-22, the enemy took the offensive on the front, Lubnia-Bucovetz-Slanki, but the movement failed everywhere, the enemy being repulsed with enormous losses."

"On all the rest of the front there was intermittent artillery fire. In certain sectors our positions were bombarded with heavy guns."

"To sum up, of great consequence happened during the day, and the position remains unchanged."

AUSTRIAN REPORT.
VIENNA, via London, April 23.—3:20
p.m.—The Austrian War Department today gave out the following official statement:

"The general situation is unchanged.
On the Carpathian front in isolated artillery engagements our artillery was successful in the sector of Nagysolny,
and that of the Germans was victorious near Kozlowa."

MISERABLE WAGES PAID FRENCH WOMEN

In Some Centres One Cent Per Hour—Maximum, $40 Per Year.

PARIS, April 23.—2:55 p.m.—Some extraordinary statements regarding sweatshop wages in this country were brought out in the Senate yesterday
during the debate on a bill to fix a minimum living wage throughout France by boards created by the Government. Jean Morel said that between nine hundred thousand and one million women in France are now enduring insupportable servitude, and receiving wages barely sufficient to maintain life.

M. Morel, Henry Cheron and Edouard Houriot submitted details on this subject. It was stated that 27 per cent of the workers at home on household linen goods make from two and one-tenth to four cents per hour by intense industry. In some provincial centres, pay for such work is one cent per hour. In Paris, fourteen per cent of the women working upon undergarments
make a maximum of $40 yearly. Artificial flower makers, employing much taste and manual dexterity, are able to make in the best season from 80 cents to a dollar per day, but more than 50 per cent never are able to get beyond 10 or 40 cents.

In the provinces, women working upon underwear and ready-made clothing are able to make only ten to twelve cents a day in most cases,
and rarely as much as twenty cents.

M. Morel, who prepared the senatorial committee's report, went into the question of how such women are able to live. He cited one case of a woman who made nineteen cents a day. She paid thirteen cents on an average for bread, cheese and vegetables, leaving six cents a day for lodging and clothing.

Another case was that of a woman who had a child to support. The mother began to sew the machine at 3 o'clock in the morning, and worked all day and part of the night. She was able to earn 25 cents a day, but could afford nothing more to eat than soup.

The bill passed its first reading in the Senate. It had already passed the Chamber in November, 1911.

Hague Thinks Germans Are Falling Back

Believes This May Be Reason for Closing of Dutch and Belgian Frontiers.

THE HAGUE (via London), April 23.
—10:15 p.m.—It is rumored in military and diplomatic circles here that the closing of the Belgian and Dutch frontiers to traffic of all kinds, outward and inward bound, is connected with important German troop movements in Belgium.

It is hinted in various quarters in The Hague that the Germans are about to fall back on the Liege line and thus relieve a number of troops for possible use against Italy, in the event that country intervenes in the war. There is no confirmation of the rumor.

CANADIANS WIN
HIGH PRAISE AGAIN

Commended by Commanders For Their Good Work.

LONDON, April 24.—3:55 a.m.—The Daily Mail's correspondent in northern France in a dispatch describing the British attack on Hill No. 60, southeast of Ypres, says:

"The British success was due largely to the speed of the tunnel engineers for the explosion of the British mines anticipated by only short time the similar move planned by the German engineers."

"Hill No. 60 is only 200 yards long.
The fighting here has been more terribly concentrated than in any spot
in history. The whole hill is mined, trenched, sand-bagged and covered.
Some of the enemy's trenches are still virtually on the hill within twenty yards of the British trenches."

"The Canadian troops have been especially commended by the British commanders for the speed and precision with which they dug themselves in after charging."

CZAR TO RE-ESTABLISH THE FINNISH ARMY

LONDON, April 24.—12:45 a.m.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says it is stated that the Emperor of Russia has decided to re-establish the Finnish army, with the same constitution as previous to 1898. It is said that the Emperor will take this action on the advice of Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces,
who has been impressed by the brilliant strategic work done by Finnish officers serving in the Russian army during the present war.

L. AND P. S. R. MUST PAY

way Company to pay the costs of elevating Bell Telephone Company wires at

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everybody knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly combined, bring back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked
or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get rid of gray was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because nobody can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and brush this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

BERLIN EXPECTS A NEW CAMPAIGN

Expect a Clash Soon at Some Point on Eastern Front.

VON HINDENBURG SILENT
Important Movements Said
To Be Taking Place in the Carpathians.

BERLIN (via London), April 24.— 2:21 a.m.—The headquarters bulletin, issued today, again says: "The situation in the East is unchanged."

The report from the Russian front has been in this exact wording every day for a fortnight. It has been several weeks since any fighting between the Germans and Russians has been reported, but various indications point to a resumption of activity in the eastern theatre of the war shortly.

Just what form the new campaign will assume or in what locality of the long front it will be staged, is one of those mysteries which von Hinden-burgian strategy is so accomplished in making, even from the Germans, and speculation regarding it and concerning the present whereabouts of the field marshal can be heard in every coffee house and beer garden.

The latest Russian reports, received in Berlin today, report that the Germans are busily engaged in fortifying in the vicinity of Suwalki and Augustow. It is asserted that they have completed
two strong lines of entrenchments on the eastern side of the swamp belt,
which is presumed here to indicate that it is the German intention to remain on the defensive before the East Prussian frontier.

Heavy spring rains are falling in the Carpathians, making aggressive operations in this region most difficult. The reports from correspondents in the Carpathians generally are to the effect that important movements of Russian troops are taking place behind the Russian front, indicating that the Russians are making new dispositions of their forces to meet an expected German blow or to launch a new offensive.

Today's reports of German successes near Ypres and of the activity of the German fleet in the North Sea, caused general rejoicing among the public,
which for some time has been forced to be content to get its war news from the Austrian reports. The success at Ypres was not considered great enough

Redpath SUGAR

Stand 60 Years of Experience and Progress

THIRTEEN years before Confederation John Redpath turned out
"Ye Olde Sugar Loafe"—the first
sugar refined in Canada.

In 1880, thirty-five years ago, the Redpath Refinery brought out Canada's first Granulated Sugar, known ever since
as the best.

Again in 1913, the Redpath Refinery introduced the third great improvement in Canada's sugar supply—the Redpath
2 and 5-lb. Cartons.

Get Redpath Sugar in Original Packages
Then You Are Sure of Genuine Redpath

2-lb. and 5-lb. Cartons and 10, 20, 50 and 100-lb. Cloth Bags.

Canada Sugar Refining Co.
Limited, Montreal.

DURING all these years of leadership, the Redpath aim has been QUALITY—the quality on which the national preference for Redpath
Sugar now rests so solidly.

Such quality is the result, not of modern machinery alone, but of experience,
modern methods, and a fixed determination to produce nothing unworthy of the name Redpath—to maintain in every pound of our product the reputation of "Canada's Standard Sugar". 120

A Business Woman's Idea.
Dear Miss Grey.—When I saw your letter about the business girls' mail box, I was more than honored, for as my letter was so lengthy, I would not have been surprised had you been surprised. I wish to thank you very much for your kindness in giving my letter such special mention, as well as for your kind words regarding same. I also wish to say "thank you" for the suggestion that you added in regard to business girls in general; that is, with regard to other business girls writing you. I had in mind this thought but felt that I had already taken too much space with what I had already said, so did not dare to suggest or write anything further. However, I would like to suggest that, as there are so many topics that touch a business girl's life so intimately, it is possible to have a special corner in Saturday's Advertiser for business girls' letters as you did mine? You might, say, take one topic a week and invite letters from business girls on some (yes, and from business men, too). Here are a few suggestions:

1. Wages for women.
2. A business girl's clothes.
3. How a business girl handles her money.
4. The boarding problem.
5. A business girl's social life.
6. A business girl's reading.
7. A business girl's amusements.
8. The employer as his employees see him (crusy and otherwise).
9. The employees as the employer sees them.
10. The business girl and marriage.

Now, I think I have given you enough topics for a year's discussion! Just one word more, and I'm actually going! I wish to say that if I can help any other business girl in any way, I shall be very glad to do so.

Yours sincerely,
CYNTHIA GREY.

ANS.—Deary me, how I, too, wish I were there to sample those delicious muffins! Am sure the reader sending in the recipe—Olga, I think, will be more than delighted to have her hint so appreciated. In regard to the song you ask for, I have no copy now, as I destroyed the one sent to me. There was nothing so terrible in it, but it was the poorest of verse, and horribly morbid.

For Uncle Sam's Niece.

Dear Miss Grey.—I see by today's paper that Uncle Sam's Niece is asking for the words of the old song. After the "Ball" you will find them enclosed.

What is your opinion of my writing? Wishing you every success, I remain, Miss CHARLOTTE.

ANS.—1. Would "Uncle Sam's Niece" please send her address, so that I might forward the verses to her? Thanks, "Miss Charlotte."

2. It is very neat and easy to read.

A Sweet Old Song.

Dear Miss Grey.—Am sending the song, "Gaily the Troubadour strayed for today." Pardon pencil writing; am in a hurry. I hope the inquirer knows the tune, for it's such a pretty one, and my mother used to sing it to her kiddies long ago in England. I have the music if needed. Sincerely yours,
MRS. H. G.

ANS.—Thank you so very much. I am quite sure the reader, asking for it, will be delighted. It is indeed a sweet old song.

A Poor Man's Wife.

Dear Miss Grey.—This is the first time I have come to you, but am a daily reader, and always turn to the mail box and stories first thing. Now, what is good for granulated eyelids? I feel for some of the readers. I know now it is I am a mother with six kiddies long ago in England. I have the music if needed. Sincerely yours, eyelids, to bathe twice or three times a day with boracic acid dissolved in water is an excellent thing. If the condition is chronic, best to consult a doctor or eye specialist, as it may be caused from impurities of the blood or from general eye weakness, which can be corrected.

Call on us again any time we can be the least bit of use. Thanks for the recipe, which appears in another column.

A Household Bridge.

Dear Miss Grey.—What will brighten the brass of a hanging lamp that is discolored?

1. What will clean white iron beds that have turned yellow, also dirty?
2. What will remove bed bugs that are under the paper on the wall?
3. How would you wash cream vases with a colored border, to prevent fading?
4. How to wash cream lace curtains to retain the same shade?
5. What will clean silverware that is not injurious?

MRS. E. C. W.

Ans.—1. Try this method: Rub the spots on the brass with a cloth wet in a mixture of warm milk and salt. Then take a good cleansing powder on the same cloth and rub the brass. Rinse in water and wipe dry. It is said that this will remove the spots and make the brass look like new.

2. Give the frames of the beds a thorough scrubbing with soap and warm water; when dry, repaint with white enamel paint which any hardware store sells.

3. Seems to me if I lived in a house where these pests were found, I would lose no time in stripping the paper off the wall, and exterminating them. It is not an easy task, washing off old paper, but any amount of work is preferable to a bad bug.

4. A pattern for a medium size, medium and large. It requires 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for a medium size. A pattern of this description mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

If you boys know how much a woman thinks of those little attentions—lifting the hat, picking up a book, handkerchief, etc., letting the lady pass through the door first, etc., I think you would be more than willing to read to them.

I wonder if you'll think this too silly for your column, Miss Grey? If so, just drop it into the W. P. K. V. bin.

P. S.—I wonder if all your readers know a good way of keeping lettuce to be washed and put in a cool place? It will keep lovely and crisp for a week or longer like that.

ANS.—In thinking, "Rosebud," that we are in for all sorts of trouble, you and I, after the appearance of this letter; but if it encourages any of our young men, city or country, to be a bit more polite, I shall be very glad. Chivalry and little courteous attentions to women, young and old, are certainly admirable traits in any man.

Thanks For Her.

"A. M." is thanked for sending a copy of the reminder to the Globe. Shall keep it for future reference.

Love and Cook, Too.

Dear Miss Grey.—I enjoy reading your page very much, and would never have the nerve to write to you were it not for all the unjust cranks which are fired at "Star That Guides." Now, I think that every man will agree with me when I say that she is some woman, and I think it unfair to say that with love stuff and still cook a man three good square meals. Now, which do you think is the better? I think a man to his home, a lady of the Star type, or some sad-looking old woman, who looks as though all her friends had died? The Star type, with regards to those ladies who are complaining of their husbands, I don't hesitate to say that perhaps they are much too good for them. I think I have written plenty for 5 times, so hoping that the Star may never grow dim, I will close.

May Play Dunlap at Second or Third

Former Shortstop Wants Trial With London Club at Either of These Positions — Is Anxious To Play With Reising.

[BY BERT PERRY.]

George Dunlap may be seen cavorting around the infield over in Tecumseh Park this season after all. The big Massachusetts lad had an interview with the London club directors yesterday afternoon, and although he was not promised anything in the way of a job, Manager Reising may be asked to give him a trial at second or third base. Dunlap realizes that he will not be able to take Whitcraft's place, but he points out that London needs a third-sacker, and he is just as good a third baseman as he is a shortstop. He is also a good second baseman, and both these positions are in doubt yet. Reising has a bunch of infielders signed up, but outside of Whitcraft, none of them is sure of a place. All Dunlap asks for is a trial. He believes that he can play better ball at third or second base than he did at shortstop when he played here before.

Terms Might Not Suit. However, there is nothing definite to announce yet. The London club is going to adhere to the salary limit this year, come what may, and Dunlap may not want to play for the amount of money that they can afford to pay him. Dunlap would rather play ball in London than any other minor league city he knows of, and he came here fully expecting to land a job.

Manager Reising will be here a few days sooner than he at first expected. He will arrive about May 3 or 4. Some of the pitchers will report a couple of days later.

The club will hold two or three military days this season. On these days military men will be admitted free. This ought to stimulate recruiting.

Eddie Lamy's transportation has been forwarded to him and he will likely arrive in the city about the first of next week.

Ladies Will Pay for Seats. This year the London club has decided to charge ladies 10 cents for grandstand seats on ladies' day. The fair seats will be admitted free at the gate, but may pay a dime for a seat. This is done as a result of complaints from regular patrons, who buy grandstand seats on ladies' day, and find the stand so full of ladies that they can hardly squeeze in. The ladies are early as a rule and they always grab the most advantageous positions.

INTER-CLUB BASEBALL LEAGUE HAS FOUR TEAMS

Orients, Manhattans, Ontarios and Forest Cities All Enter—Will Play at Springfield.

A fast brand of baseball was assured for Springfield Park this year, when social clubs of the city met last night to launch a park league, and to discuss plans for the coming season. Four clubs will put teams in the league, The Orient, Manhattans, Ontario and the Forest City Clubs will be represented by fast aggregations. It was decided to open the league on May 7. In the clubs which will comprise the newly organized park league are many of the best amateur players in the city, while the fact that the social aggregations are among the strongest from a membership standpoint in the city, will assure the league of a host of rabid fans, in addition to the frequenters of the park. No schedule was drawn up last night, but a committee has been appointed to arrange one at once. A cup offered by C. H. and A. H. Trebilcock will offer the necessary stimulus for competition among the four teams.

Jim Esson Knocks "Doc" Roller Out In Eight Seconds

Scotch Wrestler Pulls Seattle
Doctor Out With First Punch.

MONTREAL, April 23.—In a boxing bout that was scheduled to go ten rounds, but only lasted eight seconds, Jim Esson, the big Scotch wrestler, knocked out his rival wrestler, Dr. B. F. Roller, before the members of the Canadian Athletic Club, at Schaner Park tonight. The bout was brought to an abrupt ending when Esson landed a short-arm uppercut that sent Roller down for the count, before he had a chance to show any of his boxing ability. Roller prides himself on being a finished boxer, as well as a wrestler, and in his over-confidence, coming out of a clinch he offered an opportunity that Esson took advantage of, with the result mentioned. This meeting with Roller was Esson's initial appearance as a heavyweight boxer.

Baseball Peace Negotiations Off For Day or Two

President Tener and Owner of St. Louis Feds Are Not in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Emphatic statements that no peace negotiations were going on were made today by both President Johnson of the Federal League and President Johnson of the American, but no explanation for the gathering here of the big men of baseball was vouchsafed. Among the leaders of the game expected here tomorrow is President Tener of the National League, and according to information gained from sources close to them, will meet to talk over the ending of the war, are William E. Robertson, of Buffalo, and Tower E. Ward, of Brooklyn, while Philip Ball, of St. Louis, and his attorney, Montague Lyons, of St. Louis, admitted that they had been in conference with President Johnson yesterday and today. The American League head declared that his meeting with Mr. Ball—the third in three weeks—had nothing to do with peace in the baseball world.

No definite statements were given concerning the terms of peace discussed at meetings today. Mr. Ball, it was learned, made reservations on a late train for St. Louis tonight.

Stories concerning the terms of peace discussed, which were credited to Federal League sources, say they include many of the arrangements which were planned when peace was first talked of last fall. Merger of several teams and the elimination of one club in St. Louis and one in Chicago and perhaps abandonment of the field as a separate organization by the Federals, are included, it is said.

Chicago, Ill., April 24.—Efforts to bring about baseball peace were halted today because of the absence of two of the leading persons involved in the reported negotiations. President Tener of the National League, who was expected here today to meet to Philadelphia instead, and Philip Ball, principal owner of the St. Louis Federals returned to his home. Latest developments in the negotiations, it is said, indicate that Mr. Ball's purchase of the St. Louis Nationals must be the first step in ending the war.

The following schedule has been arranged to complete the second series of the Federal Bowling League.

Quality—The Keystone of the Chalmers Arch

It is the painstaking care given to every one of the thousand minute details connected with the Chalmers product and Chalmers construction that has made the Chalmers car pre-eminently the quality car of its class.

Time and science have tested every stone in the Chalmers arch and have proven them granite strong.

The Chalmers is not a great car just because it has a wonderful engine, or superior transmission or an exceptional beauty of design.

It is a great car because all of these things work together in an harmonious and sturdy whole.

That's why Quality is the key-stone of Chalmers' success.

An aristocrat in motordom is the Chalmers—not to be measured by dollars and cents—but rather by inward worth and outward grace.

It is a difficult matter to make these things apparent in cold type.

The car itself must be seen and carefully examined for one to appreciate just what this quality claim means.

Come in and see it today.

And then compare—compare—compare.

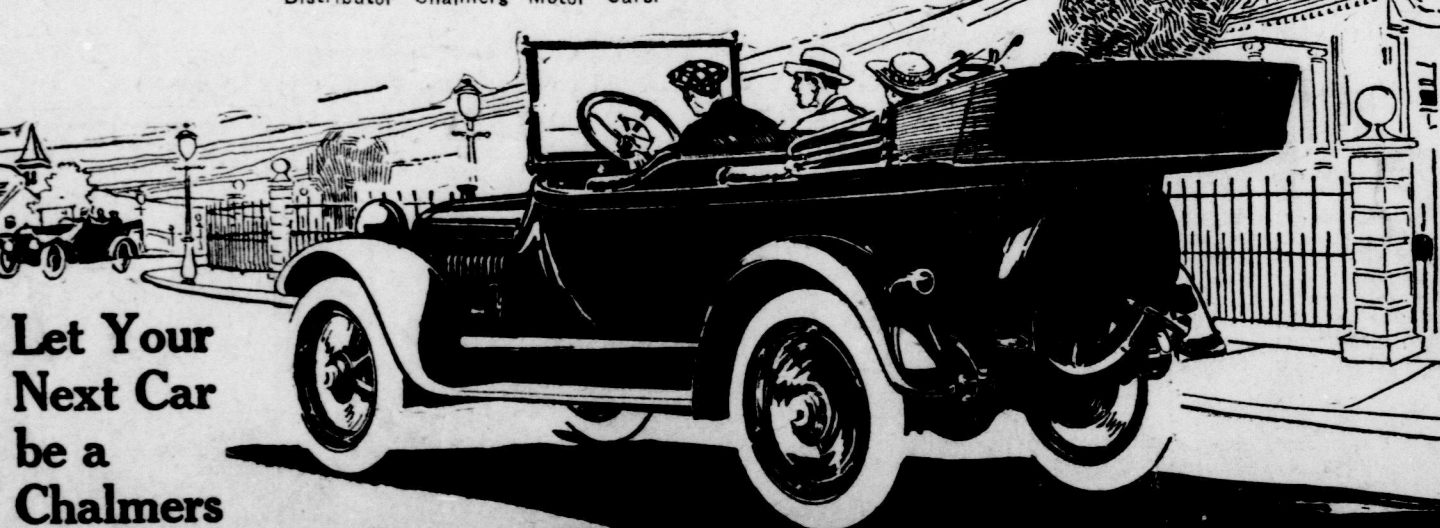

We shall have no fear as to what the result will be if the comparison is thorough and unprejudiced.

Rome, April 23.—Via Paris, April 24.—
Alarming reports from Trieste still are being received from the frontier. Most of the male residents of the city are being arrested for participating in anti-war demonstrations. So many were taken into custody that all of them could not be lodged in the prison, and the police chief asked permission from the municipality to transform a large school building into a jail. The shops of the city have been closed for fear of pillage.
The mayor attempted to quell the disorders by announcing that sufficient bread would be baked to supply the needs of the people, and that potatoes would be sold for five cents a kilo (2.20 pounds). The situation has been aggravated by the knowledge that large quantities of supplies have been stored at Pola in preparation for a possible siege.

LONDON CYCLE RIDER
WOUNDED AT FRONT;
BRANTFORD MAN DIES

According to a telegram received early last evening by Mrs. W. Davies, residing at 253 Egerton street, East London, from military authorities at Ottawa, her son William Maurice Davies, who enlisted with the first contingent in this city, has been wounded
in the trenches.
No details accompanied the message,
except that the young Londoner was injured on April 19, and that the information has been officially received at Ottawa.
About four years ago, Davies was in among the first to enlist in London, and since his departure has written several interesting letters from the front, which have appeared in this paper. He was a member of the cycle corps, and when last heard from was serving in Belgium.

General French Points to Violation by the Enemy
of Hague Convention
—Fumes Foree Allies
Back.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, April 23.—11:15 p.m.—
Field Marshal Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British forces in France and Belgium, communicates
the following under today's date:
"Yesterday evening the enemy developed an attack on the French troops on our left in the neighborhood of Bixchoote and Langemarck, on the north of the Ypres salient.
"This attack was preceded by a heavy bombardment, the enemy at the same time making use of a large number of appliances for the production of asphyxiating gas. The quantity produced indicates long and deliberate preparation for the employment of devices contrary to the Hague convention, to which the enemy subscribed."

Explains German Statements.
"The false statement made by the Germans a week ago, to the effect that we were using such gases, is now explained. It obviously was an effort to diminish neutral criticism in advance.
"During the night the French had to retire from the gas zone, overwhelmed by the fumes. They have fallen back on the canal in the neighborhood of Boesinghe. Our front remains intact, except on the extreme left, where the troops have had to readjust their line to conform with the new French line.
"Two attacks delivered during the night on our trenches east of Ypres were repulsed. Fighting continues in the region north of Ypres.
"This morning one of our aviators,
during a reconnaissance which he completed successfully, observed a German aeroplane, usually found in message lines, and thereby gain the opportunity of receiving this exquisite Royal Alexandra Casserole and a fine big prize as well."

FRENCH BELITTLE
EFFECT OF GAS.
PARIS, Via London, April 23.—11:45
p.m.—The following official statement regarding the fighting in the western theatre of war was given out here tonight:

"In Belgium the surprise caused by asphyxiating bombs used by the Germans to the north of Ypres has had no grave consequences.
"Our counter-attacks, vigorously supported by British troops on our right
and also by Belgian troops on our left, was developed with success. The An-gio-French troops gained ground in the wards the north between Steenstraete and the Ypres-Poelcapelle road. Our allies took prisoners belonging in three different regiments.
"In Champagne at Beaufort we demolished an enemy gun protected by a casement, which was enfilading our trenches.
"On the heights of the Meuse the enemy assayed three attacks, at the Calonne trench, at Les Eparges and near Combres. These were immediately stopped.
"In the forest at 'The Cow's Head'
our progress was continued. We found

GERMANY NOT SATISFIED WITH NORWAY'S REPORT

LONDON, April 24.—1:15 a.m.—The Christiania correspondent of Reuters
Telegraph Company says that the German Government has replied to Norway that the evidence submitted by the Norwegian Government fails to convince Germany that the steamer Belridge, the first Norwegian ship to be damaged in the war zone around the British Isles,
was torpedoed by a German submarine.
Germany states, however, that should further investigation prove that it was a German torpedo, the German Government will be ready to express its regret, or if the two Governments fail to agree on the subject, Germany is willing to submit the case to a commission of inquiry under the rules of the Hague Convention as it has never been the intention of the German fleet
to attack Norwegian merchantmen.

EXPRESS SAFE ROBBED
AND ONE MAN SHOT

A Masked Man Gets Small Amount Off Train Near
New Orleans.

New Orleans, April 24.—An express safe was dynamited, and Peter Mossey, of New Orleans, baggage-master, was shot and seriously wounded by a bandit
on Louisville and Nashville passenger train No. 1, southbound from Cincinnati last night. The bandit obtained a package containing $50 and a small package of jewelry, escaping when the train reduced speed at the outskirts of
New Orleans.
According to Mossey and the express messenger, the man, masked, entered the combination baggage and express car from a passenger coach. The baggage-master tried to reach a pistol in his pocket, and was shot in the chest by the robber. Both men then were bound and foot with pieces of wire. The robbery was discovered after the train passed Chief Menteau, La., when train-men found the car doors locked and the broken transom.

BOY "INDIANS" FATALLY
BURN CHILD AT STAKE

New York, April 24.—Boys playing
"Indian" in Camden, N. J., yesterday tied Howard Sperbeck, four years old,
to a stake and built a fire around him.
The children thought the flames were far enough away, but the boy's clothes caught fire and he is dying.

AUSTRIAN ESTATE IN FRANCE SEQUESTERED

Famous Chambord Chateau Is Taken Over At Request of District Attorney.

[Canadian Press.]
Blois, France, April 24.—Upon the demand of the district attorney, the civil court of the department of Loir-et-Cher
has sequestered the historic Chambord Chateau estate, on the ground that it is the property of Austrian subjects. After the death of the Count of Chambord in 1883 the domain became the joint property of the Duke of Parma and the Duke of Bardi. It now belongs to their 22 co-heirs, most of whom are Austrian subjects. Prince Elias of Parma is the eldest of these co-heirs.
The magnificent Chambord estates in the valley of the Loire contain 15,000 acres. The chateau is one of the finest palaces of the Renaissance period now standing, having been started in 1515
new methods of warfare.

ITALIAN POLITICIAN
DOUBTFUL AS TO ACTION

Uncertain Whether Chamber of Deputies Will Actually Sit.

Rome, April 23.—Via Paris, April 24.
—Uncertainty exists as to what action
will be taken regarding the reopening of the Chamber of Deputies, which has been set for May 12. The Idea Na-zionale interviewed several politicians
on the subject, and the views they expressed were widely divergent. Some pressed the belief that the chamber would be prorogued because no decision would have been reached at that date
as to Italy's attitude. Others believe that before May 12 some grave measures would be adopted, such as a declaration of a state of war, or chamber being asked to vote its confidence in the Government, provide a budget for the next financial year, and then adjourn indefinitely.

Many Church Members Wallow In Sin, He Asserts—"The Saloonkeepers and Brewers Not Brethren of Christians"—"Devil, For Ortdodoxy, Has Lots of Preachers Backed Off the Boards."

Paterson, N. J., April 24.—Text: "And David said unto Nathan, 'I have sinned against the Lord.' And Nathan said unto David, 'The Lord also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.'"

—Samuel XII, 13.

"This I think is a part of one of the saddest stories in the Old Testament. I always read it with conflicting emotions. This alone is sufficient proof of the authenticity of the Bible, for if it were written by men inspired by God, we would have no account of man's sin and shame, especially if that man had been prominent. 'God puts it all in. Not because He approves of it, but because He wants to show us what men and women are. Other ages did, and how they were punished, and what will happen to us if we disobey His commands.'"

"If a man had written the Bible inspired, he would not have put anything after he came out of the ark, or about David committing adultery, or about Solomon having seven hundred wives, and a few hundred concubines on the side, having old Brigham Young back off the boards, or about Judas, the miserable old scoundrel, betraying Him."

Virtue of Confession. Burns and you won't see where he said that if there was a barrel of whiskey in one corner and a cannon in the other, and he knew if he touched the whiskey he would be shot, he would have to go to the whiskey. No, if man had written the Bible you wouldn't have seen that the sin. He put them in to show that even though man had sinned, if he confessed it, the Lord would forgive and forget it.

"One of the saddest things on earth is to see your hopes to a man or woman and have them disappoint you. It is a sad thing to build our hopes on a son or daughter and have them dash to the ground. Many a woman has stood beneath the perfume of the orange blossoms and given her life in to the keeping of some man who vowed to be true and broke his vow, and tonight she feels her disgrace."

"Many a mother has brought up her children and builded her hopes on them and they have gone out and murdered those hopes, and she is ashamed and disgraced because her children have made the family name the synonym for drunkenness, adultery, blasphemy, robbery or other heinous things."

"David wasn't a man after God's heart because he sinned, but because he was decent and manly enough to own up to what he had sinned, and ask God's forgiveness. You'll be a man after God's heart when you admit your case, and come out and want to trot decent."

Heathens at Home. The more light, the greater your guilt. I'd rather be a heathen in Japan or in Africa worshipping idols of wood or stone than be a man in Paterson today and not be of God. I don't have to go to Africa or China to find heathens. Just remember that a heathen is one who does not believe in God. It's greater sin for some men to do some things than for others to do the same things, because sin is graded by light.

"Jesus walked the streets of Capernaum and healed the sick and opened the eyes of the blind, and He said: 'You people are worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. So you people are worse than Sodom and Gomorrah because you have more light.'"

"If you want to know how you can best resist temptation I should say, 'Keep busy for God.' Satan finds mischief for idle hands to do, and an idle mind is an instrument of the devil. The man who stands around with his hands in his pockets will soon be trying to get them into some other fellow's pockets. No trade is the passport by which 90 per cent of the criminals enter the penitentiaries of the country."

"David was living in luxury. He had obtained peace with all of his enemies. A little insurrection arose and instead of going himself he sent Joab to quell it. And he was walking in the roof of the house in the end of the evening, and he saw a woman, noted for her beauty of face and her symmetry of figure, Bathsheba, and he thought of sin."

"Sin Is in the Heart." "No man or woman ever sins if they don't think of it first. No man ever stole without first thinking of it. No man ever lied or deceived by his actions without first thinking of it. No man ever murdered without thinking of the murder first. The sin of the hand is born in the heart."

"So David looked and thought of sin. The Bible says, 'Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts.' An evil thought, an evil act, an evil character, and all is built on character. A man's thoughts do not make him a criminal by his acts. A man becomes a sinner by his thoughts. You can think against the law of man and not be a criminal, but you cannot think against the law of God and not be a sinner."

"Moses said, 'Thou shalt not commit adultery.' Jesus Christ said 'Whosoever looketh upon a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. Chastity requires purity of heart as well as outward acts. A lot of you don't act, but you think and are as low-down and dirty as if you had acted.'"

"How did God treat David? Did he unhook the vials of his wrath upon him? No! There isn't a man in hell to whom he didn't give a chance! God sent Nathan to David, and Nathan told him the story of the ewe. Then David called 'I have sinned against the Lord,' and Nathan said unto David, 'The Lord hath put away thy sin.'"

"Note first, he sinned against his light. He knew he had sinned when he sinned, and so does every one of you today."

"Devil is Orthodox."

"Second, God will forgive you if you repent and, third, forsake your sins by yielding to Christ. But repentance is not remorse. It is a change of mind which leads to a change of conduct with reference to sin toward God and man. You must be born again or you cannot be saved. Orthodoxy of faith will not save you. No one has the devil beaten for orthodoxy. The devil has a lot of preachers backed off the boards. 'The devil believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and he trembles, and that is more than some of you old lawyers do, but the hog will remain and wallow in it. Their natures are different. The world can tell whether you are a hog or a sheep. Let a man or woman be born again and they will bound away from sin. One that isn't will wallow in it. Some church members are just washed skins. Peter said, 'Some of you are like a sow which washed, goes back to wallow.'"

Love of Etrethorn. "Whosoever is born of God loveth his brethren. That does not mean the saloonkeeper or the brewer. They're no brethren until they are born again. They are children of the devil. Do you love the brethren love the Baptists and the Baptists love the Methodists? Do you?"

"Whosoever is born again believeth that Jesus is the Christ. That puts a liar. Anybody that denieth God is a liar. The Unitarians are not even in the kingdom. 'There's one verse of Scripture I'd like to blaze all over Paterson: 'Be sure your sin will find you out.' Right by the side of it I'd like to put another: 'And if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.' One would startle you and the other would chase you to Jesus."

"If there is anyone on this earth that I loathe and despise it is the man who will remind another of the deeds of his fingers. Let the Georgia courts answer the charge of an unfair trial with their own defence of suppressed evidence."

"Only two things were absolutely proven at Lee's trial—that Mary Phagan was a girl and Lee was a man. The opportunity to kill her. The state never proved anything beyond this to make my son even appear a guilty man."

"I did not know as I watched the jury that more than one man on it had sworn to break that Jew's neck. (Note: The charge that a Jew needed the expression was brought out in court proceedings after the conviction.—News Ed.) But I did face the fact that something very serious was wrong, when the men filed in, the day they returned their verdict."

Jury Showed Work. "Every man's face was a grey, haggard look. Puffy shadows under their eyes showed a sleepless night. And then a strange light came into them. Those men had been threatened. Popular sentiment bent on my son's conviction had done its work. At 2:30 that afternoon, after a forty-five minutes' deliberation, they branded my son a murderer."

"Race prejudice had sealed his fate from the beginning. The man who a world-old sadness crept into her eyes as she continued: 'With the press and pulpit muzzled, with a howling, lynching, blood-thirsting mob shouting for his life, the trial could not help but be a travesty on justice. That day was the nightmare of my life. At times to me, the witness of millions of dollars. He mentioned the famous half a million dollars Thomas Fortune Ryan contributed to the cause of Alton B. Parker. Democratic presidential candidate and swore he had never seen a list of names of persons who helped swell the fund of $2,000,000 used in connection with his own campaign for the presidency."

Gets His Daily Letter. "I miss the little things he was continually doing for me," she continued. "This is what I mean. I held up a letter the mailman had just handed to her. 'Every day I get a letter from my boy. If you do not mind I will read it to you. I can hardly wait to see what he says,' she added almost apologetically."

As she read Lee Frank's mother suddenly turned a radiant face to her visitor. "This is the sort of a son I have. Her voice was almost triumphant. 'May I read you what this letter says?'"

Before her guest could answer she eagerly read this extract from the letter: "Dear Lucile (Mrs. Lee Frank) and I am well. I am doing remarkably well under the depression of yesterday's news of the supreme court's action. As for myself, I am a man and can stand adversity. I am not at all cast down, but am patiently waiting developments. Right must prevail. I have never doubted it for a second. I will wait as long as my ultimate vindication now as ever."

Whatever may be the world's estimate of Frank's innocence or guilt, no one can doubt that the mother would doubt for an instant the splendid home training which sheltered his youth and early manhood.

Carefully Reared Children. "Somehow my children always seemed to demand more of me than mothers give their fancies these days," she said. "I never went out a night and left them alone until they were grown up. When it came time for them to go to the grammar school we moved across the street from the school so that there would be no temptation for them to loiter or get in mischief after school hours."

"When I was a girl motherhood was considered a privilege, not an obligation. Lee and his sister have always been the centre of my world."

"Do you want to see his school records?" she asked, with a curious mixture of mother pride and just a hint of choked-back tears in her voice. She stepped to a nearby drawer as she spoke and drew from a far corner a stack of school reports and college credentials.

"These are Lee's school records," she handed them lovingly. Some were checkered with the yellow of age and some tender fingering. Silently her visitor took these childhood records of this man who sits today in the gallows of the gallows, convicted of murder "because he is a degenerate."

Little kindergarten card had been saved with a mother's loving care. All were marked "good" and "excellent." Grade school reports showed as high as a 100 per cent for several months. Never did the average run below 90. Through his course at Pratt Institute the same scholarship degree, especially in mathematics and Latin.

Glauk Guided Him. Hidden among the papers the visitor suddenly espied a note. It read: "Dear Madam: I cannot send this report without a word of commendation. Your son's work gives great satisfaction and pleasure to his teachers and myself. With best wishes."

"And they have branded him a murderer," the mother's eyes seemed to challenge society as she laid away the precious papers. Her grandmother smiled indulgently. "And if the worst should happen," the question was hazarded, but quick as a flash the mother hurried back her instant repudiation. "The worst cannot happen," her voice shook with suppressed conviction. "As surely as there is a God in heaven, my boy's innocence will soon be established before the world."

Fig. 1 shows a good position for ordinary light work. Fig. 2 shows a position for work that you must have you in the center of the board. The tube will keep the drill from going down when it strikes the surface of the board.

A good practice, show in Fig. 2, is to clamp a temporary piece of wood to the work to prevent splintering when the bit "w" is prevented from splintering when the bit comes through. The fits of a bit may be observed in Fig. 2. The spur "c" acts like a gimlet or screw and works down, drawing with it the scoring nibs "b" which make a circular cut. As the cut deepens, the lips "b" shear away the splinters that are removed upward by the worm or spiral.

When you wish to bore only to a certain depth, as in Fig. 5 you must place a wooden tube around bit like "t" in Fig. 6. The tube will keep the drill from going down when it strikes the surface of the board.

Practice boring a little every day and you will soon get the knack of it.

A Day at Big Political Trial at Syracuse

T. R., THE BOSS, JUROR NO. 5, AND HORACE GREELY'S FAMOUS VERDICT

[Written for The Advertiser by Nikola Greeley-Smith.]

Staff Special.

Courthouse, Syracuse, N. Y., April 24.

A political obituary is being written in this courtroom. Will it be that of Theodore Roosevelt or of William Barnes? The next few days and the twelve sphinxes in the jury box now sitting with their two dozen eyes rivetted on Roosevelt, will answer that question.

The colonel, always a practical man, sits half-facing that jury, and there is no doubt that he fascinates it. Jurymen No. 5, a carpenter by trade, and a progressive in politics, hardly ever takes his adoring eyes from the face of his prophet.

When the colonel comes into court in the morning he is bowing and smiling at all the world. His mail is handed to him and he reads it, his unusually beautiful hands holding each paper very close to his bespectacled eyes. Before court opens he answers a day telegram telling him of Mrs. Roosevelt's condition. She is ill in a hospital in New York.

When T. R. puts on his fighting face. But when the business of the day begins his exuberance simmers down. Now he wears his FIGHTING FACE. His close-clipped head, which looks like the projectile of a 42-centimetre gun, is lowered into his hunched shoulders whenever either his counsel or one of the lawyers for the Republican boss refers to the alleged libel for which Mr. Barnes is suing.

Teddy nods that famous head emphatically, affirmatively, as if repeating to all the world:

"Yes, I said it, and I say it once again. And even if it costs me $50,000 I shall keep on saying it, because it's so."

I believe every single one of those famous teeth might be pulled out and the colonel would still refuse to swallow a single one of those words. You should have seen him when Ivin, chief counsel for Barnes, read to the jury the allegation that Barnes and Murphy ride a political seesaw in New York, which the common people as a trifle. That 42-centimetre howitzer head nodded so approvingly, so defiantly. And Boss Barnes, sitting among his counsel at the adjoining table, saw that defiant nod and smiled a slow, cold, sardonic smile.

A Picture of Barnes in Court. I wish you might have seen that sinister polar smile of Boss Barnes at bay. A most interesting and powerful face this Republican boss of New York State. He is very calm, showing no signs of the fringes of grey about the close-set eyes.

He has a lowering, swooping look, like that of a hawk hovering over a poultry yard. But that hawk-face is heavy with fat, as though the hawk had swooped and swallowed a great many times.

Boss Barnes looks like a Roman conqueror who had been home from the wars a good long time. As between him and Teddy a woman would not hesitate half a second—she would take Boss Barnes and vice versa.

The boss has the face and the figure of the man who has lived well. Teddy in every look and act and gesture, in his field complexion, bright eye, quick, cat-like motions shows the simple out-door country life he leads.

These two men attended the same college, Harvard, though Teddy was there several years before the Republican boss. For years they were friends. It was not until after Barnes had helped in the second nomination of Taft for the presidency that the colonel discovered there was nothing to choose between Barnes and Murphy. Now the question to be decided is whether he libelled Barnes by making public that discovery.

After the Trial, What? And if a jury decides that it is libelous to compare Barnes to Murphy, won't Murphy be able to sue the jury for libel? Why not?

All these things have still to be decided, but the great question to be answered by the revelations at this trial—the stories of secret alliances and political trades—is whether Roosevelt shall triumph and ride on a new wave of popularity into a third term as president of the United States and Boss Barnes shall be shorn of his power and prestige forever or whether Barnes shall win and the colonel suffer the first real kickout of his long career in politics.

The jury which will decide this great question is a blue-eyed jury. It is clean-shaven, there are only four mustaches among the twelve. Its average age is 40. Its most interesting member is No. 5, the progressive carpenter who sits among his stiff-collared colleagues in a dark-blue flannel shirt.

Reminded of Horace Greeley's Great Trial. A very interesting thing to me about this case is that one of the legal precedents which will be cited is the suit for libel brought by Dewitt C. Littlejohn, speaker of the New York Assembly in the late sixties, against my grandfather, Horace Greeley. Like Boss Barnes, Littlejohn asserted that his political reputation had been damaged.

The case was tried about 30 miles north of here, and Mr. Greeley was vindicated. The verdict looked like a precedent to me.

Boss Barnes' grandfather, Thurlow Weed, Greeley and Seward constituted the big triumvirate in New York politics till Greeley quarrelled with his political partners and repudiated them. Weed and Seward prevented Greeley from being sent as a delegate from New York to the Republican national convention. Greeley, however, attended the convention as a delegate at large from the State of Oregon, prevented the nomination of Seward for the presidency and insured that of Abraham Lincoln.

Glauk Guided Him. Hidden among the papers the visitor suddenly espied a note. It read: "Dear Madam: I cannot send this report without a word of commendation. Your son's work gives great satisfaction and pleasure to his teachers and myself. With best wishes."

He has a lowering, swooping look, like that of a hawk hovering over a poultry yard. But that hawk-face is heavy with fat, as though the hawk had swooped and swallowed a great many times.

Boss Barnes looks like a Roman conqueror who had been home from the wars a good long time. As between him and Teddy a woman would not hesitate half a second—she would take Boss Barnes and vice versa.

The boss has the face and the figure of the man who has lived well. Teddy in every look and act and gesture, in his field complexion, bright eye, quick, cat-like motions shows the simple out-door country life he leads.

These two men attended the same college, Harvard, though Teddy was there several years before the Republican boss. For years they were friends. It was not until after Barnes had helped in the second nomination of Taft for the presidency that the colonel discovered there was nothing to choose between Barnes and Murphy. Now the question to be decided is whether he libelled Barnes by making public that discovery.

After the Trial, What? And if a jury decides that it is libelous to compare Barnes to Murphy, won't Murphy be able to sue the jury for libel? Why not?

All these things have still to be decided, but the great question to be answered by the revelations at this trial—the stories of secret alliances and political trades—is whether Roosevelt shall triumph and ride on a new wave of popularity into a third term as president of the United States and Boss Barnes shall be shorn of his power and prestige forever or whether Barnes shall win and the colonel suffer the first real kickout of his long career in politics.

The jury which will decide this great question is a blue-eyed jury. It is clean-shaven, there are only four mustaches
