

IVENS TELLS STORY OF STRIKE; TO FORM DEFENCE COMMITTEE

200 On Market Hear 'Peg Labor Church Pastor.

URGES PROTECTION

For Labor Champions in Strike Periods—Charges Government Trickery.

Rev. William Ivens, M.A., pastor of the Winnipeg Labor Church, who is on his way to London on the charge of sedition, told a meeting of about 200 labor workers on the market square last night. He explained that his visit to the east was on behalf of the defence committee of Winnipeg, which is raising funds to provide for the expensive defence of the eight labor workers of his city at their trial.

His visit is made to explain also some hitherto unexplained truths about the recent strike, he said. Mr. Ivens spoke for an hour last evening, dealing chiefly with the causes leading up to the strike. He intended to address another mass meeting this evening on the market to tell more completely the Winnipeg happenings in connection with the labor church, of which there are ten branches in the West, and deliver his views on the amendments of the Canadian immigration act.

Organizing Defence Committees. "I intend to do nothing but the truth," said the speaker, "and if you see fit to place me in jail, it will not be my experience for me, for I have been in both jail and penitentiary because I was courageous enough to leave the pulp and fight for the laboring class. I hope to learn of the organization of defence committees, such as that of my city, all over the country, in the near future, so that the champions of labor will be protected if they are arrested during strike periods."

The speaker then described the alleged unfair treatment he had received from the Government officials. One night at midnight, he said, some officials had entered his home, pulled him out of bed, and held his wife, who was only partially clad, against a bedroom wall for over an hour while they searched every nook and cranny of the house for literature of a Bolshevik nature. Then, after tearing down the telephone wires to prevent communication with the city, the officials placed Ivens in their powerful motor car and rushed him straight to the penitentiary.

Ministers and Soldiers. Upon arrival there, Ivens found seven other men who had been similarly treated the same night. One of them was also on the Springfield laborer, and another, a returned soldier who had been wounded while fighting for his country, was also there. "I didn't know I was fighting for this!" Three of the others were aliens who had no part in their work.

It was the intention of the Government, according to Mr. Ivens, to send the prisoners out of the country as undesirable, without a trial of any kind. But for the timely action of certain officials, Ivens stated, he would not be in Canada at the present time. He further expressed the opinion that his home had been entered and searched without legal cause, because no search warrant had been issued.

Charges Government Trickery. The speaker described the harrowing struggle encountered for justice and his false charges made. He told the story, step by step, of the conspiracy of the Winnipeg labor unions against the efforts of the Government to crush them, and the trickery by which the returned men against the unions.

A collection was made. It amounted to $22.

LITTLE BOY HURT BY MOTOR CAR AS HE RAN OUT IN FRONT OF IT

Driver Had Auto Well Under Control, Averting a Tragedy.

Little Freddie Hooten, 3-year-old son of John Hooten, 14 Byron avenue west, narrowly escaped death when he was struck by an auto driven by Mr. Siler, 487 Talbot street, on Wharncliffe road, at 6 o'clock on Thursday night. The child received cuts about the face and legs, but no serious injuries. He was taken to the office of Dr. Robert M. and J. I. Ferguson, where his wounds were dressed.

ASK BYLAW FOR $100,000 TOWARD GREAT RESERVOIR

Public Utilities Commission Urges 20,000,000 Gallon Reservoir.

BUILT IN TWO SECTIONS Adjoining Present Reservoir at Springbank—Advocate More Street Lights.

The city council will be asked to submit to the people at the municipal election a bylaw authorizing $100,000 debentures to build the first half of a 20,000,000 gallon reservoir at Springbank, the public utilities commission decided at a meeting Thursday afternoon. A consulting engineer will likely aid in arranging details of the proposed reservoir.

It is planned to erect the reservoir in two sections, each to contain 10,000,000 gallons of water. The total cost will be $200,000. Only the first section will be built next year if the debentures are authorized, and the second section will be built the following year. The reservoir will adjoin the present one at Springbank.

Need Summer Supply. Members of the utilities commission consider it an absolute necessity. They claim there is sufficient water in the present sources for London at the present time, but that a larger amount should be stored to be used in the summer months when consumption is at its peak.

More Street Lights. The commission will also suggest to the council the need of more street lights, particularly on the main thoroughfares. Chairman Philip Pocock said the council needed to be wakened up in this matter, and that the city should be lighted as at present, which is poorly lighted.

Lowest in Ontario. General Manager Buchanan said London is lighted at a lower rate than the lowest of any city in Ontario. There was plenty of power available to supply more light.

MERLYN POCOKE CAPTIVATES WITH VOICE SPLENDOR

London Songstress Opens the Musical Season.

THROUGH HEARS RECITAL Seneca Pierce, Noted Composer, Is Accompanist; Has Art, Poetic Fire.

The Merlyn Pococke opened in the Auditorium last evening recital in the musical season in London with a flourish, and throngs of music-lovers turned out to be present at the event.

After three months of comparative quietness in the world of music here, it almost took the breath away to be carried aloft into realms of such musical splendor as one of London's own daughters took her audience last night.

Accompanying her was the young composer Seneca Pierce of New York, who is already becoming famous on account of his piano and song compositions.

He was the ideal accompanist, and in his solo numbers displayed technical skill accompanied by the fire which captivated the audience.

But to return to Merlyn Pococke's program. So varied were her numbers, so flexible her voice, that every moment was a delight.

SIR ROBT. FALCONER HERE, PLANS TORONTO VARSITY ENDOWMENT

Committee of Grads. Form, to Assist in Raising Fund.

Sir Robert A. Falconer, president of Toronto University, visited the city for a few hours yesterday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a committee of the varsity graduates in London and Middlesex County to assist in raising the $200,000 endowment for the university. He addressed the graduates in the Y. M. C. A. Of the total endowment about $175,000 will be used for the erection of a permanent external memorial arch in the university grounds, on which will be inscribed the names of the 600 boys who sacrificed their lives. It will perpetuate the memory of all who served and particularly those who fell, for the future generations, and for that purpose a cheaper building would not be suitable. There will be seven names of boys of this district who fell in France placed upon the memorial. Between $250,000 and $275,000 of the endowment will be devoted to scholarships and about $25,000 for lecture-ships. The president stated that it was not the desire of the university to break

18,000 CITIZENS READ BOOKS FROM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Books numbering 20,940 were loaned from the public library during the month of September, according to the reported presented to the public library board last night. There are now more than 18,000 registered borrowers from the library which means that nearly every third person in London has a library card. The reference department is getting into its fall swing, over 1,500 people having used this department for special study during the month. Several extensive runs of important periodicals are being added to the reference collection, and as these are all indexed in the reader's guide the resources will be further increased.

GIRL PLEADS GUILTY TO BIGAMY CHARGE

Married Second Man While First Was Overseas.

Rachael Mabel Blanche McNea, 20, of St. Thomas, pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy in police court this morning and was remanded for a week. As she is said to be subject to epileptic fits and not fit to stay in jail, she will be examined by Dr. James D. Wilson, the jail physician, and if it is deemed necessary the girl will be sent to the hospital. On September 27, 1917, she was married to Leslie A. McNea of St. Thomas. In May, 1915, he went overseas and did not return until one year later. In March, 1919, the accused was married to Thomas H. Snider, 407 Bathurst street, this city. Mrs. McNea claimed that her first husband never wrote to her all the time he was overseas, while he claims that he wrote regularly every two weeks. She claimed also that the certificate of their marriage which McNea produced in court was stolen from her room by his brother. It was alleged that McNea went overseas as a single man, and his wife never received any allowances for several months. She received them at the end of that time, however, and McNea has promised that he will produce evidence next week to show that he did go as a married man. Edmund Meredith, K.C., appearing for the defendant, stated that she was not a strong girl and was unfit to stand a prison term. It might endanger her life, in Toronto, he understood, female bigamists were given sentences as short as two months.

HOUSING COMMISSION GETS SOME PROBLEMS

London has its theatrical housing problems like Detroit. Last week in that American city a road company had to appeal to the citizens in general to house its chorus girls, because no hotel accommodation could be found for them. Last night the London housing commission received an appeal from an actress to build her a house, but as she is at present out of the city, and will not return till spring, the matter was left over. One man appeared before the commission in regard to receiving a loan, and to learn whether

Count the Circles

$2,750 in Cash Prizes

THE PROBLEM

The problem is to count the circles. Every circle is complete, and intersects or touches one or more circles. There are no parts of circles, or shams or deceptions of any sort in the puzzle. In the event that no one counts the exact number, the prizes will be awarded for the nearest correct solutions. Accuracy and patience are the main requisites to arriving at the correct or nearest correct count. Those who display these qualifications to the best advantage will solve the puzzle best.

What Shall We Do With the Federal Square?

That's the burning question before the citizens of London today. As far as a new city hall is concerned there is no reason why it could not be erected on the present site. There is lots of room, and the location is about the best that can be secured. Put up the new city hall building along the lines of the Hydro office building and it will be satisfactory for the next fifty years. It's a crime to allow a valuable property like the one at Dundas and Wellington streets to be idle. We are losing hundreds of dollars in taxes, besides having an ugly eyesore sight in the centre of the city. All it needs is a few members of the bovine persuasion grazing on the corner to give it the appearance of an up-to-date rural village. Get busy, Mr. Mayor and aldermen, put some jazz into this matter, which has been hanging fire for so many years.—"OLD TIMBER."

COL. SEABORN TELLS COMMITTEE PARES EXPENDITURE FOR CANADIAN CLUB OF NO. 10 HOSP. WORK WELCOME TO PRINCE

Hospital Bombed and Hit At Calais—Robt. Greene New Club President.

For the greater part of an hour Lieut.-Col. Dr. Edwin M. Seaborn held the attention of the Canadian Club at the Teumseh House last night as he described the work of No. 10 (Western University) Stationary Hospital.

First, he said, the unit took charge of a small hospital on the Isle of Seaford. There were only 100 beds in it, but they were filled at all times, as epidemics of almost all the infectious diseases broke out. Then tents were put up to provide accommodation. Eastbourne, one of the best situated hospitals in England, was taken in charge next. The work was difficult here, as the men sent there had spent six months in English hospitals, and it was required to determine whether they should be sent home or back to the line.

Hospital Bombed.
Calais was later the situation of the hospital. The men were told that it was the greatest mudhole in France. They overcame the mud by constructing paths of slag and timber. One hundred air raids were directed at the place, resulting in 1,500 bombs being dropped. One hit the hospital. During one raid 200 French civilians were taken into the hospital.

Nursing Sister MacDonald, who paid the supreme sacrifice at Etaples, belonged to the unit. She was sent to the place of her death by mistake, and only the day before she was killed an order for her return to No. 10 had been received.

Praises Red Cross.
At one time 200 extra blankets were needed, and in order to get them much red tape had to be used, and the blankets would then reach their destination in three months. Col. Seaborn escaped this by phoning to the Canadian Red Cross at Boulogne and getting them during the afternoon of the same day. "I never can say enough for the Red Cross," he declared.

When the Germans were advancing, men in the hospital had to be returned to the line as speedily as possible. Col. Seaborn did not like to do this, but it was necessary, as word had come "We are being defeated. Send as many men as possible." News from the men coming back from the trenches was most distressing. They had seen whole battalions wiped out, and all the British retreating.

Among the work of the hospital men was the tilling of three acres of hospital grounds, producing 20 tons of vegetables. Photographs of the graves of Canadian soldiers who died in hospital were taken and sent to relatives.

Robert Greene, New President.
Lieut.-Col. Dr. Edwin M. Seaborn, president of the Canadian Club for the ensuing year. Other officers follow: Honorary president, Sir John Mackenzie, Dr. C. T. Campbell and J. H. Flock; honorary vice-presidents, S. E. Glass, M.P., J. H. Fowler, J. E. Edwards, J. A. Vining, Dr. C. W. Waller, A. W. White, J. Murphy and B. C. McCann; past president, Lieut.-Col. A. Campbell; secretary-treasurer, G. E. Copeland; chairman of membership committee, F. H. Greenless; chairman of literary committee, Prof. H. S. Fox; executive committee, the officers are: H. B. Ashplant, J. K. H. Pope, Dr. J. Cameron Wilson, Lieut.-Col. E. J. Leonard and Rev. Father P. J. McKean.

President Greene and Secretary Copeland were selected as delegates to a meeting of the Association of Canadian Clubs, which is expected, will be held in Ottawa within a few weeks. This will be the first meeting of the association since 1914 at Vancouver.

Lieut.-Col. C. M. B. Graham and Chas. T. Glass were selected as the captains of two teams to work in the Y.M.C.A. $25,000 campaign next week.

Reduced Estimates $3,000—Revelry by Day and Night Promised.

Estimates for the civic reception to the Prince of Wales were reduced from $10,000 to $7,000 by the general executive committee at a meeting Thursday afternoon, at which the estimates and reports of the various sub-committees were presented.

Only $3,000 will be expended on decorations, instead of the $5,000 estimated as necessary by the decoration committee. Printing of program and other matter will cost $700. Bands will cost $2,400, and $200 will be needed to arrange for the visit of returned soldiers from other cities. It had been estimated that a large sum would be required to provide automobiles, but so many citizens are willing to offer their cars on the occasion that it was only necessary to place $50 in the estimates for this item.

It has not been decided whether the decorations will be purchased outright, or rented from large decorating firms. The committee has several tenders for the work, and these will be considered by the decoration committee this afternoon.

Seven bands will participate in the two-day program. Wednesday, the day of the prince's arrival, will be largely a civic reception. Four local bands, the 7th Regiment, the "First Hussars", the Great War Veterans and the Marching One will take part. The prince will proceed to the park, where he will be greeted by the school children, Girl Guides and citizens.

Following this there will be a banquet at the Teumseh House, or London Hunt Club. A public reception will be held from 10 o'clock until midnight in the armories. During the evening the bands will be stationed on the streets. All traffic will be stopped on Dundas and Richmond streets, and there will be dancing on the pavements.

The following day will see a large influx of visitors. Ten thousand war veterans will be here from surrounding municipalities and bands from Stratford, Petrolia, Sarnia and Clinton. These will take part in a review of the returned men at Carling Heights. The prince will leave at 4 o'clock, but there will be another celebration on the main streets at night.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR REACHES RIO JANEIRO

SAFE REGULATOR FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

It is useless, dangerous and unnecessary to be tortured with the digging, twisting pains of backache or to suffer disagreeable kidney and bladder disorders if a safe, simple and harmless kidney regulator like Solvax can be promptly and surely relieve such troubles, as many users say it does.

People who suffer back weakness, rheumatic pains, puffing swellings under eyes, or in ankles and feet, or are bothered with urinary disorders, ought to try taking a little Solvax for a few days and note results.

Solvax usually begins to work in a few hours to regulate the kidneys so they can drive out the excess uric acid and poisonous impurities that are clogging and stopping their free and healthy action. A difference can often be noticed in as little as 24 hours. All leading druggists who sell Solvax agree to return its full purchase price if in any case it does not give entire satisfaction. If your druggist cannot supply you, write, enclosing 50 cents, to Booth's Hygienic Company, Postoffice Box 388, London, Ont.

A CONSERVATIVE VIEW OF BECK.

In a statement made at Toronto Wednesday, Sir Adam Beck replied to the reports that he intended to run as an independent in the provincial elections. He was careful to avoid giving a direct answer to the charge that he was hostile to Hearst, limiting himself to a declaration that he wished to devote himself entirely to the development of hydro-electric affairs.

The public will not be deceived by this statement. There is a serious split in the Hearst Government, with an element following Beck in opposition to the premier's faction. The reason is so well known that it seems hardly necessary to mention it. Sir Adam Beck desires to have complete control of hydro. He wants to be placed in a position where his word will be supreme, unquestioned. His impatience under government and legislative investigation and supervision of the business of hydro is notorious. He has repeatedly fought against any searching into the affairs of his department, taking the high-handed attitude, at least by act if not by word, that he stands apart from any control by those elected to supervise all the business of the province. Without saying it in so many words he has given the impression that hydro is safer in his hands than in the hands of the Government. This is resented by the Hearst faction, which has made "Hydro is safe with Hearst," an election slogan. The inference is that hydro is not safe with Beck, that the public is not best served should Sir Adam have his way. The fact is, apparently, that his former political friends, his own party, consider him a dangerous man to be permitted the absolutism he desires as chairman of the hydro commission. It might be argued that hostility to the ex-pow minister is due to jealousy amongst his colleagues, but this motive cannot be behind the attack on him made by the Montreal Gazette, the dean of the Conservative newspapers. It can be fairly held that the Gazette stands apart from the controversy, yet the Gazette sharply arraigns Sir Adam for his desertion, which it says is due to opposition to his reckless exploitation of Ontario's finances for his stupendous hydro enterprises and schemes, that and his wish to secure autocratic powers. The Gazette says:

Public men who do not know to which party they belong, or to which party they will in future belong, are usually suspected of peering on both sides of the fence to dip their hands into the more capacious trough, and if Sir Adam Beck resents the imputation as applied to himself, he should reflect that his own conduct and words alone have warranted it. He is a considerable figure on the stage of Ontario's politics. Sometime member of the Ontario Government, he retired to become autocrat of the Hydro-Electric Commission of the province, nursing schemes of power development—perhaps ambition of personal power—limited only by the ability of the province to borrow money. He is a proclaimed advocate of nationalization of public utilities, particularly railways, provided these are made a market for the product of his power plants. Industry and energy are commendable qualities which Sir Adam does not lack. His weakness is rather to be found in ambition that knows no moderation, and a spite for mastery that chafes under curb. It is not to his discredit that he is denounced by political opponents who have often beaten in London elections, but their estimation of him may indicate what manner of man Sir Adam is. "It has taken us four years to destroy the one-man rule in Germany. It is up to the citizens of London and the people of Ontario to destroy one-man rule in this city and this province," exclaimed the president of the Liberal Club of that city, and he was heartily supported in this onslaught by a leading lawyer, Mr. Purdon, K.C., who declared: "I don't care who the candidate is, but I would like to see him defeat Sir Adam Beck. He is a menace not only to the city of London, but to the whole province, and would be to the whole country if he could."

The blenish on Sir Adam Beck's public character is cast by himself in the statement that he does not care to which political party he belongs. He has a heart that is torn between scruples and desires, scruples lest in deserting his former colleagues he grasp at a shadow and miss the substantial, and desires to lead a party whose electoral success would enable him to push his power policy unrestrained. Lord Eldon in late life consoled himself that in politics he never did rat, and that which he may sometimes have given a wrong vote he was always consistent. Sir Adam does not possess that virtue, nor the quality of patience, so he is as restless to dominate as one of his own spirited thoroughbreds. His hydro-electric power projects have been unable to "banish the canker of ambitious thought."

The truth is that the Gazette recognizes that Sir Adam Beck has become a national menace. Ontario is so closely associated with the rest of Canada industrially, commercially and financially, that the evils of one-man rule in Ontario would be felt far beyond the borders of the province. A defeat for the member for London would remove a distinct peril to the whole country.

A NEW BUSINESS SCIENCE.

Employment management is a term that has been appearing with frequency in the newspapers during the war and since and that is rapidly being dignified into a science. Universities are beginning to give courses in employment management, books are being written about it and associations are being formed to advance it. The need, of course, is plain. When everything that present-day science can suggest in the way of improving technical efficiency in systems of cost-keeping, equipment, machinery and material has been adopted there still remains the biggest of all industrial problems to be faced, namely the problem of handling men. Data which has been gathered shows that there is an enormous leakage of employees each year in the average store, factory or other place of employment. One New York store which took the trouble to figure for a year found that with a normal employed force of 3,000, there had been 13,000 passed through and gone. The "turn-over" here, unusual, of course, amounted to 433 per cent. If even a small figure were set as the cost of changing an employee the loss in a case of this kind is immense.

The practice has, in the past, been largely hit or miss. Coming and going, coming and going has been the rule, and formed a basis for generalizing on the unsettled mind of labor when the truth was that employers were not sufficiently shrewd to know how to hold their help. Today there is a turning to new methods, in which application is being made of principles that would once have been laughed at. Last year a committee investigated employment, safety and welfare work in twenty American plants, employing all the way from 600 to 42,000 men each. The committee's report states, among other things, that these companies gave five reasons for the reduction in labor "turn-over." In order of importance they were: 1. wages; 2. fair treatment; 3. promotion; 4. good working conditions; 5. welfare work.

Wages, as the basis of all relations between employer and employee, naturally comes first in men's minds in choosing a place to work, and fair treatment might be expected to come second, since it more than anything else, apart from wages, determines the degree of satisfaction or dissatisfaction the worker finds in his job. Sometimes little things have big influence in this respect, either for satisfied workers or industrial unrest. Promotion is, of course, closely bound up with fair treatment, and implies that men are always in training for positions higher up, while it may also offer opportunity for giving the man who has fallen in one job the chance to make good on another. All this is simply a matter of encouraging the man to help himself. Conditions of work and welfare work have both been given much consideration during recent years, and the plants that have been following out work along these lines would not think of going back to old conditions today.

The whole subject of employment has been investigated from many new angles during the war on account of the gravity of the problem arising from inefficient labor and costly "turn-over," at a time when every pair of hands was needed. The American Government did not hesitate to start classes in several universities where foremen and others directing large bodies of workmen were brought together and given a scientific viewpoint for their work. These classes are being continued and one such course has already been given in a Canadian university. There is also in Toronto an Employment Managers' Association similar to many such organizations on the other side of the border. A literature is being issued on the subject, which is accessible to those interested, typical titles being: Employment Management, by Bloomfield; Increasing Human Efficiency in Business, by W. D. Scott, and Cadbury's Experiments in Industrial Organization, to mention only three of many books and articles dealing with the subject. Those who desire to get at the scientific basis of the subject will also find Tead's Instincts in Industry invaluable in its suggestions.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY.

October 9 has been set by the Dominion Government as fire prevention day, and preparations should be made in every community, big or little, to co-operate with the authorities by demonstrating the need of precaution and carelessness. A campaign of education that will reach everybody is proposed, and an especial effort to instruct the children in the schools will be made. During the past few years Canada's losses by fire have been stupendous, averaging twenty millions per year. Last year the figures reached over thirty millions of dollars, and a careful investigation shows that 75 per cent of the fires were due to the carelessness of individuals. The Dominion Government has issued a proclamation in which it recommends the following:

- 1. That all dwellings and their surroundings be carefully inspected by their occupants and all conditions likely to cause or promote the spread of fires removed.
2. That all public buildings, stores and factories be inspected and cleared of rubbish.
3. That fire drills be held for the children in all schools and for employees in all large stores and factories.
4. That special instruction on the subject of fire prevention be given by the teacher and by municipal officials in the schools and that such appropriate literature as may be made available be distributed to the pupils.
5. That legislation and regulations enacted or issued by Dominion, provincial or municipal authorities dealing with fire prevention be given publicity by the municipal officials, and that by public meetings or otherwise as may to them seem fit, they endeavor to impress upon the citizens the national importance of safeguarding life and property from loss by fire.

THE LIBERAL LEADER.

The Liberal party goes to the election on the twentieth of this month under a new leader, Mr. Hartley Dewart. Mr. Dewart, who is a son of the Rev. Dr. Dewart, for many years very prominent in the Methodist Church, has been a leader at the Toronto bar for many years. He has as a speaker no equal in the Ontario Legislature. His introduction to this city a few weeks ago proved that he ranks with the best Canada has today or had in days gone by.

His arraignment of the Government for its policy with reference to nickel was strong and convincing. He charged the Government with being responsible for Canadian nickel getting to Germany, and being used to kill Canadian soldiers. The accusation was a serious one, and with great ability he built up his proofs, leading to the conclusion that but for laxity on the part of the Government the American firms to whom the nickel was shipped could not have obtained it and trans-shipped it to Germany. The great war is over and most of the boys are home, but a terrible toll was taken. The blame that rests on many shoulders for fatal blunders will never be settled, but the nickel question of the future can be safely left in the hands of the new leader of the Liberal party in the Ontario Parliament.

From Here and There

WHEN IS AN EGG FRESH?

By the provisions of a newly-enacted law in the State of Pennsylvania, eggs sold as "fresh" must hereafter be really fresh, and a reasonable definition of the word has been officially adopted. In a special session of the State Board of Chemists, of which an account has recently been sent out in the form of a press bulletin, it was demonstrated to the satisfaction of all present that the identification of eggs as fresh or stale, under the official specifications, is a matter of no great difficulty. Samples of eggs had been collected by Agent Simmers of the Philadelphia district, who had full data concerning every sample submitted. They covered a range of cold storage eggs of several ages, one-day-old eggs, western fresh eggs, and eggs preserved by several well-known methods used in household practice. These samples were submitted under number only to the group of chemists for decision as to their character, and in every case they were correctly classified for interpretation of the provisions of the newly-enacted fresh egg law. We read in the bulletin:

"As each sample was submitted the chemists individually made their decisions, which unanimously agreed in each case, and as each result was announced Mr. Simmers' facts regarding the origin of the particular sample were stated and were found absolutely to confirm the decision arrived at by the chemists as to the age and classification of the eggs. "The factors which are taken into account in classifying eggs as to their freshness are the size of the air space, the specific gravity, the condition of the white and of the yolk after opening, the appearance of the chalazae, besides various confirmatory chemical tests and cooking tests."

"A fresh egg is one that is understood to have the following qualities: Its white is capable of whipping well; in cooking it can be satisfactorily poached or soft-boiled; it has not absorbed foreign disagreeable odors; its embryo shall not have developed appreciably; the yolk should be fairly stiff and well rounded, and the white should not be watery, and the chalazae shall be well defined."

"Eggs held in the warmer portion of the year lose their quality of freshness much more rapidly than in the colder months. Even when kept in a cool room they lose their quality of freshness in about three weeks. "With the present high prices of eggs it is only fair that the purchaser who asks for and pays for fresh eggs is entitled to receive them, and it was for this purpose that the fresh egg law was enacted at the last session of the Legislature. "As soon as the state printer is able to supply the department with copies of the law, these will be distributed to the trade and to the public, after which time the law will be enforced."

JEROME ON SPIRITUALISM.

Among the critics of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and his book on "The New Revelation," is a fellow-man of letters, Mr. Jerome K. Jerome, whose authorship of the famous play, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," presents him as a man who has made excursions in the spiritual realm. A new religion, "founded upon human reason on this side and upon spirit inspirations upon the other, which is what the spiritualists claim their scheme to be," he says, is something he would welcome; but he finds nothing in Sir Arthur's book to disturb his unbelief. "The 'signs' which are brought forward, he says, 'can be and have been performed by conjurers making no claim to spiritual assistance.' Mr. Jerome, whose article in Common Sense is quoted by New York Tribune, takes up the case of Sir Arthur and presents without prejudice the picture of mental states accompanying his conversion:

"Sir Arthur admits that before he became converted he would occasionally return from a seance 'puzzled and disgusted.' What he had witnessed struck him as either trifling or folly so supreme as to render the whole subject worthy of attention. The 'explanations' by which spiritualists sought to remove his skepticism did not satisfy him 'at the time.' Before his conversion he admits having come across mediums whose performances impressed him, but who were, later, detected in trickery. After his conversion he appears to have had no experiences calculated to weaken his faith, while the 'explanations' that had been given at the time appeared so unsatisfactory to him, he is now able to regard as 'a rough approximation to the truth.' "One of the first things that appears to have shaken Sir Arthur's reliance upon his own belief was that a 'fact' he had witnessed and believed had been attested by three eyewitnesses, 'all men of honor and repute.' I do not doubt for a moment that these three gentlemen did actually see a certain Mr. Home, a medium, 'float over the air on a cushion' at the height of seventy feet above the ground.' But I have to bear in mind that less than two hundred years ago men of 'honor and repute,' men of intellect and education, kindly Christian gentlemen—were attesting in open court that they had seen old women riding through the air on broomsticks! They knew—these men of 'honor and repute'—that the words they were speaking would be in the air they breathed. It was part of their religion. He accordingly believed that the 'physical phenomena' he had witnessed were not 'physical phenomena' at all, but the gradual rise of rationalism in Europe has cleared the man of 'honor and repute' in open court. All our saw an old lady rising through the air on a broomstick would consult a specialist. Man is a broomstick-contained creature than he knows. His heaven and his hell, they are within him. The mystery and marvels that confound him are contained within the cells of his own brain."

These "Proofs." Mr. Jerome matches Sir Arthur's "proofs" with tales of the supernatural from his own experience, all, he maintains, equally conclusive, only the upshot of them was eventual explanation on the physical plane. From these he turns to express his regretful rejection of the belief in spirit communication and his belief in its bankruptcy as an aid to religion today. "With gladness would I accept a new religion 'founded upon human reason on this side and upon spirit inspiration upon the other.' But what are we offered? On this side the darkened room, the ubiquitous tambourine, the hired medium (sometimes 'detected in trickery' and sometimes not), now tied into a chair, and now locked up in an iron cage; the futile messages, proved frequently to be 'concoctions,' vague prophecies of the kind that we can read in any 'Old Moore's Almanac.' These things do not appeal to my reason. We have descriptions given to us of the spiritual world that are supposed to clinch the matter. It is a description of the sort of place that everybody wants to go to. All our more respectable earthly desires will be gratified. Life's little luxuries we shall continue to enjoy without trouble and expense. We are to be very, very happy, and everybody is to be good-looking and aged about thirty. We are to be very, very happy. Am I asked to accept this sort of thing as proof of 'spirit inspiration'?"

"Where is this 'new religion'? What does spiritualism preach? Or is it content with the world as it is? I take the last five years. Has spiritualism done anything—is it doing anything—to help man to be less brutal, less hypocritical, less greedy? Has it done anything—is it doing anything—to lessen the appalling wickedness that is threatening, like some foul weed, to poison the whole earth? For five years savagery and cruelty have been preached to us from pulpits and from press. Our children are being taught it at their mothers' knees. Vengeance and hatred are the new virtues. Christ, amid roars of laughter, is mocked in our parliaments. What has spiritualism done—what is it doing—to help mankind to recover its senses, its manhood; to rescue its soul from being withered by lust and passion?"

STEEL BOARD'S CHAIRMAN SAYS NO COMPROMISE

Judge Gary Declares He Will Not Meet Strikers' Representatives.

PUBLIC INTEREST FIRST

Says If Strike Follows Natural Course It May Be Salutary Lesson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Standing squarely on his assertion that the issue in the pending strike throughout the steel industry is the open shop, Judge Gilbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation, completed his testimony today before the Senate Labor Committee investigating the steel controversy. During a colloquy with the committee members, particularly Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, Judge Gary flatly declared that he could not now consider compromise or arbitration or meet with strikers' representatives.

The Senate during the day by resolution approved the committee's plan to carry its investigation to Pittsburgh and other steel centers after hearing tomorrow William Z. Foster, secretary of the strikers' committee, and perhaps one or two other leaders on that side of the controversy.

Will Be Helpful. "I'm sorry I can't take the position that members of this committee do," Judge Gary said, in explaining his refusal to arbitrate the issue. "I consider the public's interest as paramount in the refusal. If the strike is left to follow its inevitable course, if a certain vicious element in this country gets no encouragement to continue calling strikes of the kind, the situation will be helpful in preventing in-

Canadian Cloth Is Gradually Taking Place of English

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—That Canadian cloth is gradually being substituted in this country for the English product, and that it is of better quality, was the statement made by Mr. McKinnon, manager of the clothing department of the Robert Simpson Company, at the resumed investigation by the board of commerce into the price of cloth. He stated that the company did business with the Paton firm of Sherbrooke. Showing increases in the price of English material, Mr. McKinnon said that in some cases it had risen from 5s to 21s and from 1s 1d to 6s 6d. The increase on some lines was as much as 200 and 300 per cent, 200 per cent being a fair average. Canadian lines were cheaper than English ones, he said, but high priced goods were still purchased in England.

He was of the opinion that instead of the price of cloth being reduced it was likely to increase further. He thought that the present was no time to supply foreign markets.

West of Scotland and South Wales Severe Sufferers

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(Reuter Agency dispatch)—Except in the west of Scotland and in South Wales, the situation in the provinces is not very bad. Canal transit is proving most helpful in the Midlands in supplying fuel and raw material to the numerous industries. Indeed, although many collieries are closed down or partially closed, there is nothing approaching a general breakdown of industry in the black country.

A quarter of a million people in Nottinghamshire are earning coal from the pits without the assistance of a wheelbarrow. Blackjackets restarted the hydraulic powerhouses at Cardiff, enabling a fleet of steamers to leave yesterday, mostly for home ports. Blackjackets also acted as dock gatekeepers. Strikers watched the operations from a distance, but beyond some jeering, attempted no action.

The situation at Manchester, Liverpool and Birmingham is not yet serious. The effects of the strike are gradually becoming more serious in west Scotland, where already 25,000 out of 32,000 stone workers are idle, also 2,000 miners and 2,500 dockers. Blackjackets are assisting to handle coal trucks at Greenock.

Up to the present the behavior of the strikers in Glasgow has been admirable. The position in east Scotland is not serious, although shipping is temporarily tied up at Leith.

The food situation in the provinces continues excellent.

Peace Policy to Be Along Health Lines.

MRS. PLUMPTRE SPEAKS

Shipments To Value of $162,999 Made During Past Year.

The new president of the Red Cross Association for Military District No. 1 is Mrs. Frank E. Leonard, who presided at the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Masonic Temple. The reports of the year's work, presented in book form, are very interesting, the financial report submitted by Mrs. A. E. Cooper showing an expenditure of almost one hundred thousand dollars. Surgical supplies to the number of 27,449, valued at $5,032, soldiers' clothing to the value of $66,250 and refugee garments to the value of $96,646, were shipped, making the total value of shipments, $162,999.

Mrs. Plumptre, the speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Plumptre of Toronto, honorary secretary of the Dominion Association, and she subject the new peace-time policy of the Red Cross Association.

"There may not be so many sewing parties as in the past," declared the speaker, "but that does not say there will not be a big work for the Red Cross to perform. I cannot say exactly what the policy of the Ontario Red Cross will be, for it hasn't yet been framed, but I can point out what we hope shall be done and what probably will be done.

"The close of the war has necessitated an entire change in the outlook of the nation, and we are seeing the fabric of the war Red Cross Society being torn down. The Red Cross Society has to a certain extent had to demobilize, and now it is being built up again on new lines.

Soldiers First Care.

"In such a large hospital centre as London, the war work, however, has not ceased, and we believe that the first work of every branch of the Red Cross is to fill its duty towards the returned men.

"But how are we going to spend the balance of our time and money? There is an international movement on foot towards the education of the people along health lines, and be ready for an emergency when they occur, such as influenza, diphtheria, etc. Not long ago, the famous health experts of Europe and America were called together to decide whether it would be better for the world if the Red Cross Association should remain on new lines.

Should Remain.

"And they decided that the association should remain to help in combatting tuberculosis, venereal disease, mental deficiency, malaria, typhoid, to see to the proper care of children and expectant mothers; and be ready to act in such an emergency occurred as influenza epidemic. As a result, a league of Red Cross societies was formed with the object of keeping alive this institution throughout the world.

"In Canada, there is no society which stands ready to give efficient service in case of an emergency. This true there are many societies working along this line, such as the St. John Ambulance divisions and the Victorian Order.

Women At Home and Abroad

A QUEER PARADOX!
TO BE MODISH IS TO BE OLD-FASHIONED.

The designers of millinery and costumes have turned away back to the days of the eighteenth century for their inspiration this year. Hence we see pinnets and in some of the most exaggerated models, even wide hoops. Among the headgear there is a revival of the picture hat, with wide, sweeping brims, the tricorne and hats of the reigns of Louis XIV. and Louis XV.

Every woman in choosing her wardrobe for the winter should bear this fact in mind. It would even help a lot if she made a study of the pictures of the time, becoming familiar with every little accessory of the lady of the eighteenth century. Then when she had to choose her own gowns she would immediately recognize the tendencies in this direction and perhaps see possibilities of further improvement, and in this way she would become to a certain extent her own designer.

SLEEVELESS SWEATERS NEEDED IN HOSPITALS.

The large quantities of yarn still upon the shelves of the local Red Cross Association need by no means go begging. The cry has come out of the military hospitals for sleeveless sweaters, not yet learned to cease twitching and knitting needles may be calmed into a more useful work, especially for added warmth while sleeping.

WORLD MADE ON HEALTH QUESTION.

The peace program of the Red Cross Association is forming along health lines. The peace work of the I. O. O. F. is announced as child welfare, and the local chapters are contemplating the building of a sick children's hospital. With the close of the war, even more St. John Ambulance Nursing Divisions are being formed. The mothers' clubs of the city are agitating for classes in mothercraft at the public schools, in order that babies may receive every possible care in their homes. Child welfare clinics are becoming more and more popular. In fact, the whole city, the whole country and, indeed, a large portion of the world has gone mad on the question of "health." Of course, the trend of the times has been this way for a long time, but the war, with its horrible years of life-sacrificing, has speeded the movement along. And now today the great aim of everybody is to work towards saving that which has become so valuable through its very scarcity.

Another "Sure Death."

Dear Miss Grey—I have been going to write to you for some time, and the other day, when I saw that a lady had a "few stray ones," I thought I could tell her a sure cure. Get at any drug store about 50 cents worth of diphtheria powder, and just sprinkle it around the beds and about the room. Don't sweep for a week or so, and you will never be bothered again, as it is sure death.

Could you please send me the "Answer to the Gypsy's Warning"? I wish to send my name and address. Wish you every success. I am,

London Rugby Team Ready For Clash With Sarnia

Imperials Journey Thither Saturday With Strong Outfit—Many of Old Sarnia Players Again in Action and Battle Will Be Hard One.

At last night's practice a whole lot of mistakes that occurred at Woodstock Wednesday afternoon were pointed out to the rugby squad, and the outfit came in for some severe criticism and a lot of hard work afterwards. The locals did beat the Woodstock collegians all right, but every man on the team realizes that the score should have been 116 to 1 instead of the score it was, and as a result are putting a lot more pep into their workouts than they have the last week. Romping up and down Pecumseh Park with nothing but the air to beat, a portion of the team naturally got to thinking that when it comes to rugby they are very much on the premises, and the workout in Woodstock has had the effect of making that portion realize that there are still several things about the game to learn. Contrary to the first impression conveyed here by the Sarnia team, they will be here on Saturday to play out the first scheduled game of the district. Lack of practice was given as the reason for the Sarnians wishing to have off the game and play it later in the season, but when they found that they would have to default they chose to go on with the game. The Imperials will have a strong line-up, and even if lacking a little practice will make the locals hustle to put over a win. With Le Suer, Stan Aistyne, Smith, Jeff Garvey and a few other old-timers in the line, and Coach Jack Newton looking things over from the side lines, there is not much danger of London having an easy afternoon.

DENY CAMERON WILL LEAVE U. F. O., AND LIB-NOMINATION FOLLOW

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 2.—Peter Cameron of Wallaceston, recently named U. F. O. and Labor candidate in West Elgin, is to resign, and a convention of Liberals will be called at an early date to name a Liberal candidate for the riding against Hon. F. G. Macdormid, according to a report here tonight.

Inquiries at Liberal headquarters in this city brought no confirmation. "We know nothing of it, and I don't think there is anything to it," declared one local Liberal. Mr. Cameron was not in the city and could not be located.

Officials for the First Rugby Game Are Now Changed

Dicky Le Suer Unable to Act On Peat and B. E. Leckie Are Appointed.

Bert Perry, convener of the local rugby district, was notified that Dicky Le Suer would not be available on Saturday to referee the Sarnia-London fixture, and Con Peat and B. E. Leckie of Petrolia will handle the game. Officials of the Sarnia team say that their team is rounding out rapidly this last week, and they expect to bring up one of the best teams that has ever represented the Imperial City. They held the final workout last night for Saturday's game, and the condition shown has been much better than was at first anticipated.

Famous Horn Favorite in 2:14 Pace Finishing Today After Two Wins.

MT. CLEMENS, Mich., Oct. 2.—The Michigan short shippers opened here this afternoon after waiting three days for the Clinton View Park to dry out, and the program of three events was consequently well filled. Split heats prevailed in two of the three races run off. The last event, the 2:14 pace, went over unfinished until Friday after Famous Horn had installed himself favorite by winning two firsts out of the four heats pace.

There was a large field out in the 2:23 trot, first money going to Symphony, with Patrick Todd a rather poor second. Mabel Long on form should have had a better showing than the bunch, but the three days' lay-up did none of the horses any good and they seemed flat.

L. C. I. PLAYS ST. THOMAS COLLEGIANS TODAY

The Collegiate boys had their final workout on the school grounds last night. After an hour of fast signal drill the coach called it a day's work and sent the youngsters off home to rest up for the fray today. In late years London has only been able to beat St. Thomas on their home field, but this year they are quite confident of winning at both places, in spite of the Railway City having the same team that defeated the local boys last year. A large number of rooters will go with the junior pliskin chasers, who leave on the one-twenty L. & P. S. train. Mel. Brook of this city will in all probability handle the game. If that is the case all sides will be treated alike, as he warned his own team that he would not tolerate dirty work on either side.

SUCCESSFUL RACING AN IMPOSSIBILITY WITHOUT BETTING

Witness at Racing Inquiry Says Racing a National Industry.

SITING CONCLUDES Witnesses Say Majority of Capital Invested Is Canadian.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Nothing very damaging to the racing interests was elicited at the Government inquiry into the Hamilton Jockey Club, which concluded this afternoon at the city hall here. Commissioner J. G. Rutherford of the Hamilton Jockey Club, verified four local racing plants, and will move on to Windsor, where he will examine conditions in the latter stages of the afternoon session. President George S. Kerr, K.C., the various statements presented, and declared that the majority of the stock of the Hamilton Jockey Club was controlled in Hamilton.

Secretary Lowden of the same club was called by W. E. Haney, K.C., that the latter was a majority stockholder. Value Has Increased. Secretary-Treasurer Joseph S. Martin of the Niagara Racing Association, whose headquarters are at Fort Erie, stated that his racing plant acquired the plant when it was a losing venture, and that American gamblers were not solicited until it was found impossible to interest Canadians. The property was now worth many times over $100,000, which was the purchase price originally paid. Abraham Orpen of the Metropolitan Association said that his profit varied, ranging from $2,000 to $20,000. He said he was equally interested, along with Thomas Hare, in the Dufferin and Hillcrest half-mile tracks, and that between them they had 40 per cent of the stock in the Kenilworth Club at Windsor. He admitted candidly that racing with him was a business. Mr. Orpen was the last witness called.

Several spirited verbal tiffs between the various witnesses called by the racing interests and Mr. Haney, representing the Social Reform Association, culminated the morning proceedings. Secretary W. E. Haney of the Ontario Jockey Club refused to allow Mr. Rutherford to inspect the books of the club and accused the latter of a breach of confidence when allowed to do so on an earlier occasion. Henderson Bond, manager of S. Livingston's Cobourg farm, stated that if the closure on racing were made permanent, breeding operations at this extensive establishment would be discontinued. Francis Nelson, well-known sporting writer and racing judge, said during the course of his examination that racing alone could not succeed without systematic betting, and that it was a national industry, which required a big supply of funds to enable it to continue. Crowds on race tracks were the most orderly in the world.

IRISH LABOR PARTY PLANS MASS MEETING IN AID OF STRIKERS

DUBLIN, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press).—The national executive of the Irish Labor party will hold a mass meeting Sunday in support of the striking railwaymen in England, Scotland and Wales. The coal shortage is making Ireland feel the effects of the strike severely. Beginning tonight the Dublin tramcars will cease running at 5:30 p.m. each day. This will be a severe blow to all the amusement places. The mail services are disorganized. No food restrictions have been yet enforced, but the public has been warned to economize strictly in the use of coal.

DETROIT'S MOST FAMOUS GANGSTER MURDERED; NO TRACE OF SLAYER
DETROIT, Oct. 2.—Sam Giannola, Detroit's most noted gangster, was shot and killed this afternoon as he came out of a bank at Monroe avenue and Russell street. His slayers escaped and no trace of them has been found. Seven bullets entered Giannola's body, two of them passing through his heart, and death was instantaneous. Giannola had a long criminal record. He was known as the leader of Detroit's blood feudists, and had been concerned in many kinds of crimes. His brother Tony was killed in much the same manner last winter. Commissioner of Police Inches believes the killing a good thing for the city generally, and it is unlikely that much effort will be made to run down the killers.

LARGE PROPORTION OF MENTAL CASES RECOVER

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—Reports received at militia headquarters indicate that Canadian soldiers who returned to Canada mentally affected from war causes, and who have been under treatment in Canada, are recovering in gratifying numbers. One of the most important contributing factors to this result is the Cobourg military hospital, which has been the subject of favorable notice by the director and associate director of the national committee for mental hygiene. Already 58 per cent of admissions to this military institution have been discharged recovered.

Old St. Marys House Provides Thrills—Belonged to Doctor?

ST. MARYS, Oct. 2.—The discovery of a small skull in an attic of an old house here set the town agog today.

A frame cottage, owned by A. Stevens, which had been moved to a new foundation and remodeled, was being wired for electric lights by Willard Stevens. In the black darkness of the attic he noticed a peculiar glistening white substance, and on reaching for it found it to be a human skull. Further search failed to reveal other bones. Old residents were asked to solve the mystery. They declared that a doctor or dentist had resided in the cottage 50 years ago, and it is presumed that he had used the skull as a student.

CANADA'S ONLY ONE PRICE TAILORS

Are Tip Top Tailors

TIP TOP TAILORS would welcome an investigation in clothing prices, for the reason that it would reveal and firmly establish the facts regarding the HIGH quality of TIP TOP CLOTHES and the low price at which they are sold in our stores.

"PROFITS AND PROFITEERING" would have a new definition to the clothes buying public. It would be proven that there is no profiteering in Tip Top Clothes, because the retail price is based on the cost of economical production at our wholesale tailoring plant, with the middlemen's profits eliminated.

We are both maker and merchant, and an investigation would bring out the outstanding facts that under our plan of working with our own wholesale tailoring plant and our output assured by the operation of our own stores means the lowest possible price to the public, and they are assured the greatest value for their money.

BEWARE

Beware of the tailor or clothing store that advertises One Price to "get you in" and tries to sell you goods at higher prices when you arrive.

The Tip Top Plan Means The Elimination of

- 1---The usual maker's Profit
- 2---Wholesale selling cost
- 3---Jobbing
- 4---Wholesale credit losses
- 5---Retail charge accounts
- 6---Dead stock on hand

As all Tip Top Stores are under one management, we further eliminate added retail costs and extra extravagance. It is the combination of these saving costs, coupled with the specialization of one price that makes us the greatest one-price tailors in the world today.

Courses Inadequate. Frank Turner, a vocational student, said the courses given were inadequate, and disabled men were being sent into the world unable to compete with fit men. He considered a year's course should be given. Men were not being satisfactorily re-established. The conditions in which students in the commercial courses were "appalling." The witness stated over one hundred men were working in one house, fifty in a double parlor, and there was but one lavatory for all of them. Conditions, he said, were insanitary and altogether unfit for returned men to work in.

Dr. W. J. Black, who was called, said there was too much duplication in the agricultural training of the D. S. C. R. and soldiers' settlement board. The latter body should have full control of all agricultural training of men who were to take advantage of the land settlement scheme.

Not Normal. Captain N. F. Parkinson, recalled, said Pritchard, a previous witness, had been found unsuitable as a motion picture operator, owing to his disability, and was given the commercial course as a multigraph operator. This was mechanical work, and would have brought the man's arm back to normal. Pritchard, the witness said to Mr. MacNeil, was hardly in a normal condition, owing to his wounds and shell shock. It was not possible to start the man in his course in less than eleven days after he was boarded. There was a private fund at the disposal of the board which might be used to carry a man in straitened circumstances until he was receiving pay and allowances.

In Series of Public Meetings to Fight for the $2,000 Gratuity.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The special committee on re-establishment had a series of galvanic shocks this evening when it was known that Messrs. Gothard and McKenzie, delegates from the Grand Army of Canada, Vancouver, had left to join J. Harry Flynn in his fight for the $2,000 gratuity and would not come before the committee. They left a message for the committee, which was delivered after the chair had called these witnesses several times, in which they stated that they did not intend to go through the same grilling as Flynn had been subjected to, and would join him in his course of public meetings.

Earlier in the day C. G. MacNeil, counsel for the Great War Veterans' Association, produced for the committee a "human document" in the form of Rupert C. Pritchard, a man who had served with the British and Canadian armies, been wounded and shell-shocked, was unable to resume his trade, which before the war netted him $70 a month, and was now "broke." He had just secured a job delivering telegrams for the Canadian Pacific Railway, at which he hoped to earn a living while waiting for his next pension check. He had been receiving $12.50 a month, which was being increased on Oct. 1 to a 40 per cent disability, which would pay him $288 a year.

He had been brought from Washington to enter the vocational school, because dissatisfied and left, because refused the course he wanted, and then

"CEETEE"

THE PURE WOOL UNDERCLOTHING THAT WILL NOT SHRINK

'CEETEE' underwears is made especially for those who appreciate quality and comfort.

While the first cost is higher than ordinary underwear, the better wear, greater warmth, lighter weight and all-round satisfaction make it much more economical in the long run.

You cannot buy poor 'CEETEE'—it is not made.

The process of manufacture is different and expensive—there is nothing else like it made in Canada—special machinery—special trained operators—each garment with individuality.

Only the very finest, safest and cleanest Australian Merino wool is used—so soft that a baby can wear it.

There are no seams—as the garments are made with a setedge and the joints are knitted together—not sewn as in ordinary garments.

Each 'CEETEE' garment is knit, not cut, to fit the body.

Each 'CEETEE' garment goes through our special secret process, making it absolutely unshrinkable.

As a matter of fact, 'CEETEE' is better than imported, it is in a class by itself—without competition and is superlative.

Made in all sizes for Men, Women and Children—in Union Suits or Separate Garments.

UNIONISTS HAVE AGAIN AVOIDED DEFINITE SPLIT

Consolidation of Party With Organization and Platform Is Shelved.

SAME OLD PLATFORM

That of Notorious 1917 Election To Do Duty in Coming By-Election.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The danger of a split in the Unionist ranks has again been avoided for another session. The much heralded proposal for the immediate consolidation of the party, with platform and organization, has been shelved until next spring, when the House meets again. The "party" will remain in the meantime in its present uncohesive form. The platform for the coming by-elections will be the platform of the notorious election of 1917. The organization will be the shattered remnants of that which was used on the same occasion.

Sir Robert Borden came to the caucus as announced, and was given an ovation. Donald Sutherland of Oxford almost broke up the meeting early in the proceedings by declaring in his deep bass voice that "there were traitors in the camp." "There are men here," he said with conviction "who have come to spy and listen, but for no other purpose. Members looked nervously at their neighbors, but the traitors could not be identified, and Mr. Sutherland's protest was drowned in cries of disapproval. Otherwise the gathering was something of a jog-along love feast.

Sir Robert's announcement as contained in the statement given out afterwards must have been a somewhat dry affair. He dwelt long upon the platform of 1917, and declared that no pre-election promises as this Government had. (Loud cheers.)
In General Terms.
He thereupon laid down in very general terms the policy of the Government for the future on the prominent issues of the day. He did not ask the gathering to pronounce upon these immediately; in fact the premier's health is not in a condition to permit him to endure controversial debate, and he was very tired after the ordeal which he was compelled to go through.
He informed his followers that the question of the permanency of the party would be postponed until next session, when members would have had an opportunity of digesting the proposals submitted, and when a caucus would be held at which the whole matter would be threshed out. He put some comfort into the hearts of his followers in the meantime by declaring that under normal conditions there would be no general election until 1922, after the decennial census and redistribution of federal constituencies.
The premier will leave immediately for Victoria.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.
OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The following official statement covering the proceedings at the Unionist caucus today was given out tonight. It is as follows:
Mr. Hume Cronyn presided over a caucus of Government supporters this morning, at which there was a very full attendance. The proceedings were characterized by great earnestness and unanimity. Sir Robert Borden addressed the caucus for about an hour, and pointed out in the first place the platform, consisting of twelve articles, which was submitted to the people of Canada on October 18, 1917, and upon which the Government received its mandate from the people. He emphasized the fact that in the policy only the vigorous prosecution of the war, but many other important subjects. Among them were civil service reform and the abolition of patronage, the extensions of the franchise to women, adequate taxation of war profits, effective arrangements for demobilization, the care and vocational training of returned soldiers, for assistance in enabling them to settle upon the land, and for adequate pensions. Besides this, the policy had included the development of transportation facilities, co-operative management of the various systems, the encouragement and development of shipbuilding, and the investigation of the possibilities of air service. It also embraced effective measures to prevent excessive profits, and it included the general development of the varied resources of Canada, their conservation and utilization for the advantage of the people, adequate consideration of the needs of

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headaches, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach; you must bathe on the inside like you bathe on the outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.
To keep these poisons and toxins flushed from the stomach, liver, pancreas and bowels, drink before breakfast each day a glass of hot water, with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify, and freshen the entire alimentary tract. More eating more food.
Buy a quarter-pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, with a phosphoric hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins, also to prevent their formation.

Plants bloom in the home with a Banner Furnace

THINK what this means! Pure air—air without trace of gas to impair health or vegetable life. Gas in the house is caused usually by a leaking radiator.

The radiator of a Banner Furnace is so constructed that it cannot possibly leak. Its heavy steel walls with well molded castings top and bottom act as an effectual safeguard against any escape of gas.

Instead of being in two parts, the bottom forms one piece with its main dome casting. The firm, close fitting joints are then sealed with cement and bolted securely against all chance of spreading. Thus the possibility of leaks is averted and living conditions in the home made healthier in consequence.

This is but one of the features which enables the Banner Furnace to give such uniformly good service year after year.

You will find the others fully and interestingly described in our booklet entitled, "How to Choose a Furnace," a copy of which may be had for the asking.

Outspoken Expressions of Preference for Old Style.

NEW CLASSIFICATION

Bill Ratifying It Is Given Second Reading After Discussion.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—Outspoken expressions of opinion in favor of returning to the old system of party patronage...

The arguments of members opposed to the present civil service system were mainly to the effect that it was wrong both in theory and in practice...

At a late hour D. D. McKenzie's motion, asking for the appointment of a committee to go into the matter of the Meighen code telegram and the taking of the soldiers' vote at the last general election was under discussion.

Hon. Jacques Bureau continued his speech of yesterday and read affidavits from two private soldiers who claimed that they had been ordered to vote for the Union Government under a threat of being transferred to infantry battalions if they refused.

Statement an insult. Brigadier-General Griesbach quoted Mr. McKenzie as having said that officers from the rank of general downward threatened men with a court-martial with the front line.

His declaration raised a storm. There were loud cries of "order." Mr. McKenzie angrily jumped to his feet.

"Does the honorable gentleman," he called out, "direct the charge of cowardice to me as a member of this House?"

"If the cap fits the honorable gentleman, he can wear it," General Griesbach sharply retorted, and again there were loud cries of "order."

Mr. Bureau—Is the charge that those who read such affidavits in the House are guilty of cowardice? That is what I want to know. Then we can have it out.

Gen. Griesbach—My statement is that no officer would dream of making a threat of that sort unless he is a coward. No person would use such a threat to a soldier unless that person believed the soldier to be a coward.

No Need To Be Thin Scrawny or Sallow. If you are thin and want to be plump; if you have wrinkles in your face that you are not proud of; if the skin is sallow or subject to pimples or blackheads, take Mi-o-na stomach tablets for two weeks and notice the change.

The majority of the thin people are thin because their stomach does not perform its duties properly. It does not secrete sufficient of the natural digestive juices and in consequence does not extract from the food enough nutritive matter to nourish every part of the body.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are intended to build up the stomach so that it will act properly and extract from the food the elements necessary to form flesh.

If you are thin try two weeks' treatment of Mi-o-na stomach tablets—they are small, easily swallowed and are sold on the guarantee of money back if they do not overcome chronic indigestion, acute or chronic, flatulence, sour stomach, and any after-dinner distress.

argument is a cowardly argument, and can only be used by persons who believe in cowardice, who believe that men could be influenced by cowardice. It is a coward's argument and can only be used by cowards.

Mr. Bureau demanded a retraction of this statement, and on his demand being sustained by the deputy speaker, Gen. Griesbach withdrew it.

The Why? of Another Victory Loan

WHEN, on the morning of November 11th, 1918, the guns were hushed and glad tidings flashed across the world, there followed with the Nation's Prayer of Thanksgiving, one yearning query, which found echo in the faster-beating hearts of wives, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts.

THAT query was, "How soon will our boy be home?"

AND, from France and Flanders, from Italy and Egypt, from Palestine and from far-off Siberia, there came an answering echo "How soon, how soon, may we go home?"

CANADA caught the spirit of these longings, and at once resolved to satisfy them

IT was an appalling task. Shipping was tragically scarce. The composition of the Army of Occupation had not then been settled. And other parts of the Empire as well as Canada were looking for the speedy return of their men.

THE problem was this. The half-million men that Canada had overseas had taken more than four years to transport to the field of battle.

TO bring them home in a few months was a gigantic undertaking—one to tax all Canada's ingenuity and resources.

CANADA solved the problem, but it meant crowding into a few short months, an expense for demobilization which it was impossible to foresee.

THEN, too, besides the sentimental aspect of the necessity for bringing the men home quickly, the economic side could not be overlooked.

THAT was, to transform efficiently and speedily the nation's army of fighters into a national army of workers.

Need Divides Itself in Two Parts

The answer to the question "Why does Canada need another Victory Loan?" divides itself into two parts.

- (a) To finish paying the expenses of demobilization, and the obligations we still owe to our soldiers. (b) To provide national working capital.

Obligations to Soldiers

The obligations to soldiers include: That already incurred cost of bringing home troops from overseas.

The payment of all soldiers still undemobilized. This includes more than 20,000 sick and wounded who are still in hospital, and who of course remain on the Army payroll till discharged.

The upkeep of hospitals, and their medical and nursing staffs, until the need for them is ended. These three items alone will use up at least $200,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1919.

Gratuities

There is also the gratuity which has been authorized, and has been and is being paid to assist soldiers to tide over the period between discharge and their re-adjustment to civil life. For this purpose alone, $61,000,000 must be provided out of the Victory Loan 1919, in addition to the $59,000,000 already paid out of the proceeds of the Victory Loan 1918.

Land Settlement

Furthermore, soldiers who desire to become farmers may, under the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, be loaned money by Canada with which to purchase land, stock and implements. The money so advanced will be paid back; meantime each loan is secured by a first mortgage. Up to August 15th, 29,495 soldiers had applied for land under the terms of this Act; and 22,281 applications had been investigated, and the qualifications of the applicant approved. For this purpose Canada this year requires $24,000,000.

Vocational Training

For this work which, with the Vocational Training and Soldiers' Service Departments, embraces the major activities of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, an appropriation of $57,000,000 is necessary.

These national expenditures are war expenses. They will be accepted readily by every citizen who gives thought to the task which Canada faced following the Armistice, and to the success with which she has met it.

National Working Capital

Canada needs national working capital, so that she may be able to sell on credit to Great Britain and our Allies the products of our farms, forests, fisheries, mines and factories.

You may ask "Why sell to them if they can't pay cash?" The answer is, "Their orders are absolutely essential to the continuance of our agricultural and industrial prosperity."

The magnitude of these orders and the amount of employment thus created, will depend upon the success of the Victory Loan 1919

The "Why" of Credit Loans

Farmers and manufacturers (and that includes the workers on these orders) must be paid cash for their products. Therefore, Canada must borrow money from her citizens to give credit, temporarily, to Great Britain and our Allies. Actually, no money will pass out of Canada.

If Canada does not give credit, other countries will; and they will get the trade, and have the employment that should be ours, to distribute amongst their workers. And remember, we absolutely need these orders to maintain employment. If we don't finance them business will feel the depression, employment will not be as plentiful, and conditions everywhere will be adversely affected.

For Transportation

Money must also be available to carry on the nation's shipbuilding programme, and other transportation development work.

For loans to Provincial Housing Commissions who are building moderate priced houses.

These, then, are some of the things for which Canada needs national working capital. She is in the position of a great trading company, and her citizens who buy Victory Bonds are the shareholders.

Those who give thought to our outstanding obligations to soldiers, and to our need for national working capital, cannot fail to be impressed with the absolute necessity for the

Grafton's Great Booster Sale In the Boys' Clothing Department

This season finds this a greater business—an amplified service—an influence reaching a vast community of mothers who for many years have heard with a ring of familiarity the name of Grafton, and have recognized its inseparable associations with Boys' Good Clothing, properly merchandised, at fair prices. During our many years of clothes making, Boys' Clothing has been our "hobby," and through our earnest endeavors to please boys and satisfy the mothers at all times, we have built up the largest boys' clothing business in the Dominion. Its magnitude exceeds the efforts of any five firms combined. We prize our Canadian boys and their trade. We like the boys and, pardon us, we think the boys like us. We've looked after the boys well in this Great Booster Sale, and have specialized on trim, smart Fall Clothing for them, until we've a line superior to any you'll find in Ontario, with prices, as usual, beyond all competition; and they all come from our own big factory in Dundas, which insures you against any disappointment as to quality, style or durability. Come on, boys, and boys' mothers, we're ready for you with the best service we've ever rendered you.

What Does It Mean?

It means we are going to boost our sales so high this season that all PREVIOUS RECORDS will be broken. We can do it. We will do it. We can't help but do it, for we have the wherewithal to do it, namely:

QUANTITY—QUALITY—STYLE—VALUE—PRICE—SERVICE.

Grafton & Co. believe in low prices and big sales. Grafton & Co. believe, yes, they insist upon an ever-increasing business, and so, for months, this Great Booster Sale has been planned for, elaborate preparations made, tremendous stocks provided, and an unmerciful slashing of prices, until now we are prepared as never before to give the people of Ontario their one great opportunity of expanding the purchasing power of their dollars. This Great Booster Sale started Wednesday, October 1. Take advantage of it. This is the opportunity of your life to buy Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Underwear, Sweaters, etc., at less than mill prices. Our Clothing and Gents' Furnishings are the lowest priced in the world. This is a big statement to make, we grant you, but our prices are lower than they are in England; they are much lower than they are in the United States; they are lower than the mill prices in Canada. They are also the best made in the world. We back this statement up by the unprejudiced opinion of thousands of our customers throughout Ontario. We back it up by the increase in our business during the last five years. We make all our clothing in one of the largest and best-equipped factories in Canada, where only expert designers and workmen of experience are employed. All our cloths—tweed and serges—were bought when wool was the only element entering into its manufacture. This high-grade cloth we sell directly to our customers, through our seven large and finely-equipped stores located at Hamilton, London, Brantford, Peterboro, Dundas, Woodstock and Owen Sound, with just one profit between the manufacturer and the wearer—not three, as is the case when you buy from the ordinary clothing house. These Grafton Stores take care of the price question to your advantage, for we are down on high prices—always have been, and always will be.

Great Booster Sale In the Workingman's Department

This great sale will prove a boon to the workingman by saving him many dollars in just the goods he requires at this time of year. We have paid particular attention this season to his needs and have provided a stock of overalls, smocks, work shirts, work socks, work mitts, etc., unequalled by any six firms in Canada.

We manufacture most of these goods in our own splendid factory at Dundas, where sunshine and sanitation prevail; where the highest wages are paid for the minimum hours of work; where only workmen of years' experience in the making of these goods are employed. Every garment in this department carries with it the Grafton guarantee for workmanship, quality, value. Patronize the firm that safeguards your interest, that appreciates your trade, that is the friend of the honest toiler.

tery were present and a large congregation from the charges attended. The moderator, Rev. Dr. McCrae, presided. Rev. Mr. Chidley of North Caradoc preached. Rev. Dr. McDonald of Kintyre addressed the minister. Rev. Mr. Gale of Hyde Park addressed the congregation. At the close of the services, all partook of a sumptuous supper provided by the ladies of Ivan congregation. Addresses of welcome to Rev. Mr. Campbell to the London Presbytery were given by the members present, the moderator, Rev. Dr. McCrae, acting as toast master. Rev. Mr. Campbell will occupy the pulpits of Ivan and Vanneck next Sunday.

SPAIN FACING SERIOUS SITUATION FROM FLOODS

MADRID, Oct. 2.—Havas.—Storms of rain and hail continue all over Spain, especially in the provinces of Valencia, Alicante and Murcia, where the situation is taking on the aspect of a real calamity, and where railroad traffic is completely suspended. Cantagena is isolated and partially submerged, and it is reported supplies are running low. At the city of Murcia, where the flood at some places has reached the height of over seven feet, two hundred houses have been destroyed.

SPARKLING MUSICAL COMEDY SCORES A SUCCESS AT GRAND

"My Soldier Girl" Appearing Here Tonight and Twice Tomorrow.

Local theatregoers who attended the Grand last night were, in the majority, well pleased with the musical comedy, "My Soldier Girl," which will be presented here again tonight, and Saturday night, with a popular matinee Saturday. As a musical spectacle, "My Soldier Girl" fills the bill, and the sparkling tunes sent forth over the footlights were those of the contagious variety. Pretty girls in abundance, added to the charm of this musical comedy, and the ladies of the chorus are attractive and far above the average. The costumes worn by them are well selected and their singing is well balanced.

Playing the stellar role as Dixie Harris, Dorothy Garrigue, a dainty young miss, immediately captivates her audience, and her voice proves excellent both for singing and talking parts. However, the greatest number of singing parts fall to the lot of Maude Baxter, as Mabel, and her work is a treat for all music lovers. Her rendition of "Annie Laurie" as an encore, in the first act was exceptionally good. Her voice balances well with that of James Le Roy in the duet, "Just for You," which went over with a punch in act two.

FURNITURE QUALITY

The Purchase of Better Quality Furniture Is Really the Finest Kind of Economy to Practice

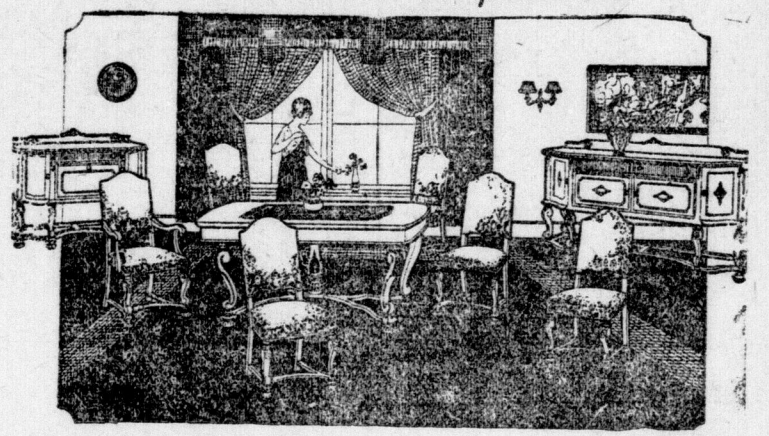

IN purchasing furniture you should always keep in mind the fact that you are going to live with your furniture a long time. It isn't like an article of wearing apparel that you wear only for a short period and then discard. Furniture that is hastily selected and bought simply because the price is low, very often develops into an eyesore after living with it a short time.

THE type of furniture that you will see on display on our sales floors was selected because it was designed for service, for beauty, for character and all of the qualities that home keepers who appreciate the better things would like their furniture to possess.

We Have Just Finished Uncrating a New Shipment of Plain and Figured Linoleums

DURING the war the manufacture of the better grades of linoleums was almost discontinued, as many of the essential products that go into the making of linoleum were demanded by the British Government, and this is one of the first large shipments to have been made on this grade of merchandise, and we are very fortunate to be able to show a complete new range of patterns of fresh linoleum, the prices on which start at, yard $1.25

This Chippendale Dining-Room Suite Attracted Much Attention at the Furniture Exposition

YOU, no doubt, have noticed that quite frequently in the newest motion pictures showing interiors of beautiful homes, that suites of similar type to the one pictured above were often shown.

This particular Chippendale suite was the centre of interest at the recent furniture exposition. It has just arrived on our floors along with a number of other period dining-room suites that we would like to have you see. Prices on these suites, $350 to $700

Cane-Panelled Bedroom Suites Are Extremely Popular, Particularly in Ivory and Walnut

AMONG the new bedroom suites just recently placed on our floors are a number with cane paneling similar to the one pictured above. They make especially charming suites for the guest's room, or young bride's room.

In order to fully appreciate the extensiveness of our bedroom furniture display, it is necessary for you to wander down our broad aisle ways of bedroom furniture, showing all of the very newest period designs. Prices on period bedroom suites start at $150.00

Guests Are Always Welcome When You Have a Duofold

IT is very embarrassing not to be able to take care of your friends overnight, and this embarrassment is avoided with a duofold, as with it you are always prepared for the unexpected guests. These duofolds open into full-size beds with two motions, and can be had in oak or mahogany finish. Priced at $65.00

Are Steel Strike Leaders Patriots or Bolsheviks?

"We are going to socialize the basic industries of the United States. This is the beginning of the fight. We are going to have representatives on the board of directors of the steel corporation," declared John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Committee of Twenty-four, representing the twenty-four separate American Federation of Labor unions participating in the steel strike.

While many editorial writers outside the labor press take these and other statements of the strike leaders as an indication that they aim at nothing less than industrial revolution, The New Majority of Chicago, organ of the Labor party, counters with a charge of "high treason" against Judge Gary of the United States Steel Corporation because he denied the strikers "their constitutional rights of free speech, press, and assemblage," and it affirms, "he has set himself and his steel trust up in defiance of the Government and constitution of the United States, as superior to them."

Concerning the union demand for increased wages, the labor leaders admit, according to a correspondent of the New York Tribune, that the wages of employees in the steel industry have increased about one hundred per cent in the last four years, but "even this increase has not sufficed to improve their originally wretched conditions. They tell of human beings living like cattle in miserable shacks and hovels. The answer of the employers to this contention is that with the foreigners in the mills and furnaces the rate of pay has nothing to do with the standard of living, as the purpose of this class of laborers is not to live well, but to live as poorly as possible in order to save as much as possible, usually with the intention of returning to Europe when a certain size stake has been attained."

The employers support their contention by pointing to a scale of wages ranging from $3.50 to $6.00 a day for unskilled help, and from $7.00 to $80.00 a day for skilled help.

For a comprehensive review of the great steel strike from all angles, read THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week, October 4. Other striking features in this week's DIGEST are:

- The Japanese Press Attacks the American Senate
- This article consists of direct translations from Japanese journals, one of which declares that "It is not to the honor of the American Senate to place itself on the same level with the Bolsheviks."

ONLY 30 HOUSES TO BE BUILT THIS YEAR BY THE COMMISSION

Investigator Has Been Released From Duty.

LACKED SALES MANAGER Who Could Have Facilitated Work and Saved Much Time.

By deciding to release temporarily W. J. Gray, investigator, the housing commission last night fairly well established the fact that it does not mean to proceed with more work before the end of the year than it already has on hand.

Only 30 Houses. P. W. Wilson's duties as an investigator are also at an end for this year.

Those closely in touch with the problem say that the commission itself is not entirely responsible for the small result.

CONTROL TO DECIDE WHETHER MOTIONS WILL BE OPPOSED

Possibility Exists That There Will Be No Defence by the City When Motions Are Heard in Court.

Whether the bylaw granting higher fares to the street railway will be defended will be decided by the city council Monday night.

Mayor Somerville has admitted that the street railway bylaw can be quashed. And as Ald. S. R. Manness states that City Solicitor T. G. Meredith also made such an admission in open court.

Whether the bylaw granting higher fares to the street railway will be defended will be decided by the city council Monday night.

From the astrological point of view this is a peculiar day on which to issue a forecast, as there are but two of the planets in juxtaposition with Luna or in mutual relationship. Of these the luminaries are in trine aspect, than which there is no better prospect in astrology. This encourages the natives in employment who are unduly desirous to seek favors, promotion, preferment or other good offices. Adversity there is an opponent, though to the matter of my counsel, there was but one person who could help me, that one the friend who had never yet failed me, Lillian, my sweetheart, making it possible for me to invite Lillian and Marion out for the festive day. I resolved to go into the city in the evening and to straighten out any tangle in childlike, albeit it surely has been justified by the things she has done for me. I was sure that if it were possible to shield me from the unpleasant trial of circumstances which appeared to be following the Stockbridge family, I would manage it. And with this assurance I resolved to put aside rigorously any thought of my own present or Bayview unpleasantness until I should be able to see her.

THRILLING DRAMA OF EAST AND WEST NOW AT THE MAJESTIC

"Virtuous Men," a Play of Beautiful Women and Red-Blooded Heroes.

"Virtuous Men," a red-blooded, thrilling, sensational photodrama of modern American society life, playing the Majestic Friday and Saturday, promises those devotees of fast action a real treat. "Virtuous Men" is a composition of the beautiful cultured east, and the raw, untamed west. The hero, despite a bunch of unlucky incidents which would knock a weaker man out, comes out with shining laurels. E. K. Lincoln, the young handsome star, is a marvel of physical strength, and it is safe to say no better rival for Doug, or George, has never appeared. A mixture of sensational comedy, and heroic action, strong enough to please the most ardent fan. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars has been spent on the sets for this picture—which is in eight reels, and the scenes of the Eastern States especially are marvellous of beauty. It is stated on good authority, that no finer interiors have ever appeared in pictures. One of America's leading decorators was engaged to supervise the interior settings, and some remarkably beautiful effects have been achieved. The young leading lady is one of the prettiest beauties of the profession, and the half dozen other feminine roles are portrayed by as many different type of charming young maidhood, that the impression of man could picture. "Virtuous Men" is a picture which will portray as it does, life, or the present age, as many would wish to live it—beautiful care, handsome women, wealth, plenty of sport, and beautiful surroundings.

Thomas H. Ince, the world's greatest motion picture director, under whose supervision "Virtuous Men" was made. This photodrama is showing at the Majestic today and Saturday.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER HONORED AT HENSALL

HENSALL, Oct. 2.—On Thursday evening a large number of citizens, led by the school children, went to the home of William McKay, principal of the school, and made a presentation of over $70 to his son, Louis A., who had captured the Prince of Wales and first Edward Blake scholarships, as well as a large number of others, some eight in all.
 The address was read by Reeve Petty and signed on behalf of the village council and school board. Louis McKay thanked the donors. He was carried on the shoulders of a number of his school companions, who were proud of his achievement in winning first in all the scholarships but one, and counting second in that one.

The Starr Company announces the greatest record-selling event of the year in Red Seal Record Week!

OCTOBER 6 to 11

WE HAVE decided to give the people the opportunity of getting the finest Victor Records made by the foremost artists at prices never before offered.

For instance, the famous Victor Sextet in "Lucia" includes the following peerless voices: Tetrazzini, Caruso, Amato, Journet, Jacoby, Bada, a record selling hitherto for $6.00, but obtainable here during Red Seal Week for only $3.50.

The equally famous quartet in "Rigoletto," consisting of Galli-Curci, Caruso, Perini and DeLuca—a $6.00 record, will be purchasable for $2.00 in this special Red Seal event, next week.

A Remarkable Opportunity! No need now for "the long purse" in order to be able to enjoy the best music that the world affords. Music-lovers hitherto deterred from buying the best selections because of prohibitive prices will be able to enlarge their record libraries at very nominal outlay.

Unlimited Service! At the Starr parlors we have every facility for rendering a service unequalled in Western Ontario. We have a large stock, a number of well-lighted, well-ventilated rooms for demonstration purposes, a central location, and large staff of competent, obliging people, who KNOW records.

Headquarters for VICTOR RECORDS in London and Carry the Largest, Most Complete Stock in Western Ontario

Starr service means we can give you every satisfaction. Persons calling with a list of a dozen records they desire will find that in nearly every case they will be able to get all twelve from our immense stock, and at least ten. There will be no disappointment, no trotting around to find what you want.

We do the biggest record business in London, and for this special Red Seal event have laid in extra heavy stocks of brand-new, fresh-from-the-factory selections at the new prices, including such immortal favorites as "A Little Bit of Heaven" by John McCrmaek, and that wonderful duet by Homer and Gluck, "Whispering Hope"—with thousands of others by the leading artists of the world.

Stock up for the long fall and winter evenings NOW. These prices make it good economy to add to your record repertoire. Red Seals that were $6.00 each will be $2.50 next week. The $3.50 ones will be $2.00, and the $2.50 selections will be but $1.25—all, remember, by such artists as Caruso, Farrar, Gluck, Homer, Clara Butt, Destinn, Alda, Journet, Amato, Kubelik, Zimbalist, Scotti, Melba, Calve, Sembraich, McCormack, Kreisler, Plancon, Ruffo, Herfitz, and others.

Put forth an extra effort next week to make a big saving by buying Red Seal Records heavily at the attractive prices. A full range of 90c records always on hand.

DUSTIN FARNUM IN "A MAN'S FIGHT" AT PATRICIA THEATRE

Awana and Girls Present Classy Dancing Act—Also a Happy Semon Comedy.

Dustin Farnum, in "A Man's Fight," This popular actor's latest photoplay attracted capacity audiences to the Patricia Theatre yesterday. The following is a synopsis of the story:
 Forey Carr of an aristocratic New York family, and man about town, defects Norman Evans, his only sister's suitor, cheating at cards at their club. That evening Carr comes suddenly upon Evans, half intoxicated, pressing overzealous attention on Ethel in the drawing-room of the Carr mansion. In the semi-darkness Evans is shot dead, and a revolver is slid along the floor between Carr and his sister Ethel. Each believes the other fired the shot. Carr, though innocent, to save his sister, makes no denial of the shooting. Clever lawyers get the sentence reduced to a short term in the penitentiary, and Carr goes to Sing Sing. Ethel becomes Sister Carmen, a nun in a western convent. Emerging from the penitentiary on the expiration of his term, Carr is surprised by his particular old father for the disgrace he has brought on the aristocratic family. With a manly man's determination to yet make good and win honor for the name he assumes, Carr, under the alias of John Rand, goes to Colorado and makes a success as the industrial and political leader of the dependents among the mine owners. He is openly courted by the daughter of the richest of the Independents, and is
