ROADS SCHEME UNFAIR TO CITY

Members of Council Think London's Share of Upkeep Too Heavy.

AUTHORIZE MEETINGS

Will Give Municipal Candidates Four Chances To Discuss Public Issues.

CUSS PUBLIC ISSUES.

The city council on Wednesday night authorized Mayor Little to call four public meetings, at which candidates for municipal office may discuss various questions of the day and place their public meetings, before the day and place their greaterns, before the classes of the said and t motion and it was adopted.

Ald Wenige thought it was folly to go ahead with the sewer for the fair grounds until it was known definitely meeting will be held as follows: Friday, Nov. 25, East End Hall; Monday, Nov. 25, Wartley Road School; Wednesday, Nev. 30, Talbot Street School; Friday, Dec. 2, Masonic Temple.

The principal discussion at the short meeting of the council was on the suburban road question. It came up in the report of No. 2 committee in which the committee adopted a resolution passed by the Sarnia council, condemning the suburban road scheme as being "wholly unfair" and protesting against making cities and towns contribute towards the upkeep of these roads. Statements made by Mayor Little would seem to indicate that the city's burden in this regard may be materially reduced.

Mayor Little left the chair so as to meeting will be held as follows: Friday, Nov. 25, East End Hall; Monday, Nov. 25, East End Hall; Monday, Nov. 25, East End Hall; Monday, Nov. 26, East End Hall; Monday, Nov. 27, Went End Went End

Mayor Little left the chair so as to enter into the discussion on the clause. He stated that the matter had been up earlier in the year, and the city had to pay $7,500 as a result of a suit with the county, as well as face a bill rendered clause. since for $32,000. A special rendered since for $32,000. A special committee had been appointed to consult with City Solicitor Meredith, and learn; with City Solicitor Meredith, and learn; with City Solicitor Meredith, and learn; ded that even if the city did win out in the courts it would be little trouble for the Legislature to amend the act making it retroactive, so that the city would have to pay anyway. He therefore thought that the council would be illustrated in passing such a clause, especially as there was no hope of having the legislation changed. He a license. He was told it should have.

Ald. Harley asked the mayor it murder, and John Coinsis with having conspired with her.

From evidence which came out, it would appear that Mrs. Leslie had a number of Toronto "patients," for Alexander McDonald, manager of the made.

Ald. Ashton asked if the bus carry-ing passengers on Dundas street had a license. He was told it should have.

Girl Sought Help.

Must Pay 30 Per Cent.

London must shoulder 30 per cent of the cost of nine roads running out of the city for a distance of seven miles city limits, the mayor explained. He had hopes, however, that this mileage would be materially re-duced, perhaps to 40 miles in all, and was the case it would mean e city would get more permanent roads, and thus cut down the cost

Ald. W. A. Wilson declared it unfair to tax the city for a portion of the cost of these roads. He thought that

Lovely Linens Bespeak Thoughtful Giving

THERE is no other gift quite so cherished as a gift of fine linen—a true token of friendship, so beautifully expressed in the many delightful pieces, in large or small, each with its individual charm, now represented in our varied stock. Be it either the truly wonderful hand weaving of Belfast's foremost linen mills of finest satin damask sets, or the dainty Madeira pieces, so exquisitely embroidered. Or possibly your choice lies with French hand-made cluny, or that dainty and intricate hand work, India crochet. We are showing a remarkable range, the most complete yet assembled for the biggest Christmas season on record.

POLICE COURT HEARS CASE

C. S. Stamatis has been anxious for a C. S. Stamatis has been anxious for a long time to drive away a tenant named T. Martin. Ordinary means of persuasion proving unavailing, Mr. Stamatis proceeded to cut off the water supply at 1 o'clock in the morning. This had no effect, and the next night he playfully shed the windows of the house. Mr Martin still held the fort, and was told that if he did not vacate in a hurry that the window sashes would be the next

This was a little too much for Martin, and he had recourse to the ear of Crown Attorney McKillop, which landed Mr. Stamatin in police court Thursday

How can Canadian manufacturers afford to sell their goods more cheaply to foreign markets than in their own?

"How is it that articles manufactured in the United Staes can be sent into Canada, the duty paid on them, then sold cheaper than a similar line of goods

These questions fired at Mr. Frank bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salis; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few day, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of firitation, thus ending bladder discretes.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

Robert McLaughlin Passes Away at Oshawa Home After Short Illness.

BEGAN LIFE AS FARMER

Built First Carriage Factory at Village of Enniskillen in 1869.

OSHAWA, Ont., Nov. 23.—Robert McLaughlin, founder of the McLaugh-lin Motor Car Company and the Mc-Laughlin Carriage Company, died to-day at his home following a short illness. He was in his 85th year.

To the people of Oshawa, by whom he was held in highest esteem, he was familiarly known as "Oshawa's Grand Old Man," to the people of Canada as one of the Dominion's nation-build-one of Canada's biggest manufacturers, success did not come overnight, Just as he hewed his little 50-acre farm bred animal.

and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, coloriess hair look youthfully bright, lustrous and just twice as abandant.

with great trouble with the poultry business has always been that the laying life of a hen was too short. Says Henry Trafford, International Poultry Expert and Breeder, for nearly eighteen years editor of Poultry Success.

The average pullet lays 150 eggs. If kept the second year, she may lay 100 more. Then she goes to market. Yet, it has been scientifically established that every pullet is born or hatched with over one thousand minute egg germs in her system—and will lay them on a highly-profitable basis over a period of four to six years' time if given proper care.

Three Men's Records. B. MORPHY of North Perth 1. delivered a characteristic Meighen campaign speech in Sarnia a few nights ago, in keeping with the general tone of the campaign, he launched into an abusive stack on Mackenzie King because was absent from Canada at the time when the war was on. The nember for North Perth, in the enhusiasm of the moment, and apparntly feeling no responsibility for hat he said, heard the evidence, assed verdict and judgment on Macekenzie King, all in two short mintes. He was a slacker and unfit to ead a Canadian political party now. Mr. Morphy might urge, by way of justification, that he is not the only man who has thus spoken. This plea could stand, as originality never was one of Mr. Morphy's assets. But let it slide at that. There we have the opinion of Mr. Morphy, and It is much the same as any other tub-thumper of the Meighen school.

LET us get back to facts. Suppose Mackenzie King had come to Canada as soon as the war was on, he would not have been a fightingclass man. He would, even under conscription, have been in class 8.

Lieut.-Col. John Bayne MacLean, in the last issue of MacLean's Magazine, deals with this very point, and with the criticism that has been leveled at the leader of the Liberal party regarding his war record. Col. MacLean writes:

"So rotten had been the Asquith Government's handling of the war that in 1915 if the Germans had pressed the attack the shortage of British and Canadian machine guns and of artillery munitions was so serious that authorities tell me we could not have withstood them. We had only two or three shells per gun per day. It was not British, but Canadian and United States manufacturers who first relieved the situation, who first got their labor lined up for big production. British labor was not producing. The study and promotion of better understanding between employer and employee had been Mr. King's specialty. Mr. King worked to promote United States war production. He was one of the most valuable men in that field on this side. I have a strong prejudice against any eligible man who side-stepped military service—and there are many thousands of thembut common sense compels me to admit that Mr. King was far more useful combating enemy propaganda to keep back vital war supplies here than messing up a minor staff job overseas. Many men in England who did far less service were highly rewarded with hereditary and

Mr. Morphy, if he is a student of current political and national history, must be in touch with these facts. They are common knowledge. If he does not know the munitions situation, and the part Canada played in it, he is not fitted for public life. . . .

TAKE it from another angle. While this back-stabbing member for North Perth is arraigning the leader of the Liberal party for his war record, why has he not a word to say about some of the glorious war records of his Conservative friends? Did he have anything to say about Meighen party.

De Witt Foster? Did he have anything to say about W. F. Garland. another Conservative member of the records, so why was Mr. Morphy not fair enough to go right around?

This man Garland made $9,000 out of the war in a few weeks. Mackenzie King made nothing out of the war. But let Sir Kobert Borden give Garland's history. Here is the record of a Conservative member, who luded to the purchases by Mr.

character, because, to say the least, it is bound to arouse a very grave suspicion, and a member of parliament, in respect of contracts with the government, ought to keep himself

Therefore, in respect to the honorable member from Carleton (Mr. Garland), and in respect to the honorable member of King's, N. S. (Mr. Foster), I feel I owe it as a duty to the government of which I am the head, to the party of which, in federal affairs, I am the leader, and to this house and to this country, to express, as I do here express, my very grave disapproval of their conduct in respect of the matters which have been under investigation by the public accounts committee."

Now, then, Mr. Morphy, you have the war records of three men, two of whom - fellow - Conservatives out" Foster has received a government job, and Garland is taken into price. the fold again.

The third man, Mr. Morphy, is Mr. King, the leader of the Liberal party. He was assisting to get production of war supplies in United States at a time when the having or not having of those supplies was a matter of life or death to the British army. And yet you ride the last man as a go back to Otawa and render the slacker, and maintain a dull and deadly silence about the other two, who were publicly denounced by your own political leader because they saw in Canada's hour of agony a chance to line their pockets with blood-money.

Mr. Morphy, have you anything to say?

THE Magical Mushroom came to the Fairy Queen one day and made a low bow. That meant that he wished to say something; it was the one way he could tell it to her highness. Not that he was unable to talk! My no!

The Magical Mushroom was the dearest.

Just then the Fairy Queen did a most unqueenly thing. She put her fingers in her ears. "Oh, no, Mr. Mushroom, she cried. "Please don't keep me waiting. What is the trouble?"

"It's about Mr. Pim Pim, the king of the Brownies," answered the Magical Mushroom.

KING EXPLAINS WHY MEIGHEN CLOUDS ISSUE

Denies Truth of Tory Cry That Party Demands Free Trade.

[BY WILLIAM SHARMAN.]

Crowding the spacious armories to the doors, and jamming the corridors in a determined effort to catch but a glimpse of the Liberal chieftain, 3,000 Woodstock and North Oxford electors patiently awaited his arrival for more than an hour.

So hopeless became the situation that it was eventually necessary to hold an overflow gathering in the city hall, where waited for three solid hours 800 equally patient residents of the riding, and where Mr. King at 11 p.m., delivered his second address of the evening.

All day long into Woodstock journeyed the electors from the rural distarcts, not only followers of the Liberal standard, but citizens representing politics of every shade. Unbounded enthusiasm prevalled throughout the evening, but it reached a climax with the long-delayed arrival of the Liberal seader at the city hall to deliver his second series of charges upon the late Meighen administration.

"This government is visible, but the real power is invisible, the special interests that are protected are the ones who are paying for these magnificent billiboards and advertising.

"The reveiation by Jas. Murdock gave you an idea of this enormous fund.

"You had another taste of it last year, the sugar combine, and now later with promissory notes.

"We are told by Sir Henry Drayton that there are others, but he can only tell his story to the house. That is a new version. I ask what law gave the government power to accept these #### Meighen administration Candidates Speak Briefly.

On the platform and speaking briefly to make way for the speaker of the evening were Dr. D. J. Sinclair, the Liberal candidate in North Oxford; Mayor Dean, of Tillsonburg, the Liberal candidate in South Oxford, and James Stewart, president of the North Oxford Reform Association. George Mahon, secretary of the latter body, presided. Denying emphatically that he had, as the Tory press claimed, been preaching free trade in the west and protection in the east, and laying particular stress on his contention that the Liberal plat-form did not include free trade, Mr. King challenged the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen to state definitely just where the National Liberal and Conservative Party stood on the same issue.

"The Tories have been saying that I vary in my speeches," declared Mr. King, "but don't you think that by this time with all the press of the country at their disposal the Meighen forces might have secured two of these 'varying speeches of mine and printed them side by side?

"They have not and cannot. They certainly would not have overlooked the opportunity, and on these billboards you see, in place of Meighen rescuing old ladies you would see my speeches in double columns. It would have been great stuff. But they can't do it. For the past two years since I have been leader of the Liberal party and enoken throughout Canada I have not spoken throughout Canada I have not once varied relative to tariff.

Tariff Needs Revising.

"What I have said is this: The tariff needs revising. We note that thought from other sources. For example, from the lips of the governorgeneral, upon the advice of the Meighen administration. The latter admits that it has been convinced of the necessity for such revision, but that although a commission was appointed to investi-gate conditions with this end in view, nothing was ever accomplished, "Why?"

"The government knew it would have to revise it up or down. If it re-vised it up it knew it would lose the support of the people, and if down-ward it would lose the support of the big interests behind it. So it was left Meighen has never yet proposes to revise the tariff, up or down. He has been spending his time hounding me, and thus seeking to avoid any expression on the subject and at this moment you don't know what he stands for. I say it is the greatest piece of deception ever practiced upon a people.

"We see three members of that commission, Drayton, Robertson and Calder, who have at this time all this information which is the people's, but which they withhold. If the tariff is to be the main issue this data should be presented to the electors for full discussion. What they found out but is still a secret is a necessity to us. "How can we carry on a discussion in the dark? I say one of the strong-est indictments against Premier Pointing out that Premier Meighen at appointed, and was still giving way judgeships, etc., Mr. King connuct, "Let me say to the Progressives, the time say to the Progressives, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hanging, everything. Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, and the progressive specific and type of spot, fade, or run.

Premier Melghen, who will control the situation for years to come?"

'I say it will be a great struggle to get even moderate legislation. In view of this what folly it is for we Progressives, Farmers, Women's Councils, laboring people and returned soldiers, whose platforms vary but little fundamentally, to allow ourselves to be so divided as against a common foe.

ASKS TARIFF REVISION

To allow ourselves to be so divided as against a common foe.

"I say we need a strong party in the house. We must not divide the real true forces of progress. Now is the time to think. There is the great danger, and that is why I feel so strongly about the Progressives. I have always taken the position that the Progressives were advanced Liberals, and I have always pleaded for closer co-operation, hoping that when the fight came we might co-ordinate and co-operate in a firm stand for the common interests. Mrs. F. G. Simmons, 42 Curtis St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "For about eight years I suffered from anaemia. My circulation was poor, my gums and lips were pale, and my hands and feet were always cold. I was nervous and unable to sleep well. I had frequent headaches, seemed restless and easily worried or irritated. There was a buzzing sound in my ears. Indigestion was also one of my complaints, and I often was attacked by weak spells. I went to a doctor, who told me I was anaemic, but as I did not get any bet-ter I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after the first box I felt

Candies Enjoyed by Royalty at a Price within reach of All

Dear Friends:

You will remember that only a few years ago it was most difficult for the average one of us to secure wholesome, delicious candies. Really good confections were offered only in a few shops and then at a price beyond most of our pocketbooks.

How often these two reasons prevented us, and particularly the business girl, from buying the real, good, fresh, wholesome candies we all love so well. But the creation of Laura Secord Old-Time Home-made Candies-the opening of the first dainty little Laura Secord Shop-made a wonderful change and brought the most delicious candies which man can produce within the reach of countless numbers in every walk of life.

Laura Secord is proud to enjoy the patronage of Princess Marie Louise, Kensington Palace, London, England; of the Governor General's home, Rideau Hall, Ottawa; of the homes of thousands to whom price does not matter. No less proud are the Laura Secord Shops of their numberless patrons in more modest homes where these delicious candies are loved and enjoyed.

Laura Secord Candies are the purest, most delicious and most wholesome confections obtainable anywhere at any price.

wenther an agreement was reached between the Grand Trunk and certain of its employees. It was afterwards alleged by the C. B. R. E. that these employees did not have authority to enter into an agreement with the company. Subsequently, the negotiations were reopened before the board.

In the majority report it is said that as far as the board is aware representatives of three organizations, who signed the agreement, have not repudiated their action.

The report sets forth that the employees signified their willingness to accept certain reductions, but that they contended the rate of 12.8 percent reduction was excessive.

The question before the board, the report states, was whether the reductions proposed were unjustifiable and excessive. These reductions conform to those made effective by order of the United States Railway Board on the railways of the United States.

to the development of Canada and the unity of our people

> HE original movement out of which the Crerar policy has developed, was set in motion by a group of grain traders in the West, headed by Wood, a Missourian, for the the sole purpose of controlling Western wheat. The main interest of both Crerar and Wood, is not the raising of, but the exploitation of wheat.

> As selfish interests were the foundation of the movement, so in its development selfishness continued to be its chief characteristic.

In fact, so selfish and dangerous has Crerar's policy become that a number of the men who originally took a leading part in the movement, men highly respected in farming communities, such public-spirited and patriotic men as Clark, Fletcher, Henders, Ferguson and others, have withdrawn from Crerar's group and have repudiated his plans as a step towards national suicide.

Crerar advocates everything for the special benefit of his group without regard to the great majority of the people and with no thought for the welfare of the Dominion as a whole.

He is committed to his group to destroy every vestige of the Tariff and introduce Free Trade-which would surely destroy the industries of our towns and cities, throwing many thousands of Canadian men and women out of work and driving them to the United States for a livelihood.

Crerar's policy presents Group Domination in a most menacing form, and as Fletcher said:-

"We must stamp out this system as we would deal with a dreaded disease and we have a right to expect the assistance of all people who respect Canadian institutions."

It is the general opinion in Madras, according to the correspondent, that the wagon was unfit for its purpose, and that at any rate it was a mistake to put so many prisoners in it at once.

While this comparison fails, the correspondent says, on the question of deliberate motive, of which there has been no evidence in the present case, it is noteworthy that one native paper charges that British officials have a tendency to treat all Moplah prisoners as something less than human.

Even the moderate press in the Madras district condemns the affair and demands that the inquiry be intrusted to a mixed committee of officials and civilians as the public, they say, lacks confidence in the official investigation.

guiding genius who developed the great Buick Automobile business, later acquiring and developing the Cadillac, Oakland, Oldsmobile and Chevrolet Companies. Mr. Durant brought all these well-known companies together into the General Motors Corporation, which he organized in October, 1908. He is also orginator of the plan under which the McLaughlin Motor Car Company of Oshawa, Ontario, has been so successfully developed, and creator of the General Motors of Canada, Limited, with its many divisions which today play such a prominent part in the industrial life of the Dominion. Mr. Durant is the President of the recently-organized Durant Motors, Inc. (U.S.A.), with plants at Long Island City, N.Y.; Lansing, Michigan; Oakland, California, and Muncie, Indiana; and President and General Manager of the Durant Motors of Canada, Limited.

We Summarize From a Letter by W. C. Durant.

PLANS

For the purpose of developing business throughout the Dominion, a property consisting of 15 acres of land group of modern buildings has been purchased at Leuside (a suburb of Toronto), ideally located and admirably adapted to our needs. The main building, 135 feet by 652 feet, originally designed for munitions manufacture but never utilized for that purpose, makes possible, with slight alterations, a minimum production of 12,000 motor cars the first year.

The plan primarily is to build a motor car which can be produced in volume, serviced properly and economically, and suited in size and price to the requirements of the Canadian trade. The initial product is a refined, four-cylinder car, equipped with valve-in-head motor embodying features not usually found in engines of the combustion type. It represents the cumulative knowledge of our experience in the manufacture of motor cars.

It will be the policy of Durant Motors of Canada, Limited, to extend the business as far as possible out of its earnings, but should the demand for Canadian-made goods in foreign fields justify a rapid expansion (and Canada at the present time appears to hold the key to the export situation so far as the motor trade is concerned) a further offering of its securities will be approved.

It is estimated that the domestic demand will absorb from 12,000 to 15,000 ears per year, which, with a minimum average profit of $50 per car, should return not less than 40% upon the present issued capital. If conditions justify the development of the export business, this production can be increased in normal years to not less than 40,000 cars, with a proportionate increase in earnings.

The motor car, now recognized as an essential factor in our economic life, is still in its infancy. We be-lieve in the permanency and stability of the industry. The success of this business depends upon the experience and integrity of its management. Durant Motors of Canada, Limited, undertakes to qualify in these respects.

(1) The Management of the Company's affairs will be under the personal supervision of Mr. W. C. Durant, outstanding automobile builder, and one of America's Industrial Leaders.

(2) The Company will begin operations with ample working capital. (3) The large purchasing power of the Parent Company is an additional advantage which will be derived by the Company.

(5) This Company will produce a high-grade Automobile of the latest design at a moderate price, embodying all the latest improvements known to motor construction. (6) These shares are convertible into shares of the Parent Company after August, 1924.

(7) No bonus or promotion shares have been or will be issued.

$750,000 of the issue has been subscribed by Mr. W. C. Durant and his associates, and we now offer the rema

TO DARKEN HAIR

Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn grey, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or grey, Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store all ready for use. At any drug store all ready for use.
This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.
While wispy, grey, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with
