JAPAN AGREES TO ROOSEVELT'S PLAN; SETTLEMENT NOW IN RUSSIA'S HANDS

Mikado's Envoys Said to Have Agreed to President's Compromise---Russia to Purchase Sakhalin to Save Her Face---A Diplomatic Triumph for Komura.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador, went this afternoon to Peterhof, where he was received in audience by the Emperor. The audience concerns the possible conclusion of peace.

President Roosevelt sent a long message to Ambassador Meyer Monday evening.

Portsmouth, Aug. 23.—The popular belief was that today would decide the issue, but the Associated Press had what it considered a warrant for the statement that such could not be the case. Were it to go to a complete show-down of hands, a rupture was certain, as the long cablegram of instructions which M. Witte received last night would not permit the compromise which, it was understood, Japan was prepared to offer this morning as a result of the President's heroic endeavor to save the conference.

The rumor telegraphed to the Associated Press after midnight was confirmed this morning, but it requires an important explanatory statement. The cablegram from St. Petersburg was sent before M. Witte had communicated to the Emperor the contents of the communication from President Roosevelt, delivered to him yesterday afternoon at the navy yard, so that was not necessarily to be accepted as the Emperor's last word, and M. Witte, who, there is reason to believe is personally in sympathy with the compromise suggested by the President. In their opinion it offers an honorable road to peace.

A HIGH RUSSIAN AUTHORITY SUMMED UP THE SITUATION THIS MORNING IN THE WORDS: "THERE IS STILL HOPE." At most, to a man, the members of the Russian mission would personally favor the compromise suggested by the President. In their opinion it offers an honorable road to peace. BUT THEY ARE POWERLESS, IF THE EMPEROR AND HIS ADVISERS STAND FIRM. THEY REALIZE THAT THE TURN OF EVENTS HAS PUT THEIR COUNTRY IN A DIFFICULT POSITION. AS NOW JAPAN WILL STAND BEFORE THE WORLD AS NOT IMPLACABLE, BUT READY TO ACCEPT A COMPROMISE ON THE TWO MAIN ISSUES, BY THE ARRANGEMENT TO PRACTICALLY YIELD IN WHOLE OR IN PART, ARTICLE 5 (CESSION OF SAKHALIN), WHILE OBTAINING IN SUBSTANCE, IF NOT IN FORM, ARTICLE 3 (REMUNERATION FOR THE COST OF THE WAR).

Should Russia refuse this solution, which will enable her to maintain quite correctly that she ceded neither territory nor paid war tribute, they believe nothing can prevent the world's verdict from veing against them. They say that in effect it only involves the recognition by Russia of an accomplished fact (the military occupation of Sakhalin), and an equal recognition of the practical impossibility of Russia reconquering it with her navy at the bottom of the sea. The Japanese seem keenly alive to the advantage of their position. Should Russia eventually decline the compromise, they say, they do not believe she can escape the responsibility for the failure of the negotiations.

"It will be a diplomatic triumph for Russia," said one of them this morning. Articles 10 (interned warships), and 11 (limitation of Russia's naval power in the east), can be easily arranged. They were never serious obstacles. Japan is believed only to have placed them in the list of conditions to give way in the final bargain, but even Russia would not prove obdurate, certainly not on article 10, if 5 and 9 were adjusted.

It was generally understood before the conference met this morning that Baron Komura would suggest the compromise, but the fact that M. Witte was not prepared to make a final response, might lead to a change of programme. Diplomatic maneuvering might be the order of the day, and the question of signing the protocols, which was the official business before the conference, might be employed to make the necessary delay. IT IS GENERALLY UNDERSTOOD THAT THE PRESIDENT'S LINE OF COMPROMISE WILL NOT APPEAR OFFICIALLY BEFORE THE CONFERENCE. WHAT HE HAS DONE HAS BEEN DONE IN NAME, NOT IN FACT. BEHIND THE SCENES, HE HAS LABORED WITH EACH SIDE SEPARATELY. HE HAS SECURED THE ACQUESCENCE OF JAPAN, AND, ACCORDING TO THE GENERAL UNDERSTANDING OFFICIALLY, HIS SOLUTION WOULD BE OFFERED IN THE CONFERENCE AS THE PROPOSITION OF JAPAN.

Should Japan formally propose the compromise, Mr. Witte can only ask for a little time to deliberate and to consult his Government for the final answer. He will give no absolutely final answer today.

Today's Session. Portsmouth, Aug. 23.—The meeting of the conference this morning was in reality not a meeting of the plenipotentiaries at all. The secretaries of the respective missions were still in dispute over the text of the protocol, and the plenipotentiaries gave up the conference-room to them to adjust their difficulties. The plenipotentiaries remained in their respective private quarters while the secretaries were trying to straighten out their differences. It was claimed that certain corrections, to which both sides had agreed, had not been placed in the text.

At 12:15 this work had not been completed by the secretaries, and it was decided to take a recess until 2:30. At that time, it is understood, the plenipotentiaries will go into formal session and take up the protocol in full, deciding any disputed questions as they arise.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 23.—J. L. McGrew, one of the White House stenographers, who yesterday was at Portsmouth, N. H., on a mission for President Roosevelt, in connection with the peace conference, returned to Oyster Bay today. Whether he brought back with him a communication from the Russian envoys could not be ascertained, for the reason that the official denial that he was in Portsmouth is still adhered to. The President again today was in communication with Assistant Secretary of State Pierce at Portsmouth, but no intimation of the nature of the message transmitted was given.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 23.—Excessive tension are the words which should be used to describe the situation before the peace plenipotentiaries met this morning. There were evidences of excitement in both camps as the chiefs and attaches made their preparations for departure. The summer guests of the hotel were as agitated as the foreigners would be. Crowds on the veranda to witness the departure were larger than any since the conference began its sittings.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 23.—M. Witte and Baron Rosen arrived at the navy yard for the day's session of the peace conference at 9:25 o'clock this morning. Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira came five minutes afterward and the session began at once.

SWEET CHARITY COSTS LONDON TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR

Bill Is Steadily Growing and the City Is Beginning to Feel the Pinch.

One of the questions which are agitating municipal circles at present is that of taking care of those who cannot take care of themselves. Of late the cost of this work has reached such proportions that it is causing the city fathers to sit up and take notice. At the council meeting Monday night several applications from persons desirous of entering the Aged People's Home were received. Nine or ten other such applications have been in the hands of Inspector McCallum for some time. Dozens of other persons have been refused admission to the home. And the city now pauses to catch its breath and think what to do. Mayor Campbell was asked today what the city intends to do with the applications which are flooding in. "I don't know," his worship replied. "The problem is a very serious one." An advertiser reporter then found what it costs, approximately, to keep the public charges of London. The bill runs up to $10,000 a year—and, perhaps, if the figures were gone into more closely, $15,000 per annum.

Inspector McCallum's books show that each month the city pays out between $900 and $1,000 as follows: For the keep of indigent persons in the different institutions: Home for Incurables, $87 35; Aged Men's Home, $129 72; Aged Women's Home, $132; House of Refuge, Strathroy, $15.

In addition to these amounts, which total between $5,000 and $6,000 per year, the city pays out in passes, relief work and other assistance to the poor, through Inspector McCallum's office, another $2,000.

Again the city makes grants to the different institutions each year of a total of not less than $1,500.

And finally, it costs the city fully $2,000 a year for the keep of poor patients in Victoria Hospital.

There is no disposition around the city hall to neglect the poor for the sake of keeping down the expense, but there is a well-defined idea abroad that the city is keeping a number of people who have relatives well able to pay for their maintenance.

LAMBTON, QUEBEC, SWEEPED BY FIRE

Twenty-Nine Houses, With a Church and Convent, Lost in Conflagration.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 23.—At Lambton, Quebec, on the Quebec Central Railway, a fire started at noon yesterday, caused by hot ashes being put near a barn.

Twenty-nine houses, the church, the convent, and the presbytery, were destroyed. The burnt houses formed about one-third of the village.

POLICEMAN WINS SPRINT WITH KID

Market Constable Gets One of Gang That Raided Fruit Stands.

Three "kids," who have been stealing fruit around the city, and especially about the market, gave the market policeman a merry run this afternoon. They have a habit of getting into the dairy building and pilfering the fruit left there by the dealers who have stands at the market. The complaints have been many, and today a policeman noticed the youngsters and got after them. The kids "scouted," with the policeman in pursuit. Three of one were the odds, and it looked at one time as if the man in uniform would be distanced. He managed to trail one youngster and captured him. He was taken to the station. The police are now searching for the other pair. The one captured

LIBERALS TO MEET

The General Reform Association Will Convene at Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—The first annual meeting of the General Reform Association for Ontario has been called for Sept. 6. The meetings will be held in the assembly hall of the Labor Temple. The president and secretaries of the different Dominion and Provincial Reform associations are invited to attend. One of the items of business to be brought up is the formation of a central body for a visit to the presentation of suggestions for the welfare of the association and the party.

President Mowat, Mr. Prince, and his wife will take the representatives on a trip out into the lake, where they will partake of luncheon.

WEIGHED 775 POUNDS

Indiana's Monster Man Succumbs to an Attack of Dropsy.

Indianapolis, Aug. 23.—Philip Kreigh, known as "Indiana's 700-pound man," is dead at his home in Stillview. He had been ill for several months with dropsy and suffered greatly during the hot weather. For several years Kreigh was in the employ of a circus, where he was exhibited as the largest man in the world. His weight often reached 775 pounds. He was over six feet high, but his bones were very small. It required two tailors to take measurements for his clothes, as it was impossible for one man to reach around his body. It took seven yards of double-width goods to make him a suit.

A FATAL FALL

Tavistock Woman Falls From Wagon and Breaks Spine.

Stratford, Aug. 23.—Mrs. Henry Reibling, wife of a Tavistock wagon maker, fell from a load of grain, breaking her spine. Death resulted almost immediately. Reibling owns a few acres near the village, on which he grows fodder for his horses, and vegetables. He and his wife were bringing a small load into the village when the accident happened. Deceased was well known and much esteemed.

May Be From Canada. Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 23.—An unknown young woman, about 19 years old, in an unconscious condition, was picked up by the police on Broadway early today. The police believe that she is suffering from morphine poisoning, but the surgeons at the hospital decline to express an opinion, until a more thorough investigation of the case. Marks on the girl's clothing indicate that they were made in Canada. Cards found in her pockets bore the name of "Blanche Boies, 65 Mohr street," and "Frances Boland."

PEACE DEPENDS UPON THE CZAR.

Peace conference matters between Russia and Japan are rapidly coming to a head, and the outlook for an agreement is brighter than for some days past. On good authority it is announced that Japan has consented to President Roosevelt's compromise proposition. This permits Russia to "purchase" Sakhalin, Japan waiving its claim to the island. Japan is to send a bill—a good stiff one—for the release of the Russian prisoners, which, coupled to the price of Sakhalin, will really constitute an indemnity. Russia will thus save her face, as legally she will not have paid an indemnity. The matter was today placed before the Czar by the American ambassador to Russia. If the report be correct, the Japanese have scored a brilliant diplomatic triumph by their response to the bill of further conflict upon the Czar.

WHO WANTS A BOY?

Some Bright Little Fellows Can Be Had for the Asking.

There are in the Children's Shelter in South London fourteen children at present, mostly boys. It is always harder to find homes for boys than for girls. People will readily take a little girl for company, but Saint Colombus said one might better be a little devil than a little boy. At least he is reputed to have perpetrated this kind of a year of mischief. Most people prefer taming the gentler sex to taking chances with unknown quantities in the boy line.

STRANGE STORY OF LOST CONVOY

Ten Tramp Ships Loaded With Mules Disappear.

HAD SAILED FOR VLADIVOSTOCK

Were They Overtaken by Japanese Warships in the Pacific, and Was the Lena an Escort?

New York, Aug. 23.—This is the story of the great mule mystery. Perhaps it explains why the Russian cruiser Lena, which is now interned in armless inactivity at the Mare Island Navy Yard in San Francisco harbor, happened to turn up there, far from the war zone, last September. But as to that there is only a dark hint.

The story was all told yesterday by a young English capitalist, just returned from the west, and now at the Hotel Astor. The names of the capitalist is not divulged—for as the chief of detectives always puts it—"obvious reasons."

"The great Mexican mule mystery" is the disappearance of a Russian convoy and ten whole, great transports full of mules and horses bound from Guaymas, Mexico, to Vladivostock. The capitalist feels quite sure that the unexplained appearance at San Francisco last September of the Lena is somehow linked with the mule mystery.

The young English capitalist said yesterday that at the time of the outbreak of hostilities between Russia and Japan he was in San Francisco. With several other capitalists, he declared, he conceived the notion of buying up mules and horses and shipping them to Port Arthur or Vladivostock. After some negotiations a bargain was arranged with the Russians in the Far East, and at once the capitalist's agents to work all over the southwest buying mules and horses. When asked how many mules and horses were purchased, the English capitalist's brow clouded with a frowning thought.

"I hate to think," he replied, "it would give me a headache to calculate the number. I only know that another Englishman who worked with me in the deal bought $10,000 worth—and they are cheap in the southwest—while I invested in mule stock to the tune of $15,000. What the others in the deal lost I have easily forgotten."

About Sept. 8, as the great Mexican mule mystery develops, the stock was assembled by prearrangement at Guaymas, Mexico. This port is on the Pacific and rather out of the way, but the capitalists say that the thousands of mules and horses were loaded on ten tramp steamers with little comment on the part of the inhabitants. It was said about Guaymas that the mules were going to Panama or some such likely place. Nobody cared, anyway. The capitalist didn't say anything about manifests or such formalities.

Where Are the Mules?

The ten transports with their equine and hybrid cargoes sailed from Guaymas, he says, about Sept. 9. They were ships that passed in the night with an unknown destination and an unperceived course. Guaymas wondered next morning until the afternoon six o'clock, but no consignment along the docks. Then the mule cargoes and the ten tramp steamers were forgotten. But the great Mexican mule mystery was moving apace.

"The arrangement was this," said the English capitalist at the Hotel Astor: "Two converted Russian cruisers had left Vladivostock some time before and were to meet the ten mule transports and convey them to Vladivostock."

"The convoys left Vladivostock at the prearranged date. That is certain. I've just told you that the ten tramp steamers full of mules left Guaymas on time. Maybe they all met as was arranged, but if you can tell me what happened to one of the ten transports full of horses and mules, you'll confer a great favor on me."

"Neither I nor my associates ever heard of those mules again, and all trace was completely lost of one of the convoys. I was in this city the day the Lena limped into 'limped into' is really nautical, San Francisco. That night I got a telegram, and for weeks I didn't feel like being affable to my most intimate friends."

The English capitalist declined to say much more. When asked if he detected the Lena as one of the two convoys, he replied: "That's the end of my story. I'm not trying to figure out the identity of the Russian steamers. All I want to get at is the solution of the great Mexican mule mystery. The Russians didn't get the mules. I didn't get any mules. What happened? Ask the Japanese peace envoys."

The Lena's Story.

The capitalist pointed out that the Lena, 31 masted days from Vladivostock, appeared suddenly in the harbor of San Francisco on the morning of Sept. 1. Immediately there was much excitement in these waters. The Government at Washington was immediately communicated with. It was ordered that Captain Berlinksky, of the Russian transport, be asked what he was doing at San Francisco. The Russian captain explained that his boilers needed repairs. An examination of the boilers by Commander W. C. Herbert, fleet engineer of the Pacific squadron, disclosed the fact that they were in bad condition, and it was hinted also that this condition arose from a recent overpressure of steam. The officers of the Lena, however, refused to admit that they had been showing their vessel's heels to a sudden enemy.

The mystery of the Lena's presence in the bay, however, refused to admit of a light upon the subject. He said that his vessel had been with the Vladivostock fleet, but had been ordered to the Baltic. This order was countermanded and another, which was not made public, substituted.

ARCANUMITES IN SECRET FOR REPEAL OF INCREASE

Seven-Eighths of Canadian and United States Membership Said To Be Opposed to Recent Increase in Rates

New York, Aug. 23.—The World says: At a twelve-hour secret session attended by representatives of seven-eighths of the Royal Arcanum membership of the United States and Canada, held yesterday in the Manhattan Hotel, resolutions were adopted demanding that the supreme council of the order rescind at Put-in-Bay next week the action raising rates taken in Atlantic City last May.

If this is not done, it is announced, there will be wholesale secessions and scores of lawsuits by members, that will disrupt the order. Open charges of breach of trust were made against the supreme council.

The session was attended by prominent Arcanumites from the State of New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Michigan, embracing a membership of 255,000 out of a total of 316,000 in the entire order.

Gen. H. C. Cochrane, of Chester, Pa., one of the leaders of the order said of the supreme council's action: "It should be investigated as carefully as the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Company. If anything is wrong, it must be known and steps taken to right the evil."

Charles M. Day, grand secretary of the order in Massachusetts, said that if the supreme council did not revoke its action the matter would be placed before the supreme court on Aug. 31. "There will be at least 150,000 lawsuits, against the order, on that day," he said. "In that event the Royal Arcanum would be practically killed, as it would pass into the hands of a receiver."

It was agreed that if the supreme council was to abandon the objectionable rates the grand council in each state shall meet and prepare a uniform procedure to be acted upon at a special meeting of representatives. A resolution was also passed to formulate a plan for a permanent organization to look after the interests of all subordinate councils as against "future tyranny of the supreme council."

WISE MEN OF EAST IN PETTY QUARREL

Paving Contractors Differ in Regard to Dundas Street Job.

Work on the paving of Dundas street, between Adelaide and Lyle, has been at a standstill for some time through a dispute between the Warren Company, which is paving the city's section, and John Geary, who is paving the railway portion of the street with brick.

The street railway people refuse to complete their contract by pouring in the filler until such time as the Warren company has finished the bitulithic, on the ground that they will only be compelled to do the work over again if it is done now.

On the other hand, it is done now, clear that the street railway contractor should finish his job before the Warrens are asked to go ahead with the bitulithic, as they claim to have rolled their pavement properly unless the bricks are in solid.

City Engineer Graydon says he feels like spanking both contractors with a club. He declares they should both get down to business, and not keep the streets in such an unsightly mess. He has written both parties to get to work, and act in the interests of the citizens.

THREE BIG CONTRACTS

$49,000 Extension to the Breakwater at Toronto.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Aug. 23.—A contract has been awarded to Henry & Miller for the construction of an extension to the breakwater harbor in Toronto at a cost of $49,000.

Daniel Booth, of Brockville, has been given the contract to build an armory in Guelph at a cost of $70,000. A $70,000 addition to the Calgary postoffice, will be built by the Alberta Building Company.

DR. ENGLISH ASKS TO HAVE $3,000 FINE IMPOSED NOW

Arscott Rendering Works Case Reaches a Climacteric Stage Again—P'ice Closed.

The trouble which has been brewing for some years between the local board of health and the Arscott rendering works, has again reached a climax. Yesterday Dr. English, chairman of the board, with one A. E. Bayly, an employe of the McClary works, swore out an affidavit affirming that the rendering works, situated on Trafalgar street, just east of Adelaide, is a nuisance and a menace to the health of the people of the district, as well as to the employes of the McClary Company.

The information asks that the fine which was imposed on the proprietor given the contract to remedy the evils complained of, be now collected. This fine amounts to $3,000. Mr. J. H. McMechan, the owner of the works, was seen by an Advertiser reporter and asked for a statement today.

"We have done everything possible to obviate creating a nuisance," he said. "We have refused to accept offer from the butchers when it was old, compelling them to bring it to us when it was fresh so that there might be no offensive smells, and only the other day we had a butcher in the police court for assaulting our man because he would not accept decayed offal."

"We use the very best disinfectants known and antiseptics. These include formaldehyde, carbolic acid and antiformin. We purchased the best kettles made in America, perfectly odorless in operation. In every way we have tried to do what is right, but we cannot please Dr. English. It looks like a good deal of politics to me," Mr. McMechan said. "Time and again I have invited Dr. English, as chairman of the board of health, to visit the works, and to point out what we should do to improve them, but he persistently refused to come. Time and again I invited Dr. Hutchinson to come, but he, too, refused. And now comes the affidavit and the application to have the fine imposed."

"I should be investigated as carefully as the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Company. If anything is wrong, it must be known and steps taken to right the evil."

Charles M. Day, grand secretary of the order in Massachusetts, said that if the supreme council did not revoke its action the matter would be placed before the supreme court on Aug. 31. There was an exciting "scrap" between two neighbors in Dorchester Township yesterday. A brick and a large knife took part. Who will get the decision remains to be seen, for a county magistrate was called in to act as referee at the finish, which will be held at the courthouse some day next week.

The immediate results of the fight were one broken head, one badly cut hand, a lot of ill-feeling and one arrest.

The combatants were George A. Crow and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Monroe. The cause of the row, according to Crow's version, these cattle are in the habit of straying onto Crow's property, which is only separated from Monroe's by an untrustworthy fence. CARTLEDGE—MAHONEY Pretty Wedding in St. Mary's Church This Morning.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Church this morning, when Mr. Robert Cartledge, of this city, led to the altar Miss Louisa M. Mahoney, at present of London, formerly of Smith's Falls. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Tobin, after which mass was celebrated for the young couple. The bride, who was daintily attired in light blue, embroidered tulle and white, was assisted by Miss E. Hawkins, of this city, while Mr. F. Cartledge ably performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony the young couple were driven to a local cafe, where a wedding breakfast was partaken of, the guests being only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. After a trip to Cleveland the young couple will take up their residence here. The majority of their many friends go with them.

NEED FOR LOCAL SANATORIA GROWS MORE PRONOUNCED The Spread of Consumption is Simply Appalling in Ontario—How to Fight Disease.

During last month there were 207 deaths from tuberculosis in the Province of Ontario and only 84 deaths from all other communicable diseases combined. Just think of that fact and what it means! That Canadian health officials now feel the need of fighting the terrible disease as they never have before is evidenced by the intense interest taken in being taken in the question on all sides. The proposition to have a sanatorium for the county of Middlesex seems to have been dropped for the present. Such is not the case in Hamilton. Dr. Roberts, the new medical health officer of the city, is very much alive to the need of such a place for a consumptive sanatorium, and he is doing all that he can to bring about such results as will overcome the much-felt lack. He has no fault to find with the work that is being done by the Gravenhurst people or the Toronto institution, but he contends that neither of these places can ever hope to be able to care for the many incurable cases that are constantly developing, and which, with proper treatment for a time close at home would yield. Since his appointment Dr. Roberts has looked into the question very carefully, and has come to the conclusion that Hamilton must have its own sanatorium. His records show that about one death in every seven in Hamilton is from tuberculosis, or over one hundred per cent. The majority of these people refuse to be sent away to be treated, preferring to take their chances at home. During June and July eight persons died from pulmonary tuberculosis. It is the insidious and deadly disease known to modern science, but it has been demonstrated that with the proper outdoor treatment even the severest cases can be checked, if not cured. Experts say that it is best to treat patients in the same atmospheric and climatic conditions in which they are called on to live, and that is why local sanatoriums are to be preferred. It was demonstrated last summer by 121 patients treated at Chedoke, and the two patients treated are alive and better today than they were before. One of the men who was supposed to have the disease worse than the other, has been working in the morning. Mr. McMenemy said that the number of consumptives who were living on the mountain at the present time and who were deriving the greatest benefit by their sojourn there.

ALD. SAUNDERS WAS HONORED BY THE FIRE CHIEFS' CONVENTION Made an Honorary Member of the Association—Chief and Alderman Return.

Ald. Saunders, of No. 3 committee, and Fire Chief Clark, arrived back in London at midnight last night from Duluth, where they attended the convention of the Fire Chiefs' Association of America. Ald. Saunders was honored by the convention, being made an honorary member, as was also Chairman Fleming of the fire and water committee, Toronto. In Duluth Ald. Saunders and the fire chief saw much of things which will be of great interest to the firemen, and they feel that the money and time spent by them will be found to be well over 200 per cent. The apparatus in the world were held daily, and the fire-fighting line, both the Londoners and the Duluthers, also visited St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago, and they made notes of the most important of the brigades in those cities. "Everywhere we found a scarcity of good men for fire fighting," said the Alderman today. "Times are so good, and it is so easy to get work in any occupation, that it is very difficult to undergo the discipline of a fire fighter, to say nothing of the duty attached to the occupation." At Chicago a special demonstration was given by the fire fighters of that city for the benefit of the visitors. One of the most important of the demonstrations held at Duluth was for the purpose of showing that in a fire situation a building would not be destroyed by firemen being killed by bullets when they go in to fight the fire. Fifty thousand rounds of ammunition of miscellaneous sizes were expended in fire created for the purpose.

Realistic This. The first demonstration was in a pine board shack which had been erected for the purpose. Twenty-five thousand rounds of ammunition in boxes and loose were piled in this building together. This was set on fire and in a few seconds the whole of the inside of the structure was ablaze. The rapidity of a dozen rapid fire guns in action at once, shells came out through the openings that were left in the incomplete structure, and some of them flew as far as 80 and 100 feet. A few bullets broke their way through, but dropping only a few feet beyond the shack, doing no damage to anything or anyone, although the crowd by this time had closed up on the structure and had covered it with their portals. But the next demonstrations were the real thing. Twenty-five thousand rounds of ammunition, loose in boxes, were piled up in the open and a fire set to them. It is true, that while these bullets and shells flew some distance, and in quite a number of instances hit people, nothing more than a slight bruise, nothing more than a slight bruise, nothing more than a slight bruise.

THE official tests by the Inland Revenue Department of the Canadian Government show the Royal to be a pure baking powder, superior to all others in leavening strength. It therefore makes purer, more wholesome and economical food than any other baking powder or leavening agent. Royal Baking Powder is more convenient for use than cream of tartar and soda and makes finer-flavored food.
