CRADLE SONG.

Words by EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER.

Music by GEORGE F. ROOT.

Tenderly.Sing first four lines of first verse each time in De Capo as a chorus.

BA - by, sleep! the summer breezes Rock the young bird in the tree;

Mother's breast shall be thy pillow, Mother's arms have cradled thee! Fine.

Down the ro - sy vales of slumber, Soft and low the dream-bells ring;

Fol - low where their voices call thee, While my cra - dle song I sing! D.C.

Baby, sleep! the rose has folded
 Half her sweetness from the night;
 Sleep, and when the rose is fairest
 Thou shalt wake to new delight.
 Sweeter, clearer, softer, nearer,
 I can hear the dream-bells ring!
 Follow where their voices call thee,
 While my cradle song I sing.

Baby, sleep! some brighter vision
 Than thy mother's eyes can see
 Angel hands are swiftly bringing
 From the silent land to thee.
 Down the rosy vales of slumber
 Fairy chimes the dream-bells ring.
 Baby, sleep! and, dreaming, listen,
 While my cradle song I sing.

THE PASSING BELL.

BY CLARIBEL.

1. As on her couch of pain a child was ly - ing, Her gen - tie spir - it ebb - ing fast a -

2. Say, mother dear, why chimes that bell so slowly,
Not as for Sabbaths or for marriage day,
Nor as for babes they bring, that Christ the Holy
May seal them His, upon their Christ'ning day.

3. "Dear child!" the mother said, amid her weeping,
"That bell is sounding now at Heaven's gate,
To bid the holy angels in their keeping
Bear up a soul that yet on earth doth wait."

One sweet-ly sol- emn tho't Comes to me o'er and o'er;

Near- er my part- ing hour am I Than o'er I was be- fore.

Nearer my Father's house,
 Where many mansions be;
 Nearer the throne where Jesus reigns;
 Nearer the crystal sea;
 Nearer my going home,
 Laying my burden down,
 Leaving my cross of heavy grief,
 Wearing my stary crown;

Nearer that hidden stream,
 Winding through shades of night,
 Rolling its cold, dark waves between
 Me and the world of light.
 Jesus, to thee I cling;
 Strengthen my arm of faith;
 Stay near me while my wayworn feet
 Press through the stream of death.

"WITNESS" PUBLICATIONS.

MONTREAL WITNESS

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

During twenty-five years existence the circulation of the WITNESS has increased from 800 to about 30,000; or counting by sheets issued, instead of 800 a week, we have its round numbers:—

Daily, 11,000 x 6	66,000
Semi-Weekly, 3,000 x 2	6,000
Weekly	7,000
	79,000

The same rates of increase for the next quarter of a century would give us an entry into 500,000 families for 7,000,000 sheets. These figures are no more incredible than the present ones would have been twenty-five years ago, and we shall do our best, with the assistance of constantly improving appliances and facilities for reaching the public, and counting largely on the rapid growth of our Dominion, and of its chief city, to realize them.

PLATFORM.

We stand just where we always stood, and look for success to that aid which has hitherto helped us.

CHANGES.

THE DAILY WITNESS, hitherto issued at Noon, and 2, 4, and 6 o'clock, P.M., will, during the coming session of the Dominion Parliament, and possibly thereafter, appear also at 8 o'clock in the morning, all other editions continuing as heretofore. The object of this is to catch certain mail and express trains which do not suit any of our present editions, so that many are deprived of the paper who want it. THE DAILY WITNESS will then be sold at every town and village for ONE CENT. We shall by the 1st January, 1872, have completed our arrangements for city delivery, and will, by means of delivery carts and sleighs, be able to supply dealers in almost every corner of the city. We have a steam press running on bulletins alone, so that each dealer may receive one daily. Daily Witness $3 per annum, payment in advance.

TRI-WEEKLY WITNESS.—Subscribers to the SEMI-WEEKLY WITNESS will, after 1st January, be supplied with a TRI-WEEKLY of the shape and size of the present DAILY WITNESS, which will be found to contain about as much matter as the present SEMI-WEEKLY, thus making an addition of fifty per cent. to the reading matter without any addition of price. Tri-Weekly Witness, $2 per annum in advance.

MONTREAL (WEEKLY) WITNESS.—This paper will continue of the same shape as hitherto, but will be larger by the breadth of a column each way on every page, thus making an addition of fifty per cent. to the reading matter. Weekly Witness, $1 in advance.

CLUBS.

We have never been able to offer any inducement which has borne fruit equal to the assistance of those whose sincere friendship for the enterprise has prompted them to exertion on our behalf.

In all editions where one person remits for one year in advance for eight persons, he will be entitled to one copy additional for himself. Or any person remitting $8 for our publications will be entitled to one dollar's worth additional.

ADVERTISING.

Advertising in the DAILY WITNESS costs 10 cents per line for new advertisements, or for such as are inserted as new; 5 cents per line for old advertisements—that is all insertions after first, when not inserted as new. The following are exceptional:—Employers or Board Wanted, one cent per word. Employment or Boarders Wanted, and Articles Lost and Found, 20 words for 10 cents, and half a cent for each additional word.

The TRI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY WITNESS will be counted together, and all the issues of one week will be counted one insertion. Thus,

Weekly	7,000
Tri-Weekly, 3,000 x 3	9,000
	16,000

The service rendered will thus be greater in quantity, and for many kinds of business better in quality, than that of the Daily, yet, for the present, the same scale of charges will be followed. Thus an advertiser has, for the same money, advertising for as many weeks in the country editions as he has days in the daily editions. The above startling changes in the terms of the country editions we are enabled to make by increased printing facilities, and in the hope of securing a circulation that will attract advertising patronage. Advertisers may, we think, confidently count on a rapid improvement in the value of time contracts through the working of these changes. No advertisements will be accepted which are not in accord with the known principles of the WITNESS.

ADVANTAGES.

We here announce cheaper papers than can be got anywhere else, and cheaper advertising, we think, in proportion to circulation, than is offered in Canada. Whether the papers are good, as well as cheap, the public are the best judges. All the departments of reading matter will be kept up as heretofore. We are giving increased attention to the commercial department.

It is our intention in future to have at least one serial story running in each edition of the WITNESS and generally more in the Daily, and we hope also to present to all readers one or two wood engravings per week.

CONSTITUENCY.

The WITNESS is the workingman's paper; the merchant's paper; the farmer's paper; the clergyman's paper; the ladies' paper; the children's paper; the tectotater's paper; the Christian's paper.

JOHN DOUGALL & SON,

PROPRIETORS.

CANADIAN MESSENGER

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

This paper has more reading in it, and that of the highest class, for the money it costs, than any of our other publications. It contains little news, but is a perfect treasure-house of instructive and religious reading, as gathered from the abundant resources which contemporary literature affords. It is a pioneer finding its way to the utmost limits of civilization and to every remote post-office in the Dominion, from Michipicottan to Mainland. Circulation 14,000. Canadian Messenger 38 cents per annum in advance, postage prepaid by publishers. Advertising 10 cents per line each insertion. Club of seven to one address for $2; 100 to one address for $25.

NEW DOMINION MONTHLY

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

This magazine is the oldest and has the largest circulation of any literary magazine in Canada. It aims at being a Canadian Magazine, both in the character of its matter, and in opening the way to Canadian writers. In the latter field it has up to the present been a failure, so far as remunerating its contributors and its publishers is concerned; but, as its circulation is fair, we are in hopes that a good advertising patronage may yet put it on a paying basis. We do not think our Canadian homes can find elsewhere a publication at once so wholesome, so interesting, and so Canadian, and we ask all Canadians to sustain it. Its circulation is 3,500. New Dominion Monthly $1.50 per annum in advance. Old subscribers sending the name of a new subscriber with their own, will get the two for $2. Advertising in New Dominion Monthly per page $8.00.
