

PRICE, FIVE CENTS

TXX

Vol. LIX., No. 26 Senate Reading Jan 1 1909.

STOCK EXPOSITION

Fare from Montreal $27.00 v 27th to 30th incl., also Dec lat and to

Dentralia. I leaving Montreal at 8.00 p.m.-atta-re-arrives Ottawa I.1 18 p.m.-in time to fift's rest at the Capital Bit's rest at the Capital CITY TICKET OFFICES Bitreet. Phones. Main 69/5, 600, 607 or Bonaventure Status

PACIFIC

as and New Year Ex-

 $10.00 Hamilton
 $10.65

 3-35 London
 12.95

 4-90 Peterboro
 7.85

 3-20 Farnham
 1.20

 .90 St. John, N. B. 143.00
 1.90 Labelle

 2.05 Knowlton
 2.05

 208 Review
 2.00

ther stations in Canada, am and East; in Canada, Sault Ste, Marie, Mich.; Black Rock, Suspension, d Niagara Falls, N.Y.; madian Pacific stations in. and Maine at

First-Class Fare.

December 24 and 25; December 27th, 1909

December 31, 1909; 1909; 1910; return limit, Ja-1910.

s Fare and One-Third. ng December 21, 22, 23, 29, 30, 31, 1909, and 1, 1910. Return limit, fares to points in Mari-Ticket Office

RCOLONIAL AILWAY

TURE UNION DEPOT

ear Holidays

E FIRST FARE c. 21st, 1909, to Jan. 1st, 1910. Re nuary 3rd, 1910.

IN SERVICE

t Sunday), for St. Hyacinth, Le-d intermediate stations

IME EXPRESS, daily, for St. vis, Quebec, Riviere du Loup, intermediate stations.

ME EXPRESS, except Satur-bove mentioned stations and foncton, St. John, Halifax and

nday, for Nicolet and interme-

Tel. Bell M. 615

GEO. STRUBBE, City Ticket Agt,

ENTS

TLY SECURED

Adviser sent upor Marion, New York Life Bidg Ashington, D.C., U.S.A

Sailors' Club.

TICKET OFFICE: reet. Tel.

Pass. Agt

RISTMAS

URN TICKETS AT

Next Post Office

1910

Street

3.05.

1909;

ONTREAL-OTTAWA sal, *8.30 a.m., *13.55 p.m., *8 (0 p.m. Ar 5 a.m., *17.10 p.m., *11.15 p.m. Week days only (*). Farlor-Librar-m 8.30 a.m. and 3.55 p.m. trains Parlor D.m. train.

NADIAN

cursiens.

0

BLESSING OF CHURCH.

Large Congregation Witness Solemn Ceremony at St. Aloysius.

The happy fulfilment of the long-cherished hopes of the pastor of St. Aloysius was observed on Sun-day last when the blessing of the new church took place. His Lordship Bishop Racicot offi-ciated, being assisted by Rev. Father Shea, pastor, of the church, Rev. Duther Kiernan, of St. Michael's and Bar Father

Shea, pastor, of the church, Rev. Dather Kiernan, of St. Michael's and Rev. Father Fahey, of St. Gab-ríel's. Rev. Father Donnelly, pas-tor of St. Anthony's, celebrated High Moss. Several priests from various English-speaking the varishes pa were present in the sanctu-

Just before the sermon the pas-t, or, Rev. M. L. Shea, thanked all those who had so generously con-tributed to their church, and welary tributed to their church, and wei-comed them to the new sacred edi-fice. Then Rev. Waffr Doyle deliv-ered a very eloquent discourse, tak-ing for his text 'My house is a house of prayer,'' (St. Matt., chap. 21, vs. 13).

house of prayer," (St. Matt., chap. 21, vs. 13). In part he spoke as follows: We thank God for our churches, and we delight be see them increase in number and in beauty. We con-gratulate you, therefore, reverend pastor of this church; we congratu-late you the parishnoners. You have built a magnificant temple of which any city might be proud. You have erected a large and majestic church, and have spared no expense in its appointments and decorations. And yet it is not the external beauty of this edifice, its stately proportions nor rich adorments that are the beauty which we admire so much. but what they stand for. They are as the jewel box to the iswest themselves. Rich and beauti-ful as it may be, the casket is but the new of the sparkling diamonds jewels themselves. find, and beau ful as it may be, the casket is but the cover of the sparkling diamonds and rubies within. So this church and this altar which it enshrines, are but fair Nature's tribute of its are but fair Nadure's tribute of its materials and men's handiwork in applying them to make an earthly home in the tabernacle for Christ our Lord and our God, where as priest and victim of the sacrifice of the New Law He might be offered up to the Father ir. Heaven by the hands of His chosen ministers. It priest and victim of the sacrifice of the New Law He might be offered up to the Father in. Heaven by the hands of His chosen ministers. It is here where God wishes to dwell with His people, and would have them dwell with Him. It is here He wishes them to come as a family to meet Him at the altar as round the family hearthstone. It is here He would have us pour out our homage to Him in the tabernacle and take Him into the tabernacle of our hearts in worthy Holy Commu-nion. Here He would feed our minds with His all-saving truths, console our hearts with His love, nourish our souls with His body and blood, and strengthen our wills with divine grace. God grant that you, the parish-ioners of this church, will avail your selves of all the helps your holy religion will afford you through your grand new church, so that it may be a continual blessing for yourselves and pass down as a blessing to your children's children. This church will be the home of the parish. It is here you should pray for grace to strengthen you through life. Be loyal to your

the parish. It is here you should pray for grace to strengthen you through life. Be loyal to country, to your church and pastor and aid him to spread the Viewden of Codu appearance in the union parade created a most favorable impression Your club was also strongly re-presented at the union tramp in Montreal, as well as at the various commence grants held during Commi nowshoe events held during Carnival week.

val week. The average attendance at your weekly tramps, especially ladies' nights, was most gratifying. Although your committee had gone to considerable expense and trouble to onsideration expense and toble to make our annual Veterans' Night a treat for the "Old Boys." owing to weather conditions, this had to be finally cancelled. Your Club steeplechase had also to be called steeplechase had also to be called off for the same reason. Our list of qualified members is somewhat less than last year, a fact I regret to report, and I would suggest a special effort be made by your incoming officers to increase the numbers of names on your mem-bership roll bership roll. Your club is indebted to Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C.i for a handsome sil-ver cup which is now in possession of your president. The R. C. Smith Cup is open for bership roll of your president. The R. C. Smith Cup is open for competition among members, and is to be competed for annually over the Mountain course. Cup must be won three times, not recessarily in succession, before becoming the pro-perty of any winner. Mr. Smith has also kindly donated a gold me-dal which becomes the property of the member winning the cup race. Much of the success during the past year was due to the efforts of your worthy president, Mr. Benson, who personally looked after the wel-fare of your runners, and devoted considerable of his time to the gene-ral interests of the club. Our appreciation of the kindness of St. Anthony's Y. M. Society is due for allowing your club the use of their hall for all club meetings. The whole respectfully submitted. F. C. McINROE.

Honorary Secretary, Montreal, December 15th, 1909. ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Honorary Patrons-Hon. C. J. Do-erty, Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C. Honorary President-Alderman T

O'Connell. President-Mr. D. C. Benson. 1st Vice-President-Mr. Jas. H

McKenna. 2nd Vice-President-Mr. W. W. Mc Intyre. Secretary-Treasurer-Mr. F.

Rafferty. Committee-H. S. Bourke, Harry Committee H. S. Bourke, Harry A. Jones, Benjamin Boas, H. F. Hoobin, James O'Connor, A. G. Dil-lon, S. Rochford, Jno. J. Carrick, Wm. McGay, F.-J. Mulcair, Harold Everett, John Cox, J. J. McCarron.

Programme of Eucharistic Congress.

The general lines of the Eucharis tic Congress to be held in Montreal on September 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th of next year have now been decided upon. The Papal Delegate, who will pre-side, will be officially received at St. James Cathedral, on the evening of September 6th, and on the even of september oth, and on the even-ing of the following day His Emi-nence will be tendered a civic re-ception. The congress proper will open with a midnight mass in the Church of Notre Dame, in the first of Thursday, September 8th, hours and during the day there will be a solemn service in St. James Cathe-dral, and a grand gathering in the Church of Notre Dame in the even-

OUESTION.

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1909

pendent School Board.

A very large meeting of St. Michael's parish met after Mass last Sunday to consider the approval of a resolution passed by St. Michael's School Board under the presidency of Rey. J. P. Kiernan, P.P. It was unanimously passed that this reso-lution of the School Board advocat-ing the continuance of its present school system should be maintained. The people of St. Michael's are showing their consistency in deter-showing their consistency in deter-mining to maintain their autonomy in school matters. What they posmining to maintain their autonomy in school matters. What they pos-sess involved strenuous efforts to obtain and presumes herculean sta-men to retain. The opposition with which they had to cope from many sources in their attempt at special which they had to cope from many splendid ideals of the value and no-sources in their attempt at special school legislation, is familiar to all and what they did receive was so limited that they did receive was so imited that they did receive was so imited that they did receive was so is. St. Michael's school board was authorized to collect taxes only from the proprietors of St. Michael's who would consequently it was obliged, to protect itself, to fix a rate that would not be likely to deter these proprietors from signing in its favor. This was the mini-mum authorization that could be given and that would have been ac-ceptable to a population suffering as we were from the inadequate means furnished by the six practically French boards, to supply our child-

St. Michael's Advocates an Inde- Discussion For and Against the tutions.

IRISH INDUS-

being up to the Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of all. It was a very soprowful com-minent laity from the city and coun-ty. Lady Carberry, in opening the ex-hibition, said she had been deeply impressed when visiting some of the todustrial schools with the devotion of the teachers, and also with the spiendid ideals of the value and no-bility of the work for its own sake, which they placed before the child-ren. She trusted that public inter-est, excited by the exhibition of prac-tical work, would be induced to visit the schools and see for them-selves the excellent work dome in the teachers, and also with the case of the value and no-bility of the work for its own sake, which they placed before the child-tren. She trusted that public inter-est, excited by the exhibition of prac-tical work, would be induced to visit the schools and see for them-selves the excellent work dome in Lordship's distinct opinion was that our limits, have no conception of the financing necessitated by the re-quiraments of a school which ac-commodates now over four hundred children divided among eight class that additional class rooms to ad-mit a number of children of English for places.-The neople of St. Michael's could drail, and a grand gathering in the for places.

 The people of St. Michael's could not, therefore, be expected consist-open-afr service will be held on they have done. They fought for they have it now separation and in the evening the Cardinal I Legate will hold a public reception.
 they nave done. They fought for they have it now separation and to reach the evening the Cardinal I Legate will hold a public reception.
 they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation.
 they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation.
 they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation.

 what we have,'' is our motto.
 St. Michael's is a modern School
 St. Michael's is a modern School or they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation.
 they have it now separation and they have it now separation and they have it now separation.

 what we have,'' is our motto.
 St. Michael's is a modern School
 st. Michael's is a modern School or they have it now separation and they have it now separation.

ren with an education such as would fit them for after life and to en-able them to compete successfully and creditably with children in the more English-speaking sections of the city. Under these circumstances What specifications we had to do! What secrifices we had to make! What resources otherwise available to the parish purposes, have been directed to our school needs! The population of Montreal outside of timans, and compared to work in a separate in a specific sector of the girls' schools were set up to house-keeping, and even a few of them were put to work in a separate to the work in a separate power by the or the sector of the girls' schools were set up to house-keeping, and even a few of them were put to work in a separate found as possible, to correct and coun-teract. For the purpose of coun-teracting it he had told them the previous day that the girls in the girls' schools were set up to house-keeping, and even a few of them were put to work in a separate house for themselves. They were sent out to do their own market-ier and enoue other kind of work

Against the home was that the lar-der of the institutions was always full, whereas the grown up in the home knew the struggle the parents had to make to provide the food and clothing, and other domestic ne-cessaries. Mr. Fagan had made recessaries. Mr. Fagan had made biscussion For and Against the object of Retaining Such Insti against the home was that the lar-

HOME TRAINING NECESSARY.

A large number of people attended at the City Hall in Dublin last week being the second day of the exhibi-tion in connection with the Irish In-dustrial Schools. The opening cere-mony was performed by Lady Car-berry, and the attendance included the Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross, and many clegymen and pro-man to increase their number. His Lordship's distinct opinion was that with the existing industrial schools the contribution given by the Coun-ty Council was aanple. There must be some mismanagement. Just a year ago the Inspector classified the schools. Several girls' schools in that county ware placed in the first schools. Several girls' schools in that county were placed in the first division of first class; the boys' schools in the county came under the second class, and there were a few schools, oot more than one or two in all Ireland, came under the first class. Now, if the schools were dealt with on the scale of efficiency, it was obvious that the grant to it was obvious that the grant it was obvious that the grant to the girls' schools—first class girls' schools—should be increased, and the fact that the second class boys' school had a higher grant than the first class girls' school was an ano-maly. However, it was his distinct view that that anomaly should be tolerated rather than that the maily. However, it was no docuted view that that anomaly should be tolerated rather than that the grant should be increased to the other schools, and an unnecessary burden be cast upon the ratepayers. Not only would the burden be un-recessary, but it might be harmful. With other phases of the new Child-ren's Act his Lordship did not at present express an opluten. There was a section that industrial day schools might be established for waifs and strays. Now these schools might be necessary in large citles, but they were a very dangerous re-medy and should be dealt with ex-worky cautiously. The relieving of parents of their responsibility was one of the most serious ques-tions that goold be contemplated. and it might be that the new Chil-mer was in the solution of responsibility. the tions that yould be contemplated, and it might be that the new Chil-dren Act was intended to exactly them WRONG END ACCOMPLISHED.

Like many other acts of Farlia-ment, the new Children Act became ment, the new Children Act became a necessity in England, but his Lord-ship was very doubtful of its use in lireland. England was now pay-ng the penalty of that success at a manufacturing country, and there-fore there were seething masses of children growing up under, his Lord-ship might say, brutal conditions, and hence there were many philan-thropic men and women who said: "Let us at any cost save the chil-dren." While saving the children they relieved the parents of the re-sponsibility. In Ireband they had not yet, thank God, reached that pass, and any one dealing with the

LORS WELCOME. y Wednesday Evening:

alent invited. The fip y pay us a visit. 80 a.m. on Sunday. cert on Sunday eve

tays from 9 a.m. to from 1 p.m. to 10

COMMON STREETS.

BELLS morial Bells a Specialty. H Foundry Co., Baltimore, SA., U.S.

ELY BELL COMPANY A 28 HIVER ST., 177 BROADWAR HOY, N.Y. MEW YORK, Manufacture Superior CHINECECHNESCHOOL & OTHER BELLS

TNESS is print

At the end of the Mass dinner was served by the ladies of the parish in the basement of the Church.

0

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

"It Happened on Christmas."

Fitness in Xmas Presents.

Has it became true that we are a barter, carefully calculated? If it should be so, better that we give no gifts at all; for in our ab-stinence there were less transgres-sion of the Christmas spirit.

Christmas gifts should be the ex-pression of love and friendship. True love and friendship are instinct with delicacy and the sense of fitness. We friends of their own condition in the matter of our token of grateful

not yet come into their hands

acknowledgment

THE TRUE IDEA.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS.

May all the readers of the may all the readers of the Home Page experience the ful-filment of their dearest hopes and joys and may they be abundantly blessed this hap-py Christmastide.

Danger in Dry Shampoos.

The danger of the dry shampoos that have recently come into vogue are unquestionably not sufficiently recognized. The growing use of some of the light hydrocarbon or other volatile compounds is probab-ly fraught with most serious con-sequences, but even the apparently innocuous shampoo powders have drawbacks.

Carbon tetrachlorid seems to be Carbon tetrachlorid seems to be used most extensively, and the num-ber of fatal accidents which are be-ing recorded makes it incomprehen-sible that a drug so dangerous should be employed at all. Its for-mula, CC14, shows its near rela-tion to chloroform, and its anaesthe-tic proparties are almost the to conform and its anaesthe-tic properties are almost as, marked. The vapor given off is considerably heavier them air and rapidly accu-mulates around the face when the liquid is applied to the scalp.

Innumerable cases of semi-consclousness are reported, it is claim-ed, by the English hairdressers, but the patrons, women almost exclu-sively, do not object, and so the "playing with death" goes on. It is a frightful commentary on the fa-tuity of the day. fe-piece of our own handiwork, wrought out in our scant leisure, will mean much more to them than some tuity of the day. The vapor of carbon tetrachlorid

The vapor of carbon tetrachlorid aside from its anaesthetic or stupe-fying effect is a heart poison and in the presence of the slightest cardiac weakness is extremely likely to pro-duce a fatal result.

The shampoo powders may no The shampoo powders may not present toxic dangers, but their use is certainly founded on anything but a rational basis. A few perfectly normal scalps might have a very fine impalpable powder applied a few times with little or no harm to the hair, but in a short time the glandular orifices would be occluded and the bein would suffer according. and the hair would suffer according ly-Americar. Medicine.

Always Remember.

(Success Magazine.) To speak the truth when by a lit-tle prevarication you can get some

To refuse to knuckle and bend the knee to the wealthy, even though poor To refuse to do a thing which you

To stand firmly erect while others are blowing and fawning for praise are blowing and taxing and power. To remain in honest poverty while others grow rich by questionable

To say "No" squarely when those

To say "No squarely when those around you say "Yes." To do your duty in silence, obscu-rity and poverty, while others about you prosper through neglecting or violating sacred obligations. Not to bend the knee to popular prejudice

Spare me from bitterness and the sharp passions of unguarded mo ments May I not forget that poverty and riches are of the spirit.

And although age and infirmity overtake me, and I come

The First (hri t aas.

Wintry Night has spread her mantle O'er a fair Judean town, On deserted streets and highways, Moon and stars look calmly down,

Moon and stars look calmly down Wealthy nobles, poor plebeians, Merry youths and grandsires old-All repose in peacaful slumber Sheltered from the bitter cold. All, except some lowly shepherds, perilously near to desecrating a beautiful custom?-that Christmas All, except some lowly shepherds, Men of simple moods and wills, Who, inured to cold and hardships, Watch their flocks upon the hills. Only these, and in a stable. ' Bleak and lonely, rude and bare, Two expectant humble strangers, Both absorbed in silent prayer.

Midnight steals upon the mountain, Lo, the shepherds start with fear What betides this radiant vision? What, this song divine they hear? Yes; these must be forms angelic Winging downward from the sky. And a thousand hosts are singing; "Glory be to God on high!"

Midnight lingers o'er the stable-delicacy and the sense of fitness. We don't give to 'pay back," or 'to get in with' those whom we love and honor. To some of the per-sons who have meant most in our lives we caincot offer costly gifts without offense. A book, a little bunch of flowers, a bit of our own handiwork-these mark the limit. Why? Because these persons are immensely better circumstanced in a material way, and it would be fool-ish and vulgar for us to try to rival friends of their own condition in Spouse mature and maiden mild Gaze with speechless admiration On a lowly, new-born Child, Myriad spirits hover round them Eager all that Babe to scan; For 'tis He Whom God has promis-

For Christ the Saviour born to man.

Sing, ye stars, a song of gladness; Echo, Earth, the blest refrain; Banish, fallen man, thy sadness, Let each heart repeat the strain, "Alleluia! Alleluia! Ever joyous be this morn, God hath sent cur blest Paterne

Yet, we may offer what will please them better intrinsically than gold or cut glass. We may think of a new and interesting book which has God hath sent our blest Redeemen

Christ is here, our Savior's born. -Arthur Barry O'Neill.

North Carolina, was won by Rear-Admiral Porter over Gene-ral Whiting's forces. 1572-Jay Gould refunded nine million dollars' worth of securities to the Erie Railroad. 1988-Burning of the town of Mar-blehead, Massachusetts, with a loss of one million three hundred thousand dollars. -An entire business block 189:

State Courts.

War

Tennessee.

born.

senters

fought

San Francisco burned ; two hun-dred and fifty thousand dollars' loss 1894—Cliff House, San Francisco, California, burned.

mann

A Prayer to the Christ Child. Behold, ye season is again at hand; oace more ye snows of winter lie upon all ye earth, and all Chrystantie is arrayed to the holy feast. Presently shall ye star burn with exceeding brightness in ye east, ye sky shall be full of swete music, ye angels shall descend to earth with singing, and ye bells—ye joy-ous Chrystmass bells—shall tell us of ye babe that was born in Bethlehem. Come to us now, O gentle Chrystchilde, and walke

Come to us now, O gentle Chrystchilde, and walke among us people of ye earth; enwheel us round about with Thy protecting care; forfend all envious thoughts and evil deeds; teche Thou our hearts with the glory of Thy love, and quicken us to practices of paces good will and charipeace, good will, and chari-ty meet for Thy approval and acceptation.—Eugene Field.

*********

Losing Our Christmas.

stupidity.

ively.

ively. "That would cost a lot, Mary-could buy that windmill for what that would cost." he said.. "But I couldn't lie still in a grave this far away from all the old folks.", she protested. "Well, now, I'll tell you," he com-promised. "Suppose we just try ye here, and if you don't lie still, wiy, I'll ship ye aback to old New Hampshire."

reply. A gentleman travelling stopped the house of a pieur us the gentleman. but In the Footsteps of the Master. There is an unpretentious parish priest over in New York State who has won our heart. He is rector of the Church of the Blessed Sacramentat New Rochelle, and his name is Rev. Thomas McLoughlih. Father McLoughlin-celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary in the priesthood a short time ago, and his parishioners and friends presented him with a purse of $2500, as a token of their appreciation of his devotion to their welfare. Father McLoughlin accept-ed the gifts happily. He was deep-ly grateful to the donors and was visibly affected, while he thanked them from the bottom of his heart. Under his pastoral care was a mission at the Fort Slocum Recruit-ing Station, and it needed a chapel. The purse afforded him a means of supplying it; hence his gavation of soils. Last Sunday he salvation of soils. Last Sunday he yoles with love not en that day bless with love and joy and contentment the heat "Where did you get that idea?" asked the surprised teacher. Triumphantly Maggie pointed to this paragraph: "The population of London is remarkably dense."—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

The Vermont farm had been worn out, so the New Englander and his wife took up a homestead in Okla-homa. The soil was kindly, and their native thrift was great, so they prospered. At last, however, age came heavily upon the wife, and knowing that p her time was not long, she called her husbard to her side. "Reuben," she said, "I want you to send me back to Vermont when I'm passed away." not on that day bless with and joy and contentment th of the humble pastor of New th love the heart chelle? Of such is the true Priest-hood of the Catholic Church, and, thank God! their number is legion. Catholic Telegraph.

A pleasant medicine for children is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, and there is nothing better for driv-ing worms from the system.

(1) At least s apon and cuitive such year for that (2) if the fat the father is deex steader resides up wointy of the is requiremester as i satisfied by such awith the father (8) if the set amit residence up him in homericad the rresidence may be dence upon said Six menths i mould be given is a six a s should be given Dominion Lands testion to apply

Deputy Minist N.B.-Unauthor Nes advertisement for.

Trouble

Backa

Years.

DOAN'S KI Mrs. W. C. Do London, Ont., pleasure that I ti your Doan's Kidin Have been troubly years. Nothing h brought me a box I began to take the and am glad to as tirely and can do feel as good as I us all kidney sufferent tindy.

an kidney sufferen tral." Let Doan's Kid what they have of sthers. They cur trouble and they of Price, 50 cents of $1.25 at all dealer receipt of price by Limited, Toronto, When ordering

By Th DOAN'S KI

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23,

Cea Kettle 97 51. Main 3114. Hon. Sir Alexan

ADVOCATES, : 7 PLACE mard, K.C.

ROSSARD, CHO Advocates, Barris e Main 1490 1491

IORRISON

ocates, East or, Banque or ST. JAD

Barnard a

ADV Savings Bank Bu Bell Teleph Bet Tel. Main 3552,

Conro 193 CENT

Estima Jobbing Prom Lawren PLAS

ssor to John Ri nd Ornamenta is promptly atte 15 Paris Street,

I.WE Caterers and

SOCIETY

10-12 HERMINE

afacturers of t Caramels and I uets, Wedding

Synopsis of Can HOMESTEAD ANY even number ton Land in M sion Land in M wan and Alberta, and reserved, may any person who i tamily, or any m age, to the extem tion of 160 acres Entry must be the local land off in which the land Entry by proxy made on certain hatter, mother, a ther or sister of steader.

steader.

The homesteade orm the condition with under one

(1) At least s

within sight of the castle of dreams, teach me to be thankful for life, and for the time's olden memories that are good and sweet, and may the evening's twilight find me gentle still.

Prompt and Courteous.

A girl cannot cultivate too much A girl cannot cultivate too much promptness in respect to little cour-tesies. She may be inclined to re-gard them as trifles of little im-portance, but they may mean much It is really important to write a It is really important to write a note of thanks promptly for a gift or favor done. Delay may mean a note less spontaneously grateful in the first flush of enthusiasm. A be-lated "bread and butter" letter also comes with bad grace and gives her hostess just cause to think her guest unappreciative, to put it mildly.

Feast of the Children

Once more the Christmas bells are ringing out their merry chimes, and their old familiar music thrills hutheir old familiar music thrills hu-man hearts with happiness. It is the universal festival of all races, of all asses and conditions. But be-imr the festival of the birth of the Christ-Child it anreals in an espe-cial manner to children. Nav, if we honestly analyze our own thoushts and emotions, should not we adults confers that our Christmas joys are due to the rejuvenating of our uselss, albeit beautiful object ten times duplicated, but expressing only my the money we could not spare I for As regards the Christmas the money we could not spare. As regards the Christmas gift: It is not the cost, but the refine-ment and opportunences, which make your offering welcome. Motives of duty and family affec-tion should lead one to make the largest outlay where there is the most need of it. There may be aged kindred, kind to you in your youth, but now fallen in fortune, on whom you could bestow without any lack of delicacy, practical gifts which would make the winter easier and pleasanter. That cut glass bown, sent where it was only a trouble-some superfluity, would have meant a month of comfort to a sad and lonely old relative.

THE HOLY FAMILY

DON'T SPOIL THE CHILDREN.

Let us be self-respectful, let sultivate fitness and sense of cultivate fitness and sense of pro-portion in our Christmas expendi-ture. Place to the children, of course: for Christmas is especially their day. But here, again, the gifts should not be of such high price and beauty that the prudent elders are fain to put them away till the little ones "are old enough to take care of them!" We agree with Jacob Rits, that the tendency to luxury and extravagence on every with Jacob Rits, that the tendency to luxury and extravance on every side is taking the good out of the domestic celebration of Christmas. What a nity to see children with their fancies and whims so promitly and expensively gratified that they turn away, bored, from their surer-abundance of toys, ornaments and sweetments.--Katherine Conway. To Forget Self.

Our hearts go out to the Christ that was born a child in Bethany, always to remain a child, and by His childlikeness to disclose to u something that is in the Father, but which the world knew not; for the heart of the Father is the heart of infinite childhood, whence flows life that is forever fresh and young, to make the earth glad with simple and childlike joy.

ple and childlike joy. The Child born to us at this fes-tival came into the world to save it, and it is not going to be saved by any other means than those which he has provided. He is al-ways with us. He never forsakes us. He is the only one who is with us in sickness, and in health, in sorrow and misfortune, in good re-port and ill report. When all others fail us He still waits with loving arms ready to receive us, no matter how unworthy we may have been. On Christmas Day, if on no other how unworthy we may have been. On Christmas Day, if on no other men may be expected to forget self; to look beyond personal comfort and pleasure and to endeawor to make life easier and happier for those who stand near them. Christ's life was the ideal life, and it was spent in labor for the people around Him, and the lesson of that unselfish, la-borious life is to be learned when the heart goes out foward our neigh-bor. And our neighbor is not the only friend we know, but every man who passes us on the street.

It is enough if we realize that riches, whatever their charm and their value, are not a panacea for the evil of life, that happiness de-pends on work, health, character, disposition, training, and a many other things besides in grea and that, so far as happiness is con carned, enough money, or somewhat less than enough, puts us in just about as good a case to achieve it as though we were rich. If the chase after them lures us away from the fulfillment of our primary obli-gations to our Maker, our neighbor, and ourselves, we are certainly losand ourselves, we are certainly los-ers not less if, succeeding, we lose the Christmas out of our year, the Christmas spirit out our lives.-Ed-win S. Martin.

colored man died without med cal attendance, and the con

cal attendance, and the coroner wen to investigate. "Did Samuel Williams live here?" he asked the weeping woman who opened the door. "Yassuh." she replied between

"I want to see the remains." "I is de remains," she answ proudly.—Everybody's Magazine.

Reuben pulled his whiskers reflect-

A MISTAKEN CURE.

"Jennie!" yelled the composer. "Yes, dear," called back the gen-

"Yes, dear," called back the gen-tle wife. "Why in thunder don't you keep that kid quiet! What alls it?" "I can't think, dear. I'm singing one of your lullables to the poor little darling."-Lippincott's Maga-

He (nervously)-Er-er-Margaret er-er-there's something has trembling on my lips for the two months. last we months. She-Yes, so I see. Why didn't you shave it off?-Princeton Tiger.

SAVING THE WIND.

A highland athletic gathering was in full swing, and considerable in-terest centered in the chances of a local competitor who had extered for several events and confidently for several events and confidently expected to win at least one of them. His first attempt was in the hardest of races, the quarter mile, and he was easily defeated. "Donal, Donal," exclaimed a sup-porter reprovingly. "why das ye no "in faster".

"Rin faster," echoed Donald, con-temptuously, "an' me reserving ma-sel' for the bagpipe competition."

CAREFUL TOMMY

Tommy's mother had made him a present of a toy shovel and sent him out in the sand lot to play

Scores Appendix Operations.

"An "An operation for appendicitis should be called a criminal opera-tion, and as such should be pro-hibited by law," declares Dr. Charhibited by law," declares Dr. Char-les E. Page, one of Boston's best known physicians. "I have been fol-lowing the records of appendicitis operations ever since the craze for appendectomy started," he says, "and I confidently believe that the day is coming when the people will finally realize that the cutting of the enneating is coming lowers. finally realize that the cutting of the appendix is a criminal opera-tion. As for the widely proclaimed benefits and saving of life by opera-tions to cut the appendix, it seems hardly necessary to cite the long list of deaths following the opera-tions. Only recently we have had striking instances. The surgeons cut off Gov. Johnson's appendix a year or so ago; they operated on him a second time, and on the third operation he fell a victim to mis-taken modern theories. I have kept track of the appendectory deaths for twenty years, and the list is appai-ling."

A Premium given for the emoty bags returned to our Office.

SDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1909

MORRISON & HATCHETK ocates, Barristers, Solicitors, pr. Banque du Peuple Chambe 7 ST. JAMES STREET.

Hon. Sir Alexandre Lacoste, K. C. LAVANAGH, LAJOIE & LACOSTE ADVOCATES, SOLICITORS, Etc. 7 PLACE D'ARMES KAVANAGH, K.C. PAUL LACOSTE, LL.B. DEMIN-LAJOLE, K.C. JULES MATHIRV. ILL.

ard, K.C. H. A. Cholette, I.I. B. Thomas M. Tansey, B.C.L.

ROSSARD, CHOLETTE & TANSEY

me Main 1490

Advocates, Barristers and Solicitors Advocates, Barristers and Solicitors 1490 16e ST. JAMES ST. Guardian Bidg

Barnard & Dessauffes ADVOCATES Savings Bank Building, 160 St. James Bell Telephone Main 1679.

Bell Tel. Main 3552, Night and day service. Conroy Bros. Practical Plumbers, Gas and Steamfitters

Estimates Given. Jobbing Promptly Attended To Lawrence Riley

PLASTERER cresor to John Riley. Established in 1866 and Ornamental Plastering. Repairs of ab promptly attended to.

15 Paris Street, Point St. Charles. T. I. WELSH & CO

aterers and Confectioners 10-12 HERMINE STREET, MONTREAL

Manufacturers of the Famous D. H. W. Brands Caramels and Everton Toffee. Banquets, Wedding Suppers, etc. Personal attention. PHONE FIAIN 5301

SOCIETY DIRECTORY.

hished March 6th, 1856; incorpor ated 1863; Meets in St. Patrick'

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

ANY even numbered section of Donn non Land in Manitoba, Saskatche

CASENER DESIGN

rise Soap or scald the clothes. It isn't The clothes come out of the whate, perfectly washed. The 's Play of Wash Bay. ise the ordinary way if you

IURSDAY, DECEMBER 23,

Kettle

needed with

t Water

SURPRISE.

nis baby brother. te care of baby, now, Tom-d don't let anything hurd was mamma's parting injune

ntly screams of anguish from ent the distracted parent fly-the sand lot. goodness sake, Tommy, what ppened to the baby!" said ying to soothe the wailing re was a naughty fly biting top of his head and I killed the shovel," was the proud

SCRIPTURAL AUTHORITY. tleman travelling stopped a theman travelling stopped at use of a pious old womar, serving her fondness for a f, ventured to ask the name animal. she called him "Moreover"

t she called him "Moreover" t that a strange name?" in-he gentleman. ' said the pious lady; "but ht ft must be a good one, d it in the Bible." d it in the Bible!" quoted leman. "Pray, in what the Bible did you find it?" d lady took down her Bible greatest reverence, and ST. PATRICK'S SOCIETY .- Estab e greatest reverence, and to the text, read as fol-Moreover, the dog came and s sores."

Footsteps of the Master.

S an unpretentious parish ver in New York State who our heart. He is rector of the f the Blessed Sacrament at helle, and his name is mas McLoughlih. Father in celebrated his twenty-versary in the priesthood a de ago, and his parishioner ds presented him with a $2500, as a token of their on of his devotion to their Father McLoughlin accept-fts happily. He was deep. on of his devotion to their Father McLoughlin accept fts happily. He was deep-lit to the donors and was fected, while he thanked in the bottom of his heart, is pastoral care was a t the Fort Slocum Recruit on, and it needed a chapel, afforded him a means of it; hence ins happiness; gratitude. No thought of ing in view but the glory ind the salvation of souls. Ind the salvation of souls, and who will say that does not overlook a cup and who will say that does not overlook a cup given in His Name, did at day bless with love and contentment the heart hele pastor of New Ro-f such is the true Prisst-te Catholic Church, and, ! their number is logica ne Catholic Churcn, and I their number is legion. Nelegraph.

nt medicine for children is aves' Worm Externinator, is nothing better for driv-as from the system.

Appendix Operations.

THE TRUE WITNESS ... ND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE

CHRISTMAS NUMBER

In tubes ready for mailing

THE

True Witness Christmas Number

Choice Christmas Stories, Original Sketches, Charming Gavotte, written specially for this number. This dainty composition is worth the price alone.

GIVE YOUR ORDER NOW.

ated 1863; Meets in St. Patrick's Hall, 92 St. Alexander street, first Monday of the month. Committee meets last Wednesday. Officers: Rev. Chaplain, Rev. Gerald Mc. Skane, P. P.: President, Mr. H. J. Kavanagh, K. C.; 1st Vice-Presi-dent, Mr. J. C. Walsh; 2nd Vice-President, W. G. Kennedy; Treasurer, Mr. W. Durack; Corres-ponding Secretary, Mr. T. C. Ber-mingham; Rescording Secretary, Mr. "F. P. Tansey; Asst.-Recording Se-cretary, Mr. M. E. Tansey; Mar-shal, Mr. B. Campbell; Asst. Mar-shal, Mr. P. Conrolly.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West

sion Land in Manitoba, Saskatche wan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, sot reserved, may be homestached by any person who is the sols head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter sec-tion of 160 acres, more or less. Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made on certain conditions by the hother, mother, son, daughter, bro-ther or sister of an intending home-riender. mitted reluctantly, "but it is cer-tainly an unusual proceeding. Your day of general usefulness will be over. Now, you can do for a dozen children. If you adopt one, your whole time will be occupied with that one." The homesteader is required to per-form the conditions connected there with under one of the following

"I never thought of it in that way, but it may be true. I can give it up, I suppose."

"Such a thing would not only be foolish, but positively ridiculous! To adopt an infant at your age! I gave you credit for more sense." Miss Campbell, the president of St. Argela's Society, an organiza-tion whose principal object was to look after and provide for neglected children, spoke with unusual warmth. "And why? It is not a sin or a disgrace." Such a show of spirit from Miss Gilbert made the president gasp in astonishment. She afterwards con-cided to another member of the so-ciety that she had known Hester Gilbert intimately for thirty years and thought she understood her, but since that day she had concluded she was as strange as the Sphinz. "No-it's no disgrace," she ad-mitted reluctantly, "but it is cer-tainly an unusual proceeding. Your day of general usefulness will be over. Now, you can do for a dozen abildrem. I took one oly Tim Curnes, and tho set and proceeding. Your day of general usefulness will be over. Now, you can do for a dozen abildrem. I took one oly Tim Curnes, and he is so unobserving he wouldn't have known a rag doll from a baby. have known a rag doll from a baby But Tim's heart is tender as a wol but times heart is better as a wor man's. 'Good evening, ma'am,' said ge. 'It would be a work of charity for you to go down to Steve Gra-dy's and look after the baby. The woman is dead tired from a hard day over the washtub, after sitting on with her side mother the night <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

"I don't believe in heredity," said Miss Gibbert, with a little smile of unconscious superiority. "It's an exploded theory. Training and en-vironment are the things that count nowadays." "God bless and reward you" ma-

"There's one consolation"-some-times there was venom in Miss Wil-lard's stinging retorts-"in all prob-ability you'll never live to know how he does turn out, or how he how he does turn out, or how he spends the forume you will so gene-rously bequeath him." "Order !" called Miss Campbell, sharply. "We have already digress-ed unpardomably long. Let us fin-ish these articles and then make the final arrangements for the distri-bution of the Christmas gifts. That night, fired but sleepless, Miss Gilbert sat down to read a letter from a distant friend of girl-hood days. It contained a clipping from a letter written to his mother by her friend's son, who was a ris-ing young physician. Among other things he said :

things he said

"What ministering angels "What ministering angels are mothers-even the most ordinary among them. They are never called heroines, but daily they brave dan-gers from which a strong man would shrink. I never appreciated, you be-

As a Family

PRICE, 25 Cts.

and the tests for on the period of the server. "God-bless and reward you, ma-dam, for your tender heart and kind offer. I've five others, but I can't part with my own flesh and blood-But I tell you this. I'm not over, strong and my heart, is weak, the doctor says. If anything should happen to me and the family's broke up, you can have my little Bob." "God bless the poor woman and spare her to her helpless family." said Miss Gilbert, through her fall-ing tears. 'I shall add the whole six to my Christmas list and the mother, too. If I can't be a mother I can be at least a grandhar angel to the Grady baby !"

other a ris-other light faded into gloom. Innumerable inary stars studded the purple sky and shed a soft light on the earth, cov-ered with a winding sheet of white dan-starlight, her thoughts reverted for a christmas carol she had sung as a child. Her eyes searched the hea-vens for that mysterious star that guided the wise men from the Fast and in fancy she heard the swelling angelic chorús that rang over the Judean hills.

Medicine "There's a song in the air,

AT WORK IN 3 WEEKS $4 Worth of Father Morriscy's "No. 7"

Cured Her of Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Mrs.Agues Edgar, of Grand Falls, N.B., had a terrible time with Inflammatory Rheumatism. Anyone who has had this most painful disease will understand her suffering — and her joy when she found Father Morrisey's "No.7" had cured her. She says:

"I took Father Morriscy's Prescription or Inflammatory Rheumatism. I had Those Pather Morriscy's trescription for Inflammatory Rheumatism. I had suffered everything with it, but in three weeks after starting Father Morriscy's Prescription I was able to do my work, and after taking four dollars worth of medicine I was well. I highly recom-mend it any sufferer with Rheumatism."

Rheumatism comes from bad kidneys. The poisonous Uric Acid which they should remove stays in the blood, accumulates in joints and muscles, and causes agony. Father Morriscy's "No.7" puts the kidneys right removes the Uric Acid from the blood and the whole system, and cures the Rheumatism. soc. a box at your dealer's, or from Father Morriscy Medicine Co. Ltd., Chatham, N.B. 63

At Magherafelt Equity Sessions re-cently. Judge Overend held that a bequest for a bell for Loop Catholic Church was a charity, and that un-der the circumstances of the case the legacy was void.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP Is A Remedy Without An Equal For COUGHS, COLDS, And All Affections Of The THROAT and LUNGS.

OUT OF GRATEFUL HEARTS.
 "Such a thing would not only be foolish, but positively ridiculous! To foolish, but positively ridiculous! To factor and provide for neglected children, spoke with unusual warmth."
 "And why? It is not a sin or a "And why? It is not a sin or a disgrace."
 out disposition. "Perhaûs you are that mysterious 'Lenore' Lennox' wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the sight of the bar or sometimes it never wakens. Again, the sight of the bar or sometimes in the sight sight of the bar or sometimes in the sight sight eration for appendicitis called a criminal opera-us such should be pro-law," declares Dr. Char-o, one of Boston's best sicians. "I have been fol-meande of appendicitis sicians. "I have been fol-records of appendicitis ever since the craze for my started," he says, fidently believe that the ing when the people will ze that the cutting of x is a criminal opera-or the widely proclaimed saving of life by opera-t the appendix, it seems usary to cite the long the following the opera-y recently we have had the following the opera-r recently we have had bances. The surgeons cut they operated on him ne, and on the third a fell a victim to mis-m theories. I have kept appendectory deaths for s, and the list is appal-

RAISING FLOUR celebratea -Raising Flour

Driginal and the Best. given for the emoty hage ned to our Office. Street, Montreal

For biliousness, constipation and Kidney derange-ments Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills easily stand first.

first. Lots of suffering would be avoided and much serious disease prevented if every family lid as the writer of this letter suggests. She has found out front experience with many medicines that there is nothing so good as Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills as a family medi-cine for biliousness and constipation. Such diseases as Bright's disease, diabetes and appendicitis almost in-variably arise from neglect to keep the liver, kidneys and howels regular. This emphasizes the wisdom of keeping Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney Variably arise from include values and the liver, kidneys and howels regular. This emphasizes the wisdom of keeping Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney Liver Fills constantly on hand.

"For a long time I suffered from liver complaint and billoumess and could find nothing to help me until I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I have recommended these Pills to many of my friends and they have all been satisfied with the results. You can use this letter for the benefit of women who are suffering as I did."-Miss Julie Langlois, Manor, Sask.
One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. At all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toromto.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidnev-

There's a Star in the sky, There's a Mother's deep prayer, And a Baby's low cry: And the Star rains its fire While the Beautiful sing That the Manger of Dethlchem Cradles a King !"

Ooughs and Colds do not call for a minute recital of symptoms as they are known to everyone, but their dangers are not understood so well. All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs and the bronchial tubes, are, in the begin drag would be avoided in a the write of as the A. W. Chase's didney drag from the darkness and old the provide statistic drag from the darkness and old the provide statistic drag from the darkness and old the provide statistic drag drag that the the provide statistic drag that the the theorem and the statistic drag that the theorem and the statistic drag that the statistis the statistic drag th

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CURCNICLE.

The True Witness

is published every Thursday by The True Witness P. & P. Co.

BIE Lagauchetlers St. West, Montreal P. O. BOX 1138 SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

da (City Excepted) and Newfoundland $1.00 City, United States and Foreign. $1.50 Terms : Payable in Advance. NOTICE.

When a change of address is desired the abscriber should give both the OLD and becriber should give boint use only and the NEW address. SUBSCRIPTIONS will be continued mill order to stop is received and all ar-becroses paid up, and remittances by P. O. order or er ered letter. TH WELL.-Matter intended for Per cation should reach us NOT RR than 5 o'clock Wednesday after-

Corresponden∠e intended for publica-tion must have name of writer enclosed, not necessarily for publication but as a mark of good faibh, otherwise it will not be published. TTEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST SOL-

TN vain will you build churches, give missions, found schools-Il your works, all your efforts will be destroyed if you are not able to wield the defensive and offensive weapon of a loyal and sincere Catholic press.

-Pope Pius X.

Episcopal Approbation.

If the English Speaking Catholics of Montreal and of this Province consulted their best interests, they would scon make of the TRUE WITNESS che of the most prosperous and powerful Catholic papers in this country.

I heartily bless those who encourage this excellent work. PAUL.

Archl, shop of Montreal.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1909

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

To all a Merry Christmas, To all a Bright New Year. To all the smile of Jesus, With comfort, blessing, cheer!

With each recurring Christmas, it is a duty and a pleasure for the True Witness to, express its thanks to its friends and readers, and to wish them an abundance of God's choicest blessings. A Merry Christmas, then, to them, a Merry Christmas to young and old, to rich and poor, to the strong and to the weak, to those at home and to those abroad, to all men, in truth, whatever their creed or whatever their standard, a Merry Christmas.

May the Kingdom of Christ be extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth. and may all the hearts that should be His, be given back to Him! May love for His spotless Mother ever increase; may His saints and His angels occupy the place in each man's and each woman's and each child's heart of hearts; may the Church of God become even more gioriously triumphant over the powers that lurk in ambush! May the Holy Father, our Archbishop, and our priests find us all better children. of Holy Mother. Peace be our share, virtue our best riches, happiness attend our striving, with God's blessing on all for eternity! May our Merry Christmas, unlike

With hearts truly grateful, Come all ye faithful, To Jesus, to Jesus, in Bethlehem See Christ your Saviour, Heaven's greatest favor, Let's hasten to adore Him Our God and King!

How the old words ring in our ears! The Little Infant lying in a manger, and Mary, His Mother, with Joseph, His foster-father kindly there at his side, while the angels of Eden sing, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace to mer of good will." The shepherds or on the hills. "And the angel said to them: Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, that hall be to all the people: for this day is born to you a Saviour, whe is Christ the Lord, ir, the city of David. And it came to bavid. . . And it came to pass, that after the angels departed from pass. them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another: Let us go over Bethlehem; and let us see this word that is come to pass, which the Lord hath showed to us. And they came with haste, and they found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in a manger." To Bethlehem they bent their steps, and adored steps, and adored the new-born king of their people But Christmas has its lessons, too -lessons of poverty, humility, selfabnegation. A God become man for the sake of His creatures! In the depths of our conscience we feel that God must experience the deepest sorrow for and sympathy with us in our earthly misfortures. And wet.

at the same time, we know that God is unchangeable, imperturbable, the same to-day, vesterday, and for-The day of His first coming ever. in the flesh was, indeed, a day condescension and suffering for the Holy Infant, and yet a day of deliverance and redemption for mankind, the first Merry Christmas.

"Hail, holy cave, tho' dark thou be The world is lighted up from thee! Hail, Holy Babe, Creation stands, And moves upon Thy little hands!

"AN ANCIENT PRAYER !"

We have all heard of the medicine that is guaranteed to make hair grow on even a skating rink, 0 nearly so; but that does not bea the "Ancient Prayer" some good folks are receiving. There are veral "ancient prayers" and "chainless prayers." Here is a copy of one just now in the field:

"O good Jesus, I implore Thee to bless all mankind. Keep us by Thy Precious Blood. Take us to dwell Precious Blood. with Thee." The prayer in itself is all right, but what follows it, on the Da pers sent around, is ridiculous. Here it is:

"This was sent by a friend. Copy it, and see what will happen. It is said that he (or she?) who writes this prayer nine times, commencing on the day he (or she?) received it, experience some great joy on the ninth day; and he (or she?) who will not, will meet with some great misfortune. It is said, in Jerusalem, (by Barabbas, perhaps), that he (or she?) who writes this praver (but does not say it?), will delivered from all ailments (lunacy included?). Don't break this chain Make a wish (that (of straw?). the author of the prayer were ir jail or the asylum), while writing it, and don't fail (to make a of yourself), to write to nine friends (like the man who stole your hat) one each day. Do not sign name Let us remark that:

(1) Only a fool or a knave start ed the chain; (2) Only a fool or a knave takes lead and save the flock. While To-

"In the first place, Archbishop Bruchesi must base his judgments al-most entirely on hearsay. His ec-clesiastical position makes it impos-sible for him to go to the theatre sible for sible for him to go to the the himself. He cannot even send clerical assistants, but must sible for him to go to the theatre himself. He cannot even send his clerical assistants, but must de-pend on the judgment of laymen as to the actual performance. Of course, he can always get the books of the various plays. This, however, is not a particularly safe way to judge a production; and no better instance of this could be given than the present case. According to the statements of the management of the theatre and of independent wit-nesses, who are in a position to judge, the French plays put on at the Accemy have been very careful-ly pruned, with a view to this very same severity of criticism. But it seems that these precautions were insufficient. At any rate they have quite evidently falled to satisfy the Catholic Archbishop. At this dis-tance it is, of course, rather difficult to judge of the merits of the case; but at the same time it seems to me rather unfortunate that the French theatre of Montreal should be under an absolute censorship whose means of forming a judgment are so very inadequate." his tion.

There you are! What judgment, ye gods! To say the least, the gentleman must have a very exalted · ecclesiastical mind. idea of the since the testimony of hundreds of scandalized laymen will not suffice, coupled with the fact that the others who do not complain are, in ninetenths of the cases, proof against further inoculation.

What stupendous cheek, too! . The Archbishop, the whole Catholic and many of the non-Catholic clergy with all the other decent citizens of Montreal on one side, and the Toronto dramatic critic on the other! If arguments such as his could prevail we should be forced to close courts and jails. The judge our would be obliged to act as policeman, arrest all the prisoners, personally visit all the haunts of vice the city, and then refuse to examine any witnesses. In other words, the dramatic critic has sworn away the very principle of the British court and its justice

When the Archbishop denounced the Academie, he acted as would the best judge in the land, and only a man in Toronto, and on the Sa turday Night staff, could sav the contrary. Of course, our critic appeals to the impartial evidence the theatre management. Does not know that a murderer is not supposed to plead his guilt. True, he speaks of independent witne but of them the less said the bet-We should not want ter. them with us if the police were around. He admits it is hard "at this distance (in Toronto) to judge of the merits of the case." We believe him, and especially when it is question of Catholic life in Montreal. As bad as Toronto is we had thought it held a first class critic of drama and literature; but what must we think of a critic who reasons as our friend does. never come across better. We have

Toronto people like to boast of their exceeding great holiness (save the mark!), and yet an Archbishop cannot condemr, filthy theatricals without incurring their displeasure ! Is that it? If Toronto wants sin on the stage, it is welcome to it. But, then, we must not forget that our Archbishop has been honored by adverse criticism in the Saturday Night more than once. Mud-slingers must aim their efforts against one of Canada's shining lights, and yet they have never been able to say a word that could bring the crimson to an honest man's cheek. People accustomed to rule religion for themselves cannot understand that Christ should have commissioned pastors to any practice enjoined by divine pre-cept. Such questions as the trans-ference of the Satibuth to Sunday or the intermarriage of Jews with people of other religious standards cannot even be taken up for considera

> "We regret," say our Orthodox friends, "that the vote of the re-cent conference of American Reform Rabbis against intermarriage was so feeble that it may be misinterpro-ted, and that the resolution as adopted was so inadequately worded as to be almost equivocal. Marriage with persons of other faiths is pro-hibited to the believing Hebrew by the Bible and religious codes. The motive is the simple one of protect-ing the religious and spiritual integ-rity of our people, which must in-evitably be destroyed by intermar-riage with those of alien faith. In-termarriage is religious suicide. Rab-bic gumbic cannot dobate normicality bis surely cannot debate permissibility of suicide."

We have never felt a strong call to the Synagogue, but we like consistency for all that. Whenever we hear the leaders of another religion speak as the representatives of Or thodox Judaism do, we cannot help admiring their sincerity. Then, again, the Jewish rabbis are men of sense, learning and judgment. They take no delight in posing for the comic columns of the dailies, as so many preachers do. A synagogue is meant for prayer and religious service. When we remember Jerusalem, and especially during Holy Week; when we think of its hills and valleys, of its gardens and streets, everything reminds us of Christ. In Jerusalem itself everything bears the mark of the curse with which that hapless city has been stricken; yet even in the midst of its darkness, it can never cease to be the city of the soul. Hence we are not surprised with the efforts being made by the leaders of the Zionist movement.

Wordsworth, in a foreword explanatory of his poem, "The Jewish Family," speaks as follows: "Coleridge, my daughter, and I, in 1828, passed a fortnight upon the banks of the Rhine, principally under the hospitable roof of Mr. Aders, of Gotesburg, but two days of the time we spent at St. Goar in rambles among the neighboring valleys. It was at St. Goar that I saw the Jewish family here described. Though exceedingly poor, and rags, they were not less beautiful than I have endeavored to make them appear. We had taken a lit tle dinner with us in a basket, and invited them to partake of it, which the mother refused to do, both for herself and children, saying it was with them a fast day; adding diffidently, that whether such observances were right or wrong, she felt it her duty to keep them strictly." We once saw two little Orthodox Jewish boys refuse to eat food forbidden by the Law of Israel. They were surrounded at table by Ca tholic priests and laymen, who conscientiously provided an abundance of food for the boys that their law permits them to take. We all admired the boys just as Wordsworth admired "The Jewish Family" on the Rhine. We could never admire, preachers, however, who claim their religion is thoroughly Scriptural, the pure Gospel, and yet who never peeach a sermon without denying and the worth of some the truth portion of Holy Writ. We can understand Jewish logic, but not the claims of infidelistic heresy, or heresy of any kind. We cannot under-sy of any kind. We cannot under-pervert's generosity and lodged in stand a sect calling itself Christ's "Mr. Brown's" hospital. How sweet religion, yet willing to unite with are the deeds of charity!

7 ST. CATHERINE ST. EAST

"THE FOREIGNER," BY RALPH Religious Pictures CONNOR For Framing.

been asked what We have think of Ralph Connor's latest boost, 'The Foreigner," and, as our opinion will not move either earth or sky, we are glad to state justwhat we think of the book.

Ralph Connor's English we like and, although his stories are, by no means, the kind we most like, yet we must say they are among the few that really fascinate us. Above and beyond stands Stevenson, stands Scott, stands Kirby, even, in realms undreamt of by Ralph Connor; nor is the good and clever Presbyterian a master of situations. minister There is a lot of the unmeant miraculous to his situations, and deal of glorious haphazard to his plots. And these observations true of "The Foreigner," by are no means even his own best book.

But we must not forget that "The Foreigner" is a didactic story. It quietly insinuates all an evangelical minister can do in the way of civilizing the Galicians, Russians, Poles, etc., in Saskatchewan. "Mr. Brown" the "Charlie-on-the-spot" non-prose lytizing proselytiser, is pictured as the one providentially sent to cue the Galicians from the barbarous doctrines of Purgatory and Con-"Mr. Brown," as Ralph fession. Connor describes him, was never meant for a missionary; he seemingly proves a better hand at squaring a deal for a coal mine. His work is, as we intimated, especially aimed at making evangelicals (?) out Greek Catholics, and others; while the only clerical representative of the Greek Church he can find is Polish priest of unclean and ungodly life. True, a French missionary priest turns up for a half a page but the Polish failure is seemingly friends will think of their Bishop meant to represent both the Greek on page 201, in the eleventh chapand the Latin churches. Ralph Conter, But, then, they must remem nor will be blest in some circles. ber that, Of course any hero of any accour some Anglican ministers, have done eventually falls under "Mr. Brown's' the big work in Saskatchewan. No; spiritual sway. Reading of the it is "Mr. Brown" and those of his good proselytizer, one would be apt school, who, with trade, follow the to forget that it was by the likes flag. of him that Saskatchewan was cursmall and dark and dirty, even if ed and civilized, and not by the he did have "Eagle River running Oblates. But "Mr. Brown" is prethrough the country." "Brown" does sent just at the time when trade not bleed the Galicians; the "Polish proves promising and railroads priest" does. fact. In that our author is true to his money; it is voted by the offilife. But the Oblates were there cers of the Mission Fund. Howlong before, and especially when ever, if Relph Connor means needed in 1885. "Father Garneau," speak of personages like the Rev. George Atlas, the man who ran whose connection with the "Garneau" ranch is not explained, saves away with th the church in the half of a page. ney, and if Atlas is supposed to De typified by the "Polish priest," then we shall not prove too critical:

What Ralph Connor has written a

No. 2862, Head of Christ at Twelve Years, Hoff-mann Plate size 6 x 8. These subjects are printed in black only.

Ecce Homo, Mater Dolorsa, Immanulta Con-ception, Sacred Heart of Jesus, Sacred Heart of Mary, & Joseph, The Angelus, Christ in the Temple, Magdalen, Madonna Kis, Christian Head Head of Christ, Christin Gethsemane, St. Antho-ny of Padua, Madonna di San Sisto, St. Cecilia, Head of Christ at Tweive Years, Madonna Fer-ruzzi, Madonna Sichée.

Write for catalogue of larger sizes. D. & J. SADLIER & CO. 13 West Notre Dame St., Montreal.

The whole story, in its honest,

ubstolen grandeur, is, in our eyes,

something like the expanded account of a story a Baptist deacon once told us. The man's yarn nearly made us cry, and it would certain ly have touched the heart of a wheelbarrow. We had never thought any part of Saskatchewan could nave contained such a group of no-

Shakespeare, they will not live.

We do not know what our Anglican not the Oblates,

The "Polish 'priest"

"Brown" is sure of

e Presbyterians' mo-

Happily, unlike the people

given time

in

with

Was

vel-characters at a

Silas?

not be judged."

Protestantism, know to be wron one true Church. testant friends a admit we are rig they will never ju bad Catholics. them to beware within rea purse

ed" Catholics. It is really sur easily the firstupon many, very Catholic friends. scoundrel the Chu board has just t us and our clerg. up for money, an filled. We have ney is spent jus hearing the Churc

THURSDAY, DEC

You

mov

Poor c

THE b day, to health. the waste the system a self blo of bile int or weal contract

I Hundreds of gentlemen friends have been remembered from our stores. All that's desired for men, in smart, new creations, are fully represented--Ties, Mufflers, Scarfs, Fancy Vests, Stick Pins, Dressing Gowns, Gloves, and a host of other hints.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23, 190

BRENNAN BROS. Hatters and Men's Furnishers 251 ST. CATHERINE ST. WEST

Phone Up 3627. Phone East 246

11 x 14, Artotypes, Price 15 cts. each.

howels. Constipat Abbey's

Echoes an

How often do Cribi We hope our r our advertisers. please tell them

True Witness. A late renegad and honored nam Murphy was cren

Freemasons, of charge. Two or three tributors are goi larly in our colu tainly being enco port we are get we value and ap Whatever Ralph a novelist, may a firm believer ought to be, see ly he has his l turn up unexpect eigner.' How can our go -call their churc versal. Is it no lish? Did the A not prove what the Germans sub tablishment! An reverse of Cathol In answer to a to whether we are sincere, we m

tion to our Etern known hundred ants, and should prised to hear th sincere. "Judge

| <ul> <li>lude of Christmas with God as long as God is God ! Again, thez, and thom the bottom of our hearts, to all and to each.</li> <li>A MERRY CHRISTMAS.</li> <li>CHRISTMAS.</li> <li>'O, to have dwelt in Bethlehem, m When the star of the Lord shone bright!</li> <li>To have sheltered the hely wanderers</li> <li>On that blessed Christmas night;</li> <li>To have kissed the tender, wayworn feet</li> <li>Of the Mother undefied,</li> <li>Ard with reverent wonder and deep delight.</li> <li>To have tended the Holy Child!"</li> <li>Christmas is again with us! Christmas! What memories surge at the word! Again, even if in spirit, we stand in our old home, where once a mother steod, with brothers and At sisters proud of their presents, and the father's heart rejoted as he conces that now heaut us. But, be word and above, there is the Christian concept of the day, and the father is heart rejoted as he contains story of our Jesus in Beth-</li> </ul> | <ul> <li>(3) It does not seem intended for women folk;</li> <li>(4) There are fools enough left to take the conditions seriously;</li> <li>(5) The one who started it did not sign his rame for very plain reasons;</li> <li>(6) The singer of "come-all-ye's" is its legitimate friend; the hangman is the author's;</li> <li>(7) It is simply a blasphemy.</li> <li>(8) Those who copy it have seloom said a decent prayer in their ves;</li> <li>(9 Denounce all senders, if you now them, to the Board of Health.</li> <li>(10) It is a sin to send it to anybody.</li> <li>STRANGE LOGIC INDEED !</li> <li>A gentleman known as the dramace editor of the anti-Catholic Toonto Saturday Night has come to ne conclusion that His Grace our rebbishop was too severe on the cademie Theatre. Let us hear what an histrionic Solomon has to say for himself.). Here it is:</li> </ul> | will continue to subtract their pat-ronage from agencies bent on ruiningtheir souls and bodies.JEWISH CONSISTENCY.Orthodox Judaism has again con-demned the American reform of Jew-ry, and has repudiated the authori-ty of the "Conference of AmericanRabbis." Matterse affecting Juda-ism as a whole-declare our ortho-dox friends-can be legislated upononly by an assembly which fulfilsthe requirements indicated in HolyWrit, that is to say, "elders" (Num.xi., 16) "able men, God-fearingmen, men of truth, hating profit"(Exod., xviii., 21), "wise men,men of understanding, men of as-certained reputation." (Deut. I., 18)Or. to state this in present dayRabbinical conference must bemen who, by virtue of earnest andsincere piety in the tradi-tional and historical sense, areintellectually and spiritually quali-fied to interpret and expound thelaw for universal Jewry.Nor can even a conference quali-fied to act, such as the above de- | vorcees, and that hall to look aleathe consistent religious training ofthe young. In fact, we cannot seehow a man with common sense iswilling to swear by a part of theRevelation and reject the rest. Wecar, however, understand why thereare so many unchurched folks in theUnited States. The reason is asplain as daylight. Preachers by thehundreds who preach infidelity inso-called Christian pulpits, who denythe inspiration of Holy Writ, willhave the audacity to tell you theyare ministers of the Gospel; but"think," says Gladstone, "think oftwelve agnostics, or twelve panthe-ists, or twelve materialists settingout from modern Jerussiem to dothe work of the twelve Apostles."We know what learned OrthodoxRubbis think of the Reformation.They have no use for the Reformation.They have no use for the Beformation.They have no use for the Beformation.They have no use for the Beformationand Scripture could not make anast of faith with more fervor thanTom Payne. We must prefer Rev.Jamper Johnson, Deacon of a color | hymn shall we sing? No. 23?"Mrs. Fitzpatrick's" general goodbehavior is not questioned, but at"Michael Kalmar's" trial size ismade to play the part of a fool.Evidently all Ralph Connor knowsabout the true Irish character issummed up in his pseudonym. Weonce heard a Vermont Yankee ladcopy the speech and gestures of anIrishwoman, at a Fourth of Julyconcert for the natives of a moun-tain village in his state, and, asappallingly ridiculous as he madehimself, he made us laugh, at least!We cannot say the same of "Mrs.Fitzpatrick." First of all, Mr.Connor, the Irish never call a girla "scut." That name is for a good-for-nothing upstart among youngmen. The 'Polish priest" comesin handy when doctrines of theChurch must be scoffed at and ri-diculed. "The only church theyknow has bled them dry, and theyfear and hate the very name ofchurch." This 'Mr. Brown" saysto a friend, taking of the Galiciansand other Slavs in the story, manyof whom turn out to appear as be-longing to the Church And 'Mra.Fitzpatrick'' is made sweap by thesaints, just as Sias Oornoob, of | about cowboys and bronchos. Wewonder if he swo one. Then if hefourch had to depend on such mis-sionaries as 'Mr. Brown' we shouldhave to have to prove that thegood. We know that the goodhales of the sewing circle will falnove with 'Mr. Brown's' hereswo of present of the sewing of the sewingto be know that the goodhales of the sewing circle will falnove with 'Mr. Brown's' hereswo of present of the sewing of theswo of the sewing of the swowith the swo of the secondof the neighboring counties criminas anough to keep the staff emplo-ing the swo of the sous itinteresting move to let us know semitime a cat is inneged without a in-try (or with a packed one). | glicans, in the vabove low tacticaThe English Satthe Toronto Sataken sides withFrance against thBriand, Combes, awonder what thaPresident Loubet,work now. Howthose responsibleReview, have nolains of presidentthey are welcomeMr. A. T. RichGazette asks perto another corrsame paper (a. Joity has added athe Sacrament ofwhich divine lifewery partaker wWe would alsorungest that he istession to a dua,in order to freetal sin, even the"The day of w |
|---|--|---|---|---|---|---|
|---|--|---|---|---|---|---|

Y, DECEMBER 23, 190

RENNANS'

have been re-

smart, new cre-Ties, Mufflers, Pins, Dressing other hints.

BROS. nishers

ATHERINE ST. EAST Phone East 246

us Pictures Framing. types, Price 15 cts. each

Christ at Twelve Years, Hoff-Plate size 6 x 8.

are printed in black only. are printed in black only. er Dolorosa, Immaculate Con-cart of Jesus, Sacred Heart of The Angelins, Christ in the a, Madonna, Bodenausea, net in Gethsemane, St. Antho-nna di San Sisto, St. Cecilia, Wedve Years, Madonna Per-chée.

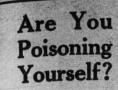

alogue of larger sizes ADLIER & CO. e Dame St., Montreal.

story, in its honest, eur, is, in our eyes, the expanded account Baptist deacon once man's yarn nearly and it would certaind the heart of a Ve had never thought Saskatchewan could such a group of noat a given time ke the people in in they will not live. w what our Anglican ink of their Bishop in the eleventh chapn, they must rememthe Oblates, with ministers, have done n Saskatchewan. No; vn'' and those of his ith trade, follow the Polish ' priest'' Was and dirty, even if 'Eagle River running ntry." "Brown" does abicians; the "Polish "Brown" is sure of is voted by the offi-lission Fund. How-Connor means the man who ran Presbyterians' mo-

ove too critical: has written a lot and broncho would know a Texas depend on such mis-Brown" we should o prove that the o St. Peter holds wing circle will fall "Mr. Brown's" heroe glad we are repre-Oblattes and other the Northwest. The will in no sense help proselytizers. It is but there is lead in

as is supposed to be

"Polish priest," then

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1909

THE bowels must move freely every day, to insure good health. If they do not, the waste is absorbed by the system and produces a self blood poisoning.

Poor digestion, lack of bile in the intestines, or weak muscular contraction of the bowels, may cause Constipation. Abbey's Effervescent

Echoes and Remarks.

How often do you pray before the Crib? We hope our readers will call on our advertisers. When you do call, please tell them you saw it in the True Witness. Every little helps. A late renegade with the honest and honored name of Charles Blake Murphy was cremated the other day

Freemasons, of course, were in charge Two or three very brilliant contributors are going to appear regu-larly in our columns. We are certainly being encouraged by the support we are getting from sources

we value and appreciate. Whatever Ralph Connor's value as a novelist, may be, he is, we think, a firm believer in miracles, ought to be, seeing how wonderfully he has his heroes and heroines turn up unexpectedly, in "The Foreigner.

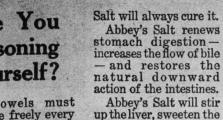

How can our good Anglican friends call their church Catholic, or universal. Is it not necessarily English? Did the American revolution not prove what we say? Imagine the Germans submitting to the Establishment! Anglicanism is the reverse of Catholicism.

In answer to a correspondent as to whether we believe Protestants are sincere, we must leave the question to our Eternal Judge. We have known hundreds of good Protestants, and should be much prised to hear they were or are not "Judge not and you shall not be judged."

Protestantism, as a system, we know to be wrong. There is only one true Church. But our good Protestant friends are not willing to admit we are right. Let us hope they will never judge our Church by We honestly warn bad Catholics. them to beware of leaving their within reach of "sugar-coated" Catholics.

It is really surprising to see how easily the first-comer may impose upon many, very many, of our non-Catholic friends. The first scamp or coundrel the Church throws overboard has just to tell lies about us and our clergy, when he is hard up for money, and his pockets are filled. We have to think the money is spent just for the sake of hearing the Church calummiated. Any above low tactics.

Abbey's Salt will stir up the liver, sweeten the the blood.

for all people.

many other things that once made the charm of life, has gone by ; the poet's verse was too light and tinkling a sound to be heard amidst the clang of hammers employed in fash-ioning steam engines." Our civilization is giving us Anarchists, "Dreadnoughts." "Suffragettes", jails and penitentiaries, trusts and combines, more false religions, immoral universities, "White Slave Traffic" while art and literature must thrive on the past, or starve.

"Cremation," remarks Father Phelan, "has been declared anti-Christian by the highest court of Austria, Cremation is the "Finis" closing the book of an irreligious and materialistic life. The decision is based or. the ground that it is opposed to the Christian ideal of burial. Cremation implies a public profession of irreligion and materialism. Its first partisans were the Freemasons of Italy. Four years ago there were ninecremations in Europe. The United States is credited with three of these plants." Our own Montreal crematory is anything but a

We have not enough athesuccess. ists in Montreal as yet. Our modern pagans believe in it, and that is only natural.

Notwithstanding the fact that T. P. O'Connor has declared himself in favor of Mr. Asquith's utterances as to self-government for Ireland, the usual quota of cranks have had to voice their displeasure with "Tay Pay" and John Redmond. One would citizen of Montreal think such people as the cranks in question knew as much as the first word about British politics, to hear have not had the common courage them talk. We prefer, however, to be guided by the Nationalists; while all the other cranks, with the Sein-Feiners ("Shinn-Faners") are good know what their like did in O'Connell's day, and while Parnell did his glorious ilk tried to ruin John Redmond; we know what spies, informers, and sassenachs have cost us; we know how the Castle pennies were spent, and we know what the fomenters of discord and disunion are. trying to do now. We know what the enemies of the Land League were like, and how little John Redmond's critics have been willing to contribute for Ireland's cause. We are heartily sick of them, heartily sick of the foolish anti-Redmondite organs, and of all the "Shinn-Faners" from the Atlantic to the Pacirealize the need of absolute unity, while crossing the stream, or ra-ther the torrent of such an election as England, Ireland and Scotland as England, Ireland and Scotland are now preparing for. It is the psychological moment in Ireland's faction feeling could be now intro-duced by the Unionist or others the result would prove a political dis-aster. Messrs. Lloyd-George and Winston Churchill have the supreme and the few we have result would prove a political dis-aster. Messrs. Lloyd-George and Winston Churchill have the supreme merit of knowing their own minds, and if duly supported by the Irish they will be strong enough to tright towards the Nationalists, in spite of the Radical and Noncoorfor-mist wing of the Party. The friends of Ireland in Canada of all nationalities know from ex-perience the advantages and the necessities of a Home Rule Govern-ment and for that they sympathize with the peaceful but determined agitation which Mr. Redmond's par-ty has made for so many years to-to the pace of the parts. agrication which Mr. Redmond's par-ty has made for so many years to-wards the obtaining of a Home Rule Parliament for Dublin such as Ca-nada has at Ottawa, This ambi-tion of Irish Nationalists seems to Canadians and Australiams, a just and moderate proposition. Because of all this it would seems a politi-cal tragedy if political schemers could in any way weaken the Liberal of all this it would scale schemers cal traggedy if political schemers could in any way weaken the Liberal and National forces in Ireland at such a time. Not for seven hund-red years has it been more necessary for Ireland to speak, and act, and vote as one man than it will be in the coming election. Mr. Lloydthe coming election. George said the othe the coming election. All large George said the other day of the Unionists: "We have them at last." Yes, and Ireland—cheated, betrayed, depopulated Ireland, persecuted and trampled, Ireland persecuted and plandered, Ireland oppressed politically and religiously for unnumbered years, will form its eighty Libe-ral citadels ring out a stern appro-val of the Chancellor's war-ery: "We have them at last." This elec-tion will recall the memories of every Liberal statesman, from Grat-tan and O'Compil. to Gludstone tan and O'Connell, to Gladstone

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

The present struggle will be as great as any in the history of the British Isles, and Irishmen every-where hope that Home Rule may be one result for Ireland."

JUDGE CANNON'S REPORT.

If ever a Royal Commissioner has ature are simply catalogues faithfully done his duty he not do it more fully and faithfully than has Judge Cannon, in investiting corruption in Montreal civic life, and in reporting what he found wrong. His report is, indeed, no Wind." testimonial of merit awarded us and our city. It is plain that highwaymen have acted with authority over us all, and thousands of dollars have been either squandered, plundered, or misappropriated. We were fast asleep, and had things gone on our very jail might have been bartered for unjust gain. The daily papers have told us, and are still telling us, enough, and, alas! too truthfully! Every honest should feel ashamed and indignant at what we have all so long tolerated. We

of trying to save our purse from the desperado; on the contrary, we have praised and pampered him. Have we had enough corruption? Are we for is to keep up the glorious work at length, convinced that the Star, of Dublin Castle, by playing the La Patrie, the Herald, La National-part of the goat on the plank. We iste, La Croix, the Witness and La Patrie, the Herald, La Nationalother papers were right in demouncing corruption in high places? best; iwe know how the deedless, in- we going to start life anew in February, or are we agreed to pay taxes, and get only half our money' worth in return? Have we not had more than we want of plunder and mischief? Yes! Yes! The coming civic elections shall, we feel sure, set all things right. Montreal and its citizens are not sworn to the duty of fattening the purses But, while we blame let us praise the faithful aldermen of whom the Star says: "In the present City Council are a number of faithful servants. There dere men there to-day who have ren-dered heroic and honorable service to their constituents in the face of dif-ficulties which may have been ima-gined, but could hardly be realized, until the investentian was held. (w) Our Cr whom the Star says:

than they are entitled to suffer. And to the point: (a) The general Catholic reader, like his non-Catholic friend, tholic papers.

not lend the help they are lending things would be ten times worse. But they can only do their share. (g) Our Catholic publishing houses have too many favorite writers that even the serious Catholic reader does not want. Pets must be set aside when they do please

(h) Our young men are not taught to read Catholic books. Literature lessons ought to be practical.

(i) Young men leaving school could not, as a rule, name you three Catholic authors of the day without naming Nick Carter as the fourth.

(j) Our Catholic books cost too much, especially is this true of the poorer ones.

(k) In teaching the History Literature, little mention is made of current Catholic books and living authors, although the boy must learn in what year Caedmon dreamed and William O'Brien visited America. (1) Most of our histories of literof could names and dates. The French arc leagues ahead of us. (m) Some of our publishing houses have not changed their catalogues since the "Year of ehe Big > (n) The kind of books kept in some libraries is enough to discourage a reader for all time. Hø imagines all Catholic books are like the cheap stuff he comes across, and so decides to unlearn his English and good manners by reading Mark Twain.

(o) Anti-Catholic authors, are hauded to the skies in the daily papers. Parents subscribe for these, while no Catholic paper enters the household, or no Catholic magazine, such as the Ave Maria, with their list of good books.

(p) Most of the books are bought for the sake of the eminent

(q) Ask yourself why Robert Louis Stevenson was successful in the end, and you will understand why so many writers fail. (r) The last thing our Catholic ocieties think of establishing is a reading circle. Their libraries, they have any, are small, and "A Trip Through Arkansaw on a Slow Train" is one of the most popular volumes.

(s) We are no worse off than our Protesuant neighbors, however. Yet they manage to sell their books, even those dealing with dealth-bed conversions.

(t) There is no serious move ment among us to encourage the sale of Cattholic books.

(u) We expect Catholic lecturers, for instance, to work for nothing. (v) A Catholic paper is not wanted by many unless it discusses are always appreciated but infinitely more so when they consist of an article for personal use such as FOOTWEAR. We would suggest a handsome pair of Boots Shoes, Slipper, Rubbers, Overshoes, Gaiters, Leggings, Moccassins or Shoe Trees, These we have in the very best quality, and at prices which you will admit are most reasonable, should you favour us with a visit.

RONAYNE BROS. 485 Notre-Dame St. West

Chaboillez Square.

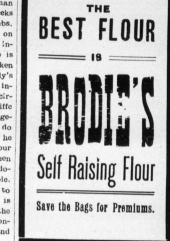

(f) If our Catholic teachers uid LORD NORTHCLIFFE AND THE I. C. R.

> Periodically some Englishman omes to Canada, spends two weeks here being entertained at clubs. and then ventures an opinion or our country and ourselves. The interview they give the iournalists is generally made up of words spoken between two glasses of somebody's "special." We do not wish to insinuate that it was under such cir-cumstances that Lord Northcliffe criticized the I.C.R. and its manage ment a little while ago, and we do not care how, when, or where he spoke. We are pleased with our government, and are sure the men responsible for its working are doing their best to please the people. When Lord Northcliffe is speaking to Canadians, he ought to know he is not dealing with the readers of the Times. The following from a temporary we thoroughly relish and endorse:

> "The recent attack on the Interco-lonial made by Lord Northcliffe, and the wide publicity given his state-ments by Upper Canadian papers, her caused wany valuons of the I has caused to rally to its defence in a C.R. spirited manner that is causing the management a good deal of satis-faction. Letters from prominent business men who have travelled extensively, are being received daily. extensively, are being received daily. these being expressions of apprecia-tion of the train service generally and particularly of that given be-tween Montreal, St. John and Hali-fax by Canada's famous train, the Maritime Express. These letters are written in many instances by men who have travelled on nearly men who have travelled on nearly every railroad on this continent, men who have travelled on nearly every railroad on this continent, and who, therefore, have a keen ap-prediation of the comforts that tend to render pleasant a long journey by rail. Their opinions are likely to be more widely appreciated than those of Lord Northeliffe, whose un-reasonable criticism has aroused so much comment. It is quite evident the Intercolontial has still many firm friends left to it, and mong them friends left to it, and mong those who patronize it most know it best." them and

FAITHFUL WORK.

of Columbus are doing in several big abroad do not subscribe for it. derstand, as well, how successfully No other paper has done for the Knights strive and labor in St. Green Bay, Wisconsin, the Knights sity, and we should appreciate lished a Catholic reading list comprising 1150 books. The catalogue is drafted with a view to guiding in New Haver, and Milwaukee have published similar lists and found experiment of immense value. the Handbooks of Catholic literature do not abound in Catholic homes, and the reading lists carefully prepared and placed in general circulation should be welcomed by those who need direction in the choice of

Application to the Logislature.

Public notice is hereby given that application will be made to the Lo-gislature of the Province of Quebec, at its next session, by the Rev. Aftimios Ofiesh, Chaheen Aboud, Essa Boosanna, Salim Boosanna, Rising Boosanra, Salim Boosanra, Najeeb Tabah, Fahed Tabah, Man-sour Shatilla, Michael Zegayer and others, all of Montreal, to incorpo-rate them as a religious congrega-tion, under the name of "The Saint Nicholas Cruck Surias" Outback Nicholas Greek Syrian Orthodox Church," with power to acquire and possess movable and immovable property, to keep registers of acts of civil status, and to exercise, all other rights incident to a religious corporation and for other pur-poses. Montreal, 15th December, 1909.

BARNARD & BARRY. Solicitors for Applicants.

We all know what faithful work is Quebec's favorite paper. It is a the Ancient Order and the Knights pity, too, that more Quebecers cities of the United States. We un- should not want to do without it. the of the victims of Grosse-Isle story Louis, Mo., for instance; and now what the Telegraph has done. Irish-we are gratified to learn that, in men are renowned for their generoof Columbus have compiled and pub- good and lasting turn. Mr. J. A. Jordan wrote the book. That is guarantee sufficient. Mr. Frank Carrel was the presiding genius in Catholics in the selection of books the endeavor. What other proof in the public library. The Knights do we want? As we said some time ago, we hope the Telegraph will be obliged to print several editions of Mr. Jordon's book. It sells: Paper cover, $1.00; cloth, $1.50, Editionde-luxe, $3.00. Address: Daily Te legraph, Buade street, Quebec, P.Q.

NEVER TOO LATE!

The True Witness honestly and ers have informed us m Jail, the ihistoric nich so many ed martyrdom, This is a result of the dailies, of the oard, made nece were not in Dublin ing counties crimin-sep the staff employadd, in the ordinaword, is practically and. Is that why the Star, deems it to let us know each anged without a juenged without glicans, in the vast majority, are THE COMING CONTEST.

Our much esteemed contemporary, the New Freeman may al-ways be relied upon for The English Saturday Review-not the Toronto Saturday Night-has taken sides with the Bishops thorough interest in the of its France against the sink-schools of cause of Ireland's national freedom Briand, Combes, and Clemenceau. We Dealing with the "Coming Contest" in Great Britain and Ireland, our St. John exchange says editorially: wonder what that coward, former President Loubet, thinks of his ugly

President Loubet, thinks of his up of the norman and line and line and line and, our St. John exchange says editorially work now. Honest men, such as the state of the approaching he that or elong the approaching he that or elong the approaching he that so of bristisma and New Year. The present aldermen must stand so we catholics demonuce. The saturday Night is their friend, and best wishes to Ireland, and estimate the control of the heat or elong the noble, even that be to the hortor.
Mr. A. T. Richards in yesterdays to another correspondent of the saturday of the compay they keep.
The saturday Night is their friend, and the present aldermen must stand at ore man, a united I reland, and estimates the control of the the there is independent of the saturday of a National Parliament for Cologe Green, Dublin. We trust, in det struggles, Ireland in all its of a struggles, Ireland in all its of the grastion by prayer and fasting to Juda as one mande due to remove the the makes a good correspondent of the saturday of some composing the party con composite the removes of the table to make strugges that he makes a good correspondent of the saturement of the struggest that he makes a good correspondent of the saturement in the world, yet it that a make a good correspondent of the saturement in the world wet the the structure is the saturement in the world wet the the makes a good correspondent of the saturement in the world wet the the structure is the saturement in the world wet the the structure is the saturement in the world wet the the structure is the saturement in the world wet the the structure is the saturement in the world wet the the structure is the saturement in the source the to the second priority is a make a subter and for this reason but of relations, we decided (le our wisdom, maked and and the structure is the saturement in the world wet is the structure is the saturement in the source the to the structure is the saturement in the way of the structure is the saturement in the bad books, who, with their love of reading, could be saved through the body terest Father Smith, Miss Reppiler, Miss Guiney and sundry others to learn that, while we relisted their the contributions, we decided (in our of give a few reasons why Catholic au-thors are not so successful as they might be, and why Catholic pub-interv might be, and why Catholic pub-will lishers must not be made suffer of the day and the hour.

ward politics. (w) Our Catholic societies (w) Our Cathol (w) Our Catholic societies do not try to advertise Catholic authors, by means of pamphlets and (x) There is a lack of love for (y) Catholic publishing houses of as good men and women as any (z) The last book nine-tenths of other city may boast of, but we us want to buy is one that will are behind in enterprise and achievement. The Catholic press in Cana-Now, this criticism is offered in the Catholic societies, but the same thankful to Father Smith, who, with his well-known moral courage. as awakened us all to our duty. Necessarily, some will not agree with all we say. We know that, but cannot help it. It is time God's Kingdom. should remember that scores of young men are being lost through

"THE TRAGEDY OF GROSSE-

instrumentality of good Catholic books. Our authors are doing well. We are holding our own in the English-speaking world, when all

Now, there is the kind of work Collins over his promotion to the ties do. Unfortunately, here in and hopes this is only the second of Montreal, there is too much apathy. a series of steps to still higher po-Montreal, there is do make evening sition and emolument. All citizens, All is not done when the evening sition and emolument. All citizens, is spent smoking and talking. Our French and English-speaking, Cathoown Catholic societies are made up lic and Protestant, know lins, and know him, and of him, very favorably. He has always done his duty in a marked way. and all our papers have often paid da receives next to no support from him the tribute of their esteem and commendation. If Montreal is far from being true of the United three hundred officers like Mr. Col-States. When a society is sincerely lins we should hardly need a Re-Oatholic, it takes a working inter-est in the efforce that all Catholics are making for the extension of our faithful friends, having subscribconder's Court. We are glad, too, to ed for the True Witness for y

THE TRACEDY OF GROSSE-ISLE." The Quebec Daily Telegraph right-ly claims that its book, "The Tra-gredy of Grosse Iele," should be in every Irishman's home. No more suitable present could we send ons of our kinsmon or kinswomen than the self-same book. The Daily Te-legraph has always fought :loyally and courageousiv for Irishmen's rights, the world over; and there is no cleaner daily in the world than The tenants on the Logan Ellis es-tate recently received another offer

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

An Ambush For Santa.

Now I dess am doing to see him, I think mamma is mean think mamma is mean When she ses dat old Santy Tlaus by yittle girls ain't seen. She dust has put my nighty on an' brought me up to bed, And sed, "Now, Dolly, do to sheep." Yes, ma'am, dat's what she sed she sed.

She sed, "Look at your bruvver and see now nice he sleep." Him's a yazy 'ittle fellow—huh he tan't walk, he treeps;

tan't walk, he treeps; But when I islaps him when I'm mad, mama ses, "Dolly's bold." Him only tame around last year, and I is 4 years old. I dest trept down de parlor stairs to find a place to hide, But, doodness, dracious, I detlare de door was come wide of Providence all its joyousness. The first thing that arrested "Bobby's" attention, and one which he devoutly hoped would prove a

And mama she loots up at me and den she snakes her head. My dracious, she was awful mad, so I ran back to bed. But I's doin to see datt Santy Theme J'll tene surake all wight

omy. Faster beat his heart, while in his throat a pathetic little sob arose, but which he manfully check-ed back, for it was then a full know-ledge of the glad Christmas-tide and what it meant came to him.

Hat I's down to see datt Santy Talas, I'll teep awake all night. No, ma'am. I will not tlose my eyes, I'll teep dem open tight. Well, I went and went to sleep, What will I do, Oh, dear! Now I tan't see dat Santy Tlaus

till Tris'mas tums next year

Bobby's Christmas.

Up the stood he went, now hurry-ing, now faltering, still fearful; but at last his hands clasped the doorknob and turning it, he stepped n the hall. There he paused within the hall. It was christmas eve. An day the sky had been overcast with snow clouds and now the flakes were be ginning to fall fine and fast, pro-mising a good old-fashioned snow-storm and a veritable "white Christ-mes." From early morn until of his parents. "My! something must have happened," said Bobby "and I guess we are going to have a 'Merry Christmas' after all. Ch!" here a sob arose again. "I do hope so, but it seems almost too good to in main timos and want ied on.

good omen, was

brightly in their apartments.

this was somewhat unusual, for the Grahams had thoroughly learned by this time the meaning of strict coon-omy. Faster beat his heart, while a light burning

Nov

with hardly a doubt of a permanent So "Dobby" ingered for awhile and then with a very roriorn little nace indeed turned h.s steps home-ward. And methinks his inoughts were with the dear ones there; what a week's salary. You see your a ther had acquainted him with a father had acquainted him with a father had acquainted him with a subsence? He knew she would be bles are over." worried. He was only a little fel-low, the night was stormy, and time was quickly passing, so he hur-

A happier boy than Bobby. it would have been hard to find that Christmas eve, when everything looked so dark, and he knelt by his bed in all the simplicity and innobed in all the simplicity and inno-cence of childhood, he thanked God for the many blessings He had showered upon them, and for the Merry Christmas they would have on the morrow. And methinks his dreams were sweet that night of the wonfrous lows that carnital How his heart sank as he came within sight of his home, hoping against hope, fearful lest he be dis-appointed again. Wondering if it were sible that through some kind act their fortunes had changed and they would say good-night this Christmas Eve as in for-mer years with happy anticipating hearts, waiting for the morrow with the wondrous joys that awaited them, and of a Saviour born in them, and of a Saviour born in Bethlehem far away! Now, friends, what does this story teach us? It proves as it has prov-en many times before the truth of those old-time adages, "All is dark-est before dawn," and "To twery cloud there's a silver lining." So ought we always put our faith in God, then shall we find the "silver lining" just as patient Bobbw did. lining" just as patient Bobby did.

When was Christ born? About 4000 years after the crea-tion of the world, in the second year of the reign of the Emperor Augustus. Why do priests say three Masses on Christmas Day? To indicate the three-fold birth

three-fold birth

cond, that the spiritual birth of Christ takes place under the influ-ence of His enlightening grace. Why does the priest kneel at the altar at the high Mass on Christ-mas Day when the "Et Incarnatus est" is sung?

Because the article of the creed (credo) contained in the "Et Incernatus natus est" refers to Christmas day in particular, on which day we com-memorate the fact that "Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of the Father, and born from the Father before all eternity. God from God. Light from Light, true God from true God, begotter, and not made. of like substance with the Father, by whom all things were made." and that this Son of God 'on our account and for our salvation des-cended from heaven and He became incarnate (was born)-from the Vir-gin Mary-and was-made-man."gin Mary-and was-Tablet, Brooklyn.

Their Best Christmas.

Guy could not reconcile himself to it at all, but Ruth had great faith in her mother's capabilities to pro-vide a "good time," so when Mrs. Lee said "Don't worry. I promise you that you shall not have a lone-ly Christmas," she was pretty well satisfied satisfied.

As the days flew by the children thought many things very mysteri-ous, but then, is there not always an air of mystery hanging about the house during the last few weeks before Christimas' Great bundles and all sorts of queer, knobbly pack-ages in all kinds of places. Many, many trips to the city; father com-ing into the house through the cel-lar and mother spending all day in town and then walking up from the barn without a thing to show for it.

Christmas eve and the smell of turkey, plum pudding, cranberry sauce and all sorts of good things to eat filled the old farm kitchen.

Christmas morning they all went to Mass. The snow lay deep and the sun shone upon it until it sparkled like diamonds. The sleigh bells made merry music and the air was just keen and cold enough to make one feel good.

"What a grand day! The ice cried just first-class for skating," who was in great spirits. Guy. vish it could be Christmas all the time." "But, mother," said Ruth, who was a very thoughtful, earnest lit-tle lady for one of her age, "don't you know it makes me feel very sad when I think of all these very shi you know it makes me feel very sad when I think of all these poor chil-dren that the pricest talked about, so sad that I don't feel as if I could enjoy myself at all to-day. I'm sure the turkey will not taste so good when we think of so many with nothing but dry bread and perhaps not enough of that to sa-tisfy their hunger. And how can Guy and I get any pleasure out of our great Christmas tree when we know of so many children who will not have a single present? You know of so many children who will not have a single present? You know the priest said there were chil-dren who had never, in all their lives, known what a visit from San-ta, Claus was. But I can hardly be-ta, Claus was. But I can hardly be-lives, knowns. But I can hardly to ta Claus was. But I can hardly to live that, can you, mother?'' "Yes, dear, I'm afraid it's all true. But you must not let such thoughts spoil your day. Father and I would feel very sorry if we thought you were not having a mer-ry Christmas, but you need not for-get what you heard this morning, get what you heard and, next Christmas, get what you heard this mean in the second are buying presents, you can do some-thing 'towards making it happy for dinner.

Murray. His mother took in wash-ing, and Johnnie's eyes sparkled as he thought how he would dash through the snow when he had his heavy basket tied on that sled. Murray. ing, and

Is couldn't tell of all the beautiful and useful presents that were taken off that tree. Of course. Ruth and Guy had ever so meany, for all the older children had remembered the folks at home and sent pretty gifts, as they were not able to bring them. But pleased as were the twins with accur, present these and Guy had ever so many, for all the older children had remembered the folks at home and sent pretty gifts, as they were not able to bring them. But pleased as were the twins with every present they received, I really believe that the presents the other children received pleased them still more, or rather, seeing the other children's joy at their good fortune. It would have been hard to have their good fortune. It would have been hard to have found a happier lot of little folks than Mr. Lee drove to their homes that night. They all had hot cof-fee and plum cake before they left and each carried a little basket full of candy, fruit and nuts for those at home.

"Well, does my little daughter feel better satisfied now?" asked Mrs. Lee as the sounds of the sleigh bells died away.

"O, mother, it was lovely! Just lovely! How did you keep it so quiet? And how in the world did you find out so well just what each one needed and would like?"

"One can do a great deal in six weeks when one tries. It has kept me pretty busy, but next year I shall have a little helper, I feel sure," answered Mrs. Lee, with a smile at her happy-faced daughter

"You may feel sure of two help-ers, mother." said Guy, "for this is the very best Christmas I have ever had."

Offer Your Protest.

Never read an insult to your faith an assault upon Christian virtue an aspersion of your honor as a ser-vant of Christ, without at once sending a letter, or at least, a post-card to the publisher, insisting that he has wronged you and humanity and God, says the Missionary. This and God, says the Missionary. This is a small price to pay for your in-dulgence in the pleasure of reading. If you will not pay it, perhaps you will later have to pay the price of losing your faith and your soul. But if you do protest, if only all but a you do protest, it only all the Catholics in America protested, doubtless this would purchase, the redemption of our age. The press is our master, our slave, our most intimate associate, our liberator, our despot, our enjoyment, our pun-ishment. It is very likely to prove our ruin. But through the perse-vering expression of righteous wrath on the part of enlightened Catholics it can become our salvation

New Papal Knight.

The Archbishop of Melbourne has publicly conferred in his cathedral the insignia of the Order of St. Gregory upor, the Hon. John Gavan Duffy. The new Papal Knight is, of course, a son of that best known of Irish-Australians, Sir Charles Gavan Duffy. Gavan Duffy-- name remembered in stormy political history in connec-tion with the Nation newspaper and the '44 movement, and then, by a strange translation, in the Imperial

Orders in Germany.

HURSDAY, DE

Book

New Year's bruties, and the New Total duties, and the be looking forwar presents. We we graphs to sugges which would ma sonable gifts.

which is a stranged spin and gifts. It was Francis wrote: "Grief is yrity, the sorrow by its proportion gash is as painfi putation to ano die into a thim into Etna: both tain overflow. not he angels were not angels at them?" And sent writer's exa fairy stories and can be as true a most genuine pin We have not f most genuine più We have not f a tale of school sure as "The B by R. P. Garre Evans, price 3 prightly interess painting, the ta a Catholic Colle other excellences History Society, The interest of on the fortunes

the fortunes

mates of this Belgian hare, w sor, Blessington, more select of t self-styled the "

(at first passiv very active, "gang" which cluded the less p of the school. T these two part consequences, stances of the were no small cellent fight, and much boyish up to a happy is pathos blend ac whole book less whole book lee one's lost boyho education is no and study: boys finish one anoth in every schoo singtons and. Mo

A story to del young and old!

From the same

i

small f

you sleep." Diphtheria, Catarda, VAPORIZED CRESOLRNE stops the arroxysms of Whoopring Cough. Reverdread d Group cannot create and the stop and the sort of the stop of the source of colds so thes the sort throat and stops the cough CRESOLENK is a powerful the cough the stop of the sort throat and stops the sort in a state of the sort throat and stops the sort and the sort throat and stops the source of the stop of the sort throat and stops the sort in a state of the sort throat the sort throat commendations. CRESOLENE's these some source of the sort throat the sort throat sort the sort throat the sort throat sources of sort of your drugging of from us, for in stamps. THE LEEMING-MILES CO., Limited,

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1909

Canadian Agents, Leeming-Miles Building, Montreal, Can

To discern and deal immediately with causes and overcome them, ra-ther than to battle with effects af-ter the disease has secured a lodg-ment, is the chief aim of the medi-cal man, and Bickle's Anti-Consump-tive Syrup is the result of patient study along this particular line. At study along this particular line. At Syrup will be found a most efficient remedy, arresting development and syrup will be found a most efficient remedy, arresting development and speedily healing the affected parts, so that the ailment disappears.

A Trip to Alaska.

A trip to Alaska is one seldom undertaken by the people in the Bir-tish Isles, and of the many book-ings undertaken by the Grand Trunk Railway officials in London, few tickets show the destination to be that part far north of Canada, where coal and gold, together with meteorological observations, are often supposed to be the chief rea-son for the existence of that hand. That such a trip can be made with little out of the ordinary fatigue of travelling is well proved by the re-cent communication sent to Mr. Fred C. Salter, European Traffic Mana-from Mr. Bromley Challenor, F.R.G. S., who has just returned from the northwestern limit of the North American continent. The letter has an added interest by reason of the fact that on the Grand Trunk Rail-way's new offices at 17-19 Cock-spur Street, S.W., Mr. Challenor fact that on the day of the official opening of the Grand Trunk Rail-way's new offices at 17-19 Cock-spur Street, S.W., Mr. Challenor was the first person to book a pas-sage with the Company for Canada. On Dominion Day (July 1st) the On Dominion Day (July 1st) the trip was planned and provision made for the journey, and, in the first week in October, back in England again, the well-known geogragher has been pleased to write to the Grand Trunk offices expressing his entire satisfaction with the easy way in which the journey was ac-complished. After thanking his means of transportation pleasant and com-fortable, he says: "I was very of transportation pleasant and com-fortable, he says: "I was very pleased, indeed, with both the road and rolling stock of your Company, and in my opfnion it is second to none on the Continent of America. The arrangements you made for me very much added to my rice arrangements you made for me very much added to my comfort and enabled me to reach my destination in the quick-est possible time, and I must say I experienced the greatest civility from the Company's staff during my pressure on Your read. The reute passage on your road. The route you worked out for me was a most you worked out for me was a most interesting one, and coming back as I did over the Rockies and the Great Lakes, I did not travel over a single mile a second time except the short run between Samia and To-the short run between Sarnia and To-ronto. Will you be good enough to send me particulars of your 'Round the World Tours.' I am thinking that next spring I may have anoth-er run out to the West, and iI do. I should like to return home via the East.'' Thus the whole of Great Putten is quickly out in teach by the past. This the whole of order Britain is quickly put in teach by this great railway system, with what frequently is said to be the ut-termost parts of the earth.—Dublin (Ireland) Daily Express, Oct. 19, 1000 1909 volume of differe of the Faith" ( Bede Camm, whi lish martyrs we phasize. His li phasize. His li rected to making der known, an der known, an enthusiasm glow he has written. consists of confe good nuns of Pe the Blessed Sacu vent stands only the site of Tybe hourly prayer is of England. "Aid the land th Which feels the curse Ye died if so ye In six chapter studies of the s tyrdoms of the six territe contum roes of the shi teenth century Martyrs of Assis the footsteps of realized the mea Friars Rich and rest, Father He Bell, to mention next chapter we cription of the emation on the p

"When God was man's mouth Stolen was the thing thowards making it happy for some of those poor little ones." The children wondered where their father had gone, in the big sleigh. They could get no satislactory in-formation from their mother and Guy was getting worried for fear he would not be back in time for When they heard the bells they ran ble. Of course, dinner lasted quite a time when there was so much to eat; so very many good things. As the twins looked around they found they knew all their guests. They were children from the town where they went to school; in fact, strange translation, in the Imperial history of thirty years later as that of a Colonial Prime Minister. It was as private secretary to his father during his Premiership of Victoria that Mr. John Gavan Duffy (like his brothers a Stonyhurst boy)gain-ed his own first insight into public dinner. When they heard the bells 'ney ran to the window and were rearly speechless with surprise, for the long sleigh was completely filled with children. There was no time to ask questions, for dinner was ready but Guy counted nine boys and nine girls when they were seated at that ble. dinner lasted quite a commonwealth. tives sent to th Australia befor Commonwealth.

Caught Cold By Working

Christmas Catechism.

As the days flew by the children.

It was Christmas eve. All day the mas." From early morn until night the streets had been thronged with happy shoppers, hurrying to and fro, each one intent upon reach-ing his or her own particular des-tination. Shop windows were ablaze with lights, and one could see the busy salespeople rushing hither and thither, while the customers jostled the stai one another in their eagerness to be fulness a waited upon. In front of one of the windows

In front of one of the windows stood a boy about 12 years of age, poorly but neatly dressed, gazing with a longing and admiration at the tempting goods displayed and wishing that he. too, and Bore and Teddy, could all have a "Merry Christmas" on the morrow. For some time past things had looked pretty dark for Pobby and his fami-ly, with no bright or definate out-look for the future. Poor little fel-low! How he had thought and planmed, honed and trusted—aye im-plicitly trusted in his yours heart that something, would eventually turn un and he would be able to welcome the morrow widh a glad that something, would eventually turn un and he would be able to welcome the morrow with a glad "Morry Christmas." Now the Genehemes hed once been in confectable electronistances, but also the unfortunate chance which some-times second to follow in die lines of spinne brows hereas a de hot over-tant them and where electro and comfort had releval, there stamped

So with a light heart he ascended the stairs, a little of the old fear-fulness still mestling within him, and entered the room.

and entered the room. "Well, Bobby, where have you been at this late hour? I was be-ginning to feel very much worried about you," said his mother. "Time for you to have been in long ago." "Yes, I know, mother, but I for-got all about it looking at the pret-ty things in the windows and wish-ing that Rose ard Teddy and I were going to have a 'Merry Christmas' to-morrow."

"And so upu shall, my son," re-plied the father. "And mother says we're going to hang up our stockings and Santa Claus, will fill them," chimed in Rose

'Are we really, mother?'' asked Bobby

"Yes, my child. The unexpected has happened; success at last has crowned your bother's carrest efforts and our untiring faith. By mere socident he met an old friend to-day who offered him a position—of Christ, our Lord, according to the distinction of the two natures, and also of the graces which He confers on us. Of which birth does the first Mass remind us?

It reminds us of Itis Fivine birth from His Heavenly Father, according to His divine nature. The second Mass? Of the temporal birth of ('hrist of the Virgin Mary according to His human nature. The third? Of the spiritual birth of Christ in the hearts of Christians by His

a the hearts of Christians by His acraments and grace. Why does the Church have Mass t midnight on Christmas Day? First-To indicate that the eternal with of Christ is, for us, hidden in birth of Christ is, bor us, hidden in mystery; second, because Christ was born at midnight: third, to indicate that those who lived under the laws of nature, were as yet walking in spiritual darkness. Why is the second Mass celebrated early in the morning at the break of day?

early in the morning at the break of day? First-To indicate that those who lived under the law of Moses, like the shepherds to whom the birth of Christ was announced, did not have as clear a knowledge of God as we have; second, becausy the shepherds came about davin to Beth-lehem to adore the new Yorn Christ. Why is the third Mass celebrated at broad daylight? To indicate: first, that the birth of Christ has given us the broad light of the knowledge of God; se-

"O, how lovely!" "I never saw such a sight." exclaimed the little ones. As for Ruth and Guy, they really seemed as surprised and delighted as if they had never had a Christmas tree before and ladn't expected one them. But when the tree commen-ed to shed its fruit the joy was foo deep for words. For each girl there was a lovely, large doll, beautifully dressed, and for each boy a fine chest of tools. Then there were many useful things and each one seemed to get just what would have for a sleeted if the ohoice had toen offered. Such a nice, warm frock for Jer-nie Farwell, all ready to wear, and invasion." However, this increase in many useful things and each one seemed to get just what would have been selected if the choice had been offered. Such a nice, warm frock for Jen-nie Farwell, all ready to wear, and a pair of staut shoes for her bro-ther. Charlie, and with sleates tranned on too! Then there was a sled for Johnnie

In Water. A Distressing, Tickling Sensa-

As the twins in the setting room, after dinner, they made trapid progress in getting better acquainted. All of a sudden the great folding doors were thristmas tree. What as sight! Reaching almost to the ceil-ing, lit from top to bottom and laden with gifts. "Ian't it grand!" "O, how lovely!" "I never saw such as gemed as surprised and delighted as seemed as surprised and seemed as s tion In The Throat. Mr. Albert MacPhee, Chignecto Mines, N.S., writes:-"In Oct., 1908, I caught cold by working in water, and had a very bad cough and that distressing, tickling sensation in my throat so I could not sleep at night, and my lungs were so very sore I had to give up work. Our doctor gave me medicine but it d.d me no good so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and by the time I had used two bottles I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends.'

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup com-bines the potent healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbest, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Sore Throat, Pain or Tightness in the Chest, and all Chester of the cure of th Aroat, Pain or Tightness in the Chest, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Beware of imitations of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Ask for it and innist on getting what you ask for. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and the price 25

Manufactured only by The T. Milbure

and drouth Went to and fro Struck root the jail."

Reading these ] dreadful misery a upon the poor o national apostac; national aposta St. Paul of the land! Let u England! Let u It is now fifty ; prayed constantl sion. Will God back to the Fa and leave the re England indeed Magdalen bewa a magoalen bewa Lord, but were cheer her, to am Hope? There w these Angels of were the gallant tius, Alexander Campion, Fabherr rowsmith, of " Campion, Father, rowsmith, of " the anointed Kim the harbingers of the promises of the are our heroice weet Margaret to death at Yor and Anne Lyne, suffered for havin phet in the name Lastly, Dom O tory of Arobbis mate of Ireland, martyrs of Tyb bered confirmatio the woods and ra and one of whom b proud." With Importers of Church Ornaments.

curse Ve died if so we might revers

ht Cold

DECEMBER 28, 1909

resolen.

For Whooping

Cough, Croup, Sore Threat,

Coughs, Bron-chitis, Colds, Diphtheria, Catarrh,

p.** Diphtheris, Catari, CRESCOLENE Stops the hooping with the cand threat exist ends the cand threat easy in these cand threat easy in the cand threat a curative and prevents a curative and prevent

G-MILES CO., Limited, adian Agents, s Building, Montreal, Can.

and deal immediately

nd overcome them, ra-battle with effects af-e has secured a lodg-chief aim of the medi-Bickle's Anti-Consump-the result of Bickle's Anti-Consump-the result of patient. his particular line. At bearance of a cold the found a most efficient

and seldom

Mana-

ing developm ling the affected parts

ilment disappears

to Alaska.

Maska is one seidors, the people in the liri-nd of the many book-and by the Grand Trunk als in London, few he destination to be far north of Canada, d gold, together with observations, are observations, are to be the chief rea-kistence of that hand, rip can be made with he ordinary fatigue of vell proved by the re-ation sent to Mr. Fred propean Traffic Mana-

ropean Traffic

Forean Traffic Mana-Grand Trunk Railway, nley Challenor, F.R.G. just returned from the limit of the North inent. The letter has inent. The letter has rest by reason of the the day of the official he Grand Trunk Rail-fices at 17-19 Cock-S.W., Mr. Challenor person to book a pas-Compeany for Canada. Day (July 1st) the ed and provider model.

Day (July 1st) the eed and provision made eed and provision made y, and, in the first ber, back in England Il-known geogragher ed to write to the offices expressing his action with the easy the journey was ac-fiter thanking the rail-for making his means ion pleasant and com-ays: "I was very l, with both the road oek of your Company, inion it is second to Continent of America.

Continent of America. ents you made for me added to my added to my nd enabled me stination in the quick-me, and I must say I the greatest civility any's staff during my any's stall during my ur road. The route at for me was a most, and coming back as e Rockies and the I did not travel over a second time except stween Sarnia and To-ub er good enough to tween Sarnia and lo-nu be good enough to ulars of your 'Round rs.' I am thinking ug I may have anoth-the West, and if I do, to return home via us the whole of Great skly put in teuch by way system, with way system, with y is said to be the ut-of the earth.-Dublin y Express, Oct. 19, laska is one

other excellences boasted a Natural History Society, and a menagerie. The interest of the story depends on the fortunes of one of the in-mates of this last-Pygmalion, a mates of this last-rygmanton, a Belgian hare, whose proud posses-sor, Blessington, was leader of the more select of the St. Batt's boys, self-styled the "Set." In opposition (at first passive and in the end very active, to these was the "gang" which (duce McGinley) in "gang" the lase pretentious spiritis (at first passive and in the end very active, to these was the "gang" which (duce McGinley) in cluded the less pretentious spirits of the school. The rivalry between these two parties led to serious consequences, in which the circum-stances of the demise of Pygmalion were no small factor; there's an ex-cellent fight. an exciting escanade

| orking   | Stolen was the bread; then hungerand drouth                           | Christina Rosetti, Aubrey de Vere,Kegan Paul, G. K. Chesterton, Fr.  | -Lugene Field.   | testify to the great antiquity of theshrine. By reason of the light it   |  | Importers of Church Ornaments, Bronzesand Altar Wines,                           |
|--|---|--|--|--|--|--|
| ater.  | Went to and fro; began the wailStruck root the poor-house and the     | Tabb, May Probyn and Emily Hick-ev. There are included translations  | A CHRISTMAS PRAYER.  | is a good thing to visit Santa Ma-ria Maggiore on Christmas Day, for     | Three million copies of Dr. A. W.Chase's Calendar Almanac for 1410   | Manufacturers of Banners, Flags, Linens,Way of the Oross and Statues.            |
| alen   | jail."  | from the Greek, Latin, French andGerman, besides two or three beau-  | Mary Mother, be good to him;                                     | the sombre gloom of its aisles isrelieved by candles and electricity.    | are now being sent out through Ca-nada and the United States. The  | Specialty; Church Decorations, FuneralHangings and Religious Articles for        |
| g, Tickling Sensa-   | Reading these pages, one sees what  | tiful old carols. Bishop Amherst's   |  | Here is preserved the great relicof Bethlehem, the crib or manger of     | editor's aim has always been to  | Pilgrimages and Missions.  |
| The Throat.  | dreadful misery and evil was broughtupon the poor of England by the   | translation from an old Greek poem-''I am a Babe, Fear Not,'' is par-  | That he has been away!   | our Infant Saviour; this is why the  | make of this book a useful, instruc-tive home companion. This year   | 14 & 16 Noire Bame Sireei West,  |
| cPhee, Chignecto Mines,  | national apostacy, and can cry withSt. Paul of the Cross, "O England, | ticularly fine.We cannot refrain from quoting Fr   | I promised him a world of toysIf he would only stay—         | good Romars flock in crowds to paytheir devotions to the hallowed        | with enormous expense, they haverealized their ideal and compiled the  | MONTHEAL.  |
| In Oct. 1908. I caught   | England! Let us pray for England.   | Tabb, who has already won a wide   | Sure, heaven's full of little boys                               | shrine which speaks to them so elo-quently of the Divine Infant, for     | most remarkable book of its kindever published.  | DI IW DI   |
| in water, and had aand that distressing,   | It is now fifty years since I haveprayed constantly for her conver-   | reputation for his pretty littleverses, delicately chiselled cherry-   | That sing and laugh and play.                                    | nearer to Bethlehem they can not   | A. W. Chase, the respected old   | Blood Was Bad.   |
| in my throat so 1  | sion. Will God one day bring herback to the Faith? Let us pray        | stones-  | But you would know the smile of                                  | be then kneeling beside the wood ofthe manger which gave its rough       | physician, is perhaps better knownas the famous receipt book author.   |  |
| at night, and my lungs   | and leave the rest to God."   | "A little boy of Heavenly birth  | Among a thousand more;   | shelter to the tender body of theSon of God in the pitiless cold of      | in which he condensed for the bene-fit of humanity a life study of the   | From impure blood comes Pimples,Boils, Ulcers, Tumors, Abscesses, Fester-        |
| Thad to give up work.me medicine but it dd   | England indeed was in those daysa Magdalen bewailing the loss of her  | But far from home to-day,Comes down to find his ball, the  | His smile will make all else seem dim                            | that first Christmas midnight.   | human system. wis most successful  | ing Sores, Rashes, Constipation, Head-   |
| at a bottle of Dr. Wood s  | Lord, but were there no angels tocheer her, to announce a gospel of   | earth,That sin has cast away.  | When you call him "Asthore."                                     | Touchingly beautiful is the associa-tion, that in the largest church in  | prescriptions are performing won-derful cures and are in such constant   | Get pure blood and keep it pure byremoving every trace of impure morbid          |
| rup and by the time lbottles I was entirely  | Hope? There were indeed, andthese Angels of the Second Spring         | O comrades let us one and all  | Sure, you will know him by his                                   | the world, dedicated to our BlessedMother, the relics of the crib of her | and great demand that The Dr. A.W.Chase Medicine Company have  | matter from the system by using  |
| vays recommending it to  | were the gallant sons of St. Igna-  | The Catholic Truth Society, Lon-   | That are so sweet and blue,                                      | Divine Child should be preserved ;and our hearts turn with loving de-    | their hands full to meet it. These   | BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.   |
| orway Pine Syrup com-  | tius, Alexander Bryant, EdmundCampion, Fathers Southwell and Ar-      | don, are the publishers.   | And deep and clear and very wise-They read the heart or you. | retion to the spot where Mother  | remedies have stood the test ofover fifty years and are still tri-   | Mrs. Fred. Biggs, Kingston, Ont.,writes:"I was completely run down-              |
| hoaling virtues of the   | rowsmith, of "the purple dynasty.   | A. B. PURDIE.All books reviewed in this column   | His hair is golden as the sun;His curls they are so quaint   | and Son are alike honored in thatbeautiful human the which binds         | umphantly marching over the headsof all imitations and substitutes,  | my blood was out of order, and I used togot so weak I would be compelled to stay |
| e with other absorbent,soothing medicines of   | the naroingers of auproauting course                                      | may be procured at Milloy's BookStore, 241 St. Catherine street,   | They mind you of the halo on                                     | the Pahe of Bethlehem so near to   | proving themselves absolutely aloneon the highest pinnacle of success.   | in bed for weeks at a time. I could not  |
| and is absolutely name   | the promise of the day! Then there are our heroines of the Faith also,    | West.  | An angel or a saint.   | The church is situated in one of   | The diary contest for $200 in gold  | eat, was pale and thin; every one thoughtI was going into consumption. I triest  |
| d safe for the cure ofBronchitis, Croup, Sore  | sweet Margaret Clitheroe, crushedto death at York, Margaret Ward      |  | I promised him a splendid tree,With candles, all aglow.      | the highest parts of Rome, in a  | is again a feature in this issue of the lmanac. In past years thou-  | everything and different doctors until a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood      |
| Tightness in the Cheser  | and Anne Lyne, all three of whom  | C Antimore Insertion 2   | Oh Mary Mother, you can see                                      | time mazza. of store it, crowned   |  | Bitters. I did not have one bottle   |
| J Lung Troubles.   | suffered for having "received a pro-phet in the name of a prophet."   | THAVING DESIGNS A"   | "Twas me that loved him so.And surely, surely you will see   |  | opportunity. By so doing they have   | I used six bottles. I gained ten poundsin two weeks. When I began to take it     |
| itations of Dr. Wood'syrup. Ask for it and   | Lastly, Dom Camm tells us thestory of Archbishop Plunket, Pri-        | ENGRAVINGS DONE  | My boy so sweet and slim-His eyes are hungering for me       | over the city and the basilica sospecially dedicated to her honor.       | kept an accurate record of their dailylife, which is invaluable to them.   | I only weighed ninety-three pounds. Itjust seemed to pull me from the grave as I |
| Lat worth ask IOL.   | mate of Ireland, the last of the  | SHOULD APPLY TO  | As my eyes are for him.  | specially dedicated to the   | In fact they request the return of   | never expected to be strong again.   |
| ow wrapper, three pinemark, and the price 25   | martyrs of Tyburn, who "adminis-bered confirmations to thousands in   | LAPRESSE PUB.CO.   | Mary Mother, be good to him;                                     |  | If you do not receive a copy of  | will tell every sufferer of your wonderfulmedicine."                             |
| No. Construction of the second s | the woods and mountains heedlessof winds and rain. A great soul       | TO BE REAL TO SEE THE REAL CONTRACTORS AND A REAL PROPERTY OF THE REAL P | Be kind to him that day."Twill be the only Christmas time    | Corns cause much suffering, but  | this almanac, the publishers, Edman-son, Bates & Co., Toronto, will  | For sale by all designs.Manufactured only by The T. Milburg                      |
| only by The T. Milburs   | and one of whom Trishmon may well   | Engravers to the TRUE WITTERS  | That he has been a.way.  |  | mail you one post-paid on receipt of your name and address.  | Co., Limited, Toronio, Ont.  |
|  | be proud." With him was brought   |  | W. D. N.   | speedy, sure and saverage y received   | And the second s |  |

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

A Christmas

Agreement

"My dear, there's nothing in it." It was two weeks before Christ-mas. Dimpleton, sitting in his arm-chair after dinner, read the Christ-mas list that his wife had handed him. "I suppose," he continued, "that the thing must be done. These peo-ple have given us presents and we must reciprocate. As for me, it takes all the sentiment out of it. I don't believe in any of it." Mrs. Dimpleton straightened up decisively and looked at her hus-band.

hand. sometimes wish, she observed

"that we could get along without it for one year."

for one year." Dimpleton sprang up. To have his wife say a thing like this was a sudden prospect of joy. "We can!" he exclaimed. "Why not! Why not announce that we are giving no Christmas presents-not to a living soul--and stick to it? People won't think any the less of it--they will respect us all the more. Let's try it. I will if you will." Mrs. Dimpleton looked the list ov-er abstractedly.

Mrs. Dimpleton looked the insert er abstractedly. "It's certainly worth trying for," she observed. "I dread all this shopping. Why, just think, my dear, what it would mean; no fuss, no ring what to give, no expense." "It's Heaven !" cried Dimpleton. "Why, it's all the difference between happiness and misery. We simply "Why, it's all the difference between happiness and misery. We simply must do it. Come now, say you will-absolutely, you remember. No tips of any kind to the, servants. Nothing to anybody-not even to Aunt Jane's children. Once establish a precedent and the world will be with us. My dear, just say you will." be added appendingly. "for us. My dear, just say you he added appealingly, "for will. once ?"

Mrs. Dimpleton thought. Finally

Mrs. Dimpleton thought. Finally she made up her mind. "All right," she said. "I will. We'll make no presents-not even to each other. I promise." "And so do I. Isn't it a grand thought? Why, I feel like a boy again. The thirg was already be-ginning to get on my nerves." The next day and the next and the next Dimpleton went down to his office with a light heart. Little by little he and his wife contrived to let everybody know that they were let everybody know that they were not making any presents this year-positively.

positively. A week passed by. One evening Dimpleton was de-tained at his office for a short time-just long enough, however, to make it neckssary for him to get his dinner alone. He determined to have as good a dinner of the determined to have a good a energing an hour later from the restaurant, he sauntered along the street with that delightful feeling a man has after having dined well.

Christmas was in the air.

Christmas spirit was beginning to invade evety heart. Crowds of shop-pers hurried along laden with bun-dles. Windows were brilliant with good things. It suddenly occurred to Dimpleton hat something was the matter with

It suddenly occurred to Dimpieson that something was the matter with him. Somehow he did not seem to be a part of the universal spirit. Then, all at once, like a shock, it came to him that he was an excep-tion-he was different from the rest. stopped short on the street

He stopped short on the street corner. "After all," he said to himself, "there ought to be a little Christ-mas spirit left in me. It's too bad to squelch it all. Besides, I don't know but it's really a good thing to let one's self loose once a year. It makes us more unselfish. But Irene! It wouldn't ever do to let her know. No-I will got her a present-con-ceal if for hen-and when I tell her that just for her I have broken my promise, I am sure that she won't hold it up against me." And so for the next hour Dimple-ton searched the shops for some-thing to give Mrs. Dimpleton. This experience put him in a thorcorn

This experience put him in a thor-This experience put him in a chor-oughly bad way. Somehow, in the next few days he found himself be-coming more and more infected with the Christmas spirit. Try as he model it gradually got the best of more and more infected with hristmas spirit. Try as he it gradually got the best of

"So did I." "And I gave the cook five dollars. "So did I. I guess I've done eve rything you have." Dimpleton held his wife sternly at

membrance-only about five dollars'

Dimpleton held his whe seemly at arm's length. "My dear," he said, solemnly, "for Heaven's sake, don't ever let's make any more anti-Christmas promises again. Why, it's cost us almost twice as much this year as it did last." last !

Local and Diocesan News.

REV. MARTIN CALLAGHAN'S LECTURE.—Owing to great pressure on our columns this week we were obliged to hold over until next week the lecture on the "Study of Irish Music", deliveed by the Rev. Martin Callaghan, in St. Ann's Hall on Tuesday evening.

INTERESTING CEREMONY .- On INTERESTING CERTANONY.-On Sunday evening last a very large congregation assisted at the bless-ing of the new Way of the Cross at St. Michael's Church. These sta-tions, which are a most valuable work, are the gift of Mrs. Douglas, a parishioner. Father Dunstan, O. F.M., was the preacher of the occa-

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The annual election of officers of St. Lawrence Court, No. 263, C.O.F., was held in Monument National Hall Lawrence on Monday, Dec. 13th, and resulted on Monday, Dec. 13th, and resulted ir. the following officers being elect-ed, all umanimously: Chief Ranger, Bro. M. J. Cavanagh; Past Chief Ranger, Bro. M. M. J. Flanagan; Vice Chief Ranger, Bro. R. Bennett, Recording Secretary, Bro. T. W. Maguire; Financial Secretary, Bro. A. F. Demay; Treasurer, Bro. G. A. Bilot; Orator, Bro. F. F. Rummens; Trustees, Bros. Flynn, O'Brien and Glennen; Auditors, Bros. Rummens, Flynn and O'Brien. Flynn and O'Brien.

Fiym and O'Brien. After elections a pleasant game of euchre was played with the mem-bers of St. Patrick's Court, No. 95, which brought to a close a very enjoyable evening for both courts.

C. O. F. HOLDS EUCHRE.-OT C. O. F. HOLDS EUCHRE.—On Friday verning. December 17th, St. Johns Court, No. 1423, Catholic Or-der of Foresters held a very success-ful stag euchre in their hall, corner of St. Lawrence and St. Louis streets streets. The prizes were very fine turkeys, being quite appropriate for this time of year. After a few remarks by Fr. Monaghan, ex pro Court Dir., W. J. Cherry Pres. Pro. Court Dir., and Bro. M. J. O'Brien, the game commenced and at the end of 12 holy contested but best humored cames the wirners were as follows games the wirners were as follows, in the order named : L. Roe, D. The Edmonsor, Hagerson, J. Courchene, W. J. McAdams and E.Hoolaghan. There were 30 tables playing and every one thoroughly enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE. -Dear Rev. Father. I have been instructed by Div. No. 2, B. of E., to forward you the following reso-lution passed at our last regular meeting. Whereas, it has pleased Almighty midst the

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst the beloved father of our highly es-teemed and revered pastor, the Rev. Father Kiernan; Therefore be it resolved, That we, the members of Div. No. 2, A.O.H., do hereby tender our deep, sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the Rev. Father Kiernan, his rev. sister and relatives, realizing that by the death of their deeply lamented father, the relatives, realizing that by the death of their deeply lamented father, the Church has lost on earth a devoted and zealous son, the city a valued and trusted citizen and those , who knew him, one who had endeared and trusted citizen and those, who knew him, one who had endeared himself to everyone he came in con-tact with during the course of his long and honorable career; Resolved, That a copy of this re-solution be sent to the Rev. Father Kiernan, P.P., St. Michael's, The True Witness, and also spread in the Minute Book. W. D. BURNS,

The Kindness of a Priest.

(A True Story.)

(A True Story.) It was the noble Archbishop Cor-"igen, of New York, who saids "Like the waves of the occan, ever forming, ever breaking, on the sandy shore, this principle of Christian charity, once divinely set in mo-tion, never afterward knows rest or ending." Now, there is charity and cheaching. There is the kind that does its good work, and then refuses to tell the world of its doing; and the kind that sounds its own fulsome notes of praise. There is the sweet angelic charity of the gentle Sister at the bedside of the sick; and the Phari-sic, self-interested of the benefactor "with an axe to grind." Father B.- is not a millionaire; yet his is priest, his was the deed of genuine neighbor-love and veritable soul-kindness. In fact, his is an Irish-Candian love-and there is the key! It happened Christmas, only three pring and really in a city of hate-gration of a writer of legends, but truly and really in a city of Onta-rio. The hero is still alive, hale and hearty, an exceedingly zealous pastor of souls. But it was not he that told us the story; nor did his housekeeper, as gentle an old woman as she is, God bless her!

The winter, that year, had begun with fury, and many a poor home had already felt its cruel bite. While many, the very many, rejoiced in warm, well-lighted, comfortable warm, well-lighted, comtortable homes, others, alas! suffered, yet blessed the will of God. Christmas day had come; indeed, the day was half spent. It was at the noon-hour, and the griest was very tired. The whole previous day he had been employed in the sacred works of the ministry-hearing confessions, visit-ing the sick, seeing his darling school children, cheering the ill-favored of ing the sick, seeing his daring school children, cheering the ill-favored of earthly fortune. He had read the three Masses of the day of days, had preached twice to his parishion-ers; had broken the bread of eternal salvation with them; had met hun-dreds of them, with a fatherly word for each parking more fatherly. dreds of them, with a latherly word for each, perhaps more fatherly in the case of the wayward, cheering the burdened with sorrow, and urg-ing the luckier unto thankfulness to God.

Christmas carols, certuries olde than religious upheavals, had been sung, and old men and young, and pure little girls, with their good pure little girls, with their good mothers and chaste sisters, had kneit before the Crib of Bethelehem's Holy Babe. In many a warm and gorgeous home, the favored of for-tune were in rapture over their choice of presents, and richly clad children were blimbing the knees of wealthy grandsires, the while soft-ening strains of gentle music filled the household, to the obl gato of light-hearted chat and laughter.

but not far from the parish Ah! Ani but not far from the parsis chusch, in a poor, if neat, old dwel-ling, lived a God-fearing, God-loving aged Irishman, sick and palsied; and yet, as is the wont of our Irish kich and kin, mindful of God, even in wind of God. trial, of God Whose only Son had not a stone whereupon to lay His adorable head; blessing the name of his Maker, like Holy Job, though he wanted and suffered; with no other earthly helper but his venerable old wife, and nothing but the scantiest for a meal of the holiday. And yet could they have spoken to you and to me, dear reader, in the words of Jesus: "O ye of little faith!" The Church hells were now pealtrial, of God Whose only Son had heart! But dinner was ready in the presbytery; a well-roasted turkey, the gift of a friend, lay upon the table inviting the carving kmile-and the priset, after the long fast and the hard work. Now, Father B. is not of those who live to eat; he took the kmile, cut the turkey In two, rolling the lion's share in a mapkin; and, before his housekeeper -it weis safer, perhaps!-could graap the situation, he had bounded through the back door, hurriedly crossing the lawn at the side of the heart!

Josus: "O ye of little faith!" The Church bells were now peal-ing forth their joyous notes upon the air, while chattering voices at the church door spoke but mirth and pleasure and freedom from came. Far ther B. had met his parishioners, and, although he smiled and sang a snatch of Christmas song, his heart was elsewhere, by the old fire-side, at the sick-bed of his faithful, if poor, old Irish friend and admir-er. The priest's heart! The priest's heart!

How dear to this heart is the stock-ing of childhood when fond recollection presents it to view ! On Christmas St. Nick came from frost whitened wildwood with every loved toy which mv infancy knew. The wide spreading chimney, the shed which stood by it, a horse and some books—I remember them all --a doll for my sister, and baby house a don for my steer, and baby holes migh it, and then the full stocking which bung on the wall---the Santa Claus stocking the bountiful stocking the Christmas morn stocking which hung the wall! The well stuffed en-velope I hailed as a treasure as early that morning I opened my eyes and found there the source of an exquisite pleasure, the purest and sweetest that nature supplies. How ardent I seized it with hands that were glowing and back to my white sheeted bed went with all, soon, with the emblems of love overflowing, was happy in what to my lot did befall- -the Santa Claus stocking, the generous stocking, the Christmas morn stocking which hung on the wall! How sweet through its round open top to explore it as poised on my k n e e it inclined to my view ! N ot a hot, tempting breakfast could make me ignore it for longer at most than a minute or two. And now, far removed from the loved situation, the tear of regret will intrusively fall as fancy reverts to my youth's habitation and sighs o'er the stocking which hung on the wall---the Santa Clausstocking, the plethoric stock-Clausstocking, the plethoric stock-ing, the Christmas morn stocking which hung on the wall ! But grown people fud there's a later sensation as grateful as any they felt long ago. It comes when they witness the glad exultation which on Christmas morning their own off-spring show. And now, dear old Santa Claus, let me petition your favour for children, both large ones and small. Bring all the bright hopes to the fullest fruition that rest in each stocking which hangs on the wall --- the wealthy child's stocking, the poor urchin's stocking ; yes, fill every stocking which hangs on the wall !

The Christmas Stocking

British Flag Their Talisman.

The following is from the London Tablet and speaks for itself: At one point in his speech. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in order to illus-trate an apostrophe to the British flag, "the talisman of Canadian li-berties," mentioned a little incident in the Roman history of a few weeks back. Sir Wilfrid quoted from a letter written by the Rector of the Canadian College, who said in answer to a query whether the College would be in danger of at-tack: "No, I will hoist the British flag. The British flag is our talis-man." The British flag coordingly floated over the Canadian College Tablet and speaks for itself:

floated over the Canadian College during the inexplicable Ferrer de-monstrations, and it was respected.

Death of a Zealous Jesuit.

When Father Aloysius M. Feichi, S.J., of Gonzaga College, Spokane, Wash., passed to his final reward at the break of dawr, on December 11, there died a son of one of the nob-lest families in Italy, a true apostle of the Catholic Church, and a man beloved by all. He was 75 years of age, born in Rome on November 25, 1834, and had been a priest more than 40 years. He joined the Society of Jesus on January 1, 1878. For more than a quarter of a century he was engaged in mis-sionary work in Washington, Mon-tana and Idaho, travelling during the pioneer days over the sparsely settled country, bringing the con-solations of religion to those who When Father Aloysius M. Felchi,

IN CONTINUEAL-OF LAWA Law Montrael, 8:30 april 18, 50 p.m. Ar Ottawa '11.45 p.m., 47.10 p.m., 41 m. 78 (0 p.m. Ar Delity (1), Work days only (1), Delino Liberg-Can, or 8:00 p.8:00 s.m. and 3:50 p.m. trains Parison Can, or 8:00 p.8:00 s.m. only (1), p.m. - file business hours artives Ottawa 1:8.0.00 p.m. - file GIYY TICKET OFFICES 180 St. James Birect. Phones. Main 6305, 600, 600 CANADIAN PACIFIC christmas and New Year Excursions.
 Sinob Hamilton
 $10.65

 3-35 London
 12.95

 4-90 Peterboro
 7.85

 3-20 Farnham
 1.20

 .90 St. John, N. B. 143.30
 1.90

 1.90 Labelle
 3.05

 2.65 Knowlton
 2.00
 Toronto Ottawa Quebec Sherbrooke

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1909

GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM

New York Excursion

From Montreal FARE $11.30

Going Date-Dec. 2nd, Return Limit-Dec. 13th. Traina leave Montreal 8.30 a.m. and 8.10 p.m.

LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION

MONTREAL-OTTAWA

Return Fare from Montreal $27.00 Going -Ney 27th to 30th incl., also Dec. 1st and 5 Returning - Until Dec 12th.

First-Class Fare and One-Third.

Good going December 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 25, 29, 30, 31, 1909, and January 1, 1910. Return limit, January 5, 1910. Special fares to points in Mari-time Provinces.

29 St. James Street Next Post Office

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY BONAVENTURE UNION DEPOT CHRISTMAS

New Year Holidays RETURN TICKETS AT

SINGLE FIRST FARE Good going Dec. 21st, 1909, to Jan. 1st, 1910. Re arning up to January 3rd, 1910.

TRAIN SERVICE 40 a.m. (except Sunday), for St. Hyacinth, Le vis, Quebec and intermediate stations.

2 noon, MARITIME EXPRESS, daily, for St. Hyacinthe, Levis, Quebec, Riviere du Loup, Ste. Flavie and intermediate stations. 2 noon, MARITIME EXPRESS, except satur-day, for the above mentioned stations and Campbellton, Moneton, St. John, Halifax and Sydney. p.m., except Sunday, for Nicolet and interme-diate stations

CITY TIONAL 130 St. James Street, Tel. BED an H. A. PRICE, GEO. STRUBBE, Dass Agt City Ticket Agt CITY TICKET OFFICE: mes Street, Tel. Bell M. 615

DATENIS A REALTY SELECTION ar Investor's Adviser sent upon on & Marion, New York Life Bidge

Catholic Sailors' Club,

ALL SAILORS WELCOME.

All Local Talent invited. The fis-et in the City pay us a visit. MASS at 9.30 a.m. on Sunday. Sacred Concert on Sunday eve

RESS Sherbrooke 3.20 Farnham 1.20 St. Johns, Q. .90 St. John, N. B. 1430 Ste. Agathe 1.90 Labelle 3.05 Magog 2.05 Knowlton 2.00 and all other stations in Canada, Fort William and East; also to Do-troit and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.; to Buffalo, Black Rock, Suspension Bridge, and Niagara Falls, N.Y.; and to Canadian Pacific stations in Vermont and Maine at ODE Ward First_flace Fare Entrancing The inopportury proaching Christn prevent St. Ann' crowded on the twent8y-first to One Way First-Class Fore. Good going December 24 and 25; return limit, December 27th, 1909; also going December 31, 1909, and January 1, 1910; return limit, Ja-nuary 3rd, 1910. Martin lecture start was enjoyed by a select audience. I classic diction, fl dition and orate lecturer was abso

City Ticket Office

lecturer was abso his subject. His less and his violil He was interrupt bursts of applaus Caffery won gold the pupils under 1 themselves. Edw cupied the chain Rev. Martin Calle Brother Arnol and recent exile f and recent exite in in the prime of m richest of blood t and mantled upon was listed as one shadow still lim

Vol. LIX., N

3333

The

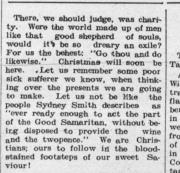

Bes

With grateful pri-remember hlm. Y idolized him as we I have been an his distinguished do esteem the some the measure your.

the measure you s not hesitate in co ren to their charge ter hands could y Never were they now. They could in training worthy cal Christians and They are bound to by ties of the closs seen marching in the any movement that or national glory

I am pleased to stage. I thank R William, Brother ' confreres for the m ence that has gree ly. What 1 am pp do is not undeser It will not be eith

Sound is a re inasmuch as it is inasmuch as it is of the air we are vibration can be a or an instrume with the dawn of gift for which we the liberality of the the liberality of the treasure which we too highly. It con of inarticulate sound able to the ear. I of the heart-and is spoken and un having been taught deals with human presents and trans with which we may is unrestricted too riod of history or section of the glob nothing less than. section of the globo nothing less than, i terion of educatic fold forms among should be reckoned never lessen in be Always will it com admiration. Mus

A Cure for Fever and Ague .- Dis-A Cure for rever and Ague.—Dis-turbance of the stomach and liver always precede attacks of fever and ague, showing derangement of the digestive organs and deterioration in the quality of the blood. In these different Derender's Verettale Different ailments Parmelee's Vegetable Pills have been found most effective, abatt ing the fever and subduing the ague in a few days. There are many who are subject to these distressing disturbances and to these there is no better preparation procurable as a means of relief.

A Little Child Shall Lead Them.

The wheels of industry will The wheels of industry will be stilled to-day. A thousand mills will be as silent as the star above the Bethlehem manger. The work-men will be by their own firesides, rejoicing in fellowship of domestic love. Industry halts before the man-ger and listens to carols from celes-tial lips. Labor lays down its tools ing disposed to provide the wine and the twopence." We are Chris-tians; ours to follow in the blood-stained footsteps of our sweet Saviour! (Rev.) R. H. FITZ-HENRY.

him

On Christmas morning, as he came downstairs, Dimpleton laid his hand on his wife's shoulder. It happened to be in the hall, and as he looked he suddenly discovered on the chandelier a tiny spray mistletoe. He stooped and k kissed her. "I see," he said, "that you have forgotten that we weren't to have any Christmas, and you have in-dulged in mistletce. But, my dear, worse confussion to make I have a worse confussion to make." Mrs. Dimpleton turned and faced him. "What have you done ?" He slipped a small package into

He slipped a small package into her hand. "Don't say a word, dear," she said. "That's your present. I didn't expect any, of course, and it's all the more delightful to think that you did remember me in spite of what we said. And, of course, dear, I just couldn't forget you." Dimpleton held his package delight selly.

Bimpleton held his package denga-edly. "Well," he exclaimed, "it's simply great to think that you, too, theought so much of me. After all, darling, Christmas is certainly a great season, isn't it? I'm glad that I didn't let it go by-eh, so glad. Darlins, I have another con-dession to make.," "Go on, dear. What is it ?" "I sent Aunt Jame's children each a present." "So did 1." "And I sent Cousin Florence a re-

Christmas and New Year. Special Train Service.

The Canadian Pacific will run spe The Canadian Facilite will fun spe-cial trains between Montreal and Calumet and St. Agathe on Friday, December 24 and 31st, leaving Place Viger at 3.30 p.m. for St. Agathe and 5.15 p.m. for Calumet. Returning trains will leave St. Agathe at 6.30 p.m., and arrive in Montreal at 9.30 p.m. and Calumet.

Agathe at 0.30 p.m., and arrive in Montreal at 9.30 p.m., and Calumet at 7.20 p.m. and arrive at Mont-real, Place Viger Station, at 9.50 p.m., on Sundays, December 26th and January 2nd, 1910, stopping at intermediate stations.

For Frost Bites and Chilblains. For Frost Bites and Chilblains.-Chilblains come from undue exposure to slush and cold and frost titles from the icy winds of winter. In the treatment of aither there is no better preparation than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, as it counteracts the inflammation and releves the pain. The action of the oil is instantane-ous and its application is extremely simple. simple.

There is a claim being put for-ward on behalf of Barcelona as the birthplace of St. Patrick by no less an authority than the Very Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Vioan-General of Dub-lin. He has published a treatise ad-vancing the theory.

DODDS

KIDNEY

PILLS

2.3 THE

It is not science that brings hume It is not science that brings nume-nity together to-day. It is not the floating arsenals of the seas it is not conferences at The Hague, nor the "parliament of man." A "Little Child" has led them.

It is a Liver Pill.—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin, peculiarly susceptible to the disturbances that susceptible to the disturbances that come from irregular habits or lack of care in eating and drinking. This accounts for the great many liver regulators now pressed upon the at-tention of sufferers. Of these there is none superior to Parmelee's Ve-getable Pills. Their operation though gentle is effective, and the most delicate can use them.

"Battle flags are furled In the parliaments of man, the fede-ration of the world."

most delicate can use them. An inquiry under the Laborars Adts was held at Lisnaskea recently into an application by the District Council for a loan of £26,161 for the erection of 149 cottages. The loan means an annual outlay of £540, or 21-2d per £ on the rates. Forty-two houses have been arected already, and 68 are still further contemplated.

tial lips. Labor lays down its bools takes up the sorg and forgets the hum and crush of mighty machinery. Wealth bends with a gift for the needy and a word of cheer for the lowly. Nations forget their animo-sities and solatic means of receiving the had no other them than what his visits furnish ed.

The amount of good done in this way by the zealous priest can never be fully estimated. It was at the Concert Every Wednesday Evening cost of great hardships and suffer ing that he accomplished his work ing that he accomplished his work. He was obliged to share in the privations of those whom he visit-ed. Indians as well as whites, the poor and the outcast, railroad men and miners, farm hands and toilers ir, the woods, people of all classes and conditions came in for a share of his fatherty solicitude, and the little children loved and removed him. revered him.

Social courtesies were extended to him by the railroad officials who had come to know the value of his work among the employes, many of whom he kept in the path of duty by his exhortation; and example.

by his exhortation and example. When it is known that during all these years Father Folch labored under infirmities that rendered him practically an invalid, his courage and patience must have been heroic. Only a few weeks previous to the final illness he completed the beau-tiful parish church in Newport, Wash, one of the many that he built up and sustained in the great Northwest. Nor hed all his labors been confined to the Facific region. Long before the civil war he labored in the Carolinas, where he built the first Catholic church for me-grees in the United States.

Open week days from 9 a.m. te 16 p.m. On Sundays from 1 p.m. to 18 p.m. ST. PETER & COMMON STREETS. Hanner BELLS influence. It tells dual, the family and be a blessing or a bear good or ba should it serve to never to lower the ality, principle or promote whatever brighten and sweets exait and ennoble musical tendency of on the upward but downward grade. ownward grade. an equivalent for t disbursed. It clam whimsical, odd, mo and flattering to t tite. All praise to de What majesty is se brow and what ser in the countenance areat and how emb is in the cyses of richtly know her ar impartiality! What tributed to her gr menner in which ab musical art in the asked in the sumh as well as in those too the thorny nei dwing the area pr ped at the shafing to owing the area pr energy those while allow able embraced admiration. Mus influence. It tells