

—During last year seven "Opera Houses" were burned in Texas. They were built of plaster.

—Excursions continue in the palace of the King Theobald of Burmah. Five princesses were recently married or betrothed.

—The birthdays of the famous authors are observed in the Christian public schools. Brief addresses on the life and works of the person in question are given, with recitations from their best known works.

—In Upper Alaska the cold has made wolves and bears scarce from their covets. The former are prowling round the villages near Muldoon, and the latter have been run over by railway trains.

—The day on which Russia brings to the State treasury fifteen million half milled dollars annually. Now the Russian press advocates the abolition of the salt duty, as it falls chiefly on the poorest classes, and serves rather to depress than to relieve the national welfare.

—John Wesley's chapel in Finsbury square, London, built by him in 1777, was burnt down by fire on the 21st inst. It was the "chapel" in all parts of the world almost as a shrine, and visited by hundreds of worshippers.

—The Rev. John G. Brady, who has returned from a stay of two years in Alaska says that the natives have learned how to make a ration of concentrated liquor from molasses, and they drink so much of it that alcoholism is a common disease there.

—The Italian newspapers still clamor for a more powerful army wherewith to "redeem" the "unholy" empire of Italy. "Italy is poor, we know, and an increase of the army will be very costly. But it matters not," says a Milanese paper, "if we can only equal Emile Orléans' light heart" on going to war with Prussia.

—Since the clergyman's agitation against the "unholy" empire of Italy, the United States Community, twenty weddings have taken place there. These, with twenty-five couples more, had been solemnized in the past year. The population of the community is 299, 57 of whom are children under ten, and 20 young people are between ten and twenty.

—It is proposed to complete a grand opera house on the Thames embankment, a company with a capital of £100,000, £25,000 of which had been subscribed. The plan is to put up at the disposal of the shareholders, one share for every £100, and to pay sixteen years each shareholder will have one year's right to a stall, which he may let. The plan is to have a grand opera house, and the nominator of the surviving life annuity to have a stall.

—A Paris paper gives some curious statistics regarding the number of women who have entered the professions of art and literature, from which it seems that the number of living in France 1,700 lady writers and 2,150 female artists whose productions have been published in the past year. The number of the writers were born in the provinces, 1,000 are known to be writers of fiction, 200 are poets and 150 comedians. "Gentlemen, I hold in my hand" written cards signed "Pickles Smith." Will Pickles step down, please?"

"Pickles came forward, his tongue out and a look of amazement on his face, and the President said:

"Brother Smith, you are charged by the janitor with being a drunkard in Paradise hall."

"What?" exclaimed the defendant as he came square down to his seat.

"Did you go to Paradise hall on Thursday evening?"

"Yes, I did."

"What time did you get there?"

"I got there at about 10 o'clock."

"What time did you get home?"

How the Christian Road Agents Improved a Mining Town.

(From the Salt Lake Tribune.)

Many mining camps are isolated, being only connected with the world by the line of stages carrying the mail and express. How fast reaching the ends of a stage robbery on such a line can only be understood by actual investigation.

One morning in a camp in Southeastern Nevada, I met an acquaintance from San Francisco, a city I had lived in until quite recently. He was representing and collecting for a liquor house. Being a stranger on his invitation I went around with him to introduce him to the men he had business with. Times had been dull in camp for some time.

We went first to the Eastern Saloon, run by Three-fingered Dan. After preliminaries, the agent said to the proprietor:

"I've called to collect the balance due our house."

"Couldn't we call at a business," replied Dan. "Business?"

"Good," but I been kept out for work done on my claim, the "Faded" in the shorter; and a look for money by express. I suffered externally from the water, and internally from fear of that possible Marie. But we never came again, I examined it. There was one towel about as large as a napkin, and two large aprons, which reached from my head to my feet. I put them on, and examined them for towels. A friend afterward told me their use.

We went next into the Heavenly Rest Saloon, run by One-eyed Smith, who was in the habit of taking in the other saloon-keepers. He was so called to introduce him to the men he had business with. Times had been dull in camp for some time.

GRAND CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.

Mr. Kerr Elected by a Majority of 180. Cornwall, Jan. 27.—The Conservatives are in great glee to-night on account of the result of the election in this constituency. Dr. Benjamin Kerr, Conservative, was elected by a large majority of 180. On account of the closeness of the contest at the late general elections, Dr. Kerr's majority being only 28, the Grits were very confident in carrying the constituency, and openly boasted that the Grit candidate would be elected by a large majority. In reading Grit papers possible "blew their horns" as loud as possible and were confident of victory. The result of the election to-day is considered as another evidence of the popularity of the Conservative policy. It shows that it will be many a long day before the "mixer and muddler" crew will have charge of the Government again.

THE STORMY ELECTION.

Mr. Kerr, Conservative, Retained by 180 Majority. Cornwall, Jan. 23.—The election of a representative to the House of Commons by the constituency of Cornwall, Ontario, on the 23rd inst., was a very stormy one. Mr. Kerr, Conservative, was elected by a large majority of 180. The contest was very close, and the result was a surprise to many. The Grit candidate, Mr. [Name], was defeated by a narrow margin. The election was marked by a great deal of excitement and a large turnout of voters.

Hour of the Day.

Table with 2 columns: Hour of the Day and Time. 8th, 4.00; 9th, 4.40; 10th, 5.20; 11th, 6.00; 12th, 6.40; 13th, 7.20; 14th, 8.00; 15th, 8.40; 16th, 9.20; 17th, 10.00; 18th, 10.40; 19th, 11.20; 20th, 12.00; 21st, 12.40; 22nd, 13.20; 23rd, 14.00; 24th, 14.40; 25th, 15.20.

DIVISION COURTS.

It strikes us that Mr. Mowat would act prudently in instituting an inquiry into the working of the Division Courts, before proceeding with legislation to extend their jurisdiction. In the "quest from the throne" it seemed to be assumed that an extension of their jurisdiction was generally desired, and that the general opinion was that they were admirably. Since the matter was formally broached, however, there has been an eruption of letters in the press from people who apparently know what they are talking about, which shows that there are possibly two sides to the question. The general public, who are not conversant with the working of Division Courts, the smallness of the sums with which they deal deprives their proceedings of the public interest which attaches to the proceedings of other Courts; the press does not report what goes on in them, at least not in length. They have not been under the public eye, and their operations have been bestowed upon them as the most part, poor men who have not the means of making a noise publicly if they are unjustly treated, and so no appeal from their decisions is allowed, the cases settled in them speedily sink out of sight. The object of these courts is the speedy recovery of small debts without expensive litigation. But it is true that they are cheap courts. There are those who affirm that they are not, and who insist that there are abuses connected with them which ought to be corrected. Possibly there is no ground for these accusations, but the public curiosity has at least been piqued by the charges made, and it would be well to have them cleared up. In short, he will have to have the whole working of these Courts inquired into before enlarging their jurisdiction.

WARDENS ELECTED.

THE TOWNSHIP ASSOCIATION.

The Township Conservative Association met in the City Hall on Friday, Jan. 27, at 8 o'clock, and elected the following officers: President, Mr. Henry Kercher; Vice-President, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Treasurer, Mr. J. A. Hacking. The meeting was attended by a large number of members and friends.

BLUEVALE.

Thomas Hale, who has been here for some time, has been elected to the office of Warden of the Township of Bluevale for the year 1880. He was elected by a large majority of the voters.

MORNINGTON.

The Council met on Monday, Jan. 27, at 8 o'clock, and elected the following officers: Mayor, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Deputy Mayor, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Councilors, Mr. J. A. Hacking, Mr. J. A. Hacking, Mr. J. A. Hacking. The meeting was attended by a large number of members and friends.

MITCHELL.

At about eight o'clock last Friday morning a fire broke out in Dorman's mill, situated on the main street, Mitchell. The fire was caused by a defective boiler, and the mill was completely destroyed. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

STRATFORD.

An improvement in the enterprise of the proprietors of the Albion Hotel, Messrs. Hodgins & Melchior, have recently had electric bells throughout the house, replacing every room with a bell, and with the office. This will prove a great convenience to the guests of the hotel.

THE COMMERCIAL HOTEL.

The Commercial Hotel, the land of which is owned by Mr. T. Hagarty, is making extensive improvements during the coming summer. The contract has been let for a new brick stable of mammoth dimensions, which will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000, and will lay over anything of its kind in Stratford. Another store and a wing to the hotel is also contemplated. The hotel is situated on the main street, and is one of the best in the city.

ELMA.

The annual meeting of the Elma Conservative Association was held on Tuesday, Jan. 27, at 8 o'clock. The meeting was attended by a large number of members and friends. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Vice-President, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hacking; Treasurer, Mr. J. A. Hacking.

GOAL SUGGESTION.

Mr. Robb took exception at Mr. Trow's remarks. He had intimated that Dr. Robertson was not a reliable man, and he did not think that Mr. Trow had any right to make such an assertion. Dr. Robertson had occupied the position for 17 years, and he thought the office should go to him.

OTHER OFFICIALS.

William Davidson was re-appointed Clerk; Andrew Montell re-appointed Treasurer; and W. A. Higgs, messenger. George McKee was elected Auditor, and the Warden appointed David Scott the other Auditor.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

This Great Household Medicine ranks among the leading remedies of Life. The famous Pills purify the blood, and act most powerfully, yet soothingly, upon the system. They are sold by all druggists and chemists. Price, 25 cents per box.
