CASTRO STARTS A REVOLUTION

And President Gomez Calls Upon Country to Retain Its Decorum.

CARACAS, Venezuela, Aug. 1.—In consequence of the outbreak of the revolution in Venezuela and the invasion of country by forces under the leadership of former-President Cipriano Castro, the federal council has constitutionally authorized President Juan Vicente Gomez to assume dictatorial powers until the movement is crushed.

President Gomez on Wednesday night sent the following telegram to the governors of all the Venezuelan states: "General Cipriano Castro, impelled by ambition and the craze for power has provoked a revolution in this republic by ordering his partisans to arm themselves against the constitutional government."

It is necessary for you to be alert and to act rapidly and energetically in assisting the government to crush the rebel forces in several localities which have disturbed the public order. The peace of the community which conscientious Venezuelans are obliged to maintain, cannot be left at the mercy of adventurers who possess no idea of decorum. It is your duty to assist the government to crush the rebel forces in several localities which have disturbed the public order.

To-day's news with the police—Joy riders claimed that P. C. Boylan's method of timing them is a crude one—Some kicked hard and long against being fined.

To-day was motorists' day at the police court, and Magistrate Livingstone showed little mercy towards the joy riders. Many of the autoists claimed that the methods used in registering the time of speeders was decidedly crude. There were eight autoists summoned before the court this morning, due to the watchful eye of Constable Thomas Boylan. Quite a discussion was entered upon regarding the best methods of timing speeders. Mr. D. S. Secord was fined ten dollars and costs for exceeding the speed limit. Iden Champion and Mr. F. S. Schell were also touched for a similar amount. Mr. D. S. Gibson, who is a very careful driver, and although he has had a car for four years, has never before been up in court, was also charged $13.70, Stanley Lee was also charged the same amount. He protested strongly regarding the traffic laws of Brantford. Mr. Wm. Gibbs' case was adjourned until Monday. Two others did not appear. Mr. C. F. Avery of Canisville, was also charged, with exceeding the limit, and was required to donate $10 and costs to the police coffers. A case against Chris Young for theft was remanded on account of John H. Spence, the complainant, not being on hand. This is probably the stolen breakfast case. Albert Henderson and Clarence Betts, who were not able to give a satisfactory account of themselves at an early hour this morning, and had

"Tommy" Is In Fight

Church Announces Mayoralty Ambitions in Toronto To-day.

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—Controller "Tommy" Church announced positively this morning that he would be a candidate for the mayoralty of Toronto at the next municipal elections, standing on the policy of opposition to the proposed purchase by the city of the street railway and the Toronto Electric Light property. Without any definite statement from Mayor Hogginson as to whether he will seek re-election, or that he is the man responsible for the proposed purchase the fight will be an interesting one. Should the ratepayers have an opportunity of passing on their merits of the proposition before the elections as has been suggested, the situation somewhat altered.

Bishop Received. MONTREAL, Aug. 1.—During the visit to Southport of the Rev. Dr. Farthing, Bishop of Montreal, he had the honor of being presented to His Majesty, King George, who detained him for a few minutes, asking him how he was enjoying his visit to the district after an absence of twenty-two years.

Whiskey in Beef Carcasses

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—The introduction of whiskey into the forbidden districts of Northern Ontario in pieces of beef has been discovered by Chief Rogers of the provincial police, and several prosecutions have been undertaken as the result. It was known that a woman in the Porcupine district was getting whiskey, and after the authorities had been puzzled for some time an examination of beef going in was made and deep cuts were noticed. Exploration developed the fact that cunningly hidden away under each of the cuts was a hot water bottle filled with whiskey, containing about two quarts of the liquid, which the woman mixed with water and sold at fancy prices.

Unusual Fine. KENORA, Ont., Aug. 1.—In the magistrate's court, Col. Orde of Minnaki was fined $50 and costs for acting as justice of the peace illegally. The charge arose out of an arrest made by a detective on a warrant signed by Orde.

Ex-Brantford Contractor Was Killed at Welland

Mr. James Wilson, Age 70 Years, Was Struck by a Grand Trunk Train Thursday Morning.

About 9 o'clock yesterday morning, James Wilson, a contractor at Welland and formerly a resident of this city was hit by a train at that place and died in the hospital two hours later. One leg, an arm and several ribs were broken. The late Mr. Wilson was 70 years of age and left this city five years ago. He is survived by a widow and five sons and three daughters. The sons are James and Paul of this city, Jos.

Sewer Gas Killed Three

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 1.—Two negroes lost their lives here in a vain effort to rescue another, William Boutwell, a city employee, detailed to clean a sewer, fell unconscious from sewer gas when he descended. Jacob Monk immediately went down and also fell helpless. Bert Trusty, a driver who was passing at the time, volunteered to go after the other two, and was overcome as soon as he reached the bottom of the sewer. A derrick was rigged, and when the three men were hauled out they were dead.

Three Killed Careless Switching at Duluth—Foreigners Quit Their Jobs.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 1.—Three laborers are known to have been killed, two were fatally injured, four were badly hurt and a score more are unaccounted for as the result of ore trains at the Allouez ore docks last night. Judgment over the accident was handed Saturday. The dock managers ordered work resumed, but the foreigners refused. Special police then took charge of the docks. A number of boats will be delayed unless an agreement with the striking laborers is reached.

Local Man Had Miraculous Escape

Mr. Wesley Wickens Able to Leave Toronto Hospital Yesterday.

Wesley Wickens the electrician, who nearly lost his life in Toronto about two months ago, was able to leave the Western Hospital yesterday and to return to his home here. He is still in Park Avenue last evening. He is still very weak and nervous, but the burns on his hands and legs are almost healed. While working on a pole, Wickens' foot slipped and he fell over a high tension wire, receiving 2,200 volts. He fell a distance of 30 feet and was unconscious for six hours. When he fell the foreman on the job cut an artery in his wrist, and this is what saved his life, Mr. Wickens says. The bleeding caused heart action to revive. It will be some time before he will be able to resume work.

Can't Meet The Request

"Nothing to Arbitrate" Says Frank Cochrane Re the I. C. R.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 1.—The I. C. R. situation, as seen from the Government end here to-day, presents some rather unique features, and it is extremely improbable that the request of the Brotherhood of Railway Employees for a board of arbitration will be accepted to by the Labor Department. The reason is that Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways, feels that better wages and working conditions having already been granted, there is nothing to arbitrate. He takes the ground that men in responsible secretarial positions have no business to belong to unions, and that such a system must no longer prevail on the Government line. If the railway department refused to appoint a representative on the arbitration board, it would be the duty of the labor department to appoint one for it if a board were granted. But there is little likelihood that one branch of the Government would do that way at contrary to the wishes of another.

Military Had To Strengthen

Calumet Strike Situation—Threats Made to Use Dynamite on Mines.

CALUMET, Mich., Aug. 1.—Strengthening of the military positions as a sequel to revelations of alleged plots to dynamite shaft houses and other property marked the early hours of the copper miners' strike today. Reports that explosives had disappeared from Hancock mine powder house and the discovery of dynamite on a prisoner taken at Red Jacket led General Abbe to issue orders designed to increase the effective strength of the brigade of state troops controlling the district. The Third Infantry hospital corps was pressed into service, its members being mounted and armed with revolvers and riot sticks. This force, it was announced, would be used as a "cavalry."

Another strike in arrest was made early today, as threats had been made to blow up the house of non-union men in South Hecla. Two companions of the prisoner were released after a brief examination. There were increased operations by the mine management on the big locomotive engine house situated on the south range at Tri-Mountain. Pacific and Champion with no trouble being reported. In Calumet pumps were started at Tamarack No. 1, shaft and trains were sent over the Hecla and Torch Lake Railroad, the company line which connects the mines of the Calumet and Hecla with its mills and smelters. Operations of the road was suspended when the mills shut down, the second day of the strike.

Motor Cycles Kill Two People

Another Serious Accident Resulting From Speedy Race.

WATERTOWN, N.Y., Aug. 1.—Two persons were killed last night in an accident during a motor cycle race held in connection with the old home week celebration of the village of Russell, St. Lawrence county. The dead are Luther Gilbert, aged 23, motor cycle rider, and Irvin Bartholomew, 40 years old, a spectator. The race was run through the main street of the village. Gilbert and Charles Sharpenstein, the participants, were speeding along the street at the rate of about 50 miles an hour, when Gilbert's machine struck a cross walk and hurled him 30 feet along the road, killing him instantly. Bartholomew, who was watching the race, rushed into the road to drag the fallen cyclist out of the way of the other machine. Sharpstein's machine struck Bartholomew just as he was about to lift Gilbert out of the way, so badly injuring him that he died within a few moments. Bartholomew leaves a wife and one daughter. Gilbert is unmarried. Both live at Russell.

TEMPLE BUILDING

An Assault

Four Men Are Under Arrest in the Town of Simcoe.

SIMCOE, Aug. 1.—Four Italians are under arrest here charged with assault on Jimmy Crisco, a laborer on sewer construction. Crisco was attacked shortly after midnight this morning on a back street, and putting up a fight was found later with a gash in his throat, extending from one ear.

Chief McNally was notified, and the wounded man turned over to the care of Dr. George Stanton. He is reported as progressing favorably. The four foreigners who drifted into town yesterday were suspected of the attack, and Chief McNally motored down to Renton and took into custody Frank Swanc, Ross Marbla, Frank Bernardo, and Joe Marbla. They had two revolvers and two razors in their possession. They were acquaintances of Crisco, it appears before coming here, and got after him yesterday, but he is not supposed to have had a large amount of money or valuables.

Squire John Beemer remanded the prisoners for a week, and an effort will be made to obtain further evidence within a few days.

MR. JOHN HUNT INSPECTS GARDENS

Contests in Brantford Reported to be Very Keen This Year.

Mr. John Hunt, horticulturist of the Guelph Agricultural College, spent yesterday and this morning here, in company with the President and Secretary of the Brantford Horticultural Society, he made the annual inspection of the lawns and gardens of the members of the society and citizens answering questions and giving advice on the care and cultivation of flowers. Another inspection will be made by him toward the end of the season and the prizes will be awarded on points scored in each inspection. Ten prizes are given in each ward, the society as well as a diploma, for the best kept lawn and garden in the city, and the classes are so arranged that every one has a chance to win a prize whether their lawn is large or small if they will just give it proper attention.

Mr. Hunt says that the contests are very keen this year, there being many excellent lawns in each ward and the flower boxes are splendid. He notices a very great improvement since his last visit, two years ago, the homes of the workingmen being particularly noticeable for the taste shown in the laying out of the lawns and flower beds and the care that is taken of them.

A Convenient Economical Two-Story House

At this time when so many people are building the one-story bungalow, that is in many ways so convenient and comfortable to live in, it still remains a fact that the same amount of space can be obtained at less cost, on two floors, and there are still many people who like best the two-story house and in many cases it seems more suited to the average city lot. The design that we are illustrating in this issue is a small compact two-story house, 26 feet in width by 28 ft. in depth. The first story being 8 ft. 6 in. in height and the second story 8 ft., using 18-ft. studding. The roof is low pitched with wide overhang to the cornice, having a projection of 3 ft., and a level soffit or 'plancher' brought down close over the second story windows, affording a pleasant shade to the windows from the sunlight. There is low space in the attic that may be used for storage purposes. This design was made for a narrow lot, and has the piazza 8 ft. in width across the front. A cement stucco exterior is called for, but it would look very well indeed with stained shingles, and cost about $150 less than cement. The vestibule entrance is at the left side and has a convenient coat closet next to it. The vestibule opens into a large living room across the front 25 ft. in width by 14 ft. in depth. The main staircase is carried up from the left side of the living room with platforms and is planned on the combing order with a convenient entrance to kitchen and basement, and small section of stairs from the kitchen up to the main landing. The dining room is opened wide in connection with the living room with square columns and the space on each side of the opening has book shelves opening into the living room. The dining room is 12 ft. by 14 ft. and has a built-in sideboard with small ornamental windows on each side. The kitchen is conveniently arranged with pantry cupboards, sink, tin closets, etc., and has a small rear entry with space for refrigerator. The second story has two good chambers, and one small room for maid and a large sized bathroom, connected with the main roof, opening off from the family chamber. It is estimated to build this house complete exclusive of heating and plumbing, for $2,800, but of course this estimate varies according to locality. There is a good full basement under the house with laundry, heating apparatus etc. The first floor is finished in simple craftsman style with beam ceiling in the main room, a large open fire place and mantel, oak floors. The second story is in fir, stained mission.

Suffragettes Are Annoying Smart Set Would-be Brides

Considerable annoyance has been caused this season in London amongst Smart Set mothers anxious to see their daughters well married since the latest form of suffragist activity, which owes its origin to the Spiritual Militancy League. The marriage service of the British Anglican Church is the subject selected for attack, and the plan of campaign adopted certainly does not lack of daring. The league has issued a manifesto, written in very plain and Danish style, especially where the marriage arranged is purely and solely one of convenience. Several matches have been broken off this season for this and other advanced feminist reasons.

THE KING'S PRETTY NIECE TO MARRY

Betrothal of Prince Arthur and the Duchess of Fife.

King George has sanctioned the betrothal of Prince Arthur of Connaught to the Duchess of Fife, the eldest daughter of the Princess Royal, the following announcement: The King and Queen have received the gratifying intelligence of the betrothal of His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, their Majesties' cousin, to their Majesties' niece, to which union the King had gladly given his consent.

The desire for the match was intimated to the King, and immediately on returning from his Laneshire tour on Monday night he summoned the Duke of Connaught and Prince Arthur to London by telephone. They both travelled from Bagshot and were received by the King early on Tuesday morning, when His Majesty was pleased to intimate his approval of the engagement. The King visited the Princess Royal, the mother of the Duchess of Fife, at her residence in Portman Square before leaving for Newmarket in the afternoon.

The news of the betrothal of the popular pair comes as an agreeable surprise, and the nation will undoubtedly share their Majesties' gratification at the happy event. It is considered not at all improbable that the marriage will be celebrated before the Duke of Connaught's return to Canada in the autumn, and later than the second week in October.

The Duchess of Fife, who celebrated her 22nd birthday on May 17, last, is the eldest daughter of the Princess Royal and the late Duke of Fife. Like her mother she is of a retiring disposition, and cares little for society. She has devoted to water-color painting and to reading German, French and Danish authors. Around her youthful personality many interesting reports concerning possible Royal alliances have been circulating for some years past.

LLOYD GEORGE.

The British Chancellor of the Exchequer has come into the limelight again by a bitter attack upon the House of Lords.

We can all afford to admire, and should admire, the pluck and the ability of this Welshman, who from very humble circumstances, has achieved the highest post in the gift of the Empire, next to that of Premier. Any man capable of doing that deserves popular acclaim, no matter which political side he espouses. Lloyd George possesses a remarkable personality; he is a keen thinker and a hard hitter, but whereas a few months ago he seemed to be in direct line for the Liberal leadership it is safe to affirm that he is not now in the running, although he will always be a prominent figure.

He lived down his openly expressed approval of the Boer cause during the war, but the Marconi business cannot thus be easily laid. In the one case he was fearlessly, if mistakenly, outspoken, in the other he was disclosed as reaching after the "unearned increment" which he has all the time denounced in the case of his fellows.

In the ordinary course of events he would have become a Prime Minister, but that is now scarcely possible.

LEVEL CROSSINGS.

Almost every day, and throughout the year, level crossing fatalities are recorded in Canada. The toll from drownings is also large, but that is almost entirely confined to the summer months, whereas at all seasons, the railroad levy maintains its high average.

It is of course impossible in a country of this size, to exercise the same rigid care with regard to crossings and the use of tracks by pedestrians, to the same extent as in the Old Land, but there is altogether too much unwarranted laxness.

Take Brantford as an example. It is an outrage that trains should pass on the level street near the Grand Trunk depot, the old Great Western depot and in West Brantford beyond Lorne Bridge.

The Courier mistakes the members of the Dominion Railway Board very much if they would fail, upon proper application, to order an immediate remedy.

Colborne street and Market street two of the main thoroughfares, should not be crossed by railroad lines under any circumstances, and even gates do not begin to afford adequate protection.

JOHN BULL REFUSES.

For practically the first time Great Britain has declined to officially take part in a world exposition—that to be held in San Francisco in 1915 in commemoration of the opening of the Panama Canal.

Without any doubt this is intended as a dignified, if passive protest, with regard to the gross breach of faith which is proposed with reference to discriminatory tolls. John Bull in good part conceded certain interests with reference to the isthmus on the basis—Hay-Pauncefote treaty—of equal treatment for all nations, and now it is proposed to especially favor U. S. vessels. This course is not in accordance with the ideas of the best men, and the best newspapers across the border, for they have been unsparing in their denunciatory language with regard to what they rightly claim is a deep stain upon the national escutcheon.

Take the Suez Canal as a counter illustration. That is largely controlled by Great Britain because of a master stroke of the late Earl Beaconsfield, but the charges based on tonnage are the same to all, whether the stars and stripes fly at the mast-head, or the colors of any other nation.

FREE TRADE VERSUS PROTECTION.

Mr. William Mackenzie, a veteran newspaper man, is contributing some parliamentary reminiscences to a magazine, and in the latest installment, he deals with the subject of protection.

He points out that Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, Liberal Premier prior to 1878, was not a free trader, but believed in a tariff for revenue with incidental protection, and also that Sir John Macdonald was in theory a free trader. It is a matter of record, and this paper has the Hansards of that date in proof thereof, that Hon. Mr. Paterson, then member for South Brant, urged his leader to advance the duties. Mr. Mackenzie did not see matters in that light, and Sir John Macdonald, who saw the need for protection for Canada as against her powerful neighbor the States, introduced the National Policy, and from 1878 until his death, he was continuously in office.

Cobden is generally spoken of as the father of Free Trade, but he wasn't. A member of the British House named Villiers, year after year, used to move for the abolition of the corn laws, which imposed duties on grains from foreign lands, and were introduced as far back as 1360 in the reign of King Edward the Third. In fact his effort in this regard was more or less of an annual joke, until Cobden and Bright took hold of the idea and made it a reality. Even at that, anybody at all familiar with Cobden's speeches and writings, is aware of the fact that he was always of the opinion that if Free Trade should be adopted by the Old Country, all other lands would have to follow suit. He was mistaken in that just as much as he was astray when he openly took the ground that Canada and other overseas dominions were a nuisance and an encumbrance to Great Britain.

That protection is essential to Canada with such an enterprising and resourceful people as those residing across the line, a very little consideration will thoroughly well establish. Laurier, prior to 1896, boasted that his goal was "Free Trade as they have it in England," but he shrewdly dropped that policy except with regard to binder twine. This industry has been practically killed in the Dominion, only one of nine strictly Canadian companies, having survived, namely the concern in West Brantford.

In short, protection constitutes the very life blood of Canadian development, and theorists may talk as they like, but this fact cannot be disproved.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

So John Bull refuses to take part in the Panama Canal panorama.

The word "Brant" means a wild goose, but the variety is extinct as far as this particular county is concerned.

Hon. Mr. McKay has won out in Athabasca. As for Rowell, the man who replaced him in the Ontario Grit leadership, he is not in any sense with regard to popular favor a basket.

Says the Detroit Free Press during the course of an article:

On the whole, there isn't anything seriously the matter with Canada. It is a land of magnificent assets that eventually will yield lasting prosperity for its inhabitants.

Grit papers have been sneering at Hon. George Foster with regard to what they alleged was his futile attempt to secure a satisfactory trade agreement with Australia. And now a cable from Sydney announces that such an arrangement is more than likely. As prophets our friends the enemy do not cut any very large-sized figure.

Paris News

PARIS, Aug. 1.—A nery case of horse stealing took place on Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. Wm. Maus was attending the wedding of his son Roy in Paris, the hired man, John McDowell, who had been employed there for two weeks, made off with his employer's horse and top buggy. When the theft was noticed and the police notified it was found that McDowell was wanted in Cayuga for a similar offence. He had sold the Cayuga horse here and it was recovered. A warrant has been issued.

The funeral of the late Fred Rickert was held from the residence of his parents in Blenheim township yesterday afternoon, and was one of the largest ever witnessed in town. The parents have the sincerest sympathy of the entire community in the loss of their only child, and he just entering the prime of life.

Work is progressing at a good rate on the L. E. & N. railway, and the contractors promise to begin laying the steel next week. There is a hard stretch from St. James' cemetery in town to the western bridge, which will probably be the last to be completed.

Paris Brick Co. lit the fires under their first kiln this week, and are now filling the second. The two kilns hold 500,000 bricks, and with the up-to-date machinery the company possesses it should have a bright future before it.

Rev. Mr. Leigh of Delaware will preach in St. James' Church on Sunday, Rev. C. C. Purton having charge of the cathedral in London during August.

Grand River Lodge, I.O.O.F., will hold their annual decoration services on Sunday next.

FRANK JAMES, THE NOTORIOUS OUTLAW, NEAR DEATH.

FRANK JAMES

JESSE JAMES

The lives of Jesse and Frank James, those notorious outlaws, read like some five cent thriller. Jesse James was killed by members of his own band and Frank is now at the point of death.

Their father was Robert James, a Baptist preacher, who was persecuted by his Union neighbors during the civil war because his sympathies were with the South. In order to get revenge Jesse and Frank joined the guerrillas and they soon earned a name for reckless daring.

In 1866 Jesse was outlawed and with his brother attained a world wide notoriety by the crimes they committed, by their romantic adventures, and their almost invariable success. A reward of $10,000 was offered for the capture of Jesse and, tempted by the bribe, two of his band killed him. A short time after Jesse's death Frank gave himself up. Now Frank is dying and the history of the "James boys" will soon be ended.

Calgary's Finance.
CALGARY, Aug. 1.—Calgary does not need to pay 6% per cent. for money obtained by treasury notes, so it was decided at a special meeting of the finance committee of the city council. A proposal wired from Chicago by Mayor H. A. Sinnott, asking if the city would accept an offer made to him for the purchase of $500,000 worth of treasury bills at that rate, was turned down. It was stated that the city was not pushed for money at present, and there did not appear to be any need of the city paying a higher rate than is being paid in London; as it would injure Calgary's credit.

BERRY PICKERS GRAVE MENACE

Indians Said to be Victims of White Plague—Health Officer Likely to Investigate

(Hamilton Spectator)

On the advice of Dr. Roberts, medical health officer, Dr. McClenahan, district officer for the provincial board of health, will probe charges that Indians suffering from tuberculosis, are picking berries in the district surrounding Hamilton.

The charges, if true, are very serious. Complaints are being made that dozens of Indians are afflicted with the white plague. Notwithstanding their condition, it is said that many are daily engaged picking raspberries, red currants and other farm products.

It is said that some of the Indians are in an advanced stage of the disease. It is admitted that the danger to the public from that source is great, as the germs could spread to the berries from the pickers, and prove a menace to whoever purchased them.

Dr. Roberts has not received any complaints. "It is not in my jurisdiction," he said this morning, "but I can easily understand the possibilities of such a thing, and the danger to the public from that source. The danger is all the more pronounced because Indians, as a rule, are subject to tuberculosis."

If Dr. McClenahan acts on the complaints—and he should—he will likely order many Indians away from the berry patches. At this time of the year most of the Indians come from the reservation not far from Oshweken.

Fair Trial.

The presentation from the choir was a beautiful chair. Mr. Thomas Darwin, the organist and choirmaster, read the address and the presentation was made by Messrs. J. W. Stubbs and W. L. Moyer. Afterwards delightful refreshments were served followed by games making the evening one of great enjoyment.

WHEN PAT KELLY CAME BACK

When Pat Kelly, the genial messenger of the Bank of Commerce stepped into the clearing house this morning he little expected what was coming to him. He had just concluded a three months vacation granted to him by the bank for long service. In fact Patrick Kelly and the Bank of Commerce have been in somewhat of a joint partnership for 23 years. The other bank messengers having put in three months without their well liked and obliging comrade, decided to celebrate the occasion. They did it right off by grabbing Kelly, hoisting him around the Temple building clearing house room for several minutes. Then there were cheers in honor of the occasion. The messengers were heartily glad to have Kelly back and said so in a number of denizens of the Temple building thought there was a riot in progress. Mr. Kelly had an enjoyable holiday, but expressed himself as satisfied to get on his usual rounds again.

HEALTH BOARD WILL TAKE ACTION

Inspector of Dairies is Appointed—Other Items Taken Up.

A meeting of the Board of Health took place yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's Office. Chairman J. W. Fette presiding, and all of the members of the board being present. A petition, largely signed by merchants on Colborne street, was received requesting the board to take some action in reference to the stretch of Col's premises on the canal bank. The merchants claim that at times the odor from this place is unbearable and injurious to their business. At times those on the south side of Colborne street cannot open their back windows. As there is a case in court at the present time, no action was taken in the matter, although a couple of telephone calls came in when the board was meeting requesting them to walk out and take a "whiff of the breeze", which was then blowing across the canal. Inspector Appointed. As the proper authorities have not inspected the dairies whence the Brantford milk men secure their supply of milk, they were unable to obtain their licenses for 1913. The board took "the bull by the horns" and appointed A. B. Cutcliffe, V.S., to inspect all creameries, dairies and dairy farms from where the Brantford milk men secure their milk supply. He will also inspect all cheese factories and slaughter houses in this vicinity, he is to be paid the sum of $200 for the remainder of the year. Sewer Extensions. The following sewer extensions were recommended: Edward street from Gordon to Huron. Emily Street from Webling to Brighton Place. Gordon street from Emily to Edward.

McClure avenue from Terrace Hill to Dundas. Nelson street from Rawdon to Stanley. Oak Street from Brant to Winnett. Burford street from Oxford to city limits. Alonzo street from Bedford to St. Paul's Avenue. Brant street from Grant to Burford. Dead Horse. Some of the members of the board did not like the idea of having to pay $3.00 for the removal of the horse owned by James Nightingale and killed by stepping on a live wire on Brock street. The bill was paid but there will likely be more said about the account later on.

Willie Frach. Willie, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Frach, 11 Princess St., was laid to rest yesterday in Mount Hope cemetery. Rev. Chapman conducted the services.

Donald Bladdell. The funeral of Donald, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bladdell, Darling street, took place yesterday afternoon from the parents residence to Mt. Hope cemetery. Rev. R. D. Hamilton officiated.

BRANT HOUSE CLERK HAD HIDDEN MONEY

Confessed After Examination by Detective—Produced it From Garden.

BURLINGTON, Aug. 1.—He was rather a pathetic spectacle when they found him, bruised and beaten and still in a dazed and semi-conscious condition, lying outside the Brant Hotel at 5.28 o'clock this morning. Attendants at the hotel rendered first aid to the injured and he was gradually revived.

Then he told his story—this battered and bleeding night clerk and watchman—told it in a dazed and puzzled way, punctuating the tale with groans and sighs. He was on duty last night—dual duty of clerk and watchman. At a late hour Mr. Charles Harris, who had spent the afternoon at the Hamilton race course, reached the hotel and summoned him to take $1,450 in cash to deposit in the hotel safe. He took the money, he said, and placed it in the safe.

Just at 2.45 o'clock this morning two men, who must have witnessed the transaction, suddenly entered the hotel and held him up at the point of a revolver. They marched him outside, and no sooner had they done so than one of them struck him a staggering blow on the back of the head, felling him to the ground. For a time he struggled manfully, but the assault was too vicious, and he lapsed into insensibility. He remembered no more until they found him after daybreak in a sadly bruised and beaten condition. Incidentally, the whole deposit of $1,450 had disappeared.

There was much excitement and much sympathy for the brave and battered man. Early in the afternoon Provincial Inspector Henry Reburn appeared on the scene and set about investigating. The Inspector seemed much impressed with the watchman's story—so much so that

PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER HEROINE OF FIRE

MISS MARGARET WOODROW WILSON

Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, is the heroine of Englewood, Pa., and the local fire department intends to make her an honorary member of the organization. At a fire in a cottage adjoining the hotel at which she was stopping she acted the part of a fireman and braved flames and a rainstorm to help save the goods of the tenants. Miss Wilson was assisted by a half dozen other girls, who, inspired by her fearlessness, worked with no apparent thought of their own safety.

The burned cottage belonged to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dodge, of Washington, who are well acquainted with the Wilson family. Mrs. Murphy, their married daughter, was living with them, and her baby, two months old, was carried out of the burning house by a fireman.

He got him to repeat it several times with all its gruesome and tragic details. The officer also interested himself in the affairs of the watchman, his little cottage home on the grounds and his diligent gardening proclivities.

Then Inspector Reburn had another talk with the watchman. At his conclusion early this evening they summoned Mrs. A. Coleman, wife of the proprietor, to accompany them to the watchman's garden. Here the latter interested the Inspector and proceeded to dig. Bye-and-bye he struck something. When excavated it proved to be a package which he promptly handed to Mrs. Coleman. Within was the $1,450 in bills intact. Mrs. Coleman took the money and Inspector Reburn took the watchman. His name is Fred Cleish and he has a wife and two children. He will come up for trial on Monday next.

How Cleish succeeded in beating himself into a state of semi-insensibility after burying his boots is a mystery. Everyone declares it was an artistic job, and but for the alertness and sagacity of Inspector Reburn would have proved successful.

SECTION WORKERS MAKE DEMANDS

Three Thousand Grand Trunk Men Want Better Living Wage.

OTTAWA, Aug. 1.—The labor department has received from 3,000 maintenance-of-way employees of the Grand Trunk Railway, an application for a board of conciliation. The points at issue are wages and conditions of employment. The Grand Trunk Pacific trackmen are not involved. There have been no recent strikes or walkouts of any importance, and where the men have struck in small numbers for increase of wages and shortening of hours there has been little trouble by the railway companies in filling their places under the old working conditions.

Formerly the only redress possible for section men was from the railway companies, and if they declined to listen to the complaints the men had no appeal. It is with a view to changing all this that the men here and elsewhere have been quietly organizing, and the appeal to the labor department at Ottawa is the first step in a campaign to get the same rights for section men as the train men have with regard to employment conditions. There was a walkout of a few maintenance men on the Michigan Central Railway at St. Thomas a few weeks ago, the men asking for an increase over their wage of $1.65 a day, with no reference to length of working hours. The men were given no redress whatever and their places were easily filled at the old conditions.

Grace Church vs. Trinity. The above game is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. sharp. The team to represent Grace Church will be: J. Usher (capt.) W. West, T. Chamberlain, G. Whitwill, J. R. Napier, J. Frost, C. Smith, J. Wilson, S. Branton, J. Cummins, A. Smith, Reserves, J. A. Foot and Maycock.

Big Mill Destroyed. CRANBROOK, B.C., Aug. 1.—The Standard Lumber Company Mill, two miles south, one of the largest in the district, with a daily output of thirty thousand feet, was totally destroyed by fire. The cause is supposed to have been a hot electric on an edge machine. The loss is estimated at thirty five thousand dollars, partially insured.

Weston's Walk. ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 1.—With in twenty nine miles of the end of his walk from New York to Minneapolis, Edward Payson Weston left Stillwater, Minn., to-day expecting to arrive in St. Paul late this afternoon. He will remain here to-night and depart for Minneapolis to-morrow morning.

LLOYD GEORGE ATTACKS LORDS

Delivers Strong Speech Before a Large Gathering in Wales.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, Aug. 1.—Mr. David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, addressing an audience of ten thousand people at Carnarvon, in Wales, yesterday, delivered a remarkable speech, in which he made an appeal to democracy against the House of Lords. The Chancellor did not spare language in denouncing the Peers and his enemies among the press, who again seized the occasion to characterize his speech as a further example of "limehouse." The speaker in demanding the abolition of the Lords said that the Premier had already announced that next year he would introduce a measure for a new second Chamber. It would be a Chamber in which all parties, or sections, and all creeds would have equal freedom. Another of the Chancellor's utterances was that democracy stood in greater peril than for generations in this country. Bye-and-bye the Liberal Governments would have no powers except such as the Lords vouchsafed to them. The Liberal Premier would have to go round to Belgrave and ask the butler, to tell him "my Lord's orders for the day." The Peers were prepared to resort to violence to prevent the Commons even discussing a measure which they disliked.

Tory Bills Family Affairs. Tory bills were treated as members of the family in the Lords. Liberal measures had to leap viers at intervals unless they were speared in the meantime. There were to be two constitutions, one for Tory Governments and another for Liberal Parliaments. The Tories wanted to choose their laws a la carte. The Tories were negotiating revolution, but the men who precipitated revolutions rarely saw them through. No self-respecting country could tolerate any longer the arrogant claim of these Peers that they have a hereditary right without authority from the nation to fashion to their own tastes the ideas and the laws under which 45,000,000 people are governed.

AVIATOR DESTROYS MEXICAN GUNBOAT. The Mexican federal gunboat Tampico was destroyed by a bomb dropped from an aeroplane over Guaymas Harbor, according to an official message from the constitutionalists. Didier Masson, aviator, who on June 19 flew over the field at Ortiz and dropped bombs that killed fifty-two men in the command of General Obregon, made the flight that resulted in the loss of the war ship. He made three journeys over the harbor, it is reported, before he finally landed a bomb on the vessel.

Lill Walks Six Men in Two Innings, Replaced by Clermont Who Allowed Thirteen Hits in Seven Innings--Score 16-0

PETERBORO, Aug. 1.—By distributing two singles and a sacrifice fly with one pass, the Petes scored six runs on the Lill in the second inning of yesterday's game and took ten more in the seventh. Truce held the Brants in scattered hits and the visitors failed to get a man to third base. Clermont accepted eight chances in the field and the Petes had two fast double plays. Fox's home run was the result of a hard hit ball down first base. Powell couldn't get near and Jones made no effort to field until Fox was at second. Joe Byrne returned to the game with a sore hand, and committed some brilliant fielding, core.

GUELPH'S ERRORS LOST THE GAME

London Won After Twelve Innings by Score of 8-7.

GUELPH, Aug. 1.—Before the largest crowd which has attended a ball game in many years in this city, the Maple Leafs were defeated by the London team, leaders of the Canadian league yesterday. It was the weirdest exhibition of baseball on the part of the local team seen here this season, they having no less than ten errors chalked up against them, and thereby losing a twelve inning battle by the score of 8 to 7. Beche was on the mound for the Blokes, and was hit hard throughout, only sensational fielding saving him from a bad beating. Stark started for the Leafs, and was also hit hard, but with anything like good support would have won easily. The Leafs tied the score in the eighth inning, and then Fitzpatrick went into pitch. He had the visitors completely at his mercy, not a single hit being got off his delivery, three errors in the twelfth inning presenting the game to the Blokes. Score—

OTTAWA BEAT HAMILTON
The Senators Hit Garlow Freely Throughout the Game

HAMILTON, Aug. 1.—By garnering twelve hits, five of which were good for two bases, off Garlow, Ottawa beat Hamilton here yesterday by a 5 to 1 score. It was Ottawa's superior playing in all stages of the game that won the first game of the series here. Garlow was Manager Lee's choice as the mound artist, but he did not live up to his reputation of having only one bad inning in a game. He was hit freely in several frames, and it was only the good holding of his team mates that saved him from getting a worse walloping. He had good consolation through the greater part of the game, only allowing one free transportation, and one

BOSTON OUTPLAYED ST. LOUIS.
Maranville and Lord Each Made Home Runs.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1.—The Boston Braves took the second game of the series with the Cardinals yesterday afternoon by the score of 6 to 5. This was mainly as the result of the hitting of Maranville and Lord, the former getting a single and a home run out of five times at bat, and the latter three singles and a home run out of five times at the bat. The circuit drive by Maranville in the second inning sent in two runs ahead of him. Score by innings—

Toronto Scored Six Runs in the Second Inning Off Two Pitchers.

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—In a game which made you feel at times as if your horse had gone down at the first jump, and then at other stages made you wish that Jupiter Pluvius would descend in all his glory, the Leafs yesterday defeated the Grays by the score of 11 to 4. It took two hours and twenty innings to wade through the nine innings, during which time the visitors used three twirlers and the locals two. Score—

McGraynor, after holding the leaders to a pair of singles for six innings, weakened in the seventh, when three runs were scored. The pitcher's own error accounted for two of them. DOONIN'S OUTFIT WON

Philadelphia Defeated Cincinnati by a Score of 9 to 4.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 1.—The Phillies took kindly to the offerings of Brown, while Seaton kept the locals hits scattered, and Philadelphia won the second game of the series by 9 to 4. Seaton had one bad inning, the eighth, when the bases were full and one run had been forced across with none out. Riskey came to the rescue, and extinguished the local batsmen, only one run resulting. Score by innings: Philadelphia . . . 13000401—9 Cincinnati . . . 010100020—4

Artist Never Undressed

LONDON, Aug. 2.—An inquest at Paddington on an eccentric artist, Alfred Joseph Roff, 65, who was discovered dead in his room at Bravington place, revealed evidence that he had not undressed for several years. He spent his time lying on the bed painting pictures, all of which had been sold. He had completed a picture for which he had a commission the last day of his life.

Hertford Won't Marry

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The marquis of Hertford, who as the Earl of Yarmouth married Alice Thaw, contrives to keep continually in the public eye. After setting all London talking over his engagement to the very rich elderly widow, Mrs. Moss-cocle, he re-wakens interest just as the excitement is waning by announcing that the marriage will not take place.

HISTORY IS RE-ENACTED.

BRISTOL, Eng., Aug. 1.—History was re-enacted again here when Julius Caesar, a sailor, was stabbed by John Brutus, a weaver. Caesar was ambitious, and that caused the trouble. Julius was ambitious to have a drink in a public house and have Brutus pay for it. Brutus refused and the affray ensued. The couple rushed into the street when Brutus whipped out a knife and cut the sailor about the right arm. The assailant was arrested.

Sporting Comment

BY FREE LANCE 16-o sounds like a William Jennings Bryan war cry, only the one isn't there. Joe Lill only passed six men in two innings yesterday, and Peterboro secured six runs. Well, that was the game right there. That Berlin club is surely playing good ball. Winning a double-header from St. Thomas is no easy feat, and it shows that Manager White is making good on his job. Pitcher Clermont seems to have lost some of his effectiveness, as well as ambition since the early part of the season. If the boy held his head up he might develop into a good pitcher. Cleveland, by putting the kibosh on Boston twice yesterday, did something to keep the American League race interesting. If the Athletics started to do any slumping, which is hardly possible, there might be an upset in the American race. Lamond took Kane's place in left field yesterday and had eight put outs to his credit. The records fail to point out how many other hits Lamney chased in left field which would not have been gathered in behind Clermont with a net. Knotty Lee says he will change the face of the baseball map by arranging two international class C leagues instead of having one truly Canadian institution. For the very reason that the league is at present Canadian in character. Knotty will not succeed in his venture. It's only a dream. Yesterday at the Hamilton race meet there was the smallest attendance of the meeting. Several reasons might be adduced for the slump, one being the oppressive heat. The card of races, however, was not up to the standard; several events bringing out only a mediocre lot of horses. The public has also a growing suspicion that crooked work is frequently pulled off, and the judges are having a busy time clearing up. The latest stroke of business in this regard was the ruling off of Dandelos, a Chicago Greek, whose plunging has been the sensation of racing for some time. Dandelos has been in the habit of making the bookies wipe the prices off their slate by betting $7,000 or over to a race. Then he started making book himself, and on Wednesday last laid big odds against Plate Glass, the best horse in the race. Plate Glass lost, and the jockey is doing some explaining. This is one of the races which the public, as well as the judges can see through, but there is a lot of stuff which even escapes the notice of the trained and efficient officials in the judges' stand. It's the game. Fact. "Sin always finds the wrong-doer out." "You're mistaken. It generally finds him in and ready to listen."—Chicago Record Herald.

With the Irish Guards Band and Patrick Conway's band both giving three concerts daily at the Canadian National Exhibition, lovers of band music will be able to compare the best English and American bands. The Irish Guards are undoubtedly the most popular of the Guards' bands and that means the most popular of European military bands, while Conway's band has succeeded, Gilmore's band being the popular favorite in the republic to the south of us. They have devised an ingenious albeit somewhat mischievous method of ducking Langford out on the coast. He is not to be allowed to fight there because he is a prize fighter "with an international reputation." The idea evidently being that it wouldn't be fair to the boys who have stuck around home. Speaking of fighters with an international reputation, has any one taken steps to bar Bombardier Wells? If not, why not? Wells has more of a decided international reputation than any one we know. He has been knocked out, in nearly every city of importance in the known world and once in Belgium. A skate weighing 221 lbs., the largest ever taken with rod and line, was caught by Mr. T. Tucker, of the British Sea Anglers' Society, while fishing from a boat at Ballycotton, Ireland.

RITCHIE WILLING TO MEET WOLGAST.

Champion Says the Conditions of the Challenge Suit Him to a Nicety. LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—Willie Ritchie is there with the "come back" thing. The lightweight champion hands Wolgast an answer well calculated to curl the hair about Adolph's temples. Saturday Wolgast posted 1,600 with Jim Jeffries, the same to go as a forfeit on a $25,000 side bet to Ritchie. One-half this amount was to be bet that Wolgast would whip the title holder in a 20-round battle, the other half to go as a straight wager that he would knock-out, stop or force Ritchie to quit inside the limit. "We call Wolgast's proposition," said Ritchie last night. "We accept Wolgast's invitation just as it says, the only stipulation we make is that half the amount $12,500, be posted on the day the articles are signed, the remainder to go up ten days before the contest. LONDON, Aug. 1.—A sack of earth has reached London which was brought from Lisbon for ex-King Manuel to stand on when he is married to Princess Augusta Victoria of Hohenzollern, at Sigmaringen, September 4. The most prized wedding present which Manuel has received is a leaden ring, made and sent him by the political prisoners in Portugal. The craftsmen who worked on the ring, including jewelers, obtained the medal lead and pewter utensils. The ring is engraved with the royal arms. Before it was smuggled out of the prison it was knised in turn by all the imprisoned Royalists.

Hereditry in Handwriting

Science Wakes Up to a Fact Public Has Long Realized.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Non-scientific persons have long realized the remarkable similarity in handwriting of members of the same family, some times lasting for half a dozen generations, and now it seems that science is at last waking up to this suggestive fact in heredity.

I have lately been reading old letters dating back to the early part of the eighteenth century, and I have been struck with the way in which mere handwriting is handed down from father to son, and mother daughter. It is possible to trace quite clearly my great-grandfather's writing in that of my cousins and my father's and my own. If mere handwriting is thus transmitted, together with the tone of the voice and the shape of the nose, the question arises whether any one need be ashamed of his defects, sorry for his misdeeds, proud of his success, or satisfied with the consciousness of virtue.

We may feel the long arms of our ape-like ancestors stretching out of the past and moulding our characters. We may read all that has ever been written about free will from the time of Aristotle, and we may hug the notion that our actions have been predetermined from the nebulous state of our planet.

But it makes no difference to us. We are still doggedly convinced that by taking thought we can add one cubit to our stature, or at any rate prevent it being one cubit less."

Sarcastic Doctor. "You should never take medicine in the dark," said the doctor. "Why not, doc?" "Well, it encourages the fool-killer to neglect his job."—Kansas City Journal.

Why Red-Headed Girls Are Popular is Now Explained

Finest of Complexion Often Found on Them—Are Usually Passionately Devoted to Their Friends and Loved Ones.

Some interesting facts concerning red-haired people have been given to the world recently by Monsieur Girard, a French scientist. It seems that for many hundreds of years no one has ever been able to explain why a girl who has red hair is so sure to be popular with her men-friends, why she is never a wall-flower at a dance, and almost sure of a seat in the car, or why men are so persistently gallant to a red-haired girl and find her on the whole so intensely alluring.

Hot-tempered and jealous but it always makes them affectionate and they have a reputation for passionate devotion. A loyal friend but a relentless enemy is the red-haired woman. When a red-haired woman has dark blue or violet eyes and dark lashes she is good to have for a friend and bad to have for an enemy. All red-haired women are jealous.

Always Affectionate. This often makes them impulsive.

Why Mrs. Dionne Praises Dodd's Kidney Pills

One of the oldest of remedies for kidney trouble is the fact that, despite prolonged enquiry among thousands of families, scientists have been successful in obtaining only two cases where both parents had red hair. Through the red hair was not a clear red in both parents, all of the eight children had red hair. If only one parent has red hair the offspring is not so likely to have it. Red-haired offspring may come from two brown or from two glossy black-haired parents. In that case both dark-haired parents will probably have had ancestors with red hair.

BUMPER WHEAT CROP

Thousands of Men Required in Western Canada.

This Year's Harvest Promises to be the Largest in the History of Canada.

According to present indications, the wheat crop of 1913 will be the greatest ever harvested in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta, thus requiring the farm laborers of the East to assist in harvesting the world's greatest bread basket.

The Governments of the respective Provinces state that many thousand men will be required for this year's harvest. These will have to be principally recruited from Ontario, and the prosperity of Canada depends upon securing labor promptly. The Canadian Pacific, on which company will fall practically the entire task of transporting the men to the West, is already making special arrangements for this year.

Excursions from points in Ontario to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will be run and special trains operated, making the trip in about thirty-six hours and avoiding any change of cars or transfers. This will be a day shorter than any other route. Dates, rates and conditions will be announced in a few days.

STRONGER NAVY WITH OIL FUEL

Striking Statement by Mr. Churchill—Coming Contract.

Mr. Winston Churchill, in the House of Commons on Thursday, made a striking statement dealing with the new conditions of Naval efficiency brought about by the introduction of oil fuel instead of coal.

Oil fuel, he said in effect, had already increased the effective strength of the British Navy. Speed, range of action, and endurance were all increased by the use of oil.

Though a large number of smaller war vessels now being built would be dependent on oil fuel, the fine battleships of the present year's programme would burn coal, having oil as an auxiliary only.

The First Lord also made an important statement as to a contract for the supply of oil which Lord Cowdray and Lord Murray were connected with. "If there are any insinuations of charges to be made," he said significantly, "now is the time to make them."

In the event of the continuance of the House being withheld he and his colleagues at the Admiralty would seek release from their responsible positions.

The fate of the Canadian Naval Bill would cause the acceleration of the British programme.

Dependent on Oil
Mr. Churchill deprecated the habit of expecting that every speech made by the First Lord on the Navy Estimates must contain some momentous announcement. There seemed to be an insatiable appetite for new programmes. The programme of the year was unfolded in the First Lord's statement issued in March, and only very exceptional circumstances made any departure from it necessary.

There were several questions which might be advantageously discussed, and he would turn first to one of the most important of these, the question of oil fuel. In the year 1910 a flotilla of ocean-going destroyers was dependent wholly or partly upon oil fuel. Since then another flotilla of "oil only" destroyers had been built. There were now built or building more than 100 destroyers—he purposely left the number vague—including coastal destroyers, which were wholly dependent upon oil fuel. Similarly during the last five years oil had been employed in coal-burning battleships and cruisers to enable them to realize the full power.

At the time he became responsible for Admiralty administration, in the Autumn of 1911, there were more than 130 ships built or building dependent wholly or partly on oil. One of his earliest enquiries, in November 1911, was directed to the position of the oil supply of the fleet. He found that no difficulty had been experienced in buying all the oil that was needed, and the price was then practically equal to that of coal, after making due allowance for the reduced calorific value of oil.

A warship that burned oil possessed a large excess of speed over one burning only coal or burning both coal and oil. The radius of action of a warship using oil was increased by nearly 50 per cent. for the same weight of fuel. Oil bunkers could be replenished with greater speed, and fewer men were required.

The operation of coaling was lengthy and laborious. It exhausted the energies of the crew. Oil also had the advantage over coal of permitting a very rapid increase of steam production. A coal-burning ship could not obtain her full power without throwing a great strain on the personnel.

The use of oil instead of coal made it possible to produce a ship which would fulfil every condition of speed and armor at a smaller cost. Furthermore, the greatest advantage of oil fuel in solving the problem of our naval design made it possible to obtain vessels of very high speed compared with their dimensions, which could not be obtained if coal remained the only fuel.

British Advantage
All the advantages dependent on the use of oil could be obtained by other nations, but there was one specific advantage which could be enjoyed by the British fleet—the strongest navy need not be forced to leave its fighting position to replenish its fuel. Oil could be transferred easily from one vessel to another.

Everything that had occurred since the programme of 1911-12 had justified the view then taken of a proper evolution of naval construction.

The vast battleship, armed with 15-in. guns seemed likely to be superseded, though at a considerable distance, by our principal competitors, and those vessels, together with the light armoured cruisers, commanded wide and general assent throughout the Navy. The new type of battleships and cruisers was conceived in relation to the practical needs and the kind of war that was most likely to be experienced.

The first light cruisers played an important part in our tactics, and neither of those vessels could have been satisfactorily constructed on a coal-burning basis without inflicting extraordinary hardship on the personnel and without increasing the length and cost of the vessel.

An increase of length beyond the present dimensions would have raised the whole docking problem in a formidable shape.

Having mentioned that the Malaya would increase the number of our oil battleships to five, Mr. Churchill told the House that oil had been used for some time for the new flotillas of destroyers. We had been compelled to use oil fuel for almost the entire field of the construction programme of 1912-13. These conditions were repeated in the present year. There were eight light cruisers and sixteen instead of twenty destroyers, and for both these types oil fuel must be used.

The five battleships of the present year are to be coal-burning using oil as an auxiliary.

POOR MAN RISES FROM POVERTY TO WEALTH

Penniless Man Proves Right to Fortune on His Birthday.

Wednesday was a happy day for George Brencley, for not only was it the anniversary of his birthday, but he then proved in the Bow County Court his right to a fortune. Yet not long back he was taken to a workhouse in a condition so serious that he was thought to be dying.

The matter concerned the estate of a woman named Brewer, and pending the settlement as to whom it belonged, the money was deposited at the Bow County Court. Brencley happened to see that the relatives of Brewer were advertised for, and he went to Mr. Ferens, a Hill solicitor. An affidavit was necessary for the establishment of his claim, and he swore it, but he said he hadn't a penny in the world. Being a stranger to him, Mr. Ferens advised him to walk.

Some little time later he heard that the man had been taken to the Scotch Hospital, Hull, in a deplorable condition. When Brencley visited Mr. Ferens he gave the name of the clergyman where he had lived for the first twenty years of his life at Oldbury as the Rev. T. T. L. Baillif, and this proved to be correct in every particular.

Mr. Ferens, who had come down from Hull, said he now had an affidavit of a man who had known Brencley for ten years, and there was his birth certificate. A solicitor for an interested party said the baptismal certificate which had been produced did not give the maiden name of the mother of Brencley, which was an essential point.

"He was born in 1848, in fact, sixty five years ago to-day," said Judge Smyly, "so I don't know how we could verify the matter. Can we make him one of the descendants?"

"One of the nephews," said Mr. Ferens. "I am in your honor's hands. I am not in a position to dispute the claim," said the solicitor.

"Then I will declare him to be the ninth descendant of the deceased," said Judge Smyly.

Costs of the application for the declaration and of the parties summoned to be present were ordered to be paid out of the funds in court.

Mysterious disappearance of despatch boxes containing some old family documents from Drissey Castle, Cork, is exercising the ingenuity of the police force. The boxes belonged to Mrs. Georgina Colhurst, and if they were stolen it must have been by someone who imagined their contents more valuable. Several of the letters date back as far as the year 1270, and cover the period from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries. It is understood that they were to have been used in connection with the writing of the family history. They included communications from the Smedley and Greenhow families, and one or two are said to have been written by members of the Royal Family. The despatch boxes, and also a smaller mahogany box, were not missed for some time, so that the work of the police in fathoming the mystery is rendered more difficult.

Asquith Rubs His Nose When in Deep Thought

Bonar Law is Colorless and Starts Speech by Shouting Balfour Uses Indecent Amount of Stationery, and Rosebery Drinks Water When Speaking.

[From the London News and Leader.] Old Parliamentary hands recall how when Mr. Gladstone was in legislation, he invariably scratched the back of his head with his thumb. Mr. Asquith does not do that; but when in deep thought he constantly rubs the left of his nose with his finger, and when he is under criticism and annoyed it is his invariable practice to claw at his left elbow as though an unwelcome little visitor was endeavoring to make a meal of that portion of his anatomy.

As a rule Mr. Asquith sits with his arms folded during the debate. When he discerns a flaw in an opponent's argument he beams rosy, produces an old envelope from his pocket and scribbles a note. When wrathful at some allegation being made he does not jump up in hot repudiation, but hides his time. It is easy, however, to see when he is perturbed. He tightens his lips, then apparently breathes hard until he is red in the face.

Law is Colorless

On the other hand Mr Bonar Law is quite colorless under admiration or admonition. With legs crossed and hands limp in his lap he sits a quiet, contemplative, expressionless, almost demure man. He never gives any indication when he is going to speak. He has no notes to fumble with or to improve in the course of the discussion. There is never any fire in his eye. No matter how fierce and taunting may have been the onslaught or how excited the chamber is he rises with apparently no concern.

He always begins in a minor key and not infrequently shouts when distant parts of the house command him to speak up. It is slowly that he gets into his oratorical stride. And whilst doing so his voice increases in timbre and he slaps the table before him with his open hand and attacks the prime Minister in a manner which might suggest that however quiet, modest and retiring he is in private—for that is his character—he is something of a termagant in debate.

Apparently he speaks on the spur of the moment. This is not so, despite the absence of notes. Because whenever he quotes a statement of an antagonist, or makes some statement which is repudiated, he slips his finger into one of his waistcoat pockets and produces his corroboration. It is a joke among habitués at Westminster that each of Mr Bonar Law's pockets is labelled for particular quotations.

George's Notes

Mr. Lloyd George generally has a bunch of scraps, notes prepared at odd moments, which he places, biggledy, piggedly, on the brass-edged box which guards the edge of the table. It is a testimony to his skill that whilst he is developing a point he will be searching through the sheets before him, looking for a note bearing on the subject with which he intends next to deal. Though everybody is expected to address the Speaker, the Chancellor of the Exchequer usually turns his back on the chair, even fails to address the opposition, but turns round to the benches where his own friends are seated and talks to them. He has not the measured literary touch which distinguishes the speeches of Mr. Churchill; but there is a soft lilt in his voice which makes his speeches very human. Nearly every other sentence begins with "Well, now then." He will push off with "Well, now then," sixty times in sixty minutes.

Balfour Bad Writer

Maybe one of these days an account will be sent in to Mr. Balfour for stationery. He is the man who has introduced the practice, followed by a good many other men, of using the face of foolscap envelopes, on which to inscribe the heads of his arguments. When he rises he throws three or four of these envelopes on the box before him. That, however, is all he ever does with them. Perhaps this is as well, for Mr. Balfour is one of the most illegible of writers.

Churchill is Pusher

Mr. Churchill always wants to sit next to Mr. Asquith. No matter how full the treasury bench may be, he walks right up to the middle of it and sits down between Mr. Asquith and his neighbor, whoever that neighbor happens to be. There may not be an inch of room, but Mr. Churchill pushes backwards and the others have to yield a bit; then he pushes again and they have to yield some more, and so gradually, after successive pushings, he gets other men to shift and he secures the place which he desires to occupy. He has adopted Mr. Balfour's plan of using foolscap envelopes for his notes. Unlike Mr. Balfour, however, he pays very close attention to them.

No man prepares his speeches more carefully than does the First Lord of the Admiralty and, whilst this adds considerably to their literary merit, when read by the public the following morning, it certainly detracts from the efficacy of the speech whilst being delivered. Having the navy under his charge he is very seldom in the House during these latter days. Formerly he spent a good deal of his time listening to debate.

Being a nervous man he is never able to sit still, but talks in by no means a low voice to whoever is next to him, so that occasionally there are cries of "Order, order, Churchill." Then he has the practice of lifting up an agenda paper, pulling free a double sheet, twirling it between finger and thumb from corner to corner, until it is like a long pipe-light, bending it over, sticking one end into the other until it forms a triangle, and then twirling it around his finger.

Rosebery a Waterman

Lord Rosebery sits on the front cross bench. He always lies back with his hands clasped behind his head. He must have a table to lean against. Whenever he speaks in the country there must be a solid piece of woodwork that he can grip on to or rest his elbows upon, or else he could not speak at all. Accordingly, when he addresses the House of Lords he moves from his place, walks up the floor till he comes to the table and then he is all right. In the Commons, though, a friend may go on and return with a glass of water—sometimes it is slightly amber in hue, to slake the parched lips of a speaker, there are always huge glass jars of water upon the table for the peers. Lord Rosebery generally fills a tumbler and has a long drink before starting. In the course of his oration he has many other long drinks, and it is reckoned that whilst on his legs he consumes water at the rate of a quart an hour.

GOOD BLOOD THE SECRET OF HEALTH

To be Healthy You Must Keep the Blood Rich, Red and Pure.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are used in any disease caused by thin or impure blood, and the list of such diseases is astonishingly large. Anemia literally means a condition in which the blood is thin and watery. In rheumatism the blood becomes thin more rapidly than in any other disease. After an attack of influenza or acute fevers the blood is always thin and impure and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the tonic to use during convalescence. When the blood is poor and thin the stomach suffers. The food ferments, gas and certain acids form and the trouble is pronounced indigestion or dyspepsia. The nerves receive from the blood all of their nourishment to keep up their energy and repair waste or damage. Some forms of paralysis are caused by thin blood. The progress of locomotor ataxia is stopped in many cases when the blood is made pure, rich and red. This is only a partial list of the troubles having their origin in impure, watery blood, and all can be cured by supplying the blood with its missing constituents.

This is exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. Their chief mission is to make rich, red blood, and this good blood reaches every organ and every nerve in the human body, thus driving out disease and bringing renewed health and strength to thousands of weak, dependent people.

Ask your neighbors. There is not an inhabited corner in Canada where Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have not stored some sufferer, and all over this country there are grateful people who do not hesitate to say they owe their health—in some cases life itself—to this great medicine. If you are ailing begin to cure yourself to-day by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Sold by all dealers in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
