On 279 Special Trains,
C. G. Railways

Up to March 1st 757,400
Troops have travelled over Government Railways.

Thousands arrive each week at Halifax and are sent forward to Dispersal Areas.

Since the war began in 1914 up to March 1st, when S.S. Belgic disembarked her returned soldier passengers at Halifax 757,400 troops have been carried on special trains over the Canadian Government Railways.

The first train which carried troops over the Government Railways the year the war was declared was numbered one and all special troop trains to and from Halifax since that time have been numbered consecutively. The last train from the Belgic was on Saturday No 1279. Each train averages about twelve cars with an average of 50 men to a car, which figures up a total of 757,400 men carried. Of course in addition to this thousands of soldiers have journeyed between Montreal and Halifax by regular trains during the past four years.

The movement of troops back to Canada is now approaching its greatest activity. Last Sunday 5000 arrived at Halifax by the transports Lapland and Belgic and fifteen special trains were despatched westward inside of fourteen hours.

G. S. Megawie with soldiers and dependants arrived Wednesday and S.S. Adriatic is due Sunday. The movement of returning men is to be kept up actively all summer.

The Sacred Heart

It is now almost two hundred and fifty years since the three great revelations of Divine Love were made to Blessed Margaret Mary. The world-wide devotion to the Sacred Heart and the efficacy of such devotion have constituted testimonies for the divine source of these revelations which seemed conclusive to multitudes of pious souls long before the final word of Holy Church. Confidence in the promises made to our saint has been a dominating influence in the world and has sanctified millions of souls. There has been such a witness about devotion to the Sacred Heart that it has succeeded where other devotions have failed to touch hardened hearts.

Love has an irresistible charm. It could conquer the world if there were enough of it among men. The word of God has declared and Christ has demonstrated His power to draw all men of goodwill to Him, if they can only be made to know Him. He has loved men unto death, yea, the death of the cross. "And greater love than this no man hath, than that he lay down his life for his friends." He lives in His Church, sharing with His disciples the secret of His power to win men's hearts. He vitalizes all the Sacraments of the Church and abides in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. His tender solicitude for needy humanity beams in the eyes of the priestly and is evident in the tireless ministrations of consecrated nuns. Poor humanity not only blesses the hand that ministers, but glorifies the Lord who inspires such ministrations when it comprehends that He is the fountain head of holy love.

The failures of the Gospel have been due as often to the inadequacy of its exposition and exemplification as to the hardness of men's hearts. Theological exactness is most important, but it may be barren of results if there be none of that fire which the Lord came to cast upon the earth. Validity of orders and sacraments is of paramount importance in securing for every age the treasures of Redemption, but it does not draw to the fountains of living waters those who thirst if they have not yet learned where refreshment is to be found.

Love is the test of Christians as well as the fundamental law of the Gospel. "By this will all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." Thousands call themselves Christians who cannot measure up to such a standard. Love is a scandal to many even of those who are as exact in the observance of the Christian law as the Pharisees were in the observance of the Jewish law. They are ashamed of love and make outward conduct their supreme concern. They may win the esteem of men but their professions are in the ears of heaven like "sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal." Good works without love are as dead as faith without good works.

To the obtuse mind of the worldly love is one of the passing emotions of its ephemeral life. To the genuine Christian alone it appears in its true character as the most essential and elemental faculty of the human soul. In so far as a man can love he is like unto God, and he ceases to be even human when he ceases to love. He begins to deteriorate when he concentrates so divine a faculty upon anything less than God. He will fail in his quest for love where love is not to be found, and he will die the death when in despair he ceases to love. Blessed Margaret Mary would turn him back to his Lord and show him the unfathomable depth of divine love as manifested through the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She has made it evident that in that Sacred Heart there is peace as well as love to be found, such as is to be found nowhere else. And millions who have heeded her appeal have experienced how literally is the Lord ready to refresh those that come to Him however hopelessly they may be pressed down by labor and heavy burdens.

DO NOT DISMISS CONSTITIATION AS A TRIFLE. IT IS NOT.

Half the ill of life are caused by allowing the bowels to become constipated.

When the bowels become constipated the stomach gets out of order, the liver does not work properly, and then follows the violent sick and bilious headaches, sourness of the stomach, biliousness, heartburn, water brash, or the painful, retching internal bleeding or protruding piles.

Keep your bowels regular with Milburn's Laxative Pills and you need never be constipated.

Mrs. C. Henderson, Trail, B.C., writes: "I have been troubled with sick headaches and constipation most all my life. I have now been troubled for a long time. I have great faith in Milburn's Laxative Pills since using them."

Milburn's Laxative Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

through his intercession serve as so many witnesses attesting his sanctity.

Gabriel became a Saint by being faithful to the small duties of daily life. Well did he grasp the meaning of the words, "He that is faithful in little things will be faithful in those which are greater." His fidelity has today crowned him with the title of Saint, and will not God crown us also, perhaps not in this life, but in the next, if we too are faithful to our daily duties?

A true follower of Jesus Crucified, an ardent lover of our sorrowful Mother, a sincere imitator of his Holy Founder, the glorious St. Paul of the Cross, a strict observer of the austere rules of the Passionist Order, an heroic model of every virtue, our Gabriel merits by the grace of God henceforth to be known the wide world over as St. Gabriel of our Lady's Dolores, Passionist.

It was the wish of Pope Leo XIII that he become the special patron of our modern youth, and it is the earnest prayer of his fellow religious that he become the special patron of all.

Ten thousand francs for that old picture? I could understand it, of course, if you were offering a modern painting—with oil at its present prices. But in the eighteenth century oil wasn't worth more than four cents a gallon.

"You claim there are microbes in kisses?" she asked the young doctor.
"There are," he said.
"What disease do they bring?" she asked.
"Palpitation of the heart."

W. H. O. Wilkinson, Streetford says: "It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price 25 cents a box."

"So you think you are becoming near-sighted, do you?" said the optician.
"Yes I do," replied the tired business man.
"Because I can't see a dollar go near as far as I used to."

PIMPLES and BOILS For Nearly Two Years.

When pimples and boils appear on the face and body it seems as if the skin is the seat of the trouble, but the real cause is in the blood.

Lotions and ointments may allay the trouble for a while, but seldom if ever cure.

You have to get under the skin, get at the blood which is the cause of the trouble.

Burdock Blood Bitters goes direct to the root of the disease and restores healthy normal action to the different organs, and cleanses the blood of all its impurities.

Mr. E. C. Goodwin, Cambridge, N.B., writes: "For nearly two years I suffered from boils and pimples on my face and neck, and nearly all of my body was covered with the pimples. I tried most everything, but got no relief. One day a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using three bottles the boils and pimples had all left me and there is no sign of their return. I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone who is troubled with skin disease."

Saint Gabriel

From May 13 of this year, Blessed Gabriel of Our Lady's Dolores, Passionist, Blessed Margaret Mary, and Blessed Joan of Arc will universally be invoked as Saints.

Of these three marvels of God Blessed Gabriel of Our Lady's Dolores is, perhaps, the least known. Gabriel, known before his entrance into religion as Francis Possenti, was born on March 1st, 1838, at Assisi, Italy. He was baptized on the same day of his birth at the very font where seven hundred years before a Francis of Assisi became a child of God.

Gabriel's boyhood days, as we gather from his biography, were somewhat frivolous. In the midst of his worldliness the foul breath of sin never tarnished his soul. He knew that he bore within his breast a treasure, which treasure God demanded of him on three different occasions. The Divine Master stood at the door of his heart and knocked. The gentle raps were heard, but not hearkened to. The world, it would seem, had almost completely won his heart. Her charms so fascinated him that a special grace was needed to break the bonds that held him captive. The Divine call so haunted his soul that the world, which before displayed to his heart only pleasure, now presented him bitterness.

Francis succeeded in putting this first call aside for a while. The world in the meantime again cast her net about his heart, lifted him out of the sea of bitterness, and once more gave the pleasure-seeking boy her hand in dowry and let him feel and partake of her joys. Like all worldly pleasures his were not lasting. The Master turned away sorrowful, only to return and try again. Once more He stood at the door and knocked, but was told, "There is no room."

Francis was eighteen when he heard the Divine call for the third and last time. His conversion was wrought by a simple glance at the image of our Blessed Mother. As he gazed upon the image of our Lady her eyes seemed to search the depths of his soul, and her voice spoke clearly to his heart these words: "Why dost thou tarry in the world? My Son would have thee in the cloister." In an instant the chains which bound him to the world were broken forever, to be reformed into a chain of gold that would bind him forever to his Crucified Lord on the Cross. The world failed to satisfy his heart, so he turned to the Crucified Jesus and gave him all he had: life and talents.

Francis was received into the Passionist novitiate in August, 1857. A few weeks later on September 21st he was vested with the holy habit. He changed his name from Francis to 727—Bulletin—D. Three confreres Gabriel of our Lady's Dolores, Gabriel was a model novice, truly and sincerely seeking and practicing every virtue. He surmounted every difficulty when virtue was at stake. He fought the good fight, and was always victorious, as his holy life proved.

His year of novitiate completed, he made his vows on September 22, 1857. A few days later he began his studies in preparation for the priesthood, a consolation which for reasons known only to God he was not to experience. The continual drag on his weak constitution of upward of five years of study in no way dampened his effort in his strife for perfection. He had his temptations and trials, but these he used as a means to the end, namely, God. Confrater Gabriel ran his allotted course in a few short but fruitful years. He died in the odor of sanctity on February 27, 1862. Many miracles wrought

At The Federal Capital

The parliamentary week ending Saturday, June 19th, was productive of a large amount of legislative work in the House of Commons and marked a very considerable progress in the seasonal programme.

The greater portion of the sittings of Tuesday, June 15th, was devoted to further consideration of the luxury tax schedule, in connection with the Finance Minister's budget proposals.

Minister made many changes, to meet, as far as might be reasonably possible, the requests of members and business firms, but of course, as all will readily understand, it would be impossible for him to meet the desires of everyone.

During the greater part of the session a special committee of members of the House of Commons had under consideration recommendations for increases and amendments to the Pension Act, through which those wholly or partially disabled in consequence of their participation in the war, and the widows and orphans and other dependents of these, and of those who lost their lives in the war, are provided for.

Other matters of considerable importance discussed and passed upon in the Commons during the week were: the bill introduced by the Prime Minister to restrict exporting any commodity from Canada whenever the Government might find it necessary and also consideration of estimates for the Militia Department.

Montreal, June 28.—Tragedy roods over Vandeuil tonight owing to the virtually wiping out by drowning of a prominent Westmount family who were staying there for the summer. The victims are Mrs. W. F. Hamilton aged 36, two daughters, Louise and Yvette, aged 5 and 9 respectively, her niece Helen Hamilton, aged ten.

Party Ends in Tragedy

Montreal, June 27.—One woman was killed, a baby fatally injured, another woman may die, and two others were slightly injured when the floor of a third story balcony collapsed last night at 8.45 in Mount Royal Avenue, East, this city.

St. John, N. B., June 27.—A collision between a customs officer and a motor truck was the cause of much excitement last night at Milltown, N.B., and may result seriously for the driver of the truck. It had been the habit for the last few days to stop all suspicious looking characters who were going across the border in the hope of securing sugar, which has been smuggled into the United States by means of motor cars.

About three o'clock this morning a motor truck, driven by a St. Stephen man, was about to cross the bridge at Milltown when customs officer Coughlin, who is on duty at night, ordered him to stop, but instead of stopping he turned the machine in the official direction, meaning to scare him. Mr. Coughlin stood his ground, and before the machine could be brought round it struck the officer, knocking him down and dragging him several yards. Mr. Coughlin's son, who happened to be in the office at the time, ran to the rescue of his father. The driver of the truck received a blow over the head with a monkey wrench. The car contained no sugar. What action will be taken is not yet known.

Toronto, June 28.—Toronto's four day street railway strike came to an end at six o'clock this morning, when the cars were again put in commission manned by the employees of the Toronto Railway Company, who had been out since 4.30 last Wednesday evening. The offer of the Ontario Railway and Manitoba Board made to the men last Friday afternoon of a minimum wage of fifty cents an hour, an increase of five cents, was accepted at a mass meeting of the men on Saturday night after about an hour's consideration.

Rev. Dr. McLellan, Rector of St. Dunstan's University, arrived home Monday evening from Quebec.

The Car Ferry, Prince Edward Island, arrived here Sunday morning, where she will undergo repairs. Bruce Stewart and Co. have been given the contract.

Three armed masked bandits got away with $50,000 worth of jewelry, chiefly diamonds, and about $5,000 worth of Victory bonds, in Abram Rosenthal's jewelry store, Toronto, in broad daylight recently and left proprietor Rosenthal wounded in the head and tied and gagged in his cellar. The robbery occurred between 6.15 and 9.30 p.m., and the robbers made their departure from the vicinity of the store in a seven passenger car.

D. C. Coughdon, wanted in Halifax for the theft of eight thousand dollars worth of diamonds was arrested a few days ago. Nearly all the missing stones were found in his possession and they were later identified as belonging to the firm of Henry Birks and Sons from whom it was alleged they had been obtained under false pretences. Coughdon was arrested in a Hotel on Windsor Street after the detectives had received the description of the man from Halifax and were able to locate him.

Although he served in several battles with the Teuton armies in two countries for three years and came out without a scratch, David Cameron, while calling on Miss Margaret Rennie, assistant postmaster of Dominion, Sydney, (C. B.) on Wednesday, met with an untimely death. When he entered the post office Miss Rennie was removing the office revolver from one drawer to another. Cameron playfully seized Miss Rennie's hand, which held the weapon, and during the fun the revolver was discharged. The returned soldier died within a few minutes. Miss Rennie was overcome by the tragedy.

The fire alarm was given Monday afternoon a few minutes after five, and almost before the first peals of the bell had died away the leading trucks of the Fire Brigade were half way down Queen Street. The alarm was rung from 213 Water Street—part of a four tenement house opposite the freight shed. It was a very slight affair, and a few minutes application of the hose were enough to ensure safety. It seems the fire started from sparks from the flue. No interior damage was done, and a few ripped shingles on the roof were all the casualties.

Winnipeg, June 29—Fifty thousand farm laborers will be required to harvest the 1920 crop of the prairie provinces, it was estimated today by J. A. Bowman, provincial commissioner of colonization. He estimated that Manitoba required 15,000, Saskatchewan 20,000 and Alberta 15,000. On July 10th the Railway officials and members of the immigration and colonization department will meet to discuss a rate for laborers. Bumper crops in all three provinces warrant the increase, which is one-third greater than the number of men engaged in farm work last year Mr. Bowman said.

The St. John Exhibition Association is again going to hold a show and has fixed its dates at September 4th to 11th, inclusive. This will be the first Exhibition to be held in St. John since 1914, as the Exhibition plant has, for the last five years, been employed for Military purposes. The Militia Department have just handed back the plant and have also paid over a substantial amount to offset the damage done by their occupation, so that the Association is in a position to expend more money than is usually the case, and therefore expects to make this year's show a distinct success in every way. In addition to some splendid free acts in front of the Grand Stand, contracts have been entered into that will make the Midway a more elaborate affair than ever. These contracts include some seven riding devices and about fifteen big tent shows; in fact, the Midway will, this year, resemble a first class Summer Carnival rather than the fakier's row of former years.

Sudden Death.

The citizens of Charlottetown were startled this morning when they learned of the sudden death of Mr. Eneas A. McDonald, K.C., Judge of Probate for P. E. I. He was attending to his duties yesterday as usual. He returned home about eleven o'clock last night after an auto drive, and retired apparently in good health. Judge McDonald arose this morning at four o'clock and immediately fainted. Dr. Jenkins and Rev. Father Maurice McDonald were at once sent for, and they administered the aids of the physician and the Church before he expired at five o'clock.

Mr. McDonald was the eldest son of the late Hon. A. A. McDonald, one of the last of the Fathers of Confederation to pass away.

He was educated at St. Dunstan's College and Prince of Wales College. He studied in the law office of Peters & Peters and was admitted to the Bar in 1890.

Supreme Court Opens

The Trinity Term of the Supreme Court for Queen's County opened at Charlottetown yesterday forenoon. His Lordship, the Chief Justice, in charging the Jury, commented on the gratifying fact that the criminal docket was very small. There was only one case that against George Lund, charged with malicious injury to property by breaking and entering a Chinese restaurant and smashing glass in the front door and window.

Just before the Grand Jury retired to their rooms, the Attorney General called attention to the fact that a number of witnesses in the Lund case were Chinamen, and that probably an interpreter would be necessary. The interpreter was in court—rather a fine looking Chinaman—came forward, and on informing the Clerk that he was a Christian he was sworn in, in the usual way, by kissing the Book. He accompanied the Grand Jury and the witness to the jury room.

The Court then adjourned until three p. m.

DIED

McDONALD—In this city, June 30th, Judge Eneas McDonald, aged 55 years. Funeral from his late residence, Friday at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Catholic Cemetery.

GOFF—At Woodville Mills, suddenly on June 27th, George E. Goff, aged 57.

Look! Read! Realize.

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!!

We study the business: We know what suits a young man

we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W H Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00

Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00
