A., and Thos. McGillicuiddy, the superintendent of the school. dent of the school. The order was excellent, and there is a feeling that special services for children would, if more frequently held, help to increase the attendance of the young at the regular services of the church. The addresses were much enjoyed by the parents and the adults present.

"Nut" Social.—This entertainment, held in the North street methodist church lecture room on Friday evening, was fairly attended. The nuts, already cracked, were served in saucers, and many a joke was also cracked as the company stowed away the kernels. Rev. John Wakefield occupied the chair, and introduced a programme consisting of readings by miss Henderson and H. I. Strang; a quintette by misses Weston, Wakefield, W. CURISTMAS BOAT.—Notwithstanding counter attractions, there was a good attendance at the Christmas entertainment of the M. E. Sunday School, held in the church on Friday evening last. The proceedings began in the basement, and were opened by prayer from the Rev. J. A. Turnbull. A number of the children acquitted themselves were condit. Rev. J. A. Turabull. A number of the children acquitted themselves very creditably in recitations, dialogues and choruses, the closing dialogue bringing out nearly the full strength of the campany. A two masted boat, call the "Dove," was bedecked with presents up stairs, and thither the audience repaired to witness the degarnishing of the trim little craft. This was performed in a very interesting manner, and the young folks of the school (and some eld folks, too) went home happy with their presents. Rev. J. W. Sutton and his assistants deserve credit for the manner in which the entertainment was got up.

ALWAYS TAKE RECEIPTS. —At this time

ALWAYS TAKE RECEIPTS.—At this time of the year all persons are making more or less payment of moneys. In many cases the amounts are small, and they consider it derogatory to their dignity or honesty to take a receipt. This is a wrong principle, and only recently we have observed several disputes over settlements which might have been avoided if all which might have been avoided if all transactions, however small, had been conducted on a proper business basis. The more intimate you are with another the more reason is there to have every transaction thoroughly understood. Nothing preserves friendship better than correct settlements. It is very little trouble for anyone receiving money to give a rerect settlements. It is very little trouble for anyone receiving money to give a receipt fer it. So far as we are concerned we shall only be too glad to elucidate our theory by writing as many receipts as possible in return for the nominal amount of our subscription price. We hope to have our capacity strictly tested during the next few weeks.—[Ex.

A little page in castle hall
Fair faced, with golden hair,
Who waited his lady's lightest call
And stood at the baron's chair; Or sang, with silvery voice and sweet.

And chanted the evening prayer.

And life in the castle was bright and gay With chase ar I feast and dance, One hundred good knights held courtly play, And tilted with gleaming lance,-

When tidings came of invading foes, And war with haughty France.

Then rode the knights from the cast

gate
In glitter of martial pride,
Ready to meet the marriors' fate Or stand at the victor's side;
And within the walls, save page and serf
There were none, to shield or guide.

In the lady's bower was heard no song, All hearts were chill with dread;
The weary days, how sad and long!
Laughter and light were fled,
And when they chanted the evening

prayer
They were thinking of their dead Darker and deeper grew their woe

As Christmas eve drew near;
For the baron's flercest, deadliest foe,
With many a flashing spear,
Rode up and clattered the castle gate

"Good thirty men behind me ride, The bravest in the land ; I come to break your baron's pride, And offer a mailed hand, Will ye be crushed in its iron grasp? Or tamed to my command

"Ye are but women few and lorn; Your frighted menials flee;— Ho, lady! vain thy lofty scorn. Bring down the castle key!
Come down and plead for leave to live,
Upon thy bended knee!"

Then stood she up before them all, That lady brave and true;
So ye besiege defenseless wall,
And war with women few? I will not yield my castle key,

The knight laughed loud in bitter hate "Fine words, my lady bold; To-night, before thy castle gate,

We feast and revel hold, When the matin bells of Christmaschim

That night, within the lofty hall, Fair faces blanched with fear : Must we in vain for mercy call Is there no succor hear?"
What prayers rose up that dear night
Broken with sob and tear.

In the cold gray light of Christmas mo They wait the summons grim— What music on the air is borne, Thrilling the silence dim?

It is the voice of the little page,
Singing a Christmas hymn!

"O Christ, upon whose natal morn When o'er the blue Judean hills Their heavenly anthems rang

"O Christ, to whom with gifts from far Came shepherd, sage and king,— Our choicest gifts on this glad morn, Our hearts, we humbly bring !

"Grant us to follow Thee in love, Nor from Thy path to stray, Thy blessed feet have gone before And glorified the way.

"We join the angel choirs that sing

This happy morn again 'Glory to God the Lord most High, Good-will and peace to men!'

There were no faltering tones of fear In all-that joyous song;— The childish voice rang loud and clear The vaulted halls along,
And trembling ones who heard the strain Grew comforted and strong.

But soon below the castle wall Pealed out a trumpet blast, And hoarsely rose Sir Ronald's call:
"Thine hour hath come, at last!
Now yield me up thy castle key;
The respite time is past!"

The cruel words still filled the air When, with a valiant grace,
The little page sped down the stair
The dreaded foe to face.

The castle key gleamed in his belt.
As on he went apace. Great shouts of taunting mockery came From the armed band below,
"Ha! fallen house and haughty dame

End all your glories so !"
But Ronald shrank before the child, As from a sudden blow;

Then sternly spale: "There is no time For quip or parley now:
The matin bells have ceased to chime, And Ronald keeps his vow Go tell thy haughty lady there Her doomed head to bow."

"My Lord," the voice was low and clear,"One word to thee I bring; Not from a women white with fear, But from the Heavenly King,— A message which thou well mayest hear

"But if the holy Christmas hour Brings no kind thought to thee, My little life is in thy power, Set but my lady free, And I will bless thee c'en for death,

Before thou doest this thing !

Nor ask for liberty : " Do with me as thou wilt, my lord,-

Here is the castle key,— Yet give me first thy knightly word To set my lady free! given me this trust

The knight bowed his haughty head Upon his mailed hand, He who before a fee ne'er fied, Nor failed in fight to stand. Sat faint and white before them all, Unanswering and unmanned!

Slowly stretched forth a kindly arm, The voice grew loud and mild;
E'en haste could find no power to harm
The faithful, dauntless child,
"Live on, my boy, to sing again
Thy praises undefiled!"

He stood before the wondering boy, And raised the massive key;
I give three Christmas cheers and joy
Life for thy friends and thee;
The lady hath her liberty,
Thy hand hath set her free!"

The maidens cowering in the hall Hear a loud trumpet blare, And thirty horsemen from the wall Ride off in order fair. The little page with the castle key Comes slowly up the stair.

That night, at chime of vesper bell, Pealed forth an anthem choice; But far above the organ's swell Rang out a childish voice:
My soul shall magnify the Lord,
My heart in him rejoice!"

A CHRISTMAS CARD.

By William Allson

It was Christmas Day, and little Agnes was sitting at the window, watching the snowflakes as they fell, and wondering to herself where they came from, and what became of them after they had melted. As she watched them they fell into a sort of walking doze, which in its turn gave way to a sound sleep.

All of a sudden she heard what sounded like a clap of thunder, the floor opened, and down she fell, right through the house, until she reached the kitchen.

But to her great surprise she was not hurt a bit, and soon began to look around her, when, to her intense astonishment, the lid of the pot in which the pudding was being cooked slowly rose, and-wonder of wonders the pudding itself walked out on to the floor.

ST. PATRICK'S WARD.

GENTLEMEN—At the solicitation of many of my friends, I am again in the field as a candidate for the position of a Councillor in St. Patrick's ward. Having in the past held a seat at the Council Board, I can point to the fact that I gave satisfaction to the public as one of their servants, and I hope that the liberal support extended to me when I formerly came forward for election, will be again given to me on Monday next.

day next. Yours very truly, WILLIAM MITCHELL.

TO THE ELECTORS OF ST. PATRICK'S WARD

GENTLEMEN :-As I do not desire re-election to the Council Board as one of the representatives of your ward. I trust that you will not vote for me on the case, ing you for past support,
Your obedient servant,
M. G. CAMERON.

TO THE ELECTORS OF ST. DAVID'S WARD

GENTLEMEN,— Don't believe those who say that I am not a candidate for Councillor for St. David's Ward. I am, and I solicit a continuance of your support. During the last two years I have looked after the interests of the Ward in and out of the Council. My record is before you and I must stand or fall by it. While looking after the interests of your Ward particularly, I have not been remise in my duty when railway and industrial matters affecting the progress and wall-being of the town have been discussed. With the experience I now have in the Council, I shall if you again elect me, be in a better position than heretofore to take an active part in carrying out municipal legislation that will have a tendessy to bring our town out of the sluggish state it has gradually fallen into. Should I not solicit you will consider this as asking you to vote for me. Wishing you all a "Happy New Year." I am, yours. J. B. EDWARD.

REEVE FOR THE TOWN OF GODERICH

I am a large property holder in the tact that I am a large property holder in the town and neighborhood, and thus deeply interested in its prosperity. I have consented to do so. I therefore solicit your aupport, and as your interests are identical with my own, I honestly pledge myself to do all I can to advance the best interests of the town. SAMUEL PLATT.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF GODERICH.

2ND DEPUTY REEVE for the town of Goderich, for the year 1883. I have no personal ambition to serve and I have no eare to grind. Nothing but a desire to be of service to the town in which my best interests are located has induced me to accede to the wishes of my friends on this occasion. I firmily believe that the future of Goderich—whether it will go forward or stand still—will be determined by the complexion of the next council. I can claim the merit of being possessed of experience in municipal work, as I have in years past held a seat at the Town Council as well as represented the town at the County Board, with I trust, satisfactory results. I am a large tarpayer and am deeply interested it the conomical conduct of our municipal affairs. For these reason I solicit your vote and influence.

I am, gentlemen, yours very truly.

ABRAHAM SMITH.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

GENTLEMEN.— Having been requested by a large number of the Electors to allow myself to be nominat-ed as a COUNCILLOR FOR ST. DAVID'S WARD for the year 1883, and in view of the fact that I am a large property owner, as well as an extensive employer of labor, and thus deeply in terested in the prosperity of the town, I have consented to the expressed wish of my fellow-electors, and am now in the hands of my friends as the WORKING MAN'S CANDIDATE. For St. David's Ward. With the earnest wish that my friends, and all in the ward who have the interests of the lown at heart, will favor me with their votes and influence, I remain, fellow-electors, yours truly.

TO THE MUNICIPAL ELECTORS __OF__

ST. ANDREW'S WARD.

GENTLEMEN,—At the request of a number of the electors, I have consented to accept the the nomination for COUNCILLOR FOR ST. ANDREW'S WARD for 1883. In doing so I have only to say that I have never sought municipal honors, and have neo personal or political interest to serve in seeking election, save that, in common with you all. I have a strong interest in seeing our town more prosperous than it has been for some time past.

If elected, I shall use my best efforts to have all political and personal rivalries and questions thrown saide, and an united effort made to bring about measures for the improvement of the business interests of Goderich, which have not received for some time past, the attention they deserve.

In my opinion the Railway and Harbor questions, and other measures by which manufactures and shipping may be attracted to our town, and our property become of some value, are matters of the utmost importance to us all at this time, and should receive united and energetic attention.

With these objects in view, gentlemen. I beg to solicit your votes and influence.

Your obedient servant,

C. SEAGER, Jr. Goderich, Dec. 19, 1882.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

ST. DAVID'S WARD

GENTLEMEN,-Having again c o become a candidate for one of the COUN-CILLORS FOR ST. DAVID'S WARD, I take this epportunity of soliciting your support, and hope you will favor me with the same confidence as in the past two years; and should you again favor me in your selection, I will do my best to serve your, interest and that of the town.

FRIDAY, DEC, 29TH, 1882.

WHYPLATT SHOULD BE REEVE. In the municipal contest at present going on, the question is frequently asked, "Why should Platt be elected in preference to Johnston?" To our friends who ask this question we will give a few reasons why Platt is the preferable man.

1. Mr. Platt during a residence of twenty-five years never before sought a municipal position at the hands of the electors, although he was possessed of township and county council experience before Mr. Johnston wore swaddlingclothes.

2. Mr. Platt came to Goderich at a mills and a flouring depot brought down the price of flour so that the children of as those of the rich.

3. No man in Goderich has given more

4. Mr. Platt in times past has been considered a sufficiently good man, by the Conservative party, to contest a seat in Parliament, and if good enough to run for Parliament, he ought surely to be fitted to claim election as Reeve.

5. Mr. Platt believes the present holder of the Reeveship having reached the top of the municipal ladder—the Warden's chair-should gracefully step aside so that the honor of representing the town at the County Council Board might be passed around.
6. The present Reeve has never fulfilled a promise he made to the electors at any previous nomination, and Mr. Platt contends it is time the town was represented by a man who will only make pledges that will be kept.

7. And lastly, because Mr. Platt believes there is no town by-law to hinder any ratepayer from offering for a municipal office, at the request of friends, even though the sanction of Johnston, Campbell and the other responsibles (1) were not asked.

These, and a hundred other ressons can be advanced why Platt should be the Reeve of Godorich fer 1883. If he and his friends continue their canvass without ceasing, he will sweep the field.

CRATING WRIT PAID

AT THE public meeting on Friday, when Mr. Johnston tried to explain away the charge laid against him by Mr. Platt, that the Warden had gone to Hamilton on County business in company wich Mr. Adamson, and had charged $8 more than the latter for the trip, he was singularly unfortunate in his statement. He admitted that he had charged more than Mr. Adamson, but con-ST. DAVID'S WARD. consequence than Mr. Adamson, but contended that Mr. Adamson received a salary from the county, whilst he did not. Mr Johnston, as usual, was inaccurate in his remarks. Mr. Adamson is paid a salary for his office services as Clerk of the County, but if the County sends him with the Warden, it is not expected that his expenses will be limited and the Warden's expenses extended. The Warden of the County every year receives a salary of $100, over and above his days' pay at Council meetings, but it seems Mr. Johnston is anxions to charge both ways -to charge in addition to mileage, and hotel fare, a salary for the day, when already he is in receipt of $100 which the Council pays him to recompense him for any loss of time he may be at in the trip similar to that of Mr. Johnston to him $100 a year as a salary? Again Mr. Johnston stated he was away three days on County business. Mr. Johnston is out again in his accuracy, If we remember rightly, he was only about three hours on County business. and was wired by Mr. Campion to go to Toronto on another matter; and if the three days are charged for there was other than County business done at the etic statement of having been taken sick, and having a doctor's bill to pay. Well, some young men, when they get away from home, are not careful in their habits, and eat or drink something that may not agree with them, and suffer from indigestion, or stay up too late, etc. Bret Harte, in "Chiquita," says,

A LEAN RECORD.

Never, since the unfaithful servaut dug up the talent which was buried in the napkin, was a leaner record of a steward ship given than was made by Mr. Johnston on Friday evening. From the hands of the people of Goderich he received the reeveship last January, and to the people, when again soliciting their suffrages, he surrendered the trust on Friday night. Like the unfaithful servant of old, he returned only what he had received from his masters-the people-but through no effort of his had the trust been rendered more valuable or added more lustre or brilliancy unto. During his address, lengthy though it was, credit was claimed for many things by Mr. Johnston, but he failed to show time when famine prevailed in the district, and by his energy in establishing anything by which Goderich had been benefitted during the year. He failed to show that he, during his incumbency of the poor might have bread to eat, as well the reeveship of Goderich, had done any. thing that could not have been equally well done by any ratepayer of the town more money in circulation amongst the he fact that an iron bridge was built ovmasses during the last quarter of a er the Maitland, but did he dare to tell piety, has been chosen to control the ing the above Mr. Campion was too canwork to the laboring class or placed of Goderich. He laid great stress upon the electors of Goderich that he had raised his voice during the past two so ready to impute the agnosticism of years to further the scheme. There were many present in the audience who knew that Mr. Johnston's course in regard to the erection of the iron bridge had been one of "masterly inactivity. His remarks on the actions of the Town Council during the year were equally barren. He rehashed the speech of the Mayor, and did not improve upon the original. On the railway question he grew decidedly adverse, and did not think it was feasable to construct a competitive line. Other questions fared grew hoarse in endeavoring to put the best side foremost, even his friends saw the effort was futile. He failed to show promises, he gave no certain sound that the incumbency of the office in 1883 would be less barren of results than the records of 1881 and 1882. When Mr. Johnston pointed to his past record he might as well have pointed to a barren waste. The town of Gederich has done much for Mr. F. W. Johnston, but Mr. F. W. Johnston cannot place his hand on his heart, and point to any good thing which he has done for the town. He has been given positions of trust, but he cannot point to a single instance in which he has not made the public trust a secondary consideration to self. Every vote polled for Mr. F. W. To this last equally bad, and although the speaker class belongs Mr. William Campbell, who believes himself to be possessed of high administrative ability and grand oratorical powers, and is never tired of Goderich, has thus consented to bethrusting himself and his views in this that his stewardship had been a successful one, and, although he was prolific of respect upon the public. The less said about his administrative abilities the better it is for Mr. Campbell, but a word or two on his oratorical efforts will not do him much harm, and may open his eyes to the fact that he never was intended for a public speaker. A speech from Mr. Campbell has the same effect upon a meeting as a motion to adjourn. The larger portion of the audience usually put on their hats and leave. Those who remain divide into little knots and discuss the weather, the crops, the result of the transit of Venus, and the possibility of holding a meeting at which Mr. Campbell can be compelled to keep quiet. The "churchyard cough" comes into being, and sneezing is the order of of it. Next the question was taken up the evening, for when Mr. Campbell fice to the selfishness of that gentleman, "lays himself out" for an effort in and every vote against him will be in the oratory he creates a draft-a breeze, so to speak—and the crowd having almost earnestness of that able gentleman. entirely disappeared, a great coolness a big contract to keep order when Mr. McMillan, but Mr. Johnston was as Campbell has the floor, on account of the mute as an oyster when the question was people rushing from the hall. Mr. Campion, in his "maiden speech on Friday evening last, put his foot into it badly when giving his reasons for coming before the electors as a candidate for the Second Deputy Reeveship. He out as a candidate for the position. I am out on my own hook ; I am out because I want the position. Nobody has asked me to become a candidate. 1 am in the field independently of everybody, every act of polite society "it is manners to wait until you are asked." No man has a right to endeavor to pitchfork himself into a public position without any invitation from the people. Positions of trust should seek the man, instead of the man seeking the position. Mr. Cam-SHARBSPRARE wrote, "Some man are pion in making public the fact that he is born great, others become great, and an office-seeker, and was endeavoring to others have greatness thrust upon push himself into place, without the wish or advice of any ratepayer in the town, class of men from the list—he failed to has rather injured than improved his Mr. Smith, on the other hand, is the nominee of the vested interests and intelligence of all parts of the town, and being deeply interested in the well-being come a candidate for the position. Mr. Jounston's anxiety for the tion of a poorhouse is something painfully painful, and would almost lead one think that his long candidature for provincial honors has warped his pocket book. But it is a matter of surprise to us to hear Mr. Johnston at this, the eleventh hour, raise a pathetic wail for a poor-house. The House of Refuge question is not a new one, -it is an old one revamped by Mr. Johnston for municipal purposes. Four or five years ago the matter was taken up and a committee appointed to examine the Wellington and Vaterloo Houses of Refuge, and report thereon. It was done, but nothing came by Mr. John McMillan, Reeve of Hullett, and now M. P. for South Muron, and was advecated with all the power and Mesars Rogers of Brussels, and Campbell of Goderich, raised their voices to assist catch-cry, and can show no record of believing that only a popular cry will "save his bacon." If Mr. Platt be elected he can do as much as, if not more than, Mr. Johnston to bring about the erec tion of a County House of Refuge.

THERE is food for reflection in the following reference to the first election case which has been fully tried in Ontario since the election to the Commons, and we serve it up as a choice morsel to those of our Conservative friends who like something teothsome at this festive season. It will also be a foretaste of what they will find in the West Huron case—if it ever comes to a trial :-

are born, not made. Mr. Campbell believes he was born an orator, and those who have had the misfortune to listen to him at a public meeting are sorry he was.

Miss Maggie Barr's Marriage

Hamilton, Dec. 19. -This evening, at the residence of the bride's father, Cath arine street north, took place the mar-riage of one of Hamilton's most popular lady vocalists, Miss Maggie Barr, daughter of George Barr, of the firm of Reid & Barr, iron founders, to Mr. M. McCulloch, brother of David McCulloch, Collector of Customs. The high esteem in which the bride is held may be judged from the many valuable gifts present to her, among them an excellent piano from her friends in the Central Presbytetian Church, where she has been the leading singer for some years. Miss Annie Barr, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. D. McCulloch as groomsman. Rev. Samuel Lyle, pastor of the Central Church, performed the marriage ceremony. The happy couple went East on the night express, and carry with them the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

Mr. F. W. Johnston was the first speaker, and said it afforded him pleasure to see so large an attendance. After being six years at the County Board he had been elected to the highest position in the gift of that body—The Wardenship. Although assailed by a portion of the local press he had got that position at the hands of his friends in the Council. During his incumbency of office he had tried to do his duty. As warden of the Council he had a great deal to do, but was always in his place. For six years he had been on the Audit Board, and had helped the Co. Judge and Mr. Adamson to audit the County accounts. He claimed credit for the erecting of the iron bridge over the Maitland, and was pleased to say it was built within an estimated cost of $15,000. He also took great credit to himself for settling the difficulty with the manager of the Hamilton Iron Bridge Co. and getting $400 and the speaker declared himself in favor of the erection of one so that the large amount now paid out for relief would not have to be paid out. For Mayor—Horace Horton.

For Reeve—S. Platt, F. W. Johnston.

For First Deputy Reeve—J. C. Detlor.

For Second Deputy Reeve—Abraham Smith, Edmund Campion.

Mayor Horton, on coming forward to address the ratepayers was well received. He stated that the past year had been a comparatively uneventful one. No public enterprises had been inaugurated, and the controllable expenditure of the town, being only $1,200 or $1,500, did not give much scope for the Council to work. It had been the policy of future Councils. Three years ago the then Councils. Three years ago the then Councils. Three years ago the then Council advertised in the city daily papers for manufactures to whom bonuses would be given on condition of their establishing business in Goderich. He was not in favor of indicording the council at the policy of future councils. He was not in favor of indicording the council at the present contained the received have a line were built at all it would have to be all built by Goderich, for the townships would give nothing; and if built it would soon be gobbled up by some other full. He was on the present occasion apposed for the reeveship this year, but when messrs Campbell and Hutchison re-ing reached the top of the municipal ladder were good enough reasons why he should now resign and give other men "a show." (Hear, hear and laughter.) No man should have a life lease of the reeveship or any other office of trust, and the six years Mr. Johnston was in, was a longer term than was his fair all. a longer term than was his fair share. Mr. Johnston took all the credit for building the bridge, although he never opened his mouth in favor of the bridge practically pushed forward the work— Messrs. Hardy, Gibson, Girvin, Mason, Young and Allan. Not satisfied with putting in the bogus claim for the erec-tion of the iron bridge, Mr. Johnston however, for manufacturers to locate in the larger towns and cities where increased railway and other facilities were obtainable. The day had passed when Bridge Co., by which $400 was saved the county. This claim was an unfortunate good towns were located within 20 miles county. This claim was an unfortunate of each other.
