TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.
We believe Mr. Martin Deady will shortly open the Wellington Hotel.

An attempt is being made to get up cattle fairs in Ancestor.

The Rev. W. M. Punshon will lecture in Elora on the 15th March.

The Listowel Banner laments the want of a good supply of brick in that place.

The Advertiser.—We notice that Mr. Charles Walker has retired from the Guelph Advertiser, and has been succeeded in the firm by Mr. Charles Keeling, late of the Milton Champion.

The Geo. W. Thorpe, who was fined on Thursday night, in Hamilton, for raising a disturbance on the Great Western cars, belongs to Fergus, and to Guelph, as stated in the Hamilton papers.

DASTARDLY ACT.—A most brutal outrage has been perpetrated, three consecutive times within five weeks, by some ruffian stabbing a horse belonging to John B. Walker, near Smithurst, Minto. The township council has very properly offered $100 reward for the conviction of the offender.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in their rooms last (Thursday) evening, the President Dr. McGuire in the chair. After the usual opening exercises, Mr. Patten gave a very fine sacred piece, and Mr. W. Strong gave a very good recitation—"The last Farewell."

THE SALEM LIQUOR CASES.—Thomas Connor, one of the informants in the liquor cases, who was arrested in Guelph on Wednesday for offering to settle the cases, was taken to Elora, and examined before the magistrates there in reference to the charge. He was dismissed, and no threats to bring an action for false arrest against the parties concerned.

It is reported that the Great Western Railway Company are about to erect Workshops at some point on the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway. We feel satisfied in saying that the Great Western would be most liberally dealt with by the people of Guelph, if it was found advisable to erect the Workshops in this Municipality.

SMALL POX IN GALT.—For all the hue and cry, the Reporter says there are only two cases of small pox in that town, both of them of a mild description, and in both of which the patients are doing well. The disease is supposed to have been introduced in a parcel of clothing received from Ottawa by a scholar attending the Collegiate Institute.

FIRE IN ROTHSAY.—On Thursday night the 22nd the shop occupied by Messrs. Kilpatrick & Harrington was discovered to be on fire. A large number of people gathered in a few minutes and rendered every assistance possible, in fact had it not been for the large number of people that were in the village it is hard to say where the fire would have stopped. Mr. Miller's storehouse, in which he had a large quantity of grain, caught fire several times and was only extinguished by the strenuous exertions of those present. Mr. Kilpatrick lost his valuable building together with a great quantity of tools, dies, steel and other property, with an insurance of only $250. Mr. Harrington lost most of his valuable tools, together with the wood work of waggons, sleighs, cutters, ploughs, hubs and other articles, paint and oil, having an insurance of only $200.

THE JUVENILE CONCERT.—A large audience was gathered in the Dgill Shed last night to hear the concert given by the juvenile class taught by Prof. Cushman. The young people numbering 200 were seated on a rising platform, and in their holiday attire looked remarkably well. The Prof. himself presided at the melodeon, and acted as conductor. The first part of the programme consisted of a cantata, partly spoken and partly sung, the characters being taken by several of the boys and girls. It was gone through with good spirit, and was frequently applauded. The rest of the entertainment consisted of solo and chorus singing, all of which was admirably done, and showed that great pains had been taken by the Professor in training the class. The concert gave great satisfaction to the parents and others present. The Drill Shed was comfortably heated. The concert will be repeated to-night.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, Feb. 28.
A Bill to make temporary provision as to the regulation of the Council of Public Instruction was read a third time and passed.

Hon. Mr. Blake moved a resolution for a Committee of the Whole on the Railway Aid Bill.

Mr. Rykert moved an amendment to the effect that the resolutions providing for the granting of $100,000 a year for two years.

After discussion the amendment was lost. Yeas, 21; nays, 47.

Mr. Grange moved an amendment to the effect that the surplus should be distributed according to the population, amongst the municipalities.

Mr. Sexton moved in amendment to the amendment, that the report be received inasmuch as the measure of last session and the action taken under it have rendered it necessary by the legislation proposed by said Bill.

Mr. McKenzie said that the old committee would receive justice in the settlement of the municipal loan fund and indebtedness.

Mr. Sexton's amendment was carried. Yeas, 39; nays, 21.

The report was then adopted upon the same division.

Hon. Mr. Blake moved a third reading of the Bill.

Mr. Lander moved an amendment to the effect that the municipalities granting bonuses to railways without the knowledge that the Railway fund would be created should share the fund.

Mr. Wood, of Brant, made a speech upon the financial position of the Province, showing how the proposed aid could be given to the railways without touching the existing surplus, and still leave five or six thousand dollars for expenditure on capital account.

The discussion continued till nearly 8 o'clock, when Mr. Lander's amendment was lost. Yeas, 8; nays, 55.

The Bill was then read a third time and passed.

Hon. Mr. Blake laid on the table, certain orders in the Council, granting aid to railways.

Feb. 29.
Mr. Blake moved that the House ratify the Orders in Council granting aid to different railways (see resolutions in another column). The motion was carried, a vote being taken on the grant to each railway, and the Government in all had an overwhelming majority.

Mr. Rykert presented the report of the Select Committee appointed to enquire into the South Grey election.

The report of the Proton Committee was read.

It was substantially as follows:—That it had been proved in evidence before the Committee that John W. Lewis had made statements to certain of the electors of the Township of Proton, as set forth in the affidavits.

That the said John W. Lewis was at the time in the employment of the Government as a land valuator.

That the said John W. Lewis had a book he originally used in the Township of Proton, and from which the book in the Crown Lands Department was copied, but the latter book had not been removed from the Crown Lands Department since October.

That the said John W. Lewis was telegraphed to go to Proton by Adam Oliver, M. P., while engaged in Houghton as a land valuator, and that the said letter was sent in consequence of the receipt of a telegram from Kerr.

That subsequently to the receipt by Lewis of the said telegram, he and Mr. Kerr met in the railway station at Hamilton, and the said Kerr was in the attempt to defeat Mr. Lander in South Grey.

That no evidence was adduced to show that the Hon. E. Blake knew that John W. Lewis was going to Grey, or had any communication whatever with the said Lewis.

That evidence had been adduced to show that Lewis, before going to South Grey, had a personal interview at the American Hotel with Hon. Mr. McKellar. That at that time Hon. Mr. McKellar knew or learned that the said Lewis was going to South Grey to assist in the attempt to secure the election of Mr. Dickey.

That at that time Hon. Mr. McKellar knew that the said Lewis was a Government land valuator.

That Hon. Mr. McKellar assured Lewis that the Blake Government would deal liberally with the electors of Proton, and that their policy was to carry out the reference to the electors in the policy they advocated when in Opposition.

That no evidence had been adduced before the Committee to connect any other member of the Government with interference in the South Grey election.

The supply Bill was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Blake moved that when the House adjourned it would stand adjourned until eleven o'clock to-morrow forenoon.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Blake then informed the House that His Excellency would attend at twelve o'clock, on Saturday, in order to prorogue Parliament.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES
GLADSTONE'S LETTER.

VESSEL ADRIFT.
Robbery in Cincinnati.

New York, March 1.—The following is Gladstone's letter to the London correspondent of the World, to which allusion was made by cable on the 15th of February:—

WHITEHALL, Feb. 11.
Sir,—I am much obliged by your courteous letter. Permit me to assure you that it is an entire mistake to suppose I have ever said that every rational mind must see but one meaning in the Treaty of Washington. Nothing would have induced me to use such expressions. The limit of my assertion, stated briefly, was and is as follows: I believe the meaning to be clear and unambiguous, according to any legitimate test whatever which can be applied to it. This proposition I am, of course, prepared to sustain by argument, but every other person is equally entitled to think, if he sees cause, what I hold clear and unambiguous, is dark or doubtful, or that it is clear and unambiguous in a sense contrary to mine. What I trust is that others, upon close examination, will not see cause to think any such thing. This point a little time and patience cannot fail thoroughly to elucidate. Setting aside the remark which I did not use, and which I think open to severe animadversion, I have always understood that any man is at liberty to hold and state, with the utmost confidence, an opinion as to the meaning of the document, and this is what I have done, without being open to a charge of what I conceive to be a gross offence, namely, a person presuming to restrain from others the liberty which he takes himself. Indeed, speaking according to the usages and habits of English public life, I feel as if the utterance of such a proposition were not so much of truth as a truism, if, however, this truth of truism be applicable to documents in general, it requires but a moderate share of modesty to adopt it in the case of documents such as the treaty and its protocols.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your faithful servant,
W. E. GLADSTONE.

Cincinnati, March 1.—The room of Thomas W. Hoffman, Central Avenue, was entered and robbed of $1,400 in bonds and money.

Milwaukee, March 1.—A fore and aft three-master was discovered yesterday morning about eight miles out in a helpless condition, drifting southward. It is supposed to be the Low Highby, owned by Sylvester Lyman and Lew Highby, of Pequot. It is impossible to tell if any person is on board or not.

The Leader and the Bow Park Farm.
Some idle fellow has been hoaxing the Leader with a story to the effect that the Ontario Government is about to purchase the Bow Park estate, at a fabulous price, for an experimental farm. The poor old lady thereupon flies off into a fearful passion, and discharges a whole column of abuse against "Mr. President Blake," Mr. Commissioner of Agriculture McKellar, the "worthy honourables Skead and Christie," and the "Managing Director" for the "foul outrage. The old lady confesses: "Bow Park to be 'beautiful' and 'healthful;' "in the best state of cultivation," and with "every modern improvement already completed."

We hasten to the relief of our venerable contemporary. We have the direct authority of the "Managing Director" aforesaid for stating that the first and only party who had the "good judgment and practical sound sense" to perceive the surpassing advantages of Bow Park for an experimental farm, and to make inquiry if it could be purchased, was the late eminent Commissioner of Agriculture, the Hon. John Carling. We are also at liberty to state that the reply given to Mr. Carling's inquiry was that the entire Government surplus could not fetch it.

We have heard a totally different rumor in regard to the selection of a fitting site for the experimental farm. The new Commissioner of Agriculture is said to have his eyes in a very different direction from that of any site yet named, and the trip to Guelph is characterized as a mere ruse to enable the much-coveted spot to be secured without the purpose of the department being known. This spot of spots is close to Scarborough station; it contains 200 acres, and was sold some years ago by Mr. James Beatty of the Leader to his friend Sir Francis Hincks, for $48,000. In proof of its admirable adaptation for an experimental farm, we understand Sir Francis is ready to testify that such another place for instructing lads "how to improve poor or worn-out ground" is not to be found in Her Majesty's Dominion; for if one blade of grass can be made to grow on it with all the manure of Toronto heaped a-top of it, there is hope yet of vegetation on the bleakest field of stones in this Canada of ours.—Globe.

Rosa D'Erina has met with great success in Montreal. The citizens are going to give her a grand complimentary concert.

Bronchitis.—Freeport, Digby County, N. S., January, 1868.—Mr. James I. Fellows.—Sir:—In the winter of 1866 I was afflicted with a severe attack of Bronchitis, and although our doctors were very attentive, and used all the means in their power, they failed to afford me much relief. I obtained your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and took it until it made a permanent cure. I am now in perfect health and free from Bronchitis.

Respectfully yours, MENDALL CHOCKER.

Another Fenian Outrage.

Attempt to Fire a Pistol at the Queen.

The Would-be Assassin Arrested.

LONDON, Feb. 28, Evening.—A miscarriage this afternoon attempted to fire a pistol at Queen Victoria while driving on Constitution Hill, but happily without effect. The would-be assassin was promptly arrested.

LONDON, Feb. 29, Midnight.—The excitement to-night over the report of the attempt on the life of the Queen is intense. Extras of the evening papers appeared in rapid succession as confirmatory details become known. Crowds are still collected in the streets, discussing the news, and waiting further particulars. A statement of the facts was promptly made in Parliament this evening, which when it became known outside greatly relieved public anxiety. While the House of Lords was in committee discussing the Ecclesiastical Bill, Lord Granville entered and said he hoped their lordships would excuse the sudden interruption of the proceedings, but he had an announcement to make which it was desirable should be made without delay. He then proceeded to state that at half-past five this evening the Queen, returning from a drive, had reached Buckingham Palace, and as her carriage stopped at the gate a young man ran to the side and presented a pistol within a foot of the Queen's head. The Queen bent her head down to avoid the shot, but the pistol did not explode.

The fellow in one hand held papers granting a release to the Fenian prisoners, which he shouted to the Queen to sign, threatening her at the same time with the pistol. He was instantly seized by the attendants and prevented from doing further harm. It was then found the pistol was unloaded, and it was of such a primitive construction that if it had been loaded it probably could not have been discharged. Her Majesty was very calm, and showed the courage which she has often before exhibited. She has directed that a statement of the circumstances be immediately made in both Houses of Parliament, in order to prevent exaggerated rumours. Earl Granville said he would not dwell on the details, nor point to the contrast between the dastardly act and Tuesday's extraordinary expression of the nation's loyalty. The Duke of Buckingham briefly expressed the thankfulness of the House at the escape of Her Majesty from danger.

Mr. Gladstone made a statement in the House of Commons similar to that of Earl Granville. The would be assassin was taken to the nearest police station.

He gives his name as O'Connor, and is about 19 or 20 years of age. His behavior in the station was wild and his language incoherent. He boasted he tried to reach the Queen on Tuesday during the procession.

New York, Feb. 29.—The World's London special to-night gives the following version of the assault on the Queen:—As the Queen was re-entering the courtyard at Buckingham Palace after having thought the park to-day, Alfred O'Connor, a Fenian, 18 years old, sprang over the wall, rushed up to the carriage and struck the Queen on the breast with an unloaded pistol, at the same time presenting a petition of amnesty for the Fenians, exclaiming "Sign or die." Prince Arthur, who was seated in the carriage with the Queen, knocked the man down. O'Connor was seized and conveyed to prison. The Queen was perfectly calm. When O'Connor was questioned he said his design was to frighten the Queen into doing justice to Ireland.

Marriage in High Life.
The Cable informs us of the approaching marriage of the Marquis of Bute to the daughter of Lord Howard. This marriage will unite three of the most exalted families of the British aristocracy—those of the Howards of Norfolk, of Crichton-Stuart of the Barony and Marquise of Bute, and of the Talbot of Shrewsbury. The bride elect is daughter of Lord Edward George Fitzalan Howard, younger son of Henry Charles, thirteenth Duke of Norfolk, by Lady Charlotte Sophia, daughter of the Duke of Sutherland. She is thus niece to Henry, Duke of Norfolk. The intended bridegroom is the Right Honourable John Patrick Crichton-Stuart, Marquis of Dute, the only son of John, the second Marquis, by his wife, Lady Sophia Christina, daughter of the Marquis of Hastings. The Marquis of Bute is enormously rich, his income exceeding £200,000 sterling per annum, independent of the savings of this huge revenue during a number of years, which he received in a lump. His conversion to the Roman Catholic Church some years since, with his open profession of that faith in Rome and his present to the Pope of the magnificent cross of gold and diamonds which was borne in front of the episcopal procession in St. Peter's at the opening ceremonial of the Vatican Council produced a deep sensation in the Christian world. The Howards of Norfolk, have ever been Roman Catholics, no titled representative of the family having swerved from that particular form of faith, even at the moment of the English reformation, or subsequently during the operation of the penal laws. Despite all this the Duke of Norfolk, of the moment has been always recognized as the Premier Duke and Earl of Britain, and at each succeeding coronation of the monarchs of the kingdom names in his capacity of Earl Marshal, the knight who offers battle in his behalf and that of the nation to any disloyal of the Royal title of the throne. The marriage of the Marquis of Bute and Lady Howard will be a most brilliant religious ceremonial.

HURRAH FOR REFORM GOVERNMENT.—Says the Hamilton Times:—For forty years the city of Hamilton was represented by Tories, and never during all that time received any favor from the Government; but under a Reform Government, and with a Reform representative, we got $2,000 per mile to assist in the construction of the Hamilton and Erie Railway; $2,000 per mile to aid in the construction of the Wellington, Grey & Bruce; and without doubt we shall get $2,000 per mile as a contribution towards the line from Palmerston to Kincardine.

We are now sending out our accounts to all subscribers in arrears. We want them to settle forthwith, without any more delay. Subscription accounts being ordered will positively be put in suit if not paid within a month. We wish all such to remember that this is a final notice, so the sooner they cash up the better.

GOVERNMENT AID TO RAILWAYS.

On Wednesday night, after the passing of the bill to grant further aid to railways, Mr Blake laid before the House the resolutions embodying the Orders in Council for granting aid to certain railways.

The first Company on the list is the Toronto and Nipissing, to which it is proposed to give $2,000 a mile for that portion of the road between the village of Uxbridge and the point of intersection of the Portage road, in the township of Eldon, and of a sum equal to $3,000 per mile between Eldon and Cobococck. The second resolution gives to the Montreal and Ottawa city railway $2,000 per mile for that portion between the intersection of the Province line in Glengarry and the city of Ottawa, on condition that a bona fide contract for the completion of the works between the junction with the Grand Trunk and the city of Ottawa be proved before the first of next December.

A third resolution recommends that $2,000 per mile be granted to the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway for that portion of the line between Harriston and the point of intersection of the southerly boundary of the township of Carrick, in the County of Bruce, and a further sum of $2,000 per mile on that portion of the line lying within the county of Bruce.

By the fourth resolution $2,000 per mile is granted to the Hamilton and Lake Erie Company for that portion of the line between Hamilton and Jarvis, the same condition being attached as in the preceding case with regard to a bona fide contract.

The fifth resolution provides that $2,000 per mile shall be granted to the Kingston and Pembroke Railway Company for that part of the line extending twenty miles to the north of Kingston, and $2,650 for the next fifteen miles northward; $2,250 per mile between Pembroke and a point twenty-three miles south of that village.

The sixth resolution grants $2,650 per mile to the Canada Central for that portion of the line between Sand Point and Pembroke, on condition that before the first of May, 1872, the company shall sign an instrument giving running powers to the Kingston and Pembroke Company over that portion of the said railway lying between the point of appropriation near Douglas and Pembroke, on terms to be settled by arbitration.

The seventh resolution appropriates $2,000 per mile to that portion of the Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway between Orangeville and Harriston, and an equal sum per mile for from Orangeville to Owen Sound.

The Midland Railway is to receive $2,000 per mile between Beaverton and Orillia (not including the Branch to St John Lake) on condition that the Company give running powers to the Grand Junction Railway over that portion of the line between the point of junction, at or north of Beaverton and Orillia, on terms to be settled by arbitration.

The ninth resolution relates to the Toronto, Simcoe and Muskoka Railway, which receives $4,000 per mile for the portion between Orillia village and Washago.

The tenth resolution grants to the Grand Junction Railway Company $2,000 per mile of that portion between Belleville and Lindsay. This is contingent upon a contract being proved to the satisfaction of the Council to have been made before December 1st, 1872.

The amounts of the several grants and their aggregate totals are as follows:

Table with columns: Miles, Mileage, Total. Lists various railway routes and their associated costs.

To be added... 6131. Less... 16. Total... $1,421,200.

Cowardly Assault on the Queen

We give in another column the account of the dastardly assault on the Queen, which, as soon as it was known, created intense excitement in London. It was made by a young man named O'Connor, a Fenian, who demanded her signature to a Fenian amnesty. Judging from the report, we are inclined to think that the cowardly assailant is scarcely right in his mind, else he would never have attacked Her Majesty with an unloaded pistol. Her Majesty manifested great coolness on this trying occasion.

EDITORIAL NEWS.

The London Lancet thinks that during the coming spring, or early in the summer, cholera will reappear in Western Europe.

The Bill to charter the Hamilton and Northwest Railway, between that city and Hog Bay, passed the third reading on Monday last.

THE SOUTHERN EXTENSION BY-LAW.

The following is the full vote on this By-law: Huron, 617 for, 16 against. Kinross, 343 for, 148 against. Kincardine, 168 for, 407 against.

The Buffalo Courier (Democratic paper) says that within the past few weeks the anti-Grant leaders have seen that Grant's re-nomination at the Philadelphia Convention is beyond all doubt.

ESCAPE OF RIEL AND LEPINE.—A despatch from Fort Garry says that on Saturday last Riel and Lepine have skeddaddled. They crossed the border at Pembina. The same week nine applications were made to nine different magistrates for a warrant for the arrest of Riel, each of whom refused to issue it on the plea of want of jurisdiction.

HORACE GREELY is not only famous as an editor, but also as a tiller of the soil. A recent writer says "that to the staunch old farmer fed on the Tribune from childhood, the letters H. G. stand for a white-headed philosopher who pulls his own turnips and milks his own cows, and who can tell more about farming than anybody else."

The Proton Committee.

The Proton Committee met again on Thursday morning.

Thomas Nixon was examined as to his brief-interview with Mr. McKellar before leaving for Grey. He corroborated the statements of Mr. McKellar.

Mr. Gilbert McKechnie, Secretary of the South Grey Central Reform Committee was examined. He consented to allow Mr. Dwight to produce all the telegrams sent or received by him about the election.

Mr. McKechnie produced all the telegrams he had in his possession. They were related to the ordinary management of the election. A letter was produced from Lewis to Dickey, written about the time of Dickey's nomination, in which Lewis stated that he would like to go up and canvass for him at the election, which did not come off till January.

WE beg to call attention to Mr Horsman's advertisement about Ploughs. The Plough referred to is having a large demand so great has it become that three ear loads have been forwarded to Mr. Horsman to supply the farmers in this neighborhood this Spring. All pronounce them the best general purpose Plough made; as a guarantee of this we need only say that they are manufactured at the celebrated Agricultural Works of F. W. Glen, Oshawa. The price it will be observed will be kept at $13, the old figure, until the 1st of April, when it will be raised to $15 in consequence of the advance in Iron and Steel. We should therefore recommend our farmer friends to loose no time in procuring one at Mr. John Horsman's, Hardware Merchant of this town.

HELEN MOIR

—OR— LOVE AND HONOUR.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.

CHAPTER XIX.

A HAPPY AFTERNOON AT THE VILLA—JASPER JAQUIN UNEXPECTEDLY PRESENTS HIMSELF.

"Part from you, Ritchie!" cried Helen, fingering her arm lovingly round his neck.

"Oh, I shall never, never part from you. Do not think it. My father will love you as I do, and we shall all be together, always."

"God forbid that I should come between you," said Bridgenorth, struggling for utterance.

"No, no, father no," murmured Helen, as she flew from Ritchie's side, and flung herself with passionate vehemence on her father's bosom.

"You are my poor, dear, suffering father, whom I love with all the strength of my soul. It will be the deepest joy of my life to banish the sorrow from your heart and heal all its wounds."

"Oh, God, this mercy is too great for me," sobbed Bridgenorth, as with a strong burst of emotion his face fell upon her shoulder, and he, the strong-limbed man, wept like a child.

"She is near us, father," was the low, the whispered response. "She sees us thus, and smiles on both."

"Would, oh would that were so; then would I receive it as an assurance that she forgave the past—the terrible past which quenched her young and innocent life on earth in the darkness of the grave."

"Dear, dear father, doubt not all is forgiven; our meeting, our union is a certain token of it. Let the past be forgotten in the future which shall yet be bright with love and peace."

"My child, the past cannot be forgotten but by God's grace it may in the future become precious to our souls. I am calmer now; I think the peace of which you speak is beginning to come."

"Greater calmness had, in truth, come to the whole group, and Ritchie had begun to dry his eyes with the back of his hand, when Mrs. Allerton, who had risen from the sofa and crossed the room to where he stood, took that hand in both of hers, and to Ritchie's amazement, thus addressed him—

"You must accept my thanks likewise, for your matchless kindness to Helen—an aunt's thanks for your protection and devotion to her niece."

"And mine, for the care you have taken of my cousin," said Edwin, seizing Ritchie's other hand and shaking it with amazing vigor.

"It means, Ritchie, that my name is neither Bridgenorth nor Winthrop," said the father of Helen, coming forward and joining them, Helen still fondly clinging to him.

"My true name is one that I have not borne for twenty years, the same name as that gentleman by your side—Edwin Allerton. Mrs. Allerton's husband was my brother. Now you have my story explained."

"Just so," said a harsh discordant voice outside, as a shadow fell across the floor. Every one turned suddenly round, and there at the open window stood Jasper Jaquin, the hunchback, with a hideous grin on his misshapen and malcontent features.

"His presence produced utter stillness in the group, every one gazing at him in motionless silence."

"Just so," repeated Jaquin, who seemed hugely to enjoy the sensation produced by his appearance. "The mystery is explained, and the explanation cost you twenty thousand pounds."

Bridgenorth strode with firm, stately step to the open window, and confronted the hunchback.

"Suppose it had cost me twenty millions, I rejoice that the revelation has been made, for it has given me wealth which no amount of silver or gold can represent. I am truly rich now, Jaquin—rich in the possession of a child, rich in her love and affection. With joy unspokenable I renounce the fortune which came to me, and which I was to hold as long as I concealed my identity. Go, Jaquin, go as soon as you please, and tell to those who are interested—that those who employed you to watch me—that the condition is broken, and that I have no longer a title to the old man's funds."

"Of course, I mean to do that," rejoined Jaquin. "You thought to outwit me, I suppose. You didn't expect I was to ferret you out here, or that I was listening at this window for the last quarter of an hour. You meant to reveal yourself, and keep the money too."

"Jaquin, you judge but according to your own nature. I think it beneath me to deny your despicable allegation."

"Because it's true," rejoined the other. "Tain't more than a few days since you little less than swore to me that you never would reveal yourself."

"That is true," answered Bridgenorth, with a calm dignity, "and I meant what I said. But I knew not then what I have learned since, and even the revelation that has been made was the result of recognition by another rather than of voluntary action on my part."

"Oh, I suppose you mean to say that you are not to blame, that Mrs. Allerton recognised you, and that sort of thing. Well, you should not have gone near her in whatever way it has come out, out it has come. I have heard you with my own ears own yourself to be Edwin Allerton, and Jerdan's money is lost to you."

"I tell you I renounce it. I never would have accepted it with the condition attached had that condition not been in accordance with my own dearest wish. But why should I waste time in trying to explain what you are not capable of understanding? All you have to do is to make your report to your employers. They will pay you well for it. Our connection is severed. It has not been an agreeable one to me, but we were free of each other now. Farewell Jaquin. If we can part as friends, let us at least part in peace."

BREAKFAST—EPP'S COCOA—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr.
Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor bills.—
Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

We understand that the whooping-cough is quite prevalent in the towns around us; but that no cases have proved fatal. Some families use nothing but "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment." Our Doctor, however, says a little ipecac, to produce vomiting, would be an advantage.

There are more than one thousand different kinds of pills in the United States. Some of them are worthless and injurious, others are good and beneficial.
Old Dr. Parsons invented the best anti-bills pills we ever saw or heard of.
They are now sold under the name of "Parsons' Purgative Pills."
"Time tries all things," and has proved that "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry" is the remedy par excellence for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisis, sore throat, and influenza. It cures coughs and colds instantly! It soothes the irritated parts; it heals the inflammation; and even consumption itself yields to its magic influence.

Husband:— I shall know them better hereafter. I am surprised that we have lived so many years without it. Wife:— Charles, the reason is you have been taking whatever the storekeeper would recommend, we have always had a bottle of Pain-Cure or Believer or Pain Remedy or some such trash in the house, and have tried them over and over again. Husband:— And that is just the reason I object to try the Pain-Killer on my rheumatism. Sold everywhere, price 25cts, and 50 cents per bottle.

The Pain-Killer is an internal and external remedy for Pain. For internal pain, Cramps, Spasms, Stomach and Bowel difficulties, a few drops in water will give immediate relief. As a Liniment it is without an equal; it stops pain almost instantly. Be sure and get the genuine, made by Perry Davis & Son, and sold by Druggists and Grocers.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES

As all life-endowed bodies, whether they be Beasts, Birds, Reptiles, Insects, or even Zoophytes, and subjects of the Vegetable Kingdom are governed by vital force, which binds all the springs of existence, and as nothing can save them from destruction when this principle leaves them, the discovery of means whereby vitality may be sustained in the living body is in itself a boon to the world.

Modern Chemistry has ventilated the question and discovered the ingredients constituting the brain, muscles and nerves, and finds that by introducing these ingredients in proper proportions the brain and nervous system are strengthened.

This is substantially the basis on which FELLOWS' SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES is built, its direct action upon the Brain and Nervous System, and the Muscles, Strengthening the Nerves, it causes the rapid distribution of Vitalized Blood in the Muscular Organs of the Body.

Reinforcing the Sluggish Heart and Liver, Strengthening the Action of the Stomach and Bowels, and enabling the Lungs to be fully inflated with Oxygen.

It is adapted for all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, whether arising from a Sedentary life, a tropical climate, from fever, or debility from any cause, and is efficacious in Pulmonary Consumption, many confirmed cases having been cured and all benefited, where its use has been continued over a fortnight.

In Bronchitis it is a specific, and in Asthma it gives relief where every other remedy fails.

For Nervous Debility it stands unrivalled, and may be used with confidence in all cases.

As this is entirely distinct and different from every other preparation of Hypophosphites, be careful to ask for Fellows' Syrup, and take no other.
