The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. NOMINATION OF OFFICERS.

11. (1) The nomination of officers of the Supreme Court, or of a High Court, shall take place at each annual meeting thereof, on the morning of the third day of such annual meeting, immediately after the reading and confirmation of the minutes, unless the Supreme Court or High Court, as the case may be, is sooner ready to adjourn.

(2) The nomination of Officers in a Subordinate Court shall take place on the last regular meetings in June and December of each year.

(3) Any Officer or member shall have the right to make any nomination, and the nominations shall be taken in the order in which they are made. A brother may be nominated whether present or not, but he can not be elected unless he is at the time present, except by unanimous consent.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

12. (1) The elections shall immediately follow the nominations for each office, and the nominations for the next succeeding office shall not be made till the election for the preceding office shall have taken place.

(2) When there is more than one candidate nominated for any office, the election shall be by ballot, and a majority of all the votes cast shall be necessary to elect. The candidate receiving the least number of votes on each ballot shall be dropped until an election is had. When there is only one candidate nominated, he shall at once be declared elected.

(3) At every election the Presiding Officer shall appoint three Tellers to count the ballots; after which such ballots shall be sealed up and placed in the hands of the Presiding Officer of the Body.

(4) At any time before final adjournment, any two members of the Body may demand a recount of the ballots, and which shall forthwith be done by the Presiding Officer, the Vice and the Secretary of the Body, and the two members demanding the recount. The result of such recount shall be final as to such ballot.

(5) Immediately before the final adjournment the Supreme Chief Ranger, High Chief Ranger, or Chief Ranger, as the case may be, shall destroy said ballots.

APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS.

13. Immediately after the elections, the Supreme Chief Ranger-elect, or the High Chief Ranger-elect, as the case may be, shall appoint from among the Officers and members present of the Supreme Court, or of a High Court, as the case may be, the appointed Officers, whose term of office shall be for one year, or till the next annual session, or till their successors are duly appointed and installed; except that the Journal-Secretary shall be appointed by the Supreme or High Secretary, as the case may be, at the opening of each session.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

14. (1) The installation of the Officers in the Supreme or High Court shall take place immediately after the selection of the next place of meeting, unless otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote of the Supreme Court or of a High Court, as the case may be.

(2) The installation of the Officers of a Subordinate Court shall take place upon the first regular meeting in July and January of each year.

(3) In cities and towns or other localities where there are two or more Courts, the Officers of such Courts may be installed together at a convocation of the Encampment by the Illustrious Officers of such Encampment, or at a union meeting called for the purpose, at such time in July and January as such Courts may agree upon.

(4) All Officers-elect must be clear on the books previous to installation.

(5) No bonded Officer can be installed or enter upon the duties of his office until his bond has been duly executed, approved and delivered to the Supreme Chief Ranger, or to the High Chief Ranger, or to a duly qualified Deputy, or other installing Officer.

(6) If any Officer to be installed is absent at the time of installation, the office held by such absentee may be, by a majority vote of the Supreme Court, High Court, or Subordinate Court, as the case may be, declared vacant, and the vacancy forthwith filled by a new election or a new appointment, or the installation of the absentee be postponed, or the installation may take place by proxy.

(7) Officers who have been already installed, and who have been re-elected to the same office, shall continue to hold their office on their former obligations instead of being re-installed.

(3) Each of said bonds shall be signed by at least two good sureties, who shall each justify that they are worth in real estate, in the Dominion of Canada, or, in the case of High Court Officers in the country where the High Court is situated, over and above their liabilities, exemptions and homestead rights, twice the amount of the bond.

(4) If at any time, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, or of a High Court, if in session, or of the Executive Council, or of the High Standing Committee, as the case may be, in the interim of sessions it may be deemed advisable to require any bonded Officer to give a new and better bond, or bonds in a larger amount, they shall give such an Officer notice in writing to file such a bond for approval within thirty days. A failure on the part of the Officer, so directed, to comply with such notice will work a disqualification for the office he holds and create a vacancy, which must be filled as herein provided.

(5) All bonds shall be executed in favor of the Supreme Chief Ranger, and, after approval, shall be filed with and kept by him.

(6) If a bonded Officer-elect shall be unable to furnish an acceptable bond before adjournment, the Supreme Court, or the High Court, as the case may be, may grant him not more than fifteen days in which to offer such a bond as shall be approved of by the Executive Council, or by the High Standing Committee, as the case may be, before he can enter upon the duties of the office.

(7) If a satisfactory bond is not furnished by such Officer within the said fifteen days, he shall thereby forfeit the office to which he shall have been elected, and the vacancy duly filled, as provided for in this Constitution.

(8) The old Officer shall not deliver up any moneys, books, papers, or other property in his possession or custody until his successor has duly qualified by giving the required bond, unless required so to do by the Executive Council, or by the High Standing Committee, as the case may be.

(9) In case of a vacancy and an appointment, as aforesaid, the appointee shall be installed by the Supreme Chief Ranger, or by the High Chief Ranger, as the case may be, or by a special Deputy appointed by either the Supreme Chief Ranger or by a High Chief Ranger.

(10) The Financial Secretary and the Treasurer of a Subordinate Court shall each give a bond in the sum of two hundred dollars, or in any higher sum that the Subordinate Court may determine.

(11) Whenever a Subordinate Court, by a two-thirds vote, directs a bonded Officer to give a new and better bond, he must furnish the same at or before the next ensuing meeting after having received notice of the matter. Should such a bond not be furnished and approved, the Court, by the same, vote, may grant the Officer until the next meeting to furnish the same. Failing to satisfy the Court, the station of such Officer shall be declared vacant by the Chief Ranger, and the retiring Officer directed to turn over all moneys and property in his hands to the Chief Ranger, and an election to fill the vacancy ordered forthwith.

(12) Bonds must be given or renewed after each election or re-election, and the expenses connected with the execution of a bond shall be borne by the Court.

(4) Charter members may be initiated as Social members, pending their passing their medical examinations, which must be done as soon after their initiation as practicable, and when passed by the Medical Board shall become beneficiary members.

(5) Social members are (a) those who have been elected and initiated into the Order, but whose medical examinations have not yet been approved by the Medical Board, or whose medical examinations have been disapproved by the Medical Board; (b) or who had passed the age of fifty-five years when initiated, and who have not obtained the Dispensation provided for in Section one hundred and thirty-four, Sub-section three; (c) or such beneficiary members as have forfeited or lost their rights as such, but who on application for reinstatement have failed to pass the medical examinations, but were admitted again as Social members at their request.

(6) Honorary members are those who shall have been elected as such by Subordinate Courts, on account of distinguished services to the country or to the Order, or on account of eminence in learning or philanthropy.

STATUS OF SOCIAL AND HONORARY MEMBERS.

135. Social and Honorary members are not assessable for the Endowment Fund, or for any other relief, aid or benefit fund of the Order, nor for the capitation tax, nor for dues, and are not entitled to any of the benefits of the Order. They may vote, and are eligible to any office excepting that of Chief Ranger or that of Representative to the High Court.

136. All applicants for membership, in addition to other requirements of the Constitution and Laws, shall—

(2) But such applicants may be admitted as "Special Members," and shall be entitled to the Sick Benefits and free medical attendance only, and shall not be entitled to the Funeral Benefits, nor to any part of the Endowment Fund, nor to any benefits connected with the Endowment Fund, such as the Total and Permanent Disability Benefit, the Annuity Benefit for aged Foresters, or the one thousand dollars, two thousand dollars, or three thousand dollars paid to beneficiaries upon the death of a beneficiary member.

(3) Special members shall pay the same initiation and other fees, and Court dues and capitation tax, as the beneficiary members, except that they shall not pay the monthly rates for the Endowment Fund.

(4) Any member knowingly proposing or recommending a candidate who is disqualified by the provisions of the Constitution or Laws, may be fined, suspended or expelled ; and any Court knowingly initiating a person so disqualified may have its Dispensation or Charter suspended or annulled, and the Court dissolved at the discretion of the Executive Council.

MODE OF ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

138. (1) The name of the person offered for membership, with his age, residence and occupation, must be proposed at a regular meeting by a member.

(2) The application for membership must state the amount of endowment required, and the name or names of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and must be signed by the applicant.

(3) It must be accompanied by at least two dollars as part of the initiation fee.

(4) The application shall forthwith be referred to a committee of three members for investigation, who shall report at the next succeeding regular meeting as to character and physical fitness.

(5) Unless the committee on character report unanimously against the applicant, the candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots, and if not more than two black balls appear against him he shall be declared to be elected; but if three or more appear, he shall be declared rejected; or if the committee report unanimously against the applicant, or if he has failed to pass the medical examination, he shall be declared to be rejected without ballot.

(6) In case of emergency, at the request of the Court, a Dispensation may be granted to ballot and initiate on the night of proposal.

(7) In case of rejection, the sum of two dollars, being part of the initiation fee, shall be refunded. If elected, and he fails to present himself for initiation within thirty days, but presents himself within forty-five days, he may be initiated, upon the Court Physician certifying that he is in as good health as when he examined him. If he fails to secure such certificate, or fails to present himself for initiation within the forty-five days, he must again be re-examined; and if he fails to present himself for initiation within three months he shall forfeit all the fees he has paid, and he must again be proposed in the usual way, re-examined, and pay the fee of two dollars.

(8) Every candidate, on the night of his initiation, shall pay the balance of his initiation fee, and the enrolment fee provided for in Section one hundred and seventy-seven, and sign the Constitution and By-laws, and be furnished with a copy of the same, also, as soon thereafter as possible, with a certificate of membership and the endowment certificate.

CANDIDATES TO PAY MEDICAL EXAMINATION.

139. A candidate must pay for his own medical examination by the Court Physician, which shall in no case be refunded, whether the candidate is accepted or rejected by the Medical Board or by the Court.

JOINING BY CARD.

140. (1) Any brother desiring to join the Court by card shall present his withdrawal card, and a fee of fifty cents, at any regular meeting of the Court, when it shall be referred forthwith to a committee of three, to report at the next meeting, when, if a majority of the members present ballot in favor of the applicant, he shall be declared elected, and duly enrolled.

(2) If a brother, who has not yet received his withdrawal card, makes application for affiliation with a Court, by unanimous consent the application may be referred forthwith in the same manner as if the Court was in possession of the card, as laid down above; provided, however, that such applicant shall not be enrolled as a member of the Court until he deposits the necessary fee of fifty cents, together with his withdrawal card.

RECONSIDERATION OF AN UNFAVORABLE BALLOT.

141. By unanimous consent, an unfavorable ballot on the application for initiation, affiliation or reinstatement, may be reconsidered, provided it is done the same night. An unfavorable ballot cannot be reconsidered more than once, except by special Dispensation from the Supreme Chief Ranger.

CANDIDATES MAY BE INITIATED IN ANOTHER COURT.

142. A candidate who has conformed to the requirements of the Order, and who has been legally elected to membership in a Court, in the event of his inability to be present at the regular meetings of his said Court, and be initiated therein, may have the degree conferred on him by another Subordinate Court by request of and for the Court in which he was proposed and elected ; provided, however, that all his fees, dues and assessments be paid into the Court receiving his petition.

MISTAKE OR FRAUD IN APPLICATION.

143. (1) If it shall appear that a beneficiary member has made a mistake in giving his age at the time of his admission, he shall make a written statement of the facts in his case to the Court.

(2) The Court, if satisfied that no fraud was intended, may recommend under its seal that the age upon the Register and the assessment of the member be corrected.

(3) The written statement of the member and a statement of the action of the Court relating to the case shall be transmitted under seal of the Court to the Supreme Chief Ranger, and if approved by him, he shall transmit it to the Supreme Secretary, who shall make the correction in accordance with the facts.

(4) If the member reported his age at admission younger than he really was, he shall pay to the Financial Secretary of his Court the difference between what he has paid and the amount due for his correct age on all assessments accrued subsequently to his admission. Said sums must be immediately forwarded to the Supreme Secretary as additional on said assessments.

(5) If he reported his age older than he was at the time of his admission, he shall not be entitled to have anything refunded to him from the Endowment Fund for the overpayment, but shall be assessed at his correct age from and after the date of the receipt, by the Subordinate Court, of his notice of error.

REJECTIONS.

144. When a candidate has been rejected, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to all the adjacent Courts, and he cannot be proposed again in any Court for the space of six months after such rejection, except by Dispensation of the Supreme or High Chief Ranger. This Section shall not apply to an applicant for admission by card or by re-statement who may be proposed again at any regular meeting after rejection.

WITHDRAWAL OF PROPOSITIONS.

145. A proposition for membership may be withdrawn previous to the report of the Committee to whom it has been referred, but it cannot, after the Committee has once reported thereon, except by unanimous consent.

ENROLMENT OF MEMBERS.

146. Every member, on initiation, shall be entered on the rolls of his Court according to the date of his admission into the Court, with his age, occupation and place of abode, amount of endowment allowed by the Medical Board, to whom designated, and rate of assessment; and should any member change his occupation or place of residence, he shall at once give the Recording Secretary of his Court notice in writing of such change.

THE FUNDS AND PROPERTY OF COURTS.

147. The funds and property of a Court cannot be divided in any manner among the members individually or between a Court and any other that may branch from it, without the assent of two-thirds of the members in good standing in the Court, and the approval of the Executive Council or of the High Standing Committee of the jurisdiction, which approval must be attested by the Supreme Secretary under seal, or by the High Secretary under seal. Whenever a brother ceases to be a member of a Court, by reason of his death, expulsion, suspension or withdrawal, his right, title and interest in and to the property or funds of the Court, or any part thereof, thereby becomes extinguished.

PAYMENT OUT OF FUNDS.

148. No payment out of the funds of the Court shall be made without a vote of the Court, and an Order, signed by the Chief Ranger and Secretary with the seal of the

TERMS AND RETURNS.

149. Regular semi-annual terms shall commence on the first days of the months of July and January in each year.

150. It shall be the duty of the Officers of the Court to prepare and have transmitted to the Supreme Secretary, immediately after the last regular meeting in each term, a regular report of the work of the term, including the names of those initiated, rejected, admitted by card, reinstated, withdrawn, suspended and expelled, with the cause therefor; the names of those deceased; the whole number of membership; the names of the Past Chief Rangers, and their Post Office address; the number of brothers and widows relieved; the number of brothers buried, with the amount of money applied to each of those purposes; the amount paid for expenses; the amount of receipts; and the result of the election of Officers, and the names and residences of the Officers-elect.

SICK AND FUNERAL BENEFITS.

151. (1) Every Court must form and support a Sick and Funeral Benefit Fund, except as hereinafter provided, to which every member must contribute his due proportion.

(2) Each Court shall fix the amount of its own Court benefits, provided the weekly sick benefits are not less than three dollars per week and medical attendance, and the funeral benefit not less than thirty dollars.

(3) It shall also determine the rates of monthly dues and rates for sick and funeral assessments, which shall be such as to adequately support the Sick and Funeral Benefit Fund, besides providing for the current running expenses of the Court.

152. A Court may, by a majority vote of the members, dispense with the Sick and Funeral Benefits, except medical attendance, and the care of the Sick Committee or of nurses.

153. Any member of a Court, which has resolved as above (after having given notice of such motion at the previous regular meeting, or at any time by unanimous consent of all the members of the Court present) to dispense with the weekly Sick and Funeral Benefits, may be enrolled for the Supreme Court Sick and Funeral Benefits.

SICK MEMBERS' DEPARTMENT.

154. Any member taken ill must give notice in writing to the Court within the first week of his illness, and if any member fails to give such notice, then in that case the sick benefit shall date from the time at which the Court shall be so notified of such illness. Once on the funds of the Court, no member shall declare himself off of the funds without the consent of the Court Physician; and if he should act in any manner to retard his recovery, he shall forfeit his sick benefits for the balance of the time of such illness, and may further be dealt with as the Court may determine.

DUES OF SICK MEMBERS.

155. No member, while on the funds, shall be allowed to become in arrears, so as to be debarred from the benefits; but the Treasurer shall deduct from the amount due for weekly benefits a sum sufficient to keep the brother clear on the books of the Financial Secretary, and place the same to the brother's credit in the books of the Court.

BENEFITS ON DEATH OF A WIFE.

156. A Court may, by additional By-laws, provide for the payment of a funeral benefit of a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars on the death of the wife or child of a member in good standing.

158. Any member may at any time demand his withdrawal card from the Court, and upon payment of fifty cents therefor he shall receive the same at once, if clear of all charges upon the books, and thereupon his membership in that Court shall terminate.

159. A travelling card shall not be granted for a longer period than one year, nor less than three months; and before a brother is entitled to receive the same he must pay his dues in advance for the time specified, and the sum of fifty cents for a card.

CONSOLIDATION OF COURTS.

160. (1) Any two or more Subordinate Courts, desiring to do so, may consolidate, when in their opinion it may be to the interest of the Order for such Courts to do so.

(2) Such consolidation shall be effected by each Court appointing a committee of three to arrange the terms therefor. The joint committee, if favorable to consolidation, shall recommend the adoption of the name and number of one of said Courts, and report the same to their respective Courts.

(3) If two or more Courts desiring to consolidate agree to the terms proposed, and adopt the recommendations of the joint committee, the same shall be reported to the Supreme Chief Ranger, and if approved by him, he shall appoint a time and place for the consolidation to take place.

(4) The Courts shall meet in convention at the place and time appointed, and shall surrender to the Instituting Officer their respective Charters or Dispensations, Rituals and Seals, and all of their funds, books and property, taking his receipt therefor.

(5) The Instituting Officer shall then proceed to institute the consolidated Court in the same form and manner as a new Court (except the initiatory ceremonies), under the name and number agreed upon; he shall retain for transmission to the Supreme Secretary the Charters, Dispensations, Rituals and Seals of the consolidated Courts, except those of the Court under which they are to work, which, together with the funds, books or other property of the consolidated Courts received by him, shall be delivered to the new Court, and the new Court shall be liable for all the debts of the Courts so consolidated.

(2) A Subordinate Court may advance the funeral benefit, in which case the Supreme Court shall not pay to the widow or heirs the fifty dollars, but shall pay the same over to the Court, as a repayment of its advances to such widow or heirs.

166. Members who are enrolled for the Supreme Court Sick and Funeral Benefits shall be entitled to the same medical attendance, and the care and attendance of the Sick Committee and of nurses, as all the other members of the Court.
