J. M. GIBSON GAINS WISDOM SEES NOW UTTER FOLLY OF FIGHTING PUBLIC

Hamilton Slow to Rebel Up Against Oppression of Cataract Crowd, But Appearances Indicate No Further Surrenders.

Hamilton, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—It has taken Hon. J. M. Gibson a long time to discover how unpopular he and his Cataract Power Company are in their own city.

If he can do something now to get into the popular class he will show the world that J. M. Gibson is gaining prudence and wisdom in his old age. For J. M. Gibson has been "including" popular opinion a long time.

MISSING DEAL IS OFF SO FAR AS GUGGENHEIMS ARE CONCERNED MAY BE ONLY BIG GAME

New York Capitalists Throw Up Option on 40,000 Shares and Forfeit First Payment on Account of $2,500,000—Claim Title is Not Clear Enough, But Stock Jobbing Scheme is Suspected on Wall Street.

LOCAL STOCKHOLDERS ADVISED TO HOLD ON TO THEIR SHARES

Alleging that certain rumors which reflected on the title of the Nipissing Mine were responsible for distrust on their part, the Guggenheims of New York City on Saturday declined to meet the second payment of $2,500,000 on the option they held on 40,000 shares.

It is doing this, it was announced, they are prepared to face losses of participants amounting to over $1,500,000. This action and excuse on the part of the New York mine capitalists seems, however, to be taken with a grain of salt, as the following quotations would indicate. The New York American, for instance, says:

"Speculators on the curb say the secret of the Guggenheim action lies in the discovery by them that they could buy the Nipissing title for a price lower than they had agreed to pay the promoting syndicate. This difference in price would declare the curb dealers, enable the Guggenheims to make a handsome profit while appearing to lose $1,500,000. That the Nipissing prospect would be a desirable acquisition would be a desirable acquisition, as the title is held by the Guggenheims by John Hays Hammond, the expert mining engineer."

In the same strain The New York World says: "There is a general belief in Wall Street that the whole thing is a stock jobbing scheme of the boldest character. Color is given to this theory from the fact that more than a week ago the tip was quietly circulated that Nipissing was going to have a violent break, and that when it touched 15 it would be a purchase. According to the story circulated yesterday the Guggenheims sold a great deal of stock between 15 and 20 before they themselves knew the real value of their mine. It is charged that the question of the title has been deliberately raised by certain insiders for the purpose of wrecking the market so that they could get back the stock that they sold. Hayden, Stone & Co., of No. 25 Broad street, who represent these insiders, refused to make a statement yesterday further than to say, 'The title is perfectly clear and the stock is worth more to-day than when sold at $34 a share.'"

David Fasken, who with E. P. Earle, president of the Nipissing Mining Company, was in New York on Saturday in connection with the deal, declares with utmost emphasis that the title is absolutely clear and that he is strongly as he can upon local holders of the stock not to be frightened out at a sacrifice now.

FARMERS HOLD UP TRAIN FILL WAGONS WITH COAL

With Zero Weather Suffering in Saskatchewan is Intense, and Many Are Burning Lumber From Buildings—Men Will Return to Work To-day.

Regina, Sask., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—So desperate has the fuel famine grown, and the farmers are in such terrible straits now that zero weather has set in, that at Drinkwater, Sask., on Saturday a train on the siding was held up by a band of farmers, who turned the switch and stood guard until their wagons were loaded from a car of coal bound for Weyburn.

Many of these farmers were burning lumber from their buildings for fuel. Farmers living thirty and forty miles from town often remain three or four days to obtain a supply of coal and then return home with a few hundred pounds. At many points on the arrival of a car there are sixty and seventy teams awaiting their supply.

BANK MANAGER'S BODY CAST UP BY THE WAVES

F. G. Bastiedo Comes to Untimely End—Worried Over His Duties.

The body found floating in the bay at Sunnyside by Walter Dean Saturday night was identified yesterday as that of Frederick Gordon Bastiedo, manager of the Avenue-road branch of the Dominion Bank.

It is presumed that Mr. Bastiedo, who was not in very good health, was subjected to needless worry in his management of the bank. Naturally anxious to make a good showing with the newly-opened branch, he was inclined to be weighed down by comparatively trivial matters. It is stated that an overdraft on the account of one of his customers, amounting to $300, proved a source of uneasiness, as there was nothing whatever in the situation to justify apprehension, since small overdrafts of the kind are of by no means uncommon occurrence, and, in this case, the account would have speedily been readjusted. Mr. Bastiedo's friends believe that the incident given him by the inspector to attend a meeting at 2.30 Friday afternoon was thought by him to imply dissatisfaction with the business methods of the Avenue-road branch, and that he shrank from the possibility of being criticized. As a matter of fact the meeting called was merely by the regular monthly one to take account of securities carried, and the general business of all the local branches, suffering from no heartiness, and the newly-opened branch, in responsibility, Mr. Bastiedo was morbidly sensitive, and evidently dreaded to face the meeting.

Mr. Bastiedo, who was 37 years of age, was a son of John Bastiedo, of the firm of Holt, Renfrew & Co. Two brothers, Melville and Henry, live in Toronto. A widow and three children also survive.

Entering the services of the bank about 18 years ago he was shifted among a number of the outside branches for some years, but for some time had lived in Toronto. Up to a few weeks ago, when he was made manager of the new Avenue-road branch, he was accountant at the branch on Spadina-avenue. On assuming his charge he removed his place of residence to Avenue-road, so as to be in convenient touch.

The deceased manager was highly esteemed by Dominion Bank officials, and the news of his tragic end, which became generally known to his friends yesterday, caused many expressions of surprise and regret.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, 133 Avenue-road, at 3.30 to-morrow afternoon.

NIPISSING DEAL IS OFF

in this one curb stock than in the purchase of 400,000 shares by the Guggenheims was due to fears on the part of the latter concerning the title to the rich mining property.

"The cause of the abandonment of the purchase of 400,000 shares by the Guggenheims was due to fears on the part of the latter concerning the title to the rich mining property.

"The Guggenheim syndicate on Oct. 30 last had agreed to put up $10,000,000 in four equal instalments to pay for the 400,000 shares of Nipissing stock.

"The present situation in regard to Nipissing is that the men who exploited the mine agreed to deliver 400,000 shares at $25 a share during the lapse of months.

"Ordinarily this loss would fall on the members of the syndicate, but an official announcement issued by Louis Marshall, of Guggenheim, Untermyer & Marshall, attorneys for the Guggenheims, the statement is made that any losses sustained will be personally assumed by Daniel Guggenheim and Murray Guggenheim, the managers of the underwriting syndicate.

"The extension of time would have granted had it not been thought unwise in justice to the investors to have the two weeks would elapse our stock would have been sold at a price which would have been a disaster to the syndicate.

"The whole trouble is caused by parties who have a selfish interest in circulating rumors that will worry the government in regard to Cobalt."

"A private inquiry from New York last night asking if the government had issued a statement, also indicated that a wild time was expected on 'the curb' there this morning."

"Needless to say, the sellers of the stock insist that the Guggenheims were needlessly alarmed over reports coming to them from Canada. They insist that their titles are absolutely secure, and take the position that they were justified in demanding the second payment without delay on the ground that a default would have subjected the securities of the company to needless suspicion.

the company concerning its titles or for any other cause. The titles of the company to its great mining properties in the Cobalt district, Canada, are held under patents and are guaranteed by certificates of the Ontario government under the Torrens Land Title Certificate Act, and the company is advised by its attorneys of the present situation in regard to the titles.

"An officer of the company gave the further information that a large part of the agitation against titles in the Cobalt district is due to Martin Timmins."

"Mr. Timmins," he said "owns the Larose mine and claims the O'Brien mine, which lies between the Larose and the Nipissing. He has been unable to impress his belief on the Canadian authorities and he has had a great outcry in regard to corruption in securing titles. He has announced himself as a candidate for parliament on this issue and he will demand a parliamentary review of all claims granted in the Cobalt district."

David Fasken returned from New York yesterday, where he had been in connection with the matter. He said he had simply in order to protect local shareholders that the Nipissing Company had felt obliged to decline to extend the time for the title is absolutely perfect, becoming mature and ready for sale.

"The extension of time would have granted had it not been thought unwise in justice to the investors to have the two weeks would elapse our stock would have been sold at a price which would have been a disaster to the syndicate."

BRUSSO IN FIRST LIGHT SAYS BIG BILL NAUGHTON

Side Lights of Last Week's Heavy-weight Battle at Los Angeles Boxing Notes.

There are many interesting side lights to the Burns-O'Brien fight, by way of noting the pranks played by the new thing in moving picture lights, writes Big Bill Naughton, the fast expert. The contest...

of James J. Jeffries, the general opinion being that either O'Brien or Burns would be a champion, and that the best of the American heavyweights at that period in battle he would challenge said foreigner to fight.

It still got me I asked Jeff the night of the Burns-O'Brien match. "It surely does," said Jeff. "That is, if it is a great game before the foreigner puts in an appearance."

I tried to get Jeff to talk a little more freely on the subject of his possible return to Australia, but he merely smiled and kept his own counsel.

Altho O'Brien is ill and in no shape to box, he was today offered a big purse to fight James J. Jeffries, New York.

Tommy Burns to-day offered $1000 for Jeff, agreeing to stop O'Brien if the latter were to be defeated. The only condition is a $5000 bet.

O'Brien's face is all battered up, his left eye swollen, his nose is depressed in body and spirit. O'Brien, who last Wednesday afternoon was one of the most perfect specimens of a boxer, lies today in bed in his hotel, surrounded by his mother and sister and a physician.

TIGERS BEST EVERY WAY.

McGill Outplayed in Every Department—Aftermath of Game.

Outplayed at every point, in every department of the game, McGill went down to defeat by 29 to 3, the Hamilton Tiger team clearly demonstrating their right to the title of champions of Canada.

The Tigers kicked better, ran better, and in fact, did everything better than their opponents. The only way McGill proved equal to Hamilton, and that was their determination. The colleges were plucky, even when clearly mastered.

The field was a quagmire in the beginning, and it was not until the first half that it was whipped across it, and the griddle of the early sun was lost, the ground changed to a rough, heavy mat.

The Tigers kept their footing better and were far faster than the collegians. In defence they were strong, and strong enough to protect their halves; in offence they were good enough to brush aside the lighter McGill forwards and get to the halves.

INTERMEDIATE SOCCER FINAL

Britannias Beat Toronto 2 to 1 for C.P.A. and Ontario Association Football Championship.

Before a fair crowd of the faithful, and in weather very unsuitable for football, the Britannias defeated the Toronto for the intermediate championship of Toronto by a score of 2 goals to 1 Saturday at Bayville Park.

The game was called at 3.30 by Referee J. Woodward during a regular blizzard. Toronto had the wind and pressed hard for a time, but the wind carried the ball over the line and the Brits got several goal kicks, from one of which they made a beautiful run up the field, and from a nice pass by Charlie Hall, Shortt notched a goal against the Brits.

The Toronto pressed hard, but Rushton was playing a splendid game, and saved his goal time and again. The half-time ended 1-0 in Brits' favor.

On changing ends it looked like Britannias, but the wind spoiled their combination, and the defence of Toronto team was good. Rabjohn in goal cleared nicely, and Croft was playing a splendid defence game. Toronto secured a corner kick, but Rushton cleared nicely, and the ball quickly travelled to the other end. Toronto's left wing brought it back to Brits', terrified and Rushton caught a long drop from outside the field, and the ball too long, and was heavily checked by McKenzie, and the Toronto rushed the ball thru. The score being even, both teams exerted their best to win, but when time was called the Brits were still a tie.

The teams changed around for an extra five minutes, and the Brits risked against the wind, and Captain Carter led his team in the lead by a nice play. The Toronto tried hard with the wind to even, but failed.

On changing again for the final five minutes, Britannias tried hard to increase their lead, but were met by a stubborn defence, and the final found the Toronto pressing, but unable to score.

For the Brits, Hall, Carter and Rushton were the stars. The Toronto's best were Croft and Rabjohn. J. Woodward made a very impartial and excellent referee. The teams were:

the winners proved too much for the college champions, and many times the McGill men were plainly puzzled at the way they were going. Tigers accepted chances to use the fadden, the cross-kick and their trick plays, and with these they made big gains.

There was a tremendous lot of fumbling by the Tiger backs, and had this happened against a team with fast wings they would have been continual trouble for the Tigers, but Hamilton men usually had plenty of round and quick speed and McGill's side neutralized the disadvantage of the other.

Moore was a shining light in the game, and the way in which he ran back punts was fine to see. Simpson was a good form, booting the ball, but his fumbles in the first quarter threatened to prove costly.

Barrett, Marriott and Burkhardt were shining marks in the game for Hamilton. Stephens and Zimmerman stood out on the McGill side.

It is now up to Varsity, McGill and Montreal to arrange a series for second position. Each was knocked out in a snail by the Hamilton Tigers.

As usual, the Sunday World gave correct and extended reports on the games, 30 and 40 hours ahead of any other Toronto papers.

The Welshman, who lost to the South Africans on Saturday by 11 to 0, were practically the same, which was only defeat suffered by the New Zealanders during their whole tour of 1905, so the victory of Saturday is regarded as placing the Springboks ahead of all Rugby football teams. Scotland alone has been able to withstand the great game at Glasgow, when the score was 14 to 0. South Africa can team is described as having played on that occasion in a most brilliant manner, a trainer—big and fierce, but possessing a leader, their captain, Ross, being out with a broken collar-bone.

FEDERAL HOCKEY LEAGUE.

Annual Meeting Adjourned Owing to Absence of Representatives.

The annual meeting of the Federal Hockey League was held at Cornwall, Ontario, last evening, the new pastor, the Rev. H. J. Hutchison, delivered an eloquent academic sermon on three phases of religious life. In describing the evolution of religious thought, he foreshadowed the religion of the future.

The religious forces of Christendom, he said, could be divided into three groups—Roman Catholicism, historical or orthodox Protestantism, and the free, liberal movement, which Unitarianism is a part. All three might have characteristics in common, but speaking in a large way, the first must stand between the soul and the orthodox Protestantism of an authoritative belief, and Unitarianism a religion of working faith. He believed the free, liberal movement of the future. Catholicism was more successful among uncivilized peoples than Protestantism, and he pointed to the result of mission among our own Indians as convincing proof. The evidence seemed strange and unbelievable, but it was perfect, true and intelligible that Roman Catholicism succeeded among primitive peoples because it was essentially a primitive religion.

The religion of the Roman Catholic Church insisted on treating its men and women as children, and would not allow them to graduate into a higher school of actively and thoughtfully and aggressively fighting to keep man in the kindergarten, it was doomed, if it did not change. The character of the orthodox Protestant Church was belief, and the passing on to their children of religious doctrines by means of ritualistic formulas, with all the tedious and formulaic of the church. This showed how much they were afraid to trust the natural, unswerving interests of the mind, or unwilling they were to believe that a philosophy of life could grow out of the individual's own experiences, observations and intuitions. The group of religious forces was, and would be, made up of men and women in all churches who have passed out of both previous stages, and moved on to a higher plane of religious thought. For this group religion would have a value mainly in that it would give the incentive it gave to the solution of life's problems, and because of the hopes it fostered in the human heart.

RELIGION OF THE FUTURE A WORKING FAITH IN GOD

Recent occurrences have undoubtedly created an uneasy feeling among a section of the investing public, regarding the position occupied by the stock of banking corporations hitherto enjoying an enviable reputation as a gilt-edged security of the highest class.

That some distrust should be created is not an unnatural consequence of revelations such as those which have accompanied the course of the investigation into the affairs of the Ontario Bank, and of the defective conditions, permitting improper manipulation of bank funds and deposits. Still deplorable as the administration of the Ontario Bank unquestionably was, dependence on the integrity and ability of directors and high officials is common to all public companies, and notwithstanding any deficiency in the regulating statute, bank stocks possess, and must continue to possess, exceptional advantages as a medium for investment.

Not the least important of these is the fact that, among public corporations, banking institutions are unique, because, in their case, stock-watering is impossible. The capital of a bank is in cash and patent to the world. The shareholders know exactly where they are in this respect, and know, too, that the earning power of the institution is wholly at the service of that legitimate capital. No doubt the earning capacity of a bank is, in a peculiar degree, dependent on the business capacity and honesty of its responsible management, but where it has become thoroughly established and enjoys an assured reputation, no business enterprise occupies a more favorable position for the protection of the shareholders. And in the case of new organizations, always prone to strike out into new fields and adopt newer methods, there, also, the quality of the administration is the paramount consideration. For banking is peculiarly under the influence of tradition, and conservatism, the excellent and laudable when it clings to sound and recognized principles, is a hindrance to industrial and commercial enterprise when it refuses to modify the method of applying these principles, in accordance with the need of the time.

Despite present troubles, Canadian banking never stood so high nationally and internationally as it does to-day, nor has the pending investigation affected that standing in any material degree, if, indeed, to any observable extent at all. This is a remarkable proof of the inherent soundness of the system and of the confidence reposed in the high character and administrative ability of Canadian professional and business men. The mismanagement which characterized the direction of the Ontario Bank is rightly regarded as having been abnormal, and the manner in which a financial crisis was avoided, without disturbance to the general course of business, could not but confirm the pre-existent trust in the sound character of Canadian finance. And again, as our banking system has been a natural evolution, gradually making towards greater perfection, has experience taught the need of improvement, so, out of the present trouble, good will surely come in the shape of more vigilant and independent inspection, both from within and without. Mistrust on the part of the investing public can only be an evanescent and limited phase of sentiment, and must soon be overcome by the underlying general confidence in the sterling quality of Canadian banking and bankers.

FRAUDS AND A MINING POLICY. A comprehensive review and eloquent appreciation of Canada's resources, responsibilities and manifest destiny, Earl Grey touched on many matters of vital public interest. Among these and of special importance to Ontario, was his reference to the "proved existence at Cobalt of large deposits of some of the richest silver ore the world has ever seen." And mingling counsel with congratulations the governor-general took occasion from his mining experience elsewhere to remind the public everywhere that the uncertainty attending the extent and depth of mineral fields in process of development, gives "the opportunity to unscrupulous company promoters to take advantage of the excitement which rich discoveries invariably engender in the human heart."

"I would earnestly warn," he said "the people of Canada, of New York and of London, that before they spend their spare cash in the purchase of mining stocks they should carefully discriminate between mere prospects and proved mines and take care that in their anxiety to become part owners of a silver mine they do not find themselves the owners of nothing more profitable than surface rocks and trees."

The history of all mining discoveries reveals at once the universality of the gambling propensity and the need of the public to be protected against them. It is an unfortunate circumstance too, that the law which so carefully restricts or prohibits opportunities for betting, game and lottery gambles and lays a heavy hand on fraudulent company promotion in other lines of enterprise has usually left the mine fakir a free hand, unless in peculiarly flagrant and aggravated cases.

At the session of the American Mining Congress lately held at Denver, Colorado, resolutions introduced by Governor Farde of California, as chairman of a committee appointed for that purpose, were adopted and recommended to the legislatures of mining states, calling for more stringent regulation of mining concerns and for its enforcement against fraud and misrepresentation in the promotion of mining concerns.

Writing last month in the Laramie, Wyoming, Republican, the Hon. Harry C. Beeler, state geologist of Wyoming, summed up the situation in this respect and gave several striking illustrations from his own extensive experience of the misrepresentation of mining properties. A great number of instances occurred where owners made statements impossible to contradict and equally impossible to verify (immediately) and which "as a commercial proposition represented a totally false idea of the property and its possibilities, but which were evidently the firm and sincere belief of the men who made them. To meet such cases the Mining Reporter of Denver, advocates the compulsory qualification of all persons reporting upon mining properties. But undoubtedly the main difficulty lies in the disregard by the investing public of the most ordinary precautions, even when facilities are provided by law for their protection.

Thus the operation of the voluntary publicity law of Wyoming, as Mr. Beeler states, "has shown conclusively that the general investing public is indifferent and cares only for a chance to get something for nothing, regardless of past experiences and this is the fakir's golden opportunity."

For the protection of the promoter with a straightforward proposition and the investor, Mr. Beeler proposes that legislation be enacted to compel any corporation offering stock to the public to file a sworn statement of the general facts relative to the company and its property, with a verified copy of its prospectus and a signed original report by a qualified mining engineer, all fully protected by penalties against misrepresentation. Further, that all companies be registered with the proper officer before stock is offered for sale and that none be registered unless proper filing has been made, as provided in the state where the mine or property is situated, with a heavy penalty for the sale of the stock of unregistered companies. Such conditions, he holds, "would put a stop to wild-cattling in mining and all other stocks, would give the miner a chance to make his mine productive and a benefit to the state and give the small investor an opportunity to buy a real chance in a real mine, instead of throwing his money away."

The story of the Cobalt boom will be no wise different from that of other mining camps, and it is only natural that the richer and more remarkable they are, the more numerous are the fake companies, which attempt to unload upon the public upon the strength of the genuine claims, which, in turn, only pass into the hands of the ultimate working companies after the heavy mortgaging of the enterprise in the shape of speculator's profits. The World again urges upon the provincial government, the advisability of extending the policy which reserved the Gilles Limit to the whole unclaimed mining lands of the province. This action would prove the most effectual protection of the investing public which could possibly be devised and would secure to the province the full benefits from the mineral deposits to which it is justly entitled. All companies operating in the province should also be compelled to register under the provincial statutes. Straight leases of proved claims such as may be given on the Gilles Limit, in the event of the government not working the mines as a provincial property, will leave no opening for fake promotions founded on claims more or less shadowy or absolutely bogus. The best and permanent interests of the province demand a RHEUMATIC.

When the cars left the barns the old men were put on and changes made in reasonably good time. The city council has expressed the hope that the strike will soon be away from the city, there is yet some suppressed indignation at the development of Corbett mines and other mineral belts in Ontario, and the Ontario government is endeavoring to get the Ontario government to take the matter into consideration. If a patent to a mining property, issued by the government, is not a finality, what is evidence of ownership and what are safeguards from vexatious litigation?

A definite statement is due from the government, and that statement should be made so clear that the investing public from the United States can understand it. These rumors casting discredit on Ontario titles should be branded as false. And the only brand worthy of notice is the government brand.

HYMAN'S FAKE RESIGNATION TO DISFRANCHISE LONDON

William Gray Comments on Serious Consequences of Minister's Irregular Act.

Montreal, Dec. 2.—William Gray, who was Hon. C. S. Hyman's opponent in the London by-election, discussed the disclosures of the Toronto police court on Saturday.

"When," said he, "you consider that only two polling divisions in London out of forty-two were under scrutiny, and that 154 purchased votes were traced in these two polling places, what would the 'corrupted total' have been if the other forty polls had gone under the inquisition at Toronto? I have no doubt that the same methods were in vogue in behalf of the Liberals throughout the entire city."

"Will you be a candidate in London again?" Mr. Gray was asked. "I cannot say," he replied. "I am in the hands of the Conservative party. It is idle, however, to talk of a candidate on either side until the seat is open. As you know, Mr. Hyman's resignation, sent to the Speaker, was not valid, because it was not witnessed by two members of parliament. Meanwhile, Mr. Hyman has gone south, I understand. He is still the member for London. Perhaps thru illness and worry he did not consider the serious consequences of sending in an irregular resignation. By neglecting to comply with the law, however, London is disfranchised pro tem. Perhaps a suggestion to the government that it might send a couple of members of the house to witness Mr. Hyman's document of resignation would be carried out. As it is I am afraid the impression is being spread broadcast that there is no particular anxiety on the part of the government or of Mr. Hyman to arrange matters so that the seat may be opened up. This may be good politics, but it is playing fair with the people?"

Mr. Gray then returned from England, where he spent the last three months in connection with his business interests. He knew nothing about the extent of the London revelations until his return and was rather surprised to learn that one of his committee men had sold out to the "moneyed interests."

"It would not cause me any wonder," said Mr. Gray, in conclusion, "if London were disfranchised until the next general election. Not only have I already had a fake election put in evidence, by which the seat was filled, but we have now a fake resignation from the minister of public works, as well as an utterance from the premier, expressing the hope that Mr. Hyman may be induced to change his mind about resigning at all."

SYNDICATE BEING FORMED TO DEVELOP DEPOSITS

Of Minerals of All Kinds in Northern Ontario—Prospector Outlines Plan.

Ontario has every appearance of being on the verge of a mineral development that would not have been considered possible only a few months ago. Creditable attempts to unearth the mineral wealth of Northern Ontario have in numerous instances been made, but they have almost all failed for want of sufficient capital or fallen for determined confidence on the part of those who have essayed the task. Except in the cases of nickel, copper and iron on the borders of the province, and iron on the borders of the province, no recent attempts have been sufficiently cautious to show satisfactory results.

George C. Campbell, an American, now residing at the King Edward Hotel, is taking up the work left unfinished by his predecessors in his mission to create confidence in his ultimate success. A man of penetrating eyes, forceful manner, and methodical action, gives the impression that his plans are well thought out. He apparently knows nothing about the mineral wealth of Ontario until the stability of previous ones has been established. Recognizing the necessity of the highest authority in expert work, Mr. Campbell is associating with himself one of the leading mineral experts on this continent, Prof. Potter, Mr. Campbell has started out with the strongest belief that Northern Ontario is the richest mineral section in the world. In an interview with The World, his first statement was to this effect, and his later cool and careful utterances were simple and substantial arguments. He is the manager of the syndicate styled the Cobalt-Nipigon Mines Company, a holding company, of which the Nipigon Mines Company is a subsidiary. To The World Mr. Campbell made the following statement:

Referring to the assets of the Nipigon Mines Company, Limited, which is a subsidiary company of the Cobalt-Nipigon Syndicate, they include the Bailey Mine, which adjoins the Foster and University, with about 250 acres of patented claims surrounding the town of Cobalt, in Coleman Township, with about 2000 acres in the Port Arthur silver district, a few thousand acres in the Bala River gold district, and several thousand acres in the iron and copper area between Lake Superior and the Hudson Bay. The stock of this company will not be offered for public subscription, and the only way the public can become interested would be in the purchase of syndicate memberships.

The special, fully-paid-up, non-assessable memberships in the Cobalt-Nipigon Syndicate, and holders of memberships of all subscribers to memberships, will participate pro rata in the distribution of 40 per cent of the stock of the Nipigon Mines Company, Limited. The policy of the latter-named company will be the acquisition of additional property from time to time, and its development. It will commence business with its property fully paid for and ample working capital in its treasury.

Now, in regard to the Cobalt-Nipigon Syndicate, it will also follow the same policy, it having already 700 acres of patented iron, copper and silver properties, with over 200 acres in the suburbs of Port Arthur. On the other hand, this syndicate will retain 51 per cent of the stock of the Nipigon Mines Company, Limited, and will also retain 51 per cent of the stock in various other legitimate flotations, which it proposes to do in the next twelve months. This syndicate will become a stock company, its capitalization depending altogether on the value of its assets at that time. In view of the fact that the transactions on the New York curb during October were some two hundred and twenty million dollars ($220,000,000), it is safe to say that the listing of all companies on the New York and Boston markets during the next twenty months, of which the Cobalt-Nipigon Syndicate would be the parent concern, would give the members of the syndicate a channel thru which other holdings of various distributions by the syndicate could be readily marketed at a figure above par.

This presents a most feasible and ground-floor plan for investors, and, considering the rich field, the millions of acres of government land, and the large number of properties partially developed, which can be purchased at a surprisingly low figure, the results do not seem hard to predict. Regarding the drop in Nipissing stock, Mr. Campbell said:

"The recent slump in Nipissing looks to me like a simple case of manipulation, in which the Guggenheims are apparently deeply interested, and similar to that carried on in Wall-street for the past thirty years. In such manipulations the public is usually deceived by virtue of the fact that the Guggenheims are apparently deeply interested, and allowing their holdings to slip away, under the impression that the world is coming to an end."

"Wise dealers in Wall-street and curb stocks buy only in such slumps. In other words, they buy when nobody wants the stock, and sell at top prices when everybody wants it. The Guggenheims' plan may be taken as a criterion of this situation, as 90 per cent of his vast fortune was accumulated by buying stocks in Wall-street panics. I make this statement as a true condition of the markets and manipulation of the world over."

ERIE-COBALT STOCK.

Since the purchase of four-fifths of the Beaver Company's stock by the Erie-Cobalt Silver Mining Company, and the effecting by the latter of a formal lease of the Beaver property, transfers of Beaver stock for Erie stock are daily increasing on a basis very satisfactory to the holders. And since the discovery of a valuable new vein on the Beaver property, connecting with the main vein of the Temiskaming Company, the amalgamated properties have become particularly attractive to prospective investors of the class who do not buy without seeing tangible signs of large returns. The subscription lists close positively on Wednesday, Dec. 5. The management state that they are allotting the shares in the order of receipt of applications and cheques, and that they anticipate over-subscription. In that event all amounts over-subscribed and paid for will be promptly returned.

Larder Lake Claims Sell High.
The Temiskaming Herald says: Three deals in big figures in Larder Lake properties taking place this week, is causing great excitement among the owners of claims in the gold region. The prices involved give some indication of the line to be placed on the holdings. Jake Moss, Fred Fuller and the Young brothers, who stake three claims in the Larder Lake region this summer, on Monday sold their interests to American capital thru Mr. Murray of Cobalt, for $15,000, of which $10,000 is in cash and the balance in stock in a new company. The three claims involved give some indication of the line to be placed on the holdings. Jake Moss, R. E. G. Burroughs on Monday sold his stake on Starvation Bay for $5000 cash and 30,000 shares in a new company. An option has been taken on three claims held by Messrs. Margaret and Jack Young, at $15,000, and it is expected that this will be taken up. An offer of $500,000 is reported to have been made to the Hendrick clique for seven claims, but it has, it is said, been refused, as the would-be buyers were not prepared to make a large enough cash deposit or payment. Who the buyers are is kept strictly quiet, tho it is known to have been made by the organization, and Messrs. McLeod and Murphy are acting as agents. The excitement following the first moves of the "big fellows" to lay their hands on the rich gold claims of the Larder Lake district sent a scurry of prospectors into the field in the face of the winter season. Mr. Percy Knox took train immediately for Tomstown, from where he would make his way over the frozen rivers to a claim he staked late this fall. The Smith brothers left on Tuesday. Edward Sackler and Dave Duke went next for a company on Wednesday, and Peter Gram leaves on Tuesday.

Canada's Mineral Wealth.
At the Canadian Institute's Saturday night meeting members listened to a very interesting address on the "Mineral Wealth of Canada," by Prof. T. L. Walker, M.A. Prof. Walker gave an address published in French, and dated 1892, and with the aid of an excellent map showed the mineral resources plainly marked, calling attention to the knowledge of the government at that time. Copper mines on the shores of Lake Superior were named, and it was thought that there were diamonds along the shores of the St. Lawrence. An iron mine seemed to be limited in a Canadian mining town what many Canadians in this country would have been surprised to find in a pleasant town together. The men and women who spoke were all of an excellent order, and the program was most interesting. The speaker, Mr. Walker, is a former resident of the United States, and is now in Canada, where he has been for some time. He is a very interesting speaker, and his address was most interesting. Thanksgiving Day at Cobalt.
Cobalt, Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Do the Yankees own the camp? They certainly did Thursday night, when the Thanksgiving Day supper was given at the Prospect Hotel. The United States residents that night in a Canadian mining town what many Canadians in this country would have been surprised to find in a pleasant town together. The men and women who spoke were all of an excellent order, and the program was most interesting. BREAK IN NIPISSING.

Accounted for by Guggenheims' Decision Not to Exercise Option.
New York, Dec. 2.—There was a wild opening on the curb Saturday morning and a panic seemed to be imminent. The mining shares, led by Nipissing, fell well below yesterday's close as a rule, and in a few minutes there was a standstill to sell Nipissing.

The result of the panic condition among the curb traders is a statement of affairs about the Nipissing side of the matter. The Guggenheims, who have made a large portion of the stock for themselves, do not intend to exercise their option of the purchase price, and are not prepared to make a large enough cash deposit or payment. Who the buyers are is kept strictly quiet, tho it is known to have been made by the organization, and Messrs. McLeod and Murphy are acting as agents. The excitement following the first moves of the "big fellows" to lay their hands on the rich gold claims of the Larder Lake district sent a scurry of prospectors into the field in the face of the winter

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

WORK COUNTY COUNCIL WINDS UP ITS CAREER

"Good Roads" Question Advanced So That Next Council Need Only Give Finishing Touch.

Saturday's meeting of the York County Council was probably the most important of the session, in that the matter of "good roads" was advanced to such a stage that the incoming council for 1907 will be enabled at the first meeting to give the third and last reading, enabling the whole question to be submitted to a vote between the January and June sessions. The scheme, as outlined by Councillor Fugelski, who has zealously pushed the matter along, is a comprehensive one, and provides for the expenditure of some $150,000. This money will be raised by debentures and will be expended as far as possible on the basis of assessed value on the district through which the proposed improved roads will run. The highways served in the event of the passing of the bylaw will be: Road No. 1—Young-street, from northern city limit to southern limit of North Toronto, North of the Lake Shore road, in the township of Etobicoke, five and one-quarter miles. Road No. 2—Dundas-street, west of the Junction, four and one-half miles, and the Weston-road in the Township of Etobicoke, five miles. Road No. 3—The Vaughan plank road from city limits. Road No. 4—The Weston and Vaughan roads north of the Junction, the north townline of King, twenty-seven and one-quarter miles. Road No. 5—Commencing at Yonge-street to Etobicoke, eight and three-quarter miles. Road No. 6—East of Aurora, fourteen and one-quarter miles. Road No. 7—The Kettleby-road, from Aurora, seven and one-quarter miles. Road No. 8—From Yonge-street to King Station. Road No. 9—The Queen-street road to Mount Albert, thirteen and three-quarter miles.

SETTLEMENT PENDING.

Fairweather 84-86 YONGE STREET

of Toronto, who took possession of the business Saturday.

Anson Burke, who has been manager of the drug store at the corner of Yonge-street and Eglinton-avenue, went home to Huntville Saturday, where he had purchased a drug store. Owing to the change of hands of the local drug store D. Mackenzie is re-located to Guelph, where he has accepted a position in a drug store.

The indenture dated June 25th, 1884, between the County of York and the Metropolitan Railway Company, clause three, and every subsequent amendment carries its provision, that: "The roadway, track and rails shall be located and constructed on the west side only of the said street, between the macadam or gravel, and the ditch or watercourse, and the roadway between, and all the space within the rails, and at least one foot six inches from the outside of, and up to and adjoining the rail next adjoining the macadam gravel or roadway, shall be paved or macadamized and kept constantly in good order and repair, and shall be maintained PLUSH with the rails of the said rail or tram way."

The road of the Metropolitan is still in very primitive condition. The rails are lying exposed to the full depth, and in many instances even the ties are barely sunk into the gravel. As the laws of the city do not cover and parcel of the municipality of York, the county commissioners won't bother themselves about it. The county engineer is also engineer for the company.

Stomach Sufferers Squander Millions IN SEARCH OF RELIEF.

The world is full of disordered stomachs and 90 per cent of the money spent upon physicians and drugs goes in an attempt to cure the stomach. People are made to believe that in order to gain health they must doctor their stomachs and use cathartics. So the doctor gets his fee for the stomach treatment and the druggist for the physic, until the savings of a lifetime are exhausted and yet no cure.

They will be gone four days, returning home on Friday. During the absence of Mayor Simcoe, J. H. Ball, chairman of the property committee, will be acting mayor.

Thornhill. A. Ellison, concession 2, Markham, has sold his farm of 85 acres to George Drury for $5000.

Miss Fextor has disposed of her house and lot for $450 to Mr. Mills of Toronto. The pupils of the public school are arranging for a concert to be held in the school hall on Saturday.

Mr. McComb, the Irish evangelist, conducted the services in the Methodist Church, yesterday, and will continue special services during the next few weeks.

Rev. G. W. Robinson of Creemore has accepted a call from the official board of the Methodist Church to preach in the Thornhill circuit during the coming term.

Two cases of local interest took up the whole time of Judge Morgan in the division court yesterday on Saturday—G. W. Brown v. Mrs. W. J. Lellis, and Hy Cousins v. Dr. E. F. Irwin. In February last the Liberals of West York held a banquet at Weston, Mrs. Lellis, the proprietress of the Bagie House, contracted with G. W. Brown, caterer, Toronto, to provide the supper, the menu for which was to include turkey, ham and roast beef. Mr. Brown, apparently, however, had no idea of a West York Liberal's appetite. What he supplied must have done all right for a "pink tea" or possibly would have done for a Liberal banquet before 1886. Since that time, however, they have been used to plenty, and strongly resented being seated before plates with nothing on them, and unable to obtain anything from the waiters who helped themselves to what was in sight, with the remark that two plates "just made a fair meal." One witness testified that he paid $50 for a meal and that the waiter who had some bread. Another claimed that all the provisions could have been brought there in a baby carriage, while the waiter thought the "butter was strong enough to act as a waiter. The banquet committee did not consider Mr. Brown had lived up to his contract. Mr. Lellis asked him to meet on two occasions, but had failed. Brown entered suit against Mrs. Lellis for $54. The case was tried in Toronto and resulted in his favor. A. J. Anderson, Toronto, for Mrs. Lellis, objected to the jurisdiction of the court and the case was quashed and the defendant was ordered to pay the costs. He advised the plaintiff to return the rig in dispute to the factory as he considered they were to blame.

East Toronto. Dec. 2.—Monday, Dec. 2, has been fixed for the official opening of the new high school building. The E. T. A. Association will meet in the Y.M.C.A. to-morrow night for the election of officers and other business.

The anniversary services in connection with Hope Methodist Church were held to-day, in the morning, in the church, and in the evening Rev. W. McWilliams, to-morrow evening G. W. Bay, F.R.C., will be the principal speaker. The services will be held at 8 o'clock.

Port Union. The concert on Friday night under the auspices of the Wychwood Park band was a great success and realized $200. The musical part including the performance were Miss Dinwiddie, pianist; J. B. Lambertson, the Misses Bell, Miss M. Lambertson, Miss Kenel, J. W. Rowe, Mrs. Davidson, Wm. Lambertson, Miss L. Levery, A. Smith, "Buster Brown Kids," Mr. and Mrs. Rev. W. A. McTaggart, B.A., presided.

Port Union. Dec. 2.—(Special.)—The residence of Centennial Methodist Church, west of Centennial Methodist Church, and north of the Kingston-road, and one of the oldest and first stone structures in the township of Scarborough, was totally destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The cause of the fire is not to be a mystery. Owing to the high wind blowing at the time difficulty was experienced in preventing the fire spreading to adjoining buildings. The house and contents were insured for $1500, which will pay for the loss. The house was a homestead was one of the landmarks of Scarborough Township, and was erected in the year 1825. It was a prominent member of the Scarborough and Pickering Wharf Company, shipping grain, timber, lumber and other goods to Toronto.

GERMANS HAVE A CLUB. "Housewarming" on Saturday Night Brought Excellent Entertainment.

The Deutscher Verein of Toronto Germans, and of other German speaking Torontonians, which came into existence in January last, at the occasion of a banquet, in honor of the Kaiser's birthday, has since made remarkable progress in every way and respect. It has grown in membership, and it has already acquired a very beautiful and commodious home, by purchasing the property, situated at the southwest corner of Wood and Church sts. The club rooms have been elegantly furnished, some members contributing generously and lavishly, for that purpose. The majority of the members have a high standing in professional and social life, comprising prominent business men, teachers, university professors, artists and politicians of high rank. Of the latter Hon. Adam Beck is one, for instance. However, the Deutscher Verein has no political ambitions whatsoever, its character being of a purely social and literary nature. To become a member of the club the applicant must speak German, that is unalterably the "condition sine qua non," as the Romans used to say. Nationality—whether German born, or not—is no obstacle in the way to enter the society.

On Saturday evening the club held a so-called "Herren Kommerz" at its home. The musical part, including excellently rendered piano recitals by Professor Hans Wiegand and Fritz Lejeb. The society's own quartet consisting of Messrs. Waldemar Kahner, A. F. Schwaiger, Wm. Groeger and H. Wiegand, sang a number of "Volkslieder" amongst them "Henna Tannen" and "Spinne." Wm. Groeger's "Comic Couplets" were received with well deserved applause. However, the most brilliant parts of the program were those rendered by John Langz and Frank Blatchford, two eminent artists. The second part of the program was "general merrymaking," which was admirably executed to the letter, and—hour.
