CIVIC NEGLECT. Our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Jamesy Jones, in much incensed over what he regards as a gross outrage. Coming across King square this morning he observed a dog jumping up to play with the cup at the fountain in the head of King street, and finally pull it down and run away to play with it on the grass. This dog had made his usual round of loafing beds and reviewed the bearded ladies of the benches, and being then at a loss for further entertainment had been compelled to content himself with carrying off the dirty cup from which the common people had been drinking.

The KING OF DIAMONDS

By LOUIS TRACY

He took the pebble, which he placed in his waistcoat pocket. Walking briskly, he traversed some part of the street, and in a few minutes he had reached the door of his home. He unlocked the door, and entered. He looked at his watch, and saw that it was only ten minutes past twelve. He had not had time to change his mood, he did not know, and scarcely troubled to inquire. Last night he hurried through these streets in a frenzied quest for death. Now he strode along full of hope, joyous in the confidence of life and youth. His one dominant thought was that his mother had protected him, had snatched him from the dark gate of eternity. Oddly enough, he laid far more stress on his escape from the meteor than on the accident that prevented his contemplated suicide. This latter idea had vanished with the madness that induced it. Philip was sane again, morally and mentally. He was keenly anxious to justify his mother's trust in him. The blustering wind, annoying the most wayward, only aroused in him a spirit of resistance, of fortitude. He breathed it so manfully that when at last he paused at the door of a great jewelry establishment in Loughe Hill, his face was flushed and his manner eager and animated.

He opened the door, but was ruffled by the suspicious question of a shop-walker. "Now, boy what do you want here?" The unconscious store in the man's words was certainly borne out by the contrast between Philip, a social parish in attire, and the wealth of gold and precious stones cut off from him by panes of thick glass and iron bars. What, indeed, did this outcast want there? Confused by the sudden demand, and no less by its complete obviousness, Philip flushed and stammered. "I—er—only wished to obtain some information, sir," he answered. Like all others, the shopman was amazed by the difference between the boy's manners and his appearance. "Information," he repeated, in his surprise. "What information can we give you?" The wealth of the firm oppressed this man. He could only speak in accents of adulation where the shop was concerned. Philip produced his white pebble. "What is this?" he asked. "The directness of the query again took his hearer aback. Without a word, he bent and examined the stone. Professional instinct mastered all other considerations. "You must apply to that department," he majestically waved his hand toward a side counter. Philip obeyed silently, and approached a small, elderly personage with a kindly face, who was submitting to microscopic examination a number of tiny stones spread out on a cushion of leather folding case. He quickly removed the case when his glance rested on the boy.

"Well," he said, blankly, wondering why on earth the skilled shop-walker had sent such a disreputable urchin to him. Philip was now quite collected in his wits. He held out the pebble, with a more detailed statement. "I found this," he said. "I thought that it might be valuable, and a friend advised me to bring it here. Will you kindly tell me what it is?" The man behind the counter stared at him for a moment, but he reached over for the stone. Without a word he placed it beneath the microscope and gave it a very brief examination. Then he pressed it against his cheek. "Where did you get it?" he asked. "I found it where it had fallen on the pavement." "Are you sure?" "Quite sure." "Strange!" was the muttered comment, and Philip began to understand that his meteor possessed attributes hitherto unsuspected.

"But what is it?" he inquired, after a pause. "A meteoric diamond." "A meteoric diamond?" "Yes." "Is it worth much?" "A great deal. Probably some hundreds of pounds." Philip felt his face growing pale. That dirty-white, small stone worth hundreds of pounds! Yet in his pocket he had twenty-nine other specimens, many of them much larger than the one chosen haphazard for inspection, and in the back yard of his tenement lay heaps of them scattered about the pavement like hailstones after a shower, while the meteor itself was a compact mass of them. He became somewhat faint, and leaned against the glass case that surmounted the counter. "Is that really true?" was all he could say.

The expert valuer of diamonds smiled. His first impulse was to send for the police, but he knew that meteoric diamonds did fall to earth occasionally, and he believed the boy's story. Moreover, the thing was such a rarity and of such value that the holder must be fully able to account for its possession before he could dispose of it, so his tone was not unkindly as he replied. "It is quite true, but if you want to ascertain its exact value you should go to a Hatton Garden merchant, and he, most probably, would make you a fair offer. It has to be cut and polished, you know, before it becomes salable, and I must warn you that most rigid inquiry will be made as to how it came into your hands." "It fell from heaven," was the whole unexpected answer, for Philip was shaken and hardly master of his faculties. "Yes, yes, I know. Personally, I believe you, or you would be in custody at this moment. Take it to Messrs. Isaacstein & Co., Hatton Garden. Say I sent you—Wilson is my name—and make your best terms with Mr. Isaacstein. He will treat you quite fairly. But, again, be sure and tell the truth, as I will investigate your story fully before he is satisfied as to its accuracy." Philip, walking through a dreamland, quitted the shop. He mingled with the justling crowd and drifted into Farrington Road.

"A diamond—worth hundreds of pounds!" he repeated mechanically. "Then what is the whole meteor worth, and what am I worth?" CHAPTER IV. Isaacstein. The keen, strong, March wind soon blew the clouds from his brain. He did not hurry toward Hatton Garden. He strolled, rather, with his right hand clinched on the tiny parcel in his pocket, the parcel which had suddenly been endowed with such magic potentialities. It was the instinct to guard a treasure of great value that led to this involuntary action. He was preoccupied, disturbed, vaguely striving to grasp a vision that seemed to elude his exact comprehension. What did it all mean? Was it really possible that he, Philip Anson, orphaned, beggared, practically a starving tramp, should have the riches of Golconda showered upon him in this mad fashion. If the small stone he had shown to the jeweler were worth hundreds, then some of those in the paper were worth thousands, while as for the stone in the back yard of his house—well, imagination bogged at the effort to appraise it. The thought he got a sense of caution, of reserve, of well reasoned determination not to reveal his secret to anybody. Perhaps it would be best not to take Messrs. Isaacstein & Co. wholly into his confidence. He would simply show them the stone he had exhibited to Mr. Wilson and take the best price they offered. Then, with the money in his possession, he could effect a much needed change in his appearance, visit them again, and gradually increase his supply of diamonds until he had obtained more money than he could possibly spend during many years. Above all else was it necessary that his meteor should be removed to a safer place than Johnson's. Philip had no scruples about appropriating it. Lords of the Manor and Crown rights he had never heard of. His mother, watching his every action from some Elysian height, had sent the diamond-headed messenger as a token of her love and care. It was his, and no man should rob him of it. It behooved him to be sparing of explanations and study in defence of his property. A good deal depended on the forthcoming interview, and he wished he could convert a small fraction of the wealth in his pocket into a few honest pennies with the king's head on them. The excitement and exercise had made him hungry again. His breakfast was not of ample proportions, and his meals of yesterday had been of the scantiest. It would be well to face the diamond merchants with the easy confidence that springs from a satisfied appetite. Yet, how to manage it? He was sorry now he had not borrowed a sispence from O'Brien. The old soldier would certainly have lent it to him. He even thought of returning to the mile End Road to secure the loan, but he happened to remember that the day was Saturday, and it was probable that the Hatton Garden offices would be closed early. It was then nearly eleven o'clock, and he could not risk the delay of the long, low journey.

WHITE HATS REIGN SUPREME FOR MIDSUMMER. The wardrobe prepared for midsummer which does not include at least one all white hat is so unusual as to be remarkable. Some of these are practically lingerie affairs, although the shapes themselves are of rice straw or chip, but so well covered that their material is scarcely a detail to be considered. Usually the faring brims, boldly upturned at one side are faced with the same material as the crown, trimming. This is of Valenciennes or Cluny, fine net or allover fancy lace, edging finished and made into choux and ruffles, accordion or knife pleated. Sometimes pleated frilling rosettes are in wheel form, as in the case of this model.

NEW CITY OF MELVILLE, SASK., AN IMPORTANT LINK IN THE G. T. P.

Five Hundred Miles of the G. T. P. Railway Will be Thrown Open to the Public in a Few Weeks--The New City is Particularly Well Located. Melville, Sask., July 27.—Within a few weeks, another great avenue will be opened to the public, and the city of Melville, Sask., will be an important link in the G. T. P. Five hundred miles of Grand Trunk Pacific Railway will be thrown open to the public. This traverses the richest middle country of Saskatchewan and will undoubtedly be a success from the commencement. Four terminals have been established at intervals of about 135 miles, the most important of which being the one to which was given by the company the middle name of its President, Chas. Melville. In fact, "Melville" holds the most commanding traffic position on that great system. It will very shortly be the traffic centre of Saskatchewan. The charter of the Grand Trunk Pacific Branch Lines Company, incorporated by Act of Parliament in 1906, includes branch number 10, from Melville to the shores of Hudson Bay in the vicinity of Fort Churchill, and branch number 11, from Melville to the American boundary, via Regina. Should the government build or finance a railway to the Hudson Bay, the G. T. P. Branch Lines Co. will build from Melville to the Pas, to connect with such railway. As will be seen by a glance at a map of North America, the importance of Melville as a traffic centre is far-reaching. The distance from Melville to Liverpool via Fort Churchill is 1,000 miles, and to Montreal and any point from Winnipeg, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Kansas City west to the Pacific coast, is nearer to Liverpool via Melville, and Fort Churchill than via Montreal, New York or any Atlantic seaport. The Grand Trunk Pacific are preparing for that immense traffic and Melville can now show "the goods." Hundreds and hundreds of thousands of dollars have already been spent by the company on buildings and improvements necessary for such a traffic. The station is the largest west of Winnipeg. The capacity of the roundhouse is eighteen, twelve of which are at present in use. Terminal yards comprising twenty miles of track are being rushed, fifteen miles to be laid for present requirements. Work is being done also on a site for a grain elevator and a big hotel is also included in the plans of the company for Melville. The town site of Melville is the largest by forty per cent. of all the G. T. P. town sites on the market. The town lots are selling fast. A feature is the impossibility of private speculators getting hold of adjoining land to retail as building lots, because the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway company own about three square miles of land surrounding Melville, to provide for terminal needs for ten decades to come. Where last fall only the grading could be seen, now stands the making of a city—over eighty buildings now compose the mushroom and new structures and are being started at an average of one a day.

CHIEF COMMISSIONER TALKS OF PROVINCIAL PUBLIC WORKS

Hon. John Morrissey Says Many of the Bridges are Badly in Need of Repairs. Hon. John Morrissey, chief commissioner of public works, is at the Royal and will leave this morning accompanied by Geo. D. Jones, M.P.P., J. A. Murray, M.P.P., and the chief engineer of the department, on a brief tour of inspection of the wharves in Kings county. They will go by the Belleisle, then along the Kennebecas. Hon. Mr. Morrissey expects that they will be through their trip on Thursday next. After the meeting of the government next week he will make a tour of St. John county and then Westmoreland. Speaking generally of the results of his recent trip through the province, the chief commissioner said that he had found things in very bad shape. As an instance, he said that there are twenty-two bridges in Kings county and twenty-five in Sussex county to be repaired. Besides there is a bridge in Kent county built four years ago at a cost of $10,000, which will have to be entirely rebuilt. The wharves throughout the province, he said, are also in bad shape, and it would take a lot of money to put them in good condition. In this connection Hon. Mr. Morrissey thought that the dominion government ought to build all wharves in tidal waters as the province has not revenue enough to do the work. The chief commissioner mentioned some items of expense, which had come to his notice after he took charge and which have since been cut off. Among other things he said that it was the custom of the late government to bond all its road superintendents with a guarantee company for $800 each. Some of money were then sent to these men varying from $500 to $1,000 according to the needs of their districts, and the money was disbursed by them. The superintendents were careless about sending in vouchers and the consequence was there was nothing in the office of the department to show where the money went. When Hon. Mr. Morrissey was sworn in he did away with the bonds for the superintendents and introduced a rule that no money should be paid to them till sworn accounts were received or vouchers rendered. Another matter he noticed was that contractors for the department were in the habit of rendering bills in which such items as telephoning, traveling, picks, shovels and levels appeared. When the chief commissioner expostulated with the men he was told it was the custom. He soon made it clear, however, that such a custom must cease and for some time now those who take government contracts have been supplying their own tools. Another item of expenditure incurred by the predecessors of the present government was $6,000 for road machines. In spite of this large expenditure the chief commissioner said there was no data in the office of the department to show that the provinces today has on hand a single machine. But this is not a solitary instance, Mr. Morrissey said, for as far as documentary evidence is concerned the province has not a single block or yard of rope to its credit. Referring to roads, the chief commissioner said that the split log drag has done excellent work wherever tried and

THE NEW WEST-POCKET BOX OF "FRUIT-A-TIVES."

Allows Everyone to Try Out These Wonderful Fruit Juice Tablets at a Cost of Only Twenty-five Cents. Put up in 50c. boxes only, "Fruit-a-tives" has in the last four years gained a tremendous and rapidly increasing sale, and a reputation for remarkable cures in every part of Canada. During this time hundreds of people have been asking for a 25c. box to try. They have heard of "Fruit-a-tives," and of the benefit it is giving to thousands, but some people hesitate to pay 50c. just to try a remedy that is new to them. It has been found, too, that many would like to carry a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in their pocket, so as to have them handy for regular use, and the 50c. box is too large for that. To meet these needs we have put out a new 25c. trial size—a neat, compact, little box that can easily be carried in the vest pocket, and which contains tablets enough to last two or three weeks—enough to find out that "Fruit-a-tives" is the best remedy of the kind in the world. There is now no reason why every person in Canada who suffers from Constipation, Biliousness, Kidney or Liver Trouble, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Skin Diseases, Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Headache should not try "Fruit-a-tives" and get quick relief, and eventually a complete cure. "Fruit-a-tives" are concentrated Fruit Juice Tablets, 25c. is all it costs to test the value of the most successful medicine ever produced in Canada. If your dealer has not both the 25c. trial size and the regular 50c. boxes, write direct to Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont., and we will send you direct.

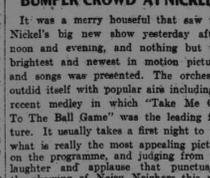

efforts are being made to have it generally adopted. It is made by splitting a log about nine inches through and eight feet long. The halves are then shod along one of the edges with an old wagon tire. A chain is fastened to either end in such a way that it can be dragged along the surface of the road at an angle and the drag is complete. The chief commissioner said that this drag applied to the road after a rain will fill in all the holes and make a smooth uniform. During his tour, he said, he noticed that a great many of the country roads have bushes growing close in to the wagon tracks. This he considered very dangerous and he had given instructions that all such must be so many away as soon as possible. He regretted, he said, that so many of the farmers seemed indifferent and willing to shift the responsibility for everything on the government. After all, he said, they ought to remember that the only money the government spends comes largely from them, in the first place. He thought they ought to try by all means to aid the government in work they are trying to do.

Referring to forest fires, the chief commissioner intimated that the time for sharp action has come. The country has been fire scorched for many years. He has instructed the fire wardens that where proof can be obtained sentiment must not be allowed to stand in the way of punishment. Moreover, it is the duty of the warden to keep constant on the watch that no fire is started, wherever near woods from May to September and to report weekly to the chief warden of a district whose duty it is to see that his men do their work. The department of public works will next week call for tenders for building the Orontocott wharf. As soon as the plans and specifications are completed, tenders will also be called for one wharf in Queens and another in Kings county. The department is also making arrangements to repair others. The Suspension bridge re-flooring has been completed for the entire length. A heavy foot and fence is now being placed along each side of the bridge.

BUMPER CROWD AT NICKEL. It was a merry household that saw the Nickel's big new show yesterday afternoon and evening, and nothing but the brightest and newest in motion pictures and songs was presented. The orchestra outdid itself with popular airs including a recent melody in which "Take Me Out To The Ball Game" was the leading feature. It usually takes a first night to tell what is really the most appealing picture on the programme, and judging from the laughter and applause that punctuated the showing of Noisy Neighbors this was the star film. The scene in the second act, when the merry-makers go through the floor, brought down the house. The Perjuer was a strong drama, Brown's New Suit, a whirlwind of laughter, and A Guilty Conscience—something that doubtless proved a lesson to every child who saw it—the story of a little girl who took pennies that did not belong to her and how she paid them back. Miss Feley's new high-class ballad was finely rendered—"A Sweeter Story Still," and "Roll Around," a roller skating song, by Jack Gurney were popular; same show today.

WHAT DREDGE HAS DONE IN THE HARBOR

What Has Been Accomplished by the Fielding but the Work is Not Completed Yet.—To Move Beacon.

The government dredge, W. S. Fielding, which has been working in the channel since spring, is now dredging at a point due east of the light house keeper's house on Patrige island. The channel which it is proposed to deepen is 8,200 feet long and 400 feet wide, extending from a point considerably below the island to within about a quarter of a mile of the beacon. The Fielding started at the outer end and has now worked up about half way. The dredging has been done to a depth of thirty feet, but as the channel was naturally much deeper below the island than above it considers only more than half the work yet remains to be done. It will be well into 1909 before the entire length of the channel is down to grade.

PRINCE OF WALES VISITS THE HISTORIC SPOTS OF QUEBEC

His Royal Highness Taken Over the Ground Followed as the Very Cradle of Canadian History—Entertained by Roman Catholic Prelates at St. Joachim.

Quebec, July 27.—One of the most interesting of the Prince of Wales's excursions during his visit to Canada occurred today, when he visited the quaint old village of St. Joachim, and was entertained by the Roman Catholic Prelates at St. Joachim.

Among the other guests were Sir Thomas Spence, Lord James Fitzpatrick, Lord Lascelles, Lord Lovat, Sir J. G. Garneau.

There was only one toast, after luncheon, that of the King, and after this was honored the party separated, and were shown over the spacious grounds, every foot of which was rich in traditions of the earliest days of New France.

On emerging from the chateau the prince was greeted by a picturesque group of habitants, who cheered the prince heartily and knelt in deep reverence as Mr. Sbarretti passed.

The Duke of Norfolk appeared to be particularly pleased with this group, and had a lot of fun with them, finally requesting his famous hatred of photography and insisted upon arranging a group, including himself, Mr. Sbarretti, Mr. Begin and the old men, women and children, chucking the youngsters under the chin as he got them in position for the camera.

Later the party left in automobiles for Quebec, visiting the famous Shrine of Ste Anne de Beaupre on the way.

A quiet unscheduled event took place at Ste Anne de Beaupre, where the famous shrine was, as usual, surrounded by pilgrims and visitors.

On arriving at the chateau lunch was served on the lawn, under stately old pine trees. Mr. Mathieu presided at the table of honor, and with him were his royal highness, Earl Grey, Mr. Sbarretti, Archbishop Begin, the Duke of Norfolk, Lord Strathcona, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Lady Grey.

CHIEF DOES NOT WANT WATER TOWER FOR A LOAN TODAY

Safety Board Refers Matters of Fire Department Improvements to a Committee—Other Business.

At a meeting of the Safety board last evening, a committee was appointed to confer with the hospital commissioners as the latter wrote that they could not agree with the views contained in the report recommending better fire protection for the hospital.

Policeman Thomas Sullivan was granted half pay for three days absence owing to illness.

Seven years lease of a lot on the North side of King street East was renewed to the Canadian Bank of Commerce at $10 a year.

The director reported that those who desired to take a lease of the Greenhead property had failed to carry out the arrangement.

On motion of Ald. Frink it was decided to renew the lease to the Pavvett estate at $10 a year.

The committee on the mayor's inaugural address recommended provision in next year's estimates for a monitor water tower that the board should report on the advisability of providing a central fire station on the West side and that the rate of works provide for No. 5 fare house.

Ald. Baikin said he thought they could get along very well without a water tower. He also thought a central fire station would be a great expense. He referred the board to his report recommending changes on the West side.

Ald. Baikin said another engine was being wanted on the West side and an engine house as it would protect the warehouses.

The three West side members were appointed to look into the question and report to the council.

On motion of Ald. Frink it was decided to purchase 200 feet of hose for No. 8 warehouse, the quality to be approved by Chief Kerr.

Ald. Baikin called attention to the difficulty in getting old buildings removed and asked that the board should instruct the recorder's opinion on the subject, it was decided to instruct the bills and by-law committee to look into the matter, and if necessary, obtain further legislation.

At the request of Chief Kerr in consequence of the trouble after the recent fire in compelling the owners to remove the hay which was burned the bills and by-law committee were instructed to draw up a by-law to meet the case.

A bill from William Crowley for $12.50 for watching and keeping a horse on the lot of the late Mrs. J. R. Gilliland. He referred the recent fire, was referred to Chief Kerr, as it was considered an overcharge, and to be paid out of the fund.

Chief Kerr reported that William Crowley, who was employed by S. J. Dunlop, had sent in a bill for $12.50 for watching and keeping a horse on the lot of the late Mrs. J. R. Gilliland.

An application from Charles Campbell for the position of caretaker of the police lock-up was laid on the table and the board adjourned.

Vancouver, B. C., July 27 (Special).—For the third time in a short period thieves broke into the Carnegie library building here and stole the collection of old coins, valued at $5,000 to $10,000.

AMATEUR SPORT

There is a prospect of arousing a new interest in amateur athletic sports in this city. In order that this desirable result may be achieved there must be a renewal of confidence in the good faith of those who conduct and those who participate in sports, of whatever kind. Once the feeling becomes widespread that an event is "fixed," or that the dollar is paramount, the support which is essential to clean amateur sport is withdrawn. This city has had its fill of professionalism and mercenary sport. There is much criticism of the officials of the M.P.A.A. A., but whatever ground there may be for fault-finding it is a fact that the association stands for amateur sport, and if St. John feels that it has not always received the reply it is obvious that St. John organizations have taken no pains whatever to be well represented on its executive. They have themselves to blame to that extent. It is necessary that such an association should exist, in the interests of amateur sport. St. John has grown accustomed to an amateur standing in some sports which is not purely amateur, and it winks at the fact. There should be a sharp division. Those who are not content to be amateurs should declare themselves. We want a square deal. There are some who make excuses for the sake of clean sport, and the number could be largely increased and the public would give its approval and support but for the doubt that exists concerning the good faith of the competitors. The lines should be sharply drawn. Ball players who receive pay should be frankly classed as professionals, and they would be quite as popular in the field and much more esteemed than when a doubt exists as to their standing. The like is true in all departments of sport. There needs to be a restoration of public confidence as the first essential to a revival of interest in field and aquatic sports, such as would make St. John take its rightful place among Canadian cities in athletic contests of all kinds.

IMPURE WATER SUPPLY

A west side correspondent calls attention to a matter touching the Spruce Lake water supply which should make the residents of that portion of the city rise in protest. The board of health should also be interested, and its officials should inform themselves without delay concerning the extent to which the water supply of St. John West is befouled by the sewage from the abodes of summer residents. The city paid roundly to protect Loch Lomond water from the sewage from one hotel; how much more should Spruce Lake water be saved from greater contamination. An effort is being made to secure a pure milk supply and stringent regulations are made. Water is in much more common use and should be kept as pure as the most stringent regulations with regard to contamination of the source may be able to ensure. This Spruce Lake affair must be looked into without delay.

THE SULTAN YIELDS

A cable from Constantinople yesterday stated that the announcement calling a constitutional assembly had been received with universal satisfaction. Turkey has been the most conspicuous example of despotic rule in modern history, but the times have changed, even in Turkey. Discussing the new departure a New York journal says: "Turkey has recently been the scene of events of unusual moment which seem to have reached a culmination within the past week. What has come to be known as the Young Turkish party has developed apparently unlooked-for strength. The party includes among its adherents men of all classes, even government officials, and it has recently secured the support of a section of the army which is discontented owing to the chronic abuses of irregular pay and poor food and clothing. Prominent among the demands of the Young Turkish party is that for a constitutional form of government, a demand which the Sultan has sought in a variety of ways to stifle or evade. Judging from cable dispatches from Constantinople Abdul Hamid has decided that it is wiser for him to bend before the storm than to try to meet it by force. An imperial decree has ordered the assembling of a chamber of deputies in accordance with a constitution which it was said had been elaborated by the Sultan. This decree, it appears, has been communicated to the local governors with the necessary orders for holding elections. The constitution, it is said, is the same which was promulgated in 1876, and under which a parliament met in the following year, but was dissolved after a session of eleven months."

THE ELECTIONS

Now that the Quebec celebration and the Olympic sports are concluded, and the Sultan of Turkey has decided to grant constitutional government, and the hottest of the weather appears to be over, the date of the federal elections in Canada becomes once more a matter of some interest. We learn from the Brockville Times that the date is fixed for Tuesday, October 20, and then turn to the Toronto papers to learn if this statement is confirmed. And this is what we read: "Not before next June," was the prediction of Mr. James Connes, M.P., when asked by The News as to the date of the coming federal elections. "It's always well," he said, "to bring on an election in a prosperous season. The crops are good this year, but the people will not be realizing on them until the spring. Not before June," he repeated. Mr. Connes's confidence naturally impresses itself upon the mind, but when we turn to the Toronto World there is another story, to this effect:—"James Connes, M.P., who is in the city, gives it out that the federal elections will not be held till next June, when the farmers will have realized on this year's crop. But Mr. Connes seems to be alone in the opinion that the elections will be delayed beyond the coming autumn. There are numerous indications of an early appeal; the large subsidy votes to the railways, generous appropriations for public buildings, dredging, wharves and breakwaters, the promise to build the Hudson Bay Railway either as a government enterprise or substantial assistance to a railway company. Moreover, as The Ottawa Citizen (Conservative) points out, Sir Wilfrid is not likely to court a situation similar to that which he faced at last session, when he had to yield to the opposition on a matter of policy or go without water supply. There are still some scores of papers and politicians to hear from. Pending their predictions it would perhaps be as well to begin to get ready for the fray. According to the United States Bureau of Labor of the Department of Commerce and Labor, says Bradstreet's, the averages wages per hour in 1907 were 3.7 per cent. higher than in 1906, the regular hours of labor were 4.2 per cent. higher in 1907 than in 1906, and the number of employees in the establishments investigated was 1 per cent. greater than in 1906. Investigations covering the sales of 1,014 dealers in sixty-eight localities show that the retail prices of thirty principal articles of food, weighted according to consumption in representative workmen's families, were 4.2 per cent. higher in 1907 than in 1906. As the advance in retail prices from 1906 to 1907 was greater than the advance in wages per hour, the purchasing power of an hour's wages, as measured by food, was slightly less in 1907 than in 1906, the decrease being one-half of 1 per cent. If any man but Mr. Hearst had said many of the things which Mr. Hearst said yesterday there would be a responsive feeling in the hearts of many people. But the words spoken were the words of Mr. Hearst, in whose sincerity few people have faith. It is a gloomy enough picture Hon. Mr. Morrissey draws of the condition of roads, bridges and wharves in this province. The new government has a task to perform, which cannot be well done without the co-operation of the people. The eight of a drunken, yelling woman trundled through the streets of a Christian city in a wheelbarrow is enough to provoke laughter in Timbuctoo. It should summon blushes of shame hereabouts. "ALL ABOARD."

CARLETON'S WATER SUPPLY BEFOULD

Editor of Times: Sir—An item in this morning's Telegraph speaks of the purchase of a property at Spruce Lake with a frontage of 1,600 feet on the lake. Is it not about 1,600 feet from the city? "Water Commissioners" should take some notice of the condition of things at Spruce Lake? They seem to have forgotten the fact that West St. John is supplied with water from Spruce Lake. A visit to the lake will show them a great many houses, barns, shanties, barns, stables, close-dunglows, and the very margin of the lake, into which all the sewage, offal and refuse of the cattle and people are emptied. Surely the board of health might find something to say about the matter if the water commission remain indifferent. The people of Pettie and West St. John have some right to consideration and protection in the quality of the water they are compelled to drink and also to buy out the rights of those already built there. The purchase by the city of the "Stevens" property would have been a step in the right direction. WEST SIDE RESIDENT. July 28, 08.

CATS AND BIRDS

Editor of Times: Sir—One of our daily papers recently recorded the hunting prowess of a certain cat, which within a given time had destroyed among other victims eighteen birds and three mice. I desire to call the attention of your readers to the fact that this is about the relative proportion in which cats kill bird and vermin life. Our province is yearly becoming more and more the prey of insect and grub devastation. This year it is the fir tree; last season the pine. And it is largely, if not almost entirely, due to the killing of our birds and mice that the insects have such a free range and farm-house all over New Brunswick. The destruction of bird life by cats has been going on for years, and every one who understands the situation should be aroused to its dangers. The few kinds of grain pillaged by birds or mice could not outbalance the destruction done by grubs. The excuse for keeping cats is usually protection from mice and rats; but I notice that those who really are exempt from rats, which do the work far more reliably than the family cat. WESTFIELD, N. B., July 27th, 1908. MABEL PETERS.

MARATHONS BEATEN IN EXCITING BALL GAME

Halifax Crescents Win the Final and Best Game of the Whole Series. Halifax, N. S., July 27 (Special).—In the final and best game of the series between the Crescents and Marathons, the Crescents won this afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. The game was won in the ninth inning when the Crescents had two men out and two strikes on McDonald. Laing was on second base, and McDonald hit to right field letting Laing in. In some decisions on strikes and balls, the Marathons have made their visit memorable by a continual kick, especially today, when every decision was disputed. They threaten to make trouble for the Halifax Crescents on account of how they were barred from the game. The team left for St. John tonight.

THE REAL BASEBALL

Oh, take me away from the baseball game. Where science is at the bat. And the players play in a technical way. Till a rule can't tell what they're at.

Where scores are highest when nothing at all. And nobody makes a base; Where nobody makes Any sort of mistake; And everything's just in place.

Where spectators keep on the watch for plays. So close that it gives them a pain; And whatever's done In his catch or run, They scream at to take off the strain.

Oh, carry me back to the old-fashioned game. That doesn't know science at all; Where the sides go in. With whoop and win, And they don't do a thing but play ball.

Where twenty or thirty or forty runs Are likely as not to be made; And the bags are hot From many a swing, In games that are played as is played.

Where the catcher don't look like an armored knight, And the pitcher is not so intense. The batter can't hit 'Em a little bit, But bangs 'em clean over the fence.

Where something is doing that stir up the soul. About every minute or so, With the home-run made. And double plays played, And the whole darn thing on the go.

Where grandstand and bleachers are all of a kind, And are there because they are there To see a good game. That's good just the same. Though science be up in the air.

Oh, take me away from the baseball game. Where scientists have been advising. And give me the play that lets half a day—Hurrah, that is ball; that is ball! W. J. Lampton.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever usually. It is the effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. First, worn-out nerves have us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising it, use a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a falling appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish liver and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by All Druggists.

WOMAN KILLS HER TWINS.

New York, July 27.—Mrs. Maud Doucette, 24 years old, the wife of Thomas Doucette, a carpenter, drowned her two daughters, Edna and Lena, eleven days old, in a bathtub at her home, 72 Norfolk street, Newark, N. J., and then killed herself by placing a gas tube in her mouth. All the windows were closed and the opening stopped up and the door leading to the apartment of her other daughters, Pearl, 3 years old, and Evelyn, 3, was left open. The children were rescued and revived. Mrs. Doucette had been in poor health since the birth of the twins and was melancholy.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR PRINCE'S DEPARTURE

H. R. H. Will sail in the Indomitable on Wednesday for Portsmouth and Fleet will Escort Him. Quebec, July 27.—The arrangements have now been completed for the departure of His Royal Highness from this city. Important alterations have been made. It was at first intended that the Indomitable should leave on Wednesday next and that the rest of the fleet should remain here until Friday. It is now announced from Vice-Admiral Sir Asheton Curlew's headquarters at Exmouth that the fleet would escort the Indomitable on Wednesday, and would leave Quebec when she did. The prince's ship will proceed direct to Portsmouth, but the fleet will go direct to Berehaven, Ireland, where the various vessels separate and make for their respective ports, previous to recommissioning, or otherwise. On Wednesday, the Indomitable will lead the way, at what hour will be determined by the condition of the tide. The escort will fire a royal salute as she weighs anchor and from every other warship in port, British, French and American, will boom forth the twenty-one guns. Bells throughout the city and all along the southern shore, will ring out their peals and the whole fleet will be accompanied for a considerable distance down the river by another fleet, composed of numerous small pleasure boats, government steamers and launches, until they have rounded Point Levis and have been lost to sight away past the Ile d'Orleans. The ceremonial will be simple, but impressive for that very reason. As each ship in succession weighs anchor, signals will be rung up and will be answered by those ships remaining in port after the departure of the British fleet. All river craft will be decorated for the occasion and will voice their farewell.

Sussex, N. B., July 27.—Lawson led his class in graduating from the St. John High School and made the best record as a student at the University of New Brunswick in the Class of 1903. The advance and re-appointment of the 62nd Regiment returned from Quebec last evening in charge of Lieut. H. H. Smith, of the Army Service Corps. The party was the last of the militia to leave Quebec, having remained to strike the tents and store them away. The men say the 62nd fared better than any other regiment during their week in camp at Levis.

PACKERS MAY LOSE THE BRITISH TRADE

English Government to Inquire Into Use of Preservatives in Curing Hams and Bacon. Ottawa, July 27.—In a report to the department of trade and commerce, Canada's agent in London says that the local government has decided to inquire into the use of preservatives by exporters of ham and bacon. The matter is of importance to Canada, owing to the increasing exports of ham and bacon to that country. The statement is made that a large proportion of the Canadian ham and bacon sent to England is pickled in borax, and this, the report remarks, is a practice which is dangerous to care and dealians has not been observed. The use of preservatives has become a subject of alarm in Great Britain as conditions are thereby produced which tend to seriously affect the public health, hence the decision to have a thorough enquiry into the matter.

AMATEUR FOUR OARED RACE IN HALIFAX IN 1896

Wanderers, Dartmouth and St. John Crews Contested an Interesting Race. "Sports," published in Halifax, tells the following story of the amateur four-oared race rowed in Halifax harbor on July 28, 1896. "The race for the amateur four-oared crews the starters were St. John, Dartmouth and Wanderers. The start was made from the south end of Cunard's wharf to No. 8, Richmond, a distance of 1 1/2 miles. The water was only in fair condition. The race was rowed at 6 o'clock. Much interest was taken in the event, many from St. John who were on the steamer Newfield abouted just before the race. Here is $50 that St. John beats Halifax. Many hands were thrust in the St. John man's face with the necessary amount. "The signal for the start was displayed the wanderers were first to appear, and were given a warm reception. The pink colors of the St. John crew were observed near the dockyard stage and soon after the crew put in its appearance, flying four pink flags. The Dartmouth crew were soon at the line. The referee asked, 'Are you ready?' and soon after the report of the pistol was heard and the crews were off. In the minute, which put their boat immediately to the front. They continued to increase their lead, while St. John and Dartmouth were having a grand struggle. "The Wanderers settled down to 38 to the minute and were gaining all the time, pulling a clean, fast stroke. At the dockyard the red and black had a lead of about 100 yds. The Dartmouth crew had a lead of 100 yds. The St. John crew had the inside cover and their erratic steering lost them considerable ground at the second pier of the harbor. The Wanderers were rowing 38, to the minute, Dartmouth 34 and St. John 32. The St. John crew were glancing back and when at the foot of North street, they looked as though they had gone to pieces. They were in a hole so far they were obliged to steer off to the eastward leaving thereby. "The Wanderers continued to row 38 stroke and the Dartmouth crew increased their stroke to 35, but could not gain on them. They splurged again and again, but they were not able to make the water at 38 stroke. They were rowing in fine shape notwithstanding the roughness of the water. "The St. John crew seemed to lose at every stroke. Further and further Halifax and Dartmouth led them. "The Wanderers were new to the crowd, they could be heard from the crowded pleasure boats. The cheering from the banks was tremendous. When near the Lorne Club pier there was 27 seconds between the Wanderers and the Dartmouth crew. "The finish line is near at hand—the Wanderers were rowing clean, at the top of the stroke, and the Dartmouth crew were dipping their oars like one object. The darts were taken together like clockwork and the oars led the water quickly, the Wanderers at the rate of 38, Dartmouth 35 and St. John 32. Just then the pistol announced that the red and black were winners by a long margin over Dartmouth, four-fourth Dartmouth beat St. John 22 seconds. SUMMARY. "Amateur four-oared lap race:—First four gold medals, second four silver medals. One and a half mile straight way. "Wanderers—F. Grierson, James Turnbull, H. W. MacKintosh, A. W. Cogswell. "Dartmouth—Chas. Patterson, H. Lester, A. Patterson, W. Dumaresq 2nd. "St. John—Henry Gilbert, property of Hall, S. Fairweather, Peter Clinch 3rd. "Won by the Wanderers—Time 11:30."

CANADIANS OBJECT TO INTERFERENCE AT BISLEY

Action of Bisley Range Officials May Have Kept Spittal From King's Prize. Ottawa, July 27.—A good deal of local feeling has been stirred up over the interference by the Bisley team range officials with Lieut. C. D. Spittal, army service corps, who otherwise might have won the King's prize. Private W. H. Bennet, of the 48th, an old Bisley man, who had a place on this team but was unable to have home leave. "It may be surmised that Lieut. Spittal was guilty of something contrary to the D. R. A. rules, and consequently dishonorably conduct, but it can be shown that such was not the case. The position on the firing point assumed by Spittal is known to all on this occasion. Lieut. George Mortimer, of the Army Service Corps, and now engaged as the expert of the Ross River Company, has used this position for many years at Toronto, Ottawa and Bisley, and no exception has been taken. "In the Mortimer position, the left arm as far as the back of the wrist is flat as possible. The rifle rests on the upturned thumb of the left hand against the cheek of the right instead of against the shoulder. This brings the head of the butt very close to the ground, but not necessarily touching it. There is no particular advantage in this position to most marksmen, as they can get down low enough to use it, but to one who can greater steadiness of the rifle is obtainable. "The position would be the very best for an expert, as advantage can be taken of very low cover to protect the head and shoulders. Assuming, for the sake of argument, that Lieut. Spittal did place the butt of the rifle on the ground, there is absolutely no indication in the rules that he was doing anything wrong. A moment's thought, however, will show how absurd the charge is. In order that the recoil of the rifle may be properly taken up, it is necessary to use the shoulder or upper part of the arm as a cushion so that the recoil may be as nearly straight back from the line of fire as possible. If the butt touched the ground, as claimed, the muzzle would be thrown up and the shot would go wild. Even though controlled to a certain extent, the amount of 'throw up' of each shot could not be determined with accuracy and the variation would be so great that very poor scores would result. "Some action should be taken, especially by the D.R.A. to ascertain why Spittal was interfered with to the extent that he was. The interference, thus losing five points and his subsequent shots reduced in value by fourteen points or nineteen in all."

HOW CANADIAN RUNNERS FIGURED IN MARATHON

The times in which the Canadian runners covered the Marathon course are as follows: Wood, 3 hours, 1 min., and 44 sec.; Simpson, 3 hours, 4 min., and 28 1/2 sec.; Lawson, 3 hours, 8 min., and 47 sec.; Caffrey, 3 hours, 12 min., and 46 sec.; Goldboro, 3 hours, 20 min., and 7 sec.; Goulding, 3 hours, 53 min., and 2 1/2 sec.; Burn, 3 hours, 26 min., and 17 sec. "Till quit at the fourteenth mile, having been troubled with a stiff leg. Noseworthy, of Montreal, dropped out at the eighteenth and Longboat at the twenty-first mile. "Among those registered at the Canadian government offices in London during the week ended July 17 were: Rev. C. Comben, Mrs. Archdeacon, Miss Gilbert and Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, of St. John. W. R. Miles, who returned on Friday from England, was accompanied by his brother, H. B. Miles, who will probably remain in Canada. The daughter of Rev. Canon Downie, of Fort Stanley (Ont.), accompanied her uncle, William Downie, on his return from the west yesterday and will remain for a month's visit. Miss Downie is staying at 110 Carmarthen street. PUZZLED HER. Mrs. Stubb—John, it is cold out to the baseball ground these days. Mr. Stubb—Cold? Why, Maria, it is as warm as a blanket. What in the world gave you the impression that it was cold out there? Mrs. Stubb—Why, John, the papers say the features of yesterday's game were several warm muffs. To stop any pain, anywhere in 20 minutes, simply take just one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Pain means congestion—blood pressure—that is all. SPRUCES LAKE PROPERTY SOLD

Mrs. S. J. Aishe has purchased the property at Spruce Lake belonging to the estate of the late Dr. Stevens. There are some 228 acres with a frontage of about 1,500 feet on the lake. The house is 20x25 feet with an ell. There is also on the property one of the old style street cars and there is a fine boat with cork cushions and with sails complete. During last week several men have been employed painting and putting the place in order. Among other things a new veranda will be built. During the past season it is reported that considerable vandalism has been practiced on the premises by breaking windows, cutting cushions in the car, destroying shade trees and various uses of fire arms, and it is intended to take steps to prevent repetition of this. A reward may be offered for detection of any offenders. Thomas B. Flint, clerk of the house of commons, accompanied by Mrs. Flint and Miss Rogers, her niece, were at the Royal yesterday on their way to their home in Nova Scotia, where Mr. Flint expects to remain at least till October. He says the session of the house just closed was a very busy one and slightly tiresome towards the end. Brain Weariness and Fatigue. THE NATIONALS TRIMMED THE HALIFAX SOCIALS TO THE TUNE OF 12 TO 3—INTERESTING STORY REPUBLISHED FROM A HALIFAX PAPER.

In connection with the recent visit of the St. Peter's baseball team to Halifax the editor of Sports, the bright little sporting weekly published in the sister city grows reminiscent, and publishes the following account of the celebrated game between the Nationals of St. John and Socials of Halifax, played in Halifax on July 1, 1888. The Halifax players were defeated by 12 to 3. Sports says:— "Over 1,200 persons saw the game, the largest crowd ever seen at that time. The audience was made up of a better class than was usually seen at a ball game, several prominent gentlemen being present. "The Nationals of St. John had their strongest nine. Wagg, the Nationals' catcher, played with the team for the first time, covering second base. His coaching was a feature of the game. He had certainly an appropriate name, for his tongue kept wagging from the time the ball was pitched, until Barker, he caught the fly which ended the game. He coached his nine on the field. He played a rattling game at second covering a lot of ground, and accepting all chances. While his fielding was good, his hitting being wretched, Davison struck him out four times. Bell covered first in his usual good style. Barker and deForest accepted all their chances, the former ending the game with a beautiful one hand catch. White only had one chance and missed, letting a nice fly slip through his fingers. "For the Socials Davison played, the game, striking out thirteen men. True, he gave three men their bases on balls, and in the eighth innings he gave three men their bases on dead balls—a very unusual thing for him to do, but he—some brilliant plays. In the first inning, for instance, he struck out three men in succession with the bases full. Graham played in hard luck and did not give Davison the support he deserved. Three of the Nationals runs were scored on passed balls. H. Smith played a good game on first, but the rest of the team did nothing. Young, who played short stop for the first time, was away off in his throwing. O'Brien at third did not play up to his standard. "The fact is that the Socials had, according to Wagg, several bad doses of the rattles after the fourth inning, up to that time the game was a good one, the score being even, 2-2. In the fifth, two runs were scored by the Nationals on passed balls, and in the eighth, battery errors principally allowed them to get in four more. "Morton L. Harrison umpired the game in a manner admired by the large audience. His decisions were quick and generally satisfactory. He was all over the field after the ball. "Following is the score:— Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Nationals... 1 0 1 0 2 1 1 4 2-12 Socials... 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-3 "The line-up:— "Nationals—Kennedy, 3b; Bell, 1b; Wagg, 2b; White, ss; Whitteck, c; Robinson, p; Barker, rf; deForest, cf; Holly, lf. "Socials—Graham, c; O'Brien, 3b; Young, ss; H. Smith, 1b; Davison, p; McDonald, 2b; W. Smith, cf; Scriven, rf; Pickering, lf. "The game was played on the Y. M. L. grounds."

In connection with the recent visit of the St. Peter's baseball team to Halifax the editor of Sports, the bright little sporting weekly published in the sister city grows reminiscent, and publishes the following account of the celebrated game between the Nationals of St. John and Socials of Halifax, played in Halifax on July 1, 1888. The Halifax players were defeated by 12 to 3. Sports says:— "Over 1,200 persons saw the game, the largest crowd ever seen at that time. The audience was made up of a better class than was usually seen at a ball game, several prominent gentlemen being present. "The Nationals of St. John had their strongest nine. Wagg, the Nationals' catcher, played with the team for the first time, covering second base. His coaching was a feature of the game. He had certainly an appropriate name, for his tongue kept wagging from the time the ball was pitched, until Barker, he caught the fly which ended the game. He coached his nine on the field. He played a rattling game at second covering a lot of ground, and accepting all chances. While his fielding was good, his hitting being wretched, Davison struck him out four times. Bell covered first in his usual good style. Barker and deForest accepted all their chances, the former ending the game with a beautiful one hand catch. White only had one chance and missed, letting a nice fly slip through his fingers. "For the Socials Davison played, the game, striking out thirteen men. True, he gave three men their bases on balls, and in the eighth innings he gave three men their bases on dead balls—a very unusual thing for him to do, but he—some brilliant plays. In the first inning, for instance, he struck out three men in succession with the bases full. Graham played in hard luck and did not give Davison the support he deserved. Three of the Nationals runs were scored on passed balls. H. Smith played a good game on first, but the rest of the team did nothing. Young, who played short stop for the first time, was away off in his throwing. O'Brien at third did not play up to his standard. "The fact is that the Socials had, according to Wagg, several bad doses of the rattles after the fourth inning, up to that time the game was a good one, the score being even, 2-2. In the fifth, two runs were scored by the Nationals on passed balls, and in the eighth, battery errors principally allowed them to get in four more. "Morton L. Harrison umpired the game in a manner admired by the large audience. His decisions were quick and generally satisfactory. He was all over the field after the ball. "Following is the score:— Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Nationals... 1 0 1 0 2 1 1 4 2-12 Socials... 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-3 "The line-up:— "Nationals—Kennedy, 3b; Bell, 1b; Wagg, 2b; White, ss; Whitteck, c; Robinson, p; Barker, rf; deForest, cf; Holly, lf. "Socials—Graham, c; O'Brien, 3b; Young, ss; H. Smith, 1b; Davison, p; McDonald, 2b; W. Smith, cf; Scriven, rf; Pickering, lf. "The game was played on the Y. M. L. grounds."

A Fortune is Waiting for Mrs. Agnes Dobby or Her Heirs When Found. Word has reached the city that a fortune is waiting for Mrs. Agnes Dobby, who was a resident of St. John three years ago, in the event of her death, her heirs would benefit. Barry, from a firm of solicitors in London. They wrote that there is a considerable property, to which Mrs. Dobby is entitled, and that they will be glad to receive any information concerning her or her representatives. Word should be sent to Mr. Barry, Canada Permanent Building, Prince William street.

B. Kitchen, resigned. J. Douglas Black was appointed secretary in place of T. S. Wilkinson, resigned. KAISER TO TRY FOR AMERICAN CUP

New York, July 28.—In an unofficial way the Kaiser has allowed it to be understood that there is quite a feasibility of his attempting to lift the American cup. The emperor has mentioned the subject to visiting American yachtsmen and to members of his suite and he would regard the winning of the cup, if a competition could be arranged, as a great feat of yachtmanship and as likely to stimulate German enthusiasm in the sport and indirectly advance national pride in things related to the sea. The emperor recently commissioned Herr Oertz, of Hamburg, to design a large racing schooner to replace the American-built Meteor, now six years old. Herr Oertz is considered the best yacht designer in Germany and if the emperor's new yacht comes up to expectations next June it is not at all unlikely that the emperor will send to the New York Yacht Club a challenge for the America cup. This, however, depends almost entirely upon the performance of the new boat. The Kiel despatch conveying the intimation that the emperor of Germany was contemplating challenging for the America Cup was read with interest by members of the New York Yacht Club. The suggestion of a challenge from the German emperor was received with great satisfaction. An international yacht race with a German yacht at Sandy Hook and the German emperor the challenger, would mark an interesting record in yachting. It is believed that the club will in order no circumstances accept a challenge for the America Cup under the "international rules."

PACKERS MAY LOSE THE BRITISH TRADE

English Government to Inquire Into Use of Preservatives in Curing Hams and Bacon. Ottawa, July 27.—In a report to the department of trade and commerce, Canada's agent in London says that the local government has decided to inquire into the use of preservatives by exporters of ham and bacon. The matter is of importance to Canada, owing to the increasing exports of ham and bacon to that country. The statement is made that a large proportion of the Canadian ham and bacon sent to England is pickled in borax, and this, the report remarks, is a practice which is dangerous to care and dealians has not been observed. The use of preservatives has become a subject of alarm in Great Britain as conditions are thereby produced which tend to seriously affect the public health, hence the decision to have a thorough enquiry into the matter.

Of the thirty-three questions submitted to the board, twenty-five were settled amicably by the company and its employees under the good services of the board. The remaining eight sections went mostly in favor of the men and they consider it a victory.

AMATEUR FOUR OARED RACE IN HALIFAX IN 1896

Wanderers, Dartmouth and St. John Crews Contested an Interesting Race. "Sports," published in Halifax, tells the following story of the amateur four-oared race rowed in Halifax harbor on July 28, 1896. "The race for the amateur four-oared crews the starters were St. John, Dartmouth and Wanderers. The start was made from the south end of Cunard's wharf to No. 8, Richmond, a distance of 1 1/2 miles. The water was only in fair condition. The race was rowed at 6 o'clock. Much interest was taken in the event, many from St. John who were on the steamer Newfield abouted just before the race. Here is $50 that St. John beats Halifax. Many hands were thrust in the St. John man's face with the necessary amount. "The signal for the start was displayed the wanderers were first to appear, and were given a warm reception. The pink colors of the St. John crew were observed near the dockyard stage and soon after the crew put in its appearance, flying four pink flags. The Dartmouth crew were soon at the line. The referee asked, 'Are you ready?' and soon after the report of the pistol was heard and the crews were off. In the minute, which put their boat immediately to the front. They continued to increase their lead, while St. John and Dartmouth were having a grand struggle. "The Wanderers settled down to 38 to the minute and were gaining all the time, pulling a clean, fast stroke. At the dockyard the red and black had a lead of about 100 yds. The Dartmouth crew had a lead of 100 yds. The St. John crew had the inside cover and their erratic steering lost them considerable ground at the second pier of the harbor. The Wanderers were rowing 38, to the minute, Dartmouth 34 and St. John 32. The St. John crew were glancing back and when at the foot of North street, they looked as though they had gone to pieces. They were in a hole so far they were obliged to steer off to the eastward leaving thereby. "The Wanderers continued to row 38 stroke and the Dartmouth crew increased their stroke to 35, but could not gain on them. They splurged again and again, but they were not able to make the water at 38 stroke. They were rowing in fine shape notwithstanding the roughness of the water. "The St. John crew seemed to lose at every stroke. Further and further Halifax and Dartmouth led them. "The Wanderers were new to the crowd, they could be heard from the crowded pleasure boats. The cheering from the banks was tremendous. When near the Lorne Club pier there was 27 seconds between the Wanderers and the Dartmouth crew. "The finish line is near at hand—the Wanderers were rowing clean, at the top of the stroke, and the Dartmouth crew were dipping their oars like one object. The darts were taken together like clockwork and the oars led the water quickly, the Wanderers at the rate of 38, Dartmouth 35 and St. John 32. Just then the pistol announced that the red and black were winners by a long margin over Dartmouth, four-fourth Dartmouth beat St. John 22 seconds. SUMMARY. "Amateur four-oared lap race:—First four gold medals, second four silver medals. One and a half mile straight way. "Wanderers—F. Grierson, James Turnbull, H. W. MacKintosh, A. W. Cogswell. "Dartmouth—Chas. Patterson, H. Lester, A. Patterson, W. Dumaresq 2nd. "St. John—Henry Gilbert, property of Hall, S. Fairweather, Peter Clinch 3rd. "Won by the Wanderers—Time 11:30."

Action of Bisley Range Officials May Have Kept Spittal From King's Prize. Ottawa, July 27.—A good deal of local feeling has been stirred up over the interference by the Bisley team range officials with Lieut. C. D. Spittal, army service corps, who otherwise might have won the King's prize. Private W. H. Bennet, of the 48th, an old Bisley man, who had a place on this team but was unable to have home leave. "It may be surmised that Lieut. Spittal was guilty of something contrary to the D. R. A. rules, and consequently dishonorably conduct, but it can be shown that such was not the case. The position on the firing point assumed by Spittal is known to all on this occasion. Lieut. George Mortimer, of the Army Service Corps, and now engaged as the expert of the Ross River Company, has used this position for many years at Toronto, Ottawa and Bisley, and no exception has been taken. "In the Mortimer position, the left arm as far as the back of the wrist is flat as possible. The rifle rests on the upturned thumb of the left hand against the cheek of the right instead of against the shoulder. This brings the head of the butt very close to the ground, but not necessarily touching it. There is no particular advantage in this position to most marksmen, as they can get down low enough to use it, but to one who can greater steadiness of the rifle is obtainable. "The position would be the very best for an expert, as advantage can be taken of very low cover to protect the head and shoulders. Assuming, for the sake of argument, that Lieut. Spittal did place the butt of the rifle on the ground, there is absolutely no indication in the rules that he was doing anything wrong. A moment's thought, however, will show how absurd the charge is. In order that the recoil of the rifle may be properly taken up, it is necessary to use the shoulder or upper part of the arm as a cushion so that the recoil may be as nearly straight back from the line of fire as possible. If the butt touched the ground, as claimed, the muzzle would be thrown up and the shot would go wild. Even though controlled to a certain extent, the amount of 'throw up' of each shot could not be determined with accuracy and the variation would be so great that very poor scores would result. "Some action should be taken, especially by the D.R.A. to ascertain why Spittal was interfered with to the extent that he was. The interference, thus losing five points and his subsequent shots reduced in value by fourteen points or nineteen in all."

STARTLED BY RIFLE SHOTS

An Exciting Time on Winslow Street, West End—Police Investigating.

There was considerable excitement on Winslow street, Carleton, about ten o'clock last night. Several ladies were standing in front of George Clarke's house on that street when four rifle shots rang out in quick succession. Instantly the party dispersed, and there was for a time much alarm. On investigation it was found that two bullets had crashed through Mr. Clarke's windows and two others penetrated the wall of the house, going through clap boards, framing laths and plaster. Some of the bullets must have passed very close to the group of ladies, and their escape from injury was little short of wonderful.

The matter was reported to the police, and Officer Lee, who is taking Sergeant Row's place on West Side during the latter officer's vacation, commenced investigations. The bullets were found to come from a 22 Flobert rifle. Yesterday Officer Lee found four young men, who admitted they had been practicing shooting at a target in a yard on Rodney street Friday night, but denied responsibility for the wandering bullets.

Atbol Duffey, Harry Armstrong and George Beattie, three West End boys, have been reported by the police for discharging firearms in a yard off Rodney street on the 24th inst. Four boys entered George Clarke's house on Winslow street, breaking half a window, tearing several feet of plaster off a wall in one of the rooms and causing other damage.

BROTHER ASKS COURT TO SEND SISTER TO PRISON

Laura Byron's Brother Asks That His Sister be Sent in for a Year—She Gets Six Months.

Laura Byron, with whom the North End police had such a strenuous time last night, was this morning sentenced to the Good Shepherd Home for a term of six months. Officer Burchill testified that he was called to the golf links at 10 p. m. to remove the woman who was drunk and interfering with the game.

With the aid of two fellow policemen and a wheelbarrow he succeeded in bringing her to the North End police station. The patrolman knew Byron to be a thoroughly bad character. Acting magistrate Henderson thereupon pronounced sentence the woman dramatically exclaiming "I don't care if I get five years."

His Honor remarked that if it was in his power to do so he would, and at this juncture a brother of the prisoner rushed to the rail enclosing the court room and interjected "Give her one year, I'm her brother."

POLICE COURT

William Golding, who was concerned in a recent hold-up, went to jail for ten days for drunkenness.

Fred Blum, a Russian, received the same sentence for the same offence. Fred Lupee, colored, desired to know who reported him for keeping a disorderly house in Union Alley, and when Mr. Henderson replied that the report was made by W. Walker Clark, Lupee retorted that he never heard of the gentleman before, but believed him to be a new boarder in the domicile of Mrs. Jones, his bitterest enemy and the instigator of all his torments.

Mr. Henderson stated that Lupee had become a habitual visitor to the police court, and stood the case over until Friday. In the interim Lupee is expected to remove from the locality of his present abode and thus terminate the nuisance. He agreed to remove, but incidentally stated that he had evidence to refute the allegation, declaring that "I will kill the devil." He said it would prove difficult for him to secure apartments, as the colored people are acting so badly that they cannot get room in the same house.

Mrs. Currie, of 64 Erin street, denied using abusive language to Mrs. McDonald, her landlady, and two neighbors, Mrs. Devlin and Mrs. Graham. She also denied keeping a disorderly house, wherein the three adult occupants, including herself and husband, were drunk and creating a disturbance. When Officer Bowes entered the house the trio were drunk and noisy, and three small children of the Currie people were crawling about the floors. The woman admitted being drunk. She was fined until Friday to remove from the locality, and if the orders of the court are not acceded to, the charges will be pressed.
