NO SMOKE

DAISY LAMP ATTACHMENT.

PATENTED JUNE 4TH, 1887.

25c. THE DAISY LAMP ATTACHMENT is wanted in every home. It can be placed on any common size lamp glass and is warranted 25c.

not to cause smoke or any disagreeable smell. You can boil three pints of water in a short time, cook eggs, or a small saucepan of potatoes, make tea, etc. It is very useful where there are children. If the lamp glass is hot warm the ends of the wire before placing inside the lamp glass. In summer would save many times building a fire to get tea by. Gentlemen who are boarding will find this convenient to procure hot water for shaving before leaving their room in the morning. Invaluable in case of sickness where hot water is required immediately. Can be provided at the bedside without danger and much quicker than in the usual way of lighting fires. By placing a pint cup of water on the attachment the chill can be removed from the bedroom. This article meets with a very rapid sale in all sections; is light and profitable for ladies, gentlemen, girls or boys to engage in. Sample by mail, postpaid, on receipt of 25c.; one dozen by mail, postpaid, $1·50. Liberal discount to agents in gross lots by express. All orders to be addressed to C. W. DENNIS,

PREFACE.

In presenting to our patrons our first Business and Professional Directory and Telephone Guide of the city of Toronto, we hope it will meet with their approval.

Having made a thorough canvas of the city, we confidently believe that we have succeeded in publishing a work that will meet the wants of the Business and Professional firms of the Province.

We believe that our work will be found to be complete and reliable.

Thanking our Patrons for their liberal patronage, we remain

Respectfully yours,

THE PUBLISHERS.

Maguire's Patent Flushing and Self-Cleansing Trap.

The above cut represents an outside and inside view of Maguire's Patent Anti-Zymotic Trap, which has the great advantage over other traps of having the inlet higher than the outlet, and the outlet arranged so as to be at the level of sewer diameter of the sewer pipe, thereby providing for thorough flushing, and preventing any back-wash from the sewer entering the trap. The hand hole over the outlet will allow the drain to sewer to be readily cleaned out, and is intended to provide for direct over-head sewer ventilation.

The above traps can be seen in use at numerous places throughout the city, on application to the above named.

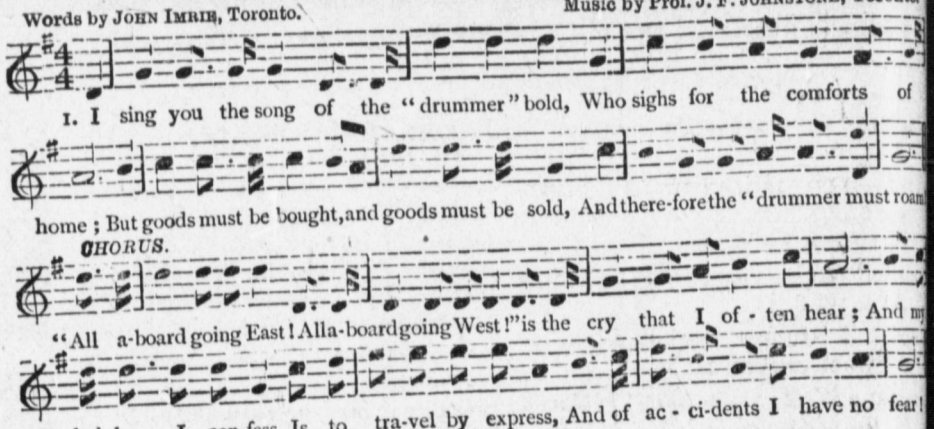
SONG OF THE "DRUMMER."

Words by JOHN IMRIE, Toronto. Music by Prof. J. F. JOHNSTONE, Toronto.



I'm happy and gay to "spot
a live town," Where business is "booming," you know!
While humming a song
my "samples" lay down.
And manage to make "a good show!"—Cho.

When customers come I welcome them all
To "sample-rooms" in
my hotel;
I'm proud to see them, and
they like to call,
I treat all my patrons so well!—Cho.

I live "by the way," yet
fare very well,
Some flirting I do if I can!
Of these escapades I'm not going to tell,
For that is not down in my plan.—Cho.

In commerce and trade 'tis
hard to compete, Quotations are "way
down below;"
When I "take the road,"
I'm not to be beat,
Good orders I always can show!—Cho.

TORONTO BUSINESS COLLEGE.

J. M. CROWLY, Proprietor.

ESTABLISHED 1884.

The Largest, Leading, Most Complete and Most Thoroughly Furnished Apartments in Canada.

Day and Evening Sessions always open.
Special Rates During the Summer Months.

Unequalled Staff of Teachers. Satisfaction Guaranteed. The very best of References furnished.

DEAR FRIENDS,—I would call your attention to the rapid growth of this College during the past four years, being now recognized as the largest leading and most complete in Canada. Each Department of the School is a Specialty, being conducted by a Special Master, so that those whose education has been neglected when young, and all young Ladies and Gentlemen ambitious in life, have only to complete a Business, Shorthand, or Professional Course at our College, and make it a sure success, each student being allowed to select any subject or number of subjects they desire. All students are instructed individually, and not put in classes as at other colleges, thus affording each an opportunity to obtain a thorough knowledge of each study undertaken, besides helping them to become proficient and graduate in ONE-THIRD to ONE HALF less time than at any other College.

Our staff of Teachers are well up in their several Departments, and take great pleasure in promoting the interests of the students, helping them forward in as short a time as possible.

Soliciting your kind influence and patronage, I remain, yours respectfully,

J. M. CROWLY, Manager.

For circulars and full particulars apply or call at office, COR. YONGE AND SHUTER ST., TORONTO CAN.

SPECIALTIES.
