THE PLOT THICKENS.

At the meeting held in Moncton Monday evening in honor of Senator McDonald, the representative of the province who has been elected to the Senate, the senator in his speech pledged himself to the support of the aims of labor. The labor men assured him and the public at large that they would show their appreciation of the action of the government. THOUGHTS

On Going Up An Old Church Tower. (Arthur Churchman, in Chambers' Journal). 'Tis said that he who upwards turns his gaze From the deep darkness of some well or mine Can see, although the world above's ablaze, The stars in sunlight shine. So, when we sink to depths of dark despair, From what have seemed to be life's brightest hours, We must remember in the hours of care God does not hide the stars.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

The ladies who appeared before the board of education at Fredericton in the half of the kindergarten are very sympathetic hearing. It could not be otherwise, for the board is not reactionary, but progressive. The ladies were able to show that the kindergarten was in the public schools in St. John over thirty years ago, and that though it was not made permanent both the city council and school board in more recent years went on record as in favor of the kindergarten as a part of the public school system.

CHAMBERLAIN TO SEEK ELECTION

London, March 23.—Austin Chamberlain, recently elected leader of the House of Commons, has been appointed Lord Privy Seal, both positions having been previously held by Andrew Bonar Law. This will necessitate Mr. Chamberlain's seeking re-election in Birmingham. It is believed that the Labor Party will fight the election, but Birmingham is considered safe for Mr. Chamberlain. The Speaker of the House of Commons, James William Lowther, is re-elected. It is reported that the Prime Minister has offered the position to John Henry Whitley, the Deputy Speaker.

CABINET BURY DURING RECESS

Ottawa, March 24.—Premier Meighen will not leave the capital, during the Easter recess, and it seems likely that the cabinet will be pretty busy mapping out the plan of campaign to be followed when the House reassembles. It is probable that the introduction of the railway estimates will precipitate a fight, as the opposition has some strong criticism of the cabinet's proposals of the government, to be presented when the longest recess is over, which will be the programme for the members when they return.

AN ILLUMINATING PHRASE (Ottawa Journal.)

Premier Briand of France uses what looks to be an illuminating phrase in regard to the German view of reparations. "Germany must pay not only from her profits but from her assets," he says. It means only out of German profits, but the German people are paying reparations from their assets, their factories, their land, their machinery, their stock, their bonds, their homes, their farms, their ships, their planes, their automobiles, their radios, their telephones, their refrigerators, their washing machines, their vacuum cleaners, their lawnmowers, their lawn sprinklers, their lawnmowers, their lawn sprinklers, their lawnmowers, their lawn sprinklers.

NATURE'S GERMEN.

She—How bare and cold those hills appear. He—Oh, I don't know—they're well clothed in. "Why should a man of your wealth care for money?" "Don't care for it?" protested Mr. Dustin. "It's the importance that other people attach to it that makes the individual feel it his desirable to have as much of it as possible."—Washington Star.

WAS 102 YEARS OLD.

With the death of Samuel Mills, aged 102, which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Albert Smith at Fort Lawrence, yesterday, has passed away one of the oldest men in the county. The late Samuel Mills was born on February 18th, 1819, at Mapleton, Cumberland county, slightly over one hundred and two years ago. He continued to reside in Mapleton, where he carried on farming and the work of a millwright, for many years, after which he moved to Fort Lawrence, where he has since been residing with his daughter. He was a staunch member of the Methodist church for eighty years. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Albert Smith.

THE RED MENACE

Germany now faces a new danger, in the outbreak of Communism in Hanover and in Prussia Saxony. Great disorder prevails, lives have been sacrificed, and much damage done. As Germany was largely responsible for the introduction of the Red regime in Russia, her chickens are now coming home to roost. The situation is grave, but the Reds will not prevail in Germany. They can add much to the burdens the people at large must bear, but the masses of the people will not be deceived as were the ignorant masses of Russia by the mad philosophy of Lenin and Trotsky. The latter would greatly rejoice at any measure of success the Reds might gain in Germany, for their aim at the outset was to precipitate social revolution throughout western Europe. Indeed they were sorely disappointed that it did not come sooner. English socialists who visited Russia reported on their return that the question raised them over and over again in that country was: "When will the revolution begin in England?" Bolshevik emissaries went to England to spread revolutionary doctrines, and it is because of their knowledge of what has been going on in Russia, that they are so anxious to get their feet in Italy, where their efforts have failed because the people in general had no desire to see Russia in conditions reproduced in their country. What Bolshevism has done for Petrograd and Moscow is revealed in a despatch which tells of the formation of companies of masked robbers who kill and rob in the streets late at night, and murder and plunder the occupants of apartments. The despatch adds: "The inhabitants are helpless against these murderers and no help can be expected from the authorities because it is said that in many cities the authorities themselves are involved in these enterprises." This is Bolshevism, whether in Russia, Germany, England, or wherever it may gain the upper hand.

IMAGE OF CHRIST CARVED IN A BEAN

Remarkable Work of a Condemned Prisoner Exhibited at Home of Mrs. Oliver Harriman.

(N. Y. Times) A carving of the head of the crucified Christ, executed with the utmost detail in the pith of a Florida bean, was exhibited at her home in East Fifty-fifth street yesterday by Mrs. Oliver Harriman, whose friend, Mrs. H. Willis McFadden, had acquired the piece. It was made twenty-five years ago in a prison of Spanish Honduras by a convict, who, as he passed to his execution, signed the carving to his jailer as a message to his family.

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON LIMITED

Ernest Taylor. On account of a recent bereavement in the family of the bride the wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives being present. Many beautiful gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Large left last night on the Boston train for a trip through the New England states, after which they will move their home at 81 Burgess street, Lowell (Mass.).

A wedding of much local interest took place in New York on Saturday, March 19, when Miss Ethel Louise, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Emerson, of St. John, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to George Hugh J. McCallum of Ottawa, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. McCallum of Smith Falls (Ont.). The ceremony took place in the Church of the Heavenly Rest and was performed by Rev. Dr. Shipman.

RECENT DEATHS The death occurred yesterday at the General Public Hospital of the great Evans, wife of Robert L. Evans of this city. Mrs. Evans has been a resident of St. John for about two years, having come here with her husband whom she married in England. She is survived by her husband and baby son, Henry, of this city, and by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Odams, one brother, Henry Odams, and one sister, Pauline Odams, all of London (Eng.). The funeral will be held from her home, 296 Wentworth street, Friday afternoon, after service at the house at 2 o'clock.

The death occurred last evening of Mrs. Eliza Munde, widow of James Munde, in the sixty-ninth year of her age. Mrs. Munde had been ill only a short time and it was thought her sickness would not terminate fatally, but she passed peacefully to rest at the home of her son-in-law, Ernest A. Melvin, 184 Water street, on Monday. She was born in West St. John, the daughter of the late John H. Cannabell, who was the first superintendent of Ludlow Street Baptist Sunday school in 1841, at its organization. Mrs. Munde was a woman of very fine Christian character and one of the most devoted workers in the Ludlow Street Baptist church. She was a regular attendant at the Sunday school up to the time of her death. She leaves one brother, DeWolfe Cannabell of New Zealand. Mrs. Munde had never seen this brother, but through special efforts got in communication with him and only a few days ago received a long letter from him. She also left one daughter, Mrs. Ernest A. Melvin of West St. John, and six grandchildren, the eldest of whom was Willie Melvin.

A despatch from New York brought news to Robert J. Dibblee that Mrs. F. S. Crocker, of East Orange (N. J.), formerly of this city, had been injured by a trolley accident and died on Monday. The body will arrive in St. John by train on Friday, and will be immediately conveyed to Fernhill cemetery for interment. Mrs. Crocker was the widow of F. S. Crocker, who was well known in St. John, as he had been cashier for Messrs. Harrison, Mill street, for years and had also been cashier at the N. B. rolling mills. A daughter, Miss Helen M., survives.

Many friends will be shocked to learn of the death of James Wilks, which occurred suddenly yesterday morning at his home at Coldbrook at the age of sixty-seven years. Mr. Wilks for several years was employed in the rolling mills at Coldbrook and later was engaged in farming, which pursuit he followed until a few years ago when he retired from active work. He was twice married. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Richard Morland of Stettin (B.C.) and Miss Greta A. Kilis of Toronto; three sons, J. W. Wilks of Halifax (N.S.);

Clarence T. Wilks of Stettin (B.C.) and Henry H. Wilks of Peace River Cross (Alta.); two brothers, Joseph of Dartmouth (N.S.) and Herbert Wilks of St. John, and one sister, Mrs. James Quigley of Montreal. Arrangements for the funeral were not completed last night.

Mrs. Margaret T. Williams, of 19 Judson street, Malden, (Mass.) recently received a telegram informing her of the sudden passing away of her sister, Lizzie, wife of Frederick Hanab, of Loudenville, (Ohio), following an operation at Mount Vernon Sanitarium, Ohio. Mrs. Hannah lived for several years on Military Road, North End, this city, and was universally loved and respected by all who knew her.

Captain William A. Simpson of Newcastle, died at his home on Monday in his fifty-eighth year. For twenty years he was the captain of the tug J. C. Miller, and was well known along the river. He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters.

Frank Whitehead, formerly of Fredericton, is dead in Vancouver. Miss Blanche Whitehead, chancery clerk stenographer, of this city, is a sister.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

On the occasion of the visit of Earl Haig, commander of the British forces in the late war, at Capetown, some trouble arose because of the inadequacy of the drill hall, where the reception was being held, to accommodate the crowd. Police were on guard and some of the natives in an intoxicated condition threw stones at them and a general fight ensued. No arrests were made.

No evidence was offered by the defense yesterday at Toronto in the trial of John Doughty, charged with the theft of $105,000 in Victory bonds from Ambrose Small. Doughty's lawyer contended that no evidence worthy of a reply had been adduced by the prosecution, and that therefore he would not reply. He moved that the case be taken from the jury and the prisoner discharged, but the judge ruled otherwise.

Twenty-four persons were killed and nearly thirty injured in ambushes reported in Ireland yesterday. Six were killed in Blarney district, all civilians; a police inspector and eight men were ambushed near Dingle, a police officer and four soldiers were killed near Karrow Kennedy.

Workers in the American packing industry numbering more than 100,000 have accepted a wage reduction of 12 to 15 per cent. The agreement signed also provides for an eight hour day.

ONLY ONE GRAM OF RADIUM IN ALL BERLIN

Berlin, March 6.—(A. P. by mail)—Once the chief producer of radium, Germany now has barely enough to meet the medical needs of the great universities. There is only one gram of radium in all Berlin, and proportionately even less at Heidelberg and other university cities.

The shortage is said to be due to the fact that karmothit, used in the manufacture of radium, is no longer imported from America. The Germans say the United States could supply plenty of karmothit, but in view of the low purchasing power the mark the Germans cannot afford to buy it.

I. C. Tory, M. P. P., Says People Are Enormously Wealthy, and That Prospects for Trade With Canada Are Good.

James C. Troy, senior member for Guysboro in the Nova Scotia Legislature, has just returned from an extended visit to Cuba. Interviewed by The Halifax Chronicle, Mr. Troy told of the enormous wealth of Cuba, both of her citizens and of her potential wealth of resources. Taking a large part in the development of the island republic are a number of Canadian financial institutions, and banks reason for a very unsettled political situation, there being the natural conflict between the Liberal and Conservative parties, the latter representing the moneyed and landed class.

The people are very hospitable and very free with their money. The money amassed since the revolution which freed them from Spain, and especially during the late Great War, was fabulous. The products of the island were specially in demand during that time and brought any price at all, especially rum, alcohol made from molasses and sugar selling at twenty-four cents a pound. But during this period there was wide speculation; banks were established all over the island, and they in some instances went in for almost reckless investments. The result is the present moratorium, and the crisis, Mr. Troy thought, will not be reached until the end of the moratorium, when it is a question if some of the local banks will survive.

May Save the Situation. The situation may be saved by the Canadian Banks and interference on the part of the financial interests of the United States. The Canadian Banks have been conservative and careful. The establishment of a clearing house is suggested and a zone for the American Reserve Bank, all with the view of stabilizing the business conditions in the future. Yet, in spite of all this, the island and her people are enormously wealthy, and no very great interference with business of the island is likely to be necessary.

The political situation is the more serious at present. They had an election in the late autumn, and up to this time cannot determine which party was returned to power.

Mr. Troy said he met Mr. Chisholm, the Canadian Trade Commissioner for the island, and was informed by him of the large and growing business between —To increase men's energy and vim.

Do this, madam, for tomorrow's breakfast: Stew some raisins according to the recipe printed here, and mix with the oatmeal that you serve tomorrow morning.
Do it for the added flavor—to make oatmeal more attractive.
But do it mainly for the food-iron that raisins send into the blood, and for the raisin's mildly laxative effect.

The bloom of youth
The tonic food-iron of raisins helps to bring the bloom of youth to cheeks that perhaps are paler than they should be. Then the nutriment of raisins—1560 calories per pound—gives men and children the energy they need.

(Dr. Kellogg is head of the famous Battle Creek Sanitarium.)
"Raisins are served on the Battle Creek Sanitarium Table everyday. A pound of Raisins has twice the food value, an equal amount of iron and seven times as much food lime as a pound of choicest lean steak. The sugar of Raisins is much more wholesome than cane sugar, requiring no digestion and being absorbed in one-fourth the time required for ordinary sugar. If the American people would eat more Raisins and less meat the results would be better digestion, less rheumatism, less Bright's disease, less heart disease, greater efficiency and longer life."

WESTMORLAND COUNTY GIRL IN NEW GUINEA

Mrs. Gillespie of Shediac Writes of the Country and the People—A Cannibal Village Only Thirty Miles Distant—They Have the Movies.

Shediac friends have received interesting letters from Mrs. Andrew Gillespie of New Guinea, formerly Miss Bessie Wortman of that town. Mrs. Gillespie, who at time of writing, November 23rd, had already been in that remote country in the vicinity of a month, had much to say concerning the beauties of the trip, and the manners and customs of the natives, by whom they were surrounded. At Sydney, Australia, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie remained for a short while, where they had numerous courtesies extended them. Upon leaving that city, they proceeded on their journey up the coast to New Guinea, visiting many picturesque and charming islands en route and arriving at Port Moresby, New Guinea, fifteen days from time of leaving Sydney. The place they described as rather disappointing—a small town of some four hundred white population, living in unattractive bungalow houses, a very few shops, one church, convent, half a dozen motor cars, and lastly moving picture houses.

At present Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie reside in a section of country given over to the Anglo Persian oil interests, some two hundred miles northwest of Port Moresby, known as Upiou.

The natives, in the oil section engaged in the work, number two hundred and fifty; they are extremely primitive, many of them in those parts having little knowledge whatever of the white man and his ways. For the most part, Mrs. Gillespie said they were peaceable and well disposed. A cannibal village existed at a distance of thirty miles, the intervening country being wild and rugged.

In the near neighborhood to the several bungalows of the company, gardens are cultivated, and all varieties of tropical fruit raised for the use of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie's residence, a charming bungalow, was designed, with its surrounding grounds, by Dr. Wade, an Australian geologist, some seven years ago.

Fever is prevalent in New Guinea, the "white man" having regularly to resort to quinine. At time of writing, Mrs. Gillespie said, the wireless system was being installed at Upiou and on board their yacht, the "Vialola," by which they travel from the oil section to Port Moresby when necessary. Native boy servants are paid but once a year, being given money for the "movies" and their tobacco each week, their board also being provided by their master.

LADY ASTOR THREATENED. Would-Be Murderer Quelled Before Her Courage.

London, March 24—London papers publish an account of an unpleasant encounter which Lady Astor had with a stranger at Plymouth on Saturday afternoon. She was accosted in the entrance hall of her residence by a man who declared in violent terms that he had served two terms of imprisonment and would return to prison in a few days on her account. Lady Astor asked him if he was threatening to kill her and the man replied "Yes." Realizing the man might attack her if she displayed any fear, Lady Astor temporized with the man and he eventually left the house, but refused to give his name. Determined to get this information, the account proceeds, her ladyship followed him and the man started to run. She did likewise and pursued him into some stables where again she demanded to know his identity. Again her courage dismayed the man for he took to his heels once more and ran into a public house and out through the back of the premises with Lady Astor in close pursuit. Within a short distance the man was secured, but Lady Astor expressed the wish that no legal proceedings should be taken against him.

WORK OF THE WATER DEPT. LAST YEAR

Commissioner Jones Presents His Annual Report—Surplus Went to Reduce General Assessment.

The sixty-fifth annual report of the water and sewerage department for the year ended Dec. 31, 1920, was presented to the common council on Tuesday afternoon by Commissioner Jones. The report is a most comprehensive one and covered the complete activities of the department for the year.

The report showed that the renewal of the mains in King street and Market square completed the programme of last year for the renewal of mains preparatory to the building of new permanent pavements as ordered by the common council.

For the same reason branch sewers and service pipes are being laid to vacant lots in Douglas avenue; sewers being a charge on the property owners and the cost of the service pipes being borne by the city.

The main sewer and water main in Hawthorne avenue was further extended during the year. Extensions were also made in Connor and Champlain streets. Extensive repairs were made to the Marsh road main. The usual necessary repairs were made to both main and service pipes, sewers and catch basins. Several new hydrants were installed and renewed.

Speaking of the Spruce Lake extension work, the report said that during November more than 1,000 feet of pipe had been made by the Canada Lock Joint Pipe Co., Ltd., the contractors, and will be ready for laying when the work is resumed early this spring.

It mentions the work being carried on at Newman Brook and also the laying of water mains and sewers by the city in sandown and Dufferin avenues. The owners agreed to pay ten per cent income on the expenditure. There are now twenty houses in Lansdowne avenue and the report says that more would be built if proper sewerage facilities were provided. The work at Newman Brook commenced on account of protests residents in that locality. A start was made in deepening the brook and west of Adelaide street. A culvert will be built, thus doing with the bridge.

The report shows that the department had a surplus last year of more than $8,000. It was the wish of the commissioner to retain this surplus for renewing of old mains but it was decided to use it for the reducing of the general assessment.

The estimates of ordinary expenditure for the department this year were the same as last year but the charges for interest and sinking fund are $17,694 greater. The department also will have to look after the maintenance of sewers and fire hydrants from water revenue, thus reducing the general assessment by $30,000. It is expected that the receipts this year will be less than in 1920.

The receipts for 1920 were $246,908.14 and the expenditures $216,916.64, leaving a surplus of $30,000. The report contained a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures.

In concluding, Commissioner Jones paid a tribute to all the members of his staff for their hearty and active co-operation.

PREMIER IN IRISH DEBATE DEFENDS THE EXECUTIONS

London, March 23.—An Irish debate was raised in the house of commons today by Francis D. Acland in appealing to the government to act with magnanimity before Easter. He advocated the summoning of a constituent assembly to choose the form of an Irish constitution. Former Prime Minister Asquith criticized the government's failure to employ the same vigor in vindicating the law in Ireland against the crown forces as against the Sinn Feiners.

Replying to Mr. Asquith's indictment of the government in connection with the executions at Mount Joy and elsewhere, as bringing disgrace and shame upon England in the United States, Lloyd George said that two of the men executed at Mount Joy were murderers and that the other four were engaged in an ambush to kill policemen. They were taken with arms, bombs and soft-nosed bullets in their possession.

"I venture to say," he went on, "that the United States papers, while quoting Mr. Asquith's statements, will not publish the facts I am now giving."

He contended that such misrepresentation was responsible for opinions in the United States.

Respecting negotiations his previous offer still holds good; there would be no demand for the prior surrender of arms as a condition of such negotiations. The surrender of arms would only be required as a prior condition of a truce or an armistice.

Lloyd George declared he was laboring to the utmost to keep the door of peace and conciliation open, and every Irishman ought to assist.

The Irish and Labor members, including Arthur Henderson, expressed the greatest disappointment over the prime minister's speech and reproached Lloyd George for his treatment of the late John Redmond.

The tenasters and chauffeurs met last night in the Longhobmen's hall in Water street and heard addresses by Mr. Varley, of the A. F. of L., and other prominent speakers.

"THE GREAT REDEEMER" VERY IMPRESSIVE

Masterly Film Production, Deeply Reverential and Uplifting, at Imperial.

Vibrant with deep emotional power and striking a religious note, a Metro super-photoplay, "The Great Redeemer," fascinated immense crowds of people at the Imperial yesterday. As a picture breathing spirituality and pointing to the higher things in life it is a masterpiece, to be classed with dramatic values of "The Miracle Man" and the sentimental scenes of "Madame X." The picture marked the return of that sterling actor House Peters to the Imperial's screen, though the small cast of principals was so well balanced that one could not equitably lavish praise upon one performer and withhold it from such remarkable roles as that of the sheriff, played by Jack M. McDonald; the Girl, played by Marjorie Raw, and the truly remarkable characterization of a condemned murderer as done by Joseph Singleton.

The picture would certainly have lost much of its fervor and point had it not been for the musical accompaniments of the Imperial orchestra and especially the strains employed in the scene where the murderer is converted by the picture of Christ crucified on the prison wall. The introduction of such hymns as "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" and "God Be With You, Till We Meet Again" were touches that supplemented the actors' art and the masterful direction of the French film-craftsman, Maurice Tourneur. Suffice to say "The Great Redeemer" is impressive to the last degree, and registered deeply with yesterday's watchers. Principal honors go to House Peters who is rugged, manly and appealing as Dan Malloy. This actor so much at home in western roles, imparts a new touch to his work as Dan Malloy. He gained and held the sympathy of the audience throughout his appearance on the screen. The story was written by H. H. Van Loan.

Especially notable is the scenic background of the picture. The exterior views show the most beautiful parts of the great west, while the interiors have been designed by a master hand. Doubtless more large crowds will enjoy this unquestioned masterpiece today. Tomorrow (Good Friday) Bessie Barriscale appears in a sweet child-life story.

THE PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL REPORT

Fredericton, N. B., March 23.—The 78th annual report of the superintendent of the provincial hospital for the year ending October 31, 1920, shows 628 patients in residence. The admissions were fewer than in any one year during the last ten years, being 143.

The recovery rate was 89.1 per cent while the death rate was 8.5 per cent. The cost of maintenance was $180,126.10, a per capita charge of $5.27 a week, or an increase of 75 cents over last year.

The average attendance at the boys' industrial home as shown in the annual report was 87, this was an increase over last year and taxed the accommodation.

The average age of those admitted was twelve years and eight months. The report tells of the difficulty of securing an efficient staff and shows that the home has been undermanned. A detailed account of the activities of the boys is given. The financial affairs of the institution are now handled through the provincial secretary's office, which is proving most satisfactory. The total expenditure for the year was $19,108.15.

FARM WON BY BOUT. Ex-officers Settled Farm Dispute by Boxing. A curious story of a farming venture by two ex-officers was told yesterday in Dochester Bankruptcy Court, says an English despatch.

Thomas John Wade, a young Irishman, said that he and another ex-officer took a farm at Cheshillbone, with private capital, augmented by a £500 grant from the Officers' Association and money from the War Agricultural Committee.

They soon quarrelled, said Wade and at last they agreed to "box for it" and thus decide which one was to stay on the farm. He added: "We had the fight and I won."

The farm, however, has not proved a success, and Wade estimated that his affairs show a deficiency of £2,212.

ENDORSED THE NEW SENATOR

St. John Speaker at Moncton Meeting

What They Said There About Appointment of Hon. J. A. McDonald to the Canadian Senate.

At a largely attended meeting in Moncton on Monday evening to congratulate Senator J. A. McDonald on his appointment, Mayor Chipman presided, and he and Ald. McLennan and McKinon heartily endorsed the appointment of Mr. McDonald to the senate. The following is the Transcript's report of the speeches of A. R. Mosher, J. E. Tighe and Senator McDonald:—

A. R. Mosher, in beginning his address, told of receiving a telegram to be present in Moncton last night and deliver an address. He had wired for information. He had received a reply that the meeting was of railway workers, and being pleased to meet railway men always he had come, and would have done so if the meeting had been, he said, in Vancouver.

He stated that he could talk for hours on what Senator McDonald had done and was doing for Labor, especially since he had known Senator McDonald since the time of the C. B. of R. E. being formed. Senator McDonald had acted as arbitrator many times, and if necessary had even put his hand in his pocket to help the men out. He closed the newspaper articles relative to Senator McDonald's appointment as vile and insidious attacks, and he was pleased to do honor to the senator. Labor, he stated, would in a few short years show Senator McDonald and to the newspapers just what friendship of Labor meant.

Returning to the governments, Mr. Mosher stated that the patronage system had prevailed in the past, but he was glad that Labor had a real representative in the senate—a man with the courage of his convictions.

Focusing on railway workers, Mr. Mosher pointed out that there was an insidious propaganda that was being floated to the effect that railway workers were getting too high wages and were forcing the high cost of living to grow higher. This, he stated, was absolutely false. Members of the government had laid the blame of a $70,000,000 deficit on the Canadian National Railway on the shoulders of the railway men, and the members of the railway commission had stated that railway workers were receiving far too high a wage. These matters, he said, vitally affected railway workers, and all workers in general, so that in striking at one, Mr. Mosher pointed out, you strike at all. It had been laid at the door of the workers that the $70,000,000 deficit on the C. N. R. was due to their getting too great a wage. He repudiated that assertion, and claimed that about 20,000 organized railway workers, who came under the agreement and schedule. The increases last year were laid to the Chicago award, that is, that the 21 per cent increase of salary granted the U. S. workers was followed by the Canadian demands. In this respect the 20,000 Canadian workers received an increase, at a generous estimate of $300 per year, that is a total amount of $6,000,000. But the deficit was $70,000,000. The speaker firmly believed the $15,000,000 increase has nothing to do with the deficit, but, admitting it did, where did the other $55,000,000 go? Why did they not explain? The speaker had heard arguments before the Railway Commission in Ottawa as a result of which a 15 per cent increase in passenger and freight rates was passed in order to cover the cost of the Chicago award. "From this you can see," said Mr. Mosher, "that the $70,000,000 deficit is not due to the increase in wages."

"Let them come out and tell us what sink hole the deficit went into." In contrast to the claim of increased operating expenses from 59 cents to 89 cents on the dollar, Mr. Mosher said some three weeks ago he had travelled on a train from Montreal to Winnipeg. The train, he stated, consisted of a locomotive, a baggage car, a first class coach, a second class coach, a colonist car, a pullman and an observation car. The train was capable of carrying several hundred passengers, but he had found it had only nine passengers. He admitted there was a certain degree of mismanagement on the railways and also stated the operation of the railways is affected by business conditions. He realized the Canadian National Railways ran through thousands of miles of sparsely populated districts, and through there must be operated at a loss. There is now a business depression, he said, as many of the workers knew only too well. A cry had gone up and as a result some of the workers had had to lay down tools in order to help out.

He believed, he said, that the time had now come when the working men and women and representatives in the legislatures should correct this system, as by the present system, he pointed out, some live in luxury, and some are starving because they cannot procure work and are yet willing to work. He classed it as a damnable condition of affairs, and added that he knew of no other word forcible enough to express his thoughts so as to describe the present condition of things. Some, he pointed out, would say that any effort to change this state of affairs savored of socialism, or some other ism, but those who impeded progress of a change, he would say were dangerous. The true way he stated to remove this state of today, was by Unionism, not only among the workers but between capital and labor. This unionism, he believed, should be active, between all peoples and all countries. He urged the stop of the fight among ourselves, and that the common enemies be met by one united body. By this way, he believed, progress would be marked.

Not long ago, said the speaker, there was a report of a royal commission, a member of which later became general manager of what is now the C. N. R. The report may have been somewhat biased but when the report said the railway cost $20,000,000 more than the value received by the government there was no complaint from Mr. Carvell and those others.

Mr. Mosher said $157,000,000 had been disbursed by the country in cash and subsidies to private railway companies and in addition the private railway companies had received $155,000,000 from sale of lands. Although there was no definite figures available for the Canadian railways, judging them by the reords in connection with U. S. railways, they are over capitalized two or three times actual cost and were asked to pay for them in addition to the increased rates we have to pay the interest on the enormous amount of watered stock.

Mr. Carvell said the speaker was trying to lead the public to believe that about $5,000 a year is too much for a locomotive driver who has the responsibility of hundreds of lives in his hands. Mr. Carvell didn't say anything about the amount of the retaining fee of $10,000 to the government representative on the Arbitration Board. In addition this representative received $400 per day every day outside of Toronto and $100 a day in Toronto. Is it any wonder there is a $70,000,000 deficit? Mr. D. B. Hanna and his crowd do not want any railway men in parliament. If some railway men could get into parliament they would give these things publicity. The speaker wishes that Senator J. A. McDonald only had a seat in the House as well as the Senate.

Mr. Mosher ran down the newspapers for what he called "denunciations" of J. A. McDonald and his friends. Nothing had been said about the $23,000,000 expended on the Hudson Bay Railway which if completed could only be used six weeks in the year at best. Mr. Mosher read clippings from the Ottawa Citizen.

"I am in favor of holding out the hand to those who are friendly towards labor," said the speaker. Now is the time to do away with the game of profiting, the game of vilifying, of insidious propaganda. The big trouble today is not that the workers are getting too much but that they are getting too little. He hoped the fact of this meeting would be a forerunner of real unity between wage runners and those who have gone beyond the stage of wage earners.

Before the next speaker was introduced Mayor Chapman said he wanted to congratulate those who had arranged the meeting on such a large attendance. The attendance showed who were the people who would have the say as to who should represent us in the Senate. His Worship wished to state that in 1918 it cost him 32-1/2 cents per 100 lbs. for freight and 84-1/2 cents per 100 lbs. If wages had increased in the same proportion the man who received $2.50 per day in 1918 should receive $1.00 per day now.

Mr. Tighe stated that he was pleased to be in Moncton and speak before such a large gathering. The American Federation of Labor, he said, had a maxim: "Elect your friends and defeat your enemies." He believed that should be adopted here. He stated he knew of the applicants for the Senate and not one of the six had done five minutes work for Labor. He endorsed the appointment of Senator McDonald and stated that if Hon. Mr. Wigmore has been responsible for the appointment of Mr. McDonald to the Senate then Mr. Wigmore was a friend of Labor—one of the biggest men to stand out of the ranks and assist labor.

Referring to the part Senator McDonald had played in Labor, Mr. Tighe stated that only recently Mr. McDonald had got information for them which they had previously been unable to get. He endorsed the appointment of the Senator, stating that although he endorsed his appointment he would be one of the first to kick, should the new Senator not live up to what was expected of him, relative to Labor.

On rising to his feet Senator McDonald was greeted with prolonged applause. "I don't know what to say," said the Senator. He eulogized the ability of Mr. Mosher and referring to Mr. Mosher's address said "his expostions of the work of the Railway Commission was one of the finest things I have ever heard." The speaker was proud to be associated with these level headed labor men who surrounded him. He said he didn't blame the newspapers so much for their criticism, perhaps they had a purpose. He had always been used fairly by the papers in the past. He hoped God Almighty would make him worthy of such men as those on the platform. He hoped God would give him strength to do all that was possible for those who were not so fortunate as he had been.

What a wonderful thing, he said, it would be if the right organization used in the winning of the war could be turned towards alleviating the lot of the working man. From Halifax to Vancouver 140 divisions had telegraphed him their support. He said he consecrated his life, every moment of it, to the working man. He said he was not saying anything about the railway wages. There are rights and privileges and obligations to each other as between the employer and the employe. If there is a deficit let the reason be given. Turn on the X-ray but turn it on at the top. Everyone who is paying for all these things has a right to know the how and the why. There are employers of large heart in this big Canada of ours. There are true-hearted workers.

The speaker didn't want to talk about himself, he said, but he would like to refer to the delegation from Newcastle who had gone to Ottawa with regard to getting a line from Tracadie to Newcastle. He had taken them before the proper members of the government and they had received a favorable answer. The reply was to the effect that the government would send their own engineers to look over the ground and if the conditions were as represented by the delegation they would get the loop. He could state that the government had taken over the Carquet and Gulf Shore railway and had arranged for the expenditure of a million dollars on it.

The Senator referred to the post office for Moncton. He realized that Moncton and the North Shore had been neglected. If representatives came to Ottawa from Moncton he would personally interest himself and take them before the proper authorities and intercede for them.

In concluding the Senator said he would pledge his word and honor that all he could do for the people represented by the meeting he would only be too willingly do. He repeated he hoped God would give him strength to represent them as they deserved.

WOMEN OF POLAND HELP REBUILD NATION

Publicist States Country Needs Peace More Than Anything Else.

New York—The women of Poland have played an important part in the rejuvenation of the Polish Republic, according to the statement Captain Julius Kaden-Bankowski, well known Polish publicist now visiting in the United States. It was largely because the importance of their activities in the old revolutionary movement was recognized that the women of Poland were granted full suffrage rights without a dispute when the new government was created. Aside from the granting of equal suffrage, the Polish legislation in the domain of labor rights has shown progressive tendencies. The eight-hour day has been definitely established; workman's compensation in case of accident is a law; child labor legislation is stringent. Special legislation provides for a maternity bonus three weeks before and after childbirth. Old age pensions are now being discussed.

Peace Is Essential. "What we need more than anything else is peace," Captain Kaden-Bankowski said. "We know well that we are in need of organization, resumption of trade relations, stabilization of our exchange; we know that our government mechanism does not function properly. But we are doing our best in the face of great difficulties. We are obliged to work on two fronts: a peace front and a war front. We dare not shut our eyes to the danger from the East and concentrate on constructive work alone, and so long as that danger exists we cannot hope to rebuild our country rapidly."

"The Polish slogan is at present, 'Peace and Work.' It is my great hope that we may put it into practice in the near future."

The train from McAdam brought in a large number of passengers last night, among whom were about fifty students from the Provincial Normal School and from the U. N. B. who arrived in the city to spend their Easter holidays here. Dr. L. M. Curren, M. P. P. also arrived here from Fredericton last night.

Semi-ready Tailored Suits and Overcoats Are Lower in Price This Season

The Easter Fashion Display of new models for Spring and Summer are now on view at the Semi-ready store.

The makers have anticipated lower prices and have written off $100,000 from their stock of cloth on hand. They have taken a direct loss and distributed it among their customers by giving lower price labels in the pocket of each garment.

Semi-ready Spring Top Coats are shown in a great variety of style and pattern.
