MYSTERY ABOUT FUEL SHORTAGE

Scott's Men Do Not Want To Talk About It

Was Some One Careless? — Lieutenant Evans Speaks Freely on Other Features of Antarctic Tragedy, But of This Says Better Let Alone

SCOTT'S CREW

paper to deal with, and added: "I think you had better not touch upon it."

The correspondent urged its importance. Captain Scott had mentioned it as a contributory cause to the failure of the party to get back to One Ton Depot. Lieutenant Evans admitted that this was true, and repeated his previous statement that the Scott party had fuel enough for a month beyond the time in which they were expected to return.

"Then the suggestion," said the correspondent, "that they ought to have been independent of the supplies at the depot." "Yes, that is so," said Lieutenant Evans, adding that the four who returned after the supporting party hardly one day's fuel.

The correspondent asked: "Then to what shortage did Capt. Scott refer?" "Lieutenant Evans replied: "I do not want to discuss that point further." He merely expressed the opinion that it was not necessary to deal with this subject at present.

The correspondent was asked to question Surgeon Atkinson, who led the party that discovered the bodies of Captain Scott and Lieutenant Evans, that he would check the conversation if he thought the question was attached to a meteorological end of the expedition, broke in and expressed the opinion that it was highly undesirable to enter into details, some of which might hurt people's feelings, and of others which were merely pandering to the morbid tastes of a section of the public to publish things which had better not be published.

Lieutenant Evans agreed with this, and Surgeon Atkinson consequently said nothing.

Some One's Carelessness? The correspondent asked: "The impression I received from the conversation is that explanation will be made, but I am not yet in a position to say that the shortage was caused by anybody's carelessness, though that seems to be implied by Captain Scott's words."

The correspondent concluded: "Great surprise is expressed here at Captain Scott's reference to Seaman Evans. He accompanied Scott on his first attempt to reach the pole a decade ago. The leader then praised him highly. There was no word of commendation on this occasion."

Lieutenant Evans said that Capt. Scott and his comrades covered 1,842 miles in their journey to the pole and back. The diaries of all of the members of the Scott party are intact and will be sent to their relatives. Lieutenant Evans and others will compile Captain Scott's book on his discovery of the pole, and the experiences of his party. The wife of Petty Officer Edgar Evans who, although a substitute in the navy, entered as a seaman in the Antarctic expedition, received a letter from Captain Smith since the expedition started, in which he gave hearty praise to her husband to whom he referred as "my old friend who has done so well on this expedition that he deserved all I can do for him."

TORN BY A LION. Tampa, Fla., Feb. 13.—While participating in a moving picture company's presentation of a Roman coliseum scene here, Jack Bonavita, an animal trainer, was attacked by a lion, a forest-bred lion, and was in a hospital in a precarious condition. The flesh between the hip and knee on the right leg was lacerated. Bonavita lost an arm several years ago, when the lion Baltimore attacked him.

YARMOUTH MAN CUT IN TWO BY TRAIN ON HIS WAY TO WORK

(Special to Times) Yarmouth, N. S., Feb. 13.—A shocking accident occurred here before seven o'clock this morning, when George Hodgson was run over and practically cut in two by the H. & S. W. train. Mr. Hodgson, who lived with his father-in-law, Thomas W. Water street, between the H. & S. W. yards and the station, left the house at about twenty minutes to seven to go to work. Just as he came out of the house, which is just a few feet from the track, the morning train was being backed up from the yards to the station. It could get across the track in time, hurried and either tripped or slipped on the ice and fell under the rear car.

NOVA SCOTIA STRONG IN WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

Speech From Throne Promises Advanced Legislation for the Session

(Special to Times) Halifax, N. S., Feb. 13.—The provincial legislature was opened this afternoon, the usual salute from the citadel heralding the fact. In the speech from the throne reference was made to the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, the increase in output and sales of the coal mining industry, the record of progress made during the year in construction of smaller bridges and centers of durable material, and it was said that legislation would be introduced for the purpose of financially assisting and facilitating the construction of rural telephone lines, providing for extension of hospitals suitable for treatment of advanced cases of tuberculosis, for the appointment of a trained medical examiner to visit the coal mining industry, for a system of grants to clinics and nurses.

MORE SERIOUS IN MEXICO

Fighting Resumed Today—Uncle Sam Watching The Situation Closely

(Canadian Press) Mexico City, Feb. 13.—Heavy fighting was expected to occur early today between the rebels and the federal forces in the center of the city. At six o'clock, movements of troops were observed both in the rebel and federal portions. There was a scattered fire throughout the night, and a sharp exchange of cannon shots a little after one o'clock, but this lasted only a few moments.

The government forces were strongly reinforced in the night hours, and the federal commander declared this morning that he disposed of almost 7,000 men. The rebels on the other hand, were said to number approximately only 3,000.

Some heavy guns were brought up by the rebels before dawn and posted in readiness for the expected action. The federal commander declared that he believed the rebels would win the battle in a short time, and claimed an enormous advantage both in the position and strength of his troops.

Mexico City, Feb. 13.—The fighting continued all yesterday in the streets of the city. Contrary to the rules which were far as many non-combatants were fired upon, and in some cases death ensued. An armistice was arranged and envoy, D. E. Hammer, while carrying a message from the diplomatic mission to the rebel leader, Diaz, was shot by accident.

Two American ladies were killed while preparing dinner in their home, and many houses were badly damaged by bursting shells.

The diplomats, representing various nations, demanded that the firing should be limited, but the demand accomplished nothing. Both Madero and Diaz were responsible, each placing the blame on the other, and characterizing the attitude of the opposing side as barbarous and in violation of the rules of civilized warfare. Diaz insisted that he had to direct his fire at the points from which he was attacked, and said that the government forces were located in the heart of the business section and the thickly settled residential districts.

To President Madero the diplomats said they had come to protest, in behalf of their governments, against a continuation of the barbarous and inhuman warfare. They recited the great damage done to many residences, and the fact that the American consulate had been demolished by government shells, and said that the American embassy was filled with Mexicans driven from their homes by a bombardment of which no notice had been given. All the governments, they added, were deeply concerned for their subjects and citizens.

Ambassador Wilson, later, speaking for the United States, said that President Madero had attempted to place the responsibility on Diaz. The president had given some glowing accounts of the measures which were to be taken, and expressed the belief that the rebellion would be quelled by last night. Ambassador Wilson declared that Madero's words had not made a favorable impression on the diplomatic representatives.

London, Feb. 13.—Several of the London morning papers print editorial comment on the Mexican trouble. They generally recognize the justification for American intervention.

The Daily Mail says: "American interests are very great. If the Mexicans are wise they will settle their differences as speedily as possible."

The Standard says: "Nobody would entertain only by the opportune arrival of the police, who had been hurriedly summoned. Hostilities were resumed after the meeting was over, and a window in Mrs. Pankhurst's automobile was smashed. The women were roughly handled by the crowd, who fought the police in their endeavor to get revenge for the damage to their mail."

MRS. PANKHURST AND FOLLOWERS ROUGHLY HANDLED

London, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, militant suffragette leader, and some other women were mobbed at Croydon, when they were returning from a meeting last night, by a crowd whose mail had been damaged by the suffragettes when they poured acids and paint into the pillars of the suffragettes were staved from rough treatment only by the opportune arrival of the police, who had been hurriedly summoned. Hostilities were resumed after the meeting was over, and a window in Mrs. Pankhurst's automobile was smashed. The women were roughly handled by the crowd, who fought the police in their endeavor to get revenge for the damage to their mail.

FEAR GREAT STROKE FRIDAY

Likely 34,000 Railway Firemen Will Go Out TODAY MAY DECIDE IT

Fifty Four Reads Involved and They and Men Refuse to Concede a Single Point and Peacemakers so Far Fail

(Canadian Press) New York, Feb. 13.—Unless some middle ground of agreement is reached today or tomorrow by the fifty four eastern railroads and their 34,000 firemen, it is considered likely that a strike will be called on Friday night, effective forty-eight hours thereafter.

This was the consensus of opinion today among those following the conference, so far futile, through which Judge Martin A. Knapp of the United States Commerce court has been trying to bring the two sides together. Each has refused to concede a single point, however, and if no understanding is reached today, President Wilson has been trying to bring the two sides together. Each has refused to concede a single point, however, and if no understanding is reached today, President Wilson has been trying to bring the two sides together.

It is said that the union has in its treasury been back with all his men safe and sound, but the treacherous enemy which defeated him was surely scurvy, of which he had no suspicion, and therefore could not take it into his calculations. When it was stated that Petty Officer Evans was a great hand at scurvy, it was not surprising that he had been anything but scurvy, and for several days they had to take him with them, until at last he died from consumption of the brain, which was a weak man suffering from scurvy might easily get when descending a glacier.

"Then Captain Scott's illness must surely have been scurvy also. Frost-bitten hands and feet are just what scurvy patients are so liable to, because the circulation is impaired, and it is not probable, either, that Captain Scott and the others were suffering from incipient scurvy and their physical powers thus reduced without they themselves being aware of it. This appears to have been the real enemy, but one which Scott could not know of, and one, moreover, which has been reported as combating after having once left winter quarters."

Seven Hedin, a famous traveler and author, sends the following fine epitaph to Captain Scott to "The Geographical Survey": "As brilliant as the aurora borealis, the immortal glory rises around the name of the greatest Antarctic explorer of all times. He has reached his goal. He has sacrificed his life. He has honored his country."

GUARD AGAINST SPYING IN AIR

British Government Putting Through Bill re Foreign Airships

London, Feb. 13.—The British parliament is rushing through an aerial navigation bill which will expose any foreign airship traveling over England to the risk of being fired upon under certain specified conditions, although the statute was may not exist between this country and that which the airship has flown.

Colonel Seely, minister of war, introduced the bill. It prohibits the passage of aircraft over certain areas, or if the government deems it necessary over the whole coast of the United Kingdom and adjacent territorial waters. If any aerial vessel infringes this law, proper officers shall be entitled, after giving a warning signal, to fire at or into any such aircraft and use any and every means to prevent an infringement of the law.

BOY OF TWELVE A SUICIDE

Portland, Me., Feb. 13.—The body of Clarence M. Cady, 12-year-old son of Capt. George P. Cady, 7th Federal, was found hanging in the porch by a rope taken from his sled. It is believed he had lost money given him to make a purchase and took to heart some trivial criticism of a similar occurrence recently.

NANSEN THINKS SCURVEY CAUSE

Arctic Explorer's View On Death of Scott's Men

(Canadian Press) New York, Feb. 13.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: Doctor Nansen suggests that Captain Scott and his party were attacked by scurvy. He says: "I believe Scott's calculations were correct and, had he only adverse weather to contend with, could have been back with all his men safe and sound, but the treacherous enemy which defeated him was surely scurvy, of which he had no suspicion, and therefore could not take it into his calculations. When it was stated that Petty Officer Evans was a great hand at scurvy, it was not surprising that he had been anything but scurvy, and for several days they had to take him with them, until at last he died from consumption of the brain, which was a weak man suffering from scurvy might easily get when descending a glacier."

FEAR ATTEMPTS TO POISON NEW YORK POLICE CAPTAIN

New York, Feb. 13.—Reports that attempts upon the life of Police Captain Thomas Walsh were feared because of his confession to police graft involving others, were substantiated by admissions from Walsh's physician today that his patient's food was being very carefully examined before he was permitted to eat it.

"Do you mean you are afraid that Walsh's enemies might attempt to poison the food?" he was asked. "I can only say that his food is examined. We are not going to take any chances," was the doctor's reply.

The district attorney is also taking no chances either on the rather serious state of Walsh's health or on the risk of taking Walsh to the court house. Accordingly it was arranged today for the grand jury meeting, numbering eighteen, to visit Walsh at his Madison avenue home, and to hold a formal session at the bedside of the sick policeman.

NEW MATERIAL FOR MAKING OF PAPER

New York, Feb. 13.—A London cable says: A new material for the production of paper was suggested at the Royal Society of Arts last night. It was said that a plant named dyeholm coronarium, which is a native of India, were cultivated over vast tropical or semi-tropical spaces, mankind should have no need to cut down the forests and make them into paper.

The forests, it was said, could go on fulfilling their natural purpose and newspapers could be printed on the substance which looked just like what is now called paper.

MARINE NOTES. C M Kerrison reports the schooner Laura M Lunt and Luella loading lumber, the former for New York, the other for Boston.

The schooner Pesequid, C M Kerrison, has been laid up. The schooner Walter Miller, C M Kerrison, has been laid up at St. Martins. Two days behind her schedule the Pickford and Black steamer Oromo reached Halifax from the British West Indies and Demerara with passengers and cargo. On board were the shipwrecked crew of the LaHave schooner Muel M Richard, which sprung a leak and foundered last month off Dog Island, near St. Kitts. She was then hoisted home from St. Martins with salt.

The names of the men are: Captain Harwood C Richard, Daniel E Wilkie, Stanage Corcum, William Publicover, William Hirtle, Angus Himmelman and Amos Richardson.

Captain Bale said that he had had the roughest passage this trip that he had ever experienced for many years. From Saturday until Monday there were heavy north-west gales, and the ship could make but little headway, taking five and a half days from Bermuda, a run she usually does in four. Monday morning was the worst period on the voyage and the ship battled with heavy seas and snow squalls and a dense vapor.

In an interview with the Montreal Star on Tuesday, G. M. Bosworth, vice-president of the C. P. R., said that a fine new steamer for the St. John-Digby route was now being constructed and would be ready for service in the early summer. It would have a speed of 22 knots and would make the trip in two hours, cutting off about

SUFFRAGETTE PILGRIMS ON HIKE TO WASHINGTON

Suffragette, led by "Gen." Rosalie Jones, are on their "pilgrimage" to Washington from New York to take part in a great suffrage demonstration the day before the presidential inauguration.

Their dress and the staffs they carry are in imitation of those used by the old "pilgrims" on their long journeys to the Holy Land in the middle ages. The cloaks are rain-proof, and have capes which can be raised to cover the head in bad weather. Inside the cloaks are big pockets to carry provisions and personal luggage.

There was a large attendance and the Artillery Band rendered a fine programme. This evening the Sons of England Band will play. The door prize was won by Mrs. E. S. Robertson with ticket 208. The other prize winners were as follows: Hoopla, E. Carlson; bean board, Ralph Coleman; howling alley, K. Robertson; plate game, R. Coleman.

AT THE Y. M. C. A. The monthly meeting of the Physical Education committee of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night. F. A. Dykeman presided. The new uniforms for the basketball team were approved, and the instructor was authorized to have two bubble drinking fountains installed in the gymnasium. A second course in night school work will be commenced this evening in the Y. M. C. A. Some new students will also be entering.

HARBOR MATTERS. The city commissioners were in conference yesterday afternoon regarding the obsolescence of the pier to Ottawa by the mayor and Commissioner Schofield. The matters to be taken up with the federal government include the city's requests to complete at least one more steamship berth before next season, to provide more room at the base of the new wharves in Courthouse Bay; to extend the length of the new wharves at West St. John from 720 to 1,000 or 1,200 feet, and to provide a floating crane for handling heavy cargo in the harbor.

It was at a charity dinner. A careless waiter split a plate of soup over one of the elegants present.

"What?" he began. Then, remembering himself, he turned to his neighbors and asked:—"Will some layman kindly say a few words appropriate to the occasion?"

Did You Ever Count Your Own Heart-Beat?

The Heart "thumps" when you run hard, It "flutters" from excitement and emotion. Tea and Coffee-drinking makes it do both!

Many a person carries a very fine watch and is mighty careful that no harm comes to his timepiece. It ticks 120 times each minute, and he winds it once a day. His heart (wound up for a lifetime) beats about 72 times each minute, but he gives it little or no attention until Nature forces the fact home that it is working too fast or too slow. If the watch ticked faster it would run down more quickly. How about the heart? Thousands "whip" their hearts into unnatural action by the use of tea and coffee. A cup of tea or coffee contains from 1 1/2 to 3 grains of caffeine, a poisonous drug. Its effects are subtle, but sure. A pretty good way to find out whether tea and coffee are harming YOU is to POLICEMEN OF EDMONTON AGAINST PENSION SCHEME Edmonton, Alta., Feb. 13.—Silas H. Gaspenter, chief of the police department, announces that the policemen of Edmonton do not favor the establishment of a pension fund, toward which the municipality recently made a grant of $10,000.

The chief objection, it appears, is that too large amounts will have to be deducted from the monthly pay checks and, considered from the force more than seven years, the old age pension scheme would not be as acceptable as in older cities, where most members of the department have been on the force for a long term of years. Chief Carpenter, who favors the plan, probably will work out another idea in an effort to provide pensions for the men.

"Mustn't do that! What has he done? ejaculated the enraged negro. "If you want to know, he's been and he's de chik en hou's do' open, an' all dim chickens go out."

"Well, that is not so serious," said the gentleman, soothingly, "chickens always come home to roost."

"Come home?" started the woman. "Jam chickens will all go home!"

THROAT WAS SO SORE COULD HARDLY SPEAK

Mr. Gordon Murphy, Elliott's Mills, P.E.I., writes:—"Too much praise cannot be given your valuable remedy, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I suffered terribly from a severe cold during the early part of last winter and found it almost impossible to get anything to relieve me. Hoarseness seemed to be continually troubling me, and my throat was so sore I could hardly speak for a long time. At last I was advised to try your remedy, and in a short time I got relief, and have never been troubled with a sore throat or hoarseness since. I hope others will be fortunate enough to give your remedy a trial and be convinced that it is all easy to be."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is without an equal for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis and all Affections of the Throat and Lungs.

Tells 2,000 Admirers at New York Dinner That the "Progressive Party Has Come to Stay"

New York, Feb. 12—Former President Roosevelt made his first public appearance in the councils of the Progressive party for many weeks tonight to say that, so far as he was concerned, there would be no compromise, no amalgamation, no yielding in the fight for the party.

Many of the conspicuous figures in the Progressive campaign last fall gathered for the Lincoln day dinner of the National Progressive party. The 2,000 seats at the table were all taken, many of them by women, and hundreds of spectators filled the balcony overlooking the ball room in which the dinner was held.

THE KAISER AS A FARMER

Berlin, Feb. 12—Emperor William gave a most interesting account of his experiences as a farmer in an informal speech delivered today before the German Agricultural Council. He went into details in regard to the improvements he had made on his estate at Kadmen. Since 1907 he had increased the arable land there from 500 to 822 acres, besides reclaiming 306 acres of meadow land which previously had produced practically nothing. It gave 225 tons of hay besides pasturing seventy eighty head of cattle in 1910. In 1911 it yielded 450 tons of hay and pastured 120 cattle and ninety horses. The emperor further explained that he hoped to develop a faster breed of oxen "which will get home the harvest wagon in quicker time than the kinds now used. I have doubt, however, whether I shall be able successfully to challenge the imperial stud farm at Trakhenen to a race with zebras calves."

MR. AGAR GETS LINE ON IMPROVEMENTS IN OTHER CITIES

Information as to Permanent Pavements and Sidewalks and Payment by The People

The more he learns of the systems in use in other cities the more Commissioner Agar has become convinced that the property owners in St. John have escaped very easily with regard to the cost of permanent pavements and sidewalks. The plan of requiring the owners of the property benefited by new work of this kind to pay their share of the cost seems to be in general use and in some places the city contributes less than St. John would under the local improvement act.

In Hartford, Conn., for instance, the city may proceed with permanent pavement work which the council deems desirable, but it is necessary that a petition be filed by the property holders. If the street is one in which the street cars run the company is required to pay for the pavement between the tracks and for two feet on each side. Of the remainder, the city pays one-third the cost leaving the balance to be paid for by the owners of property fronting on the street. Even the use of the watering carts and the oil wagons for laying the dust is regarded as an extra luxury, to be paid for as such. When the residents of a street wish this service they must petition the council for it and consent to pay the full cost of the work.

In Halifax a petition from property owners is necessary for the undertaking of street work to which the residents will be required to contribute. There is no law governing the number or proportion of the property owners who must sign the petition but it is customary to require a majority of lineal frontage. When the work is done the cost is shared equally by the city and the property owners. This applies to both the street pavements and sidewalks and the assessment may be made to cover the cost of recovering a street as well as the original cost.

Mr. Agar says that, while the property owners pay one-half of the cost, this is divided between the residents on each side of the street so that the individual is called upon to pay only a quarter of the cost of the work which is done in front of his property. The arrangement for spreading the payments over a term of ten years, with interest at four per cent, makes the payments easy. If the owners do not contribute in this way the council is authorized to pay the bills unless, as can be done, the tax valuation of each property is increased according to the value of the improvement and revenue to pay for the work is secured in this way.

MR. FINLAYSON COVERS GOOD DEAL OF GROUND

Is Responsible for the Hatcheries - Good Results at Hampton

The shad hatchery which was established last year at Hampton by the federal government has proved very successful, according to Alex. Finlayson, of Ottawa, inspector of hatcheries, who arrived in the city today. Mr. Finlayson said that the Hampton plant had made an excellent showing for the first year.

He will leave tomorrow morning to inspect a hatchery at Middleton, N. S., also established last year and from there will continue around the maritime provinces. He is responsible for all the hatcheries of the dominion, and the territory which he covers extends from the Skeena River, in western British Columbia, to the Magdalen Islands.

In reply to a question regarding plans for additional hatcheries in this district, Mr. Finlayson said that there was nothing which he could divulge at present.

DAMAGE TO BEAVER MAY BE GREATER THAN FIRST THOUGHT

The work of appraising the damage to the dredge Beaver was begun this morning, and the appraisers expect to complete their work in a day or so. It is believed that the damage will amount to considerably more than has been estimated, as it was found on examination that some of the heavy beams which hold the machinery, had been burned and that the machinery was damaged to a certain extent.

LUMBERMEN WANT SNOW

Councillor F. N. Cochrane, of St. Martins, arrived in the city yesterday. A Times reporter this morning, Mr. Cochrane said that judging from the present state of affairs the lumber men in the vicinity of St. Martins were going to have a very poor season, on account of the long stretch of mild weather and absence of snow in the woods. He said that at the present time there was a little snow at St. Martins, but practically nothing to speak of, and that unless there were heavy falls of snow in the very near future there would be a lot of lumber hanging up in the woods. Mr. Cochrane will leave tomorrow for Grand Manan.

A prominent lumberman who operates along the Tobique and through other upper parts of the province, was in the city today, and gave a different report concerning lumbering operations than what has been told by some others who have been here within the last few weeks. He said that conditions were up to the standard of other years as regards the cut, and varying in an advanced stage. There had been plenty of snow in the sections in which he operated, and although there might be a scarcity of this necessity elsewhere through the province, the lumbering about the Tobique would be up to the average and the cut about what had been hoped for last fall.

PLANS ARE APPROVED
