FEDERATION OF EMPLOYES ON THE I.C.R.

Matter is Taken up at Meeting of Brotherhoods in Moncton

DECISION LATER

Committee Will Look Into The Matter - Restaurant Man is Twice Arrested in One Evening in Connection With Scott Act

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 11.—(Special)—A joint meeting of the I. C. R. brotherhoods, including the machinists, boiler makers, blacksmiths, and carmen, last night, discussed the question of a federation, the subject being in vogue on the C. P. R. was discussed. L. Benoit, second vice-president of the I. A. Machinists, W. G. Powell, fifth vice-president, International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, N. Canada fifth vice-president, International Association of Boiler Makers, were present in the interest of the federation movement. A committee was appointed to consider the matter and report later.

A large assembly was held last night under auspices of the ladies' auxiliary of the A. O. H. Daniel Madden, proprietor of a restaurant, was arrested twice last evening in connection with the Scott Act. He was first arrested on commitment for an old fine of $50 and paid up. Soon after he was again arrested on a warrant charging him with Scott Act violation, and gave bail for appearance in court today.

Nov. E. P. Wallace, of Halifax, C. J. Morrissey, of Newcastle, G. L. Murphy and G. Francis, of Sydney, are here in connection with the A. O. H. Scholastic ships in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Hislop Casey is expected to arrive here this evening to hold confirmation service in St. Bernard's church on Saturday morning.

THROUGH HARD EXPERIENCE IN THE FROZEN NORTH

Hardships Endured in Mapping the Wilds of Arctic Canada—Skins and Snowshoes Thought for Food

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—Forced by lack of heavy food to subsist at different periods on skins and snowshoes, D. E. Stefansson representing the American Museum of Natural History, and Dr. H. H. Crippen, Geological Survey in some Arctic explorations, was returned to extremities last winter on Cape Lyons, one of the most northern points in Canada.

R. W. Brock director of the Geological Survey has received a letter, written on April 26 last by Dr. Stefansson. The message had to be carried several hundred miles by Eskimos on snowshoes from Cape Lyons to an eastern point in Alaska.

Once on board a "whaler" it was safe and sound and looked as bright as a newly-minted coin when Mr. Brock received it. Mr. Stefansson, who is a native of Winnipeg, had with him Lt. Anderson of the American army and five Eskimos. The party had many difficulties, and extreme privations to encounter during the winter. In his letter the writer tells of times when they had practically no food except skins and snowshoes thought for food.

For three weeks steadily they lived on a diet of deerkin, the Eskimos during that time eating up all the zoological specimens collected by the scientists of the party. Through, however, they were able to retain their records and instruments. Lt. Anderson and two of the Eskimos of the north had pneumonia, and ten dogs died from the rigorous conditions.

At the time Dr. Stefansson wrote, the party was about to start for Coronation Gulf about 200 miles east of Cape Lyons. There, he reported, no further fear of a shortage in the food supply as game was plentiful. The one difficulty still confronting the explorers was the great lack of dogs, which make travel across northernmost Canada, exceedingly difficult.

Mr. Stefansson who is mapping out the roof of Canada, sent down some of his geographical results after three and a half years spent in ice-bound regions, with the auroras, and the midnight sun, he expects to return in the fall of next year. The coming winter will be spent in the vicinity of Coronation Gulf.

CLOSING OF A NOTED CASE THIS MONTH

Dispute Over Taxation of C. P. R. Lands in Western Provinces

Claims of Alberta and Saskatchewan Opposed by the Railway Corporation and Privy Council Will Settle the Matter

Montreal, Nov. 11.—The famous tax case of Alberta and Saskatchewan against the C. P. R. will be given its final hearing before the Privy Council in London on November 22. This is the appeal of the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan from the protracted litigation regarding the taxation of C. P. R. lands in the far west. The new provinces ask that the Canadian Pacific should be held liable for taxes on its lands within their limits from the time that it was possible for the company to have secured the possession of the lands, practically from the time that the road was completed, less the twenty years' exemption.

The contention of the Canadian Pacific is that it is entitled to exemption on these lands for twenty years from the original crown grant, or the date when they assumed title of the land. This matter has been fought out in the Canadian courts for many years, with a vigor worthy of the millions of dollars it involves. It started before the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta came into existence, and was decided in favor of the company by the Supreme Court of Canada, as well as by the lower courts.

Now, however, the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan have joined in the struggle, and have secured leave to appeal their claims to the Privy Council for a final hearing of the case. The new provinces ask that the date of the twenty-year exemption from taxation should start from the time practically when the road was completed. The company claims that the date the ownership was taken over, and many of the lands in question were only formally assumed by the C. P. R. within the last few years.

A. R. Creelman, K. C., chief counsel for the C. P. R., will leave by the Victoria for this argument, and will be assisted by John E. Ewart and J. Stewart Clapperton, K. C., and Mr. Dinkworth, K. C., counsel.

The provinces will be represented by Deputy Attorney General Henry Woodcock, of Saskatchewan, and Sir Edward Carson, K. C., and Mr. Dinkworth, K. C., counsel.

FIRM'S EMPLOYEES NEARLY SEVENTY THOUSAND HANDS

Statistics of Great Business of the Krupps Just Published

Berlin, Nov. 11.—In view of the numerous references that have been made in the past few days to the rapid expansion of the celebrated engineering works of Messrs. Krupp, statistics just published are of considerable interest. It appears that on July 1, no fewer than 68,726 officials, clerks and workmen were employed by the firm. As will be readily seen, these officials, together with their families, constitute the population of a large town.

Of this total number, 37,761 were employed in the steel foundry and the gun testing grounds, alone. Coal and coke to the amount of 2,400,000 tons was consumed during the year, while the number of steam engines employed was 500, developing a horsepower of 89,430. In addition to its own plant for the production of electricity, the firm possesses its own gas-producing plant, which turned out a supply of 1,467,200 cubic metres of gas. The railway forms an important feature in all large manufacturing works, and in the case of Messrs. Krupp, there are 87 miles of railway, 22 locomotives and 2,306 wagons in use.

WILD SCENES OF RIOT IN STRIKE IN WALES

Cardiff, Wales, Nov. 11.—Wild scenes were enacted on Tuesday night in the colliery districts where 30,000 miners are on strike. Bands of youths, supported by women, stormed the colliery buildings and looted the stores in several towns, scattering the goods in the streets. The police, who were largely reinforced during the day, attacked the mobs with their batons, and the rioters replied with showers of stones.

More than one hundred men were treated at the local hospitals for scalp wounds. A number of the police also were injured, but they succeeded in getting the upper hand. Police reserves and troops arrived quickly at the scene of the greatest disturbances and were posted in the storm centres.

MILLIONS IN GOLD

Seattle, Wn., Nov. 11.—More than ten million dollars worth of gold has been received by the U. S. Assay office here since the first of the year. The amount from Alaska and British America is given as $10,907,621. Of this amount, $3,300,169 came from Alaska, $1,696,236 from British Columbia, and $5,971,216 from the Yukon Territory. Other sources in Canada contributed $66,004.

HOPPE AND SLOSSEN

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 11.—Willie Hoppe, the Billiard expert, accepted the challenge of George Slossen and will meet Slossen in Madison Square Garden, New York, on December 2, at 18 1/2 balls for the championship of the world.

Under the Minute Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Harris Hanish, driving an Apollon car yesterday, broke the world's record for a mile circuit track with a stock car, his time was 56.14.

ELECTIONS UNLIKELY BEFORE THE NEW YEAR

DEPEW HAPPY AS HE ENDS LONG POLITICAL CAREER

Senator Depew

New York, Nov. 10.—Apparently untroubled by the fact that his career in the United States had come to an end, Senator Chauncey M. Depew sat in his library today and talked of his 64 years of public life that practically ended on election night, when a Democratic legislature was elected.

"I am the happiest man in the state of New York," he said. "I am seventy-seven years of age, I have been fifty-four years actively in politics, and I think I can say that my ambitions have been reasonably satisfied. During the past campaign, I made some times two speeches a night, once talking for an hour in the rain, and the next morning my voice was in as good condition as ever. My health is good and my desire of years, to be happy myself and share that happiness with others, has been fairly well satisfied by the C. P. R. I was fairly certain that the Republic would be defeated, for the change in the vote that elected Roosevelt in Massachusetts, in New York and Platteau in Maine was so nearly the same that there was no doubt that the country was in a state of transition."

The new order has been announced by the Royal College of Surgeons, Edmund Boyd and O. T. Dinnick, of Toronto.

Archdeacon Madden in the course of an interview in regard to his visit to Canada, said that many women on the home-stead farms in the far west, suffered from melancholia, through loneliness on the great prairie farms. The passion for property was crawling out of the hearts of the self-fashioned Canadians, through the influx of Americans to Winnipeg and other progressive cities in the west, was inoculating the faith and worship of the almighty dollar. What was the one subject on their tongues.

NOVA SCOTIA BOOMS IMMIGRATION

Passengers on the S. S. Virginia for Canada are Dr. Hattie of Halifax and A. S. Barnstead, secretary of the Immigration and Customs of Nova Scotia. The latter, during his stay, here prepared the ground for an extensive propaganda in the interests of Nova Scotia.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT WILL OPEN NATIONAL FAIR IN GLASGOW

Glasgow, Nov. 11.—The greatest satisfaction has been caused by the announcement that His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, who on Nov. 4 opened the first anniversary of the Union of South Africa on behalf of the king, has consented to open the Scottish national exhibition which is to be held in Kelvingrove park next year.

Every effort is being made to insure the success of the exhibition and, as has already been mentioned in these columns, the Duke of Connaught, who will be the first that has ever been held in Scotland. The date of the opening ceremony will be advertised Great Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa combining in a common fleet, particular attention being paid to the Pacific Ocean.

Captain Hamilton said that Canada might easily increase her military strength by the enlistment of the public and high school boys. He thought there should be more professional soldiers in Canada, men to give instructions on military matters.

FEARFUL TOLL OF FIRE FIEND IN CANADA

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Since January 1, 1909, 770 persons have lost their lives in fires in Canada. In addition nearly $7,000,000 worth of property has been burned.

These appalling figures are gathered from the Monetary Times' carefully compiled fire register. At the present rate the monetary loss for the two years, 1909 and 1910 will be about $40,000,000 and the number of lives sacrificed is likely to be in excess of 400.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

MR. BINKS' PROBLEM. Mr. Peter Binks has been trying to figure out how much of the old water pipe in the city could have been replaced by new, if all the money spent in hunting for leaks and repairing them on this report were to be applied to the new main, and is disposed to argue that if the city had made a job of the new main in the first place, so that there would be no leaks, all the old pipe in the city could have been renewed by the money now wasted on repairs that should not have been needed for forty or fifty years.

When Mr. Binks gets fairly started on this subject he becomes considerably excited, but of course he has old fashioned ideas and wants to see some return for his taxes.

Another thing that puzzles Mr. Binks is the startling fact that an 80,000 gallon leak has on a system whose capacity is supposed to be 14,000,000 gallons. He says an 80,000 gallon leak would only fill a three inch pipe at a rate of about two miles an hour.

"I wish I was an engineer," said Mr. Binks this morning. "There's a lot I don't understand about this thing. The more I study it the more I feel that the Leak of 1883 wasn't a trickle compared with this one."

British Contest However Will Probably Be On In January

Asquith Authorizes Statement of Veto Conference Failure—Jamaica and the Canadian Trade

Mayor Nathan of Rome Criticizes the Montreal Aldermen—The Melancholy Life of Woman on Western Prairies

London, Nov. 11.—Hon. Mr. Asquith authorized the statement that the veto conference ended without coming to an agreement. The general opinion is for an improvement, but it is believed that an election in December is most unlikely. Certain liberals seem inclined to think the fight in December would be best for them as they believe the conservatives are demoralized. Another view is that the government should first introduce proposals for dealing with the unemployment bill, for home rule and to subsidize a direct service to Canada. He holds that the most economical avenue to and from Canadian markets, will be found through American ports.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 11.—The decision of the governor with regard to reciprocity with Canada is generally endorsed here, not because of his free trade attitude, but because reciprocity is not likely to improve trade. Although the governor is not unlikely to subsidize a direct service to Canada, he holds that the most economical avenue to and from Canadian markets, will be found through American ports.

Mayor Nathan and Montreal. Mayor Nathan, in reference to the vote passed in Montreal, says he is convinced that the vote of censure was provoked by the conduct of the common council exceptional and contrary to international custom; that the council needed their civic duties as they had no right to censure a foreign, independent, international body; that the council's action was a violation of the law of nations; that the council's action was a violation of the law of nations; that the council's action was a violation of the law of nations.

In the course of a letter to the mayor of Montreal, Mayor Nathan says that Montreal and its common council stand alone in overstepping the bounds of their civic mission and in boldly bestowing their praise or blame, without regard to international law or international custom, upon municipalities which are not subject to their jurisdiction.

PRACTICAL SCHOOL WORK IN THE WEST

Regina Pupils are Taken Through Factories to See How Things Are Done

Regina, Nov. 11.—The school authorities, with the object of familiarizing the pupils with the practical application of technical and scientific knowledge, have inaugurated a new departure in planning a series of visits to the various industries operating in the city.

The first party has begun with the visit of a number of school pupils to the flour and soap factories. They were shown the whole process of manufacture from wheat to flour, and from flour to bread, the process being fully explained by those in charge, the same order being gone through with the manufacture of soap. It is intended to continue the series of visits to cover the various industries.

PRESENTATIONS

J. W. Ryan, late manager of the Union Bank of Halifax will leave soon to take charge of the Royal Bank in North York. An address was presented to him by the board of trade and an address and good wish by former Union Bank patrons.

London-Paris by 'Phone London, Nov. 11.—The two new telephone lines which are now in course of construction between London and Paris, will, it has been announced, be ready for use by the public at the end of November. Two more lines will also be opened during next spring.

With regard to the question of the reduction of the charge for telephoning messages between the two capitals, no alteration in the rate will be made for the present.

When Mr. Binks gets fairly started on this subject he becomes considerably excited, but of course he has old fashioned ideas and wants to see some return for his taxes.

Another thing that puzzles Mr. Binks is the startling fact that an 80,000 gallon leak has on a system whose capacity is supposed to be 14,000,000 gallons. He says an 80,000 gallon leak would only fill a three inch pipe at a rate of about two miles an hour.

"I wish I was an engineer," said Mr. Binks this morning. "There's a lot I don't understand about this thing. The more I study it the more I feel that the Leak of 1883 wasn't a trickle compared with this one."

ONE MORE STEP AND BIG STRIKE WILL BE ENDED

Looks Like Definite Closing of New York Express War

Tonight

Favorable Action by New Jersey Strikers Tonight is Looked For—The Terms of Settlement—Some 15,000 Men Involved

New York, Nov. 11.—Favorable action by the New Jersey section of striking express company employes on a settlement agreement arranged here yesterday, was all that was wanted today to bring the express strike to an end. The terms of settlement were endorsed early today by a meeting of express company men in Manhattan. The only conditions were that the Hudson river should endorse the agreement which they are expected to do at a meeting tonight, and that the companies construct the terms of the agreement with what the men consider "essential fairness." A final hitch seemed unlikely today and the men were expected to return to work on Monday.

The settlement provides that the express companies take back their striking employes without discrimination against men who belong to a union and that conferences begin at once between employes and companies looking to an agreement on wages per hour. The old rates of pay will prevail until December 1, when the new terms agreed upon shall take effect.

Besides making the settlement contingent upon the approval of the New Jersey strikers, the men's representatives insisted that need not take any men implicated in acts of violence during the strike be proved in court should be considered.

FORESTALLING CASES

Evidence in McDonald Matter—Double Tolls, Says His Honor

The case against John McDonald, sr., and Stanley Hopkins, charged with forestalling in the city market, were dealt with by Judge Ritchie this morning in the police court. Mr. Hopkins was not in court, although a summons had been issued for him, but his counsel, E. T. C. Knowles, asked that the case be postponed until Tuesday next at 10:30 o'clock. This was agreed to, and after evidence had been taken in the case against Mr. McDonald this was also laid over to the same date. Information will have to be laid in New York.

Mr. Dunham, clerk of the market, said that he saw Mr. McDonald buy a carcass of lamb from Bertram Lyons, and take it to a stand, where it was exposed for sale. Not long after he saw there were two quarters of it. This was before the elapse of the three hours necessary in the by-law regarding forestalling to be laid in court.

The witness said that Mr. McDonald was a stationer, and that he had a rack, and shifted when he pleased. Mr. Lyons paid for the privilege of selling, and Mr. McDonald did the same. Whereat His Honor remarked that double tolls were being exacted, and this meant that the consumer had to pay for both.

The defendant denied that he had sold the meat in the market and claimed that he had witnesses to prove this. He mentioned the name of Jas. Macaulay.

COMMERCIAL CABLE COMPANY TO CUT ITS TOLLS

New York, Nov. 11.—It is announced that the Commercial Cable Company has formulated a plan whereby the rate for commercial cables under certain conditions will be reduced from 25 to 12 1/2 cents a word, but until arrangements are made with European governments, which proportionate reduction over these lines, the new rates cannot be put into effect.

The reduced rate will apply to messages written in plain language, and the use of any code is prohibited. For counting purposes the total number of letters in a message will be considered instead of the division into words and the rate applied for every five letters.

A Ten Pound Lobster

Boston, Nov. 11.—A lobster weighing 10 pounds was brought to T. Wharf on the schooner Gladys and Nellie, Captain J. Hudson. It was caught on Tuesday off Chatham in 120 feet of water. The average weight of a lobster is 1 1/2 pounds. The schooner brought in a total of 35,000 pounds of miscellaneous fish.

TWO DIE IN FIRE IN NEW YORK

Thrilling Work of Firemen in Rescues from Apartment House

A FEARFUL DEATH

Wm. H. Abbott Plunges Five Stories—and is Impaled on Picket Fence—Wife Burns to Death—Girl Ablaze When Rescued

New York, Nov. 11.—Two persons were killed and four seriously injured today in a fire that destroyed two upper floors of the Roskill, an apartment house in Manhattan avenue, on the upper west side of the city. William H. Abbott, a real estate operator forty-five years old, jumped from a front window on the fifth floor and was impaled on a picket fence along the sidewalk below, dying instantly.

Mrs. William H. Abbott, his wife, forty years old, was burned to death in her apartment. Several injuries were sustained by three other occupants of the building and by one of the firemen engaged in putting out the blaze.

But for the heroic work of the fire fighters it is probable that many more persons would have lost their lives. The rear fire escapes on the upper floors were early cut off from access by the flames. By liberally studding the front walls of the structure with extension ladders, however, the firemen picked panic-stricken men, women and children out of the windows and passed them down to safety. Impelled tenants on lower floors jumped into a fire net spread over the sidewalk and all landed unhurt.

FLOODS AGAIN CAUSE DAMAGE IN FRANCE

The Seine on the Rampage and the Muerthe and Muselle Overflow

Paris, Nov. 11.—The river Seine is again on a rampage. The rapidity of its current today forced all the steamers to suspend operations. Prolonged rains in eastern France have swollen the affluents of the Seine and the steady rising of the river has caused numerous inundations. The suburbs of Paris in the vicinity of the river are already slightly flooded.

The river Moselle and its branches are over their banks, inundating many villages. Great damage has been done at Nancy where 1,000 persons have been driven from their homes. The valley of the River Moselle is flooded and many factories have been shut down.

ATTELL AND CONLEY TO FIGHT ON SUNDAY

New Orleans, Nov. 11.—Before the West Side Athletic Club on Sunday, Abbe Attell, featherweight champion, will meet Frankie Conley, the bantam weight title holder, in a fifteen round bout.

Although Conley will enter the ring close to the featherweight limit, and consented to fight Attell, he insisted on catch weights. While the champion is the favorite in the betting at odds of 8 to 1, bets are 100 to 1 on being placed on Conley's staying limit.

MANY LIVES LOST IN STORM IT THE CHANNEL

Boulogne-sur-Mer, France, Nov. 11.—Twenty-one persons were drowned in the wreck of two fishing vessels during a storm in the English Channel today. One craft with a coast steamer. Two other fishermen foundered, and it is expected their crews were lost. A boat with four customs agents is missing.

An unusually severe snow storm through out Germany is reported. Telegraph communication is seriously hampered.

"Medical Profession of the World Still Handicapped Before the Scourge of Infantile Paralysis"—It Strikes Quickly

Chicago, Nov. 11.—"The medical profession of the world is still handicapped before the scourge of infantile paralysis." This statement was made last night before the meeting of the Chicago Neurological Society by Dr. H. E. Robertson, assistant professor of pathology in the University of Minnesota.

"We are up against it," said Dr. Robertson, "we have not been able to cultivate the germs in laboratories. We can't even diagnose before the first certain symptom is the paralysis of the patient. The disease attacks the strongest and most active children," continued Dr. Robertson. "It is not confined to infants. Many victims are adults. The high fatality is caused by reaching the acute stage in three or four days. Up to that time the symptoms might indicate any infectious malady. There are no definite symptoms and the first warning the practitioner has is the paralysis of his patient."

Defends Mail Order Business

St. John West, Nov. 10, '10.
Editor Times:
Sir—I am greatly surprised by the violent measures suggested by C. D. Black for the elimination of the mail order houses from our country, as published in your paper on the 9th inst. Surely such suggestions are not the result of a "broad general business experience" which Mr. Black claims. If such is the case and St. John the scene of his experience I have only to suggest that we let St. John go where such a policy as he outlines would soon drive it to the eternal bow-wows. His statement that the mail order houses buy at probably 5 per cent lower than our local merchants is perhaps right, but he seems to overlook the fact that the mail order houses are manufacturers. I have in mind a concern of this type which originated in Toronto. At present this firm has a number of stores and is carrying on a manufacturing business in a number of cities. The company are doing by far the largest mail order business in Canada, and their manufacture more than 80 per cent of the goods shown in their catalogue.

Mr. Black states that these firms bait their patrons by a reduction in some staple article, but says nothing of the many bargains (3) sales held by our local merchants.

Cured Awful Ringworm

"Well over four years ago my two little girls were taken with a dreadful scalp trouble that the doctor called ringworm. They attended the hospital for a year, but I had to apply their ointment with a brush, giving the children frightful pain. I also had to have their heads shaved every two weeks but they got no better under the treatment. They used to cry with the tormenting itching, and their heads were covered with a thick scurf and dandruff.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

NO MAN DID ALL THIS
By Wendell Phillips

From a discourse on "Christianity, a Battle," in Horticultural hall, Boston, April 11, 1899.
IS Christianity an inspired faith or not? Shakespeare and Plato tower above the intellectual level of their times like the peaks of Teneriffe and Mont Blanc. We look at them and it seems impossible to measure the interval that separates them from the intellectual development around them. But if this Jewish boy, in that era of the world, in Palestine, with the Ganges on one side of him and the Olympus of Athens on the other, ever produced a religion with these four elements, he towers so far above Shakespeare and Plato that the difference between Shakespeare and Plato, and their times, in the comparison, becomes an imperceptible wrinkle on the surface of the earth.
I think it a greater credulity to believe that there ever was a man so much superior to Athens and to England as this Jewish youth was, if he was a mere man, than it is to believe that in the fulness of time a higher wisdom than was ever vouchsafed to a human being undertook to tell the human race the secret by which it could lift itself to a higher plane of moral and intellectual existence. I have weighed Christianity as the great vital and elemental force which underlies Europe, to which we are indebted for European civilization. I have endeavored to measure its strength, to estimate its permanence, to analyze its elements; and if they ever came from the unassisted brain of one uneducated Jew, while Shakespeare is admirable, and Plato is admirable, and Goethe is admirable, this Jewish boy takes a higher level.
He is marvellous, wonderful; he is in himself a miracle. The miracles he wrought are nothing to the miracle he was if at that era, and in that condition of the world, he invented Christianity. Whatley says, "To disbelieve is to believe." I cannot be so credulous as to believe that any mere man invented Christianity. Until you show some loving heart that has felt more profoundly some strong brain that even with the aid of his example, has thought further, and added something important to religion, I must still use my common what he is said to have tried to do. To all that my answer is, India sense and say, no man did all this. I know Buddha's protest and past and present.

THE KIDNEYS WEAR OUT

But Many People of Advanced Years Have Learned How to Keep These Organs Healthy by Using

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

The kidneys are often the first organs of the body to cause trouble. Their work of filtering the blood is greatly increased by excessive eating or by the use of highly seasoned foods and alcohol. An advanced age comes on the people who are afflicted with the kidneys. With some there are years of pains and aches, with others a Bright's disease is soon developed. Fortunately a great many have been cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and are enabled to live to the kidneys healthy and active.
This medicine entirely differs from any other kidney medicine. It cures the action of the liver and bowels. To this combined action is attributed its success in curing the kidneys. Mr. Richard Preston, of Lambton county, Ont., writes: "I was led to testify to the wonderful curative power of Dr. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, seventeen years ago I began to use this medicine, when my back was so bad that I could not stoop or rise without pain. My kidneys were in bad condition, but these pills entirely freed me of back pains. I have used them since, and whenever the kidneys would get out of order, and now, at eighty years, am well and hearty, thanks to this medicine."

THE TORREY MEETINGS

Strong Arrangement of Theatre, Dancing and Card Playing—Tonight's Subject

A strong and forceful sermon on amusements was delivered yesterday afternoon in the Queens rink by Rev. Dr. Torrey. He condemned dancing, theatres and card playing, saying he could see no good in any of them. He asked the question, "Ought a Christian to Dance, to go to a theatre, to play cards?" And to each query he replied in the negative.
Regarding theatres, he was greatly opposed to them and said that he would sooner see his daughter dead than on the stage. As God was not pleased when a child of His went on the stage, neither was He pleased when that child danced. For in dancing there was great spiritual danger. If the truth could be told of dancing even in the best society, not a respectable woman would again go on the floor. The world was full of moral lepers, and they were to be found in all classes of society, and no man would like to see his wife or daughter in the arms of such a one, walking around a dance-hall.
The case against card playing was not so strong, but it was clear enough, and the practice should be hastily condemned. No cards should be allowed in the home. At last night's meeting, the attendance was fair, considering the disagreeable weather. Dr. Torrey preached on "Where Art Thou?" dwelling at some length on Eternity. Tonight he will speak on "The Ten Commandments," Mr. McEwen will sing "The Holy City" this evening.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A CURE FOR ALL
Not a Patent Cure-All, Nor a Modern Miracle, But Simply a Rational Cure For Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.
In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making any such claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make no claim for it, and that, in itself, for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than to say, and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia will give the remedy a trial, will find that nobility is claimed for it, and that it will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest and most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medicinal properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter what the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, giving refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.
In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is necessary. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food, and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach, which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.
Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cts. per package.

Fraternal Prescription For Nervous Wrecks

(From "Medical Reports.")
Thousands of men, nervous wrecks, have found the following "fraternal prescription" a blessing and a boon. Such men lack aggressiveness, they are timid, nervous, easily discouraged, lacking in self esteem and confidence. They suffer from cold extremities, thin watery blood, nervousness, sleeplessness, frightful dreams, trembling hands and limbs, unsteady gait and an absolute inability to perform the ordinary natural and rational acts or duties such as any healthy normal man can. A vigorous man works, plays, eats and sleeps always with the keenest enjoyment. The greater his exertions are the stronger becomes his appetite and slumbers.
The nervous man seems always tired and worn out. Retiring brings no relief. Sleep brings no refreshment, all because of an abnormal condition of the nervous system, brought about by—well, no matter what—the desire is for relief and freedom with rich, red blood surging through the body supplying the sensitive nerves with all the power of electricity so that they are refreshed and delicious, work is play and play is pleasure.
Obtain three ounces of syrup sarsaparilla in a six ounce bottle. To this, add a ounce of compound fluid balsamwood. Let stand two hours. Then add one ounce of tincture cadomene compound (not cadomom), and one ounce of compound essence cardiol. Shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring until a vigorous, bounding health takes hold of the tired, exhausted nerves. Only a few weeks treatment will astonish and rejuvenate, because the treatment is the right thing at the right time, and contains no deceptive opiates.

gain of membership of 143, was shown, making a total of 10,808. Rev. D. Stiles Fraser, of New Glasgow, was elected G. W. P. W. S. Saunders, of Halifax, grand scribe for twenty years, was defeated, and Isaac Grant, of Pictou, elected in his place. There is a report at Sgkirik, Man., that the Wolverine, the flag ship of the Northern Fish company, has foundered in Lake Winnipeg. There were fifty people on the steamer.

On Buying or Selling a Second-Hand Musical Instrument Shakespeare knew human nature. He believed music was one of the most essential things in the make-up of a person. So he wrote "Teach your children to love it. Have it in your home. Buy a second-hand instrument and save money—for instance, a Phonograph. If you buy you have some instrument that you are tired of. AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

OPERA HOUSE. The New Magdalen was the attraction at the Opera House last night by the Edith Warren Stock Company. Judging by the way it was received by the large audience present, it made a distinct hit. The plot is during the period of the Franco-Prussian war. Miss Warren, Mercy Merrick, was seen to good advantage at the end of the third act and received an ovation having to respond to no less than four encores. Lorne Elwyn was exactly fitted for the part of Julian Grey. Miss Myra Crowe had a difficult role and shared the honors of the evening with Miss Warren. Others taking prominent part in the production were Carl Blayth, C. Lawrence, Courtland Hopkins, C. King, Burton Malloy, Frank Oliver, Moly Reel and Elizabeth Leslie. The scenery was very handsome, especially in the third and fourth acts. The company will repeat the New Magdalen tonight and at five matinees tomorrow, and tomorrow night they will put on The Crimson Stain dealing with the adventures of Sherlock Holmes. It is expected that they will be greeted with capacity houses as the company is one of the best that has visited the maritime provinces this season.

THE UNIQUE. A charming novelty is to be introduced at the Unique on Saturday afternoon. All attending for matinee performance may have their picture taken, and then, by attending on the following Saturday, will receive a photograph of the camera will be snapped at 3.30 sharp.

The subjects for the end of the week will include a historical spectacular and thrilling drama of 1780, "His Life For His Queen," a light comedy from Lubin's fun factory, "His Career," and a re-creation of the greatest educational feature, the Unique has shown, "Antwerp Zoological Gardens." An extra story will be shown at the Saturday Matinee. Louise Tuttle will offer New York's popular song, "I've Got the Time and the Place," for the first time in a picture theatre in the city.

THE LYRIC. Those who contemplate going to the Lyric either today or tomorrow may be interested to know that the Lyric Theatre has afforded them since Danny Simmons held the boards. The "Three O'clock Train" kept the audiences of yesterday in a continuous ecstasy of enjoyment during the week. The sketch, though an old one is of the kind that never fails to please and being in the capable hands of those clever comedians, a comedy attraction of genuine fun is given. Mr. Marlowe as the dandy is a real gem. Mr. Plunkett's "The Law and the Man," a Western feature.

Hundreds of little ones were delighted on Saturday last at the souvenir matinee at the Gem Theatre, as a very lengthy and pleasing programme had been prepared for the management. The program was a very interesting one consisting of five splendid picture subjects. Chief is a big Lubin production, "Harris and Flowers," a story with plenty of heart interest, pretty love scenes, and a dramatic finish. An Eventful Trip is a clever trick comedy which will do its part in making hearty laughter in company with two other high producers, "One on Max," another of the Max Linder series, and "Jinks Wants to be an Acrobat." The fifth subject is a recent Vitagraph production, "Judge Not," a strong drama. Prof. Titus will be heard in "Our Good Ship Sails Tonight," and a new bill will be given by the orchestra.

A series of motion pictures that will attract large crowds to "Star" Theatre, North End tonight and again tomorrow show "Trip on the Canadian Northern Railway in Saskatchewan, Canada." There are hundreds of New Brunswickers in this western province and many St. John people, and no doubt citizens will be eager to see where their friends and relatives are living. The Biograph police drama "The Banker's Daughter," is also a fine film as well as the cowboy story "The desperado." "The Mule" is a very original tale. Mr. Weston will be heard in songs; next week Corinne Nevins, Saturday matinee for the kiddies.

THE MARKET PROBE SENT IN DEEPER

Ald. Potts, His Son, Director Wisely, Deputy Clerk Dunham John McDonald and G. H. Dickson Add to the Evidence

The investigation into conditions in the country market was continued last evening. Ald. Potts, Director Wise, Deputy Clerk Dunham, John McDonald, George Dickson and James Macaulay gave evidence, and adjournment was made until this evening at 7 o'clock.

Ald. Potts said: "I have been the lessee of the market tolls for eighteen or twenty years and was in it for three years previous with my uncle. At that time there were several persons doing business, known as green grocers, with whom the collector made his own terms independently of the city, in 1906 the city decided to erect sixteen stalls and when these were put up at auction twelve of them were bid in by James Daley. On account of this he did not buy the tolls that year, which were bid in by Mr. Akery. Up to that time the lessee of the tolls had no space in the country market.

"When Akery got the tolls," the alderman continued, "he seemed to be under the impression that after the city had sold what it wished of the stalls, the rest of the market belonged to the collector and he acted accordingly. "At that time I considered that I knew quite as much about the market as anyone else and could afford to pay as much for the privilege of collecting the tolls. I made it my special business to make inquiries and I found that Mr. Akery was receiving money for the use of stalls which was a privilege I had never had. In justice to them I must say that I do not think that either the clerk of the market or the director knew of this. Before purchasing, however, I went to the collector and said that I would bid for them if I could have the same privileges as Mr. Akery had enjoyed and he said I could."

"At that time I don't believe the director knew what I meant by the tolls and I merely thought that as a business man I had the right to make inquiries as I knew how. That year there were eight stalls not bid by the city and I considered I had the right to bid for them on my own terms with anyone who wished to occupy them if the market clerk assigned them to the space. "The most revenue I ever got from leasing this space was between $250 and $300 a year. About two months before I ran my first stall I had the market clerk and director into the market office and told them that my son, Roy Potts, would collect the tolls for me and that I would year and probably bid in them when they were again sold. I did this because the collector has to be notified by the director. I asked if my son would have the same rights and privileges as I had enjoyed. He said he would and that this was satisfactory to him. At this time I think the director knew perfectly well what privileges I referred to and the tolls were passed either by the clerk or the director previous to the sale and that anyone who did not bid on the stalls at the time would have to make arrangements with the lessee of the tolls if they desired space afterwards."

"At this point the recorder asked the witness his opinion about the law relating to forestalling. In reply, Ald. Potts said in his estimation the law was not worth the paper it was written on. The result of any effort that had been made to stop the practice had been that the dealers had gone to the Marsh bridge, stopped the country teams coming in and bought whatever they wanted, thereby depriving the market of so much revenue. "In my opinion the section is unnecessary and unworkable. Conditions have so changed with regard to the country market that the by-laws are out of date. "Some reference has been made to a remark you made when Mr. Alaby's show case was removed. Just what did you say?" "I think there has been some misunderstanding about that. What I said was 'If they want the man removed let them remove him.' "Do you know of either the clerk or the director sending anyone to you to purchase a stall?" "Well, the director when applied to by Mr. Hamm for a stall to him last Thursday and told him that he would have to make arrangements with Mr. Potts. I presume when he said this he meant Mr. Potts. "Fenwick applied for a stall the director also told him he would have to make arrangements with the lessee of the tolls, Mr. Potts. Roy Potts said he had been the lessee of the market tolls for two years. He had collected the tolls for the balance of the year, Belyea, Alaby and Bell, receiving about $300. When he wanted to know anything he asked the clerk or his father, Ald. Potts."

John McDonald said he rented a stall and rack in the market, and was assessed on the business, although he was a resident of the county. He paid rent beside market fees. A large firm from Ontario had this week secured a stand in the market, and were doing business without a license. All the revenue from them went to the collector of market tolls. He did not think the section relating to forestalling was workable. There was a good deal of complaint about stands at the head of the market doing a retail business. Ald. Hayes remarked that he thought the primary idea of the market was to help the householders and not dealers. The recorder said this was the correct view. He promised to bring the matter of the Ontario firm to the attention of the council. Mr. Wisely said he was then recalled. When did you first become aware of the fact that the lessee of the market tolls was charging people for the occupation of space in the country market? It was either last May or June. You heard what Ald. Potts said in regard to the case, he had with you previous to his son's taking over? I was not aware of any such thing being done then. Did you ever send anyone to him to make arrangements for space they were to occupy in the market? Well, after the sale, when anyone came to me I told them I had nothing to do with the matter. "Well, who, in your opinion, would have anything to do with the market? The deputy clerk of the market. You don't think you ever sent anyone to the deputy clerk to make arrangements about space? I don't remember having done so. If you didn't send anyone to the clerk, why didn't you? Well, I told Mr. Potts he would have the same privileges as Mr. Akery. What did you understand by the word 'privileges. Anything more than the collection of the tolls? Can you say no man did? I don't remember. Can you say no man did? I don't remember. Have you, knowingly, at any time given permission to Roy Potts to sell or dispose of space? No. As I stated last night, Mr. Hamm came to me. What time was that? I think it was last May or June. When you knew that Roy Potts had leased space to Mr. Hamm, you didn't report the matter to the safety board or speak to anyone? No, I did not think it my duty. In your opinion, what is your duty? Well, my duty is to advise Mr. Dunham what to do. Well, here was a case. Did you give him any advice about this? I did not know there was anything wrong about it. I would rather you would tell me the other side. What did you think was right about it? Well, I thought that as long as I had nothing to do with it, it was none of my business. What, in your opinion, have you to do with the market? Well, I suppose, as director, I have full charge of the market. Explain what you have to do? To see that the market by-laws are enforced and direct Mr. Dunham. Have you issued any directions to Mr. Dunham lately? Yes, I think within the year. What were these directions about? About forestalling and smoking. What directions did you issue about forestalling? Well, I told Mr. Dunham to try and prevent it. Have there been any prosecutions undertaken in consequence of your directions regarding forestalling? Yes, I think on two or three occasions. Mr. Dunham here interposed as to the last prosecution for forestalling was three years ago. Within three years you have taken no further steps to prevent forestalling? Yes, I think so. Did it not strike you as a singular thing that the man who collected the tolls should lease space? I had no knowledge of it. Yes, that should strike you about it last May. Did it not strike you then as a strange thing? I could not say.

Mr. Dunham said he called his attention being called to forestalling by the director, he had taken a case to the police court three years ago. About a year later he had reported several other dealers, and all were allowed to go except Stanley Hopkins, who was fined and appealed. He thought the effect of the recorder's advice was that the law was useless, and he brought no more cases. He did not consider it his duty to report the matter to the safety board. He first became aware of the lessee of the market leasing stands about two years ago. It came to his knowledge through Mr. Hamm's complaint that Mr. Potts was charging him too much. He could not remember what he had said to the director about the matter but he had not considered it his duty to report to the safety board. There was also the case of Mr. Belyea this spring. He had spoken to Mr. Wisely and remarked that things were being conducted very loosely. At the conclusion of the sale in 1908, Mr. Wisely had said that anyone who had not bid should have stalls allotted to him. On one occasion Mr. Hamm had gone to the director and was told Mr. Potts did not sell him space. He knew of cases in 1909, but did not report them, as he thought Mr. Wisely knew about them. He had ordered the removal of Mr. Williams' showcase because his attention had been called to it. He said his duties in the market consisted in keeping the building clean and to keep down smoking and forestalling. To Ald. Hayes, Mr. Dunham said he had told him that no matter who was guilty of forestalling, they were to be reported. He had given Mr. Alaby permission to put in a showcase. Geo. Dickson and James Macaulay told him of forestalling, and of selling meat from the centre racks in pieces less than a quarter. They named Thomas McDonald, Mason, Folkins and McTear, as among those who violated in this regard. Mr. Macaulay did not consider the section relating to forestalling was workable.

Baseball Bits of Baseball. Secretary John Heydler of the National League still is hard at work on the averages of the players. This year the averages will be issued in three installments, the batting record appearing first, the fielding records second and the data as to the number of times the players struck out and received passes last. When on Aug. 23, Fred Clarke of the Pirates made the record of four assists from left field in a nine-inning game with the Phillies, Pittsburgh statisticians averred that no other National League outfielder ever had turned such a trick. The statisticians were wrong. On Memorial Day, 1896 of the Cubs threw four men out at first base from right field in a game of regulation length. There was an overflow crowd at the game, the fans who could not get into the bleachers or the stands heading for right field and congregating in such numbers in that territory that Miller wisely figured he would have no chance about getting fly balls hit out that way, and so he might as well play in "Dusty" consequence of the Cubs possess unique records. Each man has played on two teams that have been beaten when striving for the highest honors of the baseball universe. Archer was a member of the Detroit Tigers in 1907 and played with the Cubs this fall while Beaumont was a Pirate in 1903 and engaged in the 1910 series as a Teddy Bear.

Mr. Worden who also acted as accompanist, was instrumental in getting up the entertainment, and she was warmly praised for her efforts.

OUTLOOK FOR GRAND MANAN] VERY GLOOMY

Fishermen Report Failure of Their Industry and Some Will Take Up Haddock Fishing on North Shore

With the failure of the Grand Manan fisheries, the island faces conditions that have not been experienced in a decade, and it was stated today by schooner men from the fishing grounds, that the situation is serious with winter close at hand, and that much hardship will be experienced. No fish spells no money and a scarcity of money means pinching during the cold months, to say nothing of the lack and in some instances of entire absence of Christmas joy.

A large number of the little schooners that engage in the fish trade between Grand Manan and Seal Cove, will be missing here this winter, as they will be forced into other channels, some going out to other schooner men that were cutting out the St. John Grand Manan route in the North Shore. "I have never tried haddock fishing before," said one skipper of a little fish freighter, "but there is nothing else for it." The same man pointed to other schooners near that were cutting out the Seal Cove, on the Southern coast of Grand Manan, the principal fishing ground usually a live of activity, is a gloomy place just now, as there, like other places, such as Grand Harbor and Woodwards Cove, there is nothing doing at all.

The yearly increase in the number of boats engaged in the herring fishing and the consequent great onslaught on the small herring is given by a large fish merchant here as the reason for the present serious state of affairs. He expressed the opinion that steps should be taken in the matter with a view to governing the sardine fishing.

"Why a bucket full of the small herring contains 1,000 to 1,200 fish, so that one only has to figure for himself as to how many there are to the hoghead, and look at the number of hogheads that are taken out each year," said this merchant. It was also pointed out that small herring are used for lobster bait, and those engaged in the lobster trade were getting large quantities of bait ahead and picking it.

When it is taken into consideration that herring are preyed upon by other fish as a livelihood, a shortage of fresh fish in general. During September and October dog fish give much trouble, and fishermen engage in sardine fishing but as the dog fish pest is about finished for this year, and the sardine fishing is drawing to a close also, it is expected that fishermen will soon be engaged in trawling and there may result a somewhat better state of things in the fresh fish market.

St. John Youth, Freed Recently from Dorchester, Complains at Headquarters About Policeman Causing Him to Lose His Job

From time to time in novel and drama the hardships of an ex-convict in trying to secure a step up after having served his term in penitentiary, have been cleverly portrayed. In many cases it has been seen that, where a young man, just out from prison with a clean record, attempts to change his mode of living and become a better man, he has been turned down at different places and again takes to the old life while a little help along might have made a man of him.

Yesterday afternoon a youth of about twenty years who had been a prisoner in Dorchester, but who was discharged from that institution with a good conduct record, laid a complaint at the police station against a member of the police force who says, was the means of turning him a position on a steamer where he had secured employment.

The young fellow, since being liberated after serving a term, was successful in getting work in one of the lumber mills, and later joined the "longshoremen's" union. Last week he was given a position on a steamer running to this port, and worked aboard of her satisfactorily, until, he claims, he was seen by a policeman, who told one of the officers on the boat something and the result was that he was discharged when the steamer came to port again.

No cause was given for the dismissal, and the unfortunate young man was informed by an officer of the steamer that he had performed his work suitably, but he could not be kept on.

The youth claims that he has endeavored to lead a better life and feels rather discouraged at the turn-down he has received. This, he says, however, is not the first since coming to St. John, even though only manual labor was required of him.

ONE POLICEMAN IS DISMISSED; PLACE AT ONCE FILLED

W. S. Belyea Gives Way to H. Colby Gardner - Report to Chief Against Belyea

Another new man was appointed to the police force this morning, this time to fill a vacancy caused by the dismissal of one of the older members of the force who was reported as on duty last night in an intoxicated condition. The new man is H. Colby Gardner, aged 22, of this city, and he takes the place of Wilmer S. Belyea who is the older policeman referred to.

Gardner, although a very young man, the force, measures up well, being five feet eleven inches in height, and weighing 160 pounds and a sturdy looking fellow.

Belyea was on duty yesterday on York Point beat.
