Presbyterian Ministers Reply to Charges of Catholic Priest DEFEND MISSIONS

Make Statements About Work Among Ruthenians in Western Canada—Father Roche Details the Charges He Makes

Toronto, Oct. 1.—(Special)—Rev. Dr. Camille... of the Presbyterian Home Mission executive, yesterday published a statement strongly defending the Presbyterian Ruthenian mission...

What Father Roche Said

(Toronto Telegram, Monday) Father Roche repeated his charges against the Presbyterian church and its officers last night at St. Ann's Roman Catholic church...

These are bogus priests and men from missionary societies in these stirring up the people raising the race cry that we have always striven to keep down...

These are absolute facts, my people. We were not candid in our case. We help our case.

The Presbyterian Mission Board is helping to support many of these independent missionaries. I saw a little red church building erected on ground given to the Ruthenians by the G. N. R.

These are absolute facts, my people. We were not candid in our case. We help our case.

Continuing, Father Roche said there were 135,000 Ruthenians in the western country with only seven priests to minister to them. The Catholic church, he said, must send more men and funds to help these people.

In Philadelphia Father Roche related his experiences in Philadelphia two years ago when, with a Philadelphia priest, he visited the "Big Tin Church," the largest Presbyterian church among the 100,000 Italians in that city.

These people call our worship idolatry. Why do they practice it? Father Roche said the press generally had no malice, and had always tried to be fair to Catholics.

Passes Through St. John After Memorable Northern Trip NO REASON TO DOUBT

Declines to Say if He Will Send Vessel to Get Cook's Instruments—Wealthy Sportsman Spends Few Minutes Here—Cook Awaits Him

Harry Whitney, around whom these days' question marks are flying from every direction, passed through St. John early this morning, and while here for a few minutes made a resolution he had formed to grant no interviews, and he gave to the Times a short talk on his Arctic experiences...

Mr. Whitney's home is in New Haven. He is of a wealthy family and himself has an income which makes it easy for him to devote his time to any pursuit which fancy might suggest...

Mr. Whitney's home is in New Haven. He is of a wealthy family and himself has an income which makes it easy for him to devote his time to any pursuit which fancy might suggest...

It was in April of this year that Mr. Whitney met Dr. Cook. Since then the former has been hunting. Last week he reached St. John's, Nfld., on his way home. Yesterday he arrived at North Sydney and, being no time, he took the first train out and passed through here about 6.45 o'clock this morning...

Mr. Whitney, he was asked, "Will you not say what you know about Cook and Peary reaching the North Pole?" "I have no reason to doubt that both were there," he replied.

Asked if Cook had told him of his discovery before news of Peary's achievement was known, Mr. Whitney replied: "Yes." It was in April last Mr. Whitney said that Cook and Peary had been together at Etah.

PEARLY IN NEW YORK BUT FEW WELCOME

Arrival Too Early for Demonstration—Board's Roosevelt Devoted Cook Matter With Club

New York, Oct. 1.—The whistles of a hundred craft were booming a continuous salute to the Roosevelt as she ploughed up the harbor this morning at the moment Commander Robert E. Peary stepped from a train in the Grand Central Station returning to New York after his trip to the North Pole to participate in the Hudson-Fulton naval parade up the Hudson River.

The hour of their arrival was so early that few persons were at the station to greet them. They were warmly welcomed by the present industrial building, and also for removing the grand stand across the grounds to the southern side.

Mr. Peary said that he did not know then what the plans for the first day in the vicinity of New York would be other than he expected to take his place on the bridge of the Roosevelt during the parade.

Members of the Peary Arctic Club and close friends of the explorer will discuss with him during his stay in the city the various phases of the North Pole controversy but Commander Peary said he would not talk about the subject for publication until his formal statement is prepared.

After a hurried breakfast the commander and Mrs. Peary left in a taxicab for the vicinity of the Roosevelt Hotel. The night ride from Portland to New York was without incident. The hour of his departure had been withheld and there were no gatherings as his train stopped at stations on the way.

At the monthly meeting of the board of school trustees to be held on Monday, Oct. 11, action will probably be taken regarding some changes to be made in the office of the school board.

An additional building for industrial exhibits, new cattle sheds of an improved pattern, and the removal of the grand stand from its present location across the field to the southern side of the grounds, are some of the changes being planned by the exhibition association in preparing for the big Dominion fair next year.

The mayor thought there would be no difficulty about the association having the lease of the lots continued, and he suggested that the association send a communication to the council at their meeting on Monday next.

The executive is also planning extensive changes and improvement to the industrial and agricultural buildings.

FIGHT WHITE PLAGUE

IN FREDERICTON. Fredericton, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The Fredericton branch of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis was formed at a large and enthusiastic public meeting at the Opera House here this evening.

At the conclusion of his address it was resolved on motion of Rev. Dr. Smith, seconded by Chancellor Jones, that the meeting proceed to organize a branch of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Speeches were delivered by the mover and seconder and by Dr. Murray, president of the N. B. Medical Society. Dr. Fisher, secretary of the provincial board of health; Dr. Irvine and Rev. Father Carney and the resolution passed unanimously.

On motion of Rev. J. H. MacDonald, seconded by Dean Schofield, officers were chosen as follows: President, Judge Barry; vice-president, Dr. W. O. Crockett; secretary-treasurer, Dr. W. H. Irvine; Bishop Richardson, Chancellor Jones, Dr. McGrath, A. H. F. Randolph and F. B. Edgcombe, executive.

MILITARISM

To the Editor of The Times: Sir,—The enclosed is significant as indicating the sentiment of those from whose ranks the main body of an army is drawn. At every Trades and Labor Congress of late years a resolution or protest against militarism emanates. Antimilitarists everywhere will rejoice that such sentiment from the workers is daily becoming stronger. It is to be hoped that the delegates from this city to the congress just closed at Ottawa will return home stimulated to do something definite and practical against military drill, and rifle practice in our common schools, for which purpose even now the New Brunswick government is training teachers at the Normal School at Fredericton.

The workers are "the people" and a growing political force. In other towns they are vigorous and active, but so far St. John workers have shown no vivid appreciation of the forces that are deleterious to their interests and militarism is the most of the strongest and best wielded in these later days by capitalists to protect their own pockets.

Is there no trade union here which possesses spirit enough to gather its fellow unions in affiliation and express their views on the subject? It is a vastly important one and its success or failure is largely in the hands of working men and women, laborers, mechanics and artisans.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 29th, 1909.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. International Peace. Since the Halifax convention the advocates of militarism have been abroad in the land and unless the workers, take strong ground against the introduction of military training in the schools and the expenditure of vast sums of money for military purposes, the prospect appears to be that the small minority in favor of these fads will emerge triumphant. It is the masses of the working people who have to bear the burden of the cost, and every effort should be made to prove to the people that it is far from being a matter of jurisdiction, war, and preparation for war, and impose greater burdens than should be borne. During the last session of the Dominion parliament both sides of the house concurred in bowing to the false sentiment that is so noisily proclaimed by the advocates of militarism in Canada, and as a result we are able to be committed to great expenditures for military purposes expenditures that are denied to progressive work on the ground of hard times and the necessity for economy. Your executive recommends that the congress take the lead in calling a convention of all peace-loving citizens in Canada for the purpose of presenting parliament with the views of those opposed to the movement.

CAPITAL FROM CANADA IN MEXICO

Montreal, Sept. 30.—(Special)—A $5,000,000 contract was signed here tonight between the directors of the Mexican Northern Company and Frederick Adams, managing director of the firm of G. Pearson & Sons, of London (Eng.), for the construction of the works of that company at Conchos River, in the northern part of Mexico. The new light and power company, which is made up entirely of Canadian capital, will develop the big water powers in the northern part of the republic.

The contract is one of the pioneer efforts made by Canadians to develop northern Mexico. The company is made up of E. Green, Edwin Hanson, Montreal; S. J. Moor, Toronto; B. F. Pearson, G. M. Brookfield, Halifax; H. Patterson, Woodstock (Ont.); Paul Gith, Mexico, and G. F. Greenwood, Montreal.

Handsome knotted silk fringes are now in season and form the natural trimming for the embroidered cape.

DINNER-GOWN ON CLASSIC LINES.

Deep blue crepe meteor is the material of which this graceful gown is built—a dark, cool blue like the sky on a summer night. Embroidery in self tone is placed on the wide band which encircles the figure above the waistline, and this band continues down the front in two long tabs or stoles. The little bodice is of silver net embroidered in the blue shade, the sleeves being laced with silver cord.

KENNEL CLUB SHOW CLOSED; IT HAS BEEN A SUCCESS

The New Brunswick Kennel Club bench show, which has been continued for three days in Queen's Park, ended last evening with awarding of special prizes for the best dogs in the different classes. The winners were: Best collie dog or bitch—H. J. Sheehan, 1st. Prize, pair gold collies, donated by the secretary, R. D. Peterson. Best novice dog—H. J. Sheehan, 1st (collie); J. K. McDonald, 2nd (English setter). Prize, silver cup, donated by the president, LeB. Wilson.

Best setter dog or bitch—Harry Gilbert, 1st. Prize, pair gold collies, donated by L. J. Sheehan; James T. McGouey, 2nd. Best exhibit of any member of the club—H. J. Bailey, 1st. Prize, pair, donated by Ald. James Sprout.

Most artistic decorated stall—James McGouey, two brass candlesticks, donated by J. V. McLellan. The dogs exhibited this year were a superior class to those of former years. The show was not quite as large as last year's, but the quality of the dogs was much better.

The decorations on the booths were very artistic, especially those of W. T. Bailey and James McGouey. Mr. Bailey's booth, which contained eight English bulldogs, was of a patriotic nature, the dogs being styled, "Beresford's Deadnought," with a picture of Lord Beresford in the center, draped with Union Jacks.

Thomas Moore, professional dog judge of Montreal, who acted as judge, left last evening for Montreal and before leaving made many favorable comments on the number and quality of the dogs on exhibition.

S. Cowan's small fox terrier attracted a good deal of attention. It will also show better another year. Patterson's Newfoundland puppies, of excellent stock, were amongst the favorites with the ladies.

A litter of English setter puppies, owned by Mr. E. Harley, were also very attractive. Dr. W. White's cocker spaniel pups were probably the most admired in the building. While they were too young to show this year it looks as though they might make a lot of trouble for the good ones next year.

The wire-haired fox terriers shown this year were above the average and a great number were of former years, Frank Magee and Mr. Francis showed nice dogs in this class. The winner, LeB. Wilson's dog, is being the best wire-haired fox terrier ever shown.

M. E. Harley's greyhound, "Dick," winner of three titles, was much admired and here it took four firsts. L. W. Lehrle showed a nice cocker spaniel, small in size, but a dog that in New York or Boston, might be a winner. It was considered a little small for here. Its breeder, Patterson, is best in America.

Charles Gallagher's little black and white cocker spaniel is a wonderful little dog and this is the only time it has been shown here. It took four firsts. St. Clair McKelvie's King Charles spaniel was a great attraction with the ladies, it being the only one ever shown in St. John.

Daniel McKenzie's little black and white cocker spaniel was an exceptionally good one. While not in the best of shape this year it undoubtedly be heard from again. E. J. Wallace's collies are good sound dogs and will also be better in another year.

H. J. Sheehan's collies are the best ever shown here and have not been beaten. He was the winner of the special prizes for best collies. Simeon MacKay's collies did well and are good dogs. They attracted much attention in the show.

Daley's English bulldogs were of the best. They cannot be compared with any other of their kind. Timothy McCormick's Gordon setter, winner of first prize, is a nice animal. Robert Short's English setters ran the winners hard. They are exceptionally good dogs and will also be heard from again.

James McGouey's Stoughton Ben, has again repeated his winnings in St. John and Montreal and has never yet been beaten. Robert Smith's English setters were very attractive and well deserved their winnings. They come from the finest stock in America.

John McGrath's English pups attracted much attention. He again showed his old winner, Radnor, but the latter was in poor condition. Mr. McGrath also showed Belle, a former winner, but like Radnor, she is getting old. Silk serge and some of the heavier cottons in silk are to be made up in dressy fall street costumes.

Taylor's Soap advertisement featuring a large illustration of a soap box and a bar of soap. Text includes 'Linen of Snowy Whiteness', 'The real beauty of linen lies in its whiteness. It must come from the washing spotlessly clean. So, naturally enough, it is always rubbed twice as hard, and so wears out twice as fast.', 'Here is the Taylor way: Place the white clothes in warm, soapy water and let them soak overnight. Then draw them out one by one and rub them lightly with Taylor's Borax Soap. When well soaped, fold them up and lay them in the bottom of the tub under water. Let them soak in this way for half an hour. Then rub them gently on the washboard, rinse and wring them out. Hang them on a rope clothes line, for wire may put iron rust spots on the clothes.', 'Scalding is never necessary with this soap, for it removes the dirt by itself. The borax softens the water, so less soap is required, and also much less rubbing.', 'Colored clothes are washed the same, only they should not be left to soak overnight, and never boiled.', 'Follow these simple directions and your clothes will come out fresh, clean and free from any "soapy smell." The white goods will be whiter, the colored goods brighter and the woollens softer than ever before.', 'Borax not only softens the water, but also softens the hands—it leaves them even whiter than ever before. Also it purifies and sweetens—it destroys every germ and prevents the possibility of contagion.', '5 Cents a Cake At All Dealers. JOHN TAYLOR & CO., Limited, TORONTO, CANADA. AT ALL DEALERS.

STEPHENSON CASE RESUMED AT ANDOVER

Perth, N. B., Sept. 30.—A short time after the adjournment of the Italian murder case at Andover today, the investigation was continued into the remarks of Mr. Tweddle in the legislature concerning the crown lands department official, Mr. Stephenson. It will be remembered that some time ago Mr. Tweddle questioned the character of some of the men appointed by the provincial government and his accusations were the cause of an investigation being opened.

Mr. Stephenson was the financial secretary of one of the lodges of the Canadian Order of Foresters in Victoria county, and it had been hinted that he was short in his accounts. A commission met and after hearing the testimony of a few witnesses adjourned. The number called Mr. A. Kennedy, of St. John, provincial organizer of the Foresters, could be secured as a witness. Mr. Kennedy gave his testimony this afternoon. Hon. Mr. Grimmer presided and W. P. Jones appeared for Mr. Tweddle and T. J. Carter for Mr. Stephenson. Mr. Kennedy stated that having received no remittance from Mr. Stephenson he had written a number of letters to the lodge in Victoria county, and had also received a statement from the head office to go to Victoria county and investigate the matter. This he did and in auditing the books of Mr. Stephenson found that the ledger had not been posted for a year and a half and that the cash book showed the sum of $43 due to the lodge. Mr. Stephenson paid the money due by Mr. Tweddle in the month of July after the charges were made by Mr. Tweddle in the legislature. This concluded Mr. Kennedy's evidence and the hearing was adjourned.

The civil case of Howard Porter vs. the C. P. R., an action to recover damages for injuries sustained in a railway accident in November last, will not be tried at this sitting of the court, postponement being made by mutual consent until a later date. The case of Wadverton vs. De Merchant, an action for damages for a staff of iron and a false arrest, will be heard on Saturday morning.

The fever situation is still about the same at Andover, but the condition of some of the parties is regarded as being much improved. With two new cases reported yesterday the number struck with the disease amounts to seventy-five. Almost every home in the town contains one or two sick people and a staff of twenty trained nurses is kept constantly on the move attending to their wants.

Mr. Welling, who since the first cases reported has been working assiduously night and day in seemingly vain efforts to check the epidemic, is now lying in bed, unable to move and being attended by a severe case of fever.

The little child of Dr. Dickson was buried yesterday, having succumbed to the typhoid.

HON. MR. PUGSLEY ON HARBOR MATTERS
Hon. William Pugsley was interviewed by a reporter last evening in reference to the proposition of F. C. Durant to erect a sugar refinery here and how Mr. Durant's request for Courtenay Bay would be regarded in connection with the G. T. P. plans for Courtenay Bay development. The minister said: "I was advised by the secretary of the board of trade that the site selected by Mr. Durant was that adjoining the Ballast wharf and I wired back that I had no objection to this site being given him. Later I was told of his request for fore-shore privileges on Courtenay Bay and I wrote that I saw strong objections to granting it and that the matter should have very careful consideration. It would be a mistake to grant Mr. Durant's request for the portion of Courtenay Bay which Mr. Durant asks would necessarily be part of the area utilized for railway terminals and steamship berths in case the G. T. P. fixes its terminals at Courtenay Bay."

It was pointed out that Dr. Pugsley had there had a report to the effect that if the Grand Trunk Pacific came to Courtenay Bay at all they would use the east coast. Discussing this, he said: "I do not think the Grand Trunk Pacific authorities have decided that they believe from statements made to me by Courtenay Bay. In their judgment, presents opportunities for the establishment of ideal terminal facilities."

"I have had plans prepared and as soon as the borings are completed, which will be in the course of a few weeks, the evidence in the reduced production of the Biograph Co. to be shown at the Nickel today and tomorrow. George Elliot's lovely story, "A Fair Exchange," has been adapted under the title "A Fair Exchange" and one of the striking features of the film-story is the remarkable acting of several tiny children. Along with the reel is another of Selig's latest including the two pictures, "A False Alarm—something of a rural comedy" and "A Bachelor's Visit, one round of the merriest merriment. Miss Grace Renard will continue in her powerful description of a motion picture, "The Necklace," and Miss Kurtis, who made a hit last night in "Pony Boy," will continue in this number. Mr. Drevcoll's fine selection is entitled "Wedding Bells. Tomorrow afternoon the children will hold high carnival in the Nickel, for a whole hour's bill awaits them. New talent on Monday."

THE FAIR AT MOOSEPATH
The St. John county agricultural fair, held at Moosepath Park yesterday, was largely attended, there being a very large number of ladies present. The feature of the day was the competition for the Barnaby silver cup, donated by W. H. Barnaby, of Manchester. Robertson Allison, Ltd., for the best horse and carriage. There were ten entries in this competition and it was quite a difficult task to pick the winner. LeBaron Wilson, James Barrett & Sons of Cranville, were large prize winners at the fair. Messrs. Barrett possess some fine stock, and a bull, Cherry Bank Sunrise, which won first prize in the yearling class, headed the prize herd at the Canadian national show at Toronto. Joseph and Young of Silver Falls, were also well up in the prize winning list.

TWO TEMPERANCE MEETINGS SUNDAY

There will be two temperance meetings in the Every Day Club on Sunday. One will be held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the speaker will be William R. Gellert, of Truro, who has been engaged in temperance work in the United States and the provinces for fifteen years. Mr. Gellert has some old friends in St. John, for he ran in charge of trains out of this city years ago. He was engaged in railroad work here and in the western states for 27 years. He also had experience as a sailor, and was once an officer on sailing ships out of provincial ports.

Some fifteen years ago he signed the pledge, and began to take an active interest in temperance work. He has been engaged in this work in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky and New England, and is therefore a very interesting speaker. All friends of temperance are invited to hear him on Sunday afternoon.

On Sunday evening it is expected that the speaker will be Rev. Dr. Shearer. If he cannot attend, Rev. A. A. Graham will speak.

VIEW THE NEW COSTUME STYLES AT THIS MAGNIFICENT FALL DISPLAY.

It is impossible to take each garment and tell you of its beauty, its grace and its winsomeness. We can merely outline to you the salient features of the new modes and extend you a hearty welcome to come and inspect them at your leisure.

The styles are adaptations from the Moya Age and Eighteen Century periods which are ruling the fashion world this season. They are best expressed in the elaborate use of trimming, snug waists and hip lines, long coats and plaited skirts.

We ask you to come and study these garments, their richness of material, carefulness of making and their low pricings. Once you do that, there is no doubt, but that your new coat or costume will wear our label.

CARLETON BOY ON THEFT CHARGE

James Quinlan Admits Theft of Tools—Companion Gone To States—Another Case Brought To Light

James Quinlan, aged 15, was before Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning, charged with stealing some tools from the deck of the tug boat Charles Retalick, lying in Rodney Slip, on the west side. He pleaded guilty, and told of going aboard the tug in company with Richard Gallagher, who has since gone to the United States. He had only taken a plane and some smaller articles. Gallagher had taken three bits, two planes, three augers and four coils of rope.

In the course of a rigid examination by his honor, it was brought out that Quinlan robbed the till of the dairy in Carleton, taking $2.50, some time ago.

Captain Retalick, of the tug boat, identified the tools as those stolen from the boat. Quinlan's case was allowed to stand while his honor made some enquiries with reference to him. He expressed a willingness to repay the money stolen.

James Crowley pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, but did not remember assaulting George Gillespie in Water street. Gillespie told of the assault. He said that Crowley had approached him and called him a cur in the presence of a police officer. He (the prisoner) was ordered to move on and did so, only to return and call him a vile name. Crowley was remanded.

Gatfrid Waithey, for wandering about Rodney wharf between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning and not giving a satisfactory account of himself, was sent to jail to await the sailing of the bark Pido, as the captain said that Waithey was a deserter from his vessel.

Captain Warnock of the steamer Coronora Brothers, from Chance Harbor, now in port, reports passing a large broken snow drift off Point Lepreau during yesterday afternoon's ebb tide. It is dangerous to navigation.

SUPERIOR PAINLESS DENTISTRY!

"There is a world wide cry against the dentists that torture their patients." Those of strong physique submit and endure the agony. With a second class this is simply impossible, and thousands of teeth are neglected and lost even though the patients may be able to pay for our most skillful services. Then there is a third class who, after months of mental torture in anticipation, finally come into our hands, and, with nerves strung to a hurtful point, pass through the ordeal, but at what a cost! We do not sufficiently consider the consequences of shock in the dental chair, yet undoubtedly many suffer for months and even years from injuries to the nervous system received whilst in our hands.

The greatest duty of our profession today is to discover and adopt a mode of painlessly performing our operations.

NOTE.—The above is an abstract from a paper read by an eminent dentist of New York City before a society of dentists in Philadelphia.

The famous Hale Method of painless dentistry, for which we are sole agents for Canada is the best Method on earth.
