STEAMSHIP TRANSFER.

The Bangor Commercial of Oct. 8th is the authority for the statement that Charles W. Morse of New York, the tea king, was obtained control of the International line of steamships running to this port, Portland and Boston, as well as of the Boston and Bangor line. The commercial says:

"The news of the transfer comes as no surprise to shipping people in Bangor, for at the time that the Boston-Bangor line was purchased by Mr. Morse from William H. Hill it was understood that it would be followed by the acquisition of the sale of the Portland line at least. The International line came up for consideration at that time, too, and it was freely forecasted that it would follow the first."

"With the ownership of the two lines touching at Portland, Mr. Morse will control every steamer that runs from Boston into the state of Maine. They are the Boston & Bangor line, the Portland Steamship Co., the International line and the Kennebec Steamship Co. The four lines are included in daily equipped, fast, popular steamers, carrying thousands of passengers in the summer and bringing freight from a rich territory from Canada and Massachusetts."

"The fact will complete the steamers City of Rockland, Governor Dingley, City of Bangor, St. Croix, Kennebec, Penobscot, Bay State, Cumberland, Taconic, Sagadahoc, and State of Maine."

"No details have been given out as to the running of the line; how the steamers will be assigned or anything of that nature. It is thought that the Bangor section will remain as it is at present, but nobody is sure about it."

In addition to this, the Portland Express of Wednesday says:

Charles W. Morse, today confirmed the report from Bangor, Me., to the effect that he had purchased control of the International Steamship Company plying between Boston and Portland, and of the Portland Steamship Co., plying between Boston and Portland. His verification included the statement that he now controls the four principal steamship lines between Boston and Maine ports, and also the Maine Steamship Co., operating between New York and Rockland, Me."

When seen by a reporter last night, W. G. Lee, agent for the International line at this port, had heard nothing of the report and was unable to confirm or deny the report. From other sources, however, the Sun learned that the report is undoubtedly well founded, and that the transfer and reorganization will take place at once. Mr. Morse has a number of new boats under construction and it is probable that some of more modern construction than those now in use will be placed on this service. It is reported that Mr. Lee, now superintendent of the line, will be promoted to the position of general manager.

(Bangor Commercial, Oct. 10.)
The Boston and Bangor Steamship Co., the Portland Steamship Co., the International Steamship Co., and the Kennebec Steamship Co., all of which have recently been purchased by Charles W. Morse, of New York, have been incorporated into the Eastern Steamship Co., under the laws of Maine. The general offices of the new company will be in Boston. No change is expected in the service on any of the routes. It is not expected that any new boats will be built by the company, at least for the present.

BISHOP POTTER

Speaks at San Francisco on Labor Question — Readjustment Begins With Heart.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Bishop Potter of New York was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Church Association for advancement of labor, held at the Alhambra theatre last night. Bishop Potter said in part:

"We shall never solve the question of labor until the organizing minds, the guiding hands and the employing managers are identified with the unions with which the employees are identified. There should be a mutual understanding between employers and their help, and both should be animated by a common tie of brotherhood and fealty."

Bishop Potter spoke of the operations of the board of mediation and conciliation of New York, of which he is president. The board had been in existence some ten years and had settled a number of momentous labor disturbances. The operations of the board were conducted on the principle that nothing tangible should be accomplished if the question of social contact was ignored.

In conclusion he said: "The laborer and employer must be brought closer together. You may legislate, as you please, impose taxation as you please, or by any other process readjust the conflicting elements of modern society, but if you have not your heart in the work you will fail utterly. The solution of the labor problem consists in the awakening of the hearts of the employer to deep concern for the welfare of those who are in his employ. Their aims and hopes should not be antagonistic. They should mingle together and observe the laws of social contact, their aims being identical, their methods should be harmonious if those aims are to be subserved."

DIED IN HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 10.—The death occurred tonight at the Halifax Infirmary of Allan M. Smith, accountant for the Royal Bank of Canada. "Allie" Smith, as he was familiarly known by his friends, was one of the most popular young men in Halifax. He was a New Brunswick boy, a native of Kingston, Kent Co., and son of the late Albert T. Smith. He entered the service of the Royal bank fifteen years ago, and has been in the Halifax branch since 1897. He was married to Mrs. Mary Smith, nee Todd of St. Stephen, N. B., and four brothers. One of these was navigating officer on the steamship Lucania, and is now in Liverpool. The remains will be forwarded by the maritime express to Kingston for interment.

SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, speaking at Oldham today, said he believed parliament would be summoned earlier than usual, but would not be called to attend an autumn session, contending that organized resistance in South Africa really ended a year ago and that only guerrillas were now in the field. He said the British government of the Orange River Colony had raised nearly as much revenue as was raised from other parts of Cape Colony by the Boers and rebels.

MISS STONE

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Three battalions of the North Bulgarian infantry regiment marched through the country between Dubinitza and Samashov, and searched the villages of the Rilo-Kostinbrijski district, in one of which it was reported the brigands had concealed Miss Stone, says a Sofia correspondent. A wandering party composed of 250 Bulgarian infantry and 200 dragoons are scouring the ranges of Dozpat and the Rhodopegebirgen. The American consular general at Constantinople has arrived at Sofia with an evangelist from Philadelphia as dragoman, and both are taking energetic steps with the Bulgarian government to effect Miss Stone's release.

The reported leader of the gang, who killed Stambouloff, has met his fate. Suspected of being associated in the capture of Miss Stone, he was shot dead on the frontier. Though $10,000 reward had been placed on his head for the murder of Stambouloff, Hallo, the same under which he was known, was too influential a man for the Bulgarian police to arrest. Four additional brigands have been captured, and a band of twenty, fully armed, were discovered near Dubinitza and driven into the mountains again.

MISSIONARY MATTERS.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 11.—The report of the committee appointed by the Congregational Home Missionary Society in reference to the society's relations to its auxiliaries and co-operating societies, was made public today. It recommends a national committee to serve three years to be elected on the basis of one delegate for 10,000 church members, every state association, however, being entitled to one member. This national committee is to elect the society's executive committee, estimate the probable income the society and apportion the amount to be expended in each state or territory. Any of the state home missionary societies which will assume all expenses of home missionary work within its state is to be classed as an auxiliary society, and shall administer all home missionary work within the state. All moneys received by treasurer of such state societies shall be reported as receipts of the national society.

BULLER'S OUTBURST.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The storm raised by General Buller's outburst yesterday on the South African situation continues to grow. The speech is the "one topic of discussion, and there is general anticipation that disciplinary measures will follow unless General Buller himself takes the advice of such a conservative supporter of the government as the Standard, and resigns.

The tone of the press is generally one of surprised amazement at his indiscretions. The people of England have generally stuck to him throughout and his wife's social influence has been most powerful and has even reached the court. It has been decided that he would be elevated to the peerage on the next honor list, but it is doubtful now, after yesterday's confession, that he advised the surrender of Ladysmith, "a humiliation compared with which," as the Standard says, "all other reverses of the war would have been trivial."

NEWS FROM HONOLULU.

HONOLULU, Oct. 11.—It is reported that the North German Lloyd's steamship company is about to extend its lines to Honolulu. The company is said to have made arrangements whereby it will extend its system to San Francisco from Hong Kong, thus encircling the globe, and Honolulu is said to be interested as a port of call. Hawaii's need of a cable was never more emphasized than by the experience with the news of the death of President McKinley. The late president was shot and died and his body was lying in state at Washington before the people of Honolulu knew anything of the occurrence at Buffalo. Flags were half masted and public business stopped in Honolulu for five days after the body was laid away.

ERNEST SETON-THOMPSON.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 10.—Ernest Seton-Thompson, a noted writer on wild animals, and John Goff, Colorado's game guide, who accompanied President Roosevelt on his mountain lion hunt, have been arrested in Rio Blanco county for violation of the laws of Colorado. Both men deny the charges against them.

A BIG BLAZE.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 11.—Fire totally destroyed the building and contents of the St. Louis sugar company here this morning. The loss is estimated by Chief Swingley on the building and contents at about $100,000 and $50,000 respectively. The St. Louis Candy Company, adjoining, suffered loss by smoke and water of about $10,000 on building and contents.

Creman, aged 54 years, and his son Joseph, aged 16, were asphyxiated by illuminating gas during last night, at the home of Mr. Creman's brother, where the victims boarded. It is believed the electrical attachment to the gas fixture became disarranged permitting the gas to escape. Mr. Creman was manager of a publishing house and a singer of some note.

RHODES AND GLADSTONE.

Very Interesting Letters Published in the London Spectator.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Spectator tomorrow will print letters from Cecil Rhodes and the late Francis Schnadhorst (who from 1885 to 1892 was the chief organizer and adviser of the liberal party), sustaining the sensational allegations made some months ago that Mr. Rhodes, in 1891, gave £5,000 to the liberal party on condition that Mr. Gladstone would not bring about the evacuation of Egypt by the British troops. Both Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman (the liberal leaders), have publicly declared this to be false. In a letter covering this correspondence Mr. Rhodes sums up as follows:

"I met Mr. Schnadhorst in London and he asked me whether I was willing to subscribe to the party funds. I said I was prepared to do so provided the policy was not to scuttle out of Egypt and that in the event of a home rule bill being brought forward provision should be made for the retention of the Irish at Westminster. I understood from Mr. Schnadhorst that he would consult Mr. Gladstone, which quite satisfied me, as I looked upon Mr. Gladstone as the liberal party. Mr. Schnadhorst accepted of the contribution upon the conditions defined in the letter appended."

In this letter Mr. Rhodes demanded that his contribution be kept secret and that the check be returned if the Irish were not represented at Westminster. But he added a postscript saying:

"I am horrified at Mr. Morley's speech on Egypt. If you think your party hopeless, keep the money, but give it to some charity. It would be an awful thing to give my money to breaking up the empire." In 1891 Mr. Rhodes again wrote to Mr. Schnadhorst, drawing attention to a speech of Mr. Gladstone, foreshadowing a scuttle out of Egypt and expressing the hope that Mr. Schnadhorst would do his best to check the mad step. But, he said, if "your respected leader remains obdurate I shall certainly call upon you to devote my subscription to some public charity."

In Mr. Schnadhorst's reply he says Mr. Rhodes' money had already been spent, as he believed it had been given mainly to help the home rule struggle. Mr. Schnadhorst, however, assured Mr. Rhodes that Mr. Gladstone's utterances were only an expression of pious opinion, that Sir William Vernon Harcourt was also annoyed at them and that no scuttle out of Egypt was likely, as he had seen Lord Rosebery, then slated for foreign minister, who would not permit it, being a strong man "who will take his own course, very different from the pious, supple Grayville."

"On the reception of this," says Mr. Rhodes, "I bothered no more, as upon Lord Rosebery's appointment I knew that Egypt was saved. I leave your readers to decide how far Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman is justified in characterizing the original statements as a lie from beginning to end. According to their statements, neither Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman nor Sir William Harcourt are acquainted with the facts, but I naturally assumed that Mr. Schnadhorst was speaking with authority."

EQUITY COURT.

Before Judge Barker in Equity Court this morning argument was heard on the order obtained by Mr. Wilson to show cause why the plaintiff in the suit of E. L. Acton v. Clara L. McDonald, administratrix of the estate of Montague McDonald, et al., should not give security for costs. The plaintiff's attorney contended that Mr. McDonald was Miss Acton's guardian, and had possession of funds belonging to her at his death. Therefore it was not necessary for her to give security for costs. Court considers, C. N. Skinner, K. C., and A. W. Macrae, for plaintiff; A. A. Wilson, K. C., and A. O. Earle, K. C., for defendant.

THE PUNNY TRIBUNE NEWS.

It will be a great relief to the female mind in the Lower Provinces to know that George Robertson, M. P., St. John, has definitely ascertained that "there would be no restriction as to the length of trains to be worn at the presentation to their Royal Highnesses on the 17th inst., provided, of course, that the ladies wore half-mourning evening dress." Affairs in these provinces political, social and commercial, will now likely run along as smoothly as heretofore.

The Chief Justice allowed the plaintiff to have the matter set down for next term on payment of costs of the application.

POLICE COURT.

Three drunks gathered in from St. John, Dock, and King streets last evening, were each fined four dollars or ten days this morning. The one who was arrested on Dock street was entered on the police books as John McFarquhar. When that name was called he stood up and addressed the court:

"Ah, hae nae doot that you name refers to myself, but it is no my ain name. In a probability, the man who was wad me gied that the officer, I am John Co-op."

"What?"

"John Co-op."

"Well, it is!"

"You are charged with being drunk."

"There canna be twa opinions on sic a matter."

"Then you plead guilty to the charge?"

"Och, ay! I wish I was unco fur but I wad nae like to vesit the mission for my fine aller."

His fine was paid.

In the matter of the charge brought by the Slaughter House Commission against Kane & McGrath, L. A. Curvey, K. C., appeared for the commission. Upon request of Mr. Kane the case was postponed for a week to give the firm an opportunity to meet the commissioners and arrange a settlement.

Cane and McGrath state that the breach of regulations in the killing of animals was not committed by them. They have a lease of the slaughter house to do their own work, but anyone else is entitled to use it. They admit the charge of killing after their license had been revoked, but state that they applied for a hearing before the commissioners, which has not been granted.

GLOBE HALL DANCE.

The second reception held in the Globe Hall last night in aid of the new band was a howling success. The attendance was as large and varied as could be desired, and although white and ballroom dances were the predominant colors, the dances could be heard several blocks away. Music was furnished by different instruments, a number of fives from the coming band being the most pronounced favorites. A choice programme consisting of quadrilles had been prepared, and the floor having been relieved of the accumulated refuse of several weeks, was in splendid condition. It is said that between twenty and twenty-five dollars was realized, some of which was given to the police. Unless this amount is sufficient to complete the purchase of the new instruments it is probable that another soiree will take place in the near future. No one was hurt.

SMALL-POX PATIENT DEAD.

ROYAL VISIT.

Tickets of Admission to Reception and Grounds.

Action By the Ladies—Maine Will be Represented—General Notes.

The statement in the morning papers that the principle on which the tickets to the exhibition buildings and grounds would be first come first served, brought a crowd to the office of Geo. Robertson, M. P., Water street. The tickets, however, were not ready, and a man was put at the entrance to keep the crowd out. This proved a great success. However, the crowd that did get up stairs, worried Mr. Robertson considerably before they went out. Tickets for the building and grounds will be ready Monday, and it is the wish of the committee that those obtaining tickets to the building will not ask for any for the grounds. The fence along the water front will be removed in order to give all the room possible for the crowd to witness the presentation of colors and medals. The portion of the grounds to be used by the troops will be roped off. This will take up a good deal of the available ground.

It has been found that the kitchen car has a capacity for feeding about four hundred men, so that a large range will have to be placed in machinery hall.

THE LADIES MEETING.

A meeting of ladies was held this morning in the Church of England at the call of Mrs. McClellan, wife of the lieutenant-governor, to consider the question of giving a present to her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York from the ladies of the province. In the absence of Mrs. McClellan, Lady Tilley was asked to take the chair. It was unanimously decided at the time is so short, that the gift should come simply from the ladies of St. John. In order to include the greatest number and to make it as representative as possible the sum of $1 was fixed as the highest subscription to be looked for. After some discussion it was decided that the present should take the form of a handsome muff and box of New Brunswick make, with ermine trimmings, all to be encased in a box of polished white wood of native growth. Mrs. J. W. Daniel was appointed secretary, and Mrs. James Robertson treasurer; and the following committee was appointed to make all arrangements connected with the gift and its presentation. Mrs. A. McClellan, Mrs. J. W. Daniel, Lady Tilley, Mrs. Tuck, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. Ellis. It is earnestly requested that in order to expedite matters all willing to contribute, will forward their subscription as soon as possible to the treasurer, No. 8, Caston street. And it is felt that the ladies of the loyal city of St. John will respond quickly and heartily.

AS TO ROOMS.

Applications for rooms are being received in large numbers by the different hotel keepers in the city, and from present appearances the crowd of visitors will be fully up to the expectations. In many cases the proprietors of the hotels are unable to promise rooms, but make the uncompromising statement that they will do their best.

Names of those having rooms to let to visitors are not being received by the Tourist Information Bureau so rapidly as could be wished or as was expected.

WILL REPRESENT MAINE.

AUGUSTA' October 9.—Gov. Hill today detailed Col. Elliott C. Dill, inspector general of rifle practice, and Lieut. Col. Francis Keefe, aide-de-camp, to represent him at the reception to be tendered to the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York at St. John, N. B., next week.

The train bearing the visitors, as previously announced, will arrive at 3 p. m. at the I. C. R. station, where their Royal Highnesses will be greeted by the lieutenant governor and his government alone, the public being necessarily excluded from the building and grounds. Leaving the train the royal party will immediately leave in their carriages for the exhibition grounds via Mill, Dock, Market square, King, north side of King square, Sydney, north side of Queen square, Charlotte, Broad and Sydney streets, accompanied solely by the necessary escort. The route will be lined by the troops.

At the exhibition building the royal party will be received by his worship Mayor Daniel. Persons privileged to be present at the function must be in their seats at the time. The programme here will be brief, consisting principally of music by the twelve hundred assembled school children and the formal presentation of the prepared addresses. Immediately afterwards the military display will take place on the barracks grounds. The troops which have lined the streets from the railway station to the exhibition building will form on the Barrack square. A pavilion for the royal party will be provided, and also one for the lieutenant governor. The programme will consist of the presentation of medals to four African soldiers; the consecration and presentation of the flag to the 62nd Fusiliers' Regiment. The route of the royal party from the exhibition building to the barracks grounds is not yet settled, but the Duke, with his escort, may proceed via Sydney, Main and Wentworth streets, while the Duchess may go directly from the eastern side of the exhibition building to the pavilion.
