

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

From papers by the Columbia.

London, July 13.

The New Coinage.—The Bank of England yesterday paid the dividends in new sovereigns, and half-sovereigns, and in new half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, just received from the Royal Mint. A large amount of new half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, was sent off on Saturday and yesterday, particularly to Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, and other populous manufacturing districts in the north.

The New Tariff.—The new Tariff for Customs Duties Bill, of the right hon. Sir Robert Peel, which received the Royal Assent on Saturday last, by commission in the House of Lords, came into operation yesterday. The clerks in the Import Office, at the Customs House, were in attendance at their respective posts as early as eight o'clock in the morning, and throughout the day the greatest activity prevailed in this establishment in granting clearances for bonded goods. At the Bonded Office in the St. Katharine's Dock, the London Dock, and the West India Dock, a great deal of business was done, and a considerable quantity of foreign produce which had been waiting the passing of the bill was cleared from the different warehouses. The Hamburg steamer which arrived yesterday morning, had a quantity of poultry and meat on board, which is now admitted by the new Customs Bill.

Sudden death of Mr. Justice Foster.—I regret to have to announce to you the sudden demise of the Right Honorable John Leslie Foster, one of the Justices of the Common Pleas. His removal from this life was remarkable sudden, and without the slightest previous illness. It took place at Cavan on Saturday night last, where he had gone along with two penitentiaries to reside at the assizes.

Dublin Correspondent of the morning Post.—In regard to the charge against the Hon. Colonel Dundas, Sir Henry Hardinge, on Thursday night, in reply to a question from Lord Worsley, made the following statement:—

"On the Commander-in-Chief's becoming aware of the circumstance, Colonel Henry Dundas was required by him to forward such explanation as he might deem necessary. Having given in an explanation, the Commander-in-Chief was of opinion that Colonel Henry Dundas had failed to absolve himself from the grave offence imputed to him—that of having spoken disrespectfully of her Majesty. Under these circumstances the Commander-in-Chief had felt it to be his duty to submit to her Majesty that Colonel Henry Dundas should be dismissed from his appointment of aide-de-camp to her Majesty; and, further, that he should be removed from the command of the 84th Regiment, and be placed on the half pay list. (hear, hear.) Her Majesty's Government entirely concurred in this proceeding. (hear, hear.)—and her Majesty has been pleased to signify her approval of the decision and determination of the Commander-in-Chief." (hear.)

(The paper gives the following account of the conduct attributed to Colonel Dundas.)

"It appears that at a recent dinner party of the members of the Caledonian Hunt, the Colonel made an attack upon the late minister, and followed it up with a tirade against the Queen, in the course of which he drew a parallel between the late George IV. and her present Majesty, to the disadvantage of the latter, observing that the former protected his aides-de-camp, but that 'that woman who was now on the throne'—

Sir R. Peel and the Rev. Sidney Smith.—The Premier, on Saturday last, rather incautiously indulged in an unkind joke at Sidney Smith's expense, and, as was to be expected, the reverend author has not remained long in his seat. Speaking on the subject of locking railway carriages, Sir Robert was pleased facetiously to observe:—"He really thought that public opinion would operate upon the railway companies; and if there were any of those 'timid old ladies' and 'eccentricities' who feared to travel with closed doors, he thought fears and remonstrances, coming from such influential quarters, must have their due weight with directors. The following letter accordingly has been addressed by the Rev. Sidney Smith, to Sir R. Peel:—"A cruel attack upon me, Sir Robert, to attribute all my interference with the arbitrary proceedings of railroads to personal fear. Nothing can be more ungrateful and unkind, I thought only of you, and for you, as many Whig gentlemen will bear me testimony who rebuked me for my anxiety. I said to myself and to them:—'Our lovely and intrepid minister may be overthrown on the rail. The locked door may be upermost. He will kick and call on the Speaker and the Sergeant-at-Arms in vain. Nothing will remain of all his graces, his flexibilities, his fascinating, facetious fun, his warmth; nothing of his flow of soul, of his dear, heavy pleasantry, of his prevailing skill to impart disorderly wishes to the prelate; nothing will remain of it all but a heap of ashes for the parish church of Tamworth. He perishes at the moment that he is coming as powerful in the drawing-room of the Court as in the House of Parliament—at the moment when Hullah (not without hopes of ultimate success) is teaching him to sing, and Melbourne to dance. I have no doubt of your bravery, Sir Robert, though you have of me; but then, consider what different lives we have led, and what a school of courage is that troop of yeomanry at Tamworth, the Tory Fencibles. Who can doubt of your courage who has seen you at their head marching up Pitt-street, through Dun-square, on to Liverpool lane, and looking all the while like those beautiful medals of Bellona Frigida and Mars sine Sanguine, the very horses looking at you as if you were going to take away three per cent. of their oats. After such spectacles as these the account you give of your own courage can not be doubted. The only little circumstance which I cannot entirely reconcile to the possession of this very high attribute in so eminent a degree, is, that you should have selected for your incontinent attack enemies who cannot resist, and a place where there can be no reply."—What an exquisite subject for the pencil of H. B.—the yeomanry major afflicted the war-horse.—London Atlas.

The Waterloo Banquet.—The anniversary of Waterloo was celebrated on Saturday last by the customary banquet at Apsley-house, given by the Duke of Wellington to the officers who took part in that battle. The sumptuous entertainment given by the noble and gallant duke on Saturday was graced by the presence of his Royal highness Prince Albert, who, with the single exception of the Marquis of Exeter, groom of the stole to his royal highness, in attendance on the prince, was the only personage in the party who was not actually present in either of the actions of the 16th, 17th, or 18th of June, 1815. Covers were laid for 80 persons, the noble and gallant duke presiding, with his royal highness Prince Albert on his right, and the Marquis of Anglesey on his left, the noble Marquis being the next senior Waterloo officer to the gallant host. The usual toasts were drunk, and the entertainment passed off in the most agreeable manner.

The British Parliament is at present occupied with a discussion on the appalling and increasing distress throughout the country. Mr. Wallace having, on Friday, moved, as an amendment to the order of the day for going into a committee of supply, a series of resolutions to the effect that Parliament should not be prorogued without an inquiry being instituted as to the extent of the distress and the best means calculated to afford relief. This has re-opened the question of the corn laws and the trading and financial policy of the late and existing governments, and there is no knowing when the debate will terminate.

The distress in the manufacturing districts continues unabated, and the suffering, in many instances, is really terrible. It has been well said by a great writer, that the spectacle of a man willing to work for bread and compelled to be idle, was one of the saddest sights under the sun; and it is a painful fact, that thousands of those sights are at present to be seen in Great Britain. The spring trade has been a failure, and people are getting alarmed at the apparently chronic nature of the distress. Still, so far, there is every prospect of a most bountiful harvest, and this, it is hoped, will have the effect of restoring things to a comparatively sound state. Should the crops prove a failure, the winter will be looked forward to with serious apprehension.

The West India Mail Boats.—The United Service Gazette announces that the losses of the company some time past, have not fallen short of £1,000 per item; that the contractors have solicited the Admiralty to relieve them from their responsibilities, that it is likely the Admiralty will purchase the boats, and that in the course of the next two months the entire service will be placed under the direction of the board.

It is reported that Lady Caroline Townley, sister to the Earl of Sefton, has recently become a convert to the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church, and made her first communion.

Meal Mob in Dumfries.—Rare as rioting is in Dumfries, a regular meal mob occurred on the night of Saturday last. Without foundation the story was bruited abroad that the grain dealers had entered into a combination for the purpose of raising the price of oatmeal, although we have heard it stated on good authority that most of them, from particular circumstances, have been selling of late at under prime cost. The nucleus of a crowd in sear-bail fashion, until the number of rioters, old and young, amounted, it is believed, to 500. Many women mingled in the fray, most of whom had their aprons filled with stones, of boys and half-grown lads the number was considerable, and there were older persons, in male attire, who stand accused of acting the part of ringleaders. At ten o'clock the mob paid a visit to the shop of the Messrs. Kelly, Bridge-street, before their business hour were over, and commenced a regular assault on the premises with stones, smashing windows and the panels of doors, and exposing customers, as well as the inmates to the greatest bodily fear and danger. After wreaking their vengeance at this point, the mob proceeded to the shop of Mr. Bell, Church-street, Maxwelltown, and literally, it may be said, gutted his dwelling. A whole barrowful of stones were pitched against the doors and windows, and it was observed by Mr. Bell, junr., who was rudely assaulted, some of the rioters were armed with heavy sticks or bludgeons. Some of the boys, bolder than the rest, attempted to rob the till, through an aperture in the window, and although they failed in this object, they perloined a good many loaves and candles. After this the mob visited in succession the shops of Mr. McRobert, Kirkgate; Mr. Thomson, back of the Coffee-house; Mr. Farish, Academy-street, and Mr. Reid, English-street, committing on each occasion similar havoc, and rendering the respective places of business merely the ghosts of what they were. Measures, however, were at length taken to terminate these lawless proceedings, and when the special constables had mustered in sufficient force, the mob was dispersed. Twelve persons have been apprehended. To-day an effort was made to rescue a juvenile prisoner, but the attempt proved abortive.—Dumfries Courier.

July 19.

By the Great Liverpool, from Alexandria, we have received private letters from China, which mention the return of Sir Henry Pottinger to Hong Kong from Macao, and his intention to join the expedition in the north in ten days, and proceed with it to Peking. The general opinion at Macao was, that the Plenipotentiary was resolved to take all responsibility on himself and direct the most decisive measures to be adopted to bring the war to a close by a simultaneous attack on Peking by the land and sea forces. The Plenipotentiary's well-known firmness of purpose, and his tact in keeping the naval and military authorities in good humor, promise the most happy results, and we may soon expect to hear of the British flag being planted in Peking, and the Emperor of China having acceded to the reasonable terms our arms have been sent to enforce. We have good reason for stating that two or three of the most important positions for trade will be retained, and that a large naval and military force will be permanently stationed in China for the future security of British commerce.—Naval and Military Gazette.

Sir Charles Napier, now commanding the Poona Division of the Indian army is to proceed to Afghanistan in October next. There is a desire to permit General Pollock to reap the harvest for which he has well toiled; but Lord Ellenborough has determined we understand, to place in that part of our dominions a large European force, and a tried General in the rougher sort of warfare than that to which Indian Generals are exposed. Little doubt seems to be entertained in India that Dost Mahomed would be placed on the throne of Cabool; indeed, Eastern history shows, that the first step to the throne has frequently been through a prison.—Id.

Return of Boats.—Dangerous Excess of Joy.—Mr. Dickens is again in London, safe from his Transatlantic tour, which, we have no doubt, will soon produce a new harvest of stirring adventures and graphic delineations of character. The return of the distinguished novelist was marked, as we learn from a friend by an impressive and painful incident in his family circle. Immediately on their return, the happy parents rushed to see their children. A fine boy, six years old, was roused from his sleep for the purpose; and no sooner had the little fellow caught a glance of the faces so much endeared to him, and so long absent, than he burst into a transport of delight, which it was found impossible to suppress. Joy was now converted into grief. The delirium continued, and on Friday several physicians were in attendance, almost despairing of recovery. Powerful means were applied, and on Saturday he was so much better that his speedy restoration is anticipated.—Evening Courier.

The naval obituary for the last quarter reports the demise of four admirals, four captains, seven commodores, 14 lieutenants, two masters, two mates, ten medical officers, and one purser. In the Corps of Royal Marines are three captains and two 2nd lieutenants.

A correspondent who, the other day, paid a visit to the grave of the late Sir Walter Scott, at Dryburgh Abbey, expresses regret at not finding it marked out either by horizontal or head-stone, or any marking on the wall, to indicate the resting place of the mortal remains of the great Magician of the North. Not even a turf is spread on his grave, or on that of his lady next to it.—Caledonia Mercury.

Lieut. Brady, late admiralty agent of one of the Peninsula steamers, is appointed to take charge of the mails in the Royal West India Mail steamer Medway, Captain Smith.

The Fortifications of Paris.—The Commerce observes, that Paris is about to be converted into a fortified town of the most formidable kind. "On the exterior it is enclosed in with bastilles and loop-holed bastions, and in the interior the barracks are daily multiplied. The Municipal Council and the Minister of War have agreed to convert the former oil stores in the Rue de Poitou and the military storehouse in the Rue Cherche Midi into barracks, the first for the municipal guard, and the second for troops of the line."

UNITED STATES.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—Recently a dangerous and protracted surgical operation was successfully performed by Dr. James B. Collman, of Trenton, N. J.—This was no less than the "extirpation of the parotid gland," which had become much enlarged and crowded into the throat, so that the patient could scarcely breathe or swallow. It was increasing rapidly, and must in a short time, if not removed, have caused death. It was horribly painful, so as to prevent sleep almost entirely. The following description of the operation is from a Trenton paper.

The gland lies in the neck, below the ear, and passes deep in behind the jaw. One of the largest arteries to supply the brain with blood is in close contact with the gland, and another of equal size passes through it. In the operation, the latter must be cut off; but the other must not be cut, for it would produce almost immediate death. Yet it is most difficult to avoid cutting, as the gland is so taken out lies upon it; and the difficulty of finding it is increased by the deceased state of the parts. Should the knife strike it unexpectedly, or by an accidental motion, the patient would die under the surgeon's hands.

The operation was begun about 12 o'clock. The neck was first opened, near the part commonly called Adam's Apple, and two arteries cut up. Then an incision was made in front of the orifice of the ear, to take up two branches of one of the arteries just taken up in the neck, for through these two branches there is a returning current of blood from the other side of the head. The main incision, was made beginning at this last incision, and extending down to the first in the throat—a terrible gash this six inches and a half long! This cut exposed the gland to be removed, enormously swollen. In health, it is almost imperceptible, but in this case it was as large as one's clenched hand, and had thrust itself out among the neighboring parts. A portion of it lay under the large muscle of the neck, behind the ear. It was then necessary to cut it out from under this muscle; and to do this, the operator was obliged to have the incision drawn open with the hooks, some three or four inches wide. While groping among the vital parts, it was often necessary to dispense with the dangerous knife blade and with the handle of the instrument tear the gland from the arteries with which it was connected. In the course of the operation, several smaller arteries were tied up and cut. So carefully was this done, that the patient did not lose more than half a pint in the whole. He was under the knife about three hours and bore it with fortitude; uttering a few exclamations of pain, and those only when a nerve was cut.

The operation was performed with perfect success, and the patient is doing well; but his life will not be out of danger until there has been time for the arteries to become perfectly closed.

Counterfeiters arrested.—A gang of counterfeiters have been arrested in Gustavus, Warren county, Ohio. Three of them were caught at their shop on the night of July 9th, & $2000 in spurious Mexican dollars and American half dollars were found in their possession. Part of their tools and machinery were also seized. The sheriff was in pursuit of two others. An intercepted letter was the means of their detection.

Yesterday morning forty of the unfortunate victims of the explosion on board of the Edna was followed to the grave by a large number of our citizens. There was but one additional death yesterday, tho' it is the opinion of the physicians in attendance that eight or ten of those who have thus far survived the effects of this terrible disaster will not recover. [St. Louis Reporter, July 5.]

Patriot Movements.—Several papers have recently noticed the robbery of powder houses, &c., along the frontier. We place no confidence in the additional rumour, that there is any organization along the line, although a friend wrote us from Detroit the other day, that there had recently been a meeting in that city of some of the leaders in the old Canada rebellion. Several names are given; but their publication we do no good, as they are too well known to do much mischief.—Rochester Democrat.

One of the New York papers state that Governor Dorr has sailed for Europe. The probability however is, that he is still in New York, engaged in the manufacture of 'fulminating' powder mail.

Letters from Cedar Keys state that the hostile Indians have sent in a messenger to Col. Worth that if he wanted them, he must find them! They did not send their address.

Typhus Fever is said to be prevalent at Quebec.—The Rev. Mr. Portier was one of the victims.—As the disease is extremely infectious, the papers recommend a strict regard to cleanliness in the streets and yards, as among the best preventives.

Theodore Hook says that modern travelling, by railroads and steamboats, annihilates both time and space, and a number of passengers besides!

PROVINCIAL.

Brutal Outrage.—On the night of Monday the 25th instant several cattle belonging to Mr. Matthew Young, at the Lodge, were cut and stabbed in a most brutal manner. Four fine Cows and two oxen were abused in such a manner as to render them completely useless for a time at least—two of the Cows Mr. Young has since been obliged to kill, and the others it is supposed he will lose.

Three sailors belonging to the ship Sir Charles Napier, were arrested on suspicion, and brought before Mr. Justice Abbot on Wednesday last where they were convicted of the heinous charge, and fined each in the sum of £5, or sentence to twenty days imprisonment.—Courant.

The Saw-Mills situated on one of the Branches of Shediac River, belonging to Mr. Ambrose Newman, were destroyed by fire on Saturday, 16th ult.—No insurance. The Mills were ignited by the woods on fire in the vicinity.

The Mirror states that 400 able bodied laborers might meet with employment in the rich agricultural district of Nova Scotia, between Annapolis and Horton, and recommends a number of emigrants to proceed thither, in preference to rushing in such crowds to the United States, where the laboring population is already very numerous.

Sydney Coal Mines.—Extract of a letter dated "Sydney, C. B., July 7."—The Sydney miners are now doing a prosperous business. The number of arrivals at this port for coal since January 1, is 230—18,000 chaldrons of coal have already been shipped to the United States, West Indies, ports in the Mediterranean, and elsewhere. A new pit has lately been opened, and coal is now raised from a vein which has not hitherto been worked. It is of a superior kind for manufacturing gas, being very inflammable, and entirely free from sulphur. The Company will, in a short time, be able to furnish any quantity which may be ordered.

Incendiarism.—A daring attempt was made on Sunday evening to destroy the National School House, fronting on King's Square. It appears that the incendiary entered the yard attached to the School House, and made his way under the building through a hole in the side, ascending by a trap-door into the school room, where some combustible materials were placed and the torch applied. Fortunately the flames were discovered in time to prevent any material damage to the building. The early hour at which this deed of darkness was committed, providentially led to its discovery in time to frustrate the designs of the heartless villain. The fire was discovered shortly after ten o'clock, at which time it had burnt a hole through the floor and was ascending a partition, near which it had been kindled. It is difficult to account for this act it surely could not have been committed with the view of plunder, as the School House is built of brick, and consequently the flames would not have extended to any other buildings. The defenceless state of the city of fers a wide range for the midnight robber and incendiary, and in which the hand of justice, we are sorry to add, seldom overtakes the guilty parties.

We learn that a person who was seen entering the School-House yard about four o'clock in the afternoon with an armful of shavings, has been taken up on suspicion of being the incendiary.—[New Brunswick.]

Bay Verte Canal.—The Acadia Recorder of Saturday last says:—"Captain Crawley, Royal Engineers, who came in the Acadia, is, we understand, to be employed on particular service, with reference to the contemplated Canal between the Bay Verte and the Gulf of Saint Lawrence."

H. M. Transport Ship Crocodile, 44 days from Dublin, arrived at Halifax on Tuesday last with 19 men of the Royal Artillery and 54 men of the 52d Regiment. The officers who came out with the detachments are Captain Twite and Lieut. Moreshead, of the Royal Artillery, and Captain Forester, Lieut. Carden, and Ensign Peel, of the 52d.

ARRIVAL OF THE COLUMBIA.

The Second JULY PACKET arrived at Halifax on the 30th ult. in ten days and a half from Liverpool, bringing 45 passengers. A summary of the news by this arrival will be found in our columns.

The melancholy fate of the Duke of Orleans is the leading subject of the latest journals. His Royal Highness was killed by a fall from his carriage near Paris, on the 13th ult. His death is not only a dreadful blow to his family, but is a political event pregnant with disastrous importance to the welfare of France, as the Government of the nation must inevitably be committed to a Regency.

The young Count of Paris, now Duke of Orleans, the heir apparent to the throne, is not more than 4 years of age, whilst the present King is little less than 70, so that a minority of from 10 to 15 years may be considered certain.

Lieut. Colonel Dundas has been dismissed from the office of Aide de camp to her Majesty, and removed from the command of the 83d Regiment.

Notwithstanding the enormous steam navy which Great Britain has already equipped, the Government seems determined to make it far more formidable. Two large steam frigates have been launched from one of the Royal Dockyards this month, and the building of another has been commenced, which will be fitted with engines of 800 horse power,—just double the dimensions of the largest of the war steamers now employed.

We are indebted to Messrs Willmer and Smith for a London paper of the 19th inst. The extraordinary attention and liberality of those gentlemen merit the highest regard, and something more, of the colonial and republican press of North America.

The prospects of the harvest in England and Scotland are very flattering; in Ireland, however, the crops have been greatly injured by heavy rain.

The Britannia arrived at Liverpool on the 16th inst. 10 days hence.—H. M. steamer Rhadamathus arrived at Plymouth hence on the 8th ult.

The Great Western left Bristol on the 16th inst. for New York. The Medway took the West India mail from Southampton on the 15th instant.

The Concert by the Amateur Band of this Town, takes place this Evening.

Capt. Adams, of the Minerva, has favoured us with late Jamaica papers, which we shall extract from in our next.

The leading article in the Sentinel of last Friday requires a brief remark. A solitary hint in the Standard respecting the misconduct of the Assembly, has drawn from Mr. Ward nearly a column of explanation and reply. Mr. W. himself admits that 'the not providing means to meet the public debt before the close of the last session,' is 'a serious charge,' but he contends it is the 'only one.' It is a serious charge, and any member of the Assembly against whom it can fairly be brought, deserves to lose his seat. That it can be fairly brought against some, none will deny—that it can be brought against all, we have never asserted. But this is not the only charge: there is another yet more serious, viz. incurring the debt. Had this evil been avoided, Mr. W.'s serious charge could never have been made, and a great many other serious and well-founded charges could not have been made.

We were much amused with Mr. W.'s method of answering complaints against the acts of the Legislature. 'An individual had written several letters arraigning the Assembly for voting money improperly.' This is not denied. Mr. W. admits that 'there may have been extravagant and objectionable votes'; but then he gravely adds, 'this individual has a relative who receives £500 per annum by way of pension!' It certainly shows a great want of gratitude for pensioner's relatives to complain. The Master of the Rolls receives £800 annually, a charge which Mr. W. says ought never to have been incurred; and therefore the 'compact party,' as he styles them, ought to be quiet. Before the casual and territorial revenue came under the control of the Assembly, there were, it seems, 'some fine pickings and sums bestowed that would not bear to see the light,' a convincing proof that we should bear extravagance in the expenditure of public money now, without a murmur.

According to the Sentinel it would appear that there has been a political game playing by all parties, some winning by honors and some by tricks; but we fear that even the clear and forcible logic of Mr. W. will fail to convince those who are in distress for want of public money justly due to them, that they ought not to complain, because some one in their county or of their party, has managed to get a share of Provincial bounty to which he was not entitled.

We are not 'desirous of obtaining a seat in the Assembly,' nor did we 'oppose that branch of the Legislature in its efforts to obtain the command of the canal and territorial revenue,' we have notwithstanding, as the Editor of the Sentinel insinuates, a 'purpose to serve,'—the promotion of the public good.

The British Queen arrived at New York, from Antwerp and Southampton, on the evening of the 28th ult., bringing London papers to the 9th.

The Boundary Arrangement.—The Madisonian says: 'Some of the false rumors abroad state that money is to be paid to England—others that it is to be given to Maine, &c. There is not a word of truth in any of them.'

The Boundary.—The Madisonian, a Washington paper that professes to know something of the secrets of the Cabinet, has come out with the following:

Northeastern Boundary.—We are authorized to say that a conventional line of boundary, with its various conditions and equivalents, has been agreed on by the Executive and the British Special Envoy, with the unanimous consent of the Commissioners of Maine and Massachusetts. We congratulate all parties upon this happy and honorable result.

Terms.—We have reason to know that the Commissioners of the two States of Maine and Massachusetts have signified their assent to a line of boundary between Maine and New Brunswick.

Every body knows that the territory in dispute embraces all the region of the upper St. John, and the general understanding now is, that this region is to be divided into unequal parts; the largest, and by far most valuable, to be assigned to Maine, together with considerations connected with the navigation of the St. Johns, (both sides of the lower of which belongs to England,) of the greatest importance to the value of the timber growing on its branches. Other important arrangements in different parts of the line, hitherto unsettled, in various places between Maine and the Lake of the Woods, are rumored as likely to take place.

We have been requested to state, that all Licenses for keeping of Parish Schools prior to 24th June last, have been cancelled by His Excellency the Lieut. Governor. And in order to prevent imposition in the event of new applications, we are authorized to notice, that Hugh Allen, now a Teacher in the Parish of Penfield and formerly under a Licence, was on Tuesday last convicted before Justice HARRAWAY, of drunkenness and rioting in the streets, and sentenced to three days imprisonment.

Mr. Webster gave a dinner at Washington last Saturday week, in honor of the settlement of the Boundary question, at which were present the President and the whole Cabinet, Lord Ashburton and suite, Mr. Fox and suite, the Commissioners from Maine and Massachusetts, &c. &c. Mr. Webster gave a toast—'Quebec Victoria! Long may she continue to reign over a prosperous and happy people.' Lord Ashburton gave—'The President! The President gives the law of the U. States.' The President gave—'The Commissioners! The President gives the peace makers.' The Secretary of War was then toasted, with some pleasant allusion to his business being spoiled by the Commissioners.

In the Steamship Columbia from Liverpool for Halifax.—Major French, Lady, and 2 servants, Lieut. Col. Jackson, Rev. Alex. McLeans, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, 3 Miss Peters, and female servants, Mr. Rawson, and servant, Messrs. Atfield, Walker and J. Gibson. In the brig Minerva from Jamaica, to this Port, Mr. Thomas Watt.

The following Testimonial is one of many thousands addressed to Messrs. Rowland & Son, 20, Hatton Garden, London, whose Advertisement appears in another column.

Gentlemen.—I consider it almost an imperative duty to state the valuable efficacy of your most excellent MACASSAR OIL. For the last 15 years I have been bald, occasioned by a most dreadful fever whilst in India. I have used almost every means to procure a head of hair again, but all my efforts seemed fruitless, until accidentally, a friend advised the use of your valuable Hair Restorer. (I can give it no better name), and, after using a 3s. 6d. bottle, every symptom of a new head of hair began to show itself, to the joy, not only of myself, but my children. I resolved on having another, and obtained a 7s. bottle, and, before the whole of which was used, I had, and have now, as handsome a head of hair as ever man enjoyed, and I earnestly recommend all who have not tried this most excellent Oil, will not fail to do so.

I am, Sirs, Your most grateful and obedient servant, J. WALKER, Colonel. Watley Lodge, near Tauton, May 10, 1840.

HEADACHE.
CERTAIN CURE FOR SICK HEADACHE, which has been used in families, every member of which has had sick headache from infancy, as a constitutional family complaint, and has cured effectually in every instance yet known; amounting to many hundreds. It is not unpleasant to the taste, and does not prevent the daily avocations of one using it. It must be persevered in, and the cure is gradual, but certain and permanent. Instances are constantly multiplying where this distressing complaint completely relieved and cured although of long standing. One decided preference is its pleasantness, having none of the nauseating effect of common drugs.

It is so perfectly satisfactory, that the proprietor has given directions for his agent to refund the price to any one who is not pleased with, and even cured by it. He hopes also that this may secure its great benefits to the distressed sufferers who are labouring under headache.

E. Sisson, M. D. Inventor and Proprietor.
COMSTOCK & CO.,
71 Maiden Lane, New York.

From the New York Herald.

MYSTERIOUS.

A gentleman belonging to one of the most ancient and wealthy families of this city, who must be well known to numerous friends, having since the year 1818 up to recently, been bent nearly double, and for several years confined to his bed, has been restored to good health—has regained his natural erect position—and has quitted his carriage, and now walks with ease! We believe this is the gentleman's own description as near as possible, and there is no exaggeration in it. We will give inquiries his address, and doubt not his humane feelings will excuse the liberty, so that any one doubting may know these facts—though he requests his name may not appear in print. Among other similar instances, Mr. James G. Reynolds, 144 Christie street, has been restored, and will give personal assurances of the facts of his case. Both were Rheumatism, and contracted cords & sitewas. How has this been done?

Answer.—By the Indian Vegetable Elixer internally, and Heues Nerve and Bone Liment externally. Sold only by COMSTOCK & CO., 71 Maiden Lane, New York.

$100 REWARD.

ONE Hundred Dollars Reward has been offered for the Liniment for the Piles without being cured. Of thousands sold, in no one instance has it failed of a cure. Proof overwhelming to be had where it is sold. It is also a certain cure in nearly every case.

(externally) in the following complaints:
Tightness of the chest, especially in children.
Fool Ulcers of the legs, or other flegmy sores however obstinate or long standing.
Fresh Wounds, Chilblains, &c. &c.

LOOK OUT.

Some scoundrels have counterfeited this article and put it up with various demas. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO. that name must always be on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take the direction with you, and test by that, or never buy it, for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine. Sold by COMSTOCK & CO., 71 Maiden Lane, New York.

Double the Quantity and Better Quality than any other for the same price!!! Remember this.

LIVER COMPLAINTS AND ALL SICKNESS AND DISEASES.
DR. LIN'S
TEMPERANCE LIFE-BITTERS,
AND
CHINESE BLOOD-PILLS.

The greatest Secret discovered!

PURGE—purge—purge has been the cry for the last few years. This has been effectually tried; and yet sufferers have multiplied—and died—and why? Not because purging was not necessary, but too much has been done—without the tonic to follow, and sustain the system. Purge, you must! The sickly humours of the blood must be carried off—or the accumulation of them prevented. Prevent, then, the growth of such humours. Why do the Chinese live to such immense ages, and still retain the powers of youth or middle age?

—Because they purify the blood. The Chinese Blood Pills—so called because they work upon and cleanse the blood—are the standard remedy—These pills will do it, and the Temperance Bitters, taken as directed, will strengthen the system and prevent the accumulation of the base humours which infest the blood, and which only increase by purges unless the bitters are taken prior. Buy, then, these pills and bitters. Take weekly the pills and daily the bitters, and if you are or have been invalid for days, weeks, months or years, you will find the sickly humours drawn off, and prevented from returning, and the entire system of health & youthful buoyancy.

There are cases so numerous of these brilliant effects, that time and space forbids an attempt to set them down. Buy, and use these medicines, and use no other, and health and strength shall be yours. See wrapper and directions that come with them.

will be attempted. Buy no remedy of the kind unless it have my name—O. C. Lin, M. D.—on the wrapper, and also the notice as follows:—
"Entered according to Act of Congress, A.D. 1841 by Thomas Jones, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States, for the Southern District of New York."

Meers Comstock & Co. New York, are the sole wholesale agents for the United States and all neighbouring countries.

TO THE OLD AND YOUNG.

HO! YE RED HEADS & GREY!
REMEMBER IN C. KIMBURY.
EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.
Colors the Hair, and will not the skin!

This dye is in form of a powder which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest red or grey hair to a dark brown, and the repeating a second or third night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or a perfect black, with a positive assurance that the powder, applied to the hair, will not color it, as is no trouble in re-dyeing it from the hair, as the old powder before made. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair! Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this preparation, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman, who manufactures it, who is the celebrated chemist, Dr. Comstock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and many other works well known and widely circulated by the public.

This dye is sold only by COMSTOCK & CO., 71 Maiden Lane, New York.

OLDRIDG'S BALM OF COLUMBIA.

This article was first introduced into New York market about twenty years since, and from its superior qualities has been in constant demand. It has fallen out, keeping the head free from dandrif, (a most loathsome article on a gentleman's coat collar) and giving a softness and beautiful lustre unknown before to the hair, has induced some persons to set up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, none of which stand the test of trial, professing as most of them do, to be Oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurious to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no oil or grease will make the hair grow rapidly and of a good quality but the Balm of Columbia, and no article purporting to be the Balm of Columbia is genuine unless the name of COMSTOCK & CO. on the outside wrapper. Some have been deceived and obtained a counterfeit article for the true and genuine Balm of Columbia. Remember to look for the name of COMSTOCK & CO. on the wrapper, before you purchase, and get none but the genuine. Buy, then, the Balm of Columbia, and without that name is made in the same way, and is just as good, all such pretensions are false, and known to be so by the counterfeits.

TO BE PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

of an instructive and pleasing character. The contents will be for the most part original, and adapted to the wants and capacities of youthful readers. Not only will the exclusive services of an accomplished Editor be given to the work, but the talents of many popular writers will be enlisted in its support.

All the new popular works for children which appear in England will be obtained; and from these the best articles will be chosen and published entire in the columns of the Gazette, together with the engravings by which they may be illustrated. Thus, in our catalogue of contributors, there will be many names, dear and familiar to the young—Miss Edgeworth, Mrs. Holland, Mary Howitt, Miss Martineau, Mrs. Barwell, Miss Milnes, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Joanna Baillie, Mrs. Southey, Miss Cole-ridge, and others. Thus, at a price far less than that for which such works could be reprinted in the shape of books in this country, will the most excellent treatises and stories for the young be presented.

Arrangements will also be made to obtain original articles by favorite American authors, a pure moral tone will pervade every sentence of the new periodical. Every thing like sectarian, or political bias will be sedulously avoided. In fine, the Journal will be adapted to the tastes and capacities of all children, and thus merit its name.

EVERY YOUTH'S GAZETTE will, on and after the 22d of January, be issued on Saturday mornings, at the office of the New World 38 Ann street, New York.
