Informal Public Meeting of City School Board Deals Briefly With Mayor Cowan's Charges—Neither Paxton nor Robertson had any Contract With the Board—Chairman Morley and Dr. McKeough Submit Clear Statements—Other Trustees Unanimously Endorse Them—Every Action was Taken in the Best Interests of the People Who Elected Them—Mr. Drader Sorry Mayor Cowan's Expose Did Not Embrace Certain Acts of Mayor and Council in Which the People Would Have Been Deeply Interested.

"As a Board, and as individuals thereon, we court the very fullest and most minute enquiry and investigation into all our acts. We have never forgotten that we were elected by the people to promote and guard their interests, and it has always been our earnest and whole-souled endeavor to prove—each and all of us—worthy of that trust. We have ever acted in what we honestly and conscientiously deemed to be the city's best interests and for the public weal. Honest, thoughtful, helpful criticism and suggestion is always welcome—and appreciated. In vituperation and abuse we take no part. But we deem ourselves public servants, ready at all times to answer for our acts."

Such was the quiet and emphatic statement of Chairman W. N. Morley, of the Public School Board, at the informal meeting held in his offices this morning for the purpose of dealing with the drastic arraignment of his worship, Mayor Cowan, at the recent City Council meeting.

Both Trustees Paxton and Robertson were present and intimated that, as they had been specifically instanced by the Mayor, they deemed it wiser at the present time to leave the statement of the case in the hands of their colleagues, all of whom were present.

"DR. McKEOUGH SPEAKS.

The Trustees seemed to hold themselves in admirable check. While it was very evident that a strong sentiment of indignation permeated their deliberations, what they said was generally moderate and well-considered—but very emphatic. Dr. McKeough, one of the managers of McKeough School, and generally accredited by street rumor with being the "influence that the press would not go up against," made the following statement:

"I am more particularly interested in the uncalculated, unvarnished and most unjust charge made against Trustee Robertson.

"The facts are as follows:—We required some repairs in the McKeough School. The Board requested Trustees Robertson and Paxton to examine and report. They did so, and stated that the repairs would possibly amount to $50, and that it would be almost impossible to ask for tenders as it would be difficult to be sufficiently exact in the specifications.

"The managers then got permission to have the repairs made, and visited the school together, accompanied by Messrs. Paxton and Robertson. At that visit Mr. McArthur suggested that the work be given to Mr. Walters, an old resident of North Chatham. Knowing from personal experience that Mr. Walters was a skilful and excellent workman, I agreed with the suggestion, as did also Mr. Heyward and Mr. Morley, the other managers. Mr. Walters did the work. At the last meeting of the Board he presented his account, which was less than $50, and in due time obtained his cheque, and informed me to-day that he got it cashed himself. So far as I know, Mr. Robertson had nothing whatever to do with the transaction.

"As regards 'graft,' I have known Mr. Robertson intimately for many years and have never met a more honorable and upright man, a man, I believe, above the slightest shadow of suspicion as regards any dishonorable act.

"As regards the charge against Mr. Paxton: after the contract was let, the general management of the addition to the Central was left to the managers of that school, and being away on my holidays at the last meeting of the Board, I am not so familiar with the incident referred to, but from what I can learn, if the transaction was technically incorrect, I feel sure that both the managers and Mr. Paxton were quite innocent of any wrong doing, and they acted in the best interests of the city, and by his inspection, the work was vigorously prosecuted and possibly a hundred dollars saved to the city.

"Both Mr. Robertson and Mr. Paxton have been most useful and helpful men on the Board. Practical and skilful mechanics, they have simply been invaluable and have given time and advice unreservedly and unstintingly. So far as the charge against the press is concerned it is too absurd to notice. The only other specific charge I have ever heard Mr. Cowan make against the Board was the sale of the Queen street property, and The Planet condemned that in several strong editorials. Besides The Planet has for years argued the doing away of the ward system in our elections.

"It seems to me that such language as the Mayor made use of the other night detracts from the dignity of his honorable position and is not necessary for the accomplishment of his scheme. He should take himself more seriously and speak with more sense of the responsibility of his position. Such intemperate and irresponsible talk from the chief executive officer of a prosperous city will not encourage respectable citizens to undertake any of the onerous duties of its government."

MR. MORLEY'S STATEMENT.

Chairman Morley said the Paxton case came more particularly under his jurisdiction and he had no hesitation in making public the full facts.

When I consulted our solicitor, Mr. G. R. Dickinson, K. C., relative to the drawing of the contract for the work on the Central School," said Mr. Morley, "he informed me that it might be necessary to appoint a clerk of the work. This was found to be a somewhat expensive luxury and I expressed the hope that the managers would have been able to dispense with it and thereby make a saving for the city. We wanted the work pushed vigorously and a clerk of the work has sometimes a tendency to prolong his position by dragging it out—at least, our past experience has not been most fortunate. When the Central was built we had a clerk of the work; with the result that we have to-day no plans of our sewers and no particulars of the construction of the building. As a result, I suggested to Mr. Paxton that he give the matter some of his attention, having a knowledge of the construction of buildings, and have him look it over, saving thereby at least $100 to $150 on a clerk of the work."

"Mr. Paxton expressed his willingness and generously assumed the somewhat arduous work. We had no contract with him, nor was there any understanding whatsoever that he should receive any remuneration therefor. After the work was completed, it was such a splendid job, and Mr. Paxton had spent so much time upon it, that we urged him to accept a gift of $25 from the Board in gratitude for his services. There was no intention to do anything dishonorable, and I believe that $25 was one of the best the Board ever spent."

PAXTON SAVED CITY $150.

"You cannot put that too strongly," added Trustee W. M. Drader, "I have looked over the work and say without hesitation that Mr. Paxton's services in that one contract alone saved the city five or six times the amount which we asked him to accept. He went over the work on the construction, on the addition and on the plans and had no idea of ever being paid a cent for it."

HOW ABOUT THE MAYOR?

"I am very sorry," continued Mr. Drader significantly, "that when Mr. Cowan undertook the job of regulating the conduct of everyone else, he had not turned the searchlight for a few moments on the civic conduct of the Mayor of this city and his own body. I think the people would have been somewhat animatedly interested in the result."

"I suggest that we leave that matter for later consideration," put in Dr. McKeough.

"Quite right," added Mr. Drader, and the somewhat significant comment was closed.

Mr. Benson vigorously endorsed what had been said by the Chairman and Mr. Drader concerning Mr. Paxton's position. Mr. Paxton, he declared, had been invaluable to the Board and the city and had saved them money time and again. He had urged Mr. Paxton to undertake the supervision of the contract in question and he had done so with not the slightest intimation of receiving anything for his services.

MR. HEYWARD SPEAKS.

Mr. Heyward said he exceedingly regretted the Mayor's conduct. He believed Messrs. Paxton and Robertson were two of the most valuable and zealous trustees the city ever had, and their presence at the Board was very helpful while building operations were in progress, both being practical men. He was assured that, no matter what lapses might have occurred—and such things were always possible even in the best regulated institutions—the trustees ever aimed to perform their duties with efficiency and integrity.

MR. McARTHUR ANGRY.

"Such reckless and unfounded statements as were made by the Mayor deserve an indignant refutation," was Mr. McArthur's strenuous comment. "He should certainly be made to answer for them. The Board saved the citizens much money and secured splendid work by their actions and I stand right by it. The preparation of plans and specifications for the work would have cost the whole job, which, when completed, cost less than $50, to say nothing of the cost of advertising and other incidentals."

THE C. C. I. BOARD.

Chairman W. S. Richards, of the Collegiate Institute Board, when interviewed said smilingly, "We have the glad conscientiousness that our hands are clean. I have the greatest confidence in my colleagues and in the work of our Board, and would be delighted to see any investigation of its conduct and proceedings inaugurated. If there is the slightest dissatisfaction I earnestly hope this will be done."

MAYOR TO CONFRONT BOARD.

"If there is anything wrong with the C. C. I. Board, or its manner of conducting public business, the public should promptly know it and the trustees should be equally promptly penalized," was the vigorous comment of Colonel J. B. Rankin, chairman of the committee on Internal Management. "If, on the other hand, statements and imputations have been made which are utterly without foundation in fact, then it is due the Board, and the public whom they represent, that those responsible for them—on failing to produce substantiation—should be called upon to withdraw them. I do not think it an occasion for making speeches or giving interviews. People do not want talk; they look for action. With this in view I am suggesting to the chairman, Mr. W. G. Richards, that he call a special meeting of our Board and ask the Mayor to be present with a view to dealing fully with any insinuations or charges that have been or may be then submitted."

NEVER MENTIONED THE MAYOR.

"I see that it is reported in one of the local papers that Mayor Cowan is exercised because he believed the School Board were out in a body to oppose his re-election next year," said Chairman Morley at the end of the conference. "It is, of course, very childish, but it is only fair to remove his anxiety. I never even heard a member of the Board allude to him or his aspirations—not even a suggestion as to the position of the trustees or how they might vote. We had our own important duties to perform as trustees and not spend our time in municipal gossip and plans. So little attention have we paid to him or his ambitions that I really cannot remember ever having heard them even mentioned."

INHUMANITY

A Serious Case Reported to Humane Officer McGregor who is Investigating the Facts To-Day

Humane Officer James McGregor is to-day investigating a case which, if the reports concerning it are true, is one which cannot be too severely dealt with.

Yesterday a complaint was made at the Police Station that a number of cattle were put out to pasture in a field adjoining the southern limits of the city with no water to drink. It is claimed that the cattle are never watered and have to exist on the evening. Expert cattle men say it is dew which falls on the grass in the possible for cattle to live in this way, but it is nothing less than torture to make them do it. During the hot weather they must have suffered untold agony.

The case may not be as bad as it is depicted, but it is worthy of investigation of the Humane Officer. Further developments will follow to-morrow and prosecution will be made if warranted.

MISTAKEN

"The Mayor says the press was gagged and did not criticize the School Board's actions," said the Savage editor of the "Growler" yesterday morning. "I wish it distinctly understood," said he, "that this widely read publication growled fearlessly at the School Board at the time of the sale of the Queen street property and on other occasions."

SAD DEATH

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Martin L. Chapman, baggage-man at the G. T. R. station, for the loss of his wife under most distressing circumstances. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock from the residence, West street.

LANDMARKS

When the company's workmen were tearing up King street in order to lay the pipes to carry the steam heat they stumbled upon an old brick sewer near Forsyth street. It is supposed that it was used by the old "Chatham Arms," an inn which stood near the spot in the early days.

The required permission was given to break it in order to proceed with the work in course of construction.

IN WEST LAMBTON.

A bye-election is impending in West Lambton owing to the death of the late M. P., Dr. Johnston, and the method in which the campaign is being opened up by the Sarnia Liberal organ is characteristic of the fall of the party from the high principles it used to profess with fervor. It is the same sort of argument as was used here when the armory grant was made, and it is to be hoped the people of West Lambton will prove their manliness as those of Stratford and North Perth did. The openness and unblushing frankness of the Sarnia Observer bid make it worthy of reproduction as an exceptional sample of the kind. Said the Observer:

"There is still much to be done for the constituency in the way of dredging and improving the water front at Point Edward and Sarnia, and in lighting and buoying the river entrance and channels between the lake and the St. Clair flats. There is also the subject of improved armory accommodation for the companies of the 27th Regiment, the Medical Corps and the 1st Hussars in the western half of this county. Sarnia, in point of population, has arrived at the status of a city, and with proper representation to the Militia Department ought to be next on the list for a first class armory. A Government supporter from this county could expedite these public improvements and be of material benefit to the constituency. An Opposition member would not have the same influence in pressing the claims of the constituency upon a Government whose expenditures and policy he was elected to criticize adversely."

In view of the fact that Chatham has its armory now nearing completion, while Mr. H. S. Clements, Conservative, was also elected by a good majority, the case of Sarnia and West Lambton should not be so hopeless, as to warrant the Observer's pretended despondency. In view of the Laurier Government's great majority, which is big enough to spare a few seats, it would be good tactics for West Lambton to elect Mr. Levesque.

CANADIANS BRIBED

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 20. — The Ontario fisheries department will institute a rigid investigation into alleged illegal fishing by American firms in Georgian Bay and Lake Erie. It is declared that thousands of tons of fish illegally taken are shipped to the United States every week.

The chances taken by fishermen on Lake Erie of clashing with the government cruiser Vigilant are not the only means taken by American firms to get fish from Canadian waters, according to a government official.

It is alleged that they secure the services of licensed Canadian fishermen and supply them with nets and tugs. The Canadian fishermen then turn their catches over to boats belonging to the American companies.

BARVARDO DEAD

IRELAND-KING

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hooper King Tuesday evening at six o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Beatrice Helen King, was united in Wm. Ireland, of Stratford, formerly an architect in this city.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of flowers and the handsome home was very tastefully and appropriately decorated. There were about 40 guests, including a number from Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Ireland, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Stratford. The gowns were very beautiful and costly and the wedding scene was a very pretty one.

After the wedding supper the newly married couple left on a honeymoon trip to Detroit, Chicago and other western points. They will reside in Stratford. They have many friends in this city who wish them a long and prosperous wedded life. One pleasant feature of the wedding was the presence of the bride's grand aunt, Mrs. Funston, who is 82 years of age.

It was a very quiet wedding, only the relatives of the bride being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Gilmore.

The happy couple left on the 9.55 a. m. P. M. train for points east with the best wishes of a host of friends.

FLORODORA IS GOOD.

The Ottawa Citizen speaks well of coming lyric comedy.

Of the production of "Florodora," which comes to the Grand to-morrow night, the Ottawa Citizen of Wednesday last has this to say: "The Russet Theatre is fortunate in having such a strong attraction for fair week as Florodora, which last evening opened a five-night engagement. This pretty lyric comedy had many friends in Ottawa and the number was largely increased last night. Absolutely clean and wholesome, jolly and rollicking, Florodora goes with a merry swing from first to last. The music is as tuneful and catchy as one could desire."

The company is an unusually large one and the costuming and scenery are on a lavish scale. There are quite a number of very attractive ladies, though the company seems to have been selected with more regard to good singing than the symmetrical appearance in ensembles. The chorus work was wonderfully well done, showing excellent training as well as talented vocalists.

Miss Leslie Leigh, the pretty prima donna with the "Isle of Spice" company, which will be presented here on Monday, Sept. 25th, has received the most enticing of letters of late from a millionaire of Pasadena, Cal., who saw Miss Leigh's photograph in the New York Telegraph. He at once became infatuated and immediately wrote a letter, to which she jokingly responded, telling him she was still heart-whole and fancy free. He then began urging her to abandon the stage and come to California and marry him, stating that his heart, wealth and house would be laid at her feet. She at first took it as a joke, but on receiving so many letters and telegrams from him, she realizes the affair is more serious than anticipated, and is sorry she started the little jest.

Seats on sale to-morrow.

Few productions in recent years have won the deserved success achieved by the romantic comedy-drama "Down by the Sea," which comes to the Grand Opera House last Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 27 and 28. The play tells a story of intense heart interest, the situations are strong throughout and the characters are all faithfully drawn. Mingled with the pathetic scenes of this play is just enough high grade comedy to excite interest and create laughter. The play contains the names of many prominent players, and as the scenic and mechanical effects are very elaborate, a strictly first class production is assured.

In order to secure the full benefit of the Government grant, the directors of the Fair on Sept. 26, 27 and 28, have increased the prize list to a considerable extent. The result is more entries and a better showing than ever.

BENSON-BIGGAR

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning, September 20th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edgar Eggar, Blenheim, when their eldest daughter, Nellie Maud, was married to Thomas Challenor Benson, of London. The Rev. Geo. Gilmore officiated, in the presence of the immediate relatives.

The bride was unattended and was prettily gowned in soft white radium silk. Her going-away costume was of brown chiffon broadcloth, with toque to match. Mr. and Mrs. Benson left on the noon train for the east, and on their return will reside in London.

Mrs. (Dr.) A. J. McTavish entertained a number of young ladies on Tuesday to a six o'clock dinner in honor of Miss Nelly Biggar.

What They Took.

It is reported that on a recent occasion when Arthur Balfour, Joseph Chamberlain, Lord Charles Bessborough and the Japanese Minister were dining together Mr. Balfour, who was standing treat, asked Mr. Chamberlain what he would have, says Harper's Weekly.

"Thanks, I'll take Scotch, Arthur," was the response.

"And what will you take, Lord Charles?"

"I'll take Irish, Arthur."

"And what will you take," addressing the Japanese Minister.

"I'll take port, Arthur, thanks," was the answer.

Art and Arithmetic.

A disgruntled painter whose canvas was rejected by the London Academy figures out that he spent an entire year on his painting. His cost of living was only $750, while he paid for rent $310 and for materials and models $210. The picture cost him all told $1,285 and since it has been rejected by the academy it will not bring one-twentieth of that sum.

The income of a prominent painter is enormous, but it has been estimated that half a million dollars is yearly wasted in the vain struggle for the recognition of the academy and that of this sum not one-twentieth is recovered at private sale.

What They Took.

It is reported that on a recent occasion when Arthur Balfour, Joseph Chamberlain, Lord Charles Bessborough and the Japanese Minister were dining together Mr. Balfour, who was standing treat, asked Mr. Chamberlain what he would have, says Harper's Weekly.

"Thanks, I'll take Scotch, Arthur," was the response.

"And what will you take, Lord Charles?"

"I'll take Irish, Arthur."

"And what will you take," addressing the Japanese Minister.

"I'll take port, Arthur, thanks," was the answer.

Art and Arithmetic.

A disgruntled painter whose canvas was rejected by the London Academy figures out that he spent an entire year on his painting. His cost of living was only $750, while he paid for rent $310 and for materials and models $210. The picture cost him all told $1,285 and since it has been rejected by the academy it will not bring one-twentieth of that sum.

The income of a prominent painter is enormous, but it has been estimated that half a million dollars is yearly wasted in the vain struggle for the recognition of the academy and that of this sum not one-twentieth is recovered at private sale.

Why the Bears Fought.

C. M. Russell, the western painter, tells an amusing story of a bear fight which he thinks is funnier than any humorous sketch he has ever seen portrayed on a vaudeville stage. He had been out with a guide all day, and toward evening they saw far down the road two bears sauntering along quite oblivious of the presence of human beings, as the wind was in the wrong direction. Russell and his guide quickly jumped behind a small thicket, and when the bears were within shooting distance the painter let fly and struck one of them fair in the side. The shot stunned the animal for a moment, and he was under the impression that his mate had struck him a terrific blow when he was not looking. As there appeared to be no reason for this chasisement, he proceeded to retaliate by attacking the other bear. About this time the guide took a shot at the assaulted animal, with the result that the brute was infuriated and imagined he had been struck with undue force by his comrade. Upon this the two bears set to and had a terrific fight—

Usual Performance.

"Then so far as you are aware," said the lawyer who was doing a cross examining stunt, "your wife was performing her usual household duties when the accident occurred?"
"Yes," answered the witness; "she was talking."—Detroit Tribune.

Solitude.

"I hyah you is gone into 'business," said Miss Miami Brown.
"Yass, indeed," answered Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "I 'rains' chickens an' sellin'
'em."

"What's de matter? Is you los' yob appetite?"—Washington Star.

mobile will seat forty people."

Trouble is apt to blind one to many pitfalls which can be had for the taking.

THOMAS A. EDISON, the inventor, in mapping out the problems of the future, gives first place to the necessity of fighting the bacteria which give us our diseases. Next to the actual bacteria of disease, the mosquitoes and flies are the most dangerous enemies of man.

The mosquito weds its bite into our veins malaria, yellow fever, and other fatal troubles. The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid, cholera and other plagues of the human race.

Dr. Pierce, the eminent physician of Buffalo, N. Y., says, "If each person will consider his system as an army of men which he controls as a general, and will see to its proper provisioning and that it has plenty of ammunition in the shape of good red blood, he will be able to overcome the enemy in these germs of disease." Every healthy man has five million red blood corpuscles to every square millimeter of blood. The best tonic for increasing the red blood corpuscles and building up healthy tissue is no doubt Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine has been on the market for over a third of a century and numbers its cures by the thousands.

Many popular patent medicines or tonics are made up largely of alcohol and will shrink the corpuscles of the blood and make them weaker for resistance. What is needed is an alternative extract, like Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, that will assist the stomach in assim-ilating or taking from the food such elements as are required for the blood, also an alternative that will assist the activity of the liver and cause it to throw off the poisons in the blood. When we have accomplished this we have put the system in a fortified condition so strong that it can repel the germs of disease which we find everywhere—in the street-cars, the shops, the factories, the bedrooms, wherever many people congregate, or where sunlight and good air do not penetrate.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Neglected constipation means headache, heart-burn, sour stomach, foul taste in the mouth, biliousness, pimples, and palpitation of the heart. Constipation is promptly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One for mild cases, otherwise two.

THE PAST OF MOROCCO

PICTURESQUE VIEWS OF COVET-ED NORTH AFRICAN COUNTRY.

Dutch and English Fleet Put An End to Christian Slavery There in 1816 —French Rule in Algeria Began With the Capture of the Agile Abdel Kader in 1847—Country of Incredible Fertility.

Apropos of the recent sharp interchange of diplomatic views between France and Germany concerning the future of Morocco and the Moors all that relates directly to that north African country and its inhabitants becomes of especial interest. This is accentuated by the fact that the moment seems to have arrived suddenly, and almost without international shock, when the various powers are

A MOROCCAN BEAUTY.

called upon to express once for all their ultimate intention in regard to the conduct of France and Germany over the ancient country of the Carthaginians.

For many years it has been no secret other than a diplomatic and far-fetched one that France has been engaged in a feverish attempt to absorb as much as possible of the territory known collectively as Barbary. The French were first to enter the lists and succeeded in obtaining a firm foothold before the Germans awoke to the merits of the situation. The presence of France in north Africa is the result of an accident. In the sixteenth century Algeria claimed to be a model eastern empire, but its Government was a shameless absolutism, and its people were pirates of an exceedingly degenerate brand. The country was so outside the pale of civilization that it was esteemed a singularly virtuous act for a Christian nation to send a punitive expedition now and then.

The Algerines did not grow better with age. In 1816 a combined Dutch and English fleet bombarded the city of Algiers and put an end to Christian slavery. In 1830 a French consul, who had been refreshing himself rather too generously in the bazaars, entered a mosque without removing his top boots, mistaking the sacred edifice for an inn. This apparent sacrilege so infuriated the Moors that they put him to death. France acted with great promptness and sent an army to subdue the insolent Moslems. The indignant Frenchmen were not sent to demand an apology and financial reparation. Their orders were to conquer the country.

They found this not an easy thing to do. It was accomplished only after many years of bloody war. It was not until 1847 that they succeeded in capturing the agile Abdel Kader, who seems to have been a very tough proposition. Then they appointed a military Governor and proceeded to rule the country. They had plenty of discouragement, and it was several years before they could venture to replace the military Governor with a civil one.
Finally, however, they did it and Algeria has ever since remained a French Province.

In the course of time many immigrants came from France and the co-

MOROCCAN MATRON AT HOME.

lonial Government began to show signs of expansion. The troubles incident to the Franco-Prussian war checked all enterprise in this direction for awhile, but as they began to recover from the blow the French manifested a disposition to reach out and help themselves. Affairs in Tunis, on the east of Algeria, were a good deal mixed, as is not unusual in an oriental state, and the French Government, backed by its army in Algeria, assumed a protectorate. European Governments looked on with varying emotions, but Germany alone recorded a mighty protest.

From that time to this the game has been going on without much intermission. Germany has never shown any inclination to permit the French to acquire the whole of Barbary, as they expect ultimately to do. There would probably be no bar to France's benevolent desire to establish a protectorate over Morocco, the sultanate adjoining Algeria on the southwest, if Germany had not made up her mind to attach that valuable and interesting region to the Empire. As it is there are already remonstrances, disputes, threats and no end of diplomatic warfare. The Kaiser has paid a visit to the country and likes it. From the Teutonic standpoint that is much.

Meanwhile the German influence in north Africa is tremendous.

Morocco is worthy the attention of any nation desiring to add the element of picturesqueness to its territory. It is a land in which progress is unknown. Progress is a word for which the Moorish dialects have no synonym. It is not a desert, although it adjoins the Sahara. It really contains much soil of almost incredible fertility. It is a land, also, in which neither science nor capital has ever come to the aid of the husbandman.
Agriculture is probably at a lower ebb than it was in the days when the envious sons of the Biblical patriarhs carried their empty sacks to fruitful Egypt.

There is no better wheat in the world than that raised in Morocco, in view of that fact it is said to be the best that there is so little raised that four is rarely seen. Corn grows exceedingly well, and yields with a generosity that would inspire the envy of a Canadian farmer. But he need not distress himself over possible competition; there is very little raised. Barley grows almost without cultivation, but the Moor has never heard of malt. He feeds on durrah, a sort of millet, and he eats little else. Sometimes he varies the monotony with a few beans or a little canary seed, but he rarely touches flesh. Although his ancestors were plebeians, the Moor now leads a pastoral life, and he also is a vegetarian pure and simple. All the fruits which have done so much to enhance the reputation of the Riviera come to their most satisfactory perfection in Morocco, but there is actually a dearth. The vine is cultivated sparingly for the sake of the fresh grapes and raisins, but no attempt is made to extend the culture. Figs mature more evenly than at Smyrna, but a fig tree is a rarity. The rural population is absolutely without fruit of any kind.

Everything that is produced naturally in Morocco is of the very finest quality. In that fact lies the very existence of the people. The wool from the backs of their half starved herds is the equal of that from the valley of Cashmere. It commands an enormous figure in the foreign markets, but the supply is infinitesimal. Most of it is used at home, and there is often great lack of it even for domestic purposes.
Morocco is famous for its carpets.
Worldwide reputation, especially those of Mequinez. If nature did not come forward and furnish almost free of effort the famous mequinez skins from which the famous mequinez is made, Morocco would certainly be less famous. The best of these skins are as soft as silk and as white as snow. Some of them are

OUT FOR A MORNING STIP.

died beautifully, but only one shade is manufactured in a locality. Red Morocco comes from Fez and from Meknes. Green is the exclusive possession of Tadlet, and the city of Morocco has a monopoly of the yellow. Another lively Moroccan industry is the making of cloth caps. These are the close fitting head coverings so much affected by Moslems the world over. The Moors prefer other headgear, but they find a ready market for all the caps they can make, and caravans loaded with them leave Fez weekly for the Algerine frontier.
Every Frenchman in the Province is provided with one of these small bright colored caps.

For centuries the Moors have managed to keep their country closed to all the world. With the exception of a few consular officials and a handful of missionaries there are no white residents living in the interior. No other country in the world has remained for so long a time in self contained ignorance. There seems to have been a steady retrogression ever since the expulsion of the Moors from Spain and their return to Morocco, bearing with them in their sorrowful flight the remnants of their rudely interrupted arts and learnings. In those days the two universities of Fez and Marakash, the ancient name of the city of Morocco, were known even in Europe as seats of learning. These schools have become the merest echo of their former selves. To-day they are absurdities in an educational sense and are rather hotbeds of fanaticism and that species of oriental intrigue which is at its best in the pages of fiction.

Unlike many eastern countries, Japan for instance, the population of Morocco is bound together by no ties of patriotism. There is no such term as fatherland in the language. The whole system of the country is tribal, and no man looks beyond his tribal affiliations. There are few chances for individuals to distinguish themselves.
Next to the frank and unqualified hatred which the Moor feels for the Christian, and that is a part of his religion and must be regarded as such, is the distaste he has for the society of a fellow countryman who chances to be of a tribal strain differing from his own.

Did you ever have your range grates burn out?

If you did you will know what that means in common ranges—it means plumbers, delay, muss and big bills —because common ranges are built that way.
As range grates must some time burn out you are certain to have that kind of trouble if yours is a common range.

If you have the Pandora you won't have any trouble, because you can take out the old grates and put in the new ones in ten minutes, and a ten cent piece for a screw-driver does it easier in the Pandora than a whole kit of plumbers' tools will do it in common ranges.

THE CATTLE EMBARGO

Official Pronouncement in Reply to Senate's Resolution.

Home Government, Through Board of Agriculture, Refuse to Take Steps to Remove Embargo on Canadian Cattle—Emphasizes Disastrous Effect of the Introduction of Disease and Says Precaution is Necessary.

London, Sept. 21.—Replying to a copy of the Senate resolution sent by the Governor-General regarding the cattle embargo, the Home Government, through the Board of Agriculture, refuse to take steps toward removing it.

In a long memorandum they state the slaughter of cattle at the port of debarkation is no obstacle to the development and maintenance of a large and valuable trade. Existing regulations do not shut Canadian cattle, as it is enforced against all the British colonies, together with the United States.

The memorandum emphasizes the disastrous effect the introduction of disease would have on the consumers and producers of Great Britain. Past experiences with Argentina and the United States show how quickly foot and mouth disease may make its appearance despite efficient sanitary organization.

Farmer Gored by a Bull.

Huntsville, Ont., Sept. 21.—Henry Hares, one of the best known residents of Stephenson Township, has been brought to the General Hospital.

He is in a critical condition, the result of being gored by a bull. Mr. Hares, who is nearly seventy years of age, was leading the animal to pasture, and when releasing the brute turned and attacked him ferociously.

The injured man's little son, aged 14 years, ran to his father's rescue, and managed to prevent a renewal of the attack until two of the elder sons finally drove the infuriated beast away.

The aged man was found to be seriously hurt, one horn penetrating close to the abdomen several inches, and while everything possible is being done, there is not much hope of his recovery.

A Regular Capt. Kidd Crew.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Capt. Alexander McLean has been arrested at Victoria, B. C., by Canadian authorities, on the charge of conspiracy in fitting out the schooner Carmencita, in violation of the coasting laws. A telegram received at the State Department yesterday, announcing the arrest, says that the Carmencita had been refitted under the name of the Acapulco, and with a crew said to be as "choice as a band of robbers and cut-throats as have manned a pirate's craft since the days of Capt. Kidd."

Struck By Shower of Stones.

Keewatin, Sept. 21.—About 4 o'clock yesterday at the new flour mill being erected for Keewatin Flour Milling Co., the men were struck by rock which was being blasted out for foundation of the mill. ## WILL BE TORN UP

Head Street Spur to go, But, in the Meantime Paving is Delayed

There is every possibility that the P. M. spur on Head street will be torn up as a result of the city's action in repealing the by-law under the authority of which the tracks were put down. Thirty days, however, is granted the company in which to file any objections they may have to the course the Council is pursuing.

In the meantime the work of paving Head street is held up until the tracks are removed and, if the railway company insists upon their thirty days' notice, the work cannot be proceeded with until the expiry of that period. This means that, unless the railway company waive their rights, the work cannot be proceeded with this fall.

NOT TALKING

Mayor Cowan Will, However, "Deliver the Goods" if Occasion Demands It

The Mayor was not in this morning when called upon by a Planet reporter. Knowing that the School Board had met, our representative telephoned the local undertaking establishments only to be met with the response they had not yet received the "job." Further confirmation of this was given when his Worship walked in evidently as carefree as if there were no such thing as School Boards.

"Nothing to say to-day," was his answer to the daily query. "Yes; I see the School Board met this morning. Well; I shall wait until I see their hand before talking. When the time comes I shall deliver the goods and," he continued impressively, "perhaps I have a little dry powder left to start another blaze."

"My quarrel is not with the School Board as a whole—only with those members of it designated or referred to. Of course I object to the method of the election of the whole Board," he concluded.

IT IS EASIER TO DO IT NOW

Cure Your Indigestion With Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets And You Will Never Suffer as Jackson Johnson Did.

When you feel that slight discomfort after eating, that gas rising on the stomach or a little pain in the chest, did you ever stop to think that you were in the early stages of Indigestion and what the consequences might be if you did not take care of your stomach?
If you didn't just listen for a moment to the story of Jackson Johnson, of Norham, Ont. It may make you think:

"I suffered from Dyspepsia for a long time and spent a large sum with doctors. Finally I was taken with Darrhoea which became chronic and continued about nine months. I continually grew weaker till I was confined to my bed.

Then a person who was using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets persuaded me to try them. I began at once to improve and am now completely cured."

It is easier to cure your Indigestion now than if you wait and suffer as Mr. Johnson did. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will do it.

French Canoeists Celebrate.

Danville, Conn., Sept. 20.—The streets are decorated elaborately in honor of the annual session of the French-Canadian societies of Connecticut, which began a two day's meeting here yesterday. This year's ring is one of the most important held by French-Canadian residents of the United States, and the delegates here represent upwards of 17,000 of their compatriots.

Irish Pig Industry.

London, Sept. 20.—Competition from Canada and Denmark is given as the reason for the decline in the Irish pig industry. Besides being able to grow hogs cheaper the freight from Canada is less than from Limerick.

KEEP THE BOWELS REGULAR.

If your bowels didn't move for a week you would be prostrated. If more than one day goes by you become languid, blood gets bad, breath horribly offensive, you feel sick all over. To remedy this take Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which regulate the bowels and cure constipation. Taken at night you are well by morning. They purify and cleanse the system, prevent headache, biliousness and sick stomach. Prompt and certain cure Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Malaria and Putridity, 25c. per box or five for $1.00 at all dealers.

Taking Western Census.

Winnipeg, Sept. 20.—A. Blue, chief commissioner of the new Dominion census office, returned yesterday from the Pacific coast, and will spend a couple of days in the city before proceeding to Ottawa. Mr. Blue came west for the purpose of gaining information in connection with the census to be taken in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta next June, for the purpose of ascertaining the population of the three Provinces, in order that the per capita grant from the Dominion may be adjusted. It is his intention to send a commissioner from the head office at Ottawa to each of the Provinces, and they will have complete charge of the work from its commencement until its completion.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Hard on the Doctor.

Doctor—Well, John, how are you today? John—Verra bad, verra bad. I wish Providence 'ud 'ave mussy on me an' take me Wife—Ow can you expect it if you won't take the doctor's physic?—Punch.

Ignorance, when it is voluntary, is criminal.—Johnson.

MORE DEADLY THAN FAMINE.

Neglected catarrh sooner or later causes consumption, which destroys more human beings than famine and war combined. The way "Catarrh-zone" cures catarrh is very simple; it first kills the germs that cause the irritation; then by soothing away the congestion and inflammation it cures the discharge, hawking and drooping in the throat. "I suffered so continually from nasal ac-carrh," writes Ernest R. Dakin, of Rosemont, "that I scarcely knew what it was to be free from headache, and pain over the eyes. Catarrh-zone relieved me at once and made a thorough cure." No other remedy cures like "Catarrhzone"—try it for your next cold.

Most men argue from their personal view rather than from actual conditions.

HEALTH AND EMPIRE.

Physical Degeneration and How to Put a Stop To It.

We improve the breed of pigeons, white milks, millets, peaches and strawberries. The breed of the classes possessing absolute political power, if they like to use it, is deteriorating.

Nevertheless, life is longer, and the stature of the comfortable classes is greater than formerly. The girls of rich parents are growing taller every decade.

J. Warrington Howard, consulting surgeon to St. George's Hospital, recently stated that an almost incredible number of children existed bodilied, lame and ill, and lacked the attention that would make their lives tolerable.

A class of children has been created by the charitable who can live in hospital, but who cannot live outside. Queen Victoria's two jubilees marked the apotheosis of disease. The scent of iodoform was in the air.

How different was the example of ancient Greece and of Japan, ancient and modern. The Greek ideal taught that the gods were pleased with the cultivation of body and mind. The parents' religion required them to devote time and labor to the development of the Olympian faculties of their children.

The Olympian gamesters tried to strive, not for gate money or a lucrative engagement in a County team, but for honor, and the effect on the morals of the people was as wonderful as on their physique. The perishable garland of wild olive cut with a golden sickle from the sacred tree, was the most coveted prize of ancient and modern times. Sculptors like Praxiteles and Phidias were employed by the state to immortalize the victor's form.

But fuel oil was absent from the victor's win; tea and its devastating tannin was unknown; the deadly cigaret and tinned food were still buried in the womb of time.

During the 400 years of Greek history, medical science languished because the standard of public life was too high to support a large community of professional healers. We now need Sir W.
Booth to warn us of Niagara.

The Greek ideal and the program of the National League for Physical Education and Improvement are identical. They teach that health rises from sucking infants, cleanliness, frugality, exercise and obedience to the laws of hygiene.

Before Christ was born, a nation we count pagan attained a physical ideal which is still the despair and the admiration of modern England.

Jews, however poor, respect their women, and their race, Expectant Hebrew mothers do work, and their children are healthier than the English. Their death rate is lower; birth rate, expectation of life, marriage rate and natural increase higher.

The penalties are many. Babies in the city, if not nursed by their mothers, must be fed on pure and abundant milk. Expectant mothers must be prevented from working on hard physical labor and during their seclusion must be fed properly and live under healthy conditions. The Government consists entirely of well-fed people, few of whom are ever brought in contact with the real conditions of life.

Begin with the babies. The milk supply must be overhauled and tested.
Birth registration is the first step and the proper treatment of children should be worked by competent surgeons and visitors. Athletic training, proceeding from a sense of duty to the ideal of national life, is not charity or patience or resignation or the capacity to suffer disease, poverty and misfortune.

The multiplication of hospitals and clinics to the unit is to be avoided.
Diabolical work is being done in the cap and gown of a sister of mercy. The ideal of the nation is beautiful women and strong men and happy children—all healthy, independent, determined and able to maintain their places in the struggle for life among the nations.

These are the main lines of reform. If the British Empire perishes it will not fall by the irresistible decree of Providence.
Our collapse will be the sequel of neglect.—Arnold White, in London Chronicle.

A Responsive Echo.

Talking about echoes, the colonel claimed he had one on his place which beat anything he had ever heard or read about; one, in fact, that would clearly repeat whole sentences. The party of gentlemen were incredulous but arranged to accompany the colonel home next day to test the wonderful echo.

The colonel found on getting home that in the heat of the discussion he had claimed more than the facts justified. Determined not to be beaten he called his Irish laborer.

"Pat," says he, "some gentlemen are coming home with me to-morrow afternoon to hear the echo. Now I want you to go across the river before I arrive, so that you can answer back whatever we may call out."

"Sorr," replied Pat, grinning.
"That's it exactly," said the colonel.
"Now, do you thoroughly understand that you are to answer back exactly what we say?"

"Oh yis, sorr; ye can depend on me entirely."

Next afternoon the colonel took his friends to the river bank, and all were ready for the experiment.

Making a speaking trumpet of his hands the colonel roared:
"Are you there?"

Back came the echo with startling distinctness.

"Yes, sorr; O've been here since four 'av' the clock."

Old England's Achievements.

We have been preached at since we were little on the subject of the marvellous pluck and enterprise of the American manufacturer, and how he was downing the effete Britisher every time. After going through Old England's leading mills and factories in the Midlands and Yorkshire, we are quite prepared to put a heavy discount on this Yankee talk. I never saw such well-equipped mills as most of those we went through. Old England has a tremendous career in front of her as a manufacturing country.— Canadian Manufacturer in Canadian Gazette.

National Alps.

The national airs of great countries are short, while those of little countries are long. "God Save the King" is fourteen bars, the Russian hymn is sixteen bars and "Hail, Columbia!" has twenty-eight bars. Siam's national hymn has seventy-six bars and that of Uruguay seventy, Chile forty-six, and so on. San Marino has the longest national hymn except that of China.

NOT SLEEPING WELL.

Without sleep there can be no bodsleeplessness is a dangerous condition. Nothing so surely restores just a nourishing, strengthening ton-

FORGIBLE FACTS.

One-sixth of the deaths from disease are due to consumption. Ninety-eight per cent of all those who have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for "weak lungs" have been perfectly and permanently cured.
Cornelius McCawley, of Leeburg, Armstrong county, Pa., had in all 81 hemorrhages. He says:—"My doctor did all he could for me but he could not stop the hemorrhages, and all gave me up to die with consumption." What doctors could not do, "Golden Medical Discovery" did. It stopped the hemorrhages and cured their cause. This is one case out of thousands. Investigate the facts.

FRIEND OF WAIFS DEAD

Dr. T. J. Barnardo Passes Away Suddenly in London.

Philanthropist Who Established Series of Homes That Rescued Nearly 60,000 "Unwanted" and Destitute Children From Suffering, Vice and Crime—Nearly 18,000 of Them in Canada to Mourn Their Benefactor.

London, Sept. 21.—Dr. Thomas John Barnardo, the well-known founder and director of philanthropic institutions, by which over 55,000 orphan waifs have been rescued, trained and placed in life, died Tuesday night after a short illness. Dr. Barnardo had suffered from angina pectoris for some years. He was born in Ireland in 1845, and, like many men of mark, had a curious mixture of blood in his veins. His father, John M. Barnardo, was a

THE LATE DR. BARNARDO.

German of Spanish descent, and his mother was born in Ireland, but she was of English ancestry. Dr. Barnardo was a typical English gentleman, a churchman, and a devoted philanthropist. He was educated in private schools and in hospitals in London, Edinburgh and Paris.

Beginning of His Work.

While at the London Hospital in 1866 he had his attention directed to the condition of the child waifs on the streets of London and established his first home for such a year later. In 1873 he married Sybil Louise, only daughter of Mr. William Elmale, and in the same year founded a village for girls at liford. In 1887 he founded "Her Majesty's Hospital for Sick Waifs." He was the pioneer of the emigration of children, thousands of whom are now contented residents in homes throughout England, in the Royal Canadian Society.

Dr. Barnardo's Homes, with their 121 branches, had on 30th June, 1905, 8,493 boys and girls under their care, and this large family about thirteen others are added every day. Children wholly maintained by the homes in 1904 was 10,905. During the same year 3,827 fresh cases (boys and girls) were admitted, a number very largely in excess of all the admissions put together by similar institutions throughout England. In all, the homes, throughout the forty years of their existence, have saved nearly 60,000 "unwanted" and destitute children from suffering, vice and crime.

His Work in Canada.

Toronto, Sept. 21.—The news of Dr. Barnardo's death was received with deep regret at the Barnardo Boys' Home, 213 Farley avenue, the home of the head-quarters of the work carried on by the dead philanthropist.

Dr. Barnardo's name will always be honored throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion. Nearly 18,000 children have been sent across the seas to Canada from the old country. During 1904, 1,226 boys and girls were emigrated to Canada, and the Colonies, and 669 have been sent out in 1905. Less than 1-1/2 per cent. have failed in the Colonies.

A home in Canada was established in 1882. The headquarters in Farley avenue were established in 1888, but in the meantime a small home had been opened near the Union Station. The growth of the emigration to Canada made a larger building an absolute necessity. Dr. Barnardo's last visit to Farley avenue was in 1900. He formed the young helpers' league on behalf of his movement in 1891. It was in 1885 that he received the diploma and medal of the Society of Nations.

He was the author of numerous publications, and was editor of The National Waifs Magazine, and of The Young Helpers' League Magazine. He was at Stepien Causeway, the London headquarters, from early morning until late at night, and he lived to do so; he was the lover of books and he rejoiced in the society of the children. The bairns loved him.

The group would be at liberty to make whatever sub-contracts it wished.

The vessel lies in the direct course of navigation, the steamer Belleville having difficulty in passing through the canal yesterday morning. The Melbourne is a regular canal propeller, the property of James & McKay, Hamilton, and is valued at $30,000.

FOR A PROVINCIAL PATHOLOGIST

Medical Superintendents of Lunatic Asylums Meet in Convention.

Toronto, Sept. 21.—A strong demand for the appointment of a pathologist to investigate the causes of insanity was made yesterday at a convention of medical superintendents of the different asylums held in the Parliament buildings.

This gathering was the outcome of an invitation issued some weeks ago by the Provincial Secretary, Hon. W. J. Hanna.

Affairs concerning the practical administration of these institutions were the main objects of the convention; but, in the morning there was a discussion on proposals which aroused considerable interest.

Medical superintendents present were: Dr. Charles K. Clarke, Toronto; Dr. Ryan, Kingston; Dr. Beames, and Dr. Forster, Mimico; Dr. Beaton, Oshawa; Dr. Russell, Hockley, Cobourg; Dr. Lums, London; Dr. Mitchell, Brockville.

There were also present: Dr. Ross, Toronto; Dr. Gilmour, warden of the Central Prison; Mrs. O'Sullivan, Mercer Reformatory; Inspector Armstrong, Rogers; and Dr. Campbell, Meville.

In reference to commencing lunatics to jail a resolution was passed urging that the warrant system should be simplified. Magistrates should be instructed not to commit patients without an inspection by an asylum doctor.
