MINISTERS ARE UP IN ARMS

Will Apply to Railway Commission re Rates on Grand Trunk

LONDON CONFERENCE

Ministers attending the London Methodist conference at Windsor are the latest to take up the cudgels against the Grand Trunk Railway on a charge of discrimination, and conference has been asked permission to petition the railway commission to inquire into the matter.

It appears that the ministers have an agreement with the Grand Trunk Railway whereby they are to pay only single fare when attending the annual gatherings of conference. They purchased a single ticket when leaving home and when they return all that is necessary is for them to have their credentials properly attested.

In this instance, it is alleged by Rev. Robert Hicks, who had charge of the matter, that A. M. Stewart, city ticket agent of the railway, refused to issue return tickets because the list was five short of the required 300 names. Mr. Hicks says that he secured the other five certificates and returned to the ticket office, when he was informed by a clerk that Mr. Stewart had left the city and had given instructions that the tickets were not to be honored unless properly certified. Mr. Hicks was unable to secure the return tickets, and as several ministers had to leave Windsor last evening they were forced to purchase tickets at the regular rates.

A reception service was held in Central Methodist church last evening to receive into full membership of conference T. W. Langford, B. A., Granton; J. A. Agnew, London; C. W. Baker, B. D., Carleton Place; and W. H. Harris, of Windsor. Tomorrow morning the ordination of the four candidates will take place. A. R. Kellam, of Gesto, also will be ordained for special service.

Conference was asked yesterday to drop from the ritual the clause relating to the length of time ministers may remain in one place. At present the ministers can remain but four years.

THE GRIM REAPER

The death occurred, on Thursday, at her late home, in Darrell, of Mrs. Churley French, wife of Edgar French. The deceased was 53 years of age, and the cause of death was paralysis, from which she had been suffering for some time past. She leaves a grown-up family to mourn her loss. Mr. Sharts, of Van Allen Ave., this city, is a relative.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.30, from the family residence, Darrell, to Maple Leaf Cemetery.

TO DREDGE THAMES

Port Stanley, May 31.—The dredge General Meade, Capt. O'Brien, arrived yesterday in town of the tug Homerule, and the tug Robert Downie, Capt. Joseph Haugh, with scows in tow. All were en route from Port Dover to the mouth of the Thames River, where they will be employed deepening the channel to let the Chathamites in and out.

EAU EXCURSION

Band concert trains will run to Erieau every Tuesday and Friday evenings during June, July, August and September. Trains leave C. P. R. depot 7.15 p. m., Blenheim 7.45 p. m. On Tuesday nights the Wallaceburg electric cars will wait at Chatham for return of excursion train. The buildings at the Eau have been all repainted and decorated; the dancing stand has been rebuilt and a special program of dancing music will be rendered each night. Refreshments served at Bungalow.

MR. WILSON'S THEORY

Mr. Wm. Wilson, of the firm of Goltart & Wilson, is a man of few words. It is very seldom Mr. Wilson gives his opinion on any subject, but when he speaks, his remarks are to the point, most often in the form of a dry joke.

Yesterday morning the discussion was with regard to the strange light in the western sky which has puzzled the residents for some time. "Why, it's the evening star Venus," said Adj. Colbart.

"Nothing of the sort," quickly retorted Mr. Wilson, looking up from the chair he was fixing. "You will never see that light again. It's mission is done. That light was a warning not to vote for the sugar by-law. That's what it was, and I'll guarantee you won't see or hear any more of it."

HOG RAISING IN KENT TO RECEIVE NEW IMPETUS

Splendid Address by Prof. Day of Guelph Agricultural College Before The West Kent Farmers' Institute Will do Much Good—Officers Elected

The election of officers and an excellent address by Professor G. E. Day, of the Guelph Agricultural College, formed the most interesting features at the West Kent Farmers' Institute meeting in Harrison Hall yesterday afternoon. After the reading of the director's address for the past year, it was moved by Mr. McGregor, and seconded by Mr. Crawford, that the Institute meetings this year be held at the same times and in the same places as those of the past year.—Carried.

The election of directors for the different townships represented in the Institute resulted as follows: Romney—Henry Robinson, Byron Robinson and H. Marie. Tilbury—Wm. McGregor, George Holmes and Fletcher. Raleigh—Messrs. Longmore, Sutor and Pratt. Chatham Township—O. S. Martin, Wm. McNeill and A. Fisher. Dover—Messrs. Crawford, Cooney and Gordon. President—David Fletcher. Vice-President—Mr. Sutor. Secretary—Mr. Longmore. Professor G. E. Day, of the Guelph Agricultural College, addressed the meeting on the subject of "Hog Raising." Mr. Day explained the manner in which the pork trade is carried on and pointed out the present defects in the Canadian export hogs. Canadian trade with England had been built up by the production of the bacon hog. The farmers in the Dominion had first attempted to gain a footing in the British market by the export of the fat hog. Inferiority of quality and many other reasons had made her impotent on account of the opposition and superiority of the United States trade.

When the Canadian farmer substituted the bacon hog for the fat hog he became, not a competitor of the United States, but a rival of the Danish farmer, who, up to that time, had held the bacon market. Canada's big export trade depended upon the continuance of the bacon hog, and it rested with the farmer to improve the quality of the export bacon hog and, by excelling the Irish and Danish bacon, to establish the Canadian hold on the British market more firmly than ever.

Dealing with local hog raising, Professor Day gave many useful hints to the assembled farmers as to the best methods of obtaining a good quality of hog. He explained the wants of the buyers at the present time and pointed out several ways of satisfying this demand.

Statistics and observations on experiments in hog raising, including pointers on different feeds and their fattening qualities, effects of climate on the growth of hogs, the cost of rearing different breeds and cross-breeds of hogs, and a host of useful information regarding practical hog raising constituted the chief part of the Professor's excellent address.

The farmers present took great interest in Mr. Day's remarks and, at his invitation, they asked numerous questions of vital importance to all farmers, which he answered in a satisfactory and business-like manner.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Professor Day, Secretary Longmore, remarking that, although the attendance was not as large as it should be, those who were fortunate to be present had considerably benefited by Mr. Day's remarks, and all felt grateful to him for the excellent way in which he had handled his subject and helped them by answering their many questions.

A GOOD TIME

The Non-Coms' Moonlight last evening, via the City of Chatham, proved a huge success from every point of view. The evening was immensely enjoyed by all who took advantage of this trip.

The Regimental Band was in attendance and was very generous with its music. The music helped considerably to make the trip more bright and pleasant. Even the weather man was in good humor, and the evening was an ideal one for the outing. The boat turned at Crow's dock, and arrived in the city about 11 o'clock.

The proceeds of the event, over and above expenses, amounted to $30. The Non-Commissioned officers of the Regiment are to be congratulated on the unique success of their Moonlight.

BROKE HIS ARM

On Thursday afternoon, about two o'clock, F. E. Wing, the well-known Chatham baker, met with a painful accident.

He was fixing a window screen at his residence, when he had the misfortune to fall off the step-ladder on which he was standing and break his right arm.

The injured arm was set during the afternoon, and, although suffering a considerable amount of pain, Mr. Wing is progressing favorably.

W. Griffiths, of Thamesville, is spending the day at his home in this city.

IS RECOVERING

Ansley, the young man who attempted suicide, near Ridgetown, by cutting his throat, and who has been in the Chatham General Hospital for some time, is now recovering.

The gash in his throat has been carefully stitched up and he is able to eat and talk. Although Ansley's condition was thought to be too serious to admit of any hopes of life, skillful medical attention has practically assured him of an almost complete recovery from the effects of his rash act.

FIRST CLASS ENGINE

The following is from the report of the recent Automobile Show in Toronto appearing in Red and Gun: "A Canadian engine which made an instant hit was the Defiance, of Chatham. While their single cylinders were not overlooked, their two and four cylinder motors gained much attention. The design of the engine is not only good, but the mechanical details are usually well worked out. Only an experienced motor boat man knows the value of a big generous bearing on the crank rod, one piece valve, tool steel coils, a good jump-start ignition system, and full speed control; but they are all there together with many other good features. The Defiance people did a good business, too."

County Councillor James Ross, of Tilbury, was a city visitor on Thursday.

THE CROPS ARE GOOD

Farmers Report Satisfactory Progress in Several Directions

FINE HARVEST EXPECTED

In conversation with several farmers at the Farmers' Institute meeting yesterday, a Planet reporter learnt that the crops throughout the country were, generally speaking, in good condition, although no predictions were made for a bumper harvest. The chief complaint of the general farmer this spring has been a widespread lack of fertilizing agents and manuring, though necessary, has been very light, in consequence.

It is not expected that the recent night frosts have done any appreciable damage, and several orchard owners are jubilant over the immunity of their fruit trees from injury up to the present.

It is likely that the best crop in Kent County will this year be about the same as last year. Beet growing is very hard on the ground and this fact, coupled with the many risks that have to be taken by the beet growers, has somewhat militated against the popularity of the crop.

Those farmers who have planted corn in ground that has been corn planted for two or three successive years are experiencing difficulty with the grubs, although the corn in the fresh grounds has not yet suffered. The rainfall has been only just sufficient for the agriculturalist's needs and the changeable weather of April and May, while not seriously retarding the crops, has not been as easy on them as the farmers would like.

PREACHER BUILT CANOE

Rev. A. R. Going, of Exeter, formerly of Charing Cross, who was elected president of the London conference, has spent his spare hours the past winter building a canoe. The result shows the maker is no mean mechanic and is possessed of much more than ordinary ability with tools. The canoe is 16 feet 3 inches long, and 2 feet 10 inches wide at the centre; is made of 1-8 inch basswood with finishings of oak. It weighs about 50 pounds. The wood is covered on the outside with canvas, while the whole is painted and varnished pleasing colors. It is so evenly balanced that it will rest perfectly on an inch board. About $20 covers the outlay for material. Although Mr. Going had never seen a canoe built, he went at the work in a systematic manner, by constructing a skeleton framework of exact dimensions, and upon this built the craft. He, with Mrs. Going and family, will camp at Grand Bend during part of the summer, and the canoe will go along.

Time is the most valuable thing a man can spend.

KING STREET

THE STAGE

A ROYAL SLAVE.

At the Grand Tuesday night. It may be of interest to our readers to know that an actual incident furnished the author of "A Royal Slave" with the initial idea out of which this great play was evolved. The little item of news appeared in the daily papers at that time. It is as follows:

"A wealthy Mexican gentleman who was known to possess a vast hidden estate, suddenly disappeared and was finally given up by his family. Several years later a gang of celebrated bandits was surprised and captured in their stronghold and a poor, insane man rescued. He was taken to a hospital in the city of Mexico, where an operation of trepanning the skull was performed on him, his reason returning. He proved to be the long-lost gentleman who had been captured by the bandits, who, in trying to force him to tell the hiding place of his fortune, had struck him a severe blow on the head which dented the skull and rendered him insane. He had been a captive for years, and in his half lucid moments, the much coveted secret hiding place, and reveal it."

Knowing this actual incident, it will be all the more interesting to the public to follow the play itself, and to observe how much of this charmingly dramatic story is due also to the splendid imaginative and creative powers of the author.

Of the plays that one sees in a life time, he can count on his fingers the ones that combine high literary merit with great dramatic value. "A Royal Slave" is one of these few and it also adds deep heart interest and the most beautiful scenic surroundings with which a play could be embellished, as the scenes are laid in Mexico, proverbially the land of sunshine and flowers, of palms and fountains. No play has appeared in this country for years of which the press speaks in such unstinted and unqualified praise. This is one of the surest and best tests of a really great play, and "A Royal Slave" is a great play in every sense of the word.

LAUDABLE WORK

The Public School Board are taking time by the forelock and have decided to commence the alterations and improvements in the city schools at once. Contractor Oldershaw commenced the brick work at McKenough yesterday and a staff of workmen are tearing out the old workmen at the Central school. Chairman Paxton is setting an example to the other municipal boards of the city in the line of civic hustling and is determined to have all work completed before the school reopening.

A PRETTY RUSSIAN BLOUSE.

The best styles for boys' suits are the sailor and Russian models, and here is one which combines the two in a very pleasing manner. With the help of this pattern and the directions which come with it any mother, no matter how inexperienced a sewer, can easily fashion it. The suit consists of blouse with removable chemise and knickerbockers. Butcher's linen is excellent, as well as a pleasing contrast may be offered by belt and embroidered stars of another color. The closing of the blouse slanting off to the side is very smart and effective. For the medium size, 23-4 yards of 36-inch material are needed.

ADDRESS THE PLANET PATTERN DEPT., CHATHAM, ONT.

A GENTLE HINT

During the meeting of the Farmers Institute, which took place in the County Council Chambers yesterday afternoon, several of the members remarked on the dirty state of the desks in the room.

Both on the tables, chairs and desks there was a thick layer of dust and, as no dusters were available, the clothing of the assembled farmers and others suffered considerably. As one member remarked, "It would surely be but little trouble for the caretaker to clean a place up, if not regularly, at least before any meeting takes place. It isn't very comfortable for anyone to sit amid a lot of dust and it isn't a very good advertisement for the city to have visitors from outside places find the meeting place in a dirty condition."

Mr. Arthur Perks, late of England, writes from 80 Cathcart St., Montreal, Can., as follows:

Mr. E. C. Pinoneauant, box 64, Prescott, Ont., member Order of the World, of Holyot, writes:

Pe-ru-na for Indigestion.
Mr. Joseph D. Guyette, 12 Vetre St. Montreal, Can., writes:
"For more than a year I have been troubled with indigestion and mangleizing headaches. I doctored myself usually, but got no help until I took Peruna."
"I have taken four bottles and truthfully say that it has entirely cured me."

"I have found it very pleasant to take and very effective and one of the very few medicines which deserve endorsement."

"It is often a serious question to know what medicine is reliable, and I am therefore glad to give my experience with Peru-na, believing that it will continue to give general satisfaction."

E. C. Pinsonneault.

Peru-na will be found to effect an immediate and lasting cure in all cases of catarrh. It acts quickly and systemically estarrh. It is beneficial to the diseased mucous membranes, and with healthy mucous membranes, catarrh can no longer exist.

Mr. J. E. Lacombe, 1013 Chaussee, Montreal, Can., writes:

"I suffered for a long time with liver trouble and after having used several remedies without good results, I resolved to try Peruna. After a comparatively short treatment, I am completely cured."

The Senatorial halls were crowded with its leaders. The gubernatorial chairs were filled with them. It was manifest that all John M. Gordon had to do when he was running for office was to throw back his long hair and show the sabre cut which he received in that awful civil strife, and the "boys in gray" would rally to his support and elect him to any office for which he was a candidate. So during the first quarter of a century succeeding the civil war all that an old soldier had to do was to throw back his hair, and who is vice or tongue. A soldier is not necessarily have to be a pharisee to be a moral coward; and a moral coward may be a pharisee. As brave as the lion, many old soldiers have lost the will to live not because they were cowards upon the field of carnage, but because they were not brave enough to live in temptation when it came to the time to illustrate my thought let me show you the picture of one of my truest friends. He was one of the

John A. Haurant, or Joseph R. Hawley, or James A. Beaver, or Lucius Fairchild, or Russell A. Alger, had to do was to tell their old war stories and they would be elected to any political position they desired in the gift of their commonwealths.

Now, my friends, is there no mighty power for you and me to learn from this organization of the Grand Army of the Republic? Does it not teach a lesson to be helpful to your old friends when they are in distress? Is there not a lesson also to be true to your friends of your youth? Is it not to seek to improve your middle life and also through old age? It is a noble characteristic, that of fidelity to our friends. Would that in the church and social life it was more common. A watchwords of the Grand Army of the

 But as I see the long line of the another fact. There is not a grander men, take them as a whole.

 I am talking with some chief officers of the grand old army, and they are

 But though that be true, yet on account of the present organization and on account of the grand men means of discrediting the organization.

 I have met many of the men who want to be just. False heroes have multiplied almost as rapidly since the war closed as have the numbers of people who trust in them.
 I have seen many who crossed the Atlantic in the Mayflower in 1620.

noble men have fought and died sacrificed for their country. It is impossible to imagine them as anything but as heroes. And because these impostors have crept in upon the pension rolls, the country has become suspicious. At the same time there are hundreds and thousands of noble veterans deserving of the Government's gratitude. They are old men who have no adequate provision made for them and the support of their dear ones.

But the Grand Army of the Republic teaches us still another lesson, and it is a terrible one. A man may be a hero on the battlefield, a hero upon the field of battle, yet anything but a hero in his private life. He may be brave as a "Chinese Gordon" before a human foe and yet a coward before the "Name them," said the widow.

"The want of means to set up business is the first," he said.

They parted, and the widow sent a cheque for a good sum.

When they met again the young man had taken a house and stocked shop, and the smiling fair one ventured to inquire as to the other impediment.

"My wife!" was the rasical's reply.

MODERN EDUCATION.

There seems to be a faint sign of suspicion in the minds of parents in this and other cities, that the tendency in the present public school work is to make too rapid an advance along modern lines, to the sacrifice of older and more practical subjects. Advancement in modern educational principles and methods is very desirable, and beneficial to the scholar and it must be said that Ontario schools stand out alone in this respect as an example for others to follow. At the same time teachers should not be over-zealous to the extent of neglecting those subjects which form the backbone to the scholar's education.

That the Ontario system of education is badly in need of revision was demonstrated a day or two ago when one of the big insurance institutions inserted an advertisement for a boy 17 years old, who could write a good hand. A large number of applications were received and some of them so badly written that the names of the applicants were read with difficulty. The successful applicant was a lad 16 years old, who arrived in Canada a few days ago from Eristol. His letter was a beautiful composition and his writing was splendid compared with that of the Canadian boys.

The banking institutions are continually bringing young men from England and Scotland to fill positions in the banks.

CANADA'S WHEAT CROP.

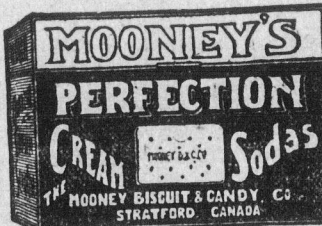

Professor Mavor, of Toronto, some time ago stated that Canada could only produce an average of 165,000,000 bushels of wheat a year. The Saskatchewan Legislature, according to the St. Thomas Times, finds that there are in that province alone 73,000,000 acres of good land that on the average of the past few years would yield over a billion bushels a year. Possibly all this land may never be used for the production of wheat, but there can be no reasonable doubt that before many years Canada will actually be producing enough wheat for herself and Great Britain. With all this production added to the world's supply, there would appear to be a prospect of a surplus, but the world is learning to use more wheat than it did, and there need be no worry about a market for many years to come. China, Japan and Korea are acquiring the habit of using wheat instead of rice, and with the millions of the Orient buying wheat there will not be much danger of the supply exceeding the demand. Canadian wheat will have the preference among the Mongolians, because it is the best in the world, and with the C. P. R. steamship line, transportation of the grain—or most likely the flour—will be more convenient and less expensive than any other wheat.

The people of St. Thomas are at present raising a great howl over their fire alarm whistle, which has a habit of waking them from their slumbers. The St. Thomas Times offers the following comment:—

Did anybody hear the fire alarm whistle during the night—or rather, is there anyone within a radius of ten miles who did not hear the dismal wail?

It is a shame that the St. Thomas people should be awakened during the night. We would suggest, with all due respect and consideration, that the whistle be blown at different intervals during the daytime. The effect would be more in the interests of the people and it would not be half so disquieting.

We are now within a few weeks of the end of another fiscal year. Mr. Fielding, as announced in the budget given out in the Dominion Parliament, expects to collect from the people $7,800,000 more than he did in 1905. Even then there will be no decrease in the debt. On the contrary the minister thinks that there will be some increase in the debt during the year. Beside that part of the expenditure called consolidated fund, which is to be $66,500,000, (if Mr. Fielding is not repeating his mistake of last year) leaving a so-called surplus of $12,500,000, there is capital outlay of $16,500,000. This, of course, runs away with the whole

So long as the man who bets is a sportsman, and is backing his own horse, or even a horse which is known to him, and on which he exercises his judgment, there is something to be said for the practice, provided it is kept within limits, as the means of adding zest to that which is in itself an unobjectionable, perhaps, to some extent, a useful, sport. But when bets are made by people who do not know the points of a horse, and perhaps do not even see the race, but bet on tips sitting in a tavern, the practice is inexcusable and vile. In fact, it differs very little morally from stealing, and has pretty much the same effect upon the character. But how the practice of betting is to be stopped, or prevented from spreading, as it is now doing, from the turf over every kind of sport, it is very hard to say.—Bylander in Weekly Sun.

A Scot abroad has a letter in the London (England) Mail, written at Chicago, in which he says:

"Concerning the Americanisation of Canada, after a residence of ten years in Canada and over eighteen years in the United States, during which time I have lived most of the time in Chicago, Illinois and have travelled through something like thirty of the States of the Union—I would say that the Government of Canada should prevent as far as possible the emigration from the United States introducing the corrupt political business habits into Canada."

"I have often regretted leaving Canada. The Dominion is the country to which everybody leaving the old country should go, and the western and middle part of the Dominion is the best of all, especially for those engaged in farming and all that goes with it, such as stock-raising, cheese and butter-making, fruit, etc."

The number of students at the Chatham Commercial College having increased to 60, Mr. Warner has found it necessary to remove his school to a larger room over the Methodist Lecture Room, near the new bridge, King street. They Make Revolutionary Speeches At Russian Douma

ABOLISH DEATH PENALTY

St. Petersburg, June 1.—Indignation over the execution of the eight revolutionists at Riga on the heels of the interpellation of the Government on the subject adopted by the Lower House of Parliament created a storm with the opening of the session yesterday. After the reading of a message of congratulation from the President of the Argentine Parliament, couched in extremely cordial terms, which was received with much applause, the group of Radical Constituent Democrats, supported by the workmen group, urged the necessity of immediately framing a law to abolish the death penalty, in view of the Government's refusal to cease executions.

Speeches Revolutionary. The majority of the speeches were extremely revolutionary in tone and the moderate and Constitutional Democratic leaders had hard work in stemming the tide of radicalism which threatened to carry the House off its feet.

M. Aladin, the peasant leader, urged the necessity for the instant adoption of a law abolishing the death penalty and proclaiming general amnesty, as a supreme act of Parliament with regard to the action of the upper House or the Government, or else proclaim to the country that Parliament is impotent, all its powers having been usurped by the "owners of the Cossacks and machine guns."

Father Poyarski, an orthodox priest of Voronezh, was second only to M. Aladin in violence of language. He declared that if the death penalty was not immediately abolished it would be the duty of Parliament to resolve to take such a defiant step. While warmly insisting on the advisability of passing a law abolishing the death penalty in a legal fashion, and not forcing a rupture before the authority of Parliament had been established in the country.

In the end a compromise resolution was passed, practically without unanimity, instructing the committee on the infidelity of any person to present a bill within five days providing for the abolition of the death penalty, the bill to be considered urgent and the president of the House to fix a day for its consideration, not later than June 8.

Bribed to Murder Vice-Consul. This, Transcaucasia, June 1.—The viceroy has received news that the assassins of William H. Stuart, the American vice-consul, at Batoum, who was killed on May 20, have been apprehended and have confessed that they were bribed to commit the crime, giving the name of the instigators, who also have been arrested. No details of the conspiracy are available.

Medicines Adulterated. Ottawa, June 1.—Hon. Wm. Templeman presided at the special committee on patent medicines yesterday. Dr. Dube, professor at Laval, was examined. He said that about 75 per cent. of standard drugs were adulterated. This was owing to the keen competition in the business. The doctor was opposed to the sale of patent medicines. He thought the Government should have all patent medicines analyzed so that it would be known what they contained.

named Hawkins was arrested and the stolen property recovered.

The supporters of the Dunkin Temperance Bill in Chatham and Howard Townships sustained heavy defeats in the polling for the local prohibition by-laws. Teetotalism is evidently at a discount in Kent County.

A young man named Anderson, of Buxton, was pushed out of a wagon by a friend who was driving with him to church. The act was committed in fun, but serious results followed, as one of Mr. Anderson's legs caught in the spokes of the wheel and had to be amputated.

The polling in the Township of Oxford for the local prohibition by-law resulted in a victory for the temperance people by 73 votes.

Mr. E. W. Scary, of Chatham, successfully passed the examinations of the Law Society in Toronto and was entered as attorney.

Hector Nelson, aged 13, son of Jas. Nelson, of 11th concession, Harwich, smashed one of his legs so badly by accidentally falling under a heavily laden sleigh that amputation was found necessary to save his life.

A grand contest between "The World" and "Canada," which took place at Quebec, resulted in a win for Canada by 24 shots. Two Chatham curlers, the Hon. W. McCrear and R. J. Earl, played on the winning side.

THE CAMPHOR SCORPION.

A Simple Experiment That Teaches Useful Lessons.

You need not be frightened at the appearance of the little monster depicted in the accompanying cut. It is in the form of a scorpion, it is true, but it is perfectly harmless because it is made of camphor. With it and a basin of water we may make a very interesting experiment.

Take as many little irregular lumps of gum camphor as may be necessary to fashion the shape of the scorpion, say 150 or 200, and arrange them, as shown in the picture, on the surface of the water. In a little while you will see the scorpion move about of its own accord, waving its claws and wagging its tail.

Now, there are several little bits of philosophy in this experiment. Let us see what they are.

First—The scorpion swims on the water, but is very nearly submerged.

Second—It does not disintegrate, but maintains its shape and its solidity. If you had placed it in alcohol it would have sunk to the bottom of the vessel and would soon have dissolved. Camphor, therefore, is of greater specific gravity than alcohol and is also readily dissolved in it.

Third—The little bits that make up the form of the scorpion remain together, as they were placed. They do not float apart. This is due to cohesion.

Fourth—The peculiar movement that the scorpion makes upon the water, floating about, waving its claws and wagging its tail, is due to a property that camphor has of moving on water. The particles not only move about, but they rotate on their own axes. This, as some say, is due to the elasticity of the vapor that the camphor gives off. Others say that it is due to a mysterious force residing in the surface of liquids called "superficial tension."

A GREEK MYTH.

It Reminds the Bible Story of Noah and the Flood.

Do you know that there is a story in Greek mythology that closely resembles the Bible account of Noah and the flood? Jupiter or Zeus, as the Greeks called the supreme ruler on Olympus, caused a great flood to come on the land of Hellas. Deucalion and his wife Pyrrha saved themselves by means of an ark. The waters subsided in nine days, and Deucalion and his wife had all been drowned in the flood Deucalion asked an oracle, after the custom of the time, what he should do to repopulate the earth, for with his wife and himself as the only human beings in the world the prospect was dreary enough. The oracle answered that they should cast behind them the bones of their great mother, by which they understood the stones of the earth. So Deucalion and Pyrrha began picking up stones and casting them behind them, when the stones that Deucalion cast turned into men, and those cast by Pyrrha into women.

A Story.

Araminta, an Algerian anchovy, aggravated Andrew, an alligator.

Araminta acted arrogantly again and again, augmenting Andrew's anger.

Andrew attempted Araminta's assassination.

Araminta avoided Andrew's attack.

Andrew, as an artifice, assumed absolute amiability, applauding Araminta's antagonistic alertness.

Araminta accepted Andrew's affable advances.

Asteline Araminta attenuated attention awhile, abjuring alarm and agitation.

Accordingly Andrew absorbed Araminta abruptly, afterward abandoning Algiers altogether and acquiring another abode among Amazonian ananodas.

When Uncle Sam Was Little.

At the end of Washington's administration there were sixteen states in the Union. There was also the Northwest Territory, as it was called, not yet organized into states—the whole wide region between the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. The first census of the nation was taken in 1790, and the population was 3,929,214.

Pie Calls on Peter.

One night to Peter's bed came Pie and screamed: "You ate me on the 4th! Though I was big enough for four, You bolted me and looked for more. And, fearing that you would be caught, You did not chew me as you ought. Mince pies must not be treated so. However good may be the dough, And therefore I'll sit on your chest And not give you a moment's rest. I'll make you dream that you are dead, With a big gravestone on your head. My teeth will grind, my eyes will glare, Until of mince pies you beware! And Peter, when he woke, said: 'My! I never more will steal mince pie!'"

Jury Disagrees re. Train Robbers.

Kamloops, B. C., June 1.—After being out even hours the jury in the case of the men accused of holding up the Imperial Limited, failed to agree, and they were discharged. It is unlikely the retrial of the train robbers will take place till fall, but Dunn will be immediately tried on indictment of "shooting with intent to kill." The difference in the published description of the men and the description and sizes of the men as given by the trainmen, evidently caused confusion in the minds of the jury.

THE THIN MAN'S DANGER.

He can't resist disease germs, that's why he's such a mark for consumption. In this land of plenty, thinness is wickedness, especially when it's so easily overcome with Ferrozone. This remarkable tissue-builder makes you fat quickly; it does so by forming blood that's rich, nourishing and health-giving. Ferrozone supplies the nutrient needed by worn-out nerves, rapidly constructs muscle and fatty tissue. The form fills out, the cheeks redden, proving that weight is being added. To be well and stay well, use Ferrozone. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets in a box for fifty cents or six for $2.50 at all dealers.

Robbed In the Postoffice.

Detroit, June 1.—James McLean, a young man from Granton, Ont., reported to the police that while entering the long corridor of the main postoffice to mail a letter home, he was approached by two men who pushed him into a corner, and while one held him the other quickly abstracted his purse, containing $12, from his pocket, and ran away.

CAUGHT IN THE CURRENT.

The even tenor of our way
We placidly pursue
Until some pleasant summer day
A girl appears in view.
The fairest, loveliest of maids
Trips forth across our track,
And then the even tenor fades
And nevermore comes back.

It may be Jane or Susie,
Elizabeth or Kate,
Whatever name it's all the same
If she is just our fate.
When we have once been smitten
There's nothing else to do
But hustle out and look about
To find a flat for two.

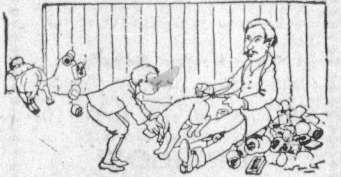

Without a single sign in view
To warn us in advance,
She comes, and what can poor man do
But tremble at her glance?
Last week he wandered fancy free,
And then this creature trim
Came floating in, and he can see
No more sweet peace for him.

She may be tall and stately,
She may be short and plump
Or dark or fair, he doesn't care
If she's his sugar lump.
When once she has him going
It's no use to resist;
He may as well join in and swell
The newly married list.

She Rules the Roost.

Before the fickle goddess Chance
I humbly make devotion,
For all I have is subject to
Her whim, caprice or notion.
She tosses favors in my lap
Quite lightly and offhanded,
Or if it suits her whim she scots
Away and leaves me stranded.

Sometimes she passes up to me
A bunch of easy money,
And just as I have spent it all
The mo' she gets funny
And hands out a playful jolt
Just as I am a trolley car
That did not wear a fender.

Some with success to burn declare
That chance is not a factor.
They should be low with fingers crossed,
Or they may yet attract her.
For as with lofty pride they strut,
In calm contentment humming,
They tumble from the heights and have
Another guess a-coming.

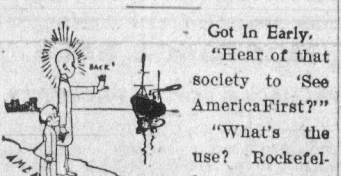

And, while I do not care to own
My efforts quite unaided
Are not the things when I win
By which I should be graded.
I must admit the goddess Chance
To be the largest factor:
To win or lose I cannot choose,
As I am but the actor.

THREE TRYING TIMES IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

There are three periods of a woman's life when she is in need of the heart strengthening, nerve toning, blood enriching action of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

The first of these is when the young girl is entering the portals of womanhood. At this time the system is weak and nervous, and unless her health is built up and her system strengthened she may fall a prey to consumption or be a weak woman for life.

The second period is motherhood. The drain on the system is great and draining, and unless her health is built up and her system strengthened she may fall a prey to consumption or be a weak woman for life.

The third period is "change of life" and this is the period when she is most liable to heart and nerve troubles.

A tremendous change is taking place in the system, and it is at this time many chronic diseases manifest themselves. Fortify the heart and nerve system by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and thus tide over this dangerous period. Mrs. James King, Cornwall, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled very much with heart trouble—the cause being to a great extent due to 'change of life.' I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for some time, and mean to continue doing so, for I can truthfully say they are the best remedy I have ever used for building up the system. I am at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of other sufferers."

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

"The Gentle Woman's Faith." — Mark 7, 24-30. Read Matt. 15, 1-28.

Golden Text—"Great is thy faith, be it unto thee even as thou wilt."

After feeding the 5,000 our Lord sends His disciples home to Capernaum in their boat, while He retires alone in prayer. As they are rowing hard against a head wind, the Masters comes walking on the water and Peter tries, and does, the same at His command, and yet sinks and cries for help to his Master.

Next day Jesus preached that wonderful sermon on His body and blood being the food of the soul's eternal life, which discouraged His disciples, so that many of them went back and walked no more with him. See John 6, 66. Leaving Capernaum for a northern tour, we find Him and the Twelve Apostles seeking privacy among gentiles, in the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon.

Verse 24—"But He could not be hid." A heathen mother, distracted with her little daughter's condition, finds Him, falls at His feet and entreats Him to drive the demon from her child.

Verses 25-26—He said unto her, Let the children—the Jews—first be filled, for it is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs—Gentiles. The quick-witted woman's answer was—Vs. 28—yea, Lord; even the dogs—little puppies that play with the children—eat of the children's crumbs under the table. He said unto her—for she used His seeming rebuff in her favor—go thy way, the demon is gone out of thy daughter, and when the woman reached home the child was lying quietly in bed. Everything seemed against this woman; she was one of those heathens who were deemed to be polluted, and thousands of whom fell by the sword of King David; yet she goes to the Son of David—for she knew Him not as the Son of God, as we do. When she appealed to Him—see Matt. 15, 23—"He answered her not a word," and His disciples besought Him, as they did for the multitude, to send her away, instead of asking Him to send the demon away from her daughter. He told her He was not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel; but she bowed down to Him and cried, "Lord, help me." His reply reminded her that she was considered by his nation as a Gentile dog; still she presses her suit for a crumb from Her Master's table, and she gets it. So much for her boldness and importunity.

What a lesson for all, who are so much more highly favored, to pray it through to an answer and a victory. "We ought always pray and not faint," Jesus says.

MRS. HUNTER'S STORY
Says She and Her Husband Agree Perfectly. Both Quite Well Again.

Mrs. I. Hunter, of 1111 Rensselaer St., Kingston, Ont., has written for publication a statement of her case as follows:

"I have suffered with kidney and liver trouble and chronic constipation for some time. I was suffering with headache, nervousness, drowsiness, pains in the back and side, and a tired, weary feeling nearly all the time.

"I tried almost every remedy, was treated by doctors and druggists with little or no benefit.

"Finally, a friend advised me to try Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill, and the results have been truly wonderful.

"My husband has used Anti-Pill for rheumatism and was benefited greatly. We agree that Anti-Pill is most wonderful medicine and heartily recommended."

This is a very strong recommendation. Anti-Pill is undoubtedly the greatest of family remedies. All druggists, or the Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

THEY RAN AMUCK

Three Young Sports From Blenheim Have a Good Time in Chatham but Pay for It

On Thursday morning three sports, leaving near Blenheim, took it into their heads to have a spree in Chatham. They drove here in a "farm" car, or "bulky," and although this vehicle is only intended to accommodate two persons, they reached the Maple City in safety about dinner time.

Leaving their horse and rig at a livery stable, they occupied the afternoon in visiting the different hotels, treating their Maple City friends and acquaintances, and having a "good time generally."

It was a very untidy and boisterous trip that called for a good deal of sulky at the livery stable that evening, and they attracted considerable attention a few minutes later as they steered a most erratic course down King street with the idea of calling on a friend living near Park St., before returning home.

Fate willed it that the day's enjoyment was to have a sorry ending, and at the Adelaide street crossing on the C. P. R. Nemesis overtook the party. Attempting to take the corner in too sharp a turn they overturned the sulky and for a few minutes there was nothing to be seen but a sorry mix-up of struggling drunks, pieces of the sulky and the horses lying about. Bystanders came to the rescue, caught the startled horse as it commenced to run away and extricated the merry-makers.

One had received several injuries and his arm hung limply by his side. The other two were badly damaged in several places and the sulky was a wreck.

How the unfortunates got back to Blenheim is not quite clear, but it is certain that they will remember their last visit to the Maple City for a long time to come.

LANDS FOR SALE

Rothwell & Co. are to-day advertising in The Planet a number of fine building lots for sale. These lots are situated on King street west at The Elms, and the location is one of the best in the city for the establishment of a home. The sale starts on June 11, and it is expected that the demand for this property will be very great. The terms of sale are made very easy, and monthly payments can be arranged. Anyone desiring a beautiful site for a home would do well to attend this sale.

TWOHEY IS DEAD

John Twohey, the man who a few years ago shot Judge Harrison in the corridors of Harrison Hall, and who was given a sentence of 20 years in the penitentiary for this act, died last fall in the penitentiary. He was sent up in the year 1898. Four years ago a petition was circulated and largely signed for his release, but it was not acted upon by the authorities. The news of his death was learned by Sheriff Gemmill, who returned last evening from a trip to Kingston.

DRESDEN

June 1.—Mrs. E. Lawrence, wife of Jamin Lawrence, died very suddenly on Friday evening at five o'clock. She has been suffering with nervous prostration for some time past and was brought home from London hospital on Wednesday in a very critical condition. The deepest sympathy is felt for the family in their sad bereavement.

CHILDHOOD AILMENTS

Most of the troubles that afflict little ones may be traced to the stomach or bowels, and if these are put right the child will get well and thrive well. Baby's Own Tablets will cure all stomach and bowel ailments, and all the other minor troubles of babyhood and childhood. And the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst, Mrs. Wilbert McKenzie, Chalmersford, Ont., says: "My little girl was troubled with obstinate constipation to such an extent that we did not think she would live. She cried almost constantly and was wasting away. I got a box of Baby's Own Tablets, and in three days found a great improvement. I continued giving her the Tablets for nearly a month, and every trace of the trouble has disappeared, and she has since been a bright, healthy child and has grown nicely." You can get the Tablets from any medicine dealer or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WITH THE SEAL HUNTERS.

How Annual Slaughter of Animals on Ice Field is Carried Out—The Industry is Very Perilous.

Newfoundland's sealing fleet of twenty-five steamers, carrying 5,000 men, sailed a few days ago for the ocean expanse off Labrador, where the wide ice floes are found. P. T. McGrath writes to The Toronto News from St. John's: "It is on these ice floes that the pinheads or hair seals give birth to their young, these infant mammals being the chief prey of the sealmen, and being slaughtered by the thousand. These hair seals are distinct from the fur seals of Alaska and Behring Sea, and are mainly in demand for their skin and fat, the former being tanned and converted into leather, and the latter being rendered into oil and used as a substitute for medicinal cod oil, for making soups and for illuminating lighthouses. The Newfoundland seal hunt, too, is prosecuted very differently from the Alaskan. The former seals kept entirely to the ice or the open ocean, and it requires powerful steamers, able to force through the floes, to engage in the work successfully. The men venture forth upon these mighty crystal prairies and pursue their victims for miles, trusting to their expertness and surefootedness to conduct the chase to an issue and regain their ships once more by nightfall.

"The Newfoundland industry is beyond all question more perilous than the other, because it is prosecuted amid winter conditions, blizzards and severe frosts, which occasion tragedy, appalling in their gruesome accompaniments. There is scarcely a season without its awesome list of fatalities or its hairbreadth escapes, and none but men of the most rugged constitutions could stand the perils and hardships attendant upon this industry. The ships have to face the risks of colliding with icebergs while fog beset them, of being crushed between contending floes while storms assail, of being driven ashore by the pressure of the ice pack, or of being sunk by the tempests which sometimes sweep these northern seas. The men, in their turn, must guard against drowning by sinking through the seals' thickly crusted blow-holes, the fear of being frozen to death by the terrible blizzards which occasionally are met while they are abroad on the floes, or of perishing from starvation and exposure while enveloped in the fogs that often overspread the floes and make impossible for these men to reach their ships.

Carry No Food.
For greater ease in their work they go lightly clad and carry little or no food, trusting to their active exertions to maintain the warmth of their surroundings. Often the horrors which are enacted on these northern floes are among the most tragic in the annals of authentic adventures. Such, for instance, was the case of the Greenland, in 1898, of whose men forty-seven were frozen to death and sixty-three badly frostbitten by being assailed by a blizzard while far from their ship, the storm raging with pitiless fury for two days and nights, and they being without shelter."

THE MAGDALEN ISLANDS.

Interesting Group in the St. Lawrence Where Dwell the Acadian Remnant.

"Rarely does the world hear of the Magdalen Islands or of the people who occupy them, the descendants of Longfellow's Acadians, immortalized in ' Evangeline' many of whom settled here," writes P. T. McGrath to The Chicago Daily News from St. John's, Nfld. "This group of islands is in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, 150 miles from the coast of Newfoundland. This spring they have been brought into prominence because of the 30,000 seals that have been killed on their shores. The Magdalens are an aggregation of 14 islands, some so small as to be uninhabited, and others sustaining about 1,800 souls. The group is chiefly remarkable for its shipwrecks, for it lies right in the track of shipping bound to and from Montreal. The Gulf of St. Lawrence is filled with ice floes from December to May, and no ships but Newfoundland sealers can force their way through these masses, so that the Magdalens are cut off from all communication with the outer world save by the telegraph. No intercourse is possible even with the neighboring islands. Every fall a half-year's stock of provisions has to be laid in, as there is no means of replenishing the stores until spring comes.

Owned by Coffin Family.

"The settlers are French of speech and action, and their industrial habits are moulded on French patterns and their domestic life is virtually that of the Breton peasant. The Acadians first settled here in 1763, after France had been deprived of Canada and Acadia had been ravaged, as Longfellow tells. In 1789 the British monarch bestowed the islands on Admiral Coffin for services before Quebec and to his descendants the group now belongs. The settlers pay an annual rental on the basis of 20 cents an acre of the lands they occupy, and recent legislation obliges the landlords to sell when ever a tenant proffers a sum equal to fifteen years' rental, but most of the occupants are too poor to purchase. In addition to fishing, agriculture in its elementary forms is followed.

"All too rarely are the Magdalens visited by tourists and health seekers. They form an admirable summer resort. The settlers are simple, frugal and industrious, with old world habits, unfamiliar speech and dress and the manners which so charm the visitor to the lovely Norman dales and pleasant Breton valleys. The islands are not all mere rocks. In many places sandstone cliffs rise sheer from the sea 500 feet, and again they seem to overhang where the sea has fretted away their base. At some points the hills slope gradually upward from the water to the middle of the islands, rising 600 feet high, and the interior presents an interesting variety of scenery. In the bays are to be found fine sea trout, which yield excellent fishing."

Teaching the Cub.

A man was going over the Rocky mountains for pine logs, driving a wagon. On the top of a large rock by the side of the road was a young bear, the mother having started up the mountain on the approach of the team. The cub not moving, the mother came bounding back to it, giving it a push with her nose, started up the mountain again, expecting the cub to follow. But the little one made no move. The old bear then came back the second time and, making up the cub in her paws, gave him two or three severe cuffs. The cub then obeyed orders and followed the old bear in a gallop up the side of the mountain.

Best of All.

In passing you hardly would give it one look;
But the children all loved it, "Because," they all cried,
"Tis full of nice stories; 'tis lovely inside!"
'Twas a brown little, plain little, thin little girl;
Her nose was a failure, her hair wouldn't curl;
But the children all loved her, "Because," they all cried,
"She's so kind and so bright and so lovely inside!"

BOILS ALL OVER HIS FACE AND NECK

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS DID FOR HIM

WHAT FOUR DOCTORS FAILED TO DO

KEEWATIN, Ont., July 22nd, 1906.

Messrs. T. T. MILBURN CO., LTD., TORONTO, ONT.

DEAR SIR:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a few days back I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the left side. I used to use E. B. I. I make you a little, I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

I had four doctors trying to cure me but they had very little success. They would stop them for a month or six weeks and then they would be as bad as ever again.

Almost every patent medicine, advertised to cure boils, I could get hold of. I tried, but still without success. At last one day, last spring, someone happened to say, "Why not try taking Burdock Blood Bitters for the blood?" I was willing to try anything and immediately sent for a bottle, but as the time was doubtful if it would be of any use.

However, I used it as directed, and while I was taking it I began to feel better, although I still kept having a few boils but not nearly so bad ones. I did not miss any work while otherwise, I used to take, sometimes a week out of my life, to get a bottle of the medicine.

Until I had taken six bottles, and needless to say, I was sorry I did so when I tell you I have not had a boil appear for the past three months. Every body was surprised when they heard that Burdock Blood Bitters had done for me what four doctors failed to do. If any sufferers are afflicted with boils, I would strongly advise them to use E. B. I. I make you a little, I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

I always keep a bottle in the house now, as I think it is a medicine that should be in every household.

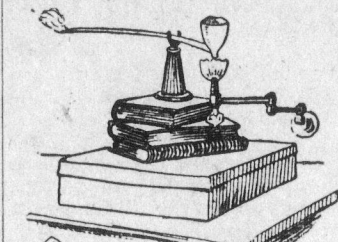

Yours truly,
HENRY A. SMITH.

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

A PRETTY EXPERIMENT.

How to Start a Gas Works With a Long Stemmed Clay Pipe.

Show your little friends some evening when you have a party at your house how coal gas is made. All that you will need is a clay pipe and some plaster of paris. Fill the pipe with soft coal dust from the scuttle and plug up the top of the bowl very carefully with plaster. When the covering is dry, place the bowl of the pipe inside of the stove, where there is a hot fire, allowing the stem to stick out. In three or

THE GAS WORKS IN OPERATION.

Four minutes strike a match and hold it to the stem of the pipe, and presto, there will be a steady blaze of gas. If there is no stove at hand, the pipe may be heated over a gas jet, but it will take longer—probably ten minutes—to start the gas from the bowl of the pipe. When the gas is all burned from the stem of the pipe, cut out the plaster, and in the bottom of the bowl you will have a little coke.

Nearly all of the gas used in great cities is made exactly in this way, only on a very much larger scale.

GUESSING.

An Indoor Game in Which There is Plenty of Fun.

A party of boys and girls may have a good deal of fun in playing this game. The first thing is to select one of their number as the "guesser" and then to blindfold him and give him a walking stick to serve as a wand. The other players now form a circle around him, and some one at the piano strikes up the air of some familiar song. Then the players, holding each other's hands, begin to march or dance around the guesser, all singing the song.

Suddenly the piano stops, and all the players in the circle begin slinging and stand perfectly silent and still. Then the guesser points with his wand, and the player at whom it points must advance and catch hold of it.

The guesser then imitates the sound of some bird or animal, and the player holding the other end of the wand must make the same sound, trying to disguise his or her voice so as not to be identified. The guesser may make three trials of this kind, and if not successful in telling who the player is, he may touch him with the end of the wand here and there, but the player may crouch or stand on tiptoe to deceive the guesser as to his height.

If the guesser calls the right name the player takes his place in the circle, and the game begins again with the new guesser. If he fails to guess the name the game goes on until he succeeds.

The Squares Word.

The squares word in any language is the Latin word, which, in connection with the three other Latin words, item, meti and emit, can be read, when written as a square, in every possible direction, forward, backward, down and up, thus:

T I M E
E M I T
M E T I
I T E M

Egyptian Borrowers.

The Egyptians had a very remarkable ordinance to prevent persons from borrowing imprudently. An Egyptian was not permitted to borrow without giving to his creditors in pledge the body of his father. It was deemed both an impolicy and an infamy not to redeem so sacred a pledge. A person who died without discharging that duty was deprived of the customary honors paid to the dead.

Conundrums.

Where are two heads better than one? In a barrel.

What has a branch, but has no leaves? River.

What are the poles that nobody climbs? North and south poles.

What capes are not worn? Cape Cod and Cape Ann.

What is a top that cannot spin? A mountain.

Dolly's Ailments.

I'm worried 'bout my dolly; I'm afraid she isn't well. But exactly what the matter is I'm very hard to tell.

She hasn't any appetite. She never eats a thing. No matter what a feast you spread Or tempting dainty bring.

And then, it's very curious. Why day and night and all She sits and weeps before her. And to sleep she'll never fall.

Unless I take her in my arms Or lay her on her bed. With her toes so high she's nearly Standing straight upon her head.

I think I'll tell the doctor. Like my mamma does for me. I'm getting very anxious. And I'd like for him to see.

If he hasn't got a medicine To make my dolly grow. Or make her plump and hearty As her mother is, you know.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cattle Unchanged—American Markets Are Without Feature.

London, May 31.—Cattle are quoted at 11c to 12c per lb.; sheep, dressed, 11c to 12c per lb.; lambs, 10c, dressed weight.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Toronto, May 31.—Receipts of live stock at the city market as reported by the railways since Tuesday were 57 cars, loads, composed of 961 cattle, 1,733 hogs, 718 sheep, 392 calves and two horses.

Exporters.

There were few, if any, prime, well-finished shipping cattle. About three or four loads would represent the receipts of exporters. Prices were firm, but not any higher and ranged from $1.75 to $5 per cwt. Export bulls sold at $3.50 to $4 per cwt.

Butchers.

The demand for butchers was good and prices were 10c higher for the general run for the best class of butchers' cows which were in good demand owing to the many outside buyers being on the market. Choice lots of butchers' cows sold at $4.50 to $4.80; loads of good at $4.50 to $4.60; medium at $4.25 to $4.40; common at $4 to $4.20; cows at $3.50 to $4.25 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

Harry Murby reports a fair trade, but buyers are looking for lower quotations, in sympathy with fat cattle prices. The main demand is for steers, 800 to 1000 lbs. each, which sell at $3.75 to $4 per cwt. Mr. Murby bought and sold 200 feeders and stockers this week at following quotations: short horns, 1200 to 1300 lbs., at $4.40 to $4.70; good steers, 800 to 900 lbs., at $4.20 to $4.40; light stockers, $3.25 to $3.60; medium stockers, $3 to $3.20; common stockers at $2.75 to $3 per cwt.

Milk Cows.

There was a large number of milk cows and springers. Trade was brisk owing to buyers from outside points being on the market. Prices were firm, ranging all the way from $28 up to $62 each. Drovers would need to be careful in buying cows as, should there be a large number brought forward, with no outside buyers present, it might be that they would use some money.

Need Calves.

Four hundred yearling calves were offered. Considering the large number, prices held fairly firm at $3.50 to $6 per cwt. Extra prime new milk calves are worth $6.50 to $7 per cwt., but they are scarce.

Sheep and Lambs.

Deliveries of spring lambs were large, the quality of many of them being not good, to say the least, the result being that prices were much lower, in fact sheep of all kinds were lower in price. Export ewes, $4.25 to $5 per cwt.; bucks, $3.50 to $4 per cwt.; spring lambs, $3 to $5.50 each.

Receipts of hogs were fairly large, over 1700 on the market. Mr. Harris quotes the market at $3.30 for hogs, $4.25 for lights and fatts; sows, $4 to $5 per cwt. Stags, $2.50 to $3.50 per cwt.

EST. BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, May 31.—Cattle—Receipts, 100 head; fairly active and steady; prime steers, $3.35 to $3.75; shipping, $4.00 to $5.40; butchers', $4.50 to $5.25.

Veal—Receipts, 250 head; active and 25c lower; $4.50 to $6.50.

Hogs—Receipts, 4500 head; fairly active and about steady; heavy and mixed, $6.75; Yorkers, $6.70 to $6.75; pigs, $6.00 to $6.70; roughs, $5.75 to $5.90; stags, $4.25 to $4.75; calves, $6.50 to $7.00.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 9400 head; sheep active and steady; lambs slow, 10c to 15c lower; lambs, $5.50 to $7.10, a few $7.15; yearlings, $6 to $6.20; wethers, $6 to $6.25; ewes, $5.50 to $5.75; sheep, mixed, $3 to $6.

NEW YORK LIVE STOCK.

New York, May 31.—Beef—Receipts, 919, mainly consigned direct; nothing going of any importance; feeling steady.

Cattle—Receipts, 85; quiet but steady; common to choice veal, $4.50 to $6.75; no buttermilk.

Hogs—Receipts, 25,000; 5c to 10c lower; choice to prime heavy, $6.47 1/2 to $6.52 1/2; medium to good heavy, $6.25 to $6.47 1/2; butchers' weights, $6.45 to $6.52 1/2; good to choice heavy mixed, $6.45 to $6.50; packing, $6 to $6.47 1/2.

Red Rose Tea is Clean Tea

CLEANLINESS is as necessary to tea quality as to any other food.

Tea rolled by hand, cured by hand, weighed, blended and packed by hand may or may not be clean.

Every operation of making Red Rose Tea, on the plantation and in the warehouse, is performed by machines, the rolling and curing, the blending and weighing are all done by scrupulously clean automatic machinery.

Red Rose Teas never touched by human hands from the picking to your kitchen.

Red Rose Tea is always clean. It cannot be otherwise, because it has no possible chance of contamination.

Its "rich, fruity flavor" cannot be impaired by foreign substance of any sort whatever.

Why everybody likes Abbey's Salt.

It is so pleasant to the taste that even children take it with pleasure. It does not "cake" or flake on top of the water.

It effervesces slowly—may be drunk leisurely, without choking or blinding the user like seidlitz powders.

The granules all dissolve—thus the full benefit of the salt is obtained with every dose.

It is the ideal laxative and tonic to purify the blood—regulate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels—and build up the system.

SWEET SINGER AT REST.

Tribute to Memory of Mrs. Jemima Luke, Hymn Writer.

Mrs. Jemima Luke, author of one of the most famous hymns in our language, "I think, when I read the sweet story of old," died at Newport, Isle of Wight, on Friday, at the age of 92. This venerable lady was born at Islington in 1813. Her maiden name was Jemima Thompson. Her father was one of the pioneers of the Bible Society, and assisted also in the formation of the Sunday School Union, with which he remained in full association till his death. He was interested in the various missionary societies, then in their infancy, and in 1827 he attached himself to the London Missionary Society, and attended its committee meetings regularly. In her interesting autobiography, "Early Years of My Life," Mrs. Luke told that her father helped to support the first floating chapel for sailors, and that he also was a founder of the Home Missionary Association, which is now merged in the Church Aid Society. "His capital never exceeded £60,000, but he and my mother lived simply and he always had his £100 in readiness to further any noble object."

In girlhood Jemima Thompson attended Hanover Chapel, Peckham, under the ministry of Dr. Collyer. She tells that even in childhood it was her ambition to become a poet, and she composed some verses every night before going to sleep, and wrote them out in the morning. She had great literary advantages, for not only was there an excellent library in her home, but Mr. Thompson used to bring back a package of magazines on the first of every month. Among these, Mrs. Luke tells us, was the Youth's Magazine, to which Jane Taylor, under the signature "Q.Q." regularly contributed. The Juvenile Friend was a less pretentious publication, which the little girl fancied might possibly insert such verses as hers, and there, in due time, her first poem appeared. Scarcely less gratifying than the sight of her work in print was the notice to correspondents in which she read, "We shall be pleased to hear again from 'A Little Girl of Thirteen,' and against this theory must be set the fact, that I observed one man in whom the light markings predominated. In fact, he was quite fresh colored, like a European, and had light hair. These piebald people were not a class apart from the rest of the Hula villagers, but shared their life in every respect."

For ten years Mrs. Luke worshipped under the ministry of the Rev. James Stratton, of Paddington Chapel, and in his church she heard men such as Dr. Liefchild, Thomas Binney and George Clayton.

On June 25, 1838, Mrs. Luke saw Queen Victoria crowned in Westminster Abbey. To the end of her life she loved to recall this dazzling scene, and especially the moment when the girl Sovereign held out her hand to help the aged Lord Rolle. Mrs. Luke and her friend were obliged to be in the abbey between four and five o'clock in the morning to secure their seats, several hours earlier than was necessary in the case of King Edward's Coronation.

Mrs. Luke's Famous Hymn.

"The Child's Desire," as Mrs. Luke entitled her hymn, was written in a stagecoach between Taunton and Wellington. In the small town of Wellington there was an association in aid of the Society for Female Education in the East. One spring morning Miss Thompson, as she was then, went in a two-horse coach to see how the society was prospering. It was a hot day, and there was no other inside passenger. She took a letter from her pocket, and on the back of the envelope wrote two verses of the little hymn now so well known. The composition originally consisted of two verses only, but in response to a request from her father to make it a missionary hymn, the third verse was added. "The hymn was published in The Sunday School Teachers' Magazine, to which Mr. Thompson sent it. But for his intervention it would in all probability never have been preserved."

Soon after the hymn appeared, Mrs. Luke received a letter requesting her to undertake the editorship of a missionary magazine. This work proved congenial, and the magazine prospered. Among the contributors were Robert Moffat and Dr. Livingstone. The title of the magazine was The Missionary Repository. Though it has long disappeared, it is held as a model of later missionary magazines for children.

In 1843, Jemima Thompson married the Rev. Samuel Luke, a Congregational minister, whom she survived for thirty-three years. "My loneliness," she wrote, "has been cheered by the affectionate attentions of a dear and only son, with his wife and two grandchildren."

Passive Resistance.

To the end Mrs. Luke retained the mental vigor of former days, and followed public events with lively interest. Her opposition to the Education Act was so strong and conscientious that she refused to pay the rate, and was summoned, among the Isle of Wight residents, in September, 1904. In an exquisitely written autograph letter, addressed to the editor of The Morning Leader, and dated Sept. 21, 1904, Mrs. Luke gave her reasons as follows: "I have refused to pay this education rate because the act will place large numbers of our children under Ritualistic teaching, and so prepare them for the more advanced doctrines of the Church of Rome." Mrs. Luke was a regular worshipper at the Congregational chapel at Newport, to which she was wheeled every Sunday in a bath chair.

It was great pleasure to her when her hymn was sung in many Free Churches and Sunday schools on Sunday, Sept. 25, 1904. In thousands of places of worship the singing of these lines helped on the vast movement of conscientious protest against the Education Acts.—British Weekly, Feb. 8, 1905.

For the Hair.

Hair that is very oily may have a pinch of borax or soda in the water to correct the musty odor which clings to heavy hair, but either should be used sparingly. Ammonia will cause the hair to turn gray.

Piebald Savages.

Piebald savages are among the people and things of which A. E. Pratt writes in "Two Years Among the Guinea Cannibals." He says: "For the most part their bodies were brown, but they were marked with pinkish patches unevenly distributed. This marking might be due to a disease, contracted from a too constant fish diet, but if it were a disease I could not discover that it gave any discomfort. Against this theory must be set the fact, that I observed one man in whom the light markings predominated. In fact, he was quite fresh colored, like a European, and had light hair. These piebald people were not a class apart from the rest of the Hula villagers, but shared their life in every respect."

An Enormous Vat Bursts.

In order to realize the sensation which has been created in England by the crisis in the fortunes of the famous brewery in which Lord Aylesbury, Lord Tweedmouth, Lord Essex, the Duke of Roxburghe, and a number of other peers of the realm are large stockholders, writes the Marquis de Fontenay, it must be explained that it is the oldest and most important brewery in London, and that its removal from Tottenham Court road to the remote suburb of Wandsworth, rendered necessary by the writing down of the capital to the tune of $4,000,000, means the disappearance from the centre of London of one of the most familiar landmarks.

Founded before King George III. came to the throne, the brewery reached the height of its fame at the beginning of the nineteenth century, when it made a striking appeal to popular attention and to popular thirst by constructing a colossal vat twenty-two feet high and holding 3,600 barrels of beer. The idea that a million people could have marched in single file past the vat and that each could have taken from it a pint of porter before the contents were exhausted struck popular fancy.

In 1814 the vat burst and the mighty tide of beer, rushing out into Tottenham Court road and Oxford street, made tenement walls collapse, swept people off their feet, and drowned eight fortunate mortals, while hundreds were rendered hopelessly intoxicated by their immoderate drafts from the tidal wave of beer. The catastrophe was the talk of the town for weeks, and Parliament actually took cognizance of the matter by passing a vote authorizing the return of the whole amount of the duty which had been paid on the beer thus lost. In 1831 King Edward IV. conferred a baronetcy upon Henry Meux, thus inaugurating the many nobiliary titles which have since been conferred by the crown upon what is known as the "beeraige."

A Story of Ellen Terry.

Ellen Terry's jubilee is the occasion of many stories. Her playing of Prince Arthur in "King John" when she was a little girl is recalled. She was unable to realize the honor of having her eyes put out, and she remembers Mrs. Keane saying scornfully: "Do you think you would go on like that if your eyes were really going to be put out? Why, you would make more fuss if you had lost your doll." But she could not rise to the occasion, and at last Mrs. Keane lost patience with her, and she burst into a paroxysm of sobbing and crying. "That's it! now say them!" exclaimed Mrs. Keane, delighted. "Just imitate the way you are crying now another time, and you will have no more trouble." Miss Terry adds, in relating the story, "to catch her meaning, and I have ever since profited by the advice."

John Jacob Astor when asked how to get rich said: "Invest your savings in land in a growing city and in a good locality and you can make no mistake, it's far better than a savings bank, as it cannot run away, bust up or cheat, and the older it grows the more valuable it gets. Being the 7th of a series of en talks introducing sayings of great men, applicable to the Nordheimer Piano, the symbol to perfect music.

I've read that things inanimate have moved
And as with living souls have been informed
By magic numbers and persuasive sound—Congreve.

Those are the lines that follow Congreve's famous lines about music's charms. Everyone may agree with the poet as to the soothing of music, and perhaps a few unders and what he means by the persuasiveness of sound in things inanimate. Whether it is true or not, the fact remains that has a charm that pleases every human soul that is fortunate enough to hear it. The reason is not far to seek. The NORDHEIMER is the embodiment of years of artistic training in the making of pianos. WORLD of SPORT

THE NORDHEIMER PIANO

FOOTBALL

The football boys are awaiting the result of the Sandwich-Windsor-Detroit games. They are practicing every night and keeping in good shape. Arrangements are being made for an exhibition game with St. Thomas in that town on June 19. Thursday they will play with the all-Dover team on the grounds on the 13th concession. For this game Manager Williams, of the Sovereign Bank, has offered a prize of $11 to the winning team.

THE TRACK

Secretary Massey is authority for the statement that some very good money will be hung up Chatham way on July 2. The best horseflesh in Canada will be here. The Windsor meet ends the last week in June and this will mean that the best in the land will be steered this way for the holiday. There will be two harness races, and two running races. The program will be as follows:—
1—220 pace or trot.
2—250 pace or trot.
3—5 furlong run.
4—6 furlong run.

It is expected that purses will range in the neighborhood of $1,000. The official program of the races will be published next week.

LACROSSE

Things in local intermediate lacrosse circles are shaping up in beautiful style just now, and despite the many difficulties which at the first faced the management, there is every promise of a worthy season's sport. The men behind are digging up the right kind of lacrosse material from all corners of Canada. There are indications that some very earnest work is being done in the way of securing the right kind of players. And there is no reason why this should not be. Every person likes to come to Chatham—even lacrosse players. Therefore it is not hard to sign good men in this burg. These men who are devoting their good, honest time in the cause of manly sport should not go without getting credit for their pains. The best way to show this would be to give the boys every encouragement.

A word about the players. Some very comely and clever fellows are being signed. A look over the list will show the odd-time that a few of these who formed the famous Tecumseh line-up are still doing business at the old stand.

To begin with, we have Johnson in goal. Johnson hails from Hespeler, the town noted for its factory girls and Bernhardt's lager. But Johnson, they say, is a dandy. He is not new to these pastures, and his good work here on the 24th has made him solid with the crowd.

Point will be granted by O'Keefe, a bunch of vim and muscle from Wallaceburg, who signed last year with the Tecumsehs, but eventually cast his lot with the Glasstown aggregation. O'Keefe has a pretty broad acquaintance with the Chatham oval. He has had experience in the east, having played one season in Montreal.

Cooper gained notoriety here last winter as a lucky player, and hockey and lacrosse, according to the sporting proverb that be, go hand in hand.

Miner, who is a new one here, is showing up in fine practice. Walter Elliott will do stunts again this season. Elliott needs no newspaper boost. He's got a "rep." in this town, and in fact in every other town where he has played, of being one of the very cleanest and neatest of the business. Walter's a regular lion with the lovers of the game.

Lawson has always played home, but he is a born defence man, and that's where he'll be seen during the coming months of roses and Scotch tipples. He is a speedy boy, and he will undoubtedly shine on defence.

Travel a little further down the line and we have Hutchison. Still waters run deep. Hutchison is one of the deep kind. He's a heady boy, and he keeps the other fellow wondering what he is going to do next. R. Johnson, who will likely hold down centre, comes from St. Thomas. He played with the Intermediates there and has a splendid record.

Higley, of Blenheim, is another whose face is familiar on a Chatham line-up. He is a pretty stick handler, and he knows the game.

Bob Stewart don't need any puff. He is an old favorite in these parts. Fairfield is small in stature, but he is wiry and slippery, and he has his field of action.

Richards is a pacer and a hard worker. He has the name of being a dead shot on goal, when he gets the opportunity. He is no quitter, and has barrels of staying power.

Manroe has all the earmarks of an A1 home. Poole is a Chatham boy with a good record, as are also the Messrs. Brundage.

Kenn is yet an unknown, as he hasn't turned up to practice so far. Johnson, of Wallaceburg, is a defence man of no mean "rep."

Davidson made a strong bid for popular favor in the game on Victoria Day, and he is an effective shot. He formerly played with Thamesville.

The Wallaceburg Intermediate bunch have quit the business, and therefore the bunch from Sugarville will not set the Thames on fire this season. The idea now is, to get Detroit to take Wallaceburg's place in the gap. Detroit would help to fill up the schedule most acceptably, shown not only by their game here on the 24th, but also in their recent defeat of Windsor by a score of 3-0.

BASEBALL

The baseball game on Tecumseh Park Thursday night between the Brooklyns and Tammany Healers resulted in a victory for the latter team by a score of 11 to 1 in five innings, when the game was called on account of darkness. The features of the game were the pitching of Plensence and the catching of Taylor for the Tammany Healers.

Baseball is bowling along alright, alright, and Manager Bates is keen to let the people see just what his bunch of antediluvian wonders can do. He and Secretary Perrott have been doing a lot of hard work and they have signed up a lot of worthy stuff.

Digman, of Toronto, will fill the pitcher's box and hand out the decisive benders for the local nine this summer. He has good control and lots of speed. His many curves are the marvel of all who witness them. His feature is a drop. O'Keefe will stand guard behind the bat. O'Keefe is good stuff and a fast player. Milton Baxter, who will hold down the initial bag, played a brilliant game with the Brandon. Man's aggregation last season. He is a heavy batter. Second base will be held down by Mr. Woods, who needs no introduction to Chatham fans. Joker Hicks, Esq., will look good on third. Russell Dine, of Dresden, will play short stop. He has a good reputation. The gardens will be occupied as follows:—C. F. Mr. E. Smith; r.f., Mr. Peter Grandbois; l.f., Mr. Julius Perrott.

The boys are trying to arrange for a game with West Lorne here next week.
