

Poetry.

FOR HAZARD'S GAZETTE.

TO MY SARAH.

Oh! Sarah dear, 'till art my choice
Of all that e'er I knew,

My love is not a short-lived fit,
A flame that gleams and dies

Spring may forget, with flow'rets meet,
To deck the grassy lawn,

FLOWERS.

Let them grow by the way-side, crush not the sweet flowers,
They tell us of Eden and her once happy bowers,

Though but brief is the time for the bright flowers to live
Yet while they are with us, what sweet pleasure they give!

As smiles an oasis in a desert of sand,
So smile the waters round us where the lov'd flowers stand;

I GOT A-GOING AND COULDN'T STOP.

A little boy named Frank, was standing in the yard,
When his father called him.

"Well then," said his father, "what made you run out into the street?"

"Oh!" said Frank, "I got a-going and couldn't stop."

"This is the way that a great many boys get into difficulty; they get a-going, and can't stop."

"The boy that was brought before the police, and sent to the House of correction for stealing, began by taking little things from his mother—by stealing vesting and other nice things that were put away—Next he began to take things from his companions at school. He got a-going and could not stop, till he got into jail."

"Those two boys that you see fighting out on the green, began by hanting each other in fun. At length they began to get angry, and dispute, and call each other bad names, till they got a-going and could not stop. They will separate with black eyes and bloody noses."

"There is a young man sitting late with his companions at the gaming table. He has flushed cheeks, an anxious look, a despairing countenance. He has lost his last dollar. He began playing merrily in the street; but he got a-going, and could not stop."

"See that young man, with a dark lantern, stealing from his master's drawers. He is a merchant's clerk. He came from the country a promising boy. But the rest of the clerks went to the theatre, and he thought he must go too. He began thinking, he would go only once, just to have it to say he had been at the theatre. But he got a-going and could not stop. He has used up all his wages, and wants more money. He cannot resist the temptation, when he knows there is money in the drawer. He has got a-going—he will stop in the State prison."

"Hark! do you hear that horrid oath? It comes from the foul mouth of a little boy in the street. He began by saying by-words; but he got a-going and could not stop."

"Fifty young men were some years ago, in the habit of meeting together in a room at a public house, to enjoy themselves in social hilarity, where the wine cup passed freely round. One of them as he was going there one evening, began to think there might be danger in the way. He turned on his heel, and went to his room, and was never seen at the public house again. He has become rich; and the first block of buildings which he erected was built directly in front of the place, where he stood when he made that resolution. Six of the young men followed his example. The remaining forty-three got a-going and could not stop, till they landed in the ditch, and most of them in the dreary old grave."

"Beware then boys, how you get a-going. Be sure before you start, that you are in the right way; for when you are sliding down hill, it is hard to stop.—Rev. H. Newcombe.

A SAD CONTRAST.—A painter once met with a beautiful child. So enraptured was he with its countenance and its expression of loveliness that he resolved to paint it. He did so; and hung his favorite picture in his study. He made it his guardian angel. In sorrow and passion, he sought relief and tranquillity in gazing upon that charming countenance. He pursued, if ever he saw its contrast, to paint that also. But years passed away, before he found a face so infernally ugly, as to satisfy his idea of a perfect contrast to his darling picture. It was that of a wretch, lying in despair, upon the floor of his cell. He painted that terrible countenance. But what matter had been his emotion, when he learned, that it was the very same person he had painted before! The first was the face of the innocent child; the last that of the reckless ruined youth. The best things perverted become the worst. The sweetest natures changed produce the sharpest acids. That little angel likeness had become metamorphosed into the reality of a fiend."

In a case recently tried at Philadelphia, where a suit was brought by the Germantown Telegraph against a subscriber, for twelve years' subscription, the Judge charged the Jury, as reported by the Philadelphia papers, as follows:

"When a person subscribes for a paper, and gives directions where it shall be left, he is bound to pay for it, unless he prescribes the time for which it shall be left. If a subscriber wishes to discontinue the paper, it is his duty to square accounts and then give notice of a discontinuance. If a paper is sent to a person through the post office, and he takes it out, he is bound to pay for it. If a subscriber changes his residence it does not follow that the carrier must take notice of it; and a delivery of a paper at the place, where he was first directed to leave it, is a delivery to the subscriber, unless the publisher receives a notice to discontinue or send it to another place."

The Israel of God—Man is God's image, and to curse wickedly the image of God, is to curse God himself. Suppose that a man should say with his mouth, I wish that the king's picture were burned; would not this man's so saying render him an enemy to the person of the king? Even so it is with them that by cursing with evil to their neighbors or themselves, they condemn the image of God himself.—Zephaniah.

A beggar applying to a lady in Boston one day last week for money to get a dose of castor oil, was called in, and the oil was administered gratis, despite his grimaces.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

Sir ALEXANDER BANNEKMAN, KNIGHT,
Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief in and over
Her Majesty's Island of Prince Edward, and the Territories thereunto belonging, Chancellor, Vice Admiral, and Ordinary of the same, &c. &c. &c.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS my attention has been called to a Letter which appeared in the Islander, Newspaper, of the 30th ultimo, addressed to the Editor thereof offering to the reading public of this Island "the declaration, qualification and obligation," copied in the letter states) verbatim, from the Laws of the Orange Association of British North America: And whereas I would have considered it unnecessary to notice the letter and documents alluded to, had I not ascertained, that they had been published by the authority of a Member or Members of an Orange Association which it is alleged, has been formed and now exists at Charlottetown, in this Island; and had I not also observed it stated on the same authority, that "the Institution in these Colonies can never be suppressed, but by means which would subvert the Constitution and annihilate the connection with the mother country; and whereas such an assertion may tend to mislead the Inhabitants of this Colony, who have no laws at present existing applicable to such Societies,—and none, I trust, will become necessary; and whereas such an assertion is not founded in fact, as unlawful Societies, in a neighbouring Province, are defined by Statute, and those which it is enacted, that "every Society or Association, the Members whereof take any oath or engagement not required or authorized by Law," and "every Society or Association, the Members whereof, or any of their Members, take and subscribe or assent to any engagement of Secrecy, Treason or Declaration not required by Law (with the exception of acknowledged Lodges of Free Masons, to which the Law does not extend); and under the above Statute, Offenders convicted thereof are subject to transportation or imprisonment:

I have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice and consent of her Majesty's Executive Council, to publish this Proclamation, and earnestly recommend Her Majesty's subjects in Prince Edward Island to discourage all such Societies, and not to join Orange, Ribbon, or any Society, where oath, obligations or tests are imposed on their Members, which are not authorized or required by Law; and I would hereby caution all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers from joining or belonging to any such Society, as by the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, they are forbidden to institute, countenance or attend Orange Lodges in Barracks, Quarters, Camp or elsewhere; and I would hereby call upon all Justices of the Peace, Ministers of Religion, and Civil Officers in this Colony, to use their influence in suppressing such Societies, and to discourage the same in their several localities; and I do hereby assure the Queen's loyal subjects, residing in this Colony, that they will render acceptable service to their Sovereign, by discouraging all such Class Societies, which were they allowed to increase, could not fail to disturb the public peace, by creating animosities and feuds, happily, none at present exist.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of this Island, at Charlottetown, in the said Island, this Sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-two, and in the 15th year of Her Majesty's Reign.

PATENT ARTIFICIAL SLATE, AND Unchangeable Metallic Paints; PROOF AGAINST FIRE & WATER! Manufactured by the Patentees, in Colchester, Nova Scotia.

THE ARTIFICIAL SLATE is the product of a mixture of mineral substances known to be the best non-conductors of heat as well as the most indestructible. The chemical affinity of which converts the surface of materials covered, into a Coating of Actual Slate—Proof against FIRE and WATER. Thus the laws of nature are made to accomplish results as surprising as they are useful, by rendering Wooden fabrics as durable as brick or Stone, and less pensive to moisture, and consequently preventing decay and destruction from corroding influences hitherto supposed unattainable.

The principal ingredients are Alumina, Silica and the Oxides of Iron. The adhesive quality of the latter not only binds and attracts the particles together, but the substance covered also. The longer exposed to the weather the more powerful the attraction, and consequently the harder the Slate. As various shades of colour are obtained, brick buildings may be made impervious to moisture, and the fastidious colours of either Fire or Granite. The oil must be evaporated by the action of the weather before it is fit for use, which will take from nine to twelve months.

THE METALLIC PAINTS, Purple and Red, are offered as Water and Water Proof solids. They have long been celebrated, by rendering Wooden fabrics as durable as brick or Stone, and less pensive to moisture, and consequently preventing decay and destruction from corroding influences hitherto supposed unattainable.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 45 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY, Sir—At the age of 15 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her leg, and ever since she has been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distressing, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her leg was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, without remission or fear, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 45 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN. A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Abs. Abs., Builder of Gas Ovens, to Professor HOLLOWAY, dated May 31, 1851.

Sir,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works; accompanied by sciatic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg would be amputated; yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.

(Signed) WILLIAM ABBS. The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England, Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH. Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penrhall, Kent, dated December 13, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY, DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before heard the awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was, I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.

(Signed) FREDERICK TURNER. A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE. Copy of a letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hixham, dated May 15, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY, DEAR SIR,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newmarket infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them, and in less than a month, I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint.

(Signed) JOHN FORFAR. AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnold, of Breconshire, Lollian Road, Edinboro', dated April 29th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY, DEAR SIR,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from time to time, to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she has had and blistered to a great extent; still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago, she saw in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment, and delight, she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last few years.

(Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT. The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

- Bad Legs, Gigo-foot, Pustulas, Sore throats,
Bad Breasts, Chilblains, Gout, Skin diseases,
