BURGLARS MADE A RICH HAUL IN GENERAL LESSARD'S HOUSE DURING THE FAMILY'S ABSENCE

Valuable Plate and Jewels Were Taken by Marauders Who Entered the House While the General and Family Were at Niagara Camp.

Burglars gained an entrance to the residence of Major-General Lessard at 41 St. George street sometime during Monday night. After ransacking the house from garret to cellar the marauders departed, taking with them a quantity of valuable plate as well as jewelry and other treasured articles. The family left the city for the military camp at Niagara early on Monday, but Miss Lessard returned to Toronto last night to see what had been stolen from the house.

The burglary was committed at a most opportune time as far as the perpetrators were concerned. There were no servants sleeping at the residence. The only protection taken was the locking up of the place and the assurance that an officer would call during the daytime to test the doors and windows.

Forcing a rear window the burglars succeeded in entering the lower part of the residence. Evidently they knew their ground well. Every drawer on the first floor was searched thoroughly, the contents being thrown onto the carpet. Books, papers, clothes and everything were scattered right and left.

Valuable Silver Taken.—After the first storey had been ransacked, the thieves turned their attention to the upper rooms. Here also things were thrown about. The pieces of silver, smallest in size, but weighing most were the ones carried off. Rings, brooches and watches were also lifted. Many priceless articles were, however, left undisturbed. The burglars undoubtedly failing to appreciate their work.

When the family left for Niagara considerable plate and silverware was left in the dining room. To all appearances this was also subjected to a close scrutiny, and only parts which could be easily melted or disposed of removed. The burglars contented themselves with the jewelry and small silver ornaments.

Altho Miss Lessard cannot as yet tell what was stolen, it is safe to say that the loss will run into the hundreds, and probably more. Fortunately many jewels were left in safe keeping before the house was closed. Otherwise the thieves would have made a richer haul.

The city detectives have so far been unable to locate the men who are suspected of the robbery. An arrest may be made at any time.

Watch the Newspapers.—Those connected with the case believe that the members of the gang responsible for the burglary watch the movements of society people thru the newspaper columns. They are thus informed when residents contemplate leaving the city. The house is watched and when the family vacate a man calls at the residence and knocks at the front door. Then he goes to the back and also knocks there. Should he get an answer he asks for some imaginary person and leaves. This is also the procedure should a neighbor come out. When he does not receive a response the man knows that the house is empty and the time ripe for the crime to be committed. Accordingly, when darkness falls, the residence is visited.

Robbed a Freight Car.—Forcing the door of a freight car in the G. T. R. yards, near John street, on Monday night, thieves stole 24 cases of oranges. The city detectives have recovered several of the cases. This is only one of many robberies which have occurred in the yards of late and in almost every case the detectives have at last recovered the goods and arrested the thieves.

LEG AMPUTATED AFTER ACCIDENT

George Wood Struck by Train on Level Crossing While Going Home From Work.

While crossing the C. P. R. tracks at Albany avenue, shortly after 7 o'clock last night, George Wood, aged 20, 324 Albany avenue, was struck by a C. P. R. passenger train and knocked 30 feet. He was attended by Dr. Phair, Dupont and Bathurst streets, who found that his leg had been badly mangled and his back and head also injured. F. W. Matthews' motor ambulance removed Wood to the Western Hospital, where the left leg had to be amputated.

Wood was on his way home and had waited for one train to pass. He stepped from behind this train on to the next track and was struck by a train coming from the opposite direction. The hospital authorities reported him as having a fair chance of recovery late last night.

To Honor German Emperor

BERLIN, June 10.—(Can. Press.)—The street decorations in honor of the emperor's 25th anniversary, are virtually completed. Artificial stone pillars, beflagged and garlanded, have been set up throughout the whole length of Unter der Linden, and the other principal streets are brilliant with bunting—the whole on a scale unprecedented even in Berlin.

POLAR EXPLORER BACK HOME AGAIN

Dr. C. S. Wright, Who Accompanied Scott on Antarctic Expedition, Arrives in City After Long Absence—Family Were on Hand to Welcome Him.

"My, Charlie, but you are looking fine," was the greeting from his mother, when Dr. C. S. Wright, Toronto's hero of the Scott Antarctic expedition, stepped from the rear of the Chicago train at the Union Depot last evening. And the modest explorer of the polar regions, neatly dressed in well-tailored clothes, and looking entirely different from what he did at the frozen south, told his mother that he felt fine, and was glad to get home to Toronto.

Dr. Wright was accompanied by Frank Debenham, of Australia, a geologist and personal friend, who accompanied the Scott party on the polar expedition. The two explorers stepped from the rear end of the train at 10 o'clock, and five minutes elapsed before they were found by the Wright family, minus Mr. Alfred Wright, the father, who, in his eagerness to see his son, as soon as possible, had motored out to Lambton to meet the incoming train, which, however, did not stop to let him on.

No Civic Reception.—From a civic standpoint, Dr. Wright's reception was a farce. It was expected that the explorer would be met at the station by Controller Church and Secretary James Somers, of the civic reception committee. These men must have had other engagements which they deemed more important, for neither of them showed up to give him a welcome home.

If controllers were lacking, newspapermen were on hand, and made up for their failure. Some of them camped at the station all afternoon, as no one seemed to know the exact time the Antarctic explorer would arrive. When the long expected hero detoured, he had little information to give them. "Not a word till tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock," he said, as he was surrounded by six newspapermen.

"Will you ever take another trip south?" asked The World. "Maybe I will if I get the chance," answered Wright, with a laugh. He was then captured by his mother, drawn toward a waiting motor car, and rushed off to the home on Crescent road.

As they stood at the car, the explorer turned to Debenham. "Jump in, Frank. I feel mighty hungry and there is no time to wait," he said.

Next Monday Dr. Wright will be given a formal civic reception, at the meeting of the city council, and will be presented with a gold watch.

POWERS JOIN TO AVERT FRESH OUTBREAK

Russia and Germany Urge Belligerent Balkan States to Adopt More Pacific Attitude and France Gives Plain Intimation That Financial Aid Will Be Withheld.

LONDON, June 10.—(Can. Press.)—The great powers are exerting every effort to prevent the Balkan states from flying at each other's throats, and, reports from Vienna indicate, with some success. Russia and Germany particularly are busy counseling peace and moderation and the French Government is supporting them, and, as the principal creditors, is giving both Serbia and Bulgaria clear warning that in event of war no financial assistance will be forthcoming either before or after hostilities.

Since Serbia has definitely declared towards Bulgaria, even should the latter refuse revision of the treaty of alliance, and will wait before proclaiming annexation of the occupied territories, and since Bulgaria has also expressed readiness to do everything possible to maintain peace, it is still hoped that war may be averted.

Roumania Would Fight.—The Neue Freie Presse learns that Dr. Danoff shortly will form a new cabinet at Sofia, no military reasons for further delay existing, as the Bulgarian army is ready for action on the Serbian and Macedonian frontiers.

A Bucharest despatch to The Daily Telegraph says that if war occurs Roumania will mobilize her army, but at present has no understanding with any of the allies.

Servians Belligerous.—The official Mit at Sofia, says that the Servians want war, and that this being so no middle course is open to Bulgaria, which must demand the immediate evacuation of the territories in the uncontented zone while awaiting the judgment of the arbitrators, and must send to all parts of the disputed zone as many troops as the Servians have there.

A Belgrade despatch says that the Russian emperor has addressed telegrams to King Peter and King Ferdinand, imploring them to avoid a fratricidal war and expressing the hope that they will accept the intervention of arbitrators.

FEAR ELECTION SAYS BOURASSA

Cabinet Ministers Believe Defeat Would Be Result—Borden in Dire Straits, Thinks Henri.

EDMONTON, Alta., June 10.—(Can. Press.)—That in his opinion no general election would take place as the result of the senate rejecting the naval bill was the statement made today by Henri Bourassa, the Montreal Nationalist leader, who arrived in the city last night to take part in the French Language Society Convention. Mr. Bourassa stated that he will make two public addresses.

Mr. Bourassa said today that the Borden government was in a very awkward position. The majority of the cabinet, he said, was convinced that if any appeal were made to the country on the naval bill they would be defeated. It was on this assumption that Mr. Bourassa based his supposition that no general election would take place. He declined, however, to give any forecast of the probable political outcome, stating that that was a matter on which it seemed to him futile to prophesy.

"I really cannot see how Borden is going to get out of the difficulty," said Mr. Bourassa. "His cabinet will not allow an appeal to the country, and yet Mr. Borden has pledged himself to a general election and, if he does not fulfil that pledge, only two deductions are possible: either no emergency exists, or, if there is an emergency, Canada is not bound to come to the assistance of England."

BIGAMY FLOURISHES IN WEST MISSIONARY BLAMES MORMONS

Rev. W. M. Shearer Declares Followers of Joseph Smith Have Complete Control of Southern Alberta Schools and Advocates Church Schools to Save Gentiles

"If Christianity could do nothing more than restore the primitive law of marriage, it would be of inestimable value." This was the statement made at the annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian Church, in old St. Andrew's Church, King street, yesterday afternoon, by Mrs. John Somerville, the president.

Mrs. Somerville's remarks were centered on the broads being made in this country by the Mormons. She stated that year after year, this spurious religious sect was gaining in its hold on Western Canada. The W.H.M.S., she said, was fighting valiantly in an effort to counteract the degrading effect that Mormon customs were having upon home life; but the work was not progressing as fast as the officers would like. Deaconesses were being used in the work among the Mormons, and the society was making plans to have more of these workers sent out to the different Mormon settlements.

More outspoken than the remarks of Mrs. Somerville, were those of Rev. W. M. Shearer, superintendent of missions for south Alberta, whose address was confined solely to Mormonism. Mr. Shearer told of the first settlement of Mormons who came to Canada, twenty-five years ago, and of the propaganda which the settlement had carried on since that time. Sir John A. Macdonald was asked to allow the settlement to practise polygamy, but the premier refused to allow them to enter the country unless a pledge were given that polygamy would not be practised.

Had Three Wives.—At that time, said Mr. Shearer, it was proved that Charles Card, the head of the settlement, had three wives, and it was predicted the pledges made for monogamy would not be kept. Mr. Shearer claimed that the prediction had come true, and that bigamy was now flourishing in Southern Alberta. He stated that there were now more than 20,000 Mormons in Canada, and by way of emphasizing the growth of the sect, he told of the endowment house which the Mormons were erecting this summer, in Cardston, Alberta.

This endowment house will cost $250,000," said Mr. Shearer. "Think of it! The only Mormon Temple in the world, outside of the state of Utah, is in Canada, on British soil."

The speaker stated that 90 per cent of the people living in the towns of Cardston, Magrath, Stirling and ... Continued on Page 3, Column 4.

BITTER WRANGLE IS ANTICIPATED

In Preparation of Report on Investigation of Marconi Scandal in England.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. LONDON, June 10.—(Special.)—Thru a system of raising marked cheques, a woman who has so far eluded the police, is carrying on an extensive swindling game thruout eastern Ontario. Representing herself as Dorothy Smith, wife of an employe of a Brockville manufacturing concern, she got away with $400 at the local branch of the Bank of Toronto. She presented for payment a cheque for $800, marked good by the Union Bank of Canada, Ottawa, and taking $400, left the supposed balance on deposit. The fraud was not discovered until the cheque called for only $8, which had been raised to $800.

Chief of Police Burke has since received word of another coup made evidently by the same woman, at Chesham, under the name of Mrs. Helen Howard. It appears she made a deposit of $10 at the Sterling Bank, Cornwall, receiving a marked cheque for the amount. This she raised to $1000 and proceeded to Chesherville, where, at the Bank of Ottawa, she drew out $700. She is traveling with a man. The pair are using an automobile. Chief Burke went to Morrisburg in answer to a description of a woman there, who it was thought might be the swindler.

HOME RULE MEANS CIVIL WAR SOLEMN WARNING TO ASQUITH BILL IS GIVEN SECOND READING

Carson Says He Will Stand by Ulster and Beresford That He Will Volunteer Services Against the Government Troops—Canada's Attitude Is Subject of Debate.

LONDON, June 10.—(Can. Press.)—The house of commons tonight passed the second reading of the home rule for Ireland bill without division, an amendment moved by Mr. Balfour for the rejection of the bill having been previously defeated, 268 to 270.

The announcement of the figures was received with an outburst of cheering by the Liberals and Nationalists. The debate was marked by fiery declarations by the opposition speakers, who predicted that the imposition of home rule would result in civil war in Ireland.

Sir Edward Carson, the Irish Unionist leader, said: "For my part I will continue to support the Ulstermen and will take full responsibility for their resistance. You may seize their arms and send troops but you will not settle the Irish question. You know that you are crowing about peace when there is no peace, and you will fall in your object."

Beresford to Volunteer.—Lord Charles Beresford declared: "If the government sends troops to Ireland I shall offer my services, poor as they may be, and help my fellow-countrymen."

The opposition leader asserted that even if the country was appealed to and a general election favored home rule, Ulster would not submit.

John E. Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, said that Edward Carson's speech was the most violent he had ever delivered. Sir Edward had taken upon himself a grave responsibility, and did not represent Ulster's opinion. The Nationalists were willing to make any concessions. "But," added Mr. Redmond, "twenty-four counties will not allow themselves to be intimidated by four."

Upper Chamber Powerless.—The bill now enters the suggestion stage before its inevitable rejection by the lords. The house of commons, under the Parliament Act, which provided the means of passing liberal bills over the veto of the house of lords, cannot amend the bill. It must go to the lords in exactly the same shape as it reached that chamber last session. Members of the lower house may, however, suggest amendments to the lords, which the latter may insert at their discretion.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, said that if it were a bargain between the government and the Nationalists, the house of commons ought to know. Mr. Redmond denied the existence of a bargain and Premier Asquith supported the denial.

Mr. Law, proceeding, said: "The government is compelling the whole Unionist party to take the side of Ulster. If the government forces the bill thru under the present conditions it will be a self-constituted revolution."

Impressions of the General Assembly By DR. QUILL

The moderator is not much on "the millinery." And Massey Hall was slow to find a sanctuary on whose door is usually seen the august words—The Moderator. Hence the first day of two, he just dispensed as some forefather probably threw his shoemaker's apron over his chair. But this story concerneth the getting into his black Geneva before one of the early seditious. In the gallery were a score of old Montreal students who had a laugh at their honorable friend's expense.

He picked it up as a lion might take into its claws a human garment stained with blood. It was tossed over his shoulder, but evidently he was into some holy pocket instead of the other sleeve. Off it came again, but whether the inside and outside were playing tag the amused old friends knew not. But they saw that he remembered Bruce and the spider, and went to bed with a will. In a stage whisper, however, one was heard to say—Mud-doch, get your kilts!

Robert McQueen, Kirkwall, was one of the chaplains at the opening of the eleventh day of the great Presbyterian fete. It brought one back to the days of the "long prayer." It was holy in tone; there were many of the most precious gems of the Old and New Testament scripture therein; and its incense filled the temple—humility, penitence and love. The truth is that it would have been a piece of rare his- ... Continued on Page 3, Column 5.

SYNOD DISCUSSES NEW MARRIAGE ACT

Some Anglican Delegates Take Exception to Its Stringency.

APPROVED BY BISHOP Question of Allowing Increased Lay Representation Is Referred Back.

Two hundred and seventy-six members of the Anglican Synod of the Diocese of Toronto registered at the opening session of the synod yesterday.

Of these, 142 are clergy, out of whom 187 laymen presided. The synod got down to business at noon, when Bishop Sweeney took the chair in the assembly hall at St. James Parish hall.

Desirous of the old and tried, he declared, "it stretches out a welcoming hand to what is new and untried. The ecclesiastical tendency of the time is to urge the claim of every newborn religion which aims to bring into prominence some supposed overlooked aspect of religious life."

"Beware lest, if you lend your ears to such voices, your church find herself with walls demolished, her thought chaotic and her true proportion gone. My brethren," concluded his lordship, "help your properly appointed leaders in the task of holding the church to the great, strong, central position which she holds from God."

His lordship, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel. Bishop Sweeney also made reference to the terms of the new Marriage Act.

He spoke in favour of the stringency of the act, and his remarks called forth some controversy a little later.

Rev. L. E. Skeay of St. Anne's took objection to the stringency of the new act. He declared that in his opinion, to call the banns once was sufficient.

Seventy-five per cent of the marriages arranged today, he said, are made legal by the obtaining of a license. He believed that a better way to regulate marriages would be to put the official who grants licenses on a salary and let him make revenue out of marriages as at present.

He had no ulterior motive in proposing couples with marriage licenses upon one publication of the banns? "It is better to obey the state law than to break the church law," declared his lordship. "I would have them obtain a license."

The synod passed a resolution extending greetings to the Methodist assembly. The resolution was not unanimous, some members of the synod thinking that it would cheapen their church to send a message "toadying" to another denomination which had shown so strong criticism on the Anglican Church system.

Only 30 votes, however, were registered against the resolution. The new committee on the state of the church was appointed by the consent of the following persons: Rt. Rev. W. D. Reeve, Ven. Archdeacons Warren, Ingles and Cody, Ven. Canons Morley, Marsh and Dixon, Drs. J. A. Worrell and Harley Smith, Messrs. W. D. Wynne, A. H. Campbell, George Raikes.

Lay Members. S. H. Black, J. N. W. Hoyle, K.C., were elected as lay members on the board of management of the Missionary Society of the Church in Canada. The report of the retiring committee was held over and will be heard this afternoon. The report of the S. S. commission will come up tomorrow morning.

The report of the executive committee was passed clause by clause, with the exception of clause 4, dealing with lay representation in the synod. This clause was referred back to committee, after an hour's discussion.

The point at issue is whether the synod be enlarged to some 800 members by allowing increased lay representation to the larger churches. A special sub-committee reported to the executive committee recommending that section 9 of the constitution be changed to that end. The executive committee endorsed this recommendation and it is upon the principle of the change that the synod voted adversely at yesterday's session.

The synod will sit today and tomorrow. Today's session will commence at 10 this morning, after service in the cathedral at 9.30. At 4 Bishop Sweeney will hold a reception at the See House for the members and their wives.

THE GARDEN CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD, M.D.

GARDEN ARCHES

What a pleasant feeling comes over one, on passing under a rose covered arch! or under an arch of any kind, flower-covered, or vine-covered.

The simple and inexpensive idea of training a favorite flowering vine so that it will climb over an arch connected with an ordinary garden gate, always seems to enhance the beauty and value of the vine itself, at least.

Arches covered with creepers of any kind will help to break up the formal stiffness that sometimes shows itself especially where there are a number of long beds and borders placed at regular intervals through the garden. A good plan is to introduce an arch at the junction of paths, or between different divisions of the garden, ends of garden paths, and so on. A little careful observation will enable the ambitious gardener to select for the site of an arch, some spot, from which a specially beautiful bit of the garden vista will show itself as a picture surrounded by a flower-decked frame. I have in my mind's eye, now, an old-fashioned garden, walled high with a thick green hedge of privet, into which one entered, by means of arched gates, heavily laden with trailing, flowering, geraniums, some not in one case, the first sight obtained, on passing beneath a gate, arched ten feet high with purple wisteria, is a rugged rockery, covered with rock ferns, irises, purple asters, golden rock cress, and gray-green spikes of Scotch pinks. Stretching beyond the rockery, a long path runs, bordered with white-flowered geraniums, selected that gorgeous bloom runs riot all the season thru. This path ends at a spot where two poplars frame the hills of a distant landscape, and at one side stands a grape-covered arbor. The whole arrangement is cleverly thought out so that every bit of visible nature is made use of and brought into the picture that strikes the eye on entering the first gate. The whole garden itself is only some one hundred and fifty feet long, but, standing at this particular gate, one is impressed with an idea of vast distances.

Another gate is arched, quite low, not more than seven feet high, with Dorothy Perkins climbing rose vines, and shows a corner of the garden where a lily-pool, beneath a towering balm of gilead tree, reflects the shadow of the wild grass, a marsh marigold or two, some clumps of wood violets, ferns, bamboo grasses, and an old stump, all not more than thirty feet distant from the gate, but looking as if a much longer way off. The immediate desire that comes over one, on gazing thru this dainty gate, is to reach the old mossy stump, and paddle in the still pool. Here the birds come in flocks and oh! the fun they do have, taking their daily baths.

All this description, for the purpose of giving my readers an idea or two, about where to place the arch, and always try to have each arch frame a bit of a picture. If the picture is not present to your liking, make one. It is by no means a difficult matter to form an entrancing picture, out of a few rocks, and a flower or two, carefully placed, so that it faces the arch.

Summer Sailings—Niagara-St. Catharines Line.

Commencing June 17, the Dalhousie City and Garden City will resume their full summer service between Toronto and Port Dalhousie, making connections at the latter point with the fast electric trains of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railway, for Niagara Falls. These boats will leave Toronto at 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. every Saturday, so that passengers will reach Niagara Falls, Ont., at 6.10 p.m. and 9.10 p.m. respectively. Returning, a train leaves the Falls on Monday at 8.40 a.m. for Port Dalhousie, ensuring arrival at Toronto at 10.50 a.m., thus constituting a delightful week-end trip.

A really serviceable booklet has been issued by the Canadian Northern passenger department, entitled "The Niagara-St. Catharines Line," which covers this scenic route through the wide-flung garden of the Niagara peninsula to the awe-inspiring majesty of the Falls. Other publications are "Week-End Fares From Toronto," and a handsomely illustrated map. 36

CHAPTER II

Seated in a chair with his feet resting on the edge of a small stove in the centre of the room, was a short, keen-eyed man in his thirties, reading a copy of Sporting Life. He turned his head as the door opened and swept his eye over the dripping figure that stood, tall and erect, just within the doorway. Pools of water formed on the floor under the stranger, and they came together in a rivulet, which crept snakelike along the plank until it found a friendly crack.

"You look like a ball player," said the manager of the Atlanta Baseball Club, said the young man.

"What can I do for you?"

"I want to play ball on your team."

Long experience in managing pennant-winning ball teams (and some that were not pennant-winners) had taught Bill Smith many valuable baseball lessons. One of these was never to pass snap judgment on a ball player; another was never to take a ball player's estimate of his own ability. Nineteen managers out of twenty would have taken just one look at this stranger, and then, in the doorway and dismissed it with a curt "nothing doing." That was not Bill Smith, and he had another look at this particular applicant for a position on his team led to the most surprising series of sensations that ever happened in the history of the national game.

"You look somewhat moist," observed the manager. "Take off your coat and dry it at this stove. Whiskey!" he suddenly yelled. "That isn't an invitation to take a drink," he added, "I am only calling my attendant."

Smith surprised.

In response to the summons a colored man entered briskly from behind the door.

"Whiskey," said Bill Smith, "help this gentleman with his clothes. Wring 'em out, start up the fire and hang 'em up around the stove."

"Yassir, yassir," replied Whiskey, getting busy with the man's coat and hat. He was attending to the wants of impatient ball players in that club house had developed an activity in Whiskey far beyond the trend of his race. In a jiffy he had every stitch of the young man's dress and undergarments, including his hood that stood before him, arms outstretched, while the attendant vigorously applied the towel to the man's head.

"Familiar as he was with all stages of dress and undress, Bill Smith could not repress an exclamation of admiration for the wonderful way in which the young man had begun to administer a thoro rub-down.

An Electric Toaster! Why Not?

You couldn't give the happy bride-to-be anything that would be more useful or more appreciated. "Electric housekeeping" is what every housewife strives for nowadays, and an Electric Toaster would make an excellent start.

Besides, one can't imagine what a difference there is in toast until one has tasted that made on the Electric Toaster. Tender, golden brown, and delightfully crisp, it is as much like the ordinary, hard, charred kind as chalk is like cheese.

And it's so easy. Why, there's nothing to it but simply putting the bread slices on the toaster and turning the button. No "jumping up and down," no standing over a hot stove or range. Everything is done so conveniently, quickly, and comfortably right at the table.

What busy little bride wouldn't enjoy getting breakfast under such conditions?

NO OTHER WAY

"I am afraid I have lost my nerve," he explained to the chauffeur, a Frenchman highly recommended by the firm that supplied the car. "I should be in difficulties if any crisis occurred, and, in any case, my right wrist is still incapable of manipulating the clutch lever and brake."

The other servants did not know that their master had specifically asked concerning it as altogether strange on the lips of an experienced motorist. Moreover, he was so pleased at securing an employer who spoke his language fluently that this consideration outweighed all others, while this same language difficulty shut him out from the severe analysis of word and deed that the servants' hall applies to the superior beings who inhabit the rest of the house.

Still, Armand could not help noticing that when "Monstier" protested with a laugh one morning that he really could conquer his nervousness, and proceeded to drive the car out of an inclosed yard into the park, Waverton's actions were somewhat amateurish, and a turn thru a gateway was made so sharply that a sheet of newspaper stuck on one of the posts would have scraped the paint off a midguard. Things went better in the open road. Waverton amused himself by testing the various speeds, the accelerator, the oil and petrol supply, and the brakes, and seemed to enjoy the experience.

After an hour's experimenting, which Armand had to check occasionally, the owner handed over control. It was his habit mostly to sit by the chauffeur's side when they went out among the hills for an extended run, while Bob lolled luxuriously in the tonneau. He chatted more freely than ever on this occasion, remarking that he hoped soon to be able to trust himself in the midst of other vehicles once more.

Armand would have given little heed to the incident had he not chanced to see his master schooling a young horse over some hurdles early next day. For many minutes he watched in silence a display of consummate horsemanship. Then he laughed.

"Nerves? Puff!" he said, and went off to the garage to readjust a crank that was a shade more eccentric than it was intended to be.

Another hindrance to complete forgetfulness, which Waverton seemed to confound with lack of memory, was the way in which his discarded wife had stamped her individuality on the country house during her brief residence there. In the drawing room, which he seldom entered, the very arrangement of the furniture and general appointments were eloquent of a woman's taste and sense of beauty. When he crossed the hall, which was noted for its old oak, its trophies, and its leather jackets—not the drinking cups known by that name, but the quilted leather coats worn by Governor John Waverton of the seventeenth century—he could not help seeing Doris Waverton's portrait, a tall length Sargent, which smiled at him from a well-lighted half landing.

This picture was a wedding present to Doris from her father, and had been scheduled by her lawyers as part of the personal property that must be returned to her. In fact, a representative of Mowlem & Wrench was expected to put in an appearance any day with a van and a formidable list of articles to be removed, and Waverton had given instructions that, if he happened to be out, the butler was to check the list and expedite the agent's task.

When he began to take an interest in the gardens, he encountered the same feminine influence everywhere. The head gardener was surprised to see his employer remark on the fine appearance of the roses, and the old-fashioned list of articles to be removed, and Waverton had given instructions that, if he happened to be out, the butler was to check the list and expedite the agent's task.

grew very stormy indeed when he opened another letter, and found that Doris ever, John S. Tearle, happened to be in Albany for the week-end, and meant to run up to Saginaw and visit "My dear Curly" informally! "Bring me a railroad folder, quick!" shouted the angry recipient to a dejected footman. "And send Rice here instantly!" he added, as the man was hurrying out.

Between Rice and the railroad schedule was soon ascertained that a telegram could hardly reach the hotel from which Tearle had written in time to prevent his departure by the early train (he had announced his intention to arrive that day); nevertheless, a curt message was sent on the off chance.

"Now, you must meet the train at the depot, Rice," said Waverton, when a messenger had gone with the telegram, "and tell this fellow, Tearle, that he will not be admitted if he comes here."

The valet's hand rose automatically to his mouth. "Rather a difficult thing to say," he commented.

"Put it any way you like—say that I am ill, and forbidden by the doctor to receive visitors; rig up any explanation that will send him off, and keep him away for good."

"Perhaps I had better suggest, Mr. Claude, that he should travel on to Plattsburg in the same train, and by that means catch the southbound express."

"Capital! But be firm! Don't let him remain in Saginaw. Of course, he may disbelieve you, and insist on leaving the train; to tell Riggs the butler and the others that Mr. Tearle is not to be admitted to the house, in any event."

Drastic measures, these, but Rice carried them out to the letter. As he anticipated, Tearle was in the train, the telegram having arrived too late to stop his departure from Albany; so the valet prefaced a somewhat delicate mission by asking hurriedly if he had not received the message.

"No," said Tearle, at the same time signaling a porter to come and remove his portmanteau. "What was it about?"

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 11

OVERHAULING THE CLOCK.

There is a great new clock about to be set to work, keeping the time in the United States; the general public and Canadian business men had better watch it in making their time tables. It will have a mighty influence here. We may soon have the same kind of clock, and the same kind of time.

What is this new Yankee clock? In the United States, they are taking the old clock to pieces. First of all, the tariff wheel and gears are being simplified by sweeping reductions in the customs taxes on the products of the soil, on the necessities and ordinary comforts of life, on manufactured goods. The new tariff law will be in operation by September.

Next the banking and currency wheels in the Yankee clock are to be simplified and cleaned. A sweeping banking and currency law is now being introduced in congress, under the auspices of President Wilson, Mr. Bryan, and the Democratic leaders in the two houses. It will go thru in much the same way that the tariff bill is now going thru.

Third, the railways and their charges are being investigated; some condemnations, simplifications insisted on, and lower rates provided for. The decision in the Minnesota case Monday is final, far-reaching and immediately effective. This reform is brought about by legislation and court decisions, and not directly by the federal railway commission. Canada must follow suit. Railway reform here must come in the same way.

Fourth, the concentration of capital and the employment of joint company organization, to flood the country with watered stock, and close corporation control of the industries and services so manipulated, to the great hardship of the general public, all this is being widely condemned, and must soon cease. Wall street, as the great engine for effecting this consolidation of control, and this injection of water, is discredited today, and will never get back its old leadership, its old extravagance, its riot of fast-living, of limousines, of a sumptuousness that has turned the head of the get-rich-quick crowd in the United States.

The tariff, the banking monopoly, the trusts controlling the staples and needs of life, the railways seeking to earn on a huge over-capitalization, high finance and Wall street, its propelling power, all these are in the melting pot, and over a roaring public heat.

The people of the United States are insisting on reform, and they are about to find a way of getting along in spite up to date.

The people are determined to reform these things, no matter the cost. They are relying on themselves and on the crops, and on their own labor. The crops of the United States this year will be greater than ever. Living is to be made cheaper. The interests will have to accept the new conditions, and when they do, times will be better. But not till then.

The clock is being cleaned, simplified, a better time is to be handed out to all. Nothing can stop these changes; the man who governs himself accordingly is wise. Our Canadian clock is in need of some of the same kind of overhauling.

A CORRECTION.

In our editorial yesterday, "Mist Standards," the word "condemned" was substituted by the typesetter for "commended" in the sentence: "Yet Mr. Coburn and Mr. Shields pass these over and condemn a play in which marriage and motherhood are commended with all the force of a great dramatic situation."

TWO CENTS A MILE IN MINNESOTA.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Minnesota cases, which caused a slump in Great Northern and Northern Pacific securities, was anything but revolutionary in its character. The decision settled the general proposition that the State of Minnesota had the right to regulate passenger and freight rates upon intra-state traffic, and that in exercising this right by establishing the two-cent passenger fare and by certain reductions in freight charges, it had not acted unreasonably or in such a way as to justify the complaints of the railway companies that their property was being "confiscated."

Under the fourteenth amendment to the United States constitution any citizen may invoke the federal courts to protect him from any state legislation which threatens to take away his property without compensation. The

The Philosopher of Folly

Oh, fair June groom, may I presume to hand you out some good advice, sir; your stalwart bride views you with pride—she thinks no husband could be nicer; I've heard her praise your winning ways from Halifax to the Pacific—but can you cook without a book, and are your methods scientific? The honeymoon will finish soon, that carefree month of love and laughter; but ere you start, oh, take heed to heart. I've heard her say that you can play most charmingly, and that you're witty—but will your spouse say you keep house the best and neatest in the city? When you return you'll bring your wife home with a most doubtful yearn for old-time joys when, young and happy, you came and went, you saved or spent, just as it pleased you best, old chaps, but if you're wise you'll recognize that marriage changes man's position—can't intend my dear young friend, to grieve your wife by going fishin'. Your wife must mix in politics—she has a duty towards the nation—she must be brave, you must not rave for votes and male emancipation; you must be wise and hide your sighs, and shun all vain and foolish ructions. Life of joy is yours, my boy, if you will follow these instructions.

THE LAMBS OF MONTREAL

The Montreal Star has been busy for years in leading Canadian money-makers into the Wall street market. Every year a fresh lot of lambs and elders has been felled. The favorite bait has been "Canadian Pacific going to 300." If Montreal had kept half the money it made it would be today enormously wealthy. It has sustained many and serious drains.

And The Star is a no-better guide in politics. It has overworked the naval defence proposition. We have printed an article headed "Overhauling the Clock" in another column, partly for its benefit.

And instead of one Star there are to be three more journals of that burg devoted to the interests rather than to the public welfare!

ON THE JAUNT.

We read that Mr. W. A. McLean, provincial engineer of highways, is to attend the International Good Roads Congress in London, and make a tour of inspection of the roads in Britain and Europe. All very good, but what we want to see is Mr. McLean bossing the job of making roads in Ontario. He knows more about good roads now than he will ever be able to realize. But the great thing in Canada today is to build better roads and not to let the money be wasted as it is being wasted year after year. What The World regrets most of all in connection with Mr. McLean is that the province spent so much money in connection with good roads in York County in the last couple of years and furnished money for improvement of roads in other portions, and that it was not represented by Mr. McLean actually on the job and dictating what the kind of road should be built.

Good roads cannot be made for $3000 a mile and any money spent in that direction is as good as thrown away. A good road engineer should be on the job and should not be on the travel, and this seems to be a rather common complaint in this country with our officials.

FORGED TICKET CASE AGAIN ADJOURNED

William Crawford and R. G. Leaman appeared in the police court yesterday charged with fraud in connection with the forged tickets of the Laurier meeting in May in the Arena. Their counsel, W. G. Thurston, K.C., decided to reserve his plea and election till today, and then it will likely be further adjourned till a day set by the crown and defence.

ADJOURNS ONCE MORE

Judge Winchester's investigation into the contracts and accounts of the board of education is progressing slowly. Today contractors will bring their books for examination, and then the enquiry will be adjourned until next Monday.

PHONE THIEVES REMANDED.

The two lads who were arrested in Brown's drug store, Roncesvalles avenue, yesterday for breaking into the pay telephone booths and who gave their wrong names and addresses have been remanded for a week in the children's court.

Young Man! Aim at That First Thousand

"The thing that counts," said a man of independently large means, accumulated by hard work, saving and wise investments, "is the first thousand dollars. When you've got that amount together you are beginning to get somewhere, and with that start you will want to keep on."

In saving to acquire the "first thousand" you are creating the capital necessary to enable you to avail yourself of some of the opportunities constantly presenting themselves for increasing and multiplying that capital. We credit interest at three and one-half per cent on every dollar deposited with us, this materially assisting in its accumulation. One dollar opens an account. Begin today.

Cricket Australians Here Today U.S., 5 1-2 England, 3 Rowing Argos Arrive At Liverpool

AUSTRALIANS' THIRD VISIT TO TORONTO

Played Many Years Ago on McCaul Street Grounds and at Rosedale.

ARRIVE THIS MORNING

Ridley and T. C. S. Are Playing Off Today For the School Championship.

The Australian cricketers arrive in Toronto this morning from the west for their two days' match with the All-Toronto picked team at Rosedale.

The present is the third visit of an Australian team to Toronto.

In 1878, Oct. 9 and 10, Bannerman's XI. beat a Toronto XXII, captained by L. Ogden by the R.Y.C. quarters at the Victoria grounds.

In 1893 the Australians played a Toronto team, eleven a side, at Rosedale, the victors retaining. In that game J. M. Lang made 43.

The Australian team will arrive in the Union Station at 5 o'clock this morning, where they will be met by the committee of management and conducted to the Prince George Hotel.

The All-Toronto team should do well with the bat, but will likely have trouble in furnishing a prolonged attack that will be likely required.

Steward Saunders, who will captain the home team, arrived last night from Guelph.

Mr. O. E. McGaw is giving a bat to the player who makes the highest score for the All-Toronto team.

Trinity College School, Port Hope, and Bishop Ridley College, St. Catharines, are playing the deciding cricket match in the Little Big Four today on the Varsity Campus.

Grace Church C.C. has formed a second eleven and would be pleased to have from any of the city teams for friendly matches.

UNITED STATES POLO TEAM GIVE ENGLAND SEVERE DEFEAT

Defenders Score Three Goals in First Period—Challengers Best in Fifth—Defenders Lose Points on Account of Fouls—Mr. Waterbury Has Finger Broken and Will Be Unable to Play in Next Game on Saturday.

MEADOWBROOK CLUB, Waterbury, L.I., June 10.—Outraged and outspicing the English polo challengers, the American Cup defending team today won the opening game of the sixth international match by a score of 5 1/2 goals to 3.

A better idea of the actual difference in the playing ability of the two teams is shown by the gross yardage which was in fact the surprise of the spectators.

Much to the surprise of the spectators, neither did their ponies outclass the American ones, who have been credited to them before the game.

ARGONAUTS LAND IN FINE FETTER

Joe Wright in an Interview Says His Crew Have Fine Chance For the Cup.

LIVERPOOL, June 10.—(C.A.P.)—Looking in the pink of health and condition, the crew of the Argonaut Rowing Club, who are to uphold the honor of Canada at this year's Henley regatta, arrived in Liverpool tonight on board the Teutonic.

Individual members of the crew, when interviewed, expressed a quiet optimism on their prospects in the big event for the Grand Challenge Cup, and the opinion in general was that the club would give a good account of itself, even if they do not succeed in lifting the trophy, which was won by Australia last year.

The voyage over, said Mr. Joe Wright, the coach, "has been a splendid one. Every day since we sailed we have put in a good deal of practice on our rowing machine, and the result of the work on the liner and the beneficial effects of the trip is that we are now, every man, fitter and in better condition than when we left Canada."

While not wishing to appear too confident of the chances of his men, Mr. Wright hinted that they ought to put up as good a row as any previous Canadian team who have visited this country.

The team is expected to stay at the Five Horseshoes Hotel while over here, and every day until July 3 will be seen on the river twice a day.

TRESSIDER GALLOPS AT CENTRAL'S TRIALS

Finishes Sixth in Quarter-Mile Thru Large Field—Leads Relay Team Home.

Last night at Varsity Stadium Central Y.M.C.A. held their weekly handicaps, and the Eaton team, which was the favorite, they will have a large entry. Regular holders of athletes put in an appearance, and the winners in two respective events had to extend themselves to the limit before securing the honors.

In the 400 yard dash, the fastest man started, with Jack Tressider on scratch, and some of them had as much as seventy-five yards to go, while the fastest man had twenty yards. W. Lloyd won with 70 yards.

McKenzie was third with 80 yards. Tressider finished sixth. Time 1:04.5.

The running hop, step and jump finished a double winner when W. Lloyd again captured an event. He had a handicap of five feet. H. Heakes, 2 feet; C. N. Ward, schotch. Distance 28 feet 8 1/2 inches.

The final race event of the evening was a relay race between teams captained by Jack Tressider and Walter Newell. There were eight men to each team, and each man ran 125 yards.

Lynn and Lyndon were the winners by two feet, when the stalwart captain took the final sprint himself with Harry Cook as his opponent, and he just nosed him out.

The boys' department held two handicaps, one as follows: 100 yard dash—1. N. McArthur, sch.; 2. C. Long, 7 yards; 3. H. Hill, 5 yards.

Running broad jump—1. H. Hill, 2 feet; 2. J. Keatchel, 3 feet; 3. C. Long, 2 feet. Distance 16 feet.

Several of the old timers put in their appearance of the season and are going in to try and get in condition as rapidly as possible.

Arnold Knox, the champion half miler, donned his duds again, and he did not think that it will be long before he is going at a two minute clip.

Harry Tressider and Nelson Ward were also winners, and displayed some real good form for so early in the season. It took a lot to make these old timers hang up their shoes and forsake the cinders.

LEAFS LOSE OVER TIME BATTLE DEL. MASON OUTPITCHED BROWN

Buster Tired in Fourteenth Innings and Three Singles Gave Montreal a Run and the Game—Kelley's Band Had Plenty of Chances But Failed.

OLD DEL MASON

We hate to delve into ancient history, but would somebody please inform us in what year Old Del Mason was said to have been buried? To our mind it was early in the nineties. As sure as you live the ghost of Del, he of the slender underpins, was with us at the island yesterday, and the grand old man of former days went thru fourteen strenuous sessions like Hearts of Oak in a province bred race. At the finishing pole, fourteen full lengths from the barrier, Mason was a nose in front, or in plain language, Montreal captured another game from Joe Kelley's Four Crisples, and the reckoning was 2 to 1. If the Royals can take two games from the Leafs in as many days, what is to become of us?

It looked real blue for Mr. Mason in the tenth when Edmond let McConnell's roller go thru his legs, and Allen got into the swim by dropping Schultz's sign into the left. Two singles, one by Kelley, and another by Graham, were again it resulted in nothing. Graham forced McConnell at third and Brown walked. Fitz rolled out, it was indeed a walk. It proved a nice piece of work for Holly, who pitched at second for the third out.

Senators Better Than the Petes

PETERBORO, June 10.—The Senators were a little better than the Petes in an opportune hitting today, and they took the second game of the series by 5-3. Dolan was prominent at bat for Ottawa, and Swartz pulled down a hard fly in the eighth. The Petes had the stronger tie at the fifth, but Renfer grew white-hot, and Swartz pulled down a hard fly in the eighth. ## Are You Afraid to Wear a Serge Suit?

Hundreds of men in Toronto, this summer, will not wear a serge suit. They would like to do so. But they're afraid! Afraid the cloth will turn purple. Afraid it will pucker at the seams. Afraid it will shrink! That's why.

Probably fifty per cent, of the men who come here for their clothes will straight off for the "Coronation" or "University" Serge Suitings. Now, why is this? Why are men who come here not afraid to wear our serges? Probably you have guessed the answer! There's a big difference in serges. The "Coronation" and "University" serges are the different kind. The kind that absolutely will not fade—or turn purple—or play any pranks whatever.

This we guarantee. We can do this because we have put these serges through the most rigid acid test, because they're all wool, double-twisted yarns, and thoroughly shrunk by our own modern process—on our own premises, and as a culmination, we test the cloth for its wearing qualities on the same kind of testing machine used by the British and American Governments in testing the cloths for the army service.

All this week we have a wonderful display of these "Coronation" and "University" serge suitings. They're here at $20, $22.50, $25, $30 and $35.

You'll find all weaves—the medium twills, the fine twills—the rough finish—in the deep blues, the lighter blues—the medium blues—the blue blacks—and the solid blacks. All tailored to your measure in the Hobberlin way—which guarantees you correct, stylish garments—as well as quality of fabrics.

HAMILTON GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE

Government Grant to Hospital Is Not Withheld Just Yet.

CITY COUNCIL MAY ACT

Emergency Meeting Will Be Called to Deal With Situation.

Hon. W. J. Hanna is allowing Hamilton another opportunity to redeem the name of the civic hospital. The government grant has not yet been vetoed, notwithstanding the neglect of the Hamilton authorities to carry out the recommendations of the inspector or to place the institution in a clean and sanitary condition.

The report of Dr. Bruce Smith, provincial inspector of hospitals and charities, based upon a recent investigation, lashes strongly those responsible for the maintenance and care of the hospital. His former recommendations he found ignored, and the public wards overcrowded, poorly ventilated, disgracefully dirty and unhygienic. He urged that the annual grant from the government be cut off at once, judging the situation to be condemnatory of hospitals being placed under municipal control.

"No action has yet been taken by the department," said Mr. Hanna. "I have before me the report of the inspector, but before taking such a step as cutting off the grant a further investigation would no doubt be made."

The minister intimated that the government was loath to take remedial measures unless necessary. The city council would now have a chance to take hold and see what could be done.

City May Act.
"Maybe the city will themselves take action to remedy the situation," he said, "and avoid the necessity of the department stopping it."

In view of this it is expected that an emergency call of the city council may occur and the matter of immediately alleviating the hospital conditions be discussed. Should no action follow it is not unlikely that the inspector's recommendations will be carried out and the institution lose both government support and approval.

Sano At Ottawa.
The complaint of the inspector that Hamilton has not followed his former advice in sanitation shows a case somewhat analogous to that of Ottawa last year. In this latter instance the provincial board of health threatened a penalty unless directions were carried out explicitly in the form of a filtration plant. Should the grant be removed from the Hamilton hospital the authorities there would become responsible to the provincial board for the conduct of the building, and if renovations were called for a severe penalty would be liable for neglect to comply.

The inspector claims that the conditions existing in this case would never occur in a hospital controlled by a separate trust, wholly divorced from municipal influence.

Hon. Mr. Hanna awaits developments before he will say anything of the merits of the case. On the return to the city of Dr. Bruce Smith the report will be considered.

DR. ROCHE MAY LEAVE CABINET

Minister's Health Still Unsatisfactory—Meighen May Succeed Him.

OTTAWA, June 10.—Word has been received from Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior, that he expects to sail from England for Canada on June 20.

The doctor is considerably improved as a result of his trip, but it is considered very doubtful whether he will be able to undertake again the strain of administering such a heavy department as that of the interior. He may not resign at once, but it is thought likely that unless the department can be lightened he will be compelled to do so within the next year.

Arthur Meighen, Portage la Prairie or R. B. Bennett of Calgary is regarded as the most likely to succeed the doctor if he is compelled to drop out of politics.

C. O. F. CONVENTION IS OPENED AT CORNWALL

L. V. McBrady, K.C., Likely to Resign as Provincial Chief Ranger.

CORNWALL, June 10.—(Special)—The Ontario provincial convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters opened in the music hall here today with about 150 officers and delegates in attendance, every section of the province being represented. The convention was opened by L. V. McBrady, K.C., of Toronto, provincial chief ranger.

Mr. McBrady is likely to resign from the position of chief ranger, and the candidates for the position will likely be C. S. O. Bourdault of Ottawa and L. V. Dussault of Toronto. The position of provincial secretary will be between Vincent Webb of Ottawa, present secretary, and Provincial Organizer Nihilistic of Toronto.

MRS. MOYES' THANKS.
After the death of the late Thomas Barber, who for many years was a printer on The World, the members of The World chapel took charge of his affairs, and for the generous settlement made with her, Mrs. Moyes wishes to thank all officers and members of Toronto Typographical Union, No. 81. Mrs. Moyes is very grateful to every officer and member of the union.

Windsor is Fast Growing Into a Canadian Pittsburgh

In two years Windsor has changed from a quiet little city to the centre of the steel industry of Canada. And now the United States Steel Corporation is to build a mammoth plant in the Windsor District at an initial cost of $20,000,000.00.

This fact alone will give the growth of Windsor such an impetus, no other Canadian city either in the East or in the West has ever experienced.

Windsor is the nucleus of one of the great cities of Ontario, and the rapidity with which she will grow will astonish the investors of this country who during the past ten years have become accustomed to rapidly growing cities.

Look at This List of Mighty Industries--- What Other City Can Duplicate It?

A city's life depends upon its industries. Increased industry means increased growth. If a western city could boast of half this number of manufactories, the fact would be emblazoned all over the country. But while the attention of investors was centred on towns springing up in the Canadian West, Windsor has been quietly laying the foundation of one of the greatest rises in the history of Canada.

More Than 100 Industries in the Windsor District

Windsor's location is its greatest asset. It is the centre of the steel consuming belt of Canada. It is the greatest water and rail shipping point of any inland city in the Dominion.

It has a twelve cent natural gas rate to manufactories. It has the cheapest electric power of any factory city in the Province. The city has set aside a large tract of land which it sells to incoming industries at cost. These wonderful advantages are bringing into Windsor

A New Industry Every Two Weeks

And greatest of all these is the new Steel Plant of the United States Steel Corporation, which has received from the Dominion Government its Charter under the name of THE ONTARIO STEEL PRODUCTS COMPANY.

$20,000,000.00 Steel Plant

Judge Gary, the chairman of the Board of Directors of the Steel Corporation, made the announcement that they would build their Canadian plant, which would comprise blast furnaces and mills for the manufacture of rails, wire, structural steel, etc., and that the initial expenditure would be $20,000,000. They have already purchased the site for their plant, 1650 acres, and have incorporated this land into the Town of Ojibway.

Thornfield Place

The Centre of the Windsor District

Thornfield Place lies between Windsor proper and Sandwich. It is about a mile and a half from the Windsor Postoffice and the Detroit Postoffice, and less than that from the centre of Sandwich. It is practically the centre of this great manufacturing belt, and it is almost equidistant from the Steel Corporation's property at Ojibway and Ford City. These are the extreme ends of the present industrial section.

As an investment there is probably no property in Windsor or Sandwich that offers better or surer returns than Thornfield Place.

SACRED CONCERTS COME UNDER BAN

Board of Social Reform Report Says They Secularize the Sabbath.

Rev. Dr. Shearer presented the report of the board of social reforms for adoption by the General Assembly last night.

The report vigorously condemned the so-called sacred concert for secularizing the Sabbath.

Temperance instruction in the schools was stated to be practically a dead letter in all the provinces.

The board had co-operated with other churches and organizations in pressing the federal government to amend the criminal code to make gambling unlawful in connection with horse races.

During the year officially tolerated vice had been driven out of Calgary, Lethbridge, Winnipeg, Quebec and Halifax.

In Victoria, in the Okanagan Valley, Trail, Grand Fork and Creston, vice is being suppressed.

With these notable exceptions, the authorities in British Columbia openly and shamelessly tolerate criminal vice.
