REV. JOHN DE SOYRES PASSES TO REST.

Beloved Rector of St. John's "Stone" Church Died Last Night --- A Leader in Christian Work---City Clergymen Pay Tribute.

Rev. John de Soyres, rector of St. John's (Stone) church, died in the General Public Hospital last night. The citizens of St. John received this information with profound sorrow this morning. The death was tragic in its suddenness. Mr. de Soyres entered the hospital at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 5, he was operated upon for strangulation of hernia. A few hours afterwards he was dead.

was equally at home in addressing a rough crowd of sailors or an assembly of civilians. He was happy in his addresses at all times and under all circumstances, while in the pulpit he was at his best. His determination as a preacher caused him to be much sought on special occasions. Many of his sermons have been published.

Mr. de Soyres preached his first sermon in St. John on Easter Sunday, April 1, 1867, and has since then been in charge of St. John's church nearly seventeen years. During his rectorate he largely through his determination the Parish of St. Mary was established by the division of the old parish of St. Mark. The handsome new stone school house was built and great improvements made in the interior of the Stone church. Another incident of Mr. de Soyres' rectorate was the memorable Hay-Aiken Mission which has not been forgotten by the people of St. John.

He stood high in the councils of the church and was a delegate on various occasions to the Provincial Synod and also to the General Synod of Canada. He was a frequent speaker in the debates but always eloquent and forcible and his death will be a great loss to the church and to the city.

Rev. John de Soyres was the son of Rev. Francis de Soyres, of the Rev. de Soyres was born at Billbrook, in Somersetshire, England, April 26, 1849. He was educated at Brighton College and at Gaius College, Cambridge, where he obtained the men's prize, 1870, and the Tripos, 1872. He graduated with the degree of B. A. in 1876, and took his M. A. in 1879. He was also a member of the Society of the Inner Temple.

He was appointed to the rectorship of St. Mark's in this city in 1888. He was a learned historian and an accomplished lecturer. His published works include 'The Montanists (1878)', 'The Primitive Church (1878)', 'Pascale's Provincial Letters (1881)', 'second edition, 1890', 'Word Book of English History and Christian Reminiscences (1888)', and several brochures and volumes of sermons. Rev. Mr. de Soyres was also chaplain to the embassy at St. Petersburg. Rev. Mr. de Soyres married Mrs. Carr of St. John, who with one daughter, (Miss Madeline) survives him.

The Lake Manitoba, which arrived here today conveyed the first contingent from London in connection with the Salvation Army's immigration project. All told they numbered 63 souls. Col. Taylor, one of the most active workers in London was in charge of the party and like all Salvation Army officers is happy, genial and affable.

HEBREWS HAVE A GRIEVANCE.

They Won't Work Saturdays and St. John's Laws Forbid Sunday Labor.

Four of Hebrew clothing makers who were reported by Policeman Finlay for having desecrated the Sabbath by manufacturing clothing, were before Magistrate Ritchie this morning. Some difficulty arose with reference to their names, and when asked by his honor if they could write them, they refused to do so.

WEDDINGS.

White—Weyman. Miss Maud A. Weyman, of this city was united in marriage, in Montreal today to Fred E. White, son of Thomas White of this city. Miss Weyman, who is a daughter of Robert C. Weyman, was a very popular young lady in St. John and her many friends wish her every happiness.

A Noble Soul.

The news of the sudden death of Dr. de Soyres came to me as a great shock. I have known him during all the years of his ministry in St. John and admired him. His eloquence at times charmed me, his great catholicity of his noble soul drew me toward him. I shall not forget the special kindness shown me on my return to the pastorate in this city, by my now departed brother.

Feared That One Girl Lost Her Life---Guests Jumped From Windows.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 4.—(Special)—The Pictou Hotel at Pictou caught fire about 2.30 this morning. The flames spread so rapidly that the stairs could not be used. Guests escaped through the windows. All more or less injured. One girl working in the house, Mrs. McEachern, is missing. THE NEW COMMANDER.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—It is believed in military circles here that the succession of Lieut. General Myloff to the command of the second army of Manchuria, does not necessarily mean that the position of second in command, in the far east, has devolved upon him. General Myloff has a good record as a fighter, but was not present at any of the great battles of the campaign. He is 62 years of age, fought in the Turkish campaign, and saw a great deal of service in the Caucasus. He was appointed to the command of the eighth corps in 1901, and went out to Manchuria with that corps from Odessa. The eighth corps was one of the latest to arrive there.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT TO ENGINE KILLS TWO MEN.

Utica, N. Y., Feb. 4.—One of the strangest wrecks in the history of railroading in this section occurred at Whitesboro, three miles west of this city, at an early hour this morning. Train 23, the western express was drawn by an engine known as "of the Pacific type." As this engine was passing 21, the Buffalo express westbound, the engine exploded. The full force of the explosion was felt in the second car of the eastbound train, as the westbound engine was directly opposite that car when the explosion occurred. Both trains were running at what may be called full speed, and from the effects of the explosion and the upheaval of the wrecked engine and the car which was opposite at that moment, the coaches were thrown from the tracks in both directions. Both trains were well filled with passengers and the westbound train known as one of the best trains on the road for sleeping passengers. It was supposed that a score or more of lives had been lost and that twice that number of people had been severely injured, but when the work of rescue had gone forward through the early hours of the morning and the wreck was examined as carefully as possible in the daylight of a morning on which the mercury registered 15 degrees below zero, it was found that not a single passenger had been killed, that there possibly no injured passengers would die, and that the wounded were really very few. Two men were killed, the engineer and fireman on the westbound locomotive, the one on which the explosion occurred. As they were the only men on the loco-

THE ST. JOHN EVENING TIMES

ST. JOHN, N.B., FEBRUARY 4, 1905.

The St. John Evening Times is published at 19 and 21 Canterbury Street, St. John, N.B., (Sunday excepted), by John P. Quinn, Proprietor, and under the Joint Stock Companies Act, A. M. DELING, Editor.

THINK IT OVER.

If the next St. John city council should prove to be less intelligent, less experienced and less able to deal with important civic problems and the general administration of civic affairs than the present council, the fault will lie entirely with the citizens. Think it over.

REV. JOHN DE SOYRES.

The announcement made this morning that the Rev. John de Soyres had passed away during the night shocked and grieved the whole community. It was hard to think of that keen intelligence, that striking personality, that impulsive heart and restless activity as lost to us, except in memory, for all the years to come.

The Times today publishes the tributes of a number of his fellow clergymen, of various denominations, who have labored in common with him for many years. They tell of his splendid ability, his high scholarship, his great exaltation of spirit, and the boundless charity that lay behind the brusqueness of a nervous temperament.

The press also can bear testimony to his worth and kindness. He was a great reader, recognized the influence and power of the press, and was quick to express appreciation of good work. His death is a distinct loss, not only to the church of which he was one of the most gifted members, but to the whole community of the city and province; while throughout Canada the news will be heard with sincere regret. Less than a week ago the Times announced that chiefly through the instrumentality of Rev. Mr. de Soyres, the Rev. Dr. Selwyn, Lady Margaret Professor of Theology in Cambridge University, would visit Canada in March, to lecture in St. John, Toronto, and other Canadian cities.

LOBBY AND WAIT.

The street railway company realize the value of patience in dealing with the city council. It has learned to lobby and to wait. Therein it is wise. Everybody else supposed it was definitely settled that in changing the east end route via Princess street the line was to go down Carman street to King street east. But the company did not think so. It wanted to go down Wentworth street. It did not, therefore, take the aldermen seriously. It felt that time and an affable mien would melt the members of the council, so that what was utterly wrong in June would be all right in January. And it was so. The council has changed its mind. The company is also seeking concessions on the west side. The council showed an ultimatum nearly a year ago, but time and affability may have got in their mellowing influence since then, and now perchance the company will get whatever it wants. What the public wants is another story.

WELL GROUNDED.

The proposal to extend the charter of the Montreal Street Railway to a term of fifty years calls forth the most vigorous denunciation from the Witness, which says: "There is grave danger that the city is to be sold to the Street Railway Company, as well as to the Light, Heat and Power Company, and that the two together will own us, and be able to oppress us for the next half century to come, at least. The oppression of the Light, Heat and Power Company already has caused Westmount to make preliminary efforts to escape from it, which luckily it was in its power to do. But we, if we permit our City Council to extend the street railway contract, as now proposed, shall find ourselves bound hand and foot and gagged, with no chance or hope of escape, and in danger of suffocation." The Witness proceeds to show that financially the proposition is not a satisfactory one. It says: "While the city of Toronto received from the Toronto Street Railway Company for the year 1904 a total of $298,839, the city of Montreal only received from the Montreal Street Railway Company $120,965, or only about 42 percent of what Toronto got; that last year Toronto received $347,609 or $127,843; that is to say, we did not receive much more than a third of what Toronto received. Even if we were to receive the extra hundred thousand dollars a year that many of the city councillors are said to be ready to sell us for, even then, on the basis of last year's receipts, we should receive only two-thirds of what Toronto receives, with a constantly diminishing ratio as the business grows." It is further pointed out by the Witness that in view of the modern tendency toward municipal ownership it would be wrong to bind the city to be, before many years, a revolution in electric traction. "Surely," it says, "the considerations we have mentioned are numerous enough and vital enough to make the taxpayers of the city declare almost unanimously that they will not consent to this proposed outrageous bondage."

The arguments of the Witness will be regarded by the citizens of St. John as eminently sound. If this city had an opportunity to make a new arrangement with the street railway company there would be no fifty years contract.

WHY HE DREAMED.

One of the gentlemen who addressed the legislative committee of the Massachusetts legislature in favor of reciprocity with Canada caused much amusement by a story he told in reply to another speaker who had announced that reciprocity would be injurious to the wage earners of that state. The story is thus reported: "Mr. Wallace Liddor, a Boston member of various single tax and free trade organizations, said that protectionists and Home Market clubs exist on both sides of the line, and so near skin are they that their speeches and pronouncements might well be written out in blank and the names filled in as needed. His chairman was a story of two evenings spent in Calais, Me., when a capitalist was going on in Maine and in New Brunswick. The first evening he heard Messrs. Foster and Borden tell of the ruin that would come to Canada if the Canadian tariff was repealed. Canadian labor would sink to the level of American labor in Pennsylvania and Alabama, and Canada be flooded with American goods and manufactures. The United States would get rich. The next evening he heard 'a man by the name of Cuthbert' speak in Calais. If the United States tariff were taken off, he said, American labor would have to compete with the cheap labor of Canada. Canada would get rich and the United States would be ruined. "And then," said the speaker, "I went back to my hotel and dreamed a dreadful dream. I dreamed that both tariffs had been repealed, and that both countries were getting both poorer and sicker day by day—that each country was getting rich running the other."

There was a time when this like St. John and Halifax regarded the little town of Winnipeg with a sneering patronizing air. The directory of Winnipeg this year places the population of the Manitoba capital at 97,401. But the directory has probably claimed too much.

The liberal press of Ontario is beginning to discover some virtues in Mr. Whitney. The trouble with strong party papers is that they are slow in making such a discovery with regard to an opponent, or to find any flaws in their own champions.

The principal of the school was talking with him about the boy. "By the way," Mr. Wipendak, he said, "I have made a discovery about Jerry. He's ambitious."

"I don't see how that can be," replied Mr. Wipendak, with rising indignation. "The child's never been expected to do it. Besides, he was vaccinated last year, so he can't have regular cholera. He must have had something else. I'll have a doctor look into it. Some of the other boys has been lying about it."

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS

Reveals That "Pe-ru-na is Calculated to Tone up the System, Restore the Functions and Procure Health."

SO SAYS PROF. L. J. MILLER, CHEMIST.

PROF. L. J. MILLER.

Prof. L. J. Miller, late Professor of Chemistry and Botany of the High School of Ypsilanti, Mich., writes from 327 N. Clark Street, Chicago, Ill., as follows: "As several of my friends have spoken to me of the favorable results obtained through the use of Peruna, especially in cases of catarrh, I examined it most thoroughly to learn its contents. "I found it composed of extracts of herbs and barks of most valuable medicinal qualities combined with other ingredients, delicately balanced, calculated to tone up the system, restore the functions and procure health. "I consider Peruna one of the most skillfully and scientifically prepared medicines, which the public can use with safety and success."

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

St. John Theatre Goes to Have a Change of Fare Next Week.

THE MELODRAMA.

Well Known Singer Removed by Death of Mrs. Perley This Week--Jessie Bonstelle to Star--A Story of Lawrence D'Orsay.

St. John theatre goes will be offered a change of fare next week. The Bandman-Ladies Opera Company will appear at the opera house for a brief engagement playing a repertoire of comic operas and musical comedies. The company on the whole has been exceptionally well received and the members have established themselves as favorites here. This season the company has a number of new members in addition to those who are well known here. If the company is as good as some of the bills in its repertoire then St. John theatregoers have a treat in store. The company will open in The Ordeal.

The death of Mrs. Geo. H. Perley which took place last Saturday removes one who was formerly recognized as the leading concert singer of St. John. It is now some years since Mrs. Perley has sung in public but the passing generation remember her very well indeed. She was possessed of a rich soprano voice which had been carefully trained when she was a young woman with her father in various parts of Great Britain. (Her father was Earl Ormond of the 30th Regiment and was stationed in many parts of the Empire during his active service). Mrs. Perley had a wide acquaintance among theatrical people and in the days of the Lagergren's Lyceum was a regular frequent visitor. Mr. Landigan was particularly fortunate in the selection of his companies and many of those who entertained the people of St. John forty years ago rose to fame afterwards. A chat with Mrs. Perley on her recollections of many of these people was most entertaining and many of the anecdotes she related were very amusing.

Thomas W. Ross, who plays the title role in "Checkers," and has played it since the opening night of the dramatization, has, in a little over a year and a half, won on the race track the sum of $2,129,400. But alas! it was on only a stage race track and the result of stage money. Nevertheless, Pat

"Baths up the System."

Hon. Joseph H. Ridgway, Secretary of the American Anti-Treat Society, writes the following letter from the Grand Central Hotel, St. Paul, Minn.: "It is with great pleasure that I endorse Peruna as a home remedy, competent to do all it claims. I have used it several times and know of nothing that cures so completely, and at the same time builds up the system. "I have recommended it to a number of my friends and always feel that I do them a service for I know how satisfactory the results invariably are. I only wish every family had a bottle--it would save much sickness and doctor bills."--Joseph H. Ridgway.

"Feel Better Than for Five Years." Mr. James B. Taylor, Roberts, Ind., writes: "I am at the present time entirely well. I can eat anything I ever could. I took five bottles of Peruna, and feel better now than I have for five years. I have doctored with other doctors and on for fifteen years, so I can recommend your medicine very highly for stomach troubles. I take great pleasure in thanking you for your free advice and Peruna."--James B. Taylor.

"I Enjoy My Meals as I Used to." Mr. J. W. Pritchard, Wolf Lake, Ind., writes: "I am pleased to say that I have been cured of catarrh of the stomach by Peruna. I could hardly eat anything that agreed with me. Before I would get half full, my meal my stomach would fill with gas causing me much distress and unpleasant feelings for an hour or two after each meal. I now think to your Peruna, I am now completely cured, and can eat anything I want to without any of the distressing symptoms. I can now enjoy my meals as I used to, and it is all due to Dr. Hartman and his wonderful medicine, Peruna."

"It has been one year since I was cured, and I am all O. K. yet, so I know I am cured."--J. W. Pritchard.

Dyspepsia is a very common phase of summer catarrh. A remedy that will cure catarrh of one location will cure anywhere. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. That is a prompt and reliable remedy. It is the management of the stomach the above letters testify.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. J. C. Hartman, full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Standard Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Sheddy, the well-known gambler, says: "It shows what a fellow could win with five dollars a throw, if he could only guess right and stick to it."

The report that owing to the phenomenal success of "Checkers," a winter two company will be sent upon the road is revived. The report is wholly incorrect. It is the management's intention to have but one company, so that the people of every town in which "Checkers" is played can rest assured that they will see the performance with the entire original company.

Lawrence D'Orsay secured a big laugh from his Toledo audience at a recent performance of "The Earl of Pavlovsk." That Augustus Thomas, the author of the play, had not contemplated nor arranged for. It was in a speech before the captain, in being even warmer and more sincere than that which has been accorded to him on his previous visit. That was where the laugh came in, and it was so unexpected that D'Orsay at once realized its cause in that he had never made a previous visit to Toledo. But he more than "squared himself" right away. "Well--aw--you--you--how--you see," he stammered, "you see, I felt as if I had been heah before because--aw--you made me feel--oh--how--so very much at home."

In considering "melodrama" as it is played to-day, we may as well discard the etymological meaning which has long given place to a technical understanding very well known among artists and to some extent even among "showmen" and the public, writes Wilton Luckey. It is only when we reach the higher strata of melodrama that the part of the way between ignorance and information begins. Few think of "The Lyons Mail," "The Bells," or "The Two Orphans" as melodrama. The authority of the producing artist or the skill of the author may easily blind one to the fact that these plays differ from the "Woman Slaves," "New York," or "The Queen of the Opium Ring" in degree-not in kind. Just may be superior to "Sherlock Holmes," for instance, but the dominance of Mr. Gillette and the voice

It is said that one of the principal reforms to be inaugurated by the new association of circus managers north and abroad in business recently will be the doing away with the circus parade. It costs every circus a great deal of money to carry wagons, floats and other things that are useless except for parade purposes, and the performers would have more time to rest, and would be in better trim to entertain the public. A well known circus proprietor expressed the opinion that it will not be many years before the circus parade will be a thing of the past.

Lennan's Circus will likely visit the provinces this summer.

"The Woman in the Case," by Clyde Fitch, was produced at Rochester, N. Y., Saturday night, and the third act where the heroine discovers the secret that will free her husband from the charge of murder, Blanca Welsh, as Margaret Rolfe, holds the brazen woman, impersonated by Dorothy Hoar, away from her. In the fervor of her acting Miss Welsh hurled Miss Hoar backward into a chair with her head against the piano and rendered unconscious.

Grand Falls, Feb. 3.--The Emerald Dramatic Club is rehearsing for a dramatic festival "The Four Leaved Shamrock," which will be put on the boards St. Patrick's night.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purposes.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better. It is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectively clears and improves the complexion. It cures the sores and furber sets, a natural and efficient skin purifier.

It absorbs the malarial gas which collects in the stomach and lowers it down to the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh. All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but the best is Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. What the best charcoal and the most for the money is, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are the best. They are the finest and most harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant, tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some cases a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary 'charcoal tablets'."

NOT A NEW ART.

Nearly 2,000 years ago the Romans knew how to manufacture wire rope which closely resembled the wire rope in use at the present day, says a writer in Popular Mechanics.

This astonishing fact was brought to light by the recent discovery of a coil of wire rope in the ruins of Pompeii. The rope is about 2 1/2 feet long and one inch in circumference. It is made of bronze wire, and consists of three strands of spirally connected wire, each strand being made of 13 wires and in a great deal of strands, in accordance with long lay, which is in general use today.

It is believed that the rope was used as a crane rope, for pieces of cranes, it is generally believed, were worked by slaves, who were placed inside a large drum, which was turned in a great deal of strands, and thus worked the small drum around which the rope was wound.

Pompeii was buried in A. D. 79 about 1,825 years ago. The coil of rope is now in the Museo Barberio, at Naples.

WHY HE KICKED.

A ship-builder tells of an Irishman who sought employment as a diver in the service of one of the ship-building companies.

The first job to which the Irishman was assigned was to be performed in comparatively shallow water. He was provided with a pick and told to use it on a ledge below.

Milk was put into a diver's suit and, with his pick, was sent down to tackle the ledge. For about fifteen minutes nothing was heard from him. Then came a strong, determined, deliberate pull on the signal rope, indicating that Mike had decided to come to the top. The assistants hastily pulled him to the surface, and returned him to the boat.

"Take off the rest of it," said Mike. "Why, what's the matter?" asked they. "Take off the rest of it," doggedly retorted Mike. "It wurk no longer on a job where I can spit on the hands."

HOCKEY.

Trimmed the Trojans.

The Dawson City team evidently have their winning shoes on. They defeated the Fredericton Trojans last evening by a score of 2 to 0. The game was one of the fastest ever seen in Fredericton, and only the miraculous stops made by Babbit, point, and Ryan, goal for the Trojans the score would have been much higher in favor of the visitors. There was no score in the first half and the play was fairly close, but in less than five minutes after the second half began Fairbairn scored for Klondyke after Watt had carried the puck right down the ice. One minute later Kennedy scored.

The Dawson men made many friends here and will leave tomorrow morning for Montreal, where they will play the Wanderers and Montanaws.

Truro Team Won.

The Truro hockey team are giving the Amherst boys a hard time for first place in Nova Scotia hockey league. In the game with Windsor last night the Truro boys defeated them by the score of 5 to 4.

Next week the Moncton curlers expect visits from Amherst and Campbellton and four rinks may go to St. John to play St. Andrews.

THE TURF.

Horse Notes.

Lou Dillon is getting along fine with Budd Doherty. The only fall in the mile track ball in New England in June. It is said that Audubon Boy, 2-03, will be fitted for another campaign this season.

And now we have both Lou Dillon and Major Delmar trading on the female line to Justin Morgan.

The only fall living out of the former queen of the turf Sunol, 2-08, is a big, strong, handsome yearling. He is called Bon Axworthy.

Membership in the grand circuit of 1905 reads: Detroit, Buffalo, Empire City, Readingville, Columbus, Cincinnati, Memphis.

An effort is being made to have Manager Hitchens, of Saugus, take hold of the Old Orchard site track and give a two weeks' meeting over it between Dover and Readingville.

It took two heats, Jan. 21, to decide a match race on the ice track at Lewiston, between Carpet Boy, owned by A. C. Allen, of Auburn, and Queen, owned by C. S. Smith, of Lewiston. The first two heats were won by Carpet Boy. The next three and the race were captured for Queen.

In a tabulated list of sires with as many as forty in standard time in which as a measure of speed 2-15 trotters and 2-10 pacers is adopted, McKinney, 2-11, is the greatest sire, his percentage 44.6 in the fast division being more than double that of his nearest competitor, Fregidal, 2-16. (St. Croix Courier.)

W. J. Purbus, of West Newton (Mass.), who brought Phobos, W. 2-08, to the province last summer, was the purchaser of the pacer Diavolo, 2-09, at the Tipton sale, Madison Square Garden, New York, on Thursday. The price paid was $860.

Diavolo is a brown gelding, twelve years old, and was formerly owned by Frank S. Fitzpatrick, of North Cambridge, (Mass.)

GOLF.

A Watery Golf Oath.

A Presbyterian minister, not a thousand miles from Brooklyn, or from Jamaica either, for that matter, invited one of his deacons to go to the golf links and have a game. The deacon knew a little about golf, but could not play well. When the game was under way, the deacon, who was making many foolish, whenever he made a bad shot would say, "Croton." He repeated the word so often in a rather profane tone of voice that the minister said, "Why, deacon, do you say 'Croton' so often?"

"Well," said the deacon, "that's the biggest damn I know."

BASEBALL.

Seleb has nine outfielders to try out in the spring. The Boston Americans will open the season in Philadelphia, have the Detroit in Boston on Decoration day and play in New York on Labor Day.

The New York Americans will report in Washington March 8 and go direct to Montgomery, Ala. They will play at Vicksburg, Miss., Sunday, April 19, will be in New Orleans March 20-28 playing three games there, March 27 at Natchez, 28, 29, 30 with Cincinnati at Jacksonville, April 14, four games at Atlanta, April 5 at Macon, 6 at Atlanta, 8 at Jersey City.

BILLIARDS.

France Leads at Billiards. Professional billiards in America has come to the low-water in the last six years and at present we are compelled to act the role of "one red" to France, says Jacob Schaefer.

"Twenty-first years ago, and I can trim ten years of that, America led the world in numbers and in class of billiards, while today, it can boast of but three first class players—Sutton, Lissou and myself. It seems only yesterday when we had Joseph and Corrie Bloo, the Canadians, Sexton, Daly, Beery, Morris, Wallace, McElvitt, Carter, Maddis, Gallagher, Ives, Hesel, Thatcher, Foster, Goldsmith, Parker, Maggoli, Rhinos, Bessinger, Snyder, Foley, Abrams, McClellan, and a host of others. Not all first class by any means but professionals with reputations, nevertheless. Nearly every state in the union had its champion, and tournament winners. It is not in those days, and its champions Vignaux, Redolph, Garnier and Libassy were as well known in the billiard world as were our champions.

"Today, as I stated, we have but three first class players, and one of these Sutton, has not hit a ball in this country in several years. I overlooked Willie Hestpe, the boy wonder, who is making rapid strides toward the championship goal, which gives us four players really worthy of mention as stars.

"The real cause of this professional slump is lack of tournaments with money inducements strong enough to bring the stars of France and America together. Tournaments and therefore no players professionalism runs itself into a blind alley and stops.

"During the past year the Moncton fire department has responded to forty-one alarms a number of which were needless.

Master Ned Chandler, son of Dr. E. B. Chandler, is critically ill. J. W. Kaye, of L. Higgins & Co.'s wholesale shoe store, is confined to his home with an attack of jaundice. The police records show four convictions for Scott Act violation during January, but no fines collected.

"How did you like my new play?" asked the playwright. "Oh, it made me mad because it was so late when I got out," replied the critic. "Why, how's that?" The final curtain fell at 10:30. "Is that so? I must have overslept myself, then."

I. C. R. HAS COAL FOR ITS NEEDS. Four Scott Act Convictions but No Fines Collected—News of Moncton.

The I. C. R. coal bin at Moncton has been refilled during the past few fine days and the danger of a shortage in engine fuel has been averted.

At least one gentleman, residing in Moncton has faith in the Japanese ability to win their fight with Russia and emerge from the difficulty unembarrassed. Frank Freeze of Everett, Mass., who is spending the winter here, while on a recent trip to New York, invested in a Japanese bond to the extent of one thousand dollars. The bond is a small morsel of the first loan, amounting to fifty millions of dollars, floated by the Japanese government of the present war. Mr. Freeze's bond bears interest at the rate of six per cent.

The probabilities are that the wood-working factory operated by Mr. Paul Lee at the foot of West-moind street in this city, will shortly be put in the hands of a joint stock company. Negotiations to that end are now in progress and the necessary money is expected to be all subscribed shortly. Mr. Lee will probably retain an interest in the concern.

During the past year the Moncton fire department has responded to forty-one alarms a number of which were needless.

Master Ned Chandler, son of Dr. E. B. Chandler, is critically ill. J. W. Kaye, of L. Higgins & Co.'s wholesale shoe store, is confined to his home with an attack of jaundice. The police records show four convictions for Scott Act violation during January, but no fines collected.

"How did you like my new play?" asked the playwright. "Oh, it made me mad because it was so late when I got out," replied the critic. "Why, how's that?" The final curtain fell at 10:30. "Is that so? I must have overslept myself, then."

REV. JOHN de SOYRES PASSES TO SILENCE.

with a heart full of kindness and love not only for those who, though not of his own communion, with him sought the honor and glory of God and the best interests of men, but for all men. This city is today much poorer because of the sad bereavement, which removes from us a man in the prime and vigor of life, whose influence was exerted on the side of truth, who was to the front in all that pertained to our good.

With the many who knew him, who will mourn their loss, I would be included, and with all these would rejoice that what is now regarded as their loss, is most surely gone to Him. To such a man, while life meant much to that he might say "for me to live, is Christ," with equal certainty he could say "to die is gain."

G. O. GATES.

A Prince and Great Man.

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel."

God's chosen angel o'er our pathway crossed.

Looked on us all and loving him the most, he bade us follow him to his straightway relieved him from life's weary load."

The death of Rev. John de Soyres is a distinct loss to the intellectual and religious life of St. John. He was a prince and a great man in the Church and State. With exceptional mental endowments; rich university culture, and a heart large and generous, he was eminently qualified for the responsible and sacred duties of his holy office.

His rare gifts of brain and heart and personality he consecrated to his Master, and brother man, and used them with energy and effectiveness.

Courageous, clear, direct, fresh, forceful, these qualities—combined with his magnificent physique and strong personal magnetism—made him a prince in the pulpit and on the platform.

He was a good citizen, loyal, true, helpful, interested in the prosperity of his city and country, and contributing out of his own means to the increase of the righteousness by which a nation is exalted. St. John today mourns the death of a great man, a prince and a great man in the Church and State.

I had the good fortune to be with him on the public platform on a number of occasions, and always found him to be very broad minded on all points of religion, and while differing in ecclesiastical views, he had most Catholic leanings.

W. C. GAYNOR.

In Trinity Tomorrow.

Rev. Canon Richardson was called upon for an expression in reference to the late Rev. John de Soyres, but said that as he would preach in St. John's church tomorrow he would prefer to reserve his opinions until that occasion.

Meeting on Monday.

The Church of England clergymen of the city will meet on Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the Church of England Institute rooms on Germain St., in connection with the death of Rev. J. de Soyres.

DEAN PARTRIDGE SPEAKS.

Death of Rev. John de Soyres a Loss to Church and Society.

Frederick, N. B., Feb. 4.—(Special)—The news of the death of Rev. John de Soyres was a painful shock to his numerous friends in this city and was much discussed in church circles this morning.

Early Rev. Dean Partridge who received the sad news from the Times correspondent paid the following tribute to the deceased clergyman whose acquaintance he had enjoyed for years.

"His death of Rev. John de Soyres will undoubtedly be a great loss to both the church and society.

"Of his great natural ability he added a wide acquaintance with history and philosophy, both past and present, having had the advantage of his intellectual powers might fairly be called brilliant, rather than deep, of quick grasp, ready expression, a master of English. Keen, often times sarcastic, he was an opponent in debate to be reckoned with, if not feared.

"His ministrations at the bedside of the trust test of the pastor, were highly prized and those who knew him saw the very best of him at such times. It is safe to say that there is no one in the ranks of the clergy of the diocese who approaches Mr. de Soyres in his ability or power of expression. Men of his type are often misunderstood and there was in him much to admire more to respect. His work in St. John speaks for itself.

CITY BREAKS

ITS OWN LAW.

Although the city makes its own laws, the corporation has nevertheless been reported for having violated them.

Among the entries on the report book at police headquarters is one which neglects to remove the snow from the sidewalks on Germain street, the opposite of Westworth street, the snow on the sidewalk bordering a vacant lot on St. James and on Westworth street.

The following citizens have also been reported for violating the city regulations in this respect.

Frederick Sandall, Pitt and St. James streets, Home for Incapables, Britain, St. James and Westworth streets, Beverly R. Macaulay, Queen street, St. Andrew's church, vacant lots on St. Andrew's street, St. John's church, St. John's Baptist church, Broad street.

INSURRECTION

IN ARGENTINA.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 4.—An insurrection has broken out in this province. Several police posts have been attacked by bands of about twenty men each, but the assailants were everywhere repulsed. Two posts, which were surprised, were taken by the police. An attack on the arsenal also was repelled. It is rumored that two regiments of troops have been mobilized and are marching on the capital. The Argentine government appears to have been acquainted with the plans of the leaders of the plot and took timely measures to suppress the uprising, and seems to have complete control of the situation.

As a result of the insurrectionary movement, which broke out last night, not only here, but in several other cities of Argentina, the government issued a decree establishing a state of siege for thirty days throughout the republic, and has also ordered the mobilization of the national guard.
