Hunting Yarns Are Plentiful

Lots of Big Game and St. John Sportsmen Are Getting Their Share Since Season Opened

(Canadian Press)

Already the stories of "ventures in the woods" searching for big game are floating about the city. Many hunters are even now in the woods "armed to the teeth" looking for the lordly moose and some of those who have returned are starting the annual fall crop of hunting "yarns" some of which are true but to others—well their friends often have a doubt.

GERMANY OBSESSED BY FRANTIC DESIRE FOR MISOTHIORUM

Newly Discovered Substance Hailed as Panacea for Cancer—Risked Patient's Life to Save Valuable Remedy

(Canadian Press)

Munich, Sept. 16.—All Germany is obsessed with the idea of procuring misothorium as a panacea for cancer. It is stated to have power emanating in rays similar to but more effective than radium. The cost seems almost as great. The substance is derived from thorium waste in the manufacture of gas mantles and is used in a tiny portion inclosed in a silver covering in which extremely small holes are pierced. The silver box is then placed upon the part affected by cancerous growth and it is said will slowly but effectively remove all traces of the disease. There is hardly an important town in the country which does not vote a large sum from the public funds for the purpose of purchasing some of the costly material. Where public funds were not forthcoming committees, bazaars and suchlike are the means adopted for raising the money for the purpose.

Lighting System Will Be Sold to Private Owners

Citizens of Charlottetown Could Not Make up Their Minds About Municipal Ownership Promptly Enough

(Canadian Press)

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Sept. 16.—At a citizens' meeting held last night to consider the proposal to take over the electric lighting plant of the Charlottetown Light & Power Co., no conclusion could be reached. There was a disagreement over the resolution that the company be bought out at $125 per $100 share, making a total of about $96,000. The opinion of the meeting seemed to be evenly divided. Mayor Lyon, in his address, made a strong speech in support of the resolution. E. H. Wright, electrical expert of Halifax, employed by the city to examine the plant, reported that the plant would be warranted into pay $125 per share as the business value of a satisfactory plant having been set for an equipment on the last time past Partridge Island, where the plant was sold to the city. The directors of the Light & Power Co. have agreed to accept an offer of the Maritime Trust Co. to buy the plant at $120 per share.

Ruthenians Want to Run Schools in Their Own Way

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 16.—A special to the Free Press from Edmonton says: A portion of the Ruthenian population in Alberta has recently made a determined effort to get control of the schools in the Ruthenian settlements and in a number of cases, English teachers have been dismissed and Ruthenian teachers from Manitoba installed in their stead. Where this has taken place and has come to the knowledge of the department of education, the school inspectors and supervisors of schools among foreigners have been instructed to dismiss the Ruthenian teachers and reinstate English speaking teachers. The greatest difficulty was encountered in Koloma and Bukovina school districts, where it was necessary to have the school trustees before a magistrate and fined for interfering with school teachers in the discharge of their duties.

Every Home Can Be as Attractive as This

Some weeks ago the summer residents at Seaside Park and vicinity formed an association for the purpose of mutual amusement. The leading spirits in the movement were Edmund Owens, Robert Cochrane, and Wm. Quilly. A bean bowl tournament was arranged and each evening for a week a few hours were spent in the indulgence of the sport of throwing the bags. The tournament was brought to a close last evening and John Campbell of Fairville was awarded the prize, a beautiful cut glass dish. The presentation was made by R. J. Walsh, who took occasion to speak in congratulatory terms of the efforts of the association to provide entertainment for the members, both the fair sex who had attended in large numbers, while the male members of the colony took an active hand in the sport. In awarding the prize he paid a tribute to B. Knowles, whose work on the board until the last contest was most creditable. It was the opinion of all that another season would see the organization of an association with similar objects on an enlarged scale, and probably with more attention given to athletics.

conducted under the direct control of a famous physiologist and afterwards reported to the British Medical Association, Bovril was proved to possess extraordinary powers of building up the body.

It was found that Bovril, in addition to its own high nourishing value, has the peculiar power of enabling the system to extract from other foods, nourishment which would otherwise be wasted.

In each case the addition of Bovril to the regular diet caused a definite increase in bodily weight—out of all proportion to the Bovril taken. In fact, the body-building power of Bovril was proved to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken

TARIFF COMMENT
Discussing the revised American tariff, the St. John Globe says:
"The new tariff measure will be the nearest approach to a revenue tariff ever enacted on this continent and marks a long step forward in the effort to loosen the shackles that restrict trade and increase the burdens of life. Canada might well take a lesson from this tariff, which represents a demand of the people for a lowering of the cost of living."

Referring to this year's great harvest, the Ottawa Journal says:
"Western farmers will pocket one hundred and seventy million dollars from this year's crop. This will help them to face an increase in the cost of living of over one point just announced by the labor department and the further announcement that the increase will go still higher. But what about the rest of us, who have no crops to cut?"

Both of the journals above quoted are supporters of the present government at Ottawa. The Ottawa paper wants to know what relief the consumer can get in the face of an advancing cost of living. The Globe points out that a loosening of the shackles that restrict trade would lower the cost of living. In other words what we need in Canada today is a downward revision of the tariff.

The need of such revision will be all the more obvious when the revised American tariff has been in operation for a short time, and on this point we may quote another Conservative paper, the Toronto World, which says:
"Once incident of this new tariff of the United States, as far as Canada is concerned, is that there is a free flow of food products into the United States from Canada, it may mean that these same foods will be scarcer in this country and therefore dearer to the Canadian consumer; what benefits the American consumer may have the effect of injuring the Canadian consumer. If so he will ask for relief."

The relief which he will ask will be a reduction in the Canadian tariff, or the reciprocity which was floated by Conservative journals two years ago.
One direction in which there may be an increase in the cost of living in Canada is indicated by the Ottawa Free Press, which points out that the demand for cattle in the United States is now so great that Canadian farmers are selling steers at Buffalo, paying the duty and still getting a better price than they could get in the Canadian market. Remove the duty and the export would be increased, still further draining the Canadian market of its beef supply. In the end of course, the price in Canada would have to be advanced. It has been alleged that the new American tariff gives Canada all she could have got under reciprocity. This is grossly untrue. The American tariff is reduced, not merely to Canada, but to all the world, and Canada must come into competition with all other countries. Under reciprocity she would have had better terms, and the Canadian consumer would also have had some advantages, as well as the producer and exporter.

The reduction of the tariff in the United States is an effort to reduce the cost of living and better the condition of the common people of that country. The Montreal Herald is another Canadian newspaper which agrees that if the Wilson tariff results in the benefits which its friends foresee it may be necessary for Canada eventually to modify her tariff along similar lines. The Montreal Telegraph goes further, and is much more pronounced in its views. It says:
"This lowering of the tariff in the United States is bound to mean the lowering of the tariff in Canada. With all its doors enjoying the benefits of a low tariff, Canada will find it simply impossible to maintain the present prohibitive tariffs. The altered tariff will so greatly reduce the prices of all kinds of manufactured goods, and therefore so greatly reduce the cost of living, that Canada will find herself outstripped and overhauled in every line of industry by the United States unless she also follows suit. In this matter the Borden government is already beginning to find itself between the upper and the nether millstones. The trusts who financed its anti-reciprocity campaign will not hear of any reduction in tariffs. They mean to resist every effort to interfere with their exploitation of the people. On the other hand, the ever-increasing cost of living is creating grave social and industrial problems, and there are many signs that the people of this country are finding the burden of the tariff unbearable."

THE THORNE BANQUET
It would be to the advantage of the city of St. John, or indeed of any community, to encourage such a spirit as characterized last night's banquet to Senator Thorne. There is perhaps a tendency to take politics too seriously, and to permit political prejudice to cloud the judgment and prevent men from recognizing the good qualities in political opponents. Mr. Thorne is a Conservative, and has been appointed to the senate by a Conservative government, which just now is disposed to denounce with some bitterness the Liberal majority in that chamber. This does not prevent the Liberals of St. John from expressing their hearty approval of the appointment of Mr. Thorne to the senate, not because they do not approve of the course pursued by the Liberals in the senate, but because they recognize in Mr. Thorne, aside altogether from political leanings, a man of ability, a fair minded opponent, and one admirably qualified for the position to which he has been appointed by the government.

"Western farmers will pocket one hundred and seventy million dollars from this year's crop. This will help them to face an increase in the cost of living of over one point just announced by the labor department and the further announcement that the increase will go still higher. But what about the rest of us, who have no crops to cut?"

WALL STREET MAN, NOW TRUCK FARMER, MAKES MONEY
Saskatoon, Sept. 16.—Truck farmers are showing remarkable results in this district, of which fact the case of Mr. Hammond, a retired Wall street broker, furnishes a good indication. Last year he cleared about $5,000 on twenty-six acres of rented land; this year he is likely to clear more than $7,000. He has one acre of celery, fourteen acres potatoes, and eleven acres sundry vegetables. Prior to coming here, Mr. Hammond was entirely without experience in agriculture. He attributes his success to his business training.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

This is the natal day of James J. Hill, noted American railway magnate, who was born near Guilford, Ont., seventy-five years ago. Early in life he left his father's farm and went into business. He has become head of one of the great railway systems of the United States, the Great Northern.

W. F. Hatheway, of St. John, ex-M. P., is sixty-three today. He was born in St. John and has been engaged in business here all his life.

Hon. L. P. Demers, Judge of the Superior court of Quebec, Montreal, and formerly a prominent Liberal member of the House of Commons, celebrates his fiftieth birthday today.

LIGHTER VEIN
Honk! Honk!
"Did she come to the door when you serenaded her with your mandolin?"
"No, but another fellow came along and brought her out with an auto horn."
Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Remedy
"Doesn't you think the trust idea is a menace to our business institutions?"
"Well, if you can, it's best to make customers pay cash."
-Baltimore American.

Little Johnnie had been reading the newspaper.
"Pa," he said, as he laid the paper aside, "where is Dresden?"
"Dresden? Why, Dresden is in Germany, my son," said Mr. Knowitall.
"O, nothin'," said Johnnie, "only this paper must be edited by an ignoramus. He speaks of Dresden, China."

The Limit
"As a rule I'm a peaceful and easy-going man."
"Pa's your reputation."
"I believe in being pleasant and accommodating."
"Yes, that is true."
"And I try to keep my temper. I don't believe in being a brute."
"Then I'm glad to hear it."
"But I want to say to you that I'm not responsible for what I say when my wife wakes me up at one o'clock in the morning to go down and let in the servant girl who has forgotten her key."

Carrying it to Excess
Quiso—"I understand that your friend Brunson is a vegetarian."
Quiso—"Yes. He has such pronounced views on the subject that he married a great widow."

The Doctor's Calculations
Foose—"Doc. Woolee wants ter sell his auler."
Biff—"What's the reason?"
Foose—"He figgers that the one that buys it will be a steady patient ever after."

Her Flat
Mrs. Noobridge—"Yes, dear I was married last month. I'd like for you to call on me and see the pretty little flat I got."
Miss Jellus—"I've seen him, my dear."

The New Woman.
Mrs. Knicker—"Are you going to take a course in a business college?"
Mrs. Rocker—"Yes, I want to find out there would be free trade with the mother country. Of course the manufacturers will do nothing of the sort. They would much prefer to increase the tariff on British goods which compete with their products."

UNIONISTS IN BAD WAY
Westminster Gazette)
It is always refreshing to find members of the Tory party saying uncomfortable things to their comrades, for then the plain truth comes out. A striking example was afforded recently when a correspondent of a Manchester Tory newspaper frankly conceded:
"The result of the Chesterfield election makes it quite clear that the Unionist party is in a bad way, and, unless strong steps are taken, will be in opposition for years. One thing alone can save them."

One wondered what that all-powerful specific could possibly be. The explanation was forthcoming in these words:
"The home rule question must be settled by consent, if possible, and the Carsonite extremists must no longer staminate a great party into stupid threats of civil war."
Many will agree with the writer in his characterization of the civil war threats, and will admire the courage which he has displayed in conveying the truth to his friends in no blunt a fashion.

There is more cheer in the air section of the day.
"By the way, I've just heard that the new tariff will be a great benefit to the Canadian consumer."
"Is that so?"
"Of course. It will mean that we can get our goods at a lower price than we could get under the present tariff."
"Is that so?"
"Of course. It will mean that we can get our goods at a lower price than we could get under the present tariff."

Secretary of State Bryan has sent representations to the federal and constitutionalists of Mexico asking whether the reports that Morris P. Root, a nephew of Senator Root, has been killed in the southern republic are correct. Mexico celebrates the anniversary of its independence today but Washington, in a statement yesterday, said that there was no alarm felt for the safety of Americans in Mexico on that account.
When the Canadian Manufacturers' Association open their annual convention in Halifax today a night lettergram sent by the Grain Growers' Guide, a trade paper, to R. S. The engineer, flagman and conductor of the Bar Harbor train are held to be responsible for the disaster of two weeks ago at North Haven on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway. The coroner's jury returned a verdict yesterday in which they said the rules of the road had been criminally disregarded by these employees and this was the cause of the wreck. The engineer, Miller, was arrested yesterday afternoon.
Hans Schmidt, the German priest, who murdered Anna Amuller, according to his own confession, and cut her body into pieces, had intended at an early date to return to his home in Bavaria. A post card received by his parents indicated this. Another man, Dr. E. Maurer, a dentist, of New York, was arrested last night in connection with the case.
Mexico City, Sept. 15.—Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, Mexican minister of the interior, has left the cabinet. His resignation was accepted at midnight by Provisional President Huerta.
Dr. Urrutia is under charges preferred by Senator Manuel Calero, for arresting him in defiance of his immunity as senator.
Dr. Urrutia gave as the reason for his resignation of the ministry of the interior that the post required, qualities which he did not possess. He is a surgeon and had never before had experience in politics. His anti-foreign sentiments have not been disguised during his term of office and it is said that the foreign diplomats here were opposed to his retention in the cabinet. Dr. Urrutia was the author of the so-called Huerta ultimatum to the United States, which was promptly repudiated by Frederico Gambo, the foreign minister.
Halifax, Sept. 15.—The steamer Ella Sayer arrived at Parrish's Roads last night from Manchester. Captain reports that two days after sailing, James Scott, a fireman, walked out of the forecastle and jumped into the sea and was drowned.

IL TROVATORE ANNOUNCED FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

Boston Opera Stars to Sing The Well Known Opera, is Definite Statement--A Great Evening

The programme for the visit of the stars of the Boston Opera Company is definitely announced, and Il Trovatore will be given on Saturday evening, with M. Sacchetti as Manrico and Mme. Di Gabbi as Leonora. The well known numbers of this beautiful opera are bound to be appreciated. Friday evening, La Traviata will be heard, with Mme. Hutcheson and M. Sacchetti in the leading roles, and Thursday evening, Cavaleria Rusticana will be given. The concert programme before each production will introduce the various stars in their favorite numbers, which will serve as a sort of introduction to the heavier work of the evening. The seat sale opened yesterday.

THE EARLY HARVEST

Three Weeks Ahead of Last Year In West and There is a Cheery Note.

(Winnipeg Telegram, Sept. 10) Already a steamer is ploughing its way from the head of the lakes with a shipment of wheat grown in Western Canada. At the same time last year large type informed the public, "Market Waiting for New Crop." This year the market does not require to wait for the new crop, and unless the new crop has to wait for the market, which is unlikely, prospects are very happy. Yesterday there were 440 cars of grain inspected in Winnipeg, of which 490 were wheat. On the same day last year forty-three cars were inspected, twenty-six of them wheat. A week later, last year, 102 cars with sixty-three of new crop wheat were inspected, two weeks later 244 cars of grain, and three weeks later 525 cars. This comparison which has the merit of simplicity, shows that the harvest this year is at least three weeks earlier than that of last year. Furthermore, at this time last year the papers were full of the most lugubrious reports of drooping rain and the fact that this year sees us enjoying the most perfect harvest weather which Western Canada has ever known.

We often hear of the "breezy optimism" of the west, attributed to western people with an eye for an eye. It is a rather doubtful thing, likely to tempt Providence to rebuke and feel all worn out; puffy swellings show under the eyes or in the feet and ankles; and many other symptoms are noticed. If they are neglected, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's Disease, which so often prove fatal, may result. It is not only dangerous, but needless for you to suffer and endure the tortures of these troubles, when a little Croxone now will quickly and surely end all such misery. There is no more effective remedy known for all such troubles than Croxone, because it reaches the cause. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the wall and linings; cleans out the clogged up pores; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause those terrible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter and sift the poison out of the blood and drive it from the system. You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. It is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to end the worst backache, relieve rheumatic pains, or overcome urinary disorders.

BACKACHE A WARNING YOU SHOULD HEED It is One of Nature's First Signs of Kidney Troubles, if Neglected, Serious Diseases May Follow

When the kidneys are clogged up and inactive, nature has a way of warning you. Backache is one of the first symptoms. You may also be troubled with disagreeable, annoying bladder disorders; have attacks of lumbago or rheumatism; become nervous, tired and feel all worn out; puffy swellings show under the eyes or in the feet and ankles; and many other symptoms are noticed. If they are neglected, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's Disease, which so often prove fatal, may result.

to attend the annual session of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association arrived in their special train at St. Andrews, N. B., yesterday. After luncheon they were the guests of Ganong Brothers for a steamer trip around the Passamaquoddy Bay and to Calais. In the evening a special dinner was given in their honor by the management of the hotel and this was followed by a dance in the casino. They left later by their special train to proceed to Halifax.

MR. FOSTER'S LOGIC

(Brockville Recorder) Mr. Foster has been classed as the most logical speaker among Conservative parliamentarians. There is no doubt he can speak logically if he will, but he does not always do it. For instance, in 1909 he made a speech on the navy question. This speech was in favor of forming a Canadian navy, on similar lines as that adopted by the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1910. Before his departure for the ends of the earth last winter he remained in attendance at parliament long enough to make another speech on the naval question. This time he spoke in favor of Mr. Brodie's contribution plan to aid the British navy, a plan entirely opposite to that which he had supported in 1909. The admirers of Mr. Foster declare that his logic was so clear that it was unnecessary to answer it was to quote from Mr. Foster's speech in the House in 1909.

WIDE-AWAKE JAPS MAY GRAB CHINESE COAL FIELDS

CHINESE COAL MINE AND TYPICAL CHINESE MINERS

(Times' Special Correspondence) Shanghai, China, Aug. 18.—It is reported that the Japanese have secured exclusive concessions to mine all the coal in the great coal provinces of China.

If this turns out to be true, it will make the Japanese the greatest coal producers in the world. China is known to be a country where huge tracts of coal have been going to waste for centuries in some parts of China you go for scores of miles and all territory that you pass through could be turned into vast coal fields. The illustration in this article shows a type of coal mine in Yunnan, the backward province of China. I snapped the picture far out in the wilds of that province, among the people called the Hsu Miao, one of the many non-Chinese tribes found in that region. It is a mere hole in the ground, sloping back gently for thirty yards or so, propped up in the crudest fashion.

In many places in Yunnan the people to mine it on a business scale the output of a mine may be sixty tons a day, with a laboring gang of 120 men or so. The men work in two shifts of twelve hours a day of twenty-four; their rice practically nothing with it, is carried to them three times a day and is supplied by the miner; their pay is about 150 cash (say eight cents gold) a day, and they are given one day of rest in ten. Each worker is bound to carry a certain quantity of coal a day and one mine which I inspected in Szechuan showed that for each ton of coal mined the owner of the mine had to pay in United States currency not more than thirty cents.

Under such conditions the Japanese or any other foreigner, would not consider a highly remunerative business in places where river communication is good. Had complied with this condition, those in last year's party all now having their wives with them. Mr. Brodick is a brother of Viscount Middleton, better known as W. St. John Brodick, former secretary of state for war in the last Unionist cabinet.

The Revised U. S. Tariff (Montreal Telegraph) Outside the United States there is no country in the world which will be so profoundly affected by this tariff reduction as will Canada. No doubt many protectionists in this country will affect to rejoice at the passage of the bill. They will say: "This is what we predicted when we fought reciprocity. We said then that tariff reduction was bound to come in the United States, and that all the advantages which were offered Canada under reciprocity could be had without Canada giving a single concession in return. That is what has now happened." This style of argument will be re-echoed in the Conservative press throughout the county during the next few days and weeks. The protectionists, however, will forget to say that every other country in the world will enjoy the same advantages in the United States market as Canada. Thus it is a fallacy to claim that Canada will gain for nothing all that was offered under reciprocity, because in place of exclusive rights, every product she has to offer the United States will have to meet world-wide competition.

If a napkin is wrung out of hot water and wrapped round sandwiches and they are put into a cool storeroom they will remain as moist as when first spread.

MAKES IMMIGRANTS ENLIST IN MILITIA

English Territorial Offices Sends Men to Canada on This Condition

Hon. Arthur Grenville Brodick, of London, Eng., was in Toronto last week with his wife, returning homeward after a trip to the Pacific coast. Mr. Brodick is practically interested in colonization in Manitoba. Four years ago he brought out a party of men from his regiment of territorials in Surrey and found employment for them in the wheat fields. Each year since then he has sent another party to Canada, and on this occasion he again accompanied them in person.

Mr. Brodick sends what he considers the flower of his regiment in these parties, and makes a novel condition to their coming: Each man must agree, on receiving his discharge from the 8th Queens Rifles, West Surrey, to enlist in and complete his four-year term of training in the 99th Manitoba Rangers, Brandon. Colonel Clark commands the latter regiment, while Mr. Brodick himself is commanding officer of the former.

Another rule is that no man may send for his family to join him until he can give assurance of a proper home and permanent means of support. Mr. Brodick said that every married man

ALBERTA LEGISLATURE TO RESTRICT EXPORT OF LIVE FOXES FROM THAT PROVINCE

Edmonton, Alb., Sept. 15.—The first session of the third Alberta legislature opens Tuesday, and it is expected that the session will be of shorter duration than usual. Only a small number of civil bills have been advertised, and it is not expected much important public legislation will be enacted. A libel law will probably be introduced, such a measure was slated for last year, but was shelved owing to pressure of other business. Hon. A. G. MacKay will probably signal his entrance to the Alberta legislature by moving a woodmen's lien act, to protect the wages of men making ties for railroad-building in the west. This will have the support of the government. Although no indication has been given one way or another, new railway bonds are likely to be guaranteed at the present session. The legislature will have to vote money for the erection of elevators under the Alberta Farmers' co-operative elevator act passed last session. The organization of the company is complete and twenty-three elevators will be ready to handle this season's grain, according to announcements already made. The government has undertaken to loan 85 per cent of the cost of erection or purchase of these elevators. Suggestions that the government guarantee bonds of municipalities is unlikely to be carried out at the present session, though closer co-operation between municipalities and the department of municipal affairs may be arranged. It is thought that with the passing of the present financial stringency municipalities will be content to finance themselves without the assistance of the credit of the province. Closer supervision of the expenditures of rural municipalities is regarded as desirable and stricter modes of audit will be adopted. Changes are expected in the election act, in liquor license ordinances, companies ordinance and in the game laws, in the form of statute amendment, but they will not be a very far reaching character. The exportation of live foxes from Alberta will be restricted.

LEADING CITIZENS MEET TO HONOR NEW SENATOR

Hon. W. H. Thorne Entertained by Friends of Both Political Parties as Personal Tribute - Elaborate Dinner Followed by Complimentary Speeches - Political Preferment Crowns Long and Successful Career as Business Man and Public-Spirited Citizen

Hon. W. H. Thorne was the guest of honor last evening at a dinner given in the Union Club by a group of the leading citizens of St. John. It is seldom that a gathering so representative of the leaders of the business, professional and political life of the city is to be found under one roof as that which assembled last evening to do honor to Senator Thorne and to extend their congratulations upon his elevation to the responsible position of a membership in the dominion's red chamber.

SENATOR W. H. THORNE.

Respective of political opinions the leading citizens of St. John met last evening to show their regard for St. John's latest representative in the senate and the compliments which prompted this display of feeling, and his earnest desire to prove worthy of the good things which were said about him by his future efforts to serve his country and, more particularly, his native city, in the new sphere to which he has been called.

He will render valuable services to St. John and New Brunswick at Ottawa. Hon. Dr. Pugsley's telegram reads: Montreal, Sept. 14, 1913. I regret very much that urgent business engagements have prevented me from accepting your invitation, and join in congratulations to Mr. Thorne on his appointment to the highly honorable and responsible position of member of the Canadian senate. It is most fitting that his personal friends of whom I am proud to count myself one, should, in respect of party, unite in thus bearing testimony to their affection, respect and admiration for one of Canada's foremost citizens.

Unable to be present. At the conclusion of the dinner, the secretary of the committee in charge, J. A. Belyea, read telegrams and letters of regret from Hon. Josiah Wood, Hon. J. D. Hazen, Hon. William Pugsley, W. M. Jarvis, George C. Cutler, Hon. Mr. Hazen's telegram was as follows: Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 11. Regret very much that I will be unable to be present at the banquet to Senator Thorne on Monday evening next. I join with his many friends in hearty congratulations. As I anticipated his appointment has met with universal approval and it is beyond question that

William Pugsley. Governor Wood, in his letter, spoke of Mr. Thorne as "a man upright, straightforward and honest in business matters and possessed of honorable and gentlemanly instincts. While he has been active in elections, his conduct has been such that he has made few, if any, enemies. He has been true to his friends and fair to his opponents, and his appointment to his present high position will be recognized by all parties as a fit recognition of his long and valued service to the country." Mr. Jarvis, in his letter, said: "I know of no appointment which has been better or which has given more general satisfaction to those of all shades of political opinion than that of Mr. Thorne to the senate. St. John has, in Senator Thorne, a warm and loyal friend who will exert his influence to promote the interests of his native city whenever he can fairly do so."

Toast to His Majesty. The toast to His Majesty was duly honored, and Dr. Walker then proposed the health of the Governor-General. In doing so he paid a glowing eulogium to the present incumbent of the office. The toast was drunk to the strains of My Old Canadian Home, and cheers. The vice-chairman followed with a toast to the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. Josiah Wood, expressing his regret at the inability of his honor to be present. The Maple Leaf marked the drinking of this toast, and a fitting response was made by Lieutenant-Colonel J. L. McAvity, military aide to the governor. The Chairman's Remarks. The chairman, George McAvity, then proposed the health of the guest of honor, Senator Thorne, and in doing so said: "Gentlemen, I have not been accustomed to extending many congratulations to our friends on the other side but, because of the event which we have met here tonight to celebrate, it affords me honest and sincere pleasure to congratulate the government of the day upon its action in calling to the senate a man whom we all delight to honor—our distinguished guest of the evening—William Henry Thorne. "Gentlemen, our guest on this occasion is a man of many distinctions. Let me mention one of which he may be proud. He has never been an office-seeker. "It is within your knowledge and mine that on many occasions within the last years (I hesitate to say how many years) you should think we are growing old) our friend might have had many a position of honor and high reward within the gift of his party, but he steadily set aside these opportunities, making way for others, and preferring the enjoyment of private life "outside the line light" going his useful way as one of the foremost private citizens of these maritime provinces. "We must not forget that he has given the community freely of his services. As president of the Board of Trade, as a leader in other civic activities, he has rendered sterling services and contributed wise counsel on very numerous occasions when this city and this province were taking thought for the morrow. And it is not alone in these matters, or in commercial life, that our guest has been an honored and a distinguished figure. In our social world, and in the great Masonic order, he has gracefully occupied for many years a leading position, because of those admirable qualities, because of that poise, that sound judgment, and that ripe good fellowship, which so commend him to all who have been happy enough to fall within the circle of his acquaintance. "Now there are senators and senators. If more of the gentlemen who sit in the Red Chamber were of the calibre of our friend here, we should hear less talk about "reforming the senate." Nobody would desire to reform our newest senators—we prefer him exactly as he is. "Some men become great in the public eye merely because they are elevated to the senate when their party is in power. "That will not be so with our friend here. He will give to the senate of Canada more than it will give to him. This is clearly a case of the office seeking the man, and not the man seeking the office. "And it is a pleasure tonight to see about this table men representing all of the leading interests of this community, men representing both sides of politics, but all unanimous upon this one point, that the appointment of our friend to the upper chamber is the right thing well done. (Applause.) "And now let me say a personal word. One of the few things I have always held against our distinguished guest is this: That for almost as long as I can recollect, he has been suspected of Conservative leanings. You see, I put it to you, gentlemen, for almost as long as I, perhaps have been almost suspected of leaning toward the other side. And yet while at times we have been somewhat actively opposed on the occasion of election contests, it has always been a pleasure to have such an opponent, because, while W. H. Thorne was directing or advising the forces of the other side, we always felt assured that the game would be played with good spirit, according to the rules, and that, no matter how fast the fighting might be, it would be good clean fighting, and there would be no sitting left after the battle. "Gentlemen, we have our policies in the place of the rars and civil wars they had in former days, and it is me like Mr. Thorne who help to make these policies and high standards of conduct, and to remove from them the worst features of party warfare. "You will agree with me, I know, in saying that the government of this country is wise in recognizing the ability, sagacity and high standards of our senator. There is no occasion, no crisis in our national affairs, in which the counsel and high standards of our senator would not be of the highest value. (Applause.) "And he goes to the senate while he is still in the prime of his life. He has been fortunate and successful in his private affairs. His ships are all safely in harbor. He is now the pleasant afternoon of his existence, and one and all of his friends here, and his thousands of friends all over the continent, will very earnestly wish for him a long and happy period of usefulness in the senate of the Dominion of Canada. "Gentlemen, I will ask you to rise and drink with me (and let there be no red-tape) to the health of our distinguished guest of honor, William Henry Thorne. Senator Thorne's Reply. After the toast had been enthusiastically honored to the strains of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and cheers, Senator Thorne in response said: "I do not know that I have ever felt more embarrassed than I have at the present moment. Embarrassed because I have to refer to my appointment and to myself personally. "Now, Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I must thank you for this magnificent banquet. It is gratifying to me to find that in the way in which my appointment has been received by my friends in St. John. It was especially gratifying to receive such expressions by telegraph while in the west and by wireless while in distant Alaska and the Yukon. "Friendships are of slow growth and we learn to appreciate our friends more. As I look around I am glad to see so many of my old friends, men whom I have known since boyhood, and it gratifies me to see so many who have not been on the same side of politics. I have, on my left, a staunch political opponent whom I hope may yet see the error of his ways and learn to appreciate the greatness of the Liberal Conservative party. "With regard to my appointment, the first news I received of it was while we were at Victoria, although Mr. Hazen had previously intimated that he had submitted my name. It is a matter of pride to me to accept an appointment in succession to such a man as our former and late lamented Senator, Hon. J. E. B. Fraser. "One of the first from whom I received congratulations was Hon. E. L. Wetmore, ex-chief justice of Saskatchewan. "With regard to the senate, for some time I had doubts whether I should accept an appointment to that body. For years I have heard the senate abused and I doubted whether I should join such a derelict body. But Mr. McAvity has disposed of that objection and I find that I am taking the first step in ever taking towards the reform of the senate. (Laughter.) Responsibilities Great. "The responsibilities of the senate are great and must become greater as the development of the country goes on. It was a privilege for me to accompany, on my recent trip, the Minister of Marine, who was delegated to extend to the bantipenn New Zealand the welcome of our country to our friends of the Antipodes. "During this trip I had an opportunity to witness some of the development which has marked the west since my previous trip to the Pacific. "Noted Many Changes. Continuing, Senator Thorne spoke in detail of the changes which he had noted and the tremendous growth of the cities, the general development of the country. "This growth and development," he said, "is marvelous to one accustomed to the slow but steady growth of St. John. "Senator Thorne referred to some of the banquets given in honor of the officers of the New Zealanders at which he was present, and then described briefly the balance of the trip to Alaska and the Yukon. They visited Prince Rupert, the western terminus of the G. T. P., and ran out the line of railway which already extends 229 miles and opens up a rich agricultural country. They then visited Queen Charlotte Islands and inspected the canneries and, among other interesting things, saw a whale cut up for commercial purposes. Continuing, they steamed up the coast among the thousands of islands, thence by railway through the White Horse Pass and down the Yukon river to Dawson. From Dawson they took the inland route to the western provinces and so eastward. He referred to this trip, he said, to indicate something of the great development of the west which, he said, must be greater in the next ten years than ever before. "With this development comes a greater responsibility to the members of parliament," he said, "and I can only hope that the part I take will reflect credit upon the city which I will have the honor to represent. "Of one thing I can assure you," he said in conclusion, "I will have at heart not only the interests of the dominion as a whole but also more particularly the interests of the province of New Brunswick and the city of St. John." Senator Thorne closed his speech with a repetition of his thanks to his hosts, and was again given an ovation.

W. H. Barnaby. W. H. Barnaby followed, and said that, as one of the oldest friends of Senator Thorne, he had been asked to speak. He referred to the fact that they had been associated in their business life in 1863, just fifty years ago. Since then they had always been intimate, and he could commend the appointment of a man of sound judgment who would take to the senate the same acumen which had made him, a self-made man, successful in business. A. C. Skelton was then heard in an excellently rendered vocal solo, "The Road to Mandalay." Mr. Justice McLeod, following, referred to his knowledge of Senator Thorne in the earlier days of his career, and in the years which had passed since then, he had watched the history of St. John and had seen its success and its reverses. What success St. John had attained, he said, was due to the splendid character of the men who had been in control of the affairs of the city, the city, not as an unsteady boom, but as an evidence of steady and substantial growth which is bound to continue.

He then proposed "The City of St. John, His Worship. Mayor Frink, in response, took the opportunity to congratulate St. John on the selection of such a citizen as Mr. Thorne for the responsible office of senator. He referred to him as one whose business stood as a monument to his personal qualities as a business man, the same qualities which made his appointment to the senate welcome to all citizens, irrespective of their politics. St. John, he said, was progressing rapidly, but not more rapidly than circumstances demanded, and developments which, a few years ago, would have been regarded as ephemeral, are now assuming substantial form. "The government, in its care for the growth of the country, has no better opportunity than the days that are to come," he said, "it will be necessary to sink political differences and we will sink them in seeking the advancement of our city." "I am glad to say that Hon. Mr. Hazen and Hon. Mr. Rogers will be in the city a few days and I trust that their visit will help to dispel some of the dissatisfaction which may have been felt regarding the progress of important works in this city. "I have tried to do my part for the city, and I trust that during the course of my tenure of office I will have your confidence and support." In conclusion, Mayor Frink again paid a glowing tribute to the new senator. A. C. Skelton was next heard in a vocal solo, Queen of the Earth, and the appreciative applause which followed forced him to respond with an encore for which he gave Kathleen Malone.

The Board of Trade. B. M. Baxter, in proposing the health of the board of trade, said that a city should be something more than a collection of individuals. It should be something greater than the individuals who compose it. He felt that the city of St. John was such. While each member of the community had to think of his own welfare he should have a larger vision constantly in view and look especially to the well being of the body of which he formed a part. He went on to speak of the increase in the traffic and trade which is tending towards this city of ours at the present time, emphasizing this point in connection with the endeavors of the board of trade to increase facilities. Mr. Robinson. In replying to the toast, J. M. Robinson, president of the board of trade, referred in a complimentary manner to Senator Thorne as an ex-president. He spoke of the various criticisms of the board in its endeavor to overcome some of the city's difficulties. He expressed the opinion that the works of the board of trade was not sufficiently recognized, more through lack of publicity than of activity. He gave a summary of some of the work accomplished by the board, mentioning the appointment of an immigration official and the extra berths on the west side. He also called attention to the fact that at the present time the board of trade is in correspondence with the management of a paper mill, here, with an umbrella manufacturer, and with a New York merchant, with a view of establishing a branch and thinks of establishing a branch as soon as the harbor extensions are completed. He spoke of the proposed establishment of an oil refinery in the city, and the prospects for a furniture industry.

Continuing, he dwelt on the necessity of co-operation among the members of the board, no matter what their politics were. He strongly advocated united effort, saying that all had been unanimous at different times, much benefit to the city might have resulted. He thought that politics should be laid aside when the interests of the city were at stake. After Mr. Robinson's speech, a fine rendering of La Donna e Mobile was given by Mr. Emil, who sang Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold, as an encore. H. A. Powell, K. C. then made a short speech, in which he dwelt on the usefulness of the second chamber. He congratulated Senator Thorne on his appointment and the senate on their acquisition of Senator Thorne. The National Anthem was then sung and the party dispersed. Those Present. Those present included the chairman, George McAvity, who sat at the middle of the head table, with the guest of honor, Senator Thorne, on his right hand, and Chief Justice Sir Frederic E. Barker on his left, and His Worship Mayor Frink, Senator Daniel, J. M. Robinson, president of the board of trade, and Mr. Justice McLeod, also at the head table; James Manchester, M. G. Reed, K. GOOD BILL OPENS FINAL WEEK AT THE NICKEL

The farewell week of the Nickel as a moving picture theatre was inaugurated yesterday with a very fine programme, up to the Nickel's standard and hundreds were present to enjoy it. For the final week the management have secured a decidedly meritorious feature for the musical portion of the bill in the Roebuck and Tunison duo. They are heard in classical selections, as well as a burlesque on some of the well known classics. Both are good singers and their act proved a decidedly novel and enjoyable one.

Miss Gertrude Asha, soprano, who concludes her engagement here this week was heard in a new song number, and her pleasing voice and charming rendition again delighted her audience. The picture programme included a charming two reel film "The Intruder" Maurice Costello, moving picture idol, and Mary Charleson, play the leading roles in this delightful Vitagraph drama. A Selig comedy "Tobias Furns the Tables" is the other item on the picture list, and furnishes a generous share of amusement.

The orchestra with a new repertoire rounds out the excellent programme and there is no doubt that the old Nickel will be thronged for the remainder of its final week. Frederick Fair Opens. The Frederick Fair opens the exhibition of 1913, which in number of exhibits, area of buildings, and extent of attractions, is the greatest which has been held in this city since 1894, when the exhibition first became an established institution in Frederick. It was formally declared open by Hon. Josiah Wood, Lieut.-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick, tonight. The opening ceremony was not lengthy. It took place in the amusement hall, and addresses were delivered by his honor, by Hon. John Morrissey, provincial minister of public works, on behalf of the provincial government, and by City Clerk J. W. McCready, on behalf of the City of Frederick.

Mrs. Howard Kingston, Mirror, Alta., writes: "Coming to the North West from B.C. in the summer of 1910, we were face to face with the serious problem of being able to secure good drinking water; this we could not get, so we were obliged to drink water containing a great deal of alkali, with the result that we were all troubled with Diarrhœa. Fortunately we had a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house since obtained such beneficial result from its use when my boy, as a baby, was similarly troubled. RICKET Won By Three Wickets.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—The All-Philadelphia eleven today won the cricket match from the Ingotric Club of London, by three wickets. The Englishmen scored 140 runs in their first innings and 150 in the second, a total of 290, the Philadelphia having made 208 in their first time at bat and 187 in their second innings to win, and they took the match, making 130 runs for a loss of seven wickets. The match was begun last Friday, and it was resumed today the Englishmen completed their second innings.

Local Boxing

Ashkin's, the water-weight boxer who fought Barrett in American amateur championships in Boston this summer, met Thompson, a local boxer, in T. Power's boxing academy last evening. Thompson was defeated in the fourth round, the match being closely contested. A three round bout between local amateurs was also fought and avoided a good evening's sport.

Jack Johnson Coming Back

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Jack Johnson, amateur heavyweight prize fighter, will return to Chicago from France when his appeal from the conviction under the anti-white slave act is to be heard, according to Benjamin Bachrach, Johnson's attorney. Bachrach and Assistant District Judge Carpenter today on the question of the proper form for a bill of exceptions on which Johnson's appeal is set for the middle of October. No date has been set for the hearing of the case before the court of appeals.

Gunboat and Sam

New York, Sept. 15.—In response to a letter from the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club the managers of the Gunboat and Sam Langford will make a six round bout that can be held in the ball park on the afternoon of Sept. 18. It is understood that the ball club, which can accommodate 20,000 spectators, is prepared to give at least 60 per cent of the gross to the rival heavyweights if they will decide their differences in a ring pitched in the middle of a baseball diamond.

At Reich to Beat Carl Morris

New York, Sept. 15.—Al Reich, the former amateur heavyweight champion, has been matched to meet Carl Morris, Oklahoma. They will come together in a 10-round bout at the Garden A. C. next Friday night. Pelkey Takes It All Back. Calgary, Alta., Sept. 15.—After a conference with Tommy Burns, his manager, Arthur Pelkey, the heavyweight, has issued a statement in which he retracted a "confession" made recently at Portland, Ore., in which Pelkey charged that Burns and he had "kicked" a match in Calgary last spring.

News of the Boxers

Ad. Wolgast had had a change of mind and says that he is not going to fight out of the ring. The latter part of the letter he says he will be ready to box.

Diamond Sparkles

Jack Coombs has never been defeated in a world's series game. What a pity the big fellow is not fit to go into his third world's series.

Fred Clarke seems certain to keep up his record of always bringing the Pirates through the season in the first division.

Ritchie-Welsh Match This Week

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Milwaukee, Sept. 14.—The Willie Ritchie-Freddy Welsh match in Vancouver, on Sept. 20, overshadowed all other light weight contests at present. Many of the critics have criticised Ritchie for making the match, saying that he was trying to side-step such men as Tommy Murphy and Leach Cross. Why such a statement should be made is hard to fathom. For of the entire list Freddy Welsh has more right to a contest for the title than any of them. In the first place Welsh is a bona fide champion, holding the title of champion of Great Britain, Australia and France, something none of the others can boast of. Then, too, he has defeated Ritchie in a 20-round contest, which the others can not say. It is a real international match and will be the first of its kind since the Lavigne-McGraw team being beaten by the Welsh boxing ability, for he is a pure masher at the art, but just the same I can not pick him as a winner over Ritchie, for the reason that the California boy has the youth and strength with him, and besides is a much improved boxer from what he was when he fought Welsh at Los Angeles in 1911. If Willie can defeat the Britisher, it will give him the world's championship, and no mistake. Then let the winner meet Paeky McFarland and we will have another big match. Paeky has always wanted a match for the light weight title at 135 pounds and there is no doubt that the winner of this contest will agree to such terms, as they are to meet at the same weight. It has been the ambition of McFarland for the last three years to get a crack at the championship, but the two pounds between the 135 and 145 marks have kept him from getting a chance at the title. If he can make the weight now it seems that his chance is about at hand.

He may finish fourth this year, but it is a long drop in percentage to the second. The struggle for batting honors between Ty Cobb and Joe Jackson seems to have had a detrimental effect on both sluggers. Neither of them is hitting anywhere near his stride of earlier in the season. Cobb is now leading, but he is a few points and is perhaps showing a little better form than the Nap slugger, but the indications are that neither will finish with as high an average as last season.

Critics in the west contend that the Giants are wobbling under the strain of the pennant race, and that there is still a chance of McGraw's team being beaten. The Giants' lead however, looks to be sufficient to stall off any little slump they may encounter and they do not appear to be any one of the other teams strong enough to give them a close fight.

If Tris Speaker keeps up his present gait in batting Cobb will have something to worry about. At present the Boston man is only nine points behind Tyron and only two behind Joe Jackson. Clouting them for a percentage of 370 is batting some.

Falkenberg may get into another game in Philadelphia this week. The Naps will keep up the fight, as they will have to, they hope to attack second place. There is considerable doubt about their being able to stick.

ATHLETIC A Fast Fifty

W. R. Applegarth's latest new record is 51.28 for 50 yards. Alan Stewart held the previous British record of 52.2. The American record is 49.56, held jointly by W. D. Eaton, Victor S. Rice, R. L. Murray and F. Kahn.

AQUATIC Swimming Notes

Miss Violet Morris finished fifth out of nineteen contestants in the long distance swimming championship of France, held at Fontainebleau, Aug. 31. The distance was about five miles. A swimmer of note in England is F. P. Giles of the London police. He won the Southern Counties' mile championship at Willesden Aug. 30, in 26 m. 56.5 s.

J. A. Jarvis, ex-champion amateur swimmer of England, has turned professional. Jarvis has won no fewer than 24 English championships at all distances from 440 yards to the long distance event and has even won the plunging title.

September Rod and Gun

September Rod and Gun contains a list of contents appropriate to the month and to the character of this magazine of outdoor life. The American Scap on the Pacific Coast is Bonny-castle Dale's contribution. "Canuck" gives some practical advice to duck hunters and sportsmen of duck hunting expeditions in days gone by. Shooting over a Dog by "Senec" will be of interest to those sportsmen who find big game hunting too strenuous but enjoy the milder form of sport involved in the pursuit of small winged game.

A Day Among the Ducks by a Saskatchewan writer is a very amusing account of the duck hunting experiences of an amateur shot. Amongst the Manitoba Prairie Hunters. The Cab Across the Midway. Hunting the Loon. The Sport of the Red Men, and other illustrated articles make up an entertaining number of this publication which is issued by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Walter Johnson walked over the Naps of Cleveland last week to a higher percentage of winning and consequently is more firmly entrenched in first place among the American League pitchers. Joe Birmingham kept Falkenberg out of the Washington games that proved such a Waterloo series for the Naps, and the big fellow made good for his rest by trimming the Athletics. So he is still climbing and ranks next to Johnson of Washington and Hoack of Philadelphia.

Connie Mack's "rookie" Bob Shawkey, continues to show real class of the big fellow made good for his rest by trimming the Athletics. So he is still climbing and ranks next to Johnson of Washington and Hoack of Philadelphia.

Portland Satisfied

The Portland fans, while they have not seen the New England League pennant come to their new park this season, have the satisfaction of supporting a team that was good enough to finish in second place. When Duffy took the Fall River franchise he had little in the way of material, and the good showing made by the nine has been due to his fine handling of the players and the baseball he has been able to get out of them. Portland has every reason to be satisfied with its team, for Lowell really was the best nine in the league, Portland was able to beat both Worcester, handled by the veteran Jesse Barlett, and also Lawrence, last year's champion. Baseball has a good foothold in Portland and that city will be up in the race again next year, whether Hugh Duffy is active as manager or turns the reins over to some other competent man.

Diamond Sparkles

Jack Coombs has never been defeated in a world's series game. What a pity the big fellow is not fit to go into his third world's series.

Fred Clarke seems certain to keep up his record of always bringing the Pirates through the season in the first division.

H. G. HAWKER AND HIS WATERPLANE

The excellent flight of Mr. Hawker in the recent competition for the £5,000 prize offered by the Daily Mail has been much commented upon. This is the picture of himself and a friend and his waterplane.

STORIES OF PRINCE ARTHUR OF CONNAUGHT

(London T.R. Bits) There is much in common between Prince Arthur of Connaught and the Duchess of Rife, whose betrothal has caused so much interest and satisfaction. Their characters are very similar, both being quiet, serious-minded young people, with a passion for country life and outdoor sport.

The prince is a man of many parts. Soldier, diplomatist, athlete, fine shot, and excellent horseman, he has been rightly termed the "Admirable Crichton" of the royal family. His love for athletics was developed at Eton, and he holds very strong views concerning the peculiar side of sport. "Unfortunately," he once said, "it is the tendency of the age for men and boys to watch other people play instead of playing themselves. When I was at Eton I was told that unless I played football five times a week I should probably find standing easier sitting."

From Eton he went to Sandhurst, and excellent horseman, he has been rightly termed the "Admirable Crichton" of the royal family. His love for athletics was developed at Eton, and he holds very strong views concerning the peculiar side of sport. "Unfortunately," he once said, "it is the tendency of the age for men and boys to watch other people play instead of playing themselves. When I was at Eton I was told that unless I played football five times a week I should probably find standing easier sitting."

There was one Eton episode, however, which made the prince blush furiously at the time. This was when Queen Victoria, during the time of her diamond jubilee, went to the school, called on the prince, and he was introduced to her by his obvious reluctance and confusion, being his class colleague.

Between the Duchess and Queen Alexandra there exists a great bond of affection. It is sometimes asserted that the Duchess was the first person to nurse the little princess to the Dukedom of Rife after she was born. Whether this is true or not, it is a fact that Queen Alexandra was very fond of being photographed with her baby namesake in her arms. Such a picture is a prominent feature in one of the wards of the Children's Hospital in Great Ormond street, where one of the cots is named after the duchess. In appearance the duchess is tall, slim, and dignified and strongly resembles Queen Alexandra.

Next to Princess Patricia of Connaught, the duchess is the most eligible of marriageable English princesses. Recently it was reported that she was to be the bride of ex-King Manuel of Portugal, but it is an open secret that Prince Arthur has been tacitly regarded as her future husband for some time past.

SPORTING ACRES Deer and One-half Millions Under From and Game in Scotland (London Chronicle) From a return of deer forests and lands in Scotland devoted exclusively to sport, it appears that in nineteen counties there were 3,592,744 acres (nearly a fifth of the entire area of the country) at the time of the coming into force of the Small Landholders (Scotland) Act, 1911. The figures are taken from the valuation roll for 1911-12. The rental of the acreage is given as £188,788.

Inter-League Series OPENS IN CINCINNATI Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 15.—Charles Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League Club, announces that the first game of the tour of the world which the New York National and the Chicago American league teams will make this year will be played in this city on October 18. From this city the two clubs will proceed westward by easy stages to the Pacific coast.

A gentleman who happened to come in rather late at a dinner found that the guests had finished soup and were on with the next course. When he said down a waiter came up and said: "Soup, sir?" "No, thanks," he replied, "whereupon the waiter went away. Another waiter, seeing he had nothing, said to him, 'Soup, sir?'" He replied rather testily, "No, thank you." A third waiter, who saw him come in and took compassion on him, placed the soup in front of him. "Look here, my man, is this respect that the lands are not exclusively under deer?" His Inverary deputy, replied the waiter.

SEES NEED FOR PROBATION OFFICER IN SAINT JOHN

Adolph F. A. Schulz of Dedham, Mass., Tells of His Work in Reclaiming Prisoners—Opportunities Here For Such Official

Dear Mr. Schulz,—
I will let you know that I got home all right. I landed Webster at half past four. Dear Sir, I can find words good enough to thank you for your kindness to me and shall never forget to do for the best my Father and Mother all so my sister thank you very much. I am very truly,

The above is a sample of the letters Adolph F. A. Schulz, probation officer for Dedham, (Mass.), and six near-by towns, is constantly receiving as a result of his endeavors toward keeping delinquents and grown men and women out of jail for minor offences. Mr. Schulz is at the Dufferin enjoying his yearly vacation in St. John.

To a Times man Mr. Schulz described the method of operation of the probation officers of Massachusetts and incidentally suggested what all cities, and especially ones the size of St. John, should have probation officers.

When a drunk or a delinquent—a delinquent is a child arrested under seventeen years—is arrested, Mr. Schulz is notified. He goes to the jail, has a talk with the culprit and fills out a filing card with full particulars of the case, including the man or woman's full name, residence, birthplace, occupation, family, state, height, weight and general description. This is placed in a cabinet in which Mr. Schulz stated he has 160,000 cards on file.

If the case is a first offence or if it strikes him as specially worthy of leniency Mr. Schulz allows the culprit to go home on a promise that he will keep the peace. If it is a second or third offence he goes to court in the morning to inform the judge all he knows of the case. Should a man be arrested for failing to support his wife he may be bound over by the court to pay a sum each week out of his earnings to Mr. Schulz, who turns it over to the wife.

"In this way we keep the man at work," explained the probation officer. "If a man should be committed to the state reformatory for such an offence he will be made to work and fifty cents a day paid me for his wife for every day he works. Thus the wife receives money from him anyway. We find the scheme works splendidly."

The probation officer of Massachusetts, according to Mr. Schulz, has jurisdiction over all cases except murder, and keeps a record of even murder cases. Such an officer, it has often been declared, is greatly needed in St. John.

It's Ten Ten By Trinity Clock

And That is All The Clock Will Say For The Next Three Weeks—Electric Equipment to be Installed to Correct Time by Observatory

No, gentle reader, Trinity clock is not pointing to the hour. Mayor Gaynor died; nor Queen Anne, either. The fact that it perverts indicates 10.10 is not an indication that it has followed the example of the dead piers and gone on strike, nor that it has died the death of senile decay.

Nothing like that is the matter. The clock, which is the Trinity church has a schtick void in its "innards." Formerly prize-worthy impartial, today it is biased, out of tune, disgruntled. For three weeks it will be laid up. A human being cannot work without a heart—if he is a clock, it is a church-clock. It would be erroneous to say that Trinity clock is off color, but with due respect to the fact that it is a church-clock it can positively be stated that it is off balance.

To elucidate, the weights of Trinity clock were extracted—Painless Parker having been found to have left town, a local jeweler did the job—at precisely 10.10 this morning. Strenuously objecting, the time-piece stopped then and there, being too weak to put up a more forcible argument. The weights were wrapped up carefully and entrusted to Post Master Bear's care for transmission to England, where they will be synchronized by the Synchronome Company. If the operation is successful, Trinity clock will be fully recovered from its indisposition within three weeks.

P.S.—In his exuberance the reporter forgot to mention what the synchronizing process is. Maybe you didn't know. Anyway the intention is to equip the clock with an electrical arrangement in order that the observatory clock may communicate its time to the Trinity time-piece hour by hour, ensuring exact time.—Ed.

TWO STRIKES TODAY ON LOCAL DOCKS

Scowmen Walk Out Because of Non-Union Labor Employed—Longshoremen Quit After Dispute Over Work—Effects May Be Wide-Spread

Two strikes occurred on the docks this morning. While small in themselves the strikes may have an important effect on both the longshoremen and the bricklayers' unions unless the differences are smoothed over in short order.

Men loading deals on scows at the Ballast wharf (Alexander Watson) this morning discovered that two non-union men were working with them. They demanded that the two men be discharged and failing to get satisfaction suspended work. There are seven in the strike.

About a dozen men unloading brick landed here for the sugar refinery from Nova Scotia off the schooner Nina Gerney went on strike as a result of a controversy with Steve Lore Swanton regarding the way in which the bricks should be handled. An equal number of non-union men were then hired and the work proceeded.

It is said that the men who struck while loading brick will seek the sympathy of the bricklayers engaged in the sugar refinery work and that these may strike in consequence until the difference has been adjusted. Steve Lore Swanton employs a large number of men and handles the work for many vessels. It is not known how far the strike will affect him with the union.

SAINT JOHN BECOMING REALLY COSMOPOLITAN

Some of The People From Every Corner of The Earth Who Rub Shoulders in This Port

A glance at the registers of the five leading hotels today showed the visitors are in St. John from almost every corner of the world. Among them are several from Cuba, two or three from California, one from Germany, one from France, one from New Zealand, several from England and Scotland and several dozen from Western Canada. In addition to these a Quebec man, who is now a banker in Shanghai was recently here, together with a missionary from Toyama, Japan, an artist from Paris, a newspaperman of Buenos Ayres, and many other people from all over the world.

The cosmopolitan character of St. John streets is already noticeable, although none of the large ocean liners have as yet touched here this year. Hindus from India mix with Orientals from China, the Straits Settlements and Japan; Russians rub shoulders with Danes; Germans and French, Spanish and Portuguese, Italian and Swedish, Latin and American, British and Slav are all commingled as in a huge melting pot of languages and customs.

MRS. ASTOR HAS BEAUTY PARLOR

Electric Room Cost $30,000, and is the Quintessence of Luxury

New York, Sept. 16.—Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, widow of John Jacob Astor, will remain beautiful if a $30,000 beauty parlor can effect that end. She has installed an electric beauty room on the second floor of her Fifth Avenue home, adjoining her bedroom.

The room is but 8x15 feet, but it is the quintessence of luxury. The white tile floor is concealed by an Oriental rug, while paintings, plate mirrors outlined in gold, concealed lights and every electrical device which ingenuity has produced to aid in preserving the beauty of the rich are found in the room. Gold and pearl are used wherever possible.

A modified barber chair is in the centre for use during the hair-dressing, massage and other operations of the beauty doctor.
