TARIFF RESOLUTION CAUSES FIRST DIVISION OF OPINION AT LIBERAL CONVENTION

The Expected Has Happened and the Harmony of the Convention Changes to Discord With the Popping up of the Tariff—West Claim the Resolution as Drafted is "Class Legislation" and Does Not Provide a Square Deal—Described as a Get-by Proposition.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—Voting, which will result in the choice of a new Liberal leader, will commence in the national Liberal convention at half past three Thursday afternoon. That was decided on at the opening of the evening sitting. Delegates will meet earlier in the various committee rooms to receive their ballots.

The first division of opinion on a resolution occurred tonight on the tariff question. The resolution on this all-important matter, submitted at the afternoon sitting by Hon. George Langley of Saskatchewan, seconded by Hon. P. J. Veniot of New Brunswick, was objected to at the evening sitting by Premier Oliver of British Columbia, who moved an amendment. His amendment would strike out the second and third paragraphs of the resolution and substitute certain articles of production which should be placed on the free list, and recommended the downward revision of the tariff on wearing apparel, boots and shoes, etc. No objection was taken by Mr. Oliver to a proposal to the British preference to fifty per cent. of the general tariff.

Class Legislation.

Mr. Oliver's objection to the resolution was that it should be wider in its application, and he suggested, by way of amendment, the proposal that all necessities of life, together with all tools, implements and machinery necessary for the development of natural resources should be made free of customs duties. Mr. Oliver declared the resolution was drafted to the class legislation, and "a get-by proposition." He declared it as a "get-by proposition."

When Mr. Oliver was through Mr. James A. Fraser, New Glasgow, N. S., seconded by Dr. Whitman of St. John, moved a sub-amendment to some extent along the lines of the original motion but including a suggestion that there should be a direct tax on all values, a graduated tax on all incomes over three thousand dollars, a tax on company profits over ten per cent, and a graduated inheritance tax on all estates over fifteen thousand dollars.

The Fraser amendment was declared out of order and the Oliver amendment was submitted and declared lost.

West Loss.

The tariff resolution was then on a show of hands carried. Other resolutions adopted during the day and evening sittings included one declaring that there should be no organic change in Canada's relations with the Empire until it has been ratified by the people and objecting to any attempt to centralize imperial control. A resolution placing on record the convention's appreciation of King George's war efforts, as well as its gratitude "to the valiant Canadian army for its splendid share in the great victory," was adopted with enthusiasm.

Another resolution, which received the approval of the convention, authorizes the establishment of a Central Liberal Organization with headquarters at Ottawa. It will be known as the National Liberal Organization Committee. It will include a national council of fifty-four. The committee will select a national organization, who will have its headquarters in Ottawa. Condemnation of the government of the score that it has not properly enforced the income tax law was voted in another resolution adopted.

For the first time in the history of federal political conventions women delegates in eloquent speeches championed a cause and secured the adoption of a resolution. This honor fell to Miss Armstrong of London, and Miss Petrie, of Hamilton, who respectively moved and seconded a resolution declaring it to be necessary to conserve the lives and improve the standard of Canadian citizenship. The ladies got an enthusiastic reception from the delegates.

The convention rose to a high state of enthusiasm on several occasions during the afternoon over the speeches which interspersed the proceedings. Mr. Ernest Lapointe, member for Kamouraska, probably scored the greatest triumph, his effort being punctuated with outbursts of cheering. A number of references were made by speakers to Liberal ministers of the crown and remarks about the government were severely criticized.

Labor Planks.

The platform of the Liberal party in regard to labor was approved by the convention in a resolution moved by Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, seconded by Mr. Roebuck. After declaring that the committee recommends that the National Liberal Convention accept in their entirety as a part of the Liberal platform, in the spirit in which they have been framed and insofar as the special circumstances of the country will permit, the terms of the labor convention and general principles associated with the League of Nations and incorporated in the conditions of peace, the resolution provided:

(1) That the introduction into the government of industry of principles of representation whereby labor and the community, as well as capital may be represented in industrial control, and their interests safeguarded and promoted in the shaping of industrial policies.

(2) That insofar as may be practicable, having regard for Canada's financial position an adequate system of insurance against unemployment, sickness, dependence of old age and other disability, which would include old age pensions, widows' pensions, and maternity benefits, should be instituted by the federal government in conjunction with the governments of the several provinces; and that on matters pertaining to industrial and social legislation an effort should be made to overcome any question of jurisdiction between the Dominion and the provinces, by effective co-operation between the several governments.

(3) This representation of labor federal commissions pertaining to labor matters.

(4) Effective legislation for conservation of human life and health.

(5) The representation of labor on the board of directors of the Canadian National Railway.

(6) That the system of re-training soldiers untrained for their past work because of physical injuries, be extended to disabled workers in industries.

(7) Most effective restriction of Chinese immigration.

(8) The federal incorporation of co-operative associations.

(9) The acceptance of the principle of proportional representation.

(10) Immediate and drastic action by the government with respect to the high cost of living and profiteering.

(11) Retention of the control of the executive by parliament and of parliament by the people through a discontinuance of government by order of council and a just franchise and the exercise under free conditions.

(12) Abolition of the present system of the franchise and its replacement by a system of universal suffrage.

N. S. TRAMWAY CO. PETITION FOR THE BIRNY SAFETY CARS

Halifax People Think This Car, Which is Proving Successful in United States, is Just What They Require.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 6.—E. Watson, representing the N. S. Tramways and Power Co., appeared before the public utilities commission this morning seeking that the order of last December for the purchase of twelve cars of the large double track type and six of the smaller type be rescinded and that in place of these the company be allowed to purchase twenty cars of a type known as the Birny safety car. These cars are fitted with air appliances and are operated by one man for each car. They use the pay as you enter system and can be entered from the front door only. In cases of emergency the rear door can be opened by the operator.

Mr. Watson said that these cars were found to be successful in Rochester and that they were being taken up by a number of the large American cities. The city engineer asked if these cars would be safer than the double track type. Mr. Watson said that in a hilly city like Halifax, with so many sharp turnings, the long double track cars would not be handy. Taking the months of June and July the tramways company will submit a comparative statement of the traffic which could be handled with the various types of cars under consideration.

The commission will meet again in a few days for a further consideration of this request.

Strike Ties Up Brooklyn Rapid Transit System

Part of the 13,000 Employees Quit Work in the Early Morning and Commuters on Their Way to Work Waited in Vain for Cars.

New York, Aug. 6.—Service on the subway, elevated and trolley lines of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system was demoralized at the rush hour today by the strike of part of the company's 13,000 employees. The walk out set for five o'clock, did not assume serious proportions until eight a. m. when thousands of commuters on their way to work in New York from various boroughs across the river, waited in vain for cars.

The East River bridges were soon filled with processions of automobiles, motor trucks and other vehicles pressed into service to carry the throngs to Manhattan. Congestion in the subway tracks, which were operated on a limited scale, was most marked. Trains on the L road ran desultorily and the surface cars gave only partial service owing to the activity of the pickets.

Non-union operators began pushing their cars into the barns at 7.30 a. m., saying they were afraid to run their cars because of the threatening attitude of the strikers.

Coney Island practically was isolated so far as L trains were concerned, a 75 cent an hour wage scale, an eight hour day, and reinstatement of certain employees claimed to have been discharged for union activity.

INDIAN CHIEF HELD GUILTY OF INCITING RIOT

Complaints Originated in Trouble Connected With the Burial of a White Woman in Indians' Cemetery.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—Declaring that the complaint did not disclose any offence, Judge Cusson dismissed this morning, the case against Peter Delisle, Mayor of Caughnawaga, and Chief of the Iroquois tribe on the Caughnawaga reservation. Delisle was charged with inciting the men of his tribe to riot, the complaints originating in trouble connected with the burial of a white woman in the Indian cemetery.

The case was adjourned last week because there were so many angry land, Me., ran away from her home and it is believed that she is in Nova Scotia. A wire has been received at police headquarters from the chief of police at Portland warning the local police to be on the lookout for the girl who is believed to be in the company of Harry Cartwright. Ethel Santosky is twelve years old, but looks fifteen. She is five feet three inches tall and very stout, has blond hair and a ruddy complexion. When last seen was wearing a blue dress.

Claims Shantung Question Was Settled as it Should Have Been Settled at the Paris Peace Conference.

PLENTY OF ROOM IN CHINA FOR ALL

Japan Will Welcome Other Countries Developing Their Power in China Within Proper Limits.

Ozaka, Japan, July 16.—(Correspondence of A. P.)—Viscount Kato, leader of the opposition party in Japan, declared in a speech here yesterday that "the Shantung question was settled as it should have been settled" in the Paris Peace Conference.

"China," he said, "is a vast country where there is plenty of room for Europeans and Americans as well as Japanese to work side by side and extend their interests in full measure. We would advise the newspapers of America recklessly and at the same time we would inform foreign newspapers that Japan will never monopolize the power in China. Japan is in a special relationship with China compared with other foreign nations."

"Japan will certainly maintain her position by every effort. At the same time Japan will not object to other countries developing their power in China within proper limits. Not only that, but Japan will welcome them. Peaceful developments with Japan and other Powers working side by side, China's welfare can be advanced and the peace of the Orient be secured."

Viscount Kato said the Japanese should not regard seriously the action of the Anglo-American Association in Peking, which adopted resolutions declaring the settlement of the Shantung question in the Peace Conference would cause extreme discord between the Chinese people and Japan and would not make for peace in the Far East, nor for the development of trade and commerce equally open to all.

Old Line Liberals Are Watching Ottawa

Word That Managers of Liberal Convention Are Trying to Boom Fielding Did Not Arouse Much Enthusiasm.

News from Ottawa that the managers of the Liberal convention are trying to boom Fielding for the leadership and that Hon. W. E. Foster has been placed at the head of the New Brunswick delegation did not arouse much enthusiasm among the old line Liberals in St. John yesterday. Dr. Emery has been appointed to the important position of scrutineer for the New Brunswick Delegation, and Dr. Broderick has been given a place on the resolutions committee, but none of the other St. John delegates have a place on any of the committees.

Punishment Must Be Administered To Guilty Persons

Former Premier of France Gives His Report on the Peace Treaty to the Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, Aug. 5. (By The A. P.)—Louis Barthou, former premier and foreign minister, read his report on the peace treaty to the treaty commission of the chamber of deputies today.

The report of fifty pages, concludes in favor of ratification. At the same time it formulates certain reserves. M. Barthou commends the action of the negotiators in departing from the old time methods of procedure, but regrets that they did not, from the outset, decide upon complete destruction of Bismarck's work by breaking up political Germany into component parts.

On the question of responsibility and punishment, the former premier grouped in striking fashion quantities of documents hitherto scattered, from which he develops new considerations establishing the crushing responsibility of the former Kaiser and Germany, and declares that international morality will not be satisfied unless the chief guilty persons are punished.

After studying the economic, reparations and military clauses, M. Barthou concludes by recalling the sacrifices of France, "which has not been killed by war and cannot be ruined by peace," and proclaims that united France will face the problems of the future with the four great peoples who united all their efforts to defend justice. He declares it impossible that France, glorious but impoverished, will not obtain from all the Allied and associated peoples the support which she herself so vigorously gave on the day the destinies of the world were at stake.

won't know himself until Mr. Veniot, who has evidently got the N. B. delegation in hand, decides which way the cat is going to jump.

Hopes were expressed by prominent Liberals here yesterday that Mr. MacKenzie would land the job. They want a maritime man if he is an old line Liberal, but some said that they would sooner have a western man than Fielding, who in spite of his great services to the Liberal party in the past, and the fact that Laurier had named him as his successor, is not forgiven for supporting Union government. However, it was said that the leader chosen by the convention would be loyally accepted in St. John, even if he was not considered the proper man for the job.

RESOLUTION ON TARIFF BEFORE CONVENTION

Calls for Sweeping Reductions on Customs Taxation, for a Two-fold Purpose, Says Mover.

ALL MACHINERY TO ENTER FREE

Revision Downwards Wanted on Wearing Apparel, Footwear and Other Articles of General Consumption.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 6.—The tariff resolution submitted to the convention is as follows:

That the best interests of Canada demand that substantial reductions be made with a view to the accomplishing of two purposes of the highest importance.

First—Diminishing the very high cost of living which presses so severely on the masses of the people.

Second—Reducing the cost of the instruments of production in the industries based on the natural resources of the Dominion, the vigorous development of which is essential to the progress and prosperity of our country.

Articles to Be Free.

That, to these ends, wheat, wheat flour and all products of wheat; the principal articles of food; farm implements and machinery, farm tractors, mowing, flour and saw mill machinery and repair parts thereof; rough and dressed lumber; gasoline, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils; nets, not twines and fishermen's equipments; cement and fertilizers, should be free from customs duties, as well as the raw material entering into the same.

That a revision downwards of the tariff should be made whereby substantial reductions should be effected in wearing apparel, and footwear, and on other articles of general consumption, other than luxuries, as well as on the raw material entering into the manufacture of the same.

That the British preference be increased to fifty per cent. of the general tariff.

And the Liberal party hereby pledges itself to implement by legislation the provision of this resolution when returned to power.

ARTICLE XI. NEEDS NO RESERVATION

So Declares Charles E. Hughes in Letter to Must-Kill-All Senator Borah.

Bolton, Londing, N. Y., August 4.—No reservations are necessary in regard to article XI of the covenant of the League of Nations in the opinion of Charles E. Hughes who in a letter to Senator Borah made public at his summer home here tonight, rejects the senator's claim that article XI is an objectionable article X. Mr. Hughes' letter is in reply to one written to him by Senator Borah on July 29. In it he expresses the opinion that article XI contains "no injury to American interests."

"I find in article XI no guaranty of territorial integrity," said Mr. Hughes, "or of the political independence of any state, or any assumption of any obligation to make war, or to maintain an economic boycott or blockade, or to take any other action whatever unless the United States availing itself of its privilege as a member of the council concurs in a decision that such a course is both wise and effectual. The United States, as it seems to me, will be entirely free to reach its conclusions according to the merits of the case."

Continuing the explanation Mr. Hughes says that his objection to article X is that unlike article XI "it is not properly limited to an agreement to confer and to decide in the future upon the course of action which would seem to be in accordance with the dictations of justice and our views as to which as a nation we should undertake."

SHERMAN CHARGES PRESIDENT WITH INCONSISTENCY

Washington, Aug. 4.—Senator Sherman, republican, Lincoln, in an address in the Senate today on the peace treaty, charged President Wilson with inconsistency in opposing Italy's claims to Fiume while supporting Japan's claims to Shantung.

"Fiume is Italian in blood, language and traditions," he declared. "Italy is justified in asking to resume the natural relations existing between Fiume and the mother country."

"Shantung is given to Japan pursuant to a secret treaty. It was the price of Japan's permission to China to declare war with the Allies. Japan's sacrifices are unworthy of mention with those of Italy. Her military forces fought the Germans in Shantung to seize the proceeds of Germany's robbery of China."

Sturdee, Vice-Admiral Sir Roger Keyes, Acting Rear-Admiral Sir Reginald Tyrwhitt, Vice-Admiral Sir John M. Trying To Force The United States Into War With Mexico

Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church Charge American Oil Interests With Manufacturing Propaganda for That Purpose.

New York, Aug. 6.—American oil interests are charged with manufacturing propaganda to force the United States into war with Mexico in a report on the Mexican situation made public here today by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. The report was prepared by Samuel Inman, executive secretary of the American section of the committee on co-operation in Latin America, representing the American and Canadian Mission boards.

Mr. Inman charges that the American people are being deceived by in-appeal propaganda, and that "intervention in Mexico is coming just as fast as certain interests can possibly force it."

The oil men, whom Mr. Inman accuses, are declared to have large offices in Washington and New York, and unlimited supplies of money.

"They are playing," the report says, "not simply for oil wells in Tampico and Vera Cruz but for much larger stakes; they have found out that Mexico is full of oil. What they want is the United States to get hold of Mexico so they can easily obtain these billions of dollars of oil properties which are certain to be developed in the future."

peace treaty will be condemned by the impartial historian for the sanction of this flagrant crime.

"President Wilson brands his denunciation of secret treaties with sincerity when he refuses Fiume to Italy after her heroic sacrifices and declares Shantung to Japan in obedience to secret treaties after her course of self-sacrifice in the great war."

LIBERAL PARTY ORGANIZES NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO DIRECT FUTURE POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS

To Pin Faith on a Strong Organization—Pass Resolution in Praise of the Work of the Canadian Army—Speakers from the West Serve Warning Notice on Eastern Members, Advising Them Not to "Hog It"—Premier Foster as Prophet.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 6.—When the convention assembled in the afternoon, Chairman Murray read the report of the Committee of Party Organization. This report recommended the formation of a National Liberal Organization, composed of the Liberal Party of each Province, and in the case of any Province in which there is no organization, the Liberal Premier or leader of the opposition shall nominate the vice-presidents, one from each Province, and a National Council of fifty-four. The vice-presidents shall be named by the Liberal Association of each Province, or in the case of any Province in which there is no organization, the Liberal Premier or leader of the opposition shall nominate the vice-presidents.

The report recommends that the National Council of fifty-four members shall consist of five members selected by the Liberal Association for the Province, and the Liberal Premier or leader of the opposition or his nominee in each Province. Mr. J. H. Boyle, chairman of the Committee of Party Organization, in presenting the report, stated his belief that the Provinces were in much the same condition as the Allied countries previous to the war. What was required was a central body to coordinate their work. This unifying body, he said, should have its headquarters in Ottawa, the Capital of the Dominion.

Mr. Boyle predicted that if the organization as proposed was properly handled it would lead to success at the next general election. He agreed with the chairman of the convention that leadership, platform and organization were the three essentials to success. Mr. J. H. Sinclair, member for Guysborough, in seconding the resolution, said that after the convention of 1893 the Liberals had established a good organization under the late Hon. James Sutherland. As a result they swept the country in 1896. The Liberals lost in 1911 because the Conservatives had the better organization. Mr. Sinclair stated that delegates present had travelled as far as three thousand miles to attend this convention. They did not expect to be paid for their expenses.

He regarded this as an indication that the Dominion is ripe for a Liberal organization. Its purpose would be to preach the gospel of Liberalism and to help drive the Hun profiteers from the treasury benches. Senator Bostock, seconded by Mr. McMillan, Liberal candidate for South Huron, then moved the following resolution: "The convention desires to place on record its devotion to the person and office of His Gracious Majesty King George the Fifth, and its appreciation of his untiring efforts during the war in promoting harmony throughout the Dominion, and also its unalterable attachment to the British Empire and to our own beloved Canada. Praise For Soldiers.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble. Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion. Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion." Acid stomachs are dangerous because so much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by various stomach aches. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart. It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated feeling out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form)—never liquid or milk—is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

TWO OFFICIALS HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Sgt. Jack Clements Dies at Military Hospital as Result of Accident While in Swimming.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, August 6.—Fisheries Overseer Alex McNally, of Lower Queensbury, and Fisheries Warden Cecil Martin of Meductic, recently narrowly escaped drowning in the St. John River. Their canoe was upset while they were trying to run the Meductic rapids. These rapids are particularly rough in low water, and more than one party have come to grief in attempting to run them. Both men were thrown into the river. Martin was in danger of drowning but was rescued by a fisherman. McNally was rescued by a fisherman and taken to the military hospital where he died of his injuries.

Mr. Ernest Lapointe, M. P., referred to the convention as a gathering of the members of the great Liberal family. As Sir Wilfrid Laurier represented the great democratic party, so it was right that his successor should be chosen not only by the parliamentary members of the party, but by members of the whole Liberal family. Whatever might be the programme, however progressive it might be, it would be mere words and dead letters until a living agency had given life to it. It might be said indeed that legislation and the programme were no better than the man chosen to administer them. Younger Liberals would not be satisfied with a reactionary programme no matter how progressive might be the ticket with which it was labeled.

In the march toward the future, the Liberal party should be in the first rank. There should be no fear of progress. There should be no fear of reform. The party had dismounted the slope and was now climbing the other side of the valley, brakes might have been necessary on the downward slope but in climbing motive power would be the great asset. The system of taxation must be transformed in a radical way, taxation which increased the poverty of the poor and the wealth of the rich was bad. Everything should be done to make the lot of the poor easier and to make the rich pay into the treasury in proportion to the wealth and their influence on the national government.

At the present time the Borden government was throwing away, not only the millions of the present but the wealth of generations to come. Twenty-five million dollars had been advanced to Romanians, and six millions to Italy, that Flavels and other millionaires might be able to sell their goods. "We have to fight," Mr. Lapointe continued, "against an arbitrary and absolute government which does not care for democracy and what democracy stands for. This government, which is the product of the nefarious war time elections act, does not represent today, the vast Canadian people. (Applause.) To use a French expression, the Canadian nation is reflected in the Canadian parliament as in a broken looking glass. It is, perhaps, on account of that we see its unpopularity, and unpopularity that is always growing. For the last twelve months the government has been lingering between two factions, leaning now on one side, now on the other, and sometimes under a star from the radical West, another time under a blow from Tory Ontario, swinging with a mixture of respect and indifference the ultimate fate which always befalls an unnatural association."

Swing at Mr. Rowell. Referring to Mr. Rowell's letter in regard to the convention Mr. Lapointe said that Mr. Rowell was refusing with the United Government because he had no where else to go. Mr. Rowell had advised the Liberals of Ontario to follow his example. (Laughter.) Mr. Rowell was like the fox in the fable, which having lost its tail advised all its fellow foxes to have their tails cut off, but Mr. Lapointe thought the fox would have to continue its way hopelessly and without its tail. The best rebuke against Bobolov's vision in this country, said Mr. Lapointe, was Liberalism. Kaiserism was the father of Bolshevism, and he felt quite sure that if Messrs. Levesque and Trotsky had to choose leaders in Canada they would select Borden, Meighen and Rowell. If Canada could be united and all resources and prodigies done away with, the Tory party, said Mr. Lapointe, would automatically dissolve. A Liberal was generally a Liberal because he loved something, but a Tory was a Tory because he hated something. He had, said Mr. Lapointe, been a staunch Liberal in the past and he hoped to continue so until the end. With MacIntyre he wished to say "as long as there is a spread of the old banner, by that banner I at least will stand."

Get Together on Tariff. Hon. T. C. Norris, premier of Manitoba, was the next speaker. Canada, he said, was at a critical period, and it was necessary that the convention evolve a policy which would be of the greatest possible help to the country. The after-war problems were not as difficult as those which had confronted the country during the war, he said. The country needed a new fiscal policy, and he thought there had never been a time when the people at large were so willing to come together on the tariff.

He could testify that the spirit was abroad in Manitoba. It was a time when the West was always too radical. That was not the case at present, although he felt that Canada must have a sane radical fiscal policy. The question of the proper relation of capital and labor was of grave importance and should receive the best consideration of the convention. Capital and

The bill returned last week by the grand jury, in answer to the death of the couple's daughter, Dorothy, eight years old, on May 4 last. The Walkers pleaded not guilty and Judge Sticks fixed their bail at $25,000 each, but reduced it to $1,500.

During the child's illness from diphtheria, a ten day period preceding her death, she alleged, she received no medical treatment, but was treated by Christian Science healers. The indictment charges in language that is unusual in indictments that Mr. and Mrs. Walker, one Dorothy Walker, in the peace of God and of this State then and there being, feloniously and unlawfully, with malice aforethought, did unlawfully and feloniously provide for their child proper care and protection, including medical attention. He added:— "Involuntary manslaughter is the reckless disregard of a plain duty, evincing a reckless disregard for human life. Religious convictions of any character, if they conflict with the plain obligation of the law, constitute no legal defence."

Mr. Macdonald said yesterday all of the forty-five Christian Science churches in New Jersey have interested themselves in the case, but that it was too early to say whether they would give material assistance to the defence when the case comes to trial. District Attorney Harrison believes that when the case comes to trial the defence will be represented by a large array of counsel and will have the backing of the Christian Science mother church in an endeavor to have his doctrines and principles justified in law.

THOSE TIRED FEET! WHY DIDN'T GRANDMA HAVE THEM?

Tired feet? Everybody has them nowadays. Why? It's how it is that in our grandmothers' and grandmothers' time people did not complain of such things until they were old. Why? Novadays even school children are troubled with tired feet. Doctors to treat them are in demand. The theory has been advanced that there is more standing on the feet than there was in the olden times. More counters to stand behind, more machines to stand behind, more stairs to climb, telephone calls to answer and many other new things that tax the feet. Like a tired body, there is nothing better for tired feet than a good bathing and soaking. It will be found that warm water in which a little Snowflake Ammonia has been dissolved will make an ideal solution for bathing tired feet. It softens them and eases the burning and aching. For the bath it has the same soothing, softening power. Snowflakes may be obtained from any grocer.—Adv.

MORE BIGAMY IN ENGLAND

London Justice Deplors Lack of Marriage Relation—Shocking Examples.

London, Aug. 4.—Bigamy cases have become so common at the Old Bailey and Kent Assizes that Justice Darling, at the close of a day in which he had sentenced twelve men for that offence, said: "People are taking a very lax view of the marriage relation. It has become the easiest thing in the world to get a divorce. There is a movement to enable people to get divorces on cheap and easy terms in the County Courts, and I daresay it will be successful." "At present people do not even take the trouble to apply to the courts. I have had eighteen bigamy cases before me at this assizes. The marriage contract in the most sacred engagement into which any one can enter, yet many treat it as though it were no more binding than a dinner engagement."

One of the cases before the justice was of John Smithers, gamekeeper, charged with having gone through a form of marriage with Beatrice Waters in Turbridge Wells in 1917, his wife, Mabel Dorothy, whom he had married in Canterbury in 1914, being still alive. When asked what he had to say, Smithers replied: "I plead guilty, but on the other hand, I am innocent." He explained that he had suffered from shell shock and had completely forgotten the woman who had faced him as his first wife. Even in court as looked at her and declared he had never seen her before. Both the first wife and Miss Waters had a child by him. When the evidence showed positively that he had married both women and the justice asked him with whom one he expected to live, he answered: "I suppose I will have to live with my legal wife, but I will leave it to you, sir."

A detective testified that when the real wife went to Turbridge Wells, Smithers visited her several times and knew her well enough. He was sentenced to imprisonment for six months and to such hard labor as he might be able to do.

FOUL PLAY MAY HAVE CAUSED MAN'S DEATH

Sydney Man's Body, Missing Since Saturday, Discovered in Creek.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 5.—That Day J. Matheson, whose dead body was found floating in the Tarry of McGonagh's Creek yesterday morning, had been missing from home since Saturday evening, was the information gleaned from his father, Daniel Matheson, of Whitney Pier, yesterday afternoon. The theory is that while crossing the dump on his way to town, Saturday night he lost his way in the dark and fell over the edge of the dump, being drowned in the water and laid at the bottom. The deceased man's father is rather suspicious of foul play and is making inquiries along these lines.

WELLAND CANAL LABOR TROUBLES WERE DISCUSSED

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 5.—Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways and Canals, had a meeting with Welland Canal contractors today. The contractors informed the Minister that the demands of the men were for the same hourly schedule as paid by the Hydro Electric Commission for similar Hydro Electric Commission for similar contract work in that district, as stated that this applied for eight hours each day, and if they worked more than eight hours the Hydro Commission paid special overtime rates as the Welland Canal work was started for the purpose of furnishing work for the unemployed in the Niagara district; it was decided to prolong the work as long as possible by not working overtime.

The theory is that while crossing the dump on his way to town, Saturday night he lost his way in the dark and fell over the edge of the dump, being drowned in the water and laid at the bottom. The deceased man's father is rather suspicious of foul play and is making inquiries along these lines. The inquest into the death was begun yesterday afternoon and postponed till four o'clock this afternoon.

MAKING IT EASIER.

The retirement of Mr. Carvell from political life must be a great relief to the Union which, ever since the Union was proposed, has found itself in a bad of chafes. Not even the government patronage which it has enjoyed could make that paper more comfortable under the circumstances. Committed to the service support of Uncle Peter and Hon. Mr. Foster, the Telegraph has found itself at odds with the better element of the former Liberal party. But in a desperate attempt to carry favor it has pretended to support Union, endorsing in a half-hearted way the policies of this party, but at the same time attempting to make its attitude coincide with the views of the local leaders whom it worships. So long as Hon. Mr. Carvell remained in the Union cabinet the Telegraph felt in duty bound to endorse him, but his recent absurd praise of one who, when all is said and done, was in New Brunswick at any rate, merely a discredited politician, scarcely fits with its adherence to those who have been stabbing Mr. Carvell in the back. However, with the Liberal Unionist minister from New Brunswick out of the way the Telegraph feels able to disregard the views of this other Liberal Unionist from New Brunswick who are still at Ottawa, and during the past few days has come out openly in support of the Liberal opposition. This should not be taken to indicate defection from Unionist support, for, as has been its policy in the past, the Telegraph will stand by both parties so long as there is anything to be gained by such a course. Today it holds up both hands and cheers for the group now in convention at Ottawa. Tomorrow it will sing the praise of Mr. Foster and denounce those St. John Liberals who have dared to oppose his views, and on the following day it will mildly encourage Union Government in the hope of carrying favor with those men of Liberal principles who are still sufficiently broad minded to continue their allegiance to Union. The versatility of the Telegraph in playing all sides against each other reminds one of the days when a certain eminent journalist, now deceased, was editing both Conservative and Liberal newspapers. Seated in one office he wrote bitter attacks on the government, and later in the day went to the other newspaper office and replied with scathing sarcasm to his own harsh criticisms appearing in the opposition paper.

A SERIOUS MENACE.

Medical men are not talking very much, but the prevalence of venereal disease in this community demands more drastic action on the part of Provincial health authorities than has been apparent in the past. It may come as a surprise to the people of St. John to be told that as many as twenty new cases of a very serious type have been reported in this city within a week, that the average of such cases seldom runs lower than ten weekly, and that in addition to these there are undoubtedly many which are not brought to the notice of the local health authorities. Quite naturally because of this numbers so afflicted prefer seeking confirmation of their suspicions by examination in other cities, such as Montreal, Boston and New York, rather than endure even the slight measure of publicity involved under treatment by local practitioners. The military authorities are apparently supposed to be caring for all returned men who have evidenced symptoms of these diseases, but it is to be feared that restrictions imposed by the military are not always effective. Under service conditions the goings and comings of the men were absolutely controlled, it was possible to segregate all patients of this type and by subjecting them to stringent regulations to prevent dissemination of the disease to some extent and to proceed with curative processes. In Canada service conditions do not apply. An occasional visit to hospitals, with unrestricted personal freedom, is not conducive to the elimination of the disease. In matters of this nature the first and most important step of all is to get rid of the false modesty which prevents the application of efficient methods. There is no use shutting our eyes to the conditions existing in St. John today. There are in this city at present, not one or two, but scores of innocent young women married within the past couple of years, who are victims of the most serious type of venereal disease, communicated to them by their husbands, who either knowingly or unknowingly concealed their true condition at the time of marriage. And these couples are bringing into the world children handicapped from birth with a disease which will be eradicated only by long continued and most careful treatment. It is entirely unwarranted to suggest that returned soldiers are more responsible than any others for the spread of these diseases. This is not the case, for, as is evidenced from the restrictions on trading in wheat futures on the Winnipeg exchange were removed. Instead of declining prices promptly advanced twenty cents yesterday. Temporary restrictions were put on again, with the apparent object of preventing a further advance in the cost of living.

Mexico's Greatest Need.

Los Angeles Times: What is wanted for Mexico is an army of about a million stalwart men heavily armed with vacuum cleaners. Then the whole country might be polished up and placed in condition to receive company.

It Appended to a Cheque?

Kansas City Star: Proceeding further in the matter of the alleged ignorance, Mr. Ford says he never writes letters, and seldom signs those written by his secretaries. This statement ought to make a Henry Ford autograph worth miles and miles to obtain.

A Revelation of Charms.

Toronto Times: But it is said that the stage has revealed in the past few years costumes during the point of disclosure. The stage is not alone in this particular glory. The average drawing-room party is a revelation, and it seems as if the silk mills of the world must be running day and night on transparent materials.

An Unthinking Cry.

New York Evening Post: "To hell with the public!" This was the cry of the car men in Chicago voting to strike. The cry was used to be thought to have reached its apex in "The public be damned!" But that was the reputed utterance of a railway magnate. Now the circle has swung full and it is the workmen who do not care a straw if their action causes public inconvenience or even suffering. Monopolistic arrogance has thus touched bottom. Of course, it was an unthinking cry heard in Chicago. It really would mean: "To hell with all of us." And to the sulphurous destination we should all be bound if some men could have their way.

PHILOSOPHER'S WEATHER.
It ain't no use to grumble or complain,
It's just as easy to rejoice,
When God sorts out the weather and
Sends rain or sends a drought,
Why, rain's my choice.

In this existence dry or wet
Will overtake the best of men,
Some like slips of clouds'll shed
The sun of now and then.

They ain't no use as I can see
In mortal sins you and me
A faultin' Nature's wise intents
And hookin' horns with Providence.

It ain't no use to grumble or complain,
It's just as cheap and easy to rejoice,
When God sorts out the weather and

PROHIBITION SENDS THE GIRLS ON TOUR

Broadway Cabarets Closing, Mame and Irene Must Go Back to the "Road."
(New York Tribune.)
Where do we go from here? That is the question half a thousand cabaret show girls are asking. It is violating no confidence to say that many will go home more will join burlesque and musical comedy shows and a few will remain to go back to the counters, the manicuring tables and the clerkships which they left when they were magnetized by the lure of Broadway.

This compels an admission, says the Tribune. On the word of an authority the "New York show girls" and the "road" are not the same thing. Many of our prominent cabaret girls are supposed to crack the steely mercantile heart of the big salesman from Danbury can call New York home. They get here somehow, and a job some way. And they fling themselves so utterly into the atmosphere of the thing that who can say after three months' training in a downtown cabaret on Forty-second street that Evelyn of East Liverpool Ohio, has ever breathed aught but the inspirational "road" of Broadway?

Now the burlesque manager comes again into his own. Since 1915 he has implored the "ponies," "mediums" and "stairwells" to forsake the cabaret and hit the road. Nothing doing. With fifty-two weeks right here in "Little Old New York" or at the contiguous seashore why should a lady go out on the dusty old road, in the smelly hotels and theatres, to eat the small town grub and meet the small town Johns? Many of our prominent cabaret girls remember "them days" somewhat in the light of the tortures of a medieval past.

Ladies who sniffed at mention of the "road" in the plummy helmet days—when it was nothing for a man to make $1,000,000 in one day and try to spend it that night—now sniffle because they fear so-and-so manager will overlook them.
"Yes, they are going back to the 'road,'" says Mr. Zigfield, has a grudge against. Some are going to take the road that leads home, and for them Broadway will be the memory of a thousand of them. Back to the "road," to the inconveniences of continual "jumps" and the financial embarrassment of "half pay" weeks, lower salaries and then an out and out hiatus in remuneration. It's a tough old world.

The cabaret principals have been stampeded to the various vaudeville "wheelers." Some have already beat it for the West to go over the Oregon, Kansas or Western circuits. Others, the topnotchers, will interview Mr. Keith in the near future, and Marcus Lewis and the Fox people will have plenty of opportunities to annex talent. Let any who

LUMBER DEALERS REPLY TO CHARGES

Coast Manufacturers Say That There Has Been No Discrimination Toward Prairies

Vancouver, Aug. 3.—A mild sensation was caused in Vancouver lumber circles by the receipt of a press dispatch from Calgary, which stated that Calgary contractors had sent a wire to Sir Robt. Borden, urging that an investigation be instituted into the high prices of lumber charged by coast manufacturers. The Calgary people charged profiteering in prices, that Canadian consumers were discriminated against while American buyers were favored. It was claimed also that as a result business was held up on the prairie, and that industrial unrest was following.

When apprised of the charges, secretary R. H. R. Alexander, of the B.C. Lumber Manufacturers' Association, said that this had been the first complaint the coast men had ever received from Canadian builders on prices charged, and that he feared no investigation. "As a matter of fact," he said, "we have been doing very little business with prairie buyers, who have been doing most of their business with the mountain mills. It is true that we have been doing a big business with American buyers but they are paying higher prices than the prairies. There is no discrimination. We are simply carrying on business as usual supplying all markets that we are able to. There is not the building going on this year that we had hoped for, and as a matter of fact prices are not as high as this time last year. It is also true in the lumber industry as any other line of business; when the cost of operation increases then the prices of the commodity must be increased accordingly."

Why Daddy Long Legs Is So Pleasing
The Mary Pickford picture, Daddy Long Legs, as filmed from Jean Webster's universally popular book, again drew immense crowds to the Imperial Theatre yesterday, some of those in attendance having seen the picture on a previous occasion. It was a matter of considerable surprise to a group of American tourists that this extraordinary feature could be shown in a city the size of St. John at so small a price of admission, while elsewhere it commands as high as $1.50 per ticket.
Mary Pickford has been more or less a film darling to the people of St. John as well as pretty nearly everywhere else for over ten years, but never before were her natural gifts so deeply drawn upon to create an artistic photoplay as in Daddy Long Legs. Marshall Neilan can now be ranked among the very few real masters of screen production. As director of the Jean Webster story, with its numerous children and marvellous by true types of adults, he takes the watcher out of the realm of fiction altogether and makes the whole story actually live.
If Daddy Long Legs is to be accepted as a criterion of the photoplay of the immediate future—the super-production of silent drama—truly lovers of pure entertainment could not wish for more. The Pickford picture is receiving its final four exhibitions this afternoon and evening, and its fame has spread so far and so rapidly during the last few days that the Imperial Theatre staff is preparing for another rush of patrons.

Veterans' Fair All Next Week

St. Andrew's Rink to be Scene of Gaiety and Mecca of Visitors to City.
Arrangements are well advanced for the returned men's fair to be held next week in St. Andrew's rink, every evening except that of Soldiers' Day, when the rink will be closed in order to allow of complete participation in the enjoyment of the travelers' programme. Those in charge of the affair would like the assistance of all members who are willing to help in the ring afterwards or evenings of this week in getting ready for the event.
Expectations are that the fair will be one of the biggest ever held in the city. The veterans' band will be heard every evening in a select concert programme; there will be new and original games, providing much amusement, and a feature of special interest will be the "show bonus," in which exhibits of prime originality will be made. A star of jades from patriotic organizations will aid in the work of the fair, which will be opened on Monday evening next. The fair will prove a distinct attraction for all visitors to the city, especially returned men.

WEDDINGS

Whelan-O'Leary.
On Wednesday morning, July 30, at 10 o'clock in the St. Francis Xavier church, Sussex, Teresa E. O'Leary, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Leary, of Penobscot became the bride of Thomas Whelan, of Pictou. Rev. Father McDermott presided at the ceremony in the presence of immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Margaret Landry, of Bathurst, presided at the organ.
The bride who was gowned in white silk crepe de chene, with bridal veil and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white carnations, was escorted to the altar by her brother, Neil O'Leary. She was attended by Frances Doherty, who was dressed in rose crepe de chene with black picture hat. The groom was supported by John O'Leary, brother of the bride. After the ceremony dinner was served at the bride's home, Penobscot, to about 50 invited guests, after which the happy young couple left on the C. P. R. for a short trip through the province.

The groom's present to the bride was a diamond necklace, to the bride a pearl pendant, and to the bridesmaid a pearl scarf pin.
Mr. and Mrs. Whelan have the best wishes of a host of friends both in Pictou and Penobscot.

Delong-Dean.
At Christ Church Cathedral, Fredericton, Monday evening, Rev. H. H. Delong, of Fredericton, and Thomas John Dean, a returned soldier, formerly of St. John, but now at the Military Hospital, Fredericton, the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly of Rockland road are in Boston, where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Miss Susan K. Kelly, on Sunday afternoon last to Theodore Deblis, Harbell-Doyle.

The wedding of Miss Florence Doyle daughter of Mrs. Mary Doyle of this city, to Bruce Howell, of Elgin, Albert county, N. B., was solemnized in the Cathedral yesterday morning, Rev. Father Moore officiated. They left for their home in West St. John.

Webb-Tuffs.
Miss Edna C. Tuffs, formerly teacher in the Winter street school, and Truman P. Webb, of the C. P. R., Mill street staff, were united in marriage at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. C. Smith, Watson street, west, by Rev. J. H. Jenner. They were attended by the happy couple left last evening for Chicago and will visit in Montreal and Toronto on route. They will make their home in West St. John.

Crowe-Powers.
A wedding of much interest was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Crowe, 14 Germain street, last evening when Miss Mary Florence Crowe, second daughter of Mrs. Mary Crowe, of Sussex, became the bride of Harvey M. Powers, an original member of the 26th Battalion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. J. McPherson, pastor of the Central Baptist Church. The bride was given away by her brother, Arthur Crowe, and was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Florence M. Powers as bridesmaid. She wore a beautiful gown of white silk with a full veil and orange blossoms, carrying a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The best man was William Smith, also an original member of the 26th, and who served as a comrade of the groom for more than three years. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Wainmaker, sister of the groom. Many presents of checks, silver and cut glass attested to the popularity of the pair. After a short honeymoon trip they will take up their residence at 78 Kenmore street.

Jeremiah Dwyer.
Early yesterday morning the death of Jeremiah Dwyer took place at his residence, 161 Simonds street at the age of seventy-four years. Besides his wife he leaves four daughters, Mrs. Richard H. Evans, Agnes, Annie and Helen, all of this city; four sons, John, Edward, Charles and Arthur, also of this city, and two nephews, Joseph and John, of Milford, N. B. A large circle of friends extend sympathy to the bereaved ones. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, old time, from his late residence.

Martin Duffy.
The death took place suddenly about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of Martin Duffy, 204 Chesley street. Mr. Duffy, who was fifty-four years of age, and employed in the Insantown mill was on his way home from work when he was stricken with heart failure. The deceased was born and lived practically all his life on Chesley street in the North End, and was a faithful member of St. Peter's parish. Besides his wife he leaves three sons and four daughters, William, Martin, Francis, Leitha, Marie, Agnes and Bertha, all of this city. He is also survived by two brothers and one sister, John, James and Margaret, all of St. John. The funeral will be held on Friday morning.

Trained Nurse Has Gained 22 Pounds

Mrs. Josephine Freeman Says Tanlac is a Perfectly Wonderful Medicine—Had Suffered Ten Years.

Mrs. Josephine Freeman, of 647 Towne avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., a graduate nurse who had practiced her profession for seventeen years, recently made the remarkable statement that she has not only been relieved of a case of stomach troubles of ten years standing by the use of Tanlac, but that she had also gained twenty-two pounds in weight.
When asked if she would be willing for her experience with Tanlac to be published, Mrs. Freeman said:
"Yes, indeed, I feel that I would be doing anyone suffering from stomach trouble and a rundown condition a good turn by getting them to take Tanlac. For ten years I have been having trouble with my stomach. I could not eat anything without suffering intense pains afterwards and at times I would vomit up so with gas and such pains and pressure around my heart that I would almost faint. I became so nervous that I could hardly get any sleep or rest, and got so run down and weak that I could scarcely keep up my work as a nurse. I, of course, used all kinds of medicines and did everything possible but could never get more than just a little temporary relief.
"Finally a friend of my husband, who had been relieved of the same trouble by taking Tanlac, advised him to have me try it, and right from the first bottle I began to feel better and never have the least pain or trouble afterwards. I sleep soundly every night and, I feel rested and refreshed on getting up in the mornings. When I began taking Tanlac I was weighing only one hundred and thirty pounds and was still losing. But now I tip the scales at one hundred and fifty-two pounds, making an actual gain of twenty-two pounds in four bottles of Tanlac. I just feel so strong and well now that it's a real pleasure for me to recommend the medicine that helped me so much. Tanlac is a perfectly wonderful medicine and I am glad to give credit where it belongs."
Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and P. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Adv.

STEEL PRODUCTION

Continues at About Seventy Per Cent. of Capacity.
Pittsburg, Aug. 5.—Steel production continues at the rate of about 70 per cent of capacity, measured on the ingot basis. Some works have increased output in the past week or two, while a few have decreased. The volume of business is fairly large, but it is poorly distributed, giving operation to some departments of the industry but light operation to others. The greatest need of the industry is a reasonable volume of railroad buying, while the next is greater activity in large construction projects. There is fairly steady improvement, however, along that line. As to railroad orders the prospects are as poor and uncertain as ever, or indeed worse since the director general has just denied the apparently authentic report of a month ago that the railroad administration was about to buy 300,000 tons of rails. It is now stated that no estimates have been made as to the immediate needs.

Castor Oil, Ugh!

FOR many years most mothers have known that Fletcher's Castoria is the only ready-at-hand substitute for Castor Oil, yet there are mothers who do not know. Few mothers there are who know that the seeds from which old-fashioned, out-of-date Castor Oil is extracted are to a degree poisonous and when eaten set up a severe inflammation of the digestive organs.
In its most refined form the Oil is rarely used now for Infants and Children on the advice of up-to-date physicians, and the purest Castor Oil to be had still has the nauseating, griping, distressing qualities that to the little-one make the remedy worse than the ailment.
Every physician understands this and freely recommends Fletcher's Castoria as they have been familiar with its use for the ailments of Children for over thirty years and in all that time it has served them well.
Its ingredients, in their common English names, are on every wrapper that all may know of what it is composed. There is no secret. It is just a happy combination for the little-ones and its use will make happy mothers.

A Sensational Fielder Found

Charles Lee Will Be Placed in the "Reds" Outfield At Once.

Charles (Chad) Lee, the youngest just signed by Pat Moran to a Cincinnati contract, is known to the Glendale fans as the "Babe Ruth" of the semi-pros. Lee was born in Bristol, N. Y., 20 years ago and learned to play ball in the old home town and on the lots of Long Island City. He was discovered by Ed Van Every, manager of the Glendale Farmers, in 1917, while playing with the Schirmer Music Company. Van captured him, brought him to Brooklyn and held him until late last season, when he was secured by the Morse Dry Dock Club. He was originally a pitcher, and a good one, but he excelled as a batsman. The Rochester International League management signed him to a contract early this season and he made good from the start as a batsman. He is the leading batsman now of the International. He batted .400 for the Farmers.

Mike Leonard Is Back From France

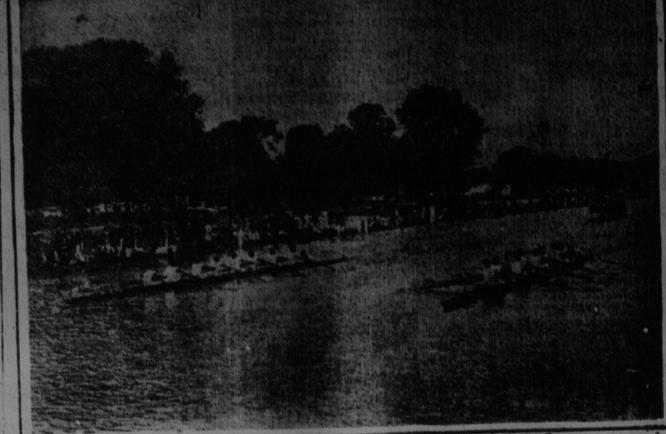

Former Lightweight Pugilist Says Britton Will Lose to O'Dowd.

Mike Leonard, the former well-known lightweight pugilist, arrived from Brest, France, recently after ten months' service overseas as a director of sports for the Y. M. C. A. During his service Leonard refereed in a number of important tournaments and performed his duties splendidly. He also officiated as the third man in the Allied bouts at Pershing Stadium at Monte Carlo, Laon, Nice, Tours, London, Paris and various other cities.

When asked what he thought of Mike O'Dowd's chances with Jack Britton, Leonard declared that the former will polish off his aged opponent. "Take it from me, O'Dowd is a tough bird and Britton will get all he wants of the wild Irishman in minutes they step into the arena."

"I know what I am talking about for I saw O'Dowd perform in several bouts abroad. While on this subject, it is only right that I should say a word in praise of Jimmy Bronson's ability as a referee. Jimmy is a dandy in that capacity and knows the game like a book. He performed great services for the Y. M. C. A. as an athletic instructor."

Thrashing out this controversy over Carl Mays in public does the game no good, nor is it conducive to the welfare of the American League. The baseball public believes that Mays should have been disciplined, but it also believes that President Dwyer should have acted before the New York club became involved so deeply.

It is reported that the paid attendance of the Yankee-Detroit games at the Polo Grounds, Saturday and Sunday, totaled 70,000.

The lovers of lawn tennis will be attracted to the National doubles championship to be staged at the Longwood Courts, Chestnut Hill next week. Edwin Sneath of the Longwood Club is anticipated as the best player in 1919, having beat out the great doubles journey in the history of tennis.

One of the freak features of the baseball campaign is the helplessness of the championship clubs against the teams which they beat for the pennant last year. Cleveland, which was nosed out by Boston in the American League last year, has defeated the Red Sox in 10 out of 11 contests. The same situation exists in the National. The Chicago second place in 1918, has beaten the Cubs in nine out of 10 games—Arthur Duffy, in Boston Post.

"Heine" Warner, coach of the Red Sox last year, is to return to his old position with the Boston Club. Warner had been manager of the Portland club of the New England League, which disbanded last week. His friends will be glad to see him back again. It was also announced that President Frazer and Manager Harrow have decided to return to Hot Springs as a training camp next year.

Vancouver, B. C. athletic critics believe they have another Howard Drew in Lee Cowan, a high school boy. The youth is only 17 years old, and on a turf track covered 100 yards in 10 1/2 seconds. He is an equally capable distance runner and jumper. George Paris, old-time writer, hopes to bring out the best speed that Cowan possesses.

Fair Vale Met Its Waterloo

Imperials of St. John Defeated Suburbanites Nine to Nought in Seven Innings.

The former stars, who represent Fair Vale on the seasonal amateur, had a bad time of it last evening. Through some miscalculation they invited the Imperials of St. John to be their guests for a short time. The wonderful hospitality of the Fair Vale bunch and accepted, so the game was arranged, but it was a sad time for the suburbs, for the city chaps romped through seven innings and secured nine runs while Fair Vale chalked up a great big goose egg.

Beattie, who twirls for Carleton, in the City League, was on the mound for the Imperials, and he had the suburban bunch eating out of his hand at all stages. Fair Vale tried to stam the food of runs with emergency pitchers, but the Imperials had their batting eyes in operation and all twirlers looked alike to them. The batteries were, for the winners, Beattie and Joyce; for the losers, King, McQuade and Stubbs. George Dobbin judged the play to the satisfaction of everyone.

On Saturday last Fair Vale made 21 runs off the Customs House team and had been in a winning streak. Last night's defeat will not break their hearts, however, and they are still looking for teams to play.

PORTLANDS 4; FT. HOWE TIGERS 2

The Portlanders defeated the Senior Fort Howe Tigers in a fast seven inning game last evening on the Government Grounds. The contest was witnessed by a large crowd. The batteries were, for the winners, McLaughlin and Carlin; for the losers, Peckham and James J. McCallin.

The Portlanders wish a game with any junior team in the city.

for the charge of equanimity for years has been held tennis, and they are prob-ly. No excuse has ever been for the utterly meaningless should there be a tradition the use of such simple and ahable expressions as "noth-ought," or "zero"? Why lines up to thirty, then two at up to fifty, assuming that the naturity is actually the limit im-by the court? Why should pieces be called "deuce"? (A question was asked at the New State tournament, naturally in question, to this effect:

a they call "deuce," does it mean ought to have won the point?") es are answers to all of these than the toughest football game ver played in, and athletes in "rough" lines have borne testit what of the history of the ten-nisms themselves? The toughest is not the much derided "love"

; it has always been used for chubby, innocent cipher, and no has ever been able to explain its
n. One possible and perhaps the solution is offered by a foot in Singer's rare book on "Play-ards," which states that there is old Scotch word, "fuit," meaning hing. Another word of similar d and the same intention is said e of Far Eastern origin, and, as old form of tennis unquestionably ished in the Orient, this word also have been the parent of for "deuce," it is merely the valent of the French "deux," ning that two points have to be in succession to make the game.
An old scoring system, in which followed 30, it was customary to
"a tin" when 45 was reached,
adding one point more for game.
If this score were used, the call ld change to "a due," for in every e of racquets, from time immem-ial, it has been decreed that a tie in one point of game meant the essary of winning two points in cession.

Chief Inspector Wilson stated yesterday, Mr. Wilson, who returned to duty after a brief vacation, is making preparations for greater activity here in the suppression of the illegal traffic in liquor. It is recognized by the inspector and his assistants that it will be necessary to take prompt and strenuous steps to check bootlegging before the holidays text week.

The Power Company
Men Will Parade

Parade is Open to Outside Entries of Floats and Men—Yarmouth to be Represented—Customs Employees Will be Absent.

The New Brunswick Power Company employees have decided to take part in the big general parade on the morning of Soldiers' Joy Day and will also enter a float and on their request the services of the City Cornet Juvenile Band has been given them for the occasion. There are many members of this union and it is expected that every man will be on parade. The parade committee received word with much regret yesterday that the men in the employ of the Dominion customs had decided not to participate in the Joy Day procession. The men held a meeting and came to this decision. It was stated yesterday by one of the customs officials that some twenty-seven men were on their holidays and this was one reason that a good showing could not be made. It might be mentioned that the remaining sixty employees would be a pretty good representation, and even if they entered a float in the parade it would be appreciated.

The Postmen's Union are enthusiastic over the parade and have entered into the affair with a vim and will be ready on the morning of the 14th to parade with a float and will arrive on the steamer Empress next Wednesday afternoon. The parade committee are open to receive floats or delegations of men from any part of the province as the parade is open and is in honor of the New Brunswick returned soldiers. It is not expected that the soldiers will parade as it is a procession for them to look at as they are the guests of the City of St. John on that day. There are still a large number of floats that are to enter the parade and the parade committee have not received any notification of the same. It is important that the secretary should be notified, given the number of decorated floats, etc., and some idea how many men are to turn out so that the plans placing the different bodies in sections can be carried out. The brass band representatives will meet the secretary this evening in the Standard office at eight o'clock to draw for positions in the parade and also receive instructions regarding their second arrangement. The parade committee meets tomorrow evening at eight o'clock to decide on marshals' prizes and other important matters.

The Boy Scouts will be out in force with their bugle band and will also have a float. A small committee yesterday morning interviewed the heads of the orphanages, Catholic and Protestant, in the city and asked their co-operation in having the children of their institutions take part in the greeting to the Prince of Wales. The plan is to have them form a cordon along the south side of King Street and sing a patriotic greeting when His Royal Highness passes by. It is hoped to secure a donation of about 500 small flags for the youngsters to wave. Those in charge of the orphanages expressed approval of the idea and will help in its execution.

The School Children. The capacity of the High School auditorium was taxed yesterday morning at the rehearsal of the school children for the greeting to the Prince of Wales. There was a distinct improvement in the singing. Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 D. Arnold Fox was in La Tour School where the west side children had a practice under his direction. There will be another rehearsal on Friday at 10 a. m. in the High School.

26th Battalion Veterans. A meeting of all those who served with the 26th Battalion prior to the armistice has been called for 8 o'clock on Friday evening in the armory. The purpose is to decide upon what part the old 26th will play in connection with the visit of the Prince of Wales. The parade committee desire to urge all intending paraders or float exhibitors to observe as closely as possible the splendid patriotic spirit of the occasion and not mar the effect of their offering with obvious advertising get-ups.

Miss Grace Kuhnberg and Miss Catherine McAvity have appointed 10:30 o'clock on Friday morning for the first rehearsal of the pageant or allegory to be enacted before the Prince in connection with the public school chorus on his arrival at the dock. Ten maidens selected for their aptness in solo dancing have been chosen to present this tribute from the province of Canada.

This afternoon at the usual hour the heads of the various committees having the celebration activities in hand will hold another important meeting and all leading committee men are expected to be present.

CRASHED INTO GATE. An auto crashed through the gate at the Union Station last night just as the Boatmen's train had passed the crossing. The car was going towards the North End. The gate was somewhat damaged but there was no injury to the auto.

Y. W. P. A. Meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. Executive at 7. G. W. V. A. Rooms. Final arrangements for Soldiers' Joy Day and Visit of the Prince of Wales.

Will Load at Parraboro. The schooner E. Mayfield cleared yesterday for Parraboro, where she will load lumber for a coastal port.

Predicts Advance
in Price of Shoes

Local Dealer Looks for Considerable Advance During Next Few Months Unless U. S. Government Gets After Chicago Packers.

A local shoe man predicts that the price of shoes will advance considerably during the next few months, unless the United States government gets after the Chicago packers who are now said to have a monopoly of the leather market. One Ontario manufacturer has predicted an increase of $4.00 in the price of shoes, and says that leather, while hides cost 24 to 26 cents. On July 1st, 1919, leather cost 84 to 88 cents, and hides from 60 cents. That is the price of leather in a year advanced 82 per cent, while in the same time the price of hides advanced 140 per cent. In Great Britain prices of leather are very much lower than in Canada or the United States, owing, it is said, to the fact that the English buyers acquired considerable quantities of leather before the rise in prices. Up to recently Canada has been exporting leather, owing to the high prices paid by concerns controlled by the Chicago packers, but the other day in view of the situation threatening the boot and shoe trade an order in council was passed prohibiting the exportation of hides from Canada unless further notice. The government has also called a conference of parties interested with a view to seeing if some action may not be taken to prevent the threatened increase in prices of shoes, which are now sufficiently outrageous considering the quality.

St. John And The Commission Gov't

Moncton Transcript in Article Tells What Was Expected Here With Commission Gov't and What Has Happened to Loyalist City.

(Moncton Transcript.) St. John's motto, "Fortunate is the city whose walls are now arising," might be appropriated by Moncton this year. So far this year building permits have been issued in St. John for work amounting to less than $100,000, and most of that has been for alterations or repairs. St. John has had to look to her laurels. If building activity in Moncton should continue at its present rate, this city will soon be challenging St. John's position as the commercial metropolis of the Province.

When St. John adopted the commission form of government five years ago a high spirit of optimism prevailed among its people, and everybody was busy demonstrating how inevitable it was that the Loyalist city with an American form of government should in a few years or less have a population of 100,000, increasing rapidly. Coincident with the adoption of commission government St. John had a real estate boom, or at any rate it advertised extensively a real estate boom. At its present rate, this city will be interested in the city, but little was put into new building construction, and the ultimate effect was very much as if the city had tried to lift itself by its boot-strap, or worse, because values being increased the landlords obtained higher rents and the commission government more taxes.

Now commission form of government, which was to accomplish wonders, does not appear to have a friend to defend it against the angry critics who write to the local press, and there are many complaints about the housing conditions in the city. Not only are complaints made that inordinate rents are charged for poor accommodations, but there is a serious shortage of dwelling houses, especially for men with moderate salaries and wage earners. The private landlords showing little disposition to do anything to improve the situation, the commission government has been appealed to, and it is now moving slowly in the matter, and will endeavor to take advantage of the Dominion loan for house building. Our citizens who have been complaining of the delay in getting down to actual construction work under the Dominion Housing scheme may derive some comfort from the reflection that in St. John, with a much more serious shortage of dwellings, and with a form of government specially designed to deal with civic problems with promptitude and despatch, they have not yet managed to arrive at the point of calling for tenders—much less start construction work as has been done in Moncton.

GOOD CHANCE FOR THE FISHERMEN Suggested They Adopt the German Method of Putting up Sardines for the Market—Cure Small, Herring and Sell Them as Anchovies.

In view of the difficulties experienced by sardine fishermen, who have little encouragement to fish this summer, surprise is expressed in some quarters that the fishermen do not adopt the German method of putting up sardines, and sell them as anchovies at high prices. But it is a pretty open secret now. It is very simple and can be practiced by any fisherman who knows anything about salting fish. It merely consists in packing sardine herring in a mixture of salt and spices, the formulae for which is well known.

The Norwegians now do a big business in small herring or bristlings packed by this method in small packages.
